ESTATE of Carl Wilhelm Georg Eduard Schipper, generally known as Charles Schipper, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the county of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, executors of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the eleventh day of October, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscribers.

CHARLES T. BINGHAM,
GUSTAV SCHIPPER,
10 17 9 oaw tu Executors.

ESTATE of William H. Brower, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, executors of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the fourteenth day of November, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscribers.

SARAH J. BROWER,
JOHN L. BROWER,
11 21 9 oaw tu Executors.

L. L. Manning & Son,
STEAM
GRANITE WORKS,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats, Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 6c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaBue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

TIMOTHY BROWN.

Oh, Timothy Brown was a terrible scamp,
And lessons he voted a bore;
French, grammar, geography, history, sums,
He vowed he'd not learn any more.
At the end of a year he knew nothing at all
About anything under the sun.—
French, grammar, geography, history, sums,
He'd forgotten them every one.

One day a rich uncle said, "Timothy Brown,
I'll ask you a question or two.
If I'm forty-five, and you're younger than I,
How much am I older than you?"
Well, Timothy Brown he thought for a while,
And at last he discovered this fact,
That he hadn't a notion how long he'd been born,
And didn't know how to subtract.

"Come, when is your birthday? I'll give you a tip,"
Said his uncle, and patted his pate,
But Timothy Brown burst into tears,
He couldn't remember the date!
That's the end of the story of Timothy Brown,—
A story that's perfectly true.
And perhaps there's a moral for no one at all,
And perhaps there's a moral for you!

—Eric Parker, in St. Nicholas.

WHERE BUBBLES GO

Elsie was blowing bubbles at the open window. She had a big bowl of pretty white soapsuds and a new bubble pipe, which was a great success. A soft wind was blowing, and Elsie would lean out of the window and watch the bubbles as they swayed and swirled at the end of the pipe. Then she would give it a little shake, and the big bubbles would go swiftly away on the wings of the wind, up, up, in the air, so high that Elsie lost sight of them altogether.

At last she grew tired of this pastime and knelt down on the floor by the big window and leaned her curly head on her arms to watch the big white clouds that passed over the bright blue sky like a flock of woolly sheep.

Something else was floating up in the air now, now out of the soft clouds, as if a part of them. Elsie wondered what it could be, for it glistened and shone as the light struck it, and it seemed to turn and float away from the clouds right in her direction.

"Why, I do believe its one of my big bubbles!" she cried, as it floated over the sill where she was still kneeling.

But when she looked at it more closely, Elsie was not sure of it at all, for at the bottom of the thin, shining globe there swung a tiny, silken basket (just as she had seen on big balloons), and in this basket was seated the wee form of a beautiful creature no larger or heavier than a butterfly. Indeed, at first, Elsie thought it was a queer butterfly but as she looked with wonder at its glistening wings, the tiny creature raised its head, and Elsie had no further doubts. She thought at once that it was a fairy, and she was sure of it as soon as it began to speak.

"Good-day," said the fairy in a silvery little voice.

"Howdy," replied Elsie, rather shyly, for she was a little doubtful about the proper way of carrying on a conversation with a real fairy.

"I have come to thank you for the pretty bubbles," said the fairy, as she dropped a tiny golden anchor on the window sill that her bubble car might remain still while she talked. "I was nearly out of bubbles when at least a dozen fine ones were wafted in, so I took the biggest for my car, and here I am."

"I'm glad you liked them, I'm sure," said Elsie, politely, "but would you mind telling me where you live?"

"Why, in Bubble Land, of course," said the fairy, rather sharply. "Do you mean to tell me that you never heard of such a place before?"

Elsie was a little frightened as she saw the tiny frown on the fairy's face, so she only shook her head in reply.

"Well, I must say I am astonished," said the fairy in a reproachful tone. "Where did you suppose the bubbles went to?"

"I never thought about it at all," replied Elsie, plucking up courage as she saw the fairy regain her good humor. "Some of them just bursted before they reached the window sill, and the others floated up in the air."

"Well, well," said the fairy; "so you never suspected what became of all the bubbles that you and your friends send out into the world? And to think I came to thank you, when all the time you had no idea that you were doing me a favor! But that makes no difference," she hastened to add, as she saw the sorrowful look on Elsie's face. "I am very thankful, all the same, and to prove it, if you wish, I will take you back with me to Bubble Land and show you what good use I have made of your fine, big bubbles."

And before Elsie had a chance to say a word the fairy had touched her lightly on the arm and Elsie found herself seated in the tiny car without feeling the least bit crowded.

What was stranger still, she did not feel the least fear as the fairy drew up the golden anchor and the tiny car began to sway and move out over the window sill into the soft summer air.

Elsie had often watched people ascend in big balloons, and had shivered at the thought of floating so high above the earth, yet here she was in a tiny bubble balloon, so thin and frail that she could see the blue sky through its transparent sides.

"It is not very far," said the fairy, as the breeze carried them higher and higher in the air, "only a few hundred miles away." But Elsie thought that was pretty far, and wondered if she would get back in time for supper and what her mother would say about her taking such a trip without permission.

To divert her thoughts from this unpleasant subject Elsie watched the fairy with interest as she guided their frail car through the cloud-mists that surrounded them. She glanced down at the earth so far below, and wished some of her little friends could see her now as he sat beside the tiny figure that was busily attending to the ropes as fine as cobweb that bound their car to the bubble, which reflected every hue of sky and land.

"Maybe it's all a dream," she thought, remembering other dreams that had seemed as real. But no, there was the fairy close beside her, and she could feel the soft breeze fanning her cheek as they floated on. And then, all of a sudden, before her eyes there dawned a scene of such strange beauty that Elsie cried out in wonder and delight.

The bubble car had halted at the window of a shining crystal palace that shone suddenly out of the cloud-mist like a star. This palace was lighted by hundreds of flashing colored lights which were covered with bubble globes of transparent splendor.

More bubble cars than she could count were floating up to the palace windows, and gayly dressed fairies were alighting with so much chatter and laughter that Elsie grew shy again and wondered what she would do in that strange and noisy company. But the fairy was busily drawing up their tiny anchor and preparing for their homeward voyage.

(Elsie saw that it was a fairy).

"I have had a lovely time," sighed Elsie contentedly, "only I would have loved to peep into that palace and see what was going on."

"That cannot be," smiled the fairy as they floated slowly away from the flashing lights of the palace. "Indeed, you are the first mortal that has ever visited Bubble Land, and only my gratitude led me to take you to our shores. It is only on one condition that a mortal may join in our fairy sports, and that, I fear, can never be fulfilled."

"Tell me what it is," said Elsie eagerly, hoping it might be in her power to fulfill it.

"It is," answered the fairy, with the same smile, "on condition that the mortal can blow a thousand bubbles with one single drop of water. When this feat has been achieved we will welcome him to our court and teach him the secrets of our power."

"I guess I won't try," thought Elsie, giving up all hopes of ever seeing the inside of the Crystal Palace.

She was just about to tell the fairy that not even the best bubble-blower in existence could manage such a feat when their car bumped into something hard and Elsie held her breath in terror. Down, down they dropped at a terrible rate of speed, and Elsie shut her eyes and waited in fear and trembling for what would happen next. She wanted to pray, but she could think of nothing but "Now I lay me down to sleep," which did not seem the thing at all for the occasion. She called wildly to the fairy, but there was no reply, and the car swayed more and more, till it was all that she could do to keep her seat and another and then another and then another. "The bubble must be melting," she thought, "I must jump for my life."

She called up all her courage and prepared for the fatal leap, when her outstretched hand struck something with sudden force, and to her surprise and delight she found that it was the window-sill of her room.

She crept in and gave a long sigh of relief, as she found herself again kneeling on the floor with the bubble-pipe beside her, just as she had been when the fairy first appeared.

"Thank goodness, I got here all right," she thought, "but what has become of the fairy?" Then a sudden thought struck her, and she understood it all.

"It was the naughty Pixies," she said to herself. "They pierced our bubble-car, and, of course, the fairy had to fly away. But I am awfully lucky to get out of it without a scratch, and I guess I won't try it again; no, not even if I blew the thousand bubbles and could join their sports in the Crystal Palace." And Elsie rubbed her eyes and stretched her arms that were tired from the strain of holding on so long, then ran down to tell her mother about it.

The Secrets of P'aps.

Alice expected her aunt on the train. She failed to appear, but Alice said: "P'aps she'll come."

"Oh, no," said her aunt; "she can't for the train has come."

But Alice said: "P'aps she'll come, p'aps she'll come. Aunt Abbie, you don't know about p'aps."

He Knew That One.

A little fellow who has not, as yet, succeeded in learning the name of the three daily meals, came down to breakfast the other morning, when his mamma said:

"Well, Rollo, what meal is this."

"Oatmeal," was the confident reply.

1010

THE POSSESSION of a policy of Life Insurance in creates a sense of security in the household. The protection which it affords endures in spite of possible hard times or financial reverses.

The Prudential

WRITE FOR PARTICULARS .....

Home Office Newark, N. J. The Prudential Insurance Co. of AMERICA.

JOHN F. DRYDEN, President. LESLIE D. WARD, Vice-President.
EDGAR B. WARD, 2d V. P. & Counsel. FORREST F. DRYDEN, Secretary.
J. E. WOODLAND, Sup't., E. Front St. & Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

EVERYTHING FOR CHRISTMAS.

Shoppers Will Find Variety and Quality at Boehm's Store.

The Christmas shoppers have begun their annual invasion of I. H. Boehm's big double stores on West Front street, at the head of Somerset street. But Mr. Boehm is prepared for them. In fact, he has been preparing for them months in advance. Careful and judicious purchases were made and he is enabled to show the public of Plainfield such a display of holiday gifts that has never before been equalled. The large show windows, tastefully decorated, give only a hint of what is to be found inside. To the little folk, the basement is the centre of attraction. There is to be found a wonderful collection of the newst toys and games and everything to please the children. Furs make a decidedly appropriate Christmas gift. A great variety of them are to be found upstairs, together with the most complete display of women's and children's garments, wraps, etc , ever seen in Plainfield. A host of dainty articles, just the thing for Christmas, are to be seen in crockery, porcelain and lamps. Some are useful, some ornamental, but all eminently satisfactory in price and appearance. Mr. Boehm's entire stock is far superior to that of past years and is being sold at prices that are very moderate.

Trolley Car Disabled.

Car No. 14, of the street railway, running on the Front street line, was disabled this morning on West Front street, near Washington avenue. There was something wrong with the mechanical part beneath the car, and it was stalled for sometime before it could be repaired so as to continue its journey.

Broke His Leg.

Harry W. Leek, of 538 East Second street, who is employed as a clerk at Jed Smalley's Crescent market, fell from the delivery wagon this morning. His leg caught in the wheel and was broken. Drs. Carman and Hedges attended him.

—To be shaved at Pride's, 94 Somerset street, is one of the greatest pleasures of life. He has a modern shop with everything new and up to-date. Give him a trial.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even set up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong I can say too much in it praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular size, 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

What Can You Do With It?

This is a question we can answer better after we have seen the garment you want dyed. When our wagon is in your neighborhood, let it bring your goods to the store and then, at your convenience, come in and let us tell you just what we can do and the cost. Don't be prejudiced against dyeing. Ofttimes you can't tell the goods from new.

HILLIER & CO.,
129 West Front Street,
Opposite Crosby & Hill's. 'Phone 851.

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS THAT PLAINFIELDERS MAY WITNESS.

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World.

Stephen C. Foster's dear old song, "The Old Folks at Home," or as it is more familiarly known, "Way Down Upon the Suwanee River," is the source from which the late William C. Sterling has drawn the theme and title for the new comedy drama, "On the Suwanee River," which comes to Music Hall tonight. The story tells the old familiar tale of mortgaged estates, love, intrigue, and the final downfall of villiany; but it is the old story in new language and new situations. Many pathetic and thrilling scenes are said to occur in the four acts of the play, one of the most dramatic of which is the scene where the blind girl is about to cross a rustic bridge spanning a deep ravine. A portion of the bridge has been removed to make a death-trap for her. As she approaches the opening, the old refrain of "Suwanee River" comes floating through the air from a band of plantation singers in the distance. The girl's progress is arrested on the very brink of the chasm. She stops, listens for a moment, and turning slowly, starts in the direction from which the singing comes.

* * * * *

Those who like a stirring drama of today should go to Music Hall, Thursday night when Lincoln J. Carter's great spectacular production, "The Heart of Chicago" will be shown for the first time in this city. Like all of its kind it tells an intense story not only more emphatically and artistically. It has been cleverly conceived and well written. The author has been particularly fortunate in his comedy scenes and has furnished some particularly bright lines to those who are entrusted with the task of relieving tension of wrought up nerves and emotion of the audience. It is in its wonderful scenery that the great strength of the play is discovered, however. The author who is unquestionably the cleverest man in America at devising strong scenic surprises, has surpassed himself in his latest efforts and has succeeded in constructing some astonishingly real stage pictures.

Car Was Balky.

One of the old dilapidated trolley cars running on the Somerset street line raised a disturbance yesterday afternoon near the corner of Front street and Somerset. The car for several minutes was unable to climb the slight grade and the front wheels made revolutions at the rate of about a hundred a minute without touching the tracks. The car was finally induced to proceed on its journey and the passengers recovered their normal condition.

Bible Conference Subject.

The second regular meeting of the Bible conference, which will be held tonight in Y. M. C. A. hall, conducted by Don G. Shelton, will have as its subject "The View of the Person and Work of Jesus Christ Given in the Epistle to the Ephesians."

Medical Cases at Hospital.

Another medical case was taken to Muhlenberg Hospital yesterday in the ambulance. At present there are a number of these private cases being treated at this institution.

To Cure Constipation in One Week
To Purify the Blood in One Week
To Strengthen Nerves in One Week
To Cure Sick Headache in One Day

Take Cleveland's Celery Compound Tea, 25c. Trial size free. It it fails to cure your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary corner Park and North avenues.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—The Christian Endeavor Society of Warren chapel will hold a meeting of special interest this evening.

—Tomorrow evening at the meeting of Lucetta Council, Daughters of Liberty, there will be an election of officers.

—Tomorrow afternoon the Sunshine Mission Band of the Crescent Avenue church will hold its regular meeting at 4 o'clock.

—The Bible Class that meets at the Crescent Avenue church Wednesday evenings will be omitted this week on account of the Bible Conference.

—Just received a large shipment of Mill Pond oysters. They are the finest. We still handle the Blue Point stock for our half-shells. Rogers.

—A source of attraction for several days in the show window of John Powers' drug store, has been six bull pups. They are greatly admired by all.

—Alex. Lusardi, of 211 West Front street, has on sale a full line of all kinds of choice fruit. He has just received a car load of nuts and grapes for the holidays.

—If you want your Christmas presents free take your laundry to City Steam and Hand Laundry, 19 Somerset street and receive trading stamps. They do good work.

—The store of J. Hervy Doane is full of beautiful new designs in jewelry. He also has a special bargain in a diamond 3-4x1-16 for $45. Opals (selected) in combinations with diamonds, lace pins in solid gold at remarkably low prices.

NEW OFFICERS CHOSEN.

Lodges and Camera Club Elect Their Leaders for the Ensuing Year.

The annual election of officers of Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum, was held last evening with this result: Regent, Herbert Buxston; vice regent, W. K. Browning; orator, Rev. E. M. Rodman; past regent, A. I. Littell; secretary, Fred. J. Pope; treasurer, D. W. Littell; collector, Eliot Burr; chaplain, Rev. Edward Love; guide, E. T. VanWinkle; warden, W. S. Lowry; sentry, A. W. Winckler; trustee, one year, A. W. Rand; medical examiners, G. W. Endicott, M. D., O. L. Jenkins, M. D.; representative to grand council, L. B. Bromfield. The installation will be held at the first meeting in January. Besides the election of officers one application for membership was received. After the election and lodge business had been transacted the members were regaled with refreshments.

The annual meeting of the Plainfield Camera Club was held last evening when the following officers were elected: President, Walter Freeman; vice-president, J. Hervey Doane; secretary and treasurer, Harry Coward; board of directors, Asa Randolph, C. T. Coon and G. H. Fountain. This board, together with the officers, compose the executive council of the club. A special committee, of which G. H. Fountain is the chairman, was appointed to make alterations in the skylight so that better results would be attained. The club was reported to be in the best of condition, and financially doing well.

THREE TRAINS IN A WRECK.

Fatal Accident on the Pennsylvania Railroad, Two Trainmen Killed Outright and a Third Mortally Injured.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Princeton, Dec. 12—A serious wreck took place shortly after 4 o'clock this morning on the main line of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Schalk's station, just east of Plainsboro and six miles from this place. Three freight trains were piled together and the wreckage blocked all the four tracks of the line for hours.

Two trainmen were killed and one was mortally injured. The dead are:

Charles Spiegler, engineer.
John E. Heinecke, fireman.

The man who was mortally injured was Henry Zognaum, a brakeman, of Long avenue, Elizabeth. He was scalded by steam, aad was taken to the hospital in New Brunswick.

City Election Bills.

All election bills against the city must be in the hands of City Clerk MacMurray by Thursday to ensure payment at the next meeting of the Common Council.

Horace Martin, Jr., of Jackson avenue, has taken a trial position in a Philadelphia music store.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

HOW TO WEAR SHOES

CHARACTER LEARNED BY MEANS OF THE FOOTGEAR.

This Refers to Women But It Will No Doubt Apply to Men As Well—The Man Who Is Patiently Looking for The Ideal Girl.

"It gets me," said the man, "to know why women and girls are not more particular about the way they dress their feet. If they knew how much people noticed them, they would take more pains in buying their shoes than they do in buying their gowns. Every one knows that the man is more particular about the way he keeps his boots and shoes than a woman. As for me, the woman I marry must have pretty, well-dressed feet. I have never found any one yet who came up to my standard of excellence, and that's why I'm not married, I suppose.

"I did think I had found her once. I fell in love with one foot. That was where I made the mistake. It was some kind of an art exhibition. There was a screen at the door from one room to another, which was a few steps higher, and happening to look across the room, I saw below that screen the daintiest, most ladylike-looking foot, slender and delicate and refined, and wearing just the right kind of a shoe for that occasion—not a great heavy walking boot, and not a dancing shoe, but just right. Of course, you don't expect me to tell you just what it was. I am not in the shoe business, but I know when a girl wears a shoe that is in good taste.

"This foot that I fell in love with I saw just for an instant as the woman to whom it belonged drew it up to the other step and the screen hid her so that I hadn't the slightest idea who she was, young or old, hideous or beautiful. But I made up my mind I would find out. But you know how it is in a room filled with people—it is not always easy to get across it, especially if all your friends are there. By the time I reached the screen I almost gave up my foot for lost. You can't see a woman's foot in these long skirts she wears unless she is on the street. I suppose my divinity must have raised her dress as she went up the steps.

"I did find her after a time, but I had made a mistake. A man shouldn't fall in love with less than two feet, and he should see how they walk. There is everything in the way a woman walks. The woman whose foot I had admired—her feet were beautiful, too—walked in a listless way. She drew one foot after the other, languidly. That might mean that she was selfish, indolent, delicate or a number of other things. Just notice women who walk that way and see if I am not right.

"Then notice the woman who walks not exactly with a heavy step, but comes down flatfooted every time. She would make a good business manager, and she might know how to manage a housefull of servants, but she is too aggressive to be a comfortable person to get along with. It is all right for a woman to have opinions of her own; I like to see a woman who knows her own mind, and I would rather enjoy having her look after my ideas if she cared to, but you don't like to be knocked over even with ideas.

"Then there is the woman who has rather a heavy dragging step. That woman is sure to have round shoulders and stoop when she walks. She has to take time to think when she answers, and it takes her a long time to see a joke. She has large feet, and her shoes do not fit trimly. That is not the kind of woman I care to know. Then there is the woman who shakes the room when she walks. She may not be over plump, and she is very likely cheerful and jolly. You like her, but her chubby feet—they are sure to be short and broad—are not for you. She is a nice kind of wife for some other man, and you like to go and take dinner with him occasionally when you are in the mood for it, but she is not the ideal woman.

"The ideal always wears trim, suitable shoes, and she walks just as a woman who has the ideal feet, ideally dressed, should. She is sure to have rather slender feet that look flexible and make you think somehow of a pretty slender hand well gloved. Her shoes always fit her like a glove, anyway. She does not wear great mannish shoes around the street all the time because they are said to be fashionable. She only wears those with a heavy, rough walking suit. For the street she has a medium weight, trim-looking boot, and for the house she wears pretty, soft, thin ones or pretty slippers, anything, according to the occasion. There are times and seasons for all kinds of boots, shoes and slippers.

"I was on the Broadway car down near the Battery the other day when a plainly dressed woman was crossing the street. When I saw her first every one in the car, men and women, were looking at her. What was the trouble, do you suppose? She was holding up her skirts a little, and so exhibited a pair of what do you call 'em, with high heels and a buckle in front?—Louis Quinze slippers, isn't it?

"Now those are the prettiest thing a woman with a pretty foot can wear in an appropriate place, but they were out of place down there, and there was not a soul in the car that didn't notice them, and there was nothing about the woman otherwise to attract attention. I remember seeing a woman wearing low slippers on Fifth avenue not long ago, and every one who passed turned to look at her.

"My ideal girl wouldn't think of wearing a pair of shoes inappropriately. Her shoes always fit her so that she walks easily and well, with a rather quick, light step, and moves over the ground easily without jerkiness. You know she is a nice girl to get along with. She goes through life as smoothly and pleasantly as she walks. But she is not monotonous; you know that by her quick lightness. She always smiles at you and has a light answer ready whatever you say.

"I am looking for her and I shall find her some day. But it is surprising how quickly most women can be cut off the list when you have shoes and their concomitants as a test. You can find girls with pretty and well-dressed feet, but they are rare, and until I find the one you may put me down for a bachelor."—N. Y. Times.

Librarian's Report for Nov., 1899.

Vols. on Accession-Book, Oct. 31, 1899.	16,611
" added by Gift	49
" " " binding	15
" now in Library	16,674
" in Babcock Collection, Oct. 31, 1899.	1,903
" added by purchase	135
" " " binding	22
" now in Babcock Collection	2,060
Total number in Library	18,734
Number of card holders, Oct. 31, 1899	5,727
" " " registered during the month	53
Total number of reg. borrowers	5,780

HOME CIRCULATION.

F	Fiction	1,328
J	Juvenile	682
B	Biography	138
100	Philosophy	31
200	Religion, Mythology	49
300	Sociology	63
400	Philology	6
500	Natural Science	87
600	Useful Arts, including medicine	52
700	Fine Arts	68
800	Literature	196
910-919	Description, Travel	143
900	History	306
000	General Works, Periodicals, etc	18
	Total circulation	3,137

Of this number there were circulated through special libraries:

Potter Press Works	95
Scott Press Works	6
	70
Delivery Stations.
Y. M. C. A.	37
Hope Chapel	6
	43
Special Collections, Circulation, Babcock	147
Number of Circulating Days	25
Largest Circulation in One Day	235
Smallest " " "	53
Daily Average Circulation	125
Number of Visitors to the Building	3,787
" " Sunday Visitors, (included in above)	164

Gifts during the month:

Nov. 1, 3 and 13, from J. W. Murray, U. S. War Department, official records of rebellion.
Nov. 6, from Rev. S. P. Simpson, 32 vs.
Nov. 7, from J. E. Tracy, hist. of Plimoth plantation, by W. Bradford.
Nov. 8, from Univ. of State of N. Y., 81st annual report.
Nov. 8, from U. S. Geol. Survey, through C. M. Fowler, 3 vs.
Nov. 9, from I. Pitman & Sons, complete phonographic instructor.
Nov. 13, from U. S. Congress, through C. N. Fowler, Parliamentary precededents.
Nov. 16, from L. B. Woolston, hist. of Union county, by F. W. Ricord.
Nov. 17, from Mrs. G. D. Patten, McClure's Magazine, 4 vs. given undound.

EMMA L. ADAMS, Librarian.
per S. P.

Volcanic Eruptions

Are grand, but Skin Eruptions rob life of joy. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, cures them; also Old, Running and Fever Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Felons, Corns, Warts, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Chapped hands, Chilblains. Best Pile Cure on earth. Drives out Pains and Aches. Only 25 cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

—Press want ads bring results.

Advertised Letters.

Plainfield, N. J., Dec. 11, 1899.

Bernard, Mr Charles
Carter, Mrs Jennie
Clark, Mrs I N
Cort, Mrs John
Emery, Mrs David
Evans, Mable
Herbert Jr, Mr Jas. N
Kenney, Mr Thomas
Newstub, Mrs F
Poach, Miss Rosa
Risberg, Mr N E 2
VanDeventer, Mrs Caroline
Vincent, Mr A G

E. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

GEO. W. COLE,
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,
200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

DIED.

MINER—In this city, December 11th, 1899, Frederick J. Miner, in his 33d year.
Funeral from his late residence, 426 West Front street, Wednesday morning, Dec. 13th, at 8:30 o'clock, and from St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock.

PURDY—In this city, Monday, Dec. 11, 1899, Clarence B. Purdy, aged 33 years.
Funeral services at his late residence, 187 Martine avenue, Thursday, Dec. 14, at 2:30 p. m.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

PLEASANT furnished rooms with board. Mrs. J. B. Platt, 431 West Sixth street. 12 11 2

PANT operators wanted; none but experienced hands need apply. C. Schepflin, 320 W. Front St. 12 12 eod 3

YOUNG man wants situation as coachman; understands horses; references. G. P., care Press. 12 12 5

FAMILY washing wanted at home by first-class colored laundress. Apply J. H. Frisby, Mail Messenger. 12 12 3

LOST—Black and white setter bitch 3 months old. Return to 430 West Front St. Reward.

ANYONE having a cross, ugly dog can find a good home for him by addressing Dog, care Press.

WANTED—Girl for general housework; references. Apply 229 E. 5th St

THREE pleasant convenient rooms to let for light housekeeping. 404 Third street, corner Central avenue. 12 11 11

TO LET—517 East Second street, double house, $9 and $8 a side. Mulford, broker. 12 11 2

BICYCLE for sale cheap. 46 Lincoln place 12 11 4

GIRL WANTED for general housework. 917 Watchung avenue. 12 11 2

SITUATION wanted by reliable man; 12 years' experience in grocery and other business. Dilts, 46 Lincoln place. 12 11 3

WANTED—Good horse for his keep this winter. Address Horse, care Press. 12 11 3

GIRL WANTS situation at general housework; has reference. Address C. M., care Press. 12 11 2

VERY Fine Honey for sale, 15c. lb. P. C. Johnson, Plainfield avenue. 12 11 2

LARGE, well heated room with excellent board. 62 Sandford avenue. 12 6 6

HATS TRIMMED FREE OF CHARGE.

Bonn's
140 WEST FRONT ST.

SHORT BACK SAILOR HATS, French Felt, 79c.

French Grey Flannel Waists, $1.89.

Lined throughout, French back, new shape, stock collar and dress cuff—four brass buttons down front, colors are French grey and brown, real value is 2,98. This special lot at 1.89.

THE PROBLEM SOLVED
: FURNITURE :
Buy All Your Holiday Gifts at
POWLISON & JONES,
: FURNITURE :
TELEPHONE 703. 149 and 151 East Front Street.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use
REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT,
Made only by
T. S. ARMSTRONG. THE APOTHECARY,
At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

7-ROOM house to let. Inquire 22 Craig place. 11 28 tf

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 24

FURNISHED rooms to let. 322 East 5th St. 12 8 5

WANTED—Walnut trees. J. D. Loizeaux, 640 North Ave. 12 2 12

HELP WANTED — Machinists, lathe and planer hands; good men can find steady job and good wages. Address P. O. Box 108, Cincinnati, Ohio. 12 8 12

SPECIAL!!
HAIR DRESSING, SHAMPOOING, MANICURING.
Until after the Holiday Season
MISS HOLMES,
Graduate of the New York School of Hair Dressing and Dermatology,
will make special rates for hair dressing in all the latest styles for street and evening; at parlors 75c. At ladies' residences by appointment. Shampooing or Facial Massage and steaming (for eradicating imperfections of the skin) 75c. Manicuring 50c.
440 W. FRONT ST.

MASSAGE
VAPOR BATHS
Physical and Health Culture
CORNS REMOVED 25c.
M. V. STICKLE, 149 East Fifth St.

STATIONERY and TOYS.
We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles for the Holiday trade.
CHRISTMAS CARDS and CALENDARS.
We make a specialty of
FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.
High Grade Cigars.
Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.
B. W. HAND,
205 W. Front Street.

CAMERAS
—AND—
Photographic Supplies.
SPALDING'S
Golf and Sporting Goods
Phonographs and Gramophones.
GEO. W. WRENNICK,
133 North Ave.

...EMERY'S...
PLEASURE GARDEN
(SCOTCH PLAINS.)
Thursday Evening, December 21st
FIRST
GRAND BALL
—OF THE—
Prospect Social Club.
Music by Prof. O'Reilly.
TICKETS - - - - 25 Cents.
The Enclosed Pavilion is for rent for Balls, Parties, etc., at Reasonable Rates.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.
TELEPHONE 722.
MAZE EDWARDS, - Lessee and Manager.
Reserved Seat Tickets at Box Office, which is open daily from 9. m.

Tuesday Night, Dec. 12th.
A Pure Heart Story
"On the Suwanee River."
A Play like the song will live forever.
NEW MUSIC
ALL SPECIAL SCENERY.
NEW COON SONGS.
MISS STELLA MAYHEW,
As "AUNT LINDY,"
The Greatest Exponent of the Southern Darkey Ever Portrayed.
—Prices—25c, 35c, 50c and 75c.—

Thursday Night, Dec. 14.
Lincoln J. Carter's Great Spectacular Production.
"The Heart of Chicago."
Elegant Special Scenery.
Wonderful Mechanical Devices.
Mysterious Electrical Effects.
A Vivid Picture of the Great Fire.
See The Marvelous Approaching Train.
ANOTHER BIG SUCCESS.
A POWERFUL COMPANY,
Introducing a splendid line of HIGH-CLASS SPECIALTIES.
PRICES—25c, 35c, 50c and 75c.

"ISN'T IT TOO CUTE FOR ANYTHING!"
So runs the chorus of feminine praise over this, that or the other pretty brooch in our fine collection. Husband, father, brother, beau—here's the fit thing! The price-range is $2.50 to $25.00—and there never was better choosing in pretty jewelry. You can make no mistake in picking with your eyes shut—but best come while the selection is complete.
Large Solid Silver Nethersole Bracelets, - - - - 75c
Solid Silver Brush and Comb, - $2.50
In a silk-lined case.
COLLIER, Jeweler,
103 Park Ave.
Established 1869.

OUR OYSTERS
ARE THE
---FINEST---
ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street,
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,
WATCH THIS SPACE.

CHAS. L. FOROE.
Architect and Superintendent.
208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 21 tf

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:16 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:34 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:34 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair, Colder Tonight, Fair and Comparatively Colder Thursday and Friday.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

FIRST WIFE STEPS IN.

Mrs. Sarah Pangborn Claims a Fortune After Years.

IT READS LIKE FICTION

WAS WINFIELD SCOTT ALLEN REAL STEPHEN PANGBORN?

Sensational Developments in Connection With a Valuable Estate in Williamsport, Pa. —Alleged Double Life Led by a Former Resident of Plainfield.

In a modest little cottage on Lake street, one of a number that forms a small settlement south of Watchung avenue, near Netherwood, there lives an aged woman, grey-haired and wrinkled, who has laid claim to one of the largest estates in the city of Williamsport, Pa., and will figure in one of the most sensational lawsuits that has ever been held in the courts of Lycoming county, Pennsylvania. Mrs. Sarah Pangborn, now living in penury with her daughter, declares that her husband, Stephen Pangborn, and Winfield Scott Allen, a prominent and wealthy business man of Williamsport, were one and the same person.

Mrs. Pangborn and her daughter, now Mrs. Louis Miller, formerly Mrs. Charles M. Perrine, have instituted a suit through their attorneys, Isaac P. Runyon, of this city, and James O. Clark, of Westfield, to secure their alleged rights in the case. Winfield Scott Allen left a supposed wife and three children in Williamsport, who lay claim to the estate. Part of the real estate has been disposed of since the death of Mr. Allen and is now held principally by the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad.

Only the oldest citizens of Plainfield will remember old Stephen Pangborn who kept a general store on Chatham street, nearly half a century ago. He prospered and accumulated a fair estate. There were ten children in the family. One of the sons was named Stephen after the father.

Young Stephen fell in love with Miss Sarah Giles, the daughter of Mr. James Giles. She was an active nervous young woman and was considered quite a belle. Her lively temperament suited young Stephen, although his parents were not favorable to the match. On January 1st, 1863, they were married.

It had been the custom for the sons of the elder Pangborn to turn their savings over to their father to keep for them. Stephen did as the rest. It is said that at the time of the marriage, he purchased jewelry and many other gifts for his wife and charged them all to his father, greatly overdrawing the account. The elder Stephen Pangorn settled the bills but the relations between father and son were not the best thereafter.

December 31, 1863, a little girl, Louisa, was born to them. Mrs. Giles came to young Pangborn's home and stayed with her daughter during that period. The sisters of Pangborn also came to help. One day, shortly after the child was born, there were some high words between husband and wife because Pangborn brought something home to his sisters. Mrs. Giles denounced his acts and her daughter sided with her. The quarrel resulted in a separation. Pangborn left his home early in January, 1864, and from that time she never saw his face again. She took the child and went to live with her parents.

Relatives of the husband declare that he made every effort to support his wife and child but that Mrs. Pangborn utterly refused to have anything more to do with them.

Mrs. Pangborn told a Press reporter this morning that she heard that her husband had gone out to Williamsport but that she gradually lost track of him there. He occasionally came to Plainfield, she said, and saw their child on several occasions, but made no further attempt at reconciliation. She never heard of his death until she was told a few days after it occurred by her nephew, Daniel Tainor, of this city.

The relatives of Mrs. Pangborn claim that the claim of identity between Stephen Pangborn, who went out into Pennsylvania twenty-five years ago to seek his fortune, and Winfield Scott Allen, the wealthy and respected citizen of Williamsport, is complete.

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.]

PLAN TO ORGANIZE NOW.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL WORKERS TO HAVE AN ASSOCIATION.

Result of the Conference Held in the Seventh-Day Baptist Church—Committee to Do the Preliminary Work.

For the purpose of increasing interest in Sunday-school work in this city a number of teachers from the various churches met in conference at the Seventh-Day Baptist church last evening and listened to short talks on the subject from Rev. E M. Ferguson, of Trenton, State Secretary of the New Jersey Sunday-school Association, and Rev. George Buckle, of Elizabeth, president of the Union County Sunday-school Association. Mr. Ferguson told of the good work that is being accomplished by a perfect organization. He believed in a unity of action, whereby all Sunday schools of the city, if united, would be benefitted by increased interest and numerical strength.

Mr. Buckle said that it was necessary to overcome the earth in the human system by supplanting the spiritual seed in the lives of the boys and girls. He told of the good that had already accomplished in the county and state since the organization of the State Association, and impressed upon those present the importance of a united and concerted action.

After the remarks by the above gentlemen it was the sense of those present that a local association should be formed that would include all the Protestant Sunday-schools of the city. Upon motion, Rev. Dr. Main appointed Rev. J. W. Richardson, Dr. A. H. Lewis, F. E. Smith and E. C. Martin a nominating committee to name a larger and permanent committee to report at a subsequent date upon an organization, that will cooperate with the State Association in efforts to materially benefit the Sunday-school work in Plainfield.

FUNERAL OF MRS. KITCHEN.

Services Held From Her Late Home and Largely Attended by Those Who Were Her Friends.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. John H. Kitchen were held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home on Somerset street, near Coddington avenue, when a large number of friends, neighbors and relatives gathered to pay their last respects.

Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, where the deceased was a member, conducted the services. He was assisted by Rev. George Bowers, of Coontown, a personal friend of the departed who had known her for many years. Both divines spoke feelingly and gave the highest testimony to the exemplarary Christian life and character of Mrs. Kitchen.

After the service those present were given an opportunity of viewing for the last time the face of the departed. There was a profusion of beautiful floral offerings, and the casket was completely covered with these expressions of love and esteem.

Interment took place in Hillside cemetery, and those who served as pall-bearers, all neighbors, were: Henry Nischwitz, Newton B. Smalley, George W. Taylor, Brazilian R. Waldron, George Egel and Corra Ryno.

Subject of Bible Conference Tonight.

The subject of the third meeting of the Bible conference, which will be held this evening at 7:45 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. hall, will be "The View of the Work of the Holy Spirit Given in the Epistle to the Ephesians." The meetings Thursday and Friday evenings will be held in the First Presbyterian church. Friday evening Harper J. Smyth, a singer who has accompanied J. Wilbur Chapman on many of his evangelistic journeys, will be present and render some vocal solos.

Died in Colorado.

George B. Harding, who resided on John street, left Plainfield three weeks ago for Manitou, Col., in the hopes that he might some relief from that dread disease, consumption. He arrived there all right, but the change had no beneficial effect for word has been received that he died there last Friday, and was buried in that place Mr. Harding was 24 years of age, and he had many friends in this city who will learn with deep regret of his death.

Christmas Vacation.

The Christmas vacation at the Plainfield High School will begin Friday noon, December 22d. That day special Christmas exercises will be held by the school. Special music appropriate to that season is now being practiced. The public will be invited to attend although there is really but little space in which they may be accommodated.

—Sparklets—No need of reducing our city's gas to a dollar when we have it for 2½ cents. Wm. W. Moore, 310 Park avenue.

NOT SUCH A JOB TO WIDEN THE STREET.

No Really Important Changes Will Have to be Made.

ONE BUILDING TO MOVE.

UNDERGROUND TELEPHONE WIRES TO FOLLOW IMPROVEMENT.

Borough Officials Have Undertaken the Project With Great Interest and Vigor —Exact Figures of Cost Will Soon be Prepared, But it is Not Estimated to be More Than $5,000.

The project to widen Somerset street seems to find general favor among the residents of the borough. Somerset street is the principal thoroughfare of the borough and yet it is one of the narrowest of all the streets there With the trolley cars, the present width, thirty feet, is hardly large enough to accomodate the traffic. The addition of ten feet to the width of the street would greatly relieve the congestion at busy times.

The plan, as mapped out by the street committee of the Borough Council, in consultation with Mayor N. B. Smalley and Senator C. A. Reed, is to add ten feet to the width of the street from Green brook to Jackson avenue A careful examination of the situation has been found necessary to move but one small building, the little cobbler's shop, just north of Pearl street. There are several piazzas that will have to be reduced in width and the sidewalks, in many cases unusually wide, will be reduced to normal size.

The committee has the assurance of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company that in case the improvement is carried through, the company will take up all its old poles and place its wires underground in conduits as in Plainfield. It is expected that the Plainfield Electric Light Company will be willing to do the same. This would do away with over a hundred poles that now stretch along Somerset street.

A number of trees will have to be removed and the street will gain a far more open appearance with a reduction in the number of trees and the absence of the forest of telephone and electric light poles.

It is estimated that the entire cost to the borough of the improvement will be in the neighborhood of $5,000, Exact figures will be prepared and presented at the public hearing next week. At that time it is to be hoped that the property owners along Somerset street will be prepared to give the required consent for the improvement.

Miss Marsh's Method of Teaching.

Miss Anna O. Marsh wishes to answer questions about her vocal sight-reading classes by stating that her teaching is similar to that of Frank Damrosch in his large people's classes in New York city. Miss Marsh received her diploma from the Holt School of Vocal Harmony, from which Mr. Damrosch also graduated at an earlier date. The method employed aims to develop in pupils an intelligent idea about time, and to train them to sing and recognize tones independent of an instrument, and thus help them to become quick readers at sight.

Placed in Grave beside Her Sister.

Miss Laura Winton, daughter of former Senator Henry D. Winton, of Hackensack, who died Saturday afternoon from the shock of the sudden death of her sister, was buried yesterday alongside her sister. The flowers on her sister's grave were quite fresh yesterday. Rev. Herman Vanderwalt, of the First Reformed Church, made a touching address. Members of Miss Winton's graduating class and her associates in church work were at the funeral services.

Horse Bit Him.

Tony Lusardi, the North avenue fruit dealer, is suffering from a severe injury to his right leg caused by his horse biting him on the thigh. Mr. Lusardi was at New Market last night on business. When passing in front of his horse the animal suddenly snapped at him, seizing his leg in his teeth and biting it seriously.

A Praise Meeting.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Crescent Avenue church will hold a praise meeting next Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the chapel of the church. An address will be delivered by Mrs. J. F. Pingry, of New York. Tea will be served at 5:30 o'clock.

Looking After Witnesses.

Constable Totten, of Somerville, has been spending several days in the borough looking up witnesses for the Paul Roehricht murder trial that will be called at Somerville next Monday.

DULL WHITE OVER RED.

NEW COLOR FOR THE LETTER BOXES IN THIS CITY.

Department Officials Have Promised Postmaster Bird to Have Improvement Made—Carrier Service Satisfactory.

Postmaster Bird has succeeded in securing from the officials at Washington their consent to repaint the letter boxes in the city and borough. The change will be a novel and pleasing one. The boxes will be painted an aluminum color and the lettering thereon will be in red, making a very attractive box and one that can be seen a great distance off. These boxes will be mounted on green posts. For some time past Mr. Bird has been working on this matter and a few days ago he received a letter saying his wish had been granted and in a short time the boxes will be painted.

Under the new schedule adopted, with the increased number of carriers, the people of city and borough are receiving a superior service that is certainly gratifying. In the main portion of the city and borough three deliveries are given every day. In some instances persons are able to get their first mail while they are eating breakfast, before they leave for New York. Mr. Bird has been generously congratulated by a number of people on the excellent service that is being given. The schedule is certainly working in a most satisfactory manner

YALE CLUB ELECTS

Annual Banquet of Club Will Probably be Held Again This Year—Committee Appointed.

The annual meeting of the Plainfield Yale Club was held last evening at the residence of Fred W. Yates, of Kensington avenue. The attendance was small. The following officers were elected: President, Charles S Foote; vice president, William N. Runyon; secretary-treasurer, Harry L. McGee; members of executive committee, James R. Joy, Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards and George A. Strong.

William N. Runyon was appointed chairman of a committee to ascertain the possibilities of a successful club dinner. The general sentiment of the members present at the meeting was that a dinner should be held this winter.

The prizes awarded to Plainfield boys who passed the best entrance examination into Yale University last fall, were announced. George Richards won the prize in the academic department and Carroll L. Runyon in the Sheffield Scientific School.

SUCCESSFUL SALE.

Result of Candy Sale at Residence of Fred H. Andrews, Central Avenue, Announced.

The candy sale held at the residence of Fred. H. Andrews, Central avenue, December 2d, proved very successful. The net proceeds were $32. The object of the sale was to raise money to pay for the Christmas tree at Hope chapel. $22 was needed for that object. The extra $10 will be divided between Muhlenberg Hospital and the Children's Home.

The children who managed the sale were the Misses Katherine Titus, Alice Titus, Dorothy Fisk, Annee Fisk, Helen Timpson, Jeanie Millar, Margaret Leggett, Mollie Perkins, Marjorie Phillips and Louise Andrews.

A Talk on Noted Men.

Monday morning last at the North Plainfield Public High School, Former Mayor Charles Place, of Grove street, gave the second of a series of talks on the subject, "Noted Men Whom I Have Met," and it proved to be as thoroughly interesting as the preceding talk. Among those mentioned whom the speaker has met are Charles Dickens, Horace Greely, John B. Gough and Henry Ward Beecher. He also mentioned the name of Anna A. Dickinson. About each one he related something personal and told something of the characteristics of each.

Why?

The best gold fishes come from China; one of the rarest and most expensive of these is the Brushtail, a pair of which sells for $1,000. But why should you buy a Brushtail at that rate when you can procure a whisk broom, with solid silver haddle, for a dollar? Personal answers to this conundrum will be received at Collier's, 103 Park avenue, during business hours between now and January 1st, next.

Funeral of Clarence B. Purdy.

The funeral services of the late Clarence B. Purdy will be held from the late residence, 187 Martine avenue, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, instead of at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, as published in The Daily Press of yesterday.

—Sparklets—At last we have found something to give a man for his Christmas. Wm. W. Moore, 310 Park avenue.

"BELIEVERS HAVE INHERITED CHRIST."

Principal Points Brought Out By Don O. Shelton.

BIBLE STUDY CONFERENCE

ANOTHER LARGE AUDIENCE OF CHRISTIANS IN Y. M. C. A.

The Teaching of Mr. Shelton is Very Popular and it Has been Decided to Hold The Rest of The Meetings in The First Presbyterian Church—A Subject of Intense Interest To be Considered Tonight

The Bible Conference that is being held in the Y. M C. A. Hall was continued last evening with a large and thoroughly appreciative audience, which seems to be increasing steadily. The main part of the hall was filled and many occupied seats in the gallery. Nearly everyone present had a Bible and followed closely the talk and instructions given by Mr. Shelton. Preceding the talk there was the usual song service by the choir under the direction of Horace J. Martin, and Mr. Shelton gave the customary ten minute address on how to study the Bible. The points mentioned and dwelt upon for a few minutes included a study of the Bible consecutively, prayerfully meditatively and perseveringly. Just before Mr. Shelton commenced the study of the evening, G. M. Rittenhouse, who was in charge, conducted a brief season of prayer in which several persons offered prayer. In was announced that the conference would be held in the First Presbyterian church tomorrow and Friday evenings, and that on the last evening Prof. Harper Smyth, the noted evangelistic singer, who has been associated with Dr. Chapman, will be present and sing.

The conference last night devoted its attention to the person and work of Christ as shown in Ephesians. Preliminary to this Mr. Shelton spoke briefly on methods for reading and studying the Bible. He began by referring to the high esteem in which the Bible is held by Oliver Cromwell, for whom, Mr. Morely says "a single volume comprehended all literature, and that volume was the Bible." Mr. Shelton also referred to the statement of Charles Dudley Warner, that to know the Bible is a liberal education in itself. He then urged his hearers to read and study the Bible: (1) Consecutively. No part should be neglected. (2) Prayerfully. (3) Meditatively. Reference was made to James 1:22 and John 20:11. (4) Perseveringly. The famous Dr. Johnson, on his death bed, said to a young friend: "Attend to the advice of one who has had some fame in this world and who will shortly appear before his Maker: read the Bible every day of your life." Each of the foregoing points was forcibly illustrated.

Mr. Shelton began the study of the evening by saying the key thought of the epistle under consideration was the oneness of the believer with Christ Jesus.

In speaking of the fact that the hardship of the church is Christ, he told how Rev. Dr. Gordon, pastor of the Clarendon Street Baptist church, Boston, came to completely change his method of work through the influence of a vivid dream. He dreamed that he was preaching a sermon in his church to his regular congregation, when, so it seemed in his dream, there came into the church a stranger of such appearance that somehow all his speech was directed to this one auditor. At the close of the sermon, so his dream ran, Dr. Gordon asked the official who had shown the stranger to his seat, if he knew who the stranger was. "Why," said the official, "didn't you know? That was Christ." Dr. Gordon seemed to feel a deep distress at his not having met the Master. The official said to him, so he dreamed "Well, he was here today, and he may come again." Dr. Gardon made that the key note to all his work, preaching visiting, and all, from that day on, and his ministry took on new power.

Mr. Shelton showed that Christ is the believers inheritance. He said that "all believers have inherited Christ." The grace, mercy, peace love and power of God are for us through Christ. This is plainly declared to be the purpose of God, 'who worketh all things after the counsel of His own will.'

"In 1 Peter, 1 3-5, reference is made to the believer's inheritance. He points out three distinct and beautiful characteristics of this inheritance: (1) It is incorruptible. It is not subject to decay. One of the most charming of earthly things 'transitory' is written. The harvest fields turn to gold in the summer sun only to be consumed. Flowers bloom but to fade. The

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.]

XMAS GIFTS IN PLENTY.

ARTICLES THAT IT IS POSSIBLE TO BUY IN PLAINFIELD.

No Need for Plainfielders to Go to Big Cities for Their Presents, for There is Variety and Quality Here.

Christmas shopping has begun in earnest and the merchants are as busy as bees in honey time. It is indeed a pleasure to choose Xmas gifts when there are stores full of handsome goods to select from, such as are to be found at Woodhull & Martin's where several extra clerks have been added to the force to keep pace with the demands of the constantly increasing crowds. From now on until "the night before Christmas" this store will be kept open until 9 o'clock to accommodate the many patrons of the establishment. The holiday trade, of course, is the one being catered to at present.

This firm has a splendid of choice toys, and fancy articles including medalians, clocks, toilet articles and an endless assortment of books. There's an endless display of dolls—dolls with white and black hair, dolls that go to sleep, dolls that don't shut their eyes; big dolls, little dolls, at almost any price from 10 cents up. In other toys there are all kinds of games, drums, wagons, roll top desks, toy stoves, in which a fire can be made, child's blackboards, swinging horses, dolls bureaus, washstands, etc. Space is not available to mention the endless variety of toys and fixings to fill the little one's stocking. In more sensible presents, there's the furniture department in the basement made larger than ever owing to the removal of the carpet department to the old VanEmburg store just west of the post office. No better or larger stock of furniture is to be found outside of New York. Here may be found ladies' writing desks, fancy rockers, etc., in various styles, quite suitable for Christmas gifts, to say nothing about the elegant and substantial bedroom suits. We almost forgot to mention that among the fancy, yet useful goods may be found the celebrated Paul E. Wirt fountain pen—the best on the market.

In the more staple goods are to be seen as fine an assortment of dress goods, blankets, cloaks and everything usually to be found in a first class establishment. The carpet department, west of the post office, referred to above, is one of the most complete in the State. The stock is all freshly selected and there are many designs in all grades to select from. Better go early to select your Christmas gifts and avoid the rush that there is sure to be next week. If possible come in the forenoon. But if not convenient then come when it is. You will be a welcome visitor at the store at any time. If you do not make a purchase it will amuse you and not harm Messrs. Woodhull & Martin.

A RESORT FOR SANTA CLAUS

Large Display of Holiday Goods to Be Found at Crosby & Hill's These Days.

Crosby & Hill, Plainfield's popular dry goods merchants, are now ready and prepared to receive their many friends who are desirous of making purchases for the holidays. Today they announce their holiday opening and Manager Carson has made it a point to see that articles that will meet every pocketbook can be found in their large store. A specialty is made of toys of all kinds. The firm imported them this year and in addition an importer's surplus stock was purchased. All kinds of toys can be found at 5 and 10 cents that formerly sold for 50 cents. These are arranged in the new basement just opened, and it will pay one to examine this stock. Other specialties that are seasonable are handkerchiefs, ribbons, umbrellas, gloves, hosiery, at popular prices, and a stock of finer goods is kept as well The firm will make a drive in sterling silverware and they have any number of novelties at reasonable prices.

In brass goods they can give good bargains. This stock is complete, including everything. There is also a complete line of Roger Brothers' silverware at prices that are right. In the basement there is to be found a full line of fancy and plain chairs, including the popular Morris chair. The house-furnishing goods department contains everything needed, and in fact there is not a thing that is to be found in such a store that cannot be purchased at Crosby & Hill's. An inspection will convince all of the merits of the goods.

A Whist Contest.

The Essex Club, of Montclair, will visit the Park Club this evening and contest with the Parks for possession of the State challenge whist trophy.

—Sparklets, a useful holiday gift, at a moderate cost. Wm. W. Moore, 310 Park avenue.

NEW CITY OFFICIALS TOOK THE OATH

Sworn in by Mayor Rockfellow Last Night.

FEW WERE NOT PRESENT.

THEY WILL BE SWORN IN BY MAYOR TODAY.

Constable Amos Moffett Sworn in for Thirty-fourth Consecutive Time—Some of the New Men Were Stringers to the Mayor—Councilman Buckle Will be Sworn in at Home, as He is Ill

Mayor George W. Rockfellow spent an hour at his office in the Coward building last evening and administered the oath to the city officials elected at the recent municipal election. Most of them were there. Others will be sworn in this morning. Councilman J. T. Buckle is too ill to leave his home and the Mayor will have to go to him.

According to law, the successful candidates to the municipal offices must be sworn in within ten days after they are elected. Consequently notification was sent to all those elected that they might appear before the Mayor last night and take the oath agreeing to the proper performance of their duties.

Dennis Carney, Justice-of-the-Peace-elect in the First ward, was the first to swear to faithfully perform his duties. After him, the others followed in rapid succession. Councilman-elect William L. Gloak, of the First ward, was the first of the Councilmen to take the oath. He was followed by Councilman J. B. Dumont.

A number of city officials, politicians and reporters gathered in the City Clerk's office and the lobby to the Mayor's office to watch the procession. Mr. Gloak was a stranger to many and he was introduced to a number. Councilman Robert L. Lee, of the Fourth ward, was not known to the Mayor and others of the party. He made himself known to the Mayor and was promptly sworn in.

Amos Moffett, Constable from the Third ward, was sworn in for the thirty-fourth consecutive time. Mr. Moffett is the oldest city official, in term of service, now in the city.

Councilman C. B. Clifton and School Trustee J. B. Probasbo were unable to be on hand last evening and were sworn in by the Mayor this morning. This afternoon, the Mayor will visit the home of Councilman Buckle and administer the oath. The officials who have yet failed to take the oath are Justice of the Peace Thomas Hanna, and Constable William Calihan of the Second ward.

EVERY FIFTEEN MINUTES NOW.

Five Cars Running on the Line From Cranford to This City.

Five cars are now running on the trolley line between Cranford and Plainfield, and it is expected that several new cars ordered will reach Plainfield to be put on the line at any minute. The cars are running from Cranford to the Plainfield depot without change, under 15-minute headway. The cars leave Plainfield end, Cranford end and Broad street, at Westfield, on the hour and every fifteen minutes.

Over 200 Italian laborers were discharged from the work, which is now about completed for the winter. Only a small gang yet remains to finish up at Roselle, and it is expected that Constructing Engineer Serrell will be through with the work to the Elizabeth city line by Christmas.

Gave a Song Recital.

Miss Dora Louise Topping, of New York, is a guest at the home of David D. Smalley, of Manning avenue, and last evening she gave a song recital during which she gave a demonstration and talk on the scientific production of voice according to the John Howard method. There were about fifty people present and all were highly entertained and instructed. Later on Miss Topping may organize a class in this city.

Councilman Barrows Taking Vacation.

Councilman E. T. Barrows, of West Eighth street, is now enjoying a two weeks' vacation in the south, accompanied by his wife and children. Mr. Barrows, who is president of the New York Produce Exchange, attended to his business duties all summer, hardly missing a day. He is now on a well-earned vacation. He returns the last of this week.

Not to Meet Again This Year.

It is not likely that the Mayor and Borough Council will hold another meeting this year, as there is nothing of imporance to call them together.

—Use Press want ads.

—Press want ads bring results.

TO HOLD NIGHT SESSIONS.

Currency Bill to be Debated Evenings in the House.

THREE SESSIONS A WEEK.

Those Who Wish to Talk on the Subject Are Given an Opportunity to be Heard—The Elections of Clark, of Montana and Scott, of West Virginia, to be Investigated.

Washington, Dec. 13.—At Tuesday's session of the Senate resolutions were reported favorably from the committee on contingent expenses, authorizing the committee on privileges and elections to proceed with investigations of the election to the Senate of W. A. Clark of Montana and N. B. Scott of West Virginia. The resolutions were adopted.

Last Wednesday Mr. Cullom introduced a bill providing a form of government for Hawaii. It was not referred to a committee at the time, but Tuesday it was sent to the committee on foreign relations at the suggestion of Mr. Platt (Conn.).

Mr. Pettigrew (S. D.) offered the following resolution:

"That the secretary of the navy be and he is hereby directed to inform the Senate whether the flag of the Philippine Republic was carried by vessels in the bay of Manila, and whether the flag of the Philippine Republic was ever saluted by Admiral Dewey or any of the vessels of his fleet at any time since May 1, 1898. Were Spanish prisoners delivered over to the Philippine forces at the time of the surrender of Subig Bay? Did a vessel commanded by the forces under Aguinaldo, flying the Philippine flag, accompany the vessels Concord and Raleigh back to Subig Bay in June, 1898, in order to compel the surrender of the Spanish forces?"

Mr. Pettigrew asked for immediate consideration of the resolution, but Mr. Chandler objected and it went over.

When the resolution of Mr. Pettigrew relating to the trouble in the Coeur d'Alene mining district was laid before the Senate, Mr. Chandler offered a substitute eliminating the charges against Gen. Merriam made in the original. After a sharp colloquy between Mr. Chandler and Mr. Pettigrew, in the course of which Mr. Pettigrew said he was willing that the Republican party should take the responsibility for Gen. Merriam's action, and Mr. Chandler had intimated that he had not felt quite comfortable in the Republican party until Mr. Pettigrew had left it, the resolution was referred to the committee on military affairs.

At the close of the executive session in the afternoon the Senate received from the House a message announcing the death of Representative Daniel E. Ermantrout of Pennsylvania. The usual resolutions were adopted and the Senate adjourned.

Proceedings in the House.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The debate on the Currency bill continued in the House Tuesday.

Owing to the pressure for opportunity to speak on the Democratic side, Mr. Richardson, the minority leader, asked that night sessions be held for the remainder of the week but this was demurred to, and it was finally agreed that night sessions for debate should be held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Mr. Grosvenor (Ohio) was the first speaker. Mr. Grosvenor said that two-thirds of the Republican campaign fund in 1896 was used in the printing and dissemination of literature.

He quoted from the Republican platforms of the past to prove that it had always been a cardinal principle of the Republican party that every dollar of the United States should be of equal intrinsic value and debt paying power.

During his speech Mr. Grosvenor dwelt at some length upon the conditions of trade and business in general, and said that whatever prosperity was being enjoyed was the result of a healthy state of finances and that the policy of the Republican party and the present Administration had served to bring about a state of renewed activity in all branches of commerce.

Mr. Newlands, of Colorado, joined with Mr. Grosvenor in his felicitations upon the prosperity coincident with the present Administration, but not caused by it. He insisted that its existence was a vindication of the theory held by those who believed with him that good times depended upon the amount of money in circulation. When the currency of the country was increased and economical methods adopted by employers, smoking chimneys dotted the land and wheels begun to turn.

By providing for the redemption of silver with gold the silver was practically made a promise to pay gold and ceased to be money.

Mr. Shafroth, of Colorado, said that the cause of good times in the Harrison Administration, as proved by the assertion of President Harrison, was the addition of basic money to the currency of the country. There were good times now because there was an addition to the basic of the world through the increased production of gold.

This bill, he argued, meant the total extinction of silver as money.

Mr. Parker, of New Jersey, asserted that the bill introduced nothing new, but simply registered the will of the people, as declared at the polls in 1896, and enacted into law the policy of the Government for the past twenty years.

Will Oppose Financial Bill.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 13.—Senator Jones, of Arkansas, as the recognized leader of the Democratic party in Congress, by reason of his position as chairman of the National Democratic Committee, has sent out secret instructions to the party workers to the effect that every parliamentary means will be resorted to in the House and the Senate to prevent the final passage of the pending financial bill.

Chairman Jones does not declare openly that he proposes to make a filibustering fight against the bill, but he insists that every means known to parliamentary practice will be invoked by the Democrats to kill the bill. He adds that if certain persons are disposed to call it filibustering they may do so if they please.

The adoption of the Reed rules by the present House precludes any serious obstacle to the passage of the bill through that body by a majority vote. The battle royal is to take place in the Senate, the scene of all the famous financial struggles during the last half century. Great measures have been held up in the latter chamber and either defeated outright by the process of "talking them to death" or the measures under consideration have been so mangled and amended as to render them unrecognizable by the original framers of the proposed bill.

Roberts Submits His Brief.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The Roberts investigating committee resumed its session Tuesday, but, contrary to expectation, the proceedings in the early hours were behind closed doors. That, it was explained, was to permit the committee to receive and discuss reports on procedure, form of subpoena, etc.

In the meantime Mr. Roberts and a gathering of Mormons and "Gentiles" stood outside the committee door awaiting admission. Mr. Roberts was prepared to continue his arguments on the demurrer to the right of the committee to try him. The "Gentile" delegation was more numerous, including the Rev. Dr. Iliff, Mr. Schroeder, to whom Roberts interposed rather sensational objection on Saturday, and the other persons who have come on from Utah to direct the proceedings against the congressman elect.

Mr. Roberts saw Mr. Taylor as soon as the committee adjourned and submitted his brief.

FOUND CORPSE ON THE FLOOR.

The Family Slept While Dead Body Lay Unattended.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 13.—Alonzo Bowser shot and instantly killed his brother James at their home near Portsmouth. They were cleaning a gun and a plea of accident is entered by Alonzo. The authorities say that he reloaded the gun before the fatal shot was fired. He is 19 years old, one year the dead boy's senior.

The authorities were at once notified, and when they reached the residence they found it dark. When an entrance was effected a revolting spectacle was presented. On the floor bathed in a pool of his blood lay the dead boy just where he had fallen. The entire family was in bed, the brother who fired the fatal shot being sound asleep within a few feet of the corpse.

Nanticoke Coal Strike Off.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Dec. 13.—The big strike of the Susquehanna Coal Company employes at Glen Lyon and Nanticoke, which has been on for five months, has been officially declared off. The company announces that it has work for two thousand men at Glen Lyon and three thousand at Nanticoke. The men withdrew their demand for the reinstatement of the sixteen pump runners and firemen who went out during the rioting two weeks ago, and the company agreed to make small increases in wages.

Body Found From Niagara.

Buffalo, Dec. 13.—The first body from the wreck of the lake steamboat Niagara of the Matthews line, lost Tuesday night, Dec. 5, has been picked up three miles off Long Point. It was that of a man 22 years old. The initials "N. E. K." were tattooed on his right forearm. A bottle has also been picked up containing a small slip of paper signed by Capt. McGlory of the Niagara. It read: "We expect to go down any minute. Captain McGlory. Good by."

Hawaiian Cabinet Trouble.

Honolulu, Dec. 5, via San Francisco, Dec. 13.—President Dole has written President McKinley in regard to the resignation of Minister of Finance Damon. He has informed the President of the clause in the Hawaiian constitution vacating the office of a cabinet minister when he is absent from the islands for sixty days, and of the necessity for an appointment in conformity therewith and for the appointment of Theodore F. Lansing.

Governor Taylor Inaugurated.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 13.—William S. Taylor was inaugurated as Governor Tuesday. The crowd was smaller than in past years due to the weather, which was a December blizzard. There was no disturbance. The lately defeated Democratic candidates for State offices began serving notices of contests against the Republican candidates, who were given certificates of election last week. Several have been served.

Lake Erie Swept by Heavy Gales.

Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 13.—One of the heaviest gales of the year prevails on Lake Erie. The wind is blowing at the rate of fifty miles an hour from the southwest. Very few vessels have ventured out since Tuesday evening, the weather bureau having sent out warning of the approach of the storm. Telegraph and telephone lines are badly prostrated.

Centrist Leader Assaulted.

Berlin, Dec. 13.—Dr. Lieber, the Centrist leader, on entering the Reichstag Tuesday afternoon was attacked by a man who was apparently insane. The Doctor's assailant struck him with a stick. The man was promptly arrested.

Engineer Killed, Fireman Injured.

Huntington, W. Vaa., Dec. 13.—Norfolk and Western passenger No. 3 ran into a siding at Panther. Engineer W. S. Bishop, of Huntington, was killed and Fireman Coontz, of Bluefield, was fatally injured.

Heavy Snow Storm Visits England.

London, Dec. 13.—A heavy snowstorm is interfering with traffic on the railroads and street car lines in various parts of the country. Skating has commenced and hunting and racing has been suspended.

Steel Company in Railroad Sale.

Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 13.—The sale of the controlling interest of the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling Railroad is understood to have been made here to the Federal Steel Company. The deal was made through Blair & Co.

Don't Die

when within your power to live on, in health and happiness. It is the duty of every man, woman and child to know, that Radam's Microbe Killer destroys every germ or microbe with which it comes in contact when introduced into the human system.

Microbes produce sickness, and, as they multiply in the blood and organs of the body, ptomaines appear also, and death frequently follows.

Radam's Microbe Killer, wonderful remedy that it is, though powerful in destroying microbes of every disease known, is perfectly harmless to humanity. It has cured others—it will cure you; and if you once try it, you will adopt it for every illness.

Should you be interested, or if any of your friends are sick, write for book containing testimonials and advice, mailed free.

Large Bottles, $1.00 and Gallon Jugs, $3.00.

The Wm. Radam Microbe Killer Co

121 PRINCE STREET, NEW YORK, or

L. W. RANDOLPH,
Plainfield, N. J.

NEUMAN BROS.,

GROCERS,

Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

John G. Bantle,

First-class

Ladies' and Gent's

TAILOR.

428 Watchung Avenue.

Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

Money Saved is Money Earned.

Come and get your framing done by the

Guarantee Portrait Studio,

142 East Front Street.

Where you will find a large assortment in ready-made frames and the latest styles in mouldings to make up frames to order at reduced prices.

Also large assortment in Pictures, Looking-glasses, Easels, Albums, Window Shades, Curtain Poles, etc.

Fine Drawings in crayons and pastels from all kinds of photographs.

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)

Carpenter and Builder

15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to.

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS

New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Hire for Picnics, etc.

Satisfaction Guaranteed.

OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

A. H. ENANDER

Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.

Contractor for sewer connections

210 PARK AVE.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.

Paris for 1900.

Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.

Circulars at

181 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

THE

First National Bank,

of Plainfield, N. J.

Capital .....$200,000.
Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000.

J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.

DIRECTORS.

Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Coriell.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.

VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

We are NOW receiving orders for

HUYLER'S

XMAS CANDY,

—to be delivered at—

CHRISTMAS TIME.

Remember the

Only Agency

—IS—

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

Tel. 705.

Flynn Bros.,

SHOE DEALERS,

222 WEST FRONT STREET,

Near Music Hall,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

November.

The mellow year is hasting to its close.
The merry birds have almost sung their last.
Their faint notes twitter in the dreary blast—
That shrill-piped harbinger of early snows.
And hint to you in good coal to invest
At seven forty-seven Front Street, west.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.

Four-in-hand and Puff Ties at 19c reduced from 25c.
Men's and Boys' Woollen and Skin Gloves from 18c up.
Ladies' and Children's Mittens and gloves from 10c up.
Ladies' Shawls and Fascinators at 25c, 39c and 50c.

Ladie Desiring . .

KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING

done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 203 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

Toys, Toys, Toys

for the

HOLIDAYS

—AT—

HARPER'S,

411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .

in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated

DOMESTIC FINISH.

Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.

Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.

Trading Stamps given.

The City Steam & Hand Laundry

MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B

19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

SELLING OUT

Below Cost

TO CLOSE BUSINESS

Star Crockery Store,

23 Somerset St., near Front.

3 and 9 cent Articles.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!

Solomon & Evans,
Proprietors.

LAIRE'S . .

HOLIDAY SPECIALS.

Carving knives.
U. S. club skates
Roger's plated ware.
Fine pocket cutlery.
Silver finish coffee and tea pots.
Nickel on copper tea kettles.
Boys' sleighs.
Fine razors and hones.
Grand Rapid sweepers.
Baby Rapid sweepers
Shinny sticks.
Christmas tree holders.
Coin silver ware, cheap.
Fine table cutlery.
Fine scissors and shears.
Corn poppers.

The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,

Tel. Call 682.

TRY THE

QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,

No 337 Park Avenue.

(Miller Building.)

Goods called for and delivered free of charge.

Domestic or gloss finish.

DOBBINS. CIGARS.

108 NORTH AVE

PHILLIP SWAIN.

ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.

317 West Front street.

J. W. VAN SICKLE.

129 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.

FRESH & SALTED MEATS,

GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.

Orders called for and delivered promptly.

TELEPHONE 148

Your Valuables,

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock boxes from $2 50 to $10 a year

GAS

For the Fire-place.
Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates.
Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.

CURTIS M. THORPE,

310-312 PARK AVENUE.

"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIREPLACE."

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE,

I. O. H.

Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 109 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711

ROYAL ARCANUM.

The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.

A. I. LITTELL, Regent.

Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,

Watchmakers and Jewelers.

219 Park Avenue.

A. KANE,

Dealer in

BLUE STONE FLAGGING and CURBING.

Also Dealer in

Flour, Feed and Grain, Coal and Wood.

Store and Office

409 East Third St.,

Next to

THIRD STREET MISSION.

Open Evenings Until 8 o'Clock.

New York Announcement.

Horner's Furniture.

The BEST IN THE MARKET because representing the productions of the best makers only. Other advantages are the unequalled assortments in all lines, whether wanted for city or country houses, and the very moderate prices at which the goods are marked.

The completeness of our assortments can best be understood from the fact that we carry in stock, and exhibit, more than two hundred and fifty distinctively different Bedroom Sets in every variety of material, as well as endless lines of Parlor, Drawing Room, Library and Dining Room Furniture, ranging from the modest and inexpensive to the most elaborately carved and inlaid.

In a word, every article required for use, comfort and adornment in the household can be had with its plainly marked moderate price at the Great Furniture Emporium of

R. J. Horner & Co.,

Furniture Makers and Importers,

61-65 W. 23d St., New York

(Adjoining Eden Musee.)

Send for Illustrated Handbook, "Our American Homes and How to Furnish Them."

M. Molnar,

432 Watchung Ave.,

Ladies' and Gents'

FINE TAILORING

Graduate of

New York Cutting School.

Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with old clothes and I will take chances of being entrusted with new work.

L. L. Manning & Son,

STEAM

GRANITE WORKS,

Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.

Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

THE GRANDVIEW

Meat Market

George Egel, Manager.

Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN

is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

B. B. Maynard,

NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE

Tonsorial Artist . . .

Also CHOICE CIGARS.

141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

J. C. Pope & Co.,

INSURANCE AGENTS,

110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

RUSHTON & HANSEN,

Painters and Paper Hangers,

Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Street.

Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills

o——25c.——o

A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses. : : :

MALLINSON'S

North and Watchung avenues.

THANKSGIVING FOR ALL.

If you want to make your Thanksgiving dinner a success order your turkey from us. Our stock is the best and largest in the city, and the prices are right. All our poultry is of the very best quality. Special prices for Church Societies and Clubs.

FRED ENDRESS,

131—135 WEST FRONT STREET.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.

MONEY TO LOAN.

197 North Ave.

Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmons.
Telephone 601

FIGHTING AT MODDER RIVER

Boers and British Clash Again at This Point.

HEAVY FIRING IS HEARD.

New British Plans Are Impeded—Advance on Free State and Covering of Methuen's Communications is Impossible—Colesberg is Impregnable—Gatacre's Guns Captured.

London, Dec. 13.—The War Office publishes the following despatch from General Buller:

"Despatch from General White, dated December 11, says: "Last night Colonel Metcalfe and 500 of the Second rifle brigade sortied to capture a Boer howitzer on a hill.

" 'They reached the crest without being discovered, drove off the enemy, and then destroyed the howitzer with guncotton.

"When returning Metcalfe found his retirement barred by the Boers, but he forced his way through, using the bayonet freely. The Boer losses were considerable. The British losses were the following: Liutenant Fergusson and eleven men killed; Captain Daley, Second Lieutenant W. Davenport, Second Lieutenant Bond and forty-one men wounded; six men captured who had remained behind in charge of the wounded."

Battle Said to be Raging

Cape Town, Dec. 13.—It is reported that heavy firing was heard all day yesterday in the direction of Modder River.

London, Dec. 12.—What little information has reached London from the seat of war has contained nothing pertaining to the advance of General Buller or Lord Methuen.

Details of General Gatacre's defeat show that his column was guided into a position where they were at the mercy of a heavy Boer fire. The result of the reverse is that Gatacre's advance is delayed, as is also that of General French from Naauwpoort. Stormberg is now known to hold a far greater force than was supposed. General Gatacre will require powerful reinforcements before he can make another essay. It remains to be seen whether the Boers, emboldened by their success, will venture south to try to cut Gatacre's line of communication. Before another ten days have passed the transports bearing the Fifth division, which is to be commanded by Sir Charles Warren, will begin to arrive in South African waters.

It is almost certain some of the new comers will be hurried up to strengthen the hands of Gatacre and French and protect Methuen's line of communication. For the moment the great turning operation which had been going on in the western field stops. Lord Methuen, on the extreme left, had been thrust forward to turn the Free States when they would break back toward Bloemfontein. As an incident to the general plan to relieve Kimberley General French was creeping up as a centre line and occupied town after town, conforming to Methuen's movement.

At last the time came when the pivot of the movement, General Gatacre's force, should move forward. The strategic necessity of seizing Stormberg was obvious. It is the junction of the main line from East London into the Orange Free State with the little branch line running west, which, when the bridge, somewhat destroyed, and the culverts have been repaired, will give communication by rail between Generals Gatacre and French.

The first move on Gatacre's part was to seize Stormberg if possible. This attempt has been defeated and he has retired to Molteno. The effect of this on the future conduct of the campaign cannot be prophesied with any certainty. General Gatacre will have to be reinforced very strongly. General French will have to pause in his advance. Lord Methuen, once the final action for the relief of Kimberley, is fought, will have to turn his attention to the line of communication with De Aar.

Methuen's Column.

London, Dec. 13.—This despatch comes from Pretoria:

"The Boers captured three British guns in the engagement with Gatacre's force at Stormberg.

"The sortie at Kimberley Saturday was an attempt to take the Boer position at Kamperdam and secure the waterworks. All the British shots fell short.

"Details are expected from the Boer outposts in the direction of Modder River. There is a report that the British are advancing on the plain, and heavy fighting is anticipated. General Prinsloo and General Cronje command the Boer forces."

Stormberg and Colesberg.

London, Dec. 13.—Stormberg is described as a stronger position than Laings Nek. The only road winds through lofty hills, and flanking is impossible. Colesburg is also said to be an almost impregnable position, and as no troops are available to reinforce the column acting in these directions, it becomes evident that General Gatacre's misfortune or error will delay the invasion of the Free State for some time. It is exceedingly probable that he will be compelled to retire on Queenstown and wait for reinforcements, which can hardly reach him until Sir Charles Warren's division arrives at the Cape.

Railway Bridge Destroyed.

London, Dec. 13.—This despatch comes from Frere Camp under date of last evening:

"The British cavalry reconnoitred today abreast of Colenso and exchanged shots with parties of Boers, who fell back across the river. The kopjes were observed to be thickly occupied by the enemy. The railway bridge at Colenso has been completely destroyed. Two stone piers were blown up last night. The highway bridge is intact."

Gompers' Condition Critical.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 13.—President Gompers, of the Federation of Labor, who was injured in a bicycle accident last week, is in a critical condition.

THE

"Know How"

—IN—

PAPER HANGING

is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.,

201 PARK AVE., Cor 2d ST.

Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.

Estimates furnished. Telephone call 635.

EDUCATIONAL

REV. H. C. EYME,

a native of Hanover, Germany, and a graduate of the Universities of Heidelberg and Gottengen, is prepared to receive pupils for instruction in GERMAN, FRENCH, SPANISH, GREEK and LATIN. Terms moderate. Best references on hand. For particulars call or address

78 Duer Street. North Plainfield, N. J.

12 11 6 eod

Plainfield Business College

CITY BANK BUILDING,

Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.

PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.

Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO

(City Bank Building.)

Adelia C. Phelps will resume work Sept. 26th. Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

PRIVATE INSTRUCTION

given in

German and Elementary French.

Address for terms,

MISS ALICE GILBERT,

M 8 1mo 811 West Fifth Street

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,

Teacher of

: : : PIANO AND THEORY : : :

Home Studio,

132 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,

Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.

—TEACHER OF—

PIANO AND ORGAN,

Address—60 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

Piano Instruction

Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.

MISS ANNA O. MARSH and MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.

915 MADISON AVENUE.

Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes Elementary Classes.

Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.

William Holmes

(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Duff.)

Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.

Studio at Residence,

440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

THAT'S THE IDEA!

You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.

Woolston & Buckle,

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS

141 North Avenue.

EXTRA

RICH MILK.

We are now ready to supply families who want the richest milk obtainable with milk which we guarantee to be from

JERSEY and GUERNSEY COWS.

Unexcelled in flavor and keeping qualities.

8c. per Quart Bottle.

SAMPLE FREE.

PLAINFIELD MILK AND CREAM CO.,

MARCHANT BROS., 327 WATCHUNG AVE.

XMAS IS NEAR

Now is the time to order your Xmas greens First come, first served. Holly, laurel and Xmas green wreaths and roping; also loose holly, palms, ferns, jardinieres and wicker baskets for Xmas presents.

MRS. L. J. DENTON,

Tel. call 731.

C. A. DUNHAM,

—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—

100 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas Telephone 87

POWERS' PHARMACY . Somerset St, Craig Place.

Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .

Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot AND Tar

is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anæsthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most Important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD,

FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.

Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Office Hours, 8 to 6.

Mrs. John Brown

Successor to

JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned

FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.

Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.

FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.

NEW YORK MAILS.

Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:20, 5:00, 5:20 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:20, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE and EASTON.

Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a m.; 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:20 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a.m.; 12:20, 5:00 and 7:15 p.m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.

WARRENVILLE.

Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P M.

ALEX. LUSARDI,

211 West Front Street,

Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery, nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores 9 9 1 year

: : Pride's Tonsorial Parlor : :

94 SOMERSET STREET,

opposite Somerset Hotel.

Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty . . . . . .

CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.

-:- WILLIAM J. PRIDE, -:-

formerly with E. B. Maynard.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.

Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum.

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .

(Licensed)

J. H. Staats, Pron'r.

107, 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.

EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.

AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

Park Avenue Hotel,

Park Avenue and Eighth Street, Plainfield.

Refurnished and Renovated.

Steam Heat in Every Room.

. . . Elevator . . .

First-Class in every respect.

Terms Moderate.

F. W. COLEMAN,

11 3 1mo Proprietor.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL.,

corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.

RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

-:- WINDOW SHADES -:-

Estimates cheerfully given.

Mail orders will receive prompt attention.

J. A. GREENE,

112 Madison Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

11 15 1mo

H. E. Gayle, 18 VINE STREET.

(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)

Carpenter and Builder

ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

M. POWERS,

DEALER IN

LEHIGH COAL.

FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.

Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A.

Yard 726 to 737 South Ave.

EXACT COPY OF WRAPPER.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

In Use For Over Thirty Years

CASTORIA

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

Holiday Goods.

Why you should see our assortment; a walk through our store will be the easiest way to solve the problem of what to get for presents for young and old.

Our line of fancy articles consists of everything imaginable in Celluloid, Plush and Glass Ware.

Handkeachiefs, gloves, neckwear, hosiery, umbrellas and dress goods of all kinds and all prices. Furs and worsted goods of every description.

DOLLS . . .

Dolls of all kinds can be found on our doll counter, our assortment is bewildering in their novelty, extent and attractiveness. Our prices are lower than any other house will quote for the same article.

TOYS -:- -:-

Our Toy Department in the basement is larger than ever before. No such collection was ever gathered here before, and it is safe to say there is no better stock in town in point of variety, there is no stock in town that equals ours in prices that's certain

Children's velocipedes, tricycles, battleships, iron toys of all kinds, tool chests, wash sets, soldier sets, dishes, horse and wagons, chairs, printing presses, electric batteries, express wagons, magic lanterns, etc.

I. H. Boehm, 109-111-113 West Front Street

DANIEL SNYDER & SONS,

•••••CITY MILLS•••••

(Successors to P. M. French)

WHOLESALERS and RETAILERS of Flour, Meal, Feed, Hay and Cereals.

Ever-Ready Flour and Buckwheat a specialty. 24 Somerset St.

We Shine 'em Free, The New Styles in Winter Shoes. Enamel Leathers, Box Calf and Tans.

Sherwins, 149 W. Front St.

"I have tried a good many kinds of medicines," said a man whose post-office address is Blue Mound, Macon Co., Ill., "but I never came across anything that gave me the relief that Ripans Tabules did. Before I took them I couldn't sleep, and had to stay up most all night. After meals I felt like I had a heavy weight on my stomach; my breast and bowels pained me, and my clothes seemed tight all the time. In the morning my hands would be cramped shut, and it would take quite awhile to get them open so I could use them. The Tabules relieved me in a short time. I don't want to keep house without them."

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (120 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

HE DIDN'T HAVE TO FIGHT

Lawton Occupies San Miguel Without Opposition.

WELCOMED BY NATIVES.

Inhabitants of the Town Petition for a Strong Garrison—Colonel Hayes Has a Hot Skirmish With the Enemy—American Commissary Train Attacked by Filipinos.

Manila, Dec. 13.—Gen. Lawton, with the Thirty-fifth Infantry and four troops of the Fourth Cavalry, has occupied San Miguel without a fight. The Filipino commander, Gen. Pio del Pilar, who made his headquarters there, with supposedly the largest force of natives north of Manila, is believed to have divided his men into scattered bands. The inhabitants have petitioned for a strong garrison.

Col. Hayes, with cavalry, had two brushes with the Filipinos. Two Americans were wounded.

Seventy Filipinos attacked a commissary bull train which was returning from Capas to Tarlac. The drivers escaped with the loss of their rations and effects.

The Situation in Luzon.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The War Department has received the following message from Gen. Otis, descriptive of the military situation in Luzon:

"Manila, Dec. 13.—In Bulcan province the Filipinos have been scattered and driven east to the mountains. Our casualties in that section in the last few days were ten. The native casualties in killed, wounded and prisoners aggregate 100. Considerable Filipino property, with records, arms and ammunition, have been captured. Our troops are now in the mountains in pursuit. The natives have been driven from Subig Bay, and the marines now occupy a naval station there. Our column moving west from Tarlac is now on the west coast of Luzon, where it has been supplied. It encountered little resistence. A column is now moving west and south from Bagupan along the coast. There is no concentrated Filipino force of importance in Luzon north of Manila. Southern Luzon will not offer any serious resistance. Troops are co-operating in that section. Organized rebellion no longer exists, and our troops are actively pursuing robber bands. All important and threatened centres of population in the far north have been occupied. OTIS."

Transports at Honolulu.

Honolulu, Dec. 5, via San Francisco, Dec. 13.—The transport Garonne, with mules on board, put into Honolulu, after failing, on account of storms, to reach Manila by the northern route from Seattle. She will resume her journey in a few days. The Port Stevens and Lennox have already gone, with horses and mules. The Haycock and City of Puebla arrived in good condition, although they encountered severe storms. They have left for Manila. The Duke of Fife, St. Paul, Ohio and Indiana are in port taking coal.

2,000 Spanish Prisoners Freed.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The War Department has received the following despatch:

"Manila, Dec. 13.—Two thousand additional Spanish prisoners taken in northern Luzon, making more than 3,000 released within a month; 700 now en route from Vigan, and transports will be sent for remainder. OTIS."

Herbette Tells What Should be Done.

Paris, Dec. 13.—Louis W. Herbette, Counsellor of State, has arrived in Paris, after a journey to Canada and the United States. He declares that urgent measures ought to be taken to solidify French influence in these countries among the population of French origin. A project is being considered for the organization of an association to accomplish this object. It is a fact that France is devoting much attention to the American continent in general at present.

A Monument For Anthony.

Nyack, N. Y., Dec. 13.—C. M. Travis, of this place, has a contract to place a monument over the grave of "Bill" Anthony in Evergreen Cemetery. The expense will be borne by a wealthy New York man, whose name is kept secret. The inscription on the monument will be Anthony's famous report to Captain Sigsbee: "Sir, I have to report that the ship has been blown up and is now sinking."

Earl's Liabilities Are Small.

London, Dec. 13.—At the sitting of the public examination of the Earl of Yarmouth, in bankruptcy proceedings, the receiver said that the Earl was still in the United States. He added that, as it was understood the Earl's liabilities were small, his relatives would probably make a proposal to settle the case.

Brumby Slightly Improved.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The physicians at Garfield Hospital announce that Lieut. Brumby is resting quietly and that his condition is slightly improved. He is by no means out of danger, but since Tuesday evening there has been no change for the worse.

Nominated by the President.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The President has sent to the Senate the nomination of John J. Sullivan to be United States Attorney for the Northern district of Ohio, and Joseph A. Gill, of Kansas, to be Judge of the United States Court of the Northern District of Indian Territory.

Received by the Pope.

Rome, Dec. 13.—The Pope has just received the Archbishop of San Francisco, the Very Rev. Patrick Riordan, and the Bishop of Newark, the Most Rev. W. M. Wigger, in audience.

Cheatham's Hill Purchased.

Peoria, Ill., Dec. 13.—Dan McCook's brigade of the Federal Army in the Civil War has purchased Cheatham's Hill, south of Chicamauga. It will be used as a National park.

She washes her delicate laces
With Ivory Soap suds, soft and warm;
The frailest in bottles she places
And shakes them — it cannot do harm.
If thoroughly rinsed with clear water,
They're wholly uninjured when dry
Because, as experience has taught her,
Ivory Soap has no free alkali.

The vegetable oils of which Ivory Soap is made fit it for many special uses for which other soaps are unsafe or unsatisfactory.

Copyright, 1898, by The Procter & Gamble Co., Cincinnati.

A NEW LEAGUE IS FORMED

Domestic Producers Meet and Complete an Organization

New York, Dec. 13.—A Special to the Press from Omaha, Neb., says:

"An organization has been formed in this city that is calculated to have a far-reaching effect. It is known as the League of Domestic Producers. The promoters of the association include some of the wealthiest corporations, and many of the Nation's prominent financiers and commerical men are connected wtih it. Henry T. Oxnard of New York is its president. He is the great "beet-sugar king," and in Nebraska alone has ten million dollars invested. In addition to the American Beet-Sugar Manufacturers' Association the organization includes the American Sugar Growers' Association, the Southern Cane Planters' Association, many fruit growers' unions from all sections of the country, farmers' alliance organizations and dozens of other organizations interested in protecting and promoting the agricultural productions of the United States. If necessary, it is asserted, this spirit shall be carried to the point of absolute antagonism to the colonial possessions of the United States recently acquired. In fact, it is an organization in every sense opposed to Free Trade with these colonies. This is its avowed purpose.

"Two hundred prominent men from all parts of the Nation were present at the meeting. Henry T. Oxnard acting as chairman. Among them were Herbert Myrick, editor of the Orange Judd, who is chairman of the committee appointed to go to Washington and work against the efforts of the Free Traders; James P. Cook, representing the Southern sugar industry; Henry McCall of the Cane Growers' Association; F. B. Moodie of Florida, president of the National Cigar Leaf Tobacco Growers' Association, and H. S. Frye of Connecticut, president of the New England Tobacco Growers' Association."

THE WITNESS FAINTED TWICE

Woman Testifying Against Mrs. Sanderson Made Poor Impression.

Battle Creek, Mich., Dec. 13.—The trial of Marie Sanderson on the charge of killing her husband by feeding him ground glass produced a sensation when Marie Robertson, Mrs. Sanderson's servant, twice collapsed under the searching inquiries of the lawyers. Her story is that Mrs. Sanderson fed ground glass to her husband and made damaging comments on the slowness of the work of it in killing him. She said that no doctor was called until Mr. Sanderson was past relief.

Mrs. Sanderson, she said, told her that "he has eaten so much glass he has had a slight stroke of paralysis and is liable to live ten years." The prisoner kept her eyes riveted on the witness, and when she swore to this Miss Robertson fainted and was taken from the court.

The manner of the witness has caused many to believe that she is rehearsing a story that has been drilled into her mind. When Crosby, lawyer for the prisoner, began to cross-examine, she fainted for the second time and again had to be removed.

The demeanor of Mrs. Sanderson is impressive. She has exhibited no signs of emotion, and her bearing toward Miss Robertson is one of pity and compassion rather than of anger.

Think Bryan Will be Appointed.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 13.—The Senatorial situation is daily becoming more complicated, and there are those who claim that the appointment of either Allen or Hitchcock will disrupt the party and that the Governor will be compelled either to appoint a dark horse or accede to the request of Orlando Tafft, Chairman of the State Republican Committee, and call a special session of the Legislature to settle the matter. Some believe now that Bryan will be appointed, basing their belief upon the fact that the morning Hayward died the Governor was closeted for several hours with Charles W. Bryan, brother of William J. Bryan.

Big Rival of Sugar Trust.

Dover, Del., Dec. 13.—When the Anglo-American Rapid Vehicle Company was incorporated here with a capital stock of $75,000,000 it was thought to be the largest industrial concern that ever would come under the general law of Delaware, but preparations have been begun for the incorporation of a $100,000,000 concern. The new combine is to be known as the Colonial Sugar Refining Company. A number of large sugar-making companies now outside the Trust are concerned. Its specific object is to extend the sugar industry in the islands of Hawaii, Porto Rico and Cuba.

Mayor Jones's Setback.

Toledo, O., Dec. 13.—The City Council of Toledo has completely overthrown the municipal ownership ideas of Mayor Jones so far as Toledo is concerned. Mayor Jones walked out of the committe meeting Tuesday evening saying: "Well, I guess I am no longer wanted." The City Council has ordered the sale of the Toledo National Gas plant to J. N. Bick for $228,000, although Mayor Jones presented a proposition from a firm offering to furnish the city with gas at a low rate, and at the end of ten years to turn over the plant to the city free of charge.

Assassinated Two Americans.

New Orleans, Dec. 13.—News has been received by steamer that Captain Jack Imboden, son of General Imboden of Virginia, and William Gold were assassinated in San Pedro, Honduras, recently by a drunken Spaniard, who fired on them through an open window. Imboden was struck once and Gold was struck three times. The Imbodens have large mining interests in Honduras.

Republicans Carry Boston.

Boston, Dec. 13.—After a spirited campaign, the Republicans won a victory in the Municipal election Tuesday, Thomas N. Hart defeating Gen. P. A. Collins, the Democratic nominee for Mayor, by 1,904 votes, the total vote being: Hart, 40,665; Collins, 38,761.

THE MOLINEUX CASE.

Testimony of the Handwriting Expert Occupies the Day.

New York, Dec. 13.—Compared to the interesting session, when Mamie Melando weepingly gave what the prosecution considers damning evidence against her friend and former employer, Roland B. Molineux, the proceedings in the great poison trial to-day were tame and tiresome.

The morbidly curious seem to demand something more exciting than wearisome statements concerning angles, curves and peculiarities of certain letters, consequently there was a noticeable falling off in the number of visitors to Part 2, General Sessions.

But with the prosecution darkly hinting at great surprises to be sprung shortly and the defence throwing out insinuations of being able to fasten the crime upon another than Molineux, interest in the sensational case is not allowed to waver for any great length of time. There are still to be heard the more prominent characters in the case—Harry S. Cornish, Assistant District Attorney McIntyre and perhaps Molineux himself and his wife.

Of course, the defense declines to admit that they have been injured to any great extent by the testimony of Mamie Melando, but to the spectators in the court room yesterday it appeared that the evidence obtained from the young woman is of the utmost importance. Besides furnishing coroborate proof of Molineux's use of the blue, crescent crested paper, she admitted to Recorder Goff, after much hesitancy, that she had been interviewed about that paper by Molineux's lawyer, Bartow S. Weeks, last January, or more than a month before the accused was arrested.

There is an uneasy feeling, amounting almost to panic, among the close friends of Roland Burnham Molineux to-day—the friends who have loyally stuck to the accused poisoner through the thick of the battle waged on him by the District Attorney's office. Fear for themselves as much as fear for the defendant in the big murder trial consume them.

The experience of Mamie Melando on the witness stand at the hands of two masters in deduction and cross-examination, Recorder Goff and Assistant District Attorney Osborne, has chilled their hearts.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

28 North Avenue. Telephone Call 62.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week $5 a year—in advance.

No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada

Delivered by carrier or by mail.

The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district

Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., DEC. 13, 1899

COMING EVENTS.

Dec. 13—Bible study conference at Y. M. C. A.
Dec. 14—Bible study conference at Y. M. C. A.
Dec. 15—Bible Study conference at Y. M. C. A.
Dec. 17—Adjutant Emily C. March will speak at the men's rally at the Y. M. C. A. at 4:15 p. m.

The Trust Peril and Its Remedy.

Whenever there is a discussion of the trust question New Jersey must naturally be interested in view of its generous treatment of these corporation monsters, and in this respect the Engineering Magazine for December prints an able article by John Graham Brooks that possesses timely consideration for the minds of those who can see nothing wrong in these great industrial monopolies and fly-by-night schemes. However little the evil effects of the corporation laws of New Jersey show now, it is inevitable that sooner or later there will be a reaction that will be decidedly unpleasant to those who are now busily engaged in caring for the "Cradle of Trusts." In his article Mr. Brooks points out that one of the principal perils of the trust, the influence of the large corporations upon politics and the bearing this influence has upon economic privilege.

The unsafety of a policy that tends to such a condition is already manifest to some extent in this State, and that it is growing and will continue to grow is self evident—unless there is a legal curb placed by the State lawmakers upon the present practices. Mr. Brooks says with a great deal of truth that the part certain corporations have played in corrupting the sources of political life in the United States is quite the gravest danger under which the country suffers. He argues convincingly:

> I have never heard so drastic a statement of this fact from the wildest Socialist, as I have heard a score of times from the very men who do these things. The new combinations add four-fold—ten-fold—to their power. What, then, shall keep them from the old tricks on a far greater scale? The manager of one of the strongest combinations in the United States said recently: "In concerns so concentrated and so powerful as the new combinations, the old secrecy will have to go. We shall be too easy a target for a hostile public opinion. We shall be driven, in self-defense, to methods that will bear the light." No feature of this whole movement is more hopeful than that which these words imply. The immense changes which the vaster organization carries with it are almost certain to force, for the first time in American industrial life, far greater publicity of business procedure.

The Baltimore Sun, in an editorial, inquiries whether we are becoming a hysterical people, and comes to the conclusion that we are. It analyzes the Roberts case and the Dewey excitement, and of the former it says: "How is all this to be explained except by a sudden wave of hysterical excitement, fomented, if not created, by the frenzied appeals of a class of people, male or female, notoriously most subject to such excitement and least qualified to deal intelligently and judically with a question of parliamentary procedure arising under the terms of the constitution?"

From present prospects in Legislative circles it is said that Union county Republicans will have the appointment of the Assembly journal clerk. The mantle of the office will doubtless fall on Noah Morrison, of Elizabeth, who filled the position last year. Somerset county is also promised an assistant sergeant-at-arms. In the natural course of political practices the choice of the incumbent will be left to Assemblyman Cooper.

If the Bikers are really in earnest about giving Elizabeth the go-by in relation to the proposed trolley franchise in that city, why don't they give the necessary notice in official form? They have not done so yet, though there has been ample time, and it is not at all likely that they will. There are no two ways about it—they have got to get into Elizabeth, and under the terms the City Council determines, too.

The Philadelphia Public Ledger, regarding the killing of sixty Boers after their surrender at Elandslaagte, says: "When the Boers, the correspondents and the troopers themselves agree as to the facts, the wantonly inhuman actions of the British soldiers admit neither of dispute nor palliition. Great Britain has a long and dark record for atrocious brutality on the 'field of valor,' and she is adding to it."

Petitions bearing the signatures of Hudson county lawyers, both Democrats and Republicans, have been submitted to Gov. Voorhees urging the reappointment of Supreme Court Justice Job Lippincott. Justice Lippincott has made a reputation as an able and fearless jurist, and it is not thought there will be the slightest opposition to his reappointment.

One of the most difficult things to do at this season of the year is to make up your mind what kind of gifts you are going to make on Christmas. Helpful hints will be found in the business announcements of the local merchants to be found in The Daily Press advertising columns.

If there are any Republican politicians in New Jersey who have not been mentioned as likely candidates to fill the political boots of the late Vice-President Hobart, will they please step forward. They are few and far between.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

The owners of speedy horseflesh in this city are making ready to appear before the street committee of the new Common Council when it is organized and make a strong argument for the establishment of a speedway within the city limits. The idea is to have a section of a certain street set aside whereon driving at a faster gait than eight miles an hour, can be indulged in by those who enjoy the sport. East Front street, above Leland avenue, or Park avenue, below Randolph road, has been suggested as good streets to be used for speeding. Those interested in the movement claim that many wealthy men, who own horses and like to speed them without going way out in the country, are being kept away from Plainfield as residents owing to the lack of a street where fast driving can be indulged in without fear of being haled to the police court as a violator of a city ordinance.

OFFICERS OF G. A. R.

Dr. Berg Elected Commander of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, for the Ensuing Year.

At the regular meeting of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., held last evening, the annual election of officers resulted as follows: Commander, Dr. Berg; senior vice-commander, Robert Walker; junior vice-commander, Augustus Runyon; quartermaster, John R. Naylor; surgeon, Abraham King; chaplain, John Goodwin; officer of the day, Albert Perry; officer of the guard, John Finley; council of administration, W. C. Smith, M. C. Dobbins, W. W. Coriell; delegates to the Department Encampment, Israel Compton, Francis Whiteley; alternates, V. W. Nash, Wm. Alpaugh. The above officers will be installed at the first meeting in January.

Another Central Official to Live Here.

S. S. Forbes, a new official of the Jersey Central Railroad, moved to Plainfield today with his family, and has taken up his residence at 448 Carlton avenue. Mr. Forbes has had considerable experience in the railroad business. He comes from Omaha, Neb.

Only One Week Left to Pay Up.

One week from today the time limit for the payment of taxes will be up in the borough. After that the amounts will be collected with interest and cost. Don't fail to see the collector before that time.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

—Dave, the barber, of 213 West Front street, opposite Music Hall, has the finest hot water baths with shower in the city. His baths are always ready. Try one of his good shaves and a bath.

—Those contemplating making holiday purchases should be interested in the announcement of Woodhull & Martin in today's issue, concerning a large closing out purchase of holiday goods at astoundingly low prices.

THERE IS A CLASS OF PEOPLE

Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over ¼ as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15c. and 25c. per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it; no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,
122 East Front Street.

Important ANNOUNCEMENT

Taking advantage of the importers' closing-out sales we have recently consummated an extensive purchase of holiday goods at ridiculously low prices. By closing out entire lots we secured unheard of values. Goods are now here and on Sale. Purchase was very comprehensive and includes 24-karat gold-plated Clocks, burnished frame plate glass Swinging Mirrors, Comb and Brush Sets, Toilet Articles, Manicure Sets, Photo Frames, French Vases, and many other choice Holiday Novelties. In the lot are 21 doz. only Tinted Medallions—a regular 75c number. They will be sold at 48c each while they last. A more magnificent collection of Toys, Books, and Holiday Goods in general has never been offered the people of this community. Do not fail to visit us.

. . . A Word of Warning . . .

Judging from present indications we are to have an unprecedented crush this year. We are only too anxious to wait upon people promptly and satisfactorily, but our resources are already taxed and we are a little concerned for the coming week. We counsel you to buy now while you can shop with comparative comfort. DO NOT DELAY. . . .

This Week Store will be Open till 9 p. m.

NO STAMP BOOKS will be redeemed at any time next week. We are too busy and must ask your indulgence to this extent. Trading Stamps with all Cash purchases.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,
234, 236, 238, 246 W. Front Street.

PECK'S CORNER.

LIKE A PROCESSION

Someone must lead. We are not the "whole thing," but are right up in front.

HOLIDAY GOODS -:- AT PECK'S

Happy New Year!
Merry Christmas!
SANTA CLAUS cannot do more for you than . . . .
Silas D. Drake is willing to do in offering you big inducements on lots at . . . .
WOODLAND . . PARK,
Plainfield.

-- THE GREATEST --

Overcoat and Ulster Sale

WE EVER HELD.

If you wish to purchase an overcoat or an ulster for yourself or your boy, do not fail to take advantage of this opportunity. We buy and sell more clothing than any two stores in Plainfield; we purchase in very large quantities for spot cash and are able to buy it at our own prices We recently bought over 1,000 Very Fine Ulsters and Overcoats from a financially embarassed manufacture far below his cost of making; not sample overcoats, but regular stock made for one of the largest clothing houses and rejected on account of the late delivery The assortment are in all shades and sizes and as they are not likely to last long at the prices noted we advise an early selection.

MEN'S ALL-WOOL MELTON ULSTER at 4.00, that would readily sell in other stores at 8.50.

MEN'S FINE ULSTERS made of very heavy and Genuine Shamrock Irish Frieze, strictly all-wool, in greys and browns, regular 12.00 value, at 4.90.

Strictly all-wool men's beaver and melton overcoats at 4.25, honestly and truly worth 7.50.

MEN'S OXFORD GREY OVERCOATS, the new shade, a very handsome business overcoat, only 40 in this lot, we offer them for this sale at 5.25, wholesale prices was 8.50.

50 VERY FINE DRESS OVERCOATS, coverts, meltons, friezes and kerseys, these garments are very handsomely made up, have satin linings, silk velvet collars, full backs and are short cut, would easily command from 15.00 to 18.00, to be sold at this sale at 7.25.

CHILDREN'S REEFERS and OVERCOATS, sizes from 3 to 8 years, at 1.00, worth 2.00; 1.50, worth 3.00.

Very fine blue and black chinchillas, made with either velvet or sailor collars, at 2.25, regular price 4.50.

BOYS' OVERCOATS from 8 to 16, at 1.75, 2.25 and 2.75. This selection is worth double the price.

YOUNG MEN'S OVERCOATS, ages from 14 to 19, at 1.75, 2.50 and 4.00, worth from 5.00 to 7.00.

Remember this is a very special sale and it will pay you to attend for your own interest, as this will positively be the best chance you will have between now and Christmas.

If for any reason whatever you are not satisfied within 3 days you can have your goods exchanged or money refunded.

Hundreds of other overcoats in our stock that are great bargains that are not mentioned in this advertisement.

New York Clothing Company
M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.
Plainfield, N. J.
Car fare paid from any direction.

OPEN EVENINGS. FURNITURE.

Wouldn't a clean finished, well-made piece of Furniture make an ideal Christmas present?

FURNITURE. Jardinier Stands from 50c to $5.00.

POWLISON & JONES,
149 and 151 E. Front Street.

CHRISTMAS is Coming.

Anything in our line make sensible Christmas gifts: Shoes, Slippers, Rubber Boots, etc. Don't fail to visit our store.

VANARSDALE, 127 East Front St.
Repairing Properly Done.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, Dec. 13—The funeral of Runyon Walker was well attended yesterday from his late home in Piscataway township. The deceased, who was 92 years of age, is survived by several children, one of his daughters being the wife of Dr. Nelson, of New Market. The interment was at Stelton.

The work of macadamizing the highway on the south side of the street near the terminus of the Plainfield Street Railway is about completed by Garretson & Gray, who have the contract for the Brunswick Traction Company.

The population of Dunellen has been increased by the birth, Monday evening, of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hollingshead.

W. H. Carman, the butcher, is negotiating for the sale of his meat market to parties in Newark.

The exact number of rats captured in W. H. Carman's meat market last week was 62.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 13.—Fanwood Council, R. A., held an important meeting in their rooms last evening. The annual election of officers for the ensuing year was held and resulted as follows: Regent, T. R. Collins; vice regent, James Nichols; orator, W. R. Buckley; treasurer, Geo. Kyte; secretary, Norman Dunn; collector, James H. Parks; guide, F. R. Allen; chaplain, John Robinson; sentry, George Dudley Kyte; warden, John Cook; past regent, E. L. Hand.

The ladies of the public library will hold an afternoon tea in the library rooms tomorrow afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. During the tea Mrs. Charles Sykes, who has recently returned from a European trip extending several years, will give an interesting talk of her travels in foreign lands.

Dr. J. Q. A. Henry, of the Anti-Saloon League, addressed an exceptionally large and deeply interested audience in the Baptist church last evening. The speaker made a sweeping range of the question of the day.

Electric light poles are being erected along Montague avenue, and in a few days it is expected that this new avenue, which has been recently opened, will present as bright an appearance nights as its neighbors.

Rev. G. M. Shott will make an address on temperance in the Flemington Baptist church tomorrow night.

Mrs. Hattie Brasch, who has been visiting friends in town, has returned to her home in Kearney.

Mrs. Charles Smith, of Westfield, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs J. C. Lyons.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, Dec. 13—At a meeting of Court Provident, No. 3130, I. O. F., the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Chief ranger, E. W. Chamberlin; vice-chief ranger, E. N. Brown; treasurer, Dr. Fred. A. Kinch; recording secretary, Louie E Hendrickson; financial secretary, William H. Winter; chaplain, Charles E. Cox, Senior woodward, Dr. T. R. Harvey; Junior woodward, Charles Mitchell; senior beedle, Fred. Bower; court physician, Dr. Fred. A. Kinch; deputy, Charles Cox; trustees, Dr. T. R. Harvey, Martin Cauefield. At this meeting four new members were elected to membership. They were E. O. Hendrickson, Waldo E. Hendrickson, Frank W. Schweinfruth and John J. See.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Unity Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular meeting this evening.

—The work of macadamizing West Third and Fourth streets is gradually nearing completion.

—Handsome new awnings are being erected in front of Woodhull & Martin's dry goods store.

—Crescent Division, U. R. K. of P., will meet this evening, and after the business of the evening will enjoy a banquet.

—A regular meeting of the Grocers' Protective Association was held Monday night when matters of interest to the members was discussed.

Bon Ami

Cleans and Polishes

EVERYTHING—PAINT, METALS AND GLASS, BATH TUBS, OILCLOTH, TIN WARE AND HANDS.

BRIGHAM H. ROBERTS AND HIS WIVES.

Brigham H. Roberts, congressman-elect from Utah, was not sworn in with the other members of the Fifty-sixth Congress. Charges were lodged that he had violated the compact made at the time Utah became a state in that he had continued in the practice of polygamy. After a short discussion the Roberts case was referred to a special committee of nine members of the House, with Mr. Taylor, of Ohio, as chairman.

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS THAT PLAINFIELDERS MAY WITNESS.

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World

In the railroad scene in "The Heart of Chicago," Lincoln J. Carter's great play which will be in Music Hall tomorrow night, a seemingly impossible feat in the stage effect has been accomplished—the approach of a train—head on—growing larger and larger as it appears in full view of the audience, from a mere speck in the horizon until at last when the audience is almost wild with the excitement of the situation the full-sized locomotive stops at the foot-lights. The illusion is perfect. At the beginning of the act a beautiful and realistic scene is shown, with the track in perfect perspective running back apparently about four miles until it is lost in the distance, such as is usual in the great war panorama of Gettysburg, etc. The mechanism of the enlarging locomotive is the most intricate and costly piece of machinery ever used in stage effect and like all the stage illusions used in play was invented by Mr. Carter, who has always boasted that he could reproduce on the stage any wonder of nature or work of man. After seeing the approaching train in "The Heart of Chicago" one must admit that the possibilites of stage illusions is indeed great when in the hands of one who is a master of art.

* * * * *

"The Singing Girl" has entered upon its last month of unparalleled success at the famous Casino in New York. Alice Neilson's continucus popularity in this excellent production cannot be expressed by the ordinary term, "a hit." She has set a standard which must henceforth be emulated by successful musical companies. Supported by three of the best comedians on the stage, Miss Neilson has carried the Casino through three months of prosperity and theatre goers, while they regret the departure of their favorite address, yet feel confident that the management of the theatre will live up to its reputation and produce something that will rank with the "Singing Girl" to succeed it.

To Resume His Old Work.

Joseph Allen, of Woodhull & Martin's dry goods store, will resign the first of the year to accept a position with the Leeslie Newspaper Syndicate, of New York. He was formerly in their employ, but owing to ill health he was obliged to resign. He intends to reside in this city and commute.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve

Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 25c at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Moynihan, of Bound Brook, has been visiting Plainfield relatives.

Miss Lewis, of Somerset street, has taken a position at Boehm's dry goods store.

John Naylor, of East Third street, is improving from a severe attack of pneumonia.

Charles Vail, of Valley, N. J., who has been visiting Plainfield friends, has returned.

William Hay, of New York, has been the guest of Francis J. Blatz, of Somerset street.

Miss Baker, of Watchung avenue, has accepted a position at Bonn's, West Front street.

Miss Etta Newman, of New York, formerly of this city, has been the guest of Mrs. A. A. Cannon, of Somerset street.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Joseph Moore, of West Front street, has been south on an extended business trip.

Miss Edith Hurlbut, of West Front street, is slowly recovering from a tedious illness.

Harry Batten, of this city, will go to the Paris Exposition with a friend next year.

Mr. and Mrs. MacClymont, of Washington avenue, left today to spend several weeks in New York.

Mrs. Josie Addison and son, Mathew Addison, of New York, are guests at the home of S. C. Mundy, of Stone street.

Miss Kittie Graves, of Liberty street, has resigned her position as bookkeeper at the grocery of J. A. Smith & Bro.

Mrs. Josie Vollin and daughter, Miss Anna Vollin, of New York, have been the guests of Mrs. J. A. Blatz, of Somerset street.

Joseph Barry, of West Second street, is seriously ill with pneumonia, and the physicians have given up hopes of his recovery.

Charles Graves, of Liberty street, who recently received injuries by being thrown from a wagon, is able to go out and attend to business.

Mrs. Samuel Porter Williams, of Hartford, Conn., is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs E. B. Clark, of Crescent avenue.

Councilman J. F. Buckle, of Westervelt avenue, still continues to improve from a severe illness, and his friends hope to see him about very soon.

Miss Sallie Swazey, of Washington, D. C., formerly of Plainfield, has been spending several days at the home of Dr. Ellis W. Hedges, of Watchung avenue.

Josiah Browne, of Watchung avenue, who has been and is still very ill with typhoid fever, continues to improve, much to the gratification of his many friends.

Francis E. Wood, of Franklin place, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Katharine Wood, and Miss Edith Gilbert, of Crescent avenue, have gone to Washington, D. C., for a short trip.

Dr. Ralph Waldo Emerson will at an early date take up his residence on Washington avenue, in Washington Park, where he and his brother, who is a practicing physician, will open offices.

George Serrell, who is detained at a hospital in New York suffering with two fractures of the leg, is gradually recovering and he hopes to be able to leave the hospital in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Tyler have returned from their wedding trip and are visiting at the home of Col. Mason W. Tyler, of West Seventh street They will take up their residence in New York for the winter and occupy their new home on West Eighth street in the spring.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store.

AT RANDOLPH'S,

NEW GOODS

One Lot of Choice Handkerchief Extracts in handsome boxes, which we will sell at a special price:

50 CENTS

These goods cannot be replaced. Suitable for Holiday Gifts.

Agency for Lowney's and Whitman's Superior Confections.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for Lowney's Chocolate and Chocolate Bon-bons. TELEPHONE CALL 100

FARMERS IN MEXICO.

Primitive Methods Employed in the Domain of Diez.

Mexican farming is widely different from that in the United States. Irrigation is necessary in the greater portion of this country, and, on account of the scarcity of water, a large extent of land cannot be utilized. When the owner of land has sufficient water for the purpose indicated he holds on to his property and rarely can be induced to sell, as it is of permanent value to him. For the last 300 years large tracts of land have been owned by individuals or families, who have spent heavy sums of money for canals and dams in order to make them productive. On account of this and the attending expenses of irrigation there are fewer small farmers in Mexico than there are in the United States. Until recently farming in Mexico has been on the primitive order, but the Mexican is expert in irrigation, and if he can get the water his land becomes fertile and yields generously. During the last two decades decided improvements have been accomplished through the introduction of modern implements into farming in Mexico. The increase in production corresponds to the improvements in farming apparatus. The great railroads of the country have been important factors in this advance, enabling farmers with a surplus of production to ship to those less fortunate.

The cost of labor is from 25 to 50 cents (12 to 24 cents in United States currency) per day, depending on the locality. There are two crops of corn a season, upon which the farmer averages $50 ($24.50) per acre grass.

Cattle raising is and has always been a profitable business in Mexico, consequent upon cheap labor, low taxes and the large tracts of cheap land which are suitable for grazing only. Until recently no attempt has been made to improve the stock, but certain large cattlemen have now undertaken to do this and steady improvement is certain henceforth. The demand created during the late war with Spain and the high prices which obtained in the United States increased the price of cattle to such an extent that the northern portion of the country has become depopulated of its stock, which, it is said, will take several years to replenish. This means a continuance of high prices in cattle in that quarter. Dairy farming in the neighborhood of large cities is lucrative, milk selling at 50 cents (24 cents) per gallon and butter at 75 cents to $1 (36 cents to 48.1 cents) per pound. Those engaged in this business make money rapidly.

Fruit and vegetable farming is beginning to attract attention. Formerly this amounted to simply enough for the home market. Now an effort will be made to supply the United States with early fruits and vegetables. The movement is in its incipiency, but it is destined to grow into large proportions. Oranges, lemons, tomatoes, beans, etc., are produced in Mexico from four to eight weeks earlier than in the United States. Hence this will be a profitable business in the near future. Wheat is cultivated in the high tablelands of central Mexico and is fairly profitable. It is not the equal of that grown in the United States either in quantity per acre or quality. Para and Bermuda grass give pasturage in many sections of the country. They are said to be equal to any in the world.

Parts of the country are adapted to the growth of tropical products, viz., coffee, vanilla, rubber, cocoanut, etc., the quality of all being first class. It is said the best vanilla in the world comes from the state of Vera Cruz and the best cocoa from the state of Chiapas. The coffee of Michoacan is said to be equal to any; the tobacco of Vera Cruz is preferred by many to that of Havana and the sugar production of southern Tamaulipas or northern Vera Cruz is said to be surpassed by that of no country save Hawaii in quantity, and it is more profitable to the producers, for the reason that seven to ten crops are the result of one planting, whereas the Hawaiian planters get only two. Taken as a whole, farming in Mexico is an inviting field for persons of capital and intelligence.

The Old Minister.

"Age has its advantages in the office of the ministry, but it has also very evident disadvantages, and when the balance is struck perhaps a congregation is right in the idea that it is losing and not gaining under the ministry of an old man," writes "Ian Maclaren" in the December Ladies' Home Journal. "For one thing—and it is a very serious one—a minister after a certain age is almost impervious to new ideas. Of course the exact age will vary with different men, and it is dangerous even to hint at it, since the reader would always be able to mention exceptions. There are men to whose minds no new idea can find access at the age of thirty—men of hopeless dullness, who will be an incubus on a congregation all their days and there are men whose minds will be hospitable to the latest ideas at the age of fourscore. With the average man there comes a time when his mind crystallizes and his beliefs become absolutely fixed. He may not resent the discoveries of younger men; he certainly will not assimilate them. He may not oppose new methods of action; he certainly will not adopt them. His preaching may be absolutely as good as it was before, because it will be the same, without any addition of new thought; but it may be bad, comparatively speaking, because it should have much new material."

Fairies are "shod with light," but

VICI KID

....VICI KID....

wearers are shod with lightness. he marvel is that kid so fine and soft can be so tough and durable and wet-proof.

Robert H Foerderer alone has the secret of Vici Kid, and of Vici Dressing and Vici Polish.

During the week we have a ladies' maid teaching at the store the right way to dress shoes, and giving valuable hints as to the care of them. Those who learn the lesson we teach get greater satisfacti n and double wear from their shoes.

Shoes dressed FREE of charge.

Don't forget DOLLS' DAY, Saturday.

DOANE & EDSALL.

THE BOOT SHOP

AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,

107 Park Avenue.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.

Capital, $150,000.

Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.

CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

DIRECTORS.

Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Closson. H. G Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold. J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J. B. Coward.

General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

EXECUTOR'S SALE

OF VALUABLE

PERSONAL PROPERTY.

The undersigned, executor of D. M. Walter, deceased, will sell at public vendue at 12 m., sharp, on THURSDAY,

DECEMBER 21, 1899.

On farm formerly owned by D. M. Walter, on the road leading from Plainfield to Rahway, near Hillside Golf Grounds.

All the personal property of which. D. M. Walter, died, seized, consisting of beds, bedding, carpets, stoves, chairs, tables, mirrors, cutlery, crockery, etc. Also farming implements and machinery.

HOUSEHOLD and KITCHEN FURNITURE.

.....ONE BLACK HORSE.....

Lot of Poultry.

Sleigh, 1-horse plough, cultivator, harness, sled, spring wagon, hay rigging, rake, fanning mill, hay cutter, 2-seated carriage, plows, 1-horse carriage, buggy. Also 50 bushels old corn, hay, 30 gallons vinegar, and various other articles too numerous to mention.

TERMS made known on day of sale.

12 6 td W. R. CODINGTON, Executor.

LADIES' TAILORING.

RICHARDSON & WALD,

325 West Front Street.

TAILOR-MADE GARMENTS.

We make a specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits. Alterations and relining promptly attended to.

—DRESSMAKING.—

Our Dressmaking Department is in charge of Madame Walsh.

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.

Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J
Perth Amboy, N. J.

Gigantic Sale of Toys in our New Basement

COMMENCING WEDNESDAY MORNING.

Scores of toys of every description that are usually sold at 25, 35 and 39c—

All at the very nominal price of 10c

Toys of several hundred kinds that are usually sold at 10, 15 and 20c—

All at the very nominal price of 5c

This will be a toy event the magnitude and scope of which you can have no conception without making a personal inspection. Our spacious basement will be the little ones paradise.

FANCY CHAIRS.

You will be astonished at the extraordinary value we are showing in fancy chairs of all kinds. Parlor chairs, hall chairs, bedroom chairs, dining room chairs, high chairs for children, rocking chairs for children, all at less than you are accustomed to pay for well-made, well-finished, stylish, durable furniture.

We show a big assortment of Blacking Cases, Medicine Chests, etc., goods that possess real merit at a very nominal price.

Buy From the Manufacturer

AND SAVE MONEY

Our facilities for making clothing enables us to place on our tables clothing ready to wear at prices below what the average retailer would have to pay for it, that is the secret of our increasing business.

Our $3.25 Men's suits are as good as the average $5 00 suit.

Our $4.25 Suits compare with the average $6.00 suit. And so on along the line—

Our $8 50, $9.00, $9.50, $9.75 and $10.00 suits are made from pure stock, they are stylish in cut and superbly tailored. We particularly call the attention of the dressers to this line.

Schepflin & Schultz,

M. J. Cashin, Manager.

322 West Front St.

"ISN'T IT TOO CUTE FOR ANYTHING!"

So runs the chorus of feminine praise over this, that or the other pretty brooch in our fine collection. Husband, father, brother, beau—here's the fit thing! The price-range is $2.50 to $25.00—and there never was better choosing in pretty jewelry. You can make no mistake in picking with your eyes shut—but best come while the selection is complete.

Large Solid Silver Nethersole Bracelets, - - - - 75c
Solid Silver Brush and Comb, - $2.50
In a silk-lined case.

COLLIER, Jeweler,

103 Park Ave.

Established 1869.

DRAKE & MUNDY,

207 West Front Street.

Dealers in

--Fresh and Salt Meats--

Special Sales on

Fridays and Saturdays,

WATCH THIS SPACE.

STATIONERY and TOYS.

We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles for the Holiday trade.

CHRISTMAS CARDS and CALENDARS.

We make a specialty of FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.

High Grade Cigars.

Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.

B. W. HAND,

205 W. Front Street.

CAMERAS

—AND—

Photographic Supplies.

SPALDING'S

Golf and Sporting Goods

Phonographs and Gramophones.

GEO. W. WRENNICK,

133 North Ave.

CHARLES ARNOLD,

Dealer in all kinds of

Fresh and Salt Meats,

POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON.

203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.

Telephone 238.

CHAS. L. FORCE,

Architect and Superintendent.

208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 11 tf

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Württemberg.

Stuttgart. Es hat sich unter dem Namen Wilhelma-Theater-Gesellschaft eine Gesellschaft von Garantiezeichnern gebildet, die das zwischen Stuttgart und Cannstatt gelegene Wilhelma-Theater, das seit vielen Jahren unbenutzt dasteht, für Theaterzwecke übernehmen wird. Die nöthigen Abmachungen mit der Krongutsverwaltung sind getroffen. Das Theater wird umgebaut und vergrößert; es sollen im Sommer von dem bekannten Theaterdirektor Martin Klein, im Winter von der Hoftheater-Intendanz Vorstellungen gegeben werden.

Bopfingen. Stadtschultheiß Dörr hier hat sein Amt, das er seit 23 Jahren mit seltener Umsicht und Pflichttreue geführt, wegen vorgerückten Alters niedergelegt.

Gmünd. Nachts gerieth der 65 Jahre alte Bauer Georg Kümmel vom Schierenhof, Gemeinde Straßdorf, in die Rems und fand den Tod.

Heilbronn. Dieser Tage wurde das erste in Heilbronn auf der Werft der Schiffbauerei Seibert erbaute eiserne Lastschiff vom Stapel gelassen. Das auf den Namen „Paul Hegelmaier" getaufte Schiff ist für die Fahrt auf dem Neckar und Rhein bestimmt.

Ohmenheim. Der vier Jahre alte Sohn des Maurers Knödel hier zündete einige vor der Scheuer seines Vaters liegende Strohbündel an. Das Feuer theilte sich rasch dem Gebäude, das zum Theil mit Stroh bedeckt war, mit, und der herrschende Ostwind übertrug das Feuer auf das Wohn- und Oekonomiegebäude des Johann Westhäuser und die Scheuer des Hirschwirthes Hersch; sämmtliche Gebäude brannten nieder.

Baden.

Karlsruhe. Die „Südwestd. Schulblätter" berichten, daß an den Realschulen in den vier badischen Städtchen Emmendingen, Kehl, Kenzingen und Schopfheim 90 Mädchen mit den Knaben unterrichtet werden; insgesammt nehmen an 14 badischen Realanstalten 271 Mädchen am Unterricht Theil. Zehn dieser Schulen werden, weil sie noch nicht sechs- oder siebenklassig sind, noch als höhere Bürgerschulen bezeichnet. Der gemeinsame Unterricht beider Geschlechter bewähre sich durchaus und habe noch nirgends zu Unzuträglichkeiten geführt, er sei vielmehr für kleinere Städte eine große Wohlthat.

Badenweiler. Der Hauptlehrer Reinold stürzte, als er eine Flagge einziehen wollte, aus dem dritten Stockwerk und verstarb auf der Stelle.

Constanz. Landgerichtspräsident Dr. Florian Gruber, früher lange Jahre erster Staatsanwalt in Karlsruhe, ist im Krankenhause nach einer Operation gestorben.

Mannheim. Der Friseur August Laier stürzte bei einer Radtour in Folge des herrschenden Nebels so unglücklich, daß er einen schweren Schädelbruch erlitt. Er verfiel in Tobsucht und starb.

Elsaß-Lothringen.

Straßburg. Zum Oberrabbiner der hiesigen israelitischen Gemeinde wurde der seitherige Oberrabbiner Ury in Metz ernannt.—Nach einer Mittheilung der „Hagenauer Zeitung" hat die Militärverwaltung die Absicht, den Truppenübungsplatz Hagenau bedeutend zu vergrößern; Verhandlungen mit den Grundbesitzern seien schon im Gange. Die Vergrößerungen sollen sich auf Theile des großen Hagenauer Forstes, sowie auf mehrere in der Nähe gelegene Besitzungen erstrecken. Nach dem Urtheil jenes Blattes entspricht eine Vergrößerung des Uebungsplatzes sehr dem Wunsche der dortigen Bevölkerung, und man hofft, daß die Verhandlungen sich nicht etwa durch zu hohe Forderungen zerschlagen, wie dies früher in Bitsch der Fall war.

Saarburg. Ein Soldat des Ulanen-Regiments Nr. 15 erhängte sich in der Nähe der Station Oberhammer. Der Soldat hatte die Absicht, zu desertiren, dieweil er aber Civilkleider unterwegs nicht zu erhalten vermochte, hatte er nicht die Kourage, zurückzukehren.

Enfisheim. Seitens der Stadtverordneten wurde beschlossen, dem hier geborenen, ehemaligen Jesuiten Jakob Balde ein Denkmal zu setzen. Jakob Balde war einer der berühmtesten lateinischen Dichter des 17. Jahrhunderts. Den deutschen Horaz nannten ihn seine Zeitgenossen, und Enfisheim nennt ihn heute noch so und ehrt sein Andenken nicht mit Unrecht durch ein Denkmal.

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill.
Turning and Scroll Sawing.

E. D. BARRETT,
Sanitary Plumber.
Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Telephone 612. 148 East Fifth Street.

STARVING RUSSIANS.

Fight Death With Sleep During the Long Winters.

From the districts of Popow and of Pskow comes the news that the poverty-stricken peasants of those blighted provinces are again alone to begin their annual struggle with death by starvation. It is not a new condition for these unfortunates to face. For years the crops have been insufficient to keep alive the men and women who spend their lives in the sowing and the reaping. Each winter finds many victims of starvation, but adds also to the experience of these thousands whose one and only object is to solve the problem of keeping body and soul together.

Their only solution of the problem was found in the example of the lowest orders of animal—hibernation; and now when the sun begins to fall the peasants seek forgetfulness of hunger in the Loska or "winter sleep." In the villages and hamlets of those districts the men and women and even little children are busy digging and piling up great heaps of peat. The little grain left is being ground and baked into hard loaves of coarse bread, and these loaves are hoarded like gold, for they are all that stand between the peasants and death between now and the spring.

Around the great oven that stands in the center of each poor hut the low wooden cots of the family are arranged. The fires are started. There is almost no ventilation in the huts, and that is part of the campaign against death. The members of the family will go down to the winter's sleep" and soon lose consciousness. One alone of the family will guard—to feed the fire. The vigil is a terrible one. Around him lie those most dear to him, struggling against death. Hour after hour the peat—nature's only gift to these unfortunates is piled on the fire. The atmosphere is stifling. The sleepers lie in a stupor—more dead than alive—but at least unconscious to the awful pangs of hunger. But hunger at last manifests itself. Once each day the sleepers rouse from their stupor, a crust of the bread for each is taken from the board, soaked in water and munched. The guard is changed, and again the sleepers crawl back to their cots.

And so day after day, night after night, the long fight against starvation is kept up—until, at last, the spring comes, and with it new life and new hope.—Correspondent New York Journal.

BOERS INHUMAN.

So Writes One Mrs. Rapley of the Transvaal People.

Mrs. Adrian Rapley, writing in the Sketch of a visit to the Transvaal in 1891 dwells on the marked incivility of the Boers to English travelers. She says it was a rare occurrence to receive even the courtesy of an answer while 'trekking" it through the country districts, and it was almost impossible to obtain food other than that they carried with them in their ox carts On one occasion she was even refused a drink of water at a farmhouse.

"If you want water you should bring it with you," said the farmer. "We don't encourage foreigners."

This treatment was the same in the Orange Free State.

"Women need be very brave, and full of pluck and energy," she writes, "to stand the roughings of a South African life. No woman knows what it means until she has tried it; and by 'roughing' I don't mean only having to put up with bad servants, but I mean having to live where one cannot get servants for any money, and having to put up with the shocking way one is treated by one's fellow farmers, the Boers.

"Until England shows her strength we can never expect anything but incivility and malicious treatment from that race. Therefore a war, I am sure, will prove a blessing among the English people all over South Africa. For myself, I do not mind, for I shall never settle there for many months together; but I feel very greatly for the people who are struggling to make their way in the world ,and are prevented from doing so by this selfish, inhuman race."

Romeo Was Saved.

Mr. Edward Vernon had long had an ambition to play Romeo, and when the opportunity did occur, it must be confessed that he scored fair success.

The play had traveled smoothly along to the scene where "Romeo" is lying dead. Just as "Juliet" bent over him in the wild paroxysm of her despair, before taking her own life, the object of her passion felt a premonitory tingling in his nose.

A sneeze was coming, as sure as he lived. Suddenly there overspread his features an expression more agonized than the stage death struggle had ever left.

"Teddy, what is the matter?" whispered the dying "Juliet," in real alarm.

"I'm going to sneeze," gasped the miserable "Romeo."

"No, you're not, my boy," answered the determined young woman, setting her teeth together. She grasped the nasal appendage of her lover and gave it such an unmerciful tweak that he came near coming to life on the spot. But he didn't sneeze, and his reputation was saved.

An Every Day Pudding.

An excellent every-day pudding may be made with a cupful of fruit juice as a foundation. Bring to the boiling point one cupful of water and one cupful of fruit juice. Dissolve three tablespoonfuls of cornstarch in a little cold water, stir into the boiling sirup and cook ten minutes. Add one-half saltspoon of salt and sugar to make of the sweetness required. The quantity, of course, depends upon the tartness of the fruit used. Beat the whites of three eggs until foamy, but not too stiff, and stir into the pudding. Turn into a mold and set in a cool place to harden. Serve cold with a boiled custard made from the yolks of the eggs.

What Eggs Are Used For.

Calico print works use 40,000,000 dozen eggs per year, wine clarifiers use 10,000,000 dozen, the photographers and other industries use many millions, and these demands increase more rapidly than table demands.

The genuine "Portland Range" has "Portland" on oven door plate—only sold here.

(B)

AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

CHRISTMAS THINGS

for every part of the home—useful and gladly received. If you're short of ready cash use our generous credit help—no prices equal our's for lowness, no terms are so easy.

CARPETS—get one measured and fitted right away—prices are at the lowest cost. Axminsters, 77c; Brussels, 45c; Cotton Chain Ingrains, 25c; Heavy Ingrains, 37c; All-wool Ingrains, 52c. Or get a Rug or two; what better gift? Moquettes and Ingrains, all sizes.

$8.25

A full swell front, solid oak carved top Chiffonniere, worth $12.00.

$15.75

Comfort—lots of it—in this adjustable head (5 positions), velour-covered Couch—heavy fringe. Value $22.00.

$11.89

Solid Combination Desks, mirror ornament at back. Value $16.00.

$10.98

For a $15.00 Sideboard—bevel edge mirror, lined silver drawer, ample closet room—how's that?

$1.98

Highly polished solid oak, high back, box seat Dining Chair—$2.50 its value.

$4.98

Antique oak Extension Table, 5 legs, well turned, cleverly finished, and worth $7.00 readily.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St., Near Plane St., Newark, N. J.
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS.
Note first name "Amos."
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phœnix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW,
THE GROCER.
Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.
Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS
Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.
GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.
119 East Front Street.

SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue.
BUTCHERS.
Everything usually found in a first-class market.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83 A.

Elston M. French,
Successor to VanBuren Bros.
Real Estate and Insurance,
Largest agency in the city. Loans negotiated.
163 NORTH AVENUE.
Opposite Depot

H. Eggerding,
131 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

McCullough's STEAM MILL.
at Steiner place, North Plainfie
R. H. McCullough, Prop'r
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished

L. A. HUMMER,
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.
163 SOMERSET ST.
Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

AN AUCTIONEER'S RUSE.

Which He Employed to Interest a Sluggish Audience.

An auctioneer on East Washington street—one of those redoubtable individuals commonly termed "slick"—was the cause of a farcial scene the other afternoon that would have done credit to a burlesque show. He had been talking industriously for a long time to a crowd of interested but unenthusiastic listeners. His audience was largely made up of that class of men who find the Court House and the liquid establishments opposite a combination loafing grounds not to be resisted.

The affable auctioneer conscientiously went through his repertoire from beginning to end, says the Indianapolis Journal, but somehow the crowd did not "warm up" to him—to quote his own language. Finally, with a dark look that bordered on despair, he grabbed up a well-worn pasteboard hat box containing about fifty spools of silk thread of different colors. With the grace of a conjurer he extracted five of the spools, and, arraying them in a tempting semi-circle on the counter, announced that they were "to go at any price."

But the audience, while admitting with nods of approval that they were good spools of thread, displayed no marked inclination to become excited over them. Not a bid was offered.

"I'll sell 'em for 10 cents," suggested the auctioneer, timidly. It was plain, from the tone of his voice, that he was losing faith in himself and in all the world. There were no takers. The man-of-the-red-flag added three more spools to the semi-circle. "All for 10 cents," he declared. But thread stock was far below par. The auctioneer caught up all the spools from the counter and flung them into the box with an impressive gesture. The light of inspiration flashed from his eyes.

"The whole d— box for 10 cents!" he cried.

"I'll take it," was the prompt response, and a little man in a washed-out overcoat and wearer of red chin-whiskers stepped out from the crowd with a dirty 10-cent piece in his upraised hand. The auctioneer clutched the money feverishly, and, turning the box upside down so that all the spools dropped into a basket on the counter, he handed the worthless piece of ancient pasteboard to the anxious customer. A roar of hilarious laughter rose from the crowd that was heard throughout that neighborhood.

"I don't want your darned old box!" wailed the unfortunate purchaser.

"You said you'd take it," replied the auctioneer. "I'll leave it to the crowd—didn't he?"

"Yes," came in a strong chorus from the delighted audience.

"I bought the spools!"

"No, you didn't—you bought the box—I'll leave it to the crowd—didn't he?"

"Yes," came the answer again, stronger than ever. The red-whiskered man stalked indignantly from the place with the box under his arm.

"What you goin' to do with it?" yelled the crowd.

"That's what!" cried the speculator, as he held the pasteboard box in both hands, football fashion, and then kicked it vigorously into the middle of Washington street.

"Gone to Perdition."

"I went to a big revival meeting down in Little Rock one night last week," said a traveling inspector of Indian agencies who flitted into town a couple of days ago. "The revival had been going on in one of the big halls down there for some time and the best sheep were being gathered in by the slews. The minister conducting the meetings was of the perfervidest kind, and at the end of each of his surrounding sentences picturing the ways of evil he would command all of those in the crowd who wanted to be saved to stand up There'd be a sizeable bunch come to a perpendicular posture every time, and he'd count them out loud and bestow words of praise upon them for their nerve in standing up. A couple of young fellows who sat next to me got up to go out just as the minister came to one of the counting periods, and as they got out into the aisle he shouted:

"'Two more——'"

"When, however, he saw the young chaps proceeding down the aisle toward the door, he added the words:

"'Gone to perdition!'

"One of the young fellows, who looked like a mountaineer in Little Rock for a warm time, turned around in his tracks, gazed at the minister sleepily, and said:

"'All right, pard; see you later.'"—Washington Post.

Happenings on Friday.

Moscow burned on Friday.
Mayflower landed on Friday.
Bastile destroyed on Friday.
Shakespeare born on Friday.
Lincoln assassinated on Friday.
America was discovered on Friday.
King Charles beheaded on Friday.
Washington was married on Friday.
Julius Caesar assassinated on Friday.
Queen Victoria was married on Friday.
Napoleon Bonaparte was born on Friday.
Battle of New Orleans fought on Friday.
Battle of Bunker Hill was fought on Friday.
Battle of Waterloo was fought on Friday.
Joan of Arc was burned at the stake on Friday.

Swimming Maneuvres in German Army.

In the Dutch army a man must be able to swim as well as to fight. Moreover, if he is in the cavalry, he must have a horse which will take a river as easily as a hunter takes a fence.

Swimming maneuvres are part of the regular drill there. Collapsible canvas boats, manned by a few oarsmen, lead the horses, so that they do not attempt to land on stone quays and other difficult points. The men swim across with their horses and on them. They do it in swimming costume and in all the accoutrements of war.

There are few nautical emergencies for which the Dutch army is not prepared. Some of the officers have not only their horses and kit cross the river wit hthem, but even their dogs sit upon their shoulders and are borne over, almost without getting wet.

QUEER THINGS WOMEN DO.

Strange Paths of Activity Into Which Their Talents and Impulses Lead.

Pope county, one of the southernmost counties of Illinois, furnishes an interesting romance of everyday life. A year or so ago Miss Nettie Clark, the bright and pretty daughter of a farmer living on the banks of the Ohio river, in company with a school companion about her own age, prepared each a note asking that the finder answer it upon receipt. The missives were placed in bottles, securely sealed and thrown into the river. Weeks passed without replies, and the trivial incident was forgotten. Near his Louisiana home, a short distance from New Orleans, C. T. Anderson, a rich and prominent planter, in passing along the river bank, picked up a bottle with a note inclosed. It was the bottle thrown into the Ohio months before by Miss Clark. Correspondence followed, which subsequently developed into personal acquaintance and mutual admiration. As a result the Illinois girl who threw the bottle into the Ohio river is now the mistress of a big plantation on the banks of the Mississippi in Louisiana.

Mrs. Ella M. Clemmons, a sister of Mrs. Howard Gould, has decided to devote her life to the teaching of the doctrines of the Catholic church to the Chinese and has opened a mission school for this purpose in San Francisco. Mrs. Clemmons is a young woman and, like her sister, is remarkably beautiful, and the announcement of her purpose to devote herself to the Christianization of the Chinese caused something of a surprise in the society circles of many cities where she is known.

Near Ukiah, Cal., there is a unique farm upon which bears are raised for the market, much the same as cattle, sheep and hogs are raised on stock farms. What is still more unique about it is that it is conducted by women, the owner of the bear ranch being Mrs. Bowman, and her principal assistant is her daughter.

About 100 miles from New York and near Montauk Point, on Long Island, there is a pretty village by the sea where politicians are unknown, where not a cent is wasted in salaries, where there is no need of either jail or almshouse, where the sale of all intoxicants is absolutely prohibited and where peace and good order always prevail. This is the village of East Hampton, which has a population of 1,500 in winter and 3,500 in summer, and its affairs are almost entirely conducted by women. Four years ago the women organized the Ladies' Improvement association, which has wrought a marvelous change in the place.

Miss Elsie H. D. Strang, a niece of Senator Depew, was graduated recently from the Women's Medical college of the New York Infirmary For Women and Children with an M. D. degree and will practice her profession. She is a resident of Peekskill, N. Y., and inherited her taste for medicine from her father, Dr. Albert Strang, a successful physician of that place.

Miss Elsie Clews, the daughter of the noted New York financier, Henry Clews, has just published a book of 526 pages which bears the title of "Educational Legislation and Administration of the Colonial Governments." Heretofore there have been a number of aspirants for literary distinction among the smart set of the metropolis, but Miss Clews is one of the very few who have chosen to handle so weighty a theme. She has for some time been one of the inspectors of schools in New York.

Ten years ago Alma Frisbie was the most admired and gayest miss in Revere, Mass. Living in what was practically a part of the classic Hub, she acquired that manner and culture supposed to belong from birth to native Bostonians. A few years later she married and was subsequently deserted by her husband. After a time she married again, but this time her happiness was cut short by the death of her husband. Utterly heartbroken, she fell a prey to melancholy and one day suddenly disappeared. Her second husband had owned a tract of land in a remote and sparsely settled region of Georgia. Thither she journeyed, unknown to her friends, and established her domicile in a hermit cottage, with a few pet dogs, cats and goats as her sole companions, living the life of a recluse, having little intercourse with any human beings, her nearest neighbors being many miles distant.

ANNETTE CRAWFORD.

THE DINING ROOM.

Arrangement and adornment of this Delight of Womankind.

Women who are the delighted possessors of large, low-ceilinged dining rooms, old oak furniture and precious China are the envy of their less fortunate sisters. A parlor never appeals to a woman as a dining room does. She is always concocting some scheme by which her dining room can be made more homelike

As the dining room is frequently the living room also, it should receive all possible care. If it is fairly large, has hardwood floor and a deep window or two, it may be made a thing of beauty. The floors should be polished or waxed, preferably dark, and strewn with a bright rug or two, although a lounge and chairs upholstered in blue and white cretonne are desirable for comfort and cheer. The lounge must be broad and low, with several durable pillows. This will be appreciated by the head of the house, says the New Orleans Picayune.

Wall paper in delft blue is most effective, although the color scheme may call for a different style. In the windows have a few growing plants. Let them be vivid greens and reds. They add much to the cheerfulness of a room. One or two carefully chosen pictures may hang on the walls.

Their choice is apt to be a nerve-racking operation, unless the housewife has confidence in her good taste, copies of fruit pictures, game and fish are permitted, and an old family portrait in oils. If one is in doubt about pictures the walls may be covered with delft and spode ware, or even less pretentious china, strung on wires and arranged in rows on hanging shelves.

The sideboard is spread with fringed damask doilies, and set with the treasured silverware and cut glass. In the china closet—one with swinging doors and dark velvet linings—is displayed the choice china. The contents must be arranged with care. Do not place together the heavier and dantier ware, but grade them gently, so as to give the best effects. Between meals the table should be spread with a blue and white denim cover, set with the fern dish. This adds a homelike touch to the room and destroys the formality which a set table gives.

Ladies' Fancy Shirt Waist.

The title of "shirt waist" as applied to this design seems almost inappropriate, for so carefully is it fitted and prettily trimmed that it is almost a fancy cloth waist. Fashioned in dark-green twill, embroidered with black silk polka dots, trimmed by narrow band of Alaska sable and three medallions of burnished gold, this waist may be worn appropriately with either a black or green tailor-made gown. The back is fitted smooth across the shoulders with tiny plaits in the centre at the waist line. A perfect fit is obtained by using an underarmed gore. The fullness in front is adjusted in two clusters of three tucks on each shoulder gathered at the waist in a slight blouse. The right front crosses over to the left side, fastening under three sharp points, which are outlined by a narrow band of fur and decorated with medallion of burnished gold.

The collar is fashionably shaped with two points in the back, the novel feature being the slope in the centre front, giving more depth to the collar at that point than heretofore.

The two-piece sleeve is decorated with a band of fur in pointed epaulette effect. The scallops at the wrist are fur trimmed.

Cashmere, Henrietta, French flannel, or Venetian would be appropriate for this design. Velvet of contrasting color may be used for the collar and cap on the shoulder, with narrow ribbon velvet applied flat in place of the fur.

To make this shirt waist in the medium size will require one and one-half yards of material forty-four inches wide. MAY MANTON.

Should Learn to Cook.

The ability to make a loaf of good bread is an accomplishment which every woman should possess before she gets married. It is of no use for a woman to think that she can hold a man's affections very securely when she feeds him on death slug biscuits, soggy pie crust and burned or half cooked meats. Men do not live to eat, but they have to eat in order to live, and what they have to eat has much to do with their temper, their piety and their health. A woman should take a pride in being expert and accomplished in her cooking and the care of her home, just as a man does in being expert in his business or profession.

Still Wondering.

"Yes," said the bachelor reflectively, I offended her in some way, but I don't really know how. You see, her baby was fretful, and she explained that he had been cutting his teeth; whereupon I asked her why she let him play with a knife."

Rinsing the Hair.

Many women who shampoo their own hair spoil it by insufficient rinsing. Gallons of water should be used, as it is important to rid the hair of every particle of soap.

PHOTOGRAPHS IN COLOR.

This Wisconsin Man's System Is at Last Explained.

EASY WHEN YOU KNOW.

He Begins as Others Do, with Three Screen—Color in a New Way.

How to Photograph a Red Tulip With Green Leaves in a Blue Jar—Art's Proudest Triumph Is to Imitate Natural—The Process Requires Skill.

The experiments of Professor R. W. Wood, of the University of Wisconsin, in color photography were mentioned by the New York Tribune several months ago. Further details are now furnished by him to "Science." It thus appears that the Madison scientist has hit upon a thoroughly practical scheme, although at present it has not attained a high degree of development nor reached the commercial stage of its career.

If the reader will recall what is known as the "three-color screen" system, already employed in photographing colors, and then remember what a "diffraction grating" is he will readily understand Professor Wood's method.

Professor Wood begins, as do the others, by taking three negatives with the usual color screens, and he prints off on glass a positive from each negative. But from that point onward his procedure is unique. He employs other means to produce the effect of color on the observer's eye. Before considering these, however, it may be well to have a clear idea of the general appearance of the negatives and positives. The sensitive film that the photographer puts into his camera is to all intents and purposes transparent. The plate upon which in the three-screen process red rays only are allowed to fall is so affected thereby that, when the plate has been treated in a developing bath, the light-struck regions are clouded and the rest of the plate still keeps clear. The cloud produced is a black one; and its opacity or denseness corresponds to the intensity of the red in the subject of the picture. The greens and blues produce black clouds also on their respective plates, but in different places from those where the reds were imprinted.

The positives that are taken from these negatives reverse the situation, showing clouds of opaque black where the negatives were transparent, and exhibiting clear patches wherever the negatives were clouded.

(A diffraction grating picture.)

If an observer were to stand before a large vertical screen with his eye at a very small hole, it would be possible with a prism suitably adjusted before a white light on the other side, to make him see a blaze of red, yellow, green, violet or any other single hue. Now, what is called a "diffraction grating," a transparent glass plate on which parallel lines have been engraved very close together, would act precisely like a prism in such an experiment. And by substituting for one grating another that has its lines spaced differently a change in color will be effected at the peephole. This is not because one grating produces only red and another only blue. Each grating makes a complete rainbow. But the position of the rainbow is different for each grating. In one case, the red part of it falls on the peephole, while with the other the blue comes opposite the aperture.

The viewing apparatus which Professor Wood uses for the examination of one of his finished pictures is arranged on the plan just described. One must look through a hole in order to see it. And the thing which is used for exhibition purposes is a solitary plate upon which have been impressed, by a method about to be described, a lot of fine lines. All that was red in the original subject has been printed into the final picture in lines of such a spacing that they will throw the red part of their spectrum on the peephole. The greens of the original are represented by another set of lines, whose spacing has been so calculated that they will project the green part of their spectrum upon the eye. And so with the blues. The plate itself, removed from the apparatus and carefully examined, bears not the slightest trace of color, and is simply covered with fine parallel black lines, spaced variously, but according to one of three different systems. For the apparatus he uses Professor Wood finds that 2,000 to the inch brings the red where he wants it, 2,400 to the inch serves for the green and 2,750 for the blue.

To produce the single plate which is here employed it is necessary to conduct three printing operations. First, a 2,000-line grating is laid upon the sensitive film, and then the positive obtained from the red rays in the three-screen process is placed on top of the grating. Light is allowed to shine through the two upon the film. Thus fine lines of this particular rate of frequency are registered upon the film wherever there are transparent patches in the positive. Such transparent spots occur only where there were reds in the original scene. This positive and the 2,000-line grating having been removed, the 2,400-line grating and the positive made with green rays are substituted. Wherever there were greens in the original scene, lines that run 2,400 to the inch are now printed on the film. Finally the 2,750-line grating and the positive obtained with blue rays are brought into requisition and transfer to the film the ruling peculiar to this hue.

The printing operation is a very delicate one. It is necessary that the three positives shall each occupy the same position, and not be a hundredth of an inch out of the way. Upon accuracy in this adjustment depends the success of the experiment. But after a picture has at last been made by this method on one plate, it can easily be copied any number of times.

(For viewing Wood's color photos.)

In order to give a rude idea of the appearance of one of his pictures, Professor Wood assumes that he has photographed a red tulip with green leaves in a blue jar. Each of the hues will be represented on the film by lines of a different spacing from that of the others. To examine such a picture, one takes a large lens or reading-glass, trims it off square, sets it upright in a light frame like that of an old-fashioned stereoscope, and looks through a hole in a black screen fifteen inches or so away. The picture itself is held between this device and the light for examination. Thus far it has not been found practicable to magnify these pictures much; but they will stand some enlargement by a magic lantern.

The preliminary work in making pictures by Wood's system calls for much skill, especially in completing the first print. But in the ease with which duplicates can be secured, and in some other respects, the plan is likely to prove an improvement on all of the other schemes with which experts in color photography are at present familiar.

CYANIDE'S ATTRACTION.

Those Who Handle It Drawn Irresistibly to Swallow It.

"Just now we are engaged in the making of tons of cyanide of potassium," said a member of a firm of manufacturing chemists, "and of all poisons, this, to my mind, is the most dangerous, because of a singular quality it possesses. It is in appearance so very attractive to those who handle it that they are often seized with an almost overwhelming desire to eat it. To one man it probably suggests sugar, if he have a fondness for saccharine substances, and to another snow newly fallen; but to both it is so alluring that they may only overcome the temptation to put it in their mouths by great force of will power.

"The very men who make it and who are most familiar with its deadly properties are pursued by an unreasonable desire to eat the poison, and as long as they remain in its vicinity this extraordinary craving endures. They know that to give way to the craving means death almost instant and horrible, and as a consequence are usually able to resist the strange temptation but during the last ten years we have been engaged in the manufacture of the drug four of our most intelligent and steady workmen have committed suicide in this way."

"Ever feel like eating it yourself?" asked the reporter.

"Yes," the manufacturer replied: "Many times when in contact with the cyanide fumes, I have had to leave work precipitately in consequence. So well is this curious fact known in all works where cyanide of potassium is made that there are always two men at work together, and a jar of ammonia, which is the antidote to the poison, is kept at hand."

Cyanide of potassium is used in electro-metallurgy and photography to a considerable extent. It will remove metallic oxides, the juices of fruits and indelible ink.—Exchange.

The Monkey Knew.

A Capuchin monkey was given some walnuts, which he tried to crack with his teeth, but he found he was not strong enough. He then seized a stone which was nearby, held the nuts on the ground with one hand and used his stone hammer with the other, with excellent results. Other monkeys have been seen to utilize nutpicks.

The most northern newspaper in the world is published at Hammerstein, Russia. The editorial work is done in a small wooden house roofed with turf. The paper is called the Nordkap, and is published weekly. The news is frequently a fortnight old before it reaches the subscribers. Most subscriptions are paid in fish.

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall Streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 29, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 46, 9 16, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 54, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 06, 7 39, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12.00 m, 12 58 1 45, 2 46, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 9 34, 11 28 p. m.. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m.; 1 01, 2 08, 2 20, 3 32, 4 35, 5 03, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamauqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked *) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 19, 1899.
LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N.J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.
Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.
Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.
Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.
Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.
Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket timetables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.
FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent, 218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

T. M. INGRAHAM.
Vaults and Cesspools Cleaned
Night or Day.
ASHES & GARBAGE REMOVED.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Good Work at Reasonable Prices.
P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.

XXXX QUALITY
FINEST
LOFOTON COD LIVER OIL,
Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.
Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at
39c per Pint.
For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at 50c per Bottle,
or the Tasteless at
75c per Bottle.
THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,
Hepburn & Co.,
Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S.
213 WEST FRONT ST.
Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

WANTED
25 Mechanics

and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.

Agent on the Grounds
SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.

. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

The New Holiday Goods
are here in larger and better variety than ever before. There is a certain satisfaction in buying Holiday novelties here—the entire stock is new—something which others cannot claim, and everything is priced moderately, in fact lower than you would pay elsewhere.

A Wonderful Showing of Handkerchiefs.
A COMPLETE stock of Men's initial handkerchiefs, put up half-dozen to the box.

The Largest and Best Assortment of Kid Gloves.
Good gloves, which we guarantee and such as you desire for Christmas gifts.

New Sterling Silver Novelties, Silver-trimmed Leather Novelties, Umbrellas.

Mackintoshes.
A complete stock of Goodyear mackintoshes for ladies and misses. These goods were bought before the heavy advance in prices; therefore you can buy good mackintoshes here at the old prices.

I. LEDERER.

FALL OPENING.
WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.

OUR STOCK COMPLETE

We are now ready to fit either man or boy in Suits, or Overcoats, Hats and Gent's Furnishings.

Boys' Suits from 75c to $5.00.

Men's Suits from $2.00 to $20.00.

Have you tried a pair of our Celebrated Cassimere Pants at 98c the pair, if not do so—they are the talk of the town; sold over 1,000 pairs the past season; never rip and fit to perfection. Give us a call.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,
206 West Front Street.

You Can Defer the Matter of attending to your impaired eyesight until some future day, but you're the loser every time. Neuralgia and headache caused by eye strain quickly relieved.

Glasses Scientifically Fitted for all known errors of refraction.
At 107 East Front St., Every Thursday.
HOURS: 10:30 to 5:00 o'clock.
Free examination. Work guaranteed.
Leech, Stiles & Co.

Fall Styles in Derbies and Alpines.
All Kinds of Haberdashery.
AT
J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

OUR SPECIALTIES
Choice Teas. Fine Coffees.
WHEN YOU ARE IN NEED OF FIRST-CLASS GROCERIES OR CANNED GOODS, CALL ON
THE PARK GROCERS
C. E. GULICK & CO. Tel. 931.

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops
Wieda's
Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda
Manufactured at the Premises,
144 West Front St. Phone. 1133.

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.
Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,
Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.
WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER
DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

Our Attractive Holiday Display
awaits your inspection. We are glad to welcome visitors and pleased to show our goods.
A. L. & M. D. Gorsline, 144 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

AN ADIEU BY PROXY.

AND IT PLEASED THE SOLDIER BOY HIGHLY.

An Incident of the Late War—A Mother Sends a Farewell by a Good-Looking American Girl—She Delivered the Message.

The tension of the crowd of soldiers and their friends gathered in and around the armory was becoming so great that even bystanders who had no acquaintances in the regiment were irresistibly drawn into it. The time was growing short, for in ten minutes the bugle would sound to fall in and the regiment march away to the depot to embark for Tampa.

Among those on the outside of the armory were a mother and her soldier son; she a pale, slight body, with the hands of a working woman and the face of a lady; he a big, awkward boy, still in his teens, but with his mother's heritage of refinement. Most of the other family groups contained at least three or four beside the "boy in blue," and in partings, as in other things, there is safety in numbers. But these two were alone. There were none to take any interest in their sorrow except such bystanders as noticed them and felt a natural sympathy for them.

One, however, took a more than passing interest in the couple. A good-looking girl of 20, gracefully poised and daintily dressed, had watched them ever since she first caught sight of them. She was a typical, thoroughbred, American girl, fair of face and form, and thoroughly healthy in body and mind. She did not know the pair from Adam, but she was attracted by the woman's pale refined face, and by a certain evidence of "good stock" about the boy, despite his ungainliness, which doubtless responded to the same quality in herself. Mother and son did not converse much; they held each other's hand and fed on each other's eyes, as though the time were too precious to waste in words.

Suddenly, as she watched them, the girl became aware that the woman's eyes lost their expression and stared vacantly into space; and almost before she could tell herself the reason she saw the poor, frail body totter and fall ino the soldier's arms. At that insant the bugle sounded to form companies. The boy looked helplessly around, and catching the girl's sympathetic glance his eyes appealed to her. She nodded quietly, and beckoned him to bring his mother into a nearby store, whose owner stood on the steps watching the formation of the troops.

"I will take care of her," she said quietly. "You are wanted over yonder."

He looked his thanks, for he dared not trust himself to speak, and was gone.

To the tune of "Star Spangled Banner" the regiment marched away toward the depot. It was to halt at the Chamber of Commerce and receive a

A burst of cheering and the simulan hour the poor woman remained in a deep swoon while the girl and the storekeeper worked faithfully and patiently with her. At length she opened her eyes.

"My boy," were her first words.

"Hush," said the girl gently. "He had to go with his regiment you know. You would not have him stay behind?"

"O, no, no," sighed the poor woman, "but I did not even say 'God bless you' to him when he went."

"He understood," said the girl, soothingly. "I am sure he understood. He went away so bravely. Now rest, and presently you shall tell me your name and address and I will take you home."

stand of colors. For more than half taneous music of the band came from the direction of the town, and the woman started up, but the girl gently laid her back again.

"They had received their colors at the Chamber of Commerce," she said, "and are starting for the depot."

"For the depot," echoed the poor mother despairingly. "He will go away and I shall have no chance to say 'Good-bye' to him. He has no one to see him off but me."

The girl took a sudden resolution.

"Listen," she said, taking the toil-worn hand in hers and stroking it softly. "You cannot possibly go down to the depot, for you are tired and ill and weak. You shall tell me your boy's name and the number of his company, and I will go down and say good-by to him for you, and give him

The poor mother caught eagerly at the offer.

"Will you really?" she cried, with tears in her voice. "O, God bless you, my dear! Go quickly. Tell my boy—O, my dear, tell him all I would say to him. You are young, but you know what a mother would say to her boy. Tell him, above all, to be brave, and I will pray for him until he comes home again. Go quickly, or you will be too late."

The girl hurried away, leaving the woman in the care of the hospitable storekeeper. Half way to the depot it suddenly occurred to her that in the excitement the woman had forgotten to tell, and she had forgotten to ask again, the boy's name and company.

"There is no time to go back," she said to herself. "I must find him without, that's all."

She reached the depot as the boys and their friends were saying final good-bys and exchanging last keepsakes and tokens. As luck would have it she quickly found the object of her search for he was standing apart from the crowd, at the further end of the depot, looking forlorn. Several of the soldiers and their companions found time, even amid their last greetings, to look at her as she passed, and to wonder what fortunate blue-coat claimed relationship with the lovely latecomer.

Coloring a little at the attention she attracted, she walked through the crowd of soldiers and friends straight up to the disconsolate boy whose loneliness she had come to lighten. He recognized her at once, and questioned her eagerly about his mother.

"She is better," said the girl, reassuringly, "but she could not get down to the depot, so she asked me to come and say 'Good-by' and 'God bless you' for her."

"You are kind," he stammered, confusedly. Both were aware, and each knew the other was aware, that they were by this time the center of observation. "Did my mother send me anything?" he asked after an awkward pause.

"She sent you her dearest love," she answered, "and bade me tell you she would pray for you until she saw you again."

"Did she send me nothing else?" asked the lad, thinking wistfully of the many little keepsakes and mementoes he had seen exchanged between th other soldiers and their relatives.

"Nothing else that I remember," replied the girl. "There was so little time you know."

The poor boy, (for he was nothing but a boy) looked disappointed, and she felt sorry for him, but could think of nothing more to say to him. Then, like a flash, into her quick woman's mind there came an inspiration that staggered her with its audacity. A brazen girl would never have thought of it at all; a less thoroughbred girl would never have dared carry it into effect. She hesitated a moment, blushing furiously all over her pretty face and throat. Then, as the train bell rung, she flung back her graceful head with the gesture of a Princess, and darted a look of defiance at the bystanders.

"Nothing," she said, "except this," and putting her arm round his neck, she gave the astonished boy a kiss that made the cheeks of every soldier within eye and earshot tingle with envy. After which she turned and fled.

BLACK FIGHTERS.

What Happened When the Twenty-Fourth Boarded a Transport.

With their hands full of candy boxes and flowers they stood staring about, having hard work to keep their faces set in the proper lugubrious lines. It seemed like the beginning of a great picnic to which these numberless men most of them youths, were going with laughter and jest, gayly and gallantly, as men go to a feast.

From stem to stern the transport was as clean as a newly washed china cup, as fresh as air and sun could make her. From her soldiers' quarters, lined with three tiers of new canvas berths, to her officers' staterooms, fleckless in white paint and enamel-ware washstands, she was trim and spotless. There did not seem to be a hole or corner of her into which the crowd did not penetrate. They peered into the officers' staterooms and climbed up and down ladders to and from dark places in the bowels of the ship. They stood in a gazing circle round General Shafter, who sat in a deck chair, gasping after his pull up a perpendicular stairway, and followed General S. B. Young, the ranking officer of the expedition, as he piloted a party of inspecting ladies and gentlemen through the highways and byways of the transport.

As the hour drew on toward four the troops gathered on the wharf were marshaled into line and in single file ascended the gangway. The recruits on deck turned from their sport of guying the crowd and greeted the advancing column, whose steady tramp shook the pier, with wild howls of welcome. The din was deafening, the shouts of the men above provoking answering roars from the men below. Through the thunder jokes shouted in every key that went hurtling back and forth, many shrill shrieks of personal recognition rent the air.

Enthusiasm reached its height when a small body of the Twenty-fourth Infantry ascended the gangway. They were in full kaki uniform, the column headed by a sergeant of magnificent proportions, carrying beside his regular accoutrements a handful of new brooms. With an even tread, upright, their dark faces expressionless, their figures instinct with the pride of their reputation and their regiment, they swung into line. The two wings of the crowd fell back and the sergeant with his brooms mounted the gangway. As the eyes of the soldiers above fell on them a roar, loud and steady as the sound from one gigantic throat, burst from the decks and rolled away, reverberating down the wharf's length. The dignity of the negro, a thing hard to shake, trembled, wavered, and gave way. A grin broad and uncontrollable, flashed down the line of dark faces and an answering howl of welcome followed.—Collier's Weekly.

Dewey's Epigrams.

I am not a candidate for President. I never will be.

Artistic diplomacy is to say nothing and say it well.

Politics should be less a matter of party than principle.

Crush the rebellion first and then provide a just government.

A naval officer should be content with the honors that come to him in his professon.

In the case of the Philippines there is mercy in force and untold misery in procrastination.

Many a man has been made a good citizen by being soundly thrashed.

CUT HAY.

If you feed ground feed to horses you naturally use Cut Hay. Why bother cutting by hand when we can furnish it cut by machine so cheap.

In comparing prices it should be borne in mind that OUR GRAIN IS ALL RECLEANED and OUR FEEDS are ALL MADE ON THE PREMISES and ARE KNOWN TO BE PURE

Mixed Oats	74c per bag	Middlings	95c per 100
Mixed Clips	76c per bag	Oat Feed	75c per 100
2 White Oats	79c per bag	Gluten	95c per 100
Regular Clips	80c per bag	Oil Meal	$1.45 per 100
X. B. Clips	82c per bag	Poultry Grain Mixture	$1.18 per 100
Yellow Corn	82c per 100	Our Poultry Food	$1.15 per 100
Cracked Corn	86c per 100	Wheat	$1 20 per 100
Coarse Meal	86c per 100	Barley (96 lbs)	$1.15 per bag
Ground Feed	86c per 100	No. 1 Hay	88c per 100
Bran	90c per 100	Clover Hay	83c per 100

The above prices are for spot cash at our stores.

If delivered add according to quantity as follows:

25 bags or over	2c per bag
10 bags or over	5c per bag
Less than 5 bags	10c per bag

REGULAR DELIVERIES:

Rahway, Linden and Woodbridge, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Roselle, Cranford and Westfield, Mondays and Thursdays.

THE PAUL T. NORTON CO.

Elizabeth, Elizabethport, Red Bank, Plainfield, Somerville.

PARALYSIS WAS FATAL.

Mrs. Isabella Skellenger, of West Fourth Street, Died Last Night at the Age of Eighty.

Mrs. Isabella Skellenger, one of the oldest residents of the city, died last evening at her home, 417 West Fourth street, after a brief illness with paralysis. About a week ago she was preparing to go and call on some friend when she was stricken with paralysis. From that time she steadily grew worse until the end came the early part of last evening.

Mrs. Skellenger, whose maiden name was Miss Culp, has been a resident of this city for over thirty years. She was a widow of Benjamin Skellenger, who died several years ago. She was about 80 years of age. For many years she was a faithful Christian woman and a member of the First Baptist church, where she attended regularly. As yet no arrangements have been made for the fuderal.

In Honor of Double Wedding Anniversary.

Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Andrews and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Abbott, of Central avenue, celebrated their wedding anniversary, and in honor of the event an informal dinner was given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Abbott. The affair was one of genuine pleasure and the celebrants received the congratulations of their friends, also their wishes for many happy returns of the day.

Approaching Nuptials

Announcement is made of the approaching marriage of Miss Mabel VanMiddlesworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry VanMiddlesworth, of Elmwood place, and John Goodman, of Manning avenue. The event will take place Monday evening, January 1st, at the home of the bride's parents.

Funeral of Frederick Miner.

The funeral of Frederick Miner, recently at his home on West Front street, was held this morning from St. Mary's church. Rev. Father Westman officiated.

—A phonograph or gramophone makes a suitable Christmas present, especially when you can get them so reasonable. Brokaw, the East Front street piano dealer, keeps both kinds, also records and supplies. He has a good stock of the best pianos and all kinds of music. If your piano needs tuning call on him and you will get prompt and efficient service.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. H. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even set up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular size, 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

What Can You Do With It?

This is a question we can answer better after we have seen the garment you want dyed. When our wagon is in your neighborhood, let it bring your goods to the store and then, at your convenience, come in and let us tell you just what we can do and the cost. Don't be prejudiced against dyeing. Oftimes you can't tell the goods from new.

HILLIER & CO.,

129 West Front Street,

Opposite Crosby & Hill's. 'Phone 851.

BELIEVERS HAVE INHERITED CHRIST."

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

leaves which nature so exquisitely embroiders fall in their beauty and moulder away. Yes, all the glory and loveliness of earthly things are fleeting, but our inheritance in Christ shall never decay. (2) It is undefiled. Everywhere on earth there is leprosy of sin. (3) It is unfading. Its beauty shall abide. See John 4:14."

Referring to Ephesians 3:17, he quoted Rev. Dr. A. T. Pierson as saying that if the book of Ephesians was as he verily believed, the Switzerland of the Bible, this verse, was its highest mountain peak. He said that the Disciples on the road to Emmaus had Christ for a companion for awhile, but it is our privilege to have Him ever with us.

Mr. Shelton said that on one occasion a poor fallen woman wrote to Mr. Stead, of London, asking what could be done for her in her ruined state. Stead began a letter, intending to say that "You may and you must be a Christian." But he was called away from his writing, and when he returned and read what he had written, he found he had said: "You may and must be a Christ." And he let it stand.

He noted in Ephesians 3:16-19 that each succeeding "that" leads us to something higher. He urged faithful study of this and other passages. Commenting on the exhortation "And walk in love," he said that one step at a time is all that God requires. The grace of God, if present in our lives, will manifest itself each step we take. The secret of effective Christian service lies in this in giving ourselves for others as Christ gave himself for us.

"Note the words, 'hath loved' 'hath given.' Christ loved us, therefore He gave himself for us. Without love there will be no sacrifice. 'Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.' (John 15:13.) Unless love be born within us by the Holy Spirt we shall not be able to give our lives in self-sacrifice for others.

"Christ loves us individually, as stated here, and He also loves the church, collectively, 'for we are members one of another.' (Eph. 4:25.) The love which Christ has for us passeth knowledge.

A subject of great importance and intense interest will be considered tonight: "The View Given by the Epistle to the Ephesians of the Holy Spirit." The public will be cordially welcomed.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

N. P. Drake, of Duer street, is confined to his home by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Powlison, of the borough, have been entertaining company from out-of town.

Oliver Voorhees, of East Front street, has returned to his old position in the press room at the News office.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward White have arrived safely at San Antonio, Texas, and next Saturday they will leave for Mexico.

David Titsworth, of West Seventh street, left yesterday for Ottawa, Can., on important business. He will return the last of the week.

Robert Grant, for many years bookkeeper at Rheaume's coal and lumber yard, has accepted a similar position in a New York wholesale house, and N. H. Saxton has taken the position vacated by Mr. Grant at Rheaume's.

To Cure a Cough in One Day
To Cure a Cold in One Day
To Cure Sore Throat in One Day
To Cure Hoarseness in One Day

Take Cleveland's Lung Healer, 25c. Trial size free. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenue.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—J. E. Martine is putting a plate glass front to his property at 229 Park avenue.

—L. E. Hart, of West Front street, is making some notable improvements about his property.

—Those ordering Christmas candies will do well to try Lowney's and Whitman's at Randolph's pharmacy.

—L. C. Morris, of West Front street, is about to have a slate roof put on his house and otherwise improve it.

—Next Thursday afternoon the Ladies' Aid Society of Monroe Avenue church will meet in regular session.

—Iona Council, Degree of Pocohontas, will elect officers at their regular meeting next week Wednesday evening.

—The Ladies' Aid Society of Warren chapel will meet Friday afternoon at the usual hour and a full attendance is desired.

—Next Monday evening Queen City Lodge, No. 226, I. O. O. F., will elect officers and a full attendance is requested of all members.

—The regular Friday evening meeting at Warren chapel will be omitted this week on account of the Bible conference at the Y. M. C. A.

—By the first of next month the Plainfield Electric Light Company expect to have their underground system of lighting in working order.

—Next week Tuesday evening Old Glory Council, Daughters of Liberty, will meet and elect officers, after which an entertainment will be given.

—Hand, the stationer, of West Front street, has a store well stocked with seasonable goods for the holidays. A good place to select your Christmas presents.

—At the close of the Bible study conference this evening there will be a meeting of the general committee. All members are earnestly requested to attend.

—The regular mid-week service at the Congregational church this evening will be given up so as not to conflict with the Bible conference at the Y. M. C. A.

—James Carter, of this city, has secured a job to run the elevator at the Babcock building, and Alfred Wilson, who formerly held the place, has returned to Crosby & Hill's store.

—The Young Women's Club, of West Front street, is well attended most every night and the various classes of instruction are a source of much benefit to the members of the club who are able to secure the best teaching for a nominal sum.

To Head Insular Committees.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The three committees of the Senate which will deal with insular affairs will be headed by the following men: Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the Committee on Affairs in the Philippines; Senator Platt of Connecticut, chairman of the Committee on Cuban Affairs; Senator Foraker of Ohio, chairman of the Committee on Porto Rican Affairs; In the House one committee will undertake to deal with these subjects, the Committee on Insular Affairs. Mr. Hepburn, of Iowa is mentioned prominently in connection with the chairmanship.

Japanese Overcome Plague.

San Francisco, Dec. 13.—The steamship American Maru has arrived from Hong Kong and Yokohama via Honolulu. Yokohama advices say that bubonic plague, which developed at Kobe not long ago, has been stamped out.

NEW YORK MARKET

New York, Dec. 13.—The stock market was quiet and rather weaker on the whole than yesterday, but the changes were slight.

Cash prices for staples:
Wheat, No. 2 red, .74¼.
Corn, No. 2 mixed, .40⅛.
Oats, No. mixed, .29.
Flour, Minnesota patent, $3.90.
Cotton, milling, 7 11-16.
Coffee. No. 7 Rio, .07.

Volcanic Eruptions

Are grand, but Skin Eruptions rob life of joy. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, cures them; also Old, Running and Fever Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Felons, Corns, Warts, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Chapped hands, Chilblains. Best Pile Cure on earth. Drives out Pains and Aches. Only 25 cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

Fred Adams, formerly of Netherwood, but now of Newark, is stopping at Lake Hopatcong for two weeks.

William Frederick Trust, who for many years has been stopping at Schorb's Hotel, has left that place, and taken up his residence at McVey's Hotel.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

HOPE FOR THE HAIRLESS.

Cold of Alaska Puts a Crop on the Baldest Head.

The experience of Roderick Dhu Smith, who recently returned from the Klondike region with a big budget of experience, quite a little sum of money, and a head of hair which almost qualifies him to take an engagement as a Circassian girl in a circus, is of especial interest to a large contingent of his fellow men and women, says the San Francisco Call. For be it known that Roderick, before making his perilous way to the Arctic regions, though otherwise pleasing to look upon and still on the sunny side of forty, was the owner of a head which made theater ushers, whenever there was a ballet on the program, escort him down to the front row without even glancing at his seat check.

It is said that his baldness was the real cause of his starting out in search of gold, since he spent all his patrimony in the purchase of hair restorers, and it was necessary for him to do something, no matter how desperate, to retrieve his fallen fortunes. Be that as it may, he went to Alaska, and, after a two years' residence there, has returned a modern Samson, as far as chevelure is concerned, and he declares that the transformation is entirely due to the rigors of the climate in that quarter of the globe.

"The intense cold kills all germs and microbes," he asserts, "and stimulates the scalp, and nature does the rest," and he proudly exhibits his lionlike mane as proof of what nature can do, when she takes a fancy, unassisted by washes or oils or unguents.

P. J. McLeod, who has spent twelve years in Alaska and the northwest, although he has not the pleasure of knowing Mr. Smith personally, and did not, therefore, see the sprouting and the bourgeoning of his especial crop of modified epidermic cells, still corroborates his story as to the virtues of that frigid clime as a hair producer.

"My hair always was thick," he says, "so I cannot speak from personal experience, but the way dogs put on hair up there is a caution. They get as shaggy as Shetland ponies, and now I think of it, I never saw a bald-headed fellow anywhere around there. To tell the truth, they all look, after they have got to work, as though a razor and a pair of scissors were far more needed than a hair restorer, and I think a missionary barber would do good work among them."

Signs of Good and Bad Weather.

A hint or two on weather prophecy. When clouds are red in the west, the red having a purple tint, it is a sign of fine weather. The air when dry refracts red or heat-making rays, and as dry air is not perfectly transparent these are again reflected in the horizon. An old proverb says:

A rainbow in the morning is the shepherd's warning.
A rainbow at night is the shepherd's delight.

A rainbow occurs when the clouds containing or depositing the rain are opposite to the sun. In the evening the rainbow is in the east, and in the morning it is in the west. As the heavy rains in this climate are usually brought by the westerly winds, a rainbow in the west indicates that bad weather is on the road; whereas the rainbow in the east proves the contrary.

When the swallows fly high fine weather is to be expected or to continue. But when they fly low approaching rain is indicated. Swallows follow the flies and gnats, and flies and gnats usually delight in warm strata of air. As warm air is lighter and moister than cold air, the warm strata of air run higher, but when the warm and moist air is close to the ground, it is almost certain that, as the cold air flows down into it, water will fall.

As an indication of the approach of wet weather, nothing is more certain than a halo around the moon, which is produced by the precipitated water; and the larger the circle the nearer the clouds, and, consequently, the more ready to fall. A coppery or yellow sunset also foretells rain.

Observations teaches that when the sea gulls assemble on land, stormy and rainy weather is approaching. The little petrel enjoys the heaviest gale, because living partly on the smaller sea insects, he is sure to find his food in the spray of heavy waves. The fish on which they prey in fine weather at sea leave the surface and go down deeper during the storm. The different tribes of wading birds always migrate when rain is about to take place. Upon the same principle, the vulture follows armies.

Architect Vaux's Busy Ghost.

Do spirits play pranks with living people? Here is one incident that seems to indicate that they do. Not long ago Stuyvesant Fish asked Francis T. Bacon, the architect, to remodel a summer house for him. It is an old home on the Hudson, called Glen Clyffe. It is situated on a plat of green hillside just opposite West Point. Mr. Fish and Mr. Bacon went over the drawings together in the latter's Chicago office. Glen Clyffe is a brick house, with stone trimmings, with a wide veranda running around it. It is in Italian renaissance and was built in 1857 by an architect named Vaux, now dead. The front of the house is four stories, and the back three, owing to its location on a hillslope.

Mr. Bacon promised to modernize the house, and put the plans away in his desk. Within an hour George Powers, industrial commissioner, came in.

"I say, Bacon," he remarked, "can you take time to remodel on old house for a friend of mine—Ben Price, at Oxford, Miss.?"

"Yes," said the architect. And when the plans of the Mississippi house were produced, Bacon rubbed his eyes.

"Queer," he said, reaching for President Fish's plans. They were alike in every particular—Italian renaissance, brick, with stone trimmings, situated on a knoll, four stories front and three rear. One is located on the Hudson, the other 2,000 miles away in a little Mississippi town. One was built in 1857; the other in 1859. Both sets of drawings were signed "C. Vaux." The question is, What does the deceased Vaux want? Is it a ghost's joke?

"Is your lieutenant a handsome man, Ella?"

"Oh, as handsome as though he had come to life out of our own diaries."

FIRST WIFE STEPS IN

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

There appears never to have been a great deal of secrecy about the change of Pangborn's name. He came back to Plainfield and called on some of his relatives who declare that he was very free to say that he had been disgusted with his treatment by his father and wife and had gone to work under another name. They claim he gave the namd then of Winfield Scott Allen.

Stephen Pangborn or Winfield Scott Allen, which ever he was, began his career in Pennsylvania as a carpenter. He was first employed in building a railroad trestle. He was possessed of considerable ingenuity and soon won his way up so that he was able to go into the contracting business on his own account. He invested in various ways and the concerns in which he was interested seemed to flourish.

He seemed steady and industrious. At last he was wedded to the daughter of one of the leading citizens of Williamsport. His business continued to flourish and he lived in a handsome residence. There were three children, two girls and a boy, who were, until the alleged sensational details of their father's early life were made public, lived in Williamsport. They are now living at Laceyville, Pa., with the supposed wife of W. S. Allen.

Allen went into the manufacture of rifles and kept a large sporting goods store in Williamsport. He was superintendent of one of the largest Methodist Sunday-schools in that city. He was particularly fond of hunting. While out with a party of friends in the wilds of western Pennsylvania, he was accidentally shot. He wore a deerskin coat at the time and was taken for a deer by one of the party. That happened in 1889.

Pangborn's last visit to Plainfield occurred in 1880, when the elder Stephen Pangborn died and his will was read. The son was present at the funeral and afterwards listened to the reading of the will. According to the terms of the will he was cut off with $5, while the remainder of the property was divided among the wife and the other children. It is said he remarked at that time that he did not care for he had more of his own than his father could have given him.

The news of the death of Stephen Pangborn, or Winfield Scott Allen, was known among the relatives at the time. A short account, giving the name as Stephen Pangborn, appeared in one of the local newspapers, it is said. The claims of Mrs. Pangborn and her daughter were not generally realized until the matter came to the attention of Attorney Isaac P. Runyon. He told Mrs. Pangborn, who was ignorant of the fact that there was a valuable estate left.

Since then Attorney Runyon has been working on the case and has associated with him in the case James O. Clark, of Westfield. McCormick & McCormick, of Williamsport, are the Pennsylvania representatives.

A mortgage was given by Mrs. Pangborn and her daughter, to James O. Clark, for money loaned and advanced. Under this mortgage a fight is being made to recover possession of the entire Allen estate, part of which was sold, as has already been stated.

Mrs. Pangborn is now living with her daughter, Mrs. Louis Miller, in the little cottage on Lake street. The daughter married Charles M. Perrine but secured a divorce, it is alleged, and has since married Louis Miller, a sailor in the United States navy.

The second wife of the elder Stephen Pangborn is still living. She makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Slater, of Jackson avenue. Of the ten children, there are eight living. They are Mrs. Anne Brown, of Washington avenue; William H. Pangborn, of Chatham street; Mrs. Sarah Jane Allen, of Westfield; Mrs. Julia Shepard, of Flemington; Freeman Pangborn, of this city; Mrs. Louis Willett, of East Second street, and Mrs. Fred Slater, of Jackson avenue.

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT. Notice is hereby given, That the account of the subscriber, executor of Elizabeth D. Baker, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphan's Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the twenty-seventh day of December next.

Dated November 22d, 1899.

11 22 5 oaw SAMUEL C. MOUNT.

LOCAL and CLIMATIC

Nothing but a local remedy or change of climate will cure

CATARRH.

The Specific is

Ely's Cream Balm

It is quickly Absorbed. Gives Relief at once. Opens and cleanses the Nasal Passages. Allays Inflammation. Heals and Protects the Membrane. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. No Mercury. No Injurious drug. Regular Size 50c. Family Size $1.00. at Druggists or by mail.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

CATARRH

COLD IN HEAD

HENRY J. WIERENGA,

Furniture and Freight Express

Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store 128 Park avenue. 10 1

S. R. STRUTHERS

offers his services as accountant. Books opened and closed. Trial balances made and Balance Sheets shown.

Call or address

544 WEST FRONT STREET. 12 12 12

Buckram Frames, 80 shapes, 15c and 10c

Bonn's

140 WEST FRONT ST.

Silk Velvets, Black and Colors, 98c yard.

STYLISH TRIMMED HATS,

$1.98, 2.98, and 3.98,

all colors, one hundred and fifty to choose from. Ready to-wear Hats, 59c, 98c and $1.39.

Hats Trimmed Free of Charge

and the lowest prices for Felt and Velvet Shapes, Fancy Wings, Feathers and Ornaments.

SILK WAISTS, $3.79 and 4.98.

Pretty Cords and Tucks of good Taffeta Silk, black and all colors.

BUY YOUR PHONOGRAPHS,

Gramophones, Records and Supplies at

BROKAW'S . . .

The Piano Dealer, 123 East Front Street.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use

REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT,

Made only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG THE APOTHECARY,

At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

GEO. W. COLE,

UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,

200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.

OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

DIED.

PURDY—In this city, Monday, Dec. 11, 1899, Clarence B. Purdy, aged 33 years. Funeral services at his late residence, 187 Martine avenue, Thursday, Dec. 14, at 8 p. m

WANTS AND OFFERS.

YOUNG man wants situation as coachman; understands horses; references. G. P., care Press. 12 12 5

FAMILY washing wanted at home by first-class colored laundress. Apply J. H. Frisby, Mail Messenger. 12 12 3

THREE pleasant convenient rooms to let for light housekeeping. 404 Third street, corner Central avenue, 12 11 11

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Chas. L. Moffett, Attorney, cor. Park and North Aves. 12 11 eod tf

TO LET—From December 1st, nice seven-room house, 12 Arlington place. Enquire on premises. 11 22 eod tf

PURE cider vinegar for sale at C. J. Ackerman's, Clinton avenue. 8 5 w-s tf

TO LET—Six-room house and store, connected. 214 Richmond street.

TO LET—Nice flat with improvements. 304 Richmond street.

TO LET—Butcher shop, with or without fixtures. 302 B Richmond street. eod 12 13 tf

FOR SALE—At great bargain on account moving to New York; 2 oak bedroom sets, 1 iron bedstead all with springs and mattresses, nearly new; also featherbed, pillows, etc., (28-yards Brussels carpet). Take trolley to just above Dunellen to Conovers Corners, inquire for the Dunn Farm.

FOR RENT—Central Hall, for occasional festivities or permanent occupation. Apply to Fred Dunn. w s tf

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

BICYCLE for sale cheap. 46 Lincoln place 12 11 4

SITUATION wanted by reliable man; 12 years' experience in grocery and other business. Dilts, 46 Lincoln place. 12 11 3

WANTED—Good horse for his keep this winter. Address Horse, care Press. 12 11 3

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish Intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 9 23 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 24

FURNISHED rooms to let. 322 East 5th St. 12 8 5

WANTED—Walnut trees. J. D. Loizeaux, 640 North Ave. 12 2 12

HELP WANTED — Machinists, lathe and planer hands; good men can find steady job and good wages. Address P. O. Box 108, Cincinnati, Ohio. 12 8 12

WANTED—Young girl to assist with housework. 112 Lafayette place. 12 13 2

WANTED—Situation to look after furnaces, etc.; have first-class references. Thomas Jones, 368 Arlington avenue. 12 13 6

HOUSE to rent, $8.00; 4 acres. J. T. Vail. 12 13 3

GIRL WANTED for general housework, 917 Watchung ave. 12 13 2

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

TELEPHONE 722.

MAZE EDWARDS, - Lessee and Manager.

Reserved Seat Tickets at Box Office, which is open daily from 9. m.

Thursday Night, Dec. 14.

Lincoln J. Carter's Great Spectacular Production. "The Heart of Chicago."

Elegant Special Scenery. Wonderful Mechanical Devices. Mysterious Electrical Effects. A Vivid Picture of the Great Fire.

ANOTHER BIG SUCCESS.

See The Marvelous Approaching Train.

A POWERFUL COMPANY,

Introducing a splendid line of HIGH-CLASS SPECIALTIES.

PRICES—25c, 35c, 50c and 75c.

...EMERY'S...

PLEASURE GARDEN

(SCOTCH PLAINS.)

Thursday Evening, December 21st.

FIRST

GRAND BALL

—OF THE—

Prospect Social Club.

Music by Prof. O'Reilly.

TICKETS - - - - 25 Cents.

The Enclosed Pavilion is for rent for Balls, Parties, etc., at Reasonable Rates.

OUR OYSTERS ARE THE ---FINEST---

ROGERS

232 West Second Street.

BANK ELECTION.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of this bank, for the election of nine Directors to serve for the ensuing year, will be held at the Banking rooms, corner of Park avenue and Front street, on Tuesday, January 9th, 1900, from 1 to 2 o'clock p. m.

WILLIAM F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

Dated Plainfield, N. J., December 7th, 1899.

12-8 9 11 13 15 16 19 22 26 28 30 1-2 4 6 8

MASSAGE

VAPOR BATHS

Physical and Health Culture

CORNS REMOVED 25c.

M V. STICKLE, 149 East Fifth St.

Advertised Letters.

Plainfield, N. J., Dec. 11, 1899.

Bernard, Mr Charles	Herbert Jr, Mr Jas. N
Carter, Mrs Jennie	Kenney, Mr Thomas
Clark, Mrs I N	Newstub, Mrs F
Cort, Mrs John	Poach, Miss Rosa
Emery, Mrs David	Risberg, Mr N E 2
Evans, Mable	VanDeventer, Mrs Caroline
	Vincent, Mr A G

E. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

SPECIAL!!

HAIR DRESSING, SHAMPOOING, MANICURING.

Until after the Holiday Season

MISS HOLMES,

Graduate of the New York School of Hair Dressing and Dermatology,

will make special rates for hair dressing in all the latest styles for street and evening at parlors 75c. At ladies residences by appointment. Shampooing or Facial Massage and steaming (for eradicating imperfections of the skin) 75c. Manicuring 50c.

440 W. FRONT ST.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:16 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:34 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:34 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Increasing Cloudiness Tonight; Snow or Rain Friday; Low Temperature for Several Days. Ther. 52.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

GREAT INTEREST IN BIBLE CONFERENCE

Work Of The Holy Spirit Was The Subject Yesterday.

THE BIBLE POINT OF VIEW.

NECESSARY FOR CHRISTIANS TO BE FILLED WITH HOLY SPIRIT.

Mr. Shelton Says That It Gives Strength and Courage and Imparts Energy for Christian Work—Meeting To Be Held In The First Presbyterian Church Tonight and Tomorrow to Accommodate Crowds.

There was a very good sized audience at the Y. M. C. A. Hall last evening when the Bible Conference was continued under the direction of Don O. Shelton. The chorus-choir was increased to some extent and the song service, under the leadership of L. H. Biglow, Jr., was thoroughly inspiring. W. W. Moore was in charge of the devotional exercises which opened the conference. After Mr. Shelton made the announcement of meetings for the rest of the week he gave a brief talk on how to study the Bible. Then followed the study of the evening.

The subject, as announced, was the work of the Holy Spirit. Mr. Shelton said that there were seven passages in Ephesians bearing directly on this topic, and while he took pains to emphasize the consecutive and systematic study of the Scriptures, he illustrated the topic study by the admirable outline of last night.

This vastly important subject was treated from a Bible point of view and many Bible references were read to prove that during the ages past men were filled with the Holy Spirit when called of God to do special work for God and man.

Mr Shelton made it very plain and conclusive that it was possible as well as necessary for Christians in this, our day, to be filled with the Holy Spirit

During the course of the evening's study, he said in part:

"One may take up the study of the character and work of the Holy Spirit with great eagerness and large expectation for it is certain that no study can be more important or more fruitful. The more perfect our knowledge of Him, the more eager shall we be to have Him become our permanent guest.

"Time cannot be more profitably spent than in study of the wonderous revelation of the scripture regarding Him. It was the behalf of John Owen that the practical test of soundness in the faith, during this gospel age, is the attitude of the church toward the Holy Spirit.

"Paul desired that the Ephesians should be 'strengthened with might by the Holy Spirit.' He knew that the Holy Spirit could make them to be all that God would have them to be. Believers who are thus strengthened by the Spirit have unnatural courage, unusual faith, uncommon spiritual vigor. Such will be watchful; they will quit themselves like men; the will be strong, (1 Cor. 16:13.)

"The Holy Ghost makes Christ to abide in our hearts. Those who have the Spirit abiding in them are said to have Christ abiding in them (Romans 8:9 10). Christ said: 'And I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that He may abide with you forever. . . . I will not leave you comfortless; I will come to you.' (John 14:16-18). These latter verses, as Moule finally points out, are fragments of a Divine comment on this glorious passage in Ephesians. Through the agency of the Holy Spirit Christ dwells in the inner man. Where the Holy Spirit abides there Christ may be said also to abide."

"The Holy Spirit gives strength and courage. He imparts energy for Christian service. Most men are as weak, naturally, as were Peter and the other disciples when they forsook the Master in the hour of temptation. It was only after the Holy Ghost had come upon them that they were able to meet unflinchingly the opposition and hatred of men. When the rulers and elders sought to stifle their testimony for God, Peter said: 'We cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.' We shall not have the courage to even make the attempt to win the unsaved multitudes to Christ unless we are strengthened with might by the Spirit.

"The great need of the young people's organizations of the churches is not more committees or more machinery—of these there are doubtless enough—but the pressing need is that the members of these societies be filled with the Spirit. There is nothing the Holy Spirit will not do for us if we allow Him to come into our lives in

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.]

PARKS HELD TROPHY

DEFEATED CHALLENGERS FROM ESSEX WHIST CLUB.

Match Played Last Night For Trophy of the New Jersey Whist Association — The Park Club Won 20 To 8.

The state challenge trophy of the New Jersey Whist association still remains in Plainfield. Last evening the team from the Essex Whist Club of Glen Ridge, New Jersey, visited the club house of the Park Club and played a match for the trophy with the team from that club. The Park Club four had a comparatively easy fight to retain the trophy. The challengers returned home, defeated by a score of 20 to 8.

The Park Club was represented by Peter B. Matthews, Arthur A. Freeman, Albert O. Woltmann and Ralph Willis. This team has proved a most worthy successor to the old veteran four that has won so many state and national honors in the whistic arena for the Park Club. The four from the Essex Whist Club was made up of Messrs. Barry, Tenny, Dennis and Forester.

The score by rounds follows:

	1st.	2nd.	3rd.
Park Club.....	6	8	6	20
Essex Whist Club..	1	6	1	8

The next match for the trophy will be played Monday evening, when the challengers will be the Elizabeth Chess and Whist Club, one of the strongest teams in the league.

DIED WITH NO ONE NEAR.

Mrs. Eveline Clark, Aged Seventy-five Years, Found by Neighbors Who Called at the House.

Mrs. Eveline Clark, aged seventy-five years, was found lying dead in the bedroom of her home in New Providence yesterday morning by several neighbors who had called at the house when they noticed that the old lady did not appear as usual in the morning. Mrs. Clark had been in comparative good health for one of her age. She was a great aunt to Mrs. Daniel Hogan, Jr., of this city. The funeral will be held this afternoon.

RIGHT UP-TO DATE.

No End to Fine Things on Display at Lederer's Dry Goods Store.

The holiday season has opened at I. Lederer's big store on West Front street, opposite Somerset street. Everything there is new and right up-to-date. The Christmas tide brings with it many a pretty display, but Lederer's store is now a Mecca for the throng of Christmas shoppers that are beginning to crowd the streets.

There is as tasteful an array of sterling silverware as can be wished for. Hand-painted celluloid novelties attract attention. Hand-painted china and glassware are another attraction. The display of handkerchiefs and gloves is particularly complete.

The show-window, full of pretty dressing sacques, calls attention to one speciality that has found general favor with the purchasing public. Last season there was a big sale of mackintoshes and the very latest styles offer equal opportunities this year.

Of special interest to the men is the very complete stock of fancy neckware, which offers an opportunity to get the very latest things in ties, collars, cuffs, etc. Then there are umbrellas, lots of them, in all styles. There are a host of other attractive things to catch the eye of the Christmas buyer, all artistically arranged.

Must Mutilate Revenue Stamps.

Deputy Internal Revenue Inspector George E. VanVoorhis calls attention to a recent order from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue at Washington, which goes into effect on an order tomorrow, that on and after that date all revenue stamps of the amount of 10 cents and upward must be mutilated by cutting three parallel incisions lengthwise through the stamp. This order is supposed to be the result of recent discoveries of cancellations being washed from high value.

Set Trial Before Indictment.

A new record was established yesterday at New Brunswick, when Justice Collins fixed a day for the trial of a prisoner who has not yet been indicted. The prisoner is Vitanyi Cziga, charged with the murber of Imre Czermak. Prosecutor John S. Voorhees stated that the man's case would be considered by the present grand jury and he would be indicted. He asked the court to set a date and Justice Collins named Tuesday, Dec. 26.

Look Out For Trouble.

Frank Vanderhoof, of West Front street, whose setter dog was stolen from his place, has been able to get on track of his dog through an advertisement inserted in The Daily Press, and he now knows where he is. He says that if the party will return the dog he will say nothing, otherwise there will be trouble.

NO REPLY FROM RIKERS YET

Elizabeth Councilman Says There Are Ten Feet of Ground That Cannot Be Crossed by Trolley.

Chandler W. Riker and Colonel Hine, president and secretary of the Weltfield & Elizabeth Street Railroad Company, were in Elizabeth yesterday and were interviewed by a reporter.

They said there was nothing new in reference to the company's application for a franchise to enter Elizabeth over Jersey avenue.

Mr. Riker said a certified copy of the ordinance would be procured, and if the conditions therein are what the company believe they are, they cannot be accepted. The city will receive a formal answer within the 30 days' limit.

One of the members of City Council said there are just about ten feet of ground which will be a bar against the trolley coming into the city over a private right of way. He admitted that they could get to Bayway, but not into the roadway, because while the city has no jurisdiction between the curbs, it does have control over the sidewalk. Bayway is a county road, he said, but the company could not get over the sidewalk from the De Raismes property without the consent of the city.

LOOKS CHRISTMAS-LIKE.

Exerything Has a Holiday Air at Putnam & DeGraw's.

It is easy to tell that Christmas is near by a single glance in Putnam & DeGraw's, on West Front street. Those enterprising dealers in dry and fancy goods have made it a point to be fully prepared. Their orders were given before the general rise in prices, and, as a result, they are enabled to give their customers the latest styles at the old prices.

They have something new in the Harvard muffler that is worthy of investigation. It is particularly adapted for a Christmas gift to a young man. Then there is a choice selection of umbrellas, fancy trinkets, handkerchiefs, gloves and men's neckware. In addition to the holiday specials, the usual high-class of articles are meeting a ready sale.

SOLD $30 OVERCOAT FOR $3

The Article Was Part of Booty Stolen at Mantz Brothers Factory.

Detective Johnson, of the Easton police force, has discovered the missing overcoat stolen from the Mantz Brothers' establishment on East Front street, Election night. It was a $30 overcoat and the thieves had parted with it for $3 to a man in Easton.

Chief Grant was informed of the find yesterday and the description of the overcoat tallied so exactly with that of the missing one as to leave no doubt but that it was the stolen overcoat.

Trolley Struck Vehicle.

A trolley car on the Fourth street line struck a wagon yesterday afternoon at the corner of Liberty street and Fourth street. The horses and wagon are owned by D. H. Rowland, of 511 West Seventh street, and were in charge of the coachman. The wagon was upset and the driver thrown out. Fortunately the horses did not get away, neither was the man injured. The wagon was damaged slightly. The trolley car suffered no damage.

Sending Christmas Gifts South.

Among the patrons of the express company at this season of the year in this city are the colored people, many of whom have friends in Virginia and other southern cities. They never fail to remember their relatives and friends at Christmas time. Many of the packages sent by mail as well as express come from these people, whose gratitude is one of the characteristics of the negro race.

Missionary to Talk.

Mrs. J. S. Pingry, of New York, a talented missionary worker and speaker, will address the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Crescent Avenue church tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. A tea will be given at 5 o'clock.

Drawhead Pulled Out.

The drawhead pulled out or gave way on one of the cars attached to last night's 4:40 express train from New York on the Jersey Central Railroad and necessitated the stopping of the train east of West Eighth street, where repairs were made.

Wanted to Assist in Singing.

All members of the Bible Conference chorus choir are earnestly requested to be present at the First Presbyterian church tonight and tomorrow night to assist in the singing whether they have served already or not.

Preparing for Snow.

The Plainfield Street Railway Company have had several new snow plows made in anticipation of approaching snow storms.

FINGERHUTHS WILL BE TRIED MONDAY.

Must Answer for Death of Paul Roehricht.

THE TRIAL AT SOMERVILLE.

NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS ARE VERY LIKELY TO APPEAR.

The Shooting of Roehricht is Practically Conceded—The Question is as To Mrs. Fingerhuth's Right To Repell Invaders With Firearms—Trial Will Probably Last Three Days

There is a general renewal of interest in the circumstances relating to the killing of Paul Roehricht at Somerset Park, September 12th, Monday morning, the trial of Mrs. Henrietta Fingerhuth, Theodore Fingerhuth, her husband, and Oscar Fingerhuth, her son, for the murder of Roehricht, will begin in the Somerset County courthouse at Somerville. The fact that the case is soon to be thoroughly investigated in court has directed much interest to the subject.

There is little prospect that the trial will develop any new and sensational details. The circumstances of the shooting were given the fullest publicity at the time and there are no new developments in the case. It is practically conceded that Paul Roehricht met his death at the hand of Mrs. Henrietta Fingerhuth, but the defence will try to prove that she had a perfect right where she was and that Roehricht was a trespasser in the eyes of the law. Furthermore they will attempt to prove that Mrs. Fingerhuth was perfectly justified in repelling the invasion of her landlord, Paul Roehricht, and had a right to use the revolver in so doing.

The case is called for Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Chief Justice Magie, of the New Jersey Supreme Court, and Judge Bartine, of the Somerset County Court of Common Pleas, will occupy the bench. The morning and possibly part of the afternoon session will be devoted to the selection of a jury. The law in this State does not permit the great variety of questions in the selection of the jury that delayed affairs so in the famous Molineux trial, now in progress before Recorder Goff in New York.

The witnesses for both prosecution and defence have been subpoened. They will number nearly fifty in all. After their examination, the lawyers for both sides will sum up. The prosecution will be conducted by County Prosecutor Nelson Y. Dungan. Walter L. Hetfield and William G. DeMeza, both of this city, will have charge of the defence. It is expected that nearly three days will be occupied before the Judge is able to turn the case over the jury for a verdict.

POLICE CHASED THEM.

Lusty Lunged Men From New York Imposing on People Selling an Extra New York Paper.

Three young men from out-of-town, armed with bundles of the New York World, imposed upon many citizens this morning by selling copies of that paper containing an account of a railroad wreck, which happened near Allentown, Pa., yesterday afternoon. The men went up and down the business streets crying out in blatant tones about a "terrible wreck to cummuters' train" on the Central railroad, giving the impression that many people living in this city and vicinity had been killed. Men and women fell over each other in their anxiety to buy the papers at five cents the copy, only to find that they had been imposed upon. The wreck was not of great magnitude and no persons from this city or vicinity were among the killed or injured. Patrolman Flanagan drove the fakirs out of the city. The last seen of them they were making for North Plainfield via Grove street.

SOLD THE "LOCOMOBILE."

It Was Intended for Exhibition in Plainfield, But Fire Chief Croker, of New York, Wanted It.

A few weeks ago Charles Lee, of Grove street, had in Plainfield on exhibition a "locomobile," for which he is the agent for this district, expected to have the horseless carrriage in Plainfield for some time and exhibit it more extensively. This morning Mr. Lee received word from the secretary of the company that the one that was in Plainfield has been sold at a fancy price. The purchaser is Fire Chief Croker, of New York. Mr. Croker wanted one immediately and offered a large sum for the carriage. The company is unable to turn them out fast enough for the demand.

Miss Noel, of 203 New street, has removed to 409 West Third street.

NEW LIBRARY ROOM.

Opening of the Stack Room Will Take Place on Saturday of This Week.

The opening of the new stack room of the Plainfield Public Library to the public, which was to have taken place last Saturday, but was postponed, will occur on Saturday of this week. On that day, during the regular circulation hours, all three floors of the stack room will be open to visitors, and after that day the first floor, which contains all books of general interest, will be free to the public.

Many changes have been made in the reading room of the Library during the past year. A new delivery desk, catalogue cases, periodical racks and magazine desks have been introduced, and electric lights have been put in throughout the building.

In connection with the opening an exhibit of choice books will be held in the western alcove of the reading room. The books displayed will be valuable volumes from the Babcock Scientific Library

CHRISTOPHER BEEKMAN DEAD.

Well Know in Somerset and Noted for His Eccentricities.

Christopher Columbus Beekman, one of the wealthiest citizens of Somerset county, died at his residence, Franklin Park, Monday afternoon, after an illness of a few days. He was over 65 years old. His wealth is estimated at over a half a million dollars. He was noted for his eccentricities.

It is said that when a young man he conducted a distillery, and worked on Sundays on his farm. One Sunday, as he was ploughing, he heard the church bells ring, and it seems to him that they repeated over and over again, "Come, Clum." The bells first pleaded and then threatened, until Beekman, growing alarmed, went to church.

Ever after that he was a devout attendant at church, observed the Sabbath, and sold his distillery.

He was a director in the Cranbury National Bank, and prominent in other financial institutions of the county.

AN IMPORTANT PURCHASE.

W. H. Hand & Son Have Bought Second Street End of Thompson Building.

William H. Hand & Son, of Park avenue, have purchased from the First National Bank the Second street end of what is commonly known as the Thompson building, which was destroyed by fire some time ago. It is 50x100 feet. It will be used in connection with the general trucking business carried on by the firm purchasing it.

Judge McCormick's Estate Resold.

The estate of Judge McCormick was resold yesterday at public auction in the Elizabeth Court House. President Ryan, of the City Council, acted as auctioneer, and the prices brought by the different tracts were the same with one exception as at the previous sale. One tract brought $105 more than at the first auction, while another, purchased by Peter Houck, brought $35 less. The Court of Chancery will confirm yesterday's sale.

A High-Toned Title.

A few days ago there was organized in the Babcock building the "Millionaires' Club," and the following officers were elected: President, William Dowd; financial secretary and treasurer, George L. Apgar; sergeant-at-arms, Warren McLoughlin. A meeting room has been secured in the Babcock building, and anyone wishing to join can send their name to the secretary. At present the club numbers nineteen.

Mrs. Tabarowski Non-Suited.

The case of Cecelia Tabarowski against the Central Railroad of New Jersey, for $20,000 damages for the death of her husband, who was killed by an express train on the Central at Perth Amboy, April 11th, 1899, was tried at New Brunswick yesterday. The plaintiff was non-suited on the ground that it had not been shown that the company had failed to observe all proper precautions.

Dinner Party for a Dozen.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Mellick, of LaGrande avenue, gave a dinner last evening to Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Marshall, of New York. Covers were laid for twelve. The decorations consisted of pink roses and southern smilax. The table was very artisticly arranged. A charming effect was given by the lighting of the house for the occasion with candles.

A Plainfield Man's Discovery.

A man from the west end started out last week with money enough, as he supposed, to buy an overcoat. He went home with an overcoat, a suit of clothes for himself and a suit for his son and still had 30 cents left. Schepflin & Schultz, clothiers, 322 West Front street, will show you how he done it.

DO NOT LIKE THE BLANK.

EMPLOYES OF THE CENTRAL RAILROAD ARE DISSATISFIED.

Committees From Labor Unions Will Interview Railroad Officials to Adjust Difficulties Without Serious Trouble.

A movement is reported among the Railroad Brotherhoods of Engineers, Telegraphers, Firemen, Conductors and Trainmen to demand the retirement of several officials of the Central Railroad of New Jersey. Four committees have planned to visit Jersey City this week with grievances, the more important of which involves the "personal-record application blank."

The blank application form has been distributed broadcast among the employes during the last few weeks. It states that the "undersigned" is hired by the day, etc., etc. The blank is regarded by the men as a scheme to get from the company an acknowledgment from the employe that he is not bound by Brotherhood principles. Among some of the employes threats are made of suits for intimidation.

Superintendent J. H. Olhausen, of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, yesterday said that he had received no complaints from the employes of the road, and had heard nothing of the reported committees formed by the Brotherhoods of Engineers, Conductors, Firemen and Trainmen to present grievances to him.

SEEK ASSURANCE OF LOW TAX.

This Given, Railroad Shops May be Erected at New Market.

That the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company is seriously considering the erection of repair shops and the roundhouse for the Perth Amboy Division on a farm purchased near New Market, in Piscataway township, was shown at a conference held with the township officials by several officers of the railroad company.

The main point under consideration, and one which will largely govern the railroad company's final decision, is the question of taxation of the plant they propose to establish. The company wants assurances that they will not be assessed at a high rate for their plant, and the present officials of the township have promised that so far as it lies in their power they will secure liberal treatment for the railroad in this respect.

To Discuss Proposed School Law.

County Superintendent Mets has called a meeting of the boards of education of Somerset county to take place at the Court House next Saturday at 2 o'clock p. m., to discuss Senate bill 197, comprising the revision and codification of the school law. Either State Superintendent Baxter or Deputy Superintendent Betts will be present.

His Legs Under the Wheels.

James Rooney, a stone mason, fifty-two years old, and whose residence is in Philadelphia, had his legs cut off last night by a train on the Long Branch Railroad at Elizabethport station. He was trying to board the train and slipped, his legs going under the wheels. He was taken to the Elizabeth General Hospital and will die.

One Way to Pay the Judgment.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Cranford, Dec. 14.—The Cranford Township Committee Tuesday evening discussed the question how the famous Watters suit could be settled so that the town would not have to pay $700 a year interest on a judgment secured by Watters, pending appeal in the Chancery Court, as it will take a year to settle the matter.

Judge on a Vacation.

There was no session of the Union County Court of Specials Sessions at Elizabeth yesterday. Judge Vail has gone to Virginia for a week with two Rahway friends to hunt ducks and quail. The constables and others connected with the court were on hand.

Paid Accident Claims

The Traveller's Accident Insurance Company, through their agent, W. V. Mundy, paid the following claims yesterday for the month of November: Charles Bock, $350; J. C. Pope, $55; Dr. J. H. Cooley, $10; H. N. Spencer, $15; Wesley R. Brokaw, $20.

Commemorate Washington's Death.

Washington Lodge of Freemasons, of Elizabeth, which is 120 years old, will commemorate today the centennial of the death of George Washington. The ceremonies will be at the old First Church, and the orator will be Rev. Dr. Glazebrook.

Former Plainfield Woman Dead.

Mrs. Samuel A. Haines, formerly a well-known resident of Netherwood, died last Saturday at her home in Indianapolis. She had been in ill-health for some months and her death was not unexpected.

—Press want ads pay.

CHINAMEN AT WAR WITH TORMENTORS.

Began Active Campaign Against Newsboys.

CAUGHT SEVERAL OF THEM.

INNOCENT LAD WAS ALSO PUNISHED BY MISTAKE.

Patrolman Flanagan Took a Hand — Small Boys Have Been Tormenting Chinamen For A Long Time — Wah Lee Captured Two Of The Ring Leaders — One Lung Made A Mistake.

Active warfare has been in progress for many weeks between the Chinese laundrymen of this city and the horde of small boys, principally newsboys, who haunt the streets during the hours of the late afternoon when twilight begins. According to the point of view of the small boy, the Chinamen are perfectly legitimate victims. So it has been that the life of the natives of the Celestian Empire who wash and iron for a living in Plainfield have had a rather hard time of it. One Lung, whose shop is on Somerset street, near the bridge, and Wah Lee, of East Front street, have been most tormented although all have suffered. Yesterday afternoon, the Chinamen began an active campaign.

Heretofore, it has been the youthful tormentors who have been the aggressors. They have knocked on the doors of the Chinamen's shops, they have shouted insulting remarks at the proprietors. They have even gone so far as to open the doors and hurl dead rats and chunks of meat at the industrious foreigners within.

Sometimes the Chinamen have rushed out only to see the small boys scatter in all directions and disappear in the darkness. Generally, however, the Celestials have been patient, more patient in fact than the vast majority of other folk would under similar circumstances. They were patient until patience ceased to be a virture.

During the last week, Wah Lee, the almond-eyed proprietor of the laundry on East Front street, has been the victim of every devise that the ingenuity of the small boy could produce. So yesterday, Wah Lee laid his plans carefully and when the unbidden guests came to torment him once more, he was ready for them. He charged upon the pack of newsboys and vengence was emblazoned in every feature. Keeping his eye upon the two ringleaders of the gang, he sped after them and finally captured them after a brief chase.

The boys received a drubbing that they will not forget in a hurry and the Chinamen vented his pentup wrath of weeks on his prisoners. Then they were allowed to go.

One Lung, the proprietor of the Somerset street establishment, did not meet with such success. He laid in wait for his tormentors yesterday afternoon. Willie Baker, a paperboy, but entirely innocent of any of the mischief, walked up to the place. One Lung sprang upon him with a yell. Willie fled. He was finally captured and punished despite his continued protests of his innocence.

Then One Lung complained to Patrolman Flanagan, who invaded the News office and captured a boy there whom One Lung pointed out as a leader of his tormentors. The lad was started in the direction of the station house, weeping bitter tears. A crowd of newsboys numbering sixty or seventy and half as many other people followed the policeman and his prisoner.

"Oh, Mr. Flanagan, please let me go," shouted the boy. "I didn't do it. Really I didn't. I'll never do it again." After the procession had gone up Park avenue nearly to Second street. Flanagan finally released his prisoner, who departed without delay.

Chief Grant says that the practice of the newsboys of loitering about the corner of Park avenue and Front street just at dusk will have to be given up. The youngsters are up to all kinds of mischief and many complaints have been made to the police about them. The officers will hereafter be instructed to keep the newsboys moving and will not allow them to congregate anywhere. If necessary the Chief says that the "curfew rule" will be made to apply to them.

Coroner Has A Monopoly.

Although Union county, is supposed to have three Coroners, it has but one who is available. Dr. Charles W. McConnell, of Cranford, whose term of three years expires next year, has a monopoly of the business. Dr. John W. Gray, of Summit was elected last November, but did not qualify. Dr. John Randolph, of Rahway, is ill with lung trouble and is now in Arizona.

—Use Press want ads.

THE TESTIMONY STANDS.

Evidence Against Roberts is Heard by Committee.

HARD BLOWS ARE DEALT

Congressman-Elect From Utah Asks to Have Certain Testimony Struck Out—Chairman Tayler Overrules Objection—Damaging Testimony of Several Witnesses.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The committee of the House of Representatives which is investigating the case of Mr. Roberts, of Utah, has begun the examination of witnesses.

When Chairman Taylor (Ohio) called the committee to order and asked what witnesses would be heard, Mr. Roberts arose and asked as to his status before the committee, making a short statement in line with the argument contained in his brief, which has been published.

Mr. Taylor responded that all of Mr. Roberts' rights had been fully looked after and protected, and at the very threshold of the inquiry there was no proper question which had not been raised.

Charles Austin Owen was then called. He gave his residence as Salt Lake City, and his age as forty-two. In response to questions by Mr. Schroeder, he said he knew the general reputation in Salt Lake City of "Dr. Maggie C. Shipp Roberts." Her professional sign reads, "Dr. Margaret C. Roberts." Her name appears similarly in the city directories. The witness said also that the general reputation of the status of Roberts and Mrs. Maggie C. Shipp-Roberts was that they maintained the relations of husband and wife.

Mr. Roberts then cross-examined the witness. The questions were asked rapidly and sometimes savagely. Mr. Roberts' questions brought out that the witness had no personal knowledge as to Mrs. Maggie Roberts or Mr. Roberts, based on talks with them, but his information was general and common repute.

"I want to know, asked Roberts, "if the general reputation you have been testifying to obtains since March 4, 1899?"

"It does."

"And what is that reputation?"

"That Maggie C. Shipp-Roberts is the plural or polygamous wife of Brigham H. Roberts."

As Owen's evidence closed, Mr. Roberts asked to have all this testimony struck from the record, as the witness was unable to testify to his own knowledge.

The chairman permitted the testimony to stand.

Arthur McEwen, of the Philadelphia North American, was examined as to a recent interview with Roberts, signed by him (McEwen). In this Roberts spoke of his "wives," refering to them as "good and true women," toward whom obligations had been incurred prior to the enactment of the polygamy law.

Captain Elias H. Parsons, of the quartermaster's department, U. S. V., testified that in 1896, while he was in Salt Lake City, some one asked him to call up on his telephone Dr. Maggie Shipp-Roberts. On going to the telephone and calling up the house, a man's voice answered.

"Who is this?" Captain Parsons asked over the telephone.

"B. H. Roberts," was the reply.

On cross-examination Roberts asked: "Do you know B. H. Roberts' voice?"

"I do not."

Mr. Roberts said he would later ask to have this testimony stricken out as irrelevant and not on personal knowledge.

The Rev. Dr. Iliff, a Methodist missionary of Utah, testified that the general reputation as to the status of Celia Dibble Roberts was that she was the plural wife of Brigham H. Roberts. Dr. Iliff referred to an article by Roberts defending polygamy.

Debate on Currency Bill.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The debate on the currency bill was continued in the House of Representatives, Mr. Bell of Colorado being the first speaker. He opposed the bill, and argued against its banking features.

Mr. Brundige (Ark.) opposed the bill also. Mr. Wheeler (Ky.) said he desired to acquit the Republicans in his district of the charge of a change of front. "There the battle was waged squarely," he added, "by the bi-metallists on the one side and the gold monometalists upon the other, and the bimetallists piled up a majority of 15,000.

Mr. Fowler (N. J.), who was a member of the banking and currency committee of the last congress, said he would vote for the bill, because of the gold declaration in the first fourteen lines notwithstanding what followed.

Mr. Lacey (Ia.), in supporting the bill, said he was surprised to hear the gentleman from Missouri, Mr. De Armond, state that the Republican victory in 1896 was won by the purchase of Democratic votes.

"Does the gentleman contend that McKinley could have won without the recalcitrant gold Democrats?" interposed Mr. Berry (Ky.).

"We won perhaps with the aid of those whom the gentleman denominates recalcitrant Democrats," replied Mr. Lacey, "but they were not bought or scared. No more honorable body of men ever stood up to be counted than the gold Democrats of 1896."

Proceeding, Mr. Lacey said that the Democratic gains in the present House came from New England, New York, New Jersey and Maryland, where the Chicago platform had been trampled under foot.

"Not in New Jersey," interposed Mr. Daly (Dem., N. J.).

"Perhaps not there, but certainly in other states."

They Talk of General Greene.

Washington, Dec. 14.—General Francis V. Greene, of New York, is the latest candidate for the Vice Presidency to be put forward by admiring friends.

The eagerness with which this nomination is discussed as the members of the Republican National Committee gather, is remarkable in view of the fact that the Convention at which the choice will be made is at least seven months in the future.

Lieutenant Governor Woodruff, who is the candidate most in favor with the Republican organization of New York, having been endorsed by both Senator Platt and Senator Depew, arrived here, but he is more interested in urging the claims of New York as the convention city than in furthering his political ambitions. He declared that he had taken off his coat and was working with might and main to get the convention for New York. He will be followed by a large committee from New York, and will make a speech before the convention at its meeting on Friday.

It seems to be conceded that the Vice Presidency will go to New York and that New York, getting the second place on the ticket, ought to be satisfied to give the convention to some other city. This seems to be the view of the Hanna followers. Indeed, the Hanna men go further and have picked out New York's candidate in the person of Secretary Root.

Root talk is heard from Senator Hanna, Mr. Manley, Mr. Payne, Senator Scott, Mr. Durban, of Indiana; Assistant Postmaster General Heath, and in fact from nearly all persons close to the Administration.

Proceedings in the Senate.

Washington, Dec. 14—Mr. Gallinger (Rep, N. H.), Chairman of the Committee on Pensions has submitted to the Senate a report and statement on the subject of amending the pension laws so as to make them uniform and intelligible. The committee recommends the creation of a commission of learned jurists, one of them a member of the G. A. R., to take into consideration the entire pension system, and reports a bill for that purpose.

A bill to establish telegraphic communication between the United States and Hawaii and the Philippines was introduced by Mr. Lodge (Rep., Mass.).

The resolution offered Tuesday by Mr. Pettigrew (Sil. Rep., S. D.), as to the saluting of the flag of the Philippine Republic by American vessels of war in the bay of Manila, went over at his request and objection being made to the consideration of the only bill on the calendar (to restore to their original status as to promotion officers of the navy and marine corps losing numbers by reason of the advancement of other officers), the Senate proceeded to the consideration of executive business.

New Senate Committees.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The Republican caucus committee has reached an agreement in respect to the reorganization of Senate committees. The greatest interest is attached to three new committees created to have jurisdiction over insular affairs. The principal of these—the committee on the Philippines—is to be presided over by Senator Lodge. That will leave a vacancy in the chairmanship of the printing committee. Senator Platt of New York will fill that.

Senator Platt of Conecticut will be chairman of the committee on Cuba.

The committee on Porto Rico and Hawaii will have Senator Larabee for chairman.

Nominated by the President.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The President has sent the following nomniations to the Senate:

Treasury—William D. Bynum, of Indiana, to be general appraiser of merchandise; Charles M. Moss, collector of customs for the district of Portland and Falmouth, Me.

Postmasters—New York, Lillian I. H. Pearsall, Sea Cliff; Isaac S. Laight, Tottenville.

House to Adjourn Over Holidays.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The House has agreed to a joint resolution providing for the holiday adjournment from Friday, December 22, to Wednesday, January 3.

Proposed Anti-Trust League.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 14.—The Record says: "The Democratic national executive committee is organizing travelling men into anti-trust clubs. Those clubs are to be centralized into an organization called the Democratic Travelling Men's Anti-Trust League. C. M. C. Peters of New Carlisle, Ind., is now organizing clubs in that state, and if he obtains good results clubs are to be formed in wholesale and manufacturing centres all over the country."

A River Steamship Sinks.

Pittsburg, Dec. 14.—While preparing to start for the south with a tow of coal the steamship Pacific backed into the tow of the Charles Clarke, stoving in her side and sinking two barges carrying 12,000 bushels of coal each. The Pacific sank in less than a minute after the collision, but the crew, which included a number of women, acting as chambermaids, were rescued.

Wood is Governor of Cuba.

Washington, Dec. 14—By direction of the President, Major General Leonard Wood, United States Volunteers, has been assigned to the command of the division of Cuba, relieving Major General John R. Brooke, United States Army. Major General Wood will, in addition to his duties as division commander, exercise the authority of military governor of the island.

These Robbers Got No Money.

Toledo, Ohio, Dec. 14.—Cracksmen blew open the safe in F. W. Myres's saloon in Luckey, fourteen miles south of here. The explosion wrecked the saloon and aroused the whole village. Several shots were exchanged. The robbers took a hand car and came toward Toledo. They got no money, although $400 was in the safe.

Negro Shot by Wife's Companion.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Henry Bradley, a negro, was mortally wounded in an affray on H street, between Sixth and Seventh streets, S. W. His assailant was an unknown negro who was seen with Bradley's wife. Bradley died on his way to the Emergency Hospital.

A Detective Turns Burglar.

Frankfort, Ind., Dec. 14.—John W. Brooke, whose credentials showed him to be a member of a detective agency of Indianapolis, was arrested here while in the act of committing burglary.

HARD TO EXPLAIN.

If This Had Occurred Anywhere Else Than in Plainfield There Might be Grave Doubts About It.

If this were published anywhere else but in Plainfield, that is, if the statement given below went the rounds of the press, readers in Boston or New Orleans would not believe it. In the very nature of things men and women will not believe that a simple little pill would have any effect on humanity when the subject is in a serious condition. When it has that effect; when the party is a living witness, perhaps neighbor, Plainfield people at least cannot possibly deny it, particularly so when investigation is courted. Now ask Mrs. R. Wortmen, living with her daughter Mrs S. E Cook, of 204 Somerset street, and see if she will not corroborate the following:

"I used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results for severe pain across my back and hips, which no doubt was caused by the kidneys being out of order. It was painful for me to stoop or bend forward and I could not sit ten minutes in one position but had to be constantly changing about. It was the same way at night time. I used many different kinds of medicine recommended for kidney troubles but I could not see that any of them benefitted me. Doan's Kidney Pills were procured for me at L. W. Randolph's drug store and it is the only remedy I ever used that gave me any relief. I always keep a supply of them on hand and would not think of being without them. I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and advise all who suffer from a lame back to give them a fair trial."

Doan's kidney Pills 50 cents a box. Mailed on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

NEUMAN BROS.,

GROCERS,

Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

Don't miss the Special Sale for the holidays of

FRAMES, EASELS, and PICTURES

AT REDUCED PRICES, given by the

Guarantee Portrait Studio,

142 East Front Street.

Fine drawings in Crayons and Pastels from all kinds of photographs. All kinds of frames from the latest styles of mouldings made to order at the lowest prices.

Wm. J. Pearson,

(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)

Carpenter and Builder

15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to.

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS

New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Hire for Picnics, etc.

Satisfaction Guaranteed.

OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

A. H. ENANDER,

Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.

Contractor for sewer connections.

210 PARK AVE.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.

Paris for 1900.

Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.

Circulars at

181 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

THE

First National Bank,

of Plainfield, N. J.

Capital .....$200,000.

Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000.

J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.

H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.

DIRECTORS.

Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Coriell.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.

VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

We are NOW receiving orders for

HUYLER'S

XMAS CANDY,

—to be delivered at—

CHRISTMAS TIME.

Remember the

Only Agency

—IS—

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

Tel. 705.

Flynn Bros.,

SHOE DEALERS,

222 WEST FRONT STREET,

Near Music Hall,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

November.

The mellow year is hasting to its close.
The merry birds have almost sung their last.
Their faint notes twitter in the dreary blast—
That shrill-piped harbinger of early snows.
And hint to you in good coal to invest
At seven forty-seven Front Street, west.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.

Four-in-hand and Puff Ties at 19c reduced from 25c.
Men's and Boys' Woollen and Skin Gloves from 18c up.
Ladies' and Children's Mittens and gloves from 10c up.
Ladies' Shawls and Fascinators at 25c, 39c and 50c.

Ladie Desiring . .

KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING

done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 203 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

Toys, Toys, Toys

for the

HOLIDAYS

—AT—

HARPER'S,

411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .

in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated

DOMESTIC FINISH.

Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.

Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.

Trading Stamps given.

The City Steam & Hand Laundry

MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B

19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

SELLING OUT

Below Cost

TO CLOSE BUSINESS.

Star Crockery Store,

23 Somerset St., near Front.

3 and 9 cent Articles.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!

Solomon & Evans,

Proprietors.

LAIRE'S . .

HOLIDAY SPECIALS.

Carving knives.
U. S. club skates.
Roger's plated ware.
Fine pocket cutlery.
Silver finish coffee and tea pots.
Nickel on copper tea kettles.
Boys' sleighs.
Fine razors and hones.
Grand Rapid sweepers.
Baby Rapid sweepers.
Shinny sticks.
Christmas tree holders.
Coin silver ware, cheap.
Fine table cutlery.
Fine scissors and shears.
Corn poppers.

The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,

Tel. Call 682.

TRY THE

QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,

No. 337 Park Avenue.

(Miller Building.)

Goods called for and delivered free of charge.

Domestic or gloss finish.

DOBBINS.

CIGARS.

108 NORTH AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN.

ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.

317 West Front street.

J. W. VAN SICKLE.

122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.

FRESH & SALTED MEATS,

GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.

Orders called for and delivered promptly.

TELEPHONE 148 b.

Your Valuables,

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

GAS

For the Fire-place. Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates. Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.

CURTIS M. THORPE,

310-312 PARK AVENUE.

"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIREPLACE."

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.

I. O. H.

Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 149 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711

ROYAL ARCANUM.

The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.

A. I. LITTELL, Regent.

Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,

Watchmakers and Jewelers.

219 Park Avenue.

A. KANE,

Dealer in

BLUE STONE FLAGGING and CURBING.

Also Dealer in

Flour, Feed and Grain, Coal and Wood.

Store and Office

409 East Third St.,

Next to

THIRD STREET MISSION.

Open Evenings Until 8 o'Clock.

WATCH YOUR KIDNEYS

THEY ARE FILTERS FOR THE BLOOD.

IMPURE BLOOD CAUSES DISEASE.

Few people understand the important part performed by the kidneys in filtering the blood. As the blood in its circulation through the body passes through the kidneys, its impurity is left in the kidneys, which in turn empties the secretions into the bladder in the form of urine

If the kidneys are blocked and filtration of the blood from poisonous or diseased germs prevented thereby, the result is one or all of the following: Sleeplessness Nervous Prostration, Weak Back, Pains in the Back and Loins; Scalding, Dark and Cloudy Urine; Dizziness, Rheumatism, Diabetes, Congestion of the Kidneys, Bright's Disease and Inflammation of the Bladder.

Unhealthy Kidneys Must be Treated.

A medicine is needed that will properly promote the filtration of the blood and check the over-secretion of urine.

DR. HOLTIN'S KIDNEY TABLETS

is the only remedy absolutely and unconditionally guaranteed to cure every form of Kidney or Bladder Complaints Price, 25 and 50 Cents.

FOR SALE BY

JOHN P. POWERS,

Druggist,

tu th 45 Somerset St

John G. Bantle,

First-class

Ladies' and Gent's TAILOR.

428 Watchung Avenue.

Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

M. Molnar,

432 Watchung Ave.,

Ladies' and Gents'

FINE TAILORING

Graduate of New York Cutting School.

Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with old clothes and I will take chances of being entrusted with new work.

PIMPLES

"My wife had pimples on her face, but she has been taking CASCARETS and they have all disappeared. I had been troubled with constipation for some time, but after taking the first Cascaret I have had no trouble with this ailment. We cannot speak too highly of Cascarets." FRED WARTMAN, 5708 Germantown Ave., Philadelphia, Pa.

CANDY CATHARTIC

Cascarets

TRADE MARK REGISTERED

REGULATE THE LIVER

Pleasant. Palatable. Potent. Taste Good. Do Good. Never Sicken. Weaken, or Gripe, 10c. 25c. 50c.

... CURE CONSTIPATION. ...

Sterling Remedy Company, Chicago, Montreal, New York. 314

NO-TO-BAC Sold and guaranteed by all druggists to CURE Tobacco Habit.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills

25c.

A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.

MALLINSON'S

North and Watchung avenues.

THANKSGIVING FOR ALL.

If you want to make your Thanksgiving dinner a success order your turkey from us. Our stock is the best and largest in the city, and the prices are right. All our poultry is of the very best quality. Special prices for Church Societies and Clubs.

FRED ENDRESS,

121—125 WEST FRONT STREET.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.

MONEY TO LOAN.

197 North Ave.

Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmons.

Telephone 602

THIEF SHOT DEAD.

Killed by a Watchman While Trying to Rob a Bank.

Deep River, Conn., Dec. 14.—Four unknown men made an attempt Wednesday morning to rob the Deep River Savings Bank, and one of them was shot dead by the watchman.

The attempt was made at a quarter after one o'clock, when Harry D. Tyler, the watchman, saw four men approaching the bank. Tyler, who was armed with a "riot gun," a six-shot repeater, using buck shot, laid low and awaited their approach. The quartette came to one of the side windows and began work.

When the head and shoulders of one of the robbers showed full against the lighted square of the window, and Tyler caught the glint of a pistol in his hand, he threw up his gun and fired, blowing the burglar's head half off.

At the shot the other three took to their heels and made their escape. In the excitement of the moment Tyler made no attempt to stop them.

The shot roused some of those living in the neighborhood, but in the surprise of so unusual an occurrence, no attempt was made to catch the fugitives. On examination the man Tyler had shot was found to be about thirty-five years old, with dark hair and mustache. He wore a black derby hat and black clothes. Clutched in one hand was the revolver that Tyler had got a glimpse of.

By his side was a chisel, the only instrument that had been used apparently in the endeavor to pry the window open. Nothing was found on the dead man to give the slightest clew to his identity.

Owing to the rather primitive instrument in use to effect an entrance to the place the local presumption is that professional cracksmen were not employed in the job. Despite the fact that Deep River is hardly the place where four strangers could come without being noticed, no one, so far as known, seems to have seen the strangers. All of which strengthens the suspicion that the would-be burglars were probably from some nearby town, or at least were previously acquainted with the town and thus had to spend no time in investigation.

An energetic, if somewhat aimless, search is being made for the three men that escaped.

All four of the men were well dressed. All of them wore derby hats, and one of them had a light overcoat. Beyond this little description can be given of them.

CAN EMPLOY A BOYCOTT.

An Indiana Judge Declares Organized Labor Has This Right.

Crown Point, Ind., Dec. 14.—Judge Gillett has decided that a non-union workman, discharged at the behest of the union, has no redress in law. The Judge holds that the union has a legal right to demand the dismissal of any man not a member of the union.

The case was that of Walton vs. Lake Lodge, No. 2, Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers. Walton was discharged by the Inland Forge and Iron Company, of Chicago, on demand of the union. No charge of incompetency was preferred against him, and his sole offence was not being a member of the union. He thereupon brought suit for $20,000 damages against the union.

The Verdict Causes Surprise.

Paterson, N. J., Dec. 14.—The verdict of the coroner's jury to the effect that the recent wreck on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad, which caused the death of seven persons, was due to the negligence of G. W. Cappell, conductor, and William S. Snedeker, flagman of the Buffalo express, in not obeying the flagging rules of the company, causes surprise in this city. The railroad company, in an official statement, blamed the engineer of the Phillipsburg local, John Riordan. The coroner's jury did not mention him in its verdict. Prosecutor Eugene Emley of Passaic County has not decided what action he will take in view of the verdict. There is a report that the accused conductor and flagman will be taken into custody and required to furnish bail pending the action of the grand jury.

Pingree Calls Special Session.

Detroit, Dec. 14.—Gov. Pingree has sent out a call for an extra session of the legislature to convene Monday, Dec. 18, to "consider the submission of an amendment or amendments to the constitution which will permit the enactment of laws which will provide for the equal taxation of all property by the assessment of the same at its cash value, and such other matters as shall be submittel by special message." The call for the special session recites the passage of the Atkinson railway taxation bill by the last legislature, and the fact that the state Supreme Court last spring declared it unconstitutional. The message says that because of that decision a constitutional amendment is necessary "before laws can be enacted providing for equal taxation of all property."

The Molineux Trial.

New York, Dec. 14.—The majority of the time in the Molineux case for the past three days has been taken up with expert testimony in regard to the handwriting of the prisoner. Nothing particularly startling has been developed in the matter further than what has already been printed.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

New York, Dec. 14.—A number of the industrials showed losses on the Stock Exchange to-day under weight of heavy liquidation. The Tobacco stocks, the New York City specialties, Sugar and Tennessee Coal showed losses ranging from 1 to 3 points.

Cash prices for staples:
Wheat, No. 2 red, .74¼.
Corn, No. 2 mixed, .40½.
Oats, No. mixed, .29.
Flour, Minnesota patent, $3.90.
Cotton, milling, 7 11-16.
Coffee, No. 7 Rio, .07.
Molasses, O. K. prime, .36.
Beef, family, 12.75.
Beef, hams, 23.75.
Tallow, prime, .04⅞.
Pork, mess, 9.75.
Hogs, dressed, 160-lb., .05⅝.
Lard, prime, 5.65.
Butter, Western creamery, .27.

THE BRITISH AGAIN BEATEN

Ground Sprinkled With Dead at Modder River.

A DISASTROUS REPULSE.

Methuen's Serious Check at Modder River—Boers Claim a Great Victory—A Two-Days' Battle and the Result—Methuen's Report and That of the Boers From Pretoria.

London, Dec. 14.—Two days of the fiercest fighting of Methuen's advance to Kimberley ended in the Boers checking the British advance just beyond the Modder River with a rifle fire so hot that the British troops melted away before its deadly hail. The loss to Methuen's men is cabled as "very heavy." No list has yet been sent, but the description of the furious battle makes it certain that the casualties will be the heaviest in any of Methuen's three prior battles, which cost his army more than 1,000 men in dead, wounded and missing.

The long contest began early Sunday morning, when the British artillery, aided by the guns of the Naval Brigade with their lyddite shells, opened a furious cannonading on the Boer position at Magersfontein. All day long the rain of shells was poured in an incessant stream upon the trenches. The Boers replied with spirit and the artillery duel raged hour after hour, the troops being held in leash ready for a charge the instant the artillery could be silenced. No chance was given for a rush Monday, and Tuesday the battle of the giants was promptly resumed. During the morning the Boer fire slackened by degrees, and at noon General Methuen ordered the charge. Up the hills went the men with a rush, covered by the fire of every gun in the British batteries. But all this terrible shelling had not driven the Boers from their position. Undismayed by the havoc wrought by the shells, and even forgetting their dread of the bursting lyddite, they clung to their trenches doggedly. As the British troops swung up the hill, the protecting fire ceased and then opened up such a rifle as no men could withstand. From trenches in front and on each flank an unseen foe poured in a murderous fire. Men dropped on every side. The line wavered a moment, then, spurred on by the officers, it dashed forward again with unflinching spirit.

Human bravery, however, could not stand under such a fusillade. Again the line halted. The ground was sprinkled with dead and dying. From the trenches on the hillside came the incessant hail of lead. This time the advance was checked for good. The troops broke and fled, leaving the Boers masters of the field. The only troops mentioned in the meagre dispatches thus far received are the "Highland Brigade," which, one message significantly says, "suffered especially." The only Highlanders with Methuen up to the time of the battle at Modder River, Nov. 28, were the First Battalion of the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders (Princess Louise's). Since then the Seaforth Highlanders were reported from Cape Town to have gone to the front.

Much Alarm is Expressed.

London, Dec. 14.—Alarm is beginning to be expressed in many quarters as to the situation of Gen. Methuen. As The Westminster Gazette says:

"If England ever needed a victory it is now, and it is to Buller, the soldier, strong, cool-headed, and reticent, that the country looks for this victory."

The other papers are abusing the Government for its "complacent optimism" and inability to grasp the strength of the opposition it had to overcome in South Africa.

Considerable significance attaches to Gen. Methuen's statement that he is entrenching himself, indicating fear that the Boers may follow up their advantage, adopt the offensive, and attack him. Indeed, the gravity of the situation from the British point of view can hardly be overestimated. Gen. Methuen's long lines of communication to De Aar are most vulnerable. Should they be cut, Gen. Methuen will find himself in a very tight place, if only from lack of supplies.

The latest advices from Gen. Gatacre show no anxiety is felt for the safety of his remaining troops, who have been withdrawn to good positions along the railroad south of Molteno.

It is believed here that Methuen's loss will reach fully 450 men, and perhaps more.

Methuen's Report.

London, Dec. 14.—General Methuen's first official bulletin of his two-day battle at Magers Fontein says:

"After shell fire Sunday the Highland brigade on Monday attacked Boers on a long, high kopje in a very strong position. The attack failed. Artillery shelled the position all the afternoon. The troops held their own in front of the enemy until dark, the position extending six miles. I am to-day (Tuesday) holding position and entrenching myself. The Boers number 12,000. Our losses great.

"I have gathered from some of the prisoners and from our men with the ambulances, who talked with the Boers, that the enemy's losses were terrible, some corps being completely wiped out. The Boers have been most kind to my wounded."

The Boers' Report.

Pretoria, Dec. 12, via Lorenzo Marquez, Dec. 14.—In a battle with Methuen at Modder River to-day the Boers captured forty-one prisoners.

The first report of the engagement received here said:

"A battle at Modder River began yesterday with cannon firing, heavy fighting proceeding from 3:30 o'clock in the morning until 9:30 o'clock, with cannon, Maxims and rifles.

"A bombardment began at 4:30 o'clock, and the fighting still continues. A balloon has just arisen above the British positions, where it remained ten minutes and descended. There were heavy rains during the night."

The lake storm is reported as raging with unabated fury at Cleveland.

REGISTERED BRANDS OF THE
"P. & P." Kid Gloves

MANUFACTURED BY Chaumont PINGS&PINNER CO.
PERFECT FITTING — LATEST STYLES

MANUFACTURED BY Berthold PINGS&PINNER CO.
BEST VALUE — NEWEST SHADES

MANUFACTURED BY Fontaine PINGS&PINNER CO.

Don't take substitutes—There's none so good.
FOR SALE BY
Crosby & Hill,
9.5 tu f Plainfield, N. J.

EDUCATIONAL

REV. H. C. EYME,
a native of Hanover, Germany, and a graduate of the Universities of Heidelberg and Gottengen, is prepared to receive pupils for instruction in GERMAN, FRENCH, SPANISH, GREEK and LATIN. Terms moderate. Best references on hand. For particulars call or address
78 Duer Street. North Plainfield, N. J.
12 11 6 eod

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.
(City Bank Building.)
Adella C. Phelps will resume work Sept. 26th.
Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

PRIVATE INSTRUCTION
given in
German and Elementary French.
Address for terms,
MISS ALICE GILBERT,
11 8 1mo 811 West Fifth Street

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
: : : PIANO AND THEORY : : :
Home Studio,
132 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN.
Address—60 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

.....Piano Instruction.....
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and
MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes
Elementary Classes.
Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Duff.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

THAT'S THE IDEA!
You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

EXTRA
RICH MILK.
We are now ready to supply families who want the richest milk obtainable with milk which we guarantee to be from
JERSEY and GUERNSEY COWS.
Unexcelled in flavor and keeping qualities.
8c. per Quart Bottle.
SAMPLE FREE.
PLAINFIELD MILK AND CREAM CO.,
MARCHANT BROS., 327 WATCHUNG AVE.

XMAS IS NEAR
Now is the time to order your Xmas greens First come, first served. Holly, laurel and Xmas green wreaths and roping; also loose holly, palms, ferns, jardinieres and wicker baskets for Xmas presents.
MRS. L. J. DENTON,
Tel. call 731.

POWERS' PHARMACY . Somerset St. Craig Place.
Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .
Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot AND Tar
is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most Important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD.
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.
PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.
NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.
SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m.; 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.
PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.
SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
E. H. BIRD, P. M.

ALEX. LUSARDI.
211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery. Nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores. 1 1 year

: : Pride's Tonsorial Parlor : :
94 SOMERSET STREET,
opposite Somerset Hotel.
Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty . . . . .
CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.
-:- WILLIAM J. PRIDE, -:-
formerly with E. B. Maynard.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas
may be secured by our aid. Address,
THE PATENT RECORD,
Baltimore, Md.
Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum.

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107, 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

Park Avenue Hotel,
Park Avenue and Eighth Street,
Plainfield.
Refurnished and Renovated.
Steam Heat in Every Room.
. . . Elevator . . .
First-Class in every respect.
Terms Moderate.
F. W. COLEMAN,
11 3 1mo Proprietor.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL.,
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

-:- WINDOW SHADES -:-
Estimates cheerfully given.
Mail orders will receive prompt attention.
J. A. GREENE,
112 Madison Ave. Plainfield, N. J.
11 15 1mo

H. E. Gayle, 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

M. POWERS,
DEALER IN
LEHIGH COAL.
FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A.
Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

BAMBERGER'S
"THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE."
MARKET & HALSEY STS.
The Largest and Most Perfectly Equipped
Mail Order Service
Presenting Unequalled Shopping Facilities
For Thousands of Out-of-Town Patrons.

A thoroughly experienced staff of buyers in this department will make selections for you, and satisfaction is guaranteed or money will be refunded. We prepay mail or express charges to any part of the State on all paid purchases, and on C. O. D.'s for amounts aggregating $5.00 or more. Try our system, and you will not only save money, but have the additional advantage of assortments not equaled in Newark or surpassed anywhere in the land. Samples sent postpaid to any address upon receipt of postal card.

L. Bamberger & Co.
Newark, N. J.

Candy For the Children
AT CHRISTMAS TIME is as much or more so expected by them as fireworks on the Fourth. They look for it in their stockings.....
American Mixture 10c lb. Old Fashioned Mixture, 10c lb.
Special Mixture 12c lb, and upwards to 60c lb.
Christmas Bell Box, the latest for Sunday Schools.
R. Walsh & Co.
TWO STORES,
157 MARKET STREET,
677 BROAD STREET,
NEWARK N. J.
m th

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.
Sherwins,
149 W. Front St.

"I am a butcher and market man, and live in Dallas, N. C. I had been entirely past work for three or four years because of indigestion and dyspepsia. I took about every kind of medicine there is on the market, but none of them ever did me any good until I tried Ripans Tabules. They benefited me from the start, and I know they are the best thing I have ever taken for dyspepsia."

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (120 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

POLICE SPOILED THE GAME.

Roper Declares He Was Doing a Ligitimate Business.

Newark, N. J., Dec. 14.—The Government has issued a "fraud order" against all mail addressed to Osmer W. Roper, the get-rich-quick syndicate man under arrest here, and Post Office Inspector Snow has pounced upon the Four Per Cent. Loan Company in No. 183 Market street and taken possession of all its books and papers. Roper claims to have sold this concern to Joseph D. Rogers and George Santoro of Paterson, but the Inspector doubts if this is the case. Rogers and Santoro have not been in evidence since Roper's arrest.

Nobody yet has offered to put up the $5,000 necessary for the prisoner's release, and he is still in the County Jail.

"I was arrested," he said, "because I was in trouble before, not because I was breaking the law. I was trying to do a straight business, within the law, but was prevented from doing it. It was pretty hard to have to shut down just when we were getting on our business feet.

"We will show in court how little evidence there is against us. I am not looking for sympathy, but I state it as a fact, and can prove it, that when we shut down the Realty Company was in a condition to meet all obligations.

"There is talk of a receiver. This might prove disastrous for our business, as a receiver, being unfamiliar with our methods, could not carry out well what we have started.

"As to our making $100 000 in a year or two years, that's all nonsense. Any business man knows that it takes a year to get a new investment concern started. I say honestly all the money we received in Newark went in one bank."

Frank E. Bradner, counsel for Roper, told Commissioner Whitehead the authorities had acted without justification in seizing Roper's books and papers, but the Commissioner differed. The examination has been postponed and no definite date is set.

Roper admits his company has real estate in Essex, Henderson and Passaic Counties. The authorities are making every effort to discover the amount of his assets.

Going to Join the Boers.

Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 14.—The Plain Dealer says:

"A party of twenty-five young Irish-Americans have left this city to join the Boers. To New York these young men, who are mostly veterans of the Spanish-American war, join about 500 other Irishmen and the party will sail from New York on Saturday for Paris. In the latter city the men will join an Irish regiment being formed to go to the assistance of the Boers. The recruits from this country come largely from Chicago, New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Cleveland and other cities. Five hundred more Irish-Americans will follow to Paris in a couple of weeks.

Fatal Wreck on Jersey Central.

Allentown, Penn., Dec. 14.—Passenger Train No. 18 on the Jersey Central Railroad, east-bound, Thursday evening, ran into the hind end of an extra coal train, also bound east, opposite Laury's between Siegfried and Treichler's. Engineer Frederick F. Yeomans, Fireman William H. Smith, and Baggage Master Thomas Herth of the passenger train, and Flagman Hann of the coal train were buried under the wreck and killed. The passengers were severely shaken up, but none were seriously injured.

Woman Against Woman.

Boston, Dec. 14.—An organization has lately been formed in the city among unmarried working women to prevent the competition of married women who are partially provided for. They include workers in restaurants, department stores, and factories, and their methods are to secure the promises of employers that they will employ none but unmarried women, with such exceptions as may be offered in favor of women who have lost their husbands or are otherwise needy.

Urging Convention Claims.

Washington, Dec. 14.—If confidence is any sign of success, the Chicago delegation will win the National Republican convention. Around the headquarters of the other cities there is a distribution of badges, invitations to private rooms, much tobacco smoke and confusion, but nothing definite. The Chicagoans assume that the Republicans must nominate their candidate for the Presidency away from the east.

To Pay Bond Interest in Advance.

Washington, Dec. 14.—There is believed to be little doubt that the Secretary of the Treasury will, before the end of the present week, order the January interest on bonds to be paid in advance. The purpose is to relieve as much as possible the stringent money situation in New York, and unless the financial situation improves within the next few days, Secretary Gage will issue the order.

Saved By a Pet Dog.

Mt. Vernon, Ohio, Dec. 14.—A mad dog broke into the yard of Benjamin Butler, near Esto, and attacked his four small children. A faithful pet dog combatted the mad animal until relief came. After a desperate fight the animal was killed, and then, as a matter of precaution, the loyal pet dog, which had been bitten by the mad one, was killed.

Odd Death After Washing Dishes.

Newark, N. J., Dec. 14.—While throwing a pan of dishwater from the third-story window in her home in Passaic avenue, Wednesday night, Mrs. Mary Manion lost her balance and fell out. Her neck was broken and her skull crushed, and she died in less than one hour.

Croker Pays for Monument.

Nyack, N. Y., Dec. 14.—Mr. Richard Croker is the man who ordered the monument which is to be erected over the grave of Sergeant "Bill" Anthony in Evergreen Cemetery. Mr. Croker bears the expense, which will be about $400.

THE WEATHER REPORT.

Colder and generally fair Thursday, rain or snow Thursday night or Friday.

HIDING IN THE MOUNTAINS

Aguinaldo Disguised to Avoid Being Captured.

THE SUCCESS IN LUZON.

General Young's Command Kill and Capture Many of the Filipinos Under General Tino—Americans Are Still in Pursuit of the Fleeing Natives—Despatch From Otis.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The following despatches from Gen. Otis have been received at the War Department, dated Manila, Dec. 13:

"Fifty men of the navy and fifty men of the army, transported by the navy, took Laoag on the 10th instant. Gen. Young, with his staff, followed next day. He reports that Howze, with Fenn's battalion of the 34th, followed by a portion of the 33d Infantry, passed north to Pidding, east of Laoag; March's battalion of the 34th was at Cayan, in the province of Lepanto, on the 7th instant; the 3d Cavalry is along the coast and in the mountains, pursuing the enemy.

"Young states that his extreme northern force passed over the mountains, driving the insurgents under Gen. Tino, who was badly wounded, killing fifty, and wounding many; large captures of rifles and property, with all insurgent transportation; and released all Spanish prisoners in that section, to the number of about 2,000; our casualties, two wounded; our troops still pursuing remnant of Tino's command.

"March's battalion of the 33d reports from Cayn, Lepanto province, 7th instant, that he has destroyed Aguinaldo's bodyguard, killed Gen. Gregorio del Pilar, received the surrender of Gen. Concepcion and staff; killed and wounded fifty-two insurgents; released 575 Spanish prisoners, including 150 friars, and captured considerable property; his loss two killed, nine wounded.

"My information is that Aguinaldo, disguised, has individually abandoned his troops and is hiding in the Province of Benguet. OTIS."

"Admiral Watson informs me that the Province of Cagayan surrendered unconditionally to Capt. McCalla, of the Newark, on the 11th instant. All arms were surrendered. Batchelder ninety miles south of Aparri. Command in good condition. Navy will take supplies to Batchelder in launch at once; this surrender doubtless includes the Province of Isabella. OTIS."

"Bates, Zamboanga, reports affairs satisfactory. Nearly all rifles surrendered; McArthur, Bayambang, that he holds, as prisoner of war, Mabini, ablest of insurgents, founder of late government. OTIS."

Will Present Civil War Claim.

Frederick, Md., Dec. 14.—The city authorities and a number of citizens will endeavor to have the national government refund the $250,000 which was given to Gen. Early by Frederick in 1864 as his price for refraining from burning the town. At a special meeting of those interested an auxiliary committee was appointed to prosecute the city's claim before congress this winter. Letters have been received from Senators Wellington and McComas in which both men express their willingness to take up the matter and urge the passage of a relief bill.

Lynchers May Not be Prosecuted.

Maysville, Ky., Dec. 14.—The Circuit Court has convened, and interest centered on the probable action of Judge Harbeson in regard to the burning of Dick Coleman, the murderer of Mrs. Lashbrook, Wednesday, Dec. 6. The matter goes over to the next regular grand jury in February. A prominent lawyer and leading Republican said: "I believe it would be useless for the court to take any steps to prosecute those who took part in the burning of Coleman. I think none of them could be convicted."

Another "Financier" Captured.

Chicago, Ill., Dec 14.—Richard Oliver, a broker, is a prisoner of the Post Office authorities. He is accused of swindling people who wished to become rich in a hurry through "fake" investments in stocks. Post Office Inspector Walter Mayer, who made the arrest, says the scheme was one of the boldest and surest that has been discovered for some time. He "guaranteed" to investors of $100 a return of $1,000 on their investments within thirty days. He had no record to show that he ever paid any money to investors.

Boy Burglars Lived in Luxury.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 14.—In a barn in the rear of No. 4341 Wentworth avenue, boy burglars had established a den that was a marvel of luxury. The police arrested the five members of the gang, whose ages range from eleven to seventeen years. Walls were hung with costly draperies, Persian rugs and works of art. One chair was covered with a pile of dime novels.

New Law is Wanted.

Youngstown, Ohio, Dec. 14.—Petitions have been drawn up in a suit for personal injuries in 10 cases against railways and other corporations, amounting to $270,000. Big verdicts have resulted in cases here, and the Legislature will be requested to enact a new law requiring that actions must be commenced in the county where the injury occurs.

Fight Over Moving Lee's Statue.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 14.—An attempt is to be made by the Legislature to remove the statue of General Robert E. Lee from the extreme western end of the city to the Capitol Square so as to give it more prominence. The present site was selected by the Lee Monument Association and its members will make a fight against the removal.

Prof. Ely May go to Yale.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 14.—It is reported at Yale that Prof. Richard Ely, the political economist of the University of Wisconsin, has been offered a full professorship as head of the courses in political science at Yale. No confirmation can be obtained, but the report is made on good authority.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 2:00 p. m.

136 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week
$5 a year—in advance.
No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada
Delivered by carrier or by mail.
The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district
Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on request.
Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., DEC 14, 1899

COMING EVENTS.

Dec. 14—Bible conference at First Presbyterian church.
Dec. 15—Bible conference at First Presbyterian church.
Dec. 16—Social for leaders in Boys' Department of the Y. M. C. A.
Dec. 17—Adjutant Emily C. March will speak at the men's rally at the Y. M. C. A. at 4:15 p. m.
Dec. 18—Literary Society of the Y. M. C. A.
Dec. 18—Uud n Bible class taught by Rev. D. M. Stearns at Y. M. C. A. Hall.

Debating Currency Bill.

Congressman Fowler was one of the conspicuous figures in the House of Representatives yesterday when he delivered a fifteen minute speech on the currency bill. Mr. Fowler said that he would vote for the measure, but in certain respects he criticised the bill as dangerous and unfortunate. He argued that it was not strong enough to maintain the gold standard if the Secretary of the Treasury should not be a sound money man. The endless chain would be perpetuated, and the American people, Mr. Fowler said, desire to break that chain. United States notes and Treasury notes should not again be paid out except for gold, he insisted.

Representative Daly will speak on the currency measure today, having obtained all the time he desires. He will oppose the bill on the general ground of "letting well enough alone." He says that with the money per capita increased and the circulation so much larger no measure of the sort is required. The present prosperity, he says, needs no currency stimulus. At any rate, the dominant party, con tends Mr. Daly, is not in a position to assert that it does.

After the Colonel.

In his desperate efforts to obtain recognition from the Hudson county Republicans, Col. Dickinson is having an up hill job. The recent outbreak of Col. Dickinson against the p esent policy of Republican politics has, from all appearances, put the Hudson county gentleman out of the pale of the powers-that be in G. O P. affairs. Today's New Jersey page of the New York Tribune devotes a long article to a scathing arraignment of the political record of Col. Dickinson, which will, if the subject is at all sensitive, make him very warm "under the collar."

The Tribune's article is summed up in the caption which reads: "Always in Office—Colonel Dickinson never shared the fortunes of his party—For more than a quarter of a century one good place after another has come his way, and yet he complains." The aggressive proclivities of the Colonel will doubtless vigororously repel any attempt to read him out of the party, and results will therefore be awaited with considerable interest.

Helpfulness of the Advertisement.

At this season the wise merchant is especially careful to place his advertisement where it will assure the greatest returns, and the forehanded buyer peruses it for helpful hints in the selection of Christmas presents, says the Philadelphia Record. With the great Christmas holiday less than two weeks distance, people who are willing to purchase are anxious for suggestions which will help them to a decision as to what they want. The merchant who describes his wares in the newspaper gets the patronage, and the advertisement reader gets the best bargains.

It is related that when John Kean, New Jersey's junior United States Senator, was in the House some years ago, his many business enterprises often encroached seriously on his time, and in consequence his seat was unoccupied a good deal. On this point his intimates used to chaff him not a little. So the other day, just before Congress convened, when he was hurrying across Pennsylvania avenue to catch a train for New York and happened to bump up against Senator Chandler, of New Hampshire, the latter remarked: "Go on, John, and catch your train, but don't forget, John, to be in the Senate next Monday and get sworn in! Remember, Monday's the day—December 4th"

An intensefied interest in the study of the Bible will undoubtedly be followed by a higher and nobler spirit manifest in church work, and in that respect the impress of the meetings now being conducted by Don. O. Shelton will be felt in local christian circles long after the enthusiastic and talented youg man has departed. Of a naturally fervent religious spirit, Mr. Shelton has added to his ability as a teacher of the Bible by years of careful and appreciative study of the Good Book, so that in the elucidation of the points he dwells upon there is great inspiration for those who gather at his meetings to imbue the up lifting thoughts that come from him.

A Trenton correspondent is of the opinion that Chandler W. Riker may step into the political place occupied by the late Vice President Hobart in New Jersey G. O P. circles. Mr. Riker is referred to as "a rising politician," and "one who has the means and the leisure to devote to the work of organization." If Mr. Riker should get into the political boots of the late Mr. Hobart, it is to be hoped that he will move along on a better schedule t at his trolley cars do in Plainfield.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

There seemed to be a probability that the Democrats of Plainfield would make a good showing at the municipal election last week, but the majority of over 8 0 against them indicates that the party divided or united is in a hopeless minority.—Somerset Messenger.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

The remarkably pleasant weather of the fall and winter months has led many people to believe that an open or mild winter was to prevail. One of the signs that the "oldest inhabitant" banks upon is the statement that turtles, which usually bury themselves before cold weather, have recently been seen crawling about. This is said to be a sure sign. Turtles are susceptible to the cold and when there's a genuine old fashioned winter with plenty of zero weather and quantities of snow, they are never seen above ground and do not appear until spring weather sets in.

* * * * *

The Riker Hine trolley syndicate are putting great dependence in the plan to get into Elizabeth without the consent of the City Council of that place by connecting their present road from Plainfield to Roselle with the line owned by Senator Kean from Elizabeth to Roselle, but if the proposition that is now being advanced to Senator Kean by a number of big property owners in the vicinity of Lorraine, the Rikers will probably be euchered in their project David Magie and several other property owners are very anxious to have Senator Kean extend his present line to a point beyond Lorraine, and to that end they have offered him the right-of way without expense on the frontage of their property. If Senator Kean is able to extend his line under such conditions it is doubtful if he would care to enter into any arrangement with the Rikers, as a deal with the latter would put both companies in competition from the same territory.

THE PEOPLES' FORUM.

Who Are They.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—In reply to the circular issued recently to the voters and Freeholders of Fanwood Township regarding the movement on foot to suppress the sale of liquor. I would say that I am a signer of licenses in Scotch Plains and am in favor of the circular, but insist that the names of the officers of the Citizens' League Executive Committee, the president, secretary and treasurer, shall be published in the daily papers of Plainaeld within the next week. It seems that they are afraid to come forward and let themselves be known. A License Signer.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box 25c.

—The Christian Endeavor Society meeting will be omitted at the First Baptist church tomorrow evening on account of the Bible Conference.

WHAT DO THE CHILDREN DRINK?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about ¼ as much. All grocers sell it. 15c. and 25c.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it; no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,
122 East Front Street.

Important ANNOUNCEMENT

Taking advantage of the importers' closing-out sales we have recently consummated an extensive purchase of holiday goods at ridiculously low prices. By closing out entire lots we secured unheard of values. Goods are now here and on Sale. Purchase was very comprehensive and includes 24-karat gold-plated Clocks, burnished frame plate glass Swinging Mirrors, Comb and Brush Sets, Toilet Articles, Manicure Sets, Photo Frames, French Vases, and many other choice Holiday Novelties. In the lot are 21 doz. only Tinted Medallions—a regular 75c number. They will be sold at 48c each while they last. A more magnificent collection of Toys, Books, and Holiday Goods in general has never been offered the people of this community. Do not fail to visit us.

. . . A Word of Warning . . .

Judging from present indications we are to have an unprecedented crush this year. We are only too anxious to wait upon people promptly and satisfactorily, but our resources are already taxed and we are a little concerned for the coming week. We counsel you to buy now while you can shop with comparative comfort. DO NOT DELAY. . . .

This Week Store will be Open till 9 p. m.

NO STAMP BOOKS will be redeemed at any time next week. We are too busy and must ask your indulgence to this extent. Trading Stamps with all Cash purchases.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,
234, 236, 238, 246 W. Front Street.

PECK'S CORNER.

LIKE A PROCESSION

Someone must lead. We are not the "whole thing," but are right up in front.

HOLIDAY GOODS -:- AT PECK'S

Merry Christmas. Happy New Year.

To those who contemplate making

Christmas Presents

I advise you to call and see the

Handsome Building Lots At Woodland Park, Plainfield.

Suited for a king or prince. Or some of our one or two acre Plots for Raising Poultry, &c. You can buy these properties at Low Prices, monthly payments guaranteed title. These properties will double in value in two or three years. Other investments to suit all.

SILAS D. DRAKE,
175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

- - THE GREATEST - -

Overcoat and Ulster Sale

WE EVER HELD.

If you wish to purchase an overcoat or an ulster for yourself or your boy, do not fail to take advantage of this opportunity. We buy and sell more clothing than any two stores in Plainfield; we purchase in very large quantities for spot cash and are able to buy it at our own prices We recently bought over 1,000 Very Fine Ulsters and Overcoats from a financially embarassed manufacture far below his cost of making; not sample overcoats, but regular stock made for one of the largest clothing houses and rejected on account of the late delivery. The assortment are in all shades and sizes and as they are not likely to last long at the prices noted we advise an early selection.

MEN'S ALL-WOOL MELTON ULSTER at 4.00, that would readily sell in other stores at 8.50.

MEN'S FINE ULSTERS made of very heavy and Genuine Shamrock Irish Frieze, strictly all-wool, in greys and browns, regular 12.00 value, at 4 90.

Strictly all-wool men's beaver and melton overcoats at 4.25, honestly and truly worth 7 50.

MEN'S OXFORD GREY OVERCOATS, the new shade, a very handsome business overcoat, only 40 in this lot, we offer them for this sale at 5 25, wholesale prices was 8.50.

50 VERY FINE DRESS OVERCOATS, coverts, meltons, friezes and kerseys, these garments are very handsomely made up, have satin linings, silk velvet collars, full backs and are short cut, would easily command from 15 00 to 18.00, to be sold at this sale at 7 25.

CHILDREN'S REEFERS and OVERCOATS, sizes from 3 to 8 years, at 1.00, worth 2.00; 1.50, worth 3.00.

Very fine blue and black chinchillas, made with either velvet or sailor collars, at 2.25, regular price 4 50.

BOYS' OVERCOATS from 8 to 16, at 1 75, 2.25 and 2.75. This selection is worth double the price.

YOUNG MEN S OVERCOATS, ages from 14 to 19, at 1,75, 2.50 and 4.00, worth from 5.00 to 7.00.

Remember this is a very special sale and it will pay you to attend for your own interest, as this will positively be the best chance you will have between now and Christmas.

If for any reason whatever you are not satisfied within 3 days you can have your goods exchanged or money refunded.

Hundreds of other ov rcoats in our stock that are great bargains that are not mentioned in this advertisement.

New York Clothing Company

M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.
Plainfield, N. J.
Car fare paid from any direction.

OPEN EVENINGS. FURNITURE.

Wouldn't a clean finished, well-made piece of Furniture make an ideal Christmas present?

FURNITURE. Jardinier Stands from 50c to $5.00.

POWLISON & JONES,
149 and 151 E. Front Street.

CHRISTMAS is Coming.

Anything in our line make sensible Christmas gifts: Shoes, Slippers, Rubber Boots, etc. Don't fail to visit our store.

VANARSDALE, 127 East Front St.
Repairing Properly Done.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, Dec. 14.—Another quiet home wedding was celebrated in Dunellen yesterday afternoon, when George W. Richardson and Miss Grace May Vail were married. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. E. S. Jamison, pastor of the Methodist church, at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on Front street. The witnesses to the happy event were the relatives and a few immediate friends of the contracting parties. The bride wore a traveling gown of a light castor shade and looked very handsome. The house was prettily decorated with evergreens and palms, giving a pretty effect. The ushers were Daniel J. Richardson and Albert Apgar. After the congratulations refreshments were served before Mr. and Mrs. Richardson left on a short wedding tour. When they return they will reside for the present at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Richardson, of 125 North avenue. The bride is an estimable young woman with many friends in Dunellen. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Vail. The groom is one of Plainfield's well known merchants, being senior member of the firm of Richardson & Wald, women tailors, whose place of business is on West Front street. Mr. and Mrs. Richardson received many handsome and useful wedding presents from friends who hold them in high esteem.

Negotions which W. H. Carman had with Newark parties for the purchase of his meat market have fallen through. The market was sold to Postmaster Adam Dealaman, who has advertised it for sale.

Dr. Brakeley has been busy this week examining the newly elected members of Court Dunellen, Independent Order of Foresters.

Miss Virgie Tunison left yesterday to visit her parents in Glen Gardner.

PLAINFIELD AND FANWOOD

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, December 14.—It is possible that Messrs. Woodhull & Martin may have a waiting room constructed at the Scotch Plains terminal of the Plainfield Street Railway. It will be similar to the one at Dunellen and is to be used for advertising purposes as well as accommodating the traveling public.

A pleasant surprise party was tendered to George Terry, of Netherwood, last evening, by a number of his friends. Games, music and refreshments passed away an evening long to be remembered by all. Several from the village attended the pleasant little affair.

The speed at which the motormen run the cars of the trolley road between here and Westfield, is enough to make the hair stand on the heads of some of the more timid passengers, who are looking and expecting to see the car jump the track at every curve and switch.

Mrs J. S. Braker and children, of Waltham, Mass., who have been visiting the Misses Hayes, of Fanwood, have gone to the home of Mrs. Braker's parents in Montandon, Pa., to spend the Christmas holidays.

The executive committee of the Baptist Young People's Association held an important meeting in the parlors of the church last evening.

Mrs. Lee, who has been spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Isabella Billings, has returned to her home at Port Richmond, S. I.

The Sacred Literature Society of the Baptist church held an interesting weekly meeting in the church last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Meyers are rejoicing over the arrival of a young daughter at their home.

T. Rombo Collins, of the borough, is detained at home suffering from a bad attack of the grip.

Miss Jimerson, of Lyons Farms, has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edward Wade.

Miss Sadie Reger entertained friends from Westfield last evening.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, Dec 14—Fred Condit and Walter Smith each have a score of 239 pins in the head-pin bowling tournament at the Social Club, and are tied for first place.

Another special school meeting has been called for Thursday evening, December 28th, when an appropriation of $50,000, with which to erect a new primary school building, will be asked for.

The members of Bucket and Engine Company have decided to hold their annual banquet Tuesday evening, January 9th.

Miss Jane Morrow will entertain the members of the Advance Club at her home, on Elm street, tomorrow evening.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Special sale of frames, easels, and pictures at the Guarantee Portrait Studio, 142 East Front street.

—The Ladies' Aid Society of Monroe Avenue church will meet tomorrow afternoon and a full attendance is desired.

—The regular surplus of mud was removed from Park avenue yesterday under the direction of the Street Commissioner.

—Charles L. Stanley, the North avenue florist, has taken one of W. H. Rogers' stores, 134 North avenue, for his annual display of holiday flowers. He has a very large assortment of the best of everything in the florist's line. Leave orders early.

Exposure to a sudden climatic change produces cold in the head and catarrh is apt to follow. Provided with Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh. Price 50 cents at Druggists, or Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York, will mail it. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation, cleanses and cures. Cream Balm quickly cures the cold.

SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE HENDERSON.

David B. Henderson, of Iowa, speaker of the house in the Fifty-sixth Congress, is 59 years of age. He was born in Scotland. When David was 6 years old his parents came to this country. During the war of the rebellion he was a private on the Union side and lost a leg in battle in 1863. He has been a member of congress for 14 years.

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS THAT PLAINFIELDERS MAY WITNESS.

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World

Manager Maze Edwards, of Music Hall, had expected to present a first-class vaudeville at Music Hall Saturday night, but yesterday he received word that the organization and printing was incomplete, so their appearance has been deferred. In consequence of this disappointment there will be no more performances after the presentation of "The Heart of Chicago" tonight until Christmas week, when the Burrill Comedy Company will inaugurate a series of first-class dramatic plays in support of the talented actress, Miss Laura Hulbert.

* * * * *

Lincoln J. Carter's "The Heart of Chicago" will be the attraction at Music Hall tonight. It is said to be exceptionally well put on and to present some extraordinary stage pictures. The play opens on the night of the great Chicago fire. The corner of State and Madison streets before and after the fire is shown. The next important scence represents the roof of the Masonic Temple and also shows a panoramic view of the city to the south and west. The roof garden scene affords opportunity for the introduction of a number of clever specialities. An absolutely new railroad scene is also a feature of the play. A train is seen approaching in the distance, its headlight being at first merely a bright speck in the darkness, gradually increasing in size as it draws nearer. Just as the heroine of the play adjusts the signal lights of the open draw bridge the train dashes down to the footlights and comes to a full stop. The effect is not accomplished by means of pictures. It is the real thing—steam—fire—bell and all. The interpreting company is said to be the best that has ever been sent out by Mr. Carter.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve

Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 25c at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

A baby girl has been born to "Tony" Perriell and his wife, of Church street.

Rev. Arthur Crane, the evangelist, has returned from a southern evangelistic tour.

Raymond Hodge, of Plainfield avenue, is improving from an attack of chicken pox.

Silas Yerkes, of East Sixth street, has returned from a business trip to Pittsburg, Pa.

Wm. Kohler, of Staten Island, has returned home after a visit with Plainfield relatives.

A young daughter, arrived Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Boyd, of Martine avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Dunham, of West Fifth street, have been entertaining company from Westerly, R. I.

Councilman J. F. Buckle, of Westervelt avenue, has recovered sufficiently from his recent illness as to be able to go out.

Mr. Scriven, formerly janitor of the Babcock building, has moved to Paterson, where he will take up his residence.

The Misses Elizabeth A. and Ada M. Runyon, of East Sixth street, returned yesterday afternoon after a visit with relatives at Salem.

Miss Kittie Graves, of Liberty street, has secured a position as an assistant cashier at Crosby & Hill's during the holiday season.

The Plainfield friends of Rev. and Mrs Charles Francis Taylor, Cranbury, will be interested to learn that a little son has just arrived at their home.

Captain S. C. Peck, of West Front street, attended the regular meeting and banquet of the Military Order Legion of Honor, last evening, at Delmonico's, New York.

Fred Bennett, of the borough, formerly of the U. S. S. New York, has has been transferred to the new battleship "Kentucky," and has enlisted in the Navy for another term of three years.

S. S. Forbes, who moved to 448 Carlton avenue, yesterday, from Omaha, Neb., holds the position of chief clerk to Chief McIntosh, head of the motive power of the Jersey Central Railroad.

—Tomorrow evening at the Bible Conference in the First Presbyterian church, Prof. Harper Smyth, the noted evangelistic soloist, will be present and sing.

—One can make no mistake when they go to Peck's for their holiday goods. Every day is a holiday at this store and you always find what you need at the right prices.

—The attention of the public is called to the advertisement of Miss A. E Lincoln, Park avenue florist, in another column. At this established place everything in the floral line is to be found at reasonable prices.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store.

AT RANDOLPH'S,

See our Window Display. CHRISTMAS GREETINGS.

Great values in choice Perfumes. Never before this opportunity. Bottle goods from 10c to $4 50.
Hair Brushes, Military Hair Brushes, prices just ½ their reg. value.
House Thermometers, large assortment. Sachet Powders in bulk, 40 cents per ounce and in packages, 10c, 15c, 35c.
Lowney's Celebrated Candies, 60 cents per pound.
Whitman's Chocolates, 40 and 80c per pound.
PLACE ORDERS EARLY.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for Lowney's Chocolate and Chocolate Bon-bons. TELEPHONE CALL 109

"PAY CASH AND SAVE MONEY" AT

V. L. FRAZEE'S,

THE PEOPLE'S CASH GROCER

151 West Front Street.

SPECIAL HOLIDAY SALE,

Commencing Friday, December 15, 1899, to January 1, 1900,

Best Elgin Creamery Butter	27c lb
Good Creamery Butter	23c lb
Best Full Cream Cheese	14c lb
Best Lard	6c lb
Fresh Jersey Eggs, guaranteed	22c doz
Best Fine Granulated Sugar	5c lb
Best Early Rose Potatoes	30c basket
Best New Citron	12c lb
Best Lemon and Orange Peel	12c lb
Best Extra Fancy Seeded Raisins,	10c pkge
Best New Cleaned Currants, 1 lb package	8c
Best New Dates	7c lb, 4 lbs for 25c
Best New Figs	12c lb
Extra Fancy Layer Raisins, for table	15c lb
Best New Brazil Nuts	8c lb
Best New Pecan Nuts	12c lb
Best New Paper Shell Almonds	22c lb
Best New Mixed Nuts	12c lb
Best New English Walnuts	15c lb
None Such Mince Meat	9c package
5 lb pail Assorted Jelly	15c pail
Best Vermont Maple Syrup	2 qt bottle 25c
Best Sugar Cured California Hams	7½c lb
Best Home-made Mince Meat,	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Best Mixed Candy,	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Loose Muscatel Raisins	8c lb
Best New Evaporated Cal. Peaches	10c lb
Fine California Prunes	5c lb
Fine Large California Prunes	7c lb, 4 lbs for 25c
Best Extra Fancy California Prunes	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Best Cape Cod Cranberries	7c quart
Paris Sugar Corn	9c can, 3 cans for 25c
Best New York State Sugar Corn	7c can
Early June Peas, Rose Bud brand,	7c can, 4 cans for 25c
Fine Small Early June Peas	10c can
3 lb Package Prepared Buckwheat	10c
Best Tomatoes, Solid Packed	7c can
Fresh Roasted Coffee, bean or ground	12c lb
Best Mocha and Java Coffee	25c lb
3 lb can Best Bartlett Pears	10c
Best Vanilla and Lemon Extract	10c bottles for 7c
Best New Orleans Molasses	30c gallon
Best Vanilla Drip Sugar Syrup	30c gallon
Best XXXX Minnesota Patent Flour	55c bag
Best Lemon Cakes and Ginger Snaps	4c lb
Uneeda Biscuit	4c package
Best Old Vinegar	10c gallon
Hunterdon County Sweet Cider, best,	15c gal

Fall Styles in Derbies and Alpines.

All Kinds of Haberdashery.

AT

J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

DANIEL SNYDER & SONS,

CITY MILLS

(Successors to P. M. French)

WHOLESALERS and RETAILERS of Flour, Meal, Feed, Hay and Cereals.

Ever-Ready Flour and Buckwheat a specialty. 24 Somerset St.

OUR SPECIALTIES

Choice Teas. Fine Coffees.

WHEN YOU ARE IN NEED OF FIRST-CLASS GROCERIES OR CANNED GOODS, CALL ON

THE PARK GROCERS

C. E. GULICK & CO. Tel. 931.

THE BOOT SHOP

AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,

107 Park Avenue.

EXECUTOR'S SALE

OF VALUABLE

PERSONAL PROPERTY.

The undersigned, executor of D. M. Walter, deceased, will sell at public vendue at 12 m., sharp, on THURSDAY,

DECEMBER 21, 1899.

On farm formerly owned by D. M. Walter, on the road leading from Plainfield to Rahway, near Hillside Golf Grounds.

All the personal property of which. D. M. Walter, died, seized, consisting of beds, bedding, carpets, stoves, chairs, tables, mirrors, cutlery, crockery, etc. Also farming implements and machinery.

HOUSEHOLD and KITCHEN FURNITURE.

.....ONE BLACK HORSE.....

Lot of Poultry.

Sleigh, 1-horse plough, cultivator, harness, sled, spring wagon, hay rigging, rake, fanning mill, hay cutter, 2-seated carriage, plows, 1-horse carriage, buggy. Also 50 bushels old corn, hay, 30 gallons vinegar, and various other articles too numerous to mention.

TERMS made known on day of sale.

12 6 td W. R. CODINGTON, Executor.

—Use Press want ads.

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.

Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J
Perth Amboy, N. J.

Gigantic Sale of Toys in our New Basement

COMMENCING WEDNESDAY MORNING.

Scores of toys of every description that are usually sold at 25, 35 and 39c—

All at the very nominal price of 10c

Toys of several hundred kinds that are usually sold at 10, 15 and 20c—

All at the very nominal price of 5c

This will be a toy event the magnitude and scope of which you can have no conception without making a personal inspection. Our spacious basement will be the little ones paradise.

FANCY CHAIRS.

You will be astonished at the extraordinary value we are showing in fancy chairs of all kinds. Parlor chairs, hall chairs, bedroom chairs, dining room chairs, high chairs for children, rocking chairs for children, all at less than you are accustomed to pay for well-made, well-finished, stylish, durable furniture.

We show a big assortment of Blacking Cases, Medicine Chests, etc., goods that possess real merit at a very nominal price.

A Talk on Overcoats.

We know how to talk about them because we make them.

Our $10 Overcoat

is made from all-wool Kersey, cassimere lined, with a shoulder yoke and sleeve lining of real satin. The style is there as well as the quality. We have them from $5.00 to $13.50. Boys' Reefers $1.75 to $4.00.

We Make All Our Clothing.

Schepflin & Schultz,

M. J. Cashin, Manager.

322 West Front St.

N. K. BARNES, Grocer,

No. 245 WEST FRONT STREET,

SPECIAL FOR TEN DAYS.

$3 worth of stamps with 1 lb of 60c Tea, best.
$2 worth of stamps with 1 lb of 28c Coffee, best.
$1 worth of stamps with 24½ lbs of 55c Flour, best.

I will give $3.00 Worth of Trading Stamps with this 99c purchase:

1 lb of Coffee	28c
2 lbs Sugar	10c
1 lb mixed Nuts	13c
1 pkg Currants	10c
1 pkg Raisins	12c
1 can Peas	8c
1 pkg Dunham's Cocoanut	10c
1 qt Cranberries	8c
	99c

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use

REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT,

Made only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,

At 25 cents for a quart bottle Cor. Park and North Aves.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Oesterreich.

Wien. Das Schwurgericht verurtheilte den Joseph Hummel und seine Frau Juliana wegen langsamen Zuckermarterns ihres fünfjährigen Töchterchens zum Tode mit der Bestimmung, daß die Frau als die Schwerstschuldige zuletzt gehenkt werde.—Hier ist die österreichisch-amerikanische Gummiwarenfabrik abgebrannt.

Bozen. August Baron Widmann erhielt vor Kurzem einen anonymen Drohbrief, worin er aufgefordert wird, binnen kürzester Frist 6000 Gulden an einer bezeichneten Stelle zu deponiren, widrigenfalls er ermordet würde. Baron Widmann erstattete die Anzeige, worauf zwei Brüder Sanoll aus Kortatsch als des Erpressungsversuches dringend verdächtig verhaftet wurden.

Graz. Neulich Nachts kam es zwischen unbekannten Radfahrern und den Insassen eines Fiakers zum Streite. Die Radfahrer feuerten mit einem Revolver. Ein Passagier wurde getödtet, zwei schwer verletzt.

Laibach. Artillerie-Oberlieutenant Lukan wurde neulich Abends im Restaurant plötzlich wahnsinnig und überfiel die anwesenden Gäste. Der Polizeiarzt und mehrere Gäste wurden verwundet. Der unglückliche Offizier wurde in der Zwangsjacke in die Irrenanstalt überführt.

Lemberg. Dieser Tage wurde hier ein Postwagen, welcher Geldsendungen und Briefe vom Bahnhofe zum Hauptpostamte beförderte, von unbekannten Thätern bestohlen. Die Thäter sprangen während der Fahrt auf das hintere Trittbrett, öffneten mittelst Nachschlüssels die Wagenthüre und entwendeten den Beutel mit Geldsendungen und rekommandirten Briefen. Der Diebstahl wurde erst beim Eintreffen auf der Hauptpost entdeckt. Der Schade beträgt über 5000 Gulden. Zwei Postamtsdiener wurden als der That verdächtig verhaftet.

Lermoos. Ein hiesiger Tischler, welcher bereits im Irrenhause gewesen, ging unlängst in der Frühe vor der Messe mit einer Hacke in die Kirche und wollte den Hochaltar demoliren. Ein Bauer, der draußen vorüberging, hörte den Lärm, begab sich in die Kirche und suchte den Wahnsinnigen von seinem Zerstörungswerke abzuhalten. Dieser aber wandte sich gegen den Bauer und versetzte ihm einen Hieb über den Kopf, so daß der Arme wenige Minuten darauf verschied.

Prag. Das Stadtverordnetenkollegium wählte die Altczechen Srb und Ferdinand Voitl zu Stellvertretern des Bürgermeisters.

Triest. Kürzlich wurde das hiesige Munizipalwachkorps in eine den italienischen Bersagliere ähnliche Uniform gekleidet. Die Statthalterei hat nun das Tragen dieser Uniform verboten.

Wiener Neustadt. Hier ist der Sozialist Hofer in den niederösterreichischen Landtag gewählt worden. Der antisemitische Vizebürgermeister von Wien, Strobach, wurde geschlagen.

Schweiz.

Bern. Nachdem der Vorschlag des schweizerischen Bundesrathes, für das 25jährige Bestehen des Weltpostvereins eine Gedenkfeier zu veranstalten, bei der großen Mehrzahl der Postvereinsstaaten eine günstige Aufnahme gefunden hat, wird diese Feier am 2. Juli 1900 und den folgenden Tagen in Bern stattfinden.

Zürich. In dem Gehöfte Fruhsrüti bei Gossau brannte ein Bauernanwesen nieder, wobei die Eheleute Wild und ein achtjähriger Knabe in den Flammen umkamen. Sie waren offenbar durch den Rauch betäubt worden und konnten so den Ausgang aus dem brennenden Hause nicht mehr finden.

Luzern. Der Einbrecher Johann Thali, der wegen seiner zahllosen Einbruchsdiebstähle zu über 40 Jahren Zuchthaus verurtheilt wurde und in Folge seiner wiederholten originellen Ausbrechereien aus verschiedenen Strafanstalten selbst im Ausland eigenartig berühmt war, starb im hiesigen Zuchthaus zu Luzern.

Uri. Im Lande Tells üben sich selbst die Frauen im Schießen. So nahmen am letzten Grümpelschießen in Schattdorf viele Mädchen und Frauen Theil. Von 236 Doppelkarten wurden nicht weniger als 68 von dem zarten Geschlecht gelöst, das durchschnittlich recht gut schoß.

Glarus. In Glarus hat ein mächtiges Feuer die am Ausfluß des Dorfbaches in die Linth gelegene mechanische Schreinerei Huber u. Söhne eingeäschert. Das große Fabrikgebäude, ursprünglich eine Druckerei, dann eine Mühle (Neumühle) ist total abgebrannt, ebenso ein dahinter stehendes Wohnhaus im oberen Theil.

Basel. Letzter Tage kam im Rhein eine Massenvergiftung von Fischen, namentlich jungen Lachsen, vor. Es scheint sich um eine Verunreinigung mit schädlichen industriellen Abfällen aus einer Fabrik oberhalb Baselsz zu handeln. Die Fischerei ist schwer geschädigt worden.

E. D. BARRETT,
Sanitary Plumber.
Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Telephone 612. 148 East Fifth Street.

AUSTRALIAN HORSES.

According to a Local Paper There Are Not Many Fit for Use.

For some little time past, says the Melbourne Argus of Oct. 2, the question of the supply of horses from Victoria for use in the South African campaign has attracted considerable interest among those specially connected with our shipping trade in horses. This interest was naturally much increased when it became known that the British military authorities had decided to purchase horses in Australia, for which purpose officers connected with the remount service are on board the Himalaya, which arrived at Adelaide on Oct. 1. The first question to be considered in connection with the possibility of obtaining horses in Victoria for service in Africa is in connection with the class of horses that is required. The principal Australian horse shippers are unanimously of opinion that should the same high standard of quality as is insisted upon by the remount officers in India be adhered to, the available supply in the colony will be found to be very limited indeed. The Indian requirements are stated to be most stringent. To pass the standard only well-bred horses, with plenty of bone substance, stand any chance of acceptance. The best height is between 15 hands 2 inches and 15 hands 3 inches, although up to 16 hands will pass muster. The limit of age is seven years, and it is the general experience of our shippers that the slightest blemish is a certain bar to a horse being accepted. The Indian veterinary inspectors insist upon all horses submitted to them being clean-limbed, clean in the hock, free of curb, spavin or ring bone.

Apparently it is becoming somewhat difficult to find this class of horse. The Indian buyers were busy in June and July buying all the good horses that were available, and the general opinion is that 500 horses would be an outside estimate of the number that could be now purchased in Victoria possessing all the qualifications necessary for the Indian remount service. The price for such a stamp of horse is variously estimated at from £25 to £35, but it is also stated that no opportunity of obtaining a really good horse is missed, even at the expenditure of an extra £5 or £10. Should it be the object of the British authorities to purchase horses of the above stamp in Australia, the choice will naturally be much restricted, but there is a concensus of opinion among horse shippers that of another kind of horse, which may be termed the general utility class, 1,000 or 2,000 could be purchased very easily and very quickly. This class commands prices varying from £15 to £20, and, while stated not to be the beau ideal of a horse suitable for cavalry purposes, it is a good sturdy animal, that will stand a vast deal of constant hard work, and is admirably adapted for service in the field.

A SINGULAR TOWN.

It Has Not a Preacher, Lawyer, Nor a Doctor.

A township, one edge of which reaches within four miles of Pittsburg's city line, and whose fertile farms are assessed at more than half a million dollars, and yet has not a church, nor a minister, not a doctor, not an attorney, not a saloon or speak-easy, is now about to lose for the third time its bit of railroad. This is Snowden.

There is probably not another township east of the Mississippi River similarly conditioned. The new Baltimore and Ohio tunnel at White Hall will so change the course of the Wheeling Division that it will be at Wilson's Station. True, the line will follow down the bank of Lickrun, the dividing line between Jefferson and Snowden Townships, but the residents of the township do not consider that after the tunnel is opened next spring they will have a railroad at all. At present the railroad running over the hill at White Hall and down past Curry's Station takes in a generous part of the township, but this track will be abandoned when the line is run through the tunnel now being constructed.

Fifteen years ago the rails were lifted from the Pittsburg Southern tracks which traversed the township from end to end; later the Chartiers and Youghiogheny Road was graded through the township from edge to edge, yet for some reason the rails were never laid. These two long scars have never healed properly in the minds of the sturdy farmers, and now comes the third indignity, the removal of the tracks of the Baltimore and Ohio from the best part of the township.

Matters were not always so, however. There was a time when Snowden Township had several churches, as fine as those found in any country district; she had ministers galore, too, and half a dozen physicians, to say nothing of a few attorneys. She also had a saloon or two, and it is rumored that there were some speak-easies, but this rumor is unconfirmed. What may seem strange is the fact that the churches built in old Snowden Township are still standing; the old physicians still practice from their old stands; the minis-

This abandoned roadbed will make the third unseemly scar on the surface of one of the finest farming regions and one of the most densely populated townships in Western Pennsylvania. Ters yet live in the parsonages as of old, and attorneys come to the city daily from this old section, but none of them call Snowden Township home, as they did with pride some 13 years ago.—Pittsburg Times.

The Wife of Oom Paul.

Mrs. Kruger, though her husband may be a millionaire, as his adversaries suggest, knits his socks, makes his coffee, tucks up her skirt to aid a little Kaffir girl, her sole maid servant, about the housework and contentedly wears a sunbonnet or "kappe," as the Dutch call it, but for all that, like the wife of German William, she knows the political situation in the country her husband governs as well as he knows it himself. Tante Kruger is Oom Paul's second brain and conscience, and in the privacy of the Presidential mansion has been known to scold at his mistakes, suggest his next manoeuvres, and she detests his enemies and the English with wholesome vigor.

A Healthy Hamlet.

The healthiest spot in the world seems to be a little hamlet in France named Aumone. There are only 40 inhabitants, 25 of whom are 80 years of age and one is over 100.

The genuine "Portland Range" has "Portland" on oven door plate —only sold here.

(B) AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

CHRISTMAS THINGS

for every part of the home—useful and gladly received. If you're short of ready cash use our generous credit help—no prices equal our's for lowness, no terms are so easy.

CARPETS—get one measured and fitted right away—prices are at the lowest cost. Axminsters, 77c; Brussels, 45c; Cotton Chain Ingrains, 25c; Heavy Ingrains, 37c; All-wool Ingrains, 52c. Or get a Rug or two; what better gift? Moquettes and Ingrains, all sizes.

$8.25

A full swell front, solid oak carved top Chiffonniere, worth $12.00.

$15.75

Comfort—lots of it—in this adjustable head (5 positions), velour-covered Couch—heavy fringe. Value $22.00.

$11.89

Solid Combination Desks, mirror ornament at back. Value $16.00.

$10.98

For a $15.00 Sideboard—bevel edge mirror, lined silver drawer, ample closet room—how's that?

$1.98

Highly polished solid oak, high back, box seat Dining Chair—$2.50 its value.

$4.98

Antique oak Extension Table, 5 legs, well turned, cleverly finished, and worth $7.00 readily.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St., Near Plane St., Newark, N. J.
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS.
Note first name "Amos."
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agent for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phoenix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW,
THE GROCER.
Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.
Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS
Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.
GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.
119 East Front Street.

SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue
BUTCHERS.
Everything usually found in a first-class market.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83 A.

Elston M. French,
Successor to VanBuren Bros.
Real Estate and Insurance.
Largest agency in the city. Loans negotiated.
163 NORTH AVENUE.
Opposite Depot

H. Eggerding,
131 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made of the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

McCullough's STEAM MILL.
11 Steiner place, North Plainfie
R. H. McCullough, Prop'r
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished

L. A. HUMMER,
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.
163 SOMERSET ST.
Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

"ISN'T IT TOO CUTE FOR ANYTHING!"
So runs the chorus of feminine praise over this, that or the other pretty brooch in our fine collection. Husband, father, brother, beau—here's the fit thing! The price-range is $2.50 to $25.00—and there never was better choosing in pretty jewelry. You can make no mistake in picking with your eyes shut—but best come while the selection is complete.
Large Solid Silver Nethersole Bracelets, - - - - 75c
Solid Silver Brush and Comb, - $2.50
In a silk-lined case.
COLLIER, Jeweler,
103 Park Ave.
Established 1869.

STATIONERY and TOYS.
We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles for the Holiday trade.
CHRISTMAS CARDS and CALENDARS.
We make a specialty of FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.
High Grade Cigars.
Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.
B. W. HAND,
205 W. Front Street.

CAMERAS
—AND—
Photographic Supplies.
SPALDING'S
Golf and Sporting Goods
Phonographs and Gramophones.
GEO. W. WRENNICK,
133 North Ave.

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street,
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,

CHARLES ARNOLD,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats,
POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON.
203 Liberty St, 35 Somerset St.
Telephone 238.

CHAS. L. FOROE,
Architect and Superintendent.
208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 31 tf

W. H. WILLIAMS,
PLAINFIELD NEWSDEALER
for 35 years.
Will take subscriptions for one month from Dec. 9th, 1899, for

St. Nicholas, 1 yr	2.50
Scribner's Monthly, 1 yr	2.50
Harper's Monthly, 1 yr	2.50
Century Magazine, 1 yr	3.00

Either of the above would make a good Christmas present.
The New York morning papers delivered at an early hour by good carriers throughout the city.
W. H. Williams,
No. 111 Park Ave.

LADIES' TAILORING.
RICHARDSON & WALD,
325 West Front Street.
TAILOR-MADE GARMENTS.
We make a specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.
Alterations and relining promptly attended to.
—DRESSMAKING.—
Our Dressmaking Department is in charge of Madame Walsh.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Fu Store 136 Park avenue. 10 1

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
Is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

The fat undertaker,
Who plants by the acre,
Poor victims of cough and cold,
Is sighing and crying,
For we've all stopped dying
Since Brazilian Balm was sold.
And for those who desire
Not just yet to go higher
It is worth its weight in gold.
For sale by all druggists. L. W. Randolph, Wholesale Agent.

FOR EVENING WEAR.

Beautiful New Dancing Dress For Young Folks—Some Novel Coiffures.

Just this week there is scarcely anything thought of but dancing dresses, frocks or gowns, as one likes best to call them. I like the word dress best, and so shall call them that to the end of the chapter.

The very young girls go floating about in the lightest of tulle like spirits of the mist. Their dresses are made mostly looser than those for older persons. These last fit quite snugly over the silken lining, almost as closely as the lining, and where they flare at the bottom there are superimposed flounces of lace or chiffon, sometimes both. It becomes a wonder how such flimsy overdresses could sustain such a weight.

There was a very beautiful dress of white satin, with an overgown of figured white net. This was shaped to fit over the underskirt, but around the bottom of the skirt were three flounces of the net. At the very bottom of the skirt were three ruffles of white silk mull. Over this was the first flounce of the net. This had festoons of very narrow pale pink chiffon ruches. Where each joined there was a tiny bow of narrow pale pink ribbon. The three flounces were each headed by a line of silver spangles. The waist was made in the same general manner. The sleeves end at the elbow in the dress shown in the illustration, but I saw another where there were none at all, the ruffles around the neck doing duty for them.

Hairdressing for evening has undergone some radical changes. The hair is waved at the sides and drawn back from the face. Then right above the middle of the forehead is made a large butterfly out of loops of the hair. Those to whom it is more becoming mass their hair in something of a pompadour style and still others draw the hair back, leaving the forehead uncovered. The object seems to be to give a low but wide forehead, and it is a pretty fashion.

Another becoming style is to part the hair in the middle and draw it smoothly to each side, where there are neat little side combs. Beyond them the hair is puffed and curled as much as ever, while a high knot rises at the summit of the head, and this is upheld by a jeweled comb at the back and perhaps a jeweled ornament in front.

BEAUTIFUL EVENING DRESS.

A very ingenious arrangement for wearing at the theater after the big hat is removed is an Alsatian bow of black velvet ribbon, with a rhinestone ornament in the center. The lady has this fastened to a hairpin, and before the hat is fairly off the bow is on, and the effect is really good.

There are in some of the swell establishments a number of rich and elegant suits made of velutina in black, brown, dark green, gray and some of the purples, particularly those called Cyrano These are made into what one might call tailor suits, with jacket or long coats as may be. The strictly tailor suits are made plainly, as such garments are wont to be, but where there is a long coat or empire coat it is richly ornamented with jet and fur and often rich lace wherever such can be used with propriety.

There was one suit where the skirt was made quite plain and of a Cyrano purple. There was an empire coat wrap of the same velutina, overlaid with black applique guipure. This wrap was like a princess polonaise in shape, cut away in one deep scallop in front, with the apex reaching quite to the knees. There was a row of knotted fringe all around the bottom. There were a high storm collar and deep lapels all faced with fine chinchilla fur. The whole wrap was covered with the thick silk guipure. Many skating dresses and whole suits are made of velutina, trimmed with fur.

For the very young the favored jacket is what we call a Sans Gene. These are made both with and without points at the back, and all have the box plaits at the back of the skirt or the side plaited skirts. These have the plaits laid along and tacked so as to exactly fit the hips, and from there they hang loose to the bottom. Velvet of any kind, to look at its best, needs to be laid in heavy folds.

HENRIETTE ROUSSEAU.

TIME O'DAY.

What o'clock in Fairyland,
What is the time of day?
Blow, blow, Dorothy blow,
Waft the seeds away.

Butterflies on the wing are light,
But these are lighter still;
Away they go, like bits of snow,
Over to yonder hill.

"Two, three, four, five,
Our usual hour for tea;
Six, seven, eight, nine;
And bedtime, too, for me!

"Ten, eleven; I'll not believe
That that's the time of day;
A long puff, and a strong puff,
And the last one flies away!"

MAILED SHAD.

So Well Protected That Only a Shark Can Crush It.

Few persons know that there are more than 500 species of shad, chiefly in the waters of North and South America Asia and Africa, but the most interesting of all of these is the mailed shad (callichthys callichthys) of South American waters. It is covered on both sides with a double row of thick plates, and the head is also hard and bony. On account of this coat-of-mail the fish has the strangest appearance of all the shad species. Only ichthyologists would recognize it as a shad at all, and most people would think it was some strange creature that had survived from prehistoric times. It plays havoc with the other fish, being so well protected from their attacks that only the shark, with its powerful jaws, can crush it. The mailed shad sometimes grows to an enormous size, and makes a brave struggle for life when it is hooked. Only lately a German naturalist, Herr P. Matte, has succeeded in catching one alive in a wire net and taking it to Europe alive, where it swims alone in its own tank in the Berlin Aquarium. An attempt is now being made to get some spawn of this fish so as to raise them for various aquariums. It is not a good fish for food, being tough and dry, unlike the juicy specimens of the species that are found in the North River or the Susquehanna.

The Orchestra Game.

For good rollicking fun nothing can exceed the game known as the orchestra players, which includes any number of guests, both men and women. When the company are assembled they form themselves into a large circle. The players then choose from among their number one person whom they deem fit to be an able conductor, who, when chosen, assigns to each one some imaginary instrument, which it is his duty to imitate as closely as possible, the sound with the voice, the movement with the hands. When all are equipped they are ordered to tune up, and the fun commences. At the hour set the leader begins to hum a lively air, the whole band joining in, each with his instrument.

At regular intervals the conductor assumes the work of one of the players, while the player to whom the instrument belongs takes up the imaginary baton and conducts until the leader again abandons the position. By this manner the conductor and musicians change places. Should any player fail to fill the conductor's place he must pay a forfeit. Of course, to make this game a howling success the conductor should be quick-witted and if possible change as rapidly as possibly from leadership to musician. The more noise, the greater fun. The brighter the leader ,the more confusing the complication. After the game is ended the forfeits can be redeemed and become an additional amusement.

Going to School.

Once upon a time school children had not as easy a time as some of the young folks nowadays. Back in the early part of the sixteenth century, for instance, the famous English school of St. Paul's, then under the direction of Dean Colet, used to open at 7 o'clock both winter and summer, and the rules were so strict that the school boy of to-day would think them barbarous. Following are selections form the code of rules put into operation when the school was founded.

"The children shall come into school at 7 o'clock, both winter and summer, and tarry there until 11; and return against 1 of the clock, and depart at 5. In the school, no time in the year shall they use tallow candles in newise at the cost of their friends. Also I will they bring no meat nor drink, nor bottle, nor use in the school no breakfasts, nor drinkings, in the time of learning, in nowise. I will they use no cockfightings, nor riding about of a victory nor disputing at St. Batrholomew, which is but foolish babbling and loss of time."

There were to be no holidays granted at desire, unless for the King or a Bishop.

If He Only Remembered.

Mother—Goodness me! Our Johnny is beginning to think he knows more than his parents.

Father—Well, if he remembers the answers to all the questions he used to ask, he ought to know at least as much as we do.

The Silence of Love.

I hold that we are wrong to seek
To put in words our deepest thought:
The purer things by Nature taught
Are turned to coarser when we speak

The flower whose perfume charms the sense
Grows hard and common to the touch
And love that's wordy overmuch
Is marred by its experience.

For love, like sympathy, hath hands
More strong in silence than in speech
And hearts speak loudest each to each,
Through meeting lips and clasp of hands.

Nor could I hope for fitting word
To form in speech the thoughts that start;
The inner core of every heart
Hath yearnings that are never heard.
—Hamilton Drummond.

THE MOTORMAN.

The capitalist looked up from the card he held in his long, slender fingers. He saw a dark eyed young fellow, with big shoulders and a resolute chin. At least those were the distinguishing characteristics the elder man first noticed.

"James Protheroe," he murmured. Then he added with a little gasp, "Not the son of my old boyhood pard, George Protheroe?"

The young man smilingly nodded.

Whereupon the older man seized him by both hands and forced him into a chair.

"My dear boy," he cried, "where were my eyes? Why, you're just like your dad. Well, well! Bless him, I haven't seen him for twenty years. Calls you James, eh? Who's that for?"

"You, sir," said the young man.

"For me! Shake hands again, namesake. You are a remarkably fine young man. And how's father?"

"Very well, sir. He sends you a letter," and the young man drew it from his pocket.

The capitalist glanced it through with a kindling eye.

"Sounds just like old George," he chuckled. "Um-um-um. 'Loan you my boy Jim. Teach him a little business. Got some capital he might invest. Good boy.' Um-um-um. 'It would be funny, wouldn't it, if Jim and your motherless girl should take a shine to each other? I wouldn't object. I know she comes of good stock.'"

"What's that?" cried the startled young man.

"That wasn't meant for you to hear," laughed the other as he folded the letter and pushed it in his pocket. Then he added: "See here, my boy, you must come along with us to Bevington. We are going down there on my private car; a thirty mile ride over our new suburban road. I've got business with a man at Bevington that must be attended to this noon. Then I've got to be back here at 3 o'clock to meet a New Yorker who is passing through. My daughter Ethel, Miss Mayer, her companion, and two young college fellows of her acquaintance will go on the trip with me. Ethel will take along a hamper and feed us in the car, and we ought to have a jolly time. I want you to meet my daughter."

"Thank you," said the young fellow. "I believe I have already met her. I went to your home to see you and found you had left the house a little earlier than usual, and your daughter—I'm quite sure it was your daughter—kindly told me that you never transacted any business at home."

The two men laughed together.

"But you told her who you were?"

"No, I didn't," replied the young man. "After her remark I couldn't very well. It's business, you know, that brings me to Cleveland."

James Norcross laughed again.

"She probably took you for a collector," he chuckled. "But, here, we must be off. We have to meet the others at the square in just ten minutes."

They were there and waiting when the two men approached.

"Ethel," said the older man, "I want you to become better acquainted with Mr. James Protheroe, of Kansas, whom you have only met in a business way, I believe. You have often heard me speak of his father."

The fair young girl, with just a slight flush, extended her hand.

"The name of Protheroe is a household word with us," she said with a smile that Jim Protheroe thought the sweetest he had ever seen. Then she presented him to Fraulein Mayer, and made him acquainted with Mr. Hosmer and Mr. Barrington.

"You've surely heard of Mr. Barrington," she said. "He was on the Yarvard football team of '98, and Mr. Hosmer is the champion sprinter of his college."

Young Protheroe bowed gravely in acknowledgment of the honor conferred upon him in coming in personal contact with such special distinctions.

"Are you a college man, Mr. Protheroe?" inquired the eminent Barrington.

"Yes," replied the Kansas youth, "Adams, '97."

The young men looked at each other. They had never heard of Adams.

Just then the car got under headway, and Ethel's father called Jim to step to the rear door and have a look at the roadbed. Ethel was surprised at the glance that passed between Hosmer and Barrington. It made her feel a little chagrined. They were evidently sneering at the Western young man. Really there was something different about him. His clothes were not quite like other men's. He didn't wear them with just the same nonchalance. He appeared rather heavy and slow. Very likely he was as dull as he acted. And yet he certainly seemed a very presentable youth. Some people might even call him handsome.

Her train of thought was interrupted by her father's voice.

"Why, bless my soul, boy," he was saying, "you know more about railway building than I do. Where did you pick it up?"

"Helped lay out a road in Western Kansas," replied Jim. "That's one of the things we learned at Adams. I believe I have the right to put 'civil engineer' after my name."

So he did know something, thought the girl, but it seemed like such uninteresting knowledge. Truly, he was decidedly different from the Eastern boys.

Then her father and Jim came into the car and the conversation became general.

Ethel noticed that Jim held his own pretty well when he did talk, but for the most part he was but a listener. There was one thing she was grateful to him for. She knew that he admired her. His frank, open glance told her that. But he had the good sense not to annoy her by any special attentions.

Pretty soon the little party scattered. Jim and the young men going out on the rear platform to smoke, leaving father and daughter and chaperon in the car.

"What do you think of Jim?" said the capitalist.

"Rather strong of Kansas, isn't he?" laughed Ethel.

"Oh, I don't know," said her father. "He doesn't make any parade of his talents. He's just like his old dad. There wasn't a keener boy in town. We were chums, you know, and both of us started in without a dollar. I fancy we've both done pretty well."

"Is Mr. Protheroe's father a man of property?" inquired Ethel.

"I should say he was! The last I heard about him he owned the opera house, the hotel, the bank, the finest residence in town, and held a first mortgage on the biggest meeting house. Jim's financial future is all right. He's an only child, you know."

"No, I don't know," said Ethel.

The big hamper turned out to be most bountifully loaded, and everybody brought along a picnic appetite. Then they rolled into Bevington, and, leaving the ladies in charge of the two Eastern men, James Norcross took the Kansas lad and started to keep his engagement with the local townsman. It was not a long engagement, and at 1 o'clock they were back in the car, and the capitalist signalled the motorman to go ahead on the return trip.

"We should be able to run the thirty-two miles back to Cleveland nicely in two hours," he said to Jim. "I must be there at 3 o'clock and we have a clear track all the way. We've had litigation over this road and it isn't doing a regular business yet, but we'll be running on schedule in a day or two."

They were out of earshot of the others, and Jim leaned toward the capitalist.

"Mr. Norcross," he said, "have you noticed that the motorman has been drinking heavily?"

"No!" cried the capitalist. "Has the idiot started on one of his periodical sprees? Best man in my employ when he's sober. When he's drunk he's a stupid log. Keep your eye on him, Jim."

The young man nodded and started down the aisle to the motorman's vestibule.

It might have been ten minutes later when he noticed that the speed was increasing to a really dangerous rate. Looking ahead he saw—a mile or so away—a sharp curve. He knew that it was highly hazardous to attempt to strike it at that high rate of speed. He reached forward and caught the motorman by the arm. The latter turned with an oath, and unsteadily rising to his feet, struck at him blindly. Jim flung him aside, shut off the power and put on the air brake. The car slackened speed reluctantly, but finally came to a standstill half way round the curve.

Then Jim turned. The motorman had fallen and struck his head against the ironwork at the end of a seat. He was lying on the car floor unconscious.

Ethel was unaware that anything unusual had taken place. She sat in the last seat at the rear, and her back to the front of the car, her companion, Miss Mayer, beside her. Presently her father came down the aisle and stopped.

"I was beginning to wonder where all the men were," said Ethel, as she laid her hand affectionately on her father's arm. "I felt quite neglected. Are we waiting on a switch?"

"There has been a little accident, my dear," said her father. "We're not on a switch."

"Accident, papa! Who is hurt?"

"The motorman. But not seriously. Jim says it is a scalp wound and a broken collar bone. He's got him all bandaged up nicely, and as soon as he gets over the effects of the—the shock he'll be in very fair shape."

"Is Jim—Mr. Protheroe—a surgeon, too?"

"He's something of a surgeon," replied her father with a laugh. "It's another one of those things he learned at that remarkable college. It seems a half dozen of his college mates had planned a hazardous trip to the Bad Lands, and they knew they ought to have a surgeon doctor along, so Jim volunteered and took a six months' course in the rudiments."

Ethel looked out of the window.

"Where are we, papa?"

"About ten miles from anywhere," snarled the capitalist. "And I'm needed in Cleveland at 3 o'clock for a most important conference."

"Well, why don't we go ahead?"

"Without a motorman? Besides, we busted something in the running gear. It happened in slackening up suddenly. Do you hear that pounding?"

"Now I hear it, papa."

"That's Jim under the car trying to tinker up the break."

"Is he a mechanic, too?"

Despite his anxiety the capitalist laughed again.

"It seems so," he said. "It's another thing he learned out there in Kansas. I suppose we are just beginning to find him out. You were right about it. He isn't much like the other youngsters of his age."

Still laughing, Ethel's father left the car and joined the two Eastern college men, who were standing not far away. Ethel raised the window and looked out. As she did so she caught sight of Jim. Hatless, coatless and vestless, his thick hair wildly tumbled and his face smudged with dirt, he was facing her smiling father.

"Waiting for orders, sir," he said, with a comical pull at his hair.

"Can you run a motor, too?" asked the capitalist.

"I've had some experience at it," replied Jim. "Father built the Alfalfa and Stony Ledge electric road and I ran the first motor over it. If you'll sit with me and keep me posted on the points I'll promise to haul you through on time."

"All right, my boy; run her through on schedule time and I'll give you a permanent job."

The capitalist looked up and caught his daughter's eye and laughed again.

As Jim turned away Ethel called softly to her father:

"Daddy," she murmured, "don't you forget to ask Jim up to dinner tonight."

Her gratified parent looked up at her with a quizzical smile that called a swift blush to her cheek.

"All aboard!" shouted Jim.—Cleveland Plaindealer.

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall Streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 29, 7 55, 8 03, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 9 46, 9 16, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 5., 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 06, 7 39, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12.00 m, 12 58 1 45, 2 40, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 27, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 9 34, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 32, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m.

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m.; 1 01, 2 08, 2 20, 3 32, 4 35, 5 03, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sundays 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamauqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked *) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 19, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N.J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.
Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.
Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.
Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.
Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.
Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket timetables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.
FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent, 218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

T. M. INGRAHAM.
Vaults and Cesspools Cleaned
Night or Day.
ASHES & GARBAGE REMOVED.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Good Work at Reasonable Prices.
P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.

XXXX QUALITY
FINEST
LOFOTEN COD LIVER OIL,
Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.
Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at
39c per Pint.
For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at 50c per Bottle,
or the Tasteless at
75c per Bottle.
THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,
Hepburn & Co.,
Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,
213 WEST FRONT ST.
Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

WANTED
25 Mechanics

and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.

Agent on the Grounds
SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.

. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

The New Holiday Goods
are here in larger and better variety than ever before. There is a certain satisfaction in buying Holiday novelties here—the entire stock is new—something which others cannot claim, and everything is priced moderately, in fact lower than you would pay elsewhere.

A Wonderful Showing of Handkerchiefs.
A COMPLETE stock of Men's initial handkerchiefs, put up half-dozen to the box.

The Largest and Best Assortment of Kid Gloves.
Good gloves, which we guarantee and such as you desire for Christmas gifts.

New Sterling Silver Novelties, Silver-trimmed Leather Novelties, Umbrellas.

Mackintoshes.
A complete stock of Goodyear mackintoshes for ladies and misses. These goods were bought before the heavy advance in prices; therefore you can buy good mackintoshes here at the old prices.

I. LEDERER.

FALL OPENING.
WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.
OUR STOCK COMPLETE

We are now ready to fit either man or boy in Suits, or Overcoats, Hats and Gent's Furnishings.

Boys' Suits from 75c to $5 00.
Men's Suits from $2.00 to $20.00.

Have you tried a pair of our Celebrated Cassimere Pants at 98c the pair, if not do so—they are the talk of the town; sold over 1.000 pairs the past season; never rip and fit to perfection. Give us a call.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,
206 West Front Street.

Holiday Goods.

Why you should see our assortment; a walk through our store will be the easiest way to solve the problem of what to get for presents for young and old,
Our line of fancy articles consists of everything imaginable in Celluloid, Plush and Glass Ware.
Handkeachiefs, gloves, neckwear, hosiery, umbrellas and dress goods of all kinds and all prices. Furs and worsted goods of every description.

DOLLS . . .

Dolls of all kinds can be found on our doll counter, our assortment is bewildering in their novelty, extent and attractiveness. Our prices are lower than any other house will quote for the same article.

TOYS -:- -:-

Our Toy Department in the basement is larger than ever before. No such collection was ever gathered here before, and it is safe to say there is no better stock in town in point of variety, there is no stock in town that equals ours in prices that's certain.
Children's velocipedes, tricycles, battleships, iron toys of all kinds, tool chests, wash sets, soldier sets, dishes, horse and wagons, chairs, printing presses, electric batteries, express wagons, magic lanterns, etc.

I. H. Boehm, 109-111-113 West Front Street

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops
Wieda's
Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda
Manufactured at the Premises,
144 West Front St. Phone. 1138.

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.
Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,
Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.
WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER
DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

Our Attractive Holiday Display
awaits your inspection. We are glad to welcome visitors and pleased to show our goods.
A. L. & M. D. Gorsline, 144 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

AN ORDINANCE

to Provide Funds for Permanent Improvement of Streets in Advance of the Collection of Assessments for Benefits.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That for the purpose of obtaining the money by the sale of bonds hereinafter specified, for the permanent improvement, pursuant to city ordinances, of the streets and highways of the city of Plainfield with permanent and durable macadam pavement, in advance of the collection of assessments for benefits, the Common Council of the city do hereby, pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, authorize the issuing of twelve registered municipal bonds of the city of Plainfield, of One Thousand Dollars each, amounting in all to Twelve Thousand Dollars, which bonds shall bear interest at the rate of five per centum per annum, payable semi-annually and be payable three years from said date of issue with the option of the city to redeem or pay off the said bonds, or any one or more of them at any time after one year from date of issue, and before three years from said date of issue, on giving personal notice to the said holders of said bonds, or thirty days' notice by advertisement in the official newspapers of the city, of the intention to make such redemption or payment, which bonds may severally or collectively be sold for an amount not less than par value, and the interest on said bonds shall be raised annually by taxation and the principal be paid by the city at maturity, and the money derived from the assessments upon the property benefitted, shall, when collected, be held as a fund toward the payment of said bonds.

Adopted by the Common Council Dec. 4, 1899; approved by the Mayor Dec 4, 1899.

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW, Mayor.
J. T. MACMURRAY, City Clerk.

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING

is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.,
201 PARK AVE., Cor 2d ST.
Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.
Estimates furnished. Telephone call 535.

F. A. DUNHAM,
—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—
109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87

L. L. Manning & Son,
STEAM
GRANITE WORKS,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

E. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial
Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

OUR OYSTERS ARE THE ---FINEST---
ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets
Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully. Orders promptly attended to. 3 11

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT. Notice is hereby given, That the account of the subscribers, executors of Lewis J. Denton, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphan's Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the tenth day of January next.

EMELINE B. DENTON,
SARAH P. BLISS.
Dated December 6th, 899. 12 7 oaw

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill.
Turning and Scroll Sawing.

Advertised Letters.

Plainfield, N. J. Dec. 11, 1899.

Bernard, Mr Charles
Carter, Mrs Jennie
Clark, Mrs I N
Cori, M s John
Emery, Mrs David
Evans, Mable
Herbert Jr, Mr Jas. N
Kenney, Mr Thomas
Newstub, Mrs F
Poach, Miss Rosa
Risberg, Mr N E 2
VanDeventer, Mrs Caroline
Vincent, Mr A G

E. B. BIRD, Postmaster.

BOERS AS FIGHTERS

GOOD MARKSMEN TO BE FOUND IN THE TRANSVAAL.

And He Is a Mixture of Strategy and Religion—Tactics Against the English—A Boer Military Camp—Fighting Qualities of the Men.

As a fighter the Boer is a mixture of strategy and religion. Before going into battle each captain leads his troops in prayer, for the Boer children are brought up on the Heidelberg catechism, and the first thing they learn is the answer to the question: "What is the only comfort in life and in death?" The army then joins in singing Old Hundred, "every man," as one Englishman described it, "trying to outdo the other in slowness of time, each note being prolonged for at least six beats." The religious injunctions are not forgotten on the march and travel on the Sabbath day is avoided as much as possible. Oom Paul's pre-eminence in the nation is due to his piety as much as anything else, and when he was commandant general and military leader he could get a following by raising his hand. The Boers are almost as great fanatics in war as the Mohammedans, though their natural strategy prevents them from recklessly destroying themselves. Kruger rose to fame by taking hold of a campaign against the natives in which his predecessor had failed. This man did not belong to the Dopper Church, which is the ultra-orthodox branch of the Dutch Reformed that is in the ascendant there. The Boers said the Lord was against the other leader on account of his heresy.

A Boer military camp, however, is not entirely devoid of recreation. Shooting at a mark is always in order and the young men indulge in a rough sport that sometimes proves serious. They call it throwing the ox-hide, and it consists in tossing a man up in the air just as the American soldiers do with a blanket. About a dozen chaps grab the edges of an ox-hide and from this throw a comrade in the air so high that when he strikes again he is unconscious and perhaps has broken a few bones.

There is no doubt about the skill of a Boer with the rifle, though the English contend that the new generation has deteriorated vastly in this respect. This may be true of those young men who are growing up in the towns, but of those who live on the open veldt this cannot be said. It is common to see them while riding at a good pace drop a bird on the wing at 100 yards. In killing an ox for meat on the march more than one bullet is never used.

Tommy Atkins dreads the Boer. There is a cold, unfeeling crack to his rifle that makes the English soldier pale, for he knows the bullet is coming straight for the centre of his belt. Fighting against the Matabele or Bechuana is not such a dangerous matter. The machine guns do most of the work and the only reply is a scattered volley of assegais and slugs. Kruger and Joubert know this and count on this shrinking dread to keep the English troops at a distance. Heretofore this has been done.

From a dull, apathetic, ill-kept and lazy dreamer the Boer is then transformed into a quick-witted cunning and energetic being. The Transvaal burgher, indeed, is a most peculiar combination of phlegmatic Dutchman and a wildly excited Latin. On the veldt he will loaf around in the sun and only move to reload his pipe. In the Raad chambers the sergeant-at-arms oftimes is unable to maintain order.

It is on the rifles of these old country Boers that Kruger mostly depends. On the night that the news reached him of the Jameson raid in December, 1895, there was consternation at Pretoria. The first despatch said that 3,000 British troops had crossed the border, and then a second, sent by the British as a decoy, stated that the troops were only the Chartered Company's police making a short cut. Joubert wanted to take the few cannon that were in Pretoria and go out to meet the invaders.

"Oh, no, Piet," said Oom Paul. Don't you suppose I of our old farmers with their rifles can stop 2,000 ruineka?"

The result proved that Kruger was right. The whole force that fought Jameson consisted of 400 men in two divisions, summoned from the open veldt. Jameson began the attack with artillery. The old Boers laughed at this.

"Every man take to a rock," ordered Commandant Cronje, and the farmers dodged behind rocks and trees.

At the proper moment they advanced in proper Indian skirmish in two divisions, opening a deadly fire at 500 yards. The reformers then cut loose with Maxims, but for once the machine guns which had been used to mow down the African natives were of no avail. The Boers were so scattered that they evaded the bullets. Jameson finally opened with a twelve-pounder, but Cronje told off twenty Boers to kill the gunners, which they did with precision and accuracy. That practically ended the fight.

The strength of the Boers as a military nation lies in the fact that nearly every man possesses innate warimess and is himself a general. This man Cronje, who captured the raiders, was not a celebrated warrior, yet he took hold of the campaign on a moment's notice, mapped out his plans, quickly led on Jameson until he had him surrounded and then went at him.

A long campaign is no hardship to the Boer. When the alarm comes the women of the house, and nearly every Boer has a family of ten, twelve, or eighteen, of whom two-thirds are girls, get him half a dozen pieces of biltong and a supply of coffee and tobacco, while the boys saddle and equip the best horse in the stable. Of course every lad who can stand a march also goes to the front, for the Boer children are taught to use a rifle at an early age, and it is a common sight to meet on the open veldt two or three strapping girls swinging along with a rifle on the look-out for hartbeeste, or turkey buzzards. In fact the women count on doing their share of the fighting. Since the Boers left Cape Colony in 1836 the feminine portion have been accustomed to loading a rifle behind the laager and if necessary firing it at a black face. In case of war with the English they are supposed to look after the flocks and herds and defend the homestead, and every Boer hut in the Transvaal in wartime is a fortified block house defended by a company of girls and boys with the mother of the home in command.—N. Y. Sun.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Gossy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—Miantonomoh Tribe of Red Men will hold a regular meeting tomorrow night.

—The regular meeting of Perseverence Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will be held tomorrow evening.

—On Tuesday evening, December 26th, the Senior Order United American Mechanics, will elect officers.

—Nomination of officers will take place this evening at the meeting of Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M.

—This evening at the meeting of the Daughters of Aebekah there will be an entertainment and general good time.

—Central Lodge, No. 48, A. O. U. W., will meet this evening and elect officers. There will also be initiation of candidates.

—L. B. Hart, of West Front street, is closing up the driveway to his property on Elmwood place, and will open one from Front street.

—It has been noticed that a number of out-of-town people have been attending the Bible conference now being held at the Y. M. C. A.

—Following the election of officers at the meeting of Old Glory Council, Daughters of Liberty, next Tuesday evening, there will be an entertainment.

—The closing of the Parochial School next week for the holiday season will be marked by an event of interest. It will be a Christmas entertainment.

—Crosby & Hill, the dry goods merchants, have generously contributed to the Children's Home a large number of toys for the children. The gift will be appreciated beyond a doubt.

—In the account published Tuesday concerning the meeting of the State Firemen's Mutual Benefit Association, the name of Assistant Chief Andrew Jennings was omitted from those at the banquet.

—Through the agency of H. C. Mulford & Son, real estate brokers, North avenue, Thomas Thomas, of New York, has leased a house that is to be built on Watchung avenue near Kensington avenue.

—The Ladies' Aid Society of Warren chapel will meet tomorrow afternoon in the chapel at the usual hour. There will be no prayer meeting service in the evening on account of the Bible Conference.

—At 12 o'clock noon Tuesday there arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lowery an eight pound boy. Both mother and child are doing well and hearty congratulations are being received from friends.

—J. B. Blair, dealer in gents furnishings, has a very large stock of gloves, neckties, sweaters, umbrellas, suspenders, shirts, underwear and silk handkerchiefs for Christmas presents. His prices are reasonable and all goods are up-to-date.

—H. A. Stiles, the eye specialist, who has been so successful in examining and correcting all defects of the eye, has purchased the interest of Leech, Stiles & Co., and will continue his weekly visits to Plainfield every Thursday. H. A. Stiles has been a visitor here for the past six or seven years, and he is highly recommended by his numerous patients around this neighborhood.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. B. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even set up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

What Can You Do With It?

This is a question we can answer better after we have seen the garment you want dyed. When our wagon is in your neighborhood, let it bring your goods to the store and then, at your convenience, come in and let us tell you just what we can do and the cost. Don't be prejudiced against dyeing. Oftimes you can't tell the goods from new.

HILLIER & CO.,
129 West Front Street,
Opposite Crosby & Hill's. 'Phone 851.

GREAT INTEREST IN BIBLE CONFERENCE.

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

all His plentitude of power.

"The Holy Spirit will make us as courageous as was Stephen, when his enemies surged about him; as bold as was Wesley, when the mob sought to overpower him; as efficient in our sphere as Whitfield was in his. In one day Whitfield received a thousand letters in which inquires were made concerning the way of salvation.

"Soft words, smooth prophesies, are doubtless well,
But to rebuke the age's popular crime,
We need the souls of fire, the hearts of that old time," the time in which Peter and Stephen and Paul lived and toiled for Christ.

"The Holy Spirit has not changed in character. What he did for the early disciples he can do for us. He can make the humblest a means of great blessing. As He took Peter and made him a strong, courageous servant of the cross and put a light within him that shall shine on while the world lasts, so He can make us do His good pleasure in spite of opposition and difficulties.

In concluding the study Mr. Shelton said in substance: "But is a Spirit-filled life possible to all? The Scriptures specifically teach that it is. Through obedience to the commandments of God the Spirit is given. (Acts 5:32). 'If ye love me,' said Christ, 'keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father and He shall give you another Comforter that He may abide with you forever.' (John 14:15, 16) Increased spiritual power is to be had only by a more perfect obedience to the will of God, accompanied by believing prayer If we would have power from on high we must not only pray in faith for the Spirit, but ask also that the commands of our lord may be written upon our hearts. In the strength of the Spirit which we already have, we must seek in everything to obey God, that the full power of the Holy Ghost may come upon us.

"What might it mean to hundreds of young people now outside of the church if each of us was filled with the Spirit? To many a home now darkened by the dominion of sin it might mean deliverance and joy. To many a young person now considering the choice of a life work it might mean years of heroic Christian endeavor. To many just beginning to tread the paths of folly and wickedness it might mean repentance and salvation.

"Let not coldness, disobedience or unbelief keep us from seeking and obtaining the 'larger measures of the Spirit's mighty working,' for it is our Master's good pleasure that we be filled with the Spirit. If we will permit Him out of weakness He will make us strong; out of indifference to the interests of His hingdom He will rouse us to devote all our powers to the doing of His will.

"The only favorites of God are those who obey Him. If we do His will His choicest gifts, His richest blessings are for us."

This evening the conference will be continued at the First Presbyterian church, and the subject will be "Standards of duty." The meeting tomorrow evening, the last one, will also be held at the same place, and the subject will be "The Panoply of God." At this service Harper G. Smyth, the well known evangelistic singer, will assist.

THE COURTS

JUSTICE MOFFETT.

Summons—French against Marsh, on contract, returnable Dec. 20th.

JUSTICE MOSHER.

An attachment has been issued in a suit brought by Adams against Scriven.

JUSTICE NASH.

Warrant of removal — Kitchen against Ross.

Summons—Gray against Shaw, on contract, returnable December 18th.

Volcanic Eruptions

Are grand, but Skin Eruptions rob life of joy. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, cures them; also Old, Running and Fever Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Felons, Corns, Warts, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Chapped hands, Chilblains. Best Pile Cure on earth. Drives out Pains and Aches. Only 25 cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

Realty Changes.

The following real estate transfers have been recorded from North Plainfield during the past week:

Wm. B. Emmons et ux to Lewis M. Codington, $1,000; Lewis M. Codington et ux to Wm. B. Emmons, $1,000; Lewis M. Codington et ux to Wm B. Emmons, $325; James C. Pope et al to Mabel B. Hooley, $550; George Hummer et ux to Joshua D. Loizeaux, $1.00; George Hummer et ux to Joun L. Hummer, $1.

One candidate was initiated at last night's meeting of the Shepherd's of Bethlehem.

To Cure Constipation in One Week
To Purify the Blood in One Week
To Strengthen Nerves in One Week
To Cure Sick Headache in One Day

Take Cleveland's Celery Compound Tea, 25c. Trial size free. It it fails to cure your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary corner Park and North avenues.

PRIZES FOR FINE DOGS

MISS DARLING'S ENTRIES IN DOG SHOW WON DISTINCTION.

Captured Honors in the Class of Spaniels, Among Them a Prize Given by the Princess of Wales.

It is seldom that Plainfield fails to secure distinction in any great event, and this is true conerning the dog show that was held in Madison Square Garden, New York, Nov. 29, 30 and Dec. 1, when Miss Clara Louise Darling, of Netherwood, entered her celebrated Ruby spaniels and captured about all the important prizes and honors in that class, and won honorable distinction.

In the limit and open class she was awarded first prizes with "Duke" and "Lillie Langtry" and third prize with "Princess B." In the novice limit and open class she secured second prize with "Babbie." One notable distinction was the securing of first place for the best champion Ruby in America. With "Duke" and "Lillie Langtry" she won six special prizes of note.

The first was the silver cup offered by the Princess of Wales for the best pair of Ruby spaniels. Another prize was the London Premiership for the best Ruby male, and a third prize of $10 for the best Ruby female. She also was awarded two fish plates for the best pair of Ruby spaniels. Still another prize was awarded Miss Darling, that of team medal and first in team class of four.

There were twenty-one spaniels entered in the show and the competition was very close. Miss Darling is deserving of great credit for having won so many honors.

EMBEZZLEMENT.

A Doubtful Charge When the Offender Is a Known Drinker.

A Philadelphia Magistrate has surprised the business community in that city by his disposition of a charge of embezzlement. The defendant was the driver of a delivery wagon for a firm of furniture dealers. Being sent out to deliver goods and collect the money for them from the purchasers, he collected $19, spent the entire sum for drink and returned to his employers without a cent. It appears that they were well aware of his drunken tendencies long before he thus appropriated their money.

The Magistrate refused to entertain the accusation of embezzlement against the collector, saying: "Where a firm intrusts with money a person whom they have reason to suspect of intemperate habits and he does not appropriate the money to his own use or make off with it otherwise than to indulge in the gratification of his habit, employers must understand that it is extremely doubtful whether the crime of embezzlement can be made out under such circumstances." In New York no act committed by a person in a voluntary state of intoxication is deemed less criminal because the defendant was intoxicated, but the fact of his being in that condition is always to be considered in ascertaining the intent with which he acted. —New York Sun.

A Delicate Subject.

Two factions are just now fighting, using all forms of petitions and personal influence to bear upon Picard, Director General of the exposition. One wants lots of Midway business and a most tolerant license, arguing that no success is possible otherwise.

The other side is afraid that from the concession already granted the grounds will be made impossible for the respectable element and the young people.

M. Berenger, Vice President of the Senate, has just written to Picard an urgent request that all vigilance be exercised to keep the disreputable sideshows out. The letter is countersigned by many of the most prominent Senators and cannot be ignored. It says that positive information has reached the petitioners that under a pretext of being instructive immoral exhibitions of dancing are being planned.

Picard has not yet answered, but it is known that the Director General does not intend to have the big fair austere or dull and his answer will be curious reading.

Favorite Perfumes.

A great many well-known men and women have been fond of different scents, as is historically known, but it is hard to say how far their characters fit in with this new idea. For instance, Nero loved the scent of roses, whether distilled or from the freshly-cut flowers; Louis XIV. delighted in the perfume of orange flowers; while Richelieu liked a different scent in each of the rooms; the Empress Josephine soaked her things in musk; and Napoleon is said to have emptied a whole bottle of eau-de-Cologne over his clothes when he was dressed; Victor Hugo rejoiced in wild flowers; Alexandre Dumas loved the flowering myrtle, and Charles Dickens adored white jasmine.

Sun Would Soon Consume Us.

It is estimated that the earth receives not more than one thousand-millionth part of the total radiation of the sun's rays. If any considerable portion of this heat was concentrated upon the earth it would not be only uninhabitable, but become speedily consumed.

Store Open Until 9 O'clock.

Sperry & Hutchison's trading stamp store, 146 Central avenue, corner of Second street, will remain open until 9 o'clock Saturday evening of this and next week, in order to accommodate their patrons who desire to select gifts for holiday presents.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Jones are congratulating him on the birth of a daughter, born to them a few days ago.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders

—In consideration of the Bible Conference in the Presbyterian church there will be no meeting in the W. C. T. U. room tonight.

—The traveling public very much appreciate the subtantial stone sidewalk just laid in front of the home of F. W. Baily, 86 Duer street.

—A business meeting of the Watchung Silk Company was held this morning at the office of H. C. Runyon. Routine business only was transacted.

—The local office of the United States Express Company will be open evenings until 9 o'clock from Saturday during the holidays to accommodate the public.

—B. F. Crane has purchased the meat market, corner of Somerset and Race streets, and will give his personal attention to the business and hopes to retain all the present patronage and to secure many new customers.

—John H. Kitchen, of Somerset street, whose late bereavement was particularly sad, takes this means of extending to his friends and neighbors his thanks for their many acts of kindness and is deeply appreciative for it all.

FOUR KILLED IN A WRECK.

Disastrous Collision That Occurred on the Central Railroad Near Allentown Last Night.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Allentewn, Pa., December 14.—Not for years has there been a railroad collision in the Lehigh Valley so serious as that which occurred at 9 o'clock last evening on the Lehigh and Susquehanna division of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, at a flag station called Treichlers, twelve miles north of this city.

Passenger train No. 18, running at the rate of a mile a minute, crashed into a northbound coal train.

Four men were killed, as follows:

HANN, GEORGE, flagman.

HEATH, THOMAS, of Easton, baggage master.

SMITH, W. H., of Easton, fireman.

YEOMAN, FRED., of Easton, engine driver.

Heath, Smith and Yeoman belonged to the passenger train. The injured, so far as known, are George Shipton and John Graham, brakemen of the coal train.

Immediately following the collision the baggage car and smoker caught fire.

Riding Bicycles on Sidewalks

John Malgrelle and Luigi Feste, of Scotch Plains, were caught riding bicycles on the sidewalk on Hunter avenue, this morning by Roundsman Flynn, and brought before Judge Runyon. They were fined $1 each and after paying they were released.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.
TELEPHONE 722.
MAZE EDWARDS, - Lessee and Manager.
Reserved Seat Tickets at Box Office, which is open daily from 9. m.

Thursday Night, Dec. 14.
Lincoln J. Carter's Great Spectacular Production.
"The Heart of Chicago."
Elegant Special Scenery.
Wonderful Mechanical Devices.
Mysterious Electrical Effects.
A Vivid Picture of the Great Fire.
See The Marvelous Approaching Train.
ANOTHER BIG SUCCESS.
A POWERFUL COMPANY,
Introducing a splendid line of HIGH-CLASS SPECIALTIES.
PRICES—25c, 35c, 50c and 75c.

MASSAGE :-: VAPOR BATHS
CORNS REMOVED 25c.
M. V. STICKLE, 149 East Fifth St.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.
Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.
Capital, $150,000.
Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.
CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.
DIRECTORS.
Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Cloosson. H. G Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold. J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J B. Coward.
General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

GEO. W. COLE,
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER.
200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

DIED.

SKELLENGER—In this city, Tuesday, Dec. 12th, 1899, Mrs Isabella, wife of the late Benjamin Skellenger.
Funeral services at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Sims, 417 West Fourth street, Friday, Dec. 15th, at 10:30 a. m. Interment in Greenwood. Philadelphia papers please copy.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

FAMILY washing wanted at home by first-class colored laundress. Apply J. H. Frisby, Mail Messenger. 12 12 3

THREE pleasant convenient rooms to let for light housekeeping. 404 Third street, corner Central avenue. 12 11 11

SECOND-hand pool table, 4½ x 9; for sale or rent, installments. 90 Somerset street.

WANTED—Young girl part of each day to assist in housework. 315 East Second St.

YOUNG woman wants days work; best references. 305 Arlington Ave.

WANTED — Situation as coachman or butler. Inquire 300 Arlington avenue.

YOUNG man wants situation as coachman or care of furnaces; understands horses; references. G. P., care Press. 12 12 5

HORSE FOR SALE, 8 years old. 1266 Park avenue

WANTED—Boarders in private family; house modern improvements. 112 Central avenue, near Front street. 12 14 3

FOR SALE—Rosewood piano, $45; bargain Corner Mountain avenue and Orchard street, Westfield.

GOOD butcher business for sale cheap; must be sold at once. Inquire of Adam Dealaman, Dunellen. 12 14 tf

HOUSE to rent, $8.00; 4 acres. J. T. Vail. 12 13 3

GIRL WANTED for general housework, 917 Watchung ave. 12 13 2

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

PANT operators wanted; none but experienced hands need apply. C. Schepflin, 320 W. Front St. 12 12 eod 3

BICYCLE for sale cheap. 46 Lincoln place 12 11 4

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 24

WANTED—Walnut trees. J. D. Loizeaux, 640 North Ave. 12 2 12

HELP WANTED — Machinists, lathe and planer hands; good men can find steady job and good wages. Address P. O. Box 103. Cincinnati, Ohio. 12 8 12

WANTED—Young girl to assist with housework. 112 Lafayette place. 12 13 2

WANTED—Situation to look after furnaces, etc.; have first-class references. Thomas Jones, 368 Arlington avenue. 12 13 6

SPECIAL!!
HAIR DRESSING,
SHAMPOOING,
MANICURING.
Until after the Holiday Season
MISS HOLMES,
Graduate of the New York School of Hair Dressing and Dermatology,
will make special rates for hair dressing in all the latest styles for street and evening; at parlors 75c. At ladies residences by appointment. Shampooing or Facial Massage and steaming (for eradicating imperfections of the skin) 75c. Manicuring 50c.
440 W. FRONT ST.

S. R. STRUTHERS
offers his services as accountant.
Books opened and closed. Trial balances made and Balance Sheets shown.
Call or address
544 WEST FRONT STREET. 12 13 12

CUT FLOWERS!
Choice Blooming Plants, Palms, Ferns, Jardinieres, Fern Dishes, &c. Headquarters for Wreaths, Holly, Mistletoe and everything in the florist line. First-class stock. Largest assortment of cut flowers in the city.
A. E. LINCOLN.
Telephone 876. 226 PARK AVE. 12 14 9

...EMERY'S...
PLEASURE GARDEN
(SCOTCH PLAINS.)
Thursday Evening, December 21st.
FIRST
GRAND BALL
—OF THE—
Prospect Social Club.
Music by Prof. O'Reilly.
TICKETS - - - - 25 Cents.
The Enclosed Pavilion is for rent for Balls, Parties, etc., at Reasonable Rates.

SPECIAL HOLIDAY SALE
—AT—
S. SCHEUER & CO.'S
THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY.

Finest S. C. Hams, lb	10c
Finest XXXX Minn. Patent Flour, bbl	4.38
Extra Fine Lard, lb	6c
New Citron, Orange or Lemon Peel, lb	11c
Fine California Prunes, lb	5c
Libby McNill's Plum Pudding, 1 lb cans	10c
Richardson Robbins' Plum Pudding, 1 lb cans	18c
Fresh Jersey Pork Sausage, 3 lbs for	25c
Prime Leg Mutton, lb	10c
Prime Leg Spring Lamb, lb	12c

New Brazil nuts, lb	8c	Fresh eggs, doz	19c
New mixed nuts, 2 lbs	25c	New head rice, lb	5c
New dates, 1 lb pkge	6c	Best N.O. molasses, gal	29c
New figs, 1 lb pkge	13c	Best vanilla syrup, gal	29c
New raisins, lb	8c	Best laundry starch, 2 lbs	7c
New seeded raisins, pkg	8c	Good soap, 16 cakes	15c
Holiday mince meat, 5 lb pails,	39c	Fine sweet corn, can	7c
Home-made fruit cake lb	12c	3 lb can tomatoes, can	7c
American mixed candy lb	10c	Scheuer's sugar peas, can	10c
Fine Malaga grapes, lb	15c	Canned peas or lima beans	6c
Honey spice drops, lb	10c	Fancy red onions, bas	35c
¼ lb box shredded cocoanut	5c	Best Rose potatoes, basket	32c

FREE! 3 lbs Granulated Sugar with 1 lb of our 50c Premium Teas FREE!

Fresh pork shoulders per lb	8c	Best round steak, lb	16c
Shoulders spring lamb per lb	8c	Fresh tripe, lb	6c
Fresh killed Jersey turkeys, per lb	16c up	Lean salt pork, lb	7½c
		Breakfast bacon, lb	10c
		Chuck steak, lb	10c

We are now receiving orders for Our Christmas Turkeys. We guarantee all first-class stock at lowest market prices.

S. SCHEUER & CO.,
239-241 West Front Street.

Velvet Baby Hats, black 1 49. colors 1.69.

Bonn's
140 WEST FRONT ST.

Trimmed Short back Sailor Hats, 1.98.

FRENCH FLANNEL WAISTS, $1.98.
A special lot of grey and brown waists, dressmaker made. French back, new shape, stock collar and dress cuffs, four brass buttons on front; regular price is 2.98, these at 1.89.

TAFFETA SILK WAISTS, 3.79 and 4.98
Black and all desirable shades, of good silk, stylishly made, every touch of newness, have fine cords and tucks; nowhere else such variety or so cheap.

SATURDAY, DEC. 16th, WILL BE DOLLS' DAY.
Every girl who comes with a parent and brings a doll to the store shall have a pair of real Vici Kid slippers for the doll FREE.
You know some dolls' tracks would frighten a bear hunter, but never mind how odd the feet are or how large, bring dolly along; we've a lot of sizes all ready, but if necessary we'll measure the feet and make special slippers to fit them. A lot of trouble and a lot of cost for us, say you? Yes, both trouble and cost, but we shall get it back again from the VICI KID shoe sales we shall make during the next year. Genuine Vici Kid bought from Mr. Robert H. Foerderer.
DOANE & EDSALL.

BUY YOUR PHONOGRAPHS,
Gramophones, Records and Supplies at
BROKAW'S . . .
The Piano Dealer, 123 East Front Street.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:17 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:34 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:34 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair Tonight; Saturday Fair; Low temperature for Several days. Ther. 34.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

MR SHELTON ON THE STANDARDS OF DUTY.

Terrible Evil of Wilful Rejection of Counsel of God.

NEED OF GOOD TEACHERS.

UNDERSTANDING OF MAN HAS BEEN DARKENED BY SATAN.

A Large Audience Attended the Bible Conference in the First Presbyterian Church Last Night—Final Meeting Tonight Will Be Very Interesting—J. Wilbur Chapman is to Sing.

There was a marked increase in the attendance at the Bible conference continued last evening in the First Presbyterian church under the direction of Don O. Shelton, and the large edifice was filled with interested Bible students, and had the meetings been continued in the Y. M. C. A. Hall that place could not have held all who wished to attend.

The singing by the chorus choir was in charge of Horace J. Martin, and the devotional exercises were conducted by L. W. Randolph. This included a number of prayers by various ones in the audience, after which Mr. Shelton took charge.

In his introductory address Mr. Shelton called attention to a plan of Bible study once almost universal, but now almost fallen into disuse, namely that of studying by the marginal references, in the best editions of the Bible, had been carefully prepared by Bible students, and often contain real and thorough instruction.

His theme for the evening was the "Standards of Duty" as indicated in Ephesians. He noted the previous life of the Gentiles to whom the epistle was addressed, and showed how lofty were the ideals held before them at the very outset of their Christian life-standards not reached even now by the advanced Christianity of today. They come from the very moment of their conversation under the sway of new principles. He noted, too, that it was said that there were those whose hearts were blinded, and their understanding darkened by willful ignorance of God. We should pray for enlightened understanding. We need teachers and he considered that wise, prayful and scriptual instructors are the great need of the hour.

He showed how terrible an evil is the wilful rejection of the counsel of God. As a result of alienation from the truth by choice, there comes a state where we are past feeling, given over to delusion. Where pain exists we are eager for a remedy, but when no pain is felt, the disease does its deadly work unchecked. He said that sin, like prussic acid, is deadly. A certain gardener had always been noted for his beautiful gardens, free from weeds. Some one asked him the secret of this, and he said he didn't know of any secret, especially. All he knew was that he didn't encourage weeds when they were young. Mr. Shelton spoke of the awfulness of sin and showed that it is the mission of the Bible teacher and the Christian worker to open the eyes of unbelievers and turn them from darkness to light. He said that this is to be accomplished by bringing the unsaved within the orbit of the world's great light—Jesus Christ. "The sublimest privilege of life", said he, "is the leading of a soul to the Son of God."

"The understanding of men has been darkened by Satan. He has blinded the eyes of them that believe not, 'lest the light of the glorious Gospel of Jesus Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.' (2 Cor. 4:4) He goes about seeking whom he may devour.

"Sin is an armed solder. Every man must meet on the battlefield of life, and he can be vanquished only by those who fight him in the strength imparted by the strong arm of God.

"Sin is a prison—hath its bolts, its chains;
Brings into bondage whom it entertains;
Hangs shackles on them, bands them to its will;
'Twilll blind them, make them deaf; yea, 'twill them gag.
And ride them as the devil rides his nag.
Wherefore look to it: keep it out of door;
If once its slave, thou mayst be free no more.

"Sin once possessed of the heart, will play
The tyrant, force its vassal to obey:
'Twill make the thine own happiness oppose.
And offer open violence to those
That love the best; yea, make thee to defy
The law and counsel of the Deity.
Beware then; keep this tyrant out of door,
Lest thou be his, and so thy own no more."

On the injunction, "speak every man truth with his neighbor." Mr. Shelton said:

"God gave an early command to the Children of Isrel to be truthful: 'Thou shalt not raise a false report; put not thine hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness!' (Ex 23:1)

"Those who are in Christ will act

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.]

TRAMP PROBLEM AGAIN.

It Cost Somerset County Over $100 to Care for the Hoboes During Month of November.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Dec. 15—The perplexing problem of how to deal with tramps without entailing much expense and trouble, has again asserted itself in Somerset county. At the meeting of the Board of Freeholders this week bills amounting to over $100 were received for the care of the hoboes who had applied to the authorities for temporary relief. Up to last spring the sheriff of the county was allowed 25 cents a head for the care of tramps who applied for a night's lodging at the county jail, but at that time it was decided to have the tramps committed under the old law, which divided the fees among the constables, justices of the peace and the sheriff. As the month of November was very mild in the weather line, and there was not much actual need of harboring the tramps, the Freeholders were greatly surprised at the size of the bill. A long discussion ensued, and it was decided to return to the old way of allowing the sheriff 25 cents a head for harboring tramps over night. In the meantime an effort will be made to establish a stone yard, where the tramps can be compelled to work breaking stone, which will be used in improving the county roads.

WILL OF CHAS. POTTER.

ADMITTED TO PROBATE IN SURROGATE'S COURT TODAY.

The Estate is Kept Largely Within the Family—Bequests for Dr. Lewis and the Seventh-Day Baptist Church.

The will of the late Charles Potter was probated at Elizabeth today, the executors being David E. Titsworth, Arthur T. Gallup and Horace W. Fish.

The estate is kept largely within the family, the only outside bequests being a gift to Dr. A. H. Lewis, who was for many years Mr. Potter's pastor, and a bequest to the Seventh-Day Baptist church, of which Mr. Potter was a member, of the house and lot on the south-west corner of West Sixth and Division streets.

The estate is then distributed among the family, remembrances being given to the younger grand children, and the remainder being divided between Mrs. Potter, the three daughters now living and the children of the eldest daughter, deceased.

No change is expected to be made in the Potter Printing Press Co., as the will provides for Mr. Potter's interest remaining as before.

Mr. Potter's often expressed idea of public bequests was that they should be made while the donor was alive and could see them administered.

WIFE HAS DISAPPEARED

Italian Woman, Who is Mentally Unsound, Has Gone Where Her Husband Does Not Know.

Mrs. Pedretti, wife of Angelo Pedretti, both Italians, residents of Grove street, disappeared from her home Wednesday night. She has been unsound mentally, and was formerly confined at Snake Hill, Hudson county. This is not the first time that she has left her husband, and on one occasion she was placed in the asylum by him, on account of her condition. The husband is a weaver employed at the Watchung Silk Mill, and he and his wife have only been residents of this city a comparatively short time. The woman disappeared while the husband was out of the house. When he discovered that she had left he informed the police who are now prosecuting a search for the woman. It was said that the woman desired to return to Italy, and it is feared that she might possibly secure passage on a steamer before she can be caught.

The woman is over 50 years of age, and not very prepossessing. She has dark features and hair, and would at once impress any one that her mind is unbalanced. She went away scantly dressed and without any hat.

Ready for the Rush.

Owing to the heavy rush on at the U. S. Express Company's office, Manager E. W. Mills, has been granted a request for two extra horses and two extra wagons to meet the demands during the holidays. The horses and wagons have arrived, and next week Mr. Mills will employ two or more extra men to assist in the rush. He is determined to give Plainfield the best possible service and his efforts will be appreciated.

Has Left the Hospital.

Patrick Hanrihan, the employe of the Crescent Embossing Works, who had his arm taken off some time ago while at work, was discharged from the hospital yesterday, where he has been for treatment.

—J. R. Blair has a handsome assortment of gents furnishing goods for Christmas presents.

WESTFIELD WINS TWO OUT OF THREE.

More Games Rolled in Daily Press Bowling League.

AT THE CRANFORD CASINO.

SHARP WON THE SECOND GAME FOR THE HOME TEAM.

Made Four Consecutive Strikes and Westfield Was Weak on Wind Up—First Game Was Easy Thing for Visitors—Westfield Won Third Game by a Phenominal First Frame—Cranford Team Held Her Own.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Cranford, Dec. 15—The first games in the Daily Press Bowling League to be rolled on the alleys of the Cranford Casino, furnished lively contests last evening. The visiting team was from the Westfield Club and the Westfielders managed to win two out of the three games by steady bowling. Quite a delegation accompanied the visiting team while there were a number of the Cranford folk present at the games.

Westfield went into the first game with the intention of winning. The opening was strong, the visitors leading by 24 pins on the first frame. That lead was increased until it reached 90 in the sixth. Then Cranford braced but too late. Westfield's lead was slightly reduced but the game was easily won by 69 pins.

The second game was decidedly exciting. Cranford opened strongly and lead by five pins on the first. They held the lead for another frame and then Westfield started a lively pace. After Westfield obtained the lead in the third frame, the bowling on both sides grew worse and breaks were frequent. When there were not breaks, a multitude of splits were evenly divided between the teams. Hillier was in particularly hard luck. He had a split in the last four frames

Sharp saved the day for Cranford. He made a strike in the sixth and kept it up in the seventh, eighth and ninth, with a spare on the windup. Westfield's lead, which ran up to 47 in the fifth, dropped down to four in the seventh and then Cranford stepped ahead. On the windup, Westfield drew two splits and Chauncey Smith only downed six in all. Cranford won by 22 pins.

It was the first frame in the last game that carried victory into the Westfield camp. It was a clean frame and netted 106, 44 better than Cranford. Cranford put up a game fight and refused to be left behind any more despite the visitor's best effort. Dumont was way off in his form, but Barry and Bates were rolling well.

In the fifth Chauncey Smith won the hearts of the audience by a pretty shot that changed a bad split into a spare. Hillier had another just like it in the eighth and was equally successful. Westfield's lead varied from 38 to 47 all through the game. In the last three frames Cranford braced, but a double by Captain Smith saved the day for Westfield and they won by 47 pins.

The Daily Press trophy was placed on exhibition in the clubhouse and was greatly admired. The individual scores follow:

WESTFIELD CLUB.

	1st game.	2d game.	3d game.
Forster	168	195	158
Condit	163	161	162
W. S. Smith	190	129	157
W. M. Townley	148	135	163
C. D. Smith	155	134	163
	824	754	801

CRANFORD CASINO.

	1st game.	2d game.	3d game.
Dumont	166	174	114
Hillier	138	117	149
Barry	167	137	166
Bates	143	138	149
Sharp	141	210	176
	755	776	754

Funeral of Aged Lady.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Isabella Skellenger were held this forenoon from the residence 517 West Fourth street, and were conducted by Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes, pastor of the First Baptist church, where the deceased was a member and an attendant, and he spoke words of praise concerning her life. There was a large attendance at the funeral. Interment took place this afternoon in Greenwood cemetery.

Collector is Busy

Collector George F. Brown, of the borough, is kept very busy at present receiving taxes. The days are getting short as the taxpayers will be delinquent after December 20th.

Only Six Days More.

Only six days remain before the time will be up for the payment of the taxes in the borough. After that they will be delinquent if not paid.

Probably its Last Session.

Next Monday evening the Common Council will hold an adjourned session, and it will probably be the last session of the present Council.

MAY MEAN A BIG FIGHT.

FERRY TERMINAL AT ELIZABETHPORT MAY BE MOVED.

If it is the City of Elizabeth Will Probably Try to Gain Control of the Rights Used by the Central Railroad.

Reports have been current in Elizabeth for the past few days that the Elizabethport and Staten Island Ferry Company would move their ferry terminal at Elizabethport from the foot of East Jersey street, where it now is, four blocks further south to the foot of Elizabeth avenue, and that the North Jersey Traction Company would apply to the City Council for permission to extend its line down Elizabeth avenue a block and a half from First street to the ferry entrance. This move would be a bad one for Senator Kean's new trolley line, which runs now from Elmora through Elizabeth and directly to the ferry entrance on East Jersey street.

It is doubtful, however, that the scheme, if contemplated, can be carried through successfully, as it would have to overcome the opposition of Senator Kean, whose power and influence with the Elizabeth City Council has been demonstrated more than once. Besides this, the dock at the foot of Elizabeth avenue is held by the Jersey Central Railroad, which for forty years has retained its grip upon this valuable piece of water front, despite several efforts on the part of the city of Elizabeth to dislodge the railroad company and secure the ground for a public dock.

There have been long litigations between the city and the railroad company over this question, which as yet remains undecided. The city grew weary of fighting the matter, and for several years it has remained in abeyance.

Any attempt, however, on the part of the Central Company to give the use of the land for ferry puposes to the Staten Island Ferry Company would be certain to reopen the contest, in which event the city would have the strong backing of Senator Kean, it is said, to thwart any deal between the ferry company and the railroad corporation. This land at the foot of Elizabeth avenue was the location of a ferry to New York in olden times, and the avenue was then known as the King's Highway, the latter extending from the ferry through Elizabeth and Rahway, and so on through New Brunswick and Trenton until it came to Philadelphia.

HE ACTED WILDLY.

Demented Man was Running About Washington Park in a Way to Frighten People.

Yesterday afternoon there was a demented man, a stranger, running wildly about Washington Park. He acted strangely and the residents in the vicinity became frightened lest he should do some harm to himself or or others. Word was telephoned to Chief Campbell concerning the man, and after a little trouble he succeeded in getting him out of the borough. The stranger was not actually crazy, and he thoroughly understood the Chief when he told him to get out of the borough. It is not known which way he went, but nothing further has been heard from him.

Jerusalem Chapter Elect.

At a regular communication of Jerusalem Chapter, No. 24, R. A. M., held last evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Walter Freeman, high priest; Jacob Kirkner, king; R. A. Meeker, scribe; Henry Leifke, treasurer; F. K. VanAuken, secretary; C. Goss, captain of host; Garret Dunham, principal sojourner; Edward Nelson, royal-arch captain.

Patents For Inventive Jerseymen.

In this week's issue of patents granted to American inventors 18 were granted to residents of our own State. To subscribers of this paper a description and drawing of any patent will be furnished free by Louis Bagger & Co., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C., if a printed heading cut from this paper, is enclosed with the order.

Furnishings Are Needed.

The members of the Woman's Relief Corps are endeavoring to secure a certain amount of money to contribute toward furnishing the home at Vineland, recently established for old soldiers, and they are meeting with good success. The plan is to have each Corps try and furnish one room in the home.

Boom in shipbuilding.

Lewis Nixon, the Elizabethport shipbuilder, is trying to buy more water-front to enlarge his plant. There is said to be enough work ahead to keep the plant running on full time for three years. The Elizabethport shipyard may shortly have to be run night and day if Mr. Nixon fails to get the land.

—Use Press want ads.

K. OF P. INTERCEDE FOR JOHN ULRICH.

It is Alleged That Former City Judge Is Not Insane.

MAY SECURE HIS LIBERTY.

DISTRICT MEETING OF PYTHIANS TO CONSIDER THE CASE.

Sensational Developments are Expected in the Matter—Ulrich Was Once a Prominent Republican in Plainfield, but His Defeat as City Judge Seemed to Have Unbalanced Him Mentally.

Considerable of a sensation has been caused in this city by the announcement that at a district meeting of the Knights of Pythias, to be held in the room of Perseverance lodge tonight, when several grand officers will be present, the case of Former Judge John Ulrich, who is now an inmate of the Morris Plains State Insane Asylum, will be taken up and discussed with a view of securing his release on the ground that he was committed and is detained illegally in that institution. It is known that a committee of the Knight of Pythias has been working diligently and searchingly in the case of Ulrich for several months past, and they claim he is perfectly sane.

Up till 1893 Ulrich was one of the prominent Republicans of Union county. He was a lawyer by profession and had a profitable practice in this city. He had served in the Assembly of the State, and in 1889 was elected Judge of the City Court. He served three years in this office and was renominated by the Republicans. William A. Coddington, a young Democratic lawyer, was nominated against him, and a bitter campaign followed, in which Ulrich was attacked unmercifully by his political opponents. He was defeated. He had neglected his law practice, spent his money and injured his health during the political fight. Ulrich seemed a changed man.

His friends commenced to notice that Ulrich was growing eccentric and erratic in his ideas. His whole mind seemed centered on political affairs, and it was finally realized that his mind had become affected. His relatives decided that it would be best to have him placed in some institution, and he was accordingly legally committed to the Trenton Insane Asylum. He remained there a year and improved wonderfully, so much so that at the end of the year he was discharged as cured.

He returned to this city and remained with his family. He seemed rational enough to those whom he met casually, but two months later he went to Brookside Retreat, a private institution conducted by Dr. J. H. Cooley, in North Plainfield. Some say that he went there voluntarily, but others alleged that this is not so.

At any rate he was allowed considerable liberty, and during the time he was there he devoted a good deal of time to writing letters about his case. Several of them were printed in the local papers, and caused a good deal of gossip. It is said that others were written to the lodges that he belonged to, and impressed the members who heard them read that there was nothing wrong in the mentality of a man who could write such letters.

There was considerable surprise, therefore, when it was learned that Ulrich had been transferred to the Morris Plains asylum on the declaration that he was again insane. Here is where the Pythian activity asserted itself for the unfortunate brother.

A committee from Perserverance lodge, K. of P., was appointed, of which J. P. D. Kirch was made chairman They have been pursuing a quiet investigation, and now allege that they have evidence of a convincing nature to show that Ulrich is perfectly sane and that he was not committed legally. This afternoon Kirch will meet the grand lodge officers in Newark, where the evidence will be gone over, and at the district meeting tonight the course of action to be pursued will be decided on.

It is reported that the Masons will also interest themselves in the effort to secure the release of Ulrich. He was high in Masonry when his health broke down, having been editor of the Royal Craftsman.

Pleasant Surprise Party.

Last evening a very pleasant surprise party was given to Mrs. John Pool, of LaGrande avenue. It was arranged by her husband, and a few relatives and intimate friends gathered to pass an evening of sociability and games. During the evening a repast was enjoyed, after which the guests departed leaving their best wishes with the hostess and her husband.

WEDDED AT MT. OLIVE.

Nuptials of Eugene Cole and Miss Louise Randolph Performed by Rev. E. E. Jackson.

A wedding among the colored people last night at the Mt. Olive Baptist church, is the all-absorbing topic discussed throughout the city among that race today. The contracting parties were Eugene Cole, and Miss Louise Randolph, late of Virginia, but recently residing at 323 Plainfield avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. E. Jackson, pastor of the church, at about 8:30 o'clock in the presence of a large congregation. Isaac Fields filled the important post of best man, while Miss Annie Randolph, from Elizabeth, but no relative to the bride, was the bridemaid.

The bride wore a dress of white organdie silk over pink, cut entrain, with a long white veil. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. The brides maid also wore a gown of white without the veil. As the wedding party passed up the left aisle and took their places, Arabel Randolph, the organist, played Lohengrin's wedding march.

The couple passed from the church by way of the right aisle. A coupe was in waiting and into this the bride and bridemaids took seats, while the groom had to content himself with sharing a seat with the driver The party was driven at once to 323 Plainfield avenue, where they have taken up their residence. The formality of a reception was dispensed with.

MR PANGBORN'S STORY

SAYS HE WAS UNABLE TO IDENTIFY ALLEN AS HIS BROTHER.

Attended the Funeral of the Man Alleged to Have Led a Double Life, but Secured No Information Whatever.

The exclusive story, printed in The Daily Press Wednesday, of the alleged double life led by the late Stephen Pangborn, formerly of Plainfield, led a New York Heard reporter to visit this city yesterday and probe for something new in the case. The result is a long story in today's Herald, the principal part of which is a rehash of what appeared in The Daily Press. Part of the story contained an alleged interview with W. H. Pangborn, of Chatham street, a brother of Stephen, who, it is now claimed, was none other than Winfield Scott Allen.

Mr. Pangborn was seen by a Press reporter this morning and denied some of the statements attributed to him in the interview.

"The facts in the case, as far as I am concerned," said Mr. Pangborn, "is that at the time the man known as Allen died, I went to Williamsport to learn, if possible, whether or not the dead man was my brother who had left home many years before. I was one of the executors of my father's estate, and thought that, as a precautionary measure, it would be well to investigate the rumors that I had heard about Stephen going to Pennsylvania and living under an assumed name. I saw the remains of Allen lying in the casket, but there was nothing about them that I could identify as being those of my brother.

"I talked to the widow about the case, and she said that she was sure her husband had not lived a double life. She said that he had come from New York State. I was unable to verify any of the rumors that I had heard, and I came home with nothing to indicate that Allen was my brother. That is all I know about the case."

Mr. Shelton Slightly Ill.

After the Bible conference last evening Mr. Shelton, who is conducting it, was obliged to hasten to his stopping place on account of a slight indisposition. His illness is not anything serious, and he will conduct the conference this evening as usual.

New Officers of Co. M.

Company M, of Somerville, have elected the following new civil officers: Joseph Vickery, Jr., secretary; Fred M. Hoagland, paymaster; Andrew G. Koehler, treasurer. Committees will not be appointed until a new commandant is elected.

Entertained at Cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard S. Smith, of Duer street, entertained last evening the card club of which they are members. The usual membership was present and all thoroughly enjoyed the genuine hospitality of the host and hostess.

Won't Reduce Price of Hydrants.

The Union Water Company has declined to reduce the price of water hydrants in Cranford. The present charge is $25 per year and Mr. Bergen assures the committee they cannot supply them for less.

—The draping in front of the postoffice, placed there in honor of the memory of the late Vice President Hobart, has been removed, as the time thirty days, has expired.

FIRE THREATENED TO GRILL THREE HOBOES.

Were Night Lodgers at the City Jail.

WOMAN RELEASED THEM.

CITY JAIL CAUGHT FIRE FROM OVERHEATED STOVE.

Tommy Martin's St. Bernard Dog Awakened Warden's Wife in Her Room Over Jail—Released Hoboes Tried Vainly to Stop Spread of Flames—Fire Department Finally Called Out—Damage $100.

There is mourning in the city today. Early this morning an overheated stove set fire to the city jail and threatened it with destruction. The prompt response of the fire department saved the structure from total ruin. Today all Plainfield mourns that the flames were not allowed to wipe out a municipal disgrace. There are three hoboes, however, who are thankful for the opportunity to rejoice. They were confronted with the rather immediate prospect of being grilled in their cells when assistance came.

The City Jail is heated by a large stove that stands close to to the wall in the corridor. Last night there was a fire in it as usual, but for some reason Warden Tommy Martin allowed it to run unusually hard. Warden Martin lives over the jail with his wife and five children. Besides being warden he is also a special officer. Last night he was on duty at the dance held at Washington Hall. He took his two daughters with him to see the entertainment. Mrs. Martin and the three little boys remained at home.

Early in the evening three elderly hoboes applied for lodging at the jail and were locked in adjoining cells for the night. There is no provision for a desk man to remain on duty at the station house all night. The station house and jail is allowed to take care of itself. That's what it tried to do last night.

Tommy's great St. Bernard dog is responsible for the saving of the jail. But for the dog the building would have been doomed and part of its inhabitants might have perished in the flames. The smoke awoke the dog and his barking aroused Mrs. Martin. She awoke to find the room full of smoke. Then she investigated, accompanied by the dog.

The barking of the dog aroused one of the hoboes. He thought the afterlife had begun. Then he realized the situation. But the iron bars to the cell door were firm. Mrs. Martin hurried upstairs and got the key to the cells. Returning, she released the prisoners. One was so overcome with smoke that she had difficulty in rousing him.

The hoboes turned too and organized a bucket brigade but it wasn't much use. The fire gained headway rapidly. Then Mrs. Martin called for assistance with a blast on the police whistle while the hoboes tried to save her property. The bewildered children were carried over to the Western Union Telegraph office where Operator Benson looked after them.

Patrolman Saunders answered the whistle and sent in an alarm from box 13 at 1:15 o'clock. The fire department responded promptly. When the 1:17 train from New York arrived with City Judge Runyon on board, the Judge found his court the scene of considerable activity. A stream from the chemical engine was used and soon extinguished the flames which were gaining good headway. The principal damage was to the wall and first floor. The loss to the building, which is owned by Morgan C. Bird, will amount to $100, covered by insurance.

Warden Tommy's loss was occasioned by the rather rapid exit of some of his property. He had no insurance. One window was wrecked as Tommy didn't stop to open it when he threw out some of his valuables.

Juniors Nominate Officers.

At a meeting of Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., last evening there was nomination of officers. The nominations will be kept open until next week Thursday evening, when an opportunity will be given to complete the same, after which the election will occur.

Pythian District Meeting.

There will be a district meeting of Knights of Pythias this evening in the rooms of Perseverance Lodge, at which time a number of the Grand Lodge officers will be present.

To Build An $8,000 House.

Mrs. D W. Pond, of Watchung avenue, has decided to erect an $8,000 residence in Woodland Park, and work will be started in a short time.

—Press want ads pay.

POSITION OF THE SENATE.

Pettigrew's Resolution Tabled By a 2 to 1 Vote.

A SIGNIFICANT RESULT.

The Vote Said to Explain How the Upper House of Congress Stands on Expansion—Two Joint Resolutions are Introduced in the House—Other Washington News.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Mr. Pettigrew's resolution asking for information as to whether the flag of the Philippine Republic had ever been saluted by the American forces in the Philippines, came up in the Senate and was laid on the table by a vote of 2 to 1. This is considered very significant as showing the position of the Senate on expansion.

Mr. Chandler made the motion to lay on the table, but did not object to an explanation by Mr. Pettigrew and the latter spoke briefly, saying that his only purpose was to ascertain whether certain newspaper statements concerning the recognition given Aguinaldo's forces by our fleet in Manila Bay in the summer of '98 were true.

Mr. Chandler replied that every word of the resolution and speeches made upon it would be cabled to Manila. Mr. Pettigrew called for the ayes and noes on the motion to lay on the table. The vote resulted 41 ayes to 20 nays.

Proceedings in the House.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Two joint resolutions have been introduced in the House by Representative Williams, of Mississippi, which are the result of consultation among the Democratic leaders, and are understood to express their general position on the Philippines.

The first declares an intention to recognize the independence of the Filipinos and withdraw our land and sea forces, provided the independent government agrees to refund the $20,000,000 paid by the United States to Spain, to give us a suitable naval and coaling station and grant in perpetuity free access to their ports.

Foreign affairs of the islands are to be under American control for ten years.

The other resolution asks for information relative to the treaty with the Sultan of Jolo, and provides for an inquiry by the Judiciary Committee as to whether the constitutional provisions against slavery and the statutory provisions against polygamy apply to the Sulu people.

Discussion of the Financial bill was resumed in the committee of the whole, Mr. Hepburn, of Iowa, in the chair.

Mr. Cox of Tennessee, opposed the bill. He gave a brief history of the preparation and introduction of the bill and said that it would be passed, "that the power which put the Republicans in this House would compel them to pass it." The fact that this would require a change of position on the part of the great majority of the Republicans, Mr. Cox said, would make no difference.

Mr. Lewis, of Georgia, followed in opposition to the bill. If the effects of the measure, he said, had been outlined in the St. Louis platform, the result of the election of 1896 would have been the choice of William J. Bryan, of Nebraska.

Mr. Lewis found in the fact that the National Banks probably owned three-fourths of the war bonds issued last year an additional argument against the further issue of bonds by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Mr. Lanham, of Texas, in four minutes, had time only to express his belief that the pending bill would be passed, but before that was accomplished he desired to record his profound and conscientious opposition to its provisions.

Mr. Grumpacker, of Indiana, was the first advocate of the bill at this session. Contrasting present conditions with those obtaining during the Cleveland administration, he said that it would be criminal for this Congress to fail or refuse to pass legislation which would prevent the recurrence of the conditions that then existed. The pending bill, in his opinion, would accomplish that.

Mr. Sibley, of Pennsylvania, spoke in opposition to the bill, and said that he intended to vote against its passage.

Chicago Still the Favorite.

Washington, Dec. 15.—The impression among national committeemen at the Arlington is that in spite of the efforts of New York and Philadelphia, the Republican national convention will be held in Chicago. That is still the wish of Senator Hanna and Henry C. Payne, and it is understood also to be the preference of President McKinley.

For the first time in years, New York seems to be really in earnest in seeking the convention. It is believed that something more is behind her efforts than the usual demonstration of hotel-keepers and business men. Senator Platt is interested deeply in the success of the movement and is working quietly and skillfully among members of the national committee. New Yorkers have been less in evidence in the lobbies of the Arlington than Philadelphians, but a large and influential delegation will come from New York at once. No plans have been made for the presentation of New York's claims, but the chances are that Senator Depew will make the principal speech, Timothy F. Woodruff will probably make a speech, and Simon Ford of the Grand Union Hotel will talk. The fact that a fund of $100,000 has been subscribed in New York is a potent argument. Philadelphia makes a similar offer, but the money has not been subscribed. The objection raised both to New York and Philadelphia is that they are too far east; that the convention will adopt an equivocal gold standard platform, and that it will be wiser, therefore, to hold the convention in some city at a distance from eastern capitalistic influences as an offset. That is a political side of the question which appeals to some committeemen from the far west.

Controller Dawes, who has great influence with members of the national committee, is one of the principal sponsors for Chicago and has given the committee ample assurances in regard to the amount of money needed to provide properly for the convention.

Henry C. Payne of Wisconsin, vice-chairman of the national committee, says that the date of the convention probably is to be June 12, and that the place is to be Chicago.

In Memory of Washington.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Mount Vernon was the scene Thursday afternoon of the most unique and impressive ceremony in its rich and picturesque history. Masons of high degree from all over the United States and Canada met at the tomb of Washington, in services commemorating the 100th anniversary of the death of the greatest American. President McKinley delivered an eloquent tribute to the memory of the first President, and Senators and Representatives in Congress, high officials of the government and distinguished private citizens were participants and spectators of the solemn service.

Later in the day, when the Masonic services had been concluded, the Independent Order of Red Men succeeded them in honoring the memory of Washington with the rites of their order.

The procession was formed in line at Washington Monument, where President McKinley and other distinguished guests joined it, and moved solemnly to the old vault where first reposed the remains of Washington. This procession was formed and moved in the exact order and over the same path which was followed at Washington's funeral. Halting at the vault the Third Cavalry Band played a funeral dirge, and the Right Rev A. M. Randolph, bishop of the Southern Episcopal Diocese of Virginia, offered an invocation. This was followed by an address by the grand master of Masons in Colorado, and the procession then moved on to the tomb, where the remains of Washington now lie.

Here occurred the impressive services of the Masonic ritual. The grand masters of the thirteen original States formed in line, facing the representatives of the other jurisdictions, and the grand lodge and other brothern standing in a circle around the tomb with joined hands.

The grand masters deposited their wreaths and evergreens, and the craft slowly marched past, laying on the tomb their tributes.

Depew Greeted With Applause.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 15.—The Great Council of the United States of the Inproved Order of Red Men held exercises in Convention Hall Thursday evening to commemorate the centenary of the death of George Washington.

Great Incohonee George E. Green of New York presided, and speeches were made by the Chairman, Past Great Incohonee Charles H. Litchman of Massachusetts, and Great Prophet Robert T. Daniel of Georgia.

The orator of the evening was Senator Chauncey M. Depew of New York.

His speech was of an especially interesting nature and the speaker was greeted with enthusiastic applause.

Lodge on the Philippines.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the important Committee on the Philippines, explains the jurisdiction and scope of the new island committees in part as follows:

"It will ultimately become the duty of the Philippines committee, I suppose, to deal with all questions connected with the islands, and to consider for submission to the Senate the policy which the United States should pursue in regard to them. But these are, of course, questions of the future. The paramount necessity of the present moment is the restoration of order in the islands, the ending of the war, and the extinction of the last embers of the insurrection which has now degenerated into mere brigandage. This is all work for the army, and is an Executive function. Until peace and order are absolutely restored there ought not to be any Congress action."

The Engineer Was Lost.

Binghamton, N. Y., Dec. 16.—John C. Phelps, an engineer on the New York Central, lost his way with a train of cars running up the Utica branch of the D. L. & W. between Utica and this city, narrowly escaping a fatal collision. It has been the habit of the Central to switch cars on to the D. L. & W. siding at Utica. Phelps, missing his way, went up the main line at rapid speed. The train dispatcher succeeded in calling up Head Day Dispatcher Sullivan at Sauquoit, and that official ran, half dressed, from his home to the track. The train was coming slowly up a grade, and when he boarded it the engineer explained that he was lost. Sullivan piloted the train back again.

Moody Rapidly Failing.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 15.—Dwight L. Moody's condition has taken a sudden change for the worse, and as a result a great deal of anxiety is felt as to his ultimate recovery. Dr. N. P. Wood, the family physician, has issued the following bulletin:

"Dwight L. Moody has not been as well during the last few days. A consultation has been held, and as a result it may be announced that Mr. Moody's condition promises ultimate recovery." No more, Dr. Wood said, could be promised.

Uncle Remembered Him Generously.

Akron, Ohio, Dec. 15.—Harry B. E. Hamlen, a nephew of W. S. Stratton, the Cripple Creek "Gold King," has received a Christmas present from his uncle in the form of a $20,000 draft. The present was entirely unexpected. Hamlen is cashier of the local office of the Armour Company. Stratton recently sold his interest in one of the richest mines in the Cripple Creek District, and his present to the nephew is a part of the money received for it.

Murderess Goes to Prison.

Catskill, N. Y., Dec. 15.—Judge Sanderson has sentenced Elizabeth C. Bear, for the murder at Kiskaton, on October 6, of her aunt, Kate Wolven, a paralytic, aged eighty-three years, to twenty years at hard labor in the woman's prison at Auburn.

Philadelphia Schooner Lost.

Cape Charles, Va., Dec. 15.—The three masted schooner Billie S. Derby of Philadelphia, loaded with lumber, is stranded on Hog Island bar. The crew was saved by the life-saving crew. The vessel and cargo are a loss.

REGISTERED BRANDS OF THE
"P. & P." Kid Gloves

MANUFACTURED BY Chaumont PINGS & PINNER CO.
PERFECT FITTING — LATEST STYLES

MANUFACTURED BY Berthold PINGS & PINNER CO.
BEST VALUE — NEWEST SHADES

MANUFACTURED BY Fontaine PINGS & PINNER CO.

Don't take substitutes—There's none so good.
FOR SALE BY
Crosby & Hill,
95 tu f Plainfield, N. J.

Choice Meats
of all kinds.
GAME IN SEASON.
My Market is first-class in every respect and people who deal with me can depend upon being treated fair, courteous and with satisfaction.

ENORMOUS SAVING
in MONEY. Every man and woman who deals with me saves money.

Quick Sales and Small Profits
I handle only the very best and highest grade of meat money can buy.

Special attention is given to home dressed poultry, Jersey pork; also prime cuts of beef, veal and mutton.

IT WILL PAY YOU
to buy of me as I give you the best meat for the smallest amount of money.

J. C. STORM,
Meat Market,
318 Liberty St.,
Near Fourth St.

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Hire for picnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

A. H. ENANDER
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections
210 PARK AVE.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.
Paris for 1900.
Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.
Circulars at
161 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

THE
First National Bank,
of Plainfield, N. J.
Capital .....$200,000.
Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000.
J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.
DIRECTORS.
Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Coriell.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.
VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

We are NOW receiving orders for
HUYLER'S
XMAS CANDY,
—to be delivered at—
CHRISTMAS TIME.
Remember the
Only Agency
—IS—
Leggett's Pharmacy,
Y. M. C. A. Building.
Tel. 705.

Flynn Bros.,
SHOE DEALERS,
222 WEST FRONT STREET,
Near Music Hall,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods
Have stood the test for years.

November.
The mellow year is hasting to its close.
The merry birds have almost sung their last.
Their faint notes twitter in the dreary blast—
That shrill-piped harbinger of early snows.
And hint to you in good coal to invest
At seven forty-seven Front Street, west.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.
We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1 25.
LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.
Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.
—CHRISTMAS GOODS—
A Big Assortment.

Ladie Desiring . .
KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING
done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 203 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

F. A. DUNHAM,
—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—
109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas Telephone 87

Toys, Toys, Toys
for the
HOLIDAYS
—AT—
HARPER'S,
411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .
in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated
DOMESTIC FINISH.
Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.
Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.
Trading Stamps given.
The City Steam & Hand Laundry
MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B
19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

SELLING OUT
Below Cost
TO CLOSE BUSINESS.
Star Crockery Store,
23 Somerset St., near Front.
3 and 9 cent Articles.
BARGAINS! BARGAINS!
Solomon & Evans,
Proprietors.

LAIRE'S . .
HOLIDAY SPECIALS.
Carving knives.
U. S. club skates.
Roger's plated ware.
Fine pocket cutlery.
Silver finish coffee and tea pots.
Nickel on copper tea kettles.
Boys' sleighs.
Fine razors and hones.
Grand Rapid sweepers.
Baby Rapid sweepers.
Shinny sticks.
Christmas tree holders.
Coin silver ware, cheap.
Fine table cutlery.
Fine scissors and shears.
Corn poppers.
The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,
Tel. Call 682.

TRY THE
QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,
No. 337 Park Avenue.
(Miller Building.)
Goods called for and delivered free of charge.
Domestic or gloss finish.

DOBBINS.
CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN.
ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.
317 West Front street.

J. W. VAN SICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly.
TELEPHONE 148 b.

Your Valuables,
will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.
Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

GAS
For the Fire-place.
Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates.
Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.
CURTIS M. THORPE,
310-312 PARK AVENUE.
"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIREPLACE."

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 109 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
219 Park Avenue.

A. KANE,
Dealer in
BLUE STONE FLAGGING and CURBING.
Also Dealer in
Flour, Feed and Grain, Coal and Wood.
Store and Office
409 East Third St.,
Next to
THIRD STREET MISSION.
Open Evenings Until 8 o'Clock.

Chas. L. Stanley,
. . FLORIST . .
No. 142 North Ave
HEADQUARTERS for choice Cut Flowers, Ferns, Palms, a large assortment of other plants.
Floral design work and decorating for all occasions Satisfaction guaranteed; an immense stock of Holly, Wreaths, Roping, etc.
Annex stores for the Holidays,
133 North Ave,
South Ave, Netherwood,
and Central Ave., Westfield

ESTATE of Sarah J. Kellaway, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made, on the application of the undersigned, executor of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the Eighth day of November, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.
CHARLES K. KELLAWAY,
11 10 9 oaw Executor.

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS,
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.
A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

John G. Bantle,
First-class
Ladies' and Gent's
TAILOR.
428 Watchung Avenue.
Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

M. Molnar,
432 Watchung Ave.,
Ladies' and Gents'
FINE TAILORING
Graduate of
New York Cutting School.
Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with old clothes and I will take chances of being entrusted with new work.

Mallinson's
La Grippe Pills
o—25c.—o
A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses. : : :
MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung avenues.

THANKSGIVING FOR ALL.
If you want to make your Thanksgiving dinner a success order your turkey from us. Our stock is the best and largest in the city, and the prices are right. All our poultry is of the very best quality. Special prices for Church Societies and Clubs.
FRED ENDRESS,
131—135 WEST FRONT STREET.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmo.
Telephone 611

STORM READY TO BREAK

British Cabinet May be Made to Feel Its Force.

ENGLAND'S RAGE RISING.

Joseph Chamberlain is Criticised For Leading the Britons Into the Boer War—Telling Victory Must Come at Once to Avoid a Clash—Boer Forces Said to Have Been Captured.

London, Dec. 15.—The War Office has advised the Government to call upon the entire available reserves in Great Britain, including the militia battalions, for volunteers to organize another division of 30,000 men for service in South Africa.

Lord Roberts urges the use of a larger contingent of native Indian cavalry.

Three hundred British gunners have been ordered to proceed from Gibraltar to the Cape.

The War Office has also announced that the Sixth Division of the Second Army Corps will leave on Sunday for South Africa, and that the Seventh Division will be mobilized immediately.

The Boer loss is said to be upward of 700 in killed and wounded in the battle at Modder River.

They Feel Depressed.

London, Dec. 15.—"Lord Methuen's check, following General Catacre's repulse," says the Cape Town correspondent of the Daily News, "has had a most depressing effect upon the loyalists, who are by no means a growing body. They are filled with dark forebodings. Dutch disaffection is rapidly growing. A large section is restless and would need but little persuasion to join the Boers.

"There are disturbing reports from the eastern districts of Cape Colony, where many secret meetings have been held. The imperial authorities are arming the loyal farmers in the Stutterheim and Bedford districts."

Earlier Feeling in London.

London, Dec. 15.—England's rage is rising. The nation is calm in the face of two stunning disasters—Gatacre's and Methuen's, Stormberg and Magersfontein—but it is the calm that precedes the storm.

That storm, unless telling victories come quickly, threatens to break at any moment upon the Cabinet that has led the country into the valley of humiliation. Joseph Chamberlain, who is held responsible for the Boer war, will feel the first fury of the gathering tempest. Lord Lansdowne, Secretary of State for War, who is charged with patch work in the handling of the army will next feel its force and the rest of the Government, if the storm breaks, will go down with these two in the general wreck.

The War Office has just decided to mobilize an eighth division in reserve and to send the seventh division to the Cape. Certain foreign stations will probably be garrisoned with militia, and, if necessary volunteers will be called to take the places of the militia at home.

It is also likely that he militia reserve will be sent out to join their respective battalions, and the War Office intends to order four more battalions of militia embodied for permanent duty to-day. It is probable that additional offers of troops from the colonies will be asked for and accepted.

This dispatch from Lord Methuen has been received, dated Modder River, Tuesday, December 12, 7:30 p. m., showing that he had fallen back to that point:

"As the Boers occupied their trenches strongly this morning I retired in perfect order here, where I am in security. I have gathered from some of the prisoners and from our men with the ambulances, who talked with the Boers that the enemy's losses were terrible, some corps being entirely wiped out. The Boers have been most kind to my wounded."

A report to the War Office gives the total number of killed, wounded and missing of all arms in the British force in the engagement of Sunday and Monday north of Modder River as 817. Of the officers 15 were killed and 47 wounded, while five are missing and one is known to have been captured. There were 650 casualties among the non-commissioned officers and men of the Highland Brigade at Magersfontein alone. The Highlanders lost 10 officers killed, 38 wounded and 4 missing.

The Molineux Trial.

New York, Dec. 15.—William J. Kinsley, handwriting expert, resumed his tedious analysis when the Molineux trial was resumed Thursday. He continued taking up one exhibit after another, comparing the admitted handwriting of Molineux with the bogus Barnet and Cornish letters. It was said in the court room that J. Harrington Keene, "graphologist" and author of "The Mystery of Handwriting," is to be called by the prosecution in support of Mr. Kinsley. Mr. Keene is reputed to be gifted with the power of reading character in the manner in which its possessor dots his "i's" and crosses his "t's." So far in his cross-examination of witnesses, Bartow S. Weeks, Molineux's counsel, has studiously avoided giving any intimation of the defense prepared for the young prisoner, apparently being satisfied with making vague insinuations, calculated to raise varying doubts in the minds of the jurors.

The Report Not Credited.

London, Dec. 15.—It is freely rumored here that a private despatch to a military officer, which is not confirmed officially, states that Gens. Buller and Clery have succeeded in surrounding the Boers and relieving Ladysmith. The report goes on to say that 2,000 Boers were killed and 10,000 taken prisoners. The report must be taken with the greatest reserve.

The British War Office has heard nothing of the story of the relief of Ladysmith.

The officials do not credit the report, as, they say, the relief of the place at such an early date is believed to be practically impossible.

THE WEATHER REPORT.

Snow Friday; Saturday, generally fair; low temperature will continue several days.

EDUCATIONAL

REV. H. C. EYME,

a native of Hanover, Germany, and a graduate of the Universities of Heidelberg and Gottengen, is prepared to receive pupils for instruction in GERMAN, FRENCH, SPANISH, GREEK and LATIN. Terms moderate. Best references on hand. For particulars call or address

78 Duer Street. North Plainfield, N. J.

12 11 6 eod

Plainfield Business College

CITY BANK BUILDING,

Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses. PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS. Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.

(City Bank Building.)

Adella C. Phelps will resume work Sept. 26th. Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

PRIVATE INSTRUCTION

given in

German and Elementary French.

Address for terms,

MISS ALICE GILBERT,

11 8 1mo 811 West Fifth Street

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,

Teacher of

PIANO AND THEORY

Home Studio,

132 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,

Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.

—TEACHER OF—

PIANO AND ORGAN.

Address—60 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

Piano Instruction

Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.

MISS ANNA O. MARSH and MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.

915 MADISON AVENUE.

Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes Elementary Classes.

Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.

William Holmes

(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Dufft.)

Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.

Studio at Residence,

440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

Don't miss the Special Sale for the holidays of

FRAMES,

EASELS,

and PICTURES

AT REDUCED PRICES,

given by the

Guarantee Portrait Studio,

142 East Front Street.

Fine drawings in Crayons and Pastels from all kinds of photographs. All kinds of frames from the latest styles of mouldings made to order at the lowest prices.

CHARLES ARNOLD,

Dealer in all kinds of

Fresh and Salt Meats,

POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON.

203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.

Telephone 238.

Wm. J. Pearson,

(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)

Carpenter and Builder

16 Vine St. All work promptly attended to.

THAT'S THE IDEA!

You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.

Woolston & Buckle,

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS

141 North Avenue.

EXTRA

RICH MILK.

We are now ready to supply families who want the richest milk obtainable with milk which we guarantee to be from

JERSEY and GUERNSEY COWS.

Unexcelled in flavor and keeping qualities.

8c. per Quart Bottle.

SAMPLE FREE.

PLAINFIELD MILK AND CREAM CO.,

MARCHANT BROS., 327 WATCHUNG AVE.

XMAS IS NEAR

Now is the time to order your Xmas greens First come, first served. Holly, laurel and Xmas green wreaths and roping; also loose holly, palms, ferns, jardinieres and wicker baskets for Xmas presents.

MRS. L. J. DENTON,

Tel. call 731.

POWERS' PHARMACY . Somerset St. Craig Place.

Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .

Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot AND Tar

is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD,

FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.

Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Office Hours, 8 to 6.

Mrs. John Brown

Successor to

JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned

FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.

Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.

FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.

NEW YORK MAILS.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE and EASTON.

Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m.; 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.

WARRENVILLE.

Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M.

ALEX. LUSARDI.

211 West Front Street,

Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery, nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores . . . . . at . . . . . year

: : Pride's Tonsorial Parlor : :

94 SOMERSET STREET,

opposite Somerset Hotel.

Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty . . . . . .

CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.

-:- WILLIAM J. PRIDE, -:-

formerly with E. B. Maynard.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.

Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum.

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .

(Licensed)

J. H. Staats, Prop'r.

107, 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.

EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.

AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

Park Avenue Hotel,

Park Avenue and Eighth Street,

Plainfield.

Refurnished and Renovated.

Steam Heat in Every Room.

. . . Elevator . . .

First-Class in every respect.

Terms Moderate.

F. W. COLEMAN,

11 3 1mo Proprietor.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL,

corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.

RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor.

-:- WINDOW SHADES -:-

Estimates cheerfully given.

Mail orders will receive prompt attention.

J. A. GREENE,

112 Madison Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

11 15 1mo

H. E. Gayle, 18 VINE STREET.

(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)

Carpenter and Builder

ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

M. POWERS,

DEALER IN

LEHIGH COAL.

FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.

Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 77 A.

Yard 725 to 727 South Ave.

Choice Pieces, Odd Pieces, Expensive Pieces, Cheap Pieces In China, Metal and Glass.

Look at Our Line : :

JOS. W. GAVETT,

318 WEST FRONT STREET.

Don't Rack Your Brain

Trying to think what to give for a Christmas present. Anything in the Shoe or Slipper line is very appropriate. Our assortment and prices will please you.

VAN ARSDALE, 127 East Front St.

Repairing Properly Done.

Fall Styles in Derbies and Alpines.

All Kinds of Haberdashery.

AT

J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

OUR SPECIALTIES

Choice Teas. Fine Coffees.

WHEN YOU ARE IN NEED OF FIRST-CLASS GROCERIES OR CANNED GOODS, CALL ON

THE PARK GROCERS

C. E. GULICK & CO. Tel. 931.

FALL OPENING.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.

OUR STOCK COMPLETE

We are now ready to fit either man or boy in Suits, or Overcoats, Hats and Gent's Furnishings.

Boys' Suits from 75c to $5 00.

Men's Suits from $2.00 to $20.00.

Have you tried a pair of our Celebrated Cassimere Pants at 98c the pair, if not do so—they are the talk of the town; sold over 1,000 pairs the past season; never rip and fit to perfection. Give us a call.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,

206 West Front Street.

We Shine 'em Free, The New Styles in Winter Shoes. Enamel Leathers, Box Calf and Tans.

Sherwins, 149 W. Front St.

A prominent New York real estate agent says that he had his attention directed to Ripans Tabules about a year ago by a friend who gave him a box. He had suffered from dyspepsia more or less, the effect upon him causing sleeplessness. He tried the Tabules and, perhaps, more to his surprise than otherwise, found they did him a great deal of good. Since then he says he has at no time allowed himself to be without a supply, and in speaking about it he was recently overheard to say: "I think within the past year I have made a great many customers for Ripans Tabules. They really are a first-rate thing."

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores FOR FIVE CENTS. This low priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (120 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

REESE IS SPEAKING AGAIN

Addresses a Meeting Held to Celebrate His Release.

OUT ON BOND OF $3,000.

Five Metal Workers Sent to Jail For Violating an Injunction—All of the Large Coal Mines in Webster County, Iowa, Are to be Tied Up by a General Strike.

Chicago, Dec. 15.—A despatch to the Record from Fort Scott, Kan., says: "John P. Reese, national committeeman of the United Mine Workers of America, who has just been released from the federal jail in this city, where he was confined on a ninety-day sentence for contempt for addressing a strikers' meeting at Yale in violation of a federal court injunction, has addressed a large meeting of strikers here.

"The meeting was a celebration of the temporary release of Reese, who is out under a $3,000 bond pending hearing on a writ of habeas corpus."

Western Miners' Troubles.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 15.—Notices have been sent to different states from the miners' headquarters in this city, informing the workmen that agents representing the coal companies of Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas and Indian Territory are trying by false representations to obtain miners to work in those fields. The miners are preparing to fight the case of Kelly, an organizer, who was arrested in Arkansas ten days ago and taken to Springfield, Ill., at the instance of Federal Judge Allen.

Metal Workers Imprisoned.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 15.—For violating an injunction restraining them from interfering with non-union workmen, five members of the United Metal Workers' Association have been sent to jail by Judge Jesse Holdom for from four to fourteen days. The injunction which the men violated was issued on Nov. 20 and was the outcome of a strike declared by the United Metal Workers against the Yslow Brothers Company, iron manufacturers.

Iowa Coal Miners Strike.

Des Moines, Dec. 15.—All the big coal mines in Webster County are reported to be tied up by the strike of about 500 men at Kalo, Coalville, Lehigh and Carbon. The men went out because of the refusal of the companies to grant advances of wages, which the men thought just in view of the advancing prices of coal. The Boone County district, immediately adjoining Webster County, is likely to be drawn into the trouble.

Fatal Quarrel Over Eighteen Cents.

Greensburg, Pa., Dec. 15.—A quarrel over the payment of a debt of eighteen cents ended fatally, and now Domini Zenci lies dead with a bullet inbedded in his brain. The shot is alleged to have been fired by Antonio Conta at Pine Run, near Vandergrift. The principals of the tragedy, the officers say, had been drinking heavily. The intoxicants bred trouble, and when Conta reminded Zenci that he owed him eighteen cents, the latter pulled his revolver. Then Conta, it is alleged, drew his gun and fired a bullet into the brain of Zenci. Conta fled, and officers are now in pursuit.

The First Lafayette Dollar.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 15.—The first Lafayette dollar, the unique specimen authorized by Congress in aid of the fund for the erection of the Lafayette Monument in Paris, has just been struck off at the United States mint in this city. This coin will be presented by the President of the United States to the President of France. Fifty thousand of the coins will be struck, and are to be disposed of at a cost of $2 apiece.

Price of Diamonds May be Doubled.

Washington, Dec. 15.—United States Consul Hill, at Amsterdam, in a private report to the State Department, says that the failures in the diamond trade there and at Brussels are expected to be followed by others. Thousands of men are without work, and the stock of diamonds is exhausted. This is caused by the stoppage of the South African supply. He predicts a 100 per cent. increase in the price of diamonds by March.

A Dying Man's Confession.

Anderson, Ind., Dec. 15.—Frank R. Beaming, in the hospital here for two weeks, thinks he will die, and has voluntarily made a confession to having robbed the postoffice and general store at Treaty, Ind., last May of $80 worth of stamps and $100 worth of shoes. Fred Johnson, his accomplice, is now serving a term in the penitentiary.

Must Not Bathe For a Time.

Greenwich, Conn., Dec. 15.—There is a water famine at Fitch's Home for Sailors and Soldiers at Norton Heights. The inmates are forbidden to take baths until a better supply is obtained. An artesian well is the only source of supply, and the continued drought has greatly lessened the flow.

Ship Believed to be Safe.

Portland, Ore., Dec. 15.—No anxiety is felt here for the French ship Louis Pasteur, reported in a San Francisco despatch as overdue. The Louis Pasteur is under charter to a San Francisco firm for Portland loading. The charterers do not expect her before the last of this month.

Trial Set For Man Not Yet Indicted.

New Brunswick, N. J., Dec. 15.—Justice Collins has set the date of Vitanyi Zsiga's trial for murder, although the man has not yet been indicted. On Prosecutor Voorhees's statement that he would surely be indicted the justice set the trial for the day after Christmas.

New Swiss President.

Berlin, Dec. 15.—The Federal Assembly has elected Walther Hause Radical, of Wadenswell, Zurich, to be President of Switzerland for 1900. He was Vice-President during 1899.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be just as good as the Ivory; they are not, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine.

Ask for Ivory Soap and insist upon getting it.

COPYRIGHT 1899 BY THE PROCTER & GAMBLE CO. CINCINNATI

THREE GENERATIONS ON TRIAL.

Grandmother, Mother and Grandchildren Charged With Murder.

Scranton, Pa., Dec. 15.—In the Court of Oyer and Terminer, of this county, a scene is presented that has had no duplicate in the history of the criminal courts of the country. Three generations of the same family are now on trial, charged with murder. There are four prisoners, and the oldest of them is Mrs. Bridget Dempsey, a woman about seventy years old. Beside her sits her daughter, Mrs. Annie H. Gallagher, and back of them sit Mrs. Gallagher's two sons, Thomas and Joseph Gallagher.

This strangely assorted quartet is charged with the murder of James W. Quinn, Sr., at Carbondale, on Sunday, August 13.

Mrs. Dempsey, on account of her age, was released on bail soon after her arrest. Her short confinement in jail and the mental anxiety she has suffered since the crime was committed have had a serious effect on her health.

Arrest of a Professor.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 15.—Professor Osborne, of the Yale Medical School is under arrest charged with the unlawful disinterment of a body.

Bessie Van Lue, a bright negress, thirteen years old, was treated several times at the clinic which is in charge of Professor Osborne. She had a stomach trouble. The treatment supplied failed to relieve her, and she died Sunday. Professor Osborne asked the girl's parents that an autopsy be allowed, they say, but they firmly refused.

The girl was buried. Wednesday night her relatives, whose suspicions had been aroused, watched by the grave.

They hid behind gravestones, they declare, and saw an undertaker's wagon, stop at the grave. They saw the body quickly removed and taken into the wagon, which drove off. They followed it to the undertaking estblishment of R. E. Burwell's in Chapel street. The box was removed to the marble slab, and the members of the Van Lue fmily ran for the police. Professor Osborne says the mother consented to the matter.

A Remedy for Chicago Crime.

Chicago, Dec. 15.—William A. Pinkerton announces that the only cure Chicago can have from the cyclone of crime that curses it will be the lash for the footpad and capital punishment for the housebreaker. The great detective says:

"Give 100 lashes to each hold-up man and he will quit business. Pickpockets and other minor offenders should be treated accordingly. Execution is the thing for burglars. When a man breaks into a house it is with the intention of committing murder rather than be caught. His punishment should be meted out accordingly."

From November 11 to December 9 police records show that $30,000 worth of goods have been stolen. There were thirty-three hold-ups in that time.

Will be Confined in an Asylum.

Chillicothe, Ohio, Dec. 15.—William R. Newland, of Potts Hill, has just been sent to the insane asylum at Athens, after having lived for 25 years in a single room, which had been constructed for him. Over a quarter of a century ago he got into a quarrel with another man, who struck him over the head with a scantling, and he has never been sane since. His parents carefully watched him, and for fear that he would do some one violence, built a room for him 10 feet square, with barred windows and a heavy door so that he could not get out. After his parents died he was still kept in the room. He escaped a few days ago, and appeared on the streets of Bainbridge in a nude condition, and endeavored to tear the clothing off the passers-by. He was arrested and will be confined in the asylum hereafter.

Husband Arrested for Murder.

Boston, Dec. 15.—The body of Lottie Cohen was found in a hall of her house at the south end, Tuesday morning, with a deep cut in the throat, which severed the jugular vein. Solomon Cohen, husband of the woman, is under arrest pending an investigation. Cohen maintains that his wife committed suicide.

The deed was done in Mr. Cohen's apartment, and a trail of blood led from that place to the spot where the body lay. Cohen had cuts on his hands which, he said, were sustained in trying to take away the knife which his wife used. Cohen is fifty-five years old. Mrs. Cohen was twenty-nine.

Tried to Kill the Keeper.

Freehold, N. J., Dec. 15.—William B. Bullock, colored, who on November 12 murdered ex-Chief of Police James T. Walsh in Red Bank, Thursday afternoon while exercising in a corridor of the Monmouth County Jail here struck one of the keepers with an iron bar several times. It was evidently done in a hope of escaping. The keeper, with assistance and after a hard struggle, overpowered Bullock. The negro is powerfully built and is more than a match for one man. The jail authorities are investigating to ascertain how Bullock got the iron bar.

Baltimore Irishmen to Unite.

Baltimore, Dec. 15.—A meeting of delegates from the local Irish societies is to be held in a few days, looking to the formation of a central organization, to be composed of representatives from each independent body.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

New York, Dec. 15.—The stock market was exceedingly unsettled to-day and trading was feverish. Violent changes were shown in both directions, gains being rapidly wiped out and on the other hand declines swiftly recovering. It is believed that the bear movement is over.

Cash prices for staples:
Wheat, No. 2 red, .74¼.
Corn, No. 2 mixed, .40⅝.
Oats, No. 2 mixed, .29½.
Flour, Minnesota patents, $3.90.
Cotton, middling, 7 11-16.
Coffee, No. 7 Rio, .06⅞.
Sugar, granulated, 5.18.
Beef, family, 12.75.
Beef, hams, 22.75.
Tallow, prime, .04⅞.
Pork, mess, 10.00.
Hogs, dressed, 160 lb., .05⅝.
Lard, prime, 5.77½.
Iron, Northern No. 1 foundry, 23.00.
Butter, Western creamery, .27.

Roper May Name Associates.

Newark, N. J., Dec. 15.—Osmer W. Roper, the alleged swindler who has fallen into the clutches of the law, was brought from the jail late Thursday afternoon to assist the authorities at work on the books and letters of his several concerns. Since his arrest letters containing several hundred dollars in amounts ranging from $7 upward have been received at the post office and held. They will be returned to the senders. It is rumored Roper may tell on some of the men who had worked with him.

Threaten to Dynamite the Town.

Paris, Ky., Dec. 15.—Threatening anonymous letters have been received by Judge Purnell and County Attorney Dundon. In them the writers state: "Now, you have hanged Clarence Williams, and if you don't hang Forrest Lang we will burn down the courthouse and dynamite the town!" The officials attach no importance to the communications, and regard them as a hoax.

Boy Didn't Know It Was Loaded.

Newark, N. J., Dec. 15.—Joseph Kearney, 15 years old, of No. 162 Ferry street, has been held in $500 bail on a charge of shooting John Smith, a boy companion, with a revolver. Kearney claims the shooting was purely accidental, as he did not know the revolver was loaded. Smith carried the bullet in his head three days.

No Convention For Reformers.

Baltimore, Dec. 15.—The Union Reform party has decided not to hold a national convention next year for the purpose of naming candidates for president and vice-president. Candidates will be nominated by a direct vote of party members. The votes are to be sent to Baltimore by mail, where they are to be counted.

Gavel For Gen. Henderson.

Pipestone, Minn., Dec. 15.—A pretty pipestone gavel has been sent to Congressman McCleary to be presented to Speaker Henderson. The head is a solid piece of pipestone and the handle is decorated with gold. It bears the initial letters "D. B. H." in solid gold.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

105 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week $5 a year—in advance.

No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada

Delivered by carrier or by mail.

The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district

Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., DEC 15, 1899

COMING EVENTS.

Dec. 15—Bible conference at First Presbyterian church.

Dec. 16—Social for leaders in Boys' Department of the Y. M. C. A.

Dec. 17—Adjutant Emily C. March will speak at the men's rally at the Y. M. C. A. at 4:15 p. m.

Dec. 18—Literary Society of the Y. M. C. A.

Dec. 18—Uni n Bible class taught by Rev. D. M. Stearns at Y. M. C. A. Hall.

Taffy for Senator Kean.

The Trenton correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, in discussing the Vice-presidential nomination by the Republican National Convention next year, gives this choice bit of information to the Inquirer readers:

"John Kean, the junior United States Senator, is the choice of a large number of the staltwarts, who express the belief that because of his immense business connections in New York and other States, he would be a tower of strength outside of his own State, as well as within its borders. It is said by Mr. Kean's close friends, however, that he prefers his seat in the Senate to the Vice Presidency."

The Newark Advertiser adds the comment that "Senator Kean's close friends are the best interpreters of his common sense if not of his personal ambitions. They doubtless also know how much of a 'tower of strength' he would be within and without the State as a Vice Presidential candidate, and they likewise know that there is no sane Republican in New Jersey who believes a single word of what this absurd Trenton correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer is talking about."

It is gratifying to know that there is now some appreciation of the value of the Riparian lands owned by the State. The annual report of the Riparian Commissioners, presented to the Governor this week, contains some interesting facts as showing the resources of the State in this direction. In the years that have passed rights of inestimable value have been given away for the asking, but notwithstanding it is estimated that the value of the riparian lands still owned and controlled by the State is $20,000,000. It is pointed out, however, that a large portion of these are located in waters where there is likely to be but little demand for them for years to come. The fact that there is little demand for some of these rights at the present time affords a persuasive argument for schemers to get control of them for considerations that are far too small, but if private individuals or corporations can afford to wait for increased values, the State can, too. The Riparian Commissioners show a proper conception of duty to the State in recommending that a law be enacted that will prevent the issuing of absolute grants of the water rights of the State.

Pepresentative Daly proposes to introduce in the House of Representatives an anti trust measure, which will provide that upon the application of ten or more citizens to a State or Federal court to the effect that a certain institution is a trust such court shall be empowered to make an order compelling the trust to answer, and if it be shown that the institution is a trust and protected by the tariff the Judge before whom the case is heard can certify the same to the President of the United States, who shall issue a proclamation making such protected industry come under the free tariff law. Mr. Daly is naturally not oversanguine of the passage of the proposed measure.

For a new member in the highest Legislative body in this country, Senator Kean fared very well in the committee appointments made yesterday. The Sage of Ursino is chairman of the select committee on national banks and a member of the committees of audit and control of the contingent expenses of the Senate, interstate commerce, geological survey, public lands and claims.

Washington gossip is to the effect that perhaps the strong testimonials on behalf of Representative Fowler for the banking and currency chairmanship will secure for him membership of the new committee on insular affairs. He would prefer the latter to his old place, as it would deal largely with financial and economic matters in the newly acquired islands.

The city of Manchester, Eng., made a net profit last year of $140,725 on her municipal electric lighting plant. Is there anything in the business line that an England city can do that an American city cannot? Centainly not. Municipal ownership of public utilities—especially gas, electric light and water—should come in the future.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

City Judge Runyon, of Plainfield has issued an order to the police of that city to arrest precocious youngsters who loiter about the streets after 9 o'clock. Such an order would be beneficial to the younger population of Somerville. Small boys have no business to be on the streets at night It is there where they become proficient in all the vices.—Somerville Unionist-Gazette.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

With the near approach of the holidays comes the busy season for the expressman and postal clerks. Already there's a noticeable increase in the number of express packages being sent out and received at the office of the United States Express Company in this city. Next week the Express Company will increase the force and extra wagons and clerks will be pressed into service. At the stamp window and in the money order department at the post office there is already a noticeably busy appearance. But next week the rush will be in full force and the man at the stamp window will have his hands full in weighing packages and handing out stamps to be placed upon mysterious bundles containing gifts to loved ones and dear friends out of the city. To avoid delay, readers of The Press should mail or express their packages as early as possible if they wish them to reach their destination by Christmas.

* * * * *

It is told of the late John I. Blair that at one time he purchased $50,000 worth of township bonds from the agent of some real estate boomers in a western State, and, interest on the bonds having some time afterward been defaulted, he brought suit and recovered judgment. The levy on the property not proceeding satisfactorily, he made a trip west to look into the matter for himself. Upon his arrival he found that all the houses in the township had been moved across the section line. "Well, well," he is said to have remarked as he gazed upon the 640 acres of naked land which was all that was left, "I must tell Gould and the rest of the boys about this. Lord, how they will laugh at me!"

THE PEOPLES' FORUM.

Brutality of the British.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—The brutality and butchery practiced by the British in their war upon the Dutch in South Africa, should call forth the denunciation of every true American. The statements in even the censored dispatches refer to the fight at Elandsaagte, as being "most excellent pig sticking, a rare bit of sport." And yet we hear the cheap twaddle of the administration warships preparing for an American English alliance. Let New Jerseymen without regard to party write their representatives at Washington to favor resolutions condemning this brutality. J. E Martine.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box 25c.

—One week from Monday the Borough Board of Education will meet in regular session.

—For solid, good winter shoes and rubbers at popular prices, go to Flynn Brothers, 222 West Front street, near Music Hall. A full line for holiday trade.

—Quiet work is being done on the proposed widening plan for Somerset street, and it is not believed that any great obstacles will be met when the time to do the work arrives.

GRAIN-O! GRAIN-O!

Remember that name when you want a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it. Grain-O is made of pure grain, it aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder and the children as well as the adults can drink it with great benefit. Costs about ¼ as much as coffee. 15c. and 25c. per package. Ask your grocer for Grain-O.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it: no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,
122 East Front Street.

Important ANNOUNCEMENT

Taking advantage of the importers' closing-out sales we have recently consummated an extensive purchase of holiday goods at ridiculously low prices. By closing out entire lots we secured unheard of values. Goods are now here and on Sale. Purchase was very comprehensive and includes 24-karat gold-plated Clocks, burnished frame plate glass Swinging Mirrors, Comb and Brush Sets, Toilet Articles, Manicure Sets, Photo Frames, French Vases, and many other choice Holiday Novelties. In the lot are 21 doz. only Tinted Medallions—a regular 75c number. They will be sold at 48c each while they last. A more magnificent collection of Toys, Books, and Holiday Goods in general has never been offered the people of this community. Do not fail to visit us.

. . . A Word of Warning . . .

Judging from present indications we are to have an unprecedented crush this year. We are only too anxious to wait upon people promptly and satisfactorily, but our resources are already taxed and we are a little concerned for the coming week. We counsel you to buy now while you can shop with comparative comfort. DO NOT DELAY. . . .

This Week Store will be Open till 9 p. m.

NO STAMP BOOKS will be redeemed at any time next week. We are too busy and must ask your indulgence to this extent. Trading Stamps with all Cash purchases.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,

234, 236, 238, 246 W. Front Street.

PECK'S CORNER.

LIKE A PROCESSION

Someone must lead. We are not the "whole thing," but are right up in front.

HOLIDAY GOODS -:- AT PECK'S

Merry Christmas. Happy New Year.

To those who contemplate making

Christmas Presents

I advise you to call and see the

Handsome Building Lots At Woodland Park, Plainfield.

Suited for a king or prince. Or some of our one or two acre Plots for Raising Poultry, &c. You can buy these properties at Low Prices, monthly payments guaranteed title. These properties will double in value in two or three years. Other investments to suit all.

SILAS D. DRAKE,

175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

SPECIAL HOLIDAY SALE

—AT—

S. SCHEUER & CO.'S

THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY.

Finest S. C. Hams, lb	10c
Finest XXXX Minn. Patent Flour, bbl	4.38
Extra Fine Lard, lb	6c
New Citron, Orange or Lemon Peel, lb	11c
Fine California Prunes, lb	5c
Libby McNill's Plum Pudding, 1 lb cans	10c
Richardson Robbins' Plum Pudding, 1 lb cans	18c
Fresh Jersey Pork Sausage, 3 lbs for	25c
Prime Leg Mutton, lb	10c
Prime Leg Spring Lamb, lb	12c

New Brazil nuts, lb	8c	Fresh eggs, doz	19c
New mixed nuts, 2 lbs	25c	New head rice, lb	5c
New dates, 1 lb pkge	6c	Best N.O. molasses, gal	29c
New figs, 1 lb pkge	13c	Best vanilla syrup, gal	29c
New raisins, lb	8c	Best laundry starch, 2 lbs	7c
New seeded raisins, pkg	8c	Good soap, 16 cakes	15c
Holiday mince meat, 5 lb pails,	39c	Fine sweet corn, can	7c
Home-made fruit cake lb	12c	3 lb can tomatoes, can	7c
American mixed candy lb	10c	Scheuer's sugar peas, can	10c
Fine Malaga grapes, lb	15c	Canned peas or lima beans	6c
Honey spice drops, lb	10c	Fancy red onions, bas	35c
¼ lb box shredded cocoanut	5c	Best Rose potatoes, basket	32c

FREE! 3 lbs Granulated Sugar with 1 lb of our 50c Premium Teas FREE!

Fresh pork shoulders per lb	8c	Best round steak, lb	16c
Shoulders spring lamb per lb	8c	Fresh tripe, lb	6c
Fresh killed Jersey turkeys, per lb	16c up	Lean salt pork, lb	7½c
		Breakfast bacon, lb	10c
		Chuck steak, lb	10c

We are now receiving orders for Our Christmas Turkeys. We guarantee all first-class stock at lowest market prices.

S. SCHEUER & CO.,

239-241 West Front Street.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use

REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT.

Made only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,

At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, Dec. 15.—This evening at the Seventh Day Baptist church, Rev. Geo. Bly, of New York will deliver a short sermon in verse. Sabbath morning the pastor will speak on the "New Birth as Related to the Lord's Supper," followed by communion service. Sunday evening there will be a special service with a sermon by the pastor on "Why I Am a Seventh-Day Baptist."

The boys of the borough made life miserable for Mr. and Mrs George Richardson, who were married Wednesday afternoon. They not only gave the bride and groom a genuine horning, but acted in a disorderly manner about the residence of the bride's parents.

The Sunday-schools of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches are preparing for a Christmas festival to be held Friday before Christmas.

The children of St. John's R. C. church will be entertained by a Christmas tree on Christmas Day. Presents will be distributed.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Seventh Day Baptist church will meet next Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Alvin H. Burdick.

Rev. and Mrs. A. I. Martine have been entertaining their nieces the Misses Edith and Daisy Burger, of New York State.

Miss Janie Churchill has been entertaining Miss Ada O'Donnell, of Cincinnatti, and Miss Lillie Williams, of Westfield.

The relatives of the late Charles H. Adams wish to thank all who assisted them during the illness of Mr. Adams.

Lewis Thomas, a son of Mrs. Nancy Thomas, has secured a situation as reporter on the Morristown Chronicle.

Daniel Richardson, of the Syracuse University, is visiting his parents and will remain until after the holidays.

Mr and Mrs. John Hunt have returned from visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Scully, at Somerville.

The Senate has confirmed the appointment of Adam Dealaman as postmaster at this place.

The meat market of W. H. Carman has been closed and is for sale by Adam Dealaman.

William Van Middlesworth, a former resident of the borough, has been calling upon friends.

The G. E Club met with Miss Emma Nelson last evening and passed a pleasant time.

Sandford Staples, who has been confined to his house with the grippe, is convalescing.

Mrs. Josephine Dunham has been visiting her brother, Alex Hunt, of Westfield.

Mrs. William E. Terry has been visiting relatives for a few days in Newark.

Mrs. A. N Randolph and Mrs. J. B. Sprowl have been visiting in Somerville.

Miss Jennie Dinneen is recovering an attack of diphtheria.

The pay car on the Central Railrod is expected today.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 15.—The house committee of the public library gave a very successful afternoon tea in the library rooms yesterday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock The rooms were very prettily decorated with palms and cut flowers. After the tea the ladies were entertained by an interesting talk by Mrs. Charles Sykes upon her recent tour through Europe. The pouring of the tea was attended by the committee in charge and the little affair which was thoroughly enjoyed by all will be the means of enriching the treasury of the association by a neat little sum.

The young ladies of the Borough have arranged to hold a cake sale at the residence of Mrs. Urner tomorrow afternoon from 2 to 5. Proceeds will be for the benefit of Muhlenberg Hospital and the ladies are looking forward to a very successful sale.

Rev. G. M. Shott addressed a Flemington audience last evening, speaking in the Baptist church of that place. Mr Shott's address was along the line of temperance and was enjoyed by a large audience.

The Literary Club of the Epworth League held an interesting reading and study in the class rooms of the church last evening.

Charles Layton and family of Washington Valley have taken possession of Ernest Clark's cottage on Frazee avenue.

Mrs. Thomas M. Paff, Jr., has returned from a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs T. A. Gere, of Brooklyn.

Goodwill Lodge, K of P, held an important meeting in their rooms last evening.

Mrs. Maria Noble is visiting her son, Morton C. Noble, in Newark.

Bon Ami

Will not Scratch

AND WILL DO ALL THE WORK A SAND SOAP OR SCOURING SOAP IS MADE TO DO. TRY IT.

MAIL FOR LOUISIANA SUGAR PLANTERS.

The report of the first assistant postmaster general contains some interesting information concerning the rural mail delivery system, which has grown to such great proportions within recent years. Difficulties that were deemed almost insurmountable at the beginning have been overcome, and now mail matter is delivered to farmers and others whose homes or business is twenty or more miles from an established postoffice. The system is in every way satisfactory and many of the rural routes are now paying for themselves in increased business. The illustration shows a rural delivery in the sugar plantation district of Louisiana.

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS THAT PLAINFIELDERS MAY WITNESS.

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World

Without doubt the strongest repertoire ever offered by a popular priced organization, will be presented at Music Hall during the coming Christmas week, when the "Burrill Comedy Company" open their engagement. During the week, Howard P. Taylor's beautiful drama, "Infatuation" will be presented, with Miss Laura Hulbert in the leading role, and a number of high class scenic productions will be seen, including Wm. Calders great melo-drama, "Saved From the Sea," "The Ensign," a nautical drama by Wm. Haworth, an author of national reputation. "A Flag of Truce" another successful drama by the same author, will receive its first presentation in this city. The usual daily matinees will be given, commencing Tuesday, in addition to the Holiday matinee Christmas Day.

* * * * *

Ben-Hur is drawing immense audiences to the Broadway theatre in New York, it receipts breaking all records ever made on Broadway at regular prices. To accomodate people who contemplate a visit to New York during the season to see Ben-Hur and who desire to secure seats advance, reservations will be made for any performance from this writing up to March 1st on orders sent by mail accompanied by remittance.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—William Jennings, of this city, has taken a position on the trolley cars as conductor.

—VanArsdale is making a special drive for the holiday trade in his line. See his advertisement.

—Gavett's line is attractive now and he adds daily many tasty, rich goods. His line of vases is especially good.

—There are two or three slight cases of contagious diseases in the borough, and the Board of Health will soon be able to report a clear bill.

—Great price reductions on men's and boys' overcoats and suits are offered by the New York Clothing Company, 214 West Front street.

—A good cup of coffee is made by using Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk. Debie's Creamery, 111 Somerset street. Telephone 1113. Whiped cream to order.

—A car load of Xmas trees, all sizes, are offered at reasonable prices by Mrs. L. J. Denton, of West Front street, opposite the First M. E. church. Telephone 721. Order early.

—Street Commissioner Gavett has been busily engaged in getting the streets and gutters about the city in shape for winter, and if a severe storm should now come the city is prepared for it.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve

Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 25c at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Miss Mocraft, formerly of New York, has moved to this city.

Miss Lillian Clicknor, of Manasquan, is visiting relatives in this city.

Mrs. Fred Haberle, of West Front street, has entirely recovered from a recent illness.

L. C. Hurtt, of Manasquan, who has been visiting relatives in this city, has returned.

Mrs. Fisher, of West Second street, has recovered from the effects of a recent accident.

Rev. Ernest Crane, of Crozier Seminary, is expected home in a few days to spend the holidays.

David E Titsworth, of West Seventh street, has returned from a business trip to Ottowa, Canada.

Frank Rice, of the borough, who has been at the hospital for an operation, was discharged cured yesterday.

Miss Minnie Hansen, of Lincoln place, has accepted a position with Boehm, the dry goods merchant, during the holidays.

David Dreier, of New York, has taken up his residence with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dreier, of West Front street.

Irving Clark, son of E. B. Clark, of Crescent avenue, has returned from Princeton University to his home for the Christmas vacation.

Grace Vail, of Elmwood place, is gradually recovering the use of her legs, which were helpless for a long time owing to a peculiar affection.

Rev. Mr. Shaffer, pastor of the German Lutheran church, is expected to return home tomorrow from Liverpool, N. Y., where he has been visiting.

Frank O. Bristol, of East Fifth street, who has been very ill with the mumps, has about recovered. He was able to go out yesterday for the first.

William Kitchen, of Taunton, Mass., who was called to this city on account of the sudden death of his mother, has returned to his place of business.

Craig A. Marsh and F. W. Runyon, of this city, were present last evening at the dinner of the New York Alumni of Union College, given at Hotel Savoy.

Edward H. Holmes, of East Front street, is today attending the reunion of his regiment, the Fifty first Massachusetts, which is being held at Worcester, Mass.

Charles E. Vail and family, of Orchard place, were among the guests present at the marriage of Miss Grace Vail and George Richardson, at Dunellen, Wednesday.

—J. C. Storm, butcher of 318 Liberty street, has some interesting reading to housekeepers in his advertisement today.

—The usual Christmas celebration will be held this year at the German Lutheran church under the auspices of the Sunday-school.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store.

AT RANDOLPH'S,

See our Window Display.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS.

Great values in choice Perfumes. Never before this opportunity. Bottle goods from 10c to $4 50.

Hair Brushes, Military Hair Brushes, prices just ½ their reg. value. House Thermometers, large assortment. Sachet Powders in bulk, 40 cents per ounce and in packages. 10c, 15c, 35c.

Lowney's Celebrated Candies, 60 cents per pound.

Whitman's Chocolates, 40 and 80c per pound.

PLACE ORDERS EARLY.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for Lowney's Chocolate and Chocolate Bon-bons. TELEPHONE CALL 16

"PAY CASH AND SAVE MONEY" AT

V. L. FRAZEE'S,

THE PEOPLE'S CASH GROCER

151 West Front Street.

SPECIAL HOLIDAY SALE,

Commencing Friday, December 15, 1899, to January 1, 1900,

Best Elgin Creamery Butter	27c lb
Good Creamery Butter	23c lb
Best Full Cream Cheese	14c lb
Best Lard	6c lb
Fresh Jersey Eggs, guaranteed	22c doz
Best Fine Granulated Sugar	5c lb
Best Early Rose Potatoes	30c basket
Best New Citron	12c lb
Best Lemon and Orange Peel	12c lb
Best Extra Fancy Seeded Raisins,	10c pkge
Best New Cleaned Currants, 1 lb package	8c
Best New Dates	7c lb, 4 lbs for 25c
Best New Figs	12c lb
Extra Fancy Layer Raisins, for table	15c lb
Best New Brazil Nuts	8c lb
Best New Pecan Nuts	12c lb
Best New Paper Shell Almonds	22c lb
Best New Mixed Nuts	12c lb
Best New English Walnuts	15c lb
None Such Mince Meat	9c package
5 lb pail Assorted Jelly	15c pail
Best Vermont Maple Syrup	2 qt bottle 25c
Best Sugar Cured California Hams	7½c lb
Best Home-made Mince Meat,	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Best Mixed Candy,	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Loose Muscatel Raisins	8c lb
Best New Evaporated Cal. Peaches	10c lb
Fine California Prunes	5c lb
Fine Large California Prunes	7c lb, 4 lbs for 25c
Best Extra Fancy California Prunes	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Best Cape Cod Cranberries	7c quart
Paris Sugar Corn	9c can, 3 cans for 25c
Best New York State Sugar Corn	7c can
Early June Peas, Rose Bud brand,	7c can, 4 cans for 25c
Fine Small Early June Peas	10c can
3 lb Package Prepared Buckwheat	10c
Best Tomatoes, Solid Packed	7c can
Fresh Roasted Coffee, bean or ground	12c lb
Best Mocha and Java Coffee	25c lb
3 lb can Best Bartlett Pears	10c
Best Vanilla and Lemon Extract	10c bottles for 7c
Best New Orleans Molasses	30c gallon
Best Vanilla Drip Sugar Syrup	30c gallon
Best XXXX Minnesota Patent Flour	55c bag
Best Lemon Cakes and Ginger Snaps	4c lb
Uneeda Biscuit	4c package
Best Old Vinegar	10c gallon
Hunterdon County Sweet Cider, best,	15c gal

Wieda's

FOR CHRISTMAS CANDIES,

Candy Toys, Dutch Baskets, Candy Canes and Pipes at any price from 1 cent to $1 00. Special mixed candy at 10, 15, 20, 30, 40 and 60c per lb. Every piece is strictly pure and fresh. We serve Ice Cream and Soda Water all the year round.

144 WEST FRONT STREET.

7000 BU. of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last. Order Quick.

Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

THE BOOT SHOP

AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,

107 Park Avenue.

EXECUTOR'S SALE

OF VALUABLE

PERSONAL PROPERTY.

The undersigned, executor of D. M. Walter, deceased, will sell at public vendue at 12 m., sharp, on THURSDAY,

DECEMBER 21, 1899.

On farm formerly owned by D. M. Walter, on the road leading from Plainfield to Rahway, near Hillside Golf Grounds.

All the personal property of which. D. M. Walter, died, seized, consisting of beds, bedding, carpets, stoves, chairs, tables, mirrors, cutlery, crockery, etc. Also farming implements and machinery.

HOUSEHOLD and KITCHEN FURNITURE.

.....ONE BLACK HORSE.....

Lot of Poultry.

Sleigh, 1-horse plough, cultivator, harness, sled, spring wagon, hay rigging, rake, fanning mill, hay cutter, 2-seated carriage, plows, 1-horse carriage, buggy. Also 50 bushels old corn, hay, 30 gallons vinegar, and various other articles too numerous to mention.

TERMS made known on day of sale.

12 6 td W. R. CODINGTON, Executor.

—Use Press want ads.

THE

CROSBY & HILL

UNITED STORES.

Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J
Perth Amboy, N. J.

More than ordinary interest attaches to our Saturday program in this store. In family furnishings of every sort there is an even better than usual array, reinforced by a mammoth collection of toys, games, books and amusement helps of every description for the children. The people of more mature years can find an excellent collection of holiday gifts suitable to all needs and classes.

A few hints will serve to represent an enormous stock of gift merchandise.

Sterling silver novelties of every description 25 50c up to $5 00 a piece. Solid brass novelties in a very extensive assortment of candelebra mirrors, frames, ink stands, etc., 25c to $3.75 a piece.

Toilet cases, manicure sets, etc., in a very exclusive assortment.

Albums in a great variety of styles at very moderate prices.

Handkerchiefs

There is nothing missing here in the handkerchief department that is necessary to a complete stock. Three special numbers taken at random represent hundreds of kinds.

25c the box. Children's hemstitched handkerchiefs, narrow colored borders, with colored embroidered initial; three handkerchiefs in a box.

13c An extraordinary fine quality women's swiss handkerchiefs, embroidered in dainty patterns and worth 19c.

25c Women's all-fine linen handkerchiefs, handsomely embroidered, very fine sheer quality.

Gloves

It's not mere luck that makes our celebrated P. & P. gloves last—it's the downright goodness of the stock. Every pair we sell is fully guaranteed.

$1.00 Gloves that fit perfectly, wear well and look well; all the correct colors; 2 clasp and 4 button fastenings.

$1.19 Our genuine Mocha gloves for women have no superior; fit perfectly; dressy and comfortable; all the leading colors; 2 clasp fastening.

$1.25 Our real kid gloves never fail to give satisfaction in every particular. The kid is of a soft quality and the fit is absolutely certain

$1.50 Silk-lined reindeer skin gloves for women in all the shades of gray, tan and modes.

Men's Gloves

$1.00 Men's English walking gloves, pique stitching; a very dressy and serviceable glove.

$1.50 Men's Mocha gloves in all the correct shades of tan and gray.

$2.00 Men's silk lined reindeer skin gloves, gray and tan shades.

$4.50 & 5.00 Mens' eiderdown bath robes in very choice new patterns that are of exceptional value.

$1.00 Men's flannelette pajamas in exceptionally handsome patterns and fine heavy weight cloth.

50c Men's light colored outing flannel night shirts, full liberal sizes and well made.

$17.50 Demorest sewing machines.

$19.50 Demorest drop head sewing machines.

$10.00 Demorest hand machines. Every machine is guaranteed for 10 years by the manufacturer. All extra parts supplied.

HATS Trimmed FREE OF CHARGE.

Bonn's 140 WEST FRONT ST.

HATS Trimmed FREE OF CHARGE.

FELT HAT SHAPES, 49c, 69c and 98c.

Of French Felt, black and colors in all desirable shapes; also at low prices, fancy wings, birds, feathers and ornaments.

BEADED BELTS, 31c, 49c and 63c.

With pretty jetted buckles, others up to $1.98, in steel, white, steel and black, and all black

Pretty Silk Shirt Waists, $3 79 and $4.98.
French Grey Flannel Waists, $1 89.
Black Tucked Satine Waists, $1.19.

1.50 Trimmed Hats at 1.98, 2.98, 3.98

SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY, DECEMBER 16.

At Fred. H. Firstbrook's Liberty Street Grocery

Best Elgin Butter, per lb	28c	H. O. Pancake Flour, per p'kge	10c
Best Leaf Lard, per lb	8c	Hecker's Flapjack, per package	10c
Pillsbury's Best Flour, per bag	60c	Maple Syrup, per bottle	10c
Ceresota Flour, per bag	58c	Best N. O. Molasses, per gal	33c
White Swan Flour, per bag	50c	Best Table Syrup, per gal	33c
Fancy Potatoes, extra, per bas	30c	3 lb can Fine Jelly, per can	11c
Large Red Onions, per bas	35c	Fancy Corn, Tomatoes and Peas 3 cans	23c
Fancy Cal. Prunes, 3 lbs for	25c	Good Coffee, per lb	15c
Good Cal. Prunes, 4 lbs for	25c	Good Tea, any kind, per lb	39c
Fancy Evap. Peaches, 2 lbs for	25c	Best Mixed Nuts, 2 lbs for	25c
Fresh Soda and Lemon crack'rs lb	5c	3 lb can Pears, Plums and Gage	10c
Fresh Nic-Nacs and Ging snaps lb	5c
Best Buckwheat, per package	10c

Have you tried our "OLD PLANTATION" COFFEE at 27c per lb? It's a dandy. Our Unexcelled Teas at 50c per lb are still on top and are receiving lots of praise from the consumers.

Every article advertised in above ad is guaranteed to be first class and when not satisfactory we would like to know it. We would rather lose your trade than your confidence.

FRED H. FIRSTBROOK, 312 Liberty Street.

SATURDAY, DEC. 16th, WILL BE DOLLS' DAY.

VICI KID

Every girl who comes with a parent and brings a doll to the store shall have a pair of real Vici Kid slippers for the doll FREE.

You know some dolls' tracks would frighten a bear hunter, but never mind how odd the feet are or how large, bring dolly along; we've a lot of sizes all ready, but if necessary we'll measure the feet and make special slippers to fit them. A lot of trouble and a lot of cost for us, say you? Yes, both trouble and cost, but we shall get it back again from the VICI KID shoe sales we shall make during the next year. Genuine Vici Kid bought from Mr. Robert H. Foerderer.

DOANE & EDSALL.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Preußen.

Provinz Brandenburg.

Berlin. Kontre-Admiral Tirpitz, Staatssekretär des Reichs-Marine-Amts, ist zum Vize-Admiral befördert worden.—Die Wittwe des berühmten Physikers v. Helmholtz ist hier gestorben.—An einem der letzten feuchtkalten Tage verzeichnete die hiesige Lokalchronik nicht weniger als zehn Selbstmorde.—Das hiesige Landgericht verhandelte dieser Tage zum zweiten Male in Sachen der Ella Goltz gegen die Reichsbank, welch' letztere als durch die Grünthal'schen Verbrechen geschädigt Ansprüche auf die bei Ella Goltz, der Geliebten des berüchtigten Oberfaktors, gefundenen Werthpapiere im Betrage von 80,000 Mark erhoben hatte. Die Verhandlung ergab, daß die Reichsbank verurtheilt wurde, anzuerkennen, daß die streitigen Papiere Eigenthum der Klägerin seien.

Frankfurt. Zu Ehren des kürzlich in den Ruhestand getretenen Schuldirektors Professor Dr. Laubert fand hier ein Fackelzug mit darauffolgendem Festkommers statt.

Lübbenau. Bei einem im Mehnert'schen Gasthof in Bischdorf ausgebrochenen Brand hat der Besitzer den Tod in den Flammen gefunden.

Züllichau. Recht unglücklich verlief kürzlich eine Treibjagd auf Kalziger Revier. Es sind von den Schützen mehrere Treiber angeschossen worden; zwei sind schwer verletzt; einer mußte nach der königlichen Augenklinik in Berlin geschafft werden, wo er, nach einer Operation, auf beiden Augen erblindet ist.

Provinz Hannover.

Geestemünde. Das deutsche Schiff „Hoffnung" ist in der Wesermündung untergegangen. Die Mannschaft wurde durch den Fischdampfer „Union" gerettet.

Hildesheim. Das Projekt einer elektrischen Straßenbahn von hier über Gronau nach Alfeld hat Aussicht auf baldige Verwirklichung. Die neue Linie, die auch für den Güterverkehr eingerichtet werden soll, wird, da sie fruchtbare ländliche Bezirke in direkte Verbindung mit Hildesheim bringt, von großer Bedeutung für die wirthschaftliche Entwickelung sein.

Provinz Hessen-Nassau.

Kassel. Die Stadtverordneten haben dem Antrag des Oberbürgermeisters Westerburg auf Versetzung in den Ruhestand zugestimmt. Herr Westerburg ist seit nunmehr Jahresfrist an einem Nervenleiden erkrankt. Seine siebenjährige Amtszeit bedeutet für Kassel einen gewaltigen Fortschritt. Die Reform des städtischen Finanz- und Feuerlöschwesens, die Schaffung des Elektrizitätswerkes und der Straßenbahn, die Eingemeindung von Wehlheiden, Hebung der Fuldaschifffahrt sind seine Werke.

Hochheim. Das bekannte Bolongaro'sche Weingut ist um den Betrag von 103,000 Mark in den Besitz von Dr. Wallenstein-Kastel und Schneider-Biebrich übergegangen.

Marburg. In der Universitäts-Klinik starb nach kurzer Krankheit Pfarrer Wegener, der lange Jahre hindurch Pfarrer des Kadettenhauses Bensberg gewesen.

Provinz Pommern.

Stettin. Architekt Trost, welcher an einer aus Fachwerk bestehenden Giebelwand eine Feuerungsanlage hatte anbringen lassen, wurde, nachdem in Folge dessen ein Brand entstanden, wegen fahrlässiger Brandstiftung zu 50 Mark Geldstrafe verurtheilt.

Stolp. Die Errichtung einer Handelskammer für den Regierungsbezirk Köslin mit dem Sitz in Stolp ist nunmehr beschlossene Sache. Die Sitzungen werden abwechselnd hier und in Köslin stattfinden.

Provinz Posen.

Posen. Der Regierungsboykott gegen die „Posener Zeitung" ist aufgehoben worden. Das gemaßregelte Blatt erhält die amtlichen Anzeigen wieder. Die amtlichen Druckaufträge waren bereits vergeben worden.

Bromberg. Hier hat ein Lieutenant von Unruh seine Entlassung aus der preußischen Armee genommen und ist nach dem Transvaal aufgebrochen, um sich in den Dienst der Sache der Buren zu stellen.

Rawitsch. Dem Propst Dulinski ist die Militärseelsorge und der Religionsunterricht in den Volksschulen entzogen worden.

Provinz Ostpreußen.

Königsberg. Bei Strauchbucht auf der Frischen Nehrung strandete ein Lachskutter. Im Inneren des Kutters wurde eine Frauenleiche gefunden. Drei Brüder Eichhorst aus Stolpmünde, welche zur Besatzung gehörten, sind muthmaßlich ertrunken.—Beim Sortiren des Bernsteins auf den königlichen Bernsteinbergwerken ist dieser Tage eine fast 1½ Centimeter im Durchmesser haltende Schnecke im Bernstein eingeschlossen gefunden worden. Die Schnecke ist wundervoll erhalten und äußerst klar und schön sichtbar.

E. D. BARRETT,
Sanitary Plumber,
Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Telephone 612. 148 East Fifth Street.

GRAVE AND GAY IN RHYME.

Uncle Sam's Army School.

Since Ben come back from war it's strange
To notice the surprisin' change
In him; his good ol' ma an' me
Are both astonished as kin be!
He used to be a slouchy lad—
Partakin' mebbe, from his dad—
And hadn't the git up an snap
You'd look fur in a rancher chap.

The first day he slapped a nervy fist
An' said he reckoned he'd enlist
It tuk my breath in sich a way
I scurcely knowed just what to say,
I tol' him with a scornful grin
He wasn't built fur soldierin'—
That what they wanted in the ranks
Was men with action in their shanks.

But spite of all he went an' now
That he is back again I swow
Their ain't two prouder folks on earth
Than me an' her who give him birth.
Walks 'round with quick and snappy stride,
Swelled up with military pride,
An' slingin' style 't'd make you think
He was a Gineral, by jink!

When walkin' 'long with me he'll say:
"Now dad, don't slouch in sich a way!
Hol' up yer head! throw out yer chest
Ontil you think 't'll bust yer vest!
Toe out, an' try to git the step!
Now! hayfoot, strawfoot! hep! hep! hep!
Eyes front! Throw back yer shoulders!"
Gee!
The way that kid keeps drillin' me!

He's got a scar where he was hit
At Caloocan, an' says that it
Is Uncle Sammy's brand to show
That he knowed how to face a foe.
An' then the gals! Why, they jest seem
To think he is a four-hoss team!
Same gals that used to say that he
Wa'n't in it at a sparkin' bee!

I've heerd 'em tell o' books an' schools
A makin' scholars out o' fools,
Of di'mon's in the rough that's made
To shine like gems o' finest grade,
But I am keen to bet that there
Ain't nothin' else that kin compare
With Uncle Sam in makin' men,
An' I kin prove that same by Ben.

—Denver Post.

The Day's End.

Boys, I've been out in the clearin'
Choppin' up some second-growth,
And, I swan, it's mighty cheerin'
When the frost is interferin'
With yer seein' and yer hearin'
And yer natchral feelin's, both,
To hear yer sister's voice a'callin:
"Supper, pa; the boys is all in!"

Then I drop my ax and listen,
Makin' out I didn't hear,
For I knew a voice like this'n,
Which fer years I've been a-missin',
And I seem to catch the glisten
Of two girlish eyes—it's queer,
But yer ma lives in yer sister
As she was when I first kissed her.

You remember her as turnin'
Thirty odd, and all wore out;
But them days when we was burnin'
Walnut firewood and earnin'
This old farm jest sets me yearnin'
That the years could turn about
And yer ma would call me to her
From the days when first I knew her.

Seems to me I didn't treat her
With the care I should have took;
Such a faithful wife, and neater
Than a hummin' bird, and sweeter—
God forgive me! if I meet her
There, she'll wear a lovin' look
And forgive me—she'll be callin':
"Come in, pa, the night is fallin'!"

OUR OYSTERS
ARE THE
---FINEST---
ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets
Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill.
Turning and Scroll Sawing.

L. L. Manning & Son,
STEAM
GRANITE WORKS,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats, Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

B. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial
Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

The genuine "Portland Range" has "Portland" on oven door plate —only sold here.
(B)
AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED
Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

CHRISTMAS THINGS
for every part of the home—useful and gladly received. If you're short of ready cash use our generous credit help—no prices equal our's for lowness, no terms are so easy.

CARPETS—get one measured and fitted right away—prices are at the lowest cost. Axminsters, 77c; Brussels, 45c; Cotton Chain Ingrains, 25c; Heavy Ingrains, 37c; All-wool Ingrains, 52c. Or get a Rug or two; what better gift? Moquettes and Ingrains, all sizes.

$8.25
A full swell front, solid oak carved top Chiffonniere, worth $12.00.

$15.75
Comfort—lots of it—in this adjustable head (5 positions), velour-covered Couch—heavy fringe. Value $22.00.

$11.89
Solid Combination Desks, mirror ornament at back. Value $16.00.

$10.98
For a $15.00 Sideboard—bevel edge mirror, lined silver drawer, ample closet room—how's that?

$1.98
Highly polished solid oak, high back, box seat Dining Chair—$2.50 its value.

$4.98
Antique oak Extension Table, 5 legs, well turned, cleverly finished, and worth $7.00 readily.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St., Near Plane St., Newark, N. J.
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS.
Note first name "Amos."
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agent for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on firs mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phœnix, o London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIF INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW,
THE GROCER.
Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.
Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS
Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.
GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.
119 East Front Street.

SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue.
BUTCHERS.
Everything usually found in a first-class market.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83 A.

McCullough's
STEAM MILL.
21 Steiner place, North Plainfie
R. H. McCullough, Prop'r
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished

Elston M. French,
Successor to VanBuren Bros.
Real Estate and Insurance,
Largest agency in the city. Loans negotiated.
163 NORTH AVENUE.
Opposite Depot

H. Eggerding,
121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

L. A. HUMMER,
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.
163 SOMERSET ST.
Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

"ISN'T IT TOO CUTE FOR ANYTHING!"
So runs the chorus of feminine praise over this, that or the other pretty brooch in our fine collection. Husband, father, brother, beau—here's the fit thing! The price-range is $2.50 to $25.00—and there never was better choosing in pretty jewelry. You can make no mistake in picking with your eyes shut—but best come while the selection is complete.
Large Solid Silver Nethersole Bracelets, - - - - 75c
Solid Silver Brush and Comb, - $2.50
In a silk-lined case.
COLLIER, Jeweler,
103 Park Ave.
Established 1869.

STATIONERY and TOYS.
We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles for the Holiday trade.
CHRISTMAS CARDS and CALENDARS.
We make a specialty of FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.
High Grade Cigars.
Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.
B. W. HAND,
205 W. Front Street.

CAMERAS
—AND—
Photographic Supplies.
SPALDING'S
Golf and Sporting Goods
Phonographs and Gramophones.
GEO. W. WRENNICK,
133 North Ave.

LADIES' TAILORING.
RICHARDSON & WALD,
325 West Front Street.
TAILOR-MADE GARMENTS.
We make a specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.
Alterations and relining promptly attended to.
—DRESSMAKING.—
Our Dressmaking Department is in charge of Madame Walsh.

THE "Know How"
—IN—
PAPER HANGING
is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job. That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.
MARSH, AYERS & CO.,
201 PARK AVE., Cor. 2d ST.
Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.
Estimates furnished. Telephone call 635.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street,
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,

CHAS. L. FOROE,
Architect and Superintendent.
208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 21 tf

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store 126 Park avenue. 10 1

BANK ELECTION.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of this bank, for the election of nine Directors to serve for the ensuing year, will be held at the Banking rooms, corner of Park avenue and Front street, on Tuesday, January 9th, 1900, from 1 to 2 o'clock p. m.

WILLIAM F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

Dated Plainfield, N. J., December 7th, 1899.

12-8 9 11 13 15 16 19 22 26 28 30 1-2 4 6 8

Advertised Letters.

Plainfield, N. J., Dec. 11, 1899.

Bernard, Mr Charles
Carter, Mrs Jennie
Clark, Mrs I N
Cort, Mrs John
Emery, Mrs David
Evans, Mable
Herbert Jr, Mr Jas. N
Kenney, Mr Thomas
Newstub, Mrs F
Poach, Miss Rosa
Risberg, Mr N E 2
VanDeventer, Mrs Caroline
Vincent, Mr A G

E. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

MADE OVER GOWNS.

Present Styles Available In an Economical View.

The fashion of skirts of two different materials is establishing itself and is a most convenient one, as it allows of "making over" a gown so that it looks like new. There are several ways of making these skirts. There may be a circular or plaited flounce around the foot, with a tunic falling over it, or there may be a tablier, with a redingote effect, of different goods, or the skirt may be faced up from the foot with different material, the top of the facing forming points or some other decorative design, outlined by passementerie.

An old bodice may be freshened by the addition of a yoke and sleeve caps or may be covered with stitched straps of satin or taffeta. Light silk bodices are often available as a lining under mousseline de soie or lace, while those of bright colored velvet can be cut over into the bolero form and veiled by applications of black or white guipure.

WALKING COSTUME.

An illustration is given of a walking gown of almond green cloth. The skirt is finely embroidered with black and opens at the left side over a panel of guipure over almond green silk. The coat bodice has a short basque and fastens across the waist by a strap and fancy button. The bolero is short and forms sleeve caps also, being embroidered with black and fastened by two large buttons. The plastron is of guipure over almond green silk. The sleeves have corded tucks at the top. The accompanying hat is of green felt and is trimmed with black and white feathers.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

WINTER FASHIONS.

Costly Furs Occupy a Prominent Place.

Fur, which, it was predicted, would be very fashionable this winter, is already proving the truth of the prognostication. Entire costumes are made of it, and there are long redingotes and straight mantles of fur. Fur capes are more worn than ever, but to them are added flounces of lace, mousseline de soie or velvet. Otter, mink and astrakhan are among the most fashionable varieties, with, of course, sable.

As fine furs are so expensive a luxury as to be available only for the very few, ingenious manufacturers have invented several substitutes, among them a heavy silk and wool plush closely imitating the fur of the otter. This is used for long and short jackets, sacks, boleros and mantles. All forms of wraps are employed, no variety being now excluded from favor.

VELVET COSTUME.

The cut shows a gown of purple velvet. The princess tunic is embroidered with silver spangles and bordered with sable and is draped at the left side by a velvet bow and silver buckle, the lower skirt being plain, with a band of fur around the foot. The crossed bodice is embroidered and edged with fur, opening over a plastron of purple velvet. The tight sleeves are embroidered and bordered at the wrists with fur. A directoire hat of purple velvet accompanies the gown. A puffing of pink tulle is placed under the brim, and a scarf of the tulle encircles the crown, forming a large bow under the chin. Pink ostrich plumes form the remainder of the trimming.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

FINED FOR WINNING.

Young Lawyer Was Ignorant of The Ethics of Horse Stealing.

"When I graduated from the law school," said the old lawyer, with a reminiscent smile, "I took Horace Greeley's advice and went West. I located in a little town that then was on the frontier, and waited with the confidence of youth for clients. Before I had fairly opened my office I was retained to defend a man for stealing a horse. This elated me very much, for I was not aware at the time that the case had been refused by all the other lawyers in town, as defending a horse thief was not a thing to be desired if a man valued his life. The case came for trial before an old Judge and a jury composed of bewhiskered ranchers. There was no doubt that the man was guilty, but he had a number of friends who were willing to swear to anything, and I thought it my duty to make the best possible use of them. They were all willing to swear that the defendant was forty miles away from the spot when the horse was stolen, and the prosecution was unable to break down their testimony. I saw that I was going to free my client, so it was with a satisfied air that I saw the jury leaving the room to prepare the verdict. They were back in five minutes, and the old Judge asked them if they had succeeded in arriving at a verdict.

"'We hev,' answered the foreman, as he shifted the gun he carried on his hip. 'We find the defendant not guilty, an' recommend the defendant's lawyer, owin' to his youth and innocence, to the mercy of the Court.'

"While I was gasping for breath the Judge fined me $500 and suspended sentence long enough for me to get out of town. It wasn't law, but I did not stop to argue the matter.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Reminded of it.

1—The Beggar (weeping bitterly)—"Sir, I have a wife at home—"

2—Jones (bursting into tears)—"So-s-so have I."—N. Y. Journal.

Thought He Was at Home.

"I want a marriage license," he said to the clerk brazenly.

His name and her name and both their ages was asked. He gave them to the clerk in a loud, winter-weathered voice and looked around the room to see how much attention he had attracted.

"How much?" he asked.

The price of the bit of paper was given to him.

He took it in his hand. He looked it over. Then he asked, "Where's the coupon?"

"What coupon?" queried the clerk wonderingly.

"The divorce coupon," answered the man.

The clerk gasped. "The idea!" he exclaimed. "Who ever heard of such a thing? Say, Mister, where are you from?"

"Dakota!" And the wind whistled outside.—Detroit Free Press.

Her Explanation.

I drove over the park bridge yesterday afternoon in one of those carry-all 'buses, tucked away in a back seat as neatly as a match in a box. On the front, beside the driver, sat three little brown-eyed girls. Their mother was squeezed in behind, by me. As we approached the Detroit shore a sail boat decided to go on up stream, and the gate was thrown across the bridge, as the draw was swung.

The little girl on the end of the front seat looked at the great mass of steel and wood as it slipped by, open-mouthed; then, turning back, she said to her mother, with tears just coming into her eyes:

"Oh, mamma, see, the bridge is all broke and we'll have to stay here forever."—Detroit Free Press.

Cruel Sarcasm.

"I know the pumpkin pie was rather thin as to filling," said the landlady, almost crying, "but I don't think he had any right to say what he did."

"What did he say?" asked the second table boarder.

"He asked me if I didn't think that the pie crust would be improved if it had another coat of yellow paint."—What-to-Eat.

The Way Out of It.

"They say that Nell Gadleigh has broken her engagement with Harry Hippleton."

"Yes, she says that he was so affectionate that he wearied her."

"Oh! if that was all, why didn't she just marry him and have done with the wearisome part?"—Boston Traveler.

Not the One That Was Out.

"Is the cashier out?" he asked as he looked around.

"No," replied the president, as he glanced up from an examination of the books, "the cashier is not out; it's the bank that is out."—Exchange.

Beyond His Reach.

"Truth," he quoted, is at the bottom of a well."

"And you are no kind of a diver," was the prompt retort.—Chicago Post.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Dec. 17—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic.—Teach us to pray.—Luke ii, 1-13.

The tenth chapter of Luke closes with the story of Mary and "the one thing needful." The eleventh opens with a kindred subject—Christ teaching His disciples to pray, to know how and what to speak to God about when they addressed Him at His throne of grace. Study—

1. Christ's example in prayer. "As He was praying in a certain place" one of His disciples asked Him to teach them to pray. Where or when Christ was praying we do not know. It may have been in the garden of Gethsemane, where we do know that He resorted for prayer. But He was praying. This much we do know. Christ in prayer! If Christ needed to pray, if Christ needed to seek the Father's help and counsel in the discharge of the duties of His life, in the great crisis of His life, how much we need to pray! In face of His example, who can deny the importance of prayer, the necessity of prayer or carelessly neglect to pray?

2. Christ form and model of prayer. "Teach us to pray," said one of the disciples. The answer was the Lord's Prayer as given in the sermon on the mount, though differing slightly from it. Luke's report contains the preface and five petitions, but is essentially the same as the prayer recorded in Matthew. This prayer has been used both as a form and model of prayer. It has been taught to millions and repeated as a form of prayer, and who shall deny the propriety of its use in this way? Whether Christ intended that it should be used in this way we do not know, but millions can testify to the blessings contained in the use of this prayer as a form of prayer. It is conceded to be a model prayer. It has a preface such as should characterize all our prayers. It contains five petitions, two bearing on the cause of God, which properly come first, and three referring to the wants of man. We are thus taught to pray for the hallowing of God's name, the advancement of His kingdom and for temporal and spiritual blessings for ourselves and others.

3. Christ's encouragement to prayer. Christ does not stop with His form and model of prayer, but goes on to encourage the disciples in prayer by pointing out the willingness of God to answer prayer. The first encouragement comes from the willingness of a friend to give to a friend at midnight, because of his importunity, and the second from the willingness of parents to give good gifts unto their children. "If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask Him!"

Christ's willingness to teach His disciples a form and model of prayer shows clearly the importance of care in what we say to God in prayer. One great weakness of our praying is lack of careful preparation and thought. We prepare to address men, but how few prepare to address God! Let us learn to pray. Let us study Christ's model prayer and other Scriptural prayers. Let us sit at the feet of Jesus and learn through Him how and what to pray for as we ought.

Bible Readings.—II Chron. vii, 14; Ps. cxxii, 1-12; Math. vi, 6-15; vii, 7-11; Luke xviii, 1-8; xxi, 36; John xiv, 12-14; xv, 16; Acts iii, 1; xiii, 1-3; Rom. xii, 12; Eph. iii, 14-21; Col. i, 9-12; I Thess. v, 17; Jas. v, 16-20.

The Unity of a Religious Life.

The church to be truly catholic should appeal to the whole of man, should glorify and sanctify his whole being and nature. This is an ideal that will never shut out delight in any creature, but it will never be shut in by that delight, for Christian prayer brings life, love and eternal beauty into the social circle, the book, the garden, the field and the home. All creation has its due place in this city of God. The Christian life is not duplex—part religious and part secular, a Jekyll and Hyde existence, put on and off with Sunday clothes. To the complete Christian there is nothing secular that ought not to be religious. It is when both fuse in concord that our labors and our joys, our loves and our powers, find their true meaning and consecration. "Our interest in each created thing is meant to be a link in a chain by which we reach God."—Churchman.

Be Yourself.

It takes a great deal of courage simply to be yourself, and yet to be yourself is the line of power. We are all the time thinking that if we act and speak or feel as others do we shall be right, but once in awhile, in a moment of illumination, it comes over us that we are not just like any one else and that we have to act and think and feel according to our own nature. The grace of God is not designed to make all Christians alike. It is designed to liberate and purify the personality, not to adjust it to a mold that some good man has set.—Watchman.

Know God's Will.

Man is eternal. Life is eternal. Work is eternal. Therefore we should seek to know God's will for our life, so that it may come into adjustment with eternity. Any work that we should choose for ourself would be but temporary. God's designs are all from the viewpoint of eternity. When we work where Christ tells us to, we take up our part in the scheme of the ages. And why should a man who is to live forever waste himself upon a task that can endure but for a day?—William T. Ellis.

Mission Work at Home.

Within the last five years $197,000,000 has been given by wealthy people of the United States for schools, hospitals, libraries and picture galleries. All this is mission work at home.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic For the Week Beginning Dec. 17, "Teach Us to Pray." Text, Luke xi, 1-13.

"Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you."

This is the law of all getting. It is the rule of spiritual growth. It is deeper than words. It is the whole being, desiring, hoping, eagerly anticipating. Seeking is more than looking. It is not at all like gazing. It is more soulful than watching. It is hunting with eyes open and ears alert and every sense at tension lest the desired thing escape.

It arises from sense of need. It is urgent, insistent and persistent. It can wait, but cannot be diverted. It can be deferred, but cannot be denied. It is reverent, but bold. Ah, this prayerful spirit is the one successful force in life! It holds the secret key of power. It says "Our Father." It knows Him and can look up in His face trustingly and hopefully. All is well, because we know He understands and will do the best for us possible. He dwells in all heavenly glory and beauty. He is the maker of all excellence, and everywhere He bringeth perfection. We adore and worship Him. Sincerely we desire His will in all things in us and around us. May it be visibly seen in all the affairs of men, as it is most truly present in the invisible realms of angelic spirits.

We need sustenance daily. Life depends on the things of earth, and yet our food can be had only as He causes things to grow. We are imperfect and often do the wrong and omit to do the right. We deeply desire forgiveness, for all this is transgression against Him. As we desire pardon, so do we freely and fully forgive all who have in any way wronged us. On all sides are temptations, and the power of evil is great. May we be so directed that we shall not be overcome, but be delivered from all dangers of falling.

A Sturdy Christian.

Such was Elijah Hedding. He belonged to a generation later than that of Asbury and Jesse Lee, but the perils and hardships of early pioneering and foundation laying were not yet past. His was the age also of consolidation, which calls for judgment, tact, steadiness of nerve, clearness of thought. His early life was passed on a farm in Vermont, though he was born in the state of New York. No meeting house was within miles of his home, but an elderly man and his wife, who were Methodists, held a meeting every Sunday in their house, and Hedding at 16 years of age was induced to read one of Wesley's sermons to them each week. In 1799 he was converted and soon began to preach. His early circuits often covered a score of towns and required a hundred miles of horseback riding a week on wilderness roads, swimming streams, sleeping in log huts open to the weather and preaching from once to three times a day. Besides his expenses of travel he received some years less than $5 in money.

BISHOP ELIJAH HEDDING.

He afterward preached in New London and Boston and was presiding elder of extensive districts. He was elected bishop in 1824 and died in 1852. He was a man of eminent piety and prudence.

Failures In Prayer.

A multitude of things are asked for from God which people never get, and then the failure is laid on prayer. Then the question is raised, "Does God always answer prayer?" and great mystery is thrown around the whole operation.

The mystery is not very deep. The failure was in the prayers and not in God. No use to try to carry water in a sieve. There was no bottom to that asking. It was no praying at all, only wishing for things, with no regard to God's conditions of promise. It is useless to try to tease things out of God or impose upon Him. Prayer is not an instrument put in our hands with which to pick from the tree of life any fruit we chance to fancy.

Have you ever learned to pray? Do you care to learn? Some of the lessons are hard to master, but the result is worth all the exertion. Jesus learned the lessons of prayer on mountain tops at night; in the wilderness, fasting and amid wild beasts and tempting spirits, in the thronging crowds of men, in Gethsemane, deserted by all friends; on Calvary between two thieves. His prayers prevailed. If yours fail, it would be well to ask Him to teach you how to pray and then to pray as He teaches you.

How Much?

How much will be left when all of self
Shall be washed from the soul away?
How much will be left when nature's dross
With the gold may no longer stay?

How much will remain and stand the test
When the true from the false shall part,
When the light of God shall clearly shine
And its rays illume each heart?

What we have valued as priceless gems
And have classed with our jewels rare,
When the Lord shall come to claim His own
Will He count with His treasures there?

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 8 59, 7 26, 7 29, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 46, 9 16, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 5., 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 08, 7 39, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12.00 m., 12 58 1 45, 2 40, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 9 34, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 32, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 50 a. m.; 1 01, 2 08, 2 20, 3 32, 4 35, 5 03, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sundays 8 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamauqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked *) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 19, 1899.
LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N.J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.
Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.
Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.
Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.
Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.
Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket timetables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.
FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent,
218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

T. M. INGRAHAM.
Vaults and Cesspools Cleaned
Night or Day.
ASHES & GARBAGE REMOVED.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Good Work at Reasonable Prices.
P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.

XXXX QUALITY
FINEST
LOFOTEN COD LIVER OIL,
Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.
Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at
39c per Pint.
For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at
50c per Bottle,
or the Tasteless at
75c per Bottle.
THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,
Hepburn & Co.,
Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,
213 WEST FRONT ST.
Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

WANTED
25 Mechanics

and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.

Agent on the Grounds
SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.

. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

The New Holiday Goods
are here in larger and better variety than ever before. There is a certain satisfaction in buying Holiday novelties here—the entire stock is new—something which others cannot claim, and everything is priced moderately, in fact lower than you would pay elsewhere.

A Wonderful Showing of Handkerchiefs.
A COMPLETE stock of Men's initial handkerchiefs, put up half-dozen to the box.

The Largest and Best Assortment of Kid Gloves.
Good gloves, which we guarantee and such as you desire for Christmas gifts.

New Sterling Silver Novelties, Silver-trimmed Leather Novelties, Umbrellas.

Mackintoshes.
A complete stock of Goodyear mackintoshes for ladies and misses. These goods were bought before the heavy advance in prices; therefore you can buy good mackintoshes here at the old prices.

I. LEDERER.

Holiday Goods.

Why you should see our assortment; a walk through our store will be the easiest way to solve the problem of what to get for presents for young and old.

Our line of fancy articles consists of everything imaginable in Celluloid, Plush and Glass Ware.

Handkerchiefs, gloves, neckwear, hosiery, umbrellas and dress goods of all kinds and all prices. Furs and worsted goods of every description.

DOLLS . . .

Dolls of all kinds can be found on our doll counter, our assortment is bewildering in their novelty, extent and attractiveness. Our prices are lower than any other house will quote for the same article.

TOYS -:- -:-

Our Toy Department in the basement is larger than ever before. No such collection was ever gathered here before, and it is safe to say there is no better stock in town in point of variety, there is no stock in town that equals ours in prices that's certain.

Children's velocipedes, tricycles, battleships, iron toys of all kinds, tool chests, wash sets, soldier sets, dishes, horse and wagons, chairs, printing presses, electric batteries, express wagons, magic lanterns, etc.

I. H. Boehm, 109-111-113 West Front Street

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.
Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,
Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.
WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER
DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

Our Attractive Holiday Display
awaits your inspection. We are glad to welcome visitors and pleased to show our goods.
A. L. & M. D. Gorsline, 144 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

OPEN EVENINGS. FURNITURE.

Wouldn't a clean finished, well-made piece of Furniture make an ideal Christmas present?

FURNITURE. Jardinier Stands from 50c to $5.00.

POWLISON & JONES,
149 and 151 E. Front Street.

BUY YOUR PHONOGRAPHS,
Gramophones, Records and Supplies at
BROKAW'S . . .
The Piano Dealer, 123 East Front Street.

ANOTHER PET DEER.

Remarkable Affection and Sagacity of a Doe Reared in Captivity.

Some things have been written lately about deer in general and pet deer in particular.

My elder brother and I picked up a fawn in the woods while on a berrying expedition in strawberry time. She grew and thrived, never being subject to injurious handling—she always objected to being touched by any one but myself—and was as large and perfectly developed as a deer in its natural state. This is unusual in domesticated deer, and was often the subject for comment among old hunters who had seen the deer, wild and tame. She jumped fences for amusement, and rather enjoyed a short run before the hounds, which she easily distanced for a mile or two, and would make straight for home as a house of refuge. The house dog was her friend and protector, and the two would lie near together for hours.

I remember with what delight I discovered she would follow my trail. It was the first time she had leaped the yard fence. I had gone to look at my line of traps and returned to find her gone. She had followed my trail into the woods. Returning, I found her tracks in a soft place. After that she was never confined, and I frequently tested her trailing powers. From some elevated point I would watch her galloping on the trail, her head to the ground for a few steps, then running on a hot scent, following every winding of my path, made perhaps an hour before.

When she came to where I was she would express satisfaction in the meeting by standing near to be caressed and then selecting a place near by with great care to lie down, unless I moved on, when she would follow at heel as faithfully as a dog.

No animal of so light a frame can compare with the deer for strength and poise. They are built for speed, like the racing yachts, and there is no question that in speeding like an arrow through the woods they surpass all their kind.

My first photographic attempt was a picture of this deer as she lay on the shady side of the house on a warm day in early spring all four legs sprawled out in a way that in any animal but a deer would be ungraceful but a position I thought was particularly fetching. I have a faded print of that picture yet—it was never clear cut—but the dim outline serves to fix in mind a happy companionship.

The eccentricities of pet deer are found to be annoying to all but the one person who stands between the pet and the outraged neighbor who would deal summary vengeance for the wreck of kitchen, garden or flower-bed. Out of fondness for the creature, he soothes his friend and repairs the damage if possible; but the deer can never be taught to respect property rights.

We have yet to hear of a tame deer that lived out its days in peace. In its natural wild state every man's hand is against it; domesticated, its chances for survival are small. Only the rich could give adequate protection to a favored pet of the deer kind.

As remarked before, it is only when reared in his bosom, as the Arab's steed in his tent, that there is a bond of protection between man and the beast only second to the human affection.—Norman Price in Forest and Stream.

THE NEW MINES.

More About Alaska's Wonderful Gold Region.

In a letter received at his home from Lieutenant Wallace M. Craigie, Seventh United States Infantry, now stationed at Cape Nome, Alaska, he says:

I must tell you something about what will be, according to the "old timers," the greatest mining camp in the world, Nome City, as it is now called is right on the coast of Bering Sea, and extends perhaps, for two miles along the shore. Along the beach the miners are rocking out gold, and they make from $5 to $50 or more a day—one man. This sounds like a statement that admits of doubt, but it is a fact. One man told me himself he had worked with three others for fourteen days, and they had rocked out just $6,000, all hard earned gold, but they have it to prove the statement. Then up along the several creeks, "Anvil," "Discovery," "Snow Gulch," etc., the yield is really enormous. The famous claim here is known as "No. 1, on Discovery," and has turned out about a million dollars. A few days ago a nugget weighing 30 ounces was found, and about a month ago one weighing a little over 19 ounces was taken from the sluice boxes on the same claim. Some men have a centrifugal pump down on the beach below the town, and have sluice boxes running back to the soil, called "tundra" by the natives, which is filled with fine gold of a very pure quality. The thing that impressed me most was that in less than a month after the town started the "diggings" was the circulating medium, and valued at $16 an ounce, although no official assay has been made. Men go out with their rockers and pans, and come back to town and eat and drink and pay for it, with the result of the day's diggings. There are lots of propositions to interest men of capital, such as a good water supply system, electric light plants, and the man who can lay a trolley system up to the mines for transporting freight and supplies has the greatest and surest business venture of all. These are now carried by pack trains and freight wagons. Dogs are also used they being able to carry about 40 pounds each. The town has increased in five months from about 250 to 2000 inhabitants, and it is thought when navigation opens in the spring there will be 30,000 or 40,000 people here. Coal is $75 per ton, lumber $125 per thousand, yet people are building and settling here. Our new quarters are very comfortable. We are all nicely settled for the winter. I am told the Northern lights as seen here are beyond description, and the moon as bright and clear as crystal, which in a measure will have to make up for no day or sun.

How You May Write It.

Some one has noted that the year "1888" was one of the hardest to write in Roman numerals. It took thirteen letters—thus, MDCCCLXXXVIII. Next year we are to get on much easier—thus MCM.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Does Not Always Kill.

Out of every three persons struck by lightning two recover.

CAUSES TROUBLE.

The Cross-eyed Stage Driver in New York.

The cross-eyed stage driver in Fifth avenue causes great uncertainty as to his intentions in regard to possible patrons of his stage. They stand on the corners waiting until he nearly reaches them, and then the frantic gestures begin. The first time they signal they do not notice that he is cross-eyed, but as he approaches nearer and nearer the uncertainty grows upon them. They are not sure he saw them at all, or does see them or will see them. The past, present and future are all in a muddle, and while it is certainly his business to be on the lookout for patrons it is not at all certain that he will. Every one knows by experience that the drivers of public conveyances do not always keep their business eye on the corner, and who can tell whether a cross-eyed man may be looking?

As I rode on top of the cross-eyed driver's stage the other day I noticed the demoralizing effect of his glances. A bloated bond-holder lifted his cane slightly as the stage ran toward him. He was quiet and dignified, but, was taken with the idea that the cross-eyes had not perceived it either, and so he lifted it again and again, five times, each time a little higher, until it was waving frantically aloft. The stage stopped exactly where it would have stopped had he simply signalled once.

The next passenger was tall and thin, saunt and prim and wore spectacles. She had a gaily-trimmed hat and tightly fitting tailor-made costume. She held her handbag—a Boston bag—tightly in one hand, and raised the other stiffly from the elbow, holding one finger up. Then she jerked it back again, as if it were on springs. No other part of her body moved, but her eagle eye was on the face of the driver. Soon, in quick succession she jerked that finger up again five times more, her face becoming sterner each time. It seemed as if she was thinking, "I wonder if he saw me!" "I do not believe he did!" "He is not even looking at me!" "He sees me now." "No, he does not; that eye is looking across the street." But suddenly the stage stops right in front of her.

A woman who looked as if she had just taken leave of a big family of children, and had not gotten through waving the baby "by-by," lifted her arms and waved her fingers up and down as if she was also saying "by-by" to the driver. Each time she increased the number of little waves and smiled sweetly and nodded her head pleasantly. Her amiability was irresistible, and, of course, the stage stopped for her.

In fact, the stage driver stops exactly at the right hand lower corner for every passenger. It would stop just the same if only one signal was given, but the passengers seem to forget that it is the business of the stage to stop for them, and that the driver plans to get a focus on the corner of every block, although the exact mathematical combination of sight rays is not divulged to the intending patron.—N. Y. Herald.

Yachtsmen Who Never Hoist a Sail.

A wet sheet and a flowing sea has nothing to do with life aboard a yacht, as exemplified in the Bay Ridge Yacht Basin, in South Brooklyn, N. Y. There are five or six yachts there, one of them a roomy schooner craft, which for various reasons are not in commission this autumn. Nevertheless, the owners and their families or their friends live and sleep on board. On one sloop are five young men who go to a skyscraper building in Nassau treet every morning and take out two or three vivacious typewriter girls when work is over to make the evenings merry. They rented the boat on conditions that they would not take her outside the basin, and hired a retired sea captain, who lives near the basin, to look after the boat during the day and to "mess" for them. They find it cheaper than paying board in the city and ever so much pleasanter. Three families wintered on yachts in Bay Ridge basin last winter, and they enjoyed the experiment so much that they talk of trying it again. Rough weather has no terror for them. One sloop, the Peri, was housed above decks very much like those in the tales we read about Arctic expeditions. The families who live in this way were on terms of sociability and visited every night for games of cards. When the basin was frozen over one night they gave a skating party, with a piping hot supper below decks as a windup. There are still novelties about for persons who know where to look for them.

Starting a Blast Furnace.

Few persons who have not actually run a blast furnace realize what it means to fill the capacious maw of one of those monsters. A stack of 200 tons' daily capacity, running on 50 per cent. ore, must have delivered to it each day something more than 400 tons of ore, 250 to 300 tons of coke, and over 100 tons of limestone, besides sand, coal and minor supplies—say 900 tons of raw materials. Add the 200 tons of pig iron produce shipped out, and we have a daily freight movement of 1,100 tons, taking no note of the disposition of the slag. The mining of the ore requires the labor of 150 to 300 men; the coal mining, coke making, quarrying of limestone and transportation, at least 300 more. The furnace itself employs 150 or more hands. Starting up a furnace of ordinary capacity, therefore, calls immediately for the labor of nearly a thousand men, for the use at least of nearly a thousand railroad cars and many locomotives; for perhaps several steamers and vessels on the lakes; for capital, from the mines to the pig iron, of one or two millions of dollars, and last, but not least, for a high order of managing ability.—Engineering Magazine.

He Did.

"Edgar A. Poe was the first great war correspondent."

"How do you make that out?"

"Didn't he get in a lick at the 'unseen censor?'"—Chicago Times-Herald.

Second Nature.

"Those colored baseball players are always on the watch."

"Yes; for a 'fowl' no doubt."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

THIS cut represents one of our smaller packages. All of our feeds and grain are put up in these standard packages running from Five or Eleven pounds up according to the article, and the price of each is based on the market.

Did you ever think of the advantage of buying from a house that sells any quantity from five pounds to a boat load and that makes the same prices to all customers without any secret deals.

At this season beware of Feeds and Meals made from new corn. As we make our own feeds we know what they contain and we have plenty of

OLD CORN.

In comparing prices it should be borne in mind that OUR GRAIN IS ALL RECLEANED and OUR FEEDS are ALL MADE ON THE PREMISES and ARE KNOWN TO BE PURE

Mixed Oats	74c per bag	Middlings	90c per 100
Mixed Clips	76c per bag	Oat Feed	73c per 100
2 White Oats	78c per bag	Gluten	95c per 100
Regular Clips	80c per bag	Oil Meal	$1.45 per 100
X. B. Clips	82c per bag	No. 1 Grain Mixture	$1.10 per 100
Yellow Corn	78c per 100	Our Poultry Food	$1.15 per 100
Cracked Corn	84c per 100	Wheat	$1 35 per 100
Coarse Meal	84c per 100	Barley (96 lbs)	$1.15 per bag
Ground Feed	84c per 100	No. 1 Hay	88c per 100
Bran	90c per 100	Clover Hay	83c per 100
Buckwheat Middlings	70c per 100	Cut Hay	83c per 100

The above prices are for spot cash at our stores. If delivered add according to quantity as follows:

25 bags or over ..... 2c per bag
5 bags or over ..... 5c per bag
Less than 5 bags ..... 10c per bag

THE PAUL T. NORTON CO.

Elizabeth, Elizabethport, Red Bank, Plainfield, Somerville.

MILK FOR SETOFF CLAIM.

An Interesting Contract Case Tried Before Justice Mattison in the Borough Yesterday Afternoon.

Justice Mattison held court in a rear parlor of the Somerset Hotel yesterday afternoon, when the suit of Robert Carson, who had a claim of $139, balance alleged to be due from Charles L. Jeter for building a house on Belmont avenue that cost $1,400. The defendant filed a set off claim for 279 quarts of milk at 8 cents a quart and $53.24 for cash paid on account and also claimed a deduction of $15 for other amounts. The jury after nearly a two hours' deliberation returned a verdict for $120. The jury was made up of David King, O. R. Steele, Walter Bennett, Elias Allen, J. Giddis, George Ralph, Walter L. Linbarger, James Bagley, William McLoughlin, B. F. Conover, John Cooper and Warren Linbarger. W. S. Angleman for plaintiff; Frank Blatz for defendant.

Fixing Up Richmond Street.

The heavy carting of stone and freight have somewhat injured, the macadam pavement on Richmond street, between East Second street and North avenue, but Contractor Meeker is putting stone in the ruts, and proposes to make the street satisfactory again at his own expense.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even set up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

What Can You Do With It?

This is a question we can answer better after we have seen the garment you want dyed. When our wagon is in your neighborhood, let it bring your goods to the store and then, at your convenience, come in and let us tell you just what we can do and the cost. Don't be prejudiced against dyeing. Ofttimes you can't tell the goods from new.

HILLIER & CO.,
129 West Front Street,
Opposite Crosby & Hill's. 'Phone 851.

The Girl Preacher.

A little girl preacher, Isabella Howard, the wonder of the world, will preach by request in the Calvary Baptist church, Central avenue, tonight at 8 o'clock. Everybody is invited.

CENTRAL LODGE OFFICERS.

Warrabee Elected Master Workman—Eight Candidates Also Elected and Initiated.

A meeting of Central Lodge, No. 48, A. O. U. W., was held last evening. Eight candidates were elected and initiated. Several propositions were received. The following officers were then nominated and elected: Past master workman, Edward M. Mosher; master workman, W. R. Larrabee; foreman, George A. Blythe; overseer, H. R. Thorn; recorder, N. C. Mague; financier, William Newcorn; receiver, Charles H. Randolph; inside watchman, A. J. Burrows; outside watchman, John Cashman; organist, Theo. Mason; medical examiners, Drs. O. L. Jenkins, M. L. Clawson; M. S. Whitford, and W. J. Nelson; trustee, T. C. Smith; representatives to the Grand Lodge, N. C. Mague, C. T. Rogers, Edward M. Mosher; alternates, C. H. Randolph, J. R. Dunham and T. C. Smith.

A Handsome Display.

Among the elaborate and handsome Christmas displays is that made by George W. Wrennick, dealer in photographic supplies, etc. Besides exhibiting everything in the line of cameras and the apparatus for photography, Mr. Wrennick has a complete line of Christmas cards that are beautiful in design, and from an artistic standpoint can hardly be excelled. If you can't afford to give a costly Christmas gift you can certainly remember your friends by sending them a souvenir and thereby extending the compliments of the season in a manner in keeping with the great festival.

To Cure a Cough in One Day
To Cure a Cold in One Day
To Cure Sore Throat in One Day
To Cure Hoarseness in One Day

Take Cleveland's Lung Healer, 25c. Trial size free. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenue.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—The finishing touches are being made to the new system of underground electric lighting.

—Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M., will meet in regular session next week Tuesday evening.

—Randolph, the West Front street druggists, is offering some fine specials in hair brushes at a bargain.

—The members of Warren Engine Company will meet this evening and entertain a few firemen from out of town.

—Wieda's, 144 West Front street, is the place to get strictly pure and fresh Xmas candies. See his ad. in this issue.

—"Dolls' day" tomorrow at Doane & Edsall's, when every little girl who brings her doll with her will receive a pair of doll's slippers free. No purchase required.

—The improvements that have been underway on the Howlett house, Elmwood place, are about completed and has enhanced the value of the property considerable.

—Fred Endress, the butcher, has a very large stock of turkeys, chickens and game. All his poultry is of the very best quality. He makes special prices for churches, societies and clubs.

—Now is the time to select your Christmas tree and you can find a good assortment to pick from at the floral store of Mrs. L. J. Denton, West Front street, where a carload has just been received. The prices are right. Mrs. Denton also keeps all kinds of choice flowers. You can order by telephone.

—E. B. Maynard, the North avenue tonsorial artist, is right up-to date and has a very pretty window display for the holidays. Everything used in his business is shown to good advantage, while a nice arrangement of holly adds to the attractiveness. Mr. Maynard conducts a first-class parlor as many customers can testify.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The bowling and basket-ball teams of the Y. M. C. A. will go to Summit next Wednesday evening by stage. Five men will represent each team.

The last of the bowling contests, which was to have taken place at the Y. M. C. A. last evening, has been postponed to next Friday evening.

The regular monthly meeting of the committee on physical work will be held this evening at 7:15 in the Y. M. C. A. parlors.

Physical Director Heywood was at Somerville yesterday and gave the local physical director some points on gymnasium work.

Opening of the Library.

Tomorrow until 2 o'clock the Public Library building will be closed, to enable the Library staff to complete the arrangements for the reception of the public in the afternoon and evening. The hours for receiving the public will be from 2 until 6, and from 7 until 9 p. m. This will be the only opportunity to inspect the entire stock, as hereafter the second and third stories will be closed to the public. All are very cordially invited to be present on this occasion. Books will be exchanged as usual after 2 o'clock, both afternoon and evening.

Volcanic Eruptions

Are grand, but Skin Eruptions rob life of joy. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, cures them; also Old, Running and Fever Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Felons, Corns, Warts, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Chapped hands, Chilblains. Best Pile Cure on earth. Drives out Pains and Aches. Only 25 cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

To Continue Bible Study.

The persons who were instrumental in instituting the Bible conference in this city are now planning to continue the same in their own churches, and a plan to study will be mapped out under the direction of Don. O. Shelton, who has been conducting the conference.

Celebration of the Holidays.

The members of the Gesang and Turn Verein are making preparations for a celebration of the holidays at their hall on Somerset street. The usual festivities will take place.

R. O Steele, of the borough, was taken suddenly ill last evening and Dr. Carman was called to treat him. Today he is much improved and is able to be out.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

MR. SHELTON ON THE STANDARDS OF DUTY.

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

the truth; will speak the truth. It should be observed that the apostle turns from the contemplation of the sublimest truths to inculcate plain precepts for the conduct of the daily life.

"The Scripture urges truthfulness, (Ps. 15:23) This is an evidence of its divine origin, for we are told that orientals are careless about speaking the truth. Lying is a vice deeply characteristic of heathenism."

He said that Paul pictured Christ as one who lived unsullied by the conflicts of daily life. He is, too, the Christ of the busy haunts of men, rather than of the cloister. Hurrying on Mr. Shelton called attention to the fact that while Ephesians deals with the highest truths, yet it also has specific directions for the daily life. The epistle is packed dense with thought. We are to practice truth; to be industrious; to be pure in conversation; to be forgiving. He showed how deep an injury a man does himself who harbors resentment against another.

Mr. Shelton said that, in his estimation, one of the highest tributes ever paid to Prof. Drummond was that of an old Scotch woman, whose husband was dying. She wanted Drummond to come and visit her husband, although he was too far gone to talk, or even hear Prof. Drummond talk, but as she put it—"I would like him to hae a breath o' you about him afore he dees." His Christian life was such that she felt a holy influence would go out from his very presence in the sick room.

The closing session of the conference will be held this evening at the First Presbyterian church, beginning at 7:45 o'clock, and it promises to be one of the most profitable and intensely interesting meetings of the entire series. The subject of the study will be: "The Panoply of God." There will be special solos by Harper G. Smythe, of New York, the widely known director of singing at Evangelistic meetings conducted by Rev. Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman. Mr. Smythe led the singing at the opening of the great National Christian Endeavor Convention, held at Detroit, in July last. The public will be cordially welcomed.

A Patriotic Anniversary.

The hundredth anniversary of the death of George Washington was observed in Somerset Hall, Somerville, last evening. The exercises were under the auspices of the Naraticog Tribe, of Somerville, and the Raritan Tribe, of Raritan, of Red Men. Orations were given by Rev. Messrs. Smith and Simpson, of Somerville. William Newcorn, of this city, made an address on the origin and growth of the order of Red Men.

—Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T., will hold a regular communication next Monday evening.

LOCAL and CLIMATIC

Nothing but a local remedy or change of climate will cure

CATARRH.

The Specific is

Ely's Cream Balm

It is quickly Absorbed. Gives Relief at once. Opens and cleanses the Nasal Passages. Allays Inflammation. Heals and Protects the Membrane. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. No Mercury. No Injurious drug. Regular Size 50c. Family Size $1.00. at Druggists or by mail.
ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

CATARRH

COLD IN HEAD

CITY NATIONAL BANK.
Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.
Capital, $150,000.
Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.

CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

DIRECTORS.

Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Cooson. H. G Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold. J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J B. Coward.

General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

GEO. W. COLE,
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER.
200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

THREE pleasant convenient rooms to let for light housekeeping. 404 Third street, corner Central avenue. 12 11 11

YOUNG man wants situation as coachman or care of furnaces; understands horses; references. G. P., care Press. 12 12 5

WANTED—Boarders in private family; house modern improvements. 112 Central avenue, near Front street. 12 14 3

GOOD butcher business for sale cheap; must be sold at once. Inquire of Adam Dealaman, Dunellen. 12 14 tf

HOUSE to rent, $8.00; 4 acres. J. T. Vail. 12 13 3

FOR SALE or exchange for house and lot or small farm, a fine farm of 200 acres, well watered and timbered. Address Albert, care Daily Press. 12 15 eod tf

WANTED—White girl for general housework; references required. 303 East Fifth Street. 12 15 2

LOST—On South avenue, near Berckman street, small boy's overcoat. Suitable reward 703 South Ave.

YOUNG woman wants days work; best references. 305 Arlington Ave. 12 15 2

5 ROOM cottage to let. Apply 211 New street. Also one furnished room. 12 15 3

LOST—Thursday, between North Plainfield and Fanwood, brown plaid horse blanket. Reward return to 33 Somerset St.

FOR SALE—Fine bred brindle bull dog. E. Unrhahn, 84 Somerset street. 12 15 2

SECOND-hand pool table, 4½x9; for sale or rent, installments. 90 Somerset street.

TWO girls want place at general housework or take care of children. Call at 513 West Sixth street.

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Chas. L. Moffett, Attorney, cor. Park and North Aves. 12 11 eod tf

TO LET—From December 1st, nice seven-room house, 12 Arlington place. Enquire on premises. 11 22 eod tf

TO LET—Six-room house and store, connected. 214 Richmond street.

TO LET—Nice flat with improvements. 304 Richmond street.

TO LET—Butcher shop, with or without fixtures. 302 B Richmond street. eod 12 13 tf

FOR SALE—Old Grandfather clock, in good order. 315 West Front street. 12 15 3

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 24

WANTED—Walnut trees. J. D. Loizeaux, 640 North Ave. 12 2 12

HELP WANTED — Machinists, lathe and planer hands; good men can find steady job and good wages. Address P. O. Box 103. Cincinnati, Ohio. 12 8 12

WANTED—Situation to look after furnaces, etc.; have first-class references. Thomas Jones, 368 Arlington avenue. 12 13 6

SPECIAL!!
HAIR DRESSING, SHAMPOOING, MANICURING.
Until after the Holiday Season
MISS HOLMES,
Graduate of the New York School of Hair Dressing and Dermatology,
will make special rates for hair dressing in all the latest styles for street and evening; at parlors 75c. At ladies' residences by appointment. Shampooing or Facial Massage and steaming (for eradicating imperfections of the skin) 75c. Manicuring 50c.
440 W. FRONT ST.

MASSAGE :-: VAPOR BATHS
CORNS REMOVED 25c.
M. V. STICKLE, 149 East Fifth St.

$14.75 CAMERA AND OUTFIT FOR $10.00 . . . .

A good suggestion for Christmas! You can have a well-known camera which will take pictures 4x5 and all necessary materials for finishing the pictures for $10. The retail value of this outfit is $14.75.

WE HAVE ALSO

Golf Sets, Phonographs, Graphophones, Gramophones, Music Boxes, Christmas Cards and a general line of Sporting Goods. We are always pleased to show our stock.

GEO. W. WRENNICK,
133 NORTH AVE.

Great Price Reductions

on Men's Overcoats and Suits, as well as on Boys' and Children's Suits, Overcoats and Trousers. There never was a busier season with us as we have had for the last three months, therefore we had to purchase very largely all through the season, made it a very large accumulation of odd suits and overcoats leaving us from 2 to 5 garments of each style and in order to close out this entire lot we have marked them down to such tremendously low prices that we expect to make a clean sweep of the entire lot in very short order.

We have also made a purchase in the last 3 days of 500 overcoats of the finest quality and made in the latest style, that will not stand us more than 35 cents on the dollar, they will be included in the above sale.

The following prices will be made for the next three days:

150 MEN'S BUSINESS SUITS, made of pure all-wool cassimeres and cheviots, in neat and stylish checked and plaid patterns, good looking, first-class suits, that were never before or never likely again be sold for less than 9.00, for this 3-day sale at 3.95

MEN'S ALL-WOOL FANCY CHEVIOT, CASSIMERE and HOMESPUN SUITS in single breasted styles with double breasted vests, are elegant dress or business suit, made up with an eye to give good service, in fact, you can't touch them in other stores for less than 12.00, our lucky purchase enables us to offer them at the extremely low price of 4.90

MEN'S VERY FINEST IMPORTED SIMONI HOCAIUM WORSTED and Scotch plaid cheviot suits, cut, made and finished in a thoroughly dependable manner, qualities that no other store would dream of selling for less than 15.00, to go at this sale at 6.95.

169 MEN'S KERSEY and BEAVER OVERCOATS, all-wool, black or blue deep French facing, extra heavy Italian lining, sleeves lined with the celebrated Iron Yarn cloth, a recognized 10.00 value at 4.25

MEN'S OVERCOATS of all-wool kerseys and covert cloths, presenting the latest English box style, they hang just perfectly and fit just where you want them to, have hand-made button-holes and are 12.00 to 14.00 values, at this sale 5.95.

MEN'S OVERCOATS at 7.90, this lot includes the celebrated Naumburg, Krans & Co.'s choicest line of winter overcoats, made of the finest grade of all-wool kersey cloth, genuine all-wool frieze in black or brown, also a lot of self-lined coverts made with lap seams and silk velvet collars, positively could not be equalled at less than from 15.00 to 20.00.

500 TWO-PIECE BOYS' SUITS, all-wool materials, new and pleasing styles, double seat and knee, sizes 7 to 15, could not be sold for less than 3.00, to be sold at 1.45.

BOYS' FINE TWO-PIECE SUITS in all the newest designs in plaids and mixtures, also in plain black and blue cheviots, double seat and knees, elegantly trimmed and tailored, worth 5.00, to be sold at this great sale at 2.25

BOYS' REEFER COATS at 1.25 and 1.50 made of all wool chinchillas with the regulation sailor collars, with warm woolen lining, sizes 3 to 8 years, positively worth 3.00.

BOYS' TOP COATS at 2.50 and 2.75, made of all-wool coverts, meltons and frieze, with full back, velvet collars and cassimere lined, sizes from 4 to 16 years, cannot be produced at less than from 5.00 to 7.00.

YOUNG MEN'S SUITS, ages 14 to 19, at 2.50, 3.50 and 4.50, handsomely made with narrow legged pants, other stores would sell them at from 5.00 to 10.00.

FINE YOUNG MEN'S OVERCOATS, sizes 14 to 19, at 1.75, 2.75 and 4.75, worth double at wholesale.

Don't make a mistake by missing this wonderful sale of clothing. Sale will begin this Saturday morning at 8 a. m. Will last for 3 days only.

New York Clothing Company
M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.
Plainfield, N. J.

A Talk on Overcoats.

We know how to talk about them because we make them.

Our $10 Overcoat

is made from all-wool Kersey, cassimere lined, with a shoulder yoke and sleeve lining of real satin. The style is there as well as the quality. We have them from $5.00 to $13.50. Boys' Reefers $1.75 to $4.00.

We Make All Our Clothing.

Schepflin & Schultz,
M. J. Cashin, Manager.
322 West Front St.

...EMERY'S... PLEASURE GARDEN
(SCOTCH PLAINS.)
Thursday Evening, December 21st
FIRST
GRAND BALL
—OF THE—
Prospect Social Club.
Music by Prof. O'Reilly.
TICKETS - - - - 25 Cents.
The Enclosed Pavilion is for rent for Balls, Parties, etc., at Reasonable Rates.

S. R. STRUTHERS
offers his services as accountant. Books opened and closed. Trial balances made and Balance Sheets shown.
Call or address
514 WEST FRONT STREET. 12 13 12

CUT FLOWERS!
Choice Blooming Plants, Palms, Ferns, Jardinieres, Fern Dishes, &c. Headquarters for Wreaths, Holly, Mistletoe and everything in the florist line. First-class stock. Largest assortment of cut flowers in the city.
A. E. LINCOLN.
Telephone 876. 226 PARK AVE. 12 14 6

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:18 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:34 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:34 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair, Continued Cold Saturday and Sunday; Rising temperature Monday. Ther. 28.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

CHANGES AT THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

New Part of Building Opened to Public Today.

EVERYTHING TO ADVANTAGE

THE ADDITION HAS A CAPACITY FOR 65,000 BOOKS.

Librarians, Assisted by Other Plainfielders Who are Especially Interested in the Institution, are Receiving Their Friends This Afternoon and Explaining the Various Changes That Have Been Made.

After many months spent in enlarging and altering the building, the Plainfield Public Library is now in order, and today is being set aside as a special opening day. The librarians, assisted by several other Plainfielders who are especially interested in library work, are receiving their friends, and showing and explaining the various improvements which have been made.

The visitor first notices a great change in the reading room. The new delivery desk, in form a hollow square, has every convenience for the circulation of books. Every magazine has its own place on the sloping desks which partition off the north end of the reading room, where tables, furnished with electric lamps, and cases of standard reference books lining the walls, await the student. The daily and weekly papers have a special and convenient rack, standing near the door, and upon the wall above is the bulletin board, with lists of new books and information concerning them, and a fine photograph of the library building, lately taken by Willard M Miner, of this city. The children's alcove is at the south end, where also stands a case holding the latest boods.

In the western alcove, where are found the new catalogue cases, there is being held today an exhibit of choice books. They are valuable and interesting volumes from the Babcock Scientific Library, which is fast becoming the most important feature of the Plainfield Library.

The main interest of the day centers, of course, in the new stack room. All the books, except those for reference and those for junior readers, have been transferred to this new book room, which has three floors above the basement, and an approximate book capacity of 65 000. The books of the Babcock collection are on the left, as one enters, the books of fiction on the right, followed by others arranged by classes. The name of the class is written at the aisle end of the cases, and on the shelves above the books. Additional information can be obtained from a directory card, framed and hung upon the wall, giving the names of many classes of books, with their case, shelf and classification numbers. All these floors of the stack are open to the public today The first floor contains all books of general interest, and will henceforth be public property during circulation hours. The second floor contains rare and seldom used books, and the third is used for filing papers, etc.

The Babcock collection now numbers about 2 000 volumes, and the trustees intend to add to it at the rate of 1,500 volumes a year. The departments now started include mathematics, astronomy, physics, chemistry. geology, botany natural history, medicine and hygiene, engineering, building, photography and psychology The bequest left by the late George H. Babcock, when he died in 1893, was $10 000 to be spent outright in the purchase of books and periodicals along industrial, mechanical and scientific lines, and the income from three houses on Madison avenue to maintain it. The circulation has been very large for that class of reading. Many of the books are popular in style, but many are very technical. Over forty scientific periodicals are taken.

The trustees in charge of the bequest are as follows: President, Colonel Mason W. Tyler; vice-president, J. Evarts Tracy; secretary, William M Stillman; treasurer, John B. Dumont; also Henry P. Talmadge, Rowland Cox, Alexander Gilbert, Joseph Yates and William H. Larrabee. It is the special province of Mr. Larrabee, who is a receiver for Appleton's Popular Science Monthly, to draw up lists of books to be purchased. In this he is assisted by the librarian, Miss Emma Louise Adams, and by specialists in the various fields, chiefly professors in leading colleges. It is intended to make the Babcock Library, in time one of the finest scientific collections in the State, perhaps second only to that of Stevens Institute.

—Miss L. A. Daly, the West Front street milliner, announces some great bargain hats in another column of today's Press.

BIBLE CONFERENCE COMES TO A CLOSE.

Final Talk of Mr. Shelton Was Uplifting to Christians.

A SPECIAL SONG SERVICE.

DWELT ON THE NEED OF A SOLDIER'S HEART IN CHRISTIANS.

In Closing Mr. Shelton Dwelt on the Need of Using the Divine Word Intelligently and Earnestly—After The Regular Conference Mr. Shelton Gave a Personal Talk To Many Who Remained.

The Bible conference that has been held every night this week came to a close last evening in the First Presbyterian church, where the meetings have been held for two nights. One encouraging feature of the conference was the steadily increasing attendance every night. Each audience has been a representative one. The attendance last evening was the largest of the week and there was a deep and profound interest. Another feature has been the general attendance of the pastors of the city.

The closing session of the conference was marked by the attendance of Harper G. Smyth, the noted evangelistic singer, who was led to adopt his profession by Don O. Shelton, when the latter was secretary of the East Side Branch of the Y. M. C. A., in New York. Mr. Smyth sang several solos effectively and the singing deeply impressed the audience. He was accompanied by Clifford Braider on the organ. The song service was in charge of L. H. Biglow, Jr., and there was a large chorus choir. The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. J. W. Richardson, of the Park Avenue Baptist church, after which Chairman Travell of the executive committee, made a short address reviewing the past week and the purpose for which the conference was held, and stating that the work would probably be carried on in the various churches.

Previous to the study of the evening Mr. Shelton took occasion to thank those who had attended the meetings, the pastors for their assistance and the press for the reports given.

Before beginning the study of the evening Mr. Shelton urged those who had come under the influence of his teaching to devote themselves to a personal, every-day consecutive reading of the Scripture. He hoped all would resolve to attend a Bible class regularly. The greatest kindness ever done to himself was in the shape of an invitation to become a member of such a class. And he trusted that some would prayerfully consider whether the call of the Master to become teachers of the world did not reach them. No calling, he thought, was higher. He also earnestly suggested to his hearers that they continue to study the Epistle to the Ephesians; that they seek to master its contents; and that they set aside a certain time each week for this definite study.

Coming to the lesson of the evening, Ephesians 6:10-17, which he described as one of the great lessons of the book, not only to the church to which it was first addressed, but to the Christian church of today, he noted first that the exhortation to be strong rang out as God's will for us. We need a soldier's heart. Perhaps the fact that this letter was written while Paul was in the prison at Rome, surrounded by the Roman soldiery, who were his guards, may have suggested to him this military imagery of the whole armor of God. He said that "a battle is on," the Christian soldier therefore must have supernatural strength, the strength which Christ alone can give. Christ can and will strengthen for every duty, every conflict, every crisis. Christ dwelling in the heart by faith—that is the secret of victory.

"As the water spider takes with him a diving bell of pure water when he goes down into the mud, so we, as we go out into the evil influences of the world, may take Christ with us, and He that is in us will be greater than he which is in the world." I John, 4:4.

In considering the different parts of the armor, he saith that the girdle of truth, which controls the flying oriental garment, gave strentgth and freedom of action, and therefore confidence. The breastplate of righteousness, a righteousness not our own, the feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of peace; our lives being guided and strengthened by the Gospel; the helmet of salvation, with the shield over all, and the sword for offensive fighting, all these, he noted, prepared the Christian soldier for everything

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 5.]

CHRISTMAS ORATORIO FREE TO THE PUBLIC

"The Messiah" Will Be Given In Crescent Avenue Church

ON THURSDAY EVENING.

BY QUARTETTE OF SOLOISTS AND A LOCAL CHORUS.

Final Public Rehearsal Will Be Given in The Church Tuesday Evening—Limited Number of Invitations Will Be Issued For It—The Rendition Thursday Night Will be Free to All.

To the music loving public of Plainfield, the event of the Christmas season will be the rendition of the oratorio, "The Messiah," in the Crescent Avenue church, Thursday evening of next week. Differing from the concerts of Plainfield's various musical societies in the past, it is intended to be rather on the order of a religious musical service and will therefore be free to all. Despite the announcements made when the service was first proposed, a general idea seems to prevail that tickets for "The Messiah" can be purchased. Thursday evening, the doors of the Crescent Avenue church will be opened to the public and those who first arrive will receive the best seats, regardless of wealth, social position or race.

The rendition of that famous oratorio, particularly appropriate at this season of the year, is planned to be of unusual excellence. A quartette of artists of high class will be assisted by a chorus of over a hundred voices, all local talent. Many were members of the old Choral Society and are acquainted with the oratorio. E. J. Fitzhugh will be the leader. This chorus has been practicing regularly for nearly two months, and is now well drilled in the various choruses of the production.

This evening the chorus will hold its final rehearsal in the Sunday-school room of the First Baptist church, where the rehearsals have been held. As it is the last it is particularly important that all should be present.

Tuesday evening there will be a dress rehearsal, as it were, of the chorus and the soloists. The entire oratorio will then be sung as it is to be sung Thursday evening. There will be a limited number of invitations issued for the rehearsal to those who have subscribed towards the necessary expenses of the service. Tickets have been issued to them and none will be admitted without tickets. These tickets are not on sale and are limited in number.

FIRE ASSURANCE TO QUIT.

Bound Brook Company Unable to Face the Hard Competition From the Stock Companies.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Bound Brook, Dec. 16.—The Bound Brook Mutual Fire Assurance Company, which secured a charter from the Legislature in 1836, is about to be dissolved on account of the lack of business. The directors named in the charter included such well-known names in the early history of Somerset county as John H. Voorhees, John Latturette, N. B. Smith, Ernest Schenck, N. V. Steele, J. D. Field, John Garretson, John Steele, Jr., Andrew V. D. B. Vosseler, Matthew Hopper, J. S. Randolph, John Roes, Jeremiah Parsell, Caleb Norton and Ebenezer S. Lewis. The company's early existence was a prosperous one and in 1876 the charter was extended by the Legislature to 1925. In 1881 the company had a large surplus of funds on hand, but in that year the big Bound Brook fire occurred and the surplus of the company was wiped out as a result. This was beginning of a number of heavy losses, which caused assessments on the stockholders. Of late it has been impossible to get new business, owing to the low rates made by the stock companies. At the meeting of the stockholders January 16th next it is expected that it will be decided to disband the company.

Taken to the Asylum.

Mrs. Marie Brokaw, aged 84 years, and for many years a resident of the borough, was taken to the Trenton Insane Asylum yesterday by Wm. N. Pangborn. Mrs. Brokaw formerly lived with the late Mrs. Mary Cooper, but when the latter died recently her mind became deeply affected and it was deemed wise to take her to a place where she would receive proper treatment.

Special Offers.

Plainfield Business College, after a Christmas vacation of a week, will reopen Jan. 2 (1) It makes a special offer to new students entering for the remaining six months. (2) It offers $5 for every position secured for its graduates of the past or present school year.

FOWLER FINDS FLAWS IN THE CURRENCY BILL

But Notwithstanding He Will Vote for Financial Measure.

DANGER IN DEMOCRATS.

CALLS IT AN UPWARD AND ONWARD STEP IN RIGHT DIRECTION.

Calls Attention to a Clause Which He Believes a Bimetallic Secretary of the Treasury Might Operate Under to Disturb the Money Parity, Not Carrying Out the Verdict of 1896.

Congressman Fowler, of New Jersey, during the debate on the Finance bill, spoke in part as follows:

"I shall vote for this measure with satisfaction because of the first fourteen lines and notwithstanding practically all that follows.

'Does the measure before the House carry the verdict of 1896 into execution beyond the peradventure of a doubt? I do not believe that it does. Let us see. On page four, beginning in line nine, we find these unfortunate, these fatal words: 'If at any time the Secretary of the Treasury deems it necessary, in order to maintain the parity and equal value of all the money of the United States, he may, at his discretion, exchange gold coin for any other money issued or coined by the United States."

"While in an earlier part of this same section he is commanded to redeem United States notes and Treasury notes in gold coin, he is in this subsequent clause remanded to his discretion, whether he will exchange gold coin for the same United States notes and Treasury notes, leaving his position precisely where it is today.

"The section no doubt taken altogether would authorize and impel a conscience and discretion leaning toward the gold standard to maintain the parity of all our moneys. But what about a conscience and a discretion that are hostile to the gold standard and wedded, in fact, by all political associations to silver, and, as he may choose to term it, the bimetallic standard?

"I am deeply impressed with the fact that the American people are tired of doubts, tired of interrogation points, tired of political straddles, and are looking wistfully for a law so clear and unequivocal that every intelligent citizen can understand it; a law that cannot be construed to suit the conscience or discretion of any Secretary of the Treasury; a law that needs no judicial interpretation; a law that is the undoubted echo of the people's verdict in 1896.

"One of the best thinkers of this House has declared that silver will go to a discount immediately if this measure becomes a law as it now stands He forgot, however, for the moment that the Republican party was in power; but I fear he spoke with prophetic vision if the latter-day Democratic party should by any mischance come into power and be given the opportunity of exercising a silverized discretion.

"I shall vote for this bill because it is an upward and onward step in the right direction, and because I have absolute confidence that the measure which shall go into the statue books will have the clear and unequivocal ring of a gold coin and not be marred by marks of indiscretion, evasion, subterfuge or paraphrase."

LEFT CLOCK TO HIGHEST BIDDER.

Odd Provision in the Will of the Late Justus Morris, of Elizabeth.

The will of the late Justus Morris, who at one time owned nearly all the property along Broad street, Elizabeth, N. J., has been admitted to probate by Surrogate Parrot, of Union county. He left his farm and furniture to his widow, who is some fifty years his junior, and whom he married a few years ago.

An odd provision of the will is that an old family clock shall be sold to the legatee who bids the highest for it. Another provision is that a monument, not to exceed $500 in cost, shall be erected over his grave. The will directs that Rufus Morris and Justus Morris, Jr., two sons of the deceased, be appointed executors.

Trying to Save Sight of Eye.

Thomas Muir, the night telephone operator at the local office, is confined to his home with eye trouble, and every effort is being made to save the sight of the one eye which does not appear to be greatly affected. His physician, Dr. Ard, is treating the eye, and hopes to be able to bring him around all right, but deems it wise that he should not use his eye for the present. His place at the telephone office is being filled by Charles McCann, an assistant.

TO CONTEST CLAIM OF MRS. PANGBORN.

A Bitter Fight Promised Over the Allen Estate.

ALLEN'S DEATH PECULIAR.

EXACT CAUSE OF HIS DEATH WAS NEVER DETERMINED.

Mrs. Allen Declines to be Interviewed, but it is Alleged That She Once Said That She Was Not the Legal Wife of the Man Now Claimed to Have Been Stephen Pangborn—Many Lawyers Interested.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Williamsport, Pa., Dec. 16—Frightened by the announcement of Mrs. Sarah Pangborn, of Plainfield, N. J., that she was the lawful wife of Winfield S. Allen, and proposes demanding a widow's share in his property in the courts, the owners of forty parcels of land which formerly belonged to the Allen estate have formed a combination to protect their interests. They sent a lawyer to Laceyville, where Mrs. Winfield S. Allen, the second wife, now resides, and she came here yesterday at the attorney's request to aid in upholding their claims.

Mrs Allen declined to be interviewd, but it was learned on seemingly good authority that several years ago she informed some of her friends that she was not the legal wife of the man she claims as husband. Much of Allen's property was disposed of to prevent Mrs. Pangborn, Allen's legal wife, from gaining possession.

Mrs. Pangborn has retained the law firm of H. C. & S. T. McCormick to look after her interests in the courts of this county. The senior member of the firm was Attorney General of the State during the administration of Governor Daniel Hastings.

The present holders of the properties in dispute held a meeting yesterday and decided to act jointly in defence of their interests. They have all been pledged to secrecy as to their intended method of procedure. Several prominent local attorneys have been employed, and it said that the number of lawyers will be increased.

It has never been positively decided whether Allen, or Pangborn, was murdered, committed suicide, was killed by a stray bullet fired by a careless hunter, or was the victim of his own carelessness. In the fall of 1888 he left the city with several friends on a hunting trip up Hoagland Run. Allen became separated from his friends, and they returned home without him. Searchers scoured the woods for several days before the body of Allen was found. Although the verdict of the Coroner's jury was that Allen met his death accidentally at his own hands, some persons believe that he was shot for the purpose of robbery, as he was known to be in the habit of carrying large sums of money with him. He exacted a high rate of interest from borrowers, and many persons hold to the theory that one of his creditors took that opportunity of getting revenge.

ANOTHER "COMING OUT."

Miss Lydia Ackerman to Make Her Debut in Society Sometime Next Month.

The debut of Miss Fanny C. Cox and Miss Louise G. Fisk this month was undoubtedly one of the events of the season for Plainfield society. It It was also the most elaborate "coming out" that has been given in honor of any Plainfield young women. It will be rivaled in elaborateness and magnificence by a similar social function next month when Miss Lydia Ackerman, daughter of Mrs. J Hervey Ackerman, of West Seventh street, will be formally introduced into Plainfield society with a series of receptions, dances and teas that will give the local society folk something to look forward to with much interest and expectancy.

RIKER AUTOMOBILES.

The Riker Electric Vehicle Company Purchases Plant.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Dec. 16—The Riker Electric Company has purchased at public sale the plant of the Brooklyn and New York Railway Supply Company at Third and Pine street, this city, for $62 000, and the company assumes all the outstanding obligations, amounting to $38,000. The Riker Company has occupied the plant for several months and is turning out a high-grade automobile, and it is claimed the concern will turn out ten automobiles a day as soon as the plant is completely equipped.

Giving Away Watches.

Werner, the clothier, West Front street, is giving away a watch to every purchaser of a suit or clothes of an overcoat.

WILL TRY TO RELEASE ULRICH FROM ASYLUM

Former Judge's Case Considered By Grand Pythian Officers.

THEY HAVE DECIDED TO ACT.

EFFORT MAY BE MADE TO GET HIM OUT BY HABEAS CORPUS.

If He is Produced in Court Then There Would be Opportunity to Produce Some of the Evidence Which is Alleged to Show Him to be Sane—Pythian Officers Decline to Discuss the Case for Publication.

As had been arranged by the special committee of Perseverance lodge, Knights of Pythias, there was a conference held last night between that committee and the grand officers of the order in this city to consider the case of John Ulrich, a former member of the New Jersey Legislature and a prominent Republican politician of Union county, but now confined in the State Insane Asylum at Morris Plains. Ulrich is detained there for the reason that he is declared to be of unsound mind, but the Pythians who have been investigating his case allege that he is perfectly sane.

The conference was held in the Hotel Kensington, and was presided over by Grand Chancellor Somers Champion, of Atlantic Highlands. J. P. D. Kirch, a lawyer, of this city, who is chairman of the special committee investigating the subject for Perseverance Lodge, presented a large amount of evidence which goes to show, it is alleged, that Ulrich is being subjected to a great injustice in being confined in a mad house against his will. Among the documents favorable to the case is said to be an affidavit from one of the physicians that signed the commitment sending Ulrich to the asylum, which states that he now believes him to be perfectly sane and deserving of his liberty.

The matter was discussed at great length by the Pythian conference and a plan of action to secure Ulrich his liberty decided upon, but just what it is remains a secret with the Pythians engaged in the project. It is understood, however, that it is the intention to make application to have Ulrich produced in court by habeas corpus proceedings, where it will be possible to secure a hearing for the mass of evidence which the Pythians claim to have to show that their brother is being detained illegally and in defiance of his rights as a citizen.

After the meeting of the officers they adjourned to the rooms of Perseverance Lodge, West Second street, where the district meeting was held, and where Samuel Robinson, of that lodge, was elected to the office of district deputy. At this meeting a slight reference was made to the case of Mr. Ulrich, but no names were mentioned. He was spoken of as one living, yet dead. No extended report was made on the case, but the committee from the lodge was continued after it made a report of progress.

There was an unusually large attendance of Knights at the meeting, thinking that a report on Mr. Ulrich would be submitted. Before the meeting adjourned degrees were conferred on several candidates.

A. G. O. P. SMOKER.

Republican Leaders Arrange a Pleasant Social Event at Elizabeth This Evening.

The smoker to be given this evening at Herman Hall in East Scott place, Elizabeth, by the Union county Republican committee will be an occasion of much interest and pleasure. It will be notably a local gathering and there will be Republicans from all sections of the county, including those who have been honored with public office and the leaders. Guests are also expected from different parts of the State, and an opportunity will be given for further comenting the party unity by personal acquaintance.

The committee of arrangements consists of James White, James C. Calvert and John D. Barr, of this city, Hon. Roger F. Murray, of Plainfield, and S Rusling Ryno, of Rahway, and they have left nothing undone to insure and evening of real profit and pleasure.

There will be no formal speeches, but some brief addresses are expected, in addition to a programme of music and recitations.

A Special Service.

There will be a special service in the Congregational church tomorrow evening at 7:30. The pastor will give an address on 'The Lord Earl,' "The Children's Friend," Lord Shafterbury. There will be special instrumental music by Prof. Conde and Miss Barnes.

—Press want ads bring results.

JOSIAH BROWNE DIED THIS MORNING.

Prominent Plainfielder a Victim of Typhoid Fever.

WAS ON WAY TO RECOVERY.

ONE OF THE LEADING MEMBERS OF THE HILLSIDE CLUB.

Born and Brought Up in New York City, and Spent Most of His Life There—A Mercantile Career—Has Been Secretary of American Tobacco Co. For Years—Always Been a Republican.

Quiet and unostentatious in all his ways, there were few men in Plainfield who attained such general popularity as Josiah Browne, of 1225 Watchung avenue. The news of his death early this morning was a general shock to the whole community. He was just recovering from a severe attack of typhoid fever and, when there seemed no doubt of his recovery, death came very quickly.

Mr. Browne was born in New York city, April 6, 1851. He received his education in the schools of that city, and spent most of his life there, although he accompanied his family when they moved away on account of his father's poor health and settled in Gloversville, New York State. He began a mercantile career as a young man and finally became associated with the American Tobacco Company as secretary some six years ago. He moved to Plainfield nine years ago and resided in the large house on Watchung avenue, corner Webster place, where he continued to reside up to the time of his death.

He was prominently identified with the old Hillside Tennis Club, and was one of its first directors and treasurers. He was very active in the interests of the club. When the club was changed to the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club and became located in its new quarters, he continued in the office of treasurer and was one of its strongest supporters. He took up the game of golf and became quite enthusiastic over the sport. Last year he was elected secretary. The great success of the club is due in some measure to his energetic efforts in its behalf.

Aside from the Hillside Club, he took no active part in any local organization. He was particularly fond of his home and was a kind loving father. He had a host of friends wherever he went. There was a genial fasination about his personality that made him universally popular. He was indentified with the Republican party in this city and was frequently chosen as a delegate to city and county conventions. He refused, however, to allow his name to be used for any nomination. He was a regular attendant at the Crescent Avenue church.

He leaves a widow, two sons and three daughters. His mother is still living, as are also one brother and two sisters, all residing in central New York.

Mr. Browne was taken ill a few weeks ago after his return from a dinner with a friend on Staten Island. The friend was taken ill and died shortly after. Mr. Brown was attacked with great intensity. He passed through the fever without complications and his temperature had become normal with the promise of an early an excellent recovery when his heart, always weak in his best health, began to fail and soon brought on the end.

The funeral services will be held from his late residence, Monday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock.

A Bright Little Fellow.

One of the brightest little fellows to be found in this part of the country is Edson Woodhull, son of F T. Woodhull, of Washington Park. He is a great reader of the newspaper, although young in years, and is especially fond of reading The Daily Press. One point upon which he dwells is the forecast of the weather, and he seeks this information every afternoon as soon as the paper is delivered so that he can inform his father upon his arrival home from his place of business. Many other things interest the little fellow and he is very studious.

Still Missing

Mrs. Angelo Pendretti, the Italian woman who disappeared from her home on Grove street a few days ago, has not been heard from, although every effort is being made to find her. The woman was, like her husband, a silk weaver, and worked at the local silk mill. There is no doubt in the husband's mind but what his wife's mind is affected, and he is afraid that she may do herself harm.

—Mrs. J. W. Noel has removed from 203 New street to 409 East Third street.

PHILADELPHIA IS CHOSEN

Republican Convention to Be Held in Quaker City.

DATE FIXED IS JUNE 19.

Only Three Ballots Required to Decide Upon a Place For the National Gathering of 1900—Kentucky Representatives Indulge in Personalities in Currency Bill Debate.

Washington, Dec. 16.—The Republican National Committee, after hearing arguments by representatives of the respective cities of New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and St. Louis, decided that the next Republican National Convention should be held in Philadelphia.

June 19 was fixed upon as the date for the convention.

The Quaker City won on the second ballot. The first resulted: Chicago, 20; Philadelphia, 13, St. Louis, 9, New York, 7. On the second ballot Philadelphia received 25 votes to Chicago's 24, and was declared the choice of the National Committee.

Committeeman Payne introduced a resolution, which was adopted, providing that in the National convention each State should be entitled to four delegates-at-large and one additional delegate for each 10,000 votes or majority thereof cast at the last preceding Presidential election, the territories and the District of Columbia to have four delegates each.

The committee adopted a resolution of regret at Vice-President Hobart's death, he having been the member from New Jersey. The resolution was offered by Representative Dick, of Ohio, and speaks of Mr. Hobart's twenty years of service, his affability and character. The profound sympathy of the Committee was extended to the family and the resolutions have been forwarded to them.

Hot Words in Currency Debate.

Washington, Dec. 16.—The last day of general debate on the Financial bill opened in the House of Representatives with a bare handful of members present on either side. Mr. Jones, of Virginia, was the first speaker, opposing the bill. He was followed by Representative Rhea (Ky.) and Williams (Ill.), who spoke also against the bill.

The serenity of the debate was unexpectedly interrupted by a personal clash between Mr. Berry and Mr. Wheeler, both Democrats, of Kentucky. Mr. Wheeler secured recognition to question statements made by Mr. Berry at a recent session as to alleged corruption in the recent Kentucky campaign.

"I regret the necessity of washing the linen of Kentucky on the floor of the House," said Mr. Wheeler, "but I do not propose that the residents of my state shall be maligned and slandered without a word of protest."

Mr. Berry stood a few seats in front of Mr. Wheeler, and the latter addressed himself personally to his colleague. Continuing, he said that Mr. Berry represented neither Kentucky nor her people, and that the people of his district would rebuke him speedily by retiring him to private life. The election of Taylor, he asserted, had been bought and paid for, with a railroad on one side and the plain people on the other. But despite this, he added, "Governor Goebel will yet be seated."

"Yes, I use the word advisedly," proceeded Mr. Wheeler, referring to his characterizing of Mr. Goebel as governor, "for before the buds burst on any tree in Kentucky he will be the chief executive of the state, and we will have routed the nefarious gang which secured the certificate of election by corruption, fraud and rascality."

The speaker paid further tribute to Goebel as a gallant gentleman, and denounced the reports set about against him.

"They were afraid of him," interjected Mr. Sulzer of New York.

"What does New York know about it?" shouted Mr. Berry.

"New York likes Goebel because he is a fighter," responded Sulzer.

Mr. Wheeler closed by declaring emphatically that Taylor had secured by irregular methods a certificate of election, but that when the calcium light of the courts was turned on the procedure, as it would be, William Goebel would be seated in the executive chair.

Col. Berry was quickly on his feet as Mr. Wheeler concluded, and responded savagely, and with much feeling. He said that Mr. Wheeler's talk was typical of the intolerance of the Kentucky element which does not brook freedom of opinion.

"You are clinging at the feet of Goebel," exclaimed Mr. Berry, shaking his finger at Mr. Wheeler, "and I tell you that your scalp is taken now by Goebel."

When reference was made to the irregularity of the Louisville convention Mr. Wheeler sought to interrupt, but Berry waved him off and said that he had participated in the disorder, and had stood up and yelled down opposition, with policemen about him. Mr. Wheeler denied the allegation, but Mr. Berry did not heed the interruption, and proceeded in his fiery response. He asserted that Mr. Wheeler was as bad as Goebel himself.

Mr. Wheeler gained a minute to reply and defended the regularity of the Louisville convention, saying that only a few thugs and toughs were excluded.

The tension over the affair was relieved at this point by a point of order raised by Representative Cox.

"What is the point of order?" asked the chairman.

"I object to having this Kentucky side show thrust into a national debate," said Mr. Cox, gravely, "to the edification of the Republican side."

That caused a laugh, and the heat of the exchange between the two Kentucky gentlemen was dispelled.

Mr. Brosius (Pa.) spoke in favor of the bill.

Senate Finance Committee.

Washington, Dec. 16.—The Senate Finance Committee, which has the greatest power in shaping the financial legislation of Congress, now comprises the following members:

Aldrich, chairman; Allison, Platt (Conn.), Wolcott, Burrows, Platt (New York), Hansbrough, Spooner, Jones (Nev.), Vest, Jones (Ark.), Daniel and Chilton.

The list includes eight Republicans and five Democrats, counting Jones (Nev.) with the Democrats. The committee has heretofore been a silver committee, but now all of the Republicans are counted as gold men, except Wolcott, whose vote can be counted upon by the administration whenever needed. All the Republicans will vote for the administration currency bill.

The proceedings in the Senate were unimportant and after the introduction of several measures an adjournment was taken until Monday.

INGERSOLL STILL MISSING.

The Tompkins County Treasurer Not Yet Heard From

Ithaca, N. Y., Dec. 16.—Nothing has been learned as to the whereabouts of Charles Ingersoll, the Tompkins county treasurer, who failed to meet the Board of Supervisors when they began an investigation on Tuesday, and who has not been seen since that time, though a vigilant search has been instituted. It is known that there has been a serious shortage which is variously estimated. Supervisor George W. Frost says that it will not fall far short of $12,000, though as yet it cannot be ascertained precisely. Vouchers and other requisites to a final accounting are in possession of Ingersoll, and, in the absence of these, the exact sum of the shortage cannot be ascertained.

The Board of Supervisors has passed a resolution asking Governor Roosevelt to Remove Ingersoll from office and to appoint someone to fill the vacancy.

Lost Mail Pouch Found.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 16.—A pouch containing valuable mail for Milford Centre, Ohio, was reported by the Postmaster as missing. The postal clerk responded that it had been dumped at that place, through which the train passes at a fifty-mile gait. Friday night it was found tightly twisted around the brake of the postal car at Terre Haute, much of its contents missing, the brake beam having torn a hole in it. Investigation showed that the pouch, when dumped at Milford Centre, rebounded and was sucked under the car by the wind, where it had twisted around the brake beam in such a manner as to escape the attention of the inspectors at Indianapolis, St. Louis and East St. Louis, and it was only discovered after the car had returned Eastward as far as Terre Haute. Among the missing contents is a registered parkage for Milford Centre. Official reports show that the pouch traveled 600 miles before it was found by an inspector.

Divers Find Lost Boats.

Provincetown, Mass., Dec. 16.—A deeply-laden steamer, running along the southern coast of Massachusetts, struck a sunken obstruction. The captain reported the matter and a Government expedition found the place and sent down divers. These found two vessels fast locked together, with spars standing and evidence of both having been sunk in collision. They were the James B. Pace, of Dennis, and H. H. Hanscom, of New Haven. The master of the Pace was Captain Garfield, of West Dennis, and the Hanscom Captain Holmes. It is supposed the two schooners collided in the awful storm of last winter and went down with all on board. On both schooners men were lashed in the rigging or along the deck rail, and the sinking must have followed the collision so suddenly that there was no time for loosening the lashes.

Mr. Bryan Explains.

Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 16.—W. J. Bryan has telegraphed a statement here from Texas denying that he had Allen appointed Senator to prevent his being a Populist candidate for President next year. He says that Allen's experience as a parliamentarian was required at this particular time in the Senate to aid the nation and the Fusion forces. Through the State, the row is still increasing among the Populists and the Democrats over the appointment. Gov. Poynter is not held at fault though he is receiving a great many letters from both parties expressing their praise for Allen but their disgust at the deals which appear to be so numerous in the Fusion camps.

Price of Hosiery to be Advanced.

Chattanooga, Dec. 16.—The Southern Association of Hosiery Manufacturers has been organized in this city at the convention of hosiery mill men representing the largest interests in that line in the South. V. Ballard of Durham, N. C., was chosen president. Before the adjournment an agreement was reached advancing the price of the hosiery output of the mills represented 10 per cent, to go into effect Jan. 1.

Senator Morgan's Successor.

Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 16.—The state executive committee of the Populist party met in this city Friday afternoon and decided to call a state convention of that party, to assemble in Montgomery, May 10, 1900, for the purpose of nominating a full state ticket. It is also understood that the committee has urged M. W. Howard of Fort Payne, formerly a congressman, to become a candidate for the United States Senate to succeed John T. Morgan.

San Francisco Theatre Burned.

San Francisco, Dec. 16.—The Comedy Theatre, on Bath street, took fire Friday afternoon. Several alarms were quickly turned in. The fire is supposed to have started in the scenery room of the theatre and spread rapidly to several adjoining structures, which, however, were saved by the thickness of the fire walls. The theatre was totally destroyed.

Johnson Fooled the Guard.

Toledo, Ohio, Dec. 16.—Charles Johnson, the noted counterfeiter, while being taken to the penitentiary from here asked the guard if he might purchase some refreshments, and the request being granted Johnson called for what he wanted and paid for it with a counterfeit half dollar, which the guard had to redeem.

Accidentally Killed Himself.

Ogdensburg, N. Y., Dec. 16.—Stephen Burtis Gouverneur, of this place, accidentally killed himself with a shotgun while preparing for hunting.

New York Announcement.

Horner's Furniture.

The BEST IN THE MARKET because representing the productions of the best makers only. Other advantages are the unequalled assortments in all lines, whether wanted for city or country houses, and the very moderate prices at which the goods are marked.

The completeness of our assortments can best be understood from the fact that we carry in stock, and exhibit, more than two hundred and fifty distinctively different Bedroom Sets in every variety of material, as well as endless lines of Parlor, Drawing Room, Library and Dining Room Furniture, ranging from the modest and inexpensive to the most elaborately carved and inlaid.

In a word, every article required for use, comfort and adornment in the household can be had with its plainly marked moderate price at the Great Furniture Emporium of

R. J. Horner & Co.,
Furniture Makers and Importers,
61-65 W. 23d St., New York
(Adjoining Eden Musee.)

Send for Illustrated Handbook, "Our American Homes and How to Furnish Them."

BEST FOR THE BOWELS

If you haven't a regular, healthy movement of the bowels every day, you're sick, or will be. Keep your bowels open, and be well. Force, in the shape of violent physic or pill poison, is dangerous. The smoothest, easiest, most perfect way of keeping the bowels clear and clean is to take

CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
TRADE MARK REGISTERED
REGULATE THE LIVER

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good, Do Good, Never Sicken, Weaken, or Gripe. 10c, 20c, 50c. Write for free sample, and booklet on health. Address Sterling Remedy Company, Chicago, Montreal, New York. 322a

KEEP YOUR BLOOD CLEAN

W. H. WILLIAMS,
PLAINFIELD NEWSDEALER
for 35 years.

Will take subscriptions for one month from Dec. 9th, 1899, for

St. Nicholas, 1 yr	2.50
Scribner's Monthly, 1 yr	2.50
Harper's Monthly, 1 yr	2.50
Century Magazine, 1 yr	3.00

Either of the above would make a good Christmas present.

The New York morning papers delivered at an early hour by good carriers throughout the city.

W. H. Williams,
No. 111 Park Ave.

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Hire for Picnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

A. H. ENANDER
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections
210 PARK AVE.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.
Paris for 1900.
Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.
Circulars at
181 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

THE
First National Bank,
of Plainfield, N. J
Capital ..... $200,000.
Surplus and Profits..... $90,000.
J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.

DIRECTORS.
Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Cortell.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum
VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

We are NOW receiving orders for
HUYLER'S
XMAS CANDY,
—to be delivered at—
CHRISTMAS TIME.
Remember the
Only Agency
—IS—
Leggett's Pharmacy,
Y. M. C. A. Building.
Tel. 705.

Flynn Bros.,
SHOE DEALERS,
222 WEST FRONT STREET,
Near Music Hall,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

November.

The mellow year is hasting to its close.
The merry birds have almost sung their last.
Their faint notes twitter in the dreary blast—
That shrill-piped harbinger of early snows.
And hint to you in good coal to invest
At seven forty-seven Front Street, west.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.

We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1.25.
LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.
Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.

—CHRISTMAS GOODS—
A Big Assortment.

Ladies Desiring . .
KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING
done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 203 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

F. A. DUNHAM,
—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—
109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87.

Toys, Toys, Toys
for the
HOLIDAYS
—AT—
HARPER'S,
411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .
in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated
DOMESTIC FINISH.
Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.
Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.
Trading Stamps given.
The City Steam & Hand Laundry
MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 223 B
19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

SELLING OUT
Below Cost
TO CLOSE BUSINESS
Star Crockery Store,
23 Somerset St., near Front.
3 and 9 cent Articles.
BARGAINS! BARGAINS!
Solomon & Evans,
Proprietors.

LAIRE'S . .
HOLIDAY SPECIALS.
Carving knives.
U. S. club skates.
Roger's plated ware.
Fine pocket cutlery.
Silver finish coffee and tea pots.
Nickel on copper tea kettles.
Boys' sleighs.
Fine razors and hones.
Grand Rapid sweepers.
Baby Rapid sweepers.
Shinny sticks.
Christmas tree holders.
Coin silver ware, cheap.
Fine table cutlery.
Fine scissors and shears.
Corn poppers.

The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,
Tel. Call 682.

TRY THE
QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,
No. 337 Park Avenue.
(Miller Building.)
Goods called for and delivered free of charge.
Domestic or gloss finish.

DOBBINS. CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.
317 West Front street.

J. W. VAN SICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly
TELEPHONE 148 b

Your Valuables,
will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.
Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

GAS
For the Fire-place.
Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates.
Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.
CURTIS M. THORPE,
310-312 PARK AVENUE.
"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIREPLACE."

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 119 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J. Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
219 Park Avenue.

A. KANE,
Dealer in
BLUE STONE FLAGGING and CURBING.
Also Dealer in
Flour, Feed and Grain, Coal and Wood.
Store and Office
409 East Third St.,
Next to
THIRD STREET MISSION.
Open Evenings Until 8 o'Clock.

How to Get Well!
Plain Facts for Those Who Are Sick.
RADAM'S Microbe Killer
(THE WATER OF LIFE)
Is Saving Thousands of People From the Grave.

It cures Consumption, Cancer, Chronic Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Stomach and Liver Troubles, Scrofula, Eczema, and all Eruptions, Rheumatism, Lameness of the Back or Limbs, all Tumors and Swellings, Diabetes, Bright's Disease, Fistula, Piles, etc. Especially valuable in Female Complaints.

Its many Cures are of daily record—very often when all hope had been abandoned.

Why not try a bottle ($1) or a gallon jug ($3)? It will certainly cure you, as it has thousands of others.

If you are interested or any of your friends are sick, don't delay in sending for a book containing letters from our patients, mailed free on application.

The Wm. Radam Microbe Killer Co
121 PRINCE STREET, NEW YORK, or
L. W. RANDOLPH,
Plainfield, N. J.

Chas. L. Stanley,
. . FLORIST . .
No. 142 North Ave

HEADQUARTERS for choice Cut Flowers, Ferns, Palms, a large assortment of other plants.

Floral design work and decorating for all occasions. Satisfaction guaranteed; an immense stock of Holly, Wreaths, Roping, etc.

Annex stores for the Holidays,
133 North Ave,
South Ave, Netherwood,
and Central Ave., Westfield

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS,
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.
A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

John G. Bantle,
First-class
Ladies' and Gent's
TAILOR.
428 Watchung Avenue.
Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

M. Molnar,
432 Watchung Ave.,
Ladies' and Gents'
FINE TAILORING
Graduate of
New York Cutting School.
Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with old clothes and I will take chances of being entrusted with new work.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills
25c.
A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.
MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung avenues.

BULLER LOSES TEN GUNS

The British Suffer Another Disastrous Defeat.

GUNS ARE LEFT BEHIND

The Troops Marching to the Relief of Ladysmith Are Forced to Retreat at Tugela River—The Order to Retire Given to Avoid the Possibility of More Serious Losses.

London, Dec. 16.—The War Office has just received a despatch that General Buller has met with a serious reverse, losing ten guns.

General Buller was attempting to cross the Tugela River. Finding it impossible to effect his object, he ordered a retirement in order to avoid greater losses. He left eleven guns behind. Buller's forces were marching to the relief of Ladysmith.

The news of General Buller's reverse was received so late that the morning newspaper comment is confined to perfunctory expressions of extreme regret and disappointment and of the necessity of calmness and redoubled efforts to retrieve the position. This latest check is regarded as the most serious event in Great Britain's military history since the Indian Mutiny.

In General Buller's official despatch he admits that his losses in killed and wounded were very heavy, but does not state to what extent the casualties reached. Men and horses were mowed down like wheat before a reaper.

The fire of the Boers was so furious and so unexpected that Buller's forces were utterly unable to check it, and the result is said to be the most disastrous calamity of the war thus far.

The Standard says: "General Buller's dispatch is deplorable reading. It is the now familiar story of concealed Boers and of British troops marching up blindly almost to the very muzzles of the enemy's rifles. It cannot be doubted that the moral effect will be to aggravate our difficulties over the whole field of operations.

"The country has discovered with annoyance and surprise that subduing Boer farmers is about the hardest work we have entered upon since the Indian Mutiny. Their commandants have shown themselves able to give our generals useful but expensive lessons in modern tactics."

The Times says: "Since the days of the Indian Mutiny the Nation has not been confronted with so painful and anxious a situation. Plainly General Buller's advance is paralyzed for the moment as completely as Lord Methuen's and General Gatacre's."

The depression over the defeat of Great Britain's trusted and idolized commander is all the greater as, in the last forty-eight hours, there has been reports of the relief of Ladysmith. Friday the War Office allowed it to be understood that the position of affairs in Natal was entirely satisfactory. The reaction is all the more pronounced on this account.

The gloomy information came too late to reach the service clubs, and only a few journalists and straggler were waiting at the War Office. It hardly has been realized until now, even after the experience of this week, that General Buller could fail.

Virtually nothing has been allowed to leak through regarding his preparations, but the public waited patiently, in the confident belief that he was taking such time and precautions as would insure success.

No independent reports of the engagement have yet been allowed to come through, but General Buller's own dispatch tells the sad tale in sufficient outline to show that the British have been entrapped again by the astute Boers. It was not anticipated that General Buller would make a frontal attack; but no criticisms of his movements are made, since apparently he suffered a repulse rather than a defeat, and did not push the attack home, but broke it off in the middle so as to save a useless sacrifice of life.

It is expected that he will renew the attack shortly. Immediately on receiving the news, the War Office decided to mobilize still another division and to replace the losses of artillery. The necessary reinforcements will be hurried off as speedily as possible.

Official News From Modder River.

Pretoria, Transvaal, Tuesday, Dec. 12.—The following official announcement relating to the battle at Modder River has been made:

"Gen. Cronje reports that yesterday there was desultory fighting till 6, when heavy cannon fire was resumed. The Scandinavians stormed a difficult position, but it became untenable and they suffered severely. I was unable to send help. The British were in overwhelming force, but must have had at least 2,000 men put out of action either in killed or wounded."

Another official report, from Capt. Finnhart, says:

"There were no signs of surrender, the burghers fighting with conspicuous bravery and maintaining their positions under heavy fire. Our cannon were of very little use. The British were greatly assisted by balloons. Twenty-four ambulances were working backward and forward between the fighting line and the enemy's camp. Our loss is not definitely known. I estimate it at 100 killed and wounded."

A telegraph operator at the Modder River wires:

"Gun and Maxim firing has been proceeding since 5:30 this morning. At 10 cannonading was proceeding and at 2 the fighting was reported to be very severe. The Boer force along the river bank was being heavily attacked and is receiving assistance from the other Boer forces."

It is not known whether the operator refers to the fighting of Monday or to renewed fighting on Tuesday.

A Live Wire Killed Him.

Dallas, Tex., Dec. 16.—John Eggleston, 25 years old, of Gordonville, Va., was killed at Ft. Worth Friday night by a live electric wire. He fell dead from a pole.

Witnesses Start For Washington.

Washington, Dec. 16.—Chairman Tayler has been notified that the five witnesses from Utah to testify against Roberts have started for Washington.

SENATE MAY BAR ALLEN.

Question Raised That He is Not Entitled to a Seat.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 16.—Will the United States Senate permit William V. Allen to take his seat? This question has been raised in high political circles here and is agitating the minds of both Republicans and Fusionists, some of whom hold that the Senate cannot legally recognize the credentials which Mr. Allen holds—namely, the commission signed by Governor Poynter. The defect to the title is a constitutional bar, in view of the fact that the l te Senator Hayward never had an opportunity to take the oath of office.

Several of the leading lawyers of Omaha have given the subject serious consideration, and it is understood the matter will be submitted to the legal department at Washington and to the members of the Senate committees on Credentials and Judiciary. The most important opinion is that expressed by Judge James Wollworth, former president of the American Bar Association, who says:

"Although I have not looked up the point recently, it is my opinion that Hayward was not a Senator at the time of his death. Since he had not duly taken the oath of office, the status is the same as if he had never b en elected. The vacancy would, therefore, date from the last session of the Legislature, and there is doubt whether the Governor has the power to appoint the Senator."

A FATAL FIRE.

Three Persons Lose Their Lives in Brooklyn.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Dec. 16.—Flames spread with such rapidity through an old-fashioned death trap in the rear of No. 300 South First street, Williamsburg, Friday morning that three persons lost their lives and several others were burned or were badly injured in jumping from the windows.

There were several instances of the rarest bravery and self-possession. The heroine of the tragic event was a fifteen-year-old girl, named Jennie Freen. She saved herself and her two little sisters.

The houe was an ancient one and was originally a farm structure. It was of frame and two stories with an attic. On the ground floor lived James Snyder and his wife Freda. On the second floor lived Luke Freen, his wife, his son Luke, ten years old, and his daughter Jennie, fifteen, Josie, six and Katie four. Three aged women occupied the two rooms in the attic. They were Mrs. Freda Gosher, sixty-five years old, Mrs. Sarah Gibney, seventy-five years old and Mrs. Susan Smythe, eighty-five years old.

Luke Freen was burned to death. Two of the three aged women were suffocated to death. Mrs. Freen was seriously burned. Mrs. Gibney jumped from a window. One leg was broken, and she was so seriously injured internally that she will probably die. The fire had its origin in the explosion of a lamp that was left burning in the hallway on the second floor.

Squire Fails For $3,000,000.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 16.—John P. H. Squire & Co., a corporation doing a pork packing business, has assigned to H. W. Chaplin of this city. The liabilities are given as $3,000,000, assets $5,000,000. The assignment was due to inability of the company to secure ready cash to meet present obligations. Twenty other firms in New England owned or controlled in part or as a whole by the Squire corporation are to a greater or less extent affected by the failure.

War Forces Wool Upward.

Chicago, Dec. 16.—According to wool experts in Chicago, the war in South Africa is threatening the prosperity of New England wool manufacturers. A heavy shipment of Cape wool is due in Boston. New York and Philadelphia have a three months' supply of this staple, and if British campaigning shall last for sixty days in the Transvaal, indications are for a sudden, shap rise in wool, estimated at 10 to 15 per cent.

Leaped Into The Sound.

New York, Dec. 16.—Driven by his desire to peer into the mystery of future life, Maurice Strauss, twenty-five years ago a well-known actor, and lately an enthusiastic Spiritualist, is supposed to have ended his life by plunging into the Sound from the Fall River steamer Puritan Friday.

Attorney Arrested on Serious Charge.

Marion, Ind., Dec. 16.—Willam Washburn, a prominent attorney and a member of the Soldiers' Home here, is in jail charged with attempting to criminally assault a twelve-year-old girl.

Pittsburg Printers on Strike.

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 16.—Printers on all the daily papers with one exception, have gone on strike. The publi h rs have banded together to make as hard a fight as possible.

Lost His Nose in a Fight.

Akron, Ohio, Dec. 16.—Louis Sey and John R. Carr fought and the former struck Carr on the face with a knife, completely cutting off his nose. Sey has been arrested.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair and continued cold. Saturday and Sunday; diminishing westerly winds.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

New York, Dec. 16.—With few exceptions there were slight gains in the list to-day. Leather, Tenn. Coal and Tobacco lost.

Cash prices for produce:
Wheat, No. 2 red, .74⅝.
Corn, No. 2 mixed, .40¾.
Oats, No. 2 mixed, .29¼.
Flour, Minnesota patents, $3.90.
Cotton, middling, 7 11-16.
Coffee, No. 7 Rio, .05¾.
Sugar, granulated, 5.18.
Molasses, O. K. prime, .36.
Beef, family, 12.75.
Beef, hams, 22.75.
Tallow, prime, .05.
Pork, mess, 10.00.
Hogs, dressed, 160 lb., .05⅝.
Lard, prime, 5.72½.
Iron, Northern No. 1 foundry, 23.00.
Butter, Western Creamery, .27.

EDUCATIONAL

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO
(City Bank Building.)
Adelia C. Phelps will resume work Sept. 26th. Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

PRIVATE INSTRUCTION
given in
German and Elementary French.
Address for terms,
MISS ALICE GILBERT,
11 8 1mo 811 West Fifth Street

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
: : : PIANO AND THEORY : : :
Home Studio,
132 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN,
Address—60 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

.....Piano Instruction.....
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and
MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes
Elementary Classes.
Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Dufft.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

Don't miss the Special Sale for the holidays of FRAMES,
EASELS,
and PICTURES
AT REDUCED PRICES,
given by the
Guarantee Portrait Studio,
142 East Front Street.
Fine drawings in Crayons and Pastels from all kinds of photographs. All kinds of frames from the latest styles of mouldings made to order at the lowest prices.

CHARLES ARNOLD,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats,
POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON.
203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.
Telephone 238.

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
15 Vine St. Al work promptly attended to.

THAT'S THE IDEA!
You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmon
Telephone 601

EXTRA RICH MILK.
We are now ready to supply families who want the richest milk obtainable with milk which we guarantee to be from
JERSEY and GUERNSEY COWS.
Unexcelled in flavor and keeping qualities.
8c. per Quart Bottle.
SAMPLE FREE.
PLAINFIELD MILK AND CREAM CO.,
MARCHANT BROS., 327 WATCHUNG AVE.

XMAS IS NEAR
Now is the time to order your Xmas greens First come, first served. Holly, laurel and Xmas green wreaths and roping; also loose holly, palms, ferns, jardinieres and wicker baskets for Xmas presents.
MRS. L. J. DENTON,
Stillman Building. Tel. call 731.

POWERS' PHARMACY . Somerset St. Craig Place.
Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .
Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot and Tar
is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. C. W. LEONARD.
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.
NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00, 6:20 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.
SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a m.; 2:30 and 4:30 p. m.
PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a.m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p.m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.
SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
E. H. BIRD, P M.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery, nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores

: : Pride's Tonsorial Parlor : :
94 SOMERSET STREET,
opposite Somerset Hotel.
Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty . . . . .
CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.
-:- WILLIAM J. PRIDE, -:-
formerly with E. B. Maynard.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.
Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum.

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107, 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

Park Avenue Hotel,
Park Avenue and Eighth Street,
Plainfield.
Refurnished and Renovated.
Steam Heat in Every Room.
. . . Elevator . . .
First-Class in every respect.
Terms Moderate.
F. W. COLEMAN,
11 3 1mo Proprietor.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL,
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor.

-:- WINDOW SHADES -:-
Estimates cheerfully given.
Mail orders will receive prompt attention.
J. A. GREENE,
112 Madison Ave. Plainfield, N. J.
11 15 1mo

H. E. Gayle, 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

M. POWERS,
DEALER IN
LEHIGH COAL.
FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A.
Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

BAMBERGER'S
THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE
MARKET & HALSEY STS.
The Largest and Most Perfectly Equipped
Mail Order Service
Presenting Unequalled Shopping Facilities
For Thousands of Out-of-Town Patrons.
A thoroughly experienced staff of buyers in this department will make selections for you, and satisfaction is guaranteed or money will be refunded. We prepay mail or express charges to any part of the State on all paid purchases, and on C. O. D.'s for amounts aggregating $5.00 or more. Try our system, and you will not only save money, but have the additional advantage of assortments not equaled in Newark or surpassed anywhere in the land. Samples sent postpaid to any address upon receipt of postal card.
L. Bamberger & Co.
Newark, N. J.

Fall Styles in Derbies and Alpines.
All Kinds of Haberdashery.
AT.
J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

OUR SPECIALTIES
Choice Teas. Fine Coffees.
WHEN YOU ARE IN NEED OF FIRST-CLASS GROCERIES OR CANNED GOODS, CALL ON
THE PARK GROCERS
C. E. GULICK & CO, Tel. 931.

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.
Sherwins,
149 W. Front St.

A member of the New York Seventh Regiment on going to the State Camp at Peekskill, N. Y., took along some Ripans Tabules, believing the change of water and diet would be liable to produce some unpleasant results. The soldiers were awakened at 4.55 A. M., had five minutes to dress in, reporting to the officer in command at 5 o'clock. They were served with bread and coffee and went to drill until 7 o'clock, when a breakfast was served consisting of oatmeal, milk, beefsteak and boiled potatoes. The radical change in his way of living soon affected our friend and his experience was shared by his tent-mate, and they both thereupon had recourse to Ripans Tabules, our friend acting as physician for his companion. The effect the Tabules produced in curing the tendency to constipation and costiveness, and in brightening them up, was so marked that they continued using them regularly thereafter until the supply was exhausted, and then the other soldier telegraphed to New York for more. It was not unusual with them to take three or even four Tabules a day, and it was a regular habit to take at least one every night before going to bed. "I knew," said our friend, "that Ripans Tabules were good for those headaches of mine, and were especially valuable of a morning after having spent a night at a party where dancing was kept up very late, but the way they acted on me and my comrade in Camp was positively surprising. Ripans Tabules have now at least two warm advocates in the New York Seventh Regiment. They were our safety valve."

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (120 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

SHE CREMATED AN INFANT.

Woman Charged With Burning Baby in a Furnace.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 16.—Charged with throwing a newly born male infant into a furnace fire, a young woman, giving the name of Mrs. Scull, No. 1,305 Locust street, is under arrest, and is said by the police to have confessed. The charred body of the infant, two persons who claim to have witnessed the perpetration of the crime and a policeman who took the body of the infant from the furnace furnish details. Whether or not the baby was alive at the time it was thrown into the furnace the police refuse to say.

Mrs. Scull has been employed for some time past as a trained nurse in Mrs. Pennington's sanitarium, No. 4,216 Chester avenue. For three months she has made her home with Mrs. C. Wilson, No. 1,305 Locust street. The accused woman is about twenty-six years old and is attractive in appearance.

Thursday evening Mrs. Scull entered her home on Locust street, with a bundle in her arms. What the poli e say happened afterward, as told by Alice Miller, a colored servant in the house, to Lieutenant Mitchell, of the Nineteenth Police District, is substantially as follows:

Upon entering the house Mrs. Scull called Alice Miller and requested her to get a candle and accompany her to the cellar. The Miller girl hastened to comply with Mrs. Scull's wishes, and together they descended the stairs. Mrs. Scull laid the bundle on the floor near the furnace, and at once proceeded to unwrap it.

A few moments later an exclamati n of astonishment escaped the lips of the servant. The bundle contained the nude body of a newly-born male infant.

Before the wonder-stricken woman had an opportunity to see whether the little one was living or dead, Mrs. Scull raised it from the floor, and stepping quickly to the furnace opened the door and threw the infant in on the burning coals. Next instant the furnace door was closed with a bang.

The act was witnessed by George T. Burton, a negro janitor, who notified Policeman Dougherty. Mrs. Scull had escaped from the house when he entered it but she was arrested later.

Fined For Carrying Dynamite.

Mount Vernon, N. Y., Dec. 16.—Sam Pasquale, an Italian, has been fined $100 for carrying dynamite without a license through the streets of Mount Vernon. If he does not pay the fine Judge Schatz directed that he be committed to jail for one hundred days. In passing sentence the Court remarked that the prisoner had carried enough dynamite to blow up the city. Policeman Atwell saw Pasquale alight from a trolley car with a bag on his back. Atwell tapped the bag with his night stick and asked him what was in it. The Italian replied, "dynamite." Atwell hurried him to the police station for violating a city ordinance. The explosive belonged to the New York Telephone Company and was intended for blasting purposes.

New Cabinet For Peru.

Lima, Peru, Dec. 16. (via Galveston).—The new Cabinet, succeeding the Ministery which tendered its resignation December 2 owing to the attitude of the Chamber of Deputies, is constituted as follows: President of the Council of Ministers and Ministers of Foreign Affairs, Dr. Rivaguero; Minister of Home Affairs, Colonel Parra; Minister of Justice, Dr. Romero; Minister of Finance, Dr. Belaunde; Minister of War, General Velarde; Minister of Public Works, Colonel Zegarra Payn Admits Prussian Company.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 16.—State Superintendent of Insurance Louis F. Payn has admitted the Magdeburg Fire Insurance Company, of Madgburg, Germany, to transact business in this state. This is the first one of the Prussian insurance companies referred to in the decision of Superintendent Payn of last month to be admitted to transact business. The other two companies, the Aachen & Munich and the Prussian National, will be duly authorized when papers of application are filed in their entirety.

Church Subscriptions Collectable.

Des Moines, Iowa, Dec. 16.—The Supreme Court has held that a church subscription made on Sunday is collectable. E. M. Donald, of Fort Madison, defendant in the case brought by the First Methodist Episcopal Church, appealed from a similar decision by the Lee County District Court. Donald set up a defence that the obligation, having been entered into on Sunday, was illegal and that there was no consideration. Both claims are overruled.

Suicide Said to be Howard Tuttle.

San Francisco, Dec. 16.—A local paper says that an unknown young man who committed suicide last Sunday by jumping from the ferryboat San Rafael,, was undoubtedly Howard Tuttle, twenty-seven years old, son of a rich stock broker, who made his fortune in New York and now resides in Paris. The suicide is alleged to have been caused by Tuttle's unrequitted love for a young woman of Oakland.

Miners Want More Pay.

Massilon, O., Dec. 16.—Delegates representing 2,000 miners in this district report that they have been instructed to urge an increase of ten cents in the price of mining this year. State Secretary Lewis says that the miners can obtain the increase and also have the diffential between machine and pick mined coal reduced to twelve cents.

Died of Hydrophobia.

Winchester, Ind., Dec. 16.—Frederick Shaffer, an account of whose night battle with a mad dog created so much excitement some time ago, has just died in horrible agony of hydrophobia.

New York Man For Corea.

Washington, Dec. 16.—The President has nominated Edwin V. Morgan, of New York, to be secretary of the legation of the United States at Seoul, Corea.

The Famine in India.

Calcutta, Dec. 16.—The distress in the famine-stricken district is becoming more acute. About 2,250,000 persons have received relief.

TROOPS NEED CLOTHING.

Batchelor's Men Are Not in the Best Condition.

ARE SHORT OF PRVISIONS

A Successful Engagement Is Fought With the Filipinos in Isabella Province—Prominent Natives Make Suggestions to Otis—Filipino Government Said to be Ended.

Washington, Dec. 16.—The Secretary of War has received a cable despatch from General Otis, saying that he has been informed by prominent Filipinos that they regard the so-called Filipino government as entirely ended and suggest, as a means of restoring peace to the island, that all those who remain in arms against the United States be treated as bandits and subjected to the severest penalties as such. The Filipinos also said that as it would be necessary to maintain a large armed force in the islands to garrison the towns, they hoped that natives would be used as much as possible for that purpose.

General Otis's communication has been laid before the Cabinet.

This despatch from General Otis has just been received at the War Department:

"Batchelor, of the 24th Infantry, reports that on the 27th instant his battalion had an engagement at the junction of the Magat and Rio Grande Rivers, in Isabella Province, the enemy leaving four dead and five mortally wounded in their trenches. Our loss was one drowned, four wounded. He says his troops are in need of clothing, provisions and money. Will reach Tuguegaro, Cagayan Province, shortly. Doubtless the navy relieved him on Thursday.

"Four hundred and seventy Spanish prisoners arrived this morning, among them the sick at Vigan, numbering 120.

"Young, at Banqui, in northwestern Luzon, reports that his troops are still pursuing the remnant of the natives, who have twenty-three American prisoners in their possession. Country exceedingly rough. Our troops, without shoes, still persistently pursuing. Few Spanish prisoners now in the hands of the insurgents, probably 1,000, mostly in the south. I expect to effect their release in a few days.

"Negros reports that Sergeant Alfred Roeder, 6th Infantry, with twenty soldiers and eighteen native police, attacked 400 Filipinos at Madrigal, Negros, this morning. No casualties. Enemy's loss twenty-eight killed and a large number wounded. OTIS."

REMOVED TO THE YARD.

Corpse so Large Coffin Couldn't Be Taken Through the Door.

Columbus, Ohio, Dec. 16.—A 600-pound corpse has just been consigned to earth in this city. It was that of Mrs. Lottie Long, who died of elephantiasis.

When the undertakers attempted to place her body in the coffin the mammoth box proved too large to go through the door into the house. It was three feet wide and deep and six feet in length.

Six men staggered under the weight of the corpse into the front yard, and in the presence of a gaping crowd of spectators it was placed in the coffin. The body measured 84 inches in circumference.

Radical Move by Board of Regents.

Albany, Dec. 16.—The educational system of the State continues to prove a difficult proposition. The Regents have announced that they will not support any plan interfering with their body as constituted at present. The Commission appointed by the Governor to draft a plan announced that they had agreed on a scheme which in many respects is antagonized by the Regents.

Great Loss of Life in the Orient.

Vancouver, B. C., Dec. 16.—The steamship Empress of India has arrived from Yokohoma bringing advices to Dec. 1. Terrible tidal waves have been again devastating the oriental coasts in various parts and on different dates. Fatalities were the greatest on the Island of Ceram, where some districts were devastated and almost all the inhabitants killed.

A Site For Carnegie Library.

Oakland, Cal., Dec. 16.—The Ebell society women have been successful in their efforts to obtain the $20,000 necessary to purchase a site upon which to build the library for which Andrew Carnegie has given $50,000. The ladies had on hand in cash and pledges, $18,770, when a telegram was received from C. P. Huntington saying that he would contribute $5,000.

Chinese Soldiers Desert.

Vancouver, B. C., Dec. 16.—A Nanking despatch says that two battalions of modern-armed Chinese, sent to Kiangsi to assist the governor in putting down the rioting against the Roman Catholic missionaries, dispersed and took their impedimenta to the hills. It is believed that they were Kalao Hui secret society men.

Kobe is Free From Plague.

Yokohama, Dec. 1, via Victoria, B. C., Dec. 16.—It is expected that within a few days Kobe will be declared free from the plague. No cases, except one of doubtful character, have been reported there since Nov. 17. The energetic measures of officials have been crowned with extraordinary success.

Two Ministers Fined For Contempt.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 16.—The Rev. L. T. Mackay and the Rev. H. C. Herring have been fined $200 and $300 respectively by Judge Scott for contempt of court. They had asserted that Scott was acting improperly in a case involving the guardianship of two small children.

Admiral Dewey Invited West.

San Francisco, Dec. 16.—An invitation, signed by Mayor Phelan and the grand officers of the Native Sons of the Golden West, has been sent to Admiral Dewey, requesting his presence in this city on Admission Day, Sept. 9, 1900.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 2:00 p. m.

105 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week
$5 a year—in advance.
No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada
Delivered by carrier or by mail.
The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district
Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on request.
Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., DEC 16, 1899

COMING EVENTS.

Dec. 16—Social for leaders in Boys' Department of the Y. M. C. A.
Dec. 17—Adjutant Emily C. March will speak at the men's rally at the Y. M. C. A. at 4:15 p. m.
Dec. 18—Literary Society of the Y. M. C. A.
Dec. 18—Used in Bible class taught by Rev. D. M. Stearns at Y. M. C. A. Hall.

Holiday Trade is Not Dull.

About every so often the learned and esteemed editor of the News indulges in some editorial remarks that are so totally out of joint with his previous utterances in print and the actual condition of affairs, that one wonders what sort of a mental process actuates his brain.

The latest example of erratic editorial conduct of the News man was his lengthy screed in Wednesday's issue wherein he decried the alleged dull times and scarcity of money that prevails in Plainfield during this holiday season. Such a claim from such a source is in strange contrast to constant references to the prosperous times under the Republican administration that have found such a welcome place place in the editorial column presided over by the News man. That is an evidence of his erraticisms.

But as to the truth of the statement—there's where he runs counter to the fact. We have it from many of the most prominent and biggest merchants in town that their holiday trade was never better than it is this year, and that the down-in-the-mouth words of the News were as unnecessary as they were erroneous.

Supremacy in Ironmaking.

A Pittsburg dispath to the New York Times reports the sale to German buyers of 250 000 tons of wire and nails by the American Steel and Wire Company. The Germans are driven to the American market as the only source of supply to meet immediate requirements.

This statement suggests the Philadelphia Record to say: "This is the tribute which all the nations, one after the other, are paying to America supremacy in iron making. It is not probable that we shall ever lose the place we have now attained as the largest producers of iron and steel in the world. Our wealth of raw material is inexhaustible, and the ore and the coal are so distributed as to insure cheap production. We sell wire and nails to the Germans, locomotives and bridges to the English and battleships to the Russians and Japanese. Why should we not build our own international merchant marine? We have the cheap material, and we knew how to put it together. If we can make and sell nails, by the same token we can make and sell ships."

Indications at the State capital point to the selection of Franklin Murphy, of Newark, for the place left vacant in the Republican National committee by the death of Vice-President Hobart, and there has been much discussion among the State leaders as to whether or not Mr. Murphy would be willing to accept the place. The chairman of the State Republican committee has the confidence of his fellow members and of the leaders in the counties throughout the State, and it is asserted that he is just the man to take up the work laid down by Mr. Hobart at the outset of his illness. Thus far, however, Mr. Murphy has not intimated any desire for membership in the National committee, but the fact that he is personally acquainted with all the committee members is advanced as a reason why he should be given the position.

The city of Rockford, Ill., for several years paid a private company $125 per annum for each 2,000 candle power arc lamps. Two years ago the city made plans to establish a municipal plant. The private company failing to defeat the project offered to light the city for $56 per light. The city now owns its own pole line and is getting a 2,000 power candle power lamp for $52 per year.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

A somewhat amusing story is related concerning a certain woman in this city. While the postoffice was draped out of respect for the late Vice President Hobart this woman happened near the office one day and noticing the draping could not imagine for what purpose it was placed there. She rushed into the office and seeking the postmaster exclaimed: "Mr. Bird, what is the office draped for?" The postmaster explained, whereupon the excited woman replied "I am so glad! I thought that you was dead."

* * * * *

A new order on the Jersey Central Railroad, which does not find particular favor among the brakemen on the freight trains of that road these cold days, is to the effect that hereafter all brakemen must remain on the cars all the time while on duty. The rule is designed to prevent accidents. Freight trains frequently break in two and then the two parts come together with disastrous results, so that it has been deemed best to have the brakemen remain where they can notice any trouble as soon as it occurs and thus prevent a wreck.

* * * * *

With the approach of the Christmas season the trade in the various varieties of evergreen trees will fast assume quite large proportions. In the family where there are children the Christmas tree is considered a part of that festivity that can ill be spared. For the last two years it was remarked that the hard times rather reduced the trade, but this year promises to be a record breaker. There are many families who, under the influence of the prosperous times, are better able and far more in the humor to observe the holiday with all the usual pleasures. The demands of past years have greatly reduced the available supply of these trees in this immediate neighborhood and many of them have to be brought here from some distance. Next week will see the temporary dealers in that line out in force exhibiting their stock at every convenient point

COUNTRY MINING BOOM.

OLD COPPER MINES AT FLEMINGTON TO BE REOPENED.

A New York Syndicate of Capitalists Has Become Interested and Has Bought 500 Acres of The Land.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Flemington, Dec. 16.—The Flemington copper mines are to be reopened The mines are the largest and richest in this section of the country They are located just on the outskirts of Flemington, and were abandoned in 1866. A New York syndicate has been negotiating and purchased 500 acres of land, embracing the farms of James J. Losey, C. B. Davis and William J Suydam.

Mining experts have been prospecting for some time in the different sections, and, it is claimed, have discovered large deposits of copper in paying quantities. With the improved methods of mining and extracting ore it is believed that the Flemington mines will rival those of the great copper regions of Michigan.

Copper in paying quantities also probably exists at Copper Hill, a small town two and a half miles from Flemington. An English company operated there about a century ago, but it is not known with what success. All traces of the abandoned mines are now lost from view, and will have to be prospected for again. The town derived its name from the locating of the mines there.

The present boom recalls the mining fever which reigned here a half century ago. Many companies were organized and thousands of dollars were sunk in the enterprises. The ore was first discovered near Flemington three-quarters of a century ago The first mining company was organized in 1886, and was known as the Neshanic Mining Company. Among the other companies formed were the Flemington Copper Company, the Raritan Consolidated Mining Company, the American Copper Mining Company, of Flemington, the Philadelphia and New Jersey Mining Company, the South Flemington Mining Company, the Readington Mining Company, the Central Mining Company, the Acron Copper Company and the Hunterdon Copper Company.

Miss Young, of Trenton, has been visiting Plainfield relatives for a time.

TRY GRAIN-O! TRY GRAIN-O!

Ask your Grocer today to show you a package of GRAIN-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, like it. GRAIN-O has that rich seal brown of Mocha or Java, but it is made from pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. ¼ the price of coffee. 15c. and 25c. per package. Sold by all grocers.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it: no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,
122 East Front Street.

Important ANNOUNCEMENT

Taking advantage of the importers' closing-out sales we have recently consummated an extensive purchase of holiday goods at ridiculously low prices. By closing out entire lots we secured unheard of values. Goods are now here and on Sale. Purchase was very comprehensive and includes 24-karat gold-plated Clocks, burnished frame plate glass Swinging Mirrors, Comb and Brush Sets, Toilet Articles, Manicure Sets, Photo Frames, French Vases, and many other choice Holiday Novelties. In the lot are 21 doz. only Tinted Medallions—a regular 75c number. They will be sold at 48c each while they last. A more magnificent collection of Toys, Books, and Holiday Goods in general has never been offered the people of this community. Do not fail to visit us.

. . . A Word of Warning . . .

Judging from present indications we are to have an unprecedented crush this year. We are only too anxious to wait upon people promptly and satisfactorily, but our resources are already taxed and we are a little concerned for the coming week. We counsel you to buy now while you can shop with comparative comfort. DO NOT DELAY. . . .

This Week Store will be Open till 9 p. m.

NO STAMP BOOKS will be redeemed at any time next week. We are too busy and must ask your indulgence to this extent. Trading Stamps with all Cash purchases.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,
234, 236, 238, 246 W. Front Street.

PECK'S CORNER.

LIKE A PROCESSION

Someone must lead. We are not the "whole thing," but are right up in front.

HOLIDAY GOODS -:- AT PECK'S

Merry Christmas. Happy New Year.

To those who contemplate making

Christmas Presents

I advise you to call and see the

Handsome Building Lots At Woodland Park, Plainfield.

Suited for a king or prince. Or some of our one or two acre Plots for Raising Poultry, &c. You can buy these properties at Low Prices, monthly payments guaranteed title. These properties will double in value in two or three years. Other investments to suit all.

SILAS D. DRAKE,
175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

OPEN EVENINGS. FURNITURE.

Wouldn't a clean finished, well-made piece of Furniture make an ideal Christmas present?

FURNITURE. Jardinier Stands from 50c to $5.00.

POWLISON & JONES,
149 and 151 E. Front Street.

BUY YOUR PHONOGRAPHS,
Gramophones, Records and Supplies
A GOOD MACHINE AT $5.00.
BROKAW'S . . .
The Piano Dealer, 123 East Front Street.

Wieda's

FOR CHRISTMAS CANDIES,

Candy Toys, Dutch Baskets, Candy Canes and Pipes at any price from 1 cent to $1 00. Special mixed candy at 10, 15, 20, 30, 40 and 60c per lb. Every piece is strictly pure and fresh. We serve Ice Cream and Soda Water all the year round.

144 WEST FRONT STREET.

7000 BU. of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last Order Quick.

Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use

REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT.
Made only by
T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,
At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

THE BOOT SHOP AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,
107 Park Avenue.

EXECUTOR'S SALE
OF VALUABLE
PERSONAL PROPERTY.

The undersigned, executor of D. M. Walter, deceased, will sell at public vendue at 12 m., sharp, on THURSDAY,

DECEMBER 21, 1899.

On farm formerly owned by D. M. Walter, on the road leading from Plainfield to Rahway, near Hillside Golf Grounds.

All the personal property of which. D. M. Walter, died, seized, consisting of beds, bedding, carpets, stoves, chairs, tables, mirrors, cutlery, crockery, etc. Also farming implements and machinery.

HOUSEHOLD and KITCHEN FURNITURE.

.....ONE BLACK HORSE.....

Lot of Poultry.

Sleigh, 1-horse plough, cultivator, harness, sled, spring wagon, hay rigging, rake, fanning mill, hay cutter, 2-seated carriage, plows, 1-horse carriage, buggy. Also 50 bushels old corn, hay, 30 gallons vinegar, and various other articles too numerous to mention.

TERMS made known on day of sale.

12 6 td W. R. CODINGTON, Executor.

—Use Press want ads.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, Dec. 16—Rev. A S. Phelps, rector of Holy Innocents Episcopal church, has been delivering a series of interesting lectures the past week on "The Crusaders."

The friends of Engineer Stephen P. Brown will be pleased to learn that he is recovering from the injury to his eyes, and that he will not lose the sight as has been reported.

The trolley cars of the Plainfield Street Railway now run on the fifteen-minute headway and the cars of the Brunswick Traction Company meet them each alternate trip.

The family and friends of Albert N. Randolph wish to thank the public for expressions of kindness on the occasion of their late bereavement.

Mrs. Catherine Mairer has been entertaining Mrs. Ferdinand, of Somerville, and Mrs. Wm. B. Connolly, of Port Reading.

Miss Frances Hunt, a pupil at the Plainfield Business College, recently passed a successful and creditable examination.

Landlord Casterline, of New Market, is to have a live pigeon shoot next Thursday afternoon on the baseball grounds.

The Christmas entertainment of the Presbyterian church will be held in the chapel Sunday evening, December 24th.

Miss Folsom has resigned as teacher in the Greenbrook district school, and has left on a vacation of several weeks.

Miss Emma Nelson, of New Market, entertained the members of last season's tennis club Tuesday evening.

The residence of Mrs. Sophia D. Smalley, which is occupied by A. A. Lake, is being painted.

The new factory which was soon to locate in New Market is not yet in evidence.

The Park Hotel, kept by Joseph Maier, has been granted a renewed license.

Street Commissioner Staats has finished work on the streets for the season.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, December 16.—Rev. Mr. Woodruff, of the Methodist church, has arranged for special service in his church tomorrow. In the morning at 1:30, Rev A. E. Armstrong will preach. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon Rev. Charles Davison, of Japan, will make an address. At 7:45 in the evening there will be a song service followed by the evening sermon by the pastor The famous Drew Quartette, of Drew Seminary, will sing at this service. All are invited to attend the services.

C. A. Smith & Company, who have occupied the railroad property across from the station as a coal and lumber yard for a number of years, are moving their yard on the opposite side of the avenue on the Land Improvement Company property. It is rumored that the railroad company intend laying the corner vacated out with a park.

The Township Committee have had men for nearly two weeks clearing up Parlee avenue and laying a good serviceable walk from Front street to the trolley crossing. This will enable those living in that locality to reach the trolley very nicely.

The subject of Rev. G. M. Shott's Sunday morning sermon will be "Backslides Returning." In the evening the usual prelude will be "Repairing of the Mill" followed by the sermon "The Understanding Darkened."

R. S. Fisher, who has been station master at Fanwood for several years, has been transferred to Dunellen to a much better position with the company.

George H. Lyons has accepted a position as conductor on the Elizabeth and Westfield extension of the trolley.

Twilight Council, Jr. O U. A. M., held an interesting weekly meeting in their rooms last evening.

Henry Hand left Friday for a three months' hunting and business trip to Florida.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, Dec. 16—The business men of Prospect street are much incensed at the action of the Cranford Gas Light Company, which has a gang of men to work tearing up that thoroughfare to lay their mains. The merchants think that the company should have waited until after the holidays.

Mrs. Emma Dubois, of Park avenue, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Swackhammer, of Whitehouse.

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS THAT PLAINFIELDERS MAY WITNESS.

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World

Music Hall will be closed now until Christmas week when the Burrell Comedy Company, supporting Miss Laura Hulbert, will appear in repertoire at popular prices. The opening performance will be given Christmas afternoon, 25th inst., and reserved seats for same can be secured at box office Monday morning.

* * * * *

To meet the demand for an early presentation of Jerome Sykes and Edna Wallace Hopper in "Chris and the Wonderful Lamp" in New York, Klaw & Erlanger have decided to close the successful run of "The Rogers Brothers in Wall Street" at the Victoria Theatre, Saturday evening, the 30th inst., and book "Chris and the Wonderful Lamp" at this play-house to open Monday evening, January 1st. "Chris" is now in Boston at the Boston Museum. "The Rogers Brothers in Wall Street" will begin a run there Monday, January 1st, simultaneously with the first New York presentation of "Chris."

* * * * *

One of the respites enjoyed thoroughly by the throngs of holiday shoppers is the "dropping in" at F. F. Proctor's theatres in Greater New York—the Twenty-third Street Theatre and Proctor's Palace. For the week of Dec. 18th, the features at Proctor's Twenty-third Street Theatre will comprise John C. Fox and Katie Allen and their own company in the comedietta, "The Irish Dentist;" Harry Howard's Ponies, an interesting act for the children. At Proctor's Palace the stars of the bill week of December 18th, will be Gertrude Mansfield and Caryl Wilbur in a bright comedietta; Watson, Hutchings and Edwards, comedy trio; Jennie Yeamans, the favorite comedienne; Doherty's Poodles, wonderfully trained animals; Ward and Curren, eccentric comedians; Dick and Alice McAvoy, "Bowery types," and some twenty more.

ECLIPSE OF THE MOON.

An Unusual Phenomena That it May be Possible for Plainfielders to Witness.

Unless this evening happens to be cloudy, the people of Plainfield together with the other inhabitants of the United States, will then have an opportunity of witnessing an eclipse of the moon. It will be nearly total.

The moon this year is a real obliging sort of a chap. He makes his little tour through the earth's shadow at a time when it will be most convenient to watch him. At 4:33 o'clock, the sun takes his departure below the western horizon while the rotund face of the moon appears in the east at the same hour. His path across the heavens reaches nearest to the zenith of any time in the year.

After having made his little bow to the world in all the glory of the full phase, at 5:33 o'clock, he travels into the penumbra or partial shadow. It dims the brilliancy of his face but does not hide it. At 6:45 o'clock, while most folk are concluding their evening meal, the real shadow of the earth makes its appearance on the face of the moon. At first, there is apparently a tiny little nick in the north-eastern part of the face of the satellite. It grows steadily until nearly all the moon is covered and only a slim crescent of light borders part of the black shadow.

At 8:26 the eclipse will reach its greatest point. At that time .996 of the moon's diameter will be covered. Then the shadow will slowly pass off the opposite side until, at 10:07, the entire moon will once more be visible. At 11:19 he will have passed out of the penumbra and shone once more as any good and respectable moon should.

The present prospects are not of the brightest that this evening will permit the general observation of the interesting phenomena in this part of the country The weather observers are inclined to believe that it will be cloudy tonight. If they happen to be wrong in this instance, however, Plainfielders will have the best opportunity of witnessing an eclipse of the moon that has been presented for many a year.

Exposure to a sudden climatic change produces cold in the head and catarrh is apt to follow. Provided with Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh. Price 50 cents at Druggists, or Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York, will mail it. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation, cleanses and cures. Cream Balm quickly cures the cold.

Dr. T. S Davis, of Park avenue, has purchased a handsome new stylish horse for driving. The animal is a thoroughbred and comes from Delaware.

BIBLE CONFERENCE COMES TO A CLOSE.

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

but retreat.

Referring to the passage, "Take the shield of faith, whorewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked," Mr. Shelton said, in substance: "It is through faith that power comes to the believer to resist and overcome the attacks of Satan. 'Above all, take the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.' (Eph. 6:16). The shield evidently referred to was large and oblong, four feet in length by two and one-half feet in breadth like an oval door in appearance and when the combatant was behind it his safety was assured. Faith, to the Christian, is a protection against all the missiles of the enemy. Victory over every outset of Satan is assured if we but have faith in Christ. He is willing to save us, for He would not have any to perish: 'He is able to save us, for all power has been given unto Him in heaven and on earth.

"Let us hold the shield of faith firmly, that no dart of Satan shall pierce our souls. The promise is that by faith we shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one. No matter how severe and numerous our temptations may be, we can resist them through faith. The symbol here used suggests the fierceness of Satan's attacks.

"Not only does he attack us from without, but from him come our evil thoughts. It was the devil who put it into the heart of Judas to betray Christ. (John 13:2) He tempts us to disbelieve the word of God; to neglect prayer; to think lewd thoughts to deny Christ, when in the company of the ungodly; to desecrate the Lord's Day; our time and talents; and to commit secret sins. But these, and all other temptations, we may overcome, if we resist him steadfastly in the faith. (Rev. 5:9) For whosoever is born of God overcometh the world; and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. (John 5:4) Whatever or severe the attacks of the devil may be, they can be resisted, if we but trust in the power of Jesus to save.

"The soul that on Jesus leans for repose,
He will never, no never, desert to His foes;
That soul though all hell should endeavor to shake,
He will never, no never, forsake.

"We must believe that Christ can and will enable us to overcome every form of temptation,"

In closing Mr. Shelton dwelt upon the importance of using the Word of God intelligently and earnestly in Christian work. He said that those who use the divine Word will be used by the Holy Spirit in building up the kingdom of Christ. He referred to the reasons given by a noted Bible student as to why the Word of God is the Sword of the Spirit: "(1) Because it is of His own making. (2) Because He puts the edge upon it. (3) Because He alone can instruct in the use of it (4) And chiefly because He is the great Master in the use of it." Mr. Shelton appealed to his hearers to take this Sword and never put it down, "for the time will come," said he, "when you will need it for use. Receive it, study it, believe it, use it, and bring life and work up to its standard."

The following is a brief outline of the entire lesson: 1. General directions for the conflict of life; vss. 10 13 II. The Christian's complete armor described; vss. 14 17. (1) Have our loins girt about with; vs. 14. (2) Have on the breastplate of righteousness; vs. 14 (3) Have your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; vs. 15. (4) Take the helmet of salvation; vs. 17. (6) Take the sword of the spirit, the world of God; vs. 17."

After the conference many remained in response to an invitation and for fifteen minutes Mr. Shelton gave a personal talk containing good advice and points for continuing the study of the Bible. Before the conference was concluded a large number met Mr. Shelton and personally thanked him for his work of the week.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store.

Generally Speaking.

The irrepressible youth very early in life
Falls in love with each maid he sees,
In fact, he no sooner gets down on his lip
Than he's apt to get down on his knees.
But when later on he is married, he doth
In the custom of wiser men grow,
He gets him a home and its comfort insures
With fuel from Stevens & Co.

Mrs. Henry P. Johnson, of Raritan, has taken up her residence in this city.

AT RANDOLPH'S,

See our Window Display. CHRISTMAS GREETINGS.

Great values in choice Perfumes. Never before this opportunity. Bottle goods from 10c to $4 50.
Hair Brushes, Military Hair Brushes, prices just ½ their reg. value.
House Thermometers, large assortment. Sachet Powders in bulk, 40 cents per ounce and in packages, 10c, 15c, 35c.
Lowney's Celebrated Candies, 60 cents per pound.
Whitman's Chocolates, 40 and 80c per pound.
PLACE ORDERS EARLY.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for Lowney's Chocolate and Chocolate Bon-bons. TELEPHONE CALL. 19

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—A slight illness detains Herman Schwed, of Fairview avenue, at his home.

—Court Pride, No. 8021, A. O. F., will hold an important meeting next week Tuesday evening.

—Oh ho! Did you see the crowds at Peck's yesterday. Linen handkerchiefs and aprons the cause.

—Next Tuesday evening John Hand Camp, No. 28, Sons of Veterans, will meet and consider some business of importance.

—There will be election of officers at the meeting of Iona Council, Degree of Pocohontas, next week Wednesday evening.

—On Tuesday evening Old Glory Council, Daughters of Liberty, will elect officers and give an entertainment afterwards.

—E. B Maynard, the North avenue barber, has engaged the Cuban barber that was formerly employed by W J. Pride, of the borough.

—West Front street is being cleaned under the direction of Street Commissioner Gavett, and it presents a far more respectable appearance.

—At the meeting of Martha Washington Council, Daughters of America, next Tuesday evening business of importance to every member will be considered.

—Mrs. L. J. Denton, the florist, has secured the work of decorating the Crescent Avenue church for the holidays, and something specially fine is anticipated.

—Arrangements are being made to hold an appropriate Christmas celebration at the North Plainfield Public schools next week when they close for the holidays.

—Frequent rehearsals are now being held for the production of "The Messiah" next week at the Crescent Avenue church. No admission will be charged and the public is invited to attend.

—The Plainfield Relief Association is planning to make the poor happy at Christmas time. Any person desiring to assist them in their work can do so and receive the thanks of the association.

—Last Thursday evening at the meeting of the Daughters of Rebekah the members enjoyed a Christmas tree, and everyone present received a suitable gift from Santa Claus. There was a large attendance and everybody had a good time. After the festivities a collation was served.

NEW STEP IN BOROUGH PLANS.

Dissatisfied Springfielders Pay Taxes Under Protest.

John Collins, one of the principal property owners in the "South Neighborhood" section of Springfield township, who has taken a leading part in the proposed borough movement, paid his sidewalk and lighting taxes under protest.

Mr. Collins said that the "South Neighborhood" property owners had instructed their counsel to sue the township to recover money paid in flag sidewalk taxes. Action, he stated, would be brought on the ground that taxpayers-at-large could not be legally assessed for sidewalks, which costs should be paid for by abutting property owners.

A Union Meeting

A union meeting of the Second and Third Christian churches of Plainfield will be held at the rooms, 345 Cottage place, tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock. Visitors are expected from Garwood, and Mr. Morse, of Westfield, will give a Bible reading on "Why We are Diciples of Christ or Christians." This will be the first of a series of evangelistic meetings to be held from time to time.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve

Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 25c at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

The wife of Patrolman Saunders is improving nicely from a recent operation.

Miss Dubois, of Park avenue, has returned from a visit with Whitehouse relatives.

Miss Rachel Pittenger, of this city, has been visiting at her former home, North Branch.

Raymond Lunger, of the borough, has returned from a visit with relatives at Whitehouse.

Miss Clara Long, of Park avenue, who has been visiting with Brooklyn friends, has returned home.

Raymond Hodge, of Plainfield avenue, has recovered from an attack of chicken-pox and is able to go out again.

Miss Viola Huff and Miss Minnie Wyman, of this city, have been visiting friends at Centreville, Hunterdon county.

John B. Naylor, of East Third street, who has been severely ill with pneumonia, has recovered and is able to be out again.

Mrs. A. M. Higgins and family, of Liberty street, have returned from a visit with Hunterdon county friends and relatives.

R. W. Barnes, of Grove street, violinist, has been assisting in the musical part of the Bible conference that was held this week.

Miss Amelia Dill, of New York State, who has been visiting at the home of Mr and Mrs. A. C. LaBoyteaux, of Fairview avenue, has returned.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Coles, who were married last Thursday evening at the Mt Olive Baptist church, will not hold a reception until January, owing to the fact that many relatives are at present absent from the city.

TRANSFERS AND TROUBLE.

Raritan and Somerville Citizens Claim That Brunswick Traction Company is Acting Unfair.

The citizens of Raritan, who patronize the trolley, are having considerable trouble. The conductors have been instructed to refuse tickets for passage between that place and Somerville, unless accompanied by the coupons for Finderne and Bound Brook. This is considered very unfair, since, they say, the coupons for the latter places are punched, which renders them invalid if the travelers leave the cars at Somerville.

A few days ago A. H. Conyne, of Raritan, offered Conductor Devereaux a ticket for Somerville, which was detached from the coupons. The conductor refused to take it, and Mr Conyne would not pay, claiming he had purchased the ticket that day and had not been informed when he bought it of the new ruling. The conductor then attempted to put him off the car but couldn't Motorman Miller was called on to assist and the men succeeded in dislodging Mr. Conyne only after several windows and a handle on the door had been broken.

Ex-Sheriff Dilts had an experience with another conductor and was allowed to make the trip without the ticket or money.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box 25c.

TROLLEY TO LORRAINE.

Senator Kean Will Build the Line in Two Weeks After Permission is Granted.

Secretary John W. Whelan, of the Elizabeth Street Railway Company, informed a reporter that the company would construct its road to Lorraine within two weeks after receiving permission from the Board of Chosen Freeholders to do so.

Property owners along Westfield avenue are so anxious to have the road built that they have donated land on the north side of the avenue for the purpose.

It is likely that a special meeting of the Board of Freeholders will be called at an early day to secure consent to construct the road from Elmora to Bender's Hotel.

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.

Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J
Perth Amboy, N. J.

More than ordinary interest attaches to our Saturday program in this store. In family furnishings of every sort there is an even better than usual array, reinforced by a mammoth collection of toys, games, books and amusement helps of every description for the children The people of more mature years can find an excellent collection of holiday gifts suitable to all needs and classes.

A few hints will serve to represent an enormous stock of gift merchandise.

Sterling silver novelties of every description 25 50c up to $5 00 a piece.
Solid brass novelties in a very extensive assortment of candelebra mirrors, frames, ink stands, etc., 25c to $3 75 a piece
Toilet cases, manicure sets, etc., in a very exclusive assortment.
Albums in a great variety of styles at very moderate prices.

Handkerchiefs

There is nothing missing here in the handkerchief department that is necessary to a complete stock. Three special numbers taken at random represent hundreds of kinds.

25c the box. Children's hemstitched handkerchiefs, narrow colored borders, with colored embroidered initial; three handkerchiefs in a box.
13c An extraordinary fine quality women's swiss handkerchiefs, embroidered in dainty patterns and worth 19c.
25c Women's all-fine linen handkerchiefs, handsomely embroidered, very fine sheer quality.

Gloves

It's not mere luck that makes our celebrated P. & P. gloves last—it's the downright goodness of the stock Every pair we sell is fully guaranteed.

$1.00 Gloves that fit perfectly, wear well and look well; all the correct colors; 2 clasp and 4 button fastenings.
$1.19 Our genuine Mocha gloves for women have no superior; fit perfectly; dressy and comfortable; all the leading colors; 2 clasp fastening.
$1.25 Our real kid gloves never fail to give satisfaction in every particular. The kid is of a soft quality and the fit is absolutely certain
$1.50 Silk-lined reindeer skin gloves for women in all the shades of gray, tan and modes.

Men's Gloves

$1.00 Men's English walking gloves, pique stitching; a very dressy and serviceable glove.
$1.50 Men's Mocha gloves in all the correct shades of tan and gray.
$2.00 Men's silk lined reindeer skin gloves, gray and tan shades.
$4.50 & 5.00 Mens' eiderdown bath robes in very choice new patterns that are of exceptional value.
$1.00 Men's flannelette pajamas in exceptionally handsome patterns and fine heavy weight cloth.
50c Men's light colored outing flannel night shirts, full liberal sizes and well made.
$17.50 Demorest sewing machines.
$19.50 Demorest drop head sewing machines.
$10.00 Demorest hand machines. Every machine is guaranteed for 10 years by the manufacturer. All extra parts supplied.

A Talk on Overcoats.

We know how to talk about them because we make them.

Our $10 Overcoat

is made from all-wool Kersey, cassimere lined, with a shoulder yoke and sleeve lining of real satin. The style is there as well as the quality. We have them from $5.00 to $13.50. Boys' Reefers $1.75 to $4.00.

We Make All Our Clothing.

Schepflin & Schultz,
M. J. Cashin, Manager.
322 West Front St.

$14.75 CAMERA AND OUTFIT FOR $10.00 . . . .

A good suggestion for Christmas! You can have a well-known camera which will take pictures 4x5 and all necessary materials for finishing the pictures for $10. The retail value of this outfit is $14.75.

WE HAVE ALSO

Golf Sets, Phonographs, Graphophones, Gramophones, Music Boxes, Christmas Cards and a general line of Sporting Goods. We are always pleased to show our stock.

GEO. W. WRENNICK,
133 NORTH AVE.

VELVET BABY HATS $1 49 and $1 69.

Bonn's
140 WEST FRONT ST.

HATS Trimmed FREE OF CHARGE.

Flannelette Night-Gowns 75c and 98c.

Flannelette Waists, pretty colors, 49c.
All Wool Flannel Waists, 98c, $1 39 and $1 79.
Ready-to-wear Hats, have silk band and quills, 59c.
Short back Sailor Hats, English Felt, 49c.
New Stylish Veilings, 31c and 39c yd.

French Gray Flannel Waists $1.89.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Provinz Westpreußen.

Danzig. Die schwedische Regierung hat dem hiesigen Oberlieutenant Schellhoß, der am 21. Dezember 1898 bei Weichselmünde unter sehr schwierigen Verhältnissen drei Mann von der schwedischen Bark „Aron" rettete, eine goldene Medaille verliehen und vier an diesem Rettungswerk betheiligten Weichselmünder Fischern Geldbelohnungen zuerkannt.

Thorn. In Kabott bei Schulitz sind bei einem Brande eines Viehstalles des Gastwirths Rißau dieser, seine Frau und eine 18jährige Tochter, welche Vieh retten wollten, in den Flammen umgekommen.

Rheinprovinz.

Köln. Auf dem Bahnhof Walheim wurde die Schwester Fulgentia vom Orden der Augustinerinnen dahier vom Personenzuge erfaßt und derart verletzt, daß der Tod alsbald eintrat.

Eupen. Eine Feuersbrunst hat die Spinnerei und Filzhutfabrik von R. Kretz zerstört. Der Schaden wird auf 240,000 Mark berechnet.

Koblenz. Der Bürgermeister in Zell an der Mosel, der unlängst nach Unterschlagung von 10,000 Mark entfloh und in Bauernkleidung in Metz verhaftet wurde, ist von der Strafkammer zu 1½ Jahr Gefängniß verurtheilt worden.

M.-Gladbach. In einer vom hiesigen Schutzverein für Handel und Gewerbe einberufenen Versammlung von Ladenbesitzern wurde mit großer Mehrheit beschlossen, vom 1. Januar 1900 ab den Neun-Uhr-Ladenschluß freiwillig einzuführen. Als Ausnahmetage sollen alle Samstage und Tage vor gesetzlichen Feiertagen sowie einige andere Tage gelten; ferner sollen die Cigarren- und Metzgerläden überhaupt ausgeschlossen sein.

Solingen. Die große Federmesserfabrik von Paffrath hierselbst ist fast vollständig niedergebrannt.

Provinz Sachsen.

Magdeburg. Die Zweite Strafkammer sprach im Wiederaufnahmeverfahren den Redakteur der „Volksstimme" Müller, der früher wegen Majestätsbeleidigung, begangen durch einen Artikel der „Volksstimme," verurtheilt war und einen Theil der Strafe bereits abgebüßt hatte, frei. Als Verfasser des Artikels hatte sich der Schriftsteller Schmidt bekannt, der kürzlich deswegen zu drei Jahren Gefängniß verurtheilt worden ist.

Genthin. Dieser Tage ist die Kleinbahn Genthin-Milow bis zur Umschlagstelle an der Havel dem Verkehr übergeben worden.

Giebichenstein. Hier beging der schon seit längerer Zeit leidende emeritirte Pfarrer Leidenroth Selbstmord.

Provinz Schlesien.

Goldberg. Die Firma A. Giesel errichtet in der Nähe des Bahnhofes Neukirch a. d. Katzbach größere Kalkwerke, und sind die Fundamente für die bedeutenden Baulichkeiten bereits aus dem Boden heraus. Die Werke werden nach einem neu verbesserten Verfahren sogenannten gemahlenen Wasserkalk fabriziren und in pulverisirtem Zustande als hydraulischen Kalk in den Handel bringen.

Glogau. Mit Ausroden von Baumwurzeln im Glogauer Stadtforste beschäftigte Waldarbeiter fanden dieser Tage unter den Hauptwurzeln eines alten Baumstumpfes ein irdenes Gefäß mit etwa 1000 Silbermünzen in der Größe unserer heutigen 50-Pfennigstücke. Das Gefäß enthielt außerdem noch eine Anzahl größerer Münzen in dem Umfange unserer 5-Markstücke. Die Geldstücke sind alle gut erhalten und stammen aus dem Anfange des 17. Jahrhunderts. Eine große Anzahl trägt das Bildniß Kaiser Ferdinands des Zweiten (von Oesterreich).

Provinz Schleswig-Holstein.

Schleswig. Der Gutsbesitzer Kunst in Kellinghusen, der auf Samoa eine größere Plantage besitzt, hat sich dieser Tage in Begleitung eines Obergärtners, mehrerer Gärtner und Handwerker sowie weiblichen Dienstpersonals nach Samoa eingeschifft. Herr Kunst will, nachdem die Inselgruppe deutsch geworden ist, auf Samoa ausgedehnte Ananastreibereien und dergleichen einrichten.

Kiel. Als der kürzlich von Westindien kommende Dampfer „Cassius" auf der Kanalpassage Holtenau passirte, ereignete sich ein bedauerlicher Unfall. Da das Schiff seuchenverdächtig erschien, begab sich zur Untersuchung ein Arzt an Bord. Bei dem Verlassen des Dampfers stürzte der Arzt vom Bord des Schiffes in die Schleusenkammer hinab und erlitt ziemlich erhebliche Verletzungen. Es gelang, den Verunglückten den Fluthen zu entreißen.

Provinz Westfalen.

Herne. Bei einem italienischen Bergmann beschlagnahmte die Polizei für 20,000 Mark gestohlene Goldsachen. Die Diebe sind flüchtig.

Lastrop. Auf Zeche Mont-Cenis wurden zwei Arbeiter verschüttet. Die Leichen konnten erst nach 20stündiger Arbeit geborgen werden.

Witten. Der Möbelhändler Heidelberg hierselbst ist unter dem Verdacht der Brandstiftung verhaftet worden. Das von ihm bewohnte Geschäftshaus war am frühen Morgen durch Feuer zerstört worden. Der Schaden ist bedeutend.

News and Opinions OF National Importance.

The : Sun

ALONE CONTAINS BOTH.

Daily, by mail - $6 a year
Daily and Sunday, by mail $8 a year

The Sunday Sun

is the greatest Sunday newspaper in the world.

Price 5c a copy. By mail, $2 a yr

Address THE SUN, New York.

The New York Tribune.

The Tribune Starts a Handsome Tri-Weekly Edition.

1900.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE is loyally Republican on all public questions, although it never distorts the news for party purpose and never screens misconduct in public affairs, because discovered among party friends. THE TRIBUNE commends itself to every Republican family in the country, not only by its decency and dignity, but by its wide variety of contents and its vigorous editorial arguments in favor of the masterly policies, which have brought genuine prosperity to the country and glory to its arms and which promise high prestige in the future.

The persistent labor of THE TRIBUNE during the four years of President Cleveland, its immense circulation reaching every hillside and valley in the United States, is regarded by many friends as having contributed very materially to prepare the country for the return, in 1896, to Protection and Sound Money and to vote for a Republican candidate for the Presidency.

It may as well be confessed, that one object of THE TRIBUNE, in putting forth its new and admirable TRI-WEEKLY edition, is to render an additional service to the great party, on whose success in 1900 a continuation of business prosperity and wise government depend.

A Great Daily.

THE DAILY AND SUNDAY TRIBUNE, $10 a year (the latter having an ILLUSTRATED SUPPLEMENT of 20 pages of great beauty and interest) with its wealth of general information and attractive special features and pictures, is, by far, the best and most valuable edition issued from the TRIBUNE office. For a business man, who can receive it at a reasonable hour, this edition is superior to all others.

A Handsome Tri-Weekly.

THE TRI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE, $1.50 a year, has recently superseded the late SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE, and is a handsome, fresh, breezy, every-other-day newspaper. It will, we think, prove the best substitute for a metropolitan daily, yet found. Every number is as good as a daily of the same date. For many people, it will answer the purposes of a daily. It gives one more number each week, for half a dollar less a year, than the former SEMI-WEEKLY. In addition to the news, editorials and market prices, it prints each week a great variety of pictorial, literary and other entertaining matter, including humor, book reviews, "Asked and Answered," foreign letters, "Home Topics," fashions, fictions, agricultural data, advance information for business men, "Science and Mechanics," etc. The market prices are accurate and standard. It is always safe to look at THE TRIBUNE before buying or selling country produce. As a family newspaper THE TRI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE has no superior in the United States.

THE TRI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE has been put forth in response to the growing demand for more frequent issues. It is cordially recommended to every reader, who wants the cream and spirit of THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE and who lives too far away from the Daily.

The Weekly.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE, $1.00 a year, holds its own as a great low-priced farmers' and family newspaper. It can usually be obtained at advantageous terms in conjunction with local weeklies.

Sample Copies.

SAMPLE COPIES of any edition will cheerfully be sent, free of charge, to those desiring them. Address always,

THE TRIBUNE,
New York City.

COPYRIGHT 1899

THE ENTRANCE TO THE DINING ROOM

will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us.

Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early.

The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too—everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get.

FRED ENDRESS,
131—135 WEST FRONT STREET

Defective Eyes.

Overstrained and Defective Eyes are the cause of many a

HEADACHE.

Correctly-fitted Glasses will remedy the trouble. A Scientific Examination Free and Glasses Guaranteed.

STILES & CO.,
107 E. Front St.
EVERY THURSDAY.
Hours: 10:30 to 5:00.

The genuine "Portland Range" has "Portland" on oven door plate—only sold here.

(B)

AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

CHRISTMAS THINGS

for every part of the home—useful and gladly received. If you're short of ready cash use our generous credit help—no prices equal our's for lowness, no terms are so easy.

CARPETS—get one measured and fitted right away—prices are at the lowest cost. Axminsters, 77c; Brussels, 45c; Cotton Chain Ingrains, 25c; Heavy Ingrains, 37c; All-wool Ingrains, 52c. Or get a Rug or two; what better gift? Moquettes and Ingrains, all sizes.

$8.25

A full swell front, solid oak carved top Chiffonniere, worth $12.00.

$15.75

Comfort—lots of it—in this adjustable head (5 positions), velour-covered Couch—heavy fringe. Value $22.00.

$11.89

Solid Combination Desks, mirror ornament at back. Value $16.00.

$10.98

For a $15.00 Sideboard—bevel edge mirror, lined silver drawer, ample closet room—how's that?

$1.98

Highly polished solid oak, high back, box seat Dining Chair—$2.50 its value.

$4.98

Antique oak Extension Table, 5 legs, well turned, cleverly finished, and worth $7.00 readily.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St., Near Plane St., Newark, N. J.
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS.
Note first name "Amos."
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

— DEALERS IN —

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agent for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER

ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.

Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phœnix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW, THE GROCER.

Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.

Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS

Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.

GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.

119 East Front Street.

SMALLEY BROS.,

144 North Avenue.

BUTCHERS.

Everything usually found in a first-class market.

Orders called for and delivered.

Telephone 83 A.

Elston M. French,

Successor to VanBuren Bros.

Real Estate and Insurance.

Largest agency in the city. Loans negotiated.

163 NORTH AVENUE.
Opposite Depot

H. Eggerding,

131 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated

C. O. D. CIGAR,

The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars.

McCullough's STEAM MILL.

11 Steiner place, North Plainfie

B. H. McCullough, Prop'

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished

L. A. HUMMER,

VARIETY MARKET.

Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.

163 SOMERSET ST.

Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

"ISN'T IT TOO CUTE FOR ANYTHING!"

So runs the chorus of feminine praise over this, that or the other pretty brooch in our fine collection. Husband, father, brother, beau—here's the fit thing! The price-range is $2.50 to $25.00—and there never was better choosing in pretty jewelry. You can make no mistake in picking with your eyes shut—but best come while the selection is complete.

Large Solid Silver Nethersole Bracelets, - - - - 75c
Solid Silver Brush and Comb, - $2.50
In a silk-lined case.

COLLIER, Jeweler,
103 Park Ave.
Established 1869.

STATIONERY and TOYS.

We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles for the Holiday trade.

CHRISTMAS CARDS and CALENDARS.

We make a specialty of FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.

High Grade Cigars.

Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.

B. W. HAND,
205 W. Front Street.

LADIES' TAILORING.

RICHARDSON & WALD,
325 West Front Street.

TAILOR-MADE GARMENTS.

We make a specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits. Alterations and relining promptly attended to.

—DRESSMAKING.—

Our Dressmaking Department is in charge of Madame Walsh.

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING

is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job. That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.,
201 PARK AVE., Cor 2d ST.
Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.
Estimates furnished. Telephone call 635.

THE GRANDVIEW

Meat Market

George Egel, Manager.

Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

W. D. MANNING
sells superior
Coal, Wood, Gasolene and Kerosene.
Office, 153 North Ave. Yard, 929 South Av
Tel. 139 A.

DRAKE & MUNDY,

207 West Front Street,

Dealers in

--Fresh and Salt Meats--

Special Sales on

Fridays and Saturdays,

CHAS. L. FOROE,
Architect and Superintendent.
208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 31 tf

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store 126 Park avenue. 10 1

E. B. Claynard,
NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

Advertised Letters.

Plainfield, N. J., Dec. 11, 1899.

Bernard, Mr Charles
Carter, Mrs Jennie
Clark, Mrs I N
Cort, M s John
Emery, Mrs David
Evans, Mable
Herbert Jr, Mr Jas. N
Kenney, Mr Thomas
Newstub, Mrs F
Poach, Miss Rosa
Risberg, Mr N E 2
VanDeventer, Mrs Caroline
Vincent, Mr A G

E. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

FASHIONS IN FUR.

Various Ways of Employing Expensive Peltry.

The princess form is that adopted for the most elegant of winter gowns. In velvet or cloth it is particularly attractive. The trimming is usually passementerie, fringe designing tunics or fur.

Fur is immensely worn, with no reference to the temperature, and jet upon fur is a rich and expensive novelty. Lace, flowers and tulle are combined with fur without hesitation. Cabochons, not only in jet, but in turquoise, amethyst and other jeweled effects, are also used.

CLOTH COAT.

Fur hats are a feature of the season's millinery. These are not the conventional fur caps or toques, but are regular hat shapes, with a large or small brim, covered with chinchilla, astrakhan and other short pile fur. Usually if the crown is of fur the brim is of velvet, shirred tulle or some other fabric, and vice versa. Such hats are often very elaborate trimmed with spangled net and flowers and are intended to accompany very rich gowns. There are also hats entirely of fur trimmed with big choux of colored mousseline de soie.

The pretty coat illustrated is of black cloth and has a large collar and revers of black velvet covered closely with white silk stitching. The back is close fitting, the front forming a straight, square tab. The edges and revers are outlined by stitched straps of white cloth, and steel buttons fasten the jacket. The cravat is of black mousseline de soie, the toque of black bengaline with white quills.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

OUT OF DOOR STYLES.

Tailor Made Gowns, Jackets and Long Coats.

The tailor made costume is in great favor this winter and will be worn throughout the season. Perfectly cut and well made, such gowns are charming and may be worn for many purposes, but not for dress occasions. For calling, etc., a costume of greater pretensions is necessary. The tailor made gown may be trimmed with fine astrakhan, with soutache or simply with stitching. If it is made with a bolero or coat, this is usually lined with fancy or contrasting silk.

LONG COAT.

Young girls' jackets are short this season and are most frequently of mastic or gray cloth.

Tight bolero jackets of red cloth, having the shortest possible basque, are a pretty novelty. The red is bright, and the jacket is a most attractive addition to a soberly tinted tailor made gown.

For automobile and carriage wear the long, loose coat, entirely covering the gown, is adopted. It is almost always finished with a scant circular flounce and has a high, flaring collar.

The long coat illustrated is of mastic cloth and is tight at the back and straight in front. It fastens at the left side, the skirt part being edged by a circular flounce, headed and bordered by rows of stitching. Across the front are diagonal, stitched straps of cloth, terminating under large pearl buttons. Straps and buttons also trim the sleeves. The collar is edged with stitching. The hat of beige felt has a band of brown velvet, with a pearl buckle and brown tulle choux.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

JAPAN'S FOXES.

They Are Held as Very Powerful Beings in the Land of Flowers.

In Japan, with its quaint, gentle people and its quaintor, gentler beliefs, even the foxes are not he same as they are in other countries. Here a fox is a plaything, a creature to be harried and torn to pieces by dogs for sport. In Japan it is well to address a fox by the most honorable titles, to treat him kindly, place food for him, and be very glad when he goes. For in Japan foxes have great power, and it is not well to offend them. Many are the tales the little people whisper—whisper for fear the foxes will hear and take offense—about the deeds of Inari the fox.

They are popularly supposed to take up their abode with those whom they fancy—and, alas! also with those whom they do not fancy. And sometimes it is hard to decide which is the happier. For the foxes must be fed. And as there are always many in a family, and they do not visit singly much rice must be consumed for them. Good luck comes from their arrival, however, but it is liable to be changed into the direst ill fortune at any moment. For the foxes are exceedingly sensitive, and a word carelessly spoken, will serve to send them off in a huff, and then all sorts of misfortunes will follow. When a man is seized with a fit in Japan they say "He is afflicted with foxes," or "He has made an enemy of the foxes."

Sometimes houses will be shunned by the villagers because it is supposed that foxes have taken up their abode therein. Families supposed to be afflicted with the friendship of the foxes are rather left alone by the rest of the peasants, as it is never certain when the unwelcome guests will transfer their affections—and their presence—to others. And the villagers do not care to place temptation in their way. Families not having foxes are not allowed to marry into those having them, as when the foxes attach themselves to a family it includes in its affections all its members, even to those most remote. One of the most famous families in Japan claims its supremacy to be due to the good influence of the foxes who have taken up their abode in that family.

All over Japan you will see images of the foxes—old gray foxes, with their noses perked smartly in airy great foxes and little foxes, sages and clowns, all kinds and degrees—showing the prevalence of this belief in the land of the wisteria and the fan, and also showing in what respect the fox is held.

It is curious to note that in all countries the fox, above all other animals, has been considered to exert great influence and power. All nations have legends of which the cunning and intelligence of the fox is the theme.

EFFIE'S KISS.

How She Showed What She Thought of the Little Brook.

"Effie, we are going into the country!" cried Molly, clapping her hands.

"What's the country?" asked Effie promptly.

"Oh, it's a lovely place," said Molly. "It's all green fields and trees and flowers, and little lambs and birdies, and sunshine and everything."

Effie liked to think things over. She sat on the floor, right in the way of a sunbeam and considered the matter. The sunbeam gave her an idea.

"Effie likes sunshine," she said slowly at last, "an' f'owers an' birdies."

Molly breathed more freely, for there was no knowing how Effie would take things.

"And you'll be very good, Effie, because I'm going to take care of you," Molly continued.

"Course Effie be good!" was the reproachful answer.

A few days later the fussy train carried mother and Molly and Effie away to the country, where they were going to spend the day at a nice, old-fashioned farmhouse.

The weather was fine and Effie went into the meadow with their baskets to get flowers.

"Look after 'Little Mischief,' Molly," called mother from the doorstep.

"Yes, mother," said Molly, brightly; but Effie was deeply offended and walked on with great dignity.

The sight of the meadow, golden with buttercups, soon made her forget though, and she began to pick the flowers with all her might.

"See," said Molly after a while, as they found themselves nearing the bottom of the hill, "there's a lovely brook down here! See how it sparkles in the sunshine and hear how it sings among the stones!"

"Oh," cried Effie, "I must kiss it," and throwing down her basket, she ran to the brook, right into the water and lifted up some in her dimpled hands to "kiss" before the bewildered Molly could guess what she was going to do.

"Oh, Effie!" she cried, "what are you doing?"

"See how pitty," cried the little one, "and so nice to Effie's foots!" and she looked down at the little ripples curling around her plump ankles and clapped her hands.

Happily for both children mother was not easily frightened. Seeing what had happened she came running to the rescue, and in a few moments Effie's wet things were off and she was being cuddled up in a blanket beside the kitchen fire.

Altogether that first visit to the country turned out a grand success, and when she grew up Effie had many a laugh over her queer idea of wanting to kiss the pretty brook.

Dogs That Never Bark.

There are three varieties of the dog that never bark—the Australian dog, the Egyptian shepherd dog and the "lion-headed" dog of Thibet.

NO ENGLISH LAW.

AN IOWA JUDGE WHO WOULD HAVE NONE OF IT IN HIS COURT.

Law Made in the United States Was Good Enough for Him—Never Heard of the Word "Barrister"—What Jim Burton Said of Chitty.

While sitting at a hotel table in a small city of southern Iowa, a short time ago I got into a conversation with a well-known lawyer, and remarked that the death of Sir Joseph Chitty had removed the one prominent lawyer who would have been anything like a match for anyone in the arts of chaff and word fencing. The General seemed surprised that a lawyer named Chitty had been alive within the present year.

"Why, bless my soul," he said, "nearly half a century ago when I began to study law, I used to tear my hair over one Chitty, whose book on pleadings was as hard as nails, and over another book written by a man of the same name on contracts.

I told him that for five or six generations there had always been some man named Chitty in the front rank of the legal profession.

After a few other reminiscences the Iowa lawyer turned to me and said:

"Let me tell you what I remember about Chitty, and I have never been in England. Like most young men of my time in Iowa—about the middle of the century—I had to hustle to get a profession, and when I got it the difficulty was to make anything out of it. I hung out my shingle, and for many a weary month watched it rusting and swinging in the breeze.

"Suddenly came the call to action. A neighboring farmer bought a horse that soon manifested all the defects that such animals are capable of possessing. The farmer came to me as a client and told me he wanted to get his money back and to return the horse. I went into the facts with him, and from what he told me I felt able to advise him that the seller had given him a verbal guarantee of soundness. This was enough. He told me to proceed with the case.

"The trial was to take place before a Justice of the Peace in an adjacent township. So on the day appointed I borrowed a horse, put on a black coat and a plug hat, and with a copy of Chitty—the only law book I possessed bearing on the case however remotely—in my saddle-bag, I went on my way. In those days we took our law wherever we could find it, and law books were scarce. After my statement of the facts I produced my Chitty and read what the great legal light had to say on the subject of a verbal guarantee.

"And ther, while working up to my perioration, I closed the book and laid it on the table. The opposing counsel—who, by the way, was a local roustabout that had never been admitted to the Bar—took up the book and opened it at the title page. He read it carefully, his bleary eyes following slowly his dirty thumb. He looked up at me with a scowl, threw a fierce glance around the room, and then fixed his eyes on the Judge.

"When I was through, quite satisfied that the Judge had been impressed by my argument and authorities, Jim Burton—that was the other fellow's name—bounced to his legs. 'Yer honor,' he said, 'this is a most extraordinary way for a lawyer to defend his cause in your court. I hold in my hand the authority from which so much has been quoted. You may like to hear something about this wonderful authority law. Here it is, right on the first page. This old book, with the broken back to indicate the rottenness of the law it pretends to expound, was written, it seems, by a man named Joseph Chitty, Esq., barrister-at-law, of Lincoln's Inn, London, England. Your honor never heard of Joseph Chitty, Esq., no more'n I did, I bet. No man in this court ever heard tell of him. Nobody in this township knows who he is or was. Barrister-at-law!

"What's that? In the name of all that's holy! We've heerd of attorney, and solicitor, counsel, advocate, judge, jury and prisoner at the bar but whoever heerd tell of barrister before this? The only fair presumption, yer Honor, is that 'tis some scallywag that was brought up to the bar to have a drink—the whiskey bar—an' they call such fellows in England barristers! An' ye see such presumption must be right, because the writer—who, for all we know, may be nothin' more than a plaguerist—lives in an inn, a common, low dive of a place, a tavern, a third-rate hotel, as yer Honor knows such places are called in England.

"Yer Honor, are we here in Iowa to take our law from some travelin' circus man that was brought up to the whisky bar an' lives in one of them dens of infamy, that the Britishers call an inn? Yer Honor, I want to ask the Court if the law made here in the United States of America isn't good enough for us? When we have to decide on the merits of a horse, owned by a reputable farmer in the State of Iowa, must we go for instructions to one of them bloody, brutal Britishers that we kicked out of this country so many years ago? Yer Honor will, of course, dismiss this case, an' send my friend with the plug hat back to his home with a flea in his ear, an' broken-backed Chitty, Esq., of the London tavern to keep him company.

"This was said with a fury that roused the angry passions of the Court and court room. 'The case is dismissed,' said the Judge; 'we don't want no British law from the dwellers in London taverns in this court. You're right, Jim Burton. The Court is with you.'

"Leaving the room, I had a talk with my client, and told him that of course we would take an appeal. 'Young man,' he said, 'is that straight what Jim Burton says? Was that d—d book of yours writ by an Englishman?' I replied that Chitty was the greatest living authority on the law of contracts.

"He looked at me viciously as he chewed his tobacco and said with infinite scorn: 'Young man, with the plug hat, go home. Have no more to do with my business. I'll get some fellows in future that knows the law of this Congressional Deestrict. You an' your British law be blanked!'

"So you see Jim Burton knocked out the Englishman. That experience with Chitty ruined my practice for some time and it took many a year to get over it"—Chicago Post.

O'Neill's.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS....

Buy Your Christmas Gifts in New York at O'Neill's.

You will find here the largest and best selected stock of Holiday Goods in the city of New York and sold at a price to your liking.

LAMPS, BRIC-A-BRAC, BRASS and ONYX GOODS, BRONZES, STATIONERY, FINE FURNITURE DRAPERIES, FURS, SMOKING JACKETS, CANES, UMBRELLAS, GLOVES FINE NECKWEAR JEWELRY, LEATHER GOODS, CAMERAS BICYCLES, ETC.

BOOKS! BOOKS! BOOKS!

No store in New York has so large a collection of New Holiday Books as you'll find here, and in no other store can you buy them so cheap. Thousands of volumes to choose from. Books of Fiction, Poetry, Travel, Biography, History, Books for the Young People, Religious Books, Cook Books, Dictionaries, Encyclopedias, Bibles, Hymnals, Prayer Books, etc., etc

☞ SPECIAL ATTENTION and LIBERAL DISCOUNT given to the Clergy and Sunday-School Committees.

☞ All Cash Purchases except Sewing Machines and Bicycles delived free to any Railroad Station within 100 miles of New York City.

H. O'NEILL & CO., 6th Ave., 20th to 21st St., N. Y.

Purity and Power of Tone,

Durability and Tone-Sustaining Quality

are marked characteristics of the world-renowned

FISCHER PIANOS

The Fischer Piano is the result of nearly sixty years of honest and intelligent construction along the most progressive lines of piano manufacture, through which it has reached a reputation permanent and unsurpassed.

OVER 110,000 SOLD Grand and Upright.

Exquisitely designed and cased in rare and choice woods.

Sold at moderate prices. Cash or easy payments.

33 UNION SQUARE, WEST, Bet. 16th and 17th Streets. NEW YORK.

A large stock of second-hand and slightly used Pianos of our own and other prominent makes, taken in exchange for new Fischer Pianos will be sold at very low prices.

Catalogue, terms, etc., mailed free on application.

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.

Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,

Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.

Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.

WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER

DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

OUR OYSTERS ARE THE ---FINEST---

ROGERS

232 West Second Street.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,

Painters and Paper Hangers,

Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Street

Interior decorating a specialty. Good work—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11

E. D. BARRETT.

Sanitary Plumbing,

Steam and Hot Water Heating.

Telephone 612. 148 East Fifth Street.

RUSHMORE & CO.

WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.

Dealers in

Lumber, Coal and Wood

Moulding & Planing Mill.

Turning and Scroll Sawing

L. L. Manning & Son.

STEAM GRANITE WORKS,

Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 100 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

Union County Orphans' Court

In the matter of the sale of the lands of William Blimm, deceased, for the payment of his debts by virtue of an order of the Orphans' Court of the County of Union, State of New Jersey, in the above stated cause and bearing date on the 20th day of September, A. D. 1899, I, Jacob Blimm, Administrator of the estate of the said William Blimm deceased, will expose for sale at public vendue on the next, between the hours of twelve o'clock noon, and five o'clock in the afternoon of said day, that is to say at 2 o'clock p. m., on the premises situated in the neighborhood of number 1014 West Front Street, in the City of Plainfield, Union County, New Jersey, all the following tract of land and premises hereinafter particularly described, situate lying and being in the said City of Plainfield, County of Union, and State of New Jersey, and described as follows:

TWENTY-NINTH (29th) DAY OF DECEMBER

Beginning at a point distant in a Southwesterly course parallel with the centre line of the route of the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey as filed in the office of the Secretary of State, twenty-five feet from a monument in the division line of (formerly) The Citizens' Building Loan and Savings Association of Plainfield, and Halsey Compton, (formerly) James J. Compton; fifty feet Northwesterly at right angles from the said centre line as filed, thence Southwesterly and parallel with said centre line as filed, twenty-five feet to a point, thence magnetically North forty-four and a half degrees West two hundred and twenty-nine feet more or less to a point in the main road leading from Plainfield to Dunellen, thence in said road magnetically North fifty-seven and a quarter degrees East twenty-five feet to a point distant twenty-five feet Southwesterly along said road from Halstead Compton's line, thence magnetically South forty-five and a quarter degrees East parallel with said Halstead Compton's line two hundred and twenty-nine feet more or less to the place of beginning.

JACOB BLIMM, Administrator.

Dated November 24th, 1899. 11 25 5 oaw

Dissolution of Partnership.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership lately existing between Elston M. French and William J. R. Thiers of Plainfield, N. J., under the firm name of French & Thiers, was dissolved on the first day of December, 1899, by mutual consent.

All debts owing to the said partnership are to be received by said Elston M. French, and all demands on the said partnership are to be presented to him for payment.

ELSTON M. FRENCH,
WM. J. R. THIERS.

Dated Dec. 1, 1899. 12 2 4 oaw s

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN

is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 2c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 29, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 46, 9 16, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 5., 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 06, 7 39, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12.00 m, 12 58 1 45, 2 40, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 27, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 9 34, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m; 1 01, 2 08, 2 20, 3 32, 4 35, 5 03, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sundays 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamauqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freebold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 31, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked *) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov 19, 1899.
LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N.J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.

Daily except for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.

Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.

Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.

Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.

Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket time-tables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.
FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent,
218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

T. M. INGRAHAM.

Vaults and Cesspools Cleaned

Night or Day.

ASHES & GARBAGE REMOVED.

Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Good Work at Reasonable Prices.
P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.

XXXX QUALITY

FINEST

LOFOTEN COD LIVER OIL,

Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.

Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at

39c per Pint.

For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at

50c per Bottle,

or the Tasteless at

75c per Bottle.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY.

Hepburn & Co.,

Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,

213 WEST FRONT ST.

Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

WANTED

25 Mechanics

and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.

Agent on the Grounds SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.

... TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

The New Holiday Goods

are here in larger and better variety than ever before. There is a certain satisfaction in buying Holiday novelties here—the entire stock is new—something which others cannot claim, and everything is priced moderately, in fact lower than you would pay elsewhere.

A Wonderful Showing of Handkerchiefs.

A COMPLETE stock of Men's initial handkerchiefs, put up half-dozen to the box.

The Largest and Best Assortment of Kid Gloves.

Good gloves, which we guarantee and such as you desire for Christmas gifts.

New Sterling Silver Novelties. Silver-trimmed Leather Novelties, Umbrellas.

Mackintoshes.

A complete stock of Goodyear mackintoshes for ladies and misses. These goods were bought before the heavy advance in prices; therefore you can buy good mackintoshes here at the old prices.

I. LEDERER.

Holiday Goods.

Why you should see our assortment; a walk through our store will be the easiest way to solve the problem of what to get for presents for young and old.

Our line of fancy articles consists of everything imaginable in Celluloid, Plush and Glass Ware.

Handkerchiefs, gloves, neckwear, hosiery, umbrellas and dress goods of all kinds and all prices. Furs and worsted goods of every description.

DOLLS ...

Dolls of all kinds can be found on our doll counter, our assortment is bewildering in their novelty, extent and attractiveness. Our prices are lower than any other house will quote for the same article.

TOYS -:- -:-

Our Toy Department in the basement is larger than ever before. No such collection was ever gathered here before, and it is safe to say there is no better stock in town in point of variety, there is no stock in town that equals ours in prices that's certain.

Children's velocipedes, tricycles, battleships, iron toys of all kinds, tool chests, washsets, soldier sets, dishes, horse and wagons, chairs, printing presses, electric batteries, express wagons, magic lanterns, etc.

I. H. Boehm, 109-111 113 West Front Street

Our Attractive Holiday Display

awaits your inspection. We are glad to welcome visitors and pleased to show our goods.

A. L. & M. D. Gorsline, 144 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

FALL OPENING.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.

OUR STOCK COMPLETE

We are now ready to fit either man or boy in Suits, or Overcoats, Hats and Gent's Furnishings.

Boys' Suits from 75c to $5 00.

Men's Suits from $2.00 to $20.00.

Have you tried a pair of our Celebrated Cassimere Pants at 98c the pair, if not do so—they are the talk of the town; sold over 1 000 pairs the past season; never rip and fit to perfection. Give us a call.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,

206 West Front Street.

Don't Rack Your Brain

Trying to think what to give for a Christmas present. Anything in the Shoe or Slipper line is very appropriate. Our assortment and prices will please you.

VANARSDALE, 127 East Front St.

Repairing Properly Done.

KEY TO PYRAMIDS.

STONE IN BRITISH MUSEUM WHICH MADE PLAIN EGYPTIAN RECORDS.

Manners, Customs and Religious Rites of the Ancient Egyptian Brought to Light Through the Rosetta Stone—Three Languages Cut in It.

There are many historic and famous stones in the world, but few of them possess the value and interest of the piece of black basalt called the "Rosetta Stone," mounted in the west gallery of the British Museum. How many pass idly by this strangely shaped object each day and scarce give it the most casual attention. As a matter of fact, had it not been for the Rosetta Stone, our linguists would have been absolutely at a loss to decipher the Egyptian records; the hieroglyphic characters would have been meaningless tracings.

This stone, however, proved the key to the language of Egypt, and the importance of the work which has been accomplished through this knowledge is very great indeed. For instance, many points of dispute in relation to ancient history have been cleared up, and, in some instances, important passages of the Bible—especially relating to the period of time when the Hebrews dwelt "in the land of Egypt"—have been elucidated.

The manners, customs and religious rites of the Egyptians have been brought to light, and, through this stone, we are enabled to obtain an insight into the early history of this wonderful people. With far-seeing sagacity the mind which directed the cutting of the inscriptions upon the Rosetta Stone had it done in three different languages—no doubt with a view to making the hieroglyphic characters understood by the clever Greeks, the most intellectual people in the world at the time.

The Rosetta Stone is written in three languages—the Hieroglyphic, or language known only to the priest caste; the Demotic, or Enchurial, the common speech of the people, and the Greek. Had it not been for the use of the Greek, it is doubtful if the Rosetta Stone would ever have been deciphered. Of course, every classical scholar has a knowledge of Greek; by this knowledge the inscriptions in Egyptian language on the other parts of the stone were easily made out, and, by use of the key thus afforded, the whole of the characters of Egypt—which are picture words—became very easy to read, just as one may decipher the most difficult of crypytograms if he be possessed of a key.

The stone in question is of black basalt, as has been said. It is 3 feet 7 inches long, 2 feet 6 inches wide, containing one-third of the Hieroglyphic and nearly all of the Greek portions, the upper part and some of the sides having been broken away. The inscriptions on the stone pertain to a decree in honor of Ptolemy Epiphanes by the priests of Egypt, assembled at a synod at Memphis. The synod was convened on account of his remission of the arrears of taxes, and dues owed by the Sacerdotal body. So it seems, even in those early days, the "Sacerdotal body" were ready to convoke synods on the slightest provocation, especially in regard to their "dues and taxes."

This in itself is an instructive lesson, which shows us that the world is about the same today as it was in B. C. 196, when the stone was set up. The Rosetta Stone in the British Museum is the only discovered specimen of the numerous inscriptions of a similar nature set up at the same time.

The stone was found in 1799 by M. Boussard, a French officer of engineers, during the French occupation of Egypt. It was unearthed in an excavation made at Fort St. Julian, near Rosetta, a city of Egypt, on the west bank of the old Bolbitic Nile. The name "Rosetta" is derived from an old Egyptian word "Rousat," meaning "the mouth of the Nile." Recent excavations show that this stone was found on the site of a temple dedicated to Necho II. of the twenty-sixth dynasty. The worshippers in this temple paid homage to the Solar God, Atum or Tum.

Romance of Siam's Great Peaks.

Siam's greatest mountain range is the Sam Roi Yawt, or the three hundred peaks. A quaint legend, which explains their origin is set forth by the Siamese geologists as follows:

"It appears that one Mong Lai and his wife once inhabited the neighborhood (they were giants), and each promised their daughter in marriage, unknown to the other, to a different suitor. At last the day of the nuptials arrived, and Chao Lai and the Lord of Mieang Chin (China) both arrived to claim the bride. When the horrified father found how matters stood—having a regard for the value of a promise, which is not too common in the East—he cut his daughter in half, so that neither suitor should be disappointed.

Chao Lai in the meantime, on finding that he had a rival, committed suicide, and the peak of Chaolai is the remains of his body. The unfortunate bride is to be found in the islands off Sam Roi Yawt, the peaks of which are the remains of the gifts which were to be made to the holy man who was to solemnize the wedding, while Kaw Chang and Kaw King, on the east side of the gulf, are the elephant and buffalo cart in which the presents were brought."

A Strange Retribution.

A native paper printed in Arabic in Cairo states that a villager of Mewmieh sold some land. After discussing with his wife the best hiding place, he decided to put the money under the mattress of the baby's cot. Of course the entire village knew of the sale, and that night three robbers came to get the money. The baby began crying, and one of the robbers carried it out, cot and all. The father and mother, awakening, rushed out to rescue their treasure, but the man who had taken out the baby rushed back to join his comrades. In the turmoil the mud walls of the hovel were pulled down, crushing the three robbers, while the peasants, the baby and the money were safe outside.

Women admire a brave man and love an audacious one.

It's a wise girl that is able to analyze her own complexion.

There are no longer any farms in Northern Illinois. They have all been annexed to Chicago and cut up into town lots.

1014

NOTHING EXCEEDS

the substantial satisfaction which comes to man from the knowledge that those he loves best are protected, in fact as well as in name, by Life Insurance in a great successful company like

The Prudential.

WRITE FOR PARTICULARS

Home Office Newark, N. J. The Prudential Insurance Co. of America.

JOHN F. DRYDEN, President. LESLIE D. WARD, Vice-President.
EDGAR B. WARD, 2d V. P. & Counsel. FORREST F. DRYDEN, Secretary.

J. H. WOODLAND, Sup't., E. Front St. and Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

SPORTING.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The Daily Press Bowling League.

	Games Won.	Games Lost.	High Score.
Park Club	3	0	864
Roselle Casino	2	1	837
Westfield Club	1	2	826
Cranford Casino	0	3	765

With the trophy offered by The Daily Press, of this city, and the Park Club in the lead for it, there is much interest among the local bowlers in The Daily Press Bowling League The opening last week was very auspicious. With few exceptions the teams rolled in remarkable good form for the very opening of the season and the majority of the scores were high. Cranford seemed in rather poor form in the games rolled on the Park Club alleys, but the other teams are setting a pace that local leagues have never seen before. Westfield's three games were all above 800, while Roselle and the Parks only fell below that point in one out of the three games. If they continue to roll in that form with the usual improvement attendant on the progress of the season, the first year of The Daily Press Bowling League will be marked by the highest scores recorded for any tournament in this part of the county.

Women in a Fist Fight.

Last Sunday evening at the North Avenue Station there was witnessed by a large crowd a most disgraceful fistic encounter between two women well-known in this vicinity. What started the fight is not known, but each pummeled the other in true manfashion and the crowd laughed. There was not a policeman anywhere in sight, hence the offenders of law and good order were allowed to go unpunished. It is reported that a time in the near future has been set to finish the fight.

First of a Series of Teas.

The first of a series of teas given by Mrs. Rowland Cox, Miss Fanny C. Cox and Miss Louise G. Fiek, at the home of Mrs. Cox, was held yesterday afternoon. It was a very pretty affair and largely attended by the elite of Plainfield society.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. H. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even set up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong I can say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

What Can You Do With It?

This is a question we can answer better after we have seen the garment you want dyed. When our wagon is in your neighborhood, let it bring your goods to the store and then, at your convenience, come in and let us tell you just what we can do and the cost. Don't be prejudiced against dyeing. Ofttimes you can't tell the goods from new.

HILLIER & CO.,
129 West Front Street,
Opposite Crosby & Hill's. 'Phone 851.

MAY NOT OCCUPY MANSION.

Israel W. Stout Secures a Judgment of $951 50 Against a Lincoln Man for Work Done on Contract.

The expensive mansion which Edward Grauert, a member of the Lincoln Steel Company, is having built at Beechwood Heights, a suburb of Bound Brook, is about completed. But it is a question whether Mr. Grauert will be able to occupy this palatial home without some trouble. He has had difficulty with some of the artisans employed to construct the house and suits have been threatened to compel him to settle with his workmen.

Early in May Grauert let the contract for doing the stone work upon the handsome home to Israel W. Stout, a well-known contractor, who employed several skilled mechanics and a number of teams. When the contract was let to Mr. Stout, Grauert agreed to make payments from time to time as the work progressed. He failed, however, to keep this part of the contract and several months ago Mr. Stout, through Reed & Coddington, of this city, brought a mechanics' lien suit against Grauert in the Supreme Court of Middlesex county for the sum of $1,000.

The action was tried this week at New Brunswick before Judge Gilbert Collins and a jury of 12 men. Howard McSherry, of New Brunswick, appeared for the defendant and Former Judge William A. Coddington argued the case for the plaintiff. The trial lasted nearly four days and resulted in the jury rendering a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $951.50.

Unless Mr. Grauert settles the claim at once the property will be attached to liquidate the judgment.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Collector George F. Brown, of the borough, will keep his office open until 8 o'clock this evening to accommodate all who wish to pay their taxes, and who cannot call earlier in the day.

—The Rockville, (Conn.,) Journal, of which Charles S. Greer, formerly of North Plainfield, is the editor, has just issued a most creditable Christmas number of the paper. It is bright, newsy and well edited.

—The death of Christina, infant daughter of David and Wilhelmina McInnes, occurred this morning after a brief illness. The funeral will be held from the residence of the parents, 443 Webster place, Monday afternoon next, at 3 o'clock.

No Cause for Action.

The action of William Newcorn vs. James M. Derby to recover $72 alleged to be due plaintiff for rent of a house on East Second street, was tried before Justice Smalley and a jury yesterday afternoon at the Somerset hotel at North Plainfield. The defendant rented the house and lived in it for about three months and then moved out, claiming there was water in the cellar. The jury returned a verdict of no cause for action. William Newcorn for plaintiff, W. S. Angleman for defendant.

That there is a great deal of interest in the popular game of golf is attested by the fact that many enthusiasts visit the local links frequently, even now that the season is supposed to be at an end.

To Cure Constipation in One Week
To Purify the Blood in One Week
To Strengthen Nerves in One Week
To Cure Sick Headache in One Day

Take Cleveland's Celery Compound Tea, 25c. Trial size free. It it fails to cure your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apotbecary, corner Park and North avenues.

FINE SHOWS ARE COMING

EXCELLENT ATTRACTIONS THAT WILL BE SEEN IN MUSIC HALL.

No More Theatrical Entertainments Till Christmas Week, After Which Metropolitan Successes Will be Seen.

Presumably the coming on of the holidays, the shopping interests and other matters, caused the falling off of attendance at Music Hall the pas week, which was noticeable more particularly in the gatherings in the higher priced seats. The up-stairs patrons were loyal, however, to Manager Maze Edwards, and were present in goodly numbers at the performance of the present week. The offering Tuesday night last, "On the Swanee River"—was an exceedingly good one, well played, splendidly mounted and served to introduce a veritable surprise in the person of Miss Stella Mayhew in the character of Aunty Lindy, a middle aged negress. She is the counterpart of May Irwin, and equally successful in her songs, dialect and mannerisms. It is to be hoped Manager Edwards will be able to present this lady and play again, and should it come, we recommend our amusement seekers to be sure and see it.

As before announced there will be no performances during the coming week — week before Christmas — but beginning with the matinee of Christmas Day, Monday, December 25th, the Burrell Comedy Company and Miss Laura Hulbert will appear in a choice selection of new plays, with elegant scenery, accessories and effects, during the Christmas week. This will be the third appearance of the Burrell Company in this city and their reputation is good. They are now recognized on par with Corse Payton and the Bennett-Moulton companies, and in their repertoire have better and stronger plays than those organizations. Then, too, dramatically speaking, they are better, for a more finished artist than Miss Hulbert is not to be found in the repertoire ranks. Her work is highly praised and her costumes and dresses much commented upon. Charles W. Burrell is a thorough good actor and his people are always good. Announcement of the opening bill and full week's repertoire will be made next Tuesday, and reserved seats for the Christmas matinee and night performances can be secured at the box office of the theatre that day.

In consequence of sundry changes in routes of many attractions booked for January, Manager Edwards cannot give positive dates for his presentations for the New Year week and spring season, but suffice to say, there will be a host of good things, among them being "The Turtle" from the Manhattan Theatre, New York, Sie Hassan Ben Ali's great troupe of Arabs from Koster and Bial's Music Hall, New York, Vogel and Demings Minstrels, J. C. Lewis in the great country play "Si Plunkard," Miss Ullie Ackerstrom, a noted comedienne, "The Sleeping City" etc. The Jefferson company, "The Heart of Maryland," Mme. Modjeska, "The Christian" and "Mile Fifi" are engagements made for the coming spring.

The foregoing speaks well for the popularity of Music Hall under its present management, and it is to be hoped there will be good patronage.

Former Assemblyman Took a Wife.

An event of unusual interest at East Millstone this week Tuesday evening, was the marriage of Miss Anna Oakes Ribble, daughter of Dr. and Mrs Wm. B. Ribble, and Former Assemblyman P. V. D. VanDoren, both of whom are known in this city and the borough. The ceremony took place at 6 o'clock in the evening, and Rev Dr. Cooper, of Rutgers Theological Seminary, officiated. The bride and groom were unattended. There were about fifty guests present. After a short wedding tour Mr. and Mrs. VanDoren will reside in the old Frelinghuysen mansion at East Millstone.

Volcanic Eruptions

Are grand, but Skin Eruptions rob life of joy. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, cures them; also Old, Running and Fever Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Felons, Corns, Warts, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Chapped hands, Chilblains. Best Pile Cure on earth. Drives out Pains and Aches. Only 25 cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

Has a Horseless Carriage.

W. H. Schoonmaker, of Central avenue, is the first Plainfielder to own a horseless carriage. He made his first appearance with it on Thursday and it attracted considerable attention.

Miss Mabel Firstbrook, of Liberty street, entertained a few friends at her home in an informal manner. The evening was very pleasantly spent in playing games.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

THE PULPIT SUBJECTS.

SERVICES IN THE LOCAL CHURCHES TOMORROW.

What Plainfield Ministers Will Talk About for the Elevation of the Minds and Morals of Their Congregations.

St. Mary's (R. C.) church, Rev. P. E. Smyth, pastor.—Masses at 7:30, 8:30, 9:30, 10:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 2:30; evening devotions at 8.

St. Joseph's (R. C.) church, Rev. William H. Miller, pastor.—Masses at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.; Sunday-school at 3; evening devotions, 8.

Mission Church of the Heavenly Rest, Clinton avenue, William Winans Moore and Francis Gregory Moore, Lay Readers — 9:45, Sunday-school; 11, morning service.

Y. M. C. A.—9:30, men's Bible class, William D. Murray, leader. Subject, "Paul's Epistles." 4:15, rally meeting, address by Adjutant Emily C. March, formerly in charge of the local corps of the Salvation Army.

Wilson Memorial chapel—2:30, Sunday-school; 8, F. C. Jennings will speak.

Trinity Reformed church, Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph D., pastor—Sermons by the pastor. Morning subject, Mary, the Mother of Our Lord;" 2:30, Sunday-school; evening subject, "Opening Prison Doors."

Church of Christ—7:30 p. m., preaching by Rev. J. B. Cleaver, theme, "Where Do Persons Go Between the Hour and Article of Death and the Moment of the Resurrection?"

Filmore Baptist church, Rev. W. D. Johnson, pastor—Morning, Bible reading, subject, "Creation;" 2:30, Sunday school; evening, preaching by Rev. Mr. Hall, of North Carolina.

All Souls church, Rev. A. C. Nickerson, pastor—10:30, sermon, subject, "Pleasures;" 11:50, Sunday-school. Topic for adult class, "The Beginning of Unitarianism in England."

Mt. Olive Baptist church, Rev. E. E. Jackson, pastor—11, sermon, subject, "The Sealed Book;" 7:45, sermon, subject, "Contents of the Book Revealed."

First Presbyterian church, Rev. C. E. Herring, pastor—Morning subject, "Revelation in a Son;" evening subject, "Law and Grace."

Park Avenue Baptist church, Rev. J. W. Richardson, pastor—10:30, sermon, subject, "Stains to Avoid;" 2:45, Sunday school; 7:45, sermon, subject, "Saws and Chisels—Plain Talk to Mechanics."

First M. E. church, Rev. W. C. Snodgrass, pastor — 10:30 and 7:45, preaching by the pastor; 2:30, Sunday-school; 7, Epworth League.

Calvary Baptist church, Rev. Scott Wallace, pastor—11, sermon by the little girl preacher, Isabella Horton; 2:30, Sunday-school; 7:30, Christian Endeavor meeting; 8:15, preaching by Isabella Horton.

Grace M. E church, Rev. G. W. Gardner, pastor—10:30, sermon, subject, "The Whole Hearted Christian;" 2:30, Sunday school; 7, Epworth League service, Mrs. Taft, leader; 7:45, service of song and sermon by the pastor, subject, "Tragedies of the Will."

East Third Street chapel—Evening, Rev. Mr. VanKirk will lead the meeting.

Monroe Avenue M. E. church, Rev. William C. O'Donnell, pastor—11, sermon, subject, "Stop Thief!" 3, Sunday-school; 7:15, Epworth League; 8, sermon, subject, "Handel's Messiah," apropos of the rendition of the oratorio Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Money by Burn.

The Bank of England destroys about 350,000 of its notes every week to replace them with freshly printed ones. Here is a sure case of having "money to burn," and one which the mercenary may be envious of, but it isn't at all necessary to your requirements if you are looking for a holiday token for your sweetheart, wife or little ones. There are countless attractions not only to fit the needs of everybody, but within the means of everybody, at Collier's, 103 Park avenue, and the best of it is that they are all durable as well as being attractive and useful.

—Special sale of frames, easels, and pictures at the Guarantee Portrait Studio, 142 East Front street.

Great Millinery Sale
Continued For One Week.
Two to three hundred Felt Hats that were 39c and 50c now on sale for 15c and 19c.
$5.00 hats reduced to $2.98.
Great Reduction in Birds, Feathers and Ribbons.
Millinery Parlors,
L. A. DALY,
Corner W. Front St. and Central Ave
12 6 6

AUCTION SALE
of
Personal Property . . . .
TUESDAY, DECEMBER 19th, at 12:30 p. m.
Farm of John Mair, on Rahway road, near Dog Tavern.
H. HAND, Auctioneer.

GEO. W. COLE,
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,
200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

DIED.

MONROE—In this city, Friday, Dec. 15, 1899, Winfield, son of Winfield S. and Nannie Monroe, aged 1 year, 4 months. Funeral services at the residence of his parents, 438 West Third street, Sunday, Dec. 17, at 2:30 p. m. Interment in Hillside.

BROWNE—Suddenly, Dec. 16, Josiah Browne, in the 49th year of his age. Funeral services at his residence, 1225 Watchung avenue, on Monday, Dec. 18th, at 2:45 p. m. Friends are cordially invited to attend.

McINNES—In this city, Dec. 16, 1899, Christina, daughter of David and Wilhelmina McInnes, aged 3 months, 6 days. Funeral from parents residence, 443 Webster place, Monday afternoon, Dec. 18, at 3 o'clock. Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

WANTED—Colored girl would like position as cook or for general housework; good references. Annie Brown, 666 South Second street.

FOR SALE at a great sacrifice, $3 500 French-roof swell front house in Elizabeth; 11 rooms, all improvements; lot 50 x 159; near Westfield avenue trolley; no agents. Address W., 405 Chilton street, Elizabeth, N J.

THREE pleasant convenient rooms to let for light housekeeping. 404 Third street, corner Central avenue. 12 11 11

YOUNG man wants situation as coachman or care of furnaces; understands horses; references. G P., care Press. 12 12 5

WANTED—Boarders in private family; house modern improvements. 112 Central avenue, near Front street. 12 14 3

GOOD butcher business for sale cheap; must be sold at once. Inquire of Adam Dealaman, Dunellen. 12 14 tf

WANTED—Good sewer to work with dressmaker. Apply 409 West Third St.

FOR SALE CHEAP—House and lot 141 East Ninth street Apply to Messrs. Vail, Mulford or Woodruff. 12 16 3 s th s

WANTED—White girl for general housework; references required. 303 East Fifth Street. 12 15 2

YOUNG woman wants days work; best references. 305 Arlington Ave. 12 15 2

5 ROOM cottage to let. Apply 211 New street. Also one furnished room. 12 15 3

FOR SALE—Fine bred brindle bull dog. E. Unrhahn, 84 Somerset street. 12 15 2

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

FOR SALE—Old Grandfather clock, in good order. 315 West Front street. 12 15 3

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 24

PURE cider vinegar for sale at C. J. Ackerman's, Clinton avenue. 8 5 w-s tf

FOR RENT—Central Hall, for occasional festivities or permanent occupation. Apply to Fred Dunn w s tf

PANT operators wanted; none but experienced hands need apply. C. Schepflin, 320 W. Front St. 12 12 eod 3

HELP WANTED — Machinists, lathe and planer hands; good men can find steady job and good wages. Address P. O. Box 103. Cincinnati, Ohio. 12 8 12

WANTED—Situation to look after furnaces, etc.; have first-class references. Thomas Jones, 368 Arlington avenue. 12 13 6

SPECIAL!!
HAIR DRESSING, SHAMPOOING, MANICURING.
Until after the Holiday Season
MISS HOLMES,
Graduate of the New York School of Hair Dressing and Dermatology,
will make special rates for hair dressing in all the latest styles for street and evening; at parlors 75c. At ladies residences by appointment. Shampooing or Facial Massage and steaming (for eradicating imperfections of the skin) 75c. Manicuring 50c.
440 W. FRONT ST.

GROUND GREEN BONE FOR CHICKENS
DELIVERED AT 4 CENTS PER LB.
Orders left at J. W. VanSickle's, 122 North Avenue; or address P. P. Whittier, P. O. Box 98, Metuchen, N. J. 12 16 2

CUT FLOWERS!
Choice Blooming Plants, Palms, Ferns, Jardinieres, Fern Dishes, &c. Headquarters for Wreaths, Holly, Mistletoe and everything in the florist line. First-class stock. Largest assortment of cut flowers in the city.
A. E. LINCOLN,
Telephone 876. 226 PARK AVE. 12 14 9

Great Price Reductions

on Men's Overcoats and Suits, as well as on Boys' and Children's Suits, Overcoats and Trousers. There never was a busier season with us as we have had for the last three months, therefore we had to purchase very largely all through the season, made it a very large accumulation of odd suits and overcoats leaving us from 2 to 5 garments of each style and in order to close out this entire lot we have marked them down to such tremendously low prices that we expect to make a clean sweep of the entire lot in very short order.

We have also made a purchase in the last 3 days of 500 overcoats of the finest quality and made in the latest style, that will not stand us more than 35 cents on the dollar, they will be included in the above sale.

The following prices will be made for the next three days:

150 MEN'S BUSINESS SUITS, made of pure all-wool cassimeres and cheviots, in neat and stylish checked and plaid patterns, good looking, first-class suits, that were never before or never likely again be sold for less than 9 00, for this 3-day sale at 3 95

MEN'S ALL-WOOL FANCY CHEVIOT, CASSIMERE and HOMESPUN SUITS in single breasted styles with double breasted vests, are elegant dress or business suit, made up with an eye to give good service, in fact, you can't touch them in other stores for less than 12 00, our lucky purchase enables us to offer them at the extremely low price of 4.90

MEN'S VERY FINEST IMPORTED SIMONI HOCAIUM WORSTED and Scotch plaid cheviot suits, cut, made and finished in a thoroughly dependable manner, qualities that no other store would dream of selling for less than 15 00, to go at this sale at 6 95.

169 MEN'S KERSEY and BEAVER OVERCOATS, all-wool, black or blue deep French facing, extra heavy Italian lining, sleeves lined with the celebrated Iron Yarn cloth, a recognized 10.00 value at 4.25

MEN'S OVERCOATS of all-wool kerseys and covert cloths, presenting the latest English box style, they hang just perfectly and fit just where you want them to, have hand-made button-holes and are 12 00 to 14.00 values, at this sale 5 95,

MEN'S OVERCOATS at 7 90, this lot includes the celebrated Naumburg, Krans & Co.'s choicest line of winter overcoats, made of the finest grade of all-wool kersey cloth, genuine all-wool frieze in black or brown, also a lot of self-lined coverts made with lap seams and silk velvet collars, positively could not be equalled at less than from 15.00 to 20 00.

500 TWO-PIECE BOYS' SUITS, all-wool materials, new and pleasing styles, double seat and knee, sizes 7 to 15, could not be sold for less than 3 00 to be sold at 1 45.

BOYS' FINE TWO-PIECE SUITS in all the newest designs in plaids and mixtures, also in plain black and blue cheviots, double seat and knees, elegantly trimmed and tailored, worth 5.00, to be sold at this great sale at 2 25

BOYS' REEFER COATS at 1.25 and 1 50 made of all wool chinchillas with the regulation sailor collars, with warm woolen lining, sizes 3 to 8 years, positively worth 3 00.

BOYS' TOP COATS at 2 50 and 2 75, made of all-wool coverts, meltons and frieze, with full back, velvet collars and cassimere lined, sizes from 4 to 16 years, cannot be produced at less than from 5.00 to 7 00.

YOUNG MEN'S SUITS, ages 14 to 19, at 2 50, 3.50 and 4 50, handsomely made with narrow legged pants, other stores would sell them at from 5 00 to 10 00

FINE YOUNG MEN'S OVERCOATS, sizes 14 to 19, at 1.75, 2.75 and 4 75, worth double at wholesale.

Don't make a mistake by missing this wonderful sale of clothing. Sale will begin this Saturday morning at 8 a. m.. Will last for 3 days only.

New York Clothing Company
M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.
Plainfield, N. J.

SATURDAY, DEC. 16th, WILL BE DOLLS' DAY.

Every girl who comes with a parent and brings a doll to the store shall have a pair of real Vici Kid slippers for the doll FREE.

You know some dolls' tracks would frighten a bear hunter, but never mind how odd the feet are or how large, bring dolly along; we've a lot of sizes all ready, but if necessary we'll measure the feet and make special slippers to fit them. A lot of trouble and a lot of cost for us, say you? Yes, both trouble and cost, but we shall get it back again from the VICI KID shoe sales we shall make during the next year. Genuine Vici Kid bought from Mr. Robert H. Foerderer.

DOANE & EDSALL.

...EMERY'S... PLEASURE GARDEN
(SCOTCH PLAINS.)
Thursday Evening, December 21st
FIRST
GRAND BALL
—OF THE—
Prospect Social Club.
Music by Prof. O'Reilly.
TICKETS - - - - 25 Cents.
The Enclosed Pavilion is for rent for Balls, Parties, etc., at Reasonable Rates.

BANK ELECTION.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of this bank, for the election of nine Directors to serve for the ensuing year, will be held at the Banking rooms, corner of Park avenue and Front street, on Tuesday, January 9th, 1900, from 1 to 2 o'clock p m.

WILLIAM F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

Dated Plainfield, N. J., December 7th, 1899.

12-8 9 11 13 15 16 19 22 26 28 30 1-2 4 6 8

MASSAGE :-: VAPOR BATHS
CORNS REMOVED 25c.
M. V. STICKLE, 149 East Fifth St.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.
Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.
Capital, $150,000.
Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.
CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.
DIRECTORS.
Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Closson. H. G. Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold. J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J. B. Coward.
General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

S. R. STRUTHERS
offers his services as accountant. Books opened and closed. Trial balances made and Balance Sheets shown.
Call or address
514 WEST FRONT STREET.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:19 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:35 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:35 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair Tonight; Cloudy Tuesday; Stationary Temperature. Ther. 38.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., MONDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

HER LIFE IS AT STAKE.

Trial of Mrs. Fingerhuth Commenced This Morning.

JURY QUICKLY SECURED.

PROSECUTION COMMENCED ITS SIDE AT ONCE.

First Witness Sworn was County Engineer Doughty, Who was Followed by Lawyer Clark—Prisoner Acts Calm and Collected.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

Somerville, Dec. 18—For the first time in the history of Somerset county a woman was put on trial today in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, charged with a crime punishable by death. The prisoner is Mrs. Catherine Fingerhuth, of North Plainfield, who, while an effort was being made to evict her from the house she and her husband and son occupied at Somerset Park, September 12th last, shot and instantly killed Paul Roehricht, the landlord, whose residence was at 2170 Seventh avenue, New York.

Chief Justice Magie, of the Supreme Court, and Judge Bartine, of the Somerset county court, are setting in the case. The State is represented by County Prosecutor Nelson Dungan and the defense by Former Congressman Alvah Clark, of Somerville, and W. L. Hetfield and W. G. DeMeza, of Plainfield.

The chief feature of the opening of the case this morning was the short time consumed in getting a satisfactory jury to adjuge the guilt of the accused. Court convened at 11 o'clock and the work of selecting the jury was commenced without delay. Thirty-eight talesmen were examined, and three-quarters of an hour after the case had been called the twelve seats in the jury box were filled with jurors satisfactory to both sides. Practically the only qualification required from the talesmen was their statement that they were not opposed to capital punishment.

The jurors selected were as follows: George B. Carkuff, of Hillsboro, who will act as foreman; Peter Merlette, of Franklin; C. Nevius Wilson, of Franklin; J. S. Field, of Franklin; J. L. Cramer, of Bridgewater; W. M. Funkhouser, of Hillsboro; I. L. Weaver, of Bridgewater; J. W. Kuhl, of Branchburg; T. Eugene Nevius, of Franklin; J. B. Simpson, of Bernards; P. R. Hall, of Montgomery; J. W. Thatcher, of Branchburg.

After the jury had been selected the County Prosecutor commenced his opening address on the case. Inasmuch as there is no dispute as to the fact of Mrs. Fingerhuth having fired the shot that killed Roehricht, County Prosecutor Dungan said that the only question necessary to determine the guilt of the prisoner was whether or not she had acted within the legal bounds of the law in repelling the attempt to evict her. He said that he was ready to prove that she had taken the law in her own hands and should be punished in accordance.

The first witness called for the prosecution was County Engineer Joshua Doughty, of Somerville, who presented a map outlining the scene of the killing and showing the position of the various ones who were around when the tragedy occurred. Mr. Doughty swore to the correctness of the map, and the Prosecutor offered it in evidence. Mr. Clark, for the defense, objected to this, and Judge Magie allowed his objection until the position of the principal had been proven by evidence.

The second witness called was Lawyer R. M. Clark, of Plainfield, who was counsel for Roehricht, as also his business manager. Clark testified that as long as he was connected with Roehricht Fingerhuth had not been employed by the latter. He stated that

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.]

PARSON GIVES WARNING.

CHURCH MEMBERS NOT EXPECTED TO SIGN LICENSE APPLICATIONS.

If They Do Rev. Mr. Shott Says He Will Prefer Charges Against Them and Have Them Disciplined for It.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 18—That Rev. Gideon N. Shott, pastor of the Baptist church at Scotch Plains, is earnest and determined in his efforts to suppress the liquor traffic in that place, was shown in the remarks made from the pulpit last night.

During the week Rev. Mr. Shott said that it had come to his ears that the hotel keepers and their allies in town were circulating stories to the effect that the church and the Citizens' League were not sincere in their announced intention of preventing the local bar-rooms from securing a renewal of their licenses. Rev. Mr. Shott said that all such reports were falsehoods, and to show how sincere he was in the matter he said that he then and there desired to give a warning that might, if heeded, prevent trouble in the future.

Rev. Mr. Shott said that if any member of his church signed the application for a license this year he would immediately prefer charges against him before the church officials and seek to have him disciplined. Inasmuch as several of the church members have heretofore signed applications for licenses in the past, the statement made quite a sensation. Rev. Mr. Shott urged upon the members of the church the necessity of trying to prevent the hotel keepers from getting the necessary number of signatures to their applications.

WATCHED THE ECLIPSE.

Easy to See the Advance of the Earth's Shadow Over the Moon Saturday Night.

There were hundreds of Plainfielders who watched the eclipse of the moon Saturday evening with interest. The day was a pleasant one, but, with the setting of the sun, the sky grew hazy and the rising moon was partially dimmed by thin clouds. As the moon continued to rise the clouds grew thinner and the outline of the moon was plainly distinguishable. The first appearance of the earth's shadow was noticeable, however. As the evening advanced the clouds disappeared and the moon came out in all her glory.

It then became very easy to watch the advance of the earth's shadow over the moon. The uncovered part shone with unusual brilliancy, while the remainder could be faintly seen, a dull red in color. All the moon was finally covered except a very slim crescent in the southeastern side. The shadow then passed away as gradually as it came and the moon shone as if nothing unusual had happened. Next year there will be the unusual sight of a total eclipse of the sun, visible in this part of the globe.

A BELATED CALL.

The Blaze in Charles Dencklau's Home was All Out When Fire Department Was Notified.

After it was all over the fire department was notified that there had been a fire at the home of Charles Dencklau, 323 East Second street, yesterday morning. Assistant Chief Jennings went around to see that it was entirely extinguished. Mrs. Dencklau started to carry an oil stove from one room to another, when the stove suddenly collapsed, and the burning oil was spread over the floor.

Mrs. Dencklau had a narrow escape while the blaze spread across the floor. Members of the family soon had the fire under control and extinguished it after $30 worth of damage had been done to the house and furniture. The loss was covered by insurance.

Annual Report of the Hospital.

The annual report of the Muhlenberg Hospital was issued last Saturday. It is somewhat later than usual. The report shows that during the past year there were 325 indoor patients as against 266 for the previous year. The visits at the dispensary have been 1,323. Last year there were 1,226. Nine nurses have been graduated from the hospital, and there are nine pupil nurses in the institution now. Up to the present time the hospital has received bequests amounting to $15,060.90.

—Jamaica oranges, mandarians, tangerians and lady apples at Neuman Bros.

—T. M. Ingraham, P. O. box 635, cleans cesspools and vaults. Give him a trial order.

—Our delicious candies are just what you want for Christmas. They are made fresh every day, bon bons and chocolates. Stephenson's, 146 North avenue.

WOMEN WERE BURNED IN A GAS EXPLOSION

Dangerous Experience of Mrs. Chamberlain and Daughter.

OCCURRED IN THE CELLAR.

TRYING TO REPAIR A LEAK IN A BARREL OF VARNISH.

It Was Getting Dark and as Mrs. Chamberlain Struck a Match There Was an Explosion, Which Ignited the Clothes of the Two Women—Acted With Presence of Mind, But Seriously Injured.

An accident that narrowly escaped being a fatal one occurred yesterday noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Chamberlain, East Third street when Mrs. Chamberlain and her fifteen-year-old-daughter, Lottie, were frightfully burned, and are now in a critical condition

There was a barrel partially filled with varnish in the cellar, and Mrs. Chamberlain discovered that the varnish was leaking. Her husband was in the barn at the time, but she thought that with the assistance of the hired man, Joseph Stevens, she could repair the break. So she went down stairs with Stevens, the daughter following soon afterwaod. It was very dark in the cellar and Mrs. Chamberlain, in order to see what she doing, struck a match. As she did so a gas was formed, and then followed a terrific explosion.

A large flame shot out from the barrel and instantly Mrs. Chamberlain's clothes were ablaze, as were also those of her daughter, who stood fully ten feet away. Stevens, who stood near, was burned in the face, and was so dazed that he was of little assistance. With rare presence of mind the mother and daughter rushed to the kitchen, where they secured cloaks with which to wrap themselves in. They then rolled about the floor until the flames were extinguished.

In the meantime Stevens called Mr. Chamberlain and told him the house was on fire. He ran to the house and into the cellar, where everything seemed ablaze. With the assistance of the hired man he finally succeeded in putting the fire out. Fortunately the damage was slight.

As Mr. Chamberlain was walking from the cellar he saw his wife and daughter standing on the back porch, and then he knew for the first as to what had happened. He got them to go in the house, and as quickly as possible a physician was summoned. Several were sent for, but Dr. Lowrie, the family physician, was the first to arrive. The mother and daughter were put in bed at once and proper treatment given.

Mrs. Chamberlain's burns are chiefly about the face, head and arms. Her hair is almost burned from the head, and her face is burned to such an ex that she can scarcely see from her eyes, while her arms are in a frightful condition. The daughter's burns are principally about the arms and back. In fact the flesh is burned entirely off the back, while her hair was also nearly burned off. Both suffer the most excruciating pain and constant applications of soothing remedies are applied.

Great assistance was rendered by the neighbors, who were attracted by the explosion, and they did all that was possible until the physician arrived. Among those who gave valuable aid are Miss Sadie Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. John Hope, Mrs. Loughlin, Miss Loughlin, Scott Mollison, Mr. and Mrs. Thorn, Miss Webster, Mrs. Peterson, Miss Dell Randolph.

Both of the sufferers are in a precarious condition. It is not known how much of the fumes were inhaled, or if any, but Dr. Lowrie is afraid that there may be some internal troubles. At present they both seem to be doing as well as can be expected. Stevens, the hired man, was not seriously burned, and he is able to be about. His escape was miraculous.

Society During Christmas Week.

The Christmas week is usually a lively one in society circles. There are many visitors here for the holidays and then the host of young people, who attend the colleges of the land, will all be home on their Christmas vacations. Two most important functions scheduled for that week are the first of the Assemblies, which is to be held in the Casino on the evening of Wednesday, December 27th, and the formal dance at the Park Club, which is to be held the following night.

Opened New York Office

The Marvel Bottle Company, of this city, have opened an office at 45 Beaver street, New York.

Queen City Lodge, I. O. O. F., will hold its regular meeting this evening.

ABOUT SAWS AND CHISELS

PLAIN TALK TO MECHANICS AT PARK AVENUE CHURCH.

Rev. J. W. Richardson Preaches the Second of a Series of Practical Sermons to a Large Congregation.

Rev. J. W. Richardson, pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist church, preached the second of the series of practical sermons last evening to a good sized congregation His subject was "Saws and Chisels or Plain Talk to Mechanics" The text was from Exodus 35 31 33—"And He filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom—in all manner of workmanship in the carving of wood to make any manner of cunning work." The speaker said in part:

"It was God who infored man of the wonders waiting to be released from mine, mountains and deep deep sea. The first labor laws published for the protection of the mechanic, are found in the Bible. God promises His blessing upon the man who earns his living by the sweat of his brow. Work is divine. God labored six periods in the creation. Some are discounted with labor, because it is connected with saws and hammers. But if he possesses real greatness of soul, he can be suave, polite, well-read, and a ready conversationalist. He may make himself as indispensible to good company, as the bank clerk or lawyer. Think of the thousands of mechanics who have risen from the bench—the Carnegies, Cramps, Pullmans. But these men are not ashamed of their pedigree. One of our noblest presidents said, 'My shirt sleeves are the best coat of arms I ever possessed, or can have.' But if an artisan is content to grumble, swear, drink and drift along without improving his mind, this, and not a mean vocation, shuts him out of sunshiny places. The bright mechanics of today, are the princes of science tomorrow, like Bell, Edison and Holland. If an artisan respects himself and cultivates his intellect, other people will respect him, and cultivate his acquaintance.

Let the artisan aim to accomplish something for himself beyond mere wages and clothes. If he is content to be nothing, he will arrive there very sudden. But if he is bound to discover a new method of laying bricks; or to become a scientific moulder; or a skilled machinist; let him put his whole soul and effort into the development of his ideal. Let him concentrate his energies, and he will soon discover that the wheels are all turning in his favor. Knowing how to accomplish things, with the least possible noise, and loss of power, is what counts in this age. It is not the banging of the hammer, but the properly driven nail, which men want. It is not the fussy, fretting, noisy workman, who goes by fits and starts, that accomplishes the most and best work. Noise does not indicate thoroughness. What we mean by thoroughness is that quiet, persistant, exact-work, which finishes every task as near as possible to the lines of perfection. It is the scientific workman who commands the best job, best wages, and continuous work. When the dull season arrives such are seldom out of a job. This is the only recipe for permanent success, and permanent wages—thoroughness.

"Yonder in the temple of mechanics sits Goodyear, who vulcanized rubber; Howe, who discovered the sewing machine; McCormick, who built the reaper; and thousands of others. And they enjoy fame, simply because they were thorough, and persistently searched inside the bones of their trade. Whatever be his vocation, let the artisan refuse to be satisfied with grubbing at the bottom. Let him refuse to stop at the middle place in his vocation, and aim to stand among the first, and he will be fully appreciated.

To Revise the Map.

There will be a meeting of Mayor Smalley and the street committee of the borough, this evening at the Council rooms, to revise the map providing for the widening of Somerset street. A few slight changes will have to be made, and then a public meeting will be held at which time all of the interested property owners will be invited to be present and discuss the matter. There seems to be but little doubt but what the improvement will be made.

Death of Francis Conshee.

Last Saturday afternoon occurred the death of Francis Edward Conshee, aged 38 years, of 55 Watchung avenue. Death was due to consumption, and the deceased had been ill for a long time. The funeral services will be held from the late residence tomorrow morning at 8:30 o'clock and from St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock. Interment will take place in St. Mary's cemetery.

—Press want ads pay.

—Press want ads bring results.

ENDEAVORERS WILL CROSS THE OCEAN.

New Jersey Union Will Charter a Special Steamer

HONEYMAN TO TAKE CHARGE

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION IN LONDON OBJECTIVE POINT.

The Steamer Will Be Limited to 250 Persons, Who Will Be Required to Pay $298 Apiece, Which Will Also Include Expenses of Many Side Trips to Points of Interest in Europe.

The New Jersey Christian Endeavor Union announces to the Endeavorers and friends that it has completed the arrangements for a trip to the Christian Endeavor convention at "London 1900," the Paris Exposition and a tour through the continent. A. V. D. Honeyman, of this city, who has conducted European tours for fourteen years, will have charge of the party. John J. Ross, of Newark, having lived seven years in Paris, will assist Mr. Honeyman.

Arrangements have been made to charter a special steamer from the Hamburg-American line, which will carry the party from New York to Plymouth and from Cherbourg to New York in return. The advantage of having a special steamer with full control of the vessel and opportunities for Christian Endeavor meetings, musicales, games, etc., will be apparent to all and cannot but make the ocean voyage a delightful one. There will be no crowding but the same number of passengers will be put in each room as on all first class steamship lines. The capacity of the steamer is limited to 250 persons. The price for this complete tour will be only $298. The staterooms will be assigned in the order of application, first applicants having the best rooms.

For those who cannot take the Continental tour the committee will endeavor to arrange for a trip to London and Paris. Those desiring such a trip must communicate with the committee at once or positively not later than December 20th, for the steamship companies say there will probably be not a first class stateroom left for the season of 1900 after January 1st.

All applications for passage or information should be sent to the committee of the county in which applicants reside, and the committee for Essex and Union is E. E. Anthony, Plainfield.

The following is the itinerary of the trip: Leave New York Tuesday, June 26th. The steamer will let off the party at Plymouth, and will proceed by rail to London, where they will be comfortably quartered for a period of nearly two weeks. From London there will be special excursions up the Thames by steamer, and by railway to the old University Town of Oxford, to Stratford-on-Avon, Windsor Castle, side trips to Canterbury, Brighton, the Isle of Wight. The party will see London quite thoroughly before the beginning of the World's Endeavor Convention, which will be from Saturday, July 14th, to Wednesday, July 18th.

The day after the convention closes, the party will proceed to Antwerp, to Cologne, thence up the Rhine by steamer; thence to Heidelberg, to Baden Baden, and an excursion through the Black Forest. From thence by railway to Lucerne in Switzerland, and a side trip up the Rigi. Proceeding next over the Brunig Pass to Interlaken, a portion of the party will remain at the latter place for Sunday and a portion will go forward to Geneva. At Interlaken, if the weather be clear, a delightful side trip will be arranged for to the Staubach Falls, at Lauterbrunnen, and and over Wengernalp to Grindelwald and its glacier. At Interlaken, there will be a stop at Berne, and, if practicable, the railway journey to Geneva will be broken at Lausanne, so as to proceed over Lake Geneva, by steamer. From Geneva the party will go to Paris, reaching there July 30 or 31, and remaining there about one week, so as to fully take in the Exposition and vicinity. In the week beginning August 6th the party will sail for home from Cherbourg, arriving in New York somewhere between August 16th and August 20th.

—All varieties of nut meats, Jordan almonds, fancy english walnuts, fancy table raisns, stuffed dates, stuffed prunes and choice figs at Neuman Bros.

—A better assortment of costume mottoes and caps you will not find than we can show you. All the newest ideas in mottes for young and old at reasonable prices. Stephenson's, 146 North avenue.

NO WORDS, MADE LOVE.

DEAF AND DUMB COUPLE IN BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT.

Metuchen Girl Claims That Her Feelings Have Been Wounded and Now She Sues in Court for a Financial Balm.

The court officials of Middlesex county are on a hunt for an expert interpreter in the deaf and dumb sign language to officiate in what will undoubtedly prove one of the most unique and interesting trials that has ever been held in New Jersey.

It is the breach of promise suit of Miss Hannah Adam, of Metuchen, five miles southeast of this city, against George H. Rigg, of Burlington county. The plaintiff and defendant are both deaf and dumb. Miss Adam and Mr. Rigg both attended a deaf and dumb school in Trenton, where they both became expert in carrying on a conversation with their fingers. While there they became acquainted, and that acquaintance, the young woman now claims, eventually ripened into a good deal more then is common among school mates. In fact, she claims that Rigg made love to her, and that she ardently reciprocated his attentions and finally they became engaged.

After they parted from one another as schoolmates it is alleged that Riggs' devotion to the young woman similarly afflicted as himself, grew less gradually, and he at last refused to wed her. This wounded the young woman's feelings seriously and was a great shock and disappointment to her, so much so that it is now claimed that the only balm that will be accepted by her is a financial one determined in a court of law by a jury of both his and her superiors.

Voorhees & Booream, of New Brunswick, are the lawyers for the plaintiff. It is thought the case will be ready for trial by the end of this week.

DINNER FOR THE NEEDY.

Salvation Army to Provide a Christmas Feast for 300 Poor Plainfield People.

The local Salvation Army will serve free Christmas dinner for three hundred poor of Plainfield on Christmas Day at 1 o'clock in the Salvation Army hall. Ensign Martin has called on the relief committee and superintendent of poor and received a list of names of people who will appreciate a good meal. The sick will be remembered and baskets of food will be sent to them. He has taken this step feeling confident that the benevolent people of the city will assist him. The dinner will be given to any person in need, irrespective of creed or color.

Below will be found a partial list of things needed: Money, provisions, beef, turkey, ham, butter, vegetables, crackers, sugar, apples, oranges, pies, nuts, tea, coffee, milk, cheese, candies, also baskets, paper bags and second hand clothing. The Ensign takes this means of asking for help in the undertaking. Checks should be made out to J. W. Martin, Salvation Army.

GREAT MUSICAL EVENT.

"The Messiah" to Be Sung in Crescent Avenue Church With Chorus of 100 Voices.

The Christmastide service that is to be given tomorrow and Thursday evening at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, when "The Messiah" will be presented by a chorus of one hundred voices, will be the musical event of the season. Edward J. Fitzhugh will be the conductor. Miss Jessie M. Utter will preside at the piano and William H. Miller at the organ. The soloists are all persons of note in the musical world and they will no doubt delight the large audiences that are sure to be present. The soloists are Miss Annie L. Walker, soprano; Miss M. S. Perry, contralto; E. C. Towne, tenor; Douglas Lane, bass. Tomorrow evening there will be a public rehearsal, and Thursday evening the concert will be given free. Cards of invitation have been issued for tomorrow evening.

Josiah Browne an Arcanumite.

It was learned today that the late Josiah Browne, of 1225 Watchung avenue, was a member of Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum, and a committee composed of D. W. Little, L. B. Woolston and Armstrong Mulford, have been appointed to attend the funeral and review the remains.

General Trolley Inspector.

Charles Lister, of Watchung avenue, has secured a position as general inspector of the Plainfield Street Railway, Elizabeth and Westfield Street Railway, and his duties are to travel over the lines and see that everything is operated right. Mr. Lister's friends will congratulate him on his success.

—The Union Bible class taught by Rev. D. M. Stearns will meet at the Y. M. C. A. Hall tonight.

NEW INDUSTRY TO EMPLOY 800 HANDS.

Organ Trust Factory to be Located in Garwood.

TOWN NAME TO BE CHANGED

THE PLACE WILL PROBABLY BE RENAMED AEOLIAN OR VOCALION.

The Work of Putting Up the New Factory Buildings Will be Started at Once—Three Big Companies are Concerned in the Deal—One Factory Will be Established There at a Time.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, Dec. 18—It can now be stated as a definite fact that the negotiations that have been pending between the Garwood Land Improvement Company and the Organ Trust for the location of the consolidated factories of the Trust at Garwood have been completed, and this new industry for Garwood is assured. Work on the factory buildings will be started at once, and when completed the establishment will furnish employment for 800 operatives.

The Organ Trust, or more properly, the Aeolian Organ Company, was formed by the consolidation of the three leading organ manufacturing companies of the country, the Aeolian Company, of Meriden, Conn., the Votey Company, of Detroit, Mich., and the Vocalion Company, of Worcester, Mass. Factories are now located in the cities named Owing to the rush of orders confronting these companies, the factories will be moved to Garwood one at a time and each put in running order before the next is moved. The factory of the Votey Company will be the first to be transferred to the new quarters.

The contract for the erection of the building has been given to the Wales, Lines Construction Company of Meriden, Conn., and representative of that corporation arrived in Westfield Saturday and started preparations for the excavation and foundation work.

The new concern will employ a number of skilled hands while there will also be an opportunity for the employment of many women and girls. Many of the employes from the cities where the present factories are located will undoubtedly come to Garwood and Westfield to seek employment at the new factory. When all the factories have been moved, the 800 operatives will mean a large increase in the population of Garwood and a substantial increase here. The trolley will furnish an easy means of reaching the factory. The buildings will be ready for occupancy in the spring and it is expected that all the factories will be successfully moved inside of a year.

When the negotiations were first started, it was one of the conditions of the Organ Trust that the name of the town of Garwood should be changed. Therefore it is very probable that Garwood will soon end its career. Instead, Aeolian or Vocalion will be seen on the time-tables of the Jersey Central Railroad.

HOPE CHAPEL DEDICATION.

Special Services to Mark the Opening of the New Edifice of the West End Society.

Preparations are now being completed for the proper dedication of Hope Memorial chapel, the new edifice on West Fourth street, that has been in course of construction. Sunday morning, December 31st, the last service will be held in the old chapel, and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon there will be a Sunday-school session, when an offering will be taken to be used in furnishing the new edifice. At 7:45 o'clock in the evening will commence the dedicatory exercises.

Then will follow this programme: Monday, January 1st, 2:30 to 5 p. m., New Year's Day reception, entertainment and recitations by Lieut. Charles E. Scott; 8 p. m., service of praise and thanksgiving; Tuesday, January 2d, 8 p. m., "Home Missions," address by Dr. Thompson, secretary of the Board of Home Missions, or by Dr. Dixon, assistant secretary; Wednesday, January 3d, 8 p. m., "The Church," address by Dr. Thomas C. Hall, of Union Theological Seminary, New York city; Thursday, January 4th, 8 p. m., greeting from the pastors of Plainfield; Friday, January 5th, 8 p. m., "The Bible," address by Dr. Erdman, of Morristown; Sunday, January 7th, 10:30 a. m., morning worship; 3 p. m., Sunday-school; 7:45 p. m., song service; 8 p. m., evening worship. Then from January 8th to 12th, the regular week of prayer services will be held, concluding with the communion of the Lord's Supper Sunday evening, January 14th, 8 p. m.

CURRENCY DEBATE CLOSES

The Long Talk Ends in a Sensational Manner.

ARGUMENTS WAX WARM.

Members on Both Sides Become Somewhat Excited—Vote Will be Taken on Currency Measure Without Any Amendments Having Been Offered. House in an Uproar.

Washington, Dec. 18.—The six days' debate upon the Currency bill closed in a sensational manner. The Republican leaders had evidently set a trap for the minority to show that discord existed on the money question, and it was timed so as to make the scene as dramatic as possible.

Mr. Richardson and his lieutenants had canvassed their side of the house to learn if any one contemplated offering a free silver amendment. They found that Mr. Sulzer, of New York, had an amendment already drawn, and intended to get it before the House if possible. Mr. Richardson labored with him, and Mr. Sulzer finally agreed, as a personal favor, not to offer it.

Mr. Grosvenor, of Ohio, taunted the Democrats later in the day with not having had the courage to offer a free silver amendment.

Mr. Richardson promptly charged the Republicans with having made it impossible to offer such an amendment under their special order, and Mr. Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, defied any Democrat to offer a free coinage amendment.

Mr. Dolliver, of Iowa, who next took the floor, offered to yield to any Democrat who would ask unanimous consent to offer a free coinage amendment, and Mr. Bailey sprang up and shouted, "I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment providing for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of sixteen to one."

The House was immediately in an uproar. The Democrats applauded and cheered Mr. Bailey until it looked as if the Texan had by a single bold stroke snatched the leadership away from Mr. Richardson.

In the midst of the confusion Mr. Sulzer, apparently forgetting his promise to Mr. Richardson, ran down the aisle, shouting, "I call the Republican bluff. I offer the amendment."

Mr. Hepburn, of Iowa, chairman of the Committee of the Whole, cut him off by ruling that Mr. Bailey's request was not in order in the Committee of the Whole, and the Democrats jeered and shouted to the Republicans that they well knew how the chairman would rule when they made their bluff.

It was soon the turn of the Republicans to jeer, however, for as soon as the Committee of the Whole rose and reported the bill to the House, Mr. Overstreet, of Indiana, asked unanimous consent to so amend the special order as to allow the offering of a free coinage amendment. Republicans and silver Democrats joined in applause, and Mr. Sulzer was again ready to offer his amendment, when Mr. Driggs got his party out of the awkward position by shouting: "When the Greeks offer gifts, Mr. Speaker, I object."

His single objection blocked the way for unanimous consent, and the House adjourned.

Democratic members of the New York delegation were the centre of interest on the closing day of the debate. All the bolters will stand firm and will vote with the Republicans in favor of the bill. Messrs. Levy, Fitzgerald and Wilson spoke in favor of the measure, while Mr. Glynn, who had previously declined to commit himself, took a stand in opposition to the bill.

The debate was enlivened by a bout between Mr. Brown, of Ohio, and Mr. Clark, of Missouri. The former resented what he regarded as a slight put upon the memory of the late President Hayes in some remarks made by Mr. Clark.

In reply Mr. Clark declared that Mr. Hayes was a "counterfeit President," for whom he had a supreme contempt, even though he was dead. "He stole the Presidency," said Mr. Clark—"the greatest crime in the tide of times. I wish he could have lived forever and borne the scorn of decent men to the end of the world. His sepulchre should bear the words, "This man was guilty of the monumental crime against human liberty."

Mr. Clark's words were received in silence on both sides of the House.

Mr. Lentz, of Ohio, charged that the pending bill had been prepared by 3,600 national banks, a secret combination that wielded more influence than the Masonic fraternity, the Odd Fellows and the Red Men combined.

"We are in favor of renominating William Jennings Bryan," said Mr. Lentz, "and we will put in a plank against trusts, we will put in a plank against imperialism, and we will put in a plank against the British alliance, an alliance that is now open and apparent. They are now shooting down liberty in South Africa, while you are shooting it down in the Philippine Islands. That is evidence sufficient that both governments are operating upon parallel lines.

"The first blossom of liberty in the Orient to be cut off by the Republican party of the United States, the first substantial struggle for liberty in Africa to be mowed down in its infancy by the Queen of England, with the Czar asking for a peace conference!

"If things are not inside out, how can the Republican party stand impotent and silent while England is shooting to death a republic in South Africa, and while under the military and imperialistic powers that patronage has delivered to the President here, the crime of crimes is being committed under the Stars and Stripes of the Union?

The House was again in an uproar, and with half a dozen members on their feet clamoring for recognition, Speaker Henderson put an end to the excitement by declaring the House adjourned.

No amendments were offered to the bill, and only one section of the measure was read. The whole time was occupied in speeches.

States Urged to Select Senators.

Washington, Dec. 18.—As a matter of party expediency the administration is urging a call of the Pennsylvania and California Legislatures for the election of Senators from those two states.

This means that the President realizes the difficulties in the way of seating Mr. Quay and the party confusion that would follow should the Governor of California carry out his expressed intention of appointing Mr. Burns, who is so objectionable to many leading Republicans from that state.

While the administration has thus far taken a neutral position in relation to Mr. Quay's case, Senator Hanna has lately expressed the opinion to other Republican leaders that it would be advantageous to the Republican party if the Senate could avoid a vote on the Quay case.

Senator Aldrich is also understood to be of the same opinion, and the influence of many of the leaders is now being brought to bear upon Governor Stone in the hope that he will call a special session of the Pennsylvania Legislature in order that Mr. Quay may have another chance to fight his battle at home, and that if he again fails the Republican members of that body will be able to unite upon another Republican.

Troops Soon to Leave Cuba.

Washington, Dec. 18.—Gen. Brooke has telegraphed to the War Department from Havana that he has arranged to send to the United States Troops A, B, C and D, Eighth cavalry, a total of sixty-eight enlisted men, with Major Stanton and Lieutenants Donaldson, Dixson, Williams and Lott, to go to Fort Riley, Kan., where Captain Sayre will join the squadron. Troops E, F, G and H, of the Tenth cavalry, numbering four hundred enlisted men, with three hundred horses, and Captains Hunt, Ayres and Carlton, and Lieutenants Whitehead and Whitesides, will be sent to Galveston for distribution along the Mexican frontier. It is expected that the Fifteenth infantry will leave about December 30 to be distributed between Governor's Island and Plattsburg, N. Y.

HER TESTIMONY IMPEACHED.

Witnesses Would Not Believe Marie Robertson Under Oath.

Marshall, Mich., Dec. 18.—Marie Robertson has been recalled in the Sanderson attempted murder case. She said she did not tell of the defendant's feeding powdered glass to her husband, because she was afraid of her.

The officer who arrested Mrs. Robertson in Port Huron, where she was accused of stealing $900, was produced, but she failed to recognize him. Various witnesses from Baraboo, Wis., the home of Mrs. Sanderson, testified that her reputation there was good. The prosecution did not succeed in impeaching this evidence. Mrs. McDonald and Mrs. Rogers of Port Huron swore to knowing Mary Mills, alias Marie Robertson, and that her reputation for truth and veracity was bad. They said they would not believe her under oath.

Dr. Wattles was recalled and cross-examined on his testimony that paralysis and not powdered glass caused Mr. Sanderson's death.

Court Reinstates Leland.

Chicago, Dec. 18.—Judge Tuley has issued an order granting to E. F. Leland an immediate injunction against the Stock Exchange, declaring the expulsion of Mr. Leland null and void. Mr. Leland set forth that as a member he was an owner in the Exchange property, and entitled to its benefits, and also that he received no copy of the charges against him, and that there were no witnesses against him. He said that he had a wire to members of the New York Consolidated Stock Exchange, and certain other persons, but that he had never knowingly had any connection with bucket shops in New York city. The injunction restrains the officers of the Exchange from interfering with his business, and declares him still a member in good standing.

Brutal Husband Goes to Jail.

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 18.—A desire to surprise her husband with a Christmas gift resulted in Mamie Brown's receiving a brutal beating and sending her spouse to jail. Mrs. Brown obtained a position as domestic, and with her wages bought a ring for her husband. When Charles Brown, the husband, who was jealous of his wife, found a man's ring in her possession he beat and kicked her. Mrs. Brown swore out a warrant, and Justice Grannan sent the accused to jail. He will spend his Christmas behind the bars, but Mrs. Brown has not yet decided what she will do with the ring.

Sampson Willing to Return.

London, Dec. 18.—Michael J. Sampson, the former Chicago city employe, who was arraigned in the Bow street police court a week ago on a charge of forgery, has been brought into court and remanded for another week. Sampson expressed his willingness to return to Chicago and meet the charges against him. He says he is only technically guilty, as the offence was committed by a subordinate. He says when he returns to Chicago he will run for the State Senate.

An Increase For Coal Miners.

Lansford, Pa., Dec. 18.—Notices have been posted by the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company to the effect that market price of coal at tide is six per cent. below the basis, and that all contract miners and inside laborers will be paid accordingly. This means an increase of twenty-six cents per week in the miners' wages and twenty-one cents for laborers. It will effect three thousand employes.

Maine to Have a Naval Reserve.

Portland, Me., Dec. 18.—Adj.-General Richards has issued orders for the organization of a division of Naval Reserves in Portland to consist of 46 men. The State will uniform and equip them, and the men will be drilled as infantry, artillery and in signals, and will have boat and seamanship, as well as theoretical, drill. The division will be mustered into the National Guard of the State before Jan. 1.

Theatres Prosper in War.

London, Dec. 18.—In spite of the war the theatres are generally prospering. Mr. William Archer has received the final proof sheets of Ibsen's new play, on a translation of which he is busily engaged.

New York Announcement.

Horner's Furniture.

The BEST IN THE MARKET because representing the productions of the best makers only. Other advantages are the unequalled assortments in all lines, whether wanted for city or country houses, and the very moderate prices at which the goods are marked.

The completeness of our assortments can best be understood from the fact that we carry in stock, and exhibit, more than two hundred and fifty distinctively different Bedroom Sets in every variety of material, as well as endless lines of Parlor, Drawing Room, Library and Dining Room Furniture, ranging from the modest and inexpensive to the most elaborately carved and inlaid.

In a word, every article required for use, comfort and adornment in the household can be had with its plainly marked moderate price at the Great Furniture Emporium of

R. J. Horner & Co.,
Furniture Makers and Importers,
61-65 W. 23d St., New York
(Adjoining Eden Musee.)

Send for Illustrated Handbook, "Our American Homes and How to Furnish Them."

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107, 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

Park Avenue Hotel,
Park Avenue and Eighth Street, Plainfield.
Refurnished and Renovated.
Steam Heat in Every Room.
. . . Elevator . . .
First-Class in every respect.
Terms Moderate.
F. W. COLEMAN, Proprietor.
11 3 1mo

THE CRESCENT HOTEL.,
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

EXTRA
RICH MILK.

We are now ready to supply families who want the richest milk obtainable with milk which we guarantee to be from
JERSEY and GUERNSEY COWS.
Unexcelled in flavor and keeping qualities.
8c. per Quart Bottle.
SAMPLE FREE.
PLAINFIELD MILK AND CREAM CO.,
MARCHANT BROS., 327 WATCHUNG AVE.

H. E. Gayle, 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Hire for Picnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

A. H. ENANDER
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections
210 PARK AVE.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.
Paris for 1900.
Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.
Circulars at
181 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

THE
First National Bank,
of Plainfield, N. J
Capital .....$200,000.
Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000.
J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.
DIRECTORS.
Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Coriell.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Bushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.
VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

We are NOW receiving orders for
HUYLER'S
XMAS CANDY,
—to be delivered at—
CHRISTMAS TIME.
Remember the
Only Agency
—IS—
Leggett's Pharmacy,
Y. M. C. A. Building.
Tel. 705.

Flynn Bros.,
SHOE DEALERS,
222 WEST FRONT STREET,
Near Music Hall,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods
Have stood the test for years.

November:
The mellow year is hasting to its close.
The merry birds have almost sung their last.
Their faint notes twitter in the dreary blast—
That shrill-piped harbinger of early snows.
And hint to you in good coal to invest
At seven forty-seven Front Street, west.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.
We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARVARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1 25.
LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.
Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.
—CHRISTMAS GOODS—
A Big Assortment.

Ladie Desiring . .
KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING
done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 208 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

F. A. DUNHAM,
—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—
109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas Telephone 87

Toys, Toys, Toys
for the
HOLIDAYS
—AT—
HARPER'S,
411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .
in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated
DOMESTIC FINISH.
Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.
Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.
Trading Stamps given.
The City Steam & Hand Laundry
MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B
19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

SELLING OUT
Below Cost
TO CLOSE BUSINESS
Star Crockery Store,
23 Somerset St., near Front.
3 and 9 cent Articles.
BARGAINS! BARGAINS!
Solomon & Evans,
Proprietors.

LAIRE'S . .
HOLIDAY SPECIALS.
Carving knives.
U. S. club skates.
Roger's plated ware.
Fine pocket cutlery.
Silver finish coffee and tea pots.
Nickel on copper tea kettles.
Boys' sleighs.
Fine razors and hones.
Grand Rapid sweepers.
Baby Rapid sweepers.
Shinny sticks.
Christmas tree holders.
Coin silver ware, cheap.
Fine table cutlery.
Fine scissors and shears.
Corn poppers.
The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,
Tel. Call 682.

TRY THE
QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,
No. 337 Park Avenue.
(Miller Building.)
Goods called for and delivered free of charge.
Domestic or gloss finish.

DOBBINS.
CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.
317 West Front street.

J. W. VAN SICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly.
TELEPHONE 148 b.

Your Valuables,
will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.
Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

GAS
For the Fire-place.
Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates.
Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.
CURTIS M. THORPE,
310-312 PARK AVENUE.
"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIREPLACE."

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 149 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
219 Park Avenue.

A. KANE,
Dealer in
BLUE STONE FLAGGING and CURBING.
Also Dealer in
Flour, Feed and Grain, Coal and Wood.
Store and Office
409 East Third St.,
Next to
THIRD STREET MISSION.
Open Evenings Until 8 o'Clock.

Chas. L. Stanley,
. . FLORIST . .
No. 142 North Ave
HEADQUARTERS for choice Cut Flowers, Ferns, Palms, a large assortment of other plants.
Floral design work and decorating for all occasions Satisfaction guaranteed; an immense stock of Holly, Wreaths, Roping, etc.
Annex stores for the Holidays,
133 North Ave,
South Ave, Netherwood,
and Central Ave., Westfield

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anaesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD.
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.
Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum.

M. POWERS,
DEALER IN
LEHIGH COAL
FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A
Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS,
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

John G. Bantle,
First-class
Ladies' and Gent's TAILOR.
428 Watchung Avenue.
Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

M. Molnar,
432 Watchung Ave.,
Ladies' and Gents'
FINE TAILORING
Graduate of
New York Cutting School.
Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with old clothes and I will take chances of being entrusted with new work.

Mallinson's
La Grippe Pills
o—25c.—o
A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses. : : :
MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung avenues.

THEY ABANDON THE CHASE.

Major March's Forces Quit Aguinaldo's Trail.

HE REACHES BANGNEN.

Filipino Leader Off For the Province of New Vizcaya—Bands of Macabebees to Be Returned to Manila—More Filipinos Surrender—What Americans Hold in Luzon.

Manila, Dec. 18.—Major Peyton C. March, of the Thirty-third infantry, has abandoned his pursuit of Aguinaldo and has reached Bagnen, in the heart of the Grand Cordilleras, where the range is ten thousand feet high and food is scarce and travel almost impossible.

From native couriers and Spanish prisoners it was learned that Aguinaldo left Bontoc, in the province of the same name, with three women and two soldiers, three days before, and headed southward, evidently for Bayonbong, in the province of New Vizcaya, where, it is thought, he may encounter the Americans.

Major March's command was depleted twenty per cent. by the two days' march from Cervantes to Bagnen, and so he returned to Cervantes on December 10.

Scattered bands of Macabebees which have been operating in the north are being collected with the intention of sending them back to Manila, as there is much illness among them and they are unfit for further mountain work.

Lieutenant Chadwick and a force of thirty Macabebees have visited the mountain town of Pamposa and received the surrender of a company of Filipinos, including three officers, with their arms and ammunition.

What is Held in Luzon.

Washington, Dec. 18.—With further resistence by organized Filipino forces impossible in Northern Luzon, General Otis, carrying out the plan formulated before the opening of the campaign now in progress, will immediately establish strong garrisons at important strategical points.

As soon as additional troops arrive General Otis will station them at various ports along the coast, and will direct that trade with such places be resumed. By such action a large quantity of hemp and other Luzon products owned by Englishmen and other foreigners and stored in those ports will be released.

Only seven ports of Luzon besides Manila are in the possession of American troops. These are Subig Bay, Iba, Lingayan, Dagupan, Cavite, Vigan and Aparri. Naval detachments occupy Cavite, Subig Bay and Aparri, while troops under Gen. MacArthur's command hold Iba, Lingayan and Dagupan, and a force attached to General Young's command is in Vigan.

General Otis has not furnished the War Department with a list of towns in Northern Luzon, but his despatches show that troops have been so stationed along the routes pursued by Generals Lawton, MacArthur and Wheaton in the movement of last month, and that the entire provinces of Bulacan, Nueva Eciva, Pampanga, Bataan, Zambales, Tarlac and Pangasinan are practically dominated by them.

Starting from Manila and following the railroad connecting that point with Dagupan, on the Lingayan Gulf, the United States troops control Caloocan, Calumpit, Barasoain, Bacalor, Mabalacat, Bamban, Tarlac, Gerona, Bayambang, Mangatgren, Lingayan and Dagupan. Along the line of General Lawton's march troops are believed to have been quartered in San Luis, Arayat, San Isidro, Catanatuan, Talavera, San Jose and San Nicholas. On the western coast troops were last reported in Iba. To the south of Manila a garrison is established in Imus, and troops have been so stationed that they command Paranaque, Bacoor and Pasig.

New Steamer Launched.

Chester, Pa., Dec. 18.—The Pennsylvania, the fast passenger steamer built at Roach's for the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad Company, for the Cape Charles route, has just been launched. The Pennsylvania's dimensions are: Length, 253 feet 6 inches; beam, 26 feet 9 inches; beam over all at deck, 40 feet; depth, molded, 16 feet. She is built of steel and contains six watertight bulkheads and four trimming tanks. She has three decks, main saloon and promenade.

Increases Its Capital Stock.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 18.—A certificate of the increase of the capital stock of the Erie Telegraph and Telephone Company from $5,000,000 to $15,000,000 has been filed with the Secretary of State. The debts and liabilities of the company are said to aggregate $5,000,000, and the present capital of $15,000,000 has been fully paid in. Among the directors of the company are Louis S. Greenough, James H. Mills, Asa C. M. Russell and Charles Glidden.

A Kentucky Feud Renewed.

London, Ky., Dec. 18.—The Philpot-Griffin feud has, it is reported, been resumed near Bengetown, Clay county. Samuel and James Philpot and others, on one side, and Edward Roger, Henry Hampton and others on the other, met in a highway and engaged in a revolver fight. Roger fell at the first volley. One of the Philpot faction is reported to have been seriously wounded.

A Victory For Mrs. Craven.

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 18.—Mrs. Nettie F. Craven, who says she is the widow of former Senator James G. Fair, has won a partial victory in Judge Trout's court. The Court has decided that she may prosecute her claims for a family allowance of $5,000 a month. Mrs. Craven will now be permitted to prove, if she can do so, that she is the widow.

Panther Alarms Sullivan County.

Middletown, N. Y., Dec. 18.—A big panther is terrorizing residents in the vicinity of Mountaindale, Sullivan County. Hunters have been unsuccessful in pursuit of the beast, which is destroying poultry and small pigs.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS. | CHRISTMAS GIFTS. | CHRISTMAS GIFTS. | CHRISTMAS GIFTS.

SIXTH AVENUE, 20th to 21st Street NEW YORK.

O'Neill's.

SIXTH AVENUE, 20th to 21st Street NEW YORK.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

The Holiday Trade's in Full Swing Here.

No previous Christmas season has found the store so crowded or well prepared for the onslaught of eager Holiday Buyers. Every department is filled to overflowing with the latest and best merchandise appropriate for the season. Lamps, Bric-a-brac, Brass and Onyx Goods, Bronzes, Etchings, Engravings, Books, Furs, Gloves, Smoking Jackets, Bath Robes, Canes, Umbrellas, Leather Goods, Jewelry, Cut Glass, Fine China, Rugs and Curtains, Fine Furniture, Cameras, Bicycles, etc., etc. Just a few suggestions:

Furniture Gifts,

An immense stock to choose from. Scores of beautiful designs in Rockers, Tables, Cabinets, Morris Chairs, Desk Chairs, Chiffonnieres, Dressing Tables, Parlor Suits, Bedroom Suits, Dining Room Furniture, etc.

Three Great Bargains

Morris Chairs.
A special lot of them in golden oak and mahogany finish, r versible hair cushions, regular price $15.00, 10.50.

Gilt Corner Chairs
covered in silk damask, regular price $7.50, on special sale at 5.65.

Gilt Reception Chairs, neatly tufted and covered in silk damask, regular price $5.50, on special sale at 3.98.

A magnificent assortment of Vernis-Martin pieces at very low prices.

USEFUL GIFTS IN
Rugs and Curtains.

KARABAGH RUGS, from 15 to 20 square feet, regular value from $10.00 to $15.00,
4 75 to 6.75 each.

MEDIUM SHIRVANS, from 16 to 18 square feet, and worth from $15.00 to $20.00,
7.50 to 10 00 each.

ANATOLIAN MATS, very fine quality, all new goods, worth $7.50,
3.50 each.

Also a choice selection of fine Kirmans, Bagdads, Kelims, Jim Jims and Cashmeres at unusually low prices.

Lace Curtains.
A special lot of real Renaissance Curtains, all beautiful patterns, regular value $10.00,
6 48 pair.

IRISH POINT CURTAINS in very fine designs, worth $8.00 a pair,
5.98 pair.

Also unusual values in high-class Portieres and Draperies, Lace Bed Sets, etc.

A beautiful collection of the latest designs and richest cuttings at exceptionally moderate prices—just a hint:

Punch Bowls
New designs, Chrysanthemum Cutting, very rich 33 00

Orange Bowls
Cut very beautifully, cane effect.....$13 20
8-INCH BOWLS.....4.66
WATER BOTTLES.....1.48
WATER TUMBLERS, doz.....2 65
HANDLED OLIVE DISHES, 6-inch deep cutting..... 2.48
SUGAR and CREAM SETS.....3.98 to 9.75
CELERY TRAYS.....3.98 to 9.48
OIL and VINEGAR CRUETS.....98c

Spend the Noon Hour In Our Beautiful RESTAURANT.
You'll find it a very pleasant place. The Bill of Fare is excellent and the prices—just right. Elevator on the 20th street side will carry you there.

BOOK GIFTS! BOOK GIFTS!

Books to suit All Tastes. Books for the Young, Books for the Old, Thousands of Volumes to choose from, including

ALL THE NEW BOOKS OF FICTION!

Books of Poetry, Travel, Biography, History, Religious Books, Cook Books, Dictionaries, Encyclopædias, Bibles, Hymnals, Prayer Books, etc.

☞ 10 per cent Discount to the Clergy and Sunday School Committees.

Some Popular Books of the Season and their very special Prices:

Vanity Fair, Becky Sharp edition.....1 88
Modern Daughters, by Alexander Black 1 88
The Grandissimes, by G. W. Cable.....4 98
More Colonial Homesteads, by Marion Harland.....2 25
Cupid and the Footlights, by James L. Ford.....1 08
The Square Book of Animals.....1 08
The Education of Mr. Pipp, by C. D Gibson.....3 61
The Letters of Robert L. Stevenson, 2 vols.....4 75
Janice Meredith, by Ford, 2 vol, Holiday Edition.....3 61
The Golden Ages, by Graham.....1 88
Among English Hedgerows, by Clifton Johnson.....1 85
When Knighthood Was in Flower.....95c
Mr. Dooley in the Hearts of His Countrymen.....88c
The Orange Girl, by Beasant.....1 08
The Land of the Long Night, by Du Chaillu.....1 44
The Black Wolf's Breed, by Dickson.....1 08
The Fowler, by Harraden.....1 08
The Fortune, by Charles D. Warner.....1 08
Old Chester Tales, by M. Deland.....1 08
The Market Place, by H. Frederic.....1 08
Prisoners of Hope, by M. Johnson.....1 08
Red Pottage, by M. Cheimondeley.....1 08
The Many Sided Franklin, by Ford.....2 25
Oom Paul's People.....1 08
The Martyrdom of an Empress.....1 88

A Catalogue of all the new Holiday Books upon application.

Beautiful Gifts in the Lamp Dep't.

A magnificent collection of rich novelties in Lamps for the holidays, showing the new mountings and decorations; also scores of beautiful subjects in bronze, terra cotta and marble; also a large variety of Onyx Pedestals, Brass and Onyx Tables, etc.

Two Noteworthy Holiday Specials.

200 Decorated Lamps with handsome Globes and Brass Mountings.
☞ worth $4.00
Special 2.98.

100 Decorated Lamps, with 10 and 11 inch Globes, both high and low shapes, ☞ value $6.50 to $10.00.
Special 4.98.

Smoking Jackets and House Coats.

Our Holiday stock of these useful and comfortable garments surpasses in variety and quality that of any previous season and includes all the latest and best novelties. Two price hints:

ALL WOOL TRICOT JACKETS, half satin quilted facings, satin quilted cuffs and pockets and bound with satin, in blue, brown, green, fawn and wine. Also DOUBLE BOX ENGLISH CHEVIOT JACKETS, in a great variety of patterns; all sizes up to 46 inches..... 4.98

HEAVY DOUBLE BACK GENUINE ENGLISH BEDFORD CORD JACKETS, satin trimmed, entire front faced with quilted satin; also in fine figured materials, silk mixtures and plain cloths, values up to $12.00, now on sale here at..... 8.98

Beautiful JACKETS in Silk Velvet, embroidered Silk Velvet, fine Broadcloths and Silk and Worsted Mixtures at very moderate prices.

HOLIDAY SPECIALS IN HANDKERCHIEFS!

Women's Pure Linen, Hemstitched Handkerchiefs, half-inch hem; regular price, 12½c.,
SPECIAL 8c. EACH.

Women's and Men's All Linen Hemstitched Handkerchiefs, very fine quality, with or without hand-embroidered initials; regular price, 20c.,
SPECIAL 12½c. EACH.

Very fine Embroidered and Lace Trimmed Handkerchiefs, with or without initials; regular price, 25c.,
SPECIAL 15c. EACH.

Men's all silk Handkerchiefs, extra size with embroidered initials; regular price, 70c. each,
SPECIAL 48c. EACH.

ANOTHER
USEFUL HOLIDAY GIFT!
The "O'NEILL" SEWING MACHINE!

A more appropriate or useful Holiday Gift could not be presented to a housewife. It is one that is sure to be appreciated, for it will save her an immense amount of labor.
The "O'Neill" is a thoroughly reliable machine, being guaranteed by us for a period of five years. It has three drawers, is nicely finished and complete with all attachments.
Price 13 80
We have also four other grades, ranging in price from 15.00 to 19.60. The difference lies in the finish and number of drawers, not in the machine itself, for they are all alike.

Useful Holiday Gifts in Furs!

A magnificent variety of the latest novelties in Collarettes, Neck Scarfs and Fur Garments at very attractive prices.

Collarettes
of Canada Seal, with stole fronts, finished with tails, $5.98.

Alaska Sable Neck Scarfs, 6.50, 7.98 and 9 98.

Electric Seal Coats,
Correct shape, beautifully matched skins,
29.75 upwards.

Women's Mackintoshes for Christmas.
Double Texture Garments, with military capes, skirts extra wide, packed in fancy boxes, 4.98 each.

Women's and Children's Gloves.
Our holiday assortment is the largest and best we have ever presented, and includes all the latest novelties.

SPECIAL!
WOMEN'S 2-CLASP PIQUE KID GLOVES, tans, modes, brown, pearl, white and oxblood; regular price, $1.75,
1.20 Pair.

A Special Holiday Offering in Umbrellas.
Two Great Bargains.
26-inch all-silk Umbrellas, with steel rods, black or blue silk, long ivory or pearl handles (manufacturer's samples,) sterling silver deposit and trimmed,
☞ Worth $7.00 to $10.00,
SPECIAL 5 75.

WOMEN'S EXTRA FINE UNION TAFFETA SILK UMBRELLAS, ivory, pearl, horn, sterling silver trimmed and gun metal handles,
☞ Worth $4.00,
SPECIAL 2.98.

Latest Novelties in Plain and Silver Trimmed Canes at Very Attractive Prices.

MEN'S HOLIDAY NECKWEAR
A special line of Men's High Class Neckwear, comprising English Squares,
Four-in-Hands, Tecks, and Imperials,
all handsome patterns,
50c to $1.45 each.
Silk and Satin Suspenders, plain and fancy,
50c to $3.50.
Men's Evening Dress Protectors in Silk and Satin,
95c to $3.25.
A complete line of Men's Gloves at Very Low Prices.

Dress Suit Cases and Traveling Bags.
Heavy Sole Leather Suit Cases, steel frames, linen lined, solid brass lock, straps or catches, also inside straps,
22 inch.....4.75.
24 inch.....4.98.

Alligator Travelling Bags,
leather lined, Vienna handles and brass trimmings.

14 in.	15 in.	16 in.	17 in.
3 85	4.20	4.55	4.90

☞ All Cash Purchases, except Bicycles and Sewing Machines, delivered free to any railroad station within 100 miles of New York City.

H. O'NEILL & CO., Sixth Avenue, 20th to 21st Street, New York.

ENGLAND GREATLY MOVED

Late British Reverses Cause Deep Anxiety.

CASUALTY LIST GROWS.

More Than 2,000 Men Lost in the Two Last Battles—English People Marvel How One General After Another is Drawn Into the Trap—Baron Roberts Succeeds Buller.

London, Dec. 18.—Field Marshal Baron Roberts of Kandahar and Waterford, Commander of the Forces in Ireland, has been appointed to the chief command in South Africa, with General Lord Kitchener of Khartum as his chief-of-staff.

The official announcement of this change, by which General Buller is superseded, has just been posted at the War Office. The announcement says:

"As the campaign in Natal, in the opinion of Her Majesty's Government, is likely to require the presence and undivided attention of General Sir Redvers Buller, it has been decided to send Baron Roberts of Kandahar and Waterford as Commander-in-chief in South Africa, with Lord Kitchener as chief-of-staff."

Buller's Heavy Losses.

London, Dec. 18.—General Buller reports to the War Office that his losses in the engagement with the Boers at the Tugela River, near Colenso, were 1,097 men. The revised list of the British cosualties in the battle of Magersfontein, shows the total to be 963, of which number seventy were officers.

In the two encounters with the enemy, therefore, the British lost 2,060 men.

Furnishes Food For Talk.

London, Dec. 18.—Although no more news of importance has come through from the front since the depressing despatch telling of General Buller's reverse, it is quite enough food for talk in all quarters.

People marvel how one general after another, and Buller last of all, allowed his troops to be drawn into such traps. What was done in the way of scouting is, of course, not known here, but it is certain that very little had been learned of the enemy's position, nor do the war balloons appear to have helped in any respect.

The military experts here do not see how the action of Buller, from whom so much had been expected, can be defended, viewing it by the light of his despatch. But many other men think the despatch was written hurriedly and refuse to take condemnation from his own mouth. They prefer to believe that Generals Hart and Hildyard attacked simultaneously, and that, while the former failed, the latter would probably have succeeded had not the reckless action of the commander of artillery led to the destruction of the batteries and consequent abandonment of the attack.

The opinion is that General Buller, having been taught a lesson, may try again very soon. He is quite strong enough to cut his way through, but not to give points to his enemy. Therefore we may hear more from him in the course of a few days. In any case, the government here is very active, if not alarmed. A hurried Cabinet Council was held. Preparations for sending strong reinforcements are proceeding apace.

The list of casualties at Magersfontein, issued from the War Office, shows how terribly severe were the losses sustained by the Second Battalion of the Royal Highlanders, better known as the Black Watch. Their total casualties numbered 335.

Lord Methuen sent out artillery on Friday to shell the Boer intrenchments and outposts.

The enemy replied, and a sharp artillery duel succeeded. This was of brief duration. No casualties occurred on the British side.

The Boers between the Modder River and Kimberley are believed to number from 15,000 to 20,000 men.

A telegram from Pretoria says that the Boers on Thursday attacked a small British force near Mafeking with good results, the fort being demolished.

The Mafeking garrison is reported to be running short of provisions. A heavy cannon fire by both the besieged and the enemy continues daily.

The government has telegraphed to Earl Beauchamp, Governor of New South Wales, an acceptance of the offer of a further Australian contingent for service in South Africa. The authorities suggest that all the men should be mounted, be good shots and should provide their own horses.

Will Try to Crush the Boers.

London, Dec. 18.—Terrible scenes are witnessed at the War Office. Huge crowds of people gather to learn the details of Gen. Buller's disaster in Natal. In spite of the awful blow to British prestige, the one dominant tone in the press and in public conversation is a grim determination to retrieve the disaster, send more troops to South Africa and if need be, more capable and experienced generals.

There never was a more unanimous call for the prosecution of a war. It is realized that the integrity of the Empire depends upon a successful issue, and no money or blood will be spared to crush the Boers. Fifteen transports are due to arrive at Cape Town between Dec. 17 and Jan. 8 with about 15,000 troops of all arms, but unless Gen. Buller is able to renew the attack which is exceedingly doubtful, the British Generals will be compelled for another fortnight or more to remain practically on the defensive. The latest despatches indicate the continued bombardment of Ladysmith, whose position is now perilous.

Wilson Not to Resign.

Washington, Dec. 18.—The report that Secretary of Agriculture Wilson contemplates resigning from the Cabinet on account of ill health is emphatically denied by the Secretary. While his health has not been of the best recently, the Secretary says he has no thought or resigning on that account, and knows of no other reason which would take him from the Cabinet at this time.

Marred by inkstain, cut, and splinter,
Burned in summer, chapped in winter,
Schoolboy's hands have much to suffer;
Common soaps but make them rougher.
Ivory Soap is pure, and hence
Leaves such pleasant after-sense
That the careless schoolboy, e'en,
Takes delight in being clean.

IT FLOATS.

COPYRIGHT 1899 BY THE PROCTER & GAMBLE CO. CINCINNATI

TOOTH PULLING WAS FATAL.

Boy Could Not Stand the Pain in Dentist's Chair.

Waterbury, Conn., Dec. 18.—Andrew Ferrall, 12 years old, died Sunday afternoon in a dentist's office while having a tooth pulled. The shock caused by the pain killed him. The cause of death is termed officially as heart disease, but the case is so unusual that it has awakened the interest of physicians.

The boy, who is a son of George A. Ferrall, master mechanic at the American Pin Company's works, never had seemed to be a sufferer from a weak heart, and was healthy and strong. Several days ago one of his right molars began to ache, and Sunday he went to the office of Virgil Munson to have it extracted. He decided to take no anaesthetic.

While Mr. Munson was in the midst of the operation he thought he saw symptoms of failure of the heart. Examining the boy, he found that the lad was dying. The operation was suspended and the boy placed on a couch, but he died almost instantly.

Lieutenant Brumby Dead.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 18.—Lieutenant Thomas M. Brumby, Admiral Dewey's flag lieutenant, and the man who raised the first stars and stripes over Manila, is dead, having succumbed to an attack of typhoid fever.

In his capacity as flag lieutenant to Admiral Dewey, Lieutenant Brumby acted as his personal representative in many matters of detail delegated to him by the commanding officer. He was regarded by Admiral Dewey as a bright, energetic and capable assistant, while the devotion of the lieutenant to the Admiral was something marvelous. The burden of his thought in the later days of his illness seemed to be regarding his work for the Admiral.

The lieutenant's last illness dated from about November 27, the first symptom being nothing more than a cold, which, however, failed to yield to treatment. Soon afterward he went to the Garfield Hospital, where he died from typhoid fever. Admiral Dewey was unremitting in his attentions to him until Brumby's condition became precarious and visitors were not allowed to see him.

May Seize Altgeld's Building.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 18.—Proceedings to foreclose the first mortgage bonds of the Unity building, belonging to John P. Altgeld, have been started in the Circuit Court by the Equitable Trust Company and thirty-six bondholders. The first mortgage bonds were issued in 1891. It is asserted that default has been made in the payment of the ground rent and in the redemption of bonds maturing on October 1, 1899, the aggregate indebtedness being placed at $304,500. A majority of the bondholders held a meeting on November 23 and authorized forclosure proceedings. The Equitable Trust Company then took charge of the collection of rents of the building. The petition tells of a deed dated June 15, 1891, which transferred the leasehold of the premises from John P. Altgeld and his wife to the Unity Company. It is asked that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the building and collect the rents. The court also is asked to declare the claim of the complainants to be a prior lien on the assets of the Unity Company.

Armour & Co. Aids Squire & Co.

Boston, Dec. 18.—The financial situation in so far as it relates to the great packing house of John P. Squire & Co., which has failed for $3,000,000, has been greatly helped by the action of Armour & Co. of Chicago, who, it is stated, have come to the assistance of the stranded company. Just what has been done is not known, but it is understood that enough money has been guaranteed to make the company go along without much further trouble. Whether Armour intends absorbing the plant cannot be ascertained, the firm refusing to discuss the matter.

Judge Paterson May Be Promoted.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 18.—It is reported here that Judge Edward Patterson, of the First Department, Appellate Division, has been offered one of the Court of Appeals' places by Governor Roosevelt. It also is said that Judge Patterson has declined the honor.

YOUNG VAUGHAN GOES FREE.

A Hypnotic Plea Saves Him From a Prison Cell.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 18.—In the Police Court a charge of theft against Frank Vaughan was stricken from the docket because he is supposed to have escaped from the hypnotic power of a woman. Vaughan is twenty-six years old, and formerly was a member of the Yale Medical School. He was arrested a week ago on the charge of stealing $40 from Joseph Miller, his landlord. A few hours after his arrest Daisy V. Grant, a clairvoyant, returned the $40 to Vaughan's landlord.

Then a strange story was disclosed. Vaughan's mother stated that the woman had hypnotized her son and estranged him from his home. Young Vaughan confessed to the theft, but declared he was in the power of Daisy Grant.

Mrs. Vaughan obtained her son's release, on the condition that he would return to his home and live with his mother. The Gran. woman has disappeared and the police do not know where she has gone.

Retuaned to His First Love

Newburg, N. Y., Dec. 18.—After becoming engaged to one girl, falling in love with another, renouncing his first attachment and attempting to commit suicide as the easiest way to solve the snarl in which Cupid had involved his affections, the Rev. George Allen of Milton has essayed another venture in the direction of matrimony, this time returning to his first love. The announcement of his engagement to Miss Minnie Gedney has brought to him the hearty congratulations of every member of his church, with best wishes for the happiness of his bride-elect and himself. During all of Mr. Allen's troubles his congregation was faithful to him and he will probably remain in his present position as pastor for some time.

Minstrels Will Entertain Convicts.

Sing Sing, N. Y., Dec. 18.—Thirty of the convicts of Sing Sing Prison have been organized into a minstrel troupe, and the initial performance will be given in the Protestant chapel on Christmas Day. The men will have suits especially made for the occasion. The performance will be opened with an old fashioned half circle, and comic songs, sentimental ballads and jokes will be the main features. This will be followed by an olio, including "turns" by individuals and sketch teams. All the prisoners will be present at the performance, and they are looking eagerly forward to the event.

France and China May Fight.

Tacoma, Wash., Dec. 18.—Hongkong mail advices state another Franco-Chinese war is imminent over the delimitation of French "leased" territory at Kuang Chou Bay, on the Tonkin border. This dispute is of several months' standing, the French having demanded thrice the amount of territory which China is willing to concede under France's original demand for an open port there under French domination.

Railroad President's Brother Killed.

Chicago, Dec. 18.—Frederick Earling, chief of telegraph construction and brother of President A. J. Earling of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad, was killed by falling from a construction train near Nemaha, Iowa. He was stepping from one car to another when he slipped and fell beneath the wheels. He was about 50 years old and was born at Richfield, Wis.

Trains Collide in Boston.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 18.—A rear end collision between two passenger trains on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad occurred near the Broadway extension bridge, in this city. One car was telescoped and four persons were injured. Two of them are now at the hospital and the others went to their homes.

General Andrews Resigns.

New York, Dec. 18.—Adjutant-General Avery D. Andrews has announced his resignation. In his letter to Governor Roosevelt the Adjutant General says he has not the time to devote to State affairs.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week $5 a year—in advance.

No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada

Delivered by carrier or by mail.

The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district

Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., DEC. 18, 1899

COMING EVENTS.

Dec. 18—Literary Society of the Y. M. C. A.
Dec. 18—Uni n Bible class taught by Rev. D. M. Stearns at Y. M. C. A. Hall.

Proposed School Laws Opposed.

The proposed codification and revision of the school laws of the State, which has been arranged by a committee of the State Board of Education, one of whose members is S. St. John McCutchen, of North Plainfield, is encountering more serious opposition than had been anticipated. In several counties there has developed bitter antipathy to the proposed codification—notably in Hudson and Passaic.

In Hudson county a meeting of the Boards of Education of that bailiwick was held a few days ago and a series of resolutions passed in which the principal changes in the school laws, as proposed by the special committee, are vigorously opposed. The resolutions declare that Boards of Education are shorn of their most important prerogatives by the requirement that a two-thirds vote of all the members of the Board is required to overrule the superintendent in the appointment, promotion, transfer and dismissal of teachers and the adoption of text-books and courses of study, and that a Board, even by the unanimous vote of all its members, is debarred from making important appointments unless on the nomination of the superintendent or business manager.

Another objection that rankles the Hudson county educators is that the proposed law empowers the State Superintendent of Public Instruction to remove any member of any local board of education on his sole authority without trial, and without, apparently, any appeal from such action.

It is finally charged that the whole tendency of the bill is to centralize the control of the schools and their patronage in a few officials.

That there will be a bitter fight in the Legislature to prevent the adoption of the codification, in view of the opposition that has developed, goes without saying. The proposed measure has the approval of the Republican leaders, however, and the chances are therefore good for its passage.

Col. Bryan will not make his "swing around the circle" in New Jersey as early as was expected. It had been arranged to have the Nebraskan visit this State this month, but now Congressman Daly, who assumes to be the great Bryan man of the State, announces that "he will surely come to New Jersey before the next Democratic National convention, and that he will visit Newark and some other cities of the State." That means that Mr. Bryan's sojourn hereabouts may come anytime between now and next June.

Whether Congressman Daly posesses any inside information from the great Democtatic leaders of the day is not known, but the Hudson county man says that in the next Presidential campaign the currency issue will take a back seat to allow an earnest and aggressive stand against the trusts, and that the campaign will be fought out along that line.

It is said that the Democratic members of the Assembly have decided upon Allen Benny to lead the minority in the next legislature. Assemblyman James J. Murphy was last year's leader, but this time declines in favor of Mr. Benny. The selection will be ratified at the caucus to be held in Trenton before the opening of the session.

The Clark Thread Company, one of the biggest manufacturing industries of Newark, is contemplating moving out of that city on account of the polluted condition of the Passaic river. Here's an industry that's worth securing. If the company is really determined to move, let Plainfield make an effort to have them locate here.

President McKinley is engaged in writing special messages to Congress in which he will recommend the establishment of a custum house in Porto Rico, the same as in Hawaii. These islands, it is said, are to mark the eastern and western limits of the tariff system of the United States under the President's plan.

New Yorkers may look upon Philadelphia as being a slow town, but when it comes to gathering in the great conventions the Quaker City seems to get there in good shape.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

They do not have a general curfew law in Plainfield, but the City Judge has determined practically to enforce one. He has strongly expressed his opposition to the practice, among some of the boys, of being constantly away from home during the evenings, and in the case of one recently brought before him, has directed the police to arrest him if he is found on the street after 9 o'clock at night. No good can come to the boys nor to the community if they are allowed the freedom of the streets at late hours. —Metuchen Recorder.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

Gradually the wheels are beginning to disappear from the Plainfield streets. There are always some who will ride, even when there is snow on the ground, but the advent of the cold weather and the high north winds has slowly driven a majority of the wheelmen and wheelwomen of this city and borough to stow away their mounts for the winter and be content to go afoot hereafter.

. . . . .

Little Miss Helen Cruikshank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A Cruikshank, of Belvidere avenue, is probably Plainfield's most accomplished horse-woman of her age. At the horse show in New York this fall, she attracted much attention. Miss Cruikshank has now accomplished a feat that many cannot claim the honor of doing. She has driven four-in-hand She is now quite frequently to be seen on some of Plainfield's streets with four of her little ponies hitched up to her little trap. She handles the reins like a veteran whip and the dashing, praneing creatures obey her every direction.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

Wm. J. W. Calder's great success, "Saved From The Sea," will be presented by the Burrill Comedy Company during their engagement at Music Hall next week. This strong melo-drama has never before been seen at popular prices, and those fortunate enough to obtain seats will witness a production superior to anything ever offered. Also Howard P. Taylor's beautiful drama, "Infatuation," with novel scenic effects. "The Ensign," and "A Flag of Truce," two famous plays by Wm. Haworth, will be produced during the week, with a car load of special scenery. Miss Laura Hulbert, who created such a favorable impression last season, will be seen in the leading roles, supported by an exceptionally strong company. The opening performance of the company will be given Christmas afternoon, and will be announced tomorrow.

Working Night and Day

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globule of health, that changes weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fag into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box. Sold by L. W. Randolph.

—In the article concerning the Public Library, which was published Saturday, William H. Larrabee should have been mentioned as a reviewer, not receiver, for Appleton's Popular Science Monthly.

—Martin Roth, Jr., will continue the boot and shoemaking business, in Exchange alley, carried on for over forty years by his father, and with the assistance of a skilled workman from New York will endeavor to please all who favor him with their patronage

THERE IS A CLASS OF PEOPLE

Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over ¼ as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15c. and 25c. per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it; no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,
122 East Front Street.

At 246 Front Street.

IN OUR CARPET STORE . . .

MAY BE FOUND A RARE AGGREGATION OF

Holiday Rugs,

New Rugs, Beautiful Rugs,

Durable Rugs.

Special prices all this week on Smyrnas, Moquettes, Axminsters, Velvets, etc., in all sizes, Fancy Footrests, Covered and Uncovered Couch Pillows, Tapestry Squares for Pillows, Lace Curtains, and a fine assortment of Tapestry and French Velour Table Covers.

IN OUR BASEMENT.

Special Upholstered Fancy Rockers at 3.98 that we guarantee to be worth 5.00.

Fine Adjustable Morris Chairs with 4-toned Velour Cushions at 4.98. Better ones up to 14.00. . . .

Two Extra Fine Finished Numbers at 9.45 and 10.75. Fine assortment of Ladies Writing Desks. . . . .

IN OUR MAIN STORE.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYBODY—YOUNG AND OLD, RICH AND POOR, BLACK AND WHITE.

Come and see us, but kindly leave baby carriages outside the store, and your dogs at home. . . .

This Week Store will be Open till 10 p. m.

Trading Stamps with each Cash purchase.

WOOHULL & MARTIN,

234, 236, 238, 246 W. Front Street.

PECK'S CORNER.

LIKE A PROCESSION

Someone must lead. We are not the "whole thing," but are right up in front.

HOLIDAY GOODS -:- AT PECK'S

Merry Christmas. Happy New Year.

To those who contemplate making

Christmas Presents

I advise you to call and see the

Handsome Building Lots At Woodland Park, Plainfield.

Suited for a king or prince. Or some of our one or two acre Plots for Raising Poultry, &c. You can buy these properties at Low Prices, monthly payments. guaranteed title. These properties will double in value in two or three years. Other investments to suit all.

SILAS D. DRAKE,
175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

OPEN EVENINGS. FURNITURE.

Wouldn't a clean finished, well-made piece of Furniture make an ideal Christmas present?

FURNITURE. Jardinier Stands from 50c to $5.00.

POWLISON & JONES,
149 and 151 E. Front Street.

BUY YOUR PHONOGRAPHS,
Gramophones, Records and Supplies
A GOOD MACHINE AT $5.00.
BROKAW'S . . .
The Piano Dealer, 123 East Front Street.

XMAS SLIPPERS!
SHOES, RUBBER BOOTS,
DRESS SUIT CASES TRAVELING BAGS.
The Largest Stock to select from. The most useful and suitable CHRISTMAS PRESENT.
DOANE & EDSALL.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS
Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.
at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use
REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT,
Made only by
T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,
At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

THE BOOT SHOP AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,
107 Park Avenue.

EXECUTOR'S SALE
OF VALUABLE
PERSONAL PROPERTY.

The undersigned, executor of D. M. Walter, deceased, will sell at public vendue at 12 m., sharp, on THURSDAY,

DECEMBER 21, 1899.

On farm formerly owned by D. M. Walter, on the road leading from Plainfield to Rahway, near Hillside Golf Grounds.

All the personal property of which. D. M. Walter, died, seized, consisting of beds, bedding, carpets, stoves, chairs, tables, mirrors, cutlery, crockery, etc. Also farming implements and machinery.

HOUSEHOLD and KITCHEN FURNITURE.

.....ONE BLACK HORSE.....

Lot of Poultry.

Sleigh, 1-horse plough, cultivator, harness, sled, spring wagon, hay rigging, rake, fanning mill, hay cutter, 2-seated carriage, plows, 1-horse carriage, buggy. Also 50 bushels old corn, hay, 30 gallons vinegar, and various other articles too numerous to mention.

TERMS made known on day of sale.

12 6 td W. E. CODINGTON, Executor.

—Use Press want ads.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, Dec. 18—Charles H. English, for several years station agent at Dunellen and general manager in that vicinity for the Central Railroad, has been promoted to an important and highly lucrative position in the Central New Jersey office. The vacancy at the Dunellen station has been filled by the transfer of R. S. Fisher, late station agent at Fanwood. The duties at the Fanwood station will be looked after by Mr. Hunt, a new accession to the local ranks, who has been transferred from the sea board division. The promotion of Mr. English, who is popular with the business men as well as citizens generally, will be pleasant news to his many friends not only in Dunellen but along this entire division of the Central Railroad. For sixteen years Mr. English has been in the employ of the Central Railroad Company. He began to work for the company when about 15 years of age as a messenger boy. By strict attention to business he has won the respect and confidence of the officials of the road, who have not been blind to his ability and faithfulness. Mr. English assumed his new duties this morning. For the present he will continue to reside in Dunellen. Many friends unite with the writer in extending congratulations.

The meat market, formerly conducted by William H. Carman, has been sold by Postmaster Adam Dealaman to Henry Widenhaut, of Tottenville, S. I., who has taken possession. Mr. Widenhaut understands the business thoroughly and has already stocked the market with a good supply of meat. He will do a strictly cash business.

Miss Nelson's class of the Sunday-school of the Holy Innocents' Episcopal church, assisted by older pupils, will hold a doll's reception and bazzar at Coriell's store, New Market, tomorrow afternoon and evening. All little mothers are invited to bring their dolls and enjoy themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. George Richardson have returned from their wedding tour and are making their home with Mr. Richardson's parents on North avenue.

The scholars of the New Market public school will hold a Christmas entertainment in the schoolhouse Thursday evening next.

Charles VanDyke, having severed his connection with the cash register company, has gone to work in the Lincoln Steel Works.

The first of a series of socials and dances was held at Hotel Nelson, New Market, Thursday evening.

The families of George England and Edward Craney are soon to move from Lincoln to Newark.

The Lincoln restaurant is soon to be closed for want of patronage.

The Star Incubator Works at Lincoln is busy with orders.

Some changes are soon to be made at the Lincoln Steel Works.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 18—Special services were held in the Methodist church yesterday. In the morning at 10:30 Rev. A. E. Armstrong occupied the pulpit. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon an interesting address was made by Rev. Charles Davison, of Japan, and in the evening at 7:45 a special song service was held, the sermon of the evening being preached by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Woodruff. The famous Drew Quartette of Drew Seminary was in attendance and their singing was enjoyed by all.

The trolley schedule was crippled as usual yesterday. In the morning only three cars were running from Plainfield to Cranford. In the afternoon four were put on and the patrons were given a car every half hour. The result was that the afternoon cars were uncomfortably crowded between Plainfield and this village, for, as usual, a large part of the live cargo stopped off here.

A very successful and profitable cake sale was held at the home of Mrs. Urners in Fanwood, Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5. The little affair was a social as well as a financial success and the ladies of the borough will be enabled to turn into the treasury of Muhlenberg Hospital a nice little sum.

Thomas Reed, of Murray Hill, died at the Orange Memorial Hospital Saturday morning. Mr. Reed has been suffering for several months with dropsy and heart trouble, and the end, although a shock to his family and friends, was not unexpected.

Mrs Edward T Smith and children, of Plainfield, were the guests yesterday of Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Messler.

Mr and Mrs. Henry C. Meyers have been entertaining friends from New York.

Bon Ami

Will not Scratch

AND WILL DO ALL THE WORK A SAND SOAP OR SCOURING SOAP IS MADE TO DO. TRY IT.

ENGLISH ARMORED TRAIN IN SOUTH AFRICA.

Armored trains have figured prominently in the fighting around Ladysmith. The illustration, which was made from a photograph, shows a train that was constructed at the railway shops in Durban. The train is composed of a powerful locomotive, tender and three 20-ton iron cars. The sides of the cars are over six feet high and are covered with half-inch boiler plates. The loopholes through which the men fire are vertical in shape and are just large enough to allow the easy movement of rifles. On a trial a regiment, taking the word of command while on the ground, mounted and manned this train in thirty-five seconds.

WESTFIELD.

(Special Correspondence to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, Dec. 18—The head-pin tournament at the Social Club closed last week. Fred Condit, of the Westfield Club team, being high man with a score of 241. Condit and Walter Smith were tied with a score of 239 each when bowling began Friday evening and there was a big crowd present to see these two "cracks" try to lift their scores. Smith was the first to do anything and he raised one pin, and then Condit bowled three sets of tickets and was about to give up in despair when he made a strike on what he called his "hoodoo" alley and this put new life in him, and he succeed in rolling a 49-ticket and going 2 pins ahead of Smith. Condit wins a gold watch, valued at $45. Those tied for first place in the fourth class will roll off tomorrow evening, and those in the second and third class Friday evening.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

South Plainfield, Dec. 18.—Last Friday evening a creditable entertainment was given in Washington Hall by South Plainfield Public school scholars for the purpose of raising money with which to purchase an organ for the school. The affair netted about $25, and this will aid very much in the worthy object. The programme presented is as follows: Song, "Serenade," school; recitation, "Welcome," Alice Poling; dialogue, "Passing Glory," boys class; recitation, "How We Hunted the Mouse," Harry Outcalt; tableau, "Seeing Nellie Home;" song, 'If a Body Finds a Lesson," school; recitation, "Give us Little Boys a Chance," Heber Cubberly; dialogue, "To be Happy You Must Be Good;" banjo duet, Mr. and Mrs. Harney; tableau, "Grandpa and Grandma;" song, "Ching-a-Ring-a-Ring," Mabelle Cubberly; recitation, "When Father Carves the Duck," Ralph Eckert; tableau, "Dancing Lesson;" dialogue, "Nations;" song, "Santa Claus;" recitation, "How He Does it," Carrie Clar; drill, "Johnny Stays So Long at the Fair," class of girls; banjo duet, Mr. and Mrs. Harney; dialogue, "Testing Her Pupils;" song, "'Mid the Green Fields of Virginia," Bessie Soper, Elsie Steengrafe; drill, "Fan Faries;" solo, "Creole Sue," A. T. Higgins; recitation, "Mollie's Problems," Emma Eckert; song, "Winter Winds," school; closing address, Rev. J. A. Cubberly.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Christmas services will be held in the local churches next Sunday.

—Geerge Egel, proprietor of the Grandview meat mearket on Somerset street, has had a telephone put in his shop. The number is 1183.

—The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will hold a regular meeting tomorrow afternoon in the lecture room of the church.

—The regular meeting of the Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will be held next Friday afternoon in the lecture room of the church.

—A union Christmas service of the Sunday-schools of the First Baptist church will be held next Sunday afternoon in the church. In the morning there will be special music.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Dr. W. C. Boone, of West Seventh street, has returned from a trip to the south.

City Clerk J. T. MacMurray has recovered from a slight illness and is able to be out again.

A bright bouncing boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Story, West Second street, Saturday.

Miss Edith Hurlburt, of West Front street, who has been quite ill, is reported to be slightly improved.

Miss Agnes Langhorne, of Putnam avenue, is home from Wellesley College for the Christmas holidays.

Miss Ada Nash, of Prospect avenue, has secured a position with Putnam & DeGraw, the dry goods merchants.

Next Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stack, of Park avenue, will celebrate the first anniversary of their marriage.

Councilman J. F. Buckle, of Westervelt avenue, who has been quite ill, has recovered and is able to attend to business.

Mr. Pierson, of Clinton avenue, who has been quite ill, and who was improving nicely, is reported as not being quite so well.

Edson Woodhull, son of F. T. Woodhull, of Washington Park, is visiting his grandparents in the country for a time.

Edward Mosher, Jr., of Elmwood place, has received a handsome Christmas present of an upright piano. It is the gift from his parents.

Councilman G. P. Mellick, of LaGrand avenue, has almost recovered from the effects of the injury to his foot which occurred some time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Barnaby, of Plainfield avenue, left Saturday to take up their home for the winter in apartments on Thirtieth street, New York.

A pleasant vocal selection was rendered at the First Baptist church yesterday morning by Miss Luella C. Harris, Mrs. Ward and William Holmes.

Resolutions of Condolence.

A special meeting of the trustees of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club was held yesterday, all the members being present except Mr. Waring, who is traveling in the south. The president announced the death of Josiah Browne, and the following minute was adopted:

Josiah Browne, Esquire, was one of the founders of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club. He had been a trustee of the club from the beginning, and had been for three years its treasurer, and during the past year its secretary. During the period of his service he devoted himself to the welfare of the club with the greatest industry and intelligence. The success of the club in the past has been largely due to his efforts, and he has set a standard of management which will promote the future welfare. It is therefore Resolved, That we, his friends and associates in the board of trustees of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club, on behalf of ourselves and the members of the club, hereby express our realization of the loss which we, as a club and as individuals, have sustained in the death of Mr. Browne, and we record here this testimonial to his virtues.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

AT RANDOLPH'S,

See our Window Display. CHRISTMAS GREETINGS.

Great values in choice Perfumes. Never before this opportunity. Bottle goods from 10c to $4 50.
Hair Brushes, Military Hair Brushes, prices just ½ their reg. value.
House Thermometers, large assortment. Sachet Powders in bulk, 40 cents per ounce and in packages, 10c, 15c, 35c.
Lowney's Celebrated Candies, 60 cents per pound.
Whitman's Chocolates, 40 and 80c per pound.

PLACE ORDERS EARLY.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for Lowney's Chocolate and Chocolate Bon-bons. TELEPHONE CALL 28

"PAY CASH AND SAVE MONEY" AT

V. L. FRAZEE'S,

THE PEOPLE'S CASH GROCER

151 West Front Street.

SPECIAL HOLIDAY SALE,

Commencing Friday, December 15, 1899, to January 1, 1900,

Best Elgin Creamery Butter	27c lb
Good Creamery Butter	23c lb
Best Full Cream Cheese	14c lb
Best Lard	6c lb
Fresh Jersey Eggs, guaranteed	22c doz
Best Fine Granulated Sugar	5c lb
Best Early Rose Potatoes	30c basket
Best New Citron	12c lb
Best Lemon and Orange Peel	12c lb
Best Extra Fancy Seeded Raisins,	10c pkge
Best New Cleaned Currants, 1 lb package	8c
Best New Dates	7c lb, 4 lbs for 25c
Best New Figs	12c lb
Extra Fancy Layer Raisins, for table	15c lb
Best New Brazil Nuts	8c lb
Best New Pecan Nuts	12c lb
Best New Paper Shell Almonds	22c lb
Best New Mixed Nuts	12c lb
Best New English Walnuts	15c lb
None Such Mince Meat	9c package
5 lb pail Assorted Jelly	15c pail
Best Vermont Maple Syrup	2 qt bottle 25c
Best Sugar Cured California Hams	7½c lb
Best Home-made Mince Meat,	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Best Mixed Candy,	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Loose Muscatel Raisins	8c lb
Best New Evaporated Cal. Peaches	10c lb
Fine California Prunes	5c lb
Fine Large California Prunes	7c lb, 4 lbs for 25c
Best Extra Fancy California Prunes	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Best Cape Cod Cranberries	7c quart
Paris Sugar Corn	9c can, 3 cans for 25c
Best New York State Sugar Corn	7c can
Early June Peas, Rose Bud brand,	7c can, 4 cans for 25c
Fine Small Early June Peas	10c can
3 lb Package Prepared Buckwheat	10c
Best Tomatoes, Solid Packed	7c can
Fresh Roasted Coffee, bean or ground	12c lb
Best Mocha and Java Coffee	25c lb
3 lb can Best Bartlett Pears	10c
Best Vanilla and Lemon Extract	10c bottles for 7c
Best New Orleans Molasses	30c gallon
Best Vanilla Drip Sugar Syrup	30c gallon
Best XXXX Minnesota Patent Flour	55c bag
Best Lemon Cakes and Ginger Snaps	4c lb
Uneeda Biscuit	4c package
Best Old Vinegar	10c gallon
Hunterdon County Sweet Cider, best,	15c gal

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

Great Millinery Sale

Continued For One Week.

Two to three hundred Felt Hats that were 39c and 50c now on sale for 15c and 19c.

$5.00 hats reduced to $2.98.

Great Reduction in Birds, Feathers and Ribbons.

Millinery Parlors,

L. A. DALY,

Corner W. Front St. and Central Ave 12 16 6

GROUND GREEN BONE FOR CHICKENS

DELIVERED AT 3 CENTS PER LB.

Orders left at J. W. VanSickle's, 122 North Avenue; or address P. P. Whittier, P. O. Box 98, Metuchen, N. J. 12 16 2

CUT FLOWERS!

Choice Blooming Plants, Palms, Ferns, Jardinieres, Fern Dishes, &c. Headquarters for Wreaths, Holly, Mistletoe and everything in the florist line. First-class stock. Largest assortment of cut flowers in the city.

A. E. LINCOLN,

Telephone 876. 226 PARK AVE. 12 14 9

Board of Health Notice.

At the last meeting of the Board of Health the following ordinance was advanced to its third reading and adopted:

"An ordinance to further prevent the spread of contagious or infectious diseases.

Be it ordained by the Board of Health of the City of Plainfield as follows:—

Section 1. Any physician who shall be called to any person whom he may suspect to be suffering from cholera, yellow fever, typhus fever, leprosy, plague, trichinosis, small-pox, variloid, enteric (or typhoid) fever, diphtheria, membranous croup, or scarlet fever, but of which he shall be in doubt, shall report the same to the Board of Health in writing as provided by the State law on becoming satisfied as to its being one of the said diseases, and shall in any event report the case to the Secretary, the Inspector or or the Clerk of the Board of Health as a suspected case of one of the foregoing described diseases within twenty-four hours from the time of his first professional attendance, unless by that time he shall be confident that the person is not suffering from any disease included in the foregoing, provided that in the case of suspected typhoid fever or suspected trichinosis the report may be delayed for five days. Any physician who fails to make such report shall forfeit and pay a penalty of twenty-five dollars for every such offense.

Section 2. Any householder in whose house there is any person suffering or suspected to be suffering from any of the diseases enumerated in the foregoing section, and on whom no physician is in attendance, or any person in charge of such sick person, shall make the report to the Board of Health as provided in the foregoing section. Any person who fails to make such report shall forfeit and pay a penalty of twenty-five dollars for every such offense.

Section 3. Any person wishing to enter any house which is quarantined must first obtain permission from the Inspector of the Board of Health or such member of said Board as may be authorized to act in his absence, and any undertaker who shall visit any house which is quarantined, for the purpose of preparing a body for burial or for arranging for a funeral, must first obtain permission from the Board of Health or said Inspector, provided that any undertaker may be granted a standing permit allowing him to visit quarantine premises for the above purposes on condition that he notify the Board of Health of such visit or visits as soon as possible. Any undertaker or other person violating the provisions of this section shall forfeit and pay a penalty of twenty-five dollars for every such offense."

(Signed) HENRY B. NEWHALL, President.

(Signed) WM. H. MURRAY, Secretary.

Plainfield, N. J., Dec. 5, 1899. 12 11 o a w2.

MASSAGE :-: VAPOR BATHS

CORNS REMOVED 25c.

M V. STICKLE, 149 East Fifth St.

THE

CROSBY & HILL

UNITED STORES.

Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J
Perth Amboy, N. J.

More than ordinary interest attaches to our Saturday program in this store. In family furnishings of every sort there is an even better than usual array, reinforced by a mammoth collection of toys, games, books and amusement helps of every description for the children. The people of more mature years can find an excellent collection of holiday gifts suitable to all needs and classes.

A few hints will serve to represent an enormous stock of gift merchandise.

Sterling silver novelties of every description 25 50c up to $5 00 a piece. Solid brass novelties in a very extensive assortment of candelebra mirrors, frames, ink stands, etc., 25c to $3.75 a piece.

Toilet cases, manicure sets, etc., in a very exclusive assortment.

Albums in a great variety of styles at very moderate prices.

Handkerchiefs

There is nothing missing here in the handkerchief department that is necessary to a complete stock. Three special numbers taken at random represent hundreds of kinds.

25c the box. Children's hemstitched handkerchiefs, narrow colored borders, with colored embroidered initial; three handkerchiefs in a box.

13c An extraordinary fine quality women's swiss handkerchiefs, embroidered in dainty patterns and worth 19c.

25c Women's all-fine linen handkerchiefs, handsomely embroidered, very fine sheer quality.

Gloves

It's not mere luck that makes our celebrated P. & P. gloves last—it's the downright goodness of the stock. Every pair we sell is fully guaranteed.

$1.00 Gloves that fit perfectly, wear well and look well; all the correct colors; 2 clasp and 4 button fastenings.

$1.19 Our genuine Mocha gloves for women have no superior; fit perfectly; dressy and comfortable; all the leading colors; 2 clasp fastening.

$1.25 Our real kid gloves never fail to give satisfaction in every particular. The kid is of a soft quality and the fit is absolutely certain

$1.50 Silk-lined reindeer skin gloves for women in all the shades of gray, tan and modes.

Men's Gloves

$1.00 Men's English walking gloves, pique stitching; a very dressy and serviceable glove.

$1.50 Men's Mocha gloves in all the correct shades of tan and gray.

$2.00 Men's silk lined reindeer skin gloves, gray and tan shades.

$4.50 & 5.00 Mens' eiderdown bath robes in very choice new patterns that are of exceptional value.

$1.00 Men's flannelette pajamas in exceptionally handsome patterns and fine heavy weight cloth.

50c Men's light colored outing flannel night shirts, full liberal sizes and well made.

$17.50 Demorest sewing machines.

$19.50 Demorest drop head sewing machines.

$10.00 Demorest hand machines. Every machine is guaranteed for 10 years by the manufacturer. All extra parts supplied.

A Talk on Overcoats.

We know how to talk about them because we make them.

Our $10 Overcoat

is made from all-wool Kersey, cassimere lined, with a shoulder yoke and sleeve lining of real satin. The style is there as well as the quality. We have them from $5.00 to $13.50. Boys' Reefers $1.75 to $4.00.

We Make All Our Clothing.

Schepflin & Schultz,

M. J. Cashin, Manager.

322 West Front St.

$14.75 CAMERA AND OUTFIT FOR $10.00 . . . .

A good suggestion for Christmas! You can have a well-known camera which will take pictures 4x5 and all necessary materials for finishing the pictures for $10. The retail value of this outfit is $14.75.

WE HAVE ALSO

Golf Sets, Phonographs, Graphophones, Gramophones, Music Boxes, Christmas Cards and a general line of Sporting Goods. We are always pleased to show our stock.

GEO. W. WRENNICK,

133 NORTH AVE.

POWERS' PHARMACY . Somerset St. Craig Place.

Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .

Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot and Tar is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

XMAS IS NEAR

Now is the time to order your Xmas greens First come, first served. Holly, laurel and Xmas green wreaths and roping; also loose holly, palms, ferns, jardinieres and wicker baskets for Xmas presents.

MRS. L. J. DENTON,

Stillman Building. Tel. call 731.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.

Capital, $150,000.

Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.

CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

DIRECTORS.

Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Cloonan. H. G Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold. J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J. B. Coward.

General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Sachsen.

Dresden. Die sächsische Staatsregierung lehnte das Projekt des Großschifffahrtskanals Leipzig-Riesa — also der Verbindung Leipzigs mit der Elbe und Hamburg—wegen der voraussichtlichen Unrentabilität und des zu befürchtenden Ausfalles an Eisenbahneinnahmen ab. — Der antisemitische Journalist Wald, der in Hamburg Betrügereien verübt hat, ist von hier, wo er verhaftet worden war, an das dortige Untersuchungsgefängniß ausgeliefert worden.

Döbeln. Der hiesige Bauschuldirektor Scheerer feierte sein 25jähriges Lehrerjubiläum. Seine Schüler veranstalteten ihm zu Ehren einen Fackelzug und einen Festkommers, der auch von den früheren Schülern, von Vertretern der Stadt und von den Bürgern besucht war. Dem Jubilar wurde ein kostbarer Tafelaufsatz überreicht.

Hohenstein-Ernstthal. Das vierte Mal innerhalb zehn Tagen brach hier Feuer aus. Es brannte neben der Kirche die Scheune des Viehhändlers Gresser ab. Die Stadt hat eine Belohnung von 500 Mark für die Ermittelung des oder der Thäter ausgesetzt. Daß unter der hiesigen Bevölkerung in Folge der sich häufenden Brände große Beunruhigung herrscht, ist erklärlich.

Leipzig. Der Pathologe Professor Birch-Hirschfeld und der Nationalökonom Professor von Miaskowski, beide von der hiesigen Universität, sind gestorben.

Plauen. Im südlichen Voigtland wurden mehrere starke Erdstöße zur Nachtzeit verspürt. Bergrath Professor Credner sagte schon im vorigen Jahr voraus, daß die nächtlichen Erdbeben im Voigtland sich im Winterhalbjahr wiederholen würden.

Thüringische Staaten.

Schleiz. Die Grenzverbindungsbahn Schleiz-Roßbach wird nun endgiltig gebaut. Die fürstliche Kammer in Schleiz gibt dazu 30,000 Mark, die Stadtgemeinde Schleiz 10,000 Mark Zuschuß.

Kahla. Der im Altenburger Gefängniß in Untersuchungshaft befindliche frühere Buchhalter des verkrachten hiesigen Sparvereins, Jecke, hat dort durch Erhängen seinem Leben ein gewaltsames Ende gemacht.

Meiningen. Hier hat sich ein Komite zur Erbauung eines Bismarck-Denkmals gebildet, und im südlichen Theile des sächsischen Voigtlandes werden mit Beginn des kommenden Frühjahrs auf entsprechenden Höhen des Frankenwaldes und Erzgebirges zehn „Bismarck-Säulen" errichtet, wozu die erforderlichen Mittel bereits gesammelt sind.

Freie Städte.

Hamburg. Am 3. Januar wird der Kaiser dem Stapellauf des Schnelldampfers „Deutschland" von der Hamburg-Amerika-Linie beiwohnen.—Das wegen Doppelmordes in Brasilien verhaftete Ehepaar Gönczy traf auf einem Dampfer der Hamburg-Südamerika-Linie hier ein und wurde alsbald nach Berlin weiter befördert.—Die 40 Jahre alte Doris Roschlaub wurde erdrosselt aufgefunden. Der That verdächtig ist der Ehemann, der flüchtige Arbeiter Roschlaub.—Bei der hiesigen Polizei sind nicht weniger wie 70 Anfragen von Eltern, die über den Verbleib ihrer offenbar nach Südafrika durchgebrannten Sprößlinge bekümmert waren, eingelaufen. Thatsächlich ist es gelungen, 23 dieser jugendlichen Ausreißer abzufassen, ehe sie den Hamburger Hafen verlassen hatten.

Bremen. Auf der Werft der Aktiengesellschaft Weser lief der für den Norddeutschen Lloyd erbaute neue Dampfer „Deli" vom Stapel. Er ist für die Fahrt zwischen Penang und Deli (Sumatra) bestimmt; diese Fahrt wird regelmäßig im Anschluß an die Reichspostdampfer der ostasiatischen Linie stattfinden.—Hier wurde der Direktor des Norddeutschen Lloyd, Bremermann, der an der Spitze des Proviantamts steht, Abends auf der Straße überfallen und durch Schläge mit einem Stein am Kopf und im Gesicht verletzt. Die Motive des entkommenen Thäters sind unbekannt.

Lübeck. Der württembergische Konsul Harms ist hier gestorben.—Wie verlautet, hatte der jüngste Besuch des Bürgermeisters Dr. Klug beim Großherzog von Oldenburg den Zweck, einen Gebietsaustausch zwischen Lübeck und Oldenburg herbeizuführen. Es sollen die lübeckischen Dörfer Curau und Dissau gegen das oldenburgische Schwartau eingetauscht werden.

Oldenburg.

Oldenburg. Bei Langward in Butjadingen ist der sehr große Bauernhof des Pächters Wettermann abgebrannt; 10 Pferde und 40 Stück Hornvieh und Schweine, auch große Erntevorräthe wurden zum Raub der Flammen. Nur wenig ist gerettet, der Schaden groß.

Oberstein. Hier stürzte dieser Tage die Nahebrücke ein, auf der man mit der Legung eines Geleises für die elektrische Straßenbahn beschäftigt war. Die auf der Brücke befindlichen Personen konnten sich noch rechtzeitig retten.

—Use Press want ads

News and Opinions OF National Importance.

The : Sun.

ALONE CONTAINS BOTH.

Daily, by mail - $6 a year
Daily and Sunday, by mail $8 a year

The Sunday Sun

is the greatest Sunday newspaper in the world.

Price 5c a copy. By mail, $2 a yr

Address THE SUN, New York.

The New York Tribune.

The Tribune Starts a Handsome Tri-Weekly Edition.

1900.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE is loyally Republican on all public questions, although it never distorts the news for party purposes and never screens misconduct in public affairs, because discovered among party friends. THE TRIBUNE commends itself to every Republican family in the country, not only by its decency and dignity, but by its wide variety of contents and its vigorous editorial arguments in favor of the masterly policies, which have brought genuine prosperity to the country and glory to its arms and which promise high prestige in the future.

The persistent labor of THE TRIBUNE during the four years of President Cleveland, its immense circulation reaching every hillside and valley in the United States, is regarded by many friends as having contributed very materially to prepare the country for the return, in 1896, to Protection and Sound Money and to vote for a Republican candidate for the Presidency.

It may as well be confessed, that one object of THE TRIBUNE, in putting forth its new and admirable TRI-WEEKLY edition, is to render an additional service to the great party, on whose success in 1900 a continuation of business prosperity and wise government depend.

A Great Daily.

THE DAILY AND SUNDAY TRIBUNE, $10 a year (the latter having an ILLUSTRATED SUPPLEMENT of 20 pages of great beauty and interest) with its wealth of general information and attractive special features and pictures, is, by far, the best and most valuable edition issued from the TRIBUNE office. For a business man, who can receive it at a reasonable hour, this edition is superior to all others.

A Handsome Tri-Weekly.

THE TRI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE, $1.50 a year, has recently superseded the late SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE, and is a handsome, fresh, breezy, every-other-day newspaper. It will, we think, prove the best substitute for a metropolitan daily, yet found. Every number is as good as a daily of the same date. For many people, it will answer the purposes of a daily. It gives one more number each week, for half a dollar less a year, than the former SEMI-WEEKLY. In addition to the news, editorials and market prices, it prints each week a great variety of pictorial, literary and other entertaining matter, including humor, book reviews, "Asked and Answered," foreign letters, "Home Topics," fashions, fictions, agricultural data, advance information for business men, "Science and Mechanics," etc. The market prices are accurate and standard. It is always safe to look at THE TRIBUNE before buying or selling country produce. As a family newspaper THE TRI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE has no superior in the United States.

THE TRI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE has been put forth in response to the growing demand for more frequent issues. It is cordially recommended to every reader, who wants the cream and spirit of THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE and who lives too far away from the Daily.

The Weekly.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE, $1.00 a year, holds its own as a great low-priced farmers' and family newspaper. It can usually be obtained at advantageous terms in conjunction with local weeklies.

Sample Copies.

SAMPLE COPIES of any edition will cheerfully be sent, free of charge, to those desiring them. Address always,

THE TRIBUNE,
New York City.

COPYRIGHT 1897

THE ENTRANCE TO THE DINING ROOM

will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us.

Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early.

The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too—everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get.

FRED ENDRESS,
121—125 WEST FRONT STREET.

Defective Eyes.

Overstrained and Defective Eyes are the cause of many a

HEADACHE.

Correctly-fitted Glasses will remedy the trouble. A Scientific Examination Free and Glasses Guaranteed.

STILES & CO.,
107 E. Front St.
EVERY THURSDAY.
Hours: 10:30 to 5:00.

The genuine "Portland Range" has "Portland" on oven door plate —only sold here.

(B) AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

CHRISTMAS THINGS

for every part of the home—useful and gladly received. If you're short of ready cash use our generous credit help—no prices equal our's for lowness, no terms are so easy.

CARPETS—get one measured and fitted right away—prices are at the lowest cost. Axminsters, 77c; Brussels, 45c; Cotton Chain Ingrains, 25c; Heavy Ingrains, 37c; All-wool Ingrains, 52c. Or get a Rug or two; what better gift? Moquettes and Ingrains, all sizes.

$8.25

A full swell front, solid oak carved top Chiffonniere, worth $12.00.

$15.75

Comfort—lots of it—in this adjustable head (5 positions), velour-covered Couch—heavy fringe. Value $22.00.

$11.89

Solid Combination Desks, mirror ornament at back. Value $16.00.

$10.98

For a $15.00 Sideboard—bevel edge mirror, lined silver drawer, ample closet room—how's that?

$1.98

Highly polished solid oak, high back, box seat Dining Chair—$2.50 its value.

$4.98

Antique oak Extension Table, 5 legs, well turned, cleverly finished, and worth $7.00 readily.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,
Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

— DEALERS IN —

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agent for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.

Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on firs mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phœnix, o London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. Life INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW,
THE GROCER.
Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.

Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS

Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.

GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition,

119 East Front Street.

SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue.

BUTCHERS.

Everything usually found in a first-class market.

Orders called for and delivered.

Telephone 83 A.

Elston M. French,
Successor to VanBuren Bros.
Real Estate and Insurance,
Largest agency in the city. Loans negotiated.
168 NORTH AVENUE.
Opposite Depot

H. Eggerding,
121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
O. O. D. CIGAR,
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

McCullough's STEAM MILL.
21 Steiner place, North Plainfie
R. H. McCullough, Prop'
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished

L. A. HUMMER,
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats' Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.
163 SOMERSET ST.
Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

"ISN'T IT TOO CUTE FOR ANYTHING!"

So runs the chorus of feminine praise over this, that or the other pretty brooch in our fine collection. Husband, father, brother, beau—here's the fit thing! The price-range is $2.50 to $25.00—and there never was better choosing in pretty jewelry. You can make no mistake in picking with your eyes shut—but best come while the selection is complete.

Large Solid Silver Nethersole Bracelets, - - - - 75c
Solid Silver Brush and Comb, - $2.50
In a silk-lined case.

COLLIER, Jeweler,
103 Park Ave.
Established 1869.

STATIONERY and TOYS.

We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles for the Holiday trade.

CHRISTMAS CARDS and CALENDARS.

We make a specialty of FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.

High Grade Cigars.

Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.

B. W. HAND,
205 W. Front Street.

LADIES' TAILORING.

RICHARDSON & WALD,
325 West Front Street.

TAILOR-MADE GARMENTS.
We make a specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.
Alterations and relining promptly attended to.
—DRESSMAKING.—
Our Dressmaking Department is in charge of Madame Walsh.

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING

is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.,
201 PARK AVE., Cor. 2d ST.
Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.
Estimates furnished. Telephone call 635.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats, Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS.
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

W. D. MANNING
sells superior
Coal, Wood, Gasolene and Kerosene.
Office, 153 North Ave. Yard, 929 South Av
Tel. 139 A.

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street,
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,

CHAS. L. FOROE,
Architect and Superintendent.
208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 21 tf

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store 136 Park avenue. 10 1

E. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun' John P. Emmon
Telephone 601

EDUCATIONAL

REV. H. C. EYME,
a native of Hanover, Germany, and a graduate of the Universities of Heidelberg and Gottengen, is prepared to receive pupils for instruction in GERMAN, FRENCH, SPANISH, GREEK and LATIN. Terms moderate. Best references on hand. For particulars call or address
78 Duer Street. North Plainfield, N. J.
12 11 6 eod

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.
(City Bank Building.)
Adelia C. Phelps will resume work Sept. 26th. Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

PRIVATE INSTRUCTION
given in
German and Elementary French.
Address for terms,
MISS ALICE GILBERT,
11 8 1mo 811 West Fifth Street

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
: : : PIANO AND THEORY : : :
Home Studio,
132 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN.
Address—60 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

.....Piano Instruction.....
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes
Elementary Classes.
Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Dufft.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

Don't miss the Special Sale for the holidays of FRAMES, EASELS, and PICTURES
AT REDUCED PRICES,
given by the
Guarantee Portrait Studio,
142 East Front Street.

Fine drawings in Crayons and Pastels from all kinds of photographs. All kinds of frames from the latest styles of mouldings made to order at the lowest prices.

THAT'S THE IDEA!

You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.

NEW YORK MAILS.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE and EASTON.

Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m.; 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a.m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p.m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.

WARRENVILLE.

Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M.

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery. Nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores 9 9 1 year

WINDOW SHADES
Estimates cheerfully given.
Mail orders will receive prompt attention.
J. A. GREENE,
112 Madison Ave. Plainfield, N. J.
11 15 1mo

NAMES OF PETS.

It Is sometimes Difficult to Find Suitable Ones.

Who does not know scores of dogs answering to the names of Prince, Gyp, Jack, or Spot? Pussy and Kitty and Tom for cats are plentiful in the extreme. How many birds are called Dick! And how many parrots Polly, regardless of sex! As if there were not numbers of appropriate names for dogs, cats, birds, etc., besides the homely, often meaningless, and always tiresomely common names which we hear on all sides.

If I may offer some suggestions: Why not give noted names of history, having due regard to the nationality of the species, if not of the individual? For example, an appropriate name for a Scotch collie would be Lochiel, Lochinvar, or Albyn (ancient name for Scotland), though this last might more properly be given a female. Brian, Conn, Cormac or Lorc might be given an Irish setter, as these are the names of ancient Irish historical personages. Brann and Skolan, which were the names of the two dogs of Finn, a pre-Christian Irish hero, might also be used. And so on with other breeds too numerous to mention. Of course I do not mean that the national names should always be given; not by any means.

Names that occur in fiction often make very proper titles for pets. A fox terrier I call Natty Bumpo, Bumpo for short), a name which those familiar with the writings of our famous novelists will at once recognize. A high-sounding title for a brace of cats—or dogs, for that matter—would be Sir Peter and Lady Teazle. Names, too, of friends, if they be not too long, and our friends love animals sufficiently well not to object, may serve our purpose. I call a dove by the one-syllabled family name of a poet friend.

Sometimes circumstances will suggest the name. Another of my dogs is called Trove from "treasure-trove," which comes from the French trouve; found; because the dog came to me; and (though I tried) I was never able to discover the owner.

Foreign languages, likewise, will furnish titles. I knew a little cat called Pierrot, which we know means "clown" in French; at least, that is one of the meanings. Again, names of favorite authors will supply our needs, as also mythological Indian names. These, with other sources not mentioned, whence we may draw supplies, will, I think, be more than sufficient for our wants without having recourse to the old and worn-out names so common about us.—Animal Friends.

FOR THE HORSE.

Ian Maclaren's Pretty Introduction to a Story.

Under this title Ian Maclaren tells in St. Nicholas how a farm-hand at his father's home in Scotland saved his horse from drowning at the expense of his own life. The story would be spoiled by condensation, but the introduction is worth printing by itself.

In the days of long ago I used to live in the summer-time upon a farm in one of the rich plains of Scotland, where the soil was deep and we could grow everything, from the fragrant red clover to the strong, upstanding wheat. One reason why our farm bore such abundant crops was its situation; for it lay, in the shape of the letter V, between two rivers which met upon our ground. One of the rivers was broad and shallow, and its clear water ran over gravel, brawling and fretting when it came upon a large stone, and making here and there a pleasant little fall. This river in the wintertime would rise high and run with a strong current, and there were days and sometimes weeks when we could not send our men and horses across its ford. We never hated this river, because, although it could be angry and proud when the snow was melting on the distant hill or a big thundercloud burst in the glens above us, it was never treacherous and sullen; it had no unexpected depths into which a man and horse might fall, but was open as the day and its water was as bright. Wherefore I have kindly thoughts of that stream, and when the sun is hot in the city, and there is no unused air to breathe, I wish I were again upon its banks and could see it gleaming underneath the bushes as it sings its way past my feet.

The other river was narrow, and ran in silence between banks; or rather it did not run, but trailed itself along like a serpent, deep, black and smooth. There was no end to its wicked cunning, for it pretended to be only three feet deep and it was twelve, and sometimes it hollowed out to itself a hole where a twenty-foot line would not touch the bottom. One of its worst tricks was to undermine the bank so that the green turf on which you stood became a trap, and, yielding beneath your feet, unless you were very dexterous landed you in the river, and, unless you could swim, the river would drown you in its black water as if with delight.

When They Were Naughty.

Sir Edward Burne-Jones, the artist, loved children very dearly. When his small children were naughty their mamma punished them by standing them for a few minutes in a corner, with their faces to the wall. This seemed to be quite severe punishment to their beauty loving papa. So he had painted in the corners where his children were punished sprays of flowers, saying, "If he has to go to the corner I am determined he shall enjoy himself there." It is also said that the artist, when visiting, found a child of his host receiving the same punishment, and that he quietly sketched, with a pencil, flying birds in the corner where the small boy stood.

FAMOUS QUARRIES.

THOSE OF RED PIPESTONE WERE SUNG OF IN HIAWATHA.

No One But the Indians Are Allowed to Work It—Difficulties Encountered When the Government Tried to Buy the Reservation—How the Stone Was Named.

Less than a mile from the bustling little city of Pipestone, Minn., are three freaks of nature that will well repay a visit from the lovers of the curious and the beautiful. The first is a waterfall, or cataract, which when the stream that feeds it is swollen by melting snow and spring rains is a miniature Niagara, and in point of beauty rivals many of the famed waterfalls of the East. The second is the famous Red Pipestone Quarry, the scene of the opening of Longfellow's beautiful poem "Hiawatha," and the third is a group of immense rocks—also spoken of in "Hiawatha" as the Three Maidens—that have stood for ages as a landmark to guide the Indians to the only spot in the known world where the sacred pipestone could be found.

The waterfall, quarry and Three Maidens are all located on the Indian Reservation, which is one mile square, adjoining the corporation of Pipestone on the north. The reservation belongs to the Dacotas, or what is better known by its French name as the Sioux Nation, but it is claimed by the Yankton Sioux. Several years since a determined effort was made by a committee of citizens of Pipestone to purchase it, as they did not want so large a tract of land so near this city lying idle, but the Indians would not part with it for love or money. The next best thing to do was to see if something could not be done with it, even if it remained in the Indians' possession. An application was made to Congress, an appropriation of $30,000 was obtained, and a substantial school building was built on one corner of the land. The school has proved so successful that a second building, the size of the first, is being built to accommodate the ever-increasing number of pupils.

The poem of "Hiawatha" begins:

On the mountains of the prairie,
On the great Red Pipestone quarries, and any one unacquainted with the neighborhood would naturally suppose that it was hilly, to say the least. On the contrary, the country is quite level, there not being even what in Eastern parlance would be called a "small hill" in the neighborhood. The quarry lies in about the centre of the bed of what is apparently a prehistoric lake, and when first discovered the stone cropped out of the surface, but the continual quarrying for ages has extended the quarry about sixty rods toward the south, and it is now necessary to remove from six to eight feet of scale an dirt before the pure stone is reached.

No one but the Indians are allowed to quarry it, and every summer they come in squads from distant reservations to get supplies of the stone with which to make pipes, knicknacks and ornaments that they carve out of it, both for their own use and for sale and trade to the white man. They also frequently sell the stone in the rough to the white men, who, with turning lathe, can work it up much better than they can.

The stone is known to the scientific world as catlinite, being so called in honor of Catlin, the celebrated historian of the Indians, who was the first white man to set eyes on the quarry, while gathering material for his "History of the Indians of the Northwest," in 1836.

Nothing Like Trying.

"Ha," exclaimed the jealous man. "Somebody has been pressing a kiss upon your brow!"

"No, no, no," protested the unhappy woman.

"Then you have been sitting too near the radiator!" he thundered, with an affectation of politeness. "For there is a hole burnt in your complexion!"

It is not easy to construct the story that shall be at once psychological and medicorealistic, but as will be seen, the riffle can be made.—Detroit Journal.

An Odd Collection.

A French woman has collected for fifty years specimens of corsets worn at different periods and in her chateau is a billiard room with glass cases in which are her treasures. Those who shudder at the idea of an eighteen-inch waist would be shocked at a corset of the Catherine de Medici reign with a waist of thirteen and one-half inches, and outside cover of steel bars to prevent stretching. There are to be seen some leather stays worn by Charlotte Corday, and a pair of brocaded satin ones, which once belonged to the Empress of Austria, with only a nineteen and one-half inch waist.

Cost of a Petty Suit.

The folly of going to law is shown by a recent transaction in the Justice Court at Greenville, Tex., The constable levied upon 800 pounds of seed cotton, which when sold the next day under the attachment brought the sum of $11.34. When all costs were paid there was left $3.70, which, by the terms of the original instrument, went to the attorney, leaving the attaching party without a cent for the collection.

It Wasn't Like Her.

Husband—What's that you are reading?

Wife—It's a letter from mother.

Husband—And what does she say?

Wife—Oh, not much ... anything.

Husband—You are trying to deceive me. It's a cold day when your mother hasn't anything much to say.—Chicago News.

Quick Work.

To test the skill of their workingmen, the Companie Francaise des Chemins de Fer de l'Est, at their works in Epernay, recently caused a locomotive to be "mounted," or built up, piece by piece, as soon as possible. It was finished in fifty-six hours.

Life Worth Living.

In Carlsruhe, the capital of Baden, a law is in force fining any person who plays the piano with open windows.

Candy For the Children

AT CHRISTMAS TIME is as much or more so expected by them as fireworks on the Fourth. They look for it in their stockings.....

American Mixture 10c lb. Old Fashioned Mixture, 10c lb.
Special Mixture 12c lb., and upwards to 60c lb.
Christmas Bell Box, the latest for Sunday Schools.

R. Walsh & Co. TWO STORES, 157 MARKET STREET, 677 BROAD STREET, NEWARK N. J.

m th

7000 BU. of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last. Order Quick.

Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

OUR SPECIALTIES
Choice Teas. Fine Coffees.
WHEN YOU ARE IN NEED OF FIRST-CLASS GROCERIES OR CANNED GOODS, CALL ON
THE PARK GROCERS
C. E. GULICK & CO. Tel. 931.

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.
Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,
Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.
WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER
DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.

Sherwins,
149 W. Front St.

A little boy of thirteen years, living in Lebanon, Conn., was badly troubled with indigestion and could only eat certain kinds of food without causing him the greatest distress. Seeing the advertisement of Ripans Tabules, his mother purchased a box at the drug store, and in a very short time after the boy was entirely cured. Both the mother and boy look upon Ripans Tabules as a very excellent remedy.

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores for FIVE CENTS. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the 5-cent cartons (60 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Street
Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully ... Orders promptly attended to. 2 11

E. D. BARRETT,
Sanitary Plumber,
Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Telephone 612. 148 East Fifth Street.

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill.
Turning and Scroll Sawing.

L. L. Manning & Son,
STEAM GRANITE WORKS,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 6c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

Notice of Order to Limit Creditors.

SOMERSET COUNTY SURROGATE'S OFFICE.

Estate of Mary A. Cooper, deceased. Notice is hereby given, that on the eighth day of December, A. D., 1899, on the application of the undersigned, as Administrators of Mary Ann Cooper, deceased; an order was made by H. N. Spencer, Surrogate, requiring the creditors of Mary Ann Cooper, deceased, to bring in their debts, demands and claims against the said decedent, under oath or affirmation, and present the same to the subscriber within nine months from the date of said order; and in default thereof any such creditor should be forever barred of his or her action thereof against the subscribers

THOMAS NEWMAN,
EDWARD A. COOPER,
ANNIE PRATT.
Administrators.

12 11 9 oaw

OUR OYSTERS ARE THE ---FINEST---
ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

CHARLES ARNOLD,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats,
POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON.
203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.
Telephone 238.

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to.

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall Streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 29, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 46, 9 16, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 54, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 08, 7 30, 9 04, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12.00 m, 12 58 1 45, 2 40, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 58, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 30, 9 04, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m.

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m.; 1 01, 2 08, 2 20, 3 32, 4 35, 5 03, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sundays 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 05, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 05, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamauqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked *) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 19, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N.J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.
Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.
Daily except Sunday, Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.
Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.
Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.
Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket time-tables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.
FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent, 218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

T. M. INGRAHAM.
Vaults and Cesspools Cleaned
Night or Day.
ASHES & GARBAGE REMOVED.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Good Work at Reasonable Prices.
P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.

XXXX QUALITY
FINEST
LOFOTEN COD LIVER OIL,
Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.
Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at
39c per Pint.
For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at
50c per Bottle,
or the Tasteless at
75c per Bottle.
THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,
Hepburn & Co.,
Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,
213 WEST FRONT ST.
Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

WANTED
25 Mechanics
and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.
Agent on the Grounds
SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.
Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.
... TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

The New Holiday Goods
are here in larger and better variety than ever before. There is a certain satisfaction in buying Holiday novelties here—the entire stock is new—something which others cannot claim, and everything is priced moderately, in fact lower than you would pay elsewhere.
A Wonderful Showing of Handkerchiefs.
A COMPLETE stock of Men's initial handkerchiefs, put up half-dozen to the box.
The Largest and Best Assortment of Kid Gloves.
Good gloves, which we guarantee and such as you desire for Christmas gifts.
New Sterling Silver Novelties, Silver-trimmed Leather Novelties, Umbrellas.
Mackintoshes.
A complete stock of Goodyear mackintoshes for ladies and misses. These goods were bought before the heavy advance in prices; therefore you can buy good mackintoshes here at the old prices.
I. LEDERER.

Holiday Goods.
Why you should see our assortment; a walk through our store will be the easiest way to solve the problem of what to get for presents for young and old,
Our line of fancy articles consists of everything imaginable in Celluloid, Plush and Glass Ware.
Handkeachiefs, gloves, neckwear, hosiery, umbrellas and dress goods of all kinds and all prices. Furs and worsted goods of every description.
DOLLS ...
Dolls of all kinds can be found on our doll counter, our assortment is bewildering in their novelty, extent and attractiveness. Our prices are lower than any other house will quote for the same article.
TOYS -:- -:-
Our Toy Department in the basement is larger than ever before. No such collection was ever gathered here before, and it is safe to say there is no better stock in town in point of variety, there is no stock in town that equals ours in prices that's certain.
Children's velocipedes, tricycles, battleships, iron toys of all kinds, tool chests, wash sets, soldier sets, dishes, horse and wagons, chairs, printing presses, electric batteries, express wagons, magic lanterns, etc.
I. H. Boehm, 109-111-113 West Front Street

Our Attractive Holiday Display
awaits your inspection. We are glad to welcome visitors and pleased to show our goods.
A. L. & M. D. Gorsline, 144 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

FALL OPENING.
WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.
OUR STOCK COMPLETE
We are now ready to fit either man or boy in Suits, or Overcoats, Hats and Gent's Furnishings.
Boys' Suits from 75c to $5.00.
Men's Suits from $2.00 to $20.00.
Have you tried a pair of our Celebrated Cassimere Pants at 98c the pair, if not do so—they are the talk of the town; sold over 1.000 pairs the past season; never rip and fit to perfection. Give us a call.
WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,
206 West Front Street.

Don't Rack Your Brain
Trying to think what to give for a Christmas present. Anything in the Shoe or Slipper line is very appropriate. Our assortment and prices will please you.
VANARSDALE, 127 East Front St.
Repairing Properly Done.

A CURIOUS CUSTOM.

PUNISHMENT OF ANIMALS THAT WAS FORMERLY IN VOGUE IN EUROPE.

They Were Sometimes Put to the Rack in Order to Extort Confession—In Other Instances They Were Buried Alive—Pigs Hanged or Burned for Murder.

Beasts were often condemned to be burned alive, and, strangely enough, it was in the latter half of the seventeenth century, an age of comparative enlightenment, that this cruel penalty was most frequently inflicted. Occasionally a merciful judge adhered to the letter of the law by sentencing the culprit to be slightly singed, and then to be strangled before being burned. Sometimes they were condemned to be buried alive. Such was the fate suffered by two pigs in 1456, "on the vigil of the holy virgin," at Oppenheim-on-the-Rhine, for killing a child. Animals were even put to the rack in order to extort confession. It is not to be supposed that the judge had the slightest expectation that any confession would be made; he wished simply to observe all forms prescribed by the law, and to set in motion the whole machinery of justice before pronouncing judgment. "The question," which in such cases would seem to be only a wanton and superfluous act of cruelty, was nevertheless an important element in determining the final decision, since the death sentence could be commuted into banishment provided the criminal had not confessed under torture. The use of the rack was therefore a means of escaping the gallows. Appeals were sometimes made to higher tribunals, and the judments of the lower courts annulled or modified. In one instance a sow and a she-ass were condemned to be hanged; on appeal and after a new trial they were sentenced to be simply knocked on the head. In another instance an appeal led to the acquittal of the accused.

In 1266, at Fontenay-aux-Roses, near Paris, a pig, convicted of having eaten a child, was publicly burned by order of the monks of Sainte-Genevieve. In 1386 the tribunal of Falaise sentenced a sow to be mangled and maimed in the head and leg, and then to be hanged, for having torn the face and arm of a child and caused its death. Here we have a strict application of the lex tallonis. The sow was dressed in man's clothes and executed in the public square, near the city hall, at the expense to the state of ten sous and ten deniers, besides a pair of gloves to the hangman.

The executioner was provided with new gloves in order that he might come from the discharge of his duty with clean hands, thus indicating that as a minister of justice he incurred no guilt in shedding blood. He was not a common butcher of swine, but a public functionary, a "master of high works" (maitre des hautes oeuvres) as he was officially styled. In 1394 a pig was found guilty of "having killed and murdered a child in the parish of Roumaygne, in the county of Mortaing, for which deed said pig was condemned to be drawn and hanged by Jehan Pettit, lieutenant of the bailiff."

There is also extant an order issued by the magistracy of Gisors in 1405, commanding payment to be made to the carpenter who had erected the scaffold on which an ox had been executed "for its demerits."

On the 9th of June, 1576, at Schweinfurt, in Franconia, a sow which had bitten off the ear and torn the hand of a child was given in custody to the hangman, who, without further authority, took it to the gallows green and there "hanged it publicly, to the disgrace and detriment of the city."

On the 10th of January, 1457, a sow was convicted of murder, committed on the person of an infant name Jehan Martin of Savigny, and sentenced to be hanged. Her six sucklings were also included in the indictment as accomplices, "but in default of positive proof that they had assisted in mangling the deceased, they were restored to their owner, on condition that he should give bail for their appearance should further evidence be forthcoming to prove their complicity in their mother's crime."

The Knowing Shark.

A painful moment on board ship at sea is that when some poor mortal, who has died on the voyage, has to be laid away in the bosom of the deep with the simple ceremonies of an ocean burial.

A vessel carrying a dead body and passing through waters frequented by sharks is almost sure to be followed by one or more of those fishes if it does not out-speed them.

Rather than bury a corpse while sharks are following the vessel the captain will sometimes have a body placed in the ice chamber and full steam put on the engines until the hungry fishes have dropped astern completely

In one case at least a body was actually cremated on board by the captain's orders because of the sharks. But sharks are not often obstacles to prompt burial, and, generally speaking, when death occurs at sea the body is slipped into the water at night with none to witness the proceeding but a couple of the crew and the captain, who reads an abridgment of the service from the Prayer Book.

The Oldest Clocks.

The oldest clocks of American manufacture were made by Gideon Roberts, of Bristol, Conn. According to the best authorities, no clocks were manufactured in what are now the United States prior to 1800, at which time Mr. Roberts first placed his timepieces on the market. His clocks were made with the greatest care, and much time was spent in perfecting them. They were all of the style commonly known as "hall" clocks, about six feet in height, handsomely finished and a recognized separate piece of furniture in which the owner always took great pride.

A Real Blessing.

A novel sort of window glass has been invented. Persons on the inside of the house can see through it, but it is opaque to those on the outside.

But a Railway Will.

The Kurds and Cossacks believe that Mount Ararat is guarded by an unearthly being, and that no man can ascend the peak and live.

THIS cut represents one of our smaller packages. All of our feeds and grain are put up in these standard packages running from Five or Eleven pounds up according to the article, and the price of each is based on the market.

Did you ever think of the advantage of buying from a house that sells any quantity from five pounds to a boat load and that makes the same prices to all customers without any secret deals.

At this season beware of Feeds and Meals made from new corn. As we make our own feeds we know what they contain and we have plenty of

OLD CORN.

In comparing prices it should be borne in mind that OUR GRAIN IS ALL RECLEANED and OUR FEEDS are ALL MADE ON THE PREMISES and ARE KNOWN TO BE PURE

Mixed Oats	74c per bag	Middlings	90c per 100
Mixed Clips	76c per bag	Oat Feed	73c per 100
5 White Oats	78c per bag	Gluten	95c per 100
Regular Clips	80c per bag	Oil Meal	$1.45 per 100
X. B. Clips	82c per bag	No. 1 Grain Mixture	$1.10 per 100
Yellow Corn	79c per 100	Our Poultry Food	$1.15 per 100
Cracked Corn	84c per 100	Wheat	$1 25 per 100
Coarse Meal	84c per 100	Barley (96 lbs)	$1.15 per bag
Ground Feed	84c per 100	No. 1 Hay	88c per 100
Bran	90c per 100	Clover Hay	83c per 100
Buckwheat Middlings	70c per 100	Cut Hay	83c per 100

The above prices are for spot cash at our stores.
If delivered add according to quantity as follows:

25 bags or over	2c per bag
5 bags or over	5c per bag
Less than 5 bags	10c per bag

THE PAUL T. NORTON CO.

Elizabeth, Elizabethport, Red Bank, Plainfield, Somerville.

HER LIFE IS AT STAKE.

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

on two different occasions he served disposses notices on Fingerhuth, but that each time the latter displayed an angry temper and tore up the notices, and at one time set his dog on Constable Bartel who had gone to the house with Clark.

On cross-examination by Mr. Hetfield, Clark admitted that he had told Roehricht that he could get the Fingerhuths out of the house without resorting to ejectment proceeding, and that Roehricht had finally said, "Go ahead and get them out."

At 1 o'clock court adjourned till 2 o'clock for dinner.

Mrs. Fingerhuth, the prisoner, looked strong and healthy for one who has been in jail for several months under such a charge. She displayed emotion once or twice when the details of tragedy were referred to. Her hands trembled and her face paled somewhat, but otherwise she appeared calm and collected. She is not very proficient in the English language, and therefore is unable to understand all that goes on.

Her husband and son, who are accused of being accessories to the murder, occupied positions near the woman. They displayed great interest in the opening incidents of the momentous occasion for them. They seemed to have a serious appreciation of their position, but when Lawyer Clark testified to the fits of temper that Fingerhuth was alleged to have displayed, both the son and father smiled broadly. When court adjourned for the noon hour the prisoners were sent back to the jail.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on L. W. Randolph, Druggist, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

What Can You Do With It?

This is a question we can answer better after we have seen the garment you want dyed. When our wagon is in your neighborhood, let it bring your goods to the store and then, at your convenience, come in and let us tell you just what we can do and the cost. Don't be prejudiced against dyeing. Ofttimes you can't tell the goods from new.

HILLIER & CO.,
129 West Front Street,
Opposite Crosby & Hill's. 'Phone 851.

CURRENCY BILL PASSES.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Washington, D. C., Dec. 18—The Currency Bill passed the House of Representatives today by a vote of 199 to 150.

A Quiet Marriage.

A quiet marriage was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Hand, of Netherwood, Saturday evening, when their daughter, Sarah, was united in marriage to Herbert Henry, of Bound Brook. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. M. Shott, pastor of the Baptist church, of Scotch Plains. Only the immediate relatives were witnesses of the ceremony. After a short wedding trip the couple will take up their residence in Bound Brook.

Accused of Homicide.

Harry G. Cadmus, aged 29 years, formerly a resident of this city, but now of Brooklyn, was arrested yesterday in New York on a charge of homicide, it being alleged that he was responsible for the death of John Lynch, of New York. The two men quarreled in a saloon Saturday night, and Cadmus says he struck Lynch in self-defence. The latter died soon after he was struck.

Singing Tenor in a Choir.

Edward O. Clark, of 59 Jackson avenue, has accepted a temporary position as tenor in the choir of Trinity Reformed church, and his singing at yesterday's services was very enjoyable.

—All the members of the Mt. Olive Baptist church are requested to be out tonight for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year.

BASKET BALL.

While the Girls' Athletic Association of the Plainfield High School has no place at present in which to play basket ball, the members are still hoping for an opportunity to continue their practice in that game. Had the Board of Education secured the Crescent Rink for the drilling of the cadet battalion, it was expected that suitable arrangements would have also been made to allow the young women several afternoons a week for basket ball. Now they are looking about the city for some suitable hall that can be hired at a reasonable price and turned into a gymnasium for their use.

To Cure a Cough in One Day
To Cure a Cold in One Day
To Cure Sore Throat in One Day
To Cure Hoarseness in One Day

Take Cleveland's Lung Healer, 25c. Trial size free. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenue.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Gossy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—At Neuman Bros. you can find the genuine Florida grape fruit, and the choicest sweet Florida oranges.

—Stephenson's ice creams and water ices, French and American, suit the most exacting taste. 146 North avenue.

—Wednesday afternon at 4 o'clock the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will meet.

—The Crescent Avenue church Sunday-schools will hold a union Christmas service next Sunday at the church.

—Next Wednesday evening Rev. Wm. Jessup, of Syria, will give a talk at the Crescent Avenue church prayer-meeting.

—Remember to call at Neuman Bros., the popular Watchung avenue grocers, in making preparations for your Christmas dainties.

—On Wednesday afternoon next the Boys' Mission Band of the Crescent Avenue church, will be addressed by Dr. Richards. The subject will be "Syria."

—Dr. Merrill, who came here recently from North Branch, and who has taken up his residence on Central avenue, has just had a telephone placed in his house.

—A sensible Christmas gift is a shirt waist, acceptable to any lady. Bonn, of Front street, is showing pretty styles of flannel and silk. Price low, too. Sizes can be changed after Christmas.

—Place your order for your Christmas half shells with Rogers. They are the only handlers of the famous Blue Point stock. They will have a special oyster for cocktails for this and next week.

—Any friend of the Loyal Temperance Legion who would like to assist them in providing Christmas dinner for the poor may do so by sending their contributions to the W. C. T. U rooms tomorrow between 1 and 5 p. m.

—A great improvement has just been made on West Front street, nearly opposite Washington avenue, where the sidewalk has been so low that water usually stands there continually. The walk has been raised to the proper grade and the great nuisance done away with.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mrs. Doane, wife of Chief Engineer T. O. Doane, is slowly convalescing from a serious two weeks' illness.

The engagement is announced of Miss Ada Marie Runyon, of East Sixth street, and Thomas A. Cuming, of Putnam avenue.

Councilman and Mrs. E. T. Barrows, of West Eighth street, returned Saturday after a two week's outing spent in the south.

It Will be Well for You.

An oil craze such as erupted Pennsylvania some years ago is now threatened in Montana, and people are rushing to put their money in oil wells before absolutely knowing if they promise profitable yield or not. If they must invest in wells, they had better put their money in one of the ink-wells offered at Collier's, 103 Park avenue, for one dollar, and be sure of good return for their money.

Died After a Lingering Illness.

Mrs. Harvey Henderson, of Martinville, died Saturday at the home of her son, George Giddes, 180 Duer street, after a lingering illness. Mrs. Henderson was about fifty years old. She came to this city to visit her son some time ago and was taken ill while there. Mr. and Mrs. Handerson formerly resided on Chatham street in the borough, but left there four months ago to make their home at Martinville.

Thrown From a Hand Car.

Michael Fabik, an Austrian, residing at Bound Brook, and employed on the Jersey Central as a laborer, was thrown from a hand car Saturday night and sustained three scalp wounds and a dislocation of the hip. The cause of the accident was the breaking of a handle on the car. The man was brought to the hospital, where he is improving and will in the course of time be able to go home.

Not Time to Act as Postmaster.

F. W. Wohlfert, of Watchung, has discovered that he has not the time to spare to be postmaster at that place, and has sent a letter to the Postmaster General to that effect. He recommends the name of Geo. A. Schmidt for the place, and he will probably receive the appointment.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

CONTINUE TO PLAY GOLF

ENTHUSIASTS STILL GATHER AT THE CLUB COURSE.

Quite a Lively Demand for Winter Golf, Which Will be Played Even After There is a Fall of Snow—Good Attendance.

The fine weather of Saturday drew quite a crowd of golfers to the links of both the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club and the Park Golf Club that afternoon for winter golf. Although the season has closed at both courses and the club houses have been locked up for the season, temporary greens have been arranged close by the old greens, now covered for the winter, and playing is still possible.

There was a fair attendance at both courses during the afternoon. The Hillside Club announced, when the course was closed last month, that arrangements would be made so that play might still continue. There have been a few who have visited the links of that club at frequent intervals during the month.

It was not expected that the Park Golf Club would have any great demand for winter golf, but quite a number of members signified their desire to continue the game as long as the good weather continued. So the greens committee arranged to have temporary greens laid out, and while the course is not as good as the regular one, it answers the purpose of giving the members a chance to keep their hand in the sport and occupy the pleasant Saturday afternoons of the winter months.

Golf on snow is something that few Plainfield golfers have tried, and there are quite a number who want to see what it is like. So the first snow storm is likely to see a little gathering of enthusiasts on the local courses.

Horse Had a Lively Run.

A horse owned by D. W. Rogers, the fish dealer, ran away this morning and made things lively for a time. The animal started from the place on Second street, and after running for a short distance succeeded in getting away from the wagon through a broken clip. The horse then ran into Front street and went west at a great rate of speed. After much trouble he was caught and returned to the owner. The damage was comparatively slight.

Red Hot From the Gun

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible Ulcers that no treatment helped for 20 years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Boils, Felons, Corns, Skin Eruptions. Best Pile cure on earth. 25cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

Accidently Shot Himself.

Ludlow Frazee, a painter, well-known in this city, who lives at Greenbrook, accidently shot himself in the side, Saturday night, while handling a revolver. The wound is not considered serious.

—A fair will be held at the Calvary Baptist church during the holiday week.

GEO. W. COLE,
—UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,—
200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

DIED.

HENDERSON—In North Plainfield, Saturday, Dec. 16th, 1899, Lydia Ann Giddes, wife of Harvey Henderson, aged 53 years.
Funeral services Tuesday, Dec. 19th, from her son's residence, 180 Duer street, at 11:00 o'clock a. m., and at Mt. Horeb church at 2:00 o'clock p. m. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited. Interment at Mt. Horeb, N J.

CONSHER—In North Plainfield, at his late residence, 55 Watchung avenue, Dec. 16th, 1899, Francis Edward Conshee, aged 38 years.
Funeral from his late residence, Tuesday, Dec 19th, at 8:30 a. m., and from St. Joseph's church, at 9:00 a. m. Friends and relatives are respectfully invited to attend. Interment in St. Mary's Cemetery.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

WANTED—Girl for general housework; three in family; good place for a competent girl. Apply Mrs. E. B. Smith, Waynewood place, corner West Front St.

TEN-ROOM furnished house, all improvements, desirable location, to lease, owner taking part of rent in board; references required. Address Immediate Possession, care Press.

LOST—Sunday morning, on Somerset or Front streets, heavy red sweater. Reward if returned to this office. 12 18 2

WANTED—White girl for general housework; references required. 330 East Fifth Street. 12 18 2

LOST—On Saturday on Second St., near Park avenue, $20 bill, belonging to a working girl. Return to Daily Press Office.

YOUNG colored man wishes situation in private family. Call 302 Arlington avenue. 12 18 3

FIRST-CLASS washer and ironer wants situation. Apply Jas. Frisby, Sycamore avenue. 12 18 2

HORSE WANTED—Would like to take a good work horse for the winter, to use about every other day, for his keep; best of care and feeding. Address Reliable, care Press. 12 18 2

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

THREE pleasant convenient rooms to let for light housekeeping. 404 Third street, corner Central avenue. 12 11 11

YOUNG man wants situation as coachman or care of furnaces; understands horses; references. G P., care Press. 12 12 5

5 ROOM cottage to let. Apply 211 New street. Also one furnished room. 12 15 3

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Chas. L. Moffett, Attorney, cor. Park and North Aves. 12 11 eod tf

TO LET—From December 1st, nice seven-room house, 12 Arlington place. Enquire on premises. 11 22 eod tf

TO LET—Six-room house and store, connected. 214 Richmond street.

TO LET—Nice flat with improvements. 304 Richmond street.

TO LET—Butcher shop, with or without fixtures. 302 B Richmond street. eod 12 13 tf

FOR SALE or exchange for house and lot or small farm, a fine farm of 200 acres, well watered and timbered. Address Albert, care Daily Press. 12 15 eod tf

FOR SALE—Old Grandfather clock, in good order. 315 West Front street. 12 15 3

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 24

PURE cider vinegar for sale at C. J. Ackerman's, Clinton avenue. 8 5 w-s tf

FOR RENT—Central Hall, for occasional festivities or permanent occupation. Apply to Fred Dunn. w s tf

LOST—Child's kid mitten, at noon Saturday, between Crosby & Hill's and Grove St. Return to Rowley's, 218 W. Front St

HORSE for sale. 1266 Park avenue. 12 18 3 eod

PANT operators wanted; none but experienced hands need apply. C. Schepflin, 320 W. Front St. 12 12 eod 3

HELP WANTED — Machinists, lathe and planer hands; good men can find steady job and good wages. Address P. O. Box 108, Cincinnati, Ohio. 12 8 12

WANTED—Situation to look after furnaces, etc.; have first-class references. Thomas Jones, 368 Arlington avenue. 12 13 6

SPECIAL!!
HAIR DRESSING, SHAMPOOING, MANICURING.
Until after the Holiday Season
MISS HOLMES,
Graduate of the New York School of Hair Dressing and Dermatology,
will make special rates for hair dressing in all the latest styles for street and evening; at parlors 75c. At ladies' residences by appointment. Shampooing or Facial Massage and steaming (for eradicating imperfections of the skin) 75c. Manicuring 50c.
440 W. FRONT ST.

: : Pride's Tonsorial Parlor : :
94 SOMERSET STREET,
opposite Somerset Hotel.
Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty.....
CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.
—: WILLIAM J. PRIDE, :—
formerly with E. B. Maynard.

WINES made only from selected grapes and cane sugar crystal. Twenty-five cents per bottle and upward. "THE VINEYARDS," Park Ave., corner Cooper St., Fanwood. 12 18 12

...EMERY'S...
PLEASURE GARDEN
(SCOTCH PLAINS.)
Thursday Evening, December 21st.
FIRST
GRAND BALL
—OF THE—
Prospect Social Club.
Music by Prof. O'Reilly.
TICKETS - - - - 25 Cents.
The Enclosed Pavilion is for rent for Balls, Parties, etc., at Reasonable Rates.

S. R. STRUTHERS
offers his services as accountant. Books opened and closed. Trial balances made and Balance Sheets shown.
Call or address
544 WEST FRONT STREET. 12 13 12

Advertised Mail Matter.

DECEMBER 18, 1899.

FIRST CLASS.

Apgar, Mr Geo C	Martin Mr Henry
Arnold, Mrs	" Mrs Isabella
Brown, Mr John P	Marsh, Miss A
Burke, Miss Katie	Owner, house for sale
Campbell, Mr A H 2	Palmer, Miss I J
Cooper, Mrs J R	Parker, A W
Crone, J F	Pullman, L
Fields, Miss Harriett	Ralston, Mr H M
Geslin	Read, Mrs John
Harvey, Miss Martha	Richardson, Mr John
Hull, A A	Rockland, L
Hunter, Mrs R D	Roome, Mr. Wm P
Huston, Mr John	Rojette, Mrs Albert
Jellnarnd, Mr Robert	Scheliendreusler, Rev H
Johnson, Mr Aug	Snoden, Mr J H
" P M	Taylor, Mrs E S
Jones, Mrs M	Tims, Mrs May
Kellogg, Mrs	Walker, Mrs Anna
Kitchell, Mrs Martha 2	" Mr Thomas S
McLean, Mr A M	VanVleit, Mrs Herbert

THIRD AND FOURTH CLASS MATTER.

Bunck, Mr C C	Pendergast, Mrs C
Hoff, Mrs Ella J	Turner, Dr A F
Hoffman, Samuel V	Upton, Mr Fred
Young, Mr Edward

E. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

Great Price Reductions

on Men's Overcoats and Suits, as well as on Boys' and Children's Suits, Overcoats and Trousers. There never was a busier season with us as we have had for the last three months, therefore we had to purchase very largely all through the season, made it a very large accumulation of odd suits and overcoats leaving us from 2 to 5 garments of each style and in order to close out this entire lot we have marked them down to such tremendously low prices that we expect to make a clean sweep of the entire lot in very short order.

We have also made a purchase in the last 3 days of 500 overcoats of the finest quality and made in the latest style, that will not stand us more than 35 cents on the dollar, they will be included in the above sale.

The following prices will be made for the next three days:

150 MEN'S BUSINESS SUITS, made of pure all-wool cassimeres and cheviots, in neat and stylish checked and plaid patterns, good looking, first-class suits, that were never before or never likely again be so d for less than 9.00, for this 3-day sale at 3 95

MEN'S ALL-WOOL FANCY CHEVIOT, CASSIMERE and HOMESPUN SUITS in single breasted styles with double breasted vests, are elegant dress or business suit, made up with an eye to give good service, in fact, you can't touch them in other stores for less than 12.00, our lucky purchase enables us to offer them at the extremely low price of 4.90

MEN'S VERY FINEST IMPORTED SIMONI HOCAIUM WORSTED and Scotch plaid cheviot suits, cut, made and finished in a thoroughly dependable manner, qualities that no other store would dream of selling for less than 15 00, to go at this sale at 6.95.

169 MEN'S KERSEY and BEAVER OVERCOATS, all-wool, black or blue deep French facing, extra heavy Italian lining, sleeves lined with the celebrated Iron Yarn cloth, a recognized 10.00 value at 4.25

MEN'S OVERCOATS of all-wool kerseys and covert cloths, presenting the latest English box style, they hang just perfectly and fit just where you want them to, have hand-made button-holes and are 12.00 to 14.00 values, at this sale 5 95.

MEN S OVERCOATS at 7 90, this lot includes the celebrated Naumburg, Krans & Co.'s choicest line of winter overcoats, made of the finest grade of all-wool kersey cloth, genuine all-wool frieze in black or brown, also a lot of self-lined coverts made with lap seams and silk velvet collars, positively could n t be equalled at less than from 15.00 to 20 00.

500 TWO-PIECE BOYS' SUITS, all-wool materials, new and pleasing styles, double seat and knee, sizes 7 to 15, could not be sold for less than 3 00. to be sold at 1.45.

BOYS' FINE TWO-PIECE SUITS in all the newest designs in plaids and mixtures, also in plain black and blue cheviots, double seat and knees, elegantly trimmed and tailored, worth 5.00, to be sold at this great sale at 2.25

BOYS' REEFER COATS at 1.25 and 1.50 made of all-wool chinchillas with the regulation sailor collars, with warm woolen lining, sizes 3 to 8 years, positively worth 3 00.

BOYS' TOP COATS at 2.50 and 2.75, made of all-wool coverts, meltons and frieze, with full back, velvet collars and cassimere lined, sizes from 4 to 16 years, cannot be produced at less than from 5.00 to 7 00.

YOUNG MEN'S SUITS, ages 14 to 19, at 2.50, 3.50 and 4.50, handsomely made with narrow legged pants, other stores would sell them at from 5 00 to 10.00.

FINE YOUNG MEN'S OVERCOATS, sizes 14 to 19, at 1.75, 2.75 and 4.75, worth double at wholesale.

Don't make a mistake by missing this wonderful sale of clothing. Sale will begin this Saturday morning at 8 a. m. Will last for 3 days only.

New York Clothing Company
M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.
Plainfield, N. J.

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops
Wieda's
Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda
Manufactured at the Premises,
144 West Front St. Phone. 1183.

Open This Evening.
Bonn's
140 WEST FRONT ST
Open This Evening.

A Shirt Waist,
Silk, Flannel, Velvet or Brilliantine.
A Beaded Belt,
Black, White or Steel.
A Fancy Buckle,
Steel, Enameled and Gilt.
A Pretty Petticoat,
Ruffled in Black or Bright Colors.
A Fancy Hat Pin,
Silver, Metal or Jeweled.
A Feather Boa,
Black, Grey or White.

All or any one of these make a sensible and useful gift. There is good choosing from our assortment, and moderately priced, too.

OPEN THIS EVENING—:—OPEN THIS EVENING.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:20 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:35 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:35 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Showers this afternoon and tonight; colder tonight; Wednesday fair, colder. Ther. 50.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

DEFENSE GOES ON.

Supreme Effort to Save Mrs. Fingerhuth From Conviction.

TESTIMONY TAKEN TODAY

13 WITNESSES CLOSED CASE FOR THE STATE.

In Opening for the Defense Lawyer Hetfield Said That They Were Prepared to Clear the Prisoner of Charge of Murder or Any Other Charge.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

Somerville, December 19—The trial of Mrs. Henrietta Fingerhuth, who is charged with the murder of Paul Roehricht at Somerset Park, North Plainfield, September 12th, was resumed in the Somerset county court this morning at 10:20 o'clock. The court room was filled with people anxious to hear the testimony. Five of the audience were women, who had no interest in the case other than that aroused by curiosity. During the morning thirteen witnesses were sworn, and at 12:35 the prosecution rested its side.

The first witness called today was William Demler, the storekeeper at Washingtonville, near the scene of the tragedy. He testified that on the morning of the murder Fingerhuth had visited his store and seemed much wrought up over the trouble with Roehricht. He showed the witness a letter which he claimed was in the nature of a contract from Roehricht, and said that if the landlord or his men attempted to bother his family he would "fix them."

Constable George H. Stewart, of Washingtonville, testified briefly to his unsuccessful hunt for the revolver with which the crime had been committed.

Charles Spector, of Somerville, was the third witness called today and his testimony proved to be the most important. He testified that at the solicitation of Prosecutor Dungan he had visited Mrs. Fingerhuth, her husband and son, in the county jail and talked with them about the case. He related that Fingerhuth told him that he had a contract with Roehricht, and that he had instructed his son to purchase a revolver, and had given it to his wife with instructions to use it to prevent anyone entering the house during the time the woman was alone. The son admitted purchasing the weapon and telling his mother to use it on anyone who bothered her.

In his conversation with Mrs. Fingerhuth Spector said that the woman had stated that she had fired the revolver out of the window in the hope of frightening the men who were trying to evict her from the house. She said that she had no intention of injuring anyone, and least of all to kill Roehrict.

During this testimony Mrs. Fingerhuth showed great emotion and wept copiously.

Benjamin Duer, of North Plainfield, was called and testified that the son, Oscar, had told him the day of the shooting that if anyone tried to eject them from the house "They'd get shot."

Constable William Pangborn, who who took Oscar from the borough lockup in North Plainfield to the county jail, testified that the prisoner told him that he had bought a revolver of Harry Drier in Plainfield the morning of the shooting.

Frank J. Blatz, of Plainfield, testified to finding letters in the house occupied by the Fingerhuths, the day after the tragedy, two in German and one in English. Rev. Fredrick Koechli, of Somerville, translated the German letters, but they were not material to the case.

County Physician Wagoner, of Somerville, testified to holding an autopsy on the remains of Roehricht, and exhibited the bullet that killed him. S. D. Langhorne, of Plainfield, identified a photograph of Roehricht taken after he died, and Harry Dreier swore to selling a revolver to Oscar Fingerhuth. Harry Ryan, one of the party at the scene of the shooting, related the circumstances, the same as already published, as also did William Titus, of North Plainfield, but the latter declared that Mrs. Fingerhuth opened the door to fire the fatal shot.

After E.O. Clark had testified to having seen the dead body of Roehricht, twelve exhibits in the case were offered in evidence, and Prosecutor Dungan announced that the State closed its side.

The defence immediately opened its case. Lawyer Hetfield made the opening address, and stated that the defence was ready to prove that Mrs. Fingerhuth was not guilty of the charge of murder or of any other charge. The Fingerhuths, he stated, had a contract with Rochrich for a year, and they never received any legal notices from the landlord to vacate the house that caused all the trouble. He said that Rochricht and his force of men had gone to the house while Mrs. Fingerhuth was alone, and that R. R. Clark, Rochricht's manager and counsel, had stood at one door with a revolver and a hatchet in his hands, and that Emil Dembrosky had stood at another door with a revolver. Fearing that her life was in danger, as, in fact, Hetfield claimed it was, Mrs. Fingerhuth fired the revolver in the hope of scaring away the party of men.

The Court then adjourned for dinner.

The trial was continued yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Robert M. Clark was put on the stand again and Attorney Walter L. Hetfield, one of the lawyers for the defence, renewed the cross-examination. He continued to dwell on the fact that the notices alleged to have been served on Fingerhuth by Clark had not been referred to in Clark's testimony before the coroner's jury. He asked for an explanation, and Clark declared that he had no opportunity to go to his office between the time of the shooting and the meeting of the coroner's jury to get the papers and that he had been so nervous and excited at the inquest that he had forgotten to mention the notices in his testimony.

Then Mr. Hetfield questioned the witness very closely concerning his testimony.

The visit of Clark, Emil Dembrowski and Constable Bartell, to the Allen homestead, the day before the shooting, was taken up in detail, Mr. Hetfield trying to bring out that Mrs. Fingerhuth told Clark and his party that the Fingerhuths possessed letters and papers proving they had a right to live in the house. Clark denied it. Mr. Hetfield went over the direct examination very minutely, but failed to bring out anything important in that interview.

Mr. Hetfield next tried to bring out that the arrest of Fingerhuth on the charge of trespass, his appearance before Justice Mattison, the day of the shooting and the subsequent withdrawl of the complaint, was a scheme to get father and son away from the house in order to force an entrance during their absence. Objection was made to this line of questioning. The defence claimed that such action would have its effect on the state of mind of the accused at the time of the shooting. Prosecutor Dungan explained that there was no way in which Mrs. Fingerhuth could have learned of such a scheme even if it had existed as her husband or son did not see her after their appearance before Justice Mattison, until after the shooting had occurred, and therefore the fact could not have possibly been communicated to her. Justice Magié sustained the objection and Mr. Hetfield occupied the rest of the time asking about the shooting and trying to shake Clark's testimony in which he failed. A brief redirect examination followed.

At 3:20 o'clock, Edward O. Clark, the third witness for the prosecution, was called. He is a brother of Lawyer Clark, and had been employed as his assistant.

He told of his visit to the Allen place on the afternoon before the shooting and how Mrs. Fingerhuth had shown him and Thomas Quinn a revolver. She had declared that although her husband and son were absent, they had left her well protected. She said furthermore that the first to cross the threshold would be shot. She expressed a wish to see Mr. Roehricht if he was a man and not a coward. So she sent for him and Robert Clark.

The cross examination was conducted by Alvah Clark but he failed to bring out anything differing from the direct.

Thomas Quinn, a student in Robert M. Clark's law offices, was next called

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.]

STILL WITH THE PARKS.

WHIST TROPHY WON FOR THIRD STRAIGHT TIME BY LOCAL TEAM.

Elizabeth Chess and Whist Club Tried To Take it From the Champions Last Night, But Proved Unsuccessful.

The State challenge trophy of the New Jersey Whist Association still continues to find a resting place at the clubhouse of the Park Club. Last night the four of the Elizabeth Chess and Whist Club failed in an attempt to carry it away. This was the third consecutive victory for the Park Club.

The match was played at the Park Clubhouse last evening, the regular combination, Peter B. Matthews, A. A. Freeman, Albert Woltmann and Ralph Willis representing the home club. The Elizabeth team was composed of Messrs. Haarbleecher, Roberts, Edson and Martinson.

At first it looked like an easy thing for the home team, but then the visitors took a big brace and nearly overcame the lead of the Parks. In the last round the Park four defeated the challengers roundly and won the match rather easily by a score of 20 to 13. As the Elizabeth team has the reputation of being one of the most formidable in the league, the Parks are quite confident that they have a good showing to win the trophy.

The score by rounds was as follows:

	Park Club.	Elizabeth.
First round	9	2
Second round	0	6
Third round	11	5
	20	13

The next match will be played in this city December 27th, when the challengers will be the Forest Hill Club.

TRADE IS GOOD.

Local Tradesman Deny the Discouraging Report of Holiday Business Circulated by the News.

In view of the fact that it has been reported by The News that the merchants are complaining a great deal about trade this year, and say that it is worse than it has been for years, a representative of The Daily Press called on some of the merchants and inquired directly as to the report Ninety per cent. of those seen claim that their trade this year is better than last year and with prospects of being better. Only two people seen said that their trade is worse than a year ago, and this is accounted for by the very mild winter weather. Several merchants who were asked concerning trade said they had scruples about appending their name to a paper, as requested, but they unhesitatingly said their trade was better than last year and that they had no complaints to make, and were well satisfied with trade.

Among some of the leading merchants who gave permission to have their names used as testifying to the better condition of trade this year, are Woodhull & Martin, I. Lederer, Powlison & Jones, L W. Randolph, George F. Brown, John P. Powers, Doane & Edsall, M. Weinberger and H. M. Estil.

These persons did not hesitate to say that trade is far better than a year ago. A number of other merchants testified to the same thing, but as stated, they prefer not to have their names appear. The advertisement of these merchants appear in The Daily Press and a perusal through the columns of this paper will show how well prepared they are to receive their patrons.

To Continue Her Studies.

Miss Ella Conover, of Elmwood place, who was graduated a short time ago from the Mercer Hospital, Trenton, as a trained nurse, entered the Sloane Maternity Hospital yesterday, where she will pursue a course of three months. This is necessary for all trained nurses, and Miss Conover is fortunate in being able to continue her studies under such favorable circumstances, and without being obliged to wait very long for the opportunity.

Missing Woman Found.

Mrs. Angelo Pedretti, the Italian woman, who resides on Grove street, and who disappeared last week from home, has been found. She was discovered by the Elizabeth police in that city Saturday and returned to this city. She refuses to have anything to say as to where she has been or what she was doing. She does express a wish to return to Italy, and it is possible that her husband may send her there soon.

Must Leave Town at Once.

Edward Stephenson was arraigned before City Judge Runyon this morning on the charge of being drunk and disorderly. He was found guilty and sentenced to go to jail for thirty days. The sentence was suspended until Saturday on condition that the prisoner would leave town at once.

Walter Long, a reporter of the News, is confined to his home with the mumps.

THREE PLAINFIELD SHOP-LIFTERS CAUGHT.

Newark Detectives Arrest Three Well-Koown Women.

STOLEN GOODS RECOVERED.

SEVERAL SILK WAISTS AND MANY PAIRS OF KID GLOVES.

Much of the Stolen Property Found at The Home of Annie M. Bowers, on East Front Street—Mrs. William Carroll, and Jennie Ganson are Also Under Arrest for the Same Offense

The arrest yesterday in Newark, of Mrs. Annie M. Bowers, Mrs. Jennie Caroll and Jennie Ganson, of this city, charged with shoplifting, has brought to light a wholesale case of stealing that is astonishing.

For some weeks the large department stores at Newark have suffered from shop-lifters. Detectives have been at work endeavoring to locate the perpetrators. A few days ago suspicion was directed to the above women who had been frequently noticed in the stores of Hahne, the Beehive, Goerckes and others. A careful watch by both the store detectives and Detective-Sergeant Carroll and Pursell of the Newark police force resulted in confirming the officers suspicions.

Yesterday at Newark the women were found in one of the large stores and placed under arrest.

When taken to police headquarters and searched nearly $100 worth of goods was found secreted about them.

Among the articles stolen were eighteen ladies' silk waists, several pairs of kid gloves and numerous toilet articles.

Chief Grant, of this city, was notified and this morning the Newark detectives came to Plainfield to look for other goods.

Accompanied by Chief Grant and Roundsman Flynn, the Newark detectives visited the home of Mrs. Bowers, at 169 East Front street. Here the officers made the discovery that there was several hundred dollars' worth of valuable goods, all of which had apparently been stolen, some of the articles still containing the ticket donating the sale price. It is not known exactly how much has been stolen.

But when a Daily Press reporter visited the house the officers were busy packing a large trunk and two or three wooden cases with the stolen goods preparatory to shipping them back to Newark.

The Bowers woman has been living with a man by the name of Tanner, who is employed at Ponds Tool Works. She claims to have been divorced from her first husband.

The Carroll woman is the wife of Wm. Carroll, a motorman employed by the Plainfield Street Ryilway Company. The Carrolls occupied the upper part of the house at 169 East Front street.

The Ganson woman is a friend of the Bowers family. It is understood that the women have been making frequent trips to Newark for several weeks. It was not until last week, that they had been suspected of shoplifting.

DUMONT MAY PRESIDE.

He Would Like to be in the Chair in the City Legislature Caucus of New Council Tomorrow Night.

Tomorrow evening there will be a caucus of the Common Council for 1900, at which time the various committees will be selected and other preliminary work performed. The name of Frank Smith is mentioned for the presidency and he is considered a strong possibility, provided he secures the votes of the First and Fourth Ward members. On the other hand, Mr. Smith has a strong opponent in J. B. Dumont. It is understood that Mr. Dumont desires to occupy the chair next year, and his friends in the Council are also anxious that he should, for the reason that he has served so many years in the Council, and is so well versed as to the duties of the position.

As regards the remaining members in the present Council, there is little doubt but what they will continue to serve on the committees that they are on this year, and in apportioning the new men, no doubt the work will be done with satisfaction, as there are only Republicans to please. However, it will be a matter of considerable interest to know how the committees will stand, as this will, in a measure, give the people a fair idea as to what can be expected for next year.

—Special Christmas Eve services will be held at Holy Cross Episcopal church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

THEIR LAST RESPECTS.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE JOSIAH BROWNE HELD YESTERDAY.

Services in Charge of Rev. W. R. Richards, Whose Words Were Consoling to Mourners—Many Associates Were Present.

The home of the late Josiah Browne on Watchung avenue was filled yesterday afternoon with relatives, friends and business associates who gathered to pay their last respects to one who held a prominent place in their hearts, and who was greatly admired by all for his many excellent qualities.

The services were in charge of Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards, pastor of the Crescent Avenue church, where the departed was an attendant, and after reading several appropriate selections from the Scriptures, he made a few remarks in which he dwelt upon the uncertainity of life. He referred in a touching manner to the bereaved ones, the wife and children and those near and dear to the one who had departed this life so suddenly. His words were full of comfort and consolation to all present.

During the services Charles L. Lewis, of the Crescent Avenue church quartette, sang, two beautiful selections in an effective manner. They were "My Jesus as Thou Wilt," and "One Sweetly Solemn Thought." He was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Lewis.

The remains rested in a beautiful black cloth covered casket in the parlor, which was filled with the rarest flowers. The floral display comprised a number of large set pieces, which were sent from the American Tobacco Company, of which the deceased was an official. Notable was a large arch of roses, fully six feet high, and then there were several wreaths of galax leaves, and several other set pieces, including a large floral book made of lilies of the valley. There were also other pieces of small and greater size that combined to make a picture of rare beauty.

Following the service Dr. Richards pronounced the benediction, and then an opportunity was given to view the remains. Afterwards the interment took place at Hillside cemetery.

Among those who attended the services was a large delegation of officials and employes of the American Tobacco Company, with which the deceased had been associated as secretary. They included President J. B. Duke; first vice president J. B. Cobb; treasurer G. Arents; auditor W. M. Hicks; assistant auditor J. S. Fletcher; George Arents, Jr., Thomas F. Jefferies, H. D. Cook, Baron Von. Hempman, Carl Dietz, W. R. Irby, W. S. Mapes, E. Whitlock, J. E. Avery, G. B. Hutchins, E. T. Smith, N. DaCosta, Charles E Brown, A. T. Stewart, Lucien Oudin, Ralph Oakley, Josiah T. Wilcox, John O'Keefe, W. H. Schroeder, Mr. Marcley, A. D. Bendheim, J. Fletcher, Jr., J. Peterson, D. O. Wright, W. H. Cammeyer, A. Kline C. Dushkind, H. I. Stockwell, Mr. Johnson, Mr. Lynch, Mr. Belt, W. W. Fuller and Mr. Chapin.

Those who served as pall-bearers were J. B. Duke, J. B. Cobb, George Arents, W. W. Fuller, George A. Chapman and John T. Baker. Most of the business associates from the company accompanied the remains to the last resting place, after which they returned to New York by special car which brought them to this city.

COLORED CHURCH TO UNITE.

Ministers Arrange for a Union Meeting to be Held January 4th.

At a recent conference of colored pastors of this city it was decided to celebrate the emancipation proclamation, and a resolution offered by Rev. E. E. Jackson, was to the effect that each church and pastor unite with the Mt. Olive Baptist church, Thursday, January 4th, in celebrating this event, and a union offering will be taken for the benefit of the hospital. Those present at the conference include Revs. E. E. Jackson, Scott Wallace, J. W. Cooper, J. W. Mitchell, of this city, and S. S. Ross, of Westfield. At the time mentioned music will be furnished by the Independent Singing Club, under the direction of Prof. Richard Randolph.

Christmas Dinner to be Abandoned.

The Salvation Army has cancelled the free dinner which they expected to have Christmas Day for the poor, on account of the illness of Mrs. Ensign Martin. It it impossible for the Ensign to give his time to it.

Able to be Out Now

Mrs. Robert Clark, Jr., of Jackson avenue, who sprained her ankle a few weeks ago, is much improved and hopes to be able to get out again shortly. It was first feared that she would be laid up all winter.

Mrs. Robert Dryden, of New York, is visiting Plainfield relatives for a time.

AGAINST CURRENCY BILL

"FARMER ORATOR" MARTINE DECLARES IT A BAD POLICY.

Replying to Congressman Daly's Interview, He Can See No Good Reason for Democrats to Drop Money Question.

The interview of Congressman Daly, of Hudson county, to the effect that the currency question would be allowed to remain in the background by the Democrats in the presidential campaign next year, attracted considerable attention by reason Daly's prominence as a devoted follower of Col. Bryan. The Daly interview was called to the attention of James E. Martine, the "Farmer Orator," yesterday, and the latter asked what he thought of the statement made by his friend Daly.

"Well," said Mr. Martine, "that is but a personal opinion of Mr. Daly's. For myself I can see no good reason for dropping the money fight. To my mind there is as much reason for bimetalism as ever. The gold standard does not seem to bring all its advocates claimed for it, either here or in England. We read in dispatches from the other side that England is squeezed for gold, that the rate of discount in the Bank of England has been most unprecedentedly raised, and that gold may go to a premium, which would mean a general depression in prices.

"All this possible with that staple metal gold? How wrong that the whole commercial world should be at the mercy of the gold output of a little patch of territory, the Transvaal; and the United States in such throes that Secretary Gage must come to the rescue to prevent a crisis and buy bonds that are not yet due—bankers and money lenders profits increasing, while the masses fight to keep from bankruptcy. All this has come under gold monometalism."

"Then you do not believe that the pending Currency bill will relieve the people?"

"No, it will enrich bond holders and give increased opportunity to banks to make money. In the interests of the people the bill should be defeated."

DUPEE ILL AT YALE.

Plainfield Young Man is Seriously Ill as a Result of Too Much Athletic Work.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 19—Charles Dupee, 1901, of Plainfield, N. J., the substitute full back of the Yale 'varsity football team, is seriously ill at the Yale Infirmary, with typhoid fever. Dupee was taken to the infirmary yesterday. He has worked very hard for the last year, and some of his friends believe he has done too much athletic work. He was a member of the Yale track team that went to England last July. As soon as he returned to college in the fall he began to play football.

Dupee worked very hard all season, and was trained down very fine when the season ended. He is one of the most popular men in his class. He was in the midst of his examination when he was taken ill.

Prompt Payment.

Francis E. Conshee, who lived on Watchung avenue, North Plainfield, applied for a policy in the Colonial Life Insurance Company, through its local office in the Babcock Building. Mr. Conshee died of hasty consumption Dec. 16, and, although he had been insured but a little over six months, at a weekly premium of 25 cents, the Company at once forwarded a check for $225, the full amount of policy. Had the deceased been insured in any other company, the amount would have been but one-half the sum paid, or $112 50. Manager Bodine is justly proud of the Company he represents, and its method of doing business is largely responsible for the wonderful success the Plainfield office has met under his management.

A Picture of Mr. Brown.

In the December issue of "Association Men," a monthly publication devoted to Christian manhood and the interests of the Y. M. C. A., there appears an excellent picture of Charles B. Brown, secretary of the Jersey City Y. M. C. A., conducting a popular noonday meeting for the benefit of the employes of one of the large shops in that city. The picture includes a large assemblage of workmen who are listening to Mr. Brown.

Should be Looked After.

A great many persons have expressed the opinion that if Messrs, Woodhull & Martin had the enterprise to erect a trolley waiting station at the Dunellen terminal of the line, that the Plainfield Street Railway Company should certainly manifest enough enough enterprise to look after it and place a light in the place at night. It is certainly a bad place for women to stop at night unattended.

PRESENT COUNCIL COMING TO ITS END.

One More Meeting Before Its Adjourn Sine Die.

NO CHEAP GAS ACTION YET.

PEOPLE'S COMPANY WANTS ANOTHER CONFERENCE BEFORE REPORT.

The Bill of Assessor Charles H. Hand for $75 Extra Services Received an Adverse Report—Street Railway Company Files $20,000 Bond in Connection With The Arlington Avenue Franchise.

Messrs. Buckle and Hetfield were the only two members of the Common Council that did not attend the adjourned meeting last evening, but a quorum being present, the business of the evening, which was limited, was transacted in short order, as none of the members had any desire to tarry along. In the absence of City Clerk MacMurray, who is detained at home by illness, George B. Wean filled his place.

The Plainfield Water Supply Company notified the Council that the six new hydrants recently ordered, were located and in operation, and the Plainfield Street Railway Company filed a $20,000 bond in connection with securing the franchise to operate a street railway on Arlington avenue. It had been approved by the corporation counsel and on motion of Mr. VanHerwerden it was received and properly recorded.

The Council received official notification of the fact that the work of macadamizing West Third and Fourth streets is completed and a bond has been filed to keep the same in repair for a certain length of time. Mr. VanHerwerden offered a resolution giving the directors of the Public Library $400, which amount is the difference between what they wanted and what the Council could give them, and which is the balance of their appropriation. The directors agreed to accept this amount.

On Mr. Tolles' motion an electric light was ordered to be placed on New street, between Fourth and Fifth streets. Mr. Tolles also reported that he intended to make a report for the committee regarding the application of the People's Gas Company for a franchise, but at the request of the company the report was held as they desired another conference with the committee from the Council.

Mr. Mellick reported on the petition of Chas. H. Hand for $75 for extra services as an assessor, and the committee on collection and assessment of taxes reported adversely in the matter.

Mr. VanHerwerden offered a resolution which provided for advertising for bids for the $12,000 street improvement bonds. Only $8,000 of this amount is to be used for the street work that has been done on East Sixth street, Franklin place, East Ninth street, West Third and Fourth street. In connection with the above, Mr. VanHerwerden offered another resolution providing for the appointment of commissioners by the court to confer benefits for assessments to provide for the payment of the work of macadamizing the above named streets. December 30th is the time set in the resolution when such appointment is to be made.

Mr. Barrows offered a resolution, which provided for the transferring of $119 07 from the street fund to the general fund, so that the accounts can be adjusted for the year. Mr. Barrows offered a resolution to the effect that when the Council adjourn it be to meet on Thursday evening, December 28, at 8 o'clock. Council then adjourned.

Burnt Offerings of Bonds.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, December 19.—The members of the Congregation Church of Christ, of this place, will meet in the church parlors tomorrow evening, at which time a praise service will be held and $2,000 worth of bonds will be burned. The church has prospered wonderfully during the past year and all indebtedness has been paid off.

Frank Bergen Buys a Farm.

"Gov. Voorhees and Frank Bergen, of Elizabeth," says the Bound Brook Chronicle, "came here a few days ago and had David Taylor convey them to Bernardsville and Peapack to look at some farms." Mr. Bergen found a farm to his liking and bought it. The farm consists of about 140 acres, is on high, rolling ground, and only a little distance from Bernardsville.

Coming Out of Miss Phillips.

Invitations have been sent out by Mrs. Henry Russell Phillips and Miss Phillips, of 11 Rockview terrace, for a reception to be given Tuesday, December 26th, from 4 until 6 o'clock.

CURRENCY BILL PASSED

It Goes Through the House by a Vote of 190 to 150.

NO SUBSTITUTE OFFERED

Several Democrats Vote With the Republicans For the Passage of the Measure—Nearly Every Seat in the Hall Occupied When the House Convened.

Washington, Dec. 19.—The Currency bill has passed the house by a vote of 190 to 150. The following Democrats voted for the measure.

Clayton (New York), Denny (Maryland), Driggs, Fitzgerald (New York), Ruppert (New York), Scudder (New York), Thayer (Massachusetts), Wilson (New York).

Almost every seat in the hall was occupied when the house convened in anticipation of the vote upon the Currency bill.

Mr. McRae (Ark.) came over from Atlantic City to vote, and Mr. Chickering (N. Y.) was present on crutches. Mr. Bartlett (Ga.), who sustained a severe accident some time ago, was also present on crutches.

Neither a motion to recommit nor an offer of a substitute was in order by the terms of the special rule under which the house was operating.

Mr. Gaines (Tenn.) asked if it was in order to recommit with instructions to report back a free coinage bill.

"It is not," replied the speaker. The bill was then read for a third time and placed upon its final passage.

"I demand the yeas and nays," said Mr. Overstreet (Ind.), in charge of the bill. Members rose on both sides en masse to second the demand.

"Evidently a sufficient number," said the speaker. "The clerk will call the roll."

There were no demonstrations when the Democrats who broke away from the majority of their party voted in the affirmative.

The clerk called the names of the Democrats, who declined to respond twice on each roll-call.

Every Republican voted for the bill.

When the speaker announced the passage of the bill by a vote of 190 to 150 the Republicans broke into cheers.

The speaker then sprang a big surprise on the house by announcing the committee. Mr. Payne, of New York, is chairman of ways and means; Mr. Brosius, of Pennsylvania, of banking and currency; and Mr. Hitt, of Illinois, of foreign affairs.

Proceedings in the Senate.

Washington, Dec. 19.—The presiding officer of the senate has laid before that body proceedings of a public meeting at Honolulu praying for such action by congress and the president as shall cause the speedy extension of American territorial laws to Hawaii. Referred to the committee on Pacific islands and Porto Rico.

Several petitions expressing sympathy with the South African Republic in its war with England were presented by Mr. Mason (Rep., Ill.) and were referred to the committee on foreign relations.

Mr. Platt (Rep., Conn.) introduced by request, and without committing himself to its provisions, a bill to establish a division in the treasury department for the regulation of insurance in the several states. Referred to the committee on inter-state commerce.

In conection with a pension bill Mr. Cullom (Rep., Ill.) explained how he came to introduce in this sesison, a bill to relieve all persons charged with desertion from their present ineligibilities. He said that the bill had been handed to him as he entered the Capitol and that he had merely glanced at it and supposed it was all right. Having had his attention called to it since then, he disapproved of the bill and hoped that the committee on military affairs would report it back adversely, as he was assured it would.

House bill extending from twenty days to sixty days the time for examination of monthly accounts by the bureaus and offices of the war department was reported and passed.

Mr. Pettigrew (Sil. Rep., S. D.) introduced a joint resolution giving the thanks of congress and of the American people to Commodore Schley and the officers and men under his command for their action in destroying the Spanish fleet at Santiago. Referred to the committee on naval affairs.

The joint resolution introducted by Mr. Morgan (Dem., Ala), to prohibit combinations between corporations to control inter-state commerce and transportation, was taken up and Mr. Morgan made a legal argument in support of it.

Tillman and the Philippines.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Mr. Tillman has offered a resolution in the senate reciting some of the phrases of the Declaration of Independence, and declaring that the federal government had no power to rule our colonial dependencies, that the extension of the American commerce is not dependent upon the adoption of a policy of imperialism, and that the senate is opposed to the retention of the Philippine Islands and will consent to their independence as soon as stable government shall be established by them, and will give friendly assistance to such establishment. The resolution was laid on the table, temporarily, Mr. Tillman saying that he would speak on it hereafter.

Blank in Ways and Means Committee.

Washington, Dec. 19.—The ways and means committee as announced includes a blank, which is left for the name of Gen Wheeler of Alabama. As he has not been sworn in as a member of the house his name could not be inserted. Mr. Bailey of Texas had informed the speaker that objection would be raised if the name was included. Mr. Bailey retires from the committee at his own request, to give place to his Texas colleague, Mr. S. Cooper.

The Dixie Passes in at the Capes

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 19.—The auxiliary cruiser Dixie has passed Cape Henry bound for the Norfolk navy yard.

THE PLYMOUTH GOES ASHORE.

Big Fall River Liner Strikes a Reef in Long Island Sound.

New York, Dec. 19.—The big side-wheel steamer Plymouth of the Fall River line, one of the largest vessels of her type in the world, went ashore on a reef on the north side of Riker's Island late Monday night. She had about 600 passengers aboard at the time. A hole about five feet in diameter was stove in the boat well forward and she made water rapidly.

The captain appeared to have lost his bearings on account of the fog, which was almost impenetrable at the time of the accident. To make his task of piloting his boat all the more precarious the tide was low. There was considerable excitement among the passengers, but Captain Simmons and his crew assured them that there was no danger.

A boat was lowered, and several of the crew, under the first mate, put off to Port Morris, whence the report of the accident was sent by telephone to the company's offices, at Pier 19, North river, foot of Murray street.

The steamers Maine, City of Worcester, and several freighters owned by the New York and New Haven Railroad were chartered by the Fall River Line officials and dispatched with several tugs to the disabled steamer.

Such of the passengers as desired were taken off, but the majority decided to remain on the Plymouth and be towed back with her to her pier. This, it was said, was entirely feasible. The Plymouth is lying on her keel, listing slightly to port.

An official of the line said that the Plymouth was valued at $1,000,000. Since her companion steamer, the Priscilla, was laid up for the winter, the Plymouth has been handling the traffic between this city and Fall river alone.

The damage to the steamer could not be estimated, but it will be considerable.

IN A PITIABLE CONDITION.

Nyack Family Destitute and Father Walking to Kansas.

Nyack, N. Y., Dec. 19.—A strange case of destitution, as the result of religious fanaticism, has been brought to light here by the death of the infant child of Arthur Jordan. Jordan is walking to Topeka, Kan., accompanied by his child, 5 years old. He left his wife and four children here in destitute circumstances. The Jordans are believers in "Divine healing." Supposedly under this treatment one of the children, Patience, three months old, died last week. The three remaining children are ill, but are recovering. A local charitable organization buried the dead child and is supplying the family with food.

Arthur Jordan believes in "Divine healing." He came here when the Christian Alliance was building their college on the mountain side, in South Nyack. He worked on the buildings, but of late he has been doing evangelistic work.

The Jordans became in dire straits financially, and Jordan could not get employment. He has relatives in Topeka, Kan., and he resolved to go there, get employment, and send for his wife and children. As he had no money he resolved to walk and preach the Gospel on the way. He left Nyack on Nov. 28, taking with him his son, Taylor. He had a baby carriage to trundle the boy and to carry a hammock, blankets, cooking utensils and a stock of religious books to sell and tracts to distribute. Jordan has advised his wife of his movements since he left Nyack. The last his wife heard from him he was in Colora, Md.

Soon after he left his four children were taken ill with pneumonia. It is alleged that Mrs. Jordan had faith that they would get well, and they were given little medical attendance.

Woman Starves to Death.

Hackensack, N. J., Dec. 19.—Death may have been welcome, but it must have been nevertheless terrible to Mrs. Mary Peters of Hackensack. She died all alone. It is presumed that she starved to death, for those who knew her say she was too proud to beg or accept charity, and these same folk say she did not have the wherewithal on which to live. Her dead body has been discovered in a shanty near the Hackensack river. She died without medical attendance. Her husband died about two years ago and her son was killed in the Erie Railroad yards.

He Imprisoned the Sheriff.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 19.—John D. Butts, sheriff of Grant county, Oklahoma, and a deputy were taken prisoners by the man they intended to capture. They went to arrest Sol Temple, accused of cattle stealing, and just as they arrived at Temple's home he stepped out, and presenting a gun ordered the sheriff and his deputy to throw up their hands. They did so. He disarmed them, locked them up in a dugout, took their team and drove to Harper, Kan., where he took another team and left the country. The sheriff was imprisoned four hours, and is now chasing Temple again.

Will Move to Jersey City.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 19.—The Snead & Co. Iron Works, which has done business in Louisville for half a century, will be removed to Jersey City, where a site already has been selected. The object of the removal is to be brought nearer to the principal market of the company. It has done a great deal of work for the government, and for many of the skyscrapers in New York, Chicago and Philadelphia. One of its greatest undertakings was the great Auditorium building in Chicago.

Cleveland Has Rheumatism.

Philadelphia, Dec. 19.—Mrs. Grover Cleveland abruptly terminated her visit to friends in this city and returned to Princeton because of the illness of her husband. The ex-President has been suffering from severe attacks of rheumatism. Mrs. Cleveland had intended stopping with Mrs. John Potter Wilson for several days, but news from Princeton caused her to change her plans.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Cloudy Tuesday, with showers at night. Wednesday, colder and generally fair; fresh southerly, shifting to westerly winds.

Wanamaker's

NEW YORK, Dec. 4th, 1899.

You know we bought the wonderful old A. T. Stewart store three years ago. New Yorkers welcomed the change—and us—and in this short time it has come to be the busiest store in New York as well as the most beautiful.

We find that it is the handiest big store in the city for out-of-town people to get to—

The Fourth Avenue electric cars run past it—one fare from 23rd street ferry and direct from Grand Central depot—10 minutes ride.

Broadway cars stop at the main entrance—one fare from Cortlandt and Desbrosses ferries.

The 8th street cars bring you from the Christopher street ferry.

Third Avenue Elevated Railroad station is a square from the store.

But do you know the store—and the Wanamaker system? Let us box the business compass—

North—No goods for sale unless reliable.

South—No price but the one price to all alike.

East—No article considered sold until the purchaser chooses to have it so.

West—Quick and cheerful cash return when asked for, if goods are uninjured.

Very great assortments are the rule here—many New York merchants say we carry too many goods. But think of the pleasure of choosing from the biggest variety the world offers. Our own travelers—experts in their several lines—visited twenty foreign countries in their search for newness, beauty, oddity and usefulness. And yet, we buy everything possible in America.

The store is exceedingly beautiful in its Christmas dress—the decorations please both grown folks and children, while the half-acre toy store is a children's fairy land.

A gallery of meritorious modern paintings is here for your enjoyment.

During the next two weeks daily exhibitions of very famous reproductions of the paintings in the National Gallery of London—shown by a new and wonderful projector.

There is music and life and beauty everywhere.

The restaurant, fifth floor, equals in service the best you can find. Prices are moderate—a women shoppers' luncheon at 35c in the middle of the day.

There are rest rooms, a place to check parcels and wraps (no charge) and the conveniences of post office, telegraph, cable and telephone stations.

Fair prices are assured under the system of the house—for if you become dissatisfied about a purchase we refund every penny you've paid. If we sold wrong goods or at wrong prices, we'd simply get the things back—so, common sense dictates great care in serving you.

Come as often as you can. You can roam about the store all day and nobody will ask you to buy anything—freedom without offishness, for we have several thousand efficient helpers to wait upon you and to answer every business query pleasantly and quickly.

John Wanamaker

Formerly A. T. Stewart & Co., Broadway, 9th and 10th and Fourth Avenue.

We are NOW receiving orders for

HUYLER'S

XMAS CANDY,

—to be delivered at—

CHRISTMAS TIME.

Remember the

Only Agency

—IS—

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

Tel. 705.

Flynn Bros.,

SHOE DEALERS,

222 WEST FRONT STREET,

Near Music Hall,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

November:

The mellow year is hasting to its close.
The merry birds have almost sung their last.
Their faint notes twitter in the dreary blast—
That shrill-piped harbinger of early snows.
And hint to you in good coal to invest
At seven forty-seven Front Street, west.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.

We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1 25.
LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.
Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.

—CHRISTMAS GOODS—

A Big Assortment.

ALEX. LUSARDI.

211 West Front Street,

Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery. Nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores

Toys, Toys, Toys

for the

HOLIDAYS

—AT—

HARPER'S,

411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .

in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated

DOMESTIC FINISH.

Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.

Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.

Trading Stamps given.

The City Steam & Hand Laundry

MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B

19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

SELLING OUT

Below Cost

TO CLOSE BUSINESS

Star Crockery Store,

23 Somerset St., near Front.

3 and 9 cent Articles.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!

Solomon & Evans,

Proprietors.

LAIRE'S . .

HOLIDAY SPECIALS.

Carving knives.
U. S. club skates.
Roger's plated ware.
Fine pocket cutlery.
Silver finish coffee and tea pots.
Nickel on copper tea kettles.
Boys' sleighs.
Fine razors and hones.
Grand Rapid sweepers.
Baby Rapid sweepers.
Shinny sticks.
Christmas tree holders.
Coin silver ware, cheap.
Fine table cutlery.
Fine scissors and shears.
Corn poppers.

The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,

Tel. Call 682.

TRY THE

QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,

No. 337 Park Avenue.

(Miller Building.)

Goods called for and delivered free of charge.

Domestic or gloss finish.

DOBBINS. CIGARS.

108 NORTH AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN,

ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.

317 West Front street.

J. W. VAN SICKLE.

122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.

FRESH & SALTED MEATS,

GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.

Orders called for and delivered promptly

TELEPHONE 149 b.

Your Valuables,

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

GAS

For the Fire-place.
Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates.
Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.

CURTIS M. THORPE,

310-312 PARK AVENUE.

"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIREPLACE."

F. A. DUNHAM,

—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—

109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.

I. O. H.

Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 109 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711

ROYAL ARCANUM.

The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.

A. I. LITTELL, Regent.

Fred'k J Pove, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,

Watchmakers and Jewelers.

219 Park Avenue.

A. KANE,

Dealer in

BLUE STONE FLAGGING and CURBING.

Also Dealer in

Flour, Feed and Grain, Coal and Wood.

Store and Office

409 East Third St.,

Next to

THIRD STREET MISSION.

Open Evenings Until 8 o'Clock.

WATCH YOUR KIDNEYS

THEY ARE FILTERS FOR THE BLOOD.

IMPURE BLOOD CAUSES DISEASE.

Few people understand the important part performed by the kidneys in filtering the blood. As the blood in its circulation through the body passes through the kidneys, its impurity is left in the kidneys, which in turn empties the secretions into the bladder in the form of urine.

If the kidneys are blocked and filtration of the blood from poisonous or diseased germs prevented thereby, the result is one or all of the following: Sleeplessness, Nervous Prostration, Weak Back, Pains in the Back and Loins; Scalding, Dark and Cloudy Urine; Dizziness, Rheumatism, Diabetes, Congestion of the Kidneys, Bright's Disease and Inflammation of the Bladder.

Unhealthy Kidneys Must be Treated.

A medicine is needed that will properly promote the filtration of the blood and check the over-secretion of urine.

DR. HOLTIN'S KIDNEY TABLETS

is the only remedy absolutely and unconditionally guaranteed to cure every form of Kidney or Bladder Complaints. Price, 25 and 50 Cents.

FOR SALE BY

JOHN P. POWERS,

Druggist,

tu th 45 Somerset St

Chas. L. Stanley,

. . FLORIST . .

No. 142 North Ave

HEADQUARTERS for choice Cut Flowers, Ferns, Palms, a large assortment of other plants.

Floral design work and decorating for all occasions Satisfaction guaranteed; an immense stock of Holly, Wreaths, Roping, etc.

Annex stores for the Holidays,

134 North Ave,
South Ave, Netherwood,
and Central Ave., Westfield

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$5
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. C. W. LEONARD,

FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.

Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J

Office Hours, 8 to 6.

BAD BREATH

"I have been using CASCARETS and as a mild and effective laxative they are simply wonderful. My daughter and I were bothered with sick stomach and our breath was very bad. After taking a few doses of Cascarets we have improved wonderfully. They are a great help in the family."

WILHELMINA NAGEL,
1137 Rittenhouse St., Cincinnati, Ohio.

CANDY CATHARTIC

Cascarets

TRADE MARK REGISTERED

REGULATE THE LIVER

Pleasant. Palatable. Potent. Taste Good. Do Good, Never Sicken, Weaken, or Gripe. 10c. 25c. 50c.

... CURE CONSTIPATION. ...

Sterling Remedy Company, Chicago, Montreal, New York. 315

NO-TO-BAC Sold and guaranteed by all druggists to CURE Tobacco Habit.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills

—25c.—

A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.

MALLINSON'S

North and Watchung avenues.

WALL STREET WAS EXCITED

Two Failures Nearly Cause a Serious Panic.

DEMORALIZATION REIGNS

One Hundred and Twenty-Five Per Cent. Demanded on Call Loans—The Produce Exchange Trust Company and Henry Allen & Co., Go to the Wall for Large Sums.

New York, Dec. 19.—This has been another panicky day in the Wall street district. Shortly after the beginning of business two failures occurred, and during the session of the Stock Exchange securities of all grades were thrown overboard in a manner that sent prices down with a rush.

To add to the confusion and hardships the price for call money went kiting, until late in the afternoon 125 per cent. was bid, sometimes without avail.

The suspension of the Produce Exchange Trust Company—with liabilities of $11,650,000—was first announced. While still speculating on the effect of this suspension, the failure of Henry Allen & Co., members of the Stock Exchange, became known.

For an hour following the giving out of the news about the Trust Company and Allen & Co., there was demoralization. A slight reaction set in a few hours later, when it became manifest that the market was receiving substantial support. Later, however, when money was called for, and the price mounted to ruinous rates, there was another general collapse.

Bears were in almost absolute control of the market and every stock in the industrial list and most of the railroads received a hammering which sent prices below the low point of last week.

Under the Stock Exchange rule which provides that outstanding contracts of a suspended member be liquidated without delay a number of lots of stock were sold for account of Allen & Co at once. These included Atchison preferred, American Tobacco, Continental Tobacco, Brooklyn Rapid Transit, Sugar, Quincy, Leather, Rock Island, New York Central, Missouri Pacific, Manhattan and Ontario and Western.

The first public acknowledgement that the Produce Exchange Trust Company, whose offices are in the Standard Oil Building, at No. 29 Broadway, was in difficulty was the posting of a notice to that effect on the outer door of the offices.

The company was organized a few years ago, with a capital of $2,500,000, and, according to current report, had a surplus and undivided profits of $2,664,146.93. Its business was chiefly with merchants, tradesmen and corporations in the immediate vicinity of its offices, and it is also supposed to have done some of the banking busines of the Standard Oil Company. It had been designated by the Banking Department of the State as a legal depository for State and municipal moneys as well as for the funds of savings banks and State banks.

J. Pierpont Morgan & Co. loaned $1,000,000 at 6 per cent. ten minutes before the closing when the clamoring brokers were begging for loans at almost any rate—100, and even 120 per cent. being bid. The lowest point was reached when the brokers were scrambling for money with practically none offered.

The Central Trust Company and other financial houses followed the Morgan lead and the day was saved, the rate on call money at the closing being forced back to 30 and 40 per cent. Late in the afternoon trading transactions ran up above the million mark, and the telegraph ticker was unable to print all the sales. Rumors were rife of impending failures of stock exchange houses and this made the banks careful of their resources, not knowing when some good customer might call for assistance.

On the break in interest charges there was a very pronounced rally in the market. The shorts began to cover and some fairly good buying appeared of the better class of securities. At the same time, however, it was apparent that there was more liquidation in sight by strong interests that had been crippled in the slump.

Ships Wrecked by Tornado.

London, Dec. 19.—The East Coast cable is interrupted between Lorenzo Marquez and Mozambique in consequence of a tornado at the latter place, where houses were blown down and ships wrecked in the harbor. During the prevalence of the tornado, a huge wave took up a steamship and dashed it on the beach, seriously cutting the Eastern Telegraph Company's cable. The cable station was unroofed, but the instruments were saved.

Prophet Lewis is Dead.

Knoxville, Tenn., Dec. 19.—Stephen I. Lewis, aged 100 years, died Monday near Elizabethton. On October 24 he celebrated his centenary birthday in the Baptist church he built eighty years ago. In 1849 Lewis predicted the civil war and the death by murder of whoever would be president then.

Shot Down by a Burglar.

Orange, N. J., Dec. 19.—Edgar Bailey, of No. 11 Watson avenue, East Orange, was shot in the leg by a burglar whom he interrupted in the act of robbing his house. Bailey had endeavored to shoot the burglar, but his aim was poor. The burglar, however, returned the fire with effect.

New York Money Market.

Washington, Dec. 19.—It is said at the Treasury Department that the financial situation in New York is being investigated, but that it has not been determined whether or not the government would endeavor to relieve the market, or, if so, what the nature of the relief will be.

Myrtle Peek is Dead.

Boston, Dec. 19.—Myrtle Peek, the well-known horsewoman, died at Silver Lake, Kingston, Monday afternoon. In private life she was Mrs. F. B. Hoffman. She owned the Peek running combination. Her remains will be taken to Mendon, Mich., for burial.

THEY WALKED TO MANILA.

Two of Gilmore's Party Say Eleven Are Still Living.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Encouraging news has reached the navy department from Admiral Watson, at Manila, respecting the members of the crew of the Yorktown's boat party which was landed at Baler last spring. The report gives the story of a sailor of the party, who has made him way to Manila, and it shows that eleven of the original party of fifteen are still alive.

Rynders, the sailor who brings the news, was coxswain of the Yorktown, a native of Amsterdam, but a resident of San Francisco, where he shipped.

The four dead men mentioned enlisted at the following points: Nygard, a Russian, at Brooklyn; McDonald, of Carmel Valley, Cal., at Mare Island; Dillion, of Peru, Ind., at Mare Island; and Morrisey of Columbus, Neb., at Mare Island.

Admiral Watson reports that both Rynders and Woodbury were recaptured by the cavalry at Bayomburg. Both were wounded and left behind when Gillmore was taken. Their wounds were uncared for, and both walked nearly all the way to Manila.

Transport Deserted Him.

Boston, Dec. 19.—A letter received here from a naval officer stationed at Cavite, Philippine Islands, gives the story of the wreck of the U. S. S. Charleston on the sunken reef north of Luzon November 2 and tells of an experience the lieutenant had after he left Camiguin Island, to go to Manila to report the accident. The letter says:

"Lieutenant McDonald left in a sailing launch for Lynguyan, where it was known our ships are cruising Lieutenant McDonald said that a short distance out of Linguyan the launch met the army transport Aztec. Lieutenant McDonald hoisted a distress signal and placed his boat in the way of the big vessel. He hailed the transport, and the captain told him to tack ship and come alongside. Lieutenant McDonald said that while he was trying to come into the wind the Aztec started to run away, and it was only when he saw the launch chasing him that the captain finally stopped after having gone three miles. Lieutenant McDonald was very angry and demanded an explanation. He said the captain made a lame excuse and agreed to tow the launch to Linguyan, where the Oregon was found.

Cloth Weavers Want More Pay.

Philadelphia, Dec. 19.— An amended scale of wages has been decided on by the cloth weavers of this city and will be presented to the manufacturers during the current week. The scale makes a general increase of 15 per cent. in wages. The weavers announce that if their demands are not complied with before Jan. 1 a strike will be ordered. About 3,000 weavers and 7,000 mill hands will be affected if that action is taken. The upholstery weavers, who about two weeks ago struck for higher wages, are anticipating an early and satisfactory settlement of their difficulties.

Benham's Last Effort for Life.

Batavia, N. Y., Dec. 19.—District Attorney Randall has been served with affidavits on which a motion is based for a new trial for Howard C. Benham. Benham is under sentence of death, the week of Jan. 2, for the murder of his wife. It was denied at the trial that prussic acid killed her. Now Benham admits it was that and says he can bring a Pennsylvania doctor who prescribed it for his wife.

Three Generations Tried.

Scranton, Pa., Dec. 19.—Three generations of the Gallagher family were defendants in the trial which ended in a verdict for manslaughter against twenty-one-year-old Thomas E. Gallagher. His brother Joseph, his mother and his grandmother were acquitted. They were charged with killing James W. Quinn, in Carbandale township on August 13, in a quarrel between the Quinns and Gallaghers.

Death of Yale Student.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 19.—Henry Courtlandt Gause, Yale, '99, a student in the Yale graduate school has died suddenly here after a week's illness from appendicitis. Gause was twenty-two years old and was the son of H. Taylor Gause, president of the Harlan & Hollingsworth Company, the shipbuilders of Wilmington, Del. He was a grandson of ex-Governor Ingersoll of this city.

Harper Races for Million Dollars.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—President Harper, of Chicago University, is engaged in a race against time for a million dollars. He has until Jan. 1 to raise this amount, and if he succeeds John D. Rockefeller will double it. President Harper has so overworked in his quest that he was unable to deliver the fall baccalaureate address, announcing that he was too tired in body and mind to prepare one.

No Water To Run Railroads.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 19.—Owing to the drought in the state the Consolidated Railroad is having a great deal of trouble getting water for its engines. At Berlin, where the main power plant of the road for the electric third rail service is located, the water supply has given out and locomotives have been substituted to haul trains on their lines.

Largest Cargo Yet Shipped.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 19.—The British steamship Ping Suey has arrived here from New York, to carry to Rotterdam the largest general cargo ever shipped in a single vessel. She will carry 9,000 tons dead weight, and the cargo will largely consist of grain.

Three Boys Drowned while Skating.

Saratoga, N. Y., Dec. 19.—The first northern New York skating fatality of the season occurred in Mechanicsville, when three boys broke through the thin ice in the Rogers pond. Joe Bovar, aged ten, Stephen Zobie, aged sixteen and Frank Bovar, aged fourteen were drowned.

Passenger Steamer Burned.

New Madrid, Mo., Dec. 19.—The large passenger steamer State of Kansas was burned here Monday. The loss is over $500,000.

REGISTERED BRANDS OF THE
"P. & P." Kid Gloves

MANUFACTURED BY Chaumont PINGS & PINNER CO.
PERFECT FITTING — LATEST STYLES

MANUFACTURED BY Berthold PINGS & PINNER CO.
BEST VALUE — NEWEST SHADES

MANUFACTURED BY Fontaine PINGS & PINNER CO.

Don't take substitutes—There's none so good.
FOR SALE BY
Crosby & Hill,
95 tu f Plainfield, N. J.

EDUCATIONAL

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.
(City Bank Building.)
Adella C. Phelps will resume work Sept. 26th.
Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

PRIVATE INSTRUCTION
given in
German and Elementary French.
Address for terms,
MISS ALICE GILBERT,
11 8 1mo 811 West Fifth Street

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
: : : PIANO AND THEORY : : :
Home Studio,
132 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN.
Address—60 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

.....Piano Instruction.....
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and
MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes
Elementary Classes.
Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Dufft.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

M. POWERS,
DEALER IN
LEHIGH COAL.
FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A
Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

Don't miss the Special Sale for the holidays of FRAMES,
EASELS,
and PICTURES
AT REDUCED PRICES,
given by the
Guarantee Portrait Studio,
142 East Front Street.
Fine drawings in Crayons and Pastels from all kinds of photographs. All kinds of frames from the latest styles of mouldings made to order at the lowest prices.

THAT'S THE IDEA!
You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

-:- WINDOW SHADES -:-
Estimates cheerfully given.
Mail orders will receive prompt attention.
J. A. GREENE,
112 Madison Ave. Plainfield, N. J.
11 15 1mo

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107, 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

Park Avenue Hotel,
Park Avenue and Eighth Street,
Plainfield.
Refurnished and Renovated.
Steam Heat in Every Room.
. . . Elevator . . .
First-Class in every respect.
Terms Moderate.
F. W. COLEMAN,
11 3 1mo Proprietor.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL.
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPIEGEL, Proprietor

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.
PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.
NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.
SOMERVILLE AND EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m.; 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.
PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a.m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p.m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.
SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
E. H. BIRD, P. M.

EXTRA RICH MILK.
We are now ready to supply families who want the richest milk obtainable with milk which we guarantee to be from
JERSEY and GUERNSEY COWS.
Unexcelled in flavor and keeping qualities.
8c. per Quart Bottle.
SAMPLE FREE.
PLAINFIELD MILK AND CREAM CO.,
MARCHANT BROS., 327 WATCHUNG AVE.

CHAS. L. FOROE,
Architect and Superintendent.
208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 31 tf

H. E. Gayle. 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS,
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to hire for picnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing,
Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections.
210 PARK AVE.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.
Paris for 1900.
Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.
Circulars at
181 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

THE
First National Bank,
of Plainfield, N. J.
Capital .....$200,000.
Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000.
J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.
DIRECTORS.
Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Corlell.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.
VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

WANTED
25 Mechanics
and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.
Agent on the Grounds
SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.
Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.
. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

Holiday Goods.
Why you should see our assortment; a walk through our store will be the easiest way to solve the problem of what to get for presents for young and old.
Our line of fancy articles consists of everything imaginable in Celluloid, Plush and Glass Ware.
Handkeachiefs, gloves, neckwear, hosiery, umbrellas and dress goods of all kinds and all prices. Furs and worsted goods of every description.
DOLLS . . .
Dolls of all kinds can be found on our doll counter, our assortment is bewildering in their novelty, extent and attractiveness. Our prices are lower than any other house will quote for the same article.
TOYS -:- -:-
Our Toy Department in the basement is larger than ever before. No such collection was ever gathered here before, and it is safe to say there is no better stock in town in point of variety, there is no stock in town that equals ours in prices that's certain.
Children's velocipedes, tricycles, battleships, iron toys of all kinds, tool chests, wash sets, soldier sets, dishes, horse and wagons, chairs, printing presses, electric batteries, express wagons, magic lanterns, etc.
I. H. Boehm, 109-111-113 West Front Street

7000 BU. of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last. Order Quick.
Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

OUR SPECIALTIES
Choice Teas Fine Coffees.
WHEN YOU ARE IN NEED OF FIRST CLASS GROCERIES OR CANNED GOODS, CALL ON
THE PARK GROCERS
C. E. GULICK & CO. Tel. 931.
111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.
Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,
Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.
WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER
DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.
Sherwins,
149 W. Front St.

GRACE. I think there must be something in those Ripans Tabules we see advertised so much. They must be good for something.
MARY. What makes you think so?
GRACE. You know they have a black, yellow and red poster on all the stations of the Brooklyn Elevated R.R. representing a white-haired old gentleman who in the first place is tying on a red necktie—that represents morning: In the next place he is eating a piece of mince pie at a lunch counter—that's noon: and, finally, he appears with a night-cap on—evidently bed-time. It is the most conspicuous poster on the stations, and last night two well-dressed gentlemen stood looking at one of them and I overheard what they said.
MARY. At what station was this?
GRACE. At Lexington and Sumner Avenues. One of them said that poster makes me laugh! The other one said why? Then the first one said the absurdity of a medicine making an old man such as that poster depicts look so happy at all times of the day and night. Then the other man, tapping him on the shoulder, said, why, bless your heart, I have taken Ripans Tabules for two years and I can verify the old man's silent testimony. Then he took a little vial out of his pocket and said to the other man, if you will use these according to directions, you will be more smiling than this old man when you come to be his age.

A new style packet containing TWO RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (20 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TWO TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

PINGREE URGES ACTION.

Special Session of the Michigan Legislature Opens.

Lansing, Mich., Dec. 19.—The Michigan legislature has met in special session in response to the call of Governor Pingree. The governor's object in calling the session is to obtain the passage of a joint resolution providing for the submission to the people at the general election next November of an amendment to the state constitution placing railways upon the same basis for taxation as all other property. At present the railroads pay specific taxes upon gross earnings.

Interest in the special session is increased by the fact that the grand jury, which has returned indictments against some of the legislators, alleging that they were bribed, is in session here. Speaker Adams of the house of representatives, who is one of the indicted men, is presiding as usual.

The message of Governor Pingree was read before the joint session of the two houses. It urged the passage of the proposed joint resolution so as to permit the enactment of laws by the next legislature for equal taxation of all property at its cash value. The governor said:

"The inequality of our system of taxation is so great that immediate steps should be taken to remedy it." He added that the question involved had for years been discussed exhaustively and was therefore no longer properly open for debate, but called for energetic action.

The governor submitted a table showing the comparative value of railway property in the states which most nearly resemble Michigan in population and development and gave the value at which the Michigan railway property would be assessed if valued as it is in Indiana, Minnesota, Ohio and Wisconsin. His deduction was that Michigan railway property, if valued as railway property in these states, would pay several times the amount of revenue to the state which it does. The governor concluded by saying:

"It is well for you to remember that there are only three states in the Union in which railroads pay specific taxes upon their gross earnings."

The Molineux Case.

New York, Dec. 19.—Bartow S. Weeks continued his cross-examination of Handwriting Expert William J. Kinsley in the Molineux trial. He questioned Kinsley about the mistake he made in the case of Ex-Coroner Nason, of Brooklyn. How the developments in regard to that will effect the jury is a matter of opinion.

The defense hopes it will emphasize Kinsley's own admission last week that he is not infallible, and give rise to a reasonable doubt as to Molineux's guilt. Assistant District-Attorney Osborne thinks the evidence will only go to prove the conscientiousness of the witness.

The trial will probably last six weeks longer. It is the beginning of the fifth week. Assistant District-Attorney Osborne has now between twenty and thirty witnesses yet to be examined, which will take three weeks.

The trial will cost in the neighborhood of $150,000. The State will not get off for much less than $100,000, and $50,000 is a low mark of the cost to the defense.

16,288 Shares in One Estate.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 19.—The estate left by Peter Leitschuk to his widow, Mrs. E. Leitschuk, and by her in turn to all the heirs of herself and her husband, must be divided into 16,288 shares in order to fill the provisions of the law. The husband died in 1896 and his wife on January 10, 1899. The old couple, living so frugally that it amounted to miserliness, left their home, $6,000 in gold and $25,000 in bonds. Charles G. Hulsewede, appointed attorney for the estate by Judge Gregory, has found that there are no relatives living in Louisville, but that in Germany and in the Northwest portion of this country there are many heirs. The heirs are so far removed that the war tax will take a good portion of the estate.

The Coffee Was Poisoned.

Wabash, Ind., Dec. 19.—Mrs. Andrew Crippen, of Paw Paw, lies at the point of death, the result of drinking coffee which contained poison. It was ascertained that poison had been placed in the beverage which was drank by Mr. and Mrs. Crippen, a son and the latter's wife. All have recovered except the mother, whose condition is precarious. A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Crippen, who recently returned from the insane asylum, was at home at the time, and was the only one who did not partake of the coffee.

$200,000 More Needed

Washington, Dec. 19.—A report has been made by the Supervising Architect of the treasury department to Secretary Gage, stating that because of the increase in the prices of building materials an additional appropriation of $200,000 will be necessary to complete the work on the structures now being erected there to replace those destroyed by fire.

Secretary Gage will recommend to congress that the appropriation be made at once.

New Publishing Firm.

New York, Dec. 19.—Frank N Doubleday has expressed his intention of withdrawing from the firm of Doubleday & McClure, and forming a partnership with Walter H. Page, formerly editor of the Atlantic, and literary adviser to Houghton, Mifiin & Co. The relations with Mr. McClure will continue to be of the friendliest.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

New York, Dec. 19.—The stock market was feverish and uneven, with prices generally lower.

Cash prices for produce:
Wheat, No. 2 red, .74⅝.
Corn, No. 2 mixed, .40⅝.
Oats, No. 2 mixed, .29¼.
Flour, Minnesota patents, $3.90
Cotton, middling, 7 11-16.
Coffee, No. 7 Rio, .06¾.
Beef, family, 12.75.
Beef, hams, 22.75.
Tallow, prime, .05.
Pork, mess, 10.00.
Hogs, dressed, 160 lb., .05⅝.
Lard, prime, 5.72½.
Butter, Western Creamery, .27.

IN A STATE OF REBELLION

British Reverses Cause Revolt in Cape Colony.

THE NATIVES DISTURBED.

Secret Meetings Are Held—Boer Sympathizers in the North Country Preparing to Take Active Measures—Lord Roberts in Full Charge—Reliance Upon the Candahar Hero.

London, Dec. 19.—The war office has just posted a revised list of the British casualties at the battle of Magersfontein. The list adds fifty-one names to the number of killed. No additional information from the forces in South Africa has been received.

Will Hurry Troops to the Cape.

London, Dec. 19.—The war office has been in communication with General Sir William Lockhart, commander-in-chief in India, with a view of ascertaining what troops can be spared from his forces; and it is understood that, as a result of these inquiries, a force will leave Bombay almost immediately for Durban, including four regiments of seasoned troops, with an ammunition column and a brigade of artillery, including horse and field batteries. It is hoped that this force will reinforce General Buller within a month.

General Lord Roberts and his staff sail for South Africa on the Dunettar Castle on Saturday.

The Duke of Connaught visited the war office Monday evening. Since the appointment of Lord Roberts the question of rank no longer bars the Duke from going to the front, and, as he has a strong desire to go, it is believed that only the Queen's reluctance stands in the way. It is not unlikely that this will be overcome.

Throughout the country volunteers are responding with the utmost alacrity to the official notices. Lord Lonsdale says he believes the government will only accept from twenty to fifty men from each yeomanry regiment. It is asserted that many officers of the volunteer regiments are offering to go as troopers, if not acceptable as officers.

Whole Country Aroused.

London, Dec. 19.—A despatch from Sterkstroom, Cape Colony, says:—

"As a result of the British reverses the whole country to the northward is virtually in a state of rebellion.

"The natives there, as well as those in Basutoland, are said to be much disturbed and to be losing heart regarding the strength of the British."

A Cape Town telegram, dated Thursday last, says:—"Secret meetings of Boer sympathizers continue to be held in various parts of Cape Colony, and the attitude of the Dutch farmers is truculent."

At the outbreak of the war, early in October, the apprehension that there would be an immediate Dutch rising was not fulfilled. But it was clearly recognized by the British authorities that all along the north of the colony, adn particularly in the northeast districts, it would be difficult to restrain the Dutch section of the population from openly showing its sympathy with the Boer republics.

While the Dutch element is the stronger in that part of the Cape Colony, the English and Scotch elements are in the majority in the west, and an open rising of the Colonial Dutch would send the Colonial British into the field. Burghersdorp, the birthplace of the Afrikander Bond, a village of two thousand inhabitants, is the centre of the most disaffected district in the colony, while at Aliwal North there has long been acute tension between the English and Dutch farmers. The difficulty of the task which the imperial authorities imposed on themselves of keeping the basutos quiet, has, of course, been immensely increased by the shock to the prestige of the British arms.

Boer Guns Unmasked.

London, Dec. 19.—This despatch comes from Modder River:—

"The Ninth brigade, under Colonel Pole-Carew, the Grenadier Guards and a squadron of the Twelfth Lancers, made a reconnoisance this morning, supported by the Seventy-fifth battery howitzers, on the centre and right, and four naval 12-pounders on the left.

A 4.7 naval gun on the right opened fire at half-past five. While the brigade deployed across the plain the howitzers and naval gun shelled the Boer trenches and searched the ridges. The Boers unmasked two guns, one of which was dismantled by the naval gun, and the second of which it was impossible to touch.

"No one was killed, although a shell fell in the middle of four of the Nothumberland regiment, causing all to fall. When the smoke cleared away it was seen that the men were marching as if nothing had happened. All the troops returned to camp. There were no casualties.

"General Methuen directed the operations from horseback. His wound is almost well. He intends to conduct operations from here to the northward. The camp is fortified, and forms naturally an excellent base."

Twelve Horses Burned.

New York, Dec. 19.—Twelve horses have been burned to death in the factory building at 653-655-657 First avenue. The building was destroyed. Smoke from the fire filled the tenement houses adjoining almost to suffocation, and several inmates were rescued by policemen. The total loss was about $100,000, of which $10,000 was by water to the adjoining buildings.

Result of Fog in New York.

New York, Dec. 19.—The fog caused a collision on the elevated road in Brooklyn and one between two ferryboats. Three persons were slightly injured. The air is now free from the fog.

Not Leased to Senator Hanna

Washington, Dec. 19.—Senator Mark Hanna authorizes a denial of the report that he had leased the Cameron house, on Lafayette Square, formerly occupied by the late Vice President Hobart.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor,

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

105 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week $5 a year—in advance.

No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada

Delivered by carrier or by mail.

The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district

Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., DEC. 19, 1899

Not All is Favorable.

It is a trite and true old saying that "there is two sides to every story," and this is so in relation to the service of the voting machines that are designed to supplant the old and tedious methods of counting ballots on election nights. Up to the present time nearly everything that has been said about the practicability of the voting machines has been favorable to the devices—many praiseworthy accounts of the work of the machines coming from the municipalities that have used them.

But there is another side, too, and one not quite so favorable. The town of Rye, in New York, purchased seven of the machines six years ago, paying $3,160 for them. At the last election a serious error was made by the mechanism of one of the machines, and after considering the question of saving time in counting votes as compared with the risk of a mistake such as was committed at the last election, it was decided that the old system of conducting elections was preferable. Consequently the voting machines were dead wood on the hands of the town. They were advertised for sale at public auction, and Saturday they were bought by a junkman for 42½ cents a pound. Rye citizens will now revert to the old method of burning midnight oil in copious quanti ies to determine the result of the voting after the polls close on election days in the future.

The city of Mt. Vernon owns ten voting machines, too, which it is very anxious to dispose of. They cost $4,800 to purchase, but were abandoned some time ago as undesirable in elections. The city officials say that no reasonable offer will be refused.

The Congressional Committees.

Speaker Henderson's treatment of the New Jersey Representatives in Congress with respect to the committee appointments, which he made yesterday, was very satisfactory.

Congressman Fowler, of the Eighth district, had been a candidate for the chairmanship of the Committee on Banking and Currency—one of the most important in this session of Congress—but sometime ago he realized that it would be impossible for him to secure the place. He was made, however, the second member of the committee, and if he stays in Congress long enough he may eventually succeed to the chairmanship.

New Jersey Congressmen captured two of the chairmanships, which is doing well for such a small Commonwealth. Mr. Gardiner was reappointed Chairman of the Committee on Labor, and Mr. Stewart of the Committee on Expenditures in the Navy Department.

Mr. Howell, of the Third district, was entitled by seniority on the Irrigation Committee to a chairmanship, but did not press his claim, and accepted his old place on Public Buildings and Grounds, and a place on the Immigration Committee, on which he served two Congresses ago.

Mr. Daly is assigned to the Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries, which will probably be one of the most active committees during the present session, by reason of its having to consider the shipping bill.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

Justice A. P. Sutphen, the court historian, of Somerset county, says that Mrs. Fingerhuth is the first woman ever tried for her life in Somerset county, as was supposed. His records show that Margaret Keenan, of Kingston, was tried in the Somerset county court for killing her husband, December 21st, 1896. She was convicted and sentenced to State Prison for life. On September 6th, 1885, Mrs. Caroline VanDervere was convicted in the Somerset court of murder in the first degree for killing 9 year old David Mack. She was sentenced to State Prison for twenty years.

* * * * * *

George Wharton Edwards, of Franklin place, who is in charge of the art department of Collier's Weekly, has been known for years as a writer of prose as well as a painter and illustrator, but it is only very recently that he has begun writing verses. His contributions to the world of verse have a musical rythm that makes them popular at once. In the Collier's Weekly for Dec. 16th, the Christmas number, below a large drawing by Clyde O. DeLand, appear Mr. Edwards' latest verses. They are a rhyme of Revolutionary times and are reprinted below by permission of Collier's Weekly:

HEY THE JOLLY RED COAT.
(Old Style.)

He was a jolly Red Coat,
Stood guard on Bowling Green.
She caught his eye,
That maiden sly,
And lost her heart, I ween.
(Chorus, sing.)
Hey the jolly Red Coat,
Ho the jolly Red Coat,
Hey the jolly Red Coat,
Stood guard on Bowling Green.

A patriotic maid was she,
But her heart beat quick and fast.
Full oft they met
When sun had set,
The time had quickly passed.
(Chorus, sing.)
Hey the jolly Red Coat,
Ho the jolly Red Coat,
Hey the jolly Red Coat,
Who won her heart away.

And on Evacuation Day
The Red Coat sailed away—
Returned no more.
One heart was sore,
She ne'er had said him nay.
(Chorus, sing.)
Hey the jolly Red Coat,
Ho the jolly Red Coat,
Hey the jolly Red Coat,
Who bore her heart away.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

The Burrill Comedy Company, supporting Miss Laura Hulbert, will commence a week's engagement in new and standard plays at Music Hall, beginning with the matinee performance of Monday, Christmas Day. It promises to be quite an event, for the Burrill Company as an organization is favorably known here and Miss Hulbert has many admirers of her artistic excellence. The company altogether is a superior one to any we have had for some time, and will have warm welcome from our amusement seekers. There will be reserved seats for the Christmas matinee, ready now at box office, and seats for the night performance can now be secured. Popular prices, but no "Ladies Tickets" this engagement.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

LOOKING FOR CLOTHING?

Well, if You Are, Just Step Into the Store of the New York Clothing Company.

It is not known definitely when clothing was first used. In the early days of our forefathers the natives were scantily clad in the warm weather and during the winter months skins of animals were brought into use. But in those early days the skill of the clothing manufacturer had not been developed as it is today. And then, too, stylish clothing was not so much in demand Those who did make pretentions to conforming with the up-to-date fashions did so at much greater expense than can be done today. What a man paid for a coat a century ago he can now buy an entire suit of clothing—better made and more stylishly cut. To prove this statement it is only necessary for the readers of The Press to drop into the handsome establishment of the New York Clothing Company (M Weinberger, manager) at 214 West Front street, next door to Music Hall. The exhibit of fine clothing there is indeed on an extensive scale. Perhaps you are thinking of making father or brother, or husband a Christmas present. Surely there's nothing better to give than something that's sensible.

For Invited Auditors Tonight.

The public rehearsal of the Christmas musical service, at which the oratorio "The Messiah," is to be sung, will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the Crescent Avenue church. Admission will be only by invitation. A limited number of invitations have been issued to those who have subscribed the necessary funds for the successful carrying out of the service. Thursday evening the service will be held in the Crescent Avenue church and will be free to all.

WHAT DO THE CHILDREN DRINK?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about ¼ as much. All grocers sell it. 15c. and 25c.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it; no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,
122 East Front Street.

At 246 Front Street.

IN OUR CARPET STORE . . .

MAY BE FOUND A RARE AGGREGATION OF

Holiday Rugs,

New Rugs, Beautiful Rugs,

Durable Rugs.

Special prices all this week on Smyrnas, Moquettes, Axminsters, Velvets, etc., in all sizes, Fancy Footrests, Covered and Uncovered Couch Pillows, Tapestry Squares for Pillows, Lace Curtains, and a fine assortment of Tapestry and French Velour Table Covers.

IN OUR BASEMENT.

Special Upholstered Fancy Rockers at 3.98 that we guarantee to be worth 5.00.

Fine Adjustable Morris Chairs with 4-toned Velour Cushions at 4.98. Better ones up to 14.00. . . .

Two Extra Fine Finished Numbers at 9.45 and 10.75. Fine assortment of Ladies Writing Desks. . . . .

IN OUR MAIN STORE.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYBODY—YOUNG AND OLD, RICH AND POOR, BLACK AND WHITE.

Come and see us, but kindly leave baby carriages outside the store, and your dogs at home. . . .

This Week Store will be Open till 10 p. m.

Trading Stamps with each Cash purchase.

WOOHULL & MARTIN,

234, 236, 238, 246 W. Front Street.

PECK'S CORNER.

PECK'S

. . . HOLIDAY STOCK . . .

recommends itself to those who are seeking really practical and useful presents for friends.

Merry Christmas. Happy New Year.

To those who contemplate making

Christmas Presents

I advise you to call and see the

Handsome Building Lots At Woodland Park, Plainfield.

Suited for a king or prince. Or some of our one or two acre Plots for Raising Poultry, &c. You can buy these properties at Low Prices, monthly payments guaranteed title. These properties will double in value in two or three years. Other investments to suit all.

SILAS D. DRAKE,

175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

Open This Evening. Bonn's 140 WEST FRONT ST. Open This Evening.

Pretty Silk Shirt Waists, $4.98, of good silk, stylishly made with fine cords and tucks back and front; all sizes, in cerise, cardinal, navy, royal, lavender and black, only $4.98.

French Flannel Waists, $2.98.

French back, new shape stock collar and dress cuffs; with four brass buttons on front, colors are cardinal navy, purple, brown, grey and black.

Mercerized Satine Petticoats

wear better than silk, are quite as handsome, will not spot; therefore these soft delicate shades are desirable; hello, cerise, cardinal, royal, navy, purple and oxblood. One style at $2.49, has wide flounce, narrow ruffle and cords—A style at $3 39, has wide umbrella flounce with five small ruffles—pretty styles in black at $1.98 and $2.49.

and Other Sensible Gifts.

N. K. BARNES, Grocer,

No. 245 WEST FRONT STREET,

SPECIAL FOR TEN DAYS.

$3 worth of stamps with 1 lb of 60c Tea, best.
$2 worth of stamps with 1 lb of 28c Coffee, best.
$1 worth of stamps with 24½ lbs of 55c Flour, best.

I will give $3.00 Worth of Trading Stamps with this 99c purchase:

1 lb of Coffee	28c
2 lbs Sugar	10c
1 lb mixed Nuts	13c
1 pkg Currants	10c
1 pkg Raisins	12c
1 can Peas	8c
1 pkg Dunham's Cocoanut	10c
1 qt Cranberries	8c
	99c

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops

Wieda's

Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda

Manufactured at the Premises. 144 West Front St. Phone. 1133.

THE BOOT SHOP AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,
107 Park Avenue.

EXECUTOR'S SALE
OF VALUABLE
PERSONAL PROPERTY.

The undersigned, executor of D. M. Walter, deceased, will sell at public vendue at 12 m., sharp, on THURSDAY,

DECEMBER 21, 1899.

On farm formerly owned by D. M. Walter, on the road leading from Plainfield to Rahway, near Hillside Golf Grounds.

All the personal property of which. D. M. Walter, died, seized, consisting of beds, bedding, carpets, stoves, chairs, tables, mirrors, cutlery, crockery, etc. Also farming implements and machinery.

HOUSEHOLD and KITCHEN FURNITURE.

.....ONE BLACK HORSE.....

Lot of Poultry.

Sleigh, 1-horse plough, cultivator, harness, sled, spring wagon, hay rigging, rake, fanning mill, hay cutter, 2-seated carriage, plows, 1-horse carriage, buggy. Also 50 bushels old corn, hay, 30 gallons vinegar, and various other articles too numerous to mention.

TERMS made known on day of sale.

12 6 td W. R. CODINGTON, Executor.

—Use Press want ads.

The Delicious Fragrance

from a hot Royal Baking Powder biscuit whets the appetite. The taste of such a biscuit—sweet, creamy, delicate and crispy—is a joy to the most fastidious.

ROYAL Baking Powder improves the flavor and adds to the healthfulness of all risen flour-foods. It renders the biscuit, bread and cake more digestible and nutritious.

Royal Baking Powder makes hot breads wholesome. Food raised with Royal will not distress persons of delicate or enfeebled digestion, though eaten warm and fresh.

Imitation baking powders almost invariably contain alum. Alum makes the food unwholesome.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, Dec. 19—The Somerset County Board of Freeholders last Friday finally accepted as a public highway Jefferson avenue, from Green brook to the mountains. The matter has been under advisement for nearly four years. Next year Somerset, Union and Middiesex counties will be compelled to rebuild the bridge that crosses Green brook at that point, the street being located within those counties.

The Misses Mary and Lizzie Martine have returned from Northfield, Mass., where they are attending school, to spend the holidays with their parents.

Charles H. English, late station agent at this place, left this morning to assume his new duties in the office of the Central Railroad at Jersey City.

Mrs. J. B. Sprowl who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. N. Randolph, for several weeks has returned to her home in Jersey City.

The Sunday-school of the Presbyterian church will have a Christmas tree and exercises on Saturday night in the chapel.

The public schools of Dunellen and New Market will close for the holiday vacation Friday afternoon.

The Revs. Frank Fletcher and A. I. Martine were in Somerville yesterday on business.

Henry Widenhaut, who bought the Carman meat market, has moved his family to town.

Miss Virgie Tunison, who has been relatives in Glen Gardner, has returned home.

Mrs. A. N. Randolph has gone to visit her sister, Mrs. J. B. Sprowl, at Jersey City.

Theodore Apgar spent yesterday with friends at Bound Brook.

P. J. Stasts, of Bound Brook, was a visitor in town yesterday.

John Fenner spent Sunday at Glen Gardner with friends.

Miss May Apgar has been visiting friends in Newark.

—Use Press want ads

Let me say I have used Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh and can thoroughly recommend it for what it claims. Very truly, (Rev.) H. W. Hathaway, Elizabeth, N. J.

I tried Ely's Cream Balm, and to all appearances am cured of catarrh. The terrible headaches from which I long suffered are gone.—W. J. Hitchcock, late Major U. S. Vol. and A. A. Gen., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50 cts. or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 19.—The Firemen's Relief Association met in their rooms last evening. Routine business was transacted, and the annual election of officers for the ensuing year was held, and resulted as follows: President, James H. Parks; Vice President, T. J. Nichol; Secretary, Norman Dunn; Treasurer, John Robison.

R. S. Fisher, who has been agent at the station for several years, has been transferred to Dunellen, Mr. Hunt, of Sea Bright, taking the place left vacant. The transfer was made Monday.

Funeral services of the late Thomas Reed were held from his late home at Murray Hill this afternoon at 2:30. Interment was made in the family plot at New Providence.

Excelsior H. and L. Co. held their regular monthly meeting in the company's rooms last evening.

Rev. G. M. Shott spent Monday in New York city attending the ministers conference meeting.

Mrs. Sadie Reger has been entertaining her brother, W. T. Reger, of Morristown,

Mrs. Atwood led the young people's meeting in the Baptist church last evening.

Miss Minnie Hosinger has been entertaining friends from New York.

Miss Bella Mercein has been visiting her sister in Plainfield.

MAKES A SENSIBLE GIFT.

Clothing is Always Acceptable and Serviceable to Most Persons.

Among the sensible Christmas presents, not the least is something in the clothing line. Plainfield stores carry as good stock as any out-of-town concern and the prices are fully ten per cent. less. Schepflin & Shultz, (M. J. Cashin, manager,) at 322 West Front street, have a gilt-edge reputation for handling reliable clothing.

One thing about this concern that is to their advantage—they manufacture all the clothing which is offered for sale by them. If you are thinking of treating yourself to an overcoat you can find a beauty at this place for the small sum of $10. This is a reliable garment—made from all wool kersey, cassimere lined, with a shoulder yoke and sleeve lining of genuine satin. There are others equally as well made and handsome and durable, that will be fitted to your form for a small figure as low as $5, and from that up to $13.50. In the suitings there's a splendid assortment, stylishly cut and made upon honor. All clothing sold at this house is guaranteed to be as represented If not satisfactory drop in and tell them so. Mr. Cashin will please you if it is a possibility to do so.

—Every woman can see a pretty hat pin or fancy brooch, they always have use for one more, therefore they are very acceptable as gifts. Their inexpensiveness is an added charm. Bonn, of Front street shows exclusive designs, each in a box at 19, 25 and 39c.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

George Graves, of Morristown, spent Sunday with his parents on Liberty street.

Miss Berg, of East Fifth street, has secured a position as operator at the local telephone exchange.

Charles Graves, of Liberty street, has about recovered from the injuries he received in a recent accident.

Miss Teddy Scruymer, of Staten Island, has been visiting Mr and Mrs. W. J. R. Thiers, of Watchung avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Jamee Middledith, of Mercer avenue, are spending some time in North Carolina for health and recreation.

Miss Adelaide Hooper, of Trenton, and Miss Jennie Anderson, of Somerville, were guests Sunday of Miss Maude E. VanDyke, of East Front street.

The home of Frank Storey, of East Second street, the genial clerk at Hepburn & Co's pharmacy, has been brightened by the arrival of a bright little boy.

Mrs. Morgan S. Taylor, formerly of Rockview terrace, who has been spending some weeks in Baltimore, is visiting at the home of Martin I. Cooley, of Rockview terrace.

Moses Schloss, formerly manager for S Scheuer & Co., in this city, but late of Bloomfield, has been sent to this city to again take charge of the above place of business.

A. I. Smalley, who is in the south on a hunting trip, is having remarkable luck. His friends and relatives have been receiving fine quail and other game, which they appreciate very much.

J. W. Hunt, of 21 Myrtle avenue, has just returned home after a short visit to the Pacific coast, where he has been to look after his real estate interests in Los Angeles and other portions of southern California.

—Doane & Edsall's shoe store will remain open evenings until Christmas day to accommodate the large trade they are having on slippers, shoes rubber boots, dress suit cases, etc.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders

—We constantly hear people say "you should go to Peck's and see his holiday goods."

—Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M., will hold a regular communication this evening.

—Three and nine-cent store, 23 Somerset street, are selling out below cost to close the business.

—Next week Wednesday Lucetta Council, Daughters of Liberty, will elect officers for the ensuing term.

—Tomorrow evening Iona Council, Degree of Pocohontas, will elect officers and have a good time afterwards

—This evening the Sons of Veterans will hold a regular meeting and a full attendance of members is requested.

—Martha Washington Council Daughters of America, will meet this evening and consider important business.

—Mrs. A. A. Stryker, of the West End, has commenced the erection of a handsome new house on Watchung avenue.

—On Monday, December 25th, at 9:15 o'clock in the morning a Christmas service will be held at Hope Chapel.

—Most of the Sunday-schools of the city will hold their Christmas entertainments between Christmas and New Years.

—The time limit for the payment of taxes in the borough will be up to morrow and after that date taxes unpaid will be delinquent.

—The usual sewing meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Crescent Avenue church will be omitted this week Friday.

—The Sunday-school of the Mt. Olive Baptist church will hold its Christmas entertainment during the week following New Year's Day.

—Tomorrow afternoon in the parlors of the Crescent Avenue church, Rev. Dr. Richards, pastor, will deliver an address before the Boys' Mission Band on Syria.

—The right hand of fellowship was extended to the new members at St. Peter's Lutheran church Sunday. The Lord's Supper celebration will take place Christmas morning.

—On account of the illness of several of the members of Old Glory Council, Daughters of Liberty, the entertainment that was to be held this evening has been postponed indefinitely.

—Next Thursday evening Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O U. A. M., will nominate and elect officers for the ensuing year. After the business is transacted the members will engage in the play of quoits.

—Alex. Lusardi, 211 West Front street, has just received a carload of Malaga grapes for the holidays. He has a choice stock of foreign and domestic fruits, nuts, bananas and cigars and choice confectionery.

—The Christmas entertainment at Hope Chapel will take place Wednesday evening, December 27th, when stereopticon views of the life of Christ will be exhibited by Rev. Garret M. Conover, of West Nyack, N Y.

—If you are looking for a well-equipped laundry, who do good work and where all the details are taken care of and where you will be satisfied, go to Queen City Laundry, Park avenue and Fourth street, Miller building.

—Stanley, 142 North avenue, and annex store for the holidays, 134 North avenue; greenhouses, South avenue, Netherwood, and Central avenue, Westfield. He has everything in the floral line for the holidays, and an immense stock of holly, wreaths, roping, etc., at reasonable prices. See his advertisement in another column.

Working Night and Day

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globule of health, that changes weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fag into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box Sold by L. W. Randolph.

Corporation Notice.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Common Council of the City of Plainfield, New Jersey, at a meeting thereof held December 18, 1899, notice is hereby given that the Common Council will meet on the twenty-eighth day of December, 1899, at 8 o'clock, p. m., at the Council Chamber, No. 109 Park Avenue, in the City of Plainfield, at which time and place, said Common Council will receive and open sealed proposals for the purchase of Street Improvement Bonds, to an amount not exceeding twelve thousand dollars, which bonds shall bear interest at the rate of five per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, said bonds to be payable three years from said date of issue, with the option of the City to pay off said bonds, or any one or more of them, at any time after one year from date of issue, and to be issued by the City of Plainfield under the ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to Provide Funds for Permanent Improvement of Streets in Advance of the Collection of Assessments for Benefits," approved December 4, 1899. The bids should be for one or more of said bonds, at the option of the City.

Upon receipt of the bids or proposals, the Council will immediately proceed to unseal the same, and publicly announce the contents in the presence of the parties bidding, or their agents, provided said parties or agents choose to be then and there present, and also to make proper record of the prices and terms upon the minutes of the Council.

The right to reject any or all bids is expressly reserved by the Common Council.

All proposals must be endorsed "Proposals for purchase of Street Improvement Bonds."

By order of the Common Council of the City of Plainfield.

J. T. MACMURRAY,
Dated December 18, 1899. City Clerk.

Corporation Notice.

of application to the Court of Common Pleas for the appointment of Commissioners to assess benefits for street improvements.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, pursuant to Chapter 200 of the laws of 1898, entitled, "An Act to authorize the improvement of streets and highways in cities of this State, and to provide for the payment of the expense of the same," approved June 13th, 1898, and the amendments thereof and supplements thereto, that application will be made by the Common Council of the City of Plainfield to the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Union at the Court House in the City of Elizabeth on the thirtieth day of December, A. D. 1899, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as the said Court can hear the said application, for the appointment of three Commissioners, who shall be freeholders and residents of the City of Plainfield, as Commissioners to estimate and assess benefits respectively conferred by the permanent improvement of streets under the several ordinances of said City, respectively entitled:

"An Ordinance for macadamizing East Sixth Street between Watchung Avenue and Richmond Street, excepting where already macadamized," approved Oct. 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing Franklin Place between LaGrande Avenue and East Fifth Street," approved Oct 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing East Ninth Street between Park Avenue and Watchung Avenue," approved Oct. 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing West Fourth Street between New Street and Monroe Avenue," approved Feb. 9th, 1899.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing West Third Street between Madison Avenue and Monroe Avenue, excepting where already macadamized," approved Feb. 9th, 1899.

and to perform the duties and execute the powers conferred by said Acts of the Legislature.

By order of the Common Council of the City of Plainfield.

JAMES T. MACMURRAY,
City Clerk of the City of Plainfield.
Dated, December 18, 1899. 12 19 td

Great Millinery Sale
Continued For One Week.
Two to three hundred Felt Hats that were 39c and 50c now on sale for 15c and 19c.
$5.00 hats reduced to $2.98.
Great Reduction in Birds, Feathers and Ribbons.
Millinery Parlors,
L. A. DALY,
Corner W. Front St. and Central Ave
12 16 6

CUT FLOWERS!
Choice Blooming Plants, Palms, Ferns, Jardinieres, Fern Dishes, &c. Headquarters for Wreaths, Holly, Mistletoe and everything in the florist line. First-class stock. Largest assortment of cut flowers in the city.
A. E. LINCOLN.
Telephone 876. 226 PARK AVE. 12 14 9

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Best work for the money in town. Bids on work willingly given. Work done night or day. Get my bid before you have work done.
P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.
T. M INGRAHAM.

...EMERY'S ..
PLEASURE GARDEN
(SCOTCH PLAINS.)
Thursday Evening. December 21st
FIRST
GRAND BALL
—OF THE—
Prospect Social Club.
Music by Prof. O'Reilly.
TICKETS - - - - 25 Cents.
The Enclosed Pavilion is for rent for Balls, Parties, etc., at Reasonable Rates.

CHARLES ARNOLD,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats,
POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON.
203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.
Telephone 238.

AT RANDOLPH'S,
See our Window Display. CHRISTMAS GREETINGS.
Great values in choice Perfumes. Never before this opportunity. Bottle goods from 10c to $4 50
Hair Brushes, Military Hair Brushes, prices just ½ their reg. value.
House Thermometers, large assortment. Sachet Powders in bulk, 40 cents per ounce and in packages. 10c, 15c, 35c.
Lowney's Celebrated Candies, 60 cents per pound.
Whitman's Chocolates, 40 and 80c per pound.
PLACE ORDERS EARLY.
L. W. RANDOLPH,
Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.
PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for Lowney's Chocolate and Chocolate Bon-bons. TELEPHONE CALL 143

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.
Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J
Perth Amboy, N. J.

More than ordinary interest attaches to our Saturday program in this store. In family furnishings of every sort there is an even better than usual array, reinforced by a mammoth collection of toys, games, books and amusement helps of every description for the children. The people of more mature years can find an excellent collection of holiday gifts suitable to all needs and classes.

A few hints will serve to represent an enormous stock of gift merchandise.

Sterling silver novelties of every description 25 50c up to $5 00 a piece.
Solid brass novelties in a very extensive assortment of candelebra mirrors, frames, ink stands, etc., 25c to $3.75 a piece.
Toilet cases, manicure sets, etc., in a very exclusive assortment.
Albums in a great variety of styles at very moderate prices.

Handkerchiefs

There is nothing missing here in the handkerchief department that is necessary to a complete stock. Three special numbers taken at random represent hundreds of kinds.

25c the box. Children's hemstitched handkerchiefs, narrow colored borders, with colored embroidered initial; three handkerchiefs in a box.
13c An extraordinary fine quality women's swiss handkerchiefs, embroidered in dainty patterns and worth 19c.
25c Women's all-fine linen handkerchiefs, handsomely embroidered, very fine sheer quality.

Gloves

It's not mere luck that makes our celebrated P. & P. gloves last—it's the downright goodness of the stock. Every pair we sell is fully guaranteed.

$1.00 Gloves that fit perfectly, wear well and look well; all the correct colors; 2 clasp and 4 button fastenings.
$1.19 Our genuine Mocha gloves for women have no superior; fit perfectly; dressy and comfortable; all the leading colors; 2 clasp fastening.
$1.25 Our real kid gloves never fail to give satisfaction in every particular. The kid is of a soft quality and the fit is absolutely certain
$1.50 Silk-lined reindeer skin gloves for women in all the shades of gray, tan and modes.

Men's Gloves

$1.00 Men's English walking gloves, pique stitching; a very dressy and serviceable glove.
$1.50 Men's Mocha gloves in all the correct shades of tan and gray.
$2.00 Men's silk lined reindeer skin gloves, gray and tan shades.
$4.50 & 5.00 Mens' eiderdown bath robes in very choice new patterns that are of exceptional value.
$1.00 Men's flannelette pajamas in exceptionally handsome patterns and fine heavy weight cloth.
50c Men's light colored outing flannel night shirts, full liberal sizes and well made.
$17.50 Demorest sewing machines.
$19.50 Demorest drop head sewing machines.
$10.00 Demorest hand machines. Every machine is guaranteed for 10 years by the manufacturer. All extra parts supplied.

A Talk on Overcoats.

We know how to talk about them because we make them.

Our $10 Overcoat

is made from all-wool Kersey, cassimere lined, with a shoulder yoke and sleeve lining of real satin. The style is there as well as the quality. We have them from $5.00 to $13.50. Boys' Reefers $1.75 to $4.00.

We Make All Our Clothing.

Schepflin & Schultz,
M. J. Cashin, Manager.
322 West Front St.

$14.75 CAMERA AND OUTFIT FOR $10.00 . . . .
A good suggestion for Christmas! You can have a well-known camera which will take pictures 4x5 and all necessary materials for finishing the pictures for $10. The retail value of this outfit is $14.75.

WE HAVE ALSO
Golf Sets, Phonographs, Graphophones, Gramophones, Music Boxes, Christmas Cards and a general line of Sporting Goods. We are always pleased to show our stock.

GEO. W. WRENNICK,
133 NORTH AVE.

POWERS' PHARMACY Somerset St. Craig Place.
Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .
Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot and Tar
is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

XMAS IS NEAR
Now is the time to order your Xmas greens First come, first served. Holly, laurel and Xmas green wreaths and roping; also loose holly, palms, ferns, jardinieres and wicker baskets for Xmas presents.
MRS. L. J. DENTON,
Stillman Building. Tel. call 731.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.
Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.
Capital, $150,000.
Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.
CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.
DIRECTORS.
Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Closson. H. G Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold. J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J B. Coward.
General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Mecklenburg.

Woosmer. Die Wittwe Brauch wurde beim Schweinefüttern von einer Sau, welche Ferkel hat, angegriffen. Das Thier riß die Frau zu Boden und brachte ihr bedeutende Wunden an Armen und Beinen bei. In ihrer Angst faßte die Frau das wüthende Thier bei den Ohren und hielt es so lange fest, bis sie von ihren Nachbarn befreit wurde. Die Verletzte mußte ärztliche Hilfe in Anspruch nehmen.

Großherzogthum Hessen.

Darmstadt. Nach einem auf Grund der Besteuerung zusammengestellten Bericht des Beigeordneten Wolff-Offenbach in der Zeitschrift für Staats- und Gemeindeverwaltung gibt es zur Zeit in Hessen 305 Millionäre gleich 0.12 Prozent der Steuerzahler, da auf 1000 Steuerzahler 1.2 Millionäre kommen. Von diesen wohnen in den Städten Mainz 80, Darmstadt 54, Offenbach 54 und Worms 26.

Gernsheim. Dieser Tage wurde in der hiesigen Zuckerfabrik der in den 60er Jahren stehende Arbeiter Wilhelm Kleinböhl von Biebesheim beim Schmieren der Maschine von dem Riemen der Transmission erfaßt und in Stücke zerrissen.

Mainz. Die Ausstellungskommission zur Guttenbergfeier hat beschlossen, bei der unerwartet schwachen Betheiligung der industriellen Kreise von der geplanten Maschinenausstellung und der Erbauung einer Halle abzusehen. Die Ausstellung soll sich nur auf alte Drucke und Urkunden beschränken und im Museumsgebäude stattfinden.—Der städtische Finanzausschuß hat beschlossen, die wöchentlichen Armenunterstützungen für Frauen, wenn sie das Haupt einer Familie bilden, von 4 Mark 50 Pfennige auf 5 Mark 50 Pfennige zu erhöhen, für Kinder soll ferner nicht mehr unter 1 Mark für jedes Kind bezahlt werden.

Worms. Die städtische Verwaltung beabsichtigt, hier ein Volksbad zu errichten; die frühere Pfalzgrafenhof-Kaserne ist dafür in Aussicht genommen.

Bayern.

München. Im Landtage ist gegen den Direktor des Hofbräuhauses, Staubwasser, die Anschuldigung erhoben worden, daß er gegen die Gäste grob sei und fremde Gerste sowie fremden Hopfen bevorzuge. Finanzminister Dr. Freiherr von Riedel, zu dessen Ressort das Hofbräuhaus gehört, versprach eine Untersuchung einzuleiten.—Hier starb der Reichstags- und bayerische Landtagsabgeordnete Dr. theol. Georg Ratzinger.

Aschaffenburg. Vor Kurzem ist hier ein größeres, an der Eisenbahn gelegenes Terrain an ein industrielles Konsortium verkauft worden, das beabsichtigt, dort eine große Anlage Drahtzüge, Walzwerke, Röhrenziehereien nach neuesten Systemen und dergleichen zu errichten.

Berchtesgaden. Der seit letztem Sommer vermißte Kanzleirath Schultz aus Spandau ist nunmehr aufgefunden worden und zwar nicht sehr weit von hier, etwa eine halbe Stunde von Bischofswiesen entfernt. Da ein großer Geldbetrag, etwa 1200 Mark, und die sonstigen Werthgegenstände bei der Leiche vorgefunden wurden, so darf mit Sicherheit angenommen werden, daß der Tod in Folge eines Schlaganfalles erfolgt ist.

Miltenberg. Erschossen hat der Gastwirth Zum Schwan, Albert Biedermann, seine Frau aus Unvorsichtigkeit. Er schoß vom Hause aus über den Garten auf einen Stand an der Gartenmauer. Zum Unglück ging die Frau durch den Garten und kam in die Schußlinie, als der Schuß krachte. Die Ladung riß ihr die obere Schädeldecke weg, so daß das Gehirn bloßlag. Die Frau war sofort todt. Der unglückliche Schütze stellte sich selbst der Polizei.

Moosfürth. Neulich Abends entstand in dem Stadel des Bauern Loibl Feuer, das sich so rasch verbreitete, daß in ganz kurzer Zeit nicht weniger als neun Firste in Flammen standen. Mehrere Feuerwehren arbeiteten mit übermenschlicher Anstrengung. Brandstiftung ist sicher anzunehmen. Moosfürth wurde heuer schon zum siebenten Male von Brandunglück betroffen, so daß nun nahezu das ganze Dorf eingeäschert ist.

Nürnberg. Wie sehr die Simultan-Volksschule hier beliebt ist, mag daraus hervorgehen, daß nach der neuesten Zusammenstellung von den 28,426 Besuchern der Volksschule nicht weniger als 18,827 die Simultanschule frequentirten; die Schülerzahl in der protestantischen Schule ist 6879, in der katholischen 2720.

Passau. Anläßlich ihres 25jährigen Jubiläums hat die christkatholisch-theologische Fakultät an der Universität Bern den hiesigen altkatholischen Pfarrer Goetz zum Ehren-Doktor kreirt. An der genannten Fakultät hatte sich Goetz im Herbste 1891 die Würde eines Lizentiaten der Theologie erworben.

Schweinfurt. Wegen verbotenen Wirthshausbesuches wurden acht Gymnasiasten dimittirt. Professoren hatten sie beim Kneipen überrascht; Bänder, Mützen, Schläger u. s. w., die in einem geheimen Wandschrank verwahrt waren, wurden beschlagnahmt.

"ISN'T IT TOO CUTE FOR ANYTHING!"

So runs the chorus of feminine praise over this, that or the other pretty brooch in our fine collection. Husband, father, brother, beau—here's the fit thing! The price-range is $2.50 to $25.00—and there never was better choosing in pretty jewelry. You can make no mistake in picking with your eyes shut—but best come while the selection is complete.

Large Solid Silver Nethersole Bracelets, - - - - 75c
Solid Silver Brush and Comb, - $2.50
In a silk-lined case.

COLLIER, Jeweler,
103 Park Ave.
Established 1869.

STATIONERY and TOYS.

We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles for the Holiday trade.
CHRISTMAS CARDS and CALENDARS.
We make a specialty of FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.
High Grade Cigars.
Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.
B. W. HAND,
205 W. Front Street.

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING

is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.,
201 PARK AVE., Cor. 2d ST.
Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.
Estimates furnished. Telephone call 635

LADIES' TAILORING.
RICHARDSON & WALD,
325 West Front Street.
TAILOR-MADE GARMENTS.
We make a specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.
Alterations and relining promptly attended to.
—DRESSMAKING.—
Our Dressmaking Department is in charge of Madame Walsh.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egal, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats, Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

THE ENTRANCE TO THE DINING ROOM
will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us.
Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early.
The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too—everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get.
FRED ENDRESS,
131—135 WEST FRONT STREET

Defective Eyes.
Overstrained and Defective Eyes are the cause of many a
HEADACHE.
Correctly-fitted Glasses will remedy the trouble. A Scientific Examination Free and Glasses Guaranteed.
STILES & CO.,
107 E. Front St.
EVERY THURSDAY.
Hours: 10:30 to 5:00.

The genuine "Portland Range" has "Portland" on oven door plate —only sold here.

(B)
AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED
Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

CHRISTMAS THINGS

for every part of the home—useful and gladly received. If you're short of ready cash use our generous credit help—no prices equal our's for lowness, no terms are so easy.

CARPETS—get one measured and fitted right away—prices are at the lowest cost. Axminsters, 77c; Brussels, 45c; Cotton Chain Ingrains, 25c; Heavy Ingrains, 37c; All-wool Ingrains, 52c. Or get a Rug or two; what better gift? Moquettes and Ingrains, all sizes.

$8.25
A full swell front, solid oak carved top Chiffonniere, worth $12.00.

$15.75
Comfort—lots of it—in this adjustable head (5 positions), velour-covered Couch—heavy fringe. Value $22.00.

$11.89
Solid Combination Desks, mirror ornament at back. Value $16.00.

$10.98
For a $15.00 Sideboard—bevel edge mirror, lined silver drawer, ample closet room—how's that?

$1.98
Highly polished solid oak, high back, box seat Dining Chair—$2.50 its value.

$4.98
Antique oak Extension Table, 5 legs, well turned, cleverly finished, and worth $7.00 readily.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,
Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agent for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phœnix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW,
THE GROCER.
Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.
Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS
Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.
GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.
119 East Front Street.

SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue.
BUTCHERS.
Everything usually found in a first-class market.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83 A.

McCullough's STEAM MILL.
21 Steiner place, North Plainfie
R. H. McCullough, Prop'
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished

Elston M. French,
Successor to VanBuren Bros.
Real Estate and Insurance.
Largest agency in the city. Loans negotiated.
163 NORTH AVENUE
Opposite Depot

H. Eggerding,
121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR,
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made of the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

L. A. HUMMER,
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats' Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.
163 SOMERSET ST.
Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

WITH ONE VOICE.

Plainfield People Who Have Investigated Are a Unit on the Subject.

The voice of the people
Is heard all o'er the land.
Trumpet notes of truth,
Sounded from East to West.
Plainfield has joined the throng.
Many a citizen lifts his voice in praise.
Enthusiastic people everywhere.
Backs relieved of heavy burdens.
Nights of suffering, days of misery,
Become nights of rest and days of joy.
It's the constant workings of
Doan's Kidney Pills.
Are these reports all true?
Ask a neighbor who knows.
Here's a Plainfield citizen, ask him.
Read what he says—

Mr. H. C. Lippencott, of 39 Chatham street, says: "After my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills I cannot do otherwise than speak in the highest terms of them. I was a victim of kidney complaint and dreadful backache, which was so bad in damp weather, or when I caught cold that I could not get about. I was in the hardware business at this time, and the heavy lifting and being on my feet so much greatly aggravated the troubles. I was at my worst when I concluded to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and I got them at L. W. Randolph's drug store. It only required a few doses to convince me that I had the right remedy My backache disappeared before I had finished the first box. You are at liberty to refer anyone to me, and I will gladly give my experience in detail."

Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. Mailed on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N, Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

Advertised Mail Matter.

DECEMBER 18, 1899.

FIRST CLASS.

Apgar, Mr Geo C
Arnold, Mrs
Brown, Mr John P
Burke, Miss Katie
Campbell, Mr A H 2
Cooper, Mrs J R
Crone, J F
Fields, Miss Harriett
Geslin
Harvey, Miss Martha
Hull, A A
Hunter, Mrs R D
Huston, Mr John
Jellnarnd, Mr Robert
Johnson, Mr Aug
" P M
Jones, Mrs M
Kellogg, Mrs
Kitchell, Mrs Martha 2
McLean, Mr A M
Martin Mr Henry
" Mrs Isabella
Marsh, Miss A
Owner, house for sale
Palmer, Miss I J
Parker, A W
Pullman, L
Ralston, Mr H M
Read, Mrs John
Richardson, Mr John
Rockland, L
Roome, Mr. Wm P
Rojette, Mrs Albert
Schellendreusler, Rev H
Snoden, Mr J H
Taylor, Mrs E S
Tims, Mrs May
Walker, Mrs Anna
" " Mr Thomas S
VanVleit, Mrs Herbert

THIRD AND FOURTH CLASS MATTER.

Bunck, Mr C C
Hoff, Mrs Ella J
Hoffman, Samuel V
Pendergast, Mrs C
Turner, Dr A F
Upton, Mr Fred
Young, Mr Edward

E. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

OUR OYSTERS ARE THE ---FINEST---
ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street,
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store 124 Park avenue. 101

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill.
Turning and Scroll Sawing.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

TRIMMINGS.

Decorations of Greater or Less Elaboration.

The general form of gowns being simple in the extreme, much depends upon originality and variety of trimming, and an immense choice is offered in decorations of all kinds. Passementerie is immensely used and ranges from the narrowest silk gimp arrangements to elaborate motifs in which jewels, spangles, metal threads, lace and fur have a part Fewer loose or floating ornaments are employed, close applications being preferred. Incrustations of white or yellow guipure are seen on skirts as well as on yokes and plastrons, and detached motifs are cut from the lace and used in the same way.

In some exceedingly elaborate embroidered applications the petals of the flowers are cut out separately and painted by hand, but these are less costly embroideries which are practically quite as effective.

BENGALINE GOWN.

Fur, velvet, lace and mousseline de soie are now combined without hesitation, the old prejudice against putting together thin and thick goods having entirely disappeared. Flowers and gauze are as much worn in winter as in summer and no longer seem incongruous.

The picture shows a gown of French blue bengaline. The edge of the skirt is cut in points, falling over a wide band of French blue velvet, and the points are heavily embroidered with blue velvet applications. The blue velvet bodice has a peplum basque, the bengaline revers being embroidered with velvet and opening over a fichu plastron of bengaline. Bows of plaited bengaline fasten the bodice. The close sleeves are of velvet, the belt of embroidered bengaline. The hat of gray felt is trimmed with gray plumes and with a bow of mandarin velvet. JUDIC CHOLLET.

BODICES.

They May or May Not Be Like the Skirt.

For small evening functions bodices of figured or embroidered velvet are worn with skirts of plain silk. Sometimes plain velvet with rich applications forms the bodice. The coloring is kept in relation throughout. For example, a skirt of thick pale pink changeable silk is worn with a bolero bodice of garnet velvet, with an open, cut design thrown into relief by a lining of the pink silk.

The bolero claims all seasons for its own and appears year after year in every variety of form and with all sorts of additions and trimmings.

The bodice differing from the skirt clings tenaciously to life and is still well worn, in spite of repeated attempts to suppress it. There are innumerable very attractive silk bodices, ranging from the simple shirt waist style of plain taffeta to the most elaborate arrangements of lace, embroidery and spangles, to be worn at theaters, concerts or small informal evening receptions.

SILK BODICE.

The bodice shown in the picture is of laurel green grosgrain. It is slightly gathered at the waist behind and stretched in front, forming a slight point. The yoke is closely shirred, as are the close sleeves, and there is a short, tight bolero of antique guipure, fastened by a brooch. A band of guipure insertion simulates a corselet. The belt is of moss green velvet, with jeweled buckles and slides, and the collar is also of velvet, with a guipure ruffle. JUDIC CHOLLET.

WOMEN AND HOME

Useful Things to Know.

General tidiness not only pays on its own account, but because to be tidy is to be economical. It is the few things, not the many, that have most influence in molding strong character. Observe carefully, arrange methodically, and keep at it, are useful things to know and to do.

Who ever regretted their mother's teachings in making us prompt, neat, industrious and economical? Some of the little things learned at home help to make us good housewives, and here are a few practical helps which may be of use to young beginners, who have to learn the lessons of life.

It is the wise woman who keeps posted in the small economies of the home, and know where leaks are to occur—"a stitch in time saves nine"—a new binding goes on the frayed skirt, gloves are pulled smoothly into shape and have a spectacle of their own. The trimming is carefully ripped from last year's hat and packed away in boxes. Crushed velvet is made to look as good as new by stretching it taut, wrong side down, over a panful of boiling water, while another brushes it against the grain on the wrong side with a whisk-broom.

Silver washed after each meal in very hot water, with a spoonful of pearline in the water, will be bright and shining for a long time without other cleaning. When a more thorough cleaning is necessary use any good silver polish, but rub lightly, as the bright lustre soon wears dull and if plated soon wears off.—Farmer's Voice.

Mr. Dooley on the Piano.

In the December Ladies' Home Journal is published the first of the "Molly Donahue" sketches by the author of "Mr. Dooley." It tells of "Molly Donahue's" ambition to have a piano, for on "Archey Road a piano is the one sure and visible symbol of the achievement of social ambition. One may be 'very dacint people' and not own a piano, but one cannot be 'fine people' unless one boasts of a dark mahogany box which takes up more than half the little parlor and is only open Saturday mornings when Miss O'Brien, the church organist, comes down to give Mary Ann a lesson in the 'Child of the Regiment,' or on state occasions when then the said Mary Ann provokes the march from 'Norma' out of its wierd interior. At other times it stands unopened, gloomy and forbidding under its purple pall, and its great legs neatly encased in puckered cambric pantaloons. It is not regarded as a medium for the expression of music so much as a landmark of progress toward wealth and culture. 'The Murphys have a pianny,' runs like fire down the road, and the Murphy's have 'arrived.' But when the 'pianny' comes out, when the rumors of lost jobs and illness culminate in the withdrawal of behemoth on the shoulders of swearing Germans, that is the day of tragedy. The Murphys are down! Hope goes out with the piano!"

Why We Boil Clothes.

There is generally a scientific reason back of all household dictum, and a little knowledge of the laws of chemistry is a great help to a bright woman, who can guide her methods thereby.

In so simple a matter as boiling clothes on the weekly wash day, it is well to know that the purpose is not to cook the linen—only to expand the pores of the fabric by heat and thus allow certain sorts of dirt to drop out. This is accomplished with half an hour of boiling and nothing whatever is accomplished by a longer stewing.

Moreover, there is assistance to be rendered the process if the laundress will frequently turn the clothes with a round stick. This not only prevents scorching against a hot surface, but helps the falling out of the loosened dirt. Care is needed unless the stick should tear the clothes.

When the hot clothes are turned out of the boiler they should be instantly plunged into very cold, clear water. This contracts the fabric and drops out more of the loosened dirt.

An Ancient Dainty.

Those of us who have been to Richmond, London, remember a certain little pastry shop where it is de rigeur to stop and eat a sort of tart known as maids of honor. The name, we are told, was given because in the palmy days of Richmond, when the King and court dined there, the real maid of honor doted upon this dainty.

Here is a recipe dating back to those days, telling us how to make the lemon filling for the tarts—the crust being merely a light paste, such as you can make at home or order of the nearest confectioner. Try this for the filling:

Half a pound of white sugar, two ounces of good fresh butter, three yolks of eggs, and the grated rind and juice of two small lemons. Put the above ingredients in a farina boiler over a pot of boiling water and stir it over a slow fire until it becomes as thick as good double cream. Pound one ounce of sweet almonds and stir them into the mixture. Fill pastry cases and bake them until the pastry is cooked.

To Prevent Colds.

An excellent preventive against colds is an allover sponge bath in water that has stood in the bowl over night, on rising in the morning. This is heroic streatment on a cold day, but if persevered in, where one is not too delicate, the result is beneficial.

Rub the body well with the hand and a coarse towel. This will set the blood to circulating opens the pores of the skin and keeps it in a healthy condition and tones the entire system.

Buy a bag of sea salt pour a quart of boiling water over a cupful and add a teaspoonful of ammonia and one of camphor. Put the mixture in a quart bottle and keep it on your washstand. Add one of two teaspoonfuls of this to the water for the morning bath, and it will be found an excellent tonic and cleanser.

PERPLEXING HAWAII

AN ISLAND WHICH HAS NO NORTH, SOUTH, EAST OR WEST.

The Difficulty of Getting One's Bearings—Terms Used in Indicating the Different Sides of Streets—Are Official and Used in All Legal Documents.

Visitors to Honolulu are often perplexed to get the points of the compass fixed in their minds with reference to streets and locations. They are still more perplexed to find nobody who knows them and nobody who feels the need of knowing them. To the visitor, especially from the Mississippi Valley, where the Congressional survey of public lands has laid out everything four-square, so that directions and distances are always thought of in their relation to north, south, east or west, this is incomprehensible.

But it does not take a very long residence there to learn that the points of the compass in the ordinary matters of direction are of very little practical use, and the prevailing system indicating locations and direction, adapted from that used by the native Hawaiians and continuing the use of their nomenclature, is a very practical one and well adapted to conditions.

The islands are small and of volcanic origin. There is at least one main range of mountains on each island, though there may be subsidiary ones. As is well-known, mountains do not run with special reference to the points of the compass. And the narrow valleys cut and crowded out of the volcanic mass and extending from the mountains to the sea bear still less appreciable relation to them. So that if one were to establish the points of the compass with relation to any one of these valleys a quarter of a mile would bring him to another, where he would have to take his bearings all afresh. But there are two objects he can never get out of sight of. These are the mountain and the sea. And on this fact the basis both of the nomenclature and of the system of direction rests. With relation to any point the two cardinal directions are toward the mountain and toward the sea. Now, the native Hawaiian terms for these are "mauka," toward or in direction of the mountain, and "makai" toward or in direction of the sea.

The topography of the country, a series of valleys extending from the mountain to the sea, and the feudal tenure under which land was held in the ancient day, led to the division of the country into narrow strips, or districts—moku, as the larger were called; ahupuaa, the next smaller, and ili, those still smaller, but all, with very few exceptions, extending from the seashore to the top of the mountain. In this way common people, restricted to their own ilis, yet had access to the sea to fish and swim and ride the surf, to the mountains for firewood and building material, and to land between to cultivate taro. The boundaries of these districts were all carefully defined in time immemorial and remain the same to-day.. Moreover, each district had its name, and that name remains.

With the mountain above and the sea below and the narrow districts in succession, each with its boundaries and name well defined, the basis of the system and nomenclature of direction was complete. A given point or object is "mauka," toward the mountain, or "makai," toward the sea, in relation to another object or point; and and it is "waihihi, or "ewa," in the direction of the district of Ewa, for the other relations of direction.

So that in Honolulu, for instance, where no street runs north and south, or east and west, and few streets run straight in any direction for any great distance, no one speaks of the north or south side of the street—no one can; nor of the east and west sides. But every street has a mauka and makai side, or a waihihi and ewa side So a particular corner may be precisely and accurately described as the mauka-waihihi corner, or the makai-ewa.

These terms are not only colloquial, but official. They are used in contracts, deeds, wills and statutes. They suit conditions and have grown out of them.

Mere Perversity.

"Dar's one of de sma'test mules in dis city," announced the proud proprietor of an ash cart to one of his patrons. "He unde'stan's eb'ry wo'd I say, same like he was a pusson."

"Hardly, I guess. Tell him to go ahead a little."

"Get up, dar, Sunshine!" and the mule began to back.

"Look at that, now."

"Dat's what I'se telling you, boss. Ef dat mule don't unde'stan' me pehfect, how do he know to do de op'site ebery time? He never miss since I had him, boss."—Detroit Free Press.

A Strange Animal.

Devil's Island, made famous as the prison of Dreyfus, has a strange species of animal found nowhere else on earth. This odd animal has been called the coati, and is a peculiar combination of mammiferous, carnivorous plantigrade

It is about the size of a cat when full grown, with a long head shaped like a pyramid, a tremendous nose, making it the Cyrano of animals. The jaws are long, like those of the young alligator and it uses its forepaws to carry its food to the mouth, as monkeys and squirrels do.

From the Other Side.

Here is a "personal!" that appeared not long ago in a London newspaper:

"Willie, return to your distracted wife and frantic children! Do you want to hear of your old mother's suicide? You will if you do not let us know where you are. Anyway, send back your father's colored meerschaum."

And yet we say the Briton has no very lively sense of humor.

The City of Ghent.

The famous old city of Ghent, Belgium is built on twenty-six islands, which are connected with one another by eighty bridges. Three hundred streets and thirty public squares are contained in these islands.

The Mushroom Lever.

In London a paving stone which weighed 500 pounds, and which was wedged in on all sides by other stones, was lifted up by a mushroom.

OPEN EVENINGS. FURNITURE.

Wouldn't a clean finished, well-made piece of Furniture make an ideal Christmas present?

FURNITURE. Jardinier Stands from 50c to $5.00.

POWLISON & JONES,

149 and 151 E. Front Street.

Choice Pieces, Odd Pieces,

Expensive Pieces, Cheap Pieces

In China, Metal and Glass.

Look at Our Line : :

JOS. W. GAVETT,

318 WEST FRONT STREET,

BUY YOUR PHONOGRAPHS,

Gramophones, Records and Supplies

A GOOD MACHINE AT $5.00.

BROKAW'S . . .

The Piano Dealer, 123 East Front Street.

XMAS SLIPPERS!

SHOES, RUBBER BOOTS,

DRESS SUIT CASES. TRAVELING BAGS.

The Largest Stock to select from. The most useful and suitable CHRISTMAS PRESENT.

DOANE & EDSALL.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.

at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use

REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT,

Made only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,

At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

John G. Bantle,

First-class

Ladies' and Gent's

TAILOR.

428 Watchung Avenue.

Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

Ladie Desiring . .

KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING

done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 203 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

BANK ELECTION.

CITY NATIONAL BANK

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of this bank, for the election of nine Directors to serve for the ensuing year, will be held at the Banking rooms, corner of Park avenue and Front street, on Tuesday, January 9th, 1900, from 1 to 2 o'clock p. m.

WILLIAM F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

Dated Plainfield, N. J., December 7th, 1899.

12-8 9 11 13 15 16 19 22 26 28 30 1-2 4 6 8

ESTATE of Carl Wilhelm Georg Eduard Schipper, generally known as Charles Schipper, deceased Pursuant to the order of George T Parrot, Surrogate of the county of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, executors of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the eleventh day of October, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscribers.

CHARLES T. BINGHAM,
GUSTAV SCHIPPER.
Executors.

10 17 9 oaw tu

ESTATE of William H. Brower, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, executors of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the fourteenth day of November, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscribers.

SARAH J. BROWER,
JOHN L. BROWER,
Executors.

11 21 9 oaw tu

: : Pride's Tonsorial Parlor : :

94 SOMERSET STREET,

opposite Somerset Hotel.

Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty . . . . .

CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.

-:- WILLIAM J. PRIDE, -:-

formerly with E. B. Maynard.

M. Molnar,

432 Watchung Ave.,

Ladies' and Gents'

FINE TAILORING

Graduate of

New York Cutting School.

Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with old clothes and I will take chances of being entrusted with new work.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.

Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum

NEUMAN BROS.,

GROCERS,

Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall Streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 29, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 46, 9 16, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 54, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 06, 7 39, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12.00 m., 12 58 1 45, 2 40, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 9 34, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m.; 1 01, 2 08, 2 20, 3 22, 4 35, 5 03, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamauqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked *) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 19, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N.J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.

Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.

Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.

Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.

Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.

Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket timetables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.

26 Cortlandt St., New York.

FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent, 218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

. L. Manning & Son.

STEAM

GRANITE WORKS,

Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low

---

XXXX QUALITY

FINEST

LOFOTEN COD LIVER OIL,

Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.

Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at

39c per Pint.

For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at

50c per Bottle,

or the Tasteless at

75c per Bottle.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,

Hepburn & Co.,

Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,

213 WEST FRONT ST.

Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

The New Holiday Goods

are here in larger and better variety than ever before. There is a certain satisfaction in buying Holiday novelties here—the entire stock is new—something which others cannot claim, and everything is priced moderately, in fact lower than you would pay elsewhere.

A Wonderful Showing of Handkerchiefs.

A COMPLETE stock of Men's initial handkerchiefs, put up half-dozen to the box.

The Largest and Best Assortment of Kid Gloves

Good gloves, which we guarantee and such as you desire for Christmas gifts.

New Sterling Silver Novelties, Silver-trimmed Leather Novelties, Umbrellas.

Mackintoshes.

A complete stock of Goodyear mackintoshes for ladies and misses These goods were bought before the heavy advance in prices; therefore you can buy good mackintoshes here at the old prices.

I. LEDERER.

Our Attractive Holiday Display

awaits your inspection. We are glad to welcome visitors and pleased to show our goods.

A. L. & M. D. Gorsline, 144 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

FALL OPENING.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.

OUR STOCK COMPLETE

We are now ready to fit either man or boy in Suits, or Overcoats, Hats and Gent's Furnishings.

Boys' Suits from 75c to $5 00.

Men's Suits from $2.00 to $20.00.

Have you tried a pair of our Celebrated Cassimere Pants at 98c the pair, if not do so—they are the talk of the town; sold over 1 000 pairs the past season; never rip and fit to perfection. Give us a call.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,

206 West Front Street.

Don't Rack Your Brain

Trying to think what to give for a Christmas present. Anything in the Shoe or Slipper line is very appropriate. Our assortment and prices will please you.

VANARSDALE, 127 East Front St.

Repairing Properly Done.

$1.00 A YEAR — McCLURE'S MAGAZINE — 10c A COPY

NOTABLE FEATURES FOR 1900

THE LIFE OF THE MASTER

By the REV. JOHN WATSON, D. D.

Author of "The Mind of the Master;" "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush," etc.

Illustrated, largely in color, from pictures made in Palestine, by CORWIN KNAPP LINSON

A Novel by - - - ANTHONY HOPE
Frequent Contributions by RUDYARD KIPLING
Short Stories by - - MARK TWAIN

SCIENCE AND EXPLORATION

The Hottest Heat
Filter Plants of Europe
Bacteriology in Commerce
The Inside of the Earth
Lieut. Peary's Latest Campaign for the Pole
Cy Warman's Account of the Klondike Railroad
On the Greatest Ship Afloat

SHORT STORIES by such well-known writers as Bret Hart, Cy Warman, Booth Tarkington, Shan F. Bullock, Tighe Hopkins, Robert Barr, Clinton Ross, W. A. Fraser.

INTERESTING ARTICLES by Lieut. Richmond P. Hobson, Capt Joshua Slocum, Hamlin Garland, R. S. Baker, Rev. Cyrus T. Brady, Prof. E. S. Holden, Ex-Gov. G S Boutwell, and others.

THE S. S. McCLURE COMPANY

200 East 25th Street

NEW YORK CITY NEW YORK

RUSHTON & HANSEN,

Painters and Paper Hangers,

Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Street

Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11

E. B. Maynard,

NEW SHOP NEW FURNITURE BEST SERVICE

Tonsorial Artist . . .

Also CHOICE CIGARS.

41 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

E. D. BARRETT,

Sanitary Plumbing,

Steam and Hot Water Heating.

Telephone 612. 140 East Fifth Street.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.

MONEY TO LOAN.

197 North Ave.

Wm. D. Thickstun John P. Emmon

Telephone 601

FOUGHT IN SILENCE

LEADERS IN WAR WHO WERE NOT TALKERS.

There was Grant, Lee and Jackson Who Were Sphinxes—And Dewey Also Does Not Shine as a Talker—Glances at English History.

Sir Redvers Buller is no talker. This point is dwelt upon in all character sketches of the man who has been sent by England to crush the Boers. However he may loosen his tongue in society, he becomes a sphinx when there is campaigning in hand.

Come to think of it, the same observation is true of most great Generals. War does not go hand in hand with loquacity. Deep thought on scientific slaughter translates itself into action rather than words.

To begin at home, take Grant. There was a silent man for you! The youngest officer of his staff was welcome to have more to say in the councils than he. Grant would listen. Grant would reflect. When the right moment arrived Grant would act. But Grant would not talk.

On the other side, Lee and Jackson conformed to the same rule. As commanders they were taciturn. So in the Revolution was Greene. And for all these American Generals the great Washington stood as an exemplar of silence in action.

So, too, Gen. Buller presents the spectacle of a silent man in arms against men of silence. The Boer commanders are sparing of words. In camp Joubert and Cronje preserve the austere stillness of Quakers.

Apply this test of silence to two recent conquerors on land and sea, the idols respectively of England and America. Kitchener and Dewey both shine as illustrious types of the wordless warrior. To each of them public speech is a painful ordeal—next door to a total impossibility. In the face of great emergencies each expresses his will in a few words of icy clearness. And each achieves that which inspires the talkative man to throw his hat in the air and yell. There was little in common between their respective tasks. Kitchener's demanded doggedness, Dewey's called for dash. With the English General it was a question of vast preliminary organization covering many months; of many more months spent in a tedious advance in the face of difficulties; finally of a well-planned battle.

With the American Admiral it was a question of sailing at midnight into a bay where devastation lurked beneath the ripples and of destroying the enemy after dawn. But in the achievement of hours, as in the achievement of months, it was the silent man that made history.

If Napoleon had talked more when on duty the world would know less of the clever things he said when there was no campaigning to occupy his mind.

Witty as he was in the Tuileries and discursive in captivity, his lips were clasped with iron when he presided at a military council. All his other faculties were alive, as becomes a General. He saw everything, heard everything; but of words he was a miser. When it was necessary to speak his phrases were as brief as they could be made. In half a dozen words he could make clear more than another man could express in a hundred. And to such an extent did he carry this reserve that he disliked even to have his features studied, lest the words he did not utter might be read there. This fear led him to adopt the manoeuvre of first borrowing and then pocketing the scrutinizing officer's snuff-box, after which the offender's anxiety for the return of his property superseded all curiosity about the commander's facial expression. This amusing precaution was the result of an exaggerated fear, for Napoleon's face was trained in the art of concealment as thoroughly as that of a seasoned poker player.

Not less chary of speech was the Emperor's conqueror, the Duke of Wellington. Whether as statesman or soldier, he was a man of few words; but it is especially noticeable that during that part of his career when he was building a great military reputation he was noted for taciturnity. His staff officers in the Peninsular campaign sometimes felt humiliated at being taken so little into his confidence.

To go further back in English history, the great Marlborough, who scourged the French, was just as sparing of words during business hours as he was free with them in the course of a scolding match with his wife. And the contrast points a moral: For whereas the great Duke may be recorded as a domestic failure, he was pre-eminently a military success, inasmuch as he won every battle he ever fought and captured every city he ever besieged.

Of modern strategists the greatest was Von Moltke, and with him silence was almost a religion. If he could express his will with a gesture he preferred not to open his lips at all. Thus, when he was dining he would point to the dish he desired, and his attendant learned to keep an eye alert for his master's hand rather than an ear open for the great man's voice. The General was in bed when news came that the French had declared war. An aide-de-camp awoke him with the intelligence, upon which Von Moltke's sole comment before going to sleep again was:

"Second pigeon hole on the right, first tier."

There the amazed aide found a bundle of papers containing mobilization plans and an outline of the campaign with the French.

But it is possible to trace the great soldier as a silent man far back into antiquity. Hannibal, for example, one of the greatest military commanders of all time, was conspicuously taciturn in his councils. So was Julius Caesar. So were Charlemagne, William the Conqueror, Bolivar, Tamerlane, Prince Eugene and Prince Rupert.

A pistol saber is a new form of weapon now engaging the attention of the French War Department. It has a firearm in the hilt, and when the sword meets with a resisting surface it recedes and the pistol is discharged. The sword weighs one third more than the usual cavalry weapon, and when the pistol is not loaded the saber can be used in the ordinary way. Experiments show that the bullet will go through a breast plate may make speeches, learn parliamentary law and swing the gavel, but she still retains the care of the home and desires its protection through Life Insurance.

1013

THE WOMAN OF 1899

WRITE FOR PARTICULARS

Home Office Newark, N. J. The Prudential Insurance Co. of America.

JOHN F. DRYDEN, President. LESLIE D. WARD, Vice-President.
EDGAR B. WARD, 2d V. P. & Counsel. FORREST F. DRYDEN, Secretary.

J. E. WOODLAND, Sup't., E. Front St. and Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

SPORTING.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The Daily Press Bowling League.

	Games Won.	Games Lost.	High Score.
Park Club	3	0	864
Roselle Casino	2	1	837
Westfield Club	1	2	826
Cranford Casino	0	3	765

The annual bowling contests between the Bachelors and Benedicts of the Park Club have come to be looked forward to with much interest by the members of that popular club. This year the bowling committee has arranged that the contests shall take place as usual during the Christmas season. The first of the matches will be held Saturday night on the club alleys. It will be the Saturday before Christmas and the young people at college and at business in other cities will be home for the holiday. The second of the matches will be held on the Saturday following, December 30th. If neither side wins both games, the deciding match will be rolled a week later.

ON THE GRIDIRON.

It is rather to be regretted that the past football season saw no meeting between the Alis football team of this city and the elevens of Dunellen and Scotch Plains. The blame cannot, however, be laid on the management of the Alis team. No challenge was sent in by either the Dunellen or the Scotch Plains teams until a few days ago, when Manager Charles Woolston received one over the telephone from Hardingham, of Dunellen. It is not at all likely that any game will be played now. The season is over and it would be foolish to make any attempt to play now. Manager Woolston says that the Alis team will be delighted to meet both Dunellen and Scotch Plains for practice games at the first of next season.

BASKET BALL.

Physical Director C. E. A. Heywood, of the Plainfield Y. M. C. A., has received a challenge from the Summit association to a series of basket ball games and bowling matches. It is expected that the first of the series of matches will be playad in Summit this month.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on L. W. Randolph, Druggist, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded

What Can You Do With It?

This is a question we can answer better after we have seen the garment you want dyed. When our wagon is in your neighborhood, let it bring your goods to the store and then, at your convenience, come in and let us tell you just what we can do and the cost. Don't be prejudiced against dyeing. Ofttimes you can't tell the goods from new.

HILLIER & CO.,
129 West Front Street,
Opposite Crosby & Hill's. 'Phone 851.

AT THE CHILDREN'S HOME.

Articles That Are Needed Most For Christmas Presents at That Worthy Institution.

By the courtesy of the editor, I can answer several notes by one. The Apostle Paul tells us to "covet earnestly the best gifts." Our best gift is always money, but we have beside many other needs. Come with me to our wardrobe room. A pair of shoes for school and church means for our twenty-six children fifty-two pairs; and we are always glad of a few extra pairs for unlooked for arrivals. Three handkerchiefs a week each, means from seventy-five to eighty on our shelves. There are in weekly use more than fifty pairs of stockings. Beside, sometimes, the little feet are accidentally wet, and if an attractive mudpuddle offers, gleefully and with enthusiasm—multiply the wants of any child in the comfortable homes of our city by twenty-five or thirty and you will have a good idea of our needs. We need unbleached muslin sheeting, crib width, with 2¼ and 2½ for the larger beds. Shoes and rubbers for twenty-six children; twenty-three between three and ten years old. Knee pants, handkerchiefs, ginghams and prints; books, toys and games suggest themselves at Christmas to all lovers of children. The Christmas tree will be lighted during the week between Christmas and New Years. Notice of time given later. M. E. Kimball.

Dec. 19th, 1899.

RELIABLE CLOTHING

At Harry Werners Store is Quality, Variety and Low Prices.

Not the least of the reliable clothing establishments in this city is that of Harry Werner at 206 West Front street. There can be found men's suits displayed at prices ranging from $2 to $20. They make a specialty of cassmere pants at 98 cents a pair that are equal to some that are sold for twice that sum of money.

As a special inducement to all purchasers of a suit of clothing or overcoat Mr. Werner presents the customer with a valuable nickel watch. Not a cheap time piece, but a genuine watch that will keep accurate time and that is warranted to do so. Many men are carrying these watches, which are made by one of the celebrated watch manufacturies of Connecticut.

But these watches are no more reliable than is the clothing that Mr. Werner sells. Remember this is a home institution and there's no liability of being imposed upon. Christmas shoppers who have not yet selected these gifts should drop in and examine the full line of furnishings, hats, etc., that is displayed. Dont go out of town when you can do as well at home.

Comforting for the Parents.

The funeral services of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David McInnes, of 443 Webster place, were held yesterday afternoon when a number of relatives and friends gathered at the home of the heart broken parents and showed their feelings of sympathy through the gift of beautiful floral tributes. Miss Florence Kline sang two selections, and Rev. G. Kenney Newell, pastor of Hope chapel, spoke comforting words about the loss of the young daughter. The remains were laid to rest in Hillside cemetery beside those of her grandmother.

The engagement is announced of Miss Maude E. VanDyke, of East Front street, and William D. Bauer, of Somerville.

To Cure Constipation in One Week
To Purify the Blood in One Week
To Strengthen Nerves in One Week
To Cure Sick Headache in One Day

Take Cleveland's Celery Compound Tea, 25c. Trial size free. It it fails to cure your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary corner Park and North avenues.

THE DEFENSE GOES ON.

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

to the stand at 3:40 o'clock. He told substantially the same story as Edward Clark regarding the circumstances leading up to the shooting. He testified that he saw Mrs. Fingerhuth's head, arm and shoulder project out of the window or door, he wasn't sure which, but thought the former, and then saw the shot fired by her and Mr. Roehricht fell. No new facts were elicited in the cross examination.

Emil Dembowsky, foreman at Somerset Park, took the stand at 3:51 o'clock. He told of the living of Fingerhuth as his assistant and the subsequent notice of Fingerhuth's discharge in a letter from Roehricht. Fingerhuth was unable to read and Dembowsky read it to him. He related the incidents of the visits to the Allen homestead in substantially the same manner as the other witnesses.

He told of the conversation between Mrs. Fingerhuth and Mr. Roehricht just before the shooting. The conversation was in German. She said it was a shame to put a solitary woman out, that he had no right to do so and asked why he didn't come when her husband was home or send the Sheriff. Roehricht said that it was not his fault and she would have to get out.

The cross-examination went more closely into this conversation but failed to bring out anything new. That ended the afternoon session and court adjourned at 4:10 until the next morning at 10:15.

The Fingerhuths sat together during the progress of the trial and apparently listened to the testimony with much interest. Mrs. Fingerhuth is a woman of about fifty years of age. Her gray hair was brushed back from her forehead and twisted up behind in a simple manner. She wore a gown of a woolen material of a blue-gray color, trimmed with blue velvet, the sleeves of which were of the old-fashioned loose style. She has a kindly intelligent face showing character. She was rather pale, but showed no other signs of her long confinement. When the court first opened she seemed nervous, but that soon passed away. Theodore and Oscar Fingerhuth, father and son, did not seem agitated. Both were dressed in black with white standup collars and fancy bow neckties. Mr. Fingerhuth has a bushy black beard, slightly tinged with gray. He looked like a German, and lacked the bright intelligent expression of his wife. Oscar Fingerhuth is a young man of about twenty-one years, with an intelligent face. He has a small moustache. He has the dark complexion and hair of his father.

History of the Crime.

The capital crime of which the Fingerhuths are accused was the immediate result of an attempt by their landlord to forcibly eject them from the old Aaron Allen homestead in Somerset Park, two miles from this city, in the Washington Valley. Theodore Fingerhuth was engaged by Paul Roehricht, proprietor of Somerset Park, as a landscape gardener. He was allowed to live in the Allen homestead with his family. His work was not satisfactory to Roehricht, who discharged him and ordered him to leave the house. He did not, claiming to have a yearly contract with Roehricht. Roehricht denied the existance of such a contract.

Roehricht's attorney, Robert M. Clark, made frequent efforts to persuade the Fingerhuths to leave the place but they would not go. Wednesday, September 13th, Mr. Fingerhuth and son, Oscar, left the house in the afternoon. On their departure, Roehricht, his lawyer and several others went to the house and tried to persuade Mrs. Fingerhuth to leave. She would not. Then Lawyer Clark forced an entrance and she pointed a revolver at him and pulled the tricker. The cartridge failed to explode. Clark tried to get into the house another way when Mrs. Fingerhuth opened the door and shot Roehricht who was standing just outside. He died almost immediately. Mrs. Fingerhuth made no resistance when the constables came to arrest her. Husband and son were arrested as accessories.

Paid Taxes in the Evening.

A large number of boroughites took advantage of the tax collector's office being open Saturday evening and paid their taxes. It was nearly 9 o'clock before Collector Brown was able to close the office. He will keep the office open this evening.

Rode Without a Light.

Sentence was suspended on Raymond Todd this morning by City Judge Runyon for riding his bicycle at night without a light.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

KEAN MAY BUILD HIS LINE.

Rumor That He Has Not Abandoned the County Boulevard Scheme Between Plainfield and Elizabeth.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Dec. 19.—The Westfield Avenue Commissioners held a meeting here yesterday, at the Courthouse, to prepare their final report for presentation to Judge Van Syckel.

It is said now that Senator Kean will not abandon his original intention to construct a trolley line from Elizabeth to Plainfield, on Westfield avenue, but will endeavor to secure the land needed to widen the avenue to the required 100 feet, in order to make it a county boulevard.

There is no change in the situation between the Elizabeth and Westfield Trolley Company and the Elizabeth city authorities. The Hine-Riker syndicate has not yet sent to the City Council a formal written refusal of the franchise offered the Company by the city, and the delay on the syndicate's part in rejecting the city's terms is taken to indicate that it is doubtful if the proposition will be ultimately refused.

MT. OLIVE CHURCH OFFICERS.

Deacons Chosen at the Annual Meeting of Members East Night.

There was a large attendance of the members at the Mt. Olive Baptist church last evening when the annual meeting for the election of officers was held. The following were selected: Deacons, Sipio Whindleton, D. H. Brown, Albert Wilson, Peter Gordon, William Phillips, R. Yetman; treasurer, Oscar Green; clerk, N. J. Pollard; assistant clerk, T. J. Banks; organists, Horatio Randolph and Miss Alice Maynard. The following trustees were nominated to be voted upon at the meeting to be held the first Monday evening in January: J. W. Reed, W. H. Manning, John Scott, John See, Charles Barber, Samuel Fields and William Burton.

WAS TOP-HEAVY.

The Result Was That a Load of Furniture Tipped Over in the Street.

A spring wagon, drawn by a gray horse and loaded with furniture, upset about 3:30 o'clock yesterday asternoon at the corner of West Front street and Madison avenue. The furniture was too much for the wagon and the load becoming top-heavy, toppled over. There was a profusion of bed room suites, chairs, tables, bed springs, etc., strewn about the street and in the midst of the debris the contents of a barrel of sauer kraut was conspicuous. The accident caused a crowd to collect and many amusing comments were made.

Hopes for Their Recovery.

The condition of Mrs. William C. Chamberlain and her fifteen year-old daughter, Lottie, who were burned terrible on Sunday last, remains about the same. Dr. Lowrie has more hopes of the recovery of the mother and daughter as thus far they do not show any signs of having inhaled the flames. Neither one can rest very well as they suffer the most intense pain. Constant attention is given them and the soothing applications afford temporary relief.

To Debate Government Ownership.

The subject for the next debate of the Y. M. C. A., on January 8th, under the auspices of the literary society, will be "That the United States should own all public railroads and telegraph lines within its domains." O S Rogers and T. A. Cumming will take the affirmative, and George S. Clay and J. H. Crane, the negative.

Red Hot From the Gun

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible Ulcers that no treatment helped for 20 years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Boils, Felons, Corns, Skin Eruptions. Best Pile cure on earth. 25cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

A Comparative Fact.

The Lieutanant Governor of South Carolina wears a purple robe of office when presiding over the Senate, but he hasn't anything in his private or or official parapharnalia that will compare with the triple-plated shaving cups offered at Collier's, 103 Park avenue, for $1 50. A Christmas smile is sure to adorn the face of the husband or father who gets one.

New Coaling Trestle.

A large force of men were at work all day Sunday on the new trestle to be used for coaling locomotives of the Lehigh Valley Railroad at South Plainfield. The new arrangement will save a great deal of time and also work.

To Nominate Officers

Unity Lodge, No. 102, K. of P., will meet tomorrow evening and nominate officers to be elected at the regular meeting to be held next week Wednesday. At the meeting tomorrow night the second rank will be conferred.

A Violin Recital.

Prof. P. Ludwig Conde is arranging to give a violin recital in Y. M. C. A. Hall some time in February, when he will play selections of the old masters.

—Bantel, the tailor, has a telephone in his store—No. 163.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—The Y. M. C. A. will hold an informal reception in the small hall Christmas Day. On New Year's open house will be kept.

—The Hotel Kensington has taken on its holiday appearance and a generous display of suitable decoration is very attractive.

—This week is a seafood week. They will have the stock. There oysters are the finest. Place your holiday order early. Rogers.

—An auxiliary telephone has been established at Woodhull & Martin's store, which connects the main store with the carpet department. The work was done by Elwood Sebring, of this city.

PARTICULAR ME TION.

Miss VanEps, of East Front street, has returned from a visit with relatives at Pluckamin.

Mrs Saunders, wife of Patrolman Saunders, who recently underwent an operation for trouble of long standing, is improving rapidly and her recovery seems assured.

FARM NOTES.

Cold, Dry, Even Temperature for Apples.

One of the prime factors in keeping apples is having an atmosphere sufficiently dry to prevent the appearance of fungous growth, such as rots, mildews, scabs and the like. There is no great difficulty in getting the proper atmosphere, but when this is secured the apples are apt to get too much moisture and become shriveled. This will always occur when there is the least circulation of air in the storage room. Prevent this and there is not so much danger of tough, leathery fruit. The colder the storage room the more moisture the atmosphere may safely contain without danger of damage to the fruit. For apples, just as near freezing as as can be safely secured in the most desirable temperature. Be very careful to keep the temperature of the room even, not allowing it to become warm, then lowering it suddenly. Any moisture in the air will be deposited upon the fruit if any changes of temperature are permitted. It is the opinion of many of those most experienced in cold storage that apples keep better when placed in barrels which are headed as soon as filled.—Orange Judd Farmer.

The Orchard.

When an orchard of apple or pear trees begin to bear fruit, the land should be enriched at least once in two years. It is a mistaken idea to suppose fruit will grow to full size unless the trees are well fed, and to grow good fruit at the present time requires a constant watchfulness from the first opening of the spring to the closing of the autumn. In regions where the canker worm is found the trees should be protected by a strip of tarred paper as soon as a warm day in the spring appears, unless this enemy is to be destroyed by spraying the trees after the worm hatches out. The tent caterpillar makes its appearance as soon as the leaves begin to grow, and should be attended to by spraying the trees or by using a light pole with a rag wound round the end of it, saturated with kerosene, and drawn through every nest as soon as the worms are all hatched. Do not let them get large before employing some means of killing them. Following the tent caterpillar and canker worm is the codling moth, which, unless destroyed, will lay eggs on almost every apple and pear, producing the worms so destructive to the fruit.—Farmer's Advocate.

Nurse Cows.

We have several very old cows which are practicaly unsalable, but with care produce a calf every year. These cows are too old to nurse their calves, so I take the calf away when a day or two old and put it on a nurse cow, thus giving the cow ample time to recover her strength and get in good condition, and I have a calf that will at a year old bring from $150 to $250. Again, there is a time when in a bunch of heifers you find some that cannot raise their calves properly. I consider it in such cases good policy to help the calf with a little extra milk from a nurse cow. We have bought during the last year a large number of young bulls, and had some of them had a little help from a nurse cow in their calfhood they would have brought their owners twice as much as they did. Believing as I do that the future productive power, either good or bad, in a great measure depends upon the way the calf is cared for from its birth to its period of usefulness, I feel sure that there are circumstances in all breeds where a nurse cow has a great advantage both financially and for the welfare and benefit of the beef breeds.—Breeder's Gazette.

GEO. W. COLE,
—UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,—
306 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
RESIDENCE 306 W. SECOND ST. DAY AND NIGHT

WANTS AND OFFERS.

FOR SALE—A few choice pullets. Apply 161 Grove street.

YOUNG man wants position as kitchenman or care for horses. Address 615 West Third street.

WANTED—White girl for general housework; references required. 330 East Fifth Street. 12 18 2

Great Price Reductions

on Men's Overcoats and Suits, as well as on Boys' and Children's Suits, Overcoats and Trousers. There never was a busier season with us as we have had for the last three months, therefore we had to purchase very largely all through the season, made it a very large accumulation of odd suits and overcoats leaving us from 2 to 5 garments of each style and in order to close out this entire lot we have marked them down to such tremendously low prices that we expect to make a clean sweep of the entire lot in very short order.

We have also made a purchase in the last 3 days of 500 overcoats of the finest quality and made in the latest style, that will not stand us more than 35 cents on the dollar, they will be included in the above sale.

The following prices will be made for the next three days:

150 MEN'S BUSINESS SUITS, made of pure all-wool cassimeres and cheviots, in neat and stylish checked and plaid patterns, good looking, first-class suits, that were never before or never likely again be so d for less than 9 00, for this 3-day sale at 3 95

MEN'S ALL-WOOL FANCY CHEVIOT, CASSIMERE and HOMESPUN SUITS in single breasted styles with double breasted vests, are elegant dress or business suit, made up with an eye to give good service, in fact, you can't touch them in other stores for less than 12 00, our lucky purchase enables us to offer them at the extremely low price of 4.90.

169 MEN'S KERSEY and BEAVER OVERCOATS, all-wool, black or blue deep French facing, extra heavy Italian lining, sleeves lined with the celebrated Iron Yarn cloth, a recognized 10.00 value at 4.25.

MEN'S OVERCOATS of all-wool kerseys and covert cloths, presenting the latest English box style, they hang just perfectly and fit just where you want them to, have hand-made button-holes and are 12 00 to 14 00 values, at this sale 5 95.

500 TWO-PIECE BOYS' SUITS, all-wool materials, new and pleasing styles, double seat and knee, sizes 7 to 15, could not be sold for less than 3 00. to be sold at 1 45.

BOYS' FINE TWO-PIECE SUITS in all the newest designs in plaids and mixtures, also in plain black and blue cheviots, double seat and knees, elegantly trimmed and tailored, worth 5.00, to be sold at this great sale at 2.25

BOYS' REEFER COATS at 1.25 and 1 50 made of all wool chinchillas with the regulation sailor collars, with warm woolen lining, sizes 3 to 8 years, positively worth 3 00.

YOUNG MEN'S SUITS, ages 14 to 19, at 2 50, 3.50 and 4 50, handsomely made with narrow legged pants, other stores would sell them at from 5 00 to 10 00.

FINE YOUNG MEN'S OVERCOATS, sizes 14 to 19, at 1.75, 2.75 and 4 75, worth double at wholesale.

Don't make a mistake by missing this wonderful sale of clothing. Sale will begin this Saturday morning at 8 a. m. Will last for 8 days only.

New York Clothing Company
M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.
Plainfield, N. J.

Sterling Silver Novelties.

In addition to our extensive showing of sterling silverware we have added a new assortment of silver sets complete, enclosed in leather cases. These are very beautiful goods, of the best quality and are priced very moderately—Sterling Novelties as low as 25c, 39c, 49c, 59c, 75c, 98c.

HANDKERCHIEFS—New lines have been added to our splendid showing of handkerchiefs, making a truly bewildering assortment. Some decidedly good values are offered at 10c, 12½c and 15c.—One lot of pure linen embroidered handkerchiefs at 25c each is worthy of attention.

WOMEN'S KID GLOVES—69c, 79c; warranted gloves, 1.00, 1.25, 1.50.

UMBRELLAS—75c to 3.50.

MACKINTOSHES FOR WOMEN—3.50, 4.50—MISSES' SIZES—2.49, 3.75.

EIDERDOWN SACQUES—1.00, 1.39, 1.75, 2.25.

I. LEDERER.

HORSE WANTED—Would like to take a good work horse for the winter, to use about every other day, for his keep; best of care and feeding Address Reliable, care Press. 12 18 2

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 24

WANTED—Young man, 18 to 20, who understands care of horse. Apply 912 West Seventh street. 12 19 2 tu s

OFFICE to let. Inquire 159 Crescent Ave. 12 19 3

WANTED—Eight to ten room house, about $3,000. Give all particulars. Address S. B. A., care Press. 12 19 6

THREE pleasant convenient rooms to let for light housekeeping. 404 Third street, corner Central avenue. 12 11 11

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

YOUNG colored man wishes situation in private family. Call 302 Arlington avenue. 12 18 3

LOST—Sunday morning, on Somerset or Front streets, heavy red sweater. Reward if returned to this office. 12 18 2

FIRST-CLASS washer and ironer wants situation. Apply Jas. Frisby, Sycamore avenue. 12 18 2

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

HELP WANTED — Machinists, lathe and planer hands; good men can find steady job and good wages. Address P. O. Box 103. Cincinnati, Ohio. 12 8 13

WANTED—Situation to look after furnaces, etc.; have first-class references. Thomas Jones, 368 Arlington avenue. 12 13 6

MASSAGE :-: VAPOR BATHS
CORNS REMOVED 25c.
M V. STICKLE, 149 East Fifth St.

WINES made only from selected grapes and cane sugar crystal. Twenty-five cents per bottle and upward. "THE VINEYARDS," Park Ave., corner Cooper St., Fanwood. 12 18 12

S. R. STRUTHERS
offers his services as accountant. Books opened and closed. Trial balances made and Balance Sheets shown.
Call or address
544 WEST FRONT STREET. 12 13 12

SPECIAL!!
HAIR DRESSING, SHAMPOOING, MANICURING.
Until after the Holiday Season
MISS HOLMES,
Graduate of the New York School of Hair Dressing and Dermatology,
will make special rates for hair dressing in all the latest styles for street and evening: at parlors 75c. At ladies residences by appointment. Shampooing or Facial Massage and steaming (for eradicating imperfections of the skin) 75c. Manicuring 50c.
440 W. FRONT ST.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:20 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:35 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:35 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair Tonight and Thursday; Stationary Temperature. Ther. 38.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

TOLD STORY OF SHOOTING.

Mrs. Fingerhuth Put on the Witness Stand Today.

DIDN'T MEAN TO SHOOT.

WAS FEARFUL HER LIFE WAS IN DANGER.

Testified That Clark Had a Revolver in His Hand—Broke Into Sobs and Judge Adjourned Court for Dinner.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

Somerville, December 20—Confident that her own testimony would go a great ways towards clearing her of the charge of the willful murder of Paul Roehricht, at Somerset Park, September 12th, Mrs. Henrietta Fingerhuth, who is accused of that crime, was put on the stand herself today in the continuation of the trial in the Somerset County Court.

When court convened at 10:20 this morning the direct examination of Theodore Fingerhuth, her husband, held as an accessory to the crime, was continued. Fingerhuth testified that after the alleged discharge of him by Roehricht in June, Emil Dembrosky, representing Roehricht, had told him that though his services were not wanted he would be permitted to occupy the house on the property until March 15th, 1900. Then the defense tried to spring a sensational piece of testimony by starting to show that on the first Sunday in June Roehricht had a talk with Fingerhuth, during which the former suggested that Fingerhuth have his household goods insured and then set fire to the house in order to secure the insurance money for both contents and building. This line of questioning brought forth a quick objection from Prosecutor Dungan, and Judge Magie sustained the objections. This ended the direct examination of Fingerhuth.

In the cross-examination by Prosecutor Dungan he sought to bring out the fact that Fingerhuth's work had been unsatisfactory, but he was unable to make the witness admit such a condition. The circumstances of the trouble with Roehricht, as related by Fingerhuth in his direct examination, were gone into minutely, but the Prosecutor was unable to shake the testimony as first given. Before Fingerhuth's direct examination was ended he identified Exhibits 3 and 4, which were the letters that passed between the witness and Roehricht when the former was employed.

Just before noon, Mrs. Fingerhuth, the prisoner, was called to the stand. She does not understand English well enough to testify in that language, and her evidence was translated in German by an interpreter. She acted calm and collected when she assumed the witness chair, and told in detail of the preliminaries that led up to the happenings within a short time of the killing of Roehricht. She testified that on September 7, Lawyer R. M. Clark came to the house and told her husband to move out, but he would not agree to.

On September 11th, the day before the tragedy, she testified that she was engaged about her housework when she heard loud voices coming from the garden. She investigated and found her husband engaged in a heated conversation with Lawyer Clark, Dembrosky and Constable Robert Bartel. Finally, Bartell grabbed hold of her husband, and then she released the dog that they owned. When she did this Clark pulled a revolver from his pocket and leveled it at the dog. He did not shoot, however, and Fingerhuth retreated to the house. Clark and the other man followed and the former went to the door and struck it forcibly. Mrs. Fingerhuth stepped in front of Clark, and then she said he pulled a revolver. At this move she grabbed him around the arms, and Clark remarked to the others:

"Look, what a nice girl I have."

"Who are you that you come here

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.]

'TIS A DAZZLING OFFER

PASSAIC'S OLD GAS COMPANY MAKES A BIG BLUFF.

Makes a Proposition That is Said to Involve a Profit of $938,000 to the City if It Can be Carried Out Successfully.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Passaic, N. J., Dec. 20.—Agitation for fifty-cent gas is at a standstill just now, because of a most remarkable offer of the United Gas Improvement Company of this city. A company organized by former Mayor Andrew McLean asks for a franchise to furnish gas to the city at fifty cents a thousand feet. It proposes to use the so-called Chisholm process now in operation in San Francisco.

The city Council met to grant the franchise, but members decided to wait awhile and think over this proposition from the local gas company:

"Mayor Howe to appoint a representative, former Mayor McLean to appoint a representative for the new gas process, and the United Gas Company to select a representative; these three to go to San Francisco and make a personal examination of Dr. Chisholm's plant and process; if it is found to be practicable to make and sell gas for 50 cents a thousand, the United Gas Improvement Company offers to pay $50 000 a year for each year the patent runs (17 years in all). In addition the company offers $20,000 to each of the two hospitals in Passaic; to give the Council $28,000 to erect a new schoolhouse in the Third ward of Passaic; to give the Firemen's Relief Fund $10,000; to provide a like amount for the Police Fund; furnish a bond to come to any arrangement for city lighting that the Council may dictate, and to furnish all consumers with 50 cent gas."

The actual cash outlay thus provided is $938,000, besides the penalties incurred.

FIFTY YEARS MARRIED.

Golden Wedding Anniversary of Westfield Couple was Celebrated Yesterday.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, December 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Miller celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home on Central avenue yesterday, there being guests present from New York, Brooklyn, California, Asbury Park, Newark, Elizabeth and this place. Besides being the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs Miller it was the eighty-second birthday of Mr. Miller. They were married in Westfield in 1849 by Rev. James Hunting, at that time the pastor of the Presbyterian church. Both Mr. and Mrs. Miller were born and have always lived in this place. Mr. Miller was for many years a New York business man.

SCARLET FEVER IN COLLEGE.

Epidemic in Wellesley College Closed Institution Earlier Than Usual.

The young women from this city who are students at Wellesley College returned home for the Christmas vacation a week earlier than they expected. This was occasioned by the fact that several of the young women at Wellesley were attacked with scarlet fever and it was deemed best to send the others home. None of the students from Plainfield were taken ill and none were close enough to the contagion to have any chance of getting the dread disease.

Rubber Company Shuts Down.

Announcement has been made that the United States Rubber factory at New Brunswick will shut down Thursday for the holidays. It is feared that the shutdown may be extended somewhat, as the mild and open winter has delayed orders for rubber boots and shoes. The New Brunswick factories are feeling the effects of the mild weather.

A Well Grounded Conclusion.

Recent events in the Transvaal have brought Mr. Chamberlain and his friends to the conclusion that the followers of Oom Paul are hard to beat, a remark which a visit will cause you to apply to the character and price of the holiday goods on sale at Collier's, 103 Park avenue.

To Meet One Day Later.

On account of next Monday being Christmas Day the Primary Teachers' Union will meet on the following Tuesday afternoon when there will be a review of the Christmas lesson, conducted by Mrs. Banks. There will also be a praise service afterward.

A G. O. P. Pow-wow.

Plans are being formed for a great G. O. P. pow wow in this city in the near future. It will be something similar to the one held at Elizabeth last Saturday and will be given under the auspices of the County Republican committee.

—Sparklets—An ornate Xmas present—Wm. W. Moore, 310 Park avenue.

SHOPLIFTING ON GIGANTIC SCALE.

Three Plainfield Women Held in $1,500 Bail in Newark.

HOW THEY DID THE TRICK.

ONE WOMAN WORE A CAPE WITH SEVERAL POCKETS IN IT.

Made a Practice of Visiting the Newark Stores Every Day for Sometime Past—Detectives Have a Strong Case Against the Women—Plainfield Stores Also Subjecting to Work of Shoplifters.

In the arrest of Mrs. Anna M. Bowers, Mrs. William Carroll and her mother, Mrs. Jennie Garrison, of 169 East Front street, which occurred in Newark Monday on a charge of shoplifting, Detective-Sergeants Carroll and Pursell, of the police department of that city, has disclosed one of the biggest cases of shoplifting known in recent years to the police.

There are many additional facts not obtainable for yesterday's edition of The Daily Press that makes the case of great interest. It appears that for some months past the department stores of Newark, as well as the large stores of this city, have been suffering to a large extent from shop-lifting and in spite of careful watching it was impossible to get trace of the lifters. Finally, the loses in Newark became so great that the matter was placed in the hands of Detectives Carroll and Pursell, two of the best men in the business in this State. They went to work on the case at once and it was not long before their suspicion was directed toward the three women who were arrested yesterday. It was noticed that they went to Newark frequently and that they visited certain stores. They were watched closely and all possible evidence was secured before the arrest was made.

Monday afternoon the women, after making the rounds of the stores, were arrested by the detectives. It was then learned that they each carried satchels, which they left at a certain place. After making a shopping tour they would return and place their articles in the satchels. At the time of the arrest the women had a number of articles in their possession. It is said that the articles altogether are valued at $100.

The women were then arraigned in the police court and held in $1 500 bail to await the action of the Grand Jury. Yesterday morning Detectives Carroll and Pursell came to this city to see Chief Grant for the purpose of making a search of the house where the women resided. Accordingly the three officials went to the house, where they found Fred Tanner and William Carrell, the latter the husband of one of the women arrested. They stated their errand and the house was searched.

What the officials found simply amazed them. Goods amounting to $250 were found in trunks, closets, packing boxes, etc, and in much variety. There were yards of lace and ribbons, kid gloves, toilet sets, carving sets, toilet articles, soap, a number of fine silk shirt waists, silk wraps, looking glasses, albums and most everything that a person could think of. Mr. Tanner and Mr. Carrell claimed that the goods did not belong in the house and that they had no knowledge of them. They were then all taken to police headquarters in the Coward building for identification.

Word was sent to Woodhull & Martin, Manager Carson at Crosby & Hill's, I. H. Boehm and other places, where it was considered possible goods might have been taken. Mr. Carson identified goods amounting in value to about $25, such as toilet sets, carving sets, silk shirt waists, an album and a few other things of greater or less value. Other merchants saw a few things that had been missed. These were held out and the rest of the goods were sent to Newark, where the merchants of that city will have a chance to identify them. There was also included in the goods extract of cologne which retails for $6 a bottle.

It is believed that goods were taken from other stores in this city not yet heard from. Mrs. Bowers, who appears to be a leader in the scheme, when arrested, wore a large cloak inside of which was a number of pockets, and it is in these that many articles were carried. She is an exceptionally large woman, and it is said that she could carry many articles without being detected. However this may be, the scheme seems to have worked successfully until Monday last.

The women are now confined in the Essex County Jail, where they will be held for the Grand Jury. The evidence against them seems to be so

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.]

BLACKFORD SAYS GUILTY

BIGAMIST ARRAIGNED IN COUNTY COURT THIS MORNING.

Decided That He Would Fare Better if He Did Not Stand Trial—Will Probably be Sentenced Next Wednesday

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, December 20—John L. Blackford, of Putnam avenue, Plainfield, who was arrested two weeks ago in the Hotel Marlborough in New York while living their with his second wife whom he had married in Westfield, without securing a divorce from his first wife in Plainfield, was arraigned in the Union county court this morning before Judge Vail on the charge of bigamy.

Since he has been confined in the county jail the prisoner has come to a realization that there was a strong case against him and that if he stood trial he would be undoubtedly convicted and would receive a much more severe sentence than he would if he pleaded guilty and compelled the State to prosecute him. When arraigned he therefore pleaded guilty to the charge of bigamy. Judge Vail was not prepared to pass sentence at once and Blackford was remanded back to the jail till next Wednesday when he will be sentenced.

Blackford seemed quite chipper when he appeared in court, and was evidently reconciled to his fate. He greeted a number of the court habitues familiarly, as he had frequently appeared there himself as an officer in connection with cases in which the Central Railroad, for whom he was a detective, was concerned.

Neither one of his wives or any of his relatives were in court.

HOLIDAY VACATION.

Borough Public Schools Will Close Friday With Exercises Appropriate to Season.

The Borough Public Schools will close on Friday for the holiday season, and appropriate exercises will be held at both schools at 11 o'clock in the morning. Charles S. Lewis, the musical director of the schools, will be in charge, he having arranged the programme, which consists chiefly of music. There will also be some literary features. The High School and lower grades will hold their entertainments separate. They will be of a patriotic character. The public is cordially invited to be present and to especially examine the exhibition work of the scholars in each class, which will be displayed at that time. The schools will not re open until Wednesday, January 3. This arrangement is made so that the teachers, many of whom live out of the State, will not be obliged to leave their homes on New Year's Day to come back to school.

Martha Washington Council Elect.

Martha Washington Council, No. 23, Daughters of America, met last evening and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Councilor, G B. Allen; associate councilor, Mrs. A. Randolph; vice councilor, Mrs. H. Thompson; associate vice councilor, Mrs. A. Angleman; assistant recording secretary, Gilbert Sutphen Martin; conductor, Miss May Hughes; warden, Amos Wilson; inside sentinel, F. G. Wilson; outside sentinel, Mrs. S. Page; trustee, twelve months, Gilbert Sutphen Martin.

Mr. Woodland Promoted.

J. Elston Woodland, of the borough, who for two years has been the local superintendent of the Prudential Insurance Company, has been promoted and after January 1st he will take charge of the company's interests at Trenton, where he will have ten assistants and sixty-seven agents under him. This promotion is well deserved for Mr. Woodland has been the means of building up the business in this city to a considerable extent.

Gave Character Sketches.

A highly creditable entertainment was given Monday evening in the Borough Public High School by Lieut. Charles Scott, of Indianapolis, who gave a series of character sketches from the readings of Eugene Field, J. Whitcomb Reilly and other well-know writers. The school hall was filled to its utmost capacity and the audience was an appreciative one. As a result of the entertainment $43 was netted for the benefit of the school.

Death of J. A. Horn's Granddaughter.

The death of Jessie Austett, aged twenty-two years, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Horn, of Craig place, occurred in New York Sunday last after a lingering illness. The funeral services will be held from the late home in New York and interment will take place in Hillside cemetery, this city.

Reception for a Debutante.

Invitations have been sent out by Mrs Strong and her daughter, Miss Strong, of Central avenue, for a reception to be given Friday afternoon, December 22d.

SUBLIME MUSIC OF HANDEL'S "MESSIAH."

Public Rehearsal Attracted A Great Audience.

RENDITION WAS SUPERB.

GREAT RELIGIOUS FERVOR EXPRESSED IN THE ORATORIO.

Chorus Was Composed of 100 Local Singers, and Were Thoroughly Trained by Edward J. Fitzhugh, the Conductor — Soloists and Musicians Did Excellent Work in Their Various Parts.

Among the sublime musical compositions of the world, probably no other is so universally popular as Handel's "Messiah." It appeals to all alike, with its grand teachings and exquisite musical effects. The vast audience which filled the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, last night, on the occasion of the public rehearsal of the oratorio given by the Messiah Chorus, sat for more than two hours silent and absorbed. The Christmastide festivities of the year are well opened by this rehearsal and the public rendition of the oratorio which will take place tomorrow night.

The oratorio is in three parts. The first part tells of the Messianic prophecies and their fulfillment; the second is a record of Christ's sufferings and exaltation, and the third is a theological account of His work for men. The first part opens with a brief, devotional overture, after which a solitary voice, that of the tenor soloist, sings the exquisite recitative, "Comfort Ye, My People." Many promises are cited, then the chorus breaks into a joyful cry, "The Glory of the Lord Shall be Revealed." A shadow falls with the words: "Who Shall Abide the Day of His Coming?" and "Behold, Darkness Shall Cover the Earth;" but the prophet adds that a great light shall shine upon the darkness; and the people shout with triumph that the coming Deliverer's name shall be called Wonderful. Then comes the exquisitely beautiful Pastoral Symphony, in which the harmony seems to tell the listener of the nightfall near Bethlehem, when the shepherds were gathering their flocks for the night. The story is told by the soloists in air and recitative, while the chorus sing the angel message, "Glory to God in the Highest!" The beautiful invitation, "Come Unto Him," and the response, "His Yoke is Easy," close the first part.

The most noticeable parts of the second section are the solemn invocation: "Behold the Lamb of God!" the unspeakably sorrowful air: "He Was Despised and Rejected of Men," the chorus "All We, Like Sheep, Have Gone Astray," in which the hopeless wandering of the sheep can be distinctly traced in the musical movement, and the glorious "Hallelujah Chorus," during which the audience rose as one man, remaining standing until the close. The third part opens with the beautiful air: "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth." The air, "The Trumpet Shall Sound," with the actual trumpet sound running through it, is a very effective number. The chorus of praise, "Worthy Is The Lamb," and the stately "Amen Chorus," as if all the world joined in a great "So Let It Be," to the Redeemer's work, closes the oratorio.

The chorus, which was composed of more than a hundred local singers, was seated on a large platform in front of the pulpit. The parts seemed very well balanced, and the chorus, a large part of whom had sung the oratorio before, were thoroughly well trained, and full of the spirit of the music. Edward J. Fitzhugh, who is a true musical enthusiast, acted as conductor, with his usual ability, having such thorough control of singers and accompanists as to secure perfect harmony.

The soloists were Miss M. S. Perry, contralto, of the Crescent Avenue church choir; Miss Annie L. Walker, soprano; E C. Towne, tenor; and Douglas Lane, base; all of New York. All sang their parts with sympathy and ability.

Miss Jessie M. Utter, as pianist, had the largest share of the work of accompanying, and did it with entire success. William H. Miller did excellent work as organist, the deep organ tones giving to the grand music a depth and warmth impossible to obtain in any other manner. These instrumentalists were assisted by a septette of musicians from New York, whose horns, reed instruments and kettledrums added to the general effect.

The audience, admitted entirely by complimentary ticket, was very large, interested and reverent. The rehearsal was more in the nature of a religious service than like a concert, and this will be even more true tomorrow night, when the rendition of the oratorio will be free to all.

LECTURES FOR TEACHERS

PROF. RIGGS WILL ADDRESS CITY AND BOROUGH INSTRUCTORS.

Superintendent Maxson Has the Matter in Charge—Lectures Will be for Special Benefit of the Teachers.

Monday evening there was a regular meeting of the Borough Board of Education, when one important matter was considered, that of arranging a series of lectures for the benefit of the teachers of the city and borough schools. If possible it will be arranged to give the lectures so that all of the teachers can get the benefit of them. Superintendent H. M. Maxson, of the city schools, has the matter in charge.

It has been learned that Prof. Riggs, so well and favorably known to Plainfielders, can be secured for four lectures during the latter part of the winter or early spring. This has met with the approval of the teachers and they are delighted with the idea of being able to hear this able and talented person. Prof. Riggs is kept constantly busy lecturing, hence it is only possible to secure him by arranging ahead for the dates.

These lectures will be given for the especial benefit of the teachers, and the subjects will be those best suited to them in their work. The Board of Education of the borough very kindly has arranged to let the teachers in their schools attend these lectures without any cost to them, and no doubt the Plainfield Board of Education will do likewise. This will be the first time anything of the kind has been given, and it will undoubtedly be of great value to these instructors.

CARNIVAL OF DREAMS.

Wonderful Entertainment to be Given by Scholars of Bryant School Tomorrow Afternoon.

The "Carnival of Dreams," to be given at the Bryant School tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, will be a good plan to see many old friends.

Miss Nellie Abrams, who takes the part of the "Dreamer," is lulled to the land of dreams by the dream fairies.

Mother Goose and a goodly number of her train appear to the Dreamer, while many old melodies remind her of by-gone hours.

In the second scene snow fairies, mermaids, Brownies, Red Riding Hood, Little Lord Fauntleroy, May Queen and Golden Hair prove very delightful company.

The stories of Apollo, Neptune, Athena, Mercury, Mars and Diana again delight the dreamer as they appear in their various vocations.

Later she discovers Rip Van-Winkle, Grace Darling, Sir Walter Raleigh, Minnihaha, Hiwatha and the fair Priscilla, who are as attractive as ever.

The final scene introduces Santa Claus on his way for his yearly round. The Dreamer wakens and calls the Christmas Fairies to guide Santa Claus and this train to all children in the land.

The fairies obey and the great company are seen starting upon their long journey.

HEAVY MACHINE FELL.

Thirty Tons Attached to a Chain That Had a Defective Link.

The Pond Machine Tool Company has been put to heavy expense and a large amount of extra work by the breaking of a link in a chain used on the big electrical crane in their shop. Saturday afternoon a 30-ton machine was being removed from a flat car, which was too weak to bear the weight. The machinery had been hauled back in the shop when a link broke in one of the chains supporting it. It allowed the machinery to fall to the floor with a crash, making the building tremble. The machine was badly warped and strained and will have to be rebuilt. Several workmen narrowly escaped injury.

Called on Plainfield Friends.

Joseph Sperry, a resident of Plainfield thirty years ago, and one of the prominent members of the old Central baseball team, stopped in Plainfield last night on his way home from an extended trip through the west. At present Mr. Sperry is living at Cranford. His many friends, who have not seen him in thirty years, were glad to greet him last evening.

Odd Fellows Elect.

Last Monday evening Plainfield Lodge, No. 44, I. O. O. F., elected the following officers: Noble Grand, N. C. Pennington; vice noble grand, John Bowman; secretary, J. F Sheppard; financial secretary, E. H. Bird.

A Christmas Sermon.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Congregational church is distributing a Christmas sermon of Rev. C L. Goodrich, pastor of that church. Copies of the sermon are now on sale at Estil's and Harper's.

—Use Press want ads.

JONES FOR SPEAKER BY UNANIMOUS VOTE.

Officers for the Next House of Assembly Agreed Upon.

THE SLATE WENT THROUGH.

ASSEMBLYMAN WAKELEE NOMINATED THE ESSEX MAN.

Slated Candidates for Other Offices Selected in Open Session—Steering Committee Apportions the Minor Places to Various Counties and Essex Secures All it Asked for, Except in the Case of Matts

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, N. J., Dec. 20.—Although the South Jersey counties put up a stiff protest, the slate fixed in Newark a few days after election was ratified yesterday by the caucus of the Republican Assemblymen.

There was considerable complaint about what was called the "Essex combine," this county capturing the Speaker and his two secretaries, the bill clerk, four doorkeepers and two pages. A large handful of choice plums, considering the fact that seventeen counties were entitled to something from the plum tree. South Jersey, however, did not kick in vain. After threatening to bolt they were finally pacified, and captured a few of the important officers and a share of the doorkeepers.

The caucus was really not a caucus proper, but was held with open doors, because some members wanted reporters present. The general public were also invited. It was a public conference with all the binding effect of a caucus.

Assemblyman Wakelee, of Bergen, in a eulogistic speech, presented the name of Assemblymen Jones, of Essex, as the Republican candidate for Speaker of the House. In doing so, he said that at one time he had cherished an ambition to preside over the next session of the House himself. Next to that honor, he said, he knew of nothing that would give him more pleasure than to urge the appointment of the Essex candidate.

Lewis, of Passaic; Wood, of Mercer; Foote, of Union, and half a dozen other members seconded the nomination, which was unanimously ratified.

Other positions filled by the open session were named with the same unanimity and resulted as follows:

For Clerk of the House—James A. Parker, of Passaic.

For assistant clerk—Geo. E. Poole, of Morris.

For bill clerk—George P. Powell, of Essex.

For sergeant-at-arms—Frank Tantum, of Monmouth.

For assistant sergeants-at arms—Horatio P. Havens, of Ocean, and John C. Cooper, of Somerset.

For journal clerk—Noah F. Morrison, of Union.

At this juncture on motion of Mr. Lewis, a steering committee of seven, including Leader Wakelee, was named to apportion the remaining positions, including doorkeepers and pages, among the several counties. The committee named was Lewis, of Passaic; Dexheimer, of Essex; Welsh, of Morris; Wood, of Mercer; Horner, of Burlington; Steelman, of Cumberland, and Wakelee, of Bergen.

The session of the Steering Committee lasted longer than was anticipated, and was the only indication of a lack of harmony incidental to the caucus. The committee report, submitted by Chairman Lewis, made the following alottment:

Atlantic, one doorkeeper; Cumberland, one page; Burlington; two doorkeepers; Bergen, one gallery-keeper; Camden, one galley-keeper and one page; Cape May, one doorkeeper; Essex, four doorkeepers and two pages; Gloucester, one doorkeeper; Middlesex, one doorkeeper and two pages; Passaic, one doorkeeper; Salem, one doorkeeper; Union, two pages; Mercer, two pages; Assistant Bill Clerk, Camden; Assistant Supervisor of Bills, Mercer; Assistant Journal Clerk, Cumberland; secretary to Clerk, Bergen.

Under the law of 1895 it was found necessary to make provision for two extra gallery keepers, two pages, secretary to the Clerk of the House and clerk to Committee on Corporations by resolution, and this action was taken. It was also decided to adopt the rules of last year until after the appointment of committees.

Resigned as Superintendent.

James W. Jackson, who has been superintendent of the Sunday-school of the First M. E. church almost continuously since 1866, has resigned and James R. Joy, formerly one of the assistant superintendents, has been elected to fill his place. The change will be made Sunday, December 31st.

SENATE CURRENCY BILL.

It Will be Called up After the Holiday Recess.

CHANGES TO BE MADE.

The Measure to Be a Substitute For House Financial Bill—Women of Utah Testify Against Congressman-Elect Roberts—What Was Done in the Senate.

Washington, Dec. 20.—The senate committee on finance has authorized Senator Aldrich to report the senate financial bill as a substitute for the house bill, after the house bill is received from that body, the report to be made before the adjournment for the holidays.

Senator Aldrich notified the committee of his purpose to call up the bill in the senate on Jan. 4.

The committee agreed to several changes in the phraseology of the bill. One of these changes was made in the second section relating to the sale of bonds for the maintenance of the gold reserve, and is as follows:

The gold coin received from the sale of said bonds shall be covered into the general fund of the treasury and exchanged for notes which have been redeemed in the manner hereinbefore provided, and the amount of gold coin and notes in the reserve fund shall at no time exceed the maximum sum of $150,000,000.

Another change applies to the provision concerning the issuance of notes by banks so as to provide explicitly for the application of this provision to bonds "upon which an amount of circulating notes has been issued less than the par value of the bonds."

A provision is also added for the repeal of the present law limiting the issuance of bank notes to less than the par value of bonds deposited.

Senate bill to authorize the president of the United States to cause certain lands heretofore withdrawn from market for reservoir purposes to be restored to the public domain subject to entry under the homestead law, with certain restrictions, was taken from the calendar and passed after an explanation by Mr. Nelson (Rep., Minn.) that applied to lands withdrawn from the market several years ago in northern Minnesota for reservoir purposes, and which had remained unused after the reservoirs were constructed. The bill now restores these lands to the public domain.

Senate bill creating a commission to revise and codify the pension laws of the United States was also taken up and passed, the number of commissioners being increased from three to five.

Testimony Against Roberts.

Washington, Dec. 20.—A number of witnesses from Utah have appeared before the committee of the house which is investigating the case of Mr. Roberts, of Utah. They included Mrs. Dr. Luella Miles, a practicing physician, of Salt Lake City, Mrs. McMcDougall, Mr. E. L. McDaniel and S. E. Wishard, all of Salt Lake City.

Aside from these there were a large number of interested spectators, including the delegation of gentiles from Utah here to oppose Roberts. Mr. Roberts was present, unaccompanied, and sat alongside the witnesses, conducting the cross-examination.

Mrs. Dr. Miles was the first witness. She gave her age as thirty-nine, her profession as that of a physician at Salt Lake City and a member of the Medical society there. She gave details of a call she made at the house of Mrs. Dr. Maggie Shipp Roberts on April 12, 1897, relative to some medical society affairs. She addressed Mrs. Shipp Roberts as "Dr. Shipp," whereupon the witness said she was interrupted with the request: "Doctor, you can call me "Dr. Roberts."

Mrs. Roberts went on to explain, the witness said, that she had been married to Mr. Roberts for seven years. She asked that the medical society mail sent her in future be addressed as "Dr. Roberts," not "Dr. Shipp."

After the witness had stepped aside, Mr. Roberts submitted an objection to the effect that this testimony related to 1897, whereas the committee had no jurisdiction over him prior to his becoming a member of congress.

"Then you contend," said Chairman Taylor, "that the testimony should be confined to polygamous practices subsequent to March 4, 1899."

"I do," answered Mr. Roberts.

"The objection will be noted," responded the chairman.

The Rev. S. E. Wishard gave his business as that of superintendent of the home missionary work of the Presbyterian synod, embracing Utah. He knew both Mr. Roberts and Mrs. Dr. Roberts, and related his first meeting with the latter in September, 1897. It occurred, he said, on the train at Manti, Utah. He was in the car with Mr. Roberts, and spoke to him. A lady sat beside him, and he beckoned to her, saying, "Mrs. Roberts, Mr. Wishard."

Whether Roberts said "My wife," in making the introduction or simply said "Mrs. Roberts," the witness was not sure. But he was positive the introduction was as wife.

On cross-examination Mr. Roberts brought out Mr. Wishard's opposition to Mormonism, and then asked: "Was Roberts drunk when he made this introduction referred to?"

"Not that I know of."

"Was he insane?"

"I do not know."

"What possible reason, then," asked Mr. Roberts, "could Roberts have had for putting himself in such a position with one who opposed him?"

The witness said he could not explain reasons; he repeated that the facts were as stated.

Mrs. Maria C. McDougall testified to an incident occurring July 22, 1898, when she was on the train from Butte, Mont., to Salt Lake City. Mr. Roberts and Mrs. Dr. Roberts travelled on the same car as far as Pocatello.

"Once I heard Mr. Roberts introduce his companion as 'my wife,'" testified Mrs. McDougall, "and repeatedly as 'Mrs. Roberts.'"

On cross-examination by Roberts, the witness covered substantially the same ground.

Edwin McDaniels, formerly of Salt Lake, was examined at considerable length, mainly on the politics and convention affairs pertaining to Roberts' nomination to congress. In 1896 he had a conversation with Roberts, in the course of which Roberts told him he had three families.

"Three?" inquired Representative Littlefield, of the committee.

"Yes, three," responded the witness.

Subsequently, in 1898, the witness said there was another conversation prior to the nominating convention relative to rumors against Roberts. The latter said he thought this line of opposition would not prove effective, as he would court an attack as to the plurality of wives.

On cross-examination Mr. McDaniels said he had opposed the nomination of Roberts and had seconded the nomination of Mr. King. He gave much of the ante-convention discussion. Mr. Roberts asked the witness: "Did not Roberts state at these conventions that Celia Dibble Roberts lived out of the state?"

"I do not recall it," answered the witness.

SOLDIERS RETURN WEALTHY.

They Find Thousands in Gold and Silver in Luzon.

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 20.—From a trustworthy source it has just been learned that two companies of Montana volunteers who came back from Manila on the transport Zealandia brought with them $150,000 in gold and Mexican silver.

This treasure was first discovered by two men at Caloocan. They were the first to enter the town, which was very rich. The two Montana men entered a large mansion, but found the place deserted. They then went into the garden, and in a corner saw traces that the soil had recently been dug up. They prodded the soil with their bayonets and soon struck something hard. Digging down, they uncovered a large chest, which contained thousands of dollars in gold coin.

The men who found the gold-treasure took all they could carry. Then they uncovered a large chest filled with Mexican dollars. The men of the two companies were lined up and marched through the garden, and as each man passed he scooped up double handfuls of silver and filled his pockets.

On the voyage over on the Zealandia poker was the favorite pastime, chips being worth $5 and no limit. Some of the men had as much as $5,000 each in gold and silver, and with the purser there was deposited $150,000, for which no receipts were given, the purser simply keeping a memorandum of each man's sack.

Besides the treasure brought home, the soldiers left thousands buried in different places in Luzon, trusting to maps and markings to secure it after being mustered out.

MOUNTAIN SIDE SLIDES.

Fifteen Men in Cement Works Have Narrow Escape.

Kingston, N. Y., Dec. 20.—Portions of the S. P. Coykendoll Cement Mining works at Rosendale have been buried under a part of a mountain, and many miners narrowly escaped with their lives. The cement works are located on the line of the West Shore railroad and the Delaware and Hudson canal, and directly under a frowning mountain bearing the name of an Indian chief famous in the early history of the settlement of Ulster county.

When the cavein of the mountain occurred a mass of stone and earth rolled down the side of the mountain, filling the canal and covering the tracks of the railroad. There were about six hundred men employed in the cement mines at the time, but they were working several hundred feet from the scene of the cavein and escaped injury.

It was reported at first that fifteen miners were buried, but this was found to be untrue when the company investigated. A boiler house, several sheds and the railroad bridge at Rosendale were crushed and swept away when the mass of earth and stone reached them, and it will take many days to repair the damage done.

Sol Smith Russell's Condition.

Chicago, Dec. 20.—The condition of Sol Smith Russell, the actor, is reported to be unchanged. At the Virginia Hotel, where he was removed after being suddenly taken ill during the opening performance of his engagement at the Grand Opera House Monday night, it is said that Mr. Russell had rested well during the night. Fred Berger, his manager, said: "I think Mr. Russell needs only rest. Until Monday night, he never dismissed an audience. We have no plans further than this week. If he recovers sufficiently, he will resume his engagement here next Monday. If not, his season may have to be closed, and he will go to his home in Minneapolis.

Cotton Mill to Be Enlarged.

Huntsville, Ala., Dec. 20.—The stockholders of the Dallas Manufacturing Company have authorized the capitalization of that corporation to be increased $614,000 for the purpose of adding 25,000 spindles and 1,200 draper looms. The present mill of 25,000 spindles and 800 double looms will be used for fine sheetings, and the new portion will be devoted to the manufacture of course goods for export.

In Favor of a Niagara Dam.

Washington, Dec. 20.—A preliminary report of the deep water ways commission has been received by the house on the project of maintaining the level of Lake Erie near its high water stage during the navigation season by constructing a dam across Niagara river below Buffalo harbor. The project is reported as both feasible and desirable.

Three Children Cremated.

Nicholasville, Ky., Dec. 20.—While Mr. and Mrs. Sam Reynolds, who live in the country, were visiting a neighbor, their house from an unknown cause caught fire. Their three children aged 6, 3 and 1 year respectively, whom they had left alone at home, were burned to death.

Another Assignment in Boston.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 20.—Dillaway & Starr, bankers and brokers, No. 40 Water street, this city, have assigned. The firm is one of the most prominent of the kind in the city, and is composed of Charles F. W. Dillaway, George H. Flint and A. W. Lawrence.

Wanamaker's

NEW YORK, Dec. 11, 1899.

TOO warm in the store? Not a bit of it—we've thermometers everywhere and competent men to see that the temperature is safe and that the air is kept as pure as modern facilities make possible.

We have the health of our helpers to guard.

Lay off your street wraps—you will find ample checking room on the Main floor near Fourth avenue.

If you come from a distance—stay all day—if early, take breakfast here—50c; very dainty, scarcely a penny of profit to us. A satisfying mid-day luncheon, in course, at 35c. We'd make it all free if it wasn't for the abuse of it.

Store full? Yes, indeed, but comfortable. There's no need for any good natured person to lose temper—and somehow or another, the throngs at Wanamaker's are pleasant folks.

Things to see—

At 10:30 or 11:30 a.m. or 3 or 4:30 p.m.—H. Halsey-Stirling's Art Exhibitions—"Half Hours at the National Gallery in London." Mr. Halsey-Stirling refused $1,000 for a three weeks' exhibit at a New York playhouse. He is here for two weeks—and newspapers and artists say the exhibition is marvelous.

The permanent Art Gallery, Fifth floor, has been re-hung, and the great painting, "End of the Siege of Saragossa," is added.

Tissot's pictures of The Christ and the Holy Land—Fifth floor.

Seventeen Christmas Tableaux—dreams of real and mythical folks—Rotunda.

Furnished House—Fourth floor.

Half-acre Toy Store, full of life and music—Basement.

An exhibit and sale of Angora Cats—Fifth floor.

And dear old Santa Claus a-smiling from every conceivable corner.

Guides are at the service of any one who asks for them, and Interpreters make it easy for those who speak French, Spanish, Portuguese or Italian. Stationed on Second floor, central.

Handkerchiefs for Gifts Why prefer Wanamaker's as a handkerchief store? Because it has become the best through a score of years of study. The linen man is among the looms of Europe half his time. Too bad, but he'll be abroad for his Christmas dinner.

And we cannot be coaxed, cajoled or driven into letting trashy handkerchiefs into the store. Every one, at all times, is of pure linen, unless it is silk. We are generally considered over particular by manufacturers. But think of the charm of having the best store.

MEN'S HANDKERCHIEFS—all linen—
Hemstitched, $1 a dozen.
Hemstitched and initialed, $1.50 a dozen.
Hemstitched and initialed, $3 a dozen.

WOMEN'S HANDKERCHIEFS—all linen—
Hemstitched, $1 a dozen.
Hemstitched and initialed, $1 a dozen.
Hemstitched and embroidered, $1.50 a dozen.

CHILDREN'S HANDKERCHIEFS—all linen, 3 in a pretty box for 25c.

And finer, to the verge of extravagance—$78 a dozen for the finest plain hemstitched handkerchiefs.

Golf Capes and Other Capes Women's Wraps—"Do you know, I believe Wanamaker sells more wraps than any other store in town," said a visitor to her friend the other day. "There is surely most variety here." And, after all, what is a store but what people think of it? We've stopped telling how big the stocks are—because nobody can grasp what the figures mean—and to say big unmeaning things is simply to boast. We've no idea of boasting—we won't.

We keep close to Fashion—closest, we believe, because of our splendid Paris organization—and furnish stocks with a prodigality new to New York.

Prices are fair—very discerning people know they are low, because they appreciate the carefulness we demand and the results that come of it.

Golf Capes, $5 to $30.
Other Capes, $5.50 to $68.

News of China This china store is more like an exchange—we own no potteries, we are wedded to no one potter, but it is a fair field for every china worker and decorator in France, Germany, England and America.

Resident experts are going from pottery to pottery all the time, while two (and soon there'll be three) of our home managers make frequent extended journeys to the china centers of the world.

We get the pick—we get right prices; for no other retailer needs to buy so largely, thanks to you.

Let's look at two or three things:

These Haviland china Dinner Sets have 100 pieces, including soup tureen and the large meat dishes. Handles are gilt; floral decoration, $16.50. Any man that knows would call it fine value at $22 or $23.

Here are other sets from Limoges—not the Haviland potteries—101 pieces; embossed festoon shape; pink flowers, gold handles, $20, though fairly worth $27.50.

Haviland china sets, 113 pieces, six floral decorations; topped off with gold, $45—worth usually a third more.

Do you catch the spirit of this fine basement store? The best; with safe economy. Finest dinner set is $575; cheapest is $6.

John Wanamaker

Formerly A. T. Stewart & Co., Broadway, 9th and 10th and Fourth Avenue.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.

We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1 25.
LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.
Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.

—CHRISTMAS GOODS—
A Big Assortment.

ALEX. LUSARDI.

211 West Front Street,

Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery. Nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores

Flynn Bros., SHOE DEALERS,

222 WEST FRONT STREET,
Near Music Hall,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .

in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated

DOMESTIC FINISH.

Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.

Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.

Trading Stamps given.

The City Steam & Hand Laundry

MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B

19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

SELLING OUT
Below Cost
TO CLOSE BUSINESS
Star Crockery Store,
23 Somerset St., near Front.
3 and 9 cent Articles.
BARGAINS! BARGAINS!
Solomon & Evans,
Proprietors.

LAIRE'S . . HOLIDAY SPECIALS.

Carving knives.
U. S. club skates.
Roger's plated ware.
Fine pocket cutlery.
Silver finish coffee and tea pots.
Nickel on copper tea kettles.
Boys' sleighs.
Fine razors and hones.
Grand Rapid sweepers.
Baby Rapid sweepers.
Shinny sticks.
Christmas tree holders.
Coin silver ware, cheap.
Fine table cutlery.
Fine scissors and shears.
Corn poppers.

The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,
Tel. Call 682.

TRY THE
QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,
No 337 Park Avenue.
(Miller Building.)
Goods called for and delivered free of charge.
Domestic or gloss finish.

DOBBINS. CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.
317 West Front street.

J. W. VANSICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly
TELEPHONE 148 b.

Your Valuables,
will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault
Lock boxes from $3 50 to $10 a year

GAS
For the Fire-place.
Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates.
Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.
CURTIS M. THORPE,
310-312 PARK AVENUE.
"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIREPLACE."

F. A. DUNHAM,
—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—
109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE,
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's hall, No. 149 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
219 Park Avenue.

A. KANE,
Dealer in
BLUE STONE FLAGGING and CURBING.

Also Dealer in
Flour, Feed and Grain, Coal and Wood.

Store and Office
409 East Third St.,
Next to
THIRD STREET MISSION.

Open Evenings Until 8 o'Clock.

It Kills Disease

Radam's Microbe Killer will stay the ravages of Consumption, stop the pains of Rheumatism, allay the itchings of Eczema, neutralize the gnawings of Dyspepsia, sweeten the foulest stomach and bring back a normal appetite to the suffering patient. The above are only a few of the many germ diseases; this remedy surely conquers these, and health is again restored.

Radam's Microbe Killer

is an antiseptic, contains no injurious drugs, destroys all bacteria, and is healthful in the highest degree. No decay or fermentation can develop where the Microbe Killer is present. Thousands once pronounced incurable, have regained health and strength by ridding their bodies of all disease germs.

If you are sick, this remedy should be taken immediately. Don't defer the trial until there is no hope. Write us for free book containing testimonials and advice at once.

Large Bottles, $1. Gallon Jugs, $3.

The Wm. Radam Microbe Killer Co
121 PRINCE STREET, NEW YORK, or
L. W. RANDOLPH,
Plainfield, N. J.

M. POWERS,
DEALER IN
LEHIGH COAL.
FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A
Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

November.

The mellow year is hasting to its close.
The merry birds have almost sung their last.
Their faint notes twitter in the dreary blast—
That shrill-piped harbinger of early snows.
And hint to you in good coal to invest
At seven forty-seven Front Street, west.

Chas. L. Stanley,
. . FLORIST . .
No. 142 North Ave

HEADQUARTERS for choice Cut Flowers, Ferns, Palms, a large assortment of other plants.

Floral design work and decorating for all occasions Satisfaction guaranteed; an immense stock of Holly, Wreaths, Roping, etc.

Annex stores for the Holidays,
134 North Ave,
South Ave, Netherwood,
and Central Ave., Westfield

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anæsthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$5
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD.
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.,
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills
—25c.—
A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.
MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung avenues.

BOERS ARE REINFORCING

Fortifications Being Extended and Strengthened.

PREPARING FOR BATTLE

Reports That Methuen's Line of Communication Has Been Cut Are Regarded in London as Quite Likely to Be True—War Gossip From London.

London, Dec. 20.—The Government has consented to mobilize a force which General Buller is credited with having demanded all along as an essential of success in South Africa, namely, 10,000 mounted infantry. The war office has issued an order to the effect that the government had decided to raise a mounted infantry force, to be called Imperial Yeomanry, and to be recruited from yeomanry, volunteers and civilians possessing the requisite qualifications. Enlistment will be for one year, or durng the continuance of the war. The men must be between 20 and 35 years old and of equal physique to the ordinary cavalry soldier. Officers and men are to provide their own horses and to wear neutral tint cloth shooting jackets, not necessarily uniform, felt hats, breeches and gaiters. All must be good riders and marksmen.

The same order invites every volunteer regiment that is linked with a regular battalion serving at the front to supply a full company, which will take the place of the mounted infantry of the regiment.

Don't All Believe It.

London, Dec. 20.—Only the most optimist gave any credit to the report that Gen. Buller had crossed the Tugela River, after a hard fight, and even they speedily realized that it was incredible that the War Office would refrain from the immediate publication of news of such importance.

There is also no confirmation of the statement that Gen. Methuen's line of communication has been cut, though there is a probability of such an event occurring at any moment. The latest news from Methuen was dated last Sunday, and indicated that the situation at the Modder River was a complete standstill.

The Boers were gathering reinforcements and extending their fortifications on both his flanks, but it was believed they would be unable to attack the British position. On the other hand it was regarded as impossible for the British to turn the Boers' flank, which was resting on the river to the east and rapidly approaching the river to the west. The Boer lines of entrenchments are continuous and capable of rapid connection at many points.

From elsewhere at the front there is absolutely nothing to throw additional light on the situation.

The newspapers are full of stories showing the unanimity with which the volunteers and the yeomanry are responding to the call to arms. Lord Chesham, commanding officer of the Royal Buckinghamshire Yeomanry, is to command the force of 3,000 yeomanry which he has been authorized to organize for service in South Africa. Earl Dudley and other titled officers will accompany him.

The most ample recognition is given in the press to the great outburst of loyalty in Canada, and the remarks of Sir Wilfred Laurier, the Premier, and the Cabinet, as representatives of both the English and French sections, the especially welcomed.

Clark Investigation Costly.

Washington, Dec. 20.—The senate committee on elections is confronted with a serious problem in the case of Senator Clark of Montana, accused of buying his election in bribes aggregating $350,000. It has been decided to take up the case on January 5. A preliminary survey indicates that the investigation of the charges will cost not less than $60,000. A list of nearly fifty witnesses has been furnished, and the allegation is made that every one of them has direct personal knowledge of the use of money.

Montreal Traffic Affairs.

Montreal, Quebec, Dec. 20.—W. John Connors, head of the syndicate which purposes erecting grain elevators in Montreal harbor, has had an interview with the harbor board. Since the last interview the board has been adding protective clauses to the agreement. At the last meeting Mr. Connors said that that action must stop. The board then entered into a clause-by-clause discussion of the agreement, which was not concluded when the meeting adjourned.

Boston Bank President Dead.

Belmont, Mass., Dec. 20.—The Hon. J. B. Fletcher, President of the Faneuil Hall National bank in Boston, died here Tuesday from heart disease, at the age of 87 years. Mr. Fletcher had been in failing health for the past two years, and for the last two weeks had been confined to his bed.

"Dan" Noble Released.

Auburn, N. Y., Dec. 20.—"Dan" Noble, one of the most noted bank robbers and cracksmen in the United States, has just been released from prison here, his sentence having expired. He returned at once to Owego, from which place he was sent here.

Britons in Mexico Contribute.

City of Mexico, Dec. 20.—The subscription started in the British colony here in behalf of the widows and orphans of British soldiers killed in the war with the Transvaal has reached the sum of $7,500.

Bryan to Invade New England.

Boston, Dec. 20.—Bryan is to begin his New England campaign here early in January. He has notified the Democratic state committee of his intention to be on hand about that time.

Hawaii's Large Sugar Crop.

San Francisco, Dec. 19.—Reports received for this season's sugar crop in the Hawaiian Islands give the total product as 282,807 tons, which is one of the largest in years.

EDUCATIONAL.

REV. H. C. EYME,
a native of Hanover, Germany, and a graduate of the Universities of Heidelberg and Gottengen, is prepared to receive pupils for instruction in GERMAN, FRENCH, SPANISH, GREEK and LATIN. Terms moderate. Best references on hand. For particulars call or address
78 Duer Street. North Plainfield, N. J.
12 11 6 eod

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO
(City Bank Building.)
Adelia C. Phelps will resume work Sept. 26th. Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

PRIVATE INSTRUCTION
given in
German and Elementary French.
Address for terms.
MISS ALICE GILBERT,
11 8 1mo 811 West Fifth Street

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
::: PIANO AND THEORY :::
Home Studio,
182 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN,
Address—60 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

.....Piano Instruction.....
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and
MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes
Elementary Classes.
Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Duffi.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

Advertised Mail Matter.

DECEMBER 18, 1899.

FIRST CLASS.

Apgar, Mr Geo C
Arnold, Mrs
Brown, Mr John P
Burke, Miss Katie
Campbell, Mr A H 2
Cooper, Mrs J R
Crone, J F
Fields, Miss Harriett
Geslin
Harvey, Miss Martha
Hull, A A
Hunter, Mrs R D
Huston, Mr John
Jelinarnd, Mr Robert
Johnson, Mr Aug
" P M
Jones, Mrs M
Kellogg, Mrs
Kitchell, Mrs Martha 2
McLean, Mr A M
Martin Mr Henry
" Mrs Isabella
Marsh, Miss A
Owner, house for sale
Palmer, Miss I J
Parker, A W
Pullman, L
Ralston, Mr H M
Read, Mrs John
Richardson, Mr John
Rockland, L
Roome, Mr. Wm P
Rojette, Mrs Albert
Schellendreusler, Rev H
Snoden, Mr J H
Taylor, Mrs E S
Tims, Mrs May
Walker, Mrs Anna
" Mr Thomas S
VanVleit, Mrs Herbert

THIRD AND FOURTH CLASS MATTER.

Bunck, Mr C C
Hoff, Mrs Ella J
Hoffman, Samuel V
Pendergast, Mrs C
Turner, Dr A F
Upton, Mr Fred
Young, Mr Edward

E. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun John P. Emmon
Telephone 601

Don't miss the Special Sale for the holidays of FRAMES,
EASELS,
and PICTURES
AT REDUCED PRICES,
given by the
Guarantee Portrait Studio,
142 East Front Street.
Fine drawings in Crayons and Pastels from all kinds of photographs. All kinds of frames from the latest styles of mouldings made to order at the lowest prices.

THAT'S THE IDEA!
You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

WINDOW SHADES
Estimates cheerfully given.
Mail orders will receive prompt attention.
J. A. GREENE,
112 Madison Ave. Plainfield, N. J.
11 15 1mo

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107, 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

Park Avenue Hotel,
Park Avenue and Eighth Street,
Plainfield.
Refurnished and Renovated.
Steam Heat in Every Room.
. . . Elevator . . .
First-Class in every respect.
Terms Moderate.
F. W. COLEMAN,
11 3 1mo Proprietor.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL,
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.
NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:20 a. m.; 2:20, 5:00, 5:20 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:20, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.
SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a m.; 2:20 and 4:20 p. m.
PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:20 a. m.; 2:20 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a.m.; 12:20, 5:00 and 7:15 p.m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:20 p. m. Close—9:20 a. m.
SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
E. H. BIRD, P. M.

Corporation Notice.

of application to the Court of Common Pleas for the appointment of Commissioners to assess benefits for street improvements.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, pursuant to Chapter 200 of the laws of 1898, entitled, "An Act to authorize the improvement of streets and highways in cities of this State, and to provide for the payment of the expense of the same," approved June 13th, 1898, and the amendments thereof and supplements thereto, that application will be made by the Common Council of the City of Plainfield to the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Union at the Court House in the City of Elizabeth on the thirtieth day of December, A. D. 1899, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as the said Court can hear the said application, for the appointment of three Commissioners, who shall be freeholders and residents of the City of Plainfield, as Commissioners to estimate and assess benefits respectively conferred by the permanent improvement of streets under the several ordinances of said City, respectively entitled:

"An Ordinance for macadamizing East Sixth Street between Watchung Avenue and Richmond Street, excepting where already macadamized," approved Oct. 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing Franklin Place between LaGrande Avenue and East Fifth Street," approved Oct 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing East Ninth Street between Park Avenue and Watchung Avenue," approved Oct. 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing West Fourth Street between New Street and Monroe Avenue," approved Feb. 9th. 1899.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing West Third Street between Madison Avenue and Monroe Avenue, excepting where already macadamized," approved Feb. 9th, 1899.

and to perform the duties and execute the powers conferred by said Acts of the Legislature.

By order of the Common Council of the City of Plainfield.

JAMES T. MACMURRAY,
City Clerk of the City of Plainfield.
Dated, December 18, 1899. 12 19 td

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS.
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Hire for Picnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing,
Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections.
210 PARK AVE.

H. S. Gayle, 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

THE
First National Bank,
of Plainfield, N. J.
Capital .....$200,000.
Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000.
J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.
DIRECTORS.
Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Corlell.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.
VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
In Use For Over 30 Years.
THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

FALL OPENING.
WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.
OUR STOCK COMPLETE

We are now ready to fit either man or boy in Suits, or Overcoats, Hats and Gent's Furnishings.

Boys' Suits from 75c to $5 00.

Men's Suits from $2.00 to $20.00.

Have you tried a pair of our Celebrated Cassimere Pants at 98c the pair, if not do so—they are the talk of the town; sold over 1 000 pairs the past season; never rip and fit to perfection. Give us a call.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,
206 West Front Street.

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.
Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,
Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.
WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER
DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.
Sherwins,
149 W. Front St.

They have visiting them at the Nelsons' a Mrs. Duckworth from Kentucky, who used to be a great sufferer from constipation. She says she used to suffer greatly with headache too, due, no doubt, to indigestion and constipation, and tried every kind of remedy, but could find no relief until she began using Ripans Tabules. The very first Tabule gave relief, "and now," she says, "headache is a stranger." The indigestion and constipation disappeared, and she never felt better in her life than she does now. She considers Ripans Tabules the best medicine in the world.

BRILLIANT CAREER ENDED

General Lawton Killed By a Filipino Sharpshooter

WAS SHOT AT SAN MATEO

Standing in Front of His Troops, He Receives a Bullet in His Heart and Dies Instantly—The Secretary of War Cables to Gen. Otis For Full Particulars.

Washington, Dec. 20.—A dispatch received here from Manila reports that Gen. H. W. Lawton was shot through the heart and killed by a Filipino sharpshooter.

General Lawton, according to the dispatch, started out with the Eleventh cavalry and two battalions of infantry to capture San Mateo, where 100 Filipinos had intrenched themselves.

The despatch telling of the killing of General Lawton was received by a member of the cabinet and was read at the cabinet meeting.

San Mateo was attacked at 8 o'clock, and three hours' fight followed. This resulted in only few casualties on the American side, apart from the death of General Lawton, but the attack was difficult because of the natural defenses of the town.

General Lawton was walking along the firing line, within 300 yards of a small sharpshooters' trench, conspicuous in the big white helmet he always wore and a light yellow rain coat. He also was easily distinguished because of his commanding stature.

The native sharpshooters directed several close shots, which clipped the grass near the general. His staff officers called his attention to the danger he was in, but he only laughed with his usual contempt for bullets.

Suddenly he exclaimed, "I am shot!" clinched his hands in a desperate effort to stand erect, and fell into the arms of a staff officer. Orderlies rushed across the field for the surgeons, who dashed up immediately; but their efforts were useless, as the general was dead. The body was taken to a clump of bushes and laid upon a stretcher, the familiar white helmet covering the face of the dead general.

Sketch of Lawton's Career.

General Lawton was known as a good fighter and a soldier of experience and ability. In July, 1898, he was chosen for the important duty of opening the military operations against the Spaniards by the capture of El Caney and the interception of the Spanish reinforcements then nearing Santiago de Cuba.

General Lawton.

Gen. Lawton served in the Union army throughout the war, having entered the service as sergeant of Company E, Ninth Indiana volunteer infantry, in April, 1861. He was successively promoted through merit on the field of battle to first lieutenant of the Thirtieth Indiana infantry in July, 1861, to captain in May, 1862, and to lieutenant-colonel in November, 1864.

In March, 1865, he was brevetted colonel for gallant and meritorious service during the war.

He entered the regular establishment in July, 1866, as second lieutenant of the Forty-first infantry, colored, and remained with that branch of the army until January, 1871, when he was transferred to the Fourth cavalry, with which he remained until September, 1888, when he was appointed inspector-general, with the rank of major.

Later he was promoted to the rank of lieutenant-colonel, and held that rank until the opening of the war with Spain, when President McKinley appointed him brigadier-general of volunteers and assigned him to the command of a division of the Fifth army corps, commanded by Gen. Shafter. General Lawton sailed for the Philippine Islands on the transport Grant January 19, 1899.

On Gen. Lawton's arrival at Manila he relieved Gen. Anderson in command of the regular troops. He captured Santa Cruz, at the extreme end of the lake, near Manila, April 10th. This place, which was a Filipino stronghold, fell into the hands of Gen. Lawton's expedition after some sharp fighting, which formed one of the most interesting battles of the war.

Gen. Lawton and his staff accompanied the troops, sometimes leading charges in Indian fighting tactics, which eventually resulted in the complete rout of the natives. The General's next hard fighting took place in his attack on San Rafael, where the American troops were met with a heavy fire from a large number of natives who were concealed in the jungle on all sides.

Only the adoption by Gen. Lawton of the tactics followed in the Indian fighting in the United States, every man for himself, saved the division from great loss. As usual, Gen. Lawton was at the head of his line with his staff.

About the middle of November the whereabouts of Gens. Lawton and Young, on account of the rapidity of their movements, became almost as mysterious as that of Aguinaldo, but it was understood that Gen. Lawton was ambitious to capture the Filipino leader and that he would run him down if possible.

General Lawton was born in Ohio fifty-six years ago.

Ivory Soap costs a little more, but it takes less to do the work, and how much whiter the clothes are when they have been washed with it.

A WORD OF WARNING.—There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

COPYRIGHT 1899 BY THE PROCTER & GAMBLE CO. CINCINNATI

FOUR KILLED BY EXPLOSION.

Almost an Entire Family Wiped Out in Kentucky.

Louisa, Ky., Dec. 20.—Near Alliance Postoffice Nelson Hamilton was engaged in road work in which it was necessary to do some blasting. Preparatory to the work he and his family arose before daylight. A wood fire was the only source of light in the room, and Hamilton took a keg of powder and got down on the floor in front of the fire to pour out the quantity required for the day's work. His four-year-old son picked up a small amount and tossed it into the fire.

The explosion threw some embers into the pile of powder, and a terrific explosion followed. The father and little son and two older children in the room were shocked into insensibility. The ceiling was lifted from its place, the walls spread and the upper part of the house fell, but stopped about half way down the wall, thus fastening all the doors securely. When the oldest daughter regained consciousness sufficiently to realize the situation the house was in flames.

She tried to open a door, but at once saw the hopelessness of such an effort, and began to scream for help. A neighbor living near arrived in time to burst in a door and get the tortured persons out. They were badly burned, and all died within a few hours. Some of them never recovered from the shock of the explosion, and died without giving any evidence of pain. Hamilton was a well-to-do farmer. His wife died two months ago, and a married daughter is the only surviving member of the family.

DEATH IN THE FLAMES.

Seven Lives Lost in New York Tenement House Fire.

New York, Dec. 20.—Seven persons lost their lives as the result of two fires. Five men, women and children were victims of a fierce blaze which was discovered in the flat house at Third avenue, corner of 102d street. Three others were seriously burned here and may die. In a fire in the five story tenement at No. 496 Tenth avenue, a mother and her child were burned to death. The dead in the Third avenue fire are:—Patrick Barrett, dock laborer, thirty-two years old Delia Barrett, his wife, twenty-eight years old; Julia Barrett, their child, six years old; Richard Dickerson, bricklayer, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who boarded with William J. Allen on the third floor; Mamie Farley, twenty-three years old, who lived with the Barretts.

The seriously injured, who were taken to the Harlem Hospital, are:—

Mary Barrett, nine years old; Mamie Serry, Delia Macabee, mother of Mrs. Barrett.

It is feared that all three of these will die. There is no hope for the recovery of Mary Barrett. All of the dead were burned to cinders.

In addition to these Katherine Farley and Delia O'Connor, a cousin, were burned, but refused to go to the hospital.

Katherine Farley said she was unable to identify positively the body of her sister Mamie. Mamie, she said, had worn a ring with two red stones and one white one in it. The ring on the hand of the dead girl had been half destroyed by the fire, but had evidently contained these stones, and the police are certain that the body is that of Mamie Farley.

Dr. Andrews Asked to Resign.

Chicago, Dec. 20.—Dr. E. Benjamin Andrews, superintendent of public schools in Chicago, publicly advocates Great Britain's side in the South African war, and as a consequence resolutions have been introduced in the city council calling for his resignation or his immediate suspension and removal from his position by the board of education should he ignore an invitation to step down. Dr. Andrews was subjected to a heated denunciation by Alderman Cullerton, who presented the resolutions. The resolutions were referred to the committee on schools.

Building Code Suits Them.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 20.—Judson Lawson, Frank E. Conover, James H. E. Havens, Louis Harding and John F. Lee, composing a committee from New York city, representing the Builders' League, Building Trades Club, Mason Builders' Association, Master Carpenters' Association and the New York Lumber Trade Association, have waited on the governor with a memorial protesting against any movement being made to ask the legislature to appoint a building commission to prepare a new building code for the city of New York.

Museum For Colorado.

Denver, Col., Dec. 20.—The Colorado Museum of Natural History has been organized and will be incorporated. J. F. Champion, J. A. Thatcher and other Denver capitalists are promoters of the organization. They have obtained the famous collection of Rocky Mountain animals and birds of Prof. Carter of Breckinridge, Col., who will be curator of the museum.

Gillmore and His Men Rescued.

Manila, Dec. 20.—General Otis has received a despatch from General Young, stating that Lieutenant Gillmore and the other members of the Yorktown's boat's party captured at Baler have been rescued by Hare's column. Lieutenant Colonel Howze and Major Hunter have been operating with small commands in North Plocos Province, and it is supposed that one of these effected the release of the Americans.

A Considerable Scarcity of Sailors.

Baltimore, Dec. 20.—Shipping agents at this port are having considerable difficulty in obtaining sailors for the vessels engaged in the coastwise trade. In some cases vessels bound to eastern ports with coal are delayed for several days. It is believed that the unusual demand for vessels is the cause of the scarcity of men.

Spain's Change of Heart.

Buffalo, Dec. 20.—Bishop Quigley received a warm welcome on his arrival in Buffalo from his extended visit to Rome. The bishop says the feeling in Spain against the United States on account of the war seems to have turned to gratification at being relieved of the colonial burden.

The Molineux Case.

New York, Dec. 20.—Harry Cornish has issued a signed statement in reference to Mrs. Frederick Hovey's mysterious illness at Niantic, Conn., in August of 1893.

Mrs. Hovey, according to a story in a morning newspaper, was taken violently ill one night and displayed symptoms of poisoning similar to those of Mrs. Adams when she died last December. The newspaper in question stated that Harry Cornish was a guest at the same hotel at the time. Mrs. Hovey's life was saved by prompt and heroic measures. Cornish's statement regarding the affair follows:

"This story in the Weeks requence—the Heckman and Swayne cases being its predecessors—is less true than they. I never was in Niantic in my life and was in Chicago in 1893 continuously from May 25.

Ainsley, the handwriting expert, has finished his testimony, but others will take the stand at once.

Brother Against Brother.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 20.—James Craig, a pattern maker in the employ of the Western and Atlantic Railroad shops, and a pioneer citizen of Atlanta, is the uncle of two young men who are contending on opposite sides in the Boer-British war, and additional interest is invested in the story from the fact that one of the nephews married a niece of General Piet Joubert. The young men in question are Frank and Hugh Craig. Frank having married a niece of the Boer General, and being on the latter's staff, while Hugh is an active member of the Natal Fusileers, who have taken a prominent part in the invasion of the Boer country.

Port Jervis Bank Closes Its Doors.

Port Jervis, N. Y., Dec. 20.—The National Bank of Port Jervis has suspended business. A notice posted on the doors signed by President Francis Marvin and Cashier W. E. Scott, announced the temporary suspension of the bank owing to its inability to realize on its securities on account of the stringency of the money market in New York city. The suspension is the result of the defalcation of the assistant cashier, Lewis E. Goldsmith, now a fugitive from justice.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 2:00 p. m.

108 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week $5 a year—in advance.

No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada

Delivered by carrier or by mail.

The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district

Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD N. J., DEC 20, 1899

West Puts in a Claim.

It is apparent that claim of New York to the Republican nomination of the vice presidency is not going to be permitted to go undisputed. The west is going to put in a claim for this nomination on the ground that, with the eastern ideas of policy adopted by the party both east and west, the west ought to be given representation on the ticket.

There is some talk of Assistant Secretary Meiklejohn of Nebraska as a vice-presidential candidate.

It is said in support of this suggestion that his record in the War Department through the most trying time was above assault; that he is a man of recognized ability, and that he could, if on the ticket, carry his own State, which happens to be the State of Mr. Bryan also.

Thus the two men being most talked of for this nomination—the Secretary of War, Root, of New York, and the assistant secretary of war, Meiklejohn—are associates in the same department.

Whiskers in the Balance.

The decision of the Recorder of Paterson in the cases of the barbers arrested for plying their trade on Sundays is of considerable interest to the knights of the razors in Plainfield, inasmuch as the ban is put upon the regular conduct of their business on Sundays in this city. When the cases of the tonsorial artists were brought before the Paterson cadi he dismissed the complaints on the ground that shaving is a necessity, and as such is therefore permissible every day in the week—whether performed by the subject himself or by his favorite barber in the latter's shop The Sunday crusaders have decided to appeal the case. The outcome will be watched with very great interest, as it involves the consideration of just how far manual labor is necessary to a proper regard of personal appearances. A man's whiskers is generally a subject of jest, but in this case they will be raised to a higher and greater significance.

Advertising Makes Business Move.

No business can be well conducted without the aid of preliminary advertising, says the Philadelphia Record. From the cradle to the grave, all the wants, the necessaries and the luxuries of man are supplied through the medium of the advertisement. The newspaper "ad" is a means of communication between buyers and sellers which cannot be dispensed with. All business swings upon the well-oiled hinges of advertising.

A Washington correspondent says that Representative Wm. D. Daly wore an expansive smile yesterday. He had just received a letter from William Jennings Bryan to the effect that he would visit Washington some time in January, and he purposed seeing Mr. Daly to arrange for his trip through the State of New Jersey. Mr. Daly hopes to arrange to have Mr Bryan speak at Camden, Trenton, Newark and Jersey City, and if this cannot be arranged, to have him speak at Trenton at least. Mr. Daly thinks that the Democratic National Convention ought to be held in New York, and he is working as hard as he can with that end in view. He says it is the best place for it by long odds.

One of the most beautiful and expansive looking bluffs that it has ever been our pleasure to read of is the dazzling proposition made to the city officials of Passaic by the United Gas Improvement Company, the details of which will be found in the news columns of The Daily Press today. The proposition submitted by this monopolistic concern in the hope of killing off lively competition from a company that will serve the people at a fair profit, passes beyond the limits of common sense and becomes absolutely ridiculous It shows a lack of cleverness and sagacity that is startling.

The death of General Lawton on the battlefield in the Philippines is no more than a fearless and noble soldier like Lawton might expect, but in such a war as is popularly supposed to be waging in the Philippines—when the enemy is reported to be on the run continually and a victory almost in the grasp of the American forces—the news comes as a great shock to a people who looked upon this victim of an insurgent sharpshooter with more than ordinary admiration for his soldierly career. It adds emphasis to the trite truism that "war is hell."

The Senate has confirmed the President's nomination of Herbert W. Bowen to be United States Minister to Persia. Mr Bowen is well known in Plainfield, where his brother, H. E. Bowen, resides Minister Bowen was formerly Consul to Barcelona, Spain, and in vacating that post at the breaking out of the Spanish American War underwent some thrilling experiences with the excited Dons.

"What Happened to Jones," of Essex, was undoubtedly very gratifying to the gentleman.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

The positions given Senator Kean in the new Senate committees are exceptionally good for a man in his first year. He is chairman of National Banks and member of Inter-State Commerce, Public Lands and others of respectable importance. His assignments are rather better than those of Senator Depew of New York, and definitely above the general averages for new men. There are other indications also that, from one cause and another, the new Senator is to have considerable influence, and, whether one likes Mr. Kean or not, it is certainly desirable that New Jersey's representatives at Washington should have standing and strength for the sake of State of affairs.—Newark Sunday Call.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

The Christmas greens have come. They are to be seen all over the town, and the dealers declare that trade is good. There are a number of vacant spaces in the business section that are now utilized for the display of the stock in trade of the dealers in evergreens. The trade will not reach its best until the last of the week, when the close proximity of Christmas brings with it the realization that the Christmas greens must be purchased at once A large quantity of holly has been received by the various florists and other dealers who have taken in that line for the holiday season.

* * * * *

This week will see a grand influx of college young men and women home for the holidays, and ready and anxious for a good time. It is really wonderful what a large percentage of the graduates of the local schools enter college. Plainfield has far more of her sons and daughters in college than have any of the other suburban cities. Among the young women, Smith and Wellesley have the largest following. Yale is easily the the first among the young men and yearly receives nearly as many new students as all the other colleges combined. Princeton and Lehigh devide second honors. Amherst used to attract many young men from Plainfield, but now there is but a single student from this city. Howard is not a very popular college in Plainfield.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box 25c.

At Griffen's You May Find It.

Generally speaking, not many people think of visiting a hardware shop when looking for Christmas gifts. But if they would do so, they would find splendid goods that would make sensible and valuable presents. No better place in this city can be found than at the establishment of A. M. Griffen, on East Front street. Have you a friend who likes to hunt? If so, what better gift than a good gun—one that you know will be found reliable because bought of a reliable firm. Everything to be found in holiday specialties, including cultery, stoves, ranges, household utensils and various articles that all good housewives will appreciate.

Mrs. Gee, of Sandford avenue, is detained at home by illness.

GRAIN-O! GRAIN-O!

Remember that name when you want a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it. Grain-O is made of pure grain, it aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder and the children as well as the adults can drink it with great benefit. Costs about ¼ as much as coffee. 15c. and 25c. per package. Ask your grocer for Grain-O.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shape? No! Well, try it: no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,
122 East Front Street.

A GOLDEN - - OPPORTUNITY - - - - - -

Listen, good people, and you will hear
Of the wonderful things we are selling here,
At our Jeweiry Counter, near the door,
To the right as you enter our Mammoth Store.

They claim that "the pen is mightier than the sword." Be that as it may, we have pens, not to burn, but to write about, and we know whereof we speak.

First on the list are the Fountain Pens, not the "meet me at the fountain" pen, but the Celebrated Wert Pen, ranging in price from to , some of them gold tipped and everyone warranted as represented. Then we have Smith's Fountain Pen at 1.00, worth more, but that is all we ask for it.

If you want something dainty, we are able to supply you in the way of gold pens with pearl handles at a variety of prices. Just the thing for a Christmas gift.

Pencils in all gold, ebony and gold, pearl and gold and sterling silver, ranging from 50c to 6.00.

A word about the chains—If you are thinking of getting a chain for yourself or for someone for Christmas, look at ours before purchasing elsewhere We know that you will find something to suit you.

At this counter you will also find Pocketbooks, Card Cases, Belt Buckles, Jetted Belts, Steel Belts, Pearl Belts, Velvet Belts, in fact all kinds of belts.

Clocks, Vases, Fancy Hat and Hair Pins, also a large line of Silver Novelties, including Shoe Horns, Buttonhooks, Seals, etc. The same in ebony, silver tipped, Whisk Brooms, Hat Brushes, Military Brushes, Tea Strainers, Call Bells, and a variety of other goods too numerous to mention.

After you leave the Jewelry Counter you come to—

BOOKS! BOOKS! BOOKS!

"Blessings be upon the head of Cadmus or whoever else it was that invented books." If time hangs heavy on your hands we have the wherewithal to dispel that heaviness.

We will introduce to your notice David Harum, Richard Carvel, Hon. Peter Stirling, Hugh Wynne, Ben Hur, The Celebrity, Janice Meredith, Barabbas, Trooper 3809, Young Mistley, Roosevelt's Rough Riders, The Little Minister, Hope the Hermit, Rupert of Hentzau, The Sowers, Mr. Dooley, No. 5 John St., Mollie's Prince, Young April, Manders, Artie, D'Arcy of the Guards, In the Market Place, A Duet, A Double Thread, Gloria Mundi, His Grace of Osmonde, etc.

For the Boys—The Henty Books, Ellis Books, Alger Books, Rugby Series, and Little Men Series.

For the Girls—Cornell Series, Fireside Series, Wellesly Series, and Little Women Series.

2 Vol. Sets, 5 Vol. Sets, Gift Books, Bibles and Calendars.

For the Little Ones—Picture Books in an endless variety both in linen and paper.

Toys of all kinds, Dolls, Games, Drums, Horses, Dogs, Cats, Monkeys, Surprise Boxes, Dishes, Rattles, Horse Lines, Whips, Blocks and an endless amount of good things that Dear Old Santa Claus has left for the good girls and boys—at

WOOHULL & MARTIN,

234, 236, 238, 246 W. Front Street.

PECK'S CORNER.

PECK'S

. . . HOLIDAY STOCK . . .

recommends itself to those who are seeking really practical and useful presents for friends.

Merry Christmas. Happy New Year.

To those who contemplate making

Christmas Presents

I advise you to call and see the

Handsome Building Lots At Woodland Park, Plainfield.

Suited for a king or prince. Or some of our one or two acre Plots for Raising Poultry, &c. You can buy these properties at Low Prices, monthly payments guaranteed title. These properties will double in value in two or three years. Other investments to suit all.

SILAS D. DRAKE,
175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

Open Evenings — Bonn's, 140 West Front St. — Open Evenings

CHOOSING CHRISTMAS GIFTS

is not difficult here, sensible and acceptable articles for the mother, wife, daughter, sister or sweetheart.

MEN COME HERE, TOO,

especially for Shirt Waists, they know that every woman has use for one more waist. We gladly enter into the spirit of the occasion—suggest sizes and exchange after Christmas if not right.

FANCY HAT PINS, 19c,

of metal and gilt enameled and Filigree stone with jeweled tops, choice at 19c.

Gold & Silver Brooches, 25c, 39c, 49c.

The small fashionable brooches of novel designs, sterling silver and rolled gold plate, many of them mounted with pearls, Rhine stones and colored jewels, dainty and unique, each in a separate box, 25c, 39c and 49c.

FANCY BUCKLES and BELTS.

Beaded belts, all black, steel, white, and black and steel, 31c to $1.98.

Fancy Enameled Gilt Buckles, 12c to $1.23.

Cut Steel Buckles, 25c to $1.98.

FRENCH FLANNEL WAISTS, $2.98.

All the pretty colorings, pink, helio, grey, cardinal, royal, brown, navy, purple and black, the latest touch of newness in the finish and each one in a box.

Embroidered Flannel Waists, $2.49, all colors, white polka-dot embroidered, value $3.75, here at $2.49.

French Grey Flannel Waists, $1.89,

another lot of those stylish French Grey Flannel Waists at $1.89.

SILK SHIRT WAISTS, $4.98, of dependable silk, stylishly made, have fine cords and tucks, all sizes, colors are cerise, cardinal, navy, royal, helio and black, only $4.98.

OUR SPECIALTIES { Choice Teas. Fine Coffee.

All the Seasonable Goods for the Holidays. Take home one of our baskets of Fruit.

Tel. 931. C. E. GULICK & CO., THE PARK GROCERS.

THE BOOT SHOP — AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,
107 Park Avenue.

EXECUTOR'S SALE

OF VALUABLE

PERSONAL PROPERTY.

The undersigned, executor of D. M. Walter, deceased, will sell at public vendue at 12 m., sharp, on THURSDAY,

DECEMBER 21, 1899.

On farm formerly owned by D. M. Walter, on the road leading from Plainfield to Rahway, near Hillside Golf Grounds.

All the personal property of which. D. M. Walter, died, seized, consisting of beds, bedding, carpets, stoves, chairs, tables, mirrors, cutlery, crockery, etc. Also farming implements and machinery.

HOUSEHOLD and KITCHEN FURNITURE.

.....ONE BLACK HORSE.....

Lot of Poultry.

Sleigh, 1-horse plough, cultivator, harness, sled, spring wagon, hay rigging, rake, fanning mill, hay cutter, 2-seated carriage, plows, 1-horse. carrage, buggy. Also 50 bushels old corn, hay, 30 gallons vinegar, and various other articles too numerous to mention.

TERMS made known on day of sale.

12 6 td W. R. CODINGTON, Executor.

—Use Press want ads.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, Dec 20.—R S. Fisher, the newly appointed station agent at this place, has assumed his new duties. Mr Fisher was formerly station agent at Fanwood, where he will continue to reside for the present.

The cars of the Plainfield Street Railway now make trips from this borough on the 15 minute headway schedule. In consequence they run very slowly, whereat there's much complaint.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Seventh-Day Baptist church is expected to meet this afternoon with Mrs. Alvin H. Burdick.

Great preparations are under way for the Christmas festivals in the Sunday-schools of the borough churches.

Lewis Thomas, son of Mrs. Nancy Thomas, has secured a position as reporter on the Morristown Chronicle.

The social dance to be held at Hotel Nelson, New Market, tomorrow night promises to be well attended.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 20.—The many friends of Edwin Fields, who has been lying dangerously ill at his home in Orange, suffering from a severe attack of typhoid fever, will be glad to learn that he is improving very nicely.

Thomas R Collins, who has been detained at home suffering from a severe attack of the grip for several days, has improved so well that he is able to return to business again.

The three Sunday-schools in the village are practicing hard for their Christmas entertainment to be held during the holiday week.

Mrs. Edward Smith and children who have been visiting Mrs. Smith's parents, have returned to their home in Plainfield.

Miss Sarah Emery, of Bayonne, has been spending a few days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Emery.

Le Roy Day has accepted the local agency for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

WESTFIELD.

(Special Correspondence to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, December 20.—Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Mary Kate Brittingham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Edward Brittingham, to William Jesse Rawles, of Whaleyville, Va., which will take place Wednesday evening of next week at the home of the bride's parents.

This evening the members of the Congregational Church Society will burn bonds worth about $2,000 which have been paid off during the past year. The fire will be started by Rev. James Danforth, D. D., the pastor of the church.

The posts for the fence which the Central Railroad company proposes to to build along their line have been placed in position as far as the Westfield station.

Sensible Gifts to Be Found Here.

In selecting Christmas presents shoppers should not overlook the complete line carried by the J. P. Laire Hardware Company on West Front street. The exhibit of fine cutlery, Rogers' plated ware, skates for boys or girls, and almost anything you choose in the way of housekeeping utensils that are first-class and reliable. It is possible you may be thinking of having a Christmas tree for the little folks. If so, you may wish a tree holder—just the best contrivance one can imagine. Made to fit any tree and it will insure safety and convenience. There are also some excellent sleds for the boys, and all were made at prices that are right. The J. P. Laire Hardware Company is among the reliable houses in Plainfield.

Inventive Jerseymen.

In this week's issue of patents granted to American inventors, seventeen were granted to residents of our own State. To subscribers of this paper a description and drawing of any patent will be furnished free by Louis Bagger & Co., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C., if a printed heading cut from this paper is enclosed with the order.

Miss Kittie Manning, daughter of Jeremiah Manning, of Evona, has returned to her home after a long stay at Mt. Pocono.

Bon Ami

The Finest Cleaner

MADE. IT WILL NOT SCRATCH OR WEAR ANY SURFACE, YET IT CLEANS THE DIRTIEST PERFECTLY.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders

—A watch-night service will be held at Monroe Avenue church New Year's Eve.

—The grill room at the Kensington Hotel is growing in favor and is well patronized.

—Sparklets—Just the thing for the college student—Wm. W. Moore, 310 Park avenue.

—The Plainfield physicians will hold their annual meeting and banquet early in January.

—The next regular meeting of the Borough Council will be held Friday evening, January 5th.

—This evening the Common Council for 1900 will hold a caucus and fix the slate for next year.

—This evening Unity Lodge, No. 102. K. of P., will nominate officers to be elected one week later.

—Special Christmas services will be held at the First Baptist church next Sunday morning and afternoon.

—Tomorrow evening Franklin Council, No 41, Jr. O U. A. M., will nominate officers to be elected next week.

—The Christian Endeavor Society meeting at the First Baptist church Friday evening will be of special interest.

—A new iron culvert has been placed at the corner of Liberty and West Second streets, which is a great improvement.

—A meeting of special interest will be held at the Reform Club tomorrow night and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

—The Sunday-school of the First Baptist church will enjoy its Christmas entertainment between Christmas and New Years.

—One week from Friday evening Court Plainfield, No. 1144, I. O. F., will initiate eighteen candidates, after which there will be a collation.

—VanArsdale has an attractive line of slippers for the Christmas trade, and you can buy them without cramping your pocket-book very much, too.

—The beautiful floral pillow of roses and orchids sent to the funeral of Josiah Browne by the members of the club car Netherwood, was furnished by A. E. Lincoln, the Park avenue florist.

—J. R. Blair, gents furnishing goods dealer, of Park avenue, has a full line of goods for Christmas presents. His goods are all up-to-date Give him a call before purchasing your Christmas presents.

—A large evergreen tree located at the corner of Liberty and West Second streets, was blown down a few nights ago, and narrowly escaped doing great damage to the house standing near.

—B. W. Hand, stationer, 205 West Front street, has just received a very large stock of latest books, periodicals, toys, sporting goods and games for the holidays. Give him a call before making your Christmas purchases.

—In a short time the work of excavating the cellar for Ballentine & Co.'s depot, corner of West Second street and Central avenue, will be started. It is expected to have the building completed within a few months.

—As an evidence of the high esteem in which the late Josiah Browne was held there were persons at his funeral who came all the way from New Orleans and St. Louis for the purpose. These persons are connected with the American Tobacco Company.

Working Night and Day

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globule of health, that changes weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fag into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box. Sold by L. W. Randolph.

Candies for Christmas.

Before completing your Christmas purchases be sure to get a box of the delicious candy to be found at Wieda's confectionary establishment, 144 West Front street. All goods sold by Wieda are made on the premises and they include chocolates, bonbons, etc. You can be sure of always finding the candy fresh and it is made of the best sugar. Purchasers of fine candies can have it put up in handsome pound or half pound boxes. It makes a neat gift and is considered always in good taste to make as a Christmas present. Wieda's candies are well known and can be depended upon.

Happy Under His Affliction.

There is practically no change in the condition of William Cosgrove, the Californian, who has been at the hospital for many months with a broken back, but those in charge considered that he is doing very well. He is happy and seems to be well contented He does not suffer very much pain and to all appearances he is enjoying life.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Miss Martin, of Manson place, is recovering from a severe illness.

E. S. Black, of Newark, has been visiting Plainfield friends for a time

Frank Pennoyer, of Newark, has returned after a visit with Plainfield relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Barnaby, of Plainfield avenue, are spending the winter in New York.

Miss Clarkson, of Elmwood place has taken a position at Woodhull & Martin's for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Bellis, of Elmwood place, have returned from a visit with Rahway friends and relatives.

Miss Grace Rowland, of East Second street, has returned from a visit with relatives in Hunterdon county.

The mother of Mrs. Fred Endress, who has been visiting her and who has been quite ill, is much improved.

Willie VanSyckle, of East Third street, has received a Christmas present of a handsome piano from his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cox, of Liberty street, have moved to Watsessing, Essex county, where Mr. Cox has a good position.

Ernest Crane, son of Evangelist Arthur Crane, who is a student at Crozier Theological Seminary, is spending a short time with his parents in this city. Mr. Crane will graduate from the above institution next June.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM.

Trolley Company Severely Criticised

To the Editor of the Daily Press:—While the staid old village of Scotch Plains is being awakened, agitated and shaken as it has never been before, within the recollections of the oldest inhabitants, upon the question of intemperance, immorality and lawless brawls, it is also apparent that the attention of the Trolley Company should be called to the manner in which they accommodate the public As it is an acknowledged fact that their cars are filthy from spitting on floor, &c; also, that some of the men in charge of the cars run them on a speed of ten minutes from Plainfield to Scotch Plains, while the conductor and motorman are engaged in a flirtation with a very bold young woman. to the disgust of the other passengers It is a common occurrence for whiskey and beer to be drank on the cars, while a walk along the track and view the dozens of empty bottles that have been thrown from the cars will furnish a most convincing proof These silent witnesses of depravity have been emptied by drunken men and women in the presence of respectable women and children, who were shocked and compelled to hide their faces, by the indecent and lewd conversation of these drunken lewd-eyed sots. The question that decent people are now asking is this: Is this the service the Trolley Company is giving to them for the valuable franchise that they have received through the consents of the property owners? From the manner in which the cars are now run, it would also appear that the Trolley Company was a silent partner in immorality and the rum traffic in the Plains. X

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

Next Monday afternoon Wm. Hawarth's famous melo-drama, "A Flag of Truce," will receive its first presentation here, at popular prices, when the Burrill Comedy Company commence a week's engagement at the Stillman Music Hall. The Burrill company created a most favorable impression during their visit here last season, and it is safe to predict that during Christmas week they will offer the theatre going public of Plainfield a class of scenic productions far superior to anything ever before presented at 10 20 and 30 cents. Included in their repertoire are a number of well known metropolitan successes, such as "The Ensign" by the author of "A Flag of Truce," Wm. Colder's famous drama, "Saved From the Sea," Howard P. Taylor's beautiful comedy drama "Infatuation," "Michael Strogoff," and other productions equally well-known. Monday evening "The Ensign" will be presented, with nearly a car load of special scenery.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that Listen to J W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

GREAT MOLINEUX TRIAL IN NEW YORK.

It is charged that Roland B. Molineux had a grudge against Harry B. Cornish and that a bottle of headache powders, containing poison, received by the latter, was sent anonymously by the former. Cornish gave a dose of the powders to Mrs. Katherine J. Adams, who died in convulsions shortly after taking the powder. The illustration shows the accused, his father and his two lawyers.

AT RANDOLPH'S,

See our Window Display. CHRISTMAS GREETINGS.

Great values in choice Perfumes. Never before this opportunity. Bottle goods from 10c to $4 50.
Hair Brushes, Military Hair Brushes, prices just ½ their reg. value.
House Thermometers, large assortment. Sachet Powders in bulk, 40 cents per ounce and in packages. 10c, 15c, 35c.
Lowney's Celebrated Candies, 60 cents per pound.
Whitman's Chocolates, 40 and 80c per pound.

PLACE ORDERS EARLY.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for Lowney's Chocolate and Chocolate Bon-bons. TELEPHONE CALL 109

Great Price Reductions

on Men's Overcoats and Suits, as well as on Boys' and Children's Suits, Overcoats and Trousers. There never was a busier season with us as we have had for the last three months, therefore we had to purchase very largely all through the season, made it a very large accumulation of odd suits and overcoats leaving us from 2 to 5 garments of each style and in order to close out this entire lot we have marked them down to such tremendously low prices that we expect to make a clean sweep of the entire lot in very short order.

We have also made a purchase in the last 3 days of 500 overcoats of the finest quality and made in the latest style, that will not stand us more than 35 cents on the dollar, they will be included in the above sale.

The following prices will be made for the next three days:

150 MEN'S BUSINESS SUITS, made of pure all-wool cassimeres and cheviots, in neat and stylish checked and plaid patterns, good looking, first-class suits, that were never before or never likely again be so far less than 9 00, for this 3-day sale at 3 95

MEN'S ALL-WOOL FANCY CHEVIOT, CASSIMERE and HOMESPUN SUITS in single breasted styles with double breasted vests, an elegant dress or business suit, made up with an eye to give good service, in fact, you can't touch them in other stores for less than 12 00, our lucky purchase enables us to offer them at the extremely low price of 4.90

169 MEN'S KERSEY and BEAVER OVERCOATS, all-wool, black or blue deep French facing, extra heavy Italian lining, sleeves lined with the celebrated Iron Yarn cloth, a recognized 10.00 value at 4 25

MEN'S OVERCOATS of all-wool kerseys and covert cloths, presenting the latest English box style, they hang just perfectly and fit just where you want them to, have hand-made button-holes and are 12 00 to 14 00 values, at this sale 5 95

500 TWO PIECE BOYS' SUITS, all-wool materials, new and pleasing styles, double seat and knee, sizes 7 to 15, could not be sold for less than 3 00 to be sold at 1 45.

BOYS' FINE TWO-PIECE SUITS in all the newest designs in plaids and mixtures, also in plain black and blue cheviots, double seat and knees, elegantly trimmed and tailored, worth 5.00, to be sold at this great sale at 2 25

BOYS' REEFER COATS at 1.25 and 1 50 made of all wool chinchillas with the regulation sailor collars, with warm woolen lining, sizes 3 to 8 years, positively worth 3 00.

YOUNG MEN'S SUITS, ages 14 to 19, at 2 50, 3.50 and 4 50, handsomely made with narrow legged pants, other stores would sell them at from 5 00 to 10 00

FINE YOUNG MEN'S OVERCOATS, sizes 14 to 19, at 1.75, 2.75 and 4 75, worth double at wholesale.

Don't make a mistake by missing this wonderful sale of clothing. Sale will begin this Saturday morning at 8 a. m. Will last for 3 days only.

New York Clothing Company

M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.

214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.

Plainfield, N. J.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned

Best work for the money in town. Bids on work willingly given. Work done night or day. Get my bid before you have work done.

P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.

T. M INGRAH M.

S. R. STRUTHERS

offers his services as accountant. Books opened and closed. Trial balances made and Balance Sheets shown.

Call or address

544 WEST FRONT STREET. 12 13 tf

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.

Paris for 1900.

Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.

Circulars at

181 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

CHAS. L. FORCE,

Architect and Superintendent.

203 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 31 tf

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.

Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J
Perth Amboy, N. J.

A Ruthless Sacrifice of TOYS : :

Nearly six thousand pieces in the lot, including a great variety of mechanical toys; tin and wood toys of all kinds; tops, horns, dolls, sets of furniture, building blocks, trains of cars, tin stoves and an endless variety of every kind of toys.

At 6 o'clock tonight we will open the lot in our new basement. Your choice for 3c each.

The values of the lot range from 5c to 50c the piece. This astonishing offer is made with a view to disposing of every toy we have on hand prompty before Xmas.

$3.49 Eiderdown filled comfortables, size 66 x 75 in., covered patterns of French satine.

$4.98 Eiderdown filled comfortables, 70 x 72 inches, covered with the best quality of French satine.

Sterling Silver Novelties . .

A very large and varied assortment of sterling silver novelties in manicure sets, pieces for writing desks, brushes, combs, stamp boxes, etc, 25c to $5.00.

Pocketbooks Every desirable kind of pocketbook can be found here, including the new finger book, 5c to $4.00.

Silver letters two inches square, the fashionable thing for marking pocketbooks - - - 25c.

Umbrellas, mufflers, handkerchiefs, gloves, hosiery, bath robes, etc. A very comprehensive assortment and make appropriate and suitable gifts.

A Talk on Overcoats.

We know how to talk about them because we make them.

Our $10 Overcoat

is made from all-wool Kersey, cassimere lined, with a shoulder yoke and sleeve lining of real satin. The style is there as well as the quality. We have them from $5.00 to $13.50. Boys' Reefers $1.75 to $4.00.

We Make All Our Clothing.

Schepflin & Schultz,

M. J. Cashin, Manager.

322 West Front St.

$14.75 CAMERA AND OUTFIT FOR $10.00 . . . .

A good suggestion for Christmas! You can have a well-known camera which will take pictures 4x5 and all necessary materials for finishing the pictures for $10. The retail value of this outfit is $14.75.

WE HAVE ALSO

Golf Sets, Phonographs, Graphophones, Gramophones, Music Boxes, Christmas Cards and a general line of Sporting Goods. We are always pleased to show our stock.

GEO. W. WRENNICK,

133 NORTH AVE.

POWERS' PHARMACY Somerset St. Craig Place.

Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .

Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot AND Tar

is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

XMAS IS NEAR

Now is the time to order your Xmas greens First come, first served. Holly, laurel and Xmas green wreaths and roping; also loose holly, palms, ferns, jardinieres and wicker baskets for Xmas presents.

MRS. L. J. DENTON,

Stillman Building, Tel. call 731.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.

Capital, $150,000.

Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.

CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F ARNOLD, Cashier.

DIRECTORS.

Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Closson. H G Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold. J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J B. Coward.

General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Aus der Rheinpfalz.

Speyer. Als dieser Tage eine Jagdgesellschaft den Bahnübergang bei Hetzheim passirte, ging dem bei der Gesellschaft befindlichen Jäger Seyfried aus Heuchelheim das Gewehr los. Der Kutscher wurde durch den Schuß getroffen und war sofort todt. Seyfried wurde verhaftet.

Pirmasens. Die älteste Frau der Pfalz, Frau Luise Munzinger, ist auf Forsthaus Schauerberg gestorben. Sie hatte ein Alter von über 100 Jahren erreicht und war bis vor Kurzem noch rüstig und gesund. Die Verlebte war die Urgroßmutter des vor einigen Jahren in Straßburg verstorbenen Senatspräsidenten Munzinger.

Zweibrücken. Der seit mehreren Wochen vermißte Kaufmann Carbonnet wurde dieser Tage todt aus dem Bliesbache gezogen. Um die Leiche war ein Strick, an dem eine schwere Kugel hing, geschlungen. Die gerichtliche Untersuchung stellte Selbstmord fest.

Württemberg.

Stuttgart. Ministerpräsident von Mittnacht feierte sein 50jähriges Beamtenjubiläum.—Der Entwurf zu den neuen Germania-Briefmarken der Reichspost stammt von einem Württemberger, der früher die hiesige Kunstgewerbeschule besucht hat und seit zwei Jahren als Zeichner an der Reichsdruckerei in Berlin thätig ist, Paul Waldraff. Dieser Entwurf ist vom Kaiser unter einer Anzahl von Konkurrenzarbeiten ausgewählt und zur Ausführung bestimmt worden.—Der württembergische Bund der Landwirthe hielt im Stadtgartensaale seine diesjährige Jahresversammlung ab. Der Bund zählt gegenwärtig 12,091 Mitglieder.

Backnang. Auf dem hiesigen Bahnhof wurde Weichenwärter Hochstetter von einer Maschine erfaßt und so schwer verletzt, daß ihm ein Arm und ein Bein amputirt werden mußten.

Cannstatt. Hier bildete sich ein Verein für fakultative Feuerbestattung. Die Mitgliederzahl beträgt bereits über 100.

Ehningen. Schultheiß Klein legte altershalber sein Amt nieder. Zu seinem Nachfolger wurde Schultheiß und Verwaltungsaktuar Bauer von Altdorf, hiesigen Bezirks, mit großer Stimmenmehrheit gewählt.

Grünthal. In der Parzelle Frutendorf ist das Wohn- und Oekonomiegebäude des Holzhauers Klumpp trotz Hilfe der benachbarten Feuerwehren bis auf den Grund niedergebrannt.

Heilbronn. Hier ist der Raubmörder Vogl hingerichtet worden.—Kürzlich wurde hier eine Centralgenossenschaft der württembergischen Weingärtnervereine gegründet.

Rottweil. Zur Assistentin der Gewerbeinspektionen ist Frau Grunau, die Wittwe eines Direktors der Diedenhofer'schen Pulverfabrik in Rottweil, ernannt worden.

Ulm. Die Umgebung des Münsters wird demnächst wieder eine einschneidende Veränderung erfahren. Es wird nämlich die an der Nordwestseite des Münsters angebaute Münsterbauhütte abgebrochen. Das alte Giebelhaus mit dem einseitig überhängenden Dach stammt aus dem 16. Jahrhundert. Urkundliche Nachrichten, die über die Zeit seiner Erbauung Aufschluß geben könnten, fehlen; nur über einem Fensterturz steht die Zahl 1615. So viel ist sicher, daß das Gebäude 300 Jahre lang den Baumeistern und Steinmetzen des Münsters als Werkstätte zedient und es sich auf allen älteren Abbildungen des Münsters als Charakteristikum findet.

Baden.

Karlsruhe. Musikdirektor Gageur, der langjährige Dirigent der Liederhalle, ist gestorben.

Heidelberg. Die Frequenz der Universität ist wieder gestiegen. Es sind 1250 Studirende immatrikulirt, hierzu kommen noch 106 Hospitanten und 13 zu den Vorlesungen zugelassene Damen, zusammen 1369 Hörer, die höchste bis jetzt in einem Wintersemester erreichte Zahl.

Konstanz. Die Thalmühle in Meßkirch, in der am 22. November 1780 der Opernkomponist Conradin Kreutzer geboren wurde, ist zum Theil niedergebrannt.

Mannheim. Der Kassier Loesch vom Medizinalverband Ladenburg-Neckarhausen-Edingen ist wegen Unterschlagungen flüchtig.

Müllheim. Die dieser Tage eingeweihte jüngste Volksheilstätte für Lungenkranke, Friedrichsheim bei Marzell, begründet von der Versicherungsanstalt Baden, ist für 110 Betten eingerichtet und wird bis zur Fertigstellung 1,700,000 Mark kosten. Der hohe Baupreis erklärt sich durch die mit Absicht gewählte Lage des Hauses, fernab von den Hauptverkehrswegen des Landes und von größeren Orten, wodurch die Neuanlage von Straßen nothwendig und die Zufuhr des Baumaterials erschwert und vertheuert wurde.

Elsaß-Lothringen.

Straßburg. Der Kommandeur der 5. Garde-Infanterie-Brigade, Generalmajor Freiherr v. Buddenbrock-Hettersdorf, wurde als Nachfolger des Generals v. u. z. Gilsa zum Kommandanten von Straßburg ernannt.

"ISN'T IT TOO CUTE FOR ANYTHING!"

So runs the chorus of feminine praise over this, that or the other pretty brooch in our fine collection. Husband, father, brother, beau—here's the fit thing! The price-range is $2.50 to $25.00—and there never was better choosing in pretty jewelry. You can make no mistake in picking with your eyes shut—but best come while the selection is complete.

Large Solid Silver Nethersole Bracelets, - - - - 75c
Solid Silver Brush and Comb, - $2.50
In a silk-lined case.

COLLIER, Jeweler,
103 Park Ave.
Established 1869.

STATIONERY and TOYS.

We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles for the Holiday trade.
CHRISTMAS CARDS and CALENDARS.
We make a specialty of
FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.
High Grade Cigars.
Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.
B. W. HAND,
205 W. Front Street

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING

is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.,
201 PARK AVE., Cor 2d ST.
Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.
Estimates furnished. Telephone call 635

LADIES' TAILORING.
RICHARDSON & WALD,
325 West Front Street.
TAILOR-MADE GARMENTS.
We make a specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.
Alterations and relining promptly attended to.
—DRESSMAKING.—
Our Dressmaking Department is in charge of Madame Walsh.

THE GRANDVIEW Meat Market
Jorge Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats, Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

THE ENTRANCE TO THE DINING ROOM

will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us.
Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early.
The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too—everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get.
FRED ENDRESS,
131—135 WEST FRONT STREET

Defective Eyes.

Overstrained and Defective Eyes are the cause of many a

HEADACHE.

Correctly-fitted Glasses will remedy the trouble. A Scientific Examination Free and Glasses Guaranteed.

STILES & CO.,
107 E. Front St.
EVERY THURSDAY.
Hours: 10:30 to 5:00.

A AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

The Genuine Portland Range has "Portland" on oven door plate, and "A. H. Van Horn, 73 Market St., Newark, N. J." on plate below oven door—sold here only.

Presents That Last!

—Imagine, if you can, more than four acres devoted—every inch of it—to presents for all parts of the home, for old, for young! 'Tis the largest store in line in all this State—pay cash or credit—prices always BELOW any other's prices. Goods selected now, reserved 'til later—free deliveries.

How would a Rug do? or an Easel, a Music Cabinet or a Library, or a Parlor Table, a Couch, a Lamp, some Pictures, Lace Curtains or Portieres. These and MORE such things are all here—for CASH OR ON CREDIT! These goods below are chosen from different lines and specially priced:

$3.49
Value $4.50
A lot of Cherry Rockers—highly polished—high arms, saddle seat.

$5.49
Worth $8.00
Cute Cornered Chairs—in cherry—silk damask covered—very new.

$5.75
Was $8.50
A swell front, golden oak Desk—French legs—one drawer.

Now $12.98
Value $16.
A mahogany finish, Combination Desk, bevel plate mirror, spacious and new style. 50 other kinds.

$10.75
A White Enamel Dresser, plate mirror, beveled edge, $15 usually.

GET A "Domestic" Sewing Machine for a lasting gift, needn't pay cash if you want. Old machines allowed for.

Music Cabinets —all the way from $4.35 up—as goodly a line as you'll want.

STORE OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL CHRISTMAS
A Pretty Picture Book for Children to all Callers.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,
Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agent for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phœnix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW, THE GROCER.
Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.
Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS
Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.
GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.
119 East Front Street.

SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue.
BUTCHERS.
Everything usually found in a first-class market.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83 A.

Elston M. French,
Successor to VanBuren Bros.
Real Estate and Insurance.
Largest agency in the city. Loans negotiated.
163 NORTH AVENUE.
Opposite Depot

H. Eggerding,
121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR,
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars.

McCullough's STEAM MILL.
21 Steiner place, North Plainfie
B. H. McCullough, Prop'r
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

L. A. HUMMER,
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.
163 SOMERSET ST.
Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 27 A.

Toys, Toys, Toys
for the
HOLIDAYS
—AT—
HARPER'S,
411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

We are NOW receiving orders for
HUYLER'S XMAS CANDY,
—to be delivered at—
CHRISTMAS TIME.
Remember the
Only Agency
—IS—
Leggett's Pharmacy,
Y. M. C. A. Building.
Tel. 705.

John G. Bantle,
First-class
Ladies' and Gent's TAILOR.
428 Watchung Avenue.
Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS.
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS,
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

E. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

OUR OYSTERS ARE THE ---FINEST---
ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street,
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store 128 Park avenue. 191

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill.
Turning and Scroll Sawing.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

TOILET HINTS.

Care of the Complexion and Hands in Winter.

It is very important, especially in the winter time, that the skin should be thoroughly dried after the hands or face has been washed. A soft, dry towel should be used and every trace of moisture removed. Otherwise chapping, roughness and redness are almost sure to ensue.

After walking or driving in an open carriage and always before going to bed the face should be thoroughly washed with warm water to remove all dust. To retire at night with the complexion covered with powder and atmospheric impurities is a practice which greatly impairs beauty. The French are fond of saying that one need not be beautiful, but one must not be ugly. To take care of the teeth, skin and hair, to dress neatly and becomingly and to cultivate so kindly and cheerful a disposition that its reflection softens and brightens the countenance will effectually prevent any woman from being ugly, even if she has not a good feature in her face.

CLOTH COAT.

The illustration shows a coat of mastic cloth, close at the back and half loose in front. It is trimmed with bands of black velvet, which are arranged so that they follow the rounded outline of the coat. Horizontal bands of velvet cover the sleeves. The collar and double revers are of black astrakhan. A black satin skirt is worn, a white mousseline cravat and a hat of black velvet trimmed with white feathers. JUDIC CHOLLET.

ORNAMENTS.

Trimmings and Jewelry For the Winter Season.

Louis Quinze knots continue to be a favorite motive in dress decoration. They are incrusted in velvet on cloth or applied in beads on tulle, and they appear in embroidery of all kinds, forming designs about the edge of tunics.

A great deal of jewelry is worn with gowns of almost every sort, but especially with evening costumes. Brooches, barrettes, buckles and clasps are seen, and pins representing flowers, birds, beetles, butterflies, etc. They are used in the drapery of the bodice, at the belt, in the cravat, in the hair and upon millinery.

MORNING BLOUSE.

One of the prettiest of hat or hair ornaments is composed of small peacock plumes, the eye of the plume being set with jewels. Peacock eyes are also combined with other feathers very effectively. Butterflies of lace and spangles are also worn in the hair with evening dress.

Black velvet belts, now fashionably adopted, are very narrow, except where the buckle is attached. At that point they widen somewhat.

The morning blouse shown in the picture is of surah. It has a wide collar edged with a band of embroidery and a ruffle of lace, which continues down the front in a double jabot and around the waist. In front the blouse ties with two long ends, also embroidered and bordered with a lace ruffle. The petticoat of broche silk has two circular ruffles of plain silk edged and headed with silk ruches. JUDIC CHOLLET.

Slanders.

"Never waste time in denying slanders," said the corn fed philosopher. "Start a new slander about some one else, and yours will be forgotten."—Indianapolis Journal.

PANAMA PEARLS.

Value of the Gems Secured in a Year's Harvest.

The magnificent pearls which ornament the crown of Spain, and which are so much admired by tourists who visit the cathedrals at Seville and Toledo were found in Oyster shells in the Bay of Panama, and the large strings and clusters which the Spaniards took from the Indians both on the north and west coasts of South America came from the same source. Pearl fishing is still carried on to a considerable extent at Panama. In the spring of 1899 a boy fifteen years old found an oyster that concealed a jewel now offered for sale in Paris for $10,000. He received $4,000 for it from a negro speculator named Justiana. The latter brought it to Panama and sold it to Felix Erhman, the banker, for a considerable advance on that price. At the Erhman banking house the other day I saw an assortment of pearls all the way from $50 to $4,000, which are Panama prices, and considerably lower than those that would be asked for the same jewels in London, Paris or New York. Few pearls are sent to New York because of the duty imposed upon them by the government. Those that go are smuggled. The annual harvest of pearls at Panama will average a value of about $150,000. There are several firms engaged in the business—Prospero Penal, Pisa y Pisa, Arosenema Hermanos, Madura Hermanos and others. The Erhman's do no fishing, but buy pearls of speculators.

Pearl oysters are found in all parts of Panama Bay. Two years ago an ordinary fisherman found one near Taboga Island, not more than half a mile from the regular steamship anchorage, that contained a pearl worth $2,400, but the largest beds are about thirty miles from the city. The oysters are much larger than those found in northern waters, and the shells are even larger still. The oysters are rank and coppery, but are healthful and are eaten by the natives. The smaller ones are often brought to the Panama market.—Chicago Record.

COMPANY DINNERS.

Dreaded by Guests and Keep the Hostess in Anxiety.

Writing on "Making Company of Guests," Edward Bok, in the December Ladies' Home Journal, considers "it a curious fact that American housewives are so loath to believe that a dinner with fuss and feathers is dreaded by the majority of people. The highest compliment we can possibly show a guest at dinner is to let him partake of an ordinary meal; to let him come quietly in and 'be one of the family;' yet this is the very compliment which we withhold from him. Instead of giving a guest what he would relish most, we give him what he really enjoys least. Let a hostess be ever so graceful and tactful, let there be years of experience on her shoulders, yet nothing can conceal from her guests that the dinner which she is serving is other an unusual one. It is a formal affair, and no amount of grace can make anything else of it. For nothing speaks so loudly or so unerringly as a formal company dinner. Every course shows it; every movement of the waitress proclaims it; every piece of china fairly cries out the occasion. And, of course, no one at the table really enjoys it. The guest certainly does not, because he knows that he is being made company of, and that feeling is always enough to offset every enjoyment. The hostess does not, for she hasn't the time. Her eyes are for the table and her servants; not for her guests."

If I Knew.

If I knew the box where smiles were kept,
No matter how large the key,
Or strong the bolt, I would try so hard,
'Twould open, I know, for me.
Then over the land and sea, broadcast,
I'd scatter the smiles to play,
That the children's faces might hold them fast
For many and many a day.

If I knew a box that was large enough
To hold all the frowns I meet,
I would like to gather them, every one,
From nursery, school and street,
Then, folding and holding, I'd pack them in,
And turning the monster key,
I'd hire a giant to drop the box
Into the depths of the sea.

Quite Natural.

A recent issue of The Manila Freedom contains this sample of American journalism:

Whew! Hot!

Yesterday was a scorcher.

Have you sampled Tony Armstrong's latest invoice of Milwaukee beer?

Why don't they order out the street sprinklers?

Billy Kennedy is putting up a new teak barn. Billy has faith in Manila.

What's the matter with American hams at Wilson's?

Sewing machines and pianos on the instalment plan at Johnson's.

Nothing new from the front, but we're going to take the starch out of Aguinaldo next fall.

Send in you subscriptions.

Protecting Carrier Pigeons.

In China carrier pigeons are protected from birds of prey by an ingenious little apparatus consisting of bamboo tubes fastened to the birds' bodies with thread passed beneath the wings. As the pigeon flies the action of the air passing through the tubes produces a shrill whistling sound, which keeps the birds of prey at a distance.

Continent of Plateaus.

Africa is the most elevated of all the continents. It is the "continent of plateaus." The great tableland in the south has a mean altitude of over 3,500 feet; the wide tableland on the north has an average elevation of about 1,300 feet.

The young Maori men who have been to college apparently become as white men in their ways, but after a couple of years at home drift back into their gipsy customs.

"What a popular chaperone Mrs. Courtney Dobbs is!"

"Yes; she is a trifle deaf."

WILLIAM AND MARY COLLEGE

Is the Oldest Institution of Its Kind in America.

William and Mary is the oldest college in America, although Harvard graduated a first class. In 1685 Rev. James Blair was sent over to Virginia to act as a sort of deputy for the Bishop of London, who had ecclesiastical jurisdiction over the colonial churches They called him a "commissary." In 1691 he returned to England to represent to the King and the Bishop the necessity for an institution for higher education. He was kindly received by his sovereigns and by the clergy, and in February, 1692, the King granted him a charter and gave him £2,000 in cash and the revenue of certain crown lands. Seymour, the Attorney-General, having received the royal command to draw up the documents, remonstrated. He saw no need of a college in Virginia. The patitne Mr. Blair explained that it was needed to educate young men for the ministry, and begged the honorable Atorney-General to remember that the colonists had souls to be saved as well as the people of England.

"Plague take your souls!" exclaimed the imperious Seymour. "Make tobacco!"

The college was named in honor of the two sovereigns, who endowed it with 20,000 acres of land and the receipts from a tax of one penny a pound on tobacco exported and the revenue from skins and furs. Robert Boyle, a famous philanthropist of those days, endowed it with a fund for the conversion and instructions of the Indians. Sir Christopher Wren, the greatest of English architects, drew the plans for the building. Dr. Blair was appointed the first President ,and five professors of Greek, Latin, mathematics, moral philosophy and divinity were engaged. The first commencement took place in July, 1700, and a great concourse of people from all the colonies gathered at Williamsburg to witness the graduating exercises. They came from New York, New England, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland and the Carolinas, and it was one of the events of that century.

The population of Virginia at this time was about 40,000. Massachusetts had 70,000; Connecticut, 30,000; New Hampshire, 10,000; Rhode Island, 10,000; New York, 30,000; New Jersey, 15,000; Pennsylvania, 20,000; Maryland, 25,000; North Carolina, 5,000; South Carolina, 7,000. The total population of the colonies was about 263,000.

The first Greek letter society—Phi Beta Kappa—was organized at William and Mary in 1776, and among the charter members were John Marshall, Chief Justice, and Bushrod Washington, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court; Spencer Roane, who was considered the ablest jurist ever produced in Virginia; John Brown and Stephen T. Mason, Senators from Virginia; William Short, Minister to Spain and Holland, and Elisha Parmalee, a native of Massachusetts, who established chapters at Yale and Harvard when he returned home.

William and Mary was the first college to adopt the elective system in the government of its students.

The old building has been restored to almost its original condition, although in the days of its prosperity it was double its present size.

Caleb Clark's Rheumatic Potatoes.

The most famous man in eastern Washington county, Me., is Caleb Cushing Clark, a Cape Cod fisherman, who came ashore at Bailey's Mistake in company with his schooner during the gale of September 4, 1893. The schooner landed among the rocks and alder bushes twenty yards beyond high water mark, and lies where she struck. Clark discreetly remained below deck until the storm had subsided, when he went to a neighbor's house and was taken down with an attack of rheumatic fever, which kept him in bed three months. The owner of the house liked him so well that he obtained employment in the sardine fisheries as soon as he was able to work, making him so contented that he has never wished to return to Provincetown.

Though Clark can place an attachment on Fame on account of the perils he has seen, his chief claim to distinction lies in the possession of a remarkable breed of potatoes, the original seedling of which was given to him by his benefactor for the purpose of curing rheumatism. He began to carry this potato in his pocket in March, 1894. At that time it was larger than a hen's egg, hard and full of juice. During the summer it began to wrinkle and grow flabby, so that Clark thought of throwing it away for a new one, and would have done so several times had he not been assured that to shift a "rheumatic potato" meant bad luck. During the next year it had fallen away to the size of an English walnut and became hardened, lying in his pocket like a block of wood.

Meanwhile Clark's rheumatism had entirely disappeared, so one day in the spring of 1896, after getting badly wetted from dipping sardines, he hung his trousers on a fence to wash out in the rain and left the osseous potato in one of the pockets. In June the rheumatism returned with fury which reminded Clark of his potato. On searching his trousers pockets for the talisman he found it had sprouted and partially decayed. Remembering the good it had done him, Clark planted the tuber in the garden and procured a fresh potato for his malady. He continued to ache all summer until the potato which had proved so useful to him had produced its crop of tubers, when he selected a small one from the lot of six and put it in his pocket.

That was three years ago. Since then Clark has been propagating and selling rheumatic potatoes every season. He has sold individual tubers for as much as $1 for a single specimen, though his regular price is 5 cents.

"Why do you carry your purse in your hand instead of in your pocket?" he asked.

"For economy," she replied. "If a pickpocket ever got into my pocket he'd more than likely tear my gown while if he grabs the purse out of my hand the loss would be only 3 cents some samples and a postage stamp."

"Jim Traynor begged to be permitted to come home from the Philippines and get married."

"Yes."

"In ten days he was ready to go back."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

XMAS SLIPPERS!

SHOES, RUBBER BOOTS,
DRESS SUIT CASES. TRAVELING BAGS.

The Largest Stock to select from. The most useful and suitable CHRISTMAS PRESENT.

DOANE & EDSALL.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.

at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use

REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT,

Made only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,

At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

Sterling Silver Novelties.

In addition to our extensive showing of sterling silverware we have added a new assortment of silver sets complete, enclosed in leather cases. These are very beautiful goods, of the best quality and are priced very moderately—Sterling Novelties as low as 25c, 39c, 49c 59c, 75c, 98c

HANDKERCHIEFS—New lines have been added to our splendid showing of handkerchiefs, making a truly bewildering assortment Some decidedly good values are offered at 10c, 12½c and 15c —One lot of pure linen embroidered handkerchiefs at 25c each is worthy of attention

WOMEN'S KID GLOVES—69c, 79c; warranted gloves, 1.00, 1.25, 1.50.

UMBRELLAS—75c to 3.50.

MACKINTOSHES FOR WOMEN—3.50, 4.50—MISSES' SIZES—2.49, 3.75.

EIDERDOWN SACQUES—1.00, 1.39, 1.75, 2.25.

I. LEDERER.

Brazilian Balm

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN BALSAM!

...CURES...

Coughs, Colds, Croup & Grippe

LIKE MAGIC.

RADICALLY CURES

CATARRH!

It clears the head of foul mucous; heals the sores and ulcers of the head and throat; sweetens the breath, and perfectly restores the senses of the taste, smell and hearing. Stops headache and dropping into the throat. Also destroys the germ which causes making a perfect cure in a few days. Never fails! No fatal case of LA GRIPPE ever known where Brazilian Balm was fairly used. It destroys the grippe germ and quickly removes all the after bad effect.

HAY FEVER,

INFALLIBLE in ASTHMA, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, PLEURISY, PNEUMONIA, DYSPEPSIA, RHEUMATISM, TYPHOID and SCARLET FEVER, MEASLES, and any disease where there is Inflammation, Fever or Congestion. Greatest relief in Consumption ever discovered.

Cures a Fresh Cold in one day. Stops EARACHE in 2 minutes. Stops ringing in the head and relieves deafness. As an injection invaluable in female troubles. For outward use heals Cuts, Sores and Burns like magic. Prevents lock-jaw from wounds. QUICK CURE FOR CONSTIPATION AND PILES.

Its Healing Power is Almost Miraculous. The Best Family Medicine in Existence.

50 Cent Bottle contains 100 Doses, or Two Weeks Treatment for Catarrh.

$1.00 BOTTLE EQUALS THREE 50c. BOTTLES.

HOME TESTIMONIALS:

"Brazilian Balm cured me of inveterate catarrh which I had for over 20 years. It is the most wonderful triumph of medical science."—Gen. J. Parke Postles. "In croup, cold and the worst form of gripp we have found Brazilian Balm invaluable."—Jno. W. S. Boothe, D. D., Pastor Del. Ave. Bap. Ch. "Mrs. Lore has used the Brazilian Balm and thinks it did her much good."—Hon. Chas. B. Lore, Chief Jus. of Del. "One bottle of Brazilian Balm cured a friend of mine of hay fever."—Thos. M. Culbert. "I was very deaf for 10 years from catarrh. Brazilian Balm applied warm in my ears every day soon restored my hearing."—Mrs. John Scotten, Chester, Pa. "It is the best thing for dyspepsia I ever saw tried."—Judge Edward Wootten. "I was worn almost to the grave with a racking cough that all the remedies and the doctors failed to relieve. It was cured with one bottle of Brazilian Balm. It shall be my doctor through life."—Mrs. J. Galloway, Pottstown, Pa. "I was fearfully crippled up with rheumatism, could not get my hand to my head. I took ten 50-cent bottles of Brazilian Balm in six months. Am now entirely cured and as nimble as I was at forty."—Anson Burrell, aged 84. A lady in Cincinnati was so afflicted with asthma that during the winter for seventeen years she was unable to sleep lying down, was entirely and permanently cured with Brazilian Balm.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS. B. F. JACKSON & CO., Indianapolis, Ind.

L. W. RANDOLPH, Whloesale Agent.

M. Molnar,

432 Watchung Ave.,

Ladies' and Gents'

FINE TAILORING

Graduate of New York Cutting School.

Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with old clothes and I will take chances of being entrusted with new work.

: : Pride's Tonsorial Parlor : :

94 SOMERSET STREET, opposite Somerset Hotel.

Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty .. ...

CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.

-:- WILLIAM J. PRIDE, -:-

formerly with E. B. Maynard.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,

Painters and Paper Hangers,

Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Street.

Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 211

E. D. BARRETT,

Sanitary Plumbing,

Steam and Hot Water Heating.

Telephone 612. 148 East Fifth Street.

Ladie Desiring . .

KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING

done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 218 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.

Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum.

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 50, 7 20, 7 29, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 9 46, 9 16, 9 43, 9 50, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 00, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 5., 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 00, 7 30, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 00 m., 12 50 1 45, 2 40, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 02, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 50, 7 25, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 00, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 30, 9 34, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 02, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m.; 1 01, 2 08, 2 20, 3 22, 4 35, 5 03, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 28, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh. Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamauqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked *) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN, General Superintendent.

H. P. BALDWIN, General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov 19, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD N.J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 215 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.
Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.
Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.
Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.
Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.
Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket time-tables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR, General Superintendent.

CHAS. S. LEE, General Passenger Agent.

26 Cortlandt St., New York.

FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent, 218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

.. L. Manning & Son.

STEAM GRANITE WORKS,

Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low

---

XXXX QUALITY FINEST

LOFOTEN COD LIVER OIL,

Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.

Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at

39c per Pint.

For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at

50c per Bottle,

or the Tasteless at

75c per Bottle.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,

Hepburn & Co.,

Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,

213 WEST FRONT ST.

Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

OPEN EVENINGS. FURNITURE.

Wouldn't a clean finished, well-made piece of Furniture make an ideal Christmas present?

FURNITURE. Jardinier Stands from 50c to $5.00.

POWLISON & JONES,

149 and 151 E. Front Street.

WANTED

25 Mechanics

and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.

Agent on the Grounds SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.

. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

Holiday Goods.

Why you should see our assortment; a walk through our store will be the easiest way to solve the problem of what to get for presents for young and old.

Our line of fancy articles consists of everything imaginable in Celluloid, Plush and Glass Ware.

Handkeachiefs, gloves, neckwear, hosiery, umbrellas and dress goods of all kinds and all prices. Furs and worsted goods of every description.

DOLLS . . .

Dolls of all kinds can be found on our doll counter, our assortment is bewildering in their novelty, extent and attractiveness. Our prices are lower than any other house will quote for the same article.

TOYS -:- -:-

Our Toy Department in the basement is larger than ever before. No such collection was ever gathered here before, and it is safe to say there is no better stock in town in point of variety, there is no stock in town that equals ours in prices that's certain.

Children's velocipedes, tricycles, battleships, iron toys of all kinds, tool chests, wash sets, soldier sets, dishes, horse and wagons, chairs, printing presses, electric batteries, express wagons, magic lanterns, etc.

I. H. Boehm, 109-111-113 West Front Street

7000 BU. of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last. Order Quick.

Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops

Wieda's

Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda

Manufactured at the Premises, 144 West Front St. Phone. 1188.

DOLGE FELT SLIPPERS are the best and they make the best CHRISTMAS GIFTS.

And a pair of the "VanArsdale Shoes" would be a sensible gift, too.

Van Arsdale,

127 E. Front St.

Shoes for Everybody at Popular Prices.

Our Attractive Holiday Display

awaits your inspection. We are glad to welcome visitors and pleased to show our goods.

A. L. & M. D. Gorsline, 144 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

BUY YOUR PHONOGRAPHS,

Gramophones, Records and Supplies

A GOOD MACHINE AT $5.00.

BROKAW'S . . .

The Piano Dealer, 123 East Front Street.

KIMBERLEY'S VAST RICHES.

The Enormous Value of the Diamond Mines Threatened.

Kimberley, which it is said the Boers have invested and isolated from the outside world, is the diamond region of the world, far surpassing the mines of Brazil in richness. If the report of the investment be true, this is the most serious blow which Kruger has struck at the commercial interests of Great Britain in South Africa. Cecil Rhodes is in the town and its defence will be stubborn. Kimberley is not a city in the modern use of the word. It is a great camp in which men's passions rise and fall as the treasures of the earth are uncovered or not found. The camp is in what is called the Vaal Basin, the wash ground of the river which divides the Transvaal from the Orange Free State. The first diamond discoveries there were made about 1870, but it was ten years later when Englishmen and others realized that the spot was the most valuable of its kind in the world.

By 1881 the mines which had been opened had yielded gems to the value of $20,000,000. By 1887 seven tons of diamonds had been taken out valued at $250,000,000. This record placed the Brazil diamond mines in the shade and made Kimberley world-wide in its fame. The Cecil Rhodes syndicate, known as the De Beers, came into control of all the mines after much negotiation. This syndicate is capitalized for $75,000,000 and pays interest at the rate of 5½ per cent per annum and an annual dividend of 20 per cent. Since Cecil Rhodes came into control of the mines they have given out 2,500,000 karats of diamonds. To get at these it has been necessary to wash 2,700,000 loads of the blue earth in which they are found.

In the working of these diamond mines there are employed about 1,500 white men and 6,000 natives. The greater proportion of these men are employed in the De Beers and Kimberley mines, the two biggest holes which greedy man has ever dug into the earth. The punishment for stealing a diamond is fifteen years' imprisonment. All diamonds, except those which pass through illicit channels, are sent to England, the weekly shipments averaging from 40,000 to 50,000 karats. The greatest outlet for stolen diamonds is through the Transvaal to Natal, where they are shipped by respectable merchants.

It is said of the Rhodes interests in the mines that they take good care of their workmen. They have built a nice village called Kenilworth, within the precincts of the mines. In this village are cottages for the white workmen. A clubhouse has here been built for their use and there is a public library. The equipment of the mines is something remarkable. Each mine has ten circuits of electric lamps. They consist of fifty-two arc lamps of 1,000 candle power each, and 691 glow lamps of 16 and 64-candle power each, or a total illuminating power of about 64,000 candles. Thirty telephones are located in each mine and over 100 electric bells to each for signalling. The lives of the workmen are insured and every precaution is taken to make their condition tolerable. The rate of wages runs from $2 to $8 per day, unskilled labor receiving the lower price. What effect the closing of the mines by war will have on the world at large it is hard to say. Diamonds have already risen in price, but there is a large stock on hand in English and French hands. Of course all labor has ceased at Kimberley, and if the Boers get into the mines they may win rich prizes.

WHERE THE OLD CARS GO.

Many Uses to Which the Cast-Offs of City Lines Are Put.

On all metropolitan street railways new cars are constantly appearing, and the question naturally suggests itself, Where do the old cars go? A street railway man of long experience answered this question for a Sun reporter the other day.

"We sell a number of our old cars," he said, "to other cities, where, after they are painted and otherwise refurnished, they are used as trailers on electric roads during periods of inflated traffic. They are merely hitched behind the motor cars, and answer the purpose to which they are put very well. However, the demand for horse-cars is slight, and it is sometimes a problem to dispose of old electric cars to advantage.

"Now and then we sell an old car to someone living in the country, who wishes to convert the vehicle into a playhouse for children. It answers this purpose very well, for cars are invariably well made and will stand hard weather and the severe use which children are liable to give anything they come in contact with.

"In the agricultural districts beyond the city proper you can find scores of old cars which have been converted into chicken houses by the vegetable gardeners, who are always on the lookout for bargains in these cast off vehicles. They remove the glass windows, board up the sides and thus make the finest possible kind of a chicken house. Hundreds of old cars are doing duty as soda water and peanut stands in various parts of the country. Cars which saw service thirty years ago are now in use as waiting cars, where passengers can linger while awaiting transportation to other parts. A few such are to be found in Manhattan, but most of them are in New Jersey."—N. Y. Sun.

At Munich there is a hospital which is entirely supported by the sale of old steel pens and nibs collected from all parts of Germany. They are made into watch springs, pins and razors.

THIS cut represents one of our smaller packages. All of our feeds and grain are put up in these standard packages running from Five or Eleven pounds up according to the article, and the price of each is based on the market.

Did you ever think of the advantage of buying from a house that sells any quantity from five pounds to a boat load and that makes the same prices to all customers without any secret deals.

At this season beware of Feeds and Meals made from new corn. As we make our own feeds we know what they contain and we have plenty of

OLD CORN.

In comparing prices it should be borne in mind that OUR GRAIN IS ALL RECLEANED and OUR FEEDS are ALL MADE ON THE PREMISES and ARE KNOWN TO BE PURE

Mixed Oats	74c per bag	Middlings	90c per 100
Mixed Clips	76c per bag	Out Feed	75c per 100
8 White Oats	78c per bag	Gluten	95c per 100
Regular Clips	80c per bag	Oil Meal	$1.45 per 100
X. B. Clips	82c per bag	No. 1 Grain Mixture	$1.10 per 100
Yellow Corn	78c per 100	Our Poultry Food	$1.15 per 100
Cracked Corn	84c per 100	Wheat	$1 25 per 100
Coarse Meal	84c per 100	Barley (56 lbs)	$1.15 per bag
Ground Feed	84c per 100	No. 1 Hay	88c per 100
Bran	90c per 100	Clover Hay	85c per 100
Buckwheat Middlings	70c per 100	Cut Hay	85c per 100

The above prices are for spot cash at our stores.

If delivered add according to quantity as follows:

25 bags or over	2c per bag
5 bags or over	5c per bag
Less than 5 bags	10c per bag

THE PAUL T. NORTON CO.

Elizabeth, Elizabethport, Red Bank, Plainfield, Somerville.

SHOPLIFTING ON GIGANTIC SCALE.

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

strong that it seems almost a certainty that they will be indicted. Mr. Tanner and Mr. Carroll left last evening for Newark to see the women. This arrest is considered by the police to be one of the most important in recent years, and they believe that this will bring an end to much trouble hitherto experienced by a number of merchants.

S. B. Carson, manager of the Crosby & Hill department store, this morning swore out a warrant before Justice Nash for the arrest of Mrs. Jennie M. Bowers and Mrs. Jennie Correll, charging them with stealing on the 16th inst. property from that store valued at about $15. The warrants were given to Chief Grant who took them to Newark and they will be used in the event of a case against the accused failing through in that city, where they are held awaiting trial, charged with stealing from several of the larger department stores of that city.

A Manger Service.

The annual "Manger Service" of the Sunday-school of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, will be held in the parish house next Sunday at 9:45 a.m. The presents collected will be given as usual to the Children's Home.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on L. W. Randolph, Druggist, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded

What Can You Do With It?

This is a question we can answer better after we have seen the garment you want dyed. When our wagon is in your neighborhood, let it bring your goods to the store and then, at your convenience, come in and let us tell you just what we can do and the cost. Don't be prejudiced against dyeing. Ofttimes you can't tell the goods from new.

HILLIER & CO.,

129 West Front Street,

Opposite Crosby & Hill's. 'Phone 851.

TOLD STORY OF SHOOTING.

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

like a robber," demanded Mrs. Fingerhuth, "What is your name." Thereat Clark gave her his card, and this card was identified by the prisoner.

After Bartie had waved a club he had in his hand, and Fingerhuth told his wife not to touch Clark if he went in the house, the party went away. Later in the day they appeared again with a warrant for Fingerhuth's arrest on the charge of trespass, preferred by Roehricht.

At this time Lawyer W. G. DeMeza was sent for, and it was arranged that Fingerhuth should appear before Justice Mattison, of North Plainfield, the next day, to answer to the charge preferred against him.

The next morning, Mrs. Fingerhuth testified, her husband asked her what she would do if the men should return and tried to kill or murder her. Then Mrs. Fingerhuth suggested that a revolver be bought with which she could protect herself. That led to the son, Oscar, going to Plainfield and buying a revolver which her husband gave to her, at the same time saying: "Here mamma, I leave this revolver with you. Only show it and they will run. If they force the door then defend yourself. Don't get attacked first, otherwise you are lost. Shoot if you are in danger."

Mrs. Fingerhuth then testified of the visit of Edward Clark to her house, which was the same as told by Clark—that she refused to let him in. Shortly after Lawyer Clark returned with Roehricht and several other men Clark took off his coat first, and picked up a heavy stick with which he battered down the middle front door. Mrs. Fingerhuth then told of the incidents of the killing in the following language:

"I said don't come in or I will shoot you. They did not stop and I pulled the trigger to the revolver, but it missed fire. Clark pointed his revolver at me. Then I thought I was lost. I didn't know where to run, and I stood there said, 'God may help me.' I returned to the kitchen and stood by the window, holding the revolver in both hands. I was horrified to hear a report. I only came to myself when Mrs. Clemins run in the house and said, 'Roehricht is dead.'"

Mrs. Fingerhuth then broke down in violent sobs, and Judge Magie adjourned court for the noon hour.

Although Mr. Hetfield opened the case for the defence at the morning session yesterday and then presented the outline of the defence, no witnesses for that side were summoned until the court opened in the afternoon. Chief Justice Magie was on the bench promptly at 2 o'clock but there was some delay in securing an interpeter. Rev Frederick Koechli, pastor of the Fourth German Reformed church of Somerville, was finally chosen.

Theodore Fingerhuth was the only witness put on the stand during the afternoon. He gave his testimony in German. He told of his first meeting with Roehricht in his store last March and testified that Roehricht agreed to give him a year's trial from March 15th, 1899 There was no written contract; Mr. Roehricht had told him it was not necessary.

The story of the life of the Fingerhuths before the time of the shooting was lengthy and without much interest. July 26th he received a letter from Mr. Roehricht saying his services were no longer needed. Acting on the advice of Lawyer William G. DeMeza he continued to remain at the Allen homestead. Fingerhuth denied emphatically that Robert M Clark ever spoke to him or served any notices on him previous to the time of Clark's visit, the day before the shooting.

On that occasion, Dembowski preceded Clark and Constable Bartell. Fingerhuth was gathering cabbages at the time. Dembowski and Fingerhuth were arguing when Bartell advanced and told the witness that he was arrested. Fingerhuth said that he asked if there was a warrant and was told there was none. He tried to escape when Bartell and Dembowski attempted to seize him. Then he cried:

"Mamma, turn the dog loose." Mrs. Fingerhuth released the dog and Clark drew a revolver and leveled it. Then Fingerhuth seized a stone and declared he would throw it if Clark fired. Fingerhuth retreated to the house. Clark and the others followed to the piazza There he alleged Clark struck at the door with a hatchet and pointed his revolver at Mrs. Fingerhuth who stood at the door. Mrs. Fingerhuth spoke to Clark, the witness did not hear what was said, then Clark put up his revolver and gave Mrs. Fingerhuth his card. Fingerhuth cried out that any of them who came in the house would have their account settled there. Finally Clark and the party withdrew. Fingerhuth told of the rest of the interview that afternoon when Lawyer DeMeza was summoned and arrangements were made for Fingerhuth's appearance before Justice Mattison next day.

There was a little delay in the testimony, while the court stenographer moved over to the table with the lawyers, one of the two lamps that lighted the courtroom having gone out. The electric lights would not burn. Another lamp was brought in, but failed to burn properly. Then the trial proceeded.

On the morning of the 12th Fingerhuth testified that he sent his son for a revolver, for he could not think otherwise than that Mr. Clark, acting for Mr. Roehricht, intended to blow out his life. Then followed an account of Fingerhuth's visit to DeMeza's and Justice Mattison's offices the afternoon of the shooting. He did not return home, but was arrested in North Plainfield after the shooting and locked up in the borough lockup. At 4:08 o'clock, the prisoners and jury were sent out and court adjourned until this morning at 10:15 o'clock.

The prisonors did not look quite so bright on the second day of the trial. When the testimony of Chas. Spector was given Mrs. Fingerhuth showed the first signs of emotion she had evidenced during the trial. At the beginning of yesterday's afternoon session she appeared nervous and kept fingering her handkerchief. Neither father nor son appeared greatly worried. Theo. Fingerhuth gave his testimony very earnestly, but without nervousness.

To Cure a Cough in One Day
To Cure a Cold in One Day
To Cure Sore Throat in One Day
To Cure Hoarseness in One Day

Take Cleveland's Lung Healer, 25c. Trial size free. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenue.

Loses His Hand.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Phillipsburg, Dec. 20 — Edward Potter, a brakeman on the Jersey Central Railroad in the Phillipsburg yard yesterday started to run through a cross-track to the next track when another freight came along in the opposite direction. The caboose was caught by one train and crushed. Potter in leaping to save his life was pitched between the caboose and the engine just as they wedged. His right hand was crushed at the wrist, but he escaped without other injury. The hand was found on the bumper at Mauch Chunk, Pa.

Out of the Hospital.

Frederick Slater, of Rahway, who was shot in Madison Square Garden by Rosser, at the conclusion of the recent bicycle race, has so far recovered that he has been removed from Bellevue Hospital to a private sanitarium in New York, where he will have to be in absolute quiet, strapped to a bed, in order to give his wound a chance to completely heal.

Chancellor McGill Better.

Chancellor McGill is steadily improving, and expects to resume holding court next month. He expects to sit in Jersey City on January 2d and in Trenton on January 9th.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—Sparklets—Carbonic acid gas is death to bacteria. No fear of typhoid. Wm. W Moore, 310 Park avenue.

—Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. and A. M., will hold a regular communication next week Tuesday evening.

—J. E Townsend will lead the union gospel service in the W. C T. U. room Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

—This evening at the meeting of Iono Council, Degree of Pocohontas, officers will be elected for the coming year.

—We are receiving some very fine green smelts from Maine. They are the best. Place your order early. Rogers.

—Hepburn & Co. are making a new display in their windows. It will interest you and the children to see it, at Central Pharmacy.

—Mrs. L. Adams, of 114 East Front street, has a new lot of trimmed hats for Christmas at very low prices; also a pretty line of dolls' hats.

—The choir of the Church of the Holy Cross, under the direction of Organist Hoskins, is rehearsing special music for the annual Christmas services.

—The annual Christmas entertainment under the auspices of the Sunday-school of the Church of the Holy Cross will be held between Christmas and New Years.

—Court Watchung, 3871, I O. F., will hold a regular meeting tomorrow evening and elect officers for the ensuing year. A full attendance of members is desired.

—A meeting of the Plainfield Advancement Association was called for last evening, but it was impossible to get a quorum. The only member present was J. B. Coward.

—A meeting of the Automobile Club of America was held at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, last evening. Among the members present was Harry L. McGee, of this city.

—Are the spectacles you are wearing no longer satisfactory? If so, consult us. Examination free. Stiles & Co., at 107 East Fourth street. Every Thursday. Hours 10:30 to 4 p. m.

—Grapes, pears, apples, Florida and California oranges, nuts, Christmas candy, Japanese persimmons and in fact everything in the fruit line at Alex Lusardi, 211 West Front street.

—C. E. Gulick & Co., the Park grocers, have all the seasonable goods for the holidays and invite your inspection before you buy. They are building up a fine trade by good goods and low prices.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Detective Ritterbush, formerly of Plainfield, was in town today calling on friends.

Miss Gertrude Parks, of New York, is visiting Miss Maude E. VanDyke, of East Front street.

J. A. Dougherty, of 87 Somerset street, is recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dixon, of East Front street, are visiting relatives at South Amboy.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis G. Moore, of Third place, left this morning for Maryland, where they will visit relatives for a time.

Thomas Muir, of West Fourth street, who is suffering from a painful affection of one of his eyes, is thought to be slightly improved. He is still detained at home.

Red Hot From the Gun

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible Ulcers that no treatment helped for 20 years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Boils, Felons, Corns, Skin Eruptions. Best Pile cure on earth. 25cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

Why the Organ Stopped.

The interruption in the rendition of the oratorio "The Messiah," at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church last night, when the organ failed to play, was caused by a defect in the electrical apparatus which pumps it. Hand power had to be resorted to for the rest of the evening after the break occurred.

Home From Yale.

Yale University closes today for the Christmas vacation, and the young men from this city who attend that institution of learning will return this afternoon or tomorrow.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

S. SCHEUER & CO.,

The Greatest Concern in New Jersey.

239-241 Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

-:- -:- OUR CHRISTMAS PRESENTS -:- -:-

S. SCHEUER & CO. extend to their many customers the "Compliments of the Season" and at the same time announce that, commencing Monday, December 18th until December 31st, they will give FREE TWO POUNDS OF FRENCH MIXED CANDY, with 1 pound of our famous 50c or 60c Premium English Breakfast, Mixed, Oolong, Japan, Gunpowder, Young and Old Hyson, Assam, India Ceylon Teas. This is the Greatest Offer ever made and every customer should take advantage of this great inducement.

Two Pounds Fancy French Mixed Candy — FREE — WITH ONE POUND OF ... TEA ...

All Purchases of Coffee will also Receive Free a Pretty Panel Picture.

TURKEYS!! DRIED FRUITS.

Purchased in all countries of the world, direct from the producers and shipped to us in carloads, the choicest products obtainable.

New Glace Citron	13c lb
" Orange & Lemon Peel	13c lb
" Muscatel Raisins	8c lb
Sultanas, 1 lb box	15c
Seeded Raisins, 1 lb box	11c
New Cleaned Currants,	8c lb
Cleaned Currants, 3 lb box	22c
Persian Dates, 1 lb box	8c
New Figs, 1 lb box	15c
London Layer Raisins	18c lb
Extra Pitted Cherries	17c lb
" Evaporated Apples	10c lb
Fancy Cal. Prunes	7c lb
" Silver Prunes	9c lb

Coffee Department.

For your Xmas table don't fail to have Scheuer's Premium Java Coffee, "Its equal is unknown"—It is better than any Coffee sold in the city at 38c pound It has taken five prizes at the State Fair for its purity and strength. Sold only at our 10 large stores in air tight tinfoil packages—beware of imitations.

Only 27c Pound.

16c pound NEW NUTS.

All 1899 goods, domestic and imported, bought before the recent advance:—every kind selected with care:—Prices that defy competition.

New Brazil Nuts	10c lb
Italian Chestnuts	10c lb
New Hazel Nuts	13c lb
" Pecan Nuts	13c lb
" Fancy Mixed Nuts	13c lb
Grenoble Walnuts	15c lb
Soft Shell Almonds	22c lb
Peanut Brittle	10c lb
20 Different Kinds of Candy	10c lb
Clear Toys, Hand Made	13c lb
Fancy Chocolate Drops	15c lb
New Year Cakes	10c lb
Honey Spice Drops	10c lb

TEA DEPARTMENT.

This year's pickings:—Ceylon, Japan, Formoso and China have sent their choicest selections—Our Teas have taken four premiums for purity, strength and flavor:—a nice Xmas present.

3 POUND BOX, $1.00.

FREE—A Beautiful Panel Free, Xmas, to all purchases of Coffee. Don't miss it.

TURKEYS!! MEAT DEPARTMENT.

Nothing but the best quality at the lowest prices.

READ AND COMPARE.

Choice Jersey Turkeys	16c lb
Fancy Roast'g Chickens	14c lb
Young Fowl	12c lb
Young Ducks	14c lb
Fresh Roast Pork	10c lb
Legs Prime Lamb	12c lb
Meat and Link Sausage,	3 lbs 25c
Cal. Hams	7½c lb
Fresh Pork Shoulders	8c lb
Pickled Pigs Feet	6c lb
Taylor's Prepared Ham	14c lb
Choice Lard	6c lb

THE COURTS

JUSTICE MOFFETT.

Landlord and tenant — Suydam against Burke; judgment for possession of premises.

The attachment suit of Sternberg & Co. against Hoagland will be tried tomorrow.

The constable's sale of the plumbers' goods of Michael Armstrong has been adjourned to January 3d, to give the parties who claim to own the property the right to establish the ownership.

JUSTICE MOSHER.

Summons—Goenna against Wilson, on contract, returnable Dec 27th.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

GEO. W. COLE,

-:-UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,-:-

200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.

OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

DIED.

AUSTETT—Died in New York, Sunday, Dec. 17th, 1899, after a lingering illness, Jessie Austett, aged 22, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Horn, of Crane place. Interment at Hillside Cemetery.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

FOR SALE—A good serviceable horse for family or mercantile use; 16½ hands high. Apply at stable, 705 West Seventh street. 12 20 2

LOST—Open-face silver watch, gold stem, short chain with silver pencil attached, between High School going over West Fourth street to South Second street. Return to 953 South Second street.

BARRED and White Plymouth Rock, White Leghorn and White Wyandotte Cockerels, from our famous prize winning strains, cheap. Plainfield Poultry Farm Co., 79 Somerset street. 12 20 6

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

YOUNG colored man wishes situation in private family. Call 302 Arlington avenue. 12 18 3

WANTED—Eight to ten room house, about $3,000. Give all particulars. Address S. B. A., care Press. 12 19 3

OFFICE to let. Inquire 159 Crescent Ave 12 19 3

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 24

FOR SALE or exchange for house and lot or small farm, a fine farm of 200 acres, well watered and timbered. Address Albert, care Daily Press. 12 15 eod tf

PURE cider vinegar for sale at C. J. Ackerman's, Clinton avenue 8 5 w-s tf

FOR RENT—Central Hall, for occasional festivities or permanent occupation. Apply to Fred Dunn. w s tf

HORSE for sale. 1266 Park avenue. 12 18 3 eod

THREE pleasant convenient rooms to let for light housekeeping. 404 Third street, corner Central avenue. 12 11 11

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Chas. L. Moffett, Attorney, cor. Park and North Aves. 12 11 eod tf

TO LET—Six-room house and store, connected. 214 Richmond street.

TO LET—Nice flat with improvements. 304 Richmond street.

TO LET—Butcher shop, with or without fixtures. 302 B Richmond street. eod 12 13 tf

SPECIAL!!

HAIR DRESSING, SHAMPOOING, MANICURING.

Until after the Holiday Season

MISS HOLMES,

Graduate of the New York School of Hair Dressing and Dermatology,

will make special rates for hair dressing in all the latest styles for street and evening; at parlors 75c. At ladies residences by appointment. Shampooing or Facial Massage and steaming (for eradicating imperfections of the skin) 75c. Manicuring 50c.

440 W. FRONT ST.

MASSAGE :-: VAPOR BATHS

CORNS REMOVED 25c.

M. V. STICKLE, 149 East Fifth St.

WINES made only from selected grapes and cane sugar crystal. Twenty-five cents per bottle and upward. "THE VINEYARDS," Park Ave., corner Cooper St., Fanwood. 12 18 12

HELP WANTED — Machinists, lathe and planer hands; good men can find steady job and good wages. Address P. O. Box 103 Cincinnati, Ohio. 12 8 12

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

...EMERY'S... PLEASURE GARDEN

(SCOTCH PLAINS.)

Thursday Evening, December 21st.

FIRST

GRAND BALL

—OF THE—

Prospect Social Club.

Music by Prof. O'Reilly.

TICKETS - - - - 25 Cents.

The Enclosed Pavilion is for rent for Balls, Parties, etc., at Reasonable Rates.

CUT FLOWERS!

Choice Blooming Plants, Palms, Ferns, Jardinieres, Fern Dishes, &c. Headquarters for Wreaths, Holly, Mistletoe and everything in the florist line. First-class stock. Largest assortment of cut flowers in the city.

A. E. LINCOLN,

Telephone 876. 226 PARK AVE. 12 14 9

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT. Notice is hereby given, That the account of the subscriber, executor of Elizabeth D. Baker, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphan's Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the twenty-seventh day of December next.

Dated November 22d, 1899.

11 22 5 oaw SAMUEL C. MOUNT.

CHARLES ARNOLD,

Dealer in all kinds of

Fresh and Salt Meats,

POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON.

203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.

Telephone 238.

Great Millinery Sale

Continued For One Week.

Two to three hundred Felt Hats that were 39c and 50c now on sale for 15c and 19c.

$5.00 hats reduced to $2.98.

Great Reduction in Birds, Feathers and Ribbons.

Millinery Parlors,

L. A. DALY,

Corner W. Front St. and Central Ave. 12 16 6

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:21 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:36 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:36 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair Tonight and Friday. Stationary Temperature. Ther. 38.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

NOW RESTS WITH JURY.

Evidence In Murder Trial Completed This Morning.

LEGAL SIDES EXPLAINED.

LAWYERS ARE SUMMING UP THIS AFTERNOON.

Jury Decided to Wait Till Tomorrow Morning Before They are Charged by Judge Magie.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

Somerville, December 21. — Mrs. Henrietta Fingerhuth, who has been on trial in the Somerset county court since Monday, on the charge of murder in having killed Paul Roebricht, the wealthy New York jeweler at Somerset Park, September 12th, will not be able to learn her fate till sometime after tomorrow morning, though the evidence in the case was completed this noon. Before adjourning court for dinner today, Judge Magie asked the jurors if they desired to be charged by the court this evening or preferred to wait till tomorrow morning, when they would be rested and refreshed from the severe strain they have been under during the past four days. The jurors decided to wait till tomorrow to hear the charge.

Court was called to order this morning at 10:20 o'clock. Wm. G. DeMeza, the lawyer who represented Fingerhuth in his legal trouble with Roehricht, was called again and proved to be the last witness for the defense. His testimony was unimportant. Before the defense closed, however, a motion was made that the papers in connection with Fingerhuth's arrest in Justice Mattison's court the day before the tragedy be admitted into evidence, the intent of the defense being to show that the arrest of Fingerhuth was part of a conspiracy on the part of Roehricht to get father and son away from the house during the following day so that the eviction could be accomplished when Mrs. Fingerhuth was alone in the house. Prosecutor Dungan opposed the motion vigorously, but Judge Magie decided to admit the papers.

The prosecution's rebuttal of the evidence given for the defense was then taken up. Robert Clark, the lawyer, was first called, and he denined the testimony of Mrs. Fingerhuth in which he stated that he had taken off his coat when he arrived at the house the day of the shooting, as well as that he had used a heavy post for a battering ram to break down the door.

Constable Bartel was called to rebute the testimony of Fingerhuth to the effect that he did not know Clark till he came to his house the day before the killing. Bartel said that when Clark appeared there that day Fingerhuth addressed him by his name and seemed to know him quite well.

William Titus, of North Plainfield, denied the statement made by Mrs. Fingerhuth that the party of men had broken in the door with the battering ram. He said that the door was broken in by Constable Emmons after the shooting when the latter was looking for the revolver. E. O. Clark substantiated this story also. John Lynch, a Plainfield hackman, who took Clark to the Fingerhuth home the day before the shooting, substantiated the story of Clark as to the incidents that occurred that day.

Mrs. William Demler rebutted the testimony of Lawyer DeMeza by testifying that Clark returned the revolver he borrowed at 1 p. m. the day of the tragedy, instead of at 4 o'clock—shortly after the killing—as told by DeMeza. William Demler also denied the story about battering down the door.

There was only witness put on the stand in sur rebuttal. He was William Wolf, who testified that he heard Dembrowski say that Roehricht could not put Fingerhuth out of the house till March 16, 1900.

This concluded all the evidence in the case, and Judge Magie called upon the lawyers to elucidate the legal points upon which they based their respective sides of the case. Prosecutor Dungan stated that the only relation that existed between Fingerhuth and Roehrict was that of master and servant, and that Roehricht had a perfect right to discharge Fingerhuth whenever he saw fit. The consideration of Fingerhuth's labor was to be $10 weekly and the use of the Allen farm, which he had a right to work, but which did not establish the relation of landlord and tenant between the two men. He quoted several court decisions to show that the landlord had a perfect right to enter the property occupied by servants. He contended that Mrs. Fingerhuth had used excessive force in repelling the attempted invasion of the property by Roehricht and his employes.

Former Congressman Alvah Clark summed up the legal points for the defense. He said that no matter what the relations were that existed between the two men, the defendant was in possession. The house was his home, and as such should be respected. In contradication to the prosecution's argument he said that a dual relation existed between the two men. He said that so far as the manual labor was concerned, it was a case of master and servant, but in respect to the occupancy of the house it was a case of landlord and tenant. If the prosecution would not admit this condition, Mr. Clark contended that the fact Fingerhuth was allowed to remain on the property two months after the alleged discharge occurred established his tenacy at will or by suffrage.

Court then adjourned for dinner, and when the afternoon session was resumed at 2 o'clock the work of summing up the case was commenced.

The afternoon session of yesterday opened on time. Mrs. Henrietta Fingerhuth was summoned to the witness stand at once. She appeared perfectly tranquil, but sad, and her eyes gave evidence of her breakdown at the close of the morning's session. There was a slight delay in the resumption of the testimony, as Rev. Frederick Koechli was late in arriving. In the interval Justice Magie kindly remarked to the prisoner that if her chair was not comfortable she might have an easy one. Court Crier John Bunn brought a rocking chair, but she did not occupy it.

Then the direct examination of Mrs. Fingerhuth was resumed at the point where she ended at the morning session, telling of the death of Roehricht.

"When I heard from Mrs. Clemenz," Rev. Mr. Koechli interpreted, "that Mr. Roehricht was gone, I was very sad at the accident. I ran to the other side of the house toward the garden and then prepared to give myself up to the authorities."

In response to Mr. Clark's query as to what became of the revolver, she said she had no idea where it was and could not remember what she did with it. She said she had never had a firearm in her hands before in her life.

"Did you intend to shoot Mr. Roehricht?" asked Counsel Clark.

"Oh, nein?" exclaimed Mrs. Fingerhuth with evidence of emotion.

"Do you know whether you shot through the door or the window?" was asked.

"I cannot possibly tell but think it was through the window," she answered.

The two men whom she declared in the morning session assisted Clark in using the log as a battering ram were, she said, Dembowski and another man she did not know. Then Court Crier Bunn brought in a log, hewn square, which was about six inches square and twenty feet long.

When Prosecutor Dungan started to cross-examine, Mrs. Fingerhuth moved to the rocking chair. The Prosecutor first turned his attention to the facts leading to the shooting. She thought that her husband loaded the revolver. She did not pick it up until she saw the five men advancing toward the house. She declared that she showed them the revolver because she felt it her duty to do so before they used force. She admitted pointing the revolver the first time at Robert M. Clark and pulling the trigger.

"When you pulled the trigger, did you only mean to make a move or did you mean to shoot?" the Prosecutor questioned.

"I don't know" she answered, "I can't tell. I don't remember how I felt then."

"Who told you to pull the trigger?"

"No one."

Then she contradicted her testimony on direct examination regarding Robert M. Clark having a revolver in his hand when he tried to effect an

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.]

RECEIVED $10,000 IN TAXES.

Collector Brown Has Received a Total of $42,000—Delinquents' Names Now in Hands of Justice.

Yesterday was a lively one in the office of Collector Brown, of the borough, when taxes to the amount of $10 000 was received. It was 11:45 o'clock last night when Mr. Brown closed his office and turned over to the City National Bank his collections, and to Justice Smalley the list of those who failed to pay. The delinquents will be obliged to pay their taxes with cost and interest. Thus far Mr. Brown has collected 1899 taxes amounting to $42 000, which is considered very good This morning a check was sent to the County Collector for $13,486 94, the borough's share of the county tax.

APPROPRIATE TO CHRISTMAS.

Exercises Will be Held in Franklin School Tomorrow Morning.

Tomorrow morning at 9:45 o'clock exercises appropriate to the Christmas season will be held at the Franklin School, and a cordial invitation is extended to all persons interested. A literary and musical programme will be presented as follows: Processional, "Angel Voices," Gounod; Bible reading; carol, "The Shepherds;" songs, "Away in a Manger," "Shine On O, Blessed Star;" carol, "O, Wonderful Glory;" songs, "There's a Wonderful Tree," "Under the Snow," "Tell Us, Ye Shepherds;" carol, "Beautiful Story;" carol, "Ring the Bells; song, "Out From the Shadows;" solo and chorus, "Ring the Christmas Bells;" solo, "Christ Was Once a Little Baby," George Rogers; carol, "Beautiful Christmastide;" chorus, "Now I Lay Me;" carol, "The Angel's Lullaby;" song and chorus, "O, Little Town of Bethlehem;" Antiphonal chorus, "The Angel's Chorus;" recessional.

HELD UP ON DARK ROAD.

Thieves Halt Mr. Roehder's Rig and Relieve Him of Christmas Gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Roehder, who live on the Perth Amboy road, nine miles from New Brunswick, were held up by tramps early Wednesday morning at The Pines, a clump of woods at a lonely spot in the road between New Brunswick and Metuchen.

Mr. and Mrs. Roehder, with two young women, had been to New Brunswick to do some Christmas shopping. They had their wagon filled with bundles when they started for home. It was 1 o'clock when they reached The Pines. Two men sprang out from the hedge, seized the horse's head and demanded money. The men emptied the wagon of the bundles, took two horse blankets and a purse containing $1.20 from one of the young women.

While they were looting the wagon one of them covered Roehder with a revolver. There is no doubt that the robbery was committed by tramps.

Iona Council Officers.

Iona Council, Degree of Pocohontas, last evening elected these officers: Prophetess, Ella Sebring; Pocohontas, Mrs. Catherine Westphal; Wenona, Mrs. Christina Dencklau; Powhatan, John Montrose; keeper of records, Mrs. Levina Holdstein; collector of wampum, Mrs. Andrew Mattis; keeper of wampum, Mrs. Johanna Allen; trustee, Mrs. Amelia Westphal. Before the election three candidates were initiated. After the exercises the members sat down to a supper provided in the ladies' best style.

Entertained at Cards.

The Thursday Night Euchre Club met last evening instead of this evening on account of the concert to be given tonight in the Crescent Avenue church, and the members were delightfully entertained by Miss Teller. The usual membership was present and five tables were used. Those who made the highest scores were Miss Ella Titsworth and Britton Platt. The club will meet again two weeks from this evening and will be entertained by Miss Freeman and Miss Reynolds, Reynolds.

Want More Members.

At last Tuesday evening's meeting of the Order of the Heptasophs a committee was appointed to ascertain why the membership should not be increased. The usual games of quoits were also indulged in.

Christmas Sunday at Trinity Church

Sermon by the pastor in the morning and special singing by an augmented choir. In the afternoon the primary department will have their exercises, and the main school in the evening.

More Second-Hand Cars.

The Plainfield Street Railway Company has just received some more second-hand trolley cars from Brooklyn. It is not expected that their new cars will reach this city much before spring.

—V. L. Frazee, 151 West Front street, the people's cash grocer, has a special list for the holidays.

WHOLE BOROUGH WILL PAY FOR WIDENING

Somerset Street Improvement Said to be Assured.

NO ONE IS OPPOSED TO IT.

COUNCIL AND INTERESTED PROPERTY OWNERS TO MEET.

By Placing the Tax for the Cost of the Improvement on the Whole Borough It is Thought There Will be No Dissatisfaction—Will Bring More Trade to All the Borough Merchants.

Some evening next week there will be a special meeting of the Mayor and Borough Council and the property owners on Somerset street, who will be affected by the widening of that street from the county line to Jackson avenue. There seems to be no doubt but what the improvement will be made.

At present some slight changes are being made in the map, and this will be presented at the coming meeting for discussion. It has been determined that the cost of the improvement will be about $5,000, and the best plan under consideration now, is to place this amount in the tax budget next year, and thus let the entire borough pay for the work. In this way the expense will be light on everyone, and the benefits to be derived from it will more than pay for the cost.

In the canvass thus far made no one along the line can be found who is opposed to the widening, and all agree that it will be one of the greatest improvements to the borough. It is realized that if the street remains as it is that trade will not come to the borough as it would otherwise. The narrowness of the street makes it unpleasant and often times dangerous to drive through on the account of the frequent running of trolley cars.

Other advantages of this improvement will be the laying of a surface drainage to carry off the water that often makes Somerset street muddy and invariably keeps it in an unsatisfactory condition most of the time. With this improvement would come the placing of over head wires underground, and this would be a great benefit to all.

QUIET HOME WEDDING

MRS. FLORENCE CLARKSON BECOMES THE WIFE OF HENRY H. BOHL.

Ceremony Performed by Rev. C. L. Goodrich at the Home of the Bride's Parents—Couple Will Live in Borough.

A quiet home wedding took place last evening at 7:30 o'clock, when Miss Florence L. Clarkson, daughter of Thomas Clarkson, of Orchard place, and Henry H. Bohl, of the borough, were united in marriage at the bride's father. Only the relatives and immediate friends were present to witness the happy event. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles L. Goodrich, pastor of the Congregational church, and it was made more attractive through the use of the ring.

The bride wore a handsome gown of grey cloth, trimmed with white silk, and she carried bride roses. She and the groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Rosenstiehl, of the borough. Mrs. Rosenstiehl was gowned in a dress of garnet cloth, trimmed with lace.

After the ceremony and congratulations, a wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Bohl were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents. They will go to housekeeping at once at the corner of Stone street and Greenbrook road, where the groom has a house already furnished and awaiting their arrival.

During last evening the bride and groom held an informal reception when they received some of their friends. The affair, as stated, was a quiet one and a limited number of invitations were issued. Mr. Bohl is a contractor, and both he and his wife are very popular young people among a large circle of friends, all of whom wish them much joy and happiness as they journey through life.

Alexander Muir is Noble Grand.

The following officers were elected by Queen City Lodge, No. 226, I. O. O. F., at their meeting this week: Noble Grand, Alexander Muir; vice-grand, John Cose; recording secretary, James Neal; financial secretary, H. H. Hoffman; treasurer, J. P. Allis. The installation will take place New Year's night.

A Singing Contest.

This evening at the Mt. Olive Baptist church there will be a singing contest by the choirs from several colored churches. The event promises to be as interesting as it will be unique.

—Use Press want ads.

QUARTER OF A MILLION.

Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company Files a Mortgage for $250,000.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Dec. 21.—The Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company filed a mortgage amounting to a quarter of a million dollars with County Clerk Howard yesterday.

The mortgage is given to cover the issue of five bonds of $50 000 each, known as "5 per cent., first mortgage temporary gold bonds." The bonds are to be paid thirty days after notice in gold coin of the United States of America of the present weight and fineness, the interest to be paid in gold also.

The mortgage is given to the Fidelity Trust Company, of Newark, as trustee, and covers all the plant and property of the railway company now held or to be acquired. It is executed by Chandler W Riker, and Colonel Edward W. Hine for the company, and Uzal B. McCarter and Frederick W. Enger for the Trust Company.

PICKED LOCKS WITH SPOON.

Prisoners in Middlesex Jail Had Fun in Their Cells, and Caused Jailor to be Serious.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, Dec. 21.—George Brading, a prisoner in the Middlesex County Jail here, has a mechanical turn of mind, and chanced to discover that the locks on all the cell doors were old-fashioned and crude, and that they could be picked with the simplest implements. He let the other prisoners into the secret and they practiced at odd times, until any one of them could open any cell by picking the lock with a bit of wire, a stick, or, as was actually often done, with a long soup spoon.

Then they gave a dress rehearsal of their new accomplishment to the turnkey, David Messler. He notified Messrs. Donovan and Miller, of the jail committee of the Board of Freeholders, and they called in Lock Expert Faulkner. The latter inspected the locks, laughed, took a loop string and by carefully manipulating it caught the tumblers in the noose and opened every lock. The locks are being thorougly overhauled.

In the meanwhile common ordinary padlocks guard Middlesex prisoners When the overhauling is completed it will take more than a little piece of string to open a cell door. The old-fashioned locks were on the cell doors, but the corridor grates and the main doors are fitted with improved locks, and there was never any danger of a wholesale jail delivery.

Celebrated Her Birthday.

Miss Romie E. Giles celebrated her eighteenth birthday last evening at the home of her parents in the Babcock building. Guests to the number of 40 were present from this city, Bound Brook and New Brunswick. Music was furnished for dancing by Prof. Frazee, and the guests were regaled with refreshments. The affair was a pleasant one and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Colored Pythians Elect.

Goodwill Lodge, K. of P., met last evening and elected the following officers: Chancellor Commander, Jos. H. Saunders; vice chancellor commander, W. D. Johnson; prelate, S. H. Smith; master of exchequer, George W. Alexander; keeper of records and seals, L. L. Croom; master-at-arms, Henry Jackson; master of work, A. Thompson.

For a Midnight Mass on Dec. 31.

Vicar-General O'Connor, of the Catholic Diocese, of Newark, has notified the priests of the diocese that they may, at their option, celebrate midnight mass on the birth of the year 1900, in celebration of the Pope's Jubilee. The Vicar General is acting head of the diocese during the absence abroad of Bishop Wigger.

U. S. Consul to Talk.

The Rev. Walter T. Griffen, United States Consul at Lamoge, France, who is at his home on LaGrande avenue, owing to ill health, will lead the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A., at 4:15 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

To Watch Old Out and New In.

Several watch night services will be held in this city New Year's Eve. Owing to the fact that it falls this year on Sunday, much amusement of a secular nature will thus have to be omitted.

St. Patrick's Clock in Position.

The new clock for St. Patrick's church, Elizabethport, is being placed in position. The timepiece cost $1,700 and has six dials, three in each spire. The clock will be started New Year's eve.

—Press want ads pay

—S. Scheuer & Co. will give two pounds of fancy French mixed candy with each purchase of one pound of tea. They also give a pretty panel picture to each purchaser of coffee.

SICK ONLY A DAY.

Mrs. William O. Baldwin Died Suddenly Last Night From an Attack of Peritonitis.

The death of Mrs. William O. Baldwin, of West Fourth street, which occurred last evening at 5 o'clock very suddenly, is a great shock to her many friends and acquaintances in the city. Mrs. Baldwin had been in excellent health, and it was only about a day previous to her death that she was taken ill with peritonitis.

The best of medical skill was employed and everything possible done to bring about a recovery, but all efforts failed. Mrs. Baldwin was about 33 years of age, and has been a resident of this city for a long time.

She was formerly a Miss Lawson, daughter of the late Peter Lawson, of New Market. She was an attendant at the First Church of Christ She is survived by a husband and two children. Arrangements for the funeral are not yet complete.

PRESENTATION TO TEACHER.

Bryant School Pupils Had a Pleasant Surprise in Store for Miss Shattuck.

Yesterday afternoon at the close of the play given by the pupils of the Bryant School, Miss Shattuck, the principal, was presented with a beautiful madonna picture, by the pupils of the Bryant and Lincoln schools. Miss Shattuck was taken completely by surprise, as the children had kept the secret so perfectly that she had not the slightest suspicion of what was in store for her. The picture rested upon an easel, and was gracefully presented by Master Harold Lavell, in behalf of the pupils of both schools.

Will Favor New School Law.

Next week Wednesday, Thursday and Friday there will be held the forty-fifth annual meeting of the New Jersey State Teachers' Association, at Jersey City, at which time the recently revised bill regarding the State school laws will come up for consideration. The meeting promises to be one of the most enthusiastic in the history of the association. The Plainfield and North Plainfield teachers will all attend and do all in their power to secure the enactment of the bill in a form that will prove the most beneficial for the majority It is understood that some of the instructors are going to Jersey City for the purpose of being heard on the above subject.

On the Road to Recovery.

Mrs. W. C. Chamberlain and her daughter, Lottie, who were burned so seriously last Sunday, are now on the road to recovery and Dr. Lowrie is now quite confident that they will get through all right. Mrs. Chamberlain is suffering a great deal from the burns about her eyes, but as a rule she and her daughter have less pain now and are fairly comfortable.

Trial by Jury.

A trial by jury will be held before Justice Nash, next Tuesday, to determine the rightful ownership of the property of Michael Armstrong, plumber, which has been advertised at constable's sale, in action brought by Rushmore & Co. The property levied upon is claimed by Mrs. Mary Armstrong, wife of the defendant.

A Question of Time

At its present rate of combustion it is thought the sun will last from seven to fifteen million years before burning itself out. At the rate they are going the Christmas novelties at Collier's, 103 Park avenue, will hardly last as long as that, so you had better run in and take your pick before it is too late.

Jerusalem Lodge Officers.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M., has elected the following officers: Worshipful master, Robt. A. Meeker; senior warden, Frank DeHaas; junior warden, Walter A. Freeman; treasurer, Calvin H. Rugg; secretary, Charles Yaeger; trustees, Lemuel B. Woolston, James Stafford and Garret T. Dunham Warrior's Degree Conferred.

The Warrior's degree was conferred upon eleven candidates at last evening's meeting of Paughcaughnaughsingue Tribe of Red Men. There was also one application for membership received. After conferring the degrees new officers were nominated to be elected next Wednesday night.

Confirms McCormick Estate Sale.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Dec. 21—Judge Vail in the Union County Orphans' Court yesterday at a special session confirmed the public sale last week Wednesday of the estate of the late Judge Thomas F. McCormick. This finally disposes of the matter.

An Oyster Supper.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C Drake, of 1219 Putnam avenue, gave an oyster supper to a large party of friends last night.

—Use Press want ads.

—Finest chocolates and bon-bons, made fresh every day. Stephenson's, 146 North avenue.

SMITH TO PRESIDE OVER THE COUNCIL.

Republican Majority Decide in His Favor Last Night.

DUMONT GOT THREE VOTES.

COUNCILMAN CORIELL FAVORED THE FOURTH WARD MAN.

On the First Ballot the Vote Was Smith, 6; Dumont, 3; Mellick, 1; Blank, 1—Smith's Choice Then Made Unanimous—Proceedings Held Behind Closed Doors—Charge in Committees.

Frank H. Smith will be the president of the Common Council for the year 1900. A caucus of the new Council was held last night and a combination of the Councilmen from the First and Fourth wards determined the result. Councilman J. B Dumont will probably be the leader on the floor.

There were two names mentioned for the presidency of the incoming Council One was Frank H. Smith, of the Fourth ward, and the other J. B. Dumont, of the Second ward. Mr. Dumont has served the longest of any of the members of the Council and has also been president of the Council a term.

It can frankly be said that the best of feeling has not prevailed in the Republican ranks during the last year and that the Fourth ward leaders felt that they had not received their due recognition. Some time ago it was announced that the Fourth ward wanted Mr Smith for presiding officer of the Council. The First ward leaders found the choice acceptable. Councilman B. Frank Coriell sided with them. The rest of the Council thought that seniority of service entitled Mr. Dumont to the honor.

The caucus was held last evening at the Council Chamber. It was a secret meeting. All the Councilmen were present. An informal ballot was first taken and it was found that a majority of the members favored Mr. Smith.

Councilman Coriell then made a speech in which he told his reasons for wishing to see Mr. Smith as presiding officer. Besides referring to the excellent qualifications of Mr. Smith for the place, he pointed out that the Fourth ward was entitled to the honor. The president of the Council had never come from that ward, except in a Democratic regime, and he felt that it was time the Republicans recognized the magnificent work done there for the party. He pointed out with pride the huge Republican majority there at the last city election.

Councilman George P. Mellick advanced the reasons why he believed that Mr. Dumont was best suited and entitled to the honor. He has served in the Council eleven years although not consecutively.

A formal ballot was then taken which showed the following result: Smith, 6; Dumont, 3; Mellick, 1; blank, 1. It was declared that it was the sense of the caucus that Mr. Smith should be chosen presiding officer. Mr. Dumont was the first to congratulate Mr. Smith on the honor.

When the Council meets next month, Mr. Smith will be unanimously elected president of the Council. The decision of the caucus will be final and all the Councilmen expressed their pleasure in supporting the candidate thus chosen. Mr. Smith is very popular with his associates and has shown much efficiency when temporarily called upon to take the chair.

It was decided at the caucus that hereafter the important committees of the Council shall consist of five members instead of three so as to allow each ward to be represented on it.

"THE MESSIAH" TONIGHT.

The Great Oratorio to be Rendered Tonight for the Public.

The oratorio of the "Messiah" will be given in the Crescent Avenue church this evening. The rehearsal Thursday evening gave reason to hope for good success at the final rendering. The doors will be open at half-past seven, and the service free to all. It has long been a custom in Plainfield on Good Friday evening for Christian people of every name to gather quietly in some one of our churches and remember the death of Jesus. Now in the advent season it seeems no less appropriate that we should come together with glad songs of praise because He has won the victory, and shall reign forever and ever.

—Sweet Florida, Jamaica and Navel oranges, mandarines, lady apples and fancy table apples. Neuman Brothers. 12-21-2

BROOKE'S PROCLAMATION

It Tells of the Progress That Has Been Made in Cuba.

IS READ IN THE SENATE.

Senator Hale Declares That the Document Should Arrest the Attention of the Country—Mr. Pettigrew Delivers a Speech on the Philippines. Proceedings in the House.

Washington, Dec. 21.—In the senate Mr. Hale (Maine) has had read from the clerk's desk the proclamation issued by General Brooke in Havana on turning over the civil government of Cuba to his successor, Gen. Leonard Wood.

"This proclamation," said he, "must arrest the attention of the senate committee on Cuban affairs and of the country. It is a most remarkable statement of the progress that has been made in Cuba. If General Brooke be right, peace and order practically have been restored on the island and the people will be ready at an early date to enter upon a government of their own. General Brooke is to be congratulated upon having accomplished a vast work. It is much greater than I had supposed. I see the dawn of the time when the Cuban people will be able to set up a government of their own. Gen. Brooke, having been displaced, will soon come north and when he arrives will receive our congratulations upon his great work." The matter was referred to the committee on relations with Cuba.

Mr. Hawley (Connecticut), chairman of the military affairs committee, drew a sharp speech from Mr. Pettigrew by a motion to reconsider a resolution previously introduced by Mr. Pettigrew and passed directing the secretary of war to forward to the senate the full report of the commission appointed by the president to investigate the conduct of the Spanish war.

Mr. Pettigrew declared that this was a most unusual proceeding and demanded to know whether "it is a part of a studied policy to suppress information."

"Is it," he demanded, "along the lines of the suppression of news from Manila, not because it is not proper news, but because of its possible effect on the people of the country? A day or two ago I asked the adoption of a resolution of inquiry that I deemed perfectly proper. It was laid on the table. Was the action taken because the resolution indicated that officers of this government had recognized the Philippine republic. Do you think if such a recognition had not been made that resolution would have been laid on the table? The fact is, we did recognize the Philippine republic, and it was through the assistance of the Filipino vessels that a Spanish garrison was forced to surrender.

"It now seems that there are many things not to be brought to the attention of the people. My belief is that we ought to have another commission to investigate the entire conduct of the Spanish war. We might investigate the purchase of army transports, for which we paid two or three times what they were offered for to others. Is this policy of the suppression of news and facts to be followed for the purpose of re-electing the present administration? In my opinion it is vastly more important that the people should have all the facts obtainable than that any man or men should be re-elected to office."

Mr. Hawley disclaimed any intention of an endeavor to suppress any facts. "The senator from South Dakota does not surprise me," he said, "in his discovery of improper motives in the motion I made. He is the original discoverer of such motives."

Mr. Hawley said he made the motion simply that the matter might be considered by a committee to ascertain the availability of the matter asked for. Nobody who knew him would suppose he was trying to conceal anything and, so far as he was concerned, he was willing that there should be the most rigid inquiry into the conduct of the Spanish war.

Mr. Cockrell (Mo.) believed that the report of the investigation commission, made by the direction of the president, should be communicated to the senate. That would be right and proper.

At his suggestion the resolution was reconsidered, and the request was made of the president, if not incompatible with public interests, to communicate the testimony and report of the commission to the senate.

Mr. Allison (Iowa) thought, too, that the senate ought to have the testimony and report, and said: "I am sure those who made the investigation and the president will have no objection to the publication of the matter."

The resolution as amended by Mr. Cockrell was passed without dissent.

Proceedings in the House

Washington, Dec. 21.—Three-fourths of the seats in the house were empty when Speaker Henderson called that body to order, a majority of the members having already left for the holidays. Mr. Grow (Penn.) and Mr. Brown (Ohio) attempted to obtain recognition after the reading of the journal, but Mr. Payne, the floor leader of the majority, moved an adjournment. The Democrats in a spirit of fun voted against the motion and with the dissenting Republicans defeated it on a rising vote—54 to 79. Mr. Payne demanded the ayes and noes. The vote resulted, ayes 81, noes 103.

Mr. Payne then demanded the "regular order," which was the call of committees. Mr. Grow asked unanimous consent to make a statement in response to some remarks of Mr. Gaines (Tenn.), but Mr. Payne insisted upon his demand.

As soon as the clerk had called "Committee on Elections, No. 1," Mr. Payne again moved to adjourn, but on a rising vote the motion was again defeated. The roll was again called and another defeat recorded. Mr. Payne was subjected to some good-natured chaffing by Mr. Richardson, the minority leader.

Mr. Grow claimed the floor on a question of personal privilege, to correct a statement made by Mr. Gaines (Tenn.) Tuesday, and, in spite of Mr. Payne's opposition, the speaker said he would hear Mr. Grow for five minutes. Mr. Grow reiterated his contention of several days ago that "coin," from 1862 to 1878, meant gold.

Mr. Gaines replied briefly. The house adjourned until noon, January 3, 1900.

The Senate For Gold.

Washington, Dec. 21.—A canvass of the senate has been made to determine the majority by which the gold standard bill will pass. It seems certain that the vote will be in the proportion of yeas 49, nays 37, allowing for pairs. This is a majority of 12. Those counted in the affirmative are:

Aldrich, Allison, Baker, Beveridge, Burrows, Caffery, Cullom, Carter, Deboe, Clark (Wyo.), Davis, Elkins, Fairbanks, Foster, Foraker, Frye, Gallinger, Gear, Hale, Hanna, Hansbrough, Hawley, Hoar, Kean, Kyle, Lindsay, Lodge, McComas, McMillan, McCumber, McBride, Mason, Nelson, Penrose, Perkins, Platt (N. Y.), Platt (Conn.), Prichard, Proctor, Ross, Scott, Sewell, Simon, Spooner, Thurston, Wellington, Warren, Wetmore.—total 49.

Named By the President.

Washington, Dec. 21.—The president has sent the following nominations to the senate:

Interior—To be supervisors of census, Andrew J. White, First district of Kansas; Walker Wilkins, Third district of Kentucky.

Postmasters: New York—Albert F. Weed, Ticonderoga, New Jersey; Henry C. Mead, Caldwell.

Navy—M. S. Elliott, to be passed assistant surgeon; E. Carmody, to be first lieutenant in the marine corps.

Hepburn Johns is Dead.

Chicago, Dec. 21.—Hepburn Johns, the dramatic writer and critic of the Chronicle, is dead at his home in this city. He became ill while working at his desk last Saturday. On Sunday his ailment was diagnosed as pneumonia, and he sank steadily in spite of the efforts of several physicians. Mr. Johns was well known in New York, going there when big theatrical productions were being made to review them for his paper. His last appearance in New York was on the opening night of "Ben Hur," at the Broadway theatre.

Nova Scotia Coal Mines Sold.

Halifax, N. S., Dec. 21.—A despatch from North Sydney, C. B., says that the largest coal mine transaction in the history of the industry in that island has been completed by the closing of the sale of the coal property of the General mining association to a syndicate of American and Canadian capitalists. The new owners will establish a steel shipbuilding plant there, and the coal mines are to be operated in connection with the plant. The mines are the oldest in Nova Scotia.

Standard Oil in Tacks

Boston, Dec. 21.—The property of the Atlas Tack corporation has been sold at auction under the terms of the mortgage executed between the Atlas people and the State Street Trust company. The only bid was from K. L. Harrison, of New York, and the property was knocked down to him for $200,900. It is understood he acted in behalf of H. H. Rogers, of the Standard Oil company, who holds the bonds of the corporation.

Russia's Surplus For One Year.

Washington, Dec. 21.—The state department has received from the United States consul general at St. Petersburg an abstract of the annual report of the controller of the government council of Russia. According to this report the excess of the receipts over the disbursements in 1898 was $116,673,159. The total resources of the government treasury are $912,638,681. The surplus in the treasury is about $100,000,000.

Robberies at Princeton.

Princeton, N. J., Dec. 21.—A bold series of robberies that cost several Princeton students about $350 occurred Wednesday night. The room of F. P. LeBoutillier, of New York, was entered and $70 worth of pins and other jewelry taken, and the thieves also got a $150 watch from the room of Lawrence Benson, of Philadelphia. L. R. Dickinson, of Trenton, lost a gold watch and several diamond pins.

Sunday Shaves Cause War.

Paterson, N. J., Dec. 21.—The bench and the church are at odds about shaving. Recorder Senior holds that shaving is a necessity hence is permissible on Sunday. The clergymen are indignant at the decision and are going to see what the higher courts think of shaving as a Sunday necessity. Meanwhile the anti-Sunday work crusade rages fiercely.

Agitation Over Delagoa Bay.

London, Dec. 21.—There are indications of considerable agitation in the press and on the part of the public against the attitude of the Portuguese government in allowing Delagoa bay to be an open door whereby the Boers are receiving ammunition and recruits. The Globe urges that England ought to assume direct control of Delagoa bay during the war.

Klondike Searching Party Lost.

Seattle, Dec. 21.—During the latter part of last August Corporal Shirving of the northwest mounted police and two comrades were sent out from Dawson to search for ill-fated parties on the Edmonton trail. Nothing has been heard from the rescuers, and fears are entertained for their safety.

Was Afire on a Bicycle.

Wilmington, Del., Dec. 21.—George D. Lloyd, while scorching on his wheel, smelled something burning. Then he felt a pain in his side. Later he discovered that he was afire. Then he stopped. His vest and trousers were burned and his hip was flame-scarred. He doesn't know why he ignited.

Gum Caused Paralysis.

Miss Lettie Sutzman, of Goshen, Ind., recently suffered from a peculiar affliction due to chewing gum. The young woman who is a student in the high school, was an inveterate chewer of gum, and noticed that the left side of her mouth was drawing up toward her left ear. The trouble grew, and a physician pronounced it a case of paralysis of the mouth due to continuous mastication.

WITH ONE VOICE.

Plainfield People Who Have Investigated Are a Unit on the Subject.

The voice of the people
Is heard all o'er the land.
Trumpet notes of truth,
Sounded from East to West.
Plainfield has joined the throng.
Many a citizen lifts his voice in praise.
Enthusiastic people everywhere.
Backs relieved of heavy burdens.
Nights of suffering, days of misery.
Become nights of rest and days of joy.
It's the constant workings of
Doan's Kidney Pills.
Are these reports all true?
Ask a neighbor who knows.
Here's a Plainfield citizen, ask him.
Read what he says—

Mr. H. C. Lippencott, of 39 Chatham street, says: "After my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills I cannot do otherwise than speak in the highest terms of them. I was a victim of kidney complaint and dreadful backache, which was so bad in damp weather, or when I caught cold that I could not get about. I was in the hardware business at this time, and the heavy lifting and being on my feet so much, greatly aggravated the troubles. I was at my worst when I concluded to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and I got them at L. W. Randolph's drug store. It only required a few doses to convince me that I had the right remedy. My backache disappeared before I had finished the first box. You are at liberty to refer anyone to me, and I will gladly give my experience in detail."

Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. Mailed on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.

We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1 25.
LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.
Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.

—CHRISTMAS GOODS—
A Big Assortment.

Flynn Bros., SHOE DEALERS,
222 WEST FRONT STREET,
Near Music Hall,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods
Have stood the test for years.

ALEX. LUSARDI.
211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruits a specialty. No branch stores

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .
in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated
DOMESTIC FINISH.
Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.
Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.
Trading Stamps given.
The City Steam & Hand Laundry
MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B
19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

SELLING OUT
Below Cost
TO CLOSE BUSINESS
Star Crockery Store,
23 Somerset St., near Front.
3 and 9 cent Articles.
BARGAINS! BARGAINS!
Solomon & Evans,
Proprietors.

"ISN'T IT TOO CUTE FOR ANYTHING!"
So runs the chorus of feminine praise over this, that or the other pretty brooch in our fine collection. Husband, father, brother, beau—here's the fit thing! The price-range is $2.50 to $25.00—and there never was better choosing in pretty jewelry. You can make no mistake in picking with your eyes shut—but best come while the selection is complete.
Large Solid Silver Nethersole Bracelets, - - - - 75c
Solid Silver Brush and Comb, - $2.50
In a silk-lined case.
COLLIER, Jeweler,
103 Park Ave.
Established 1869.

STATIONERY and TOYS.
We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles for the Holiday trade.
CHRISTMAS CARDS and CALENDARS.
We make a specialty of FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.
High Grade Cigars.
Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.
B. W. HAND,
205 W. Front Street

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING
is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job. That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.
MARSH, AYERS & CO.,
201 PARK AVE., Cor 2d ST.
Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.
Estimates furnished. Telephone call 635

LADIES' TAILORING.
RICHARDSON & WALD,
325 West Front Street.
TAILOR-MADE GARMENTS.
We make a specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.
Alterations and relining promptly attended to.
—DRESSMAKING.—
Our Dressmaking Department is in charge of Madame Walsh.

THE GRANDVIEW Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

THE ENTRANCE TO THE DINING ROOM
will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us.
Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early.
The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get.
FRED ENDRESS,
131—135 WEST FRONT STREET

November.

The mellow year is hasting to its close.
The merry birds have almost sung their last.
Their faint notes twitter in the dreary blast—
That shrill-piped harbinger of early snows.
And hint to you in good coal to invest
At seven forty-seven Front Street, west.

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT. Notice is hereby given, That the account of the subscribers, executors of Lewis J. Denton, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphan's Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the tenth day of January next.
EMELINE B. DENTON,
SARAH P. BLISS.
Dated December 6th, 899. 12 7 oaw

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

LAIRE'S . .
HOLIDAY SPECIALS.
Carving knives.
U. S. club skates.
Roger's plated ware.
Fine pocket cutlery.
Silver finish coffee and tea pots.
Nickel on copper tea kettles.
Boys' sleighs.
Fine razors and hones.
Grand Rapid sweepers.
Baby Rapid sweepers.
Shinny sticks.
Christmas tree holders.
Coin silver ware, cheap.
Fine table cutlery.
Fine scissors and shears.
Corn poppers.
The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,
Tel. Call 682.

TRY THE QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,
No 337 Park Avenue.
(Miller Building.)
Goods called for and delivered free of charge.
Domestic or gloss finish.

DOBBINS. CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.
317 West Front street.

J. W. VANSICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly.
TELEPHONE 164 b.

Your Valuables,
will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault
Lock boxes from $3 50 to $10 a year

GAS
For the Fire-place.
Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates.
Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.
CURTIS M. THORPE,
310-312 PARK AVENUE.
"EVERYTHING OR THE FIRE PLACE."

F. A. DUNHAM,
—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—
109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 487

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 119 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
219 Park Avenue.

A. KANE,
Dealer in
BLUE STONE FLAGGING and CURBING.
Also Dealer in
Flour, Feed and Grain, Coal and Wood.
Store and Office
409 East Third St.,
Next to
THIRD STREET MISSION.
Open Evenings Until 8 o'Clock.

WATCH YOUR KIDNEYS
THEY ARE FILTERS FOR THE BLOOD.
IMPURE BLOOD CAUSES DISEASE.

Few people understand the important part performed by the kidneys in filtering the blood. As the blood in its circulation through the body passes through the kidneys, its impurity is left in the kidneys, which in turn empties the secretions into the bladder in the form of urine.
If the kidneys are blocked and filtration of the blood from poisonous or diseased germs prevented thereby, the result is one or all of the following: Sleeplessness, Nervous Prostration, Weak Back, Pains in the Back and Loins; Scalding, Dark and Cloudy Urine; Dizziness, Rheumatism, Diabetes, Congestion of the Kidneys, Bright's Disease and Inflammation of the Bladder.
Unhealthy Kidneys Must be Treated.
A medicine is needed that will properly promote the filtration of the blood and check the over-secretion of urine.
DR. HOLTIN'S KIDNEY TABLETS
is the only remedy absolutely and unconditionally guaranteed to cure every form of Kidney or Bladder Complaints. Price, 25 and 50 Cents.
FOR SALE BY
JOHN P. POWERS,
Druggist,
tu th 45 Somerset St.

BEST FOR THE BOWELS
If you haven't a regular, healthy movement of the bowels every day, you're sick, or will be. Keep your bowels open, and be well. Force, in the shape of violent physic or pill poison, is dangerous. The smoothest, easiest, most perfect way of keeping the bowels clear and clean is to take
CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
TRADE MARK REGISTERED
REGULATE THE LIVER
Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good, Do Good, Never Sicken, Weaken, or Gripe, 10c. 25c. Write for free sample, and booklet on health. Address Sterling Remedy Company, Chicago, Montreal, New York. 322a
KEEP YOUR BLOOD CLEAN

Chas. L. Stanley,
. . FLORIST . .
No. 142 North Ave
HEADQUARTERS for choice Cut Flowers, Ferns, Palms, a large assortment of other plants.
Floral design work and decorating for all occasions Satisfaction guaranteed; an immense stock of Holly, Wreaths, Roping, etc.
Annex stores for the Holidays,
134 North Ave,
South Ave, Netherwood,
and Central Ave., Westfield

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$5
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. C. W. LEONARD,
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills
25c.
A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.
MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung avenues.

ROMBLON IS CAPTURED.

Army and Navy Take an Island in the Philippines.

MESSAGE FROM WATSON

American Troops Trying to Intercept a Column of Filipinos at Pamplona. War and Navy Departments Waiting For Particulars—Tributes to General Lawton.

Washington, Dec. 21.—Friends of General Lawton in the army have associated themselves together for the purpose of raising a fund to be turned over to the widow. A general appeal to the people of the country has been issued, signed by four officers of the regular army. The appeal says:

"Maj.-Gen. Henry W. Lawton, United States Volunteers, whose death occurred at San Mateo, Island of Luzon, on Dec. 19, 1899, has left little but his good name as a legacy to his wife and children. A piece of property purchased by him as a home in California has a mortgage of half the purchase price still outstanding and unliquidated. The undersigned have voluntarily associated themselves together for the purpose of raising funds to pay off the indebtedness. Contributions will be thankfully received by them, and be devoted to the object herein above set forth. The aid of the newspapers of the country is requested.

"Contributions will be received by any one of the following: H. C. Corbin, adjutant-general, Washington; J. F. Weston, acting commissary general, Washington; William Ludlow, brigadier-general, Havana, Cuba; William R. Shafter, major-general, San Francisco, Cal."

While the statement issued by these officers announces the purpose of raising funds to liquidate the indebtedness on General Lawton's property in California, it is not intended to limit contributions to that extent, as it is recognized by friends of General Lawton that no better testimonial could be made than by raising a large sum of money for the benefit of his widow and family.

It has been decided to have General Lawton's remains brought to this country on the first transport sailing from Manila, and in accordance with the expressed wish of the dead general's widow the war department has just completed arrangements for this purpose and Cabled General Otis instructions to be followed out in the matter.

Root's Message About Lawton

Washington, D. C., Dec. 21.—Secretary Root has cabled as follows:

War Department, Dec. 20.

Otis, Manila:

I join with the officers and men of the Eighth Army corps in deepest regret over the death of their heroic comrade, Gen. Lawton. I beg you to convey to Mrs. Lawton expression of my sincere sympathy. It was the ideal death of a soldier, as his splendid courage and devotion to duty have met the ideal of a soldier's life.

The sad news will be announced to the army, and due ceremonies of respect for his memory will be directed in general orders. ELIHU ROOT, Secretary of War.

President McKinley has also sent a message to General Otis in which he paid a high tribute to the personal worth of the dead general and assuring him that in the death of Gen. Lawton our nation has lost one of its biggest and bravest soldiers. He also asks to have his deepest sympathy expressed to Mrs. Lawton and her family.

Aguinaldo Again Located.

Washington, Dec. 21.—The following despatch has been received by the secretary of the navy from Rear Admiral Watson, under date of Dec. 20, at Manila:

"Concord, (Commander) Akley, Pampanga, (Commander) Leigh, 18th inst. with two companies of infantry captured Rombion. John James, seaman, wounded knee, only casualty navy. Newark's battalion landed from Callao, occupied Pamplona, north coast Luzon. Burwell, (Commander) Wheeling, cooperation with General Young like one service, landing battalion, doing excellent work daily north and west Luzon."

The operations at Pamplona are for the purpose of intercepting a column of Filipinos having Lieut. Gillmore and other American prisoners in custody. This column was making for Pamplona, a port on the north coast of Luzon, west of Aparri, the navy's northern base of operations. General Young reported a few days ago that he had heard that the American prisoners had been released. The war department and the navy department are anxiously waiting for particulars on that subject.

Scouts in advance of the United States forces in northern Luzon report that Aguinaldo has been definitely located. He is said to have joined the Filipino forces at Mariquito.

Lawton's Body Taken to Manila

Manila, Dec. 21.—The body of Major-General Lawton, who was killed while leading his troops at San Mateo, has been brought to this city. It has been interred temporarily at El Paso cemetery, but arrangements will be made as soon as possible to have it forwarded to the United States. It is the desire of Mrs. Lawton to have the body rest in Arlington cemetery.

Prisoner Demolished the Windows.

Toledo, O., Dec. 21.—Charles Bender, a young man, while being examined in probate court here, broke away from the guards with handcuffs and and demolished all the windows in the courtroom, cutting himself probably fatally. He was committed to the asylum.

Mrs. Louis F. Payn Dead.

Albany, Dec. 21.—Mrs. Louis F. Payn, wife of State Superintendent of Insurance Payn, is dead at her home in Chatham. She had been ill for over a year.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair Thursday and Friday; variable winds, mostly fresh westerly.

SULLIVAN'S TROUBLES.

The Ex-Fighter Says He Is Not Worth a Dollar.

New York, Dec. 21.—John L. Sullivan is broke.

The sturdy ex-champion, who, with his fist, knocked upward of a million dollars out of the pockets of destiny, is unable to pay his small debts now, and accordingly he appears in the City Court in supplementary proceedings.

Sullivan sat defiant, and parried the blows of his small adversaries without much show of science. He never was much at a defense, John. His plan of fighting was to take what came and by a series of rushes to overpower his antagonist by sheer force.

But in this contest the referee was against him. He could not rush his opponent. He was forced to the defensive.

News that Sullivan was on the witness stand quickly got about the building, and in short order he was being watched and listened to by an audience which filled the room.

He was well groomed and wore massive jewelry and a shirt front which was not troubled with dumbness so far as colors went. But he did not look like a prize-fighter. He would have made a much more natural signboard for an Alderman or a prize butcher.

He still looked tremendously powerful, but slow and beefy. He had a big paunch and broad jowls. His hair was well sprinkled with gray, fast becoming white. His large mustache was darker and curled in sporting-man fashion.

Leaning negligently on one elbow and fumbling the gold ox-chain across his waistcoat John L. told in deep, reverberating bass how poor he is.

"Not a dollar in the world, sir; nothing but my salary as manager of a cafe uptown."

The case was begun before Judge Pascal and a jury. The Anheuser-Busch Brewing Company is plaintiff. They were suing John for $1,600 worth of beer furnished him for the saloon he started at 608 Sixth avenue not long ago. He gave the company his notes, but hasn't made good. A few weeks ago he shut up his saloon and hung his sign up in a more elaborate place on Broadway.

"Them blokes won't bleed me," said the twelve-year champion, before he took the stand.

"They promised me everything, said they'd make me a palace, but it looked more like a morgue. It would give you the blues to look at it. I don't pay $1,600 for any such joint.

"Were you ever in it? No? Well, you're lucky. I'm glad I didn't catch the hydrophobia there. The smells would have knocked you down."

POST OFFICE CASHIER SUICIDES

Bad Speculations Caused Him to Take His Own Life.

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 21.—Captain L. Schneeberger, cashier at the Baltimore post office, has committed suicide by shooting himself in the head at his home in Fremont avenue. An examination of his accounts at the post office has been made under the direction of Postmaster Warfield, and it is said they are perfectly straight. Unfortunate speculations are said to have caused the suicide. Capt. Schneeberger was fifty-five years old, married, and the father of five children, most of whom are grown. His wife is also living. Schneeberger was an enthusiastic lover of baseball, and was one of the best patrons of the national game in this city.

Erie County May Be Divided.

Buffalo, Dec. 21.—The board of supervisors have by a vote of 25 to 22 adopted a resolution providing "for the division of Erie county and the county property on equitable terms, the new county to be known as Buffalo county, and to include the city of Buffalo to the city line and such other towns as may desire to become part of said new county." The country members of the board fought the resolution. A motion to reconsider the vote was rejected by a vote of 25 to 24.

McLaren's Pardon Denied.

Trenton, N. J., Dec. 21.—The court of pardons has just decided many applications for pardon and parole. Among them was the application of Thomas McLaren, who is serving a twenty-years' sentence in the state prison here for killing his wife, and for whose pardon Jennie McLaren, his little daughter, has been importuning the court. The court considered the case in its every phase, but finally dismissed it. Jennie McLaren hung about the court room door all day and was overcome with grief when informed that she had lost her case.

Pension For Mrs. Lawton.

Washington, Dec. 21.—Senator Fairbanks has introduced a bill granting a pension of $2,000 a year to the widow of the late General Lawton. Representative Landis of Indiana introduced a similar bill in the house. Mr. Landis represents the district from which General Lawton's first regiment was recruited.

The Molineux Case.

New York, Dec. 21.—John F. Tyrrell, of Milwaukee, a man of loops and dashes, of slants and speed and slashes, continued his lesson in the Molineux murder trial, all day, on how a handwriting expert may gather material in New York for a brand new compendium. His testimony corroborated that of Expert Kinsley.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

New York, Dec. 21.—A distinctly stronger tone marked the transactions of the stock market to-day. There were traces of the panicky feeling of the last few days.

Cash prices for staples:
Wheat, No. 2 red, .76.
Corn, No. 2 mixed, .40⅝.
Oats, No. 2 mixed, .29¼.
Flour, Minnesota patents, $3.90.
Cotton, middling, .07½.
Coffee, No. 7 Rio, .06⅞.
Sugar, granulated, 5.18.
Molasses, O. K. prime, .36.
Beef, family, 12.75.
Beef hams, 22.75.
Tallow, prime, .05.
Pork, mess, 10.25.
Hogs, dressed, 150 lb, .05¾.
Lard, prime, 5.67½.
Iron, Northern No. 1 foundry, 23.00.
Butter, Western creamery, .27.

EDUCATIONAL

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.
(City Bank Building.)
Adella C. Phelps will resume work Sept. 26th. Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

PRIVATE INSTRUCTION
given in
German and Elementary French.
Address for terms,
MISS ALICE GILBERT,
11 8 1mo 811 West Fifth Street

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
: : : PIANO AND THEORY : : :
Home Studio,
132 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN.
Address—60 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

.....Piano Instruction.....
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and
MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes
Elementary Classes.
Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Dufft.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

M. POWERS,
DEALER IN
LEHIGH COAL.
FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A
Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

Advertised Mail Matter.

DECEMBER 18, 1899.

FIRST CLASS.

Apgar, Mr Geo C
Arnold, Mrs
Brown, Mr John P
Burke, Miss Katie
Campbell, Mr A H 2
Cooper, Mrs J R
Crone, J F
Fields, Miss Harriett
Geslin
Harvey, Miss Martha
Hull, A A
Hunter, Mrs R D
Huston, Mr John
Jellnarnd, Mr Robert
Johnson, Mr Aug
" P M
Jones, Mrs M
Kellogg, Mrs
Kitchell, Mrs Martha 2
McLean, Mr A M
Martin Mr Henry
" Mrs Isabella
Marsh, Miss A
Owner, house for sale
Palmer, Miss I J
Parker, A W
Pullman, L
Ralston, Mr H M
Read, Mrs John
Richardson, Mr John
Rockland, L
Roome, Mr. Wm P
Rojette, Mrs Albert
Schellendreusler, Rev H
Snoden, Mr J H
Taylor, Mrs E S
Tims, Mrs May
Walker, Mrs Anna
" Mr Thomas S
VanVleit, Mrs Herbert

THIRD AND FOURTH CLASS MATTER.

Bunck, Mr C C
Hoff, Mrs Ella J
Hoffman, Samuel V
Pendergast, Mrs C
Turner, Dr A F
Upton, Mr Fred
Young, Mr Edward

E. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun. John F. Emmon
Telephone 601

Don't miss the Special Sale for the holidays of FRAMES,
EASELS,
and PICTURES
AT REDUCED PRICES,
given by the
Guarantee Portrait Studio,
142 East Front Street.
Fine drawings in Crayons and Pastels from all kinds of photographs. All kinds of frames from the latest styles of mouldings made to order at the lowest prices.

THAT'S THE IDEA!
You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

-:- WINDOW SHADES -:-
Estimates cheerfully given.
Mail orders will receive prompt attention.
J. A. GREENE,
112 Madison Ave. Plainfield, N. J.
11 15 1mo

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107, 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

Park Avenue Hotel.
Park Avenue and Eighth Street,
Plainfield.
Refurnished and Renovated.
Steam Heat in Every Room.
. . . Elevator . . .
First-Class in every respect.
Terms Moderate.
F. W. COLEMAN,
11 3 1mo Proprietor.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL.
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor.

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office B x 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.

NEW YORK MAILS.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE and EASTON.

Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a m.; 2:30 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a.m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p.m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.

WARRENVILLE.

Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P M.

Corporation Notice.

of application to the Court of Common Pleas for the appointment of Commissioners to assess benefits for street improvements.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, pursuant to Chapter 200 of the laws of 1898, entitled, "An Act to authorize the improvement of streets and highways in cities of this State, and to provide for the payment of the expense of the same," approved June 13th, 1898, and the amendments thereof and supplements thereto, that application will be made by the Common Council of the City of Plainfield to the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Union at the Court House in the City of Elizabeth on the thirtieth day of December, A. D. 1899, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as the said Court can hear the said application, for the appointment of three Commissioners, who shall be freeholders and residents of the City of Plainfield, as Commissioners to estimate and assess benefits respectively conferred by the permanent improvement of streets under the several ordinances of said City, respectively entitled:

"An Ordinance for macadamizing East Sixth Street between Watchung Avenue and Richmond Street, excepting where already macadamized," approved Oct. 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing Franklin Place between LaGrande Avenue and East Fifth Street," approved Oct 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing East Ninth Street between Park Avenue and Watchung Avenue," approved Oct. 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing West Fourth Street between New Street and Monroe Avenue," approved Feb. 9th, 1899.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing West Third Street between Madison Avenue and Monroe Avenue, excepting where already macadamized," approved Feb. 9th, 1899.

and to perform the duties and execute the powers conferred by said Acts of the Legislature.

By order of the Common Council of the City of Plainfield.

JAMES T. MACMURRAY,
City Clerk of the City of Plainfield.
Dated, December 18, 1899. 12 19 td

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS.
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Hire for Picnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing,
Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections.
210 PARK AVE.

H. E. Gayle, 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

THE
First National Bank,
of Plainfield, N. J.
Capital .....$200,000.
Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000.
J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.

DIRECTORS.

Charles Potter.
P. M. French.
Wm. M. Stillman.
J. W. Johnson.
Wm. McD. Coriell.
H. Mulford Estil.
Isaac W. Rushmore.
Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.
VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

BAMBERGER'S
"THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE"
MARKET & HALSEY STS.
The Largest and Most Perfectly Equipped
Mail Order Service
Presenting Unequalled Shopping Facilities
For Thousands of Out-of-Town Patrons.

A thoroughly experienced staff of buyers in this department will make selections for you, and satisfaction is guaranteed or money will be refunded. We prepay mail or express charges to any part of the State on all paid purchases, and on C. O. D.'s for amounts aggregating $5.00 or more. Try our system, and you will not only save money, but have the additional advantage of assortments not equaled in Newark or surpassed anywhere in the land. Samples sent postpaid to any address upon receipt of postal card.

L. Bamberger & Co.
Newark, N. J.

Candy For the Children
AT CHRISTMAS TIME is as much or more so expected by them as fireworks on the Fourth. They look for it in their stockings.....
American Mixture 10c lb. Old Fashioned Mixture, 10c lb.
Special Mixture 12c lb, and upwards to 60c lb.
Christmas Bell Box, the latest for Sunday Schools.
R. Walsh & Co
TWO STORES,
157 MARKET STREET,
677 BROAD STREET,
NEWARK N. J.
m th

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.
Sherwins,
149 W. Front St

A CONDITION MATERIALLY BETTERED.

For a year or more I was troubled with a Disordered Stomach, owing to irregular hours and improper food. I consulted several physicians, but found no relief in their medicines. Some time ago I noticed a paragraph or an advertisement about Ripans Tabules and determined to try them, which I did, and my condition has been bettered so materially that I think it only proper to mention the fact. I think now that, with a proper diet, I shall come around in good shape.

A NEW STYLE PACKET CONTAINING TEN TABULES IN A PAPER CARTON (WITHOUT GLASS) IS NOW FOR SALE AT SOME DRUG STORES—FOR FIVE CENTS.

TALKS FOR A CITY CREMATORY.

Dr. Doty's Plan Meets With Approval of the Governor.

Albany, Dec. 21.—As the outcome of legislation to be enacted this winter it is probable that New York city within a year will have a huge crematory for the disposal of its ashes and garbage. Dr. Alvah H. Doty, health officer of the port of New York, has called on Gov. Roosevelt by appointment and talked over the Barren Island situation. In his opinion matters there have not improved at all over a year ago, and he does not see how the system in vogue can be rid of its offensive and unsanitary conditions as long as the business is run to make money.

Gov. Roosevelt apparently is much of the same view as Dr. Doty that New York city will have to own a crematory in order to solve satisfactorily the existing problem of how best to make way with the city's waste.

Dr. Doty visited Europe this year and inspected crematories in many continental cities. That in operation in Hamburg, Germany, impressed him as well suited to New York's needs. He says, however, that it will cost the city to run it, as the revenue to be derived from that source will not meet expenses. The adoption of the crematory system, moreover, will require a more frequent collection of ashes and garbage throughout the city than is now the rule. Dr. Doty will lay before Gov. Roosevelt full details about the various crematory systems now in successful operation.

MRS. SANDERSON ON THE STAND

Makes General Denial to Charges of Killing her Husband.

Marshall, Mich., Dec. 21.—Mrs. Sanderson has had a chance to reply to the allegations of her servant, Marie Robertson, that she had killed her old husband by feeding him ground glass in his oatmeal. She denied feeding the glass and testified that she did not know there was a spice mill around the place. She did not serve or prepare his meals, as that was the servant's business.

Mrs. Sanderson denied entertaining male visitors in her room late at night when her husband was sick as well as before his illness.

Prosecutor Clark then cross-examined Mrs. Sanderson. He implied that her past record was bad. Mrs. Sanderson testified that after the sale of her property she went to visit her sisters in Chicago. Prosecutor Clark implied that she went to Denver, returning only on the advice of her lawyer, and that on her return trip she scraped acquaintance with a Pullman car conductor and they drank together. She denied the whole story.

Pottery Makers to Unite.

East Liverpool, Ohio, Dec. 21.—The first steps looking toward a combination of English and American pottery manufacutrers have just been taken at the meeting of the Western Potters' Association in this city. The president of the National Manufacturers' Association, Charles W. Franzheim of the Wheeling Pottery company, presented a proposition he had just received from Trenton manufacturers to consent to the proposed revision of the price list on crockery provided there is an ironclad agreement to it on the part of the western manufacturers. The English manufacturers are willing to revise their prices, contingent upon the American potters taking a similar step.

Cuba Welcomes General Wood.

Havana, Dec 21.—Major General Leonard Wood, the new governor general of Cuba, has arrived here on the steamer Mexico, which left New York for this port on December 16. The steamer was gayly decorated with flags. From Cabanas Fortress a major general's salute of thirteen guns was fired and the Cubans from the Punta fired a governor general's salute of twenty-one guns by the explosion of petards. General Wood was affected deeply upon hearing of the death of General Lawton, and was unable to converse for several minutes.

Huge Schooner to be Built.

Camden, Me., Dec. 21.—New York parties have placed an order with a shipbuilding firm here for a six-masted schooner which will be used as a coal carrier, and it will be the largest vessel afloat in this trade. The schooner will be 345 feet on top and 300 feet keel. Her bowsprit will be 35 feet long, jibboom 75 feet, lower masts 118 feet, topmasts 58 feet. The vessel will have electric lights and will have a telephone from the afthouse to the forecastle and engine house. She will cost $120,000 and will be launched on July 4, 1900.

Chester Hotel Proprietor Stricken.

Chester, N. Y., Dec. 21.—Timothy McGrath, proprietor and owner of the McGrath House, has been stricken with paralysis in his room, and is in a critical condition. He had fallen while dressng, and the noise of the fall led to the discovery of his plight. He was found lying on the floor unconscious. Mr. McGrath is seventy years old, is one of the oldest inhabitants of Chester, and is considered wealthy.

Dr. Purves to Preach in New York.

New York, Dec. 21.—By the unanimous vote of the congregation of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church the Rev. Dr. George T. Purves of Princeton Theological Seminary has been called to the pulpit made famous by Dr. John Hall. There is little doubt that he will accept the call. The salary is $12,000 per year.

Big Cement Elevator For Duluth.

Duluth, Minn., Dec. 21.—C. F. Haglin of Minneapolis has obtained a contract from the Peavey Elevator company to build a cement grain elevator of 3,750,000 bushels capacity in this city on Rice's Point. It will be the biggest grain storage elevator in the world, and the only cement elevator in the United States. Work will begin at once.

Pool Selling Illegal.

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 21.—The anti-pool law here stands. It is unlawful to make a book or sell pools on horse races in Alabama. The supreme court of Alabama has decided that the anti-pool selling law passed by the legislature in February, 1897, is valid and must be enforced.

HIS GUNS TO BE RESCUED

Those Abandoned by Buller May Be Safe.

GEN. FRENCH RETREATS.

The Force Was Insufficient, But the Boers Did Not Follow Up Their Advantage—Boers Said to Be Ready to Entertain Proposition for Settlement of Difficulties.

London, Dec. 21.—The Madrid correspondent of the Standard says:

"The Boer governments have recently intimated to their agents in Europe their readiness to be moderate in regard to peace conditions.

"The chief anxiety of the burghers is as to the question of receiving supplies by way of Lourenzo Marquez."

The Boers Advanced

London, Dec. 21.—The War Office reports to-day that General French reconnoitered northward of Arundel Monday, December 18. After shelling Jasfontein farm, three miles eastward of the Boer position, the New Zealanders advanced and occupied the farm. The Boer guns then opened and the Boers advanced to attack, so General French ordered a retirement.

It still seems doubtful whether the guns that General Buller abandoned at Colenso are in the possession of the Boers. According to a despatch to the Associated Press from Durban, sent off on the evening of the battle, and which has just been received here, the guns remained where they were left by the British troops, and were covered by the heavy guns of General Hildyard's brigade, occupying an entrenched position.

The despatch adds that the Boers have thus far not attempted to cross the river and carry off the guns, while advices to the Associated Press from Pretoria under the same date say that an official Boer despatch reports that two guns, thirteen wagons and a quantity of ammunition were captured, besides 208 prisoners. A special despatch from Durban, Natal, dated Saturday, December 16, says it is rumored General Buller called for volunteers to recover the abandoned guns and that a party issued from the camp after midnight and brought in the guns, which were uninjured.

Furthers accounts of the Tugela River battle emphasize the ignorance of the British intelligence department in regard to the disposition of the Boer forces. The British were not aware that the Boers were intrenched along a series of low-lying hills, immediately northward of Colenso bridge, until a staggering fire compelled them to retire when the attack seemed about to succeed. The Boers also were in greater strength than anticipated. It becomes clearer also that the British guns were lost in attempting to get within effective range of the Boer artillery, showing the latter outranged the British ordnance, which, in spite of numerical superiority, was wholly inadequate to reply to the long range Boer guns. The British War Office comes in for scathing denunciation from the Times, today, for not providing effective artillery. It is pointed out, in this connection, that the longer ranged naval guns participating in the same attack escaped.

Tramped to Death by an Elephant.

Columbus, Ohio, Dec. 21.—While at work in the winter quarters of the Sells Brothers' circus here, Patrick Meagher, chief elephant trainer of the show, was attacked by one of the beasts. Meagher attempted to defend himself, but he was dashed to the ground and gored and trampled upon. Before assistance could be rendered he was frightfully mangled. Life was extinct when the attendants rescued the trainer's body.

Pardoned By the President.

Washington, Dec. 21.—The president has granted a full pardon to James H. Bacon, who was convicted in 1896 and sentenced to imprisonment for six years in the Utah penitentiary for making a false report to the controller of the currency of the condition of the National Bank of Salt Lake, Utah, of which he was president.

Lakeside Hotel Burned.

Saratoga, N. Y., Dec. 21.—The Lakeside hotel, at Blue Mountain lake, Hamilton county, has been destroyed by fire. There were several narrow escapes. The hotel was a popular resort for New Yorkers and was owned and conducted by D. L. Cunningham.

Gompers is Re-Elected.

Detroit, Dec. 21.—Samuel Gompers has been unanimously re-elected president of the American Federation of Labor. Louisville, Ky., was selected as the place of the next convention. The candidates were Cleveland, Columbus, Scranton, Salt Lake City, Galveston, Bay City, and Louisville.

Chesapeake is All Right.

Washington, Dec. 21.—The training ship Chesapeake, the first sailing vessel built for the navy in more than forty years, has just completed a most successful trial trip. The trial took place in what are known as President's roads, off Boston harbor, in Massachusetts bay.

Tried to Burn a Hotel.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 21.—A bold and carefully planned attempt was made to burn the Hotel Davenport, one of the costliest hotels in this city. The flames were extinguished, however, before great damage was done. An arrest is expected soon.

Druggists Opposing Rate Cutters.

Chicago, Dec. 21.—Chicago druggists have joined hands with the National Association of Retail Druggists in the war on jobbers who sell to "rate cutters."

Bell Telephone Dividend.

Boston, Dec. 21.—The American Bell Telephone company has declared a regular quarterly dividend of 3 per cent. and an extra dividend of 1½ per cent.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

105 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week
$5 a year—in advance.
No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada
Delivered by carrier or by mail.
The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district -
Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on request.
Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., DEC 21, 1899

The Silk Industry.

The manufacture of silk is one of the "infant industries" of Plainfield at the present time, but as time passes it will undoubtedly increase and may eventually rank as the leading industry of the city. Be that as it may, it is interesting to know something of the manufacture of silk as it concerns New Jersey, and in this respect the report of the Bureau of Statistics, which has been compiled by Chief William Stainsby, will be interesting.

The report shows that more than twenty millions of capital are invested in silk manufacturing and allied interests. The number of separate concerns and the amount of capital is larger now than ever before. The value of the product is nearly double what it was ten years ago and more than three and one-half times as great as in 18 0 in spite of the fact that the tendency has been during this period to locate important branches of the industry in other States.

The value of the manufactured silk product is one half again as large as the total value of farm products in New Jersey, according to the United States census of that year Thousands of people are given employment in this great industry for the year 1898. for which this record is made, more than ever before, and the average paid in wages is higher than in preceding years The total number of hands employed in 1898 was 26 045, against 17,917 in 1890 and 12 549 in 1880.

The facts rehearsed above show that the silk industry is one of the biggest and most valuable lines of manufacture followed by Jerseymen, and one worth fostering with care and enterprise. Plainfield has started in a small way in this line of trade, and judging by the experience of communities whose industrial activity has been turned into the manufacture of silk it will be worth the while of every citizen to aid the industry all that is possible.

The Daily Press Calendar.

On Christmas Day the carrier boys of The Daily Press will, in accordance with their usual custom, deliver The Daily Press calendars to their regular patrons throughout the city and borough. As has always been in case, the calendar is a handsome one. In form it is the same as last year—the calendar leaves occuping the lower portion and the top set off in an artistic manner with a half tone cut appropriate to the life of the newsboy, in whose honor it is issued. A revised list of the fire alarm box numbers is also printed on the card. The bright, enterprising little fellows who faithfully deliver the paper to the subscribers every day of issue — whether it is hot or cold, pleasant or stormy—will be on hand early next Monday and with a cheery Merry Christmas will hand the calendars to their customers.

The changes in the school laws proposed by the State Board of Education in the codification that has been prepared, and which has developed much opposition in certain sections of the State, will not effect the management of the schools in this city the same as it will in the ones having over 50 000 population. One of the greatest objections to the proposed law is the section that gives the Mayors of cities of 50 000 inhabitants or over the power to appoint a superintendent, while the Board is elected by the people. These single creatures of one man are given much more power than the six elected by the people. For example, the superintendent can suspend any teacher he may wish and in order to be reinstated that teacher has to secure a two thirds vote of the Board. This is regerded by the objectors as a pernicious policy.

Why don't the R kers materialize that private right of way scheme in getting into Elizabeth? In their negotiations with the City Council they argued that time was precious, and it was a shame to deprive Elizabethians of the trolley service by any action that would delay the coming of the transit that they are willing to furnish. But now that they have a clear right of way—as they claim—they seem to be in no hurry. Why? Because the private of way business is one mighty big bluff, and down in their hearts they know that they will eventually have to accept the terms prescribed by the City Council in the proffered franchise. But to make the medicine as sweet as possible, they will postpone taking it till the last moment.

The Postmaster General has issued an order that will settle the question of how to confer a mark of distinction upon letter carriers for length of service. The length of service will hereafter be indicated by stars on the uniforms of the carriers instead of by stripes as formerly the case. For five years' service, a carrier is entitled to wear one black silk star; for ten years, two stars; one red silk star for fifteen years, and two for twenty years' service, and two silver stars for thirty years; one gold star for thirty-five years, and two for forty years of service.

Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, has issued a call for a meeting of that committee in Washington Feb. 22d. The purpose is to fix a time and place for holding the National Democratic Convention next summer. New York will make an effort to capture the convention but Chicago and other western cities, that have great get-to-it-iveness, will be on hand with persuasive arguments.

Summit having attained the distinction of being a city, it is anxious to secure all the frills that usually go with such a high-toned municipal government. Therefore the City Council has taken up the matter of securing the free delivery of mail, and Uncle Sam will be urged to grant the improvement.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

The popular Burrill Comedy Company return here next Monday for a week's engagement, with a company that will certainly please the theatre goers of this city For the Christmas matinee Wm. Haworth's great metropolitan success, "A Flag of Truce," will be presented with special scenic effects. Monday evening, "The Ensign," a famous nautical drama by the same author, will be produced with nearly a car load of special scenery. Both of the above plays have before been presented for 10, 20 and 30 cents, and those fortunate enough to obtain seats for either play will witness a performance far superior to anything ever offered by a popular priced organization. During the week several up-to date specialties will be introduced, and take it altogether the Burrill Comedy Company promise us a week of rare enjoyment. Seats are now on sale.

* * * * *

Only one word—big—will fit the programme at F F. Proctor's two continuous performance theatres in New York city for Christmas week. The doors Christmas Day will open at 10 a. m., and the show will continue from that hour until 11 p. m., with no cessation, making thirteen hours of rare continuous enjoyment The big features at the Proctor Palace for Christmas week are the original Boys' Hungarian Band, composed of forty wonderful midget music masters. They are the musical sensation of the age and the biggest card in New York vaudeville. Others in the Palace programme will be Press Eldridge, the black face entertainer; Conway & Leland, one-legged acrobats; Zaro and Mlle. Hilda, European contortionists, and twenty others. At Proctor's 23 1 Street Theatre, Christmas week, the leaders are Marshall P. Wilder, "Prince of Entertainers and Entertainer of Princes," who will make his reappearance in vaudeville with an entirely new monologue; Jennie Yeamans, a New York favorite, who styles herself "always original"; Bertha Welby and her company in the bright comedietta, "A Little Brick"; Joe O Hare, "The Choir Boy"; Herbert & Willing, comedians, and a score more of novelties suitable for the holidays.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

—Strictly new mixed nuts, paper shell almonds, walnuts, filberts, pecans and other varieties of choice nuts at Neuman Brothers. 12 21 2

TRY GRAIN-O! TRY GRAIN-O!

Ask your Grocer today to show you a package of GRAIN-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, like it. GRAIN-O has that rich seal brown of Mocha or Java, but it is made from pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. ¼ the price of coffee. 15c. and 25c. per package. Sold by all grocers.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it: no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,
122 East Front Street.

A GOLDEN - - OPPORTUNITY - - - - - -

Listen, good people, and you will hear
Of the wonderful things we are selling here,
At our Jeweiry Counter, near the door,
To the right as you enter our Mammoth Store.

They claim that "the pen is mightier than the sword." Be that as it may, we have pens, not to burn, but to write about, and we know whereof we speak.

First on the list are the Fountain Pens, not the "meet me at the fountain" pen, but the Celebrated Wert Pen, ranging in price from to , some of them gold tipped and everyone warranted as represented. Then we have Smith's Fountain Pen at 1.00, worth more, but that is all we ask for it.

If you want something dainty, we are able to supply you in the way of gold pens with pearl handles at a variety of prices. Just the thing for a Christmas gift.

Pencils in all gold, ebony and gold, pearl and gold and sterling silver, ranging from 50c to 6.00.

A word about the chains—If you are thinking of getting a chain for yourself or for someone for Christmas, look at ours before purchasing elsewhere We know that you will find something to suit you.

At this counter you will also find Pocketbooks, Card Cases, Belt Buckles, Jetted Belts, Steel Belts, Pearl Belts, Velvet Belts, in fact all kinds of belts.

Clocks, Vases, Fancy Hat and Hair Pins, also a large line of Silver Novelties, including Shoe Horns, Buttonhooks, Seals, etc. The same in ebony, silver tipped, Whisk Brooms, Hat Brushes, Military Brushes, Tea Strainers, Call Bells, and a variety of other goods too numerous to mention.

After you leave the Jewelry Counter you come to—

BOOKS! BOOKS! BOOKS!

"Blessings be upon the head of Cadmus or whoever else it was that invented books." If time hangs heavy on your hands we have the wherewithal to dispel that heaviness.

We will introduce to your notice David Harum, Richard Carvel, Hon. Peter Stirling, Hugh Wynne, Ben Hur, The Celebrity, Janice Meredith, Barabbas, Trooper 3809, Young Mistley, Roosevelt's Rough Riders, The Little Minister, Hope the Hermit, Rupert of Hentzau, The Sowers, Mr. Dooley, No. 5 John St., Mollie's Prince, Young April, Manders, Artie, D'Arcy of the Guards, In the Market Place, A Duet, A Double Thread, Gloria Mundi, His Grace of Osmonde, etc.

For the Boys—The Henty Books, Ellis Books, Alger Books, Rugby Series, and Little Men Series.

For the Girls—Cornell Series, Fireside Series, Wellesly Series, and Little Women Series.

2 Vol. Sets, 5 Vol. Sets, Gift Books, Bibles and Calendars.

For the Little Ones—Picture Books in an endless variety both in linen and paper.

Toys of all kinds, Dolls, Games, Drums, Horses, Dogs, Cats, Monkeys, Surprise Boxes, Dishes, Rattles, Horse Lines, Whips, Blocks and an endless amount of good things that Dear Old Santa Claus has left for the good girls and boys—at

WOOHULL & MARTIN,

234, 236, 238, 246 W. Front Street.

PECK'S CORNER.

PECK'S

. . . HOLIDAY STOCK . . .

recommends itself to those who are seeking really practical and useful presents for friends.

Merry Christmas. Happy New Year.

To those who contemplate making

Christmas Presents

I advise you to call and see the

Handsome Building Lots At Woodland Park, Plainfield.

Suited for a king or prince. Or some of our one or two acre Plots for Raising Poultry, &c. You can buy these properties at Low Prices, monthly payments guaranteed title. These properties will double in value in two or three years. Other investments to suit all.

SILAS D. DRAKE,
175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

Open Evenings — Bonn's, 140 West Front St. — Open Evenings

For Holiday Gifts,

A SILK OR FLANNEL WAIST

is a safe present to buy—nothing more acceptable. Selecting from our stock is easy buying We offer the largest assortment, our exclusive designs at prices always attractively low.

Silk Waist and French Flannel Waists, each neatly boxed at these prices.

Taffeta Silk Waists, $4.98, of lustrous, serviceable silk, dressmaker made, all the latest effects, fine cords and tucks, all sizes, these colors: cardinal, navy, royal, cerise, helio and black, only $4 98—others more elaborately tucked and hemstitched, $5 98 and $6 98.

French Flannel Waists, $2.98, stylishly made, every touch of newness, and these colors so hard to find rose, helio, grey, cardinal, navy, royal, brown, purple and black, $2 98.

French Grey Flannel Waists, $1.89.

Prettily made, stock collars flare cuffs, four brass buttons down front, French back, only $1 89.

Mercerized Petticoats, of imported Satine, that will not spot, therefore these shades are desirable: cerise, helio, royal, navy, cardinal and oxblood—one style at $2 49 has wide flounce, narrow ruffles and cords—a style at $3 39, has wide umbrella flounce, with five small ruffles.

Serviceable Satine Petticoats at 49c, 79c and $1.23.

Gold & Silver Brooches, 25c, 39c, 49c.

novel designs in Sterling Silver and rolled gold plate, some are mounted with pearls, Rhine stones and colored jewels, dainty and unique, each in separate box, 25c, 39c and 49c.

Belts and Buckles, are fashionable, every woman appreciates them as a gift. We have pretty beaded belts, in black, steel, white, and steel and black, 31c to $1 98.

Enameled Gilt Buckles, 23c to $1.25.

Cut Steel Buckles, 25c to $1 98.

Fancy Hat Pins, 19c,

of metal, filigree and gilt enameled. Many with jeweled tops, choice at 19c.

Large Velvet Hats, $1.49 and $1.69.

Tam crowns, ruffled brims, black at $1 49, any color at $1 69, or with large stitched taffeta silk bows, $2 49 and $2 69.

THE BOOT SHOP — AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,
107 Park Avenue.

Great Millinery Sale
Continued For One Week.
Two to three hundred Felt Hats that were 39c and 50c now on sale for 15c and 19c.
$5 00 hats reduced to $2 98.
Great Reduction in Birds, Feathers and Ribbons.
Millinery Parlors,
L. A. DALY,
Corner W. Front St. and Central Ave
12 6 6

CHARLES ARNOLD,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats,
POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON.
203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.
Telephone 238.

MASSAGE :-: VAPOR BATHS
CORNS REMOVED 25c.
M. V. STICKLE, 149 East Fifth St.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, Dec. 21.—The doll sale and exhibition made yesterday at the Corlell store in New Market by the ladies of Holy Innocents' Episcopal church drew a good attendance of the members of that congregation and their friends. Besides the dolls on sale there were also exhibited many dolls of mature age, some of them being the property of mothers and grandmothers of the days gone by. The proceeds of the sale were for the benefit of the Sunday school of Holy Innocents church.

The ladies of the Methodist church are arranging to give a cantata on next Tuesday night when "Santa Claus' Triump" will be sung and acted by Charles H. Gabriel. A large chorus is expected to assist the Misses Jameson in the production.

The public schools of the borough and New Market will close tomorrow afternoon for the holiday vacation. Nearly all of the out of town teachers will spend Christmas at their homes.

At the next meeting of Court Dunellen, Independent Order of Foresters, it is expected that fifteen new members will be initiated.

PLAINFIELD AND VICINITY.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, December 21.—The annual rush of holiday shoppers in town is having full sway this week. Every day there is an exodus from town of those in search of Christmas presents. Some go to New York and Newark, but the majority seem to be satisfied with the tempting bargains offered in the Plainfield stores.

The corps of teachers of the public school have arranged an appropriate Christmas entertainment to be given by the scholars in the assembly room of the building tomorrow afternoon at 1:30.

The Sacred Literature Society of the Baptist Young People's Union met in the parlors of the church last evening. "The Hope of Israel" was the subject of the evening study.

C. A. Smith & Co. have moved their coal and lumber business from the C. R. R. Co. yards to the Land Improvement Co.'s property across the way.

The regular hunting season for rabbits closes January 1st, much to the regret of the hunters in town.

Col. Stegman and family, of Grand street, are entertaining friends from Brooklyn for a few days.

Miss Susie Parse visited friends in Plainfield Wednesday.

WESTFIELD.

(Special Correspondence to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, Dec. 21—The Westfield W. C. T. U. has had such success with the Italian mission and Sunday-school that it has broadened the field and established a night school, where Italians are taught to read and write English.

At the meeting of the Township Committee to be held tomorrow evening a proposition will be received from the Eddy Electric Company for the building of an electric light and water company plant for Westfield. The idea is to have all the consumers be the stockholders of the new company.

W. E. Tuttle won the fourth prize, a handsome parlor lamp, in the Social Club bowling tournament, having rolled 161 in the roll-off Tuesday evening. Those tied for first place in the second and third classes will roll-off tomorrow evening.

The Ironclad Resistance Company is again compelled to run its works at night to fill the orders on hand.

Libraries on Their Travels.

Trenton, Dec. 21.—State Librarian Buchanan Tuesday sent out fifteen more traveling libraries, making twenty-one in all. He has six more on hand which will be sent to places applying for them. The places to which libraries were sent today are Belleville, Bloomingdale, Belvidere, Belle Meade, Pemberton, Millstone, Milburn, Hamburg, Pompton, Rivervale, Tuckahoe, Fair Haven, Penns Grove, Eatontown and Lawrenceville.

—The best is none too good for Christmas day. Order your dessert at Stephenson's, 146 North avenue.

Let me say I have used Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh and can thoroughly recommend it for what it claims. Very truly, (Rev.) H. W. Hathaway, Elizabeth, N. J.

I tried Ely's Cream Balm, and to all appearances am cured of catarrh. The terrible headaches from which I long suffered are gone.—W. J. Hitchcock, late Major U. S. Vol. and A. A. Gen., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50 cts. or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders

—The window display at Peck's is very attractive, but the inside of his store is far more so.

—Next Monday night the Christmas entertainment will be held at Mt. Zion A. M. E. church.

—Neuman Brothers, the Watchung avenue grocers, will receive fifty dozen choice celery for Xmas. 12 21 2 —At the meeting of Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. and A. M., next week Tuesday evening officers will be elected.

—One week from tonight the Common Council will hold an adjourned meeting to wind up the affairs of the city for the year.

—The members of Monroe Avenue church will celebrate the third anniversary of the organization the first Sunday in January.

—A few of the new cars for the Plainfield Street Railway arrived yesterday and are now in service. The others will be along soon.

—Drake & Mundy, 207 West Front street, will give $2 worth of trading stamps with every $1 purchase, for Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

—A great reduction in plum puddings and the largest assortment to select from at Neuman Brothers, the Watchung avenue grocers. 12 21 2

—The officers of the East Third Street Mission are preparing for the annual Christmas festivities to be held between Christmas and New Years.

—The annual Christmas festivities will be held at Muhlenberg Hospital Christmas Day afternoon, when the usual programme will be presented.

—Rev. William Jessup, of Yableh, Syria will speak on mission work in that country at the Crescent Avenue church chapel this evening at 8 o'clock.

—Next Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wm. A. Woodruff, East Second street, a Christmas tree will be lighted for the poor children of the city.

—Members of the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. will appreciate as Christmas gifts from their friends a clock, or papers and periodicals for their rooms.

—A membership in the Y. M. C. A. is suggested as a suitable Christmas gift for young men and boys, who are interested in spiritual, physical, mental or social improvements.

—Sunday afternoon, December 31st, there will be held in the W. C. T. U. rooms a meeting for the G. A. R., of this city. Rev. Dr. W. C. Nelson, of the borough, will deliver a patriotic address, and there will be special music.

—Christmas dinner should be the most cheerful of meals. Good cheer means good digestion, and there will be good cheer and good digestion if you buy your turkey, Christmas meat or game of Fred Endress, the popular butcher.

—At the present time Somerset street, from the county line to Craig place, is in a terrible condition. It is pretty hard for the oldest inhabitant to remember when that street was scraped last, and it is about time the work was done.

—At the drug store of Hepburn & Co., corner of Park avenue and Second street, there is on exhibition an aquarium which is very attractive. There are fifteen fish on exhibition, and it makes a pretty sight to see them swimming about.

—The City Steam and Hand Laundry, 19 Somerset street, keep an up-to date laundry, where all details are taken care of and they do good laundry work. Get your Christmas presents free by going to this laundry and receive trading stamps.

—The Lutheran services will be held at St. Peter's church Christmas Day as follows: German worship, with Lord's Supper celebration, at 10 a. m., Pastor A. F. Shaffer officiating. Danish exercises at 3 o'clock p. m. Prof. Menges, of Chicago, will preach.

—On New Year's day afternoon from 2:30 to 5 o'clock the usual reception will be held at Hope chapel. This is one of the events of the whole year at the chapel and it is marked by a large attendance and a good time. Lieut. Charles Scott, of Indianapolis, will be present and entertain with character sketches.

Working Night and Day

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globule of health, that changes weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain fag into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box. Sold by L. W. Randolph.

Mrs. Harry Auten, of Perth Amboy, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Young, of Central avenue.

Mrs. Brown, of West Fourth street, has been called to Pittsburg, Pa., on account of the serious illness of her son.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Lawyer J. P. D. Kirch has been out of town for a few days on business.

Miss May King, of Newark, has been visiting Plainfield relatives for a short time.

Mrs. George Ballentine, of East Second street, will spend Christmas in Philadelphia.

Fred Hui, formerly a resident of this city, was in town yesterday calling on friends.

W. W. Coriell, of West Front street, has gone south with some friends on a hunting expedition.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Creveling, of Summit avenue, are rejoicing over the arrival of a bouncing boy.

Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Cooley, of Rockview avenue, are enjoying a visit from Mrs. Morgan S. Taylor, of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bonn, of Sandford avenue, are enjoying a visit from their niece, Miss Snattuck, of New York.

Miss Kittie Ransom, of Fifth street, has taken a position at Putnam & DeGraw's dry goods store for the holidays.

Miss Margaret McCutchen, a student at Smith College, will spend the holiday season at her home on Rockview avenue.

Rev. Arthur Crane, the evangelist, is home from a tour in the south, and he will remain here until after the holidays.

Miss MacKillop, of West Front street, has secured a position as cashier and bookkeeper at the grocery store of J. A. Smith & Bro.

L. N. Lovell, of this city, has entirely recovered from the effects of an accident which he had some time ago, when he sustained an injury to his foot.

Mr and Mrs. Henry R. Phillips and Miss Phillips, of Rockview avenue, have issued invitations for a reception to be given at their home from 4 to 6 o'clock on the afternoon of Tuesday, December 26th.

A. Martell and family, of 705 West Third street, leave tomorrow for North Brookfield, Mass., where they will spend a couple of weeks at the home of Mr. Martell's father, who he has not seen for several years.

Miss Jessie Coddington, of Mountain avenue, entertained the Tuesday Night Euchre Club, of which she is a member, this week, and the usual good time was had by all the members. The prize winners were Mrs. Robert M. Clark, Miss May McLoughlin, William Morrison and Arthur A. Cannon.

The Palestine Book.

A beautifully printed and bound work, entitled "From America to the Orient," has just been issued by the publishing firm of Honeyman & Co., 181 North avenue. The book embraces thirty-four chapters, giving the detailed experiences of the Palestine party of last spring starting from Plainfield, which embraced among its members Rev. Dr. Richards, Dean Rodman, Mulford Ellis and Mrs. John Gray Foster. Twelve of the party have contributed the chapters, and they have written in an entertaining style about Italy, Greece, Egypt and the Holy Land. The camping tour in Palestine has been fully described, and this, with other features of the trip, is illustrated by more than thirty photo-engravings, most of them from photographs taken by Rev. Dr. Richards. A great many possessors of this book will be especially pleased to have the beautiful frontispiece, entitled "A Carpenter Shop in Nazareth." This famous painting was made upon order only a few years ago for the church in Nazareth erected over the reputed workshop of Joseph. It is by a French artist, Joseph LeFont, and the face of the Virgin in the picture is considered one of the most beautiful faces of the Madonna in the world. As the members of the party could not secure photographs of it in Nazareth, they gave a special order to the local photographer, who obtained permission to take it down from the side wall in order to photograph it, and this is a reproduction of that photograph. The work is sold by advance subscription, but some copies unsold may be found at the book counter at Woodhull & Martin's during the holidays. Price $1.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

AT RANDOLPH'S,

See our Window Display. CHRISTMAS GREETINGS.

Great values in choice Perfumes. Never before this opportunity. Bottle goods from 10c to $4 50.
Hair Brushes, Military Hair Brushes, prices just ½ their reg. value.
House Thermometers, large assortment. Sachet Powders in bulk, 40 cents per ounce and in packages. 10c, 15c, 35c.
Lowney's Celebrated Candies, 60 cents per pound.
Whitman's Chocolates, 40 and 80c per pound.

PLACE ORDERS EARLY.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for Lowney's Chocolate and Chocolate Bon-bons. TELEPHONE CALL 109

"PAY CASH AND SAVE MONEY" AT

V. L. FRAZEE'S,

THE PEOPLE'S CASH GROCER

151 West Front Street.

SPECIAL HOLIDAY SALE,

Commencing Friday, December 15, 1899, to January 1, 1900,

Best Elgin Creamery Butter	27c lb
Good Creamery Butter	23c lb
Best Full Cream Cheese	14c lb
Best Lard	6c lb
Fresh Jersey Eggs, guaranteed	22c doz
Best Fine Granulated Sugar	5c lb
Best Early Rose Potatoes	30c basket
Best New Citron	12c lb
Best Lemon and Orange Peel	12c lb
Best Extra Fancy Seeded Raisins,	10c pkge
Best New Cleaned Currants, 1 lb package	8c
Best New Dates	7c lb, 4 lbs for 25c
Best New Figs	12c lb
Extra Fancy Layer Raisins, for table	15c lb
Best New Brazil Nuts	8c lb
Best New Pecan Nuts	12c lb
Best New Paper Shell Almonds	22c lb
Best New Mixed Nuts	12c lb
Best New English Walnuts	15c lb
None Such Mince Meat	9c package
5 lb pail Assorted Jelly	15c pail
Best Vermont Maple Syrup	2 qt bottle 25c
Best Sugar Cured California Hams	7½c lb
Best Home-made Mince Meat,	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Best Mixed Candy,	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Loose Muscatel Raisins	8c lb
Best New Evaporated Cal. Peaches	10c lb
Fine California Prunes	5c lb
Fine Large California Prunes	7c lb, 4 lbs for 25c
Best Extra Fancy California Prunes	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Best Cape Cod Cranberries	7c quart
Paris Sugar Corn	9c can, 3 cans for 25c
Best New York State Sugar Corn	7c can
Early June Peas, Rose Bud brand,	7c can, 4 cans for 25c
Fine Small Early June Peas	10c can
3 lb Package Prepared Buckwheat	10c
Best Tomatoes, Solid Packed	7c can
Fresh Roasted Coffee, bean or ground	12c lb
Best Mocha and Java Coffee	28c lb
3 lb can Best Bartlett Pears	10c
Best Vanilla and Lemon Extract	10c bottles for 7c
Best New Orleans Molasses	30c gallon
Best Vanilla Drip Sugar Syrup	30c gallon
Best XXXX Minnesota Patent Flour	55c bag
Best Lemon Cakes and Ginger Snaps	4c lb
Uneeda Biscuit	4c package
Best Old Vinegar	10c gallon
Hunterdon County Sweet Cider, best,	15c gal

Drake & Mundy

207 WEST FRONT STREET.

TURKEYS, CHICKENS, DUCKS, GEESE,

Choice cuts of all kinds of Meats.

Prices to Suit Everybody.

$2.00 worth of Trading Stamps with $1.00 Purchase.

Mr. H. J. Johnson, the well-known Vegetable Man keeps an elegant stock of Fruits and Vegetables on hand at very reasonable prices. Will be glad to get a call from his old customers 12 21 3

OUR SPECIALTIES { Choice Teas, Fine Coffee.

All the Seasonable Goods for the Holidays. Take home one of our baskets of Fruit

Tel. 931. C. E. GULICK & CO., THE PARK GROCERS.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned

Best work for the money in town. Bids on work willingly given. Work done night or day. Get my bid before you have work done.

P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.

T. M. INGRAHAM.

S. R. STRUTHERS

offers his services as accountant. Books opened and closed. Trial balances made and Balance Sheets shown.

Call or address 544 WEST FRONT STREET. 12 13 12

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS

Paris for 1900.

Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.

Circulars at 181 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

CHAS. L. FORGE.

Architect and Superintendent.

208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 31 tf

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.

Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J.
Perth Amboy, N. J.

A Ruthless Sacrifice of TOYS : :

Nearly six thousand pieces in the lot, including a great variety of mechanical toys; tin and wood toys of all kinds; tops, horns, dolls, sets of furniture, building blocks, trains of cars, tin stoves and an endless variety of every kind of toys.

The lot is now on sale in our new basement.

Your choice for

3c each.

The values of the lot range from 5c to 50c the piece. This astonishing offer is made with a view to disposing of every toy we have on hand prompty before Xmas.

$3.49 Eiderdown filled comfortables, size 66 x 75 in., covered patterns of French satine.

$4.98 Eiderdown filled comfortables, 70 x 72 inches, covered with the best quality of French satine.

Sterling Silver Novelties . .

A very large and varied assortment of sterling silver novelties in manicure sets, pieces for writing desks, brushes, combs, stamp boxes, etc, 25c to $5.00.

Pocketbooks Every desirable kind of pocketbook can be found here, including the new finger book, 5c to $4.00.

Silver letters two inches square, the fashionable thing for marking pocketbooks - - - 25c.

Umbrellas, mufflers, handkerchiefs, gloves, hosiery, bath robes, etc. A very comprehensive assortment and make appropriate and suitable gifts.

A Talk on Overcoats.

We know how to talk about them because we make them.

Our $10 Overcoat

is made from all-wool Kersey, cassimere lined, with a shoulder yoke and sleeve lining of real satin. The style is there as well as the quality. We have them from $5.00 to $13.50. Boys' Reefers $1.75 to $4.00.

We Make All Our Clothing.

Schepflin & Schultz,

M. J. Cashin, Manager.

322 West Front St.

98c CAMERA and One Double Plate Holder as shown in our window, for only 98c . . . .

During the rest of this week we will offer CAMERAS and SUPPLIES AT COST.

. . . . COLUMBIA RECORDS . . . .

-:- 30c EACH -:-

All Goods will be sold AT COST. Remember This Week Only.

GEO. W. WRENNICK,

133 NORTH AVE.

POWERS' PHARMACY . Somerset St. Craig Place.

Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .

Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot and Tar is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

XMAS IS NEAR

Now is the time to order your Xmas greens First come, first served. Holly, laurel and Xmas green wreaths and roping; also loose holly, palms, ferns, jardinieres and wicker baskets for Xmas presents.

MRS. L. J. DENTON,

Stillman Building. Tel. call 731.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.

Capital, $150,000.

Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.

CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

DIRECTORS.

Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Closson. H. G. Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold. J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J. B. Coward.

General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Oesterreich.

Wien. Der Kaiser ernannte den Professor der Universität Marburg, Dr. Walter Jüdeich, zum außerordentlichen Professor der alten Geschichte an der Universität Czernowitsch. — Der berühmte Politiker Franz Simolka ist in Lemberg gestorben.

Abbazia. Der 35jährige Hotelier Emanuel Poinstingel ist nach Betrügereien in der Höhe von 15,000 Gulden flüchtig geworden.

Gastein. Der Fremdenverkehr in der Saison 1899 betrug 5265 Parteien mit 8620 Personen, um 500 Personen mehr als im Jahre 1898. Davon waren 3836 Oesterreicher, 2468 Reichsdeutsche, 1509 Ungarn, 157 Engländer, 128 Russen, 118 Amerikaner, 43 Afrikaner, 37 Italiener, 12 Türken, 8 Asiaten und 2 Australier.

Götzendorf. Bei heftigem Winde brach im Mühlviertel Feuer aus, dem elf Häuser und das dem Grafen Sprinzenstein gehörige Schloß Götzendorf zum Opfer fielen. Der Brand dürfte gelegt worden sein.

Gutenstein. Seit einigen Wochen lebt in den Wäldern Klosterthals ein Mann, welcher im Freien oder in Köhlerhütten übernachtet und von Rüben und Erdäpfeln lebt. Während einer der letzten kalten Nächte hatte er sich im Walde ein Feuer angezündet, wodurch Waldmoos und Nadeln in Brand geriethen, der noch rechtzeitig gelöscht werden konnte. Die Gendarmerie sucht nun nach dem Missethäter.

Franzensfeste. Endlich hat sich die Südbahn entschlossen, auf der Strecke Franzensfeste-Grasstein ein zweites Geleise zu legen. Wenn das schon früher geschehen wäre, dann wäre das letzte Unglück, dem drei Menschenleben zum Opfer fielen, nicht eingetreten. Die Kosten belaufen sich auf etwa 120,000 Gulden.

Krakau. Der Sohn des czechisch-mährischen Landtagsabgeordneten Silora, der hier als Rekrut seinem Militärdienste Genüge leistet, wurde zu drei Jahren Festungshaft und drei Jahren Nachdienen verurtheilt, weil er einen Offizier, der ihn beim Exerzieren mit dem Säbel über den Rücken geschlagen haben soll, geohrfeigt hatte.

Salzburg. Eine der ältesten Brauereien unserer Stadt, der seit 1526 bestehende Kasererbräu in der Kaigasse sammt dem Restaurant Am Schanzl, ist aus dem Besitze der Frau Therese Weismayer um 70,000 Gulden in jenen der Frau Schrems, Besitzerin der Höllbrauerei, übergegangen. Das erstgenannte Bräuhaus wird als solches aufgelassen.

Schweiz.

Bern. Der Berner Großrath ermächtigte die Regierung, die Konzession für die Loetschbergbahn zu erwerben und bei den Landesbehörden die Uebertragung der Konzession auf den Staat Bern auszuwirken.—Die Betriebseinnahmen der Jungfraubahn betrugen vom 13. Juli bis zum Oktober 84,629 Francs, die Ausgaben 19,882 Francs. Es ergibt sich also ein Ueberschuß von 64,747 Francs.

Zürich. Der Vorstand des schweizerischen Arbeiterbundes, der neben den sozialdemokratischen auch die katholischen Arbeitervereine sowie unpolitische Arbeiterkrankenkassen umfaßt, beschloß mit 17 gegen 13 Stimmen, das Referendum gegen die Kranken- und Unfallversicherungs-Gesetze zu ergreifen.

Luzern. Die Luzerner Regierung kaufte um 700,000 Francs das Frauenkloster im Bruch in Luzern mit großen Liegenschaften; es soll dort ein Centralschweizerisches Technikum errichtet werden. Die Schwestern ziehen Ende 1905 aus.

Basel. Der seit zwei Jahren in Berathung stehende Gesetzentwurf über die Errichtung einer Versicherungsanstalt für Arbeitslose ist im Großen Rathe des Kantons Basel-Stadt zur Erledigung gebracht worden und es wird der Entwurf Gesetzeskraft erlangen, falls nicht eine durch das Referendum angeregte Volksabstimmung der sozialpolitischen Neuerung das Leben aberkennt.

Graubünden. Nach einem ersten fehlgeschlagenen Versuch will Lehrer Claglüna von Samaden fünf kleine Seen im Gebirgsgebiet von Macun, Territorium der Gemeinde Lavin, nochmals mit Fischen zu bevölkern suchen. Die Seen liegen 2600 Meter über dem Meeresspiegel.—Auf einer Tour über den Paß Chapülsch, der vom Fexer Thal in's Val Malenco führt, wurden 15 Engadiner von italienischen Zollwächtern ohne Weiteres beschossen, jedoch ohne getroffen zu werden.

Wallis. Von drei jungen Engländern, die den Muveran bestiegen, glitt einer beim Abstieg aus und stürzte 100 Meter tief. Trotz schwerer Verwundungen am Kopf und an den Füßen ist sein Zustand befriedigend.

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE.
and FOURTH ST.
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill.
Turning and Scroll Sawing.

AN EDITOR'S LITERARY CHASE.

How the Author of "In His Steps" Was Finally Run Down.

Three months ago the editor of The Ladies' Home Journal concluded that his readers would doubtless be glad to read a fresh article by the author of "In His Steps," and he wrote to the Rev. Charles M. Sheldon soliciting a contribution. But editors innumerable had sought the now famous Topeka minister, and to Mr. Bok's request he sent the same reply as to the other editors. But the Philadelphia editor wrote again, a stronger and more urgent letter. Again the clergyman declined. He had written nothing since "In His Steps," and did not wish to write anything. Meanwhile Mr. Bok had gone to Europe, and Mr. Sheldon's second refusal was cabled to him. Back came the response to Philadelphia: "Spare no effort nor time to secure Mr. Sheldon, but get him." The editor's private secretary then tried his hand on the Kansas minister, but again he refused. Mr. Bok returned from abroad, and calling one of his editors directed him to see Mr. Sheldon, at Topeka if he was there, or wherever he might be. Upon reaching St. Louis the editor located Mr. Sheldon at Buffalo, and later learned that he had gone to Detroit. Starting at once for that place the editor learned at Chicago the minister had just left Detroit to rejoin his family at a summer resort in Upper Michigan. By more telegraphing, Mr. Sheldon's family was finally located at Old Mission, a most inaccessible summer resort on Travers Bay, and by the first northbound steamer the editor hurried on his journey. A voyage of a day and a night brought him to the place where he had hoped to intercept the minister, but failing to do so he embarked in a small boat for a day's sail toward his destination. At the nearest landing he pressed a farmer's team into service and drove through an almost blinding sandstorm along the bay shore—seemingly half-way across the peninsular—reaching Old Mission a few minutes before the arrival of the minister. This was too much for Mr. Sheldon. The fight was won, and in the November issue of The Ladies' Home Journal the article appears. It occupies barely a page, and the venture cost the magazine several hundreds of dollars for traveling expenses alone. But the article contains Mr. Sheldon's first words since his "In His Steps" has become famous. It answers the question which every one asks after reading the book: "Is this theory practical?" and answers it forcibly. And the magazine is content.

Story of Stevenson.

Stevenson was still a rather little boy, says Chambers's Journal, when in the Summer holidays, having been reading a number of "detective" novels of a bad kind, he was passing one Sunday afternoon along a road which led through one of the suburbs of Edinburgh, and saw a deserted house, left furnished, but without apparently a caretaker. It suddenly struck Stevenson that it would be a very gallant thing to break into this house. No one was in sight, and stealing around he found it possible to easily open a window at the back and so climbed in. It really was unoccupied, and he prowled from room to room, looking at the books and pictures until he heard, as he thought, a noise in the garden. This sent him immediately, in an instant collapse of courage, under a bed, and then terror seized him. He imagined himself pounced upon, charged with robbery, marched home with gyves upon his wrists, and arriving just as the family were assembling to attend evening services. He burst out crying and could not stop, and his sobs echoed in the empty house.

He crept out where he had crept in, having done no harm to anything except his little tender Scottish conscience. But the spirit of adventure was native to him, as exemplified in the story, and also a sort of solitude, as of a boy obliged to play by himself for want of other pirates and burglars to combine with.

Backing Up.

Not all of the driver's skill is devoted to driving ahead; it takes a good driver to be able to back up in good shape. Not every driver, by any means, can halt and then back up to a curbstone and hit it square and true with both wheels the first clip. That is something that requires more skill than might be imagined by one who had never tried it.

But in backing up on the level, if a man fails to hit the curb exactly the first time, he can manoeuvre until he does. There are places where skill must be exercised and where a level head is called for, too. For instance, in backing up, or rather, backing down, into an excavation, on the inclined causeway left for that purpose. The excavation is begun at the rear of the lot, and the earth forming the causeway, running up to the level of the street at the front, is left until the last. In the later stages of the excavating the causeway is left just wide enough at the top for the carts or wagons to move on, and its sides slope down precipitously. The driver who backs down on one of these narrow cellar causeways, simply must hit it right.

Anthony's Retirement.

Susan B. Anthony, now approaching her eightieth birthday, is preparing to retire from the presidency of the National Suffrage Association, and with characteristic zeal has set herself the task of raising half a million dollars for the use of her successors in the movement. She says:

"I shall continue to work as hard as ever, but shall devote my energies to the raising of a permanent fund of $500,000, with which to carry on the work. The interest of that sum would lubricate suffrage machinery nicely, and it is my one desire to see the needed half million raised before I die. I don't want the younger generation hampered by the lack of money, as I and my colleagues have been."

Window Guards.

Windows without guards, especially in nurseries or chambers or playrooms occupied by small children, are sources of terrible accidents. In fact, invitations to fractured skulls and sudden death. All windows to which children have access should be protected by proper fastenings inside and proper iron guards on the outside.

A AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

The Genuine Portland Range has "Portland" on oven door plate, and "A. H. Van Horn, 73 Market St., Newark, N. J." on plate below oven door—sold here only.

Presents That Last!

—Imagine, if you can, more than four acres devoted—every inch of it—to presents for all parts of the home, for old, for young! 'Tis the largest store in line in all this State—pay cash or credit—prices always BELOW any other's prices. Goods selected now, reserved 'til later—free deliveries.

How would a Rug do? or an Easel, a Music Cabinet or a Library, or a Parlor Table, a Couch, a Lamp, some Pictures, Lace Curtains or Portieres. These and MORE such things are all here—for CASH OR ON CREDIT! These goods below are chosen from different lines and specially priced:

$3.49
Value $4.50
A lot of Cherry Rockers—highly polished—high arms, saddle seat.

$5.49
Worth $8.00
Cute Cornered Chairs—in cherry—silk damask covered—very new.

$5.75
Was $8.50
A swell front, golden oak Desk—French legs—one drawer.

Now $12.98
Value $16.
A mahogany finish, Combination Desk, bevel plate mirror, spacious and new style. 50 other kinds.

$10.75
A White Enamel Dresser, plate mirror, beveled edge, $15 usually.

GET A "Domestic" Sewing Machine for a lasting gift, needn't pay cash if you want. Old machines allowed for.

Music Cabinets—all the way from $4.35 up—as goodly a line as you'll want.

STORE OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL CHRISTMAS

A Pretty Picture Book for Children to all Callers.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St., Near Plane St., Newark, N. J.
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS.
Note first name "Amos."
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agent for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER,
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phœnix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.
Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,
Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.
WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER
DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

Our Attractive Holiday Display
awaits your inspection. We are glad to welcome visitors and pleased to show our goods.
A. L. & M. D. Gorsline, 144 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS
Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.
GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.
119 East Front Street.

SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue.
BUTCHERS.
Everything usually found in a first-class market.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83 A.

Elston M. French,
Successor to VanBuren Bros.
Real Estate and Insurance.
Largest agency in the city. Loans negotiated.
163 NORTH AVENUE.
Opposite Depot

H. Eggerding,
131 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havanas. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars.

McCullough's STEAM MILL.
11 Steiner place, North Plainfield
B. H. McCullough, Prop'r
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

L. A. HUMMER,
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.
163 SOMERSET ST.
Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

But Is That All?

A little dreaming by the way,
A little toiling day by day,
A little pain, a little strife,
A little joy—and that is life.

A short-lived fleeting summer's morn
When happiness seems newly born,
When one day's sky is blue above,
And one bird sings—and that is love.

A little wearying of the years,
The tribute of a few hot tears,
Two folded hands, the fainting breath
And peace at last—and that is death.

Just dreaming, loving, dying, so
The actors in the drama go;
A fitting picture on a wall,
Love, death, the themes! But is it all?
—Paul Lawrence Dunbar.

A Fairy Grave

Let a little grave he made,
Half in shadow, half in shade,
In a quiet, kindly place,
Friendly as her face.

Let the passing fairy bird
From his airy height be heard;
Ever, ever, for that ground
Only gentle sound,

Let the singing winds, which be
Winged dream and melody,
Singing softly, by her lie,
Softly singing, die.

Let the bee which sucked the bloom
Homeward journey by her tomb,
And his tithe of sweet be paid
To her sweeter shade.

Let the low clouds, red and gold,
Mourn her on the mountain old;
Beauty; aye her guardian be,
You and Melody.

Spirits of sound and souls of flowers,
All you dearest griefless powers,
You with whom she went away,
Tend her night and day.
—John Vance Cheney, in the Century.

At Night.

At night
The whirl of life grows still;
The throbbing of the noisy mill,
The pulsing brain and hands that till,
At night grow still.

At night
The stars come out and keep
Their watch through all the hours of sleep,
O'er dreaming land and solemn deep,
And those who weep.

At night
We rise above the care
And pettiness that all must bear,
And breathe the calm and purer air
That angels share.
—Frank H. Sweet.

Toys, Toys, Toys
for the
HOLIDAYS
—AT—
HARPER'S,
411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

We are NOW receiving orders for
HUYLER'S
XMAS CANDY,
—to be delivered at—
CHRISTMAS TIME.
Remember the
Only Agency
—IS—
Leggett's Pharmacy,
Y. M. C. A. Building.
Tel. 705.

John G. Bantle,
First-class
Ladies' and Gent's
TAILOR.
428 Watchung Avenue.
Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS,
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS
GROCERY STORE.
E. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial
Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

THE WINTER MODES.

Perforated Cloth Once Again In Fashion.

Perforated cloth has come into favor again, but it is now not simply cut in patterns. The perforated design is also embroidered. This cloth is used for tunics and for entire gowns and is made over silk of a contrasting color. Black over red and black or light gray over white are the most fashionable combinations. The perforated material is often closely applied to the silk lining, the contours of the pattern being stitched to hold the two together. When it is left free, a thickness of gauze is applied under the open goods, interposing between it and the lining.

Delicately tinted silk embroidery without spangles is seen on some of the newest evening gowns.

A great deal of velvet is used for trimming, as, with the exception of lace, it is the only decoration available for materials covered with elaborate designs such as are now much seen. The other more elaborate trimmings are employed upon plain goods.

CLOTH COSTUME.

The gown depicted is of chamois cloth, and the skirt, which has a slight train, is bordered with fur and enriched with elaborate applications of mastic cloth. The coat bodice is cut away in front and forms tabs at each side. It is covered with applications like those on the skirt and closed by a large steel button. There is a valois collar ornamented with applications, as are also the sleeves. The revers are of fur, and fur also encircles the wrists. The vest is of mastic cloth with steel buttons and the cravat of white tulle. The hat of chamois felt is trimmed with a drapery of chestnut velvet and with turquoise blue quills.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

TAILOR MADE STYLES.

Stitching the Fashionable Form of Decoration.

The tailor made gown is so important a factor in the winter wardrobe that it must be again referred to, for it is the accepted costume for traveling and walking, although it does not properly appear upon elaborate or ceremonious occasions—formal calls, afternoon "at homes" and similar functions.

While retaining its conventional simplicity of material and cut, the tailor made gown is nevertheless susceptible of considerable variety and may also be decorated a great deal, provided the decoration is of a suitably reserved character. Stitching is at present the ornamentation chiefly favored, and the newest finish for a gown consists of collar, cuffs and revers of black velvet closely stitched with white silk.

SATIN TOQUE.

With a wrap or gown thus trimmed it is considered appropriate to wear a hat also stitched. It may have a flat, stitched brim or may be a toque draped with stitched material. Velvet ribbons for hat trimming are also made by folding bands of velvet double, with a stiff interlining, and stitching them lengthwise in many rows. These ribbons are used to form stiff, winglike bows.

An illustration is given which shows a toque of gray satin. The satin is laid in plaits and stitched, then draped over a shape. In front is a twist of gray velvet, passing under the brim, and there are also two erect points of gray velvet and an ornamental quill having a painted design upon it. JUDIC CHOLLET.

An Insinuation.

Hilton—Congratulate me, old fellow. Miss Sweetser has accepted me, and we are to be married next month. Only think of it! It was only a few weeks ago she declared she wouldn't marry the best man on earth.

Wilton—If she only sticks to that, you are all right.—Boston Transcript.

GEORGIE'S STORY.

He Tells How Paw Learned to Doctor the Baby.

"I Like to no," says Paw, 'How the hed of a Family Kin ern a Liven in the Day time if He Don't git no Rest at nite. Here I am paying fifteen Dollars a Weak fer a nurse what Don't seam to no Enny more about a Baby than me and Not Haff as much Becoz I had two Before this one. It's a Blame swindul, all this trained Nurse bizness they go into in the sitty. Look at our Muthers Out in the country. Thay Didn't Haft to have no Frills like these when the Fambly was Gittin so Big thay Had to Bild a naddishen onto the house Every year er so. But you Got to have a trained nurse now er thay won't Let you in Society enny more T'an of you Done your own Housework and Didn't go round tellin' Folks it was Becoz you advertized ate times fer a Hired Gurl and never got a nanser."

The nurse Told paw he wasen't Fit to be a fawther, and he was agoin' to Talk Back, only Little albert throwed a Tooth Brush at the pupp and nocked a Hole thru one of the Windows, so thay dropt the Subjict.

After Breckfust ant Fanny come in, and when she Herd about the Baby bein sick she says:

"You must stop given it that kind of food rite away. When my little Florence was borned she had the same kind of Trubble, so I fed her condensed milk and she cum thru all rite."

Purty soon Mrs. Rawson and Mrs. Pond came in.

"My good nuss," Mrs. Rawson sed when paw told Her about the Condensed milk; "Don't give her That. It would Kill the poor Little Thing. I alwais Bring my Babies up on Stunley's otes water, and Thay never Give me a Bit of trubble."

"I wouldent Dare to give no child of mine that kind of stuff," Mrs. Pond told paw. "You mite as well fead it Green Cucumbers and be Done with it. Thay ain't nothink Like Malted milk fer a Baby with the Collick, and if this nurse Had enny sentz she would of knowed it at the start."

Thay was about Half a Dozen other Ladies Come while paw was Thinken about it to tell Him what ot to Be done, and neerly all of them sed thay Had the Best Docktor on erth and paw ot to change Before it was too Late or we wouldent Have no luck with the Child.

After thay all Got thru paw went to the Basket where the Baby was Sleepin as peaceful as a Lam, and looked at it a Long time, and then He went out in the Hall, and got little albert's drum and Begin to pound it and Jump up and down and Sing git Your munny's Wurth.

Purty soon After that the Dockter come, and Him and the Nurse sneeked up Behind and the Furst thing paw new the Dockter was Holdin his arms fast to His Ides and tryin to push Him into a closet where thay wanted to Lock him up.

"Here, confound it," paw Hollered, "what are you tryin to Do?"

"Be Cam," the Dockter told Him. 'We are your friends. We are Goin to purteckt you. It's all rite."

"No, it aint," paw Hollered. "You may think it is, But I ain't Payin You three dollars a Visit to Come Here and Try to play Horse with me."

By that ime The Dockter seen paw wasent Crazy so he let go and ast what he ment by makin Such a Racket.

"I was tryin to keep the Baby awake in the Day time so it would Give a purson a Chanct to sleap a Little at nite," paw told him.

"Then I Take it all Back," the Dockter sed. "I thot the Wimmen what are alwais Cummen in and Tellen what to Do with the Babies was the Worst fools on earth, But they aint." GEORGIE.

—In Chicago Times-Herald.

An Extinguisher.

Thump, thump! Rattle, rattle, crash! Young Percey Stonebroke rolled down the steps of the palatial residence of Mr. Goldbonds.

Mr. Goldbonds returned to the house, rolling down his sleeves.

"Papa, oh, papa, what have you been doing?

This question came in anguished tones from the ruby lips of Arabella Goldbonds.

"Putting out the light of your life," answered papa, who had done a little eaves-dropping in the hall the night before.—Baltimore American.

Natural Results.

"I understand that many of the volunteers in the Philippine Islands are getting married," said Cawker.

"It would not be strange if some marriages followed so many engagements," added Cumso.—Detroit Free Press.

Couldn't Be Disputed.

Hoax—There goes a woman whose husband has had one foot in the grave for many years.

Joax—Why, I thought he was dead.

Hoax—So he is, but he was a one-legged man.—Philadelphia Record.

An Early Attraction.

Overheard in the Garden of Eden—Adam—Where's your mother? I'm getting tired of waiting for my supper.

Little Cain—She went out about four hours ago, and said there was a bargain sale at the fig-leaf counter.—Philadelphia Record.

Trop de Zele.

Proprietor (to editor)—Well, the first number of our new paper looked well, but here is one thing I don't like.

"What?"

"Why, this communication signed "An Old Subscriber."—Collier's Weekly.

Well Recommended.

He—So Miss Prettyface really married old Moneybags! Whatever induced her to do it?

She—She found out from his doctor that he positively has incurable heart disease.—New York World.

A Leisure Class Ornament.

"What a petted air your cat has, Mrs. Slimmer."

"Yes; she used to catch mice—think of it! But we've fed her so well that she quit."—Indianapolis Journal.

Safe.

'Disgraceful! I should think society would turn him down."

"No danger of that. He's one of the 'high lights.' "—Philadelphia Bulletin.

THE "SPEAKING STATUES."

Suppositions and Beliefs of the Ancient Egyptians in Regard to These Gods.

M. Gaston Maspero, the well-known French Egyptologist, has recently written an interesting article on the "speaking statues" of ancient Egypt. He says that the statues of some of the gods were made of jointed parts and were supposed to communicate with the faithful by speech, signs and other movements. They were made of wood, painted or gilded. Their hands could be raised and lowered and their heads moved, but it is not known whether their feet could be put in motion. When one of the faithful asked for advice their god answered either by signs or words. Occasionally long speeches were made, and at other times the answer was simply an inclination of the head. Every temple had priests whose special duty it was to assist the statues to make these communications. The priests did not make any mystery of their part in the proceedings. It was believed that the priests were intermediary between the gods and mortals, and the priests themselves had a very exalted idea of their calling. They firmly believed that the souls of divinities inhabited the statues, and they always approached them with religious fear and reverence.

These priests would stand behind the statues and move their heads or hands or speak for them, never doubting that at that moment their movements and words were inspired by the divine spirit dwelling in the statues. The statues were regarded as so very much alive that in war they shared the fate of those people whose deities they were. They were taken prisoners, condemned to death or given into slavery—in other words, placed in the temples of the conquering gods. If they were returned to their own temples, they bore inscriptions testifying to their defeat and imprisonment.

How Fishes Breathe.

Fishes breathe, as is well known, says Ulric Dahlgren in the Princeton Bulletin, by passing a stream of water through the oral cavity, in at the mouth and out by two lateral openings, the gill clefts. This is accomplished by a rhythmic motion, plainly visible, the nature of which, however, has never been accurately described, our best text-books of ichthyology calling it "swallowing," "an act similar to swallowing," &c.

The writer's discovery of two membranous valves just inside the teeth has made possible the following concention of the breathing of teleost fishes.

The construction and operation of the fish's apparatus is that of a perfect two-valve pump. In such a pump there must be a chamber which possesses two openings, each guarded by a valve. The forces necessary to operate such a structure are three (or six) in number: First, a force so applied as to alternately contract and expand the chamber; second, a force to alternately shut and open the posterior (exit) valve; third, a force to alternately shut and open the anterior valve. These valves must be operated in proper sequence to the expansion and contraction of the chamber. The valves may be operated either by separate mechanism or by the automatic action of a current passing through the chamber.

It is to this latter point that attention is called in the case of the fish. Here we find a chamber (the oral cavity) and two openings, the mouth (anterior opening) and the double gill opening (posterior opening). Muscular force is applied to expand and contract the oral cavity. But no such direct application of muscular force is needed to open and close the anterior and posterior openings. This is done automatically by the branchiostegal valves in the gill opening (or posterior opening), and by the maxillary and mandibular breathing valves in the mouth opening (or anterior opening).

The fish is thus not required to use separate muscles to close and open the passages, but the loss of energy due to friction and retarded momentum on the valves must be added to that required to expand and contract the oral cavity. It is simply a mechanical economy such as is found in the heart.

Imitation Jewels.

One of the prima donnas at the New York opera house wears in one role a beautiful parure of diamonds, and she horrified another singer in the company by telling her that they were French imitations that had not cost one-fiftieth of what they seemed to have cost.

The other woman was distressed because all of hers were real, and the thought of the money invested in them was too much for her.

Imitation jewels have come to be so finely made that detection is almost impossible. Even for ordinary wear they are accounted beautiful, and it is only the knowledge of their falsity which makes them unpopular. For every ordinary purpose they are as useful as the genuine pieces.

The last jewels to be imitated with wonderful success are rubies, and they happen to be a fashionable stone just now. The manufactory which has these imitation rubies on the market is situated in London, and it has already been said there that the price of real rubies will certainly fall in consequence of the discovery of these wonderful imitations. The profits of the company making the rubies are said to be $185,000 a year.

Artificial rubies weighing 40 carats can be produced, but are not, as there would be no sale for stones of that size. An authority has said that there is no way known to him by which these stones can be told from the genuine ones.

Aphorisms.

Sorrow's best antidote is employment.—Young.

A stout heart may be ruined in fortune, but not in spirit.—Hugo.

Sooner or later the world comes round to see the truth and do the right.—Hillard.

Though familiarity may not breed contempt, it takes off the edge of admiration.—Hazlitt.

Sometimes a noble failure serves the world as faithfully as a distinguished success.—Dowden.

Nothing is so haughty and assuming as ignorance, where self-conceit sets up to be infallible.—South.

XMAS SLIPPERS!

SHOES, RUBBER BOOTS,
DRESS SUIT CASES. TRAVELING BAGS.

The Largest Stock to select from. The most useful and suitable
CHRISTMAS PRESENT.

DOANE & EDSALL.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.

at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use

REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT,
Made only by
T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,
At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

Sterling Silver Novelties.

In addition to our extensive showing of sterling silverware we have added a new assortment of silver sets complete, enclosed in leather cases. These are very beautiful goods, of the best quality and are priced very moderately—Sterling Novelties as low as 25c, 39c, 49c 59c, 75c, 98c.

HANDKERCHIEFS—New lines have been added to our splendid showing of handkerchiefs, making a truly bewildering assortment. Some decidedly good values are offered at 10c, 12½c and 15c.—One lot of pure linen embroidered handkerchiefs at 25c each is worthy of attention.

WOMEN'S KID GLOVES—69c, 79c; warranted gloves, 1.00, 1.25, 1.50.

UMBRELLAS—75c to 3.50.

MACKINTOSHES FOR WOMEN—3.50, 4.50—MISSES' SIZES—2.49, 3.75.

EIDERDOWN SACQUES—1.00, 1.39, 1.75, 2.25.

I. LEDERER.

FALL OPENING.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.

OUR STOCK COMPLETE

We are now ready to fit either man or boy in Suits, or Overcoats, Hats and Gent's Furnishings.

Boys' Suits from 75c to $5.00.

Men's Suits from $2.00 to $20.00.

Have you tried a pair of our Celebrated Cassimere Pants at 98c the pair, if not do so—they are the talk of the town; sold over 1,000 pairs the past season; never rip and fit to perfection. Give us a call.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,

206 West Front Street.

7000 BU of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last. Order Quick.

Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

M. Molnar,
432 Watchung Ave.,
Ladies' and Gents'
FINE TAILORING
Graduate of
New York Cutting School.
Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with old clothes and I will take chances of being entrusted with new work.

Ladie Desiring . .
KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING
done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 208 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

OUR OYSTERS
ARE THE
---FINEST---
ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Garle.)
Carpenter and Builder
15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to.

: : Pride's Tonsorial Parlor : :
94 SOMERSET STREET,
opposite Somerset Hotel.
Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty . . . . .
CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.
-: WILLIAM J. PRIDE, :-
formerly with E. B. Maynard.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Street
Interior decorating a specialty. Good work—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11

E. D. BARRETT,
Sanitary Plumbing,
Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Telephone 612. 148 East Fifth Street.

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street,
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store 126 Park avenue. 10 1

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md. Subscriptions to The Patent Record, $1.00 per annum

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort
Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall Streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 29, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 46, 9 16, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 55, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 06, 7 39, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12.00 m, 12 58 1 45, 2 40, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 9 34, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m; 1 01, 2 08, 3 20, 4 32, 4 35, 5 03, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sundays 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaquua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8.52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37, p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m., 1 17 night Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked *) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov 19, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD N J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 219 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.

Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.

Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.

Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.

Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.

Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4, and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket time-tables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.
FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent,
218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

. L. Manning & Son.
STEAM
GRANITE WORKS.
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low

---

XXXX QUALITY
FINEST
LOFOTEN COD LIVER OIL,
Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.
Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at
39c per Pint.
For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at
50c per Bottle,
or the Tasteless at
75c per Bottle.
THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,
Hepburn & Co.,
Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,
213 WEST FRONT ST.
Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

OPEN EVENINGS. FURNITURE.

Wouldn't a clean finished, well-made piece of Furniture make an ideal Christmas present?

FURNITURE. Jardinier Stands from 50c to $5.00.

POWLISON & JONES,
149 and 151 E. Front Street.

WANTED
25 Mechanics

and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.

Agent on the Grounds
SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.

. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

Holiday Goods.

Why you should see our assortment; a walk through our store will be the easiest way to solve the problem of what to get for presents for young and old.

Our line of fancy articles consists of everything imaginable in Celluloid, Plush and Glass Ware.

Handkeachiefs, gloves, neckwear, hosiery, umbrellas and dress goods of all kinds and all prices. Furs and worsted goods of every description.

DOLLS . . .

Dolls of all kinds can be found on our doll counter, our assortment is bewildering in their novelty, extent and attractiveness. Our prices are lower than any other house will quote for the same article.

TOYS -:- -:-

Our Toy Department in the basement is larger than ever before. No such collection was ever gathered here before, and it is safe to say there is no better stock in town in point of variety, there is no stock in town that equals ours in prices that's certain.

Children's velocipedes, tricycles, battleships, iron toys of all kinds, tool chests, wash sets, soldier sets, dishes, horse and wagons, chairs, printing presses, electric batteries, express wagons, magic lanterns, etc.

I. H. Boehm, 109-111 113 West Front Street

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW,
THE GROCER.
Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.
Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops
Wieda's
Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda
Manufactured at the Premises,
144 West Front St. Phone. 1133.

DOLGE FELT SLIPPERS
are the best and they make the best
CHRISTMAS GIFTS.
And a pair of the "VanArsdale Shoes" would be a sensible gift, too.
Van Arsdale,
127 E. Front St.
Shoes for Everybody at Popular Prices.

BUY YOUR PHONOGRAPHS,
Gramophones, Records and Supplies
A GOOD MACHINE AT $5.00.
BROKAW'S . . .
The Piano Dealer, 123 East Front Street.

COLOR OF RAGE.

Discovery That Red Affects Men Similarly to Animals.

Why does the bull so strongly object to a red rag? While the professional physiologists do not, as yet, appear to have found any satisfactory explanation of the fact, a French manufacturer of photographic materials professes to have discovered that bulls are by no means the only members of the animal kingdom who are excited by anything red. A large number of hands are employed in the manufactory, both male and female, and most of the work has hitherto been performed in rooms to which all the light that was admitted came through panes of red glass. Hardly a day passed without some terrific disturbance taking place among the workpeople. Now it was a duel almost to the death between two of the men, now between two of the women; sometimes the melee was general. "Workshop regulations" were absolutely ignored, and no amount of fines or other punishments seemed to have any permanent deterrent effect. This state of affairs was assumed, until recently, to be inseparable from work carried on in uncomfortable conditions. At length it occurred to some bright spirit that the red panes of glass might be at fault, and it was decided to try what the effect of green panes would be. The effect was instantaneous. From that day a sudden peace fell upon the whole workshop that had never been known before. Bickering and fighting ended as if by enchantment, and voice of man or woman was never heard raised above a whisper.

Flower's Experience in Congress

The late Roswell P. Flower, of New York, used to tell some amusing stories of his Congressional experience.

"The House of Representatives is the only place I ever got into where money didn't count," he remarked the last time I saw him, two months or more before his death. "A rich man is actually handicapped there. In the first place, a country member is naturally prejudiced against the Representatives from the city, particularly those from New York city. They seem to think that the New Yorkers are a lot of highwaymen. You find the same spirit in national conventions and State legislatures, and the fact that a city delegation wants something is a good reason why a countryman should vote against it. The easiest way to kill a bill in Congress is to have the New York Chamber of Commerce send in a memorial asking its passage. Then every countryman will vote against it sure.

"When the city member is rich that makes him all the worse. During the first session I was in Congress I spent more than $10,000 trying to convince my fellow members of the House of Representatives that I was a good fellow. I gave them dinners and wine and picnics and set it up for them every chance I got, and while they enjoyed it as much as anybody, it only made them suspicious. They could not understand why I should spend my money entertaining them without some base motive behind it. I was a city man representing a country district. In other words I was a wolf in sheep's clothing, and they were very shy of me. I didn't ask anything of anybody. I only wanted to be popular and give the boys a good time, but the more I spent on them the worse they got.

"Toward the close of the first session," continued Mr. Flower, "after everybody in the House had accepted my hospitality and drunk my wine and eaten my terrapin, I tried to get a bill passed—a bill giving a pension of $12 a month to a poor old woman up in my district, whose husband and son had died during the war. The cost of one of my dinners would have paid her that pension all the rest of her life. Somehow I couldn't get that bill up for a long time, and when I did get it up pretty nearly everybody on the Democratic side voted against it. I went over to Joe Blackburn and I said: 'Joe, why in the old Harry don't you fellows vote for my bill?' and he took me over in the corner and gave some good advice. He opened my eyes to the situation, but I didn't believe him. I could not conceive that the Democratic members of that House were such confounded fools as to suspect me of trying to play them for suckers, and I says, 'Here, Joe, you take that bill and see if you can get it through.' Darned if he didn't call it up the next day during the morning hour, and it passed without objection; but if they had known it was my bill it wouldn't have got a vote.

"This feeling wore off after a while. They found out that I wasn't a highwayman or a conspirator, but just an ordinary good fellow."

Curious Christian Names

I remember hearing the following story from the late Canon Bardsley, author of "English Names and Surnames." There was once a woman—"a little 'cracky,' I think," said the Canon, by way of parenthesis—who had a son whom she had christened "What." Her idea seems to have been that when in after days he was asked his name, and kept saying "What," amusing scenes would follow, which was likely enough, especially if the boy was careful to pronounce the aspirate. Such a scene did, I believe, occur once when he went to school, and was told, as a newcomer, to stand up and furnish certain particulars. "What is your name?" asked the teacher. "What," blurted out the boy, amid the laughter of the class. "What is your name?" asked the master again, with more emphasis. "What," replied the boy, "Your name, sir!" roared out the infuriated pedagogue. "What, What!" roared back the terrified urchin. The sequel I forget, says a writer in Notes and Queries, but I believe it was one of those cases in which the follies of the parents are visited on the children of the first generation.

We Filter Foreign Water.

Most of the great water filters now in use by large industrial institutions in all parts of the world are the product of this State. The largest of these is the filtering plant in St. Thomas, Canada, which has a capacity of 3,000,000 gallons daily. Other large plants from New York are in New South Wales, Columbia, Norway, Germany, Russia and Siberia.—New York Sun.

"I understand you were drunk again Saturday night."

"Nop. You're misinformed. It was merely a renewal of previous drunk."

SPORTING.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The Daily Press Bowling League

	Games Won.	Games Lost.	Highest Score.
Park Club	3	0	864
Roselle Casino	2	1	837
Westfield Club	1	2	826
Cranford Casino	0	3	765

The Cranford Casino has a wonderful bowler in Mr. Sharp. Only a few weeks ago, he made a record for the Casino alleys in Cranford that is not to be equalled for miles around. He was rolling in a match between two teams composed of club members and took his turn with the rest. His total score was 298, just two pins less than an absolutely perfect score. He made a strike every time until, on the last ball rolled in the windup, he failed to get two pins. The remarkable score brought the audience to their feet and the final ball was rolled amid a whirlwind of applause.

The next game to be rolled in The Daily Press Bowling League is between the Park Club and the Roselle Casino on the latter's alleys this evening. The game is a particularly important one to both clubs The Park Club has high aspirations this year and is particularly anxious to end the season at the top of the heap. As winner last season of the Journal trophy, the Roselle team can be fairly looked on as the chief obstacle in the way of the Park's success. Roselle is considered almost invincible on her own alleys and so, if the Parks are enabled to defeat last year's champions on their own ground, there is every reason to believe that the Parks will succeed in the end. If the Parks win one game out of the three, it will leave the Park Club and Roselle tied for first place in the league with four won and two lost each. Three straight for Roselle will put the Parks back with Westfield, while two or three victories for the Parks would keep them in the lead. Now three straight from Roselle on her own alleys is something that the most sanguine hardly dare hope for. Two out of three is better and is within the bounds of possibility. However it turns out, the result will be watched with interest by the bowlers all over the country.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—A box of fine cigars or a pipe will prove an excellent Christmas present to your friend who enjoys a smoke. Dobbin's, the cigar manufacturer and dealer on North avenue, can supply your wants.

—You will find at Neuman Brothers, the popular grocers, all varieties of nut meats, Jorden almonds, stuffed dates, fancy table raisins, choice Malaga grapes and all varieties of canned fruits, stuffed prunes and choice figs. 12 21 2

—Eggerding, the Park avenue cigar dealer, carries a full line of articles for smokers, and if you are at a loss to know what to purchase a gentleman friend for Christmas, you may find it at Eggerding's—if your friend enjoys a good smoke.

—"Bonn," of Front street, says a shirt waist for a gift is sure to be acceptable and appreciated. Besides millinery, he has other useful and ornamental things for gifts. His advertisement in this issue shows plainly that he believes in advertising.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Clementine R. Yates, of East Seventh street, who has been spending the past six months in New Hampshire and Maine, has returned home benefitted by a much-needed rest.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on L. W. Randolph, Druggist, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

What Can You Do With It?

This is a question we can answer better after we have seen the garment you want dyed. When our wagon is in your neighborhood, let it bring your goods to the store and then, at your convenience, come in and let us tell you just what we can do and the cost. Don't be prejudiced against dyeing. Ofttimes you can't tell the goods from new.

HILLIER & CO.,
129 West Front Street,
Opposite Crosby & Hill's. 'Phone 851.

NOW RESTS WITH JURY.

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

entrance. In response to Mr Dungan's questions, she said she could not tell who had the revolver, she only saw it in someody's hand through the window.

Regarding the identity of the other man who aided in lifting the log, she did not think he had been on the witness stand, but she didn't know. it all happened so quickly. She was very positive, however, that it was the others with the log and not Clark alone who had forced the door. After some unimportant testimony, her examination was concluded at 2:50 o'clock.

The next witness was Mrs. Augustine Clemenz, next door neighbor to the Fingerhuths in Washington Valley. She spoke in French, and Miss Elize Duveruey, of Somerville, acted as interpreter. She told of the visit of Edward O. Clark to the Allen homestead the afternoon of the shooting. She was close by at the time and went into the house, remaining there until the party returned with the elder Clark and Roehricht. "When they came," she said, "they took a long stick and pushed it so hard that the house shook."

Mrs. Fingerhuth was greatly frightened and cried "My God, they are going to kill me" Mrs. Clemenz said that she told Mr. Roehricht that she wanted to go away. He told her to go. Her children were with her. She started to go and sent her children again when she heard Roehricht say to Clark "Go in, very quick." She said that Dembowski and another man, whom she had not seen at the trial, carried the long stick. She heard the report and saw Roehricht fall, but there was a tree between her and the house, and she could not see who fired the shot. She afterwards brought a a cushion to put under Roehricht's head and gave him some water. On cross examination she did not make a strong witness.

Her husband, Emil Clemenz, was summoned. He remembered seeing Roehricht, Clark and party driving to the Allen homestead the afternoon of the shooting. They drove "like the devil," he said. He identified the log produced in court as the one he had found lying close to the house.

Oscar Fingerhuth, the twenty-year-old son, one of the defendents, took the stand as the fifth witness for the defence. He spoke English fairly well. He told the same story as the others regarding the circumstances leading up to the shooting. He purchased the revolver, he said, at the request of his father. He told of the trip to Justice Mattison's office and his return home to be arrested when he reached there. He denied meeting Benjamin Duer, as the latter had testified, and declared that he had told him nothing. He refuted part of Constable Pangborn's testimony regarding his statement made after his arrest. He then admitted, however, in having told his mother that she must defend herself.

On his return to the house after the shooting, he said he found that the lock had been forced off the door. The lock to the middle door was damaged. Cross-examination failed to bring out any new facts.

Henry Clemenz, a little lad of eleven years, son of Emil Clemenz, was called but the defence changed its mind and he was not put on the stand.

Joseph Mattis, an employe at the stone quarry at Washingtonville, saw a party of men driving by with revolvers in their hands. He didn't remember the men nor the horses and didn't think they were driving fast.

William G. DeMeza, one of the attorneys for the defence, was the next witness. At this point, Alvah Clark turned the examination of the witness over to Walter L. Hetfield. He testified to having been summoned to the Allen homestead on September 11th, and there arranging with Rob't M. Clark for Fingerhuth's appearance before Justice Mattison. He drove down to Plainfield with Clark, he testified, and that at Washingtonville Dembowski and Bartell's were left behind together with one or two revolvers, he wasn't sure how many, and an axe. After a little quibble over the question of admissable evidence, the court adjourned at 4:05 o'clock until this morning at 10:15 o'clock.

The attendance at the trial yesterday afternoon was the largest since the case opened. Every seat was filled and many were standing. Aside from the witnesses and an interpreter there were ten women present. One was Mrs. Frank A. Somers, wife of the county clerk, who occupied a seat in side of the railing.

The Fingerhuths occupied their usual seats when not on the witness stand, but they did not look as bright as usual. When one of the family was on the stand the others listened intently. When the son was on the stand Theodore Fingerhuth was particularly nervous, and kept nodding or shaking his head and pulling his beard. Mrs. Fingerhuth was still nervous, but restrained her emotions and did not break down again. After her testimony the rocking chair was moved from the witness stand to the place where the prisoners were sitting and she continued to occupy it during the remainder of the session

To Cure Constipation in One Week
To Purify the Blood in One Week
To Strengthen Nerves in One Week
To Cure Sick Headache in One Day

Take Cleveland's Celery Compound Tea, 25c. Trial size free. It it fails to cure your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary corner Park and North avenues.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

Census taking in Bound Brook next year will be attended with no little personal peril, if the following list of inquiries printed by The State Centre, have to be put to citizens regardless of their size and toe power:

How much do you earn? How much do you spend? Do you smoke twofers? How many chickens have you? And are they on foot or in the shell? Do you earn your own living? Do you live with your mother-in-law? How many children have you? And do you keep a dog all the year except when the Assessors come around? Do you move often, and if so, is it because the chimney smoked, or that there were no new groceries opened in the neighborhood? Do you have to stay home and mend your pants because your wife has gone to the Indian meeting to see about getting pants for the Injuns? Are you a member of the Daughters of the Revolution, and if so, if that ragged old hero for whom you wear the blue ribbon were to come around now, would not you make him eat in the woodshed and sleep in the barn? Do you believe in the gold standard, and if so, how much have you? Do you still continue to pass 50-cent dollars on the washer-women and tradesmen, and if so, aren't you ashamed of yourself or won't you be until the next Presidential election? Did you have turkey for Thanksgiving dinner, and where did you steal it, or did you just hang the butcher up for it? Do you take a country newspaper, and do you think it wise to pay for it?

* * * * *

In travelling nowadays among the local stores one sees many queer sights. Of course, during the day the stores are filled mostly with women who are busily engaged buying Christmas presents, and it is really amusing to watch them make their purchases. Some get along in a quiet easy manner, while others make lots of trouble for themselves and everybody nearby. They seem determined to make their presence felt, and they succeed. A few days ago one of Plainfield's women, accompanied by her young daughter of the inquisitive and persistent age, visited one of the large stores. The little girl made her mother's life miserable for a time and hindered her very much in making purchases. She wanted a certain article that caught her eye, and nothing else would do. Her mother said she could not have it as she had no money to spend for it. This did not discourage the little girl, and she took particular pains to inform her mother, so that everyone nearby could hear, that she did have money, and she would like to have that certain article. This was more than the mother could stand, and she led her offspring to the rear part of the store, ostensibly on an errand of much haste, but really one of great importance. When the destination was reached the little girl was placed across the mother's knee and given a good sound spanking of the original sort. She then was able to proceed on her journey. The spanking had the desired effect for the girl walked along in a meek and mild way as though nothing had happened, and she never once thought of again asking for that certain article. Those who saw the performance could not help but laugh, but they agreed that the mother did the right thing and in the right place.

Red Hot From the Gun

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible Ulcers that no treatment helped for 20 years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Boils, Felons, Corns, Skin Eruptions. Best Pile cure on earth. 25cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

Out of Existence.

President Smith, of the Reform Club, desires The Daily Press to state that the Woman's Temperance Aid Association is out of existence. He says that the News makes frequent mention of meetings held by them, and it is untrue. These meetings are held under the auspices of the Reform Club.

Judge Vail Home Again.

County Judge Vail returned to Rahway Monday from a week's hunting trip in Virginia, and reports game as plentiful in that section. His shooting expedition was successful and he brought home a fine lot of game, as did Dr. Walter E. Cladek, who accompanied him.

—Special desserts for Christmas, Stephenson's, 146 North avenue. 2

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

REMMISCENCES OF HOBART.

Former Mayor Place Well Acquainted With the Late Vice President.

Now that Garrett A. Hobart, our late lamented Vice-President, has been laid at rest, I feel as one who knew him well, from my acquaintance formed during the heated political contest in 1880, that I have a right and deem it a privilege to give some reminiscences concerning him.

It was my privilege in 1880, '81 and '82 to be a member of the Republican State Committee, and one of the executive committee of that committee. Mr. Hobart was made chairman, succeeding F. A. Potts, and some of the best men from among the older political leaders were members of it, such as Mr. Conger, of Newark, Gardner R. Colby, of Morristown, Comptroller Anderson, of Trenton, and John Y. Foster, of Newark, who was its secretary. James A. Garfield and General Hancock were the candidates for President, and Frederick H Potts and George C Ludlow candidates for Governor. Mr. Potts' candidacy called forth the full energy of the party leaders, as no Republican candidate for Governor had before, and General Garfield did the same thing. Mr. Hobart was exceedingly anxious that Mr. Potts should carry the State, as he was that General Garfield should. The great interest as a member and chairman of the State Committee, as well as his personal friendship for Mr. Potts, nerved him to forsake everything else, and throw himself in the contest.

Our headquarters were at the Taylor House in Jersey City, and the executive committee met twice a week after the campaign opened. Mr. Hobart was in attendance at every meeting. At the same hotel, on the same floor and at the other end of the hall, the Democratic State committee had its headquarters. One day some member of our committee asked Mr. Hobart what he thought would be the effect of the close proximity of the two committees. "Well, gentlemen," said he, "I think the gentlemen who are against us will endeavor to, and probably will, get some of our secrets, but we must keep even with them. I would advise, however, that our committee keep its own counsel and not flock too much with the gentlemen at the other end of the hall."

It was during this campaign that the first house-to-house canvass probably was ever made by our party in this State, under the advice of Mr. Hobart, and ably managed by him and Secretary Foster. And so well was that canvass made, when the committee met Friday preceding the election day in 1880, that every evidence was that Mr. Potts would be elected, and a close racee between General Hancock. As is well known our opponents only carried the State by a very small majority, when they usually had from 5,000 to 13,000, or more sometimes.

The next National campaign, when Mr. Blaine was the Republican candidate, found Mr. Hobart a member of the National Republican committee and remained on it until he was twelve years after nominated for Vice President. Mr Cleveland was the Democratic candidate and Mr. St. John the Prohibition candidate, and his friends knowing he had no chance of election were working hard to defeat Mr. Blaine, which they accomplished. One day I called at the Republican headquarters in New York city, and said to Mr. Hobart, in my judgment the Prohibition vote was to be a mighty factor in the contest, and asked him if it were not possible for his committee to get Mr. St. John in some way out of the canvass. Turning to me with fire in his eye, a fire of indignation, he said, "Place, we have done all we possibly could to accomplish that very thing, but the Democrats have succeeded in blocking our game." "Do not," said he, "let the Republicans lay awake nights on that account, we are going to elect Mr. Blaine in spite of the Prohibition vote." As is well known he came near being correct in his prediction, for Mr. Cleveland was only elected by carrying New York State by less than twelve hundred votes.

Mr. Hobart later on made another prediction which came true. Soon after the last election when Leon Abbott was elected Governor of this State, I met him in New York and said to him, "Mr. Hobart it seems discouraging for the Republicans to fight in New Jersey against such odds. We spend our time and money each canvass for nothing, for almost invariably our opponents carry off the prize." Looking me squarely in the face he said: "As sure as the sun rises in the east and sets in the west, New Jersey is soon destined to become a Republican State, and Leon Abbett will help make it so."

Personally Mr. Hobart was a very attractive man. His political judgment was equal to any man in his party, and he became a power in the National counsels. It was an admirable thing for the American press and American people, irrespective of party, to laud a man whose honesty and integrity was of such a high degree, as to call forth such commendation at the end of a pure and noble life.

Chas. Place.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—Nearly one-quarter of a ton of Huyler's choice candy has been received at Leggett's pharmacy for the holiday trade.

—Benjamin Hand, the Front street stationer, is well supplied with a stock of Christmas goods. If you call you will surely see something you want. He makes a feature of extra fine writing paper.

Juniors to Have a Tree.

One week from this evening Franklin Council, No 41, Jr. O U A M., will celebrate Christmas. There will be a tree and every members will receive a present. At the business meeting there will be some important matters to be considered.

OUT OF SEASON.

Yet It Is Rather Funny and From Detroit.

The colored domestic sat on the back step peeling peaches the other day, says the Detroit Free Press

The colored coachman approached, sat down on the bottom step and watched her. She had only recently arrived from the south and the peach was a new sort of fruit to her.

"How you laks peacheses?" asked her companion.

"Ah finks dem bees fine," she answered, "but dem seeds does scratch in a pusson's frout pow'ful bad."

Death of Romance.

"These sky-scraping flats have knocked the stuffing out of romance," said the young man.

"Yes," said the other young man, "they have. Fancy serenading a girl who lived in the fifth story with a brass band and a megaphone!"—Indianapolis Journal.

Got Home by Accident.

"Dad's been runnin' fer office ten years steady," he said, "but the other day he lost his way an' run against home, breakin' his head in a sorter head-on collison, an' the family hauled him in an' shook han's with him, and mammy put on her specs an' hollered: "Goodness gracious! how you has changed!"—Atlanta Constitution.

A Practical Point.

Scorcher—How would you punctuate "Look at that pretty girl in her automobile come spinning down the avenue?"

Putter—That's easy; comma after "pretty girl" and after "automobile."

Scorcher—I would rather make a dash after "that pretty girl."—Automobile Magazine.

Automobile Talk.

"He has a great faculty for putting the cart before the horse."

"Oh, I wouldn't say that. Say he has a habit of trying to make the wheels run the motor."—Automobile Magazine.

Didn't Suit Her.

Mrs. Neighbors—I understand your cook has given you notice. What's the trouble?

Mrs. Suburban—I don't know; but I think she doesn't like my cooking. —Chicago News.

A Sure Cure.

Doctor—I'm afraid your wife isn't going to pull through.

Husband—Oh, yes, she will. I told her I already had her successor picked out in case she didn't get well.—Chicago News.

Light on the Subject.

"Have you any nice light bread," asked a prospective customer in a bake shop.

"Yes'm," replied the new boy; "we have some nice pound loaves that weigh only ten ounces."—Chicago News.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.
TELEPHONE 722.
MAZE EDWARDS, - Lessee and Manager.

Reserved Seat Tickets at Box Office, which is open daily from 9. a. m.

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS MATINEE,
One Solid Week, Commencing
MONDAY, DEC. 25, 1899.
Re-engagement of the popular
Burrill Comedy Company,
Supporting LAURA H LEBRT,
in a repertoire of standard scenic productions—
Monday afternoon, "A Flag of Truce."
Monday evening, "The Design."
Prices—10c, 20c and 30c. Seats now on sale.

GEO W. COLE.
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,
20 W. [illegible] TELEPHONE 153.
[illegible] DAY AND NIGHT

WANTS AND OFFERS.

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Inquire 917 Watchung avenue. 12 21 2

BARRED and White Plymouth Rock, White Leghorn and White Wyandotte Cockerels, from our famous prize winning strains, cheap. Plainfield Poultry Farm Co., 79 Somerset street. 12 20 6

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

YOUNG man wanted to work on farm. Call on Mr. Perret, Washington Rock Road. 12 21 2

WANTED—Eight to ten room house, about $3 000. Give all particulars. Address S. B. A., care Press. 12 19 3

Great Price Reductions

on Men's Overcoats and Suits, as well as on Boys' and Children's Suits, Overcoats and Trousers. There never was a busier season with us as we have had for the last three months, therefore we had to purchase very largely all through the season, made it a very large accumulation of odd suits and overcoats leaving us from 2 to 5 garments of each style and in order to close out this entire lot we have marked them down to such tremendously low prices that we expect to make a clean sweep of the entire lot in very short order.

We have also made a purchase in the last 3 days of 500 overcoats of the finest quality and made in the latest style, that will not stand us more than 35 cents on the dollar, they will be included in the above sale.

The following prices will be made for the next three days:

150 MEN'S BUSINESS SUITS, made of pure all-wool cassimeres and cheviots, in neat and stylish checked and plaid patterns, good looking, first-class suits, that were never before or never likely again be sold for less than 9.00, for this 3-day sale at 3.95

MEN'S ALL-WOOL FANCY CHEVIOT, CASSIMERE and HOMESPUN SUITS in single breasted styles with double breasted vests, are elegant dress or business suit, made up with an eye to give good service, in fact, you can't touch them in other stores for less than 12.00, our lucky purchase enables us to offer them at the extremely low price of 4.90

169 MEN'S KERSEY and BEAVER OVERCOATS, all-wool, black or blue deep French facing, extra heavy Italian lining, sleeves lined with the celebrated Iron Yarn cloth, a recognized 10.00 value at 4.25.

MEN'S OVERCOATS of all-wool kerseys and covert cloths, presenting the latest English box style, they hang just perfectly and fit just where you want them to, have hand-made button-holes and are 12.00 to 14.00 values, at this sale 5.95.

500 TWO PIECE BOYS' SUITS, all-wool materials, new and pleasing styles, double seat and knee, sizes 7 to 15, could not be sold for less than 3.00 to be sold at 1.45.

BOYS' FINE TWO-PIECE SUITS in all the newest designs in plaids and mixtures, also in plain black and blue cheviots, double seat and knees, elegantly trimmed and tailored, worth 5.00, to be sold at this great sale at 2.25

BOYS' REEFER COATS at 1.25 and 1.50 made of all wool chinchillas with the regulation sailor collars, with warm woolen lining, sizes 3 to 8 years, positively worth 3.00.

YOUNG MEN'S SUITS, ages 14 to 19, at 2.50, 3.50 and 4.50, handsomely made with narrow legged pants, other stores would sell them at from 5.00 to 10.00

FINE YOUNG MEN'S OVERCOATS, sizes 14 to 19, at 1.75, 2.75 and 4.75, worth double at wholesale.

Don't make a mistake by missing this wonderful sale of clothing. Sale will begin this Saturday morning at 8 a. m.. Will last for 3 days only.

New York Clothing Company
M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.
Plainfield, N. J.

N. K. BARNES, Grocer,

No. 245 WEST FRONT STREET,

SPECIAL FOR TEN DAYS.

$3 worth of stamps with 1 lb of 60c Tea, best.
$2 worth of stamps with 1 lb of 28c Coffee, best.
$1 worth of stamps with 24½ lbs of 55c Flour, best.

I will give $3.00 Worth of Trading Stamps with this 99c purchase:

1 lb of Coffee	28c
2 lbs Sugar	10c
1 lb mixed Nuts	13c
1 pkg Currants	10c
1 pkg Raisins	12c
1 can Peas	8c
1 pkg Dunham's Cocoanut	10c
1 qt Cranberries	8c
	99c

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

FOR SALE CHEAP—House and lot 141 East Ninth street Apply to Messrs. Vail, Mulford or Woodruff. 12 16 3 s th s

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 24

FOR SALE—A good serviceable horse for family or mercantile use; 16½ hands high. Apply at stable, 705 West Seventh street. 12 20 2

OFFICE to let. Inquire 159 Crescent Ave 12 19 3

THREE pleasant convenient rooms to let for light housekeeping. 404 Third street, corner Central avenue. 12 11 11

LOST—Monday night, young, small fox terrier; answers to the name of Dewey. Liberal reward if returned to 127 West Front St.

HELP WANTED — Machinists, lathe and planer hands; good men can find steady job and good wages. Address P. O. Box 103 Cincinnati, Ohio. 12 8 12

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

SPECIAL!!
HAIR DRESSING, SHAMPOOING, MANICURING.
Until after the Holiday Season
MISS HOLMES,
Graduate of the New York School of Hair Dressing and Dermatology,
will make special rates for hair dressing in all the latest styles for street and evening; at parlors 75c. At ladies residences by appointment. Shampooing or Facial Massage and steaming (for eradicating imperfections of the skin) 75c. Manicuring 50c.
440 W. FRONT ST.

WINES made only from selected grapes and cane sugar crystal. Twenty-five cents per bottle and upward. "THE VINEYARDS," Park Ave., corner Cooper St., Fanwood. 12 18 12

...EMERY'S... PLEASURE GARDEN
(SCOTCH PLAINS.)
Thursday Evening, December 21st.
FIRST
GRAND BALL
—OF THE—
Prospect Social Club.
Music by Prof. O'Reilly.
TICKETS - - - - 25 Cents.
The Enclosed Pavilion is for rent for Balls, Parties, etc., at Reasonable Rates.

CUT FLOWERS!
Choice Blooming Plants, Palms, Ferns, Jardinieres, Fern Dishes, &c. Headquarters for Wreaths, Holly, Mistletoe and everything in the florist line. First-class stock. Largest assortment of cut flowers in the city.
A. E. LINCOLN,
Telephone 876. 226 PARK AVE. 12 14 9

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:21 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:36 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:36 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair Tonight and Saturday. Stationary Temperature. Ther. 38.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

AWAITING A VERDICT.

Jury Now Considering the Roehricht Murder Case.

CHARGED BY THE JUDGE.

CASE WAS GIVEN TO THE JURY AT 12:25 THIS NOON.

Prosecutor Dungan Completed His Summing Up This Morning—Chief Justice Magie Instructed the Jury.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

Somerville, December 22.—The fate of Mrs. Henrietta Fingerhuth, who has been on trial in the Somerset County Court since Monday morning on the charge of murdering Paul Roehricht, the wealthy New York jeweler, of Somerset Park, September 12th, was put in the hands of the jury at 12:25 this noon, when Judge Magie, of the Supreme Court, finished his charge and the jury was sent out to render its verdict.

The last of the testimony was given yesterday morning and everything was made ready for the summing up at the afternoon session. At 2:05 o'clock, Justice Magie nodded to Alvah A. Clark, principal counsel for the prisoners, and Mr. Clark opened his address to the jury quietly but impressively. After touching on the importance of dealing fairly and justly with the accused, he sketched the career of the Fingerhuths in a strange land among strangers and told of the happenings that followed their employment by Paul Roehricht and the subsequent discharge. Mr. Clark stopped his remarks a moment to ask Justice Magie if he might, with due courtesy to the court, present his insistment with the inference that a relation of landlord and tenant existed between the defendent and Mr. Roehricht.

Justice Magie explained that he intended to leave it to the jury to decide whether or not the relation of master and servant alone existed, or whether there was a dual relation that made the possession of the premises to a measure independent of the contract for labor.

Mr. Clark there continued and asked the jury if the only reasonable construction to be put on the contract was that the Fingerhuths could remain on the Allen farm until the following March If not, why were they not notified to leave the place when Fingerhuth was discharged in June. He referred to the remark alleged by the defence to the remark alleged by Dembowski to the effect that Roehricht said that they remain there until March 15th. He had good reason to forget the making of such a remark which was testified to by the Fingerhuths and Wm. Wolff, a man who had no interest in the case.

He pointed out the significant fact that Constable Bartels was not put on the stand by the State except in rebuttal of a few unimportant statements. Bartels, he believed, was not in sympathy with the others and their story so he was not summoned to the stand.

The speaker declared that he could not believe the story of Robert M. Clark.

"It was full of pitfalls and untruthfulness," he exclaimed. Then he inquired as to what would be the position of Clark and Dembowski if the prisoners should be acquitted.

He censured the acts of Clark very strongly. He declared that he and the others must have had a clear idea of what was likely to happen when he requested Constable Bartels to come along to preserve the peace. He asked the jurors to put themselves in the place of these ignorant people from a foreign country, their landlord gone back on them, a lawyer attacking the door with an axe and supported by an officer. Would they consider such a peaceful proceeding?

Why did Clark need to take a pistol at all in going on an errand for his client, he asked. If it is necessary for lawyers to carry revolvers in working in the interests of their clients, it will be time to do away with the courts and the police.

"When Mr. Clark gets a few years older" remarked the counsel, "he will know more. He will know better than to carry a revolver on such an errand."

He told of the insignificant charge on which Fingerhuth was arrested and grew sarcastic in his comments of those who drew them up. Then the Fingerhuths, father and son, were called to Plainfield to answer to the charge. Immediately Roehricht and Clark hurried to the Allen farm thinking here, the father and son are safe, now we will put the woman out. They gathered a party, eight in number, to assist in the attempt of removing the poor woman.

Then the part of Oscar Fingerhuth in the case was referred to. The only reason to involve him as an accessory in the case was because he told his mother to protect herself and did not purchase the revolver with which to kill anybody.

Mrs. Fingerhuth was left alone, he continued, with the revolver. Her husband had told her not to use it unless she was in danger. Then these eight men came. It was enough to frighten any woman. She showed them her revolver and begged them to go away and leave her alone. She says a stick was used. Clark, Dembowski and the others say a stick was not used. They know that they must say that no stick was used otherwise they would confess to a crime. Mrs. Clemenz tells of how the house was attacked. In the excitement Mrs. Fingerhuth pulled the trigger. She did not mean to shoot anyone. The bullet unfortunately struck Mr. Roehricht, but no one regrets it more than she. If in the excitement of the moment in an effort to resist this attack, she should accidentally kill Mr. Roehricht, then it is excusable homicide and she should be discharged. If it is necessary for the peace of the Commonwealth that this woman should be punished, find her guilty. If not, then set her free.

It would be most just, he declared, if the witnesses who played such a part in the tragedy should be put on trial for the death of Mr. Roehrich, rather than the prisoners.

He told of the manner of the prisoners on the witness stand. Did not they impress all as truthful and willing to tell anything. After talking for an hour Mr. Clark closed with an earnest plea to the jury to be careful to consider all in reaching a decision.

Prosecutor N. Y. Dungan began his summing up at once. He told the jury of their duties to society and then of the object of the prosecutor in trying to get to the truth of the case in the interests of the people. Referring to the atrack against Robert M. Clark by the defense, he said it was only what might be expected as against the most damaging witness for the State. Regarding the truthfulness of Mr. Clark's testimony, he pointed out that despite the searching cross examination of two of the counsel for the defence they were unable to shake his testimony in the slightest. As to the position in which a verdict of not guilty would put Robert M. Clark, he wanted to know what position a verdict of guilty would place one of the counsel for the defendants.

Then the circumstances of the case leading up to the shooting were sketched briefly and convincingly. He dwelt on the terms of the understood contract, and how Mr. Roehricht was glad to do all he could as long as Fingerhuth's work remained satisfactory. It the discharge that followed was not just, then Fingerhuth had the legal method of redress. The law does not permit the servant to remain on the premises after being discharged, and he pictured the serious troubles that would result from allowing such a state of affairs to exist.

Juror Thatcher was taken ill and a delay was necessitated. The Judge offered to adjourn the case, but the juror finally expressed his willingness to proceed.

Mr. Dungan next called attention to the alleged serving of the notices on Fingerhuth by Clark. He also referred to the testimony of Constable Bartels to the effect that Fingerhuth had called Mr. Clark by name showing that he must have known the latter despite his testimony to the contrary. If the Fingerhuths had offered to compromise the result might have been different. But they did not. They declared flatly that they would not give up possession. So when Roehricht wanted possession there was no use of delay, as there had been plenty of notice.

Regarding the alleged conversation in which the defense claims that Dembrowski told the Fingerhuths that Roehricht said they might remain on the Allen place until March 15th, 1900,

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.]

CRANFORD CHOIR WON SILVER CUP.

Contest in Singing Church Music by Colored Vocalists.

MT. OLIVE SINGERS SECOND

DECISION MADE BY JUDGES REPRESENTING EACH CHURCH.

Choir From the Colored Church of Westfield Failed to Appear to Contest in the Vocalizing—Anthems and Hymns Were the Selections Rendered—Audience Favorable to Cranfordites.

The choir contest by the colored people last evening at the Mt. Olive Baptist church was not the success that had been anticipated. The choir of the Baptist church of Cranford was the only organization from out of town present to contest against the choirs of the Mt. Olive, the Filmore Avenue and the Mt. Zion A. M. E. churches. The Westfield choir did not appear. The contest did not begin until about 9 o'clock and at that hour the Mt. Olive Baptist church was nearly filled with the members of the various denominations and their friends. The judges of the contest were: Edwin B. Maynard, chairman, and Charles Sheldon for Mt. Olive; Henry Jackson and Rudolph Connett for Filmore Avenue; Walter Peterson for Mt. Zion Methodist, and Henry Brown and Miss Alma Ward for Cranford Baptist church.

The choirs first gave an exhibition of their singing from the platform. The first choir to sing was Mt. Zion, led by Adolphus White. They were followed by the Cranford singers with Coley Scott as leader. The Filmore Avenue choir came next with Percy Randolph as leader. The Mt. Olive choir, led by Thomas Toney, was the last.

The pieces selected were anthems and hymns. It was evident from the reception given each choir that the Cranford singers were the most popular and efficient singers, though those from the Mt. Olive and Filmore Avenue churches came in for a good share of applause and deserve credit for their efforts. The Mt. Zion choir, however, not being in practice, was not as efficient as the others. It was apparent that the contest was between the Mt. Olive choir and the visitors from Cranford. When the final contest was made, each choir singing the hymn, "Praise Ye the Lord," the Cranford singers gave evidence of being the more proficient and when they finished a storm of applause, lasting several minutes, greeted them.

The judges had no hesitation in deciding the contest in favor of the Cranford choir which was awarded the silver cup, the prize contested for.

After the contest the members of the choirs enjoyed refreshments served in the basement of the church. The proceeds of the entertainment were for the benefit of the pastor, Rev. E. E. Jackson, who was present and assisted the committee in entertaining the visitors.

STRUCK BY TROLLEY CAR.

Two Summit Women Upset on Fourth Street Yesterday Noon—Motorman Said to be to Blame.

A serious accident was narrowly averted yesterday noon at the corner of Park avenue and Fourth street, when a woman and young girl riding in a dog cart were run into by a trolley car in charge of Conductor Fahy. The occupants of the cart were from Summit and they were driving through Fourth street. Before the approaching car was reached, the horse, rather fractious, became excited and began to back into the car tracks.

The car was going at a lively rate of speed and those who saw the accident place the blame on the motorman. They say he did not slacken his speed. The result was a collision. The cart was upset and the occupants thrown out, while the horse came very near getting away. It was thought by several persons who saw the accident that the women were seriously injured. They proved to be more frightened than anything else. The axle on the car was twisted out of shape and that was the amount of the damage.

Freeholders Not to Organize Until May.

The new Board of Chosen Freeholders, of Union county, will not meet for organization until next May. In the meantime the other cities and towns will have their elections.

—Buy your holiday goods at Harpers, 411 Park avenue.

—Don't forget Debele's creamery for fluid milk, Borden's condensed milk and sweet cream. Whipped cream to order, 111 Somerset street, telephone 1113.

ONE MAN KILLED IN WRECK ON CENTRAL.

Rear End Collision Occurred at High Bridge Last Night.

CARS WERE SET ON FIRE.

DETACHED COAL CARS MADE WILD RUN ON DOWN GRADE.

Struck the Locomotive That Had Been Uncoupled and Gone Ahead, and the Engine Was Shoved Into the Passenger Cars With Terrific Force—Several Persons Were Also Injured.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

High Bridge, Dec. 22.—One life was lost and several persons injured in a rear end collision that occurred on the Central Railroad of New Jersey, directly in front of the depot at this place last night. A heavy east bound coal train stopped one mile east of the station and the engine was detached to run to the depot to get orders. There is a heavy down grade at that point, and shortly after the locomotive was uncoupled the coal cars commenced to move. The brakemen applied the brakes, but were unable to stop the cars. They gained rapidly and in a short time were rushing towards the depot at a terrific speed.

Standing in front of the station was a combination milk and passenger train, to the rear end of which was attached two coaches. The locomotive that had been uncoupled was struck first by the coal cars that were running wild, but it was not derailed. It was pushed into the rear end of the other train with great force. The train crews and the passengers had no knowledge of the impending collision till it occurred on account of the detached cars having no lights on the forward end.

The passenger coaches were raised high in the air by the force of the collision and toppled over into the ditch. Both were telescoped, and the wreckage took fire at once. There were only five or six passengers in the cars.

Christopher Hulsizer, a grocer, of Annandale, N. J., was instantly killed, and before his remains could be rescued from under the wreckage his body had been partially burned.

Thomas Eick, of Annandale, another passenger, had his arm broken and was imprisoned under the wreckage. The railroad employes set to work at once to resuce the imprisoned passengers, but before they could free Eick one of his legs had been burned by the flames. He is in a critical condition.

An unknown man and woman were also hurt, but not seriously.

The wrecked cars were totally destroyed by the flames. The two freight cars in front of them were also wrecked and blocked the tracks, but the wrecking crew had the road clear this morning.

CHRISTMAS WITH PUPILS

SPECIAL HOLIDAY EXERCISES HELD AT THE HIGH SCHOOL.

Class Spirit Was Shown in a Conspicuous Manner — Usual Offering of Gifts Was the Cause of Much Fun.

The Christmas holidays at the Plainfield High School began today. The various class rooms were decorated with greens and the various class colors. Special Christmas exercises were held during the morning which included carols by the school and recitations.

The Christmas season is always taken by the pupils at the High School at the time to show their class spirit. This morning, they found that the Juniors had been at work the night before and nailed their colors, blue and yellow, to the top of the high flagstaff and to the cupola. The colors of the class of 1902, blue and white, were also hung on the flag pole.

A small Christmas tree, highly decorated, was presented to the class of 1903 by the class of 1902. A gaily bedecked monkey with a fuzzy tail was labeled with "1902" and hung in a conspicuous place in the hall.

The Assembly Hall was decorated with the colors of all four classes. The Seniors had charge of the decoration of the platform and the entrances. One of the four blackboard panels was devoted to each class. The Girls' Athletic Association had their red and blue draped about the clock.

After the special exercises, the usual offering of gifts from the Seniors to the Juniors took place and was the cause of much fun. There was something for everybody in the Junior class with an appropriate verse attached.

—Diaries for 19 cents at Harper's, 411 Park avenue.

VAST AUDIENCE HEARD "MESSIAH."

But as Many Were Turned Away as Got Admittance.

THE CHURCH WAS PACKED.

CHORUS AND SOLOISTS DID EXCELLENT WORK LAST NIGHT.

Long Before the Church Doors Were Opened a Great Concourse of People Gathered in the Hope of Obtaining Entrance—Fully Half of Them Had to be Turned Away Unsatisfied.

A vast audience of twelve hundred people listened to the rendition of Handel's great oratorio of the Christmastide, "The Messiah," in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church last evening. There were twice that number who wanted to hear it but were turned away owing to the inability of the church to accommodate them all. For an hour the church was besieged by great crowds and it was after 9 o'clock before the last of the disappointed ones departed homeward, giving up the vain endeavor to get inside.

With one of the best of the famous oratorios in prospect to be rendered by a quartette of talented soloists and a trained chorus of local voices, particularly when it was free, it was but natural that there should be a big crowd. The promoters of this service expected one but not in the proportions that did appear. That this crowd was handled without someone being injured in the crush for the doors is an evidence of good management and considerable luck.

The doors were advertised to open at 7:30 o'clock. An hour before that time there were fully a hundred people gathered about the various entrances to the church. At 7 o'clock the crowd had grown to three times that number. When the time came to open the doors the numbers had been swelled into the thousands and the crowd stretched into the street. The people were told that the front doors would not be opened, but still there were many who congregated about them.

The vast throng was good-natured and took the long wait patiently. But when the doors were opened, what a crowding and pushing ensued. Firemen D. S. Dunavan and William Addis, Jr., were on duty respectively at the right and left entrances. They did the work of heroes. Women were literally dragged into the hall by them after being pinioned by the mass of struggling humanity against the sides of the steps.

In the rush that followed children were separated from their parents, husbands lost their wives and women were dragged from their escorts. Some of the separated ones were united in the church, but others were parted for the evening, part inside and others shut out when it was necessary to close the doors.

James Everett Kimball had charge of seating the people and he was assisted by a large corps of ushers. They had their hands full in handling the people and packing them into the pews. It was remarkable in what a brief space of time the church was filled. Then the doors were closed and those who were not fortunate enough to make their way in before, were disappointed in their attempt to attend the service. A few stray bits of families were hunted up and dragged in but the remainder of the crowd, and it must have been well above two thousand, was sent away.

Every inch of available seating space was occupied and there were a few who stood along the side aisles and at the back of the church. A more heterogeneous crowd, it would be hard to find. There was a little of everybody there, all attired in their best and thankful indeed at having safely braved the ordeal of entering.

Musically considered, the evening was as entire success as the public rehearsal Tuesday evening. The members of the chorus had so much more practice, and so were better prepared to render the grand choruses with spirit and sympathy. Nearly all the choruses of the oratorios are bright and joyful, and the singers entered warmly into the spirit of gladness. The different parts took up their leads with promptness and precision, this being one of the strong points of Conductor Fitzhugh's training. There was no over-predominence of any one part, the general effect being that of a fairly balanced choir.

As a conductor, Edward J. Fitzhugh is well known in Plainfield, having successfully directed many concerts here. His conducting last night was as able, careful, and enthusiastic as

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.]

CARNIVAL OF DREAMS.

CLEVER ENTERTAINMENT GIVEN BY BRYANT SCHOOL PUPILS.

Children Were Trained by Miss E. V. Shattuck—Eighty Participated in It—The State Superintendent Was Present.

State Superintendent of Schools Baxter and Superintendent Maxson of the Plainfield Public Schools were included in the large number of parents and friends of the children who were present at the Bryant School yesterday afternoon on the occasion of the entertainment held in the chapel by the pupils.

The entertainment, styled a "Carnival of Dreams," was as unique as it was cleverly portrayed by about 80 of the children who attended the primary and grammar departments participated. The children were trained by Miss E. V. Shattuck, the principal, assisted by the other teachers. The carnival was divided into five separate parts, all having to do with the nursery rhymes. In the first part were seen "Mother Goose," "Mother Hubbard," "Little Red Riding Hood," "Little Boy Blue," "Hot Cross Buns," "Jack and Jill," Little Maid," "Mary-Mary," "Little Bo-peep," and "Buy-a-Broom."

The second part showed "Jack Frost," snow fairies, mermaids, etc.

Part third exhibited characters to impersonate "Mars," "Neptune," "Apollo," "Diana," etc., while part fourth showed some of the little folks as "Grace Darling," "Rip Van-Winkle," "Hiawatha," "Minnehaha," etc. The fifth and last scene introduced "Santa Claus" on his yearly rounds. The "Dreamer" calls upon the "Fairies" to guide the good "Santa" to all the children in the land.

Miss Nellie Abrams, who took the part of the "Dreamer," was lulled to "Dreamland" by the singing of the fairies, the "Mother Goose" melodies being sung by the various groups of characters, all dressed to represent those whom they personated.

Many of the children acquitted themselves admirably and showed the careful training they had been given. The entire effect was as interesting as it was beautiful, and was highly creditable to the untiring zeal and painstaking efforts of Miss Shattuck and her corps of able assistants.

This morning from 9 to 10 o'clock the scholars sang Christmas carols and had informal religious exercises when the school was dismissed for the holiday vacation.

PARKS UP AGAINST IT.

Local Bowlers Lost Three Straight Games to the Roselle Casinos Last Evening.

The Park Club bowlers were up against it last night. They went to Roselle to roll three games in The Daily Press Bowling League against the Roselle Casino team and lost them all. The story of their defeat is not a pleasant one to hear. The official scores have not yet been received here but will be published later.

The Roselle team did some great bowling. Their best game was 911, the record for the season. They defeated the Parks twice by nearly two hundred pins and again by a somewhat smaller margin. The Parks rolled over 700 in two games and in the other fell below that.

VanBuren, who is usually considered one of the steadiest bowlers on the Park Club team, was way off his game. One game he failed to do better than 99, and his average for the three was only 114. The others were afflicted with the same trouble while an unusual share of hard luck came their way.

JUST MISSED HIM.

Young Man Slipped and Fell in Front of a Train at the North Avenue Station This Morning.

A young man, whose name is not known, narrowly escaped being seriously injured at the North Avenue station this morning when one of the fast Philadelphia trains was coming into the station on its way to the Quaker City. The young man started to cross the track on which the train was moving, and his hat went flying in the air. The engineer tooted the whistle, and just as the young man had picked himself up and got out of the way, the train went by and just missed striking him. A number of people who saw the affair expected that the young man would be struck.

Consul Griffen Soon to Sail.

Rev. Walter T. Griffen, United States Consul at Lamoge, France, who has been enjoying a much-needed rest in this city for some time past, expects to sail, with his private secretary, for his post the last of this month. Mr. Griffen has leased a residence on LaGrande avenue, and his wife and daughter will reside there.

—Calendars at Harper's, 411 Park avenue.

COOK'S WIFE NEVER LIVED WITH HIM.

Now He Seeks Absolute Divorce After Nine Years.

IT WAS A HASTY MARRIAGE.

PETITIONER IS A WELL-TO-DO FARMER NEAR SCOTCH PLAINS.

Wedding Took Place in Brooklyn After a Short Courtship—Desertion is the Charge and the Wife is Not Making Any Defense—Testimony is Being Taken Before Senator Cross.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Scotch Plains, December 22.—Some surprise has been occasioned in this village over the publicity given the fact that Henry C. Cook, a farmer, living on Westfield avenue, has been a married man since 1890, and that he is now suing his wife for divorce.

Mr. Cook's first wife died about twenty years ago. He had been looked upon as a widower. It appears, however, that about nine years ago Mr. Cook met in Brooklyn Miss Lizzie Engelhardt. After a brief courtship the couple were married by Rev. Mr. Loch, a German Lutheran minister. For reasons best known to themselves Mr. and Mrs. Cook decided to keep their marriage a secret. After the marriage Mr. Cook returned to Scotch Plains and his bride to her home. They never lived together.

It was apparently a case of marriage in haste and repent at leisure. Their love grew cold and each saw the folly of the marital alliance. Their contract was not to their taste and they decided to live apart.

About four years ago Mr. Cook's mother died and left him the farm—a valuable one—upon which he is now living. The story that Mr. Cook had been left considerable cash also is denied by him.

The divorce proceedings spoken of above were begun about six months ago by Murphy & Blatz, of this city. The grounds upon which a divorce is asked by Mr. Cook is desertion, his wife having positively refused to live with him in New Jersey.

There have been two sessions before Senator Cross, of Elizabeth, who has been designated by the Court to take testimony.

Mrs. Cook has not put in any defense, and has paid no attention to the papers that Mr. Cook's attorneys have served upon her. It is understood that she will not fight the case. She wishes as much as does her husband to be released from a marriage that has been entirely unsatisfactory to both.

Mrs. Cook does not ask any alimony or counsel fees. The couple have no children.

WAGON FACTORY MAY COME.

Altoona, Pa., Man Writes to Mayor Rockfellow to Know of the Advantages of This City.

Mayor Rockfellow has received a letter from M. C. Bell, of Altoona, Pa., making inquiries as to the population of Plainfield and whether there is a carriage factory located in this city. Mr. Bell writes that he is in that business, but owing to ill health must change to a more salubrious climate. The Mayor has replied to Mr. Bell's request for information and has also mailed him copies of The Daily Press.

Plainfield certainly has excellent advantages for the establishment of a factory. The shipping facilities are superior to many locations and land is cheap. It will pay Mr. Bell to consider the advantages of Plainfield if he contemplates changing his place of business.

COURT WATCHUNG OFFICERS.

Annual Election of the Independent Order of Foresters Last Night.

Court Watchug, No. 3871, Independent Order of Foresters, met last night and elected the following officers for the coming year: Chief Ranger, John R. Naylor; vice chief ranger, N. Brouard; past chief ranger, W. L. Remsen; recording secretary, J. M. Lewis; financial secretary, A. F. Randolph; treasurer, O. S. Rogers; senior woodward, A. M. Vanderbeek; junior woodward, C. Brouard; senior beadle, Thomas Stafford; junior beadle, D. L. Hulick; court deputy, Charles Vanderbeek; court physician, Marcus L. Clawson; chaplain, Charles Vanderbeek; trustees, R. H. Radford, B. E. Randolph; finance committee, A. M. Vanderbeek, W. L. Remsen; apothecary, E. S. F. Randolph.

—Joy's salted almonds at Neuman Bros. All brands of mince meats in glass jars and pails.

—Umbrellas are nice for a Christmas gift. Putnam & DeGrow have an elegant line they are selling at special low prices.

BASIS OF REPRESENTATION

A Bill to Enforce the Fourteenth Amendment.

IT MAY BE INTRODUCED.

Congress Likely to Have an Opportunity to Pass or Reject Such a Measure After the Holidays — Mr. Crumpacker's Bill Favored By Committe on the Census.

Washington, Dec. 22.—A canvass of the newly-created house committee on the census shows that a majority of that committee favors the enforcement of section 2 of the fourteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States, which declares that when the right to vote at any state or federal election is denied to any male members of a state, who are twenty-one years old and citizens of the United States, or abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation in such state shall be reduced proportionately. Members of the committee believe that a bill to that effect is to be reported after the holidays. In he present temper of the house such a measure could probably be passed.

The bill introduced by Mr. Crumpacker of Indiana is favored by the committee. That provides for a representation in accordance with votes actually cast, and the argument urged for it is that that is the least complicated method of determining where the suffrage has been abridged.

It is estimated that if the Crumpacker bill were to become a law southern states would lose twenty-five members of the house. Louisiana, Mississippi and South Carolina would be affected most seriously. Georgia, Alabama and Arkansas would also feel the effect of the bill. In the north, Massachusetts, which has an educational qualification for suffrage, might be affected, but it is understood that all Massachusetts members are in favor of the proposed plan. What disposition the senate might make of the bill is doubtful. A number of senators have expressed a doubt as to the wisdom of its passage. But unless the present programme is changed the house will force some measure of the kind on the senate for consideration.

To Remove Premium on Gold Bars.

Washington, Dec. 22.—To discourage the shipment abroad of gold coin the treasury department will remove the premium on gold bars at the assay office. This premium at present amounts to an "export charge" of one-tenth of 1 per cent. and has helped the shipment abroad of gold coin instead of bars. This practice works directly disadvantageous to the government. Our gold coin is now full weight and is as acceptable for export as gold bars.

Exportation subjects gold to abrasion, reducing the coins in weight and thereby causing the government considerable loss in mintage and metal. The cost of coining gold by this government is 1-5 per cent., and this may be said to constitute the loss on abraded coin. The removal of the premium will result in the exportation of gold bars in place of coin. No action has been taken by the department for the removal of this premium. The officials, however, believe the premium to be so wholly disadvantageous to the government that if any applications were made for its removal from gold bars for shipment the request would be granted. The situation at present simply lacks an application on which a decision may be made by the department to establish a precedent.

The premium of one-tenth of 1 per cent. on gold bars intended for shipment abroad was established during 1895, during the Cleveland administration. The premium for a time was paid by exporters rather than risk light weight in abraded coin. Now that the coin is full weight the advantage of sending bars is nothing, and gold coin has formed almost the total bulk of shipments abroad. The removal of the premium was recommended in the report of the director of the mint, made to the secretary of the treasury last week.

The director says in this report:

"The superintendent of the New York assay office calls attention to the fact that, although about $30,000,000 in United States coin was exported last year, no bars were taken for export, and suggests that the 'export charge' of one-tenth of 1 per cent. which is exacted is operating to our disadvantage. There is no object in forcing the public to take our coin out of the country by making it more expensive to take bars. We had better furnish the raw material than the manufactured article. These bars will have to be shipped from New York to Philadelphia, and melted and worked into coin at some waste and considerable expense to replace the coin exported, while the bars would have served every purpose for export. The export charge was put on bars several years ago, when gold exports were heavy, and some means to discourage them was sought. When the current coin is abraded exporters will pay a slight premium to get bars which are full weight, but our current gold coin is now largely new, and on the average close to the standard, and exporters are preferring to ship it rather than to pay the bar charge."

Lima Engineer Injured.

Toledo, Ohio, Dec. 22.—Engineer J. Bowsher, of the C., H. and D., was thrown through the cab window here by a train of freight cars colliding with his engine. It is believed he is fatally injured. His home is in Lima, where he has been taken.

The Death Roll in Cuba.

Washington, Dec. 22.—Gen. Wood has reported to the war department the death of William Hays, company K, Tenth cavalry, on the 19th inst., at Puerto Padre, of remittent malaria.

St. Paul Car Shops Burned.

Dubuque, Ia., Dec. 22.—The car shop of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road have been destroyed by fire. The loss is about $100,000. Three hundred men are thrown out of employment.

PLUCKY PARSON IS UPHELD.

Congregation Wants Axtell to Take Another Fall Out of Dondero.

Royal Oak, Mich., Dec. 22.—Rev. J. J. Axtell, the muscular preacher, is pointed out as a great hero since his "go" with Gus Dondero, and even his own flock are trying to get him to enter the ring again with the doughty landlord of the Royal Oak House. George Blackburn, a prominent member of his flock, says if he will fight the hotel man again and "put him to sleep" he will furnish him a barrel of flour. He has already received several presents of wood, groceries, &c.

He is constantly receiving letters of congratulation from prominent members of the clergy from all over the United States, and he is surprised to see how quick he has come into prominence through his pugilistic prowess. Some of his parishioners are becoming alarmed for the personal safety of their pastor, and are urging him to procure a gun for his protection, but he says he does not need it, as he can protect himself with his fists.

Those who were the loudest in their denunciations of the pastor on the start are now his warmest admirers, and are anxious to assist him in every way possible. The local W. T. C. U. supports the minister in his pugilistic efforts in the cause of temperance.

The difficulty referred to occurred last Monday, when the pastor was assaulted by the hotel proprietor for some fancied wrong that he had suffered at the hands of Mr. Axtell in his temperance crusades. In the fight that followed the hotel proprietor's onslaught the minister gave a fine exhibition of the manly art of self defense and administered such a sound thrashing to his adversary that there was no room for a dispute over the decision of the "referee." The fight was witnessed by about half the people in the town.

British Vessel Seized.

Victoria, B. C., Dec. 22.—According to the Hong Kong papers the British steamship Labuan, which left Sandakan Nov. 25, with clearance papers, was seized by the United States steamship Castine at Caldera bay and sent to Manila under a prize crew. Capt. Pfort, master of the Labuan, reported that permission was sought to proceed to Cota Batu to bring away a number of families that were in danger of being killed by the Moros, but that the permission was refused, and that the commander of the Castine ordered the British vessel to be seized. A prize crew was then put on board and the steamship sent to Manila. The seizure was at once protested by the master of the steamship.

Murder in an Elevator.

Dallas, Tex., Dec. 22.—A murder was committed in the elevator of the big and crowded North Texas building on Main street in the heart of this city Thursday afternoon. F. M. Etheridge, one of the most prominent lawyers of Dallas, shot Edwin O. Harrell, an equally prominent attorney, four times. Harrell was taken to his home, where he died an hour later. When Harrell fell dying in the lobby in front of the elevator shaft he had a revolver, half-cocked, in his hand. Etheridge was arrested. The men had been retained as opposing counsel in litigation involving cotton mill property and had quarrelled over the case.

The Gould House Party.

Lakewood, N. J., Dec. 22.—The house party given by Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould for the throwing open of the new casino, Bachelor's Hall, on their handsome country place here, which bears the name of Georgian Court, brought about a hundred fashionable people from New York and Philadelphia to this town Thursday. It was one of the most elaborate and best arranged affairs of the kind which society people of those cities have ever enjoyed, and it will probably foreshadow many future social successes which will centre about the Goulds.

Arrested For Swindling French.

Bridgeport, Conn., Dec. 22.—Edward Tibbitts, alias Henry C. Foster, said to be a noted crook, has been arrested in Stratford on suspicion of having swindled ex-Commissioner of City Works J. H. French, of Brooklyn of $5,000 in cash on Dec. 8 last. Tibbetts is believed to be the man who represented himself as Henry Pratt, son of President Pratt of the Standard Oil company, New York detectives with the aid of the local police effected the capture.

Thieves Stole From the Jail.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 22.—Thomas Smith and Harry Grady, alias Frank Williams, who have been serving long sentences of the city court for theft, have been arrested on the charge of robbing the New Haven jail. It is charged that Grady, who was making repairs in the jail passed out of the window a large quantity of lead pipe and brass fixtures to Grady, who had just completed his sentence and was waiting outside for the goods.

Two Killed in Kansas Fire.

Iola, Kan., Dec. 22.—At Lee Harpe, five miles east of Iola, fire destroyed two-thirds of the Lanyon Zinc company's plant, causing a loss of $50,000, fully insured. Two workmen, Jesse T. Matthews and J. J. Schaub, both married, were crushed to death by a falling smokestack. The town is almost entirely without water supply. The plant, which is one of the most extensive of its kind in the world, will be rebuilt at once.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

New York, Dec. 22.—The stock market was unsettled to day with several sharp declines, but near the close prices rallied.

Cash prices for staples:
Wheat, No. 2 red, .73¾.
Corn, No. 2 mixed, .39⅞.
Oats, No. 2 mixed, .29.
Flour, Minnesota patents, $3.95.
Cotton, middling, 7 9-16.
Coffee, No. 7 Rio, .06¾.
Sugar, granulated, 5.18.
Molasses, O. K. prime, .36.
Beef, family, 12 75.
Beef hams, 22.75
Tallow, prime, .05.
Pork, mess, 10.25.
Hogs, dressed, 160 lb, .06¾.
Lard, prime, 5.65.
Iron, Northern No. 1 foundry, 23.00.
Butter, Western creamery, .27.

Choice Meats
of all kinds.
GAME IN SEASON.
My Market is first-class in every respect and people who deal with me can depend upon being treated fair, courteous and with satisfaction.
ENORMOUS SAVING
in MONEY. Every man and woman who deals with me saves money.
Quick Sales and Small Profits
I handle only the very best and highest grade of meat money can buy.
Special attention is given to home dressed poultry, Jersey pork; also prime cuts of beef, veal and mutton.
IT WILL PAY YOU
to buy of me as I give you the best meat for the smallest amount of money.
J. C. STORM,
Meat Market,
318 Liberty St.,
Near Fourth St.

-:- WINDOW SHADES -:-
Estimates cheerfully given.
Mail orders will receive prompt attention.
J. A. GREENE,
112 Madison Ave. Plainfield, N. J.
11 15 1mo

ESTATE of Sarah J. Kellaway, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made, on the application of the undersigned executor of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the Eighth day of November, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.
CHARLES K. KELLAWAY,
11 10 9 oaw Executor.

Flynn Bros.,
SHOE DEALERS,
222 WEST FRONT STREET,
Near Music Hall,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods
Have stood the test for years.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .
in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated
DOMESTIC FINISH.
Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.
Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.
Trading Stamps given.
The City Steam & Hand Laundry
MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B
19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

SELLING OUT
Below Cost
TO CLOSE BUSINESS
Star Crockery Store,
23 Somerset St., near Front.
3 and 9 cent Articles.
BARGAINS! BARGAINS!
Solomon & Evans,
Proprietors.

"ISN'T IT TOO CUTE FOR ANYTHING!"
So runs the chorus of feminine praise over this, that or the other pretty brooch in our fine collection. Husband, father, brother, beau—here's the fit thing! The price-range is $2.50 to $25.00—and there never was better choosing in pretty jewelry. You can make no mistake in picking with your eyes shut—but best come while the selection is complete.
Large Solid Silver Nethersole Bracelets, - - - - 75c
Solid Silver Brush and Comb, - $2.50
In a silk-lined case.
COLLIER, Jeweler,
103 Park Ave.
Established 1869.

STATIONERY and TOYS.
We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles for the Holiday trade.
CHRISTMAS CARDS and CALENDARS.
We make a specialty of
FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.
High Grade Cigars.
Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.
B. W. HAND,
205 W. Front Street

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING
is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job. That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.
MARSH, AYERS & CO.,
201 PARK AVE., Cor 2d ST.
Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.
Estimates furnished. Telephone call 635

LADIES' TAILORING.
RICHARDSON & WALD,
325 West Front Street.
TAILOR-MADE GARMENTS.
We make a specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.
Alterations and relining promptly attended to.
—DRESSMAKING.—
Our Dressmaking Department is in charge of Madame Walsh.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

COPYRIGHT 1899
THE ENTRANCE TO THE DINING ROOM
will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us.
Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early.
The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too—everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get.
FRED ENDRESS,
131—135 WEST FRONT STREET

November.
The mellow year is hasting to its close.
The merry birds have almost sung their last.
Their faint notes twitter in the dreary blast—
That shrill-piped harbinger of early snows.
And hint to you in good coal to invest
At seven forty-seven Front Street, west.

ALEX. LUSARDI.
211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery. Nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores
1 9 1 1 year

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

LAIRE'S . .
HOLIDAY SPECIALS.
Carving knives.
U. S. club skates.
Roger's plated ware.
Fine poc et cutlery.
Silver finish coffee and tea pots.
Nickel on copper tea kettles.
Boys' sleighs.
Fine razors and hones.
Grand Rapid sweepers.
Baby Rapid sweepers.
Shinny sticks.
Christmas tree holders.
Coin silver ware, cheap.
Fine table cutlery.
Fine scissors and shears.
Corn poppers.
The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,
Tel. Call 682.

TRY THE
QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,
No. 337 Park Avenue.
(Miller Building.)
Goods called for and delivered free of charge.
Domestic or gloss finish.

DOBBINS.
CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.
817 West Front street.

J. W. VAN SICKLE.
129 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly
TELEPHONE 148 b.

Your Valuables,
will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault
Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

GAS
For the Fire-place.
Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates.
Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.
CURTIS M. THORPE,
310-312 PARK AVENUE.
"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIRE PLACE."

F. A. DUNHAM,
—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—
109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE,
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's hall, No. 19 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
219 Park Avenue.

A. KANE,
Dealer in
BLUE STONE FLAGGING and CURBING.
Also Dealer in
Flour, Feed and Grain, Coal and Wood.
Store and Office
409 East Third St.,
Next to
THIRD STREET MISSION.
Open Evenings Until 8 o'Clock.

REGISTERED BRANDS OF THE
"P. & P." Kid Gloves
MANUFACTURED BY Chaumont PINGS & PINNER CO.
PERFECT FITTING LATEST STYLES
MANUFACTURED BY Berthold PINGS & PINNER CO.
BEST VALUE NEWEST SHADES
MANUFACTURED BY Fontaine PINGS & PINNER CO.
Don't take substitutes—There's none so good.
FOR SALE BY
Crosby & Hill,
95 tu f Plainfield, N. J.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.
We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1.25.
LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.
Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.
—CHRISTMAS GOODS—
A Big Assortment.

Chas. L. Stanley,
. . FLORIST . .
No. 142 North Ave.
HEADQUARTERS for choice Cut Flowers, Ferns, Palms, a large assortment of other plants.
Floral design work and decorating for all occasions Satisfaction guaranteed; an immense stock of Holly, Wreaths, Roping, etc.
Annex stores for the Holidays,
134 North Ave,
South Ave, Netherwood, and Central Ave., Westfield

John G. Bantle,
First-class
Ladies' and Gent's
TAILOR.
428 Watchung Avenue.
Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anæsthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in the city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.
Full Set (guaranteed).....$8
Bridgework.....$5
Gold Crown, 22-k.....$5
Gold Filling.....from $1 up
Silver Filling.....50c. and 75c
Cement Filling.....50c
Cleaning.....75c
Extracting.....25c
Painless Extracting.....50c
Gas, first tooth.....$1
Each one after.....50c
DR. O. W. LEONARD,
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills
—25c.—
A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.
MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung avenues.

THE RESPONSE IS LIBERAL

Fund For Mrs. Lawton is Increasing Rapidly.

LIBERAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Citizens of Milwaukee Send $1,000 to the War Department For Dead General's Widow—Simple Ceremonies Are Held Over the Remains of Gen. Lawton in Manila.

Washington, Dec. 22.—Liberal responses are being received at the war department to the appeal made by Adj.-Gen. Corbin for the raising of a fund for the widow of Gen. Lawton. The largest contribution received came in a telegram from C. H. Hamilton, of Milwaukee, to the president. He announced that Milwaukee citizens had authorized him to contribute $1,000 for the widow and family of General Lawton. Secretary Root has contributed $100. Secretary Hay sent a check for $100, saying: "I am glad to see that General Lawton's friends are getting up a little fund for his widow." H. A. Taylor, assistant secretary of the treasury, enclosed a check for $100, and in his letter remarked: "The movement in behalf of the family of General Lawton is certainly a timely and deserving one. The living ought not to be permitted to suffer the result of the bravery of the gallant dead." Mrs. J. Addison Porter has contributed $100, saying: "It is a privilege to help the family of so brave a man as General Lawton."

Adjt.-Gen. Corbin has received a telegram from W. T. Worden, of Worden & Company, 3 Broad street, New York, offering to raise money among the brokers and business men of New York, and suggesting that the Bankers' Trust company be designated as a depository. It has been determined to make the company a depository for the New York contributions. General McCoskry Butt, of New York, telegraphed his contribution for $100.

Gen. Shafter has telegraphed General Corbin from San Francisco as follows: "Distressed beyond measure to hear of Lawton's death. Will do everything in my power to help Mrs. Lawton."

Gen. A. R. Buffington, chief of the bureau of ordnance, has contributed $20, and a war department clerk $2. This makes a total of $1,522 received up to Thursday night.

An additional contribution of $100 has just been received by General Corbin from Gen. Russell A. Alger. Capt. Seyburn, of Detroit, United States army, retired, teregraphed Gen. Weston, acting commissary general: "One hundred for brave old Lawton."

Gen. Alger has telegraphed from Detroit as follows: "I send $100 for the Lawton fund. I hope there will be such a gevnerous response all over the country to the committee's appeal that the devoted wife and children of this gallant officer shall be placed beyond the possibility of want."

Gen. Lawton's Funeral.

Manila, Dec. 22.—After the simplest possible ceremonies at the house, Gen. Lawton's body was taken to Paco cemetery, where it will remain until Mrs. Lawton is ready to accompany it on a transport to the United States. Troop B, of the 4th cavalry, which Gen. Lawton, when a captain, commanded, and which had been serving as his body guard, escorted the body to the cemetery. When the body is sent home there will be a public funeral with military honors.

The widow of the dead general is receiving hundreds of expressions of sympathy and condolence. Many Filipinos, who say they knew Gen. Lawton was their good friend, express great grief at his death. Officers of the civil governments which Gen. Lawton established, even as far north as Tayug, are sending messages of sympathy and say they wish to come to Manila and attend the funeral. The supreme court also intends to take official action.

Speaking of Gen. Lawton Gen. Otis said:

"I suspended the orders for the San Mateo movement last Monday evening on account of the storm. Lawton came from Malajacan and personally urged that the expedition be allowed to proceed. He said the troops were already advancing and he thought that storm would not seriously interfere with the operations. I finally concluded to permit him to go ahead.

"Gen. Lawton's death is an irreparable loss. He was a man who would always 'get there.' He was ever ready to adopt plans to meet whatever obstacle he encountered. He was reckless as to his personal safety, but was unusually considerate of his men."

The death of Gen. Lawton will not delay the carrying out of Gen. Otis's plans. The first work to be undertaken will be the opening of ports in the southern provinces. It is not intended to make any special campaign in Cavite province.

Ville Marie Bank Trials.

Montreal, Dec. 22.—Ferdinand Lemieux, the chief accountant of the defunct Ville Marie Bank, who was on trial on a charge of issuing and signing a false return of the bank's finances to the government has been found guilty and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. It was only a few days ago that William Weir, the president of the bank, was found guilty and sent to jail on a similar charge. Three of the directors, Vice-President Lichtenheim, Godfrey Weir and F. W. Smith, are yet to be tried.

Serious Explosion in a Hotel.

Findlay, Ohio, Dec. 22.—Gas leakage through the city gas mains passed through a sewer into a room of the hotel opposite, and there was ignited by a gas jet, causing a serious explosion. Partitions were blown out, windows shattered and fire ensued, but was quenched by the department. Several persons were badly injured.

Julia Morrison to be Tried January 4.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Dec. 22.—The trial of Julia Morrison, the actress who killed Stage Manager Frank Leyden on the stage of a local theatre, has been set for Thursday, Jan. 4.

EDUCATIONAL

REV. H. C. EYME,

a native of Hanover, Germany, and a graduate of the Universities of Heidelberg and Gottengen, is prepared to receive pupils for instruction in GERMAN, FRENCH, SPANISH, GREEK and LATIN. Terms moderate. Best references on hand. For particulars call or address

78 Duer Street. North Plainfield, N. J.

12 11 6 eod

Plainfield Business College

CITY BANK BUILDING,

Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses. PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS. Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.

(City Bank Building.)

Adella C. Phelps will resume work Sept. 26th. Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

PRIVATE INSTRUCTION

given in

German and Elementary French.

Address for terms,

MISS ALICE GILBERT,

11 8 1mo 811 West Fifth Street

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,

Teacher of

::: PIANO AND THEORY :::

Home Studio,

122 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,

Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.

—TEACHER OF—

PIANO AND ORGAN.

Address—60 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

.....Piano Instruction.....

Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.

MISS ANNA O. MARSH and MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.

915 MADISON AVENUE.

Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes Elementary Classes.

Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.

William Holmes

(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Dufft.)

Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.

Studio at Residence,

440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

M. POWERS,

DEALER IN

LEHIGH COAL.

FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.

Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A

Yard 726 to 737 South Ave.

Advertised Mail Matter.

DECEMBER 18, 1899.

FIRST CLASS.

Apgar, Mr Geo C	Martin Mr Henry
Arnold, Mrs	" Mrs Isabella
Brown, Mr John P	Marsh, Miss A
Burke, Miss Katie	Owner, house for sale
Campbell, Mr A H 2	Palmer, Miss I J
Cooper, Mrs J R	Parker, A W
Crone, J F	Pullman, L
Fields, Miss Harriett	Ralston, Mr H M
Geslin	Read, Mrs John
Harvey, Miss Martha	Richardson, Mr John
Hull, A A	Rockland, L
Hunter, Mrs R D	Roome, Mr. Wm P
Huston, Mr John	Rojette, Mrs Albert
Jelinarnd, Mr Robert	Scheliendreuler, Rev H
Johnson, Mr Aug	Shoden, Mr J H
" P M	Taylor, Mrs E S
Jones, Mrs M	Tims, Mrs May
Kellogg, Mrs	Walker, Mrs Anna
Kitchell, Mrs Martha 2	Mr Thomas S
McLean, Mr A M
VanVleit, Mrs Herbert

THIRD AND FOURTH CLASS MATTER.

Bunck, Mr C C	Pendergast, Mrs C
Hoff, Mrs Effa J	Turner, Dr A F
Mollman, Samuel V	Upton, Mr Fred
Young, Mr Edward

E. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.

MONEY TO LOAN.

197 North Ave.

Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmon

Telephone 601

Don't miss the Special Sale for the holidays of

FRAMES,

EASELS,

and PICTURES

AT REDUCED PRICES,

given by the

Guarantee Portrait Studio,

142 East Front Street.

Fine drawings in Crayons and Pastels from all kinds of photographs. All kinds of frames from the latest styles of mouldings made to order at the lowest prices.

THAT'S THE IDEA!

You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.

Woolston & Buckle,

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS

141 North Avenue.

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .

(Licensed)

J. H. Staats, Prop'r.

107, 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.

EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.

AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

Park Avenue Hotel,

Park Avenue and Eighth Street, Plainfield.

Refurnished and Renovated.

Steam Heat in Every Room.

. . . Elevator . . .

First-Class in every respect.

Terms Moderate.

F. W. COLEMAN,

11 3 1mo Proprietor.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL.,

corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.

RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

Mrs. John Brown

Successor to

JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned

FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.

Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.

FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.

NEW YORK MAILS.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE and EASTON.

Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m.; 2:30 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a.m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p.m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.

WARRENVILLE.

Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M.

Corporation Notice.

of application to the Court of Common Pleas for the appointment of Commissioners to assess benefits for street improvements.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, pursuant to Chapter 200 of the laws of 1898, entitled, "An Act to authorize the improvement of streets and highways in cities of this State, and to provide for the payment of the expense of the same," approved June 13th, 1898, and the amendments thereof and supplements thereto, that application will be made by the Common Council of the City of Plainfield to the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Union at the Court House in the City of Elizabeth on the thirtieth day of December, A. D. 1899, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as the said Court can hear the said application, for the appointment of three Commissioners, who shall be freeholders and residents of the City of Plainfield, as Commissioners to estimate and assess benefits respectively conferred by the permanent improvement of streets under the several ordinances of said City, respectively entitled:

"An Ordinance for macadamizing East Sixth Street between Watchung Avenue and Richmond Street, excepting where already macadamized," approved Oct. 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing Franklin Place between LaGrande Avenue and East Fifth Street," approved Oct. 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing East Ninth Street between Park Avenue and Watchung Avenue," approved Oct. 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing West Fourth Street between New Street and Monroe Avenue," approved Feb. 9th, 1899.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing West Third Street between Madison Avenue and Monroe Avenue, excepting where already macadamized," approved Feb. 9th, 1899.

and to perform the duties and execute the powers conferred by said Acts of the Legislature.

By order of the Common Council of the City of Plainfield.

JAMES T. MACMURRAY,
City Clerk of the City of Plainfield.

Dated, December 18, 1899. 12 19 td

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS.

New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Hire for Picnics, etc.

Satisfaction Guaranteed.

OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

H. ENANDER,

Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.

Contractor for sewer connections.

210 PARK AVE.

H. S. Gayle. 18 VINE STREET.

(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)

Carpenter and Builder

ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

THE

First National Bank,

of Plainfield, N. J.

Capital .....$200,000.
Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000.

J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.

DIRECTORS.

Charles Potter.	Wm. McD. Corlell.
P. M. French.	H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman.	Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson.	Wm. R. Codington.

F. S. Runyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.

VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

OPEN EVENINGS. FURNITURE.

Wouldn't a clean finished, well-made piece of Furniture make an ideal Christmas present?

FURNITURE. Jardinier Stands from 50c to $5.00.

POWLISON & JONES,

149 and 151 E. Front Street.

BUY YOUR PHONOGRAPHS,

Gramophones, Records and Supplies

A GOOD MACHINE AT $5.00.

BROKAW'S . . .

The Piano Dealer, 123 East Front Street.

Holiday Goods.

Why you should see our assortment; a walk through our store will be the easiest way to solve the problem of what to get for presents for young and old.

Our line of fancy articles consists of everything imaginable in Celluloid, Plush and Glass Ware.

Handkeachiefs, gloves, neckwear, hosiery, umbrellas and dress goods of all kinds and all prices. Furs and worsted goods of every description.

DOLLS . . .

Dolls of all kinds can be found on our doll counter, our assortment is bewildering in their novelty, extent and attractiveness. Our prices are lower than any other house will quote for the same article.

TOYS -:- -:-

Our Toy Department in the basement is larger than ever before. No such collection was ever gathered here before, and it is safe to say there is no better stock in town in point of variety, there is no stock in town that equals ours in prices that's certain.

Children's velocipedes, tricycles, battleships, iron toys of all kinds, tool chests, wash sets, soldier sets, dishes, horse and wagons, chairs, printing presses, electric batteries, express wagons, magic lanterns, etc.

I. H. Boehm, 109-111-113 West Front Street

Choice Pieces, Odd Pieces,

Expensive Pieces, Cheap Pieces

In China, Metal and Glass.

Look at Our Line : :

JOS. W. GAVETT,

318 WEST FRONT STREET.

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles
in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.

Sherwins,

149 W. Front St.

There was a clergyman in a Long Island village who suffered from dyspepsia to such an extent that it positively seemed sometimes as though his doctrine was not sound. It was, however, only a stomach trouble, and had nothing to do with the mind. Being convinced of this, one of his parishioners, a lady, presented him with a small quantity of Ripans Tabules and the relief he experienced was such that all the congregation noticed an improvement, and now, although his salary is small, this clergyman and his wife devote a portion of it to keeping the medicine closet stocked with a suitable supply of Ripans Tabules. Doubtless there are many cases where what has been thought heresy was in fact nothing more nor less than dyspepsia, and Ripans Tabules cure dyspepsia. One gives relief.

A NEW STYLE PACKET CONTAINING TEN TABULES IN A PAPER CARTON (WITHOUT GLASS) IS NOW FOR SALE AT SOME DRUG STORES—FOR FIVE CENTS.

MOVED BACK FIVE MILES.

Gen. Buller's Forces Retreat From Their Position.

HIS ARMY IS MENACED.

London Now Fears a Flank Movement—Methuen's Position Also Considered Dangerous—Boers Admit Severe Loss at the Last Reported Battle—The Latest War News.

London, Dec. 22.—Field Marshall Lord Roberts has held a special military council of war at the war office. He strongly urged that a large contingent of native Indian cavalry be sent to South Africa for service against the Boers. It was his judgment that they would prove of inestimable service in the guerilla tactics necessary to cope with the Boers' mode of warfare. As a result of his insistence, Indian Secretary Hamilton cabled the Viceroy, Lord Curzon, to learn how many squadrons were available for war service and how soon they could be landed in South Africa.

Buller Forced Back.

London, Dec. 22.—London has again been startled by a despatch from Camp Chieveley, Natal, saying that General Buller's army retreated five miles from its position in front of the Boers. This retrogade movement in itself would not have caused serious alarm, as it would be considered a natural precautionary step for Buller to take in the circumstances. But the dispatch adds that two brigades were sent back to Frere in order to frustrate a possible attempt of the Boers to flank the British and destroy the railroad in their rear.

It was this that made it look as if Buller's army was menaced by the ever active Boers and gave the London public a fresh scare. The Boers admit, the dispatch says, that they suffered considerable loss during Friday's battle. The British lost in that action 140 killed, 643 wounded and 311 missing or prisoners.

A "Rude" Reply.

London, Dec. 22.—A despatch to the Central News from Modder River, dated Dec. 16, says:

"Gen. Methuen, under a flag of truce, sent a request to Gen. Cronje asking for information regarding the British wounded. Gen. Cronje promised to send the desired intelligence. We communicate with Kimberley nightly."

The war office has received the following despatch from Gen. Forestier-Walker at Cape Town, dated yesterday: "Methuen wires that he has received a rude reply from Cronje in regard to an officer whom Cronje calls a spy. Cronje refuses to hold any further communication with Methuen."

Maine's Dead Start North.

Havana, Dec. 22.—The removal of the dead of the Maine was not accompanied by any services as, in new coffins, they were placed in the mortuary chapel of the cemetery until all was completed. A difference was found between the number of coffins entered on Chaplain Chidwick's list, which was 154, and the actual number of coffins exhumed. Search was made through all the twenty-two graves in which the coffins were buried, but the missing three were not found. Father Chidwick said that the difference could be explained by a clerical error at the time of interring, as he was busy at the wharf, giving instructions and identifying the bodies, and could not superintend every detail. It also was possible that, after ordering parts of two different bodies to be placed in different coffins, they had been put into one coffin.

The superintendent of the cemetery, who buried the bodies, says that owing to all the bodies not being buried the same day it is possible that a mistake was made in the counting. He was certain no bodies were lost. Captain Green also says he does not believe any bodies went astray. The Texas has started for Norfolk with the Maine's dead and will make as good time as possible on the trip.

Invalid Bishop Must Ride in Smoker.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 22.—Gov. Candler signed the bill compelling railroad companies operating in this state to provide separate sleeping cars for colored patrons. The measure has aroused the colored population of the state, and, while pending before the governor, was the subject of protests from Bishop Turner, Brooker T. Washington and other leaders of the race. Bishop Turner is now ill in Savannah, and is anxious to come here for treatment. He will be compelled to make the jurney, however, in a smoking car.

Big, But Slow.

Liverpool, Dec. 22.—The Oceanic has arrived here. The vessel was thirty hours delayed and this had caused much anxiety. The big liner was retarded by heavy weather and rough seas. The White Star line official., however, declared that at no time were they worried, as they knew that the ship was all right. The delay of the Oceanic was particularly disquieting because of the fact that the great vessel has been accustomed to making her trips on a regular time schedule.

Threw the Collector Down Stairs.

Canadaigua, N. Y., Dec. 22.—Johnson Redmond is lying at his home with his right arm and right leg broken. Johnson is a collector. In a dispute over a bill, N. H. Camp threw him downstairs. This caused the horse of Mrs. George Mathias to run away. Mrs. Mathias had her right leg broken. The horse ran down Gustave Bleibert, injuring him internally and he may die.

Murder and Suicide.

Binghamton, Dec. 22.—John Edgar Gardner, in order to get his picture in print, shot his young wife and then killed himself. Gardner was sixty years old, his wife twenty-nine. They had been married but a short time and were living apart on account of his bad habits. On several occasions he had asked how she would like to see their pictures in a local paper.

"Mary, how do you like the Ivory Soap?"

"Best we have ever had, ma'am. The starched clothes are whiter and the flannels are softer than when washed with common soaps. It saves my hands; they used to be very sore after a wash."

"Well, Mary, I am told that it saves the clothes, too, and you shall have only Ivory Soap after this."

Those who have tried both common soap and Ivory Soap, say that it takes only two-thirds as much of the Ivory for a wash.

COPYRIGHT 1898 BY THE PROCTER & GAMBLE CO. CINCINNATI

DEATH A POWERFUL SERMON.

John Crawford Dies at a Testimony Meeting in New York.

New York, Dec. 22.—A man has just been buried from the Broome Street Presbyterian church whose life was commonplace enough but whose death was a sermon more powerful than any ever preached by a Beecher or a Spurgeon. His name was John Crawford.

Crawford died on his feet at a testimony meeting in the New York Christian Home for Intemperate Men, at Eighty-sixth street and Madison avenue. He was giving his testimony when stricken and the last word on his lips was "Jsus." These were his last words:

"I think I am one of the slow of speech just referred to by our leader. It is not, however, that I am ever ashamed to say a word for Christ, but I am ashamed of my many backslidings from the right way.

"Now I have again asked God to forgive me and once more after months of dissipation and sin I know He has forgiven me and that I am still a joint heir with Jesus"—. He stopped short.

For half a minute the ticking of the clock above the leader's head was the only sound. The hundred or more worshippers looked at Crawford, expecting him to continue. He stood as if transfixed.

His eyes were fixed in an upward look and a smile over his lips. Without another word, without a sign of pain or indication of distress he sank slowly back, still looking up, into the arms of those behind him.

He was dead, the smile still on his face.

Crawford was a Scotchman, sixty-one years of age. He was a tanner and currier and a splendid worker when sober. His besetting sin was drink, and a recent prolonged debauch had caused a separation from his wife. Through the kind offices of friends in the Broome Street Presbyterian church he was admitted to the Christian home for a five weeks' term. There he became converted.

Those who heard his last words and witnessed his death regard it as a most remarkable event. Many of them say it was a miraculous manifestation of God's grace.

Rev. George S. Avery, resident manager of the Christian home, in discussing the matter, said:

"Crawford's death was a sermon that will be preached to tens of thousands long after his body has crumbled to dust.

"It was a wonderful event and a beautiful way to die. There was nothing even tragic in it. It was as peaceful as the going to sleep of a child.

"It was at once a manifestation of God's mercy and power and a warning to the living."

Hanna Talks of the Outlook.

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 22.—Senator M. A. Hanna, arrived here Thursday, leaving the city for Cleveland in the evening. The senator said:

"The country is in excellent shape and prosperity will continue. It is not possible to always arrange to meet a speculative scare, but there is money sufficient to accommodate the business world. The present trouble has nothing whatever to do with the actual conditions. It is simply a result of over speculation and will not be serious. It cannot be in any way attributed to the Republican policy.

Head of Baldwin Works Dead.

Fort Atkinson, Wis., Dec. 22.—A telegram from Santa Barbara, Cal., announces the death of Dr. Edward H. Williams, senior partner of the Baldwin Locomotive Works of Pennsylvania. Death was due to heart disease. Dr. Williams was prominently connected with early railroads in Wisconsin. He was knighted by the King of Norway and Sweden.

Oyster Men Chase a Pirate.

Norwalk, Conn., Dec. 22.—Oystermen are watching with interest a mysterious sloop which has been hovering about the coast between Norwalk and Stamford in the lower harbor of Stamford. Efforts to communicate with the craft failed. It is supposed that the boat is an oyster pirate, and a strict watch is being kept for its return in these waters.

SURPRISE IN MOLINEUX CASE.

Juror Martin Makes a Significant Utterance in Court.

New York, Dec. 22.—Just at the close of the Molineux Trial Thursday evening there came a startling revelation of the opinion of the foreman of the jury regarding Molineux's hand writing and that of the Barnett and Cornish letters. Foreman Martin declared he could not see any similiarity between them. Molineux laughed delightedly. Martin's statement seemed to foreshadow the verdict, as the basis of the prosecution's case rests on the experts' evidence. This sensation came out through questions put to expert John F. Tyrrell by Mr. Martin. The foreman began by saying that he had picked out three "Cornish" letters and one "Barnett" letter very much alike, and he wanted to know when the Barnett letters were written.

"In the early summer of '97," said the witness.

Mr. Martin asked if a man who was disguising his handwriting could carry the disguise through such a length of time as the interval alleged to exist between the "Cornish" and "Barnett" letters.

"They show that they were written by the same man," said the witness.

Up to this time the trend of Mr. Martin's questions seemed to indicate that he had been deeply impressed by the case of the prosecution.

Molineux looked Glum. Then came the surprise.

"You took the ground that all these letters were written by Molineux," said Mr. Martin, "that you find the same pen habits running through all of them?"

"Yes," said Tyrrell.

"It is impossible for me to see them," answered Foreman Martin. "I cannot see the similarities between them and Mr. Molineux's writing."

Every one starred at Mr. Martin, amazed at this announcement of the state of his mind. Many had risen in their excitement to hear him better. It was a significant utterance.

To Inquire Into Imboden's Death.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 22.—Consul Mitchell, at San Pedro, Spanish Honduras, has been instructed to inquire into the killing of Captain Jack Imboden, and the wounding of William Gold, American citizens. Both men were shot at San Pedro in their room by a native of Honduras. Captain Imboden was a son of General Imboden of Virginia. The department of state has no official confirmation of the killing.

Convention in June.

Washington, Dec. 22.—The National Democratic convention will be held either June 26 or July 3. Many of the Democratic leaders favor July 3, to give time to digest the Republican platform. Another reason for having the Democratic convention during the first week in July is that the nominations in all probability would be made the Fourth—Independence Day.

Conductor Crockett Dead.

Richmond, Ind., Dec. 22.—Charles C. Crockett is dead at his home here. He was a conductor on the Indianapolis division of the Pan-handle for more than twenty consecutive years, and the train which he ran was named "Crockett's Accommodation." It still retains the name, although Mr. Crockett had been retired for several years. He was 62 years of age.

Italian Priest Becomes a Baptist.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 22.—Rev. Marco Mazzuca, formerly priest of St. Michael's Italian Catholic church of this city, has resigned and has just been ordained a clergyman of the Baptist faith. He is about forty years old and has been in America only four years. He will engage in missionary work among the Italians.

New Party to be Launched in Boston.

Washington, Dec. 22.—The American Political league has issued a call for a national convention for the nomination of candidates for president and vice-president of the United States, to be held in Boston, Mass., July 4, 1900. The councils of each state are directed to appoint two delegates at large.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 2:00 p. m.

108 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week
$5 a year—in advance.
No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada
Delivered by carrier or by mail.
The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district
Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on request.
Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., DEC 22, 1899

COMING EVENTS.

December 24—Rev. Walter T. Griffin, U. S. Consul at LaMoges, France, will address the Y. M. C. A. men's rally.

December 25—Log fire social at Y. M. C. A. at night. Basket-ball, etc., in the gymnasium during the day. Young men who are away from home are especially invited.

January 1—Open house at Y. M. C. A. All men are invited.

January 1—Mons DeVilliers and Miss Carolyn Layng in Y. M. C. A. Star Course.

The Rendition of "The Messiah."

The fact that the large auditorium of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church was crowded to the doors, and as many more persons were turned away unable to gain admittance, at the public rendition of Handel's sublime oratorio "The Messiah," testifies more than anything else to the great success of the popular movement that led to this impressive musical service

Since there was nothing exclusive about the event, and the talent was equal in every respect to that evidenced in any previous musical rendition of local effort, it can be regarded as one of the greatest musical affairs held here in recent years.

The committee that has had the management of the affair in hand deserve unstinted praise for the excellence with which their efforts were rewarded both at the rehearsal Tuesday evening and again at the public rendition last evening. The expense involved in the two performances reaches the sum of $600, every penny of which was raised by private subscription. Though it was not an easy thing to secure the assurance of such a fund, those who undertook the work express great gratification over the the readiness and liberality with which their appeals were responded to by the Plainfielders who were sought to aid the movement.

The great numbers who had the pleasure of hearing "The Messiah" sung in such glorious and inspiring manner, should be appreciative of the unselfish labor and energy that this fact involves while yet praising the performance itself. On the other hand the contributors to the fund will undoubtedly find ample gratification in their giving by realizing that in so doing they have aided in one of the most notable and up-lifting musical services ever held in Plainfield—one which the great throngs that clamored for a chance to hear affords evidence of its perfect success.

As the orginator of the idea of the popular rendition of the oratorio, and as one who has devoted a great deal of personal attention to the preliminary details, Rev. W. R. Richards, pastor of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, deserves great credit.

The organization of the New Jersey State School Board Association, which includes over 200 representatives from the various school boards of the State, will undoubtedly prove lively to that somewhat famous Legislative House known as the State Teachers' Association The latter organization, under the energetic efforts of Miss Elizabeth Allen, of Hoboken, has been very active among the law makers at Trenton during the past few years, and undoubtedly the School Board Association will now attempt to counteract some of the influence wielded by the Teachers' Association.

There is talk now that Mrs. Mattie Hughes Connon, who has already served as a State Senator in Utah, may be elected a member of the United States Senate from that State, which happens just now to have a vacancy. This would be regarded by the Mormons as a "vindication" of Roberts, especially since Mrs. Cannon holds steadfastly to the early tenets of the Latter Day Saints. George Frisbie Hoar has expressed the opinion that nothing in the Constitution forbids the admission of women to the Senate of the United States.

Under public ownership Leicester, England, furnishes gas at fifty six per 1,000 cubit feet, and makes a net profit of $125 000 a year.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

"Farmer Orator" Martine, of Plainfield, does not agree with Orator Daly, of Hoboken, that the currency question should be permitted to lapse into obscurity in the coming Presidential campaign. It would be safer for both these gentlemen to hold their views in abeyance until after the visit of Mr. Bryan to New Jersey. After the prophet has spoken it will be time enough for the disciples to talk.—Newark News.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

Without doubt the most popular attraction that Manager Edwards could have secured for a Christmas attraction is the Burrill Comedy Company, who will appear at Stillman Music Hall all next week. For the Christmas matinee Wm. Haworth's great success will be presented with an immense amount of special scenic effects. For the evening performance, another of the famous Haworth's successes, "The Ensign," will be produced with nearly a car load of special scenery. Both plays are well known in Plainfield, having been produced at high prices a few seasons ago. During the engagement, daily matinees will be given with a change of bill each performance. Seats are now on sale at the box office.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—New game, La Lutte, at Harper's.

—Hepburn & Company are offering a line of fine perfumes suitable for Xmas.

—VanEmburgh is selling holiday goods at a sacrifice. Store 135 East Front street, near Park avenue.

—Owing to the rush of trade at Woodhull & Martin's store the cashier, Miss Wilcox, is obliged to have an assistant.

—Tomorrow afternoon the Loyal Temperance Legion will hold their Christmas entertainment in the W. C. T. U. rooms.

—The usual Christmas festivities will be at the Children's Home this year, and the lighted tree will be an event of pleasure to all.

—At J. W. VanSickle's North avenue meat market there is to be found a choice supply of Jersey turkeys, game of all kinds and the best cuts of meat. The prices are all right.

—Fred H. Firstbrook, grocer, 312 Liberty street, has a special sale for Friday and Saturday for cash customers. He quotes very low prices Look over his figures and save money by buying of him.

—Last Wednesday was one of the largest days for business that Woodhull & Martin have had since coming to Plainfield. During the afternoon their large store was simply crowded with purchasers.

—Just received at Neuman Bros., the Watchung avenue grocers, 300 pounds of fresh roasted Java and Mocha coffee; the quality and flavor is unexcelled. Just the thing to complete your Christmas dinner.

Municipal Ownership at Bayonne.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Bayonne, Dec. 22.—Bayonne may own its own electric lighting plant in the near future The city's contract with the United Gas Improvement Company expired July 1 last and has not been renewed although the city has continued to receive its gas and electric light under the old contract. At the meeting of the Common Coucil last night the matter was referred to the committee on water, streets and drainage, in conjunction with City Attorney Benny, to consider the advisability of the city building a plant of its own for lighting the city with gas or electricity and to report back at the next meeting.

Third Star Course Affair.

The third event in the Y. M. C. A. Star Course will be held Monday evening, January 1st, when Mons. D Villiers, a celebrated ante-spiritualistic, illucionistist and magician will astonish the audience, assisted by Miss Carolyn Layng as an entertainer.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

—Sweet Florida, Jamaica and Navel oranges, mandarines, lady apples and fancy table apples. Neuman Brothers. 12 21 2

THERE IS A CLASS OF PEOPLE

Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over ¼ as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15c. and 25c. per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it; no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,
122 East Front Street.

Just For A Day
IN OUR
BASEMENT!

Solid Oak Writing Desk and Bookcase, value $12.98, only a few at - $9.69

Bookcase in Golden Oak, 27 in. wide, 55 in. high, value $3.50, 6 to go at $2.87

$5.98 Oak Writing Desk - - - $4.98
9.45 " " " - - - 7.98
9.95 " " " - - - 8.40
11.40 " " " - - - 9.80

$15.00 Full-size Couch, Best Steel Springs, six styles Figured Velours, extra value at - - - - $10.50

Solid Oak 5 drawer Chiffonier, value 6.50, for Saturday - - $4.98

A full line of Chiffoniers up to $19.95.

18-in Top Oak Tables - - - 85c
22-in " " " - - - 1.25
24-in " " " - - 1.48
A special 20-in Birdseye Maple Table $1.98

Tables at 2.98, 3.75, 4.48, 4.98.

These Goods Cannot be Duplicated in the Town for the Price.

LAMPS! LAMPS! LAMPS!

See Our Centre Window.

Lamps at 1.98, 2.98, 3.48, 3.98 and 4.98, that are exceptional good values.

Toilet Sets in Domestic and imported porcelain from 1.98 to 12.00.

Doll Carriages and Go-Carts.

If in doubt what to give the little girl for Christmas buy her a Go-Cart for her doll. We have them in infinite variety, from 49c to 4.98.

MORRIS CHAIRS.

Solid Oak Frame, Velour Cushions, extra large and roomy, - - - 4. 98
In Denim Cushions, - - 3.98
High Grade Morris Chairs from 6.48 to 14.98

FANCY ROCKERS.

4 styles, some in Fancy Velours, spring seat, saddle seat or leather seat at - - 2.98
Others in oak and mahogany - 3.48 to 5.00

WOODHULL & MARTIN,
234, 236, 238, 246 W. Front Street.

PECK'S CORNER.

PECK'S

. . . HOLIDAY STOCK . . .

recommends itself to those who are seeking really practical and useful presents for friends.

Merry Christmas. Happy New Year.

To those who contemplate making

Christmas Presents

I advise you to call and see the

Handsome Building Lots At Woodland Park, Plainfield.

Suited for a king or prince. Or some of our one or two acre Plots for Raising Poultry, &c. You can buy these properties at Low Prices, monthly payments guaranteed title. These properties will double in value in two or three years. Other investments to suit all.

SILAS D. DRAKE,
175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

Open Evenings — Bonn's, 140 West Front St. — Open Evenings

Christmas Gifts of Use.
Christmas Gifts of Beauty.

Only one day left for Christmas shopping; money spent here is well spent. You can buy for comfort and adornment, whatever you buy. If for gifts will surely be acceptable. THESE FEW HINTS MAY HELP YOU:

Taffeta Silk Waists, $4.98 and $5.98,
all desirable colors and black, cords, tucks and hemstitched. The newest of the new in style, at $4 98 and $5 98.

Mercerized Petticoats, $2.49 and $3.39.
We have lower priced ones also, these are pretty, stylish and serviceable, all choice colorings and black.

French Grey Flannel Waists, $1.89.
stylishly made, stock collars, flare cuffs, four brass buttons on front, French back, only $1 89.

Gold and Silver Brooches, 25c, 39c and 49c, mounted with pearls, Rhine stones and colored jewels, of sterling silver and rolled gold plate, dainty and novel designs.

Beaded Belts and Fancy Buckles.
Fashionable beaded belts, all black, steel and black, all steel, white, 31c to $1 98

Brilliant riveted steel buckles as low as 25c; some beauties at 63c, 89c and $1 23.

French Flannel Waists, $2.89,
so desirable now; here in all the wanted colors, such as rose, cardinal, grey, navy, royal and black, dressmaker made, stylish and perfect fitting, each in a separate box, only $2.98

Fancy Hat Pins, 19c,
to be sure we have some that cost more, but there is good choosing from these, of gilt enameled and Filigree, many have jeweled tops, value 25c to 50c.

MILLINERY.
We sell millinery of the right sort at extremely low prices. Large velvet hats, with large stitched silk bow, $2 49.

And Other Sensible Gifts.

THE BOOT SHOP — AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,
107 Park Avenue.

Great Millinery Sale
Continued For One Week.
Two to three hundred Felt Hats that were 39c and 50c now on sale for 15c and 19c.
$5.00 hats reduced to $2.98.
Great Reduction in Birds, Feathers and Ribbons.
Millinery Parlors,
L. A. DALY,
Corner W. Front St. and Central Ave
12 16 6

CHARLES ARNOLD,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats,
POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON
203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.
Telephone 238.

MASSAGE :-: VAPOR BATHS
CORNS REMOVED 25c.
M. V. STICKLE, 149 East Fifth St.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, Dec. 22—The New Market public school held Christmas exercises at the schoolhouse last evening, which were well attended. The programme consisted of the usual recitations and singing by the school. Rev. Frank Fletcher delivered an address.

The Piscataway School Board at a recent meeting discussed the necessity of more adequate school accommodations. The South Plainfield school has about 100 scholars with but two teachers The Board will take steps to increase the number of teachers in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Starker were pleasantly surprised on the occasion of the tenth anniversary of their marriage, which occurred last Monday evening. The ladies brought refreshments and an enjoyable evening was passed.

The scholars from the first to the sixth grades are holding holiday exercises this afternoon at the Whittier school, consisting of songs and recitations. The school closes for a week's vacation.

A son was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Jay Crofoot, who are at Shanghai, China, as a Seventh Day Baptist Missionary. Mrs. Crofoot was formerly Miss Hannah L. Larkin.

Nathan Hill, an employe of the Central Railroad, while at work at Bayonne recently, fell from a coal chute he was assisting to construct, breaking a rib and bruising him severely.

There are letters advertised at the post office for Joseph I Folks, Mrs Wm. Goetz, Annie McKee, Lewis S. Smith.

George Giles is making some improvements to the interior of his residence on North avenue.

Senator Dalton, of California, has returned to his home after a short with Rev. A. F. Todd.

Mrs. A. I. Martine has been entertaining her niece, Miss Edna Smock, of Fresh Ponds.

The board of directors of the Dunellen building and loan association met last night.

W. H Vail is building a new house on the Sisty property for John G. Dumont.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa R. Merrell have been visiting friends in Hillsborough.

Miss Mabel Jamison has returned from a visit with friends at Irvington.

Mrs. W. H Taylor, who has been ill since Thanksgiving, is convalescent.

C. M. Wyhusky has nearly recovered from an attack of typhoid fever.

Mrs. O B Evans is entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Potter, of New York.

The invitation social at Apgar's hall last night was well attended.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, December 22.--No meeting of the Epworth League Literary Club was held last evening, owing to the young people of the church preparing for the Christmas entertainment to be held in the church Saturday evening.

Miss Reighnetta Marsh and Addie Johnson, who are taking a course of study at Luray College, Virginia, are spending their Christmas vacation with their parents.

Rev. G. M. Shott will lead the Baptist prayer meeting in the parlors of the church this evening. The subject chosen will be the Sunday-school lesson for Sunday.

A large delegation of the lovers of good music in the village attended the oratorio of The Messiah at the Crescent Avenue church last night.

Thomas Molloy and daughter, Miss Anna, of Glenside Park, have returned from a five weeks' European trip.

The Prospect Social Club held their first annual ball at Emery's pavilion last evening.

John R Haskard, of Grant avenue, was the guest of friends in town last evening.

The Town Committee will meet in the town rooms this evening.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, December 22.—Two thousand dollars went up in smoke at the Congregational church Wednesday evening, when a special service was held for the purpose of celebrating the paying off of the last debt against the church. During the praise service the pastor, Rev. Dr. James Danforth, called to the platform, J. L. Clayton, deacon, W. J. Alpers, the former treasurer, and T. H. Foote, the present treasurer, while one held a candle over a large iron pot, another touched the bonds to the light and the congregation sang loudly as the smoke curled up and the church was relieved from a debt of $2,000, contracted three years ago.

Bon Ami

The New Cleaner

HAS MERITS THAT ARE UNEQUALED. THOSE WHO USE IT SAY, "COULDN'T DO WITHOUT IT."

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders

—Dolls of all kinds at Harper's.

—Fine assortment of toys at Harper's, 411 Park avenue.

—Next week Wednesday evening Unity Lodge, No. 102, K. of P., will elect officers.

—There will be special Christmas music at the Church of the Heavenly Rest next Sunday.

—The funeral of late Mrs. William O. Baldwin will be held from the home on West Fourth street, tomorrow afternoon.

—Next week Tuesday evening the Christmas entertainment will be held in the parish house of the Church of the Holy Cross.

—All bills against the city must be in the hands of the City Clerk Saturday to ensure payment at the next meeting of the Common Council.

—Next Thursday evening the Christmas entertainment will be held at the First Baptist church. The event gives promise of being one of unusual interest.

—On Thursday afternoon of next week at 5 o'clock the annual Christmas entertainment will be held in the Church of the Heavenly Rest, Netherwood.

—Christmas exercises will be held at the German Lutheran church, Grove street, next Monday morning, when Rev. Mr. Shaffer, pastor, will preach.

—Brokaw, the East Front street piano and music dealer, is doing a nice business, and persons in search of holiday presents could do no better than give this house a call.

—The second-hand trolley cars received from Brooklyn for the Plainfield lines are provided with only one motor, hence they cannot make the time that those with double motors do

—Those in charge of the furnishing of Hope Memorial chapel are rapidly completing their work, and it is expected that everything will be in readiness for the dedication Sunday evening, December 31st, at 7:45 o clock —In speaking of the gift of a piano to Willie VanSickle, of East Third street, a few days ago, an error was made. The piano was a Christmas gift to both Willie and his sister, Hazel, from their aunt, Miss Randolph.

—You will find at Neuman Brothers, the popular grocers, all varieties of nut meats, Jorden almonds, stuffed dates, fancy table raisins, choice Malaga grapes and all varieties of candied fruits, stuffed prunes and choice figs. 12 21 1

Working Night and Day

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globule of health, that changes weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain fag into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box. Sold by L. W. Randolph.

THE COURTS

JUSTICE NASH

Judgment has been rendered in the landlord and tenant case of VanSickle against Baldwin.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Xmas tree decorations at Harper's, 411 Park avenue.

—Peck says: "Stay by quality and trade stays by you."

—The borough public schools closed today noon and will reopen Wednesday, Jan. 3d.

—This evening at Hope chapel a prayer-service appropriate to the season will be held.

—The usual evening service will be held at Hope chapel next Sunday and it will be of special interest.

—The Christian Endeavor Society meeting at the First Baptist church this evening will be of special interest and appropriate to the season.

—Shoes sold by Flynn Brothers. 222 West Front street, near Music Hall, are made right and made to fit. You can get what you want and be satisfied if you buy your shoes of them.

—Stages have been engaged to take the members of Hope chapel to the Crescent Avenue church next Sunday afternoon where a union Christmas service will be held. They will run after 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Lawyer Isaac P. Runyon is confined to his home by illness.

Mrs. Snyder, of Manning avenue, has entirely recovered from a recent illness.

Miss Brokaw, of Washington Park, is detained at home with an attack of mumps.

Miss Louise Wilbur, of East Front street, is entertaining company from out of town.

Miss Bonnell, of Manning avenue, has returned from a visit with New York relatives.

City Clerk MacMurray, of Westervelt avenue, is greatly improved from a recent illness.

Miss Smith, of East Third street, has secured a position at Crane's market, Somerset street.

Alonzo Titsworth, of Boston, is visiting his parents on Madison avenue during the holiday season.

William Devine, of Liberty street, has resigned his position with E. H. Holmes, of Madison avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kenney, of East Second street, have been entertaining relatives from Bound Brook.

Miss Fahrenholz, of Newark, has been visiting her sister, Miss Marie Fahrenholz, of the Babcock building.

Miss Marie Fahrenholz, of the Babcock building, will leave the city Monday to visit friends in Baltimore, Hugh R. Knox, of this city, was among those who attended a dinner given in Washington by Adj.-Gen. Corbin.

Editor Frank W. Runyon and wife, of Madison avenue, left the city today for Indianapolis, where they will spend the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cox, of Liberty street, left town yesterday to take up their residence in Watsessing, Essex county.

Miss Fanny Mills is assisting her father at the local office of the United States Express Company during the holiday rush.

Miss Nettie Young, of Central avenue, has secured a position at Woodhull & Martin's dry goods store during the holiday season.

Miss "Teddy" Scrymser, of Staten Island, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. J. R. Thiers, of Watchung avenue, has returned home.

Miss Ella Serrell, of West Front street, will soon take possession of her home on Plainfield avenue, which is being remodelled and arranged to suit her.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson, of Watchung avenue, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a bouncing baby boy. It was born Tuesday last.

Edwin T. Douglass, of Washington avenue, will soon remove with his family to Buffalo, the change of residence being made necessary by business in Buffalo.

David Snediker and family, who have been residing for several months at Poughkeepsie, N Y., have returned to Plainfield and are occupying their house on Grove street.

George Serrell, who was injured at Havana, some time ago while in the Government service, and who was afterward treated in a New York hospital, has returned to his home in this city.

Miss Lou Crosson, of West Fourth street, who for some time past has been one of the obliging young women at the central office of the local telephone company, has resigned her position, much to the regret of her many friends.

Livestock Dying of Hydrophobia.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Flemington, Dec. 22—The cows that were bitten by the rabid dog which passed through Hunterdon county a month ago continue to go mad. Wednesday a valuable cow belonging to Daunt Warner, of Centre Bridge, was attacked by hydrophobia. The animal was promptly killed. Yesterday a hog belonging to William Stevens, which was also bitten, went mad. A large number of cows and hogs were bitten by the dog.

—Leather and fancy goods at Harper's, 411 Park avenue.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

AT RANDOLPH'S,

See our Window Display. CHRISTMAS GREETINGS.

Great values in choice Perfumes. Never before this opportunity. Bottle goods from 10c to $4 50.
Hair Brushes, Military Hair Brushes, prices just ½ their reg. value.
House Thermometers, large assortment. Sachet Powders in bulk, 40 cents per ounce and in packages, 10c, 15c, 35c.
Lowney's Celebrated Candies, 60 cents per pound.
Whitman's Chocolates, 40 and 80c per pound.

PLACE ORDERS EARLY.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for Lowney's Chocolate and Chocolate Bon-bons. TELEPHONE CALL 109

Special Sale OF Clothing and Furnishing Goods

for the holidays. Fifty cents buys a dollar's worth of Clothing during this sale of stocks closed out to us from the largest clothing manufacturers of Boston, Mass., and Rochester, N. Y., at less than half the real value. We have the whip hand of competition to this end. Those who try to compete with us in quality cannot touch us in price, and those who meet our prices cannot supply our quality of goods. Every man wearing good clothes and wants to buy them at the right price should not fail to see us before going elsewhere. Here are some SPECIAL PRICES on goods SUITABLE for CHRISTMAS PRESENTS:

Smoking Jackets at $1.25!

Men's double-breasted Jersey coats strictly all wool, in black only, at 2.50, real value 4.50.

Men's Fancy Vests, double breasted, in loud patterns, would make a handsome present for any gentleman at 1.25 and 1.50 and up to 3.00, which would cost you in any other store in Plainfield from 3.00 to 5.00.

Men's strictly all-wool worsted Trousers made in the newest shape and colorings at 1.50, 1.75 and 2.25, our former prices were from 2.50 to 4.50.

Childs's Reefer coats at 1.00 and 1.50 would easily command 2.50.

Men's Business Suits strictly all wool in cheviots, cassimeres and Scotch cheviots at 3.50 & 4.25 worth double.

SPECIALS IN OVERCOATS FOR THIS SALE.

Men's Oxford Grey Overcoats strictly all wool, very stylish at 5 25. Men's black or blue beaver overcoats, good and heavy and all wool at 4 75

Men's Overcoats all wool meltons, kerseys and friezes, short cut box overcoats, handsomely lined, at 5.90 & 6 50. They are the best value ever offered.

ONE HUNDRED of the very finest grade of men's overcoats including patent meltons, kerseys and vicunas, silk or satin lined, the very newest styles, these garments are sold from 15.00 to 20.00 to be sold at 7.50 and 8.25.

Men's Ulsters 3.00 and upwards.
Children's Suits from 75c to 3.50.
Boys' Overcoats 1 75 and upwards.
Men's Sweaters 50c, 75c and 1 25.
Men's Half-hose, all wool, at 9c. Suspenders at 5c and up. Dress shirts at 35c and 45c. And 1,000 other articles that could be bought for Christmas presents and which would be appreciated more than anything else for the same amount of money.

New York Clothing Company

M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.

214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.

Plainfield, N. J.

Drake & Mundy

207 WEST FRONT STREET.

TURKEYS, CHICKENS, DUCKS, GEESE,

Choice cuts of all kinds of Meats.

Prices to Suit Everybody.

$2.00 worth of Trading Stamps with $1.00 Purchase.

Mr. H. J. Johnson, the well-known Vegetable Man keeps an elegant stock of Fruits and Vegetables on hand at very reasonable prices. Will be glad to get a call from his old customers 12 21 3

Many Choice Bits .. of Pottery yet.

ELEGANT LAMPS,
DINNER WARE,
FINE VASES and ORNAMENTS.

JOS. W. GAVETT,

318 WEST FRONT STREET.

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.

Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J.
Perth Amboy, N. J.

Mackintoshes.

We show a very attractive line of mackintoshes for women and children.

2.98. Misses mackintoshes, navy blue serge, plaid backs, detached military capes.

3.75. Women's mackintoshes, navy blue or black serge, plaid backs, detached military capes.

5.00. Women's mackintoshes, very fine all wool serge, fancy plaid backs, detached military capes.

75c to 2.00 Men's mufflers in a very choice assortment of handsome brocades and plaids.

1.00 Men's heavy dogskin walking gloves of a very excellent quality.

1.50 Men's Mocha gloves, the fashionable shades of grey and brown.

A Ruthless Sacrifice of TOYS : :

Nearly six thousand pieces in the lot, including a great variety of mechanical toys; tin and wood toys of all kinds; tops, horns, dolls, sets of furniture, building blocks, trains of cars, tin stoves and an endless variety of every kind of toys.

The lot is now on sale in our new basement.
Your choice for

3c each.

The values of the lot range from 5c to 50c the piece. This astonishing offer is made with a view to disposing of every toy we have on hand prompty before Xmas.

A Talk on Overcoats.

We know how to talk about them because we make them.

Our $10 Overcoat

is made from all-wool Kersey, cassimere lined, with a shoulder yoke and sleeve lining of real satin. The style is there as well as the quality. We have them from $5.00 to $13.50. Boys' Reefers $1.75 to $4.00.

We Make All Our Clothing.

Schepflin & Schultz,

M. J. Cashin, Manager.

322 West Front St.

98c CAMERA and One Double Plate Holder as shown in our window, for only 98c . . . .

During the rest of this week we will offer CAMERAS and SUPPLIES AT COST.

. . . . COLUMBIA RECORDS . . . .

-:- 30c EACH -:-

All Goods will be sold AT COST. Remember This Week Only.

GEO. W. WRENNICK,

133 NORTH AVE.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned

Best work for the money in town. Bids on work willingly given. Work done night or day. Get my bid before you have work done.

P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.

T. M. INGRAHAM.

S. R. STRUTHERS

offers his services as accountant. Books opened and closed. Trial balances made and Balance Sheets shown.

Call or address

544 WEST FRONT STREET. 12 13 12

XMAS IS NEAR

Now is the time to order your Xmas greens First come, first served. Holly, laurel and Xmas green wreaths and roping; also loose holly, palms, ferns, jardinieres and wicker baskets for Xmas presents.

MRS. L. J. DENTON,

Stillman Building. Tel. call 731.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.

Capital, $150,000.

Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.

CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

DIRECTORS.

Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Closson. H. G Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold. J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J B. Coward.

General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Preußen.

Provinz Brandenburg.

Berlin. Die hiesige Internationale Motorwagen-Ausstellung hat in finanzieller Beziehung besser abgeschlossen, als man nach dem Voranschlag erwartete. Dieser nahm einen Fehlbetrag von 6500 Mark an und nun ergibt sich ein Ueberschuß, der voraussichtlich 12,000 Mark oder etwas mehr beträgt.—Erbprinz Leopold zu Isenburg-Birstein, der vor einigen Jahren sich in Amerika vergeblich nach einer reichen Erbin umsah und seitdem in stiller Zurückgezogenheit lebte, wird jetzt zur Schutztruppe in den deutschen Kolonien übertreten.—Der Bildhauer Friedrich Schaper ist in Folge eines Nervenleidens, das er sich durch Ueberarbeitung zugezogen, in das Sanatorium in Schlachtensee aufgenommen worden. — Das 15jährige Dienstmädchen Hellwig verübte in einem Anfalle von Wahnsinn im Keller ihres Dienstherrn, eines Gastwirthes in der Marienstraße, auf schreckliche Weise Selbstmord. Sie entkleidete sich bis auf's Hemd, durchtränkte dieses mit Petroleum und zündete es an.—Der im September aus Berlin verschwundene antisemitische Redakteur Sedlack ist, wie verschiedene Blätter melden, im Gefecht bei Glencoe schwer verwundet worden und liegt in Pretoria im Lazareth.—Für die preußischen Hochschulen hat der Kaiser angeordnet, daß dieselben im Januar den Eintritt des Jahrhunderts feierlich begehen sollen. Die theoretische Frage, ob das 20. Jahrhundert mit dem 1. Januar 1900 oder erst am 1. Januar 1901 beginnt, ist seitens des Bundesrathes in praxis dadurch „gelöst," daß derselbe den 1. Januar 1900 als Jahrhunderts-Anfang bestimmt hat.

Charlottenburg. Unter dem Verdacht des betrügerischen Bankerottes und der Urkundenfälschung wurde im Hotel Hippodrom der Klempnermeister Louis Schiller aus Gleiwitz festgenommen und vorläufig in das Untersuchungsgefängniß eingeliefert. Die Festnahme erfolgte auf Requisition der Gleiwitzer Staatsanwaltschaft. Schiller hatte sich in das genannte Hotel eingiert und in das ihm vorgelegte Fremdenbuch seinen vollen Namen und Stand eingetragen.

Provinz Hannover.

Hannover. Die Berliner Geheimpolizei hat hier eine mysteriöse Verhaftung gemacht. Der Verhaftete, ein elegant gekleideter Mann, soll ein Anarchist sein, der ein Attentat auf eine hochstehende Persönlichkeit beabsichtigte.

Borkum. Von den hier gestrandeten Häringsloggern „Norden" und „Heinrich Daniel," Kapitäne Visser und Korving, wurden 28 Personen durch das Rettungsboot „Otto Haß" der Südstation gerettet.

Uelzen. Durch den Zusammenbruch des Bankhauses Mansfeld Wittwe in Lüneburg erleidet, wie jetzt bekannt wird, die Spar- und Darlehnskasse des landwirthschaftlichen Vereins Clenze (Kreis Luchow) einen Verlust von 47,000 Mark. Vorstand und Aufsichtsrath des Vereins haben die Deckung von 25,000 Mark übernommen, der Rest wird aus dem Reservefonds genommen.

Provinz Hessen-Nassau.

Kassel. Von einem hiesigen Konsortium wurde Bad Salzschlirf um 1,250,000 Mark angekauft.

Frankfurt. Kurz vor Abgang eines Zuges nach Marburg kaufte der Privatier Georg Friedrich Köhler am Schalter eine Fahrkarte. An demselben Schalter kauften Soldaten Militär-Fahrkarten, und durch irgend einen Zufall wurde das Billet Köhlers mit einer solchen verlauscht. Bei dem Umtausch bekam er mit dem Schalterbeamten Differenzen. Köhler äußerte dabei: „Sie sind mir viel zu jung und zu grün." Wegen Beleidigung wurde er zu 10 Mark Geldstrafe verurtheilt.

Provinz Pommern.

Stettin. Vor einiger Zeit sind an zuständiger Stelle verschiedene Garnisonveränderungen von Truppentheilen des 2. Armeekorps in Erwägung gezogen worden. Demzufolge soll geplant sein, das Infanterie-Regiment Nr. 34 von Bromberg nach Stettin, das Infanterie-Regiment Nr. 148 von Stettin nach Stralsund und das Infanterie-Regiment Nr. 42 von Stralsund nach Bromberg zu verlegen. Auch soll, der „Pommer'schen Reichspost" zufolge, die Verlegung eines der beiden hiesigen Artillerie-Regimenter, voraussichtlich des 38., nach Kolberg zum 1. Oktober 1900 im Bereich der Möglichkeit liegen.

Falkenburg. Der achtjährige Sohn des Arbeiters Haack hierselbst hat seinem dreijährigen Schwesterchen beim Holzzerkleinern mit einem Beil den Daumen der rechten Hand fast ganz abgeschlagen.

RUSHMORE & CO.

WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.

Dealers in

Lumber, Coal and Wood

Moulding & Planing Mill.

Turning and Scroll Sawing.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN

Is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 2c stamp for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cumins, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

Practicing.

That day little Tom had been naughty
(From the jam on the sly he'd been sipping),
And his mother had vowed that she thought he Deserved for his fault a sound whipping.

So, with heart quite as hard as asbestos,
To his chamber she led him. Wit in it
She locked him, and, smarting for justice,
Said, "I'll tend to you, sir, in a minute."

View him now—he's the picture of ruin
As he trembles and shakes on his legs.
Loud he cries, "Mother what are you doin'?"
She replies, "I am beating the eggs."

There's a pause, while with terror he's viewing
The prospect—a horrible dream.
Then he cries again, "Ma, what are you doing?"
And she says, "I am whipping the cream."

The answer brings scanty relief, for
New suff'ring ahead he can see,
And he cries, 'mid wild sobs of grief,
"Lor"!
She's gettin' in trainin' for me!"

Joined a Trust.

I'll never worry any more,
The clouds have cleared away;
The prospect stretches fair before,
And I am glad to-day!
I'll never need to work again,
And how I'll sling the dust—
For I am "in it" gentlemen,
Since father's joined a trust.

I used to dread the "rainy day,"
I used to labor, too,
And father used to gruffly say:
"There's work for you to do."
But now I'll cast my books aside,
My idle pen may rust.
And the one I want will be my bride,
For father's joined a trust

I'll have a yacht, I'll have a stud,
And a mansion by the sea;
The swiftest, swellest kind of blood
Is what I'm going to be!
Let others dig and toil away,
And worry if they must,
But I throw care away to-day,
For father's joined a trust.

—Cleveland Leader.

'Twas Ever Thus.

You often meet a charming girl,
Who is both young and pretty;
Who possesses grace and money, too,
And is sensible and witty.

But alas! you very seldom meet
Her in this world of strife,
Until too late—and she is tied
To some other chap for life.

A Distinction.

To kiss a miss is not amiss,
And yet it seems to me
To miss a kiss is quite amiss—
Yes, sad as sad can be.

After-Dinner Chat.

"Well, said Hungry Higgins, "here is the first good thing I ever read about them college dudes."

"Wot is it?" asked Weary Watkins, with little interest.

"Wy, it says a lot of 'em had a can rush—no, it ain't, either. It's a cane rush. There was a bit of gravy covering up the 'o'"

Then She Called the Dog.

Miss Sourface (to tramp)—Did you ever have a romance in your life?

Tramp—Yes, mum; I had a sweetheart once dat looked like you.

Miss Sourface (setting out another piece of pie)—And did she die?

Tramp—No, mum. Me fadder wantme to marry her, so I ran away from home.—Baltimore American.

An Omen.

"Have you noticed nearly every variety show nowadays has a female baritone? They didn't have 'em when you and I were boys."

"Yes I have noticed it, and, between you and me, I think it is a sign that woman suffrage is coming apace with gigantic strides."—Indianapolis Journal.

Steadfast Nature.

"I have seen Brother Bruggetts grow from a poor man to a middle-aged millionaire," said the aged minister, "and it has not changed him one bit. When he first entered my church he established the habit of putting a quarter in the plate every Sunday, and, though he has since grown rich, he puts in his 25 cents."—Indianapolis Journal.

A Merciless Judge.

"Horrible! Horrible!" he exclaimed.

"What's horrible?" she asked.

"Here's a story of a man with five wives," he explained.

"I should say it was horrible," she asserted.

"And when he was arraigned in court all five were there," he went on.

"And what did the judge do to him?" she asked.

"Abandoned him to his fate," he answered. "He discharged him. Oh, isn't it horrible?"—Chicago Evening Post.

An Enjoyable Tramp.

Mildred (from Philadelphia)—You don't seem to like Evelyn.

Penelope (from Boston)—She shows such a lack of proper culture. This morning she says she was going to take a tramp up the mountain.

Mildred—Well?

Penelope—Do you not think she might choose as her escort one whose social status is more in keeping with her own?—New York Press.

Stretched Hemp.

Tenderfoot—And you say the man they are burying yonder was not sick long?

Lariat Luke—None.

Tenderfoot—What cased his death?

Lariat Luke—Waal, y' see, stranger, before he wuz a corpse he borry'd another man's hoss 'ithout astin fer it. We fellers overtuk 'im an'—— Tenderfoot—Was he frightened?

Lariat Luke—Skeerdest man I uver seen—th' suspense killed 'im.—Ohio State Journal.

A

AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

The Genuine Portland Range has "Portland" on oven door plate, and "A. H. Van Horn, 73 Market St., Newark, N. J." on plate below oven door—sold here only.

Presents That Last!

—Imagine, if you can, more than four acres devoted—every inch of it—to presents for all parts of the home, for old, for young! 'Tis the largest store in line in all this State—pay cash or credit—prices always BELOW any other's prices. Goods selected now, reserved 'til later—free deliveries.

How would a Rug do? or an Easel, a Music Cabinet or a Library, or a Parlor Table, a Couch, a Lamp, some Pictures, Lace Curtains or Portieres. These and MORE such things are all here—for CASH OR ON CREDIT! These goods below are chosen from different lines and specially priced:

$3.49

Value $4.50

A lot of Cherry Rockers—highly polished—high arms, saddle seat.

$5.49

Worth $8.00

Cute Cornered Chairs—in cherry—silk damask covered—very new.

$5.75

Was $8.50

A swell front, golden oak Desk—French legs—one drawer.

Now $12.98

Value $16.

A mahogany finish, Combination Desk, bevel plate mirror, spacious and new style. 50 other kinds.

$10.75

A White Enamel Dresser, plate mirror, beveled edge, $15 usually.

GET A "Domestic" Sewing Machine for a lasting gift, needn't pay cash if you want. Old machines allowed for.

Music Cabinets

—all the way from $4.35 up—as goodly a line as you'll want.

STORE OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL CHRISTMAS

A Pretty Picture Book for Children to all Callers.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,

LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,

Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.

Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

— DEALERS IN —

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER

ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.

169 NORTH AVENUE.

Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phœnix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.

Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,

Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.

Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.

WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER

DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

Our Attractive Holiday Display

awaits your inspection. We are glad to welcome visitors and pleased to show our goods.

A. L. & M. D. Gorsline, 144 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS

Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.

GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.

119 East Front Street.

SMALLEY BROS.,

144 North Avenue.

BUTCHERS.

Everything usually found in a first-class market.

Orders called for and delivered.

Telephone 83 A.

Elston M. French,

Successor to VanBuren Bros.

Real Estate and Insurance.

Largest agency in the city. Loans negotiated.

163 NORTH AVENUE

Opposite Depot

H. Eggerding,

151 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated

C. O. D. CIGAR.

The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars.

McCullough's STEAM MILL.

11 Steiner place, North Plainfield

R. H. McCullough, Prop'r

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished

L. A. HUMMER,

VARIETY MARKET.

Meats Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.

163 SOMERSET ST.

Formerly 290 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Dec. 24—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic.—Our royal brother.—Heb. i, 1-9; iii, 6. (A Christmas meeting.)

The intent and purpose of the book of Hebrews are to point out the relation between the Old Testament dispensation and the New and to show the superiority of the New over the Old. This is done by proving the superiority of Christ, the minister of the New dispensation, over the ministers of the Old—angels, Moses, Aaron and the Aaronic priesthood. In this first chapter the writer argues the superiority of Christ over angels. His superiority is shown to lie in the fact that, while the angels of God are ministering spirits or attendant worshipers at the Son's advent, Christ is associated with God in His majesty, a sharer of His everlasting throne. The angels are servants. Christ is a King.

1. Christ was born King. Though born under the most humble human circumstances, yet Christ was a King by birth in that He was the Son of God, who is King of kings and Lord of lords. Ancestry, and not surroundings at birth, makes royalty. The child of a king is royal born, no matter what may be the outward surroundings of his birth, and no amount of external royal trappings would make the child of any other a kingly child. Christ is the Son of God. By birth, therefore, though born in the humble manger at Bethlehem, He is a King.

2. Christ as King sits upon a throne. His throne is the throne of God. It is an everlasting throne. "Thy throne, O God, is forever and ever." It is a throne of which righteousness is the scepter. "A scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Thy kingdom."

3. Christ as a King possesses a kingdom. He is not a King without a kingdom, but a King with one of universal extent in both time and space. His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom. It is a universal kingdom. He reigns in heaven and upon earth. "God hath highly exalted Him and given Him a name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven and things in earth and things under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of the Father." In this kingdom Christ exercises royal prerogatives. He rules, He governs, He rewards and punishes, and has absolute control of the lives and destinies of His subjects.

4. Christ is not only our King, but may also be our brother, our royal brother. "Christ (was faithful) as a son over His own house, of whose house are we if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end." We may thus become members of the household of Christ, His brethren, "heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ if so be that we suffer with Him, that we may be also glorified together."

Such a relationship to Christ is worthy of our best efforts and our highest ambitions, and in such a relation to a King we should keep His name and His honor unsullied and untarnished. Let us be worthy in thought, word and deed of the confidence and love of our royal brother.

Bible Readings.—Gen. iii, 15; Isa. vii, 14; xi, 1-10; Zech. ix, 9; Math. xxi, 1-11; Luke i, 26-33; ii, 1-20; John iii, 16; xviii, 33-38; I Tim. vi, 12-16; Rev. xv, 1-3; xvii, 14.

Once the Veil Has Been Lifted.

If one desires to understand the life of the best character, he must trace it away from the great cities, crossing monotonous plains until he comes to some lonely spot among the everlasting hills. It is there he will find the spring from which life begins, and, standing there, he will understand after what fashion the man believes, hopes, works and reasons. No doubt the stream will be re-enforced from many quarters, from literature, from art, from science, but the stream will also keep on its way, cutting through many a rocky obstacle, and to the very end it will carry with it some of the freshness and color of its origin. Great lives have mostly begun in some single moment, when the veil was lifted, revealing the things which are unseen and eternal. Once the veil has been lifted and the man has seen, you can trust that in his future life nothing can discourage that man again, for nothing can overcome him who has once seen God.—Ian Maclaren.

The Vacation Season.

It is gratifying to note that so many churches are open and careful provision made for acceptable preaching, but beyond this there is need of pastoral provision for the sick and the afflicted, and this often fails through too general an exodus of pastors. It would be a desirable innovation could some agreement be made among pastors to alternate in meeting this requirement. The Brooklyn Eagle publishes a list of 23 ministers in Brooklyn who are at home and ready to respond to calls for pastoral services. This is well and, whether fully adequate to the demand or not, is a step in the right direction.—Christian Intelligencer.

Life's Mirror.

There are loyal hearts, there are spirits brave,
There are souls that are pure and true!
Then give to the world the best you have,
And the best will come back to you.

Give love, and love to your life will flow,
A strength in your utmost need.
Have faith, and a score of hearts will show
Their faith in your word and deed.

Give truth, and your gifts will be paid in kind,
And honor will honor meet,
And a smile that is sweet will surely find
A smile that is just as sweet.

Give pity and sorrow to those who mourn,
You will gather, in flowers, again
The scattered seeds from your thought outborne,
Though the sowing seemed but vain.

For life is the mirror of king and slave—
'Tis just what we are and do.
Then give to the world the best you have,
And the best will come back to you.

—Selected.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic For the Week Beginning Dec. 24, "Our Royal Brother"—Text, Heb. i, 1-9; iii, 6.

"Heir of all things."

There is great fascination in the thought of coming into an inheritance for which some one else has labored. The leisure and luxury and opportunities given by wealth are very attractive, and those who are able to command them in early life often seem to get more enjoyment out of them than those who have spent a long life of toil before they have been able to afford the comforts of life. There is much of pride if not of arrogance, however, to which one is liable who inherits wealth instead of earning it. Those who get much with little exertion are also liable to be envied by many who are obliged to do without the things which large wealth can supply. Earthly heritages and legacies are liable to many incumbrances and embarrassments. Their advantages are often more than counterbalanced by their burdens. To be heir or heiress of great estates does not of itself insure happiness or well being. Too many times ruin follows for soul and body. Riches may curse instead of bless. Birth cannot secure worth and ability. Some things are impossible to those born heirs to great possessions, some things of great value to character.

Jesus is heir of all things, in all worlds and in all ages, because He is Son of the Eternal God. But how different is His fitness to obtain and use these than can be the case with any other person. Higher than all angels and archangel in nature, the very image of the Divine person, having all His glory and brightness, the very Maker of the worlds, He has all wisdom, power and excellent goodness. He knows and feels and acts as God because He is truly Son of God. But, more than this, He is also Man. He "emptied" Himself, divested Himself of all that which would prevent Him becoming a man under all human limitations and earthly circumstances. He learned as we learn. He felt as we feel. He suffered as we suffer. He met sin, temptation, privation, scorn, opposition, hatred, love, fidelity, friendship and all the conflicting conditions of life as we meet them. He overcame their evils and achieved a perfect human life, a divinely human character, the first in all ages. He became type of a humanity redeemed from all iniquity, purified, made holy, the image of the invisible Deity, God in flesh. He wrought out a unique personality. He became the first fruit of the tree of divinely human life. He suffered, but conquered.

He is worthy both because of His eternal, underived nature and His work and character accomplished in time in human body. He is able to rule all things because He has learned obedience to righteousness and truth.

He is our brother and became such in order to share His heritage with us. His love to us deserves our love and allegiance.

Will He Come?

That has been the question on the lips of many since the day when, standing on the Mount of Olives, the apostles saw the Lord Jesus taken up from among them. Shakespeare well characterizes the end of life as entrance upon a mysterious land, "the undiscovered country, from whose bourn no traveler returns."

We look for no one else to come back, but He has promised to return. All our hopes of the future are bound up in the fulfillment of that pledge. "If in this life only we have hope in Christ Jesus, we are of all men most miserable" declares the greatest of the apostles.

Bliss has no being, virtue has no good,
But from the prospect of eternal life.

So we eat and drink, remembering His loving sacrifice, His ever present help and sure promise. He will come. Are you working and watching that when He comes you may be ready to receive Him joyously and be received by Him in peace?

When?

So soon as the disciples began to preach the pledge of Christ's second coming men began to inquire, "When is it to take place?" and, "What are the signs of His coming?" The inquiry still continues. Many have tried to forecast from the prophetic numbers of the Scriptures the date of the event. This has to a large extent been profitless, if not worse. But because the time and circumstances are unknown the fact is made no less sure. The important matter for us is not when or how Jesus will come, but, rather, are we ready for Him? We have work to do to get ourselves and the world ready for Him. The whole of individual life and of society must be raised to the plane of the morally and spiritually pure. The greater part of it has been touched as yet only on the outer borders. Our task is not to speculate on dates and details outside our sphere, but to accomplish the work left us to do.

Ring Out, Ye Bells!

Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky,
The flying cloud, the frosty light!
The year is dying in the night—
Ring out, wild bells, and let him die!

Ring out the old, ring in the new,
Ring, happy bells across the snow!
The year is going; let him go—
Ring out the false, ring in the true!

Ring out a slowly dying cause
And ancient forms of party strife;
Ring in the nobler modes of life,
With sweeter manners, purer laws!

Ring out false pride in place and blood,
The civic slander and the spite;
Ring in the love of truth and right,
Ring in the common love of good!

Ring out old shapes of foul disease;
Ring out the narrowing lust of gold;
Ring out the thorns and wars of old;
Ring in the thousand years of peace!

Ring in the valiant man and free,
The larger heart, the kindlier hand;
Ring out the darkness of the land;
Ring in the Christ that is to be!

—Tennyson.

THE HOUSEHOLD

A FEW RECIPES.

White Mountain Cake.

One cupful of butter, three cupfuls sugar, one pint flour, one and a half teaspoonfuls baking powder, whites of six eggs, one cupful of milk, 20 drops extract bitter almonds. Rub butter and sugar to light, white cream add the six whites, whipped to dry froth, the flour, sifted with the powder, the milk, and extract; mix together thoroughly, but carefully, and bake in jelly cake tins in a quick oven 15 minutes, then arrange in layers with white icing and grated cocoanut mixed in the proportion of two cupfuls of former to one of latter.

French Omelette.

Take four eggs, separate the yolks from the whites. Beat the whites to a snow on a dinner plate; then beat the yolks in small basin, with sugar to taste then add a small pinch of baking powder and three large tablespoonfuls of flour, and milk enough to make a thin batter. Then pour into an omelette pan, previously heated and greased. Spread the white over the top. Fry by holding high above the fire till set brown on the top; double over and serve hot with jam.

Potatoes, Lyonnaise.

Parboil a dozen or more potatoes at breakfast time and set aside after you have peeled them, as they should get perfectly cold. When you are ready to cook them heat some butter or good dripping in frying-pan; fry in it one small onion chopped fine, until it begins to change color—say, one minute or more. Then put in potatoes, cut into small squares (like dice), not too thick or broad. Stir well and cook five minutes, taking care potatoes do not break to pieces. They must not brown. Put in some minced parsley just before taking up. Drain dry by shaking in a heated pan.

Fruits For Center Piece.

Place in the center of the dining table half of a yellow pumpkin, hollowed to form a bowl, filled with pears, grapes and rosy-cheeked apples. At either end of the table place flower bowls filled with red and yellow chrysanthemums. Arrange vines, caught in the chandelier, in and out among the fruit in the center of the table to the flower bowls at each end of the table.

Celery Salad.

Two bunches celery, one tablespoonful salad oil, four tablespoonfuls vinegar, one small teaspoonful fine sugar; pepper and salt to taste. Wash and scrape celery; lay in ice cold water until dinner time. Then cut into inch lengths, add above seasoning. Stir well together with fork and serve in salad bowl.

Cranberry Jell.

Wash one quart of cranberries, place over the fire with one pound of sugar and cold water enough to cover berries and sugar; let boil one half hour, run through fine sieve and cool in mold.

Saving the Rubber Plant.

Leaves turning yellow on a rubber plant is a sure indication of the bad health of the plant, the most common cause of which is the watering. During the winter season the plant is at a stage of comparative rest, and, therefore, only needs water when the soil begins to get dry. But it must not be allowed to become so dry that the soil will harden, or when it is watered canals or channels through the ball of soil will be the result, and the greater part of the roots will not be moistened at all.

If the soil once hardens, set the plant, pot and all, in a bucket, and fill with water nearly to the top of the pot, letting it remain for several hours.

Another fault is keeping the plant in a jardiniere containing stagnant water. After watering, always empty the jardiniere, or the soil will become sour again, causing the leaves to drop off.

Scented Beds.

It is now not an unusual thing to order that in your mattress of hair or wool shall be placed sachets of the odor you like best. Even if this is not done many housekeepers arrive at nearly the same result by using small flat sachets filled with lavender or violet or orris to slip under the turned down sheet or put in at the tucked in corners above the mattress. The pillow is perfumed by a silk sachet of its own size and shape slipped in on the unused side between the case and the ticking. None of this seems very wise unless the perfume is confined to your own bed—as many persons dislike all perfumes and others are made sick by certain odors. Therefore to perfume a bed for a guest whose idiosyncrasies are not known is dangerous, to say the least.

Several New Ideas.

Cashmere stockings are now worn with double feet, and to those who suffer from cold feet this is a very great boon. They also do not wear into holes nearly so quickly as the ordinary kinds are so apt to do—and darning is not at all an agreeable practice.

Fur collarettes have a gold chain attached to them, so that they will not fall off the neck when open, as was their pleasing habit before this was invented. Many valuable furs have been lost in this way—fallen off and not noticed till they had disappeared.

A Lovely Garden.

The Countess Castellane, once Miss Anna Gould, of New York, has the most lovely garden in France. She grows all the old fashioned flowers, which are allowed to overrun everywhere in luxuriant untidiness. One corner of this delightful spot she calls her garden of friendship, and in this she plants all the flowers that are associated in her mind with friends and relatives, each blossom being fragrant with a memory. It is a pretty idea.

DELICIOUS ASSURANCE.

The Last Resort of a Modern Verse Composer.

I heard yesterday of a writer whose opinion of the merits of his own work is in no wise affected by the dictum of editors. His name is Oliver Herford, and it is because of this same disregard of his for editorial opinion that the most-talked-of verses he has ever written came to be published. They were submitted to the editor of "Life," and they were returned, not once, but, as I remember it, twice. They started on their third journey to "Life," accompanied by a note to the editor.

"My dear Mr. Mitchell," it began, or, come to think of it, I believe it had the confidence to begin, "My dear Mitch," and it continued, "During your recent absence from your office, your office boy has been returning masterpieces, one of which I inclose. Please remit at your earliest convenience."

And the editor did remit.—Exchange.

Won at Last.

The Wicked Man who owed his ruin to the Devil met that personage one day.

"You have wrecked my life by your persuasive ways," said the man ruefully, "but some day I will fool you."

"Pshaw!" laughed Satan. "You can never get ahead of me."

But the man did. When he died he had his friends cremate him, thus forestalling the Devil.—New York World.

A Wise System.

Saloonist (to new bartender)—One rule of this house is never to sell any more liquor to a man after he has had enough.

Bartender—How am I to know when he has had enough?

Saloonist—As soon as his money gives out.—Baltimore American.

At It Again.

The Savage Bachelor—I don't see why a man should get married when a good parrot can be bought for $25.

The Sweet Young Thing—As usual, woman is at a disadvantage. A good grizzly bear can be bought for less than 10 times that.—Indianapolis Journal.

Fixing the Blame.

He—That Miss Simpkins is awfully shy, isn't she?

She—Yes. I wonder if she gets it from her mother?

He—No; from her father, I imagine. I understand he used to be a great poker player.—Chicago News.

Ordained.

"There is no reason why a politician should not be honest."

"No; it's just one of those things that happens. There is no particular reason why grass shouldn't be black; but it's green just the same."—Philadelphia North American.

Angel Cake.

Mr. Newlywed—What is this I am eating, dearest?

Mrs. Newlywed—That is angel cake, darling.

Mr. Newlywed—Ha! See me make it fly.—Philadelphia Record.

Cautionary.

(Slipping the ring on her finger)—Let's keep this secret a little while, darling. Don't say anything about it.

(In a whisper)—I won't, love—till I find out whether the stone is genuine or not.—Chicago Tribune.

The Classic Snooze.

Dinguss—We are to have no more Wagner sleeping cars.

Binguss—No, but the snorers in the berths will continue to render Wagner selections just the same.—Baltimore American.

Then She Went Out.

Tom—What do you think she did when I asked her to let me be the light of her life?"

Dick—I don't know. What?"

Tom—Turned me down.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Must Stand Together.

Katie—Don't you think the white goose is ever so much prettier than the others?

Bessie—No. And if I did think so I wouldn't say so. He's the gander!—Chicago Tribune.

One Way of Getting It.

"The only trouble with Plimmer is he lacks push."

"Well, he's overcoming that now. I've seen him out with the baby carriage several times lately."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

His Benefactor.

Every old maid has at least one consolation."

"And what's that, pray?"

"She has helped some man to enjoy single blessedness."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Took Him Up.

She—Will you buy me that hat?

He—My precious little—

She—Look here! You can either buy me that hat or you can love me precious little!—New York Press.

For Mercy's Sake.

"His wife's name is Mercy. She keeps him busy, too."

"Doing what?"

"Why, running on errands of Mercy."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Rural Wit.

Visitor—You say those two Hill brothers are deaf and dumb?

Native—Yaas. We allers call 'em the two Hills without a holler.—Indianapolis Journal.

The Tie That Binds.

"Do you favor trusts?"

"Well, yes—lovers' trusts."

"I see. You mean Cupid's combine."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Briefly Defined.

"Define divorce."

"It's defined in the ragtime matrimony."—Chicago Record.

XMAS SLIPPERS!

SHOES, RUBBER BOOTS,
DRESS SUIT CASES TRAVELING BAGS.

The Largest Stock to select from. The most useful and suitable
CHRISTMAS PRESENT.

DOANE & EDSALL.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS
Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.
at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use
REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT,
Made only by
T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,
At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

Sterling Silver Novelties.

In addition to our extensive showing of sterling silverware we have added a few assortment of silver sets complete, enclosed in leather cases. These are very beautiful goods, of the best quality and are priced very moderately—Sterling Novelties as low as 25c, 39c, 49c 59c, 75c, 98c.

HANDKERCHIEFS—New lines have been added to our splendid showing of handkerchiefs, making a truly bewildering assortment Some decidedly good values are offered at 10c, 12½c and 15c —One lot of pure linen embroidered handkerchiefs at 25c each is worthy of attention

WOMEN'S KID GLOVES—69c, 79c; warranted gloves, 1.00, 1.25, 1.50.

UMBRELLAS—75c to 3.50.

MACKINTOSHES FOR WOMEN—3.50, 4.50—MISSES' SIZES—2.49, 3.75.

EIDERDOWN SACQUES—1.00, 1.39, 1.75, 2.25.

I. LEDERER.

FALL OPENING.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.

OUR STOCK COMPLETE

We are now ready to fit either man or boy in Suits, or Overcoats, Hats and Gent's Furnishings.

Boys' Suits from 75c to $5.00.

Men's Suits from $2.00 to $20.00.

Have you tried a pair of our Celebrated Cassimere Pants at 98c the pair, if not do so—they are the talk of the town; sold over 1,000 pairs the past season; never rip and fit to perfection. Give us a call.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,
206 West Front Street.

7000 BU. of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last. Order Quick.

Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

M. Molnar,
432 Watchung Ave.,
Ladies' and Gents'
FINE TAILORING
Graduate of
New York Cutting School.
Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with old clothes and I will take chances of being entrusted with new work.

: : Pride's Tonsorial Parlor : :
94 SOMERSET STREET,
opposite Somerset Hotel.
Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty . . . . .
CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.
-:- WILLIAM J. PRIDE, -:-
formerly with E. B. Maynard.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Street
Interior decorating a specialty. Only none-first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11

Ladie Desiring . .
KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING
done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 203 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

E. D. BARRETT.
Sanitary Plumbing,
Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Telephone 612. 148 East Fifth Street.

OUR OYSTERS
ARE THE
---FINEST---
ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

Toys, Toys, Toys
for the
HOLIDAYS
—AT—
HARPER'S,
411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store 126 Park avenue. 10 1

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.
Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum.

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 29, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 46, 9 16, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 50, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 06, 7 39, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12.00 m, 12 58 1 45, 2 40, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 9 34, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m.; 1 01, 2 08, 2 20, 3 32, 4 35, 5 03, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sundays 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamauqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked *) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov 19, 1899.
LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.
Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12.51 p. m.
Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.
Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 3:56 p. m.
Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.
Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket timetables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.
FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent,
218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

L. Manning & Son.
STEAM
GRANITE WORKS,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low

---

XXXX QUALITY
FINEST
LOFOTON COD LIVER OIL,
Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.
Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at
39c per Pint.
For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at
50c per Bottle,
or the Tasteless at
75c per Bottle.
THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,
Hepburn & Co.,
Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,
213 WEST FRONT ST.
Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

WANTED
25 Mechanics

and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.

Agent on the Grounds
SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.

. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW,
THE GROCER.
Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.
Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

DOLGE FELT SLIPPERS
are the best and they make the best
CHRISTMAS GIFTS.
And a pair of the "VanArsdale Shoes" would be a sensible gift, too.
Van Arsdale,
127 E. Front St.
Shoes for Everybody at Popular Prices.

We are NOW receiving orders for
HUYLER'S
XMAS CANDY,
—to be delivered at—
CHRISTMAS TIME.
Remember the
Only Agency
—IS—
Leggett's Pharmacy,
Y. M. C. A. Building.
Tel. 705.

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS,
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.
A FIRST-CLASS
GROCERY STORE.

E. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP NEW FURNITURE BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

POWERS' PHARMACY . Somerset St. Craig Place.
Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .
Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot AND Tar
is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.
Paris for 1900.
Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.
Circulars at
181 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

CHAS. L. FORCE,
Architect and Superintendent.
208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 21 tf

MYRA'S BRACELET.

Myra Kent was sitting in a low chair on the balcony, her head leaned back, her eyes owered to the face of a young man who lounged on the steps near her—a handsome young man, the "second Adonis," the ladies were wont to call him.

What an awful pity that Tom Rowen has no money," they said to themselves, with the most pathetic emphasis. "His face and his manners are perfect."

But careful mothers looked keenly on when Rowen was near, and this espionage gave zest to the dance for both Rowen and the young lady who happened to be his partner.

"Do you value the trinket so highly?" Rowen had just asked.

"The trinket!" she exclaimed indignantly. "I do not call it a trinket. It is a most precious relic; it has been in the family almost 200 years. I would give anything to have the bracelet back again—anything!"

Tom bent nearer. Somehow he could not speak lightly now, though he tried hard to make his voice careless, as he said:

"Let us be practical. What would you bestow upon the man who will restore the bracelet to you?"

Myra Kent laughed—the sweet, sincere laugh which Rowen had come to know so well, and which was so different from that of most girls of fashion.

"There is little I would not give," she said, half in earnest. "I believe I would give my hand if the man did me the honor to want it."

* * * * * * * *

On the fourth day from that on which the conversation on the balcony had been held Rowen said that he would give this one day to the search, and, if the bauble was not found he would summarily cut short the fascination which bound him—he would take the evening train to London.

"I think I am losing my senses," he said, as he strolled down the road, his eyes fixed on the ground, his cigar forgotten between his lips.

There was a rustle in the bushes, a shrill bark sounded, and then out dashed a little Skye terrier, who flew at Rowen in an exuberance of gladness at sight of him.

Rowen stooped to caress the creature, which belonged to Myra Kent, and was her constant companion.

The young man's eyes glanced about, hoping to see the dog's mistress, but no one appeared, and at last Rowen was sure she was not near.

The man and dog went on slowly, and it was not until some minutes had passed that Rowen noticed that the terrier continually turned back and looked at him as if asking him to come.

Idly, at last, Rowen turned and followed Alfred, who leaped a stone wall and flew across a field covered with faded golden rod. He uttered short barks of satisfaction as he went, and was constantly turning about to see that Rowen followed.

Suddenly the dog leaped and scrambled down the steep bank of a dry watercourse, and when Rowen came to the edge and looked down he uttered an exclamation of alarm and surprise, and then swung himself down from a birch tree and fell, rather than walked, to a place where lay a figure, whose blue dress and bright scarf were familiar to his eyes.

"Myra!" he cried, as he flung himself down by her.

All his love and agony were in that word. He had feared to find her senseless, dead; but she looked at him and a faint smile came to her white lips.

"I think one of my ribs is broken, and perhaps the rest of my bones," she said, with an effort at speaking lightly. "But I've found my bracelet!"

As she spoke the last words her face turned deathly white and she sank still further back into unconsciousness.

A quarter of an hour later, when life returned to her, she found herself supported in Rowen's arms, and before she opened her eyes she felt a pair of trembling lips pressed passionately upon her own.

"Forgive me! forgive me!" murmured Rowen. "I was wild—I thought you dead! May you never suffer as I have!"

She tried to withdraw herself, but he held her fast; he could not let her go. There was something in her face that emboldened him, that made his hopes rise intoxicatingly.

"And now that I am not dead?" she whispered at last.

"Ah, now—now I will never let you go!" he exclaimed, holding her yet closer. "Have you ever guessed how I loved you?"

"Yes—I half fancied—but"—was the low response.

"But what?"

"I dared not think of it because—because I was afraid that I should discover that I loved you!" was the delicious reply.

A few moments after he said:

"I intended to have found that bracelet myself."

"It's all the same," she said, shyly smiling, "since I have found it."—Condensed from Spare Moments.

Tumbles Always Right Side Up.

Drinking glass called tumblers owe their name to the fact that they are the successors of the little round silver bowls, so perfectly balanced that, whichever way they are tipped about on the table they tumble into position again, and there remain with the rim upward.

Tommy—It was a dreadful day the last time I went to grandma's. It blowed and it——

Mother—"It blowed" is not proper. Say "it blew."

Tommy—It blew and it snew awful—Melbourne Weekly Times.

The most accommodating people in the world live at Hutchinson, Kas. A young couple down there got married a week ahead of the announced time in order to accommodate some friends who had been suddenly called away and who did not want to miss seeing the wedding.

"I can't remember where I put my glasses," said Duncombe. "Have you looked for them?" asked Mrs. Duncombe. "No; but I will as soon as I find them," said Duncombe. "I can't see well enough without them to look now."

Opportunities for Small Farming.

One advantage for poultry keeping, bee keeping, growing small fruits or gardening is that only a few acres of land are required to keep a man employed, and with some lines will furnish considerable work for others at different seasons, while with proper care and management fully as large an income may be received as from a much larger acreage in ordinary farm crops.

With some at least much less capital is required with these smaller industries of the farm than in growing the ordinary farm crops.

But to more or less extent with any of these smaller lines of farm work some experience is necessary if the most profitable results are obtained. Generally it is safest and best to commence on a small scale and then increase as success and experience warrant, while with all much may be learned from the experience of others, yet some experience is necessary if the best success is realized.

Cattle Feeding.

Out of a big week's run recently on a Western market, men who were trying to buy good feeding cattle said there were very few that showed desirable quality. Those who furnish money for cattle-feeding operations point to the exceptionally high prices for cattle, and wonder whether it is safe to figure on cattle paying next spring. There is a tendency among them to feel conservative, but with money so plenty and feed so abundant there is no doubt there will be enough to feed all the cattle that are available.

A Fine Winter Apple.

Those who are looking for a first rate winter apple, equal to the Fameuse as a late fall apple, will do well to plant McIntosh Red. It is a curious fact that some of our apple families are very fixed in their heredity. Seedlings come very often marked closely after the parent stock. This is not true of most of the apples that we have in cultivation. It is, however, peculiarly true of the Fameuse or Snow apple stock.

The bee and wasp build their cells as they first did, with no little precision, no less care, so the first battle is as good as the last; they work by instinct, while man works and gains by each effort This is the gain of man by long life and discriminating mind.

In animals there is no such thing as mental progress unless aided by man. The birds build their nests as perfectly at first as now, and the same as the same kind did in the first effort; they sing the same song and beyond its limit cannot go.

Swedish Farm Laborers.

There is a special class of farm laborers in Sweden who are given so many acres of land for their own use, in consideration of so many days' labor during the year for the owner of the farm. They are a sort of fixture to an estate, and their like exists in no other country.

Oom Paul's Penmanship.

Oom Paul can handle a rifle much better than he can a pen. His signature is cramped and scarcely legible. He signs himself "S. J. P. Kruger," his full name being Stephanus Johannes Paulus Kruger.

THIS cut represents one of our smaller packages. All of our feeds and grain are put up in these standard packages running from Five or Eleven pounds up according to the article, and the price of each is based on the market.

Did you ever think of the advantage of buying from a house that sells any quantity from five pounds to a boat load and that makes the same prices to all customers without any secret deals.

At this season beware of Feeds and Meals made from new corn. As we make our own feeds we know what they contain and we have plenty of

OLD CORN.

In comparing prices it should be borne in mind that OUR GRAIN IS ALL RECLEANED and OUR FEEDS are ALL MADE ON THE PREMISES and ARE KNOWN TO BE PURE

Mixed Oats	74c per bag	Middlings	90c per 100
Mixed Clips	76c per bag	Oat Feed	75c per 100
White Oats	78c per bag	Gluten	95c per 100
Regular Clips	80c per bag	Oil Meal	$1.45 per 100
X. R. Clips	82c per bag	No. 1 Grain Mixture	$1.10 per 100
Yellow Corn	79c per 100	Our Poultry Food	$1.15 per 100
Cracked Corn	84c per 100	Wheat	$1 35 per 100
Coarse Meal	84c per 100	Barley (96 lbs)	$1.15 per bag
Ground Feed	84c per 100	No. 1 Hay	88c per 100
Bran	90c per 100	Clover Hay	83c per 100
Buckwheat Middlings	70c per 100	Cut Hay	85c per 100

The above prices are for spot cash at our stores.
If delivered add according to quantity as follows:

3 bags or over	2c per bag
5 bags or over	5c per bag
Less than 5 bags	10c per bag

THE PAUL T. NORTON CO.

Elizabeth, Elizabethport, Red Bank, Plainfield, Somerville.

VAST AUDIENCE HEARD "MESSIAH"

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

usual.

In an oratorio like "The Messiah" much depends upon the soloists. A large part of the story to be told comes in the airs and recitatives sung by them. The first voice heard in the whole oratorio is that of the tenor soloist, in the beautiful recitative beginning "Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God." The soloist of last night, E. C. Towne, of New York, had the happy faculty of pronouncing every word so that it could be understood in the farthest corner of the house. The bass, Douglass Lane, also of New York, was a young man with a very clear and pleasing voice. He sang with considerable feeling, producing an excellent effect in the sympathetic manner in which he sang "The Lord.....shall suddenly come to His temple." The soprano was Miss Annie L. Walker, of New York, with a sweet voice and an unassuming manner. Her most important solos were "Come unto Him" and "I know that my Redeemer liveth." Both were sung simply and pleasingly, and many a listener felt a thrill at the quiet emphasis laid upon the opening words of the latter. The contralto was no stranger to Plainfield audiences, being Miss M. S. Perry, of the Crescent Avenue church choir. Her solo work was well done, especially attractive being her rendering of the exquisite air "He shall feed His flock like a Shepherd."

Miss Jessie Utter, who presided at the piano, made, as always, a most acceptable accompanist, managing the difficult accompaniments skillfully, and following conductor or soloist with care and ease. The organ, under the charge of William H. Miller, added much to the musical effect, giving a depth and fullness to the accompaniments which no orchestra could obtain without it. In many places soft, sustained organ tones formed a kind of obligato, upholding the voices and greatly enriching the effect. The septette of instruments played by New York musicians had each its place in producing the musical and emotional result desired by the composer. The trumpets were especially effective in the bass solo beginning "The Trumpet Shall Sound."

The affair was, as was intended to be, more like a grand musical religious service than like the ordinary concert. No applause was allowed and the audience was quiet, reverent and intent. The climax of the oratorio came when, with the beginning of the magnificent "Hallelujah Chorus," the entire audience rose, and remained standing until the final "Hallelujah!" died away.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on L. W. Randolph, Druggist, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

What Can You Do With It?

This is a question we can answer better after we have seen the garment you want dyed. When our wagon is in your neighborhood, let it bring your goods to the store and then, at your convenience, come in and let us tell you just what we can do and the cost. Don't be prejudiced against dyeing. Ofttimes you can't tell the goods from new.

HILLIER & CO.,
129 West Front Street,
Opposite Crosby & Hill's. 'Phone 851.

Red Hot From the Gun

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible Ulcers that no treatment helped for 20 years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Boils, Felons, Corns, Skin Eruptions. Best Pile cure on earth. 25cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

Looking for a Dumping Ground.

The Borough Board of Health is endeavoring to find a new dumping ground in their domain. The present place at the upper end of Grove street is not suitable for such purpose, and besides several cases of contagious disease have been found in that section. This may not have been directly responsible for the disease, but may have helped.

The Rolling Years.

It took seven years to make a lace handkerchief for which the Empress of Russia paid $5 000. It has taken thirty years to build up at Collier's, 103 Park avenue, the opportunity now offered you to get the benefit of that extended experience—a term of training which in itself ought to be a guarantee to you of getting the very best of everything in the jewelry line at the most advantageous rates.

—Fresh confections at Harper's, 411 Park avenue.

To Cure a Cough in One Day
To Cure a Cold in One Day
To Cure Sore Throat in One Day
To Cure Hoarseness in One Day

Take Cleveland's Lung Healer, 25c. Trial size free. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenue.

AWAITING A VERDICT

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

he pointed out that Dembrowski had emphatically denied it and that the Fingerhuths had admitted that the alleged statement had been made only in the course of a long conversation and not as a particular message from Roehricht. At this point Mr. Dungan was interrupted by Juror Thatcher, who was so ill that he had to retire from the court room. The Judge then adjourned at 3:50 o'clock until this morning at 10:15.

The summing up of Prosecutor N. Y. Dungan was resumed at the session this morning, which was begun at 10:22.

He then sketched the happenings of the 11th and 12th. After a defence of Robert Clark's criticism of W. G. DeMeza's testimony, he said, it may be claimed that Mrs. Fingerhuth did not have time time to reflect on the consequences of her act. But it must be remembered that they talked it all over the night before and that morning, and Mr. Fingerhuth told William Demler that if Roehricht came there they would "fix him." He pointed out the contradiction in Mrs. Fingerhuth's testimony regarding who it was who had a revolver at the time of the shooting.

Then of the shooting, he told how all the witnesses who saw it said that Mrs Fingerhuth fired deliberately from the door. If you decide that a tenacy existed, then you must bring in a verdict of manslaughter at least. If the relation of master and servant existed, then it must be one of the degrees of murder.

Regarding Fingerhuth's share in the crime, he said that Fingerhuth sent his son for the revolver to do exactly what was done. Both father and son counseled Mrs. Fingerhuth to shoot Mr. Roehricht. He closed with an eloquent plea for justice.

At 11:15 o'clock, Chief Justice Magie began his charge of the jury. He first called attention to the fact that if crime exists, it must not go unpunished. He explained the charge of murder against the prisoners, Mrs. Fingerhuth, as principal, and her husband and son as accessories. He then explained the legal meaning of homicide, criminal, excusable or justifiable, and the difference between murder and manslaughter, and how they would apply to the present case.

If only the relation of master and servant existed, Roehricht had a right to enter the premises and use what force was necessary. If the relation of landlord and tenant existed, then he had no right and the tenant had the right to resist with appropriate force. If this attempted entrance was only a trespass and not with the purpose of committing a felony or doing serious personal harm, then there was no excuse for using a deadly weapon.

On the 12th, the only evidence that might cause apprehension of personal violence to Mrs. Fingerhuth was her testimony that she saw a revolver in Clark's hand, which was contradicted by all the other witnesses. As far as he could remember the Judge said there was no attempt made to show threats against her personal safety. The evidence would therefore go to show that the entrance was merely to get possession of the house.

If the jury should decide there was no excuse or justification for the homicide it must be criminal. Then they must decide whether it was deliberate and premedetated and, in that case, bring in a verdict of murder, or if the homicide was occasioned by negligence in the use of the weapon then it should be manslaughter.

Regarding the charge of the accessories to the crime, he explained that if father and son had advised the commission of a crime they were guilty of the charge. With a few impressive sentences the Judge concluded his charge 12:20.

The jury was sworn and locked up five minutes later. At the request of A. A. Clark, counsel for the defendant, they were called back again and the Judge told them that in considering the reasonable apprehension of personal violence, they were to view it from the point of view of the accused. Mr. Clark took statutory exceptions to the Court's rulings which was noted.

Moody is Dead.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Northfield, Mass., December 22—Dwight L. Moody, the noted evangelist, passed away quietly at his home here this morning.

—Use Press want ads.

—Press want ads pay.

—Gavett shows a good assortment of Xmas goods in his line yet. Choice pieces of pottery, china and handsome lamps make up an attractive stock.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—Ask to see the initial paper at Harper's.

—Special desserts for Christmas. Stephenson's, 146 North avenue. 2

—Joy's salted almonds today at Neuman Bros. Also fancy hot-house tomatoes.

—Miss Squiers, of the borough, has secured a position at Woodhull & Martin's dry goods store for the holidays.

—The holiday display of Oakwood antique ware at Powers' pharmacy is being eagerly sought after by lovers of the beautiful in pottery. The assortment is limited and those desirous purchasing some of this ware should call early in order to secure a choice of ten various designs now on exhibition. Oakwood is new domestic pottery that is rapidly becoming a fashionable household ornament.

PLAY AT THE SEMINARY

Christmas Entertainment Given This Morning—Dramatization "The Birds Christmas Carol."

There was a very informal but delightful entertainment at the Plainfield Seminary on Seventh street this morning when a dramatization of Mrs. Wiggins well-known story, "The Birds Christmas Carol," was given by some of the pupils of the school. The play was divided into three scenes, first and last representing a room in Carol Birds beautiful home. The third scene in Mrs. Ruggles' kitchen, where the Ruggles children were taught company manners, was most amusing. Miss Norma Northrop as Carol Bird entered heartily into the spirit of the the story and Miss Nannon West, of Westfield, made an inimitable Mrs. Ruggles. With a genuine Irish brogue she scolded and drilled the nine little Ruggles with an energy that delighted the audience. Ursula Rowland as Uncle Jack convulsed her listeners and very cleverly took the double parts of Uncle and Santa Claus. The cast was as follows:

Mrs. Bird	Louise Brakeley
Carol Bird	Norma Northrop
Elfrida	Margaret Leal
Uncle Jack	Ursula Rowland
Mrs. Ruggles	Annie Jennings
Susan	Helen King
Kitty	Marion Hall
Peoria	Louise Booth
Peter	Louise Saunders
Cornelius	Jeanie Millar
Clement	Hope Ivins
Elly	Marion Marsh
Larry	Marion Brown

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.
TELEPHONE 722.
MAZE EDWARDS, - Lessee and Manager.

Reserved Seat Tickets at Box Office, which is open daily from 9. a. m.

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS MATINEE,
One Solid Week, Commencing
MONDAY, DEC. 25, 1899.
Re-engagement of the popular
Burrill Comedy Company,
Supporting LAURA BURKERT,
in a repertoire of standard scenic productions—
Monday afternoon, "A Flag of Truce."
Monday evening, "The Design."
Prices—10c, 20c and 30c. Seats now on sale.

GEO. W. COLE,
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,
200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Inquire 917 Watchung avenue. 12 21 2

LOST—Pair eyeglasses at Washington street railroad crossing. Please leave at Press Office.

WANTED—Experienced nurse for young baby. Address W. K. E., Standard Office, Westfield.

FOR SALE to close an Estate House and lot, No. 251 East Third street, formerly the residence of John P Brokaw; comfortable, roomy house; large lot; macadamized street. Inquire of Nelson Runyon, attorney for heirs, 221 Park Ave. 12 22 6

FOR SALE—Chickering piano, concert grand; a bargain. Address Piano, care Press. 12 22 2

FOR SALE—Pool Table 4½ x 9, with complete new outfit. 90 Somerset St.

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

YOUNG man wanted to work on farm. Call on Mr. Perret, Washington Rock Road. 12 21 2

S. SCHEUER & CO.,

The Greatest Concern in New Jersey.

239-241 Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

-:- -:- OUR CHRISTMAS PRESENTS -:- -:-

S. SCHEUER & CO. extend to their many customers the "Compliments of the Season" and at the same time announce that, commencing Monday, December 18th until December 31st, they will give FREE TWO POUNDS OF FRENCH MIXED CANDY, with 1 pound of our famous 50c or 60c Premium English Breakfast, Mixed, Oolong, Japan, Gunpowder, Young and Old Hyson, Assam, India Ceylon Teas. This is the Greatest Offer ever made and every customer should take advantage of this great inducement.

Two Pounds Fancy French Mixed Candy FREE WITH ONE POUND OF ... TEA ...

All Purchases of Coffee will also Receive Free a Pretty Panel Picture.

TURKEYS!! 16c pound TURKEYS!!

DRIED FRUITS.

Purchased in all countries of the world, direct from the producers and shipped to us in carloads, the choicest products obtainable.

New Glace Citron	13c lb
" Orange & Lemon Peel	13c lb
" Muscatel Raisins	8c lb
Sultanas, 1 lb box	15c
Seeded Raisins, 1 lb box	11c
New Cleaned Currants,	8c lb
Cleaned Currants, 3 lb box	22c
Persian Dates, 1 lb box	8c
New Figs, 1 lb box	15c
London Layer Raisins	18c lb
Extra Pitted Cherries	17c lb
" Evaporated Apples	10c lb
Fancy Cal. Prunes	7c lb
" Silver Prunes	9c lb

Coffee Department.

For your Xmas table don't fail to have Scheuer's Premium Java Coffee, "Its equal is unknown"—It is better than any Coffee sold in the city at 38c pound It has taken five prizes at the State Fair for its purity and strength. Sold only at our 10 large stores in air tight tinfoil packages—beware of imitations.

Only 27c Pound.

NEW NUTS.

All 1899 goods, domestic and imported, bought before the recent advance:—every kind selected with care:—Prices that defy competition.

New Brazil Nuts	10c lb
Italian Chestnuts	10c lb
New Hazel Nuts	13c lb
" Pecan Nuts	13c lb
" Fancy Mixed Nuts	13c lb
Grenoble Walnuts	15c lb
Soft Shell Almonds	22c lb
Peanut Brittle	10c lb
20 Different Kinds of Candy	10c lb
Clear Toys, Hand Made	13c lb
Fancy Chocolate Drops	15c lb
New Year Cakes	10c lb
Honey Spice Drops	10c lb

TEA DEPARTMENT.

This year's pickings:—Ceylon, Japan, Formoso and China have sent their choicest selections—Our Teas have taken four premiums for purity, strength and flavor:—a nice Xmas present.

3 POUND BOX, $1.00.

FREE—A Beautiful Panel Free, Xmas, to all purchases of Coffee. Don't miss it.

MEAT DEPARTMENT.

Nothing but the best quality at the lowest prices.

READ AND COMPARE.

Choice Jersey Turkeys	16c lb
Fancy Roast'g Chickens	14c lb
Young Fowl	12c lb
Young Ducks	14c lb
Fresh Roast Pork	10c lb
Legs Prime Lamb	12c lb
Meat and Link Sausage,	3 lbs 25c
Cal. Hams	7½c lb
Fresh Pork Shoulders	8c lb
Pickled Pigs Feet	6c lb
Taylor's Prepared Ham	14c lb
Choice Lard	6c lb

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

FOR SALE or exchange for house and lot or small farm, a fine farm of 200 acres, well watered and timbered. Address Albert, care Daily Press. 12 15 eodtf

HORSE for sale. 1266 Park avenue. 12 18 3 eod

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Chas. L. Moffett, Attorney, cor. Park and North Aves. 12 11 eod tf

BARRED and White Plymouth Rock, White Leghorn and White Wyandotte Cockerels, from our famous prize winning strains, cheap. Plainfield Poultry Farm Co., 79 Somerset street. 12 20 6

TO LET—Six-room house and store, connected. 214 Richmond street.

TO LET—Nice flat with improvements. 304 Richmond street.

TO LET—Butcher shop, with or without fixtures. 302 B Richmond street. eod 12 13 tf

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 24

THREE pleasant convenient rooms to let for light housekeeping. 404 Third street, corner Central avenue. 12 11 11

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

Emery's
Dancing Pavilion
(SCOTCH PLAINS.)
Pavilion For Rent FOR Balls, Parties, etc.

GOODS AND CHATTELS

belonging to the estate of
MARY A. COOPER
WILL BE SOLD AT PUBLIC AUCTION,
Saturday, Dec. 23, at 2 p. m. at her late residence, Harmony St.

SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY, DECEMBER 23.

At Fred. H. Firstbrook's Liberty Street Grocery

Best Elgin Butter, per lb	28c
Best Leaf Lard, per lb	8c
Pillsbury's Best Flour, per bag	80c
Ceresota Flour, per bag	58c
White Swan Flour, per bag	50c
Fancy Potatoes, extra, per bas	30c
Large Red Onions, per bas	35c
Fancy Cal. Prunes, 3 lbs for	25c
Good Cal. Prunes, 4 lbs for	25c
Fancy Evap. Peaches, 2 lbs for	25c
Fresh Soda and Lemon crack'rs lb	5c
Fresh Nic-Nacs and Ging snaps lb	5c
Best Buckwheat, per package	10c
H. O Pancake Flour, per p'kge	10c
Hecker's Flapjack, per package	10c
Maple Syrup, per bottle	10c
Best N. O. Molasses, per gal	33c
Best Table Syrup, per gal	33c
3 lb can Fine Jelly, per can	11c
Fancy Corn, Tomatoes and Peas 3 cans	23c
Good Coffee, per lb	15c
Good Tea, any kind, per lb	33c
Best Mixed Nuts, 2 lbs for	25c
3 lb can Pears, Plums and Gage	10c

Have you tried our "OLD PLANTATION" COFFEE at 27c per lb? It's a dandy. Our Unexcelled Teas at 50c per lb are still on top and are receiving lots of praise from the consumers.

Every article advertised in above ad is guaranteed to be first class and when not satisfactory we would like to know it. We would rather lose your trade than your confidence.

FRED H. FIRSTBROOK, 312 Liberty Street.

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops
Wieda's
Manufactured at the Premises,
Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda
144 West Front St. Phone. 1133.

OUR SPECIALTIES { Choice Teas. Fine Coffee.
All the Seasonable Goods for the Holidays. Take home one of our baskets of Fruit.
Tel. 931. C. E. GULICK & CO., THE PARK GROCERS.

SPECIAL!!
HAIR DRESSING, SHAMPOOING, MANICURING.
Until after the Holiday Season
MISS HOLMES,
Graduate of the New York School of Hair Dressing and Dermatology,
will make special rates for hair dressing in all the latest styles for street and evening; at parlors 75c. At ladies residences by appointment. Shampooing or Facial Massage and steaming (for eradicating imperfections of the skin) 75c. Manicuring 50c.
440 W. FRONT ST.

WINES made only from selected grapes and cane sugar crystal. Twenty-five cents per bottle and upward. "THE VINEYARDS," Park Ave., corner Cooper St., Fanwood. 12 18 12

CUT FLOWERS!
Choice Blooming Plants, Palms, Ferns, Jardinieres, Fern Dishes, &c. Headquarters for Wreaths, Holly, Mistletoe and everything in the florist line. First-class stock. Largest assortment of cut flowers in the city.
A. E. LINCOLN.
Telephone 876. 226 PARK AVE. 12 14 9

BANK ELECTION.
CITY NATIONAL BANK.

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of this bank, for the election of nine Directors to serve for the ensuing year, will be held at the Banking rooms, corner of Park avenue and Front street, on Tuesday, January 9th, 1900, from 1 to 2 o'clock p. m.

WILLIAM F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

Dated Plainfield, N. J., December 7th, 1899.

12-8 9 11 13 15 16 19 22 26 29 30 1-3 4 6 8

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:22 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:37 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:37 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Increasing Cloudiness Tonight; Sunday Rain; Stationary Temperature. Ther. 46.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

PRISON WILL BE HER FATE.

Mrs. Fingerhuth Found Guilty of Manslaughter.

THE OTHERS DISCHARGED.

Brought in a Verdict This Morning at 11 o'Clock After Being Out Nearly 24 Hours—Will be Sentenced Tuesday—Theo. and Oscar Fingerhuth Released.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, December 23.—Twelve citizens of Somerset county have decided that Mrs. Henrietta Fingerhuth was guilty of manslaughter in the killing of Paul Roehricht, but have recommended her to the mercy of the court. This morning at 11 o'clock the jury in the Fingerhuth murder trial brought in their verdict. Tuesday morning she will be sentenced. Theodore and Oscar Fingerhuth, husband and son, once more breathe the air of freedom as the jury failed to find them guilty of accessories to the crime.

Mrs Henrietta Fingerhuth was the first woman in Somerset county to be called to answer for a capital crime. Her trial which has been held here in the court of Oyer and Terminer, lasting five days, was watched with unusual interest by the citizens from all over the county. There was a direct contradiction of fact involved besides some knotty questions of law. In fact, Chief Justice Magie, who presided over the court, declared that of all murder trials in which he had presided, it involved the most intricate points of law.

The last of the evidence was given Thursday morning. Thursday afternoon and yesterday morning, the lawyers summed up. The jury was charged yesterday morning and was locked up at 12:25 o'clock yesterday noon. The failed to come to any decision at 4 o'clock and were then locked up for the night.

This morning Justice Magie arrived here at the usual hour. At 10:30 o'clock the jury sent word that they needed information from the Judge. They were marched into court and through the foreman asked Judge Magie just what relation did exist between Fingerhuth and Roehricht. The Judge explained that that question was one of fact and for them to decide. The jury was then locked up again.

Shortly before 11 o'clock, the jury announced that a verdict has been reached. The jurymen filed into their seats and the Judge inquired if they had reached a decision. They declared that they had and the foreman announced that they had found Mrs. Henrietta Fingerhuth guilty of manslaughter, but recommended her to the mercy of the court They found Theodore and Oscar Fingerhuth not guilty.

The Fingerhuths were brought into the court room in time to hear the verdict. They looked quite fresh this morning and did not seem greatly disturbed at the verdict. Mrs. Fingerhuth was slightly nervous but showed no signs of emotion. After the verdict had been announced, father and son were released and Mrs Fingerhuth was led back to her cell. There was an affecting parting between the members of the family ere they separated. Father and son kissed her good-bye and all wept. They thanked the Sheriff and his deputies for their kindness and then took the train presumably for New York.

The December term of court will convene Tuesday when Mrs. Fingerhuth will be brought up for sentence.

Dining Room Set for Pastor Jackson.

The Sewing Circle of the Mt. Olive Baptist church, of which Mrs. Lulu Dempsey is president, presented Rev. E. E. Jackson and wife with a handsome dining room set as the result of the entertainment Thursday evening. The pastor and his wife express their gratitude for the gift. In the near future the King's Daughters will arrange the parlor of the parsonage.

—Use Press want ads.

SOCIETY BUD BLOSSOMS.

"COMING OUT" OF MISS STRONG A NOTABLE SOCIAL EVENT.

The Affair Held at the Home of the Debutante's Parents Yesterday, and Attended by the Elite of Local Society.

A pleasing event of yesterday was the "coming out" of Etna Strong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Strong, of 1020 Central avenue, when a very large number of Plainfield's society folks called to do honor to one of the most popular debuntantes of the season. The hours were from 5 to 7 o'clock and during that time the house was thronged with guests. Seldom has there been such an attractive gathering of fair women and such a handsome display of elegant gowns and ornaments.

The beautiful home was charming in its decorations, appropriate to the holiday season. Through the use of holly, evergreens and palms, and that favorite flower, red pine feather, a perfect picture was presented. In the parlor the prevailing colors were green and white. It was here that the guests were received. The debutante received with her mother, and they were assisted by Miss Merrill, Miss Quackenbush and Miss Western, of New York; Miss Strong, of Bryn Mawr, Pa; Miss Todd and Miss Miller, of this city, and Mrs. Williams, of Hartford, Conn. Miss Strong was was gowned in white silk illusion, and she was greatly admired by all. Her mother wore a gown of black net over white. The former was the recipient of many handsome floral pieces.

The dining room was in charge of a caterer and there there was added pleaasure for the very excellent service here. During the appointed hours delightful music was furnished by a string quartette in charge of P. Ludwig Conde, and after the reception music was furnished for the younger set that remained for the dancing.

Other decorations of more than passing interest were those in the library, where the colors, green and pink, were brought out to the best advantage, through greens and pretty buds. The whole affair was complete in every detail and it can be said that no more charming event has taken place this season.

PRIZE FOR AN ESSAY.

Daughters of American Revolution Offer Prize of $5 for Best One on a Patriotic Subject

The Continental Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution is seeking in a most commendable manner to stimulate the interest of the rising generation in persons and events concerned in the foundation of the nation.

In a recent communication to Superintendent Maxson, the Chapter offers a prize of $5 to any member of the Plainfield High School who shall write the best essay on a patriotic subject. The committee in charge, of which Mrs. M. E. Dwight is chairman, has selected for the subject, "The Battle of Princeton." The essays are to be presented on the tenth of February.

It is the purpose of the committee to include the prize essay in the programme of exercises to be held in commemoration of Washington's birthday.

THEY'LL CALL CHRISTMAS.

Daily Press Carrier Boys Will Deliver Calendars Next Monday.

Bright and early Christmas morning the enterprising little fellows who carry The Daily Press to regular subcribers will start out with the 1900 calender issued by The Daily Press in honor of the carrier boys. They will visit each patron on their route and, accompanied with a cherry greeting of "Merry Christmas," will leave one of the calendars.

The calendars this year are very neat and attractive, and the picture displayed on them is appropriate to the newsboys life. The revised list of city and borough fire alarm box numbers are printed on the card.

Only those patrons of The Daily Press who subscribe direct from the office will have the calendars delivered Monday. Others who purchase of boys carrying independent routes may secured the calendar at the office and asking for one.

Invitations for "Coming Out."

Invitations are out for the reception in honor of the "coming out" of Miss Lydia Ackerman, daughter of Mrs. James Hervey Ackerman, of West Seventh street, to be held Thursday afternoon, Jan. 4th, from 4 until 7, at the residence of Mrs. E. R. Ackerman, of West Eighth street. Mrs. J. H. Ackerman and Miss Ackerman will be "at home" at their residence on West Seventh street, Thursday and Friday afternoons, Jan. 11th and 12th.

—Use Press want ads.

MUSIC TO BE A FEATURE.

SPECIAL SERVICES IN THE LOCAL CHURCHES TOMORROW.

Elaborate Programmes Arranged for the Christian Celebration of the Day That Marks the Birth of the Redeemer.

All the churches will have special services tomorrow in commemoration of Chrismas, musical programmes being special features. The following are some of them:

Prof. George Hosking, organist and choirmaster of Holy Cross Episcopal church, has prepared the following musical programme for the Christmas Eve. services at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon:

Processional Hymn—"While Shehperds Watch Their Flocks".....Traditional Gloria Patria.....Gregorian
Magnificat, in E flat.....G. F. Cobb
Nunc Dimittis, in E Flat.....H. Round
Carols—"O Little Town of Bethlehem." Roeder
"All My Heart This Night Rejoices." F. C. Maker
"Joy Fills Our Inmost Hearts To-day".....Smith
By the Sunday-school.
Offertory Anthem—"There Were Shepherds" C. Vincent
Recessional Hymn—"Brightest and Best of the Sons of the Morning"..Mendelssohn

The music for Christmas morning at 10:30 will be:

Processional Carol—"Sing! O Sing This Blessed Morn".....H. Leslie
Kyrie-Eleison, in E flat. Arranged from Greek Service
Gloria Tibi / Credo } in E flat.....A. J. Eyre
Hymn—"Adeste Fideles".....Novello
Sermon.
By the Rector, Rev. Montgomery Downey
Anthem—"There Were Shepherds", C. Vincent
Sursum Corda / Sanctus / Benedictus } in E flat.....A. J. Eyre
Communion Hymn—"O Little Town of Bethlehem".....Barnby-Roedar
Gloria in Excelsis.....Old Chant
Recessional Hymn—"While Shepherds Watch Their Flocks".....Traditional

CRESCENT AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

MORNING.

"Arise! Shine For Thy Light is Come." Lansing
"It Came Upon The Midnight Clear"....Scott
"Sleep Holy Babe".....Shepard
"There Were Shepherds".....Chadwick

EVENING.

"The First Christmas".....Barnby
"The Annunciation."
"The Message of the Shepherds."
"Cradle Song of the Virgin."
"Gloria in Excelsis."
"Come Hither Ye Faithful".....Chadwick
"Christmas Hymn".....Parker
Bass Solo.
"Holy Jehovah".....Owen Trio.

TRINITY REFOMED CHURCH.

MORNING.

Organ—"Festival Prelude in C major." L. Liebig
Old Hundred.....G. France
Anthem—"Shout the Glad Tidings." W. C. Williams
Response.....Gounod
Gloria.....C. Mortimer Wiske
Hymn—"Joy to the World"
Lord's Prayer.....Chas. H. Hoyt
Hymn—"Shepherds! Hail the Wondrous Stranger"
Anthem—"Sing, O Heavens".....D. Protheroe
Anthem—"There Were Shepherds." C. P. Morrison
Hymn—"The Race That Long in Darkness Pined."
Organ Postlude—"March Solevette." E. Ketliver

EVENING.

Organ—"Christmas March"....Gustar Merkel
Carols—"Son of the Highest".....School
Anthem—"Calm on the Listening Ear of Night".....A. J. Holden Organ Postlude—"Alla Marcia"..D. R. Munro

GRACE M. E. CHURCH.

MORNING.

Anthem—Brightest and Best of the Sons of the Morning".....Dudley Buck
Anthem—"Arise! Shine! For Thy Light is Come".....Dudley Buck
Anthem—"Hark! The Herald Angels Sing." P. A. Schnecker
Anthem—Rejoice! Rejoice! This Blessed Morn".....W. R. Spence

EVENING.

Anthem—"Sing! O Heavens".....Tours
Anthem—"The First Christmas".....Barnby
Duet—"Holy Night".....Dossert
Anthem—"Great is the Lord".....Shackley

ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH.

The Christmas service on Monday will consist of an early celebration of the Holy Communion at 7:30 a m. Morning prayer will be said at 10:30. At 11 o'clock a second celebration of the Holy Communion with sermon. The organist, Mrs. Buckley, has prepared extra music for the occasion, while the organ will be supplemented by a violin. The vested choir, augmented by the services of Mr. Johnstone, tenor, and Mr. Martin, bass, will sing the office as follows:

Processional Hymn, 61.....LeJeune
Hymn After Gospel, 51.....Mendelssohn
Kyries, Gloria Tibi Sursum Corda, Sanctes-Benedictus, From Gilbert's Mass in G
Offertorian, Tenor solo, with violin obligato—"The Babe of Light and Glory." Dressler
Agnus Dei.....Adeste Fiddes
Gloria in Excelsis, old chant.
Betrocessional Hymn, 60.....Smart

The same service will be repeated the Sunday after Christmas.

The festival for the children of the Sunday school will be held the afternoon of Thursday, Holy Innocents' Day, at 4:30.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

At the Congregational church tomorrow morning the Christmas service will be enriched by instrumental trios,

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 3.)

A GREAT OFFER TO WESTFIELD PEOPLE.

Plan for Getting Light and Water at Minimum Rates.

PROFIT FOR THOSE WHO AID.

PROJECT TO BE BROUGHT BEFORE THE PROPERTY OWNERS.

It is Proposed to Organize a Company With $100,000 Capital Stock, and Every Consumer Shall Subscribe for One Share of Stock, the Voting Power to Be Invested in Trustees.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, Dec. 23—At the meeting of the Township Committee held last night the Eddy Manufacturing Co, of Windsor, Conn., offered to build an electric light plant and a water works system for the sum of $100,000. The water plant will consist of about 12 miles of mains, a pumping station and water tower, high enough to furnish ample pressure for fire purposes for all parts of the town. The stand pipe will have a capacity of about 100,000 gallons a day. The electric light plant will be sufficient to supply the needs of the town for illumination and also supply a day circuit. The company agrees to take 25 per cent. of the contract in stock in the new company. The company further agrees to place on their poles police and fire alarm wires and keep them in repair, also to provide and operate, free of charge, a fire whistle.

It is proposed to organize a company to be known as the Consumer's Water and Light Company of Westfield, and the stock is to be sold to consumers, one share, as far as possible, to each house owner or holder. Each stockholder in subscription to stock, assignes power to vote on his stock, irrevocably to the board of trustees and the stockholders must settle on a number of trustees, none of whom must be holders of stock in any other company.

Terms of the subscription and the article of incorporation also provide there shall be paid to the stockholders, all in excess of 6 per cent. of the earnings each year on account of their original subscription and when the stockholders have been paid all their original subscriptions and 6 per cent. interest to the end, then light and water shall be furnished at no cost or at a cost which will net the stockholder a small dividend per year, say 3 per cent. The board of trustees elects the directors each year under this plan, by virtue of the proxies given to them and their successors by the stockholders.

The following committee was appointed to look into the matter and call a special meeting of citizens: Henry C. Sergeant, W. S. Welch, John Platt, W. G. Peckham, Harry E. Knight, C. B. Peddie and W. G. Delamatour.

GIFTS TO HIGH SCHOOL.

Several Presentations Made at Christmas Exercises at Plainfield High School Yesterday.

There was a little surprise at the Christmas exercises at the Plainfield High School yesterday morning. At the close of the programme which included readings by the Misses Jean Dunham, Mary Lock, Elsie Smith and Edna Burr and an address by Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards. Miss Marion D. Woodcock, president of the Senior class, presented the High School with a "Sistine Madonna," by Raphael, framed, and also a model of the statue of Minerva Museum. Principal Ira W. Travell accepted the gift in a short speech.

Two pictures, Turner's "The Old Temaraire," and a Dutch landscape, "The Mill," by Habbenia were presented by the Fourth class to the High School. The presentation speech was made by Hervey K. Doane, and George Weeks Sandford responded in behalf of the school.

To Drill the Naval Reserves.

Lieut. Kemble, Adjutant of the Battalion of the East, New Jersey Naval Reserves, has made application to the Hoboken authorities for permission to use the armory in the City Hall one evening each week. The officers of the battalion want to drill the men in infantry tactics, but are unable to do so on board the training ship Portsmouth for want of space.

Sketch of Late Dr. Lowry.

In the last issue of The Christian Herald there was devoted a full page to the picture and a sketch of the life of the late Rev. Dr. Robert Lowry. The picture was one of the best ever seen, and the sketch was very interesting. It was written by Hubert Main, a well-known hymn writer, publisher and a personal friend of Dr. Lowry.

BUSY AT POSTOFFICE.

CHRISTMAS MAIL IS VERY HEAVY THIS YEAR.

Every Carrier Has His Hands Full Trying to Handle the Packages Addressed to the Peope Living on His Route.

During the past few days the postoffice has been the scene of the greatest activity, occasioned, of course, by the holiday season. During the early part of the week the employes were not so busy for the reason that people were sending Christmas presents away, but things were reversed yesterday, when mail and package carrying presents to Plainfielders began to arrive. Every trip made by the carriers was with difficulty and they were loaded down to the brim with mail matter of every description. But with all the rush the employes have been able to handle the mail and deliver it nearly on time.

Postmaster Bird informed a Daily Press reporter yesterday that the business of the office thus far this year was the largest in the history of the office for any preceding year, both in domestic and foreign mail, and in the money order and registry department. There has been a great deal of foreign mail sent and received, as well as domestic. Mr. Bird has called in two substitutes to assist with the work, and he hopes to be able to keep everything cleared up as they go along. For the past few days the postoffice has been filled with people from early morning till late in the afternoon sending mail, and it has the appearance of a department store. Everyone is good natured and Mr. Bird and his assistants are equally so, giving everyone the quickest possible attention. The office is working in a very smooth and satisfactory manner which the people of Plainfield appreciate.

OUT ON BAIL.

Alleged Shoplifters Pleaded Guilty in Newark and Mrs. Bowers Released on $1,200 Bonds.

Mrs. Jennie M. Bowers, Mrs. Jennie Carrell and Mrs. Annie Garrison, the women arrested in Newark several days ago charged with shoplifting, were yesterday arraigned in the court of Special Sessions and pleaded guilty They were held in the sum of $1,200 to await the disposition of the court before being sentenced. Later Mrs. Bowers was released on bail, her bondsman being an uncle. The other women are still locked up.

COULDN'T RETAIL TURKEYS.

A Flemington Trouble Went Contrary to the City Ordinances.

Farmer Mahoney, of Flemington, arrived in Plainfield about 5 a. m. yesterday with a load of turkeys, and while going up North avenue his wagon broke down. He then thought he would try and retail the turkeys from the street. This is in violation of the city ordinance unless a license is secured. Accordingly the man was arraigned before City Judge Runyon. Mahoney was told what he could and could not do. He escaped further trouble by selling the entire lot to a local butcher.

War Hurts This Industry.

The war in South Africa is having its effect on the Regina Box Company, which is the leading industry in Rahway. During the summer the company employed over 300 skilled mechanics, while the plant was run overtime. The company had a heavy export trade with England and the Transvaal. Now the trade with the latter country is entirely stopped because of the war, while the English trade has greatly fallen away. The Regina plant is no longer running overtime and may not run even full time after January 1st.

Concerning "Santy."

It is unanimously admitted by all who have had any dealings with "Santa Claus" that he is a man of fine presents, and the finest of his are those which he distributes through through the medium of his agency at Collier's, 103 Park avenue. If you doubt, drop in and look at the solid silver large rope Nethersole bracelets at 75 cents; solid silver-handled shaving brushes at $1; solid silver match boxes as low as $1.50, and scores of other attractions equally serviceable and reasonable in prices.

In College Minstrels.

At a minstrel show given by the students of Lehigh University last week, Everett J. Peck, of Myrtle avenue, and J. Vincent Rittenhouse, of East Sixth street, took part. Peck was in the chorus, sang a solo and took part in the one act farce that followed while Rittenhouse was a member of the gymnastic team that did stunts during the performance.

—A number of additional men have been employd by the Plainfield Street Railway on account of the recent extension of the lines, which necessitated it.

CHRISTMAS IS AT HAND.

SPECIAL SERVICES TO BE HELD IN CHURCHES TOMORROW.

The Holiday Will Be a Quiet One, But Following It There Will Be Considerable Activity in Social Circles.

There is just one day more before Christmas. As that day happens to be a Sunday and will be marked by Christmas services at all the churches throughout the city, it may be said that the observance of the holiday begins really tomorrow.

Tonight will be the culmination of the Christmas holiday rush at the stores. There are always some who put off until the last moment the purchase of holiday gifts, and then they descend upon the stores at the last moment in a flurry of excitement. So it has been in the past and so it will be tonight.

Every church in the city has arranged something extra for the services tomorrow. The pastors will preach appropriate sermons. There will be special music. Greens in greater or less quantities will be used in the decoration of the sanctuaries. The announcements of the special services will be found in another column.

Christmas will find very few public attractions in Plainfield. There will, however, be a matinee and evening performance at Music Hall which promises to be very entertaining. Otherwise, the home gatherings will be the chief attraction.

Next week, however, will be a lively one indeed. There are the church entertainments, principally to be held Tuesday and Thursday evenings. Society will enjoy the first Assembly Wednesday evening and a formal dance at the Park Club house the evening following.

In addition, there are a number of entertainments arranged for the week as well as many private gatherings and parties that will form a pleasant feature of the holiday week.

NEW TELEPHONES.

Many Plainfielders Become New Subscribers to the Local Exchange.

The business of the New York & New Jersey Telephone Company in this city has been increasing rapidly during the past few months and especially during this month. It is believed that by January 1st there will be five hundred subscribers in this city. Telephones have been placed as follows during December: W. H. McGee, 40 Westervelt avenue, No. 646; Harrold Serrell, Myrtle and Sycamore avenue, 1065; F. J. Harris, South Second street, 1106; Monarch Printing Company, West Fifth street, 1085; Mrs. L. J. Denton, West Front street, 731; Harry F. Johnson, 1220 Watchung avenue, 1175; Mrs. W. L Hull, 36 Norwood avenue, 651; Edward V. French, Babcock building, 1075; Mrs. J M. Crane, West Eight street, 228 A; Wm. M. Stillman, residence, West Seventh street, 896; office, West Front street, 1132; George Egle, 198 Somerset street, 1183; Walter L. Hetfield, 142 Park avenue, 712; B. F. Crane, 94 Somerset street, 1114; Frank Curtis, 93 Mercer avenue, 1151; John T. Bantle, 428 Watchung avenue, 1163; Henry Hanson, 144 East Front street, 1001; Dr. H. V. Merrill, 420 Central avenue, 1686; Mrs. H. L. Warren, 109 West Seventh street, 1142; A. Kane, 409 East Third street, 913.

Week's Vacation With Pay.

When the regular employes of Woodhull & Martin finish their work for the week tonight each one of them will receive a neatly printed card which will extend a Christmas greeting and state that in view of their excellence of their excellence of their services, and as a Christmas present, they will receive a week's vacation with pay. The clerks will alternate in taking the vacations. This is an annual custom of this enterprising firm, and such a generous action ensures for them a staff of employes who are anxious and willing to serve their interests to the best advantage at all times.

Morris Will Probated.

The will of Freeholder Justus Morris, of Elizabeth, has been admitted to probate in the Union County Orphans' Court by Judge Vail. The estate is estimated at fully $1 00,000, most of which is in Elizabeth real estate. Mr. Morris made an equal division of his property among his three sons and left his second wife the valuable homestead in Linden Township, which has fourteen acres attached to it.

Grand Jury Will Act.

"Gus" Scheckle, the Newark man who is locked up in the Union county jail on a charge of passing a forged check for the amount of $10 on the Rahway Bank, has refused so far to be persuaded by County Detective Keron to plead guilty, and it now looks as if the prisoner's case will have to be acted upon by the January Grand Jury.

—Press want ads bring results.

LITTLE CHANGE IN THE CITY OFFICIALS.

Present Incumbents Will Probably be Reappointed.

TALK OF POLICE CHANGES.

PROBABLY THAT IT IS NOTHING BUT IDLE GOSSIP.

Some Talk That Chief Grant Might be Retired, But He Will Probably be Retained in His Present Place—City Clerk MacMurray Will be Re-elected to His Present Place in the Council.

It is a little early to make guesses concerning the people who will fill the appointive offices in the city government for 1900, but there are a few things about which there is a reasonable degree of certainty.

There is no doubt but what James T. MacMurray will be chosen city clerk. He has the business of the city down to a fine point, and is so thoroughly conversant with all its affairs that the new Council will much prefer a person of experience in that position. This will facilitate matters a great deal, and besides there will not be the trouble of breaking in a new man for the place.

Andrew J. Gavett, the present street commissoner, will undoubtedly be retained in office. He has served the city well and is also thorougly posted on every detail in his department. He is conceded by the majority to be the right man for the right place, and the machine is not disposed to displace him.

It has been hinted that there is to be changes in the police department, which is practically the same hint that is heard every year, but there is no reasonable assurance that there will be any change. It has been reported that Chief Grant is to be placed on the retired list, and that a younger man be put in his place. A little questioning among the members does not prove the truth of this report and it is quite likely that Chief Grant will remain where he is. This department may be increased in efficiency through the use of the police call system, which is needed and which could have been had a few years ago, had it not been for a member of the police department who threw cold water on the scheme and thus discouraged the police board from doing anything at that time. The members were afraid that if the system should be introduced that its efficiency would not be maintained, and it would not show to the best advantage.

Overseer of the Poor Hansen is quite likely to remain in his position, as no fault has been found with his service and the department has been conducted in a manner to suit the city fathers, and more especially the alms committee.

Chief T. O. Doane, of the fire department, is destined to stay where he is. He holds office under the veteran act. It is hinted that there may be some minor changes in the fire department, but nothing definite has been decided at present.

As regards the positions of sergeant of police and roundsmen there is not likely to be any changes. These officials seem to be doing their work in a satisfactory manner to the police board, and in fact the whole police department is considered to be in good condition.

Taking it all in all there is not likely to be any great changes in the make-up of the city government for 1900, and as each department appears to be working well, the incoming councilmen will not be disposed to make a change unless something warrants it.

There are many improvements that the city needs and no doubt some of them will be given during next year. There is a possibility that there will be some talk about a new city hall, with all the combinations, such as jail, city offices, etc. One matter needing attention is that regarding the establishment of a police ambulance. This is needed and the councilmen believe it would greatly aid the department.

No doubt some great improvements will be made in street work, and the Council will undoubtedly endeavor to do something toward establishing permanent roads. There is every indication that next year's sessions will be lively enough for anyone, as with the incoming Council there are some who will make themselves heard on the floor and some agressive work is looked for.

Burglars in Rahway.

Burglars are at work again in the upper part of Rahway, and two robberies have been reported there this week. The thieves at one house secured a gold watch and in the other a few trinkets.

GENERAL YULE IS INSANE.

His Retreat From Glencoe Unbalances His Mind.

COULDN'T STAND DEFEAT

Hardship of the Terrible March in Storm and Rain Broke a Gallant Officer's Health and Reason—Story of the Defeat of General Buller—Latest War News.

London, Dec. 23.—General James H. Yule, has become insane through his defeat by the Boers.

General Yule led the retreat from Glencoe to Ladysmith, being forced to leave General Symons, and the others wounded in the battle of Dundee to fall into the enemy's hands.

The responsibility of command which fell upon him by the death of General Symons, the mortification of defeat and forced retreat, as well as hardships he has endured, united in wrecking his mind. When he arrived at Ladysmith after the four days' retreat from Glencoe he was ill.

Buller's Rout.

London, Dec. 23.—This is the story of the loss of the British guns by Buller at Colenso, the first details of any moment passed by the censor, though the battle was fought a week ago to-day.

The dispatch has evidently been pruned by the censor, for it fails to give the number of guns captured, or to clear up the mystery as to whether they are still on the field or have been removed by the Boers.

Buller's retreat was a rout—that much is plain, even with the care taken by the censor to eliminate details that would unmask the truth of the crushing defeat.

Only the heroic work of the artillery saved Lord Dundonald's horse from annihilation— a blow that would have been even more serious to Buller than the loss of his guns.

The list of casualties, only a trifling fraction of the 1,119, gives the names of officers of the artillery alone.

Churchill Is Safe.

London, Dec. 23.–Lady Randolph Churchill has received a cable despatch from her son, Winston Churchill, the war correspondent who was captured by the Boers in Natal and taken to Pretoria, and whose escape from there was announced Dec. 14., saying he had arrived safely at Delagoa Bay.

Clifford's Appeal Fails.

Washington, Dec. 23.—The United States Supreme court has refused for the second time to interfere in behalf of Edward Clifford, who was convicted on June 12, 1896, of the murder of William G. Wattson in Jersey City on March 5, 1896. The court rejected Clifford's appeal from the judgment of the circuit court of the United States for New Jersey refusing to release him on a writ of habeas corpus.

Anti-Goebel Men at Odds.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 23.—The delay on the part of Goebel and Beekham in serving notices of contest against Governor Taylor and Lieut.-Governor Marshall leaves anti-Goebel elements in doubt as to the purpose of the contestants. The anti Goebel leaders will have an informal conference at Louisville during the holidays to decide whether they will make a fight to organize the two houses of the legislature. They say they have enough votes to organize the senate, but a majority of the leaders seem to oppose the fusion on organization, and prefer not to show their strength until the contests are voted on.

Shot His Son's Head Off

Knoxville, Tenn., Dec. 23.—Paul Kinkaid has shot and killed his son and another man in the coal section of Kentucky, just north of Jellico. Kinkaid, an aged man, his son and several other men engaged in a card game. The drinks were passed and soon the players were in a row. The elder Kinkaid grasped a shotgun and fired both barrels. One discharge decapitated his son and the other instantly killed another man, whose name is unknown. Kinkaid resided at Newcomb, Tenn. He escaped and has not yet been captured.

Family Saw Him Take Poison

Kokomo, Ind., Dec. 23.—Henry Brunner, a foreman at the plate glass factory, called his family out of bed to see him eat an early breakfast. The breakfast he took consisted of a teacupful of corrosive sublimate mixed to the consistency of molasses. This he deliberately ate with a small spoon as he talked composedly to the family. After scraping out the last morsel and licking the cup he said: "Now wait and see me die." He died in terrible agony four hours later. He had been drinking.

Mrs. W. D. Lowe Honored.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 23.—Mrs. William D. Lowe of Atlanta, president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, has received notice of her appointment as honorary president from America of the women's board of the Paris exposition. Mrs. Lowe has notified Mme. Poquard, leader of the woman's department of the exposition, of her acceptance.

Threw Gems Out of a Window

Philadelphia, Dec. 23.—Mrs. Naethan Friedman of No. 2,528 Jessup street, threw $2,000 worth of diamonds out of her bedroom window Friday. She had forgot that she had hidden them in a pillow slip, which she wished to air. Small boys found the jewels and took them to their mother, from whom they were recovered by the police when Mrs. Friedman reported her loss.

McGovern Whips Forbes

New York, Dec. 23.—"Terry" McGovern, after one of the most phenomenal records any feather weight has made in years—over twelve knockouts in succession—met "Harry" Forbes, of Chicago, Friday night at the Broadway Athletic Club. Forbes was no match for McGovern, who knocked his man down and out in the second round.

DEATH OF MOODY.

The Noted Evangelist Dies at Northfield, Mass.

East Northfield, Mass., Dec. 22.—Dwight L. Moody, the noted evangelist, died at the family home here Friday.

A widow, two sons and a daughter survive. It was not expected by the members of Mr. Moody's family and immediate circle of friends that death would be the result of his illness until Thursday.

The cause of his death was a general breaking down due to overwork. Mr. Moody's heart had been weak for a long time, and exertions put forth in connection with meetings in the west last month brought on a collapse, from which he failed to rally.

The evangelist broke down in Kansas City, Mo., where he was holding services, about a month ago, and the seriousness of his condition was so apparent to the physicians who were called to attend him that they forced him to abandon his tour and return to his home with all possible speed.

A few hours before his death Mr. Moody called his wife and children, telling them that the end was not far off. The family remained close by the bedside until the end came. The evangelist was almost free from pain, and occasionally he talked with apparent ease. About the last words he was heard to utter were:—"I have always been an ambitious man, not to lay up wealth, but to find work to do."

Mr. Moody was born at Northfield in 1837 and was one of nine children. His mother was left a widow in destitute circumstances, when he was four years old. He worked on the home farm until he was eighteen years old, and then went into the shoe store of a Boston uncle, as a clerk.

It was there that his religious life began. He joined the Mount Vernon Congregational Church, and after a prayer meeting, at which he first testified to the emotion roused in him by religion, the pastor took him aside and advised him privately not to speak publicly again. Even at the time the young man was sufficiently earnest and unconventional to startle those who had become accustomed to a certain way of thinking, feeling and speaking.

In Chicago, whither the young man went soon afterward, he joined a small mission Sunday school and organized a class of ragged street boys. He was successful. Other classes were added, and presently he organized a class of his own, with six hundred pupils gathered from the vicious and degraded elements of the great city. A church was added to the school, and Mr. Moody began to devote himself wholly to religious and missionary work.

With Ira D. Sankey, the singer, in 1871, he began a series of revival meetings throughout the country, and in 1873 the tour was extended to Great Britain. The extraordinary success which he met made his name familiar to the world.

Elephant is Not Guilty

Columbus, Ohio, Dec. 22.—"Sid," the big elephant which killed its trainer, Patsy Meagher, at the barns of the Sells-Forepaugh circus at Selisville, near this city, Wednesday, has been tried and acquitted on a charge of murder. As a consequence, Sid's life will be spared, although he will always be regarded with suspicion as a dangerous elephant. Lewis Sells, one of the owners of the show, conducted the trial. Two men who saw the killing said the keeper had given the wrong order. Sid obeyed and when punished turned upon Meagher. It had been decided to kill the elephant, but on the evidence Sells rendered a verdict of "justifiable homicide."

Populists to Drop Fusion.

Indianapolis, Dec. 23.—The Populist state committee at its meeting here, Dec. 29, will take action toward obtaining the national Populist convention for this city. The Commercial club will aid in the effort. Secretary Walters, of the state committee, says that he has good reason for believing that the convention is to be held here. He says that it is to be much larger than the convention of four years ago, and that no fusion is to be considered seriously.

Steam Ferryboat Sunk.

Middletown, Conn., Dec. 23.—The steam ferryboat F. C. Fowler running between East Haddam and Tylerville, sank at her dock on the East Haddam side and now lies almost submerged. What caused her to sink is unknown, but it is believed that she was either run into by some other boat during the night or that she sprang aleak. The Fowler was owned by W. R. Goodspeed and was valued at $8,000.

New Railway for Texas.

Austin, Tex., Dec. 23.—The charter of the Union Central railroad has been approved by the attorney general for filing with the secretary of state. The road is capitalized at $600,000 and is to be constructed from Houston, Tex., to a point on the Red river, near Paris, Tex. Branch lines are to be run to Waco and Palestine, Tex. The entire mileage is to be 560 miles.

Mr. Boutelle Will Recover.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 23.—Congressman Charles A. Boutelle is resting very comfortably at Young's hotel, where he was stricken with congestion of the brain Thursday afternoon. The physician in attendance announces that there is a great improvement in the patient's condition and that recovery will be rapid.

Run on a Maine Bank.

Portland, Me., Dec. 23.—As a result of a groundless rumor to the effect that the Portland Savings bank was embarrassed, a run on the institution is in progress. Depositors are being paid as fast as they present their books and the alarm is rapidly subsiding. The officers of the bank declare the institution is absolutely sound.

Aground and Off Again.

Atlantic City, N. J., Dec. 23.—A three-masted schooner poked her nose in the sand bar at Egg Harbor Inlet Friday afternoon. The life-saving crew sent out a boat, but the captain and crew remained aboard the vessel. She worked herself free in about an hour and proceeded on her destination.

Radam's Microbe Killer

—is admitted by physicians and scientists to be eminently healthful; being an antiseptic, it destroys all bacilli or disease germs in the human system. One can drink it freely without any danger from an overdose.

If you are ill, this remedy should be adopted quickly. Don't defer until there is no hope.

Radam's Microbe Killer will stay the ravages of Consumption, stop the pains of Rheumatism, allay the itchings of Eczema, prevent the wasting in Bright's Disease, neutralize the gnawings of Dyspepsia, sweeten the foulest stomach and bring back a normal appetite to the suffering patient. The above are only a few of the many germ diseases this remedy surely conquers. It has no injurious substance or mineral poison in its composition; for years it has been curing thousands of people in various parts of this country, Great Britain, France and Australia.

IT WILL CURE YOU

Large Bottle, $1. Gallon Jug, $3.

Send for free book containing testimonials and advice.

The Wm. Radam Microbe Killer Co

121 PRINCE STREET, NEW YORK, or

L. W. RANDOLPH,
Plainfield, N. J.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.

We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1 25.
LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.
Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.

— CHRISTMAS GOODS —
A Big Assortment.

INSOMNIA

"I have been using CASCARETS for Insomnia, with which I have been afflicted for over twenty years, and I can say that Cascarets have given me more relief than any other remedy I have ever tried. I shall certainly recommend them to my friends as being all they are represented." THOS. GILLARD, Elgin, Ill.

CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
TRADE MARK REGISTERED
REGULATE THE LIVER

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good, Do Good, Never Sicken, Weaken, or Gripe. 10c, 25c, 50c.
... CURE CONSTIPATION. ...
Sterling Remedy Company, Chicago, Montreal, New York. 316

NO-TO-BAC Sold and guaranteed by all druggists to CURE Tobacco Habit.

Flynn Bros.,

SHOE DEALERS,

222 WEST FRONT STREET,
Near Music Hall,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .

in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated

DOMESTIC FINISH.

Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.

Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.
Trading Stamps given.

The City Steam & Hand Laundry

MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B
19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

SELLING OUT

Below Cost
TO CLOSE BUSINESS
Star Crockery Store,
23 Somerset St., near Front.
3 and 9 cent Articles.
BARGAINS! BARGAINS!
Solomon & Evans,
Proprietors.

"ISN'T IT TOO CUTE FOR ANYTHING!"

So runs the chorus of feminine praise over this, that or the other pretty brooch in our fine collection. Husband, father, brother, beau—here's the fit thing! The price-range is $2.50 to $25.00—and there never was better choosing in pretty jewelry. You can make no mistake in picking with your eyes shut—but best come while the selection is complete.

Large Solid Silver Nethersole Bracelets, - - - - 75c
Solid Silver Brush and Comb, - $2.50
In a silk-lined case.

COLLIER, Jeweler,
103 Park Ave.
Established 1869.

STATIONERY and TOYS.

We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles for the Holiday trade.
CHRISTMAS CARDS and CALENDARS.
We make a specialty of FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.
High Grade Cigars.
Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.

B. W. HAND,
205 W. Front Street

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING

is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job That s what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.,
201 PARK AVE., Cor 24 ST.
Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.
Estimates furnished. Telephone call 639

LADIES' TAILORING.

RICHARDSON & WALD,
325 West Front Street.

TAILOR-MADE GARMENTS.
We make a specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.
Alterations and relining promptly attended to.
—DRESSMAKING.—
Our Dressmaking Department is in charge of Madame Walsh.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market

George Egel, Manager.

Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

THE ENTRANCE TO THE DINING ROOM

will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us.

Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early.

The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too—everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get.

FRED ENDRESS,
131—135 WEST FRONT STREET.

November:

The mellow year is hasting to its close.
The merry birds have almost sung their last.
Their faint notes twitter in the dreary blast—
That shrill-piped harbinger of early snows.
And hint to you in good coal to invest
At seven forty-seven Front Street, west.

ALEX. LUSARDI.

211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery. Nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores 6 9 1 year

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

LAIRE'S . . HOLIDAY SPECIALS.

Carving knives.
U. S. club skates.
Roger's plated ware.
Fine poc et cutlery.
Silver finish coffee and tea pots.
Nickel on copper tea kettles.
Boys' sleighs.
Fine razors and hones.
Grand Rapid sweepers.
Baby Rapid sweepers.
Shinny sticks.
Christmas tree holders.
Coin silver ware, cheap.
Fine table cutlery.
Fine scissors and shears.
Corn poppers.

The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,
Tel. Call 682.

TRY THE
QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,
No. 337 Park Avenue.
(Miller Building.)
Goods called for and delivered free of charge.
Domestic or gloss finish.

DOBBINS. CIGARS.

108 NORTH AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN.
ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.
317 West Front street.

J. W. VAN SICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly
TELEPHONE 148 b.

Your Valuables,

will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault
Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

GAS

For the Fire-place.
Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates.
Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.
CURTIS M. THORPE,
310-312 PARK AVENUE.
"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIRE PLACE."

F. A. DUNHAM,
—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—
109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 149 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
219 Park Avenue.

A. KANE,

Dealer in
BLUE STONE FLAGGING and CURBING.

Also Dealer in
Flour, Feed and Grain, Coal and Wood.

Store and Office
409 East Third St.,
Next to
THIRD STREET MISSION.
Open Evenings Until 8 o'Clock.

Chas. L. Stanley,

. . FLORIST . .

No. 142 North Ave.

HEADQUARTERS for choice Cut Flowers, Ferns, Palms, a large assortment of other plants.

Floral design work and decorating for all occasions. Satisfaction guaranteed; an immense stock of Holly, Wreaths, Roping, etc.

Annex stores for the Holidays,

134 North Ave,
South Ave, Netherwood,
and Central Ave., Westfield

Union County Orphans' Court.

In the matter of the sale of the lands of William Blimm, deceased, for the payment of his debts by virtue of an order of the Orphans' Court of the County of Union, State of New Jersey, in the above stated cause and bearing date on the 20th day of September, A. D. 1899, I, Jacob Blimm, Administrator of the estate of the said William Blimm, deceased, will expose for sale at public vendue on the next, between the hours of twelve o'clock noon, and five o'clock in the afternoon of said day, that is to say at 2 o'clock p. m., on the premises situated in the neighborhood of number 1014 West Front Street, in the City of Plainfield, Union County, New Jersey, all the following tract of land and premises hereinafter particularly described, situate lying and being in the said City of Plainfield, County of Union, and State of New Jersey, and described as follows:

TWENTY-NINTH (29th) DAY OF DECEMBER

Beginning at a point distant in a Southwesterly course parallel with the centre line of the route of the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey as filed in the office of the Secretary of State, twenty-five feet from a monument in the division line of (formerly) The Citizens' Building Loan and Savings Association of Plainfield, and Halsey Compton, (formerly James J. Compton) fifty feet Northwesterly at right angles from the said centre line as filed, thence Southwesterly and parallel with said centre line as filed, twenty-five feet to a point, thence magnetically North forty-four and a half degrees West two hundred and twenty-nine feet more or less to a point in the main road leading from Plainfield to Dunellen, thence in said road magnetically North fifty-seven and a quarter degrees East twenty-five feet to a point distant twenty-five feet Southwesterly along said road from Halstead Compton's line, thence magnetically South forty-five and a quarter degrees East parallel with said Halstead Compton's line two hundred and twenty-nine feet more or less to the place of beginning.

JACOB BLIMM, Administrator.
Dated November 24th, 1899. 11 25 5 oaw

John G. Bantle,

First-class
Ladies' and Gent's TAILOR.
428 Watchung Avenue.
Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

-:- WINDOW SHADES -:-

Estimates cheerfully given.
Mail orders will receive prompt attention.
J. A. GREENE,
112 Madison Ave. Plainfield, N. J.
11 15 1mo

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anæsthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$5
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD.
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills
—25c.—
A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses. : : :
MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung avenues.

MISS MORSE SHOT TO KILL

Woman Defends Her Honor With a Revolver

THE SHOOTING JUSTIFIED

Louis A. Perry Meets Death at the Hands of a Plucky Girl—The Morse Home is Bombarded by the Would-be Assaulters—Nearly All of the Windows Shattered.

Natick, Mass., Dec. 23.—According to the stories told by the various members of the Morse family, Miss Lizzie Morse was fully justified in fatally shooting Louis A. Perry, of West Natick.

Mrs. William Morse, her three sons and three daughters live on what is known as the Willard Morse estate, which is on a lonely road half a mile from the nearest residence.

According to the story they agree in telling, Electa Morse, started for this place. Soon after leaving she saw two men advancing toward her on bicycles. She turned to run home, and they pursued her, using insulting language.

As she neared the house she screamed and those inside opened the door and let her in. They then locked the door to keep the two men out. The latter then went to the windows on the northeast side of the house and tried to raise them.

Rufus B. and W. Warren Morse, who are in feeble health, offered such resistence as they could, and assisted by the women, kept the men out for nearly two hours.

All that time they were bombarding the house, smashing nearly all of the glass in four or five windows with stones. A window in the second story was smashed with a brick which Perry threw at Electa.

Stones, some weighing six or eight pounds, which were thrown through the windows, were picked up inside.

At last, Perry, who was the more determined of the two, smashed in the window in the northeast corner, pushed back the piano which stood just inside and jumped in. He made a rush for Electa and she tried to evade him and ran out the door to the front entry.

Perry then tried to grab Lizzie Morse, who, when she saw him force an entrance, got a revolver and a croquet mallet.

He wrenched the mallet away from her and struck her on the forehead with it, knocking her down. She fell at the foot of the front stairs. Perry leaped toward her and Rufus Morse caught him by the body.

Lizzie then fired at him four times. Perry jumped through a window. He was found outside, dead, with a small bullet hole in his left breast, just above the heart.

Germany and Samoa.

Washington, Dec. 23.—Nothing important developed at the cabinet meeting Friday afternoon. The secretary of war announced that the arrangements for the transportation of Gen. Lawton's body to the United States had not been completed by General Otis. It is the intention of the government to bring Gen. Lawton's body home as soon as possible. The body of Major John A. Logan, Jr., and of Lieutenant Ledyard, son of Henry Ledyard, president of the Michigan Central railroad, are also to be brought home at the earliest possible day.

Secretary Hay explained to the cabinet that the German government had not authorized its representatives in Samoa to raise the German flag, and that if he had done so, as reported, the government would disavow the act.

Two Allen Widows.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 23.—Two women have appeared to claim, as widows, the estate of the late E. G. Allen, former superintendent of the Providence division of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, who recently killed himself in New York city. Wife No. 1, Mrs. Harriet E. Allen, of Portland, Me., applied to Judge McKim for letters of administration for the benefit of herself and son, E. G. Allen, Jr. Number 2, who was Flora E. Rawson, opposed the application on the ground that Allen and wife No. 1 were never married. The latter alleges that wife No. 2 was married and had not been divorced when she married Allen.

Ocean Liners in Collision

Rotterdam, Dec. 23.—The Holland-American liner Werkendam and the British steamer Silvio collided in the Maas Luis, and the Werkendam had her side ripped open and five of her plates destroyed. There was a heavy fog hanging over the water. The Werkendam, blowing her whistles regularly, heard no reply to her warnings. Despite the fact that both steamers had large passenger lists, there was little or no panic, and no casualty other than the ripping of the Hollander's steel plates.

Sugar Growing in Delaware.

Dover, Del., Dec. 23.—Dr. A. T. Neale, in charge of the Delaware college agricultural experiment station has demonstrated to the farmers' institute the advisability of growing sugar in this state. Dr. Neale tried experiments in sorghum growing on three farms. One acre on a farm near Odessa produced 4,150 pounds of sugar; one acre near Dover yielded 3,600 pounds, and one acre on Dr. Neale's place, at Newark, 4,731 pounds.

Former Judge Arrested

Lockport, N. Y., Dec. 23.—Former Judge Charles Piper, of Niagara Falls, has been arrested on a sealed indictment charging subordination of perjury. He gave bail in the sum of $1,000. He is accused of encouraging Eugene Ramstein, executor of the Grandcolin estate, to make a false statement to the surrogate in accounting. Ramstein is in Auburn on his own confession.

Gave Him a Loving Cup.

Providence, R. I., Dec. 23.—Herreshoff Manufacturing company's workmen have presented a silver, gold-lined, loving cup suitably inscribed to Captain "Nat" G. Herreshoff, designer of the three latest cup defenders.

Defective Eyes.

Overstrained and Defective Eyes are the cause of many a

HEADACHE.

Correctly-fitted Glasses will remedy the trouble. A Scientific Examination Free and Glasses Guaranteed.

STILES & CO.,
107 E. Front St.
EVERY THURSDAY.
Hours: 10:30 to 5:00.

PURE cider vinegar for sale at C. J. Ackerman's, Clinton avenue. 8 5 w-s tf

Dissolution of Partnership.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership lately existing between Elston M. French and William J. R. Thiers of Plainfield, N. J., under the firm name of French & Thiers, was dissolved on the first day of December, 1899, by mu ual consent.

All debts owing to the said partnership are to be received by said Elston M. French, and all demands on the said partnership are to be presented to him for payment.

ELSTON M. FRENCH,
WM. J. R. THIERS.
Dated Dec. 1, 1899. 12 2 4 oaw s

M. Molnar,

432 Watchung Ave.,
Ladies' and Gents'
FINE TAILORING
Graduate of
New York Cutting School.

Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with old clothes and I will take chances of being entrust d with new work.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets
Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11

E. D. BARRETT,

Sanitary Plumbing,
Steam and Hot Water Heating,
Telephone 612. 148 East Fifth Street.

NEUMAN BROS.,

GROCERS,
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md. Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum.

E. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.
Paris for 1900.
Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.
Circulars at
181 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

OUR OYSTERS ARE THE ---FINEST---

ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
16 Vine St. Al work promptly attended to

EDUCATIONAL.

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Course.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.
(City Bank Building.)
Adelia C. Phelps will resume work Sept. 26th. Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

PRIVATE INSTRUCTION
given in
German and Elementary French.
Address for terms,
MISS ALICE GILBERT,
11 8 1mo 811 West Fifth Street

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
: : : PIANO AND THEORY : : :
Home Studio,
122 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN,
Address—60 SANFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

.....Piano Instruction.....
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and
MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes
Elementary Classes.
Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Duff.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J

W. D. MANNING
sells superior
Coal, Wood, Gasolene and Kerosene.
Office, 153 North Ave. Yard, 929 South Av
Tel. 139 A.

M. POWERS,

DEALER IN
LEHIGH COAL.
FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A
Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

Advertised Mail Matter.

DECEMBER 18, 1899.

FIRST CLASS.

Apgar, Mr Geo C	Martin Mr Henry
Arnold, Mrs	" Mrs Isabella
Brown, Mr John P	Marsh, Miss A
Burke, Miss Katie	Owner, house for sale
Campbell, Mr A H 2	Palmer, Miss I J
Cooper, Mrs J R	Parker, A W
Crone, J F	Pullman, L
Fields, Miss Harriett	Ralston, Mr H M
Geslin	Read, Mrs John
Harvey, Miss Martha	Richardson, Mr John
Hull, A A	Rockland, L
Hunter, Mrs R D	Roome, Mr. Wm P
Huston, Mr John	Rojette, Mrs Albert
Jellnarnd, Mr Robert	Schellendreusler, Rev H
Johnson, Mr Aug	Snoden, Mr J H
" P M	Taylor, Mrs E S
Jones, Mrs M	Tims, Mrs May
Kellogg, Mrs	Walker, Mrs Anna
Kitchell, Mrs Martha 2	" Mr Thomas S
McLean, Mr A M
VanVleit, Mrs Herbert

THIRD AND FOURTH CLASS MATTER.

Bunck, Mr C C	Pendergast, Mrs C
Hoff, Mrs Ella J	Turner, Dr A F
Hoffman, Samuel V	Upton, Mr Fred
Young, Mr Edward

E. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun' John P. Emmor
Telephone 601

Don't miss the Special Sale for the holidays of FRAMES,
EASELS,
and PICTURES
AT REDUCED PRICES,
given by the
Guarantee Portrait Studio,
142 East Front Street.
Fine drawings in Crayons and Pastels from all kinds of photographs. All kinds of frames from the latest styles of mouldings made to order at the lowest prices.

THAT'S THE IDEA!
You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

Park Avenue Hotel
Park Avenue and Eighth Street,
Plainfield.
Refurnished and Renovated.
Steam Heat in Every Room.
. . . Elevator . . .
First-Class in every respect.
Terms Moderate.
F. W. COLEMAN,
11 3 1mo Proprietor.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL.
corner Somerset and Chatham streets North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIDEL, Prop.

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.
PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.
NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:20 a. m.; 2:20, 5:00, 5:20 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:20, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.
SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 2:20 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a m.; 2:30 and 4:30 p. m.
PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:20 a. m.; 2:20 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a.m.; 12:20, 5:00 and 7:15 p.m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:20 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.
SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
E. H. BIRD, P M.

Corporation Notice.

of application to the Court of Common Pleas for the appointment of Commissioners to assess benefits for street improvements.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, pursuant to Chapter 200 of the laws of 1898, entitled, "An Act to authorize the improvement of streets and highways in cities of this State, and to provide for the payment of the expense of the same," approved June 13th, 1898, and the amendments thereof and supplements thereto, that application will be made by the Common Council of the City of Plainfield to the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Union at the Court House in the City of Elizabeth on the thirtieth day of December, A. D. 1899, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as the said Court can hear the said application, for the appointment of three Commissioners, who shall be freeholders and residents of the City of Plainfield, as Commissioners to estimate and assess benefits respectively conferred by the permanent improvement of streets under the several ordinances of said City, respectively entitled:

"An Ordinance for macadamizing East Sixth Street between Watchung Avenue and Richmond Street, excepting where already macadamized," approved Oct. 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing Franklin Place between LaGrande Avenue and East Fifth Street," approved Oct 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing East Ninth Street between Park Avenue and Watchung Avenue," approved Oct. 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing West Fourth Street between New Street and Monroe Avenue," approved Feb. 9th, 1899.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing West Third Street between Madison Avenue and Monroe Avenue, excepting where already macadamized," approved Feb. 9th, 1899.

and to perform the duties and execute the powers conferred by said Acts of the Legislature.

By order of the Common Council of the City of Plainfield.

JAMES T. MACMURRAY,
City Clerk of the City of Plainfield.
Dated, December 18, 1899. 12 19 td

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS,
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Hire for Picnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections.
210 PARK AVE.

H. G. Gayle, 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

THE
First National Bank,
of Plainfield, N. J.
Capital .....$200,000.
Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000.
J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.

DIRECTORS.

Charles Potter.	Wm. McD. Coriell.
P. M. French.	H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman.	Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson.	Wm. R. Codington.

F. S. Runyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.
VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

BAMBERGER'S
"THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE"
MARKET & HALSEY STS.
The Largest and Most Perfectly Equipped
Mail Order Service
Presenting Unequalled Shopping Facilities
For Thousands of Out-of-Town Patrons.

A thoroughly experienced staff of buyers in this department will make selections for you, and satisfaction is guaranteed or money will be refunded. We prepay mail or express charges to any part of the State on all paid purchases, and on C. O. D.'s for amounts aggregating $5.00 or more. Try our system, and you will not only save money, but have the additional advantage of assortments not equaled in Newark or surpassed anywhere in the land. Samples sent postpaid to any address upon receipt of postal card.

L. Bamberger & Co.
Newark, N. J.

Purity and Power of Tone,
Durability and Tone-Sustaining Quality
are marked characteristics of the world-renowned
FISCHER PIANOS

The Fischer Piano is the result of nearly sixty years of honest and intelligent construction along the most progressive lines of piano manufacture, through which it has reached a reputation permanent and unsurpassed.

OVER 110,000 Grand and Upright. SOLD

Exquisitely designed and cased in rare and choice woods.
Sold at moderate prices. Cash or easy payments.

33 UNION SQUARE, WEST, Bet. 16th and 17th Streets, NEW YORK.

A large stock of second-hand and slightly used Pianos of our own and other prominent makes, taken in exchange for new Fischer Pianos will be sold at very low prices.
Catalogue, terms, etc., mailed free on application.

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.
Sherwins,
149 W. Front St.

Holiday Goods.

Why you should see our assortment; a walk through our store will be the easiest way to solve the problem of what to get for presents for young and old.

Our line of fancy articles consists of everything imaginable in Celluloid, Plush and Glass Ware.

Handkeachiefs, gloves, neckwear, hosiery, umbrellas and dress goods of all kinds and all prices. Furs and worsted goods of every description.

DOLLS . . .

Dolls of all kinds can be found on our doll counter, our assortment is bewildering in their novelty, extent and attractiveness. Our prices are lower than any other house will quote for the same article.

TOYS -:- -:-

Our Toy Department in the basement is larger than ever before. No such collection was ever gathered here before, and it is safe to say there is no better stock in town in point of variety, there is no stock in town that equals ours in prices that's certain.

Children's velocipedes, tricycles, battleships, iron toys of all kinds, tool chests, wash sets, soldier sets, dishes, horse and wagons, chairs, printing presses, electric batteries, express wagons, magic lanterns, etc.

I. H. Boehm, 109-111-113 West Front Street

QUEER CAUSE FOR DIVORCE.

Wife of Pullman Official Sued Because She Nursed Guide.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 23.—Tales of adventures in Alaska have been unfolded on the witness stand before Judge Stein in the divorce suit of William T. Oliver, assistant auditor of the Pullman Palace Car company, against Elizabeth Agnes Oliver, who took a trip to the Klondyke in search of wealth in 1898.

Mrs. Oliver, on account of her husband suffering from insomnia and o her ailments, feared he might lose his position and decided in March of that year to go to the frozen gold fields of the north. Mr. Oliver demurred at first, but his wife insisted. Arriving in Dawson City on August 4, an inventory of her money was taken and the sum of forty-five cents, her total balance, was disclosed. A few days later the guide of the party, F. G. Danstum, was stricken with typhoid fever. All the party save Mrs. Oliver started to return, but she stayed with the sick man and nursed him to a partial restoration of his health. It was then too late to dig for gold. She sold what provisions she had left for a return passage to Chicago, and the guide came back to California in the same boat and died soon after setting foot on land again.

Mrs. Oliver, when she landed in San Francisco, received a letter from her husband, it is said, telling her not to return to Chicago, but she did. Mr. Oliver filed a bill for divorce in the superior court. Mrs. Oliver filed a cross bill, asking for separate maintenance.

POSED HIS CHILD AS A CORPSE.

Woman Mentally Tortured By Her Husband's Inhumanity.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 23.—A hurried voyage across the Atlantic, the posing of a child for an alleged post-mortem photograph and the exile of that child thousands of miles away from its mother, are features in the home-wrecking story related by Mrs. Ida T. Pries, of this city, in a divorce petition on file in the office of the district clerk. Dr. Rudolph Pries is the defendant. Mrs. Pries sets forth that she married Dr. Pries in Denver, July, 1882. They have two children, Olga, aged 15, and Blanche, aged 11. On July 31 of this year, so the petitioner alleges, Dr. Pries announced his intention to make a brief visit to Colorado Springs, and that he would take the children with him. Mrs. Pries was willing, she declares, but was greatly surprised on reaching the railway station on the day of departure to find that the doctor had transportation to Germany instead of Colorado Springs, and that he was going aboard an east-bound train instead of west-bound as he had led her to believe. On making this discovery Mrs. Pries begged her children to remain with her. She succeeded in holding Olga, but Blanche accompanied her father.

Shortly after reaching Germany, the petitioner relates, Dr. Pries wrote her that Blanche sustained a fatal injury in an accident, and that she had been buried. As proof of his assertion he inclosed a photograph representing the child in death. It subsequently developed, so Mrs. Pries declares, that Blanche had not met with any accident, and that the death scene was pictured simply to torture the mother. Mrs. Pries prays the court to grant her absolute divorce and to allow a reasonable allmony and custody of her doughter Blanche.

Town Crashes Into the Ocean.

Rome, Dec. 23.—A terrible disaster occurred Friday afternoon in Amalfi, the popular tourist resort on the Gulf of Salerno. An enormous rock, upon which stood the Cappuccini hotel, slid bodily into the sea with a deafening roar and without a moment's warning, carrying with it the hotel, the old Capuchin monastery below, the Hotel Santa Caterina and several villas. A number of persons were buried in the wreckage, which crushed four vessels to the bottom of the sea, destroying their crews. The mass of earth which slipped was about 50,000 cubic yards.

The populace is in a state of terror, fearing fresh calamities. Troops have arrived upon the scene and began the work of rescue. It is believed the loss of life is heavy, including many monks and the occupants of the hotels. As yet it is impossible to ascertain the exact number.

Fatal Christmas Rehearsal.

Quincy, Ill., Dec. 23.—Six little girls were burned to death, four probably fatally burned and eight other persons badly injured at the rehearsal of Christmas exercises in St. Francis school Friday evening. There were fourteen little girls in the class, and they represented different characters. Two of them appeared as lambs, and wore white fleece on their garments. The fleece of one caught fire from an open gas jet, and in an instant the whole ring of little ones was in flames. Sisters of the school ran to the rescue, and were burned badly. Six girls died almost instantly from burns, and four of the survivors will die. The injured included Father Andrew Butzkueben and four sisters of the school.

Crew of Barge is Safe.

Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 23.—Pickands, Mather & Company, owners of the whaleback barge No. 115, which it was supposed had been lost with all on board in the great storm of last week, have received a telegram from the captain of the barge saying that the crew is safe. The telegram is dated Middleton, Ont., and says the vessel went ashore near Little Pic River, on the north shore of Lake Superior. The message says nothing as to the condition of the vessel. Her crew consisted of eight men. When the whaleback broke away from the steamer towing her in the big storm she was leaking badly and had only two or three days' food supply on board.

Georgetown Convent Burned

Washington, Dec. 23.—The old building and the dormitories of the Georgetown convent have been destroyed by fire. How the fire started has not been discovered. All the inmates and employes escaped.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair Saturday and Sunday; light to fresh winds, mostly easterly.

IS SUING FOR A FORTUNE

An Interesting Suit Filed in District of Columbia.

LARGE SUM IS INVOLVED

John C. Calhoun, According to Referee, is Indebted to Brother in the Sum of $197,035.83—Representative Bailey of Texas Sheds His Sombrero For a Silk Hat.

Washington, Dec. 23.—A highly interesting suit involving a large sum of money has been filed before the supreme court of the District of Columbia by Patrick W. Calhoun. The suit is against his brother, John C. Calhoun. Both men are prominent factors in the financial world of New York city and both have been prominent factors in financial and industrial affairs in the southern states. Patrick Calhoun now lives at Cleveland, Ohio, while John C. retains his residence in New York. Just why this suit was entered in the District of Columbia is not clear, but it seems that there was agreement between the two brothers that it should take this course.

The papers were filed by General Butler, former senator from South Caroline, who has acted as a referee between the two brothers in getting at an accounting.

From a copy of an agreement entered into between Patrick and John C. Calhoun in 1897, which is part of the papers placed on file, it seems that the two men had been engaged in a large number of financial operations together and they were unable to agree as to just how their accounts stood. So they decided to have General Butler act as referee.

The suit sets forth the referee's judgment, which is that John C. Calhoun is indebted to Patrick Calhoun in the sum of $197,035.83, with interest on part of this sum. Of the amount $127,000 is owed on general cash account, $17,000 on account of Kentucky Coal and Iron company stock, $800 on the preferred stock of that company, $12,000 on account of the stock of the Railway Realty company, $8,000 on account of the stock of the Port Royal company, stock and $2,000 on Roger American Mechanical Carriage company stock. There is also a claim of a half interest in stocks estimated to be valued at $100,000.

Bailey Springs a Surprise.

Washington, Dec. 23.—Joseph W. Bailey, of Texas, was a part of the holiday parade along F street, but he was in disguise. Everybody stared at him. Men and women turned to look at him after he had gone by, and all of them were filled with wonder. The cause of it was a tall silk hat of the latest fashion. The big, broad sombrero, which has been the distinguishing characteristic of the Texan's attire had been cast aside, and in its place was a hat which would grace the swellest man who walks Fifth avenue, New York.

"I'm wearing this," explained the former Democratic house leader, "just to see if it is true that there is nothing more to me than that big hat. People have been saying that they knew me only by my hat; now I want to see if I haven't just as much sense without it as with it." Some of Bailey's Texas enemies are in great glee over the transformation.

"It will beat him for the senate," they say. "No man can go to the senate from Texas who wears a silk hat."

The Lawton Fund Growing.

Washington, Dec. 23.—Adjutant-General Corbin has deposited checks and cash amounting to $2,443, representing contributions received by him for the benefit of the widow and children of Major-General Lawton. The total contributions promised to this fund to date amount to $4.534, including $1,000 promised by the citizens of Milwaukee.

General Corbin and his associates are satisfied that the main object of the fund, which is to raise the mortgage from the family estate at Redlands, Cal., and provide for the future of the family, will be accomplished. The adjutant general has been notified by the Western Union Telegraph company and the Postal Telegraph company that they will carry free all telegraphic messages relating to the Lawton fund.

New Mexican Land Grants.

Washington, Dec. 23.—The United States supreme court has rendered opinions in two cases involving private land grants in New Mexico. The opinions were by Justice Peckham. The first case was the claim of S. Endicott Peabody in the Vallecito grant of 114,000 acres near Ojo, Califte, and the other that of J. Francisco Chavez to a grant of 5,000 acres in Valencia county near Torreon.

The grants were made by the provincial authorities of New Mexico, under Mexican rule, and were declared by the court of private land claims to be invalid on the ground that the granting authority was inadequate. The opinion just handed down affirms the opinion of the lower court and is adverse to the claimants.

Rule As To Federal Deposits.

Washington, Dec. 23.—Assistant Secretary Vanderlip of the treasury department has announced that the banks which make application for government deposits under the terms of the offer made a few days ago will be divided into groups of fifty. The first fifty banks making applications are to be allowed to receive as large deposits as they desire, within the limit at the disposal of the government, and the second and succeeding groups will not be allowed to receive any until the fifty banks in the first group have received all the deposits they may call for. The applications for deposits up to this date amount to $4,000,000.

Squire's Business to Continue.

Boston, Dec. 23.—The creditors of the John P. Squire and company corporation at a meeting have voted to continue the business of the firm under an assignee subject to the assistance and approval of a committee of three persons representing the creditors.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor,

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 2:00 p. m.

105 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week
$5 a year—in advance
No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada
Delivered by carrier or by mail.
The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district
Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on request.
Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., DEC. 23, 1899

COMING EVENTS.

Dec. 23—Conference and social of leaders in the Boys' Department of the Y.M.C.A.

Dec. 24—Bible classes for men and boys at 9:30 a. m. at the Y. M. C. A. Physical Director's Bible class at 5:15 p. m.

December 24—Rev. Walter T. Griffin, U. S. Consul at LaMoges, France, will address the Y. M. C. A. men's rally.

December 25—Log fire social at Y. M. C. A. at night. Basket-ball, etc., in the gymnasium during the day. Young men who are away from home are especially invited.

January 1—Open house at Y. M. C. A. All men are invited.

January 1—Mons. DeVilliers and Miss Carolyn Loving in Y. M. C. A. Star Course.

Shopping Made Easy.

There is no need for shoppers to fatigue themselves by going from store to store in the endeavor to find what they want or to decide what to buy says the Philadelphia Record. With their favorite newspaper in their hands they have spread before them for convenient inspection, as it were, all the prominent stores in this city, with all their desirable contents. The merchant who wants customers advertises.

A number of Republicans in Congress are directing efforts towards reducing Congressional representation from the southern states. New apportionment bills have been introduced and the new census statistics are to be utilized as an excuse to reduce this representation. It is expected these statistics will show the election laws in the southern states, so far as they affect the disqualification of the voters; also the number of white and colored voters in each State, with the number of votes actually cast in 1896 and 1898. The plan is to reduce the Congressional representation in proportion to the number of votes cast if the figures show that voters are disqualified and prevented from exercising the right of franchise.

The Passaic Herald has no faith in the fifty cent gas scheme, but because the projectors are willing to take all the risks it thinks a franchise should be granted the new company. The Newark News says this is a mistaken idea. If it is certain that the alleged new process of making cheap gas is a failure, to permit the streets of the city to be torn up, and the people subjected to trouble and annoyance, simply because certain men are willing to waste their money in fruitless experiment, is certainly an excess of good nature.

The formal call for the selection of delegates to the Republican National convention which is to assemble in Philadelphia June 19, 1900, has been issued. Each State and Territory will be entitled to twice as many delegates in the convention as it is entitled to send to both Houses of Congress. Delegates are to be elected thirty days before the assemblage of the convention, provision being made for the selection from districts in which there is no party organization so as to insure complete organization.

While the regular editorial page of the New York Tribune is pursuing the even tenor of its way, the New Jersey page is devoting great energy to "booming" Attorney General Griggs for the nomination of the Vice-Presidency of the Republican party. No paper could be more loyal to Jersey men and their interests than the New Jersey edition of the Tribune, and it is right on the spot every time State Republican politics needs aid or defense.

The Newark News thinks that Garwood can well afford to change its name in consideration of acquiring a factory that will employ 800 skilled mechanics. The place is not old enough to have as yet a great deal of sentiment attached to its name, and really either Aeolian or Vocalion, of which it is given the choice, is more euphonious by far than Garwood, with its harsh consonants.

Major Carl Lentz, the old war horse of Essex County Republicanism, who has been in the background of politics for the past year, is once more on top. At the meeting of the Republican county committee last night the Major was chosen for his old place as chairman of the committee. The Major will from now on resume the leadership of the G. O. P. forces, with Essex safely in the power of his political party.

Though "the green grass will not be growing all around," as the old song goes, this Christmas will, metaphorically speaking, be about the greenest in the memory of the oldest inhabitant—unless there is a sudden turn in the weather that prognosticators do now anticipate.

The Daily Press will not be issued Christmas Day.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

Plainfield has several small industries about which the average citizen knows but little. One of this class is the papier mache and advertising novelties of E. L. VanCampen. Mr. VanCampen just now is issuing a number of novelties in the calendar line. One of them that has been handed to The Daily Press is especially attractive and unique. It shows a picture of a typical dude, the face and neck being modeled with papier mache in a very natural manner.

* * * * *

Lafayette Township, Sussex County, offers a bounty for groundhog scalps and the mortality among these elusive little beasts was so large during the past year that not only was the township treasury almost bankrupt, but grave suspicions were aroused that adjoining groundhog scalps on Lafayette. The local correspondent of the Sussex Reporter suggests that if the bounty is to be continued this year each hog shall swear that he was a bona fide resident of the township and had been such for at least thirty days before he lost his topknot.

* * * * *

A Camden girl who had lost her lover consulted a fortune-teller as to his whereabouts. She was directed to get a black cat, skin it alive and boil its hide. Then she was to take an ice cold bath and then take a walk, and during the walk she was assured she would meet her recreant lover. The girl followed the directions faithfully, but although she walked until she could walk no father, she failed to meet her missing swain. Having paid $29 for the recipe, which proved a failure, she had the fortune-teller arrested for obtaining money under false pretences. Camden would seem to be good field for missionary work of several different varieties.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

"A Flag of Truce" one of William Haworth's great successes will be presented on Christmas afternoon at the Stillman Opera House by the Burrill Comedy Company. On Monday night another of Wm. Haworth's famous plays, "The Ensign," will receive its first presentation at popular prices. Miss Laura Hulbert, who created quite a favorable impression here last season, is the bright particular star, and her clever work during her previous visit, proves that she is an actress of unusual merit. During each evening a number of clever specialties will be introduced including the great child artist, "Baby Griadner," a wonder child dancer who has created a favor by her remarkable dancing. The usual daily matinees will take place, with a change of play each day. Seats now on sale at the box office.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Christmas Cheer.

'Twas the morning of Christmas, and all thro' the house
Its presence the tones of good cheer did arouse.
The stockings were full of rare goodies and toys
And the children were full of their consequent joys.
The hearts of the parents were full of delight
And the household as full of a radiance bright.
A radiance, owing its comforting glow
To bins full of fuel from Stevens & Co.

—J. C. Pride, the barber, of 94 Somerset street, will on account of Christmas, being Monday, keep his shop open Sunday for business until 4 o'clock p. m.

WHAT DO THE CHILDREN DRINK?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about ¼ as much. All grocers sell it. 15c. and 25c.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it; no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,
122 East Front Street.

Just For A Day
IN OUR
BASEMENT!

Solid Oak Writing Desk and Bookcase, value $12.98, only a few at - $9.69

Bookcase in Golden Oak, 27 in. wide, 55 in. high, value $3.50, 6 to go at $2.87

$5.98 Oak Writing Desk - - - $4.98
9.45 " " " - - - 7.98
9.95 " " " - - - 8.40
11.40 " " " - - - 9.80

$15.00 Full-size Couch, Best Steel Springs, six styles Figured Velours, extra value at - - - - - $10.50

Solid Oak 5 drawer Chiffonier, value 6.50, for Saturday - - $4.98

A full line of Chiffoniers up to $19.95.

18-in Top Oak Tables - - - 85c
22-in " " " - - - 1.25
24-in " " " - - 1.48
A special 20-in Birdseye Maple Table $1.98

Tables at 2.98, 3.75, 4.48, 4.98.

These Goods Cannot be Duplicated in the Town for the Price.

LAMPS! LAMPS! LAMPS!

See Our Centre Window.

Lamps at 1.98, 2.98, 3.48, 3.98 and 4.98, that are exceptional good values.

Toilet Sets in Domestic and imported porcelain from 1.98 to 12.00.

Doll Carriages and Go-Carts.

If in doubt what to give the little girl for Christmas buy her a Go-Cart for her doll. We have them in infinite variety, from 49c to 4.98.

MORRIS CHAIRS.

Solid Oak Frame, Velour Cushions, extra large and roomy, - - - 4.98
In Denim Cushions, - - 3.98
High Grade Morris Chairs from 6.48 to 14.98

FANCY ROCKERS.

4 styles, some in Fancy Velours, spring seat, saddle seat or leather seat at - - 2.98
Others in oak and mahogany - 3.48 to 5.00

WOODHULL & MARTIN,
234, 236, 238, 246 W. Front Street.

PECK'S CORNER.

PECK'S

. . . HOLIDAY STOCK . . .

recommends itself to those who are seeking really practical and useful presents for friends.

Merry Christmas. Happy New Year.

To those who contemplate making

Christmas Presents

I advise you to call and see the

Handsome Building Lots At Woodland Park, Plainfield.

Suited for a king or prince. Or some of our one or two acre Plots for Raising Poultry, &c. You can buy these properties at Low Prices, monthly payments guaranteed title. These properties will double in value in two or three years. Other investments to suit all.

SILAS D. DRAKE,
175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

Bonn's
140 WEST FRONT ST.

That we have helped to make Christmas more joyous for many, with our liberal assortments of sensible and appreciative gifts at economical prices, and your generous purchasing here giving the stamp of approval to our efforts, it is with much heartiness that we wish

A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS TO YOU ALL.

This store will be open this evening until 10 o'clock to accommodate those who have not had an opportunity to complete their Christmas shopping.

A FEW SUGGESTIONS—

Silk Waists, black and colors, $4.98 and $5.98
French Flannel Waists, all colors and black, $2.98.
Stylish Grey Flannel Waists, $1.89.
Mercerized Petticoats, all colors, $2.49 and $3.39.
Black Satine Petticoats, 49c, 79c and $1.23.

45 inch Feather Boas, grey, white and black, $10.98.
Novel Gold and Silver Brooches, 25c, 39c and 49c.
Fancy Beaded Belts, 31c to $1.98.
Cut Steel Buckles, 25c to $1.75.
Jeweled-top Hat Pins, 19c.

Drake & Mundy
207 WEST FRONT STREET.

TURKEYS, CHICKENS, DUCKS, GEESE,

Choice cuts of all kinds of Meats.

Prices to Suit Everybody.

$2.00 worth of Trading Stamps with $1.00 Purchase.

Mr. H. J. Johnson, the well-known Vegetable Man keeps an elegant stock of Fruits and Vegetables on hand at very reasonable prices. Will be glad to get a call from his old customers. 12 21 3

THE BOOT SHOP AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,
107 Park Avenue.

Great Millinery Sale
Continued For One Week.
Two to three hundred Felt Hats that were 39c and 50c now on sale for 15c and 19c.
$5.00 hats reduced to $2.98.
Great Reduction in Birds, Feathers and Ribbons.
Millinery Parlors,
L. A. DALY,
Corner W. Front St. and Central Ave. 12 16 6

CHARLES ARNOLD,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats,
POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON
203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.
Telephone 238.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store 126 Park avenue. 10 1

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, Dec. 23.—Before the exercises closed at the Whittier school yesterday afternoon there was a general exchange of gifts. Miss Ada Weatherwax, who has charge of the fifth and sixth grades, was fairly deluged with handsome presents from her pupils, who are thoroughly devoted to her. The Misses Wilgus, Brokaw and Lloyd were also the recipients of handsome remembrances. Several of the teachers at the Lincoln school also received gifts from the scholars.

The Christmas entertainment of the Presbyterian Sunday-school will be held this evening in the chapel, commencing at 8 o'clock. Special music will be rendered by the school. Candy and oranges will be distributed among the children.

The Christmas services at Holy Innocents Episcopal church will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 30 o'clock. Rev. A. S. Phelps will preach upon "The Message of Great Joy." Special music has been arranged by the choir.

Mass will be celebrated at St. John's Roman Catholic church at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. Christmas morning mass will be celebrated at 8:30 o'clock.

The Christmas tree and festival of Holy Innocents Episcopal Sunday-school will be held next Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The Crokinole Club met at the home of Mrs. Fred T. Dickerson last evening, when a delightful time was enjoyed.

Mrs. Kellhorn, a sister of Mrs. Lloyd Nelson, of Orange, is spending the Christmas holidays with friends in town.

W. H. Carman, who recently sold his meat market, is employed temporarily at Endress' market in Plainfield.

The Christmas entertainment of the Children of the Baptist Sunday-school will be held next Tuesday evening.

The social and dance held in Apgar Hall Thursday night was not as successful as had been anticipated.

Miss Mildred Gaskill will assist the choir at the Methodist church services tomorrow evening

A. R. Apgar will lead the meeting of the Epworth League at the Methodist church.

A new house is being built on Centre street for Mrs Minnie Whitford

PLAINS AND FANWOOD

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 23—Judge Clark has issued his annual batch of warrants for the delinquent taxpapers in the borough and township. These have been turned over to the special constables for election.

The Christmas entertainment of the Methodist Sunday-school will be held in the church this evening. An interesting programme has been arranged by the scholars and teachers, and a very pleasant time is anticipated. All are invited to attend.

Rev. G. M. Shott will preach a Christmas sermon at the Baptist church Sunday morning. In the evening his subject will be "The Other wise Man," preceded by a short prelude, "Toil From the Devil's Gristmill."

The foolball game, which had been arranged between a combination of the local eleven and the Dunellen team, against the Alls on Christmas Day morning, has been called off.

Miss Alice Shott, daughter of Rev. G. M. Shott, is spending her Christmas vacation visiting her friend, Miss Cornelia Emery, at Arlington, a suburb of Washington, D. C.

Contractor John Bormann has broken ground for a new house on his property on Westfield avenue. John Miller has the contract for digging the cellar.

The scholars and corps of teachers of the public schools are enjoying a vacation until Tuesday, Jan. 2. 1900.

The primary department of the Public School held appropriate Christmas Day exercises yesterday afternoon.

The Township Committee met in the town rooms last evening. Routine business only was transacted.

Twilight Council, Jr. O U. A. M., held an important meeting in their rooms last evening

Let me say I have used Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh and can thoroughly recommend it for what it claims. Very truly, (Rev.) H. W. Hathaway, Elizabeth, N. J.

I tried Ely's Cream Balm, and to all appearances am cured of catarrh. The terrible headaches from which I long suffered are gone.—W. J. Hitchcock, late Major U S. Vol. and A. A. Gen, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50 cts. or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders

—Miss Nellie Meissenger, of North avenue, has secured a position as an operator at the local telephone office.

—Another of the popular Y.M C A. Star Course entertainments, New Year's night, Jan. 1, at 8 o'clock. See ad.

—The Christmas entertainment at Warren chapel will be held in the chapel next week Thursday afternoon and evening.

—Arthur Drake, son of Silas Dewey Drake, has purchased a house and lot at the corner of Fourth street and Madison avenue.

—The Swedish Mission Society will hold a Christmas service Monday morning in the W. C. T. U. room and a festival at 8 p. m.

—A concert will be given in Monroe Avenue church on Friday evening of next week under the auspices of the young men of the church.

—The Christmas exercises at Muhlenberg hospital will be held Christmas Day afternoon at 3 o'clock and the public is cordially invited.

—The Borough Board of Health will hold its next regular meeting Tuesday evening, January 2d, as the preceding night is a holiday.

—Christmas service will be held in the Church of the Heavenly Rest tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. There will be no service Christmas Day.

—A great meeting will be held in Salvation Army Hall, on West Front street, tomorrow night, which will be conducted by Adjut. Emily March.

—Most of the teachers of the Borough Public Schools left town this morning for their several homes, where they will spend the holiday season.

—On account of next Monday being Christmas it is not likely that the board of governors of Muhlenberg Hospital will meet that evening, which is the regular time.

—Tomorrow afternoon at the W. C. T. U. rooms there will be a meeting of special interest to all Mrs. M. D Tomlinson, county superintendent, will be in charge.

—One week from tomorrow afternoon there will be a service at the W. C. T. U. rooms for the G. A. R., of this city. Rev. Dr. W. C. Nelson, of the borough, will make a patriotic address.

—At the meeting of Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., Thursday evening two candidates were initiated. The election of officers and the Christmas tree will take place next week Thursday.

—The death of Gen. Lawton, which occurred in the Philippines, a few days ago, recalls the fact that about eight years ago he visited Plainfield His brother who was here at the time, entertained him for a short while. He was seen and remembered by several Plainfielders.

Working Night and Day

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globule of health, that changes weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fag into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box. Sold by L. W. Randolph.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, Dec. 23.—John Baker, of Springfield, was in Westfield Thursday, looking over the records, to establish the official lines between Westfield and that part of Springfield which it is proposed to incorporate into a borough. There are only sixty-five names on the list of unpaid taxes in the borough of Mountainside for this year, which were retured before Justice Collins Thursday.

Special school meeting will be held in Westfield Club Hall Thursday evening of next week when the Board of Education will ask for an appropriation of $50,000, $5,000 of which it is proposed to use in building a new building at Mountainside, which is in this district, and $45,000 with which to buy a lot of ground on Walnut street for a new twelve-room school building for Westfield.

The Press was a little out of the way in yesterday's issue when, in the sporting colum, it gave Westfield credit for winning one game in The Press Bowling League. The Westfield Club team has won three games and lost two. The team expects to stop only when it reaches the top.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The last of the Y. M. C. A bowling contests for the silver medal took place last evening.

The Y. M. C A. "gym" will be open Christmas Day from 10 to 11 for free exercise; from 11 to 12 for indoor football; 2 to 4 for free exercise; 4 to 5 for basket ball. In the evening a log fire social will be held.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Miss Angie Kuhl, of Somerville, has been the guest of friends in Plainfield.

Mrs. McGee, of Westervelt avenue, is confined to her house by a severe illness

Arthur Peck, of Myrtle avenue, is home from Lehigh University for the holidays.

Roy T. Phillips, of Madison avenue, has just recovered from an attack of the mumps.

Miss Katheslne Dwight, of Rockview avenue, is confined to her home with the mumps.

Mrs. O'Brien, of England, is a guest at the home of Hughes Fawcett, Washington Park.

Miss Lulu Packer, of East Sixth street, is home from Wellesley College for Christmas.

Rhey T Snodgrass, of Central avenue, has returned from Dickinson College for the holidays.

Miss Mabelle Phillips, of Madison avenue, is home from Wellesley College for the holidays.

Carroll L. Runyon, of East Ninth street, is home from Yale University for the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Meredith, of Madison avenue, left yesterday to spend the holidays in Boston.

Miss Cassie Dow, of Green Knoll, N. J., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Hendrickson, of this city.

Paul Kimball, of Madison avenue, has returned from Princeton University for the Christmas vacation.

Miss Amanda Carman, of Elmwood place, is detained at home with a severe attack of facial neuralgia.

Miss Carolyn Campman, of Wellesley College, is spending her vacation at her home on Sandford avenue.

Mrs. David Mundy, of this city, has been visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. S B. Ribble, of Harlingen.

Miss Lillian Clicknor, of Manasquan, has returned home after a pleasant visit with Plainfield relatives.

B. S Braider, of Manning avenue, is able to go out now for the first since the serious injury to his leg sometime ago.

Mrs. George H. Babcock and son, George, of West Eighth street, have gone to Ashaway, R. I., for the holidays.

Henry L. Adams, formerly of this city, but now of New York state, has been visiting Plainfield relatives and friends.

Henry Leal, of Central avenue, has returned from Yale University and is now confined to his home with the mumps.

Lindley M. Hillman, of Sherman avenue, left today for Middletown, N. Y., where he will spend a two weeks' vacation.

Miss Gertrude Snodgrass, of Central avenue, is home from the Women's College at Baltimore for the Christmast holidays.

Everett J. Peck, of Lehigh University, returned yesterday afternoon to spend his vacation at his home on Myrtle avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Merrill of South Branch, have been visiting their son, Dr. Howard Merrill, of Central avenue.

Miss Anna Malloy and her father, Thomas Malloy, of Scotch Plains, who have been abroad two months, have returned home.

Mrs. Vail and her granddaughter, Miss Lulu Vail, of Elmwood place, left yesterday for Brooklyn, where they will spend Christmas.

Henry B. Drake, of Duer street, is home for the holidays from Philadelphia, where he has been attending the Philadelphia Textile School.

Miss Eleanor B. Williams, of West Seventh street, has returned from Philadelphia where she had been attending the Drexel Institute.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Mrs. Florence Potter-Ross, daughter of the late Charles Potter, Jr., and Albert Sheppard, of Chicago.

Miss Georgia Chamberlin of Chicago University, is spending the holiday season at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Chamberlin, of Madison avenue.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

AT RANDOLPH'S,

See our Window Display. CHRISTMAS GREETINGS.

Great values in choice Perfumes. Never before this opportunity. Bottle goods from 10c to $4.50.
Hair Brushes, Military Hair Brushes, prices just ½ their reg. value.
House Thermometers, large assortment. Sachet Powders in bulk, 40 cents per ounce and in packages, 10c, 15c, 35c.
Lowney's Celebrated Candies, 60 cents per pound.
Whitman's Chocolates, 40 and 80c per pound.

PLACE ORDERS EARLY.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for Lowney's Chocolate and Chocolate Bon-bons. TELEPHONE CALL 109

BAMBERGER'S

THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE

MARKET & HALSEY STS.

Great Garment Sacrificing.

Ladies' and Misses' Jackets made of handsome all-wool Kersey Cloths in black and richest colorings, including tan and castor, all handsomely lined with silk.

Regular $10.00 Jackets, Special at $6.50
Regular $15.00 Jackets, Special at $9.98
Regular $12.50 Jackets, Special at $7.50
Regular $20.00 Jackets, Special at 12.98

BATH ROBES for ladies and misses, made of fine eiderdown in all colors, styles and sizes at 2.98

SILK WAISTS black and light or dark shades of taffeta silk, all-over tucked, worth $6.00, special at 3.98

GOLF CAPES made of all wool, plaid back material, 28 inches long, regularly worth 9.50 special at 4.98

MACKINTOSHES for ladies, misses and children, black, navy, red and brown plaid back cashmeres, single or double capes. 2.49 to 10.00

HOUSE DRESSES and wrappers, made of percales, flannelettes and all-wool materials, at from 98c to 10.00

Children's Fur Sets made of every fashionable genuine or imitation fur at intermediate prices, starting at 1.98 and ranging upward to as high as 50.00

Fancy Fur Sets Neck pieces and muffs to match of red, brown, blue, sable or Jap fox with large animal heads on scarf and muffs, prices ranging from $15 to 75.00

Baum Marten sets Natural or bleached skins made up by expert furriers, scarfs or muffs sold separate or entire sets at special prices, from $55.00 to 125 00

Electric Seal Jackets. the guaranteed genuine article, regularly worth 35.00 to 40 00 each, at 24.50 and 32.50

STYLISH FUR JACKETS of Baum Marten, Chinchilla, Mink, Sable and Beaver revers, worth double, 50.00 to 150.00

PERSIAN LAMB JACKETS, made of very finest selected skins, and intended to sell for 125.00, special at 75.00

ALASKA SEAL JACKETS Very fine fur made up in this season's most favored shapes, worth 250.00, at 175.00

CHILDREN'S DRESSES Made of green, red, brown or blue novelty cloths with cashmere yokes, epaulettes over shoulders and fancy piece down front, braid and buckle trimmed, lined throughout, sizes 6 to 14 years, worth 2.50 to 3.00, at 1.49

Children's Dresses All-wool Cashmere and novelties in royal, brown, green and cadet, sizes 6 to 14 years, made with revers and yoke of velvet, epaulettes over shoulders, braid trimmed, blouse fronts, worth 4.50 to 5.98, special at 2.98

CHILDREN'S REEFERS Fine beaver cloth in navy, green, red and brown shades, large sailor and top collar trimmed with wide and narrow Hercules braid, coat back, some with strap across, double breasted fronts, sizes 6 to 14 years, worth 4.00 to 5.50, at 2.98

Child's Long Cloaks of strictly all-wool ladies cloth in all colors, made with large military capes, some with silk-lined hoods, braid and fur trimmed, lined throughout, interlined, sizes 2 to 6 years, worth from 6.50 to 9.00, special at 4.98

Russian Mink Scarfs at 1 98
Electric Seal Scarfs at 2.98
Fine Opossum Scarfs at 3.98
Genuine Mink Scarfs at 4 98
Baum Marten Scarfs at 5 98
Stone Marten Scarfs at 5,98

Mail Orders Promptly and Carefully Filled.
GOODS DELIVERED FREE.

L. Bamberger & Co.,
Newark, N. J.

FIRE!!!

When you hear the alarm at midnight, you can feel secure, at small cost, by knowing that you have an insurance policy issued by

ELSTON M FRENCH.

Largest agency in the city
163 North Ave., opp. Depot.

We are NOW receiving orders for

HUYLER'S

XMAS CANDY,

—to be delivered at—

CHRISTMAS TIME.

Remember the

Only Agency

—IS—

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

Tel. 705

POWERS' PHARMACY Somerset St. Craig Place.

Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .

Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot and Tar is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

Toys, Toys, Toys

for the

HOLIDAYS

—AT—

HARPER'S,

411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

: : Pride's Tonsorial Parlor : :

94 SOMERSET STREET.

opposite Somerset Hotel.

Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty . . . . .

CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.

-: WILLIAM J. PRIDE, :-

formerly with E. B. Maynard.

Ladie Desiring

KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING

done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 219 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

CUT FLOWERS!

Choice Blooming Plants, Palms, Ferns, Jardinieres, Fern Dishes, &c. Headquarters for Wreaths, Holly, Mistletoe and everything in the florist line. First-class stock. Largest assortment of cut flowers in the city.

A. E. LINGOLN,

Telephone 876. 225 PARK AVE. 12 14 9

CHAS. L. FORCE.

Architect and Superintendent.

208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 21 tf

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.

Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J.
Perth Amboy, N. J.

Mackintoshes.

We show a very attractive line of mackintoshes for women and children.

2.98. Misses mackintoshes, navy blue serge, plaid backs, detached military capes.

3.75. Women's mackintoshes, navy blue or black serge, plaid backs, detached military capes.

5.00. Women's mackintoshes, very fine all wool serge, fancy plaid backs, detached military capes.

75c to 2.00 Men's mufflers in a very choice assortment of handsome brocades and plaids.

1.00 Men's heavy dogskin walking gloves of a very excellent quality.

1.50 Men's Mocha gloves, the fashionable shades of grey and brown.

A Ruthless Sacrifice of TOYS : :

Nearly six thousand pieces in the lot, including a great variety of mechanical toys; tin and wood toys of all kinds; tops, horns, dolls, sets of furniture, building blocks, trains of cars, tin stoves and an endless variety of every kind of toys.

The lot is now on sale in our new basement.
Your choice for

3c each.

The values of the lot range from 5c to 50c the piece. This astonishing offer is made with a view to disposing of every toy we have on hand prompty before Xmas.

A Talk on Overcoats.

We know how to talk about them because we make them.

Our $10 Overcoat

is made from all-wool Kersey, cassimere lined, with a shoulder yoke and sleeve lining of real satin. The style is there as well as the quality. We have them from $5.00 to $13.50. Boys' Reefers $1.75 to $4.00.

We Make All Our Clothing.

Schepflin & Schultz,

M. J. Cashin, Manager.

322 West Front St.

98c CAMERA and One Double Plate Holder as shown in our window, for only 98c . . . .

During the rest of this week we will offer CAMERAS and SUPPLIES AT COST.

. . . . COLUMBIA RECORDS . . . .

-:- 30c EACH -:-

All Goods will be sold AT COST. Remember This Week Only.

GEO. W. WRENNICK,

133 NORTH AVE.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned

Best work for the money in town. Bids on work willingly given. Work done night or day. Get my bid before you have work done.

P. O. Box 625, Plainfield, N. J.

T. M INGRAHAM.

S. R. STRUTHERS

offers his services as accountant. Books opened and closed. Trial balances made and Balance Sheets shown.

Call or address

544 WEST FRONT STREET. 12 12 12

XMAS IS NEAR

Now is the time to order your Xmas greens First come, first served. Holly, laurel and Xmas green wreaths and roping; also loose holly, palms, ferns, jardinieres and wicker baskets for Xmas presents.

MRS. L. J. DENTON,

Stillman Building. Tel. call 731.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.

Capital, $150,000.

Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.

CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

DIRECTORS.

Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Closson. H. G Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold. J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J B. Coward.

General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Provinz Posen.

Posen. Die Errichtung eines Bismarck-Denkmals wird hier beabsichtigt. Die deutschen Gesangvereine wollen durch Veranstaltungen die Aufbringung der Kosten erleichtern.

Gnesen. In Folge des Zusammengehens aller deutschen Parteien bei den Stadtverordnetenwahlen haben die Deutschen zwei Sitze gewonnen.

Inowrazlaw. Der Oberbürgermeister Hesse ist an den Folgen einer Ohrenkrankheit gestorben. Er war erst 43 Jahre alt.

Lissa. Wegen Nahrungssorgen verübte der Panoramabesitzer Peschel gegen seine Frau erfolglos ein Revolverattentat und tödtete sich dann selbst durch einen Schuß in die Schläfe.

Provinz Ostpreußen.

Labiau. Der Haffdamm bei Juwendt wurde in Folge Weststurms durchbrochen, und die Dörfer Juwendt, Altheidendorf, Neuheidendorf und Nemonien wurden unter Wasser gesetzt.

Memel. In der Nähe des russischen Fleckens Polangen wurde gelegentlich der Anlegung eines tiefen Grabens ein ausgedehntes Bernsteinfeld entdeckt.

Pillau. Dieser Tage wurde von dem hier gestrandeten schwedischen Schooner „Solomith" die aus sechs Personen bestehende Besatzung durch den Raketen-Apparat gerettet.

Provinz Westpreußen.

Danzig. Das Schöffengericht verurtheilte 119 Fleischermeister von Danzig und Umgebung wegen Vergehens gegen das Nahrungsmittelgesetz zu je 3 beziehungsweise 5 Mark Geldstrafe. Sie hatten dem Hack- und Schabefleisch zur Erhaltung der frischen rothen Farbe eine seit langer Zeit gebräuchliche Essenz zugesetzt, in der schweflige Säure enthalten ist.

Deutsch-Krone. An Tollwuth sind dem Besitzer Tesmer in Rederitz binnen Jahresfrist 14 Kühe eingegangen. Auch jetzt ist wieder unter seinem Rindviehbestande die Tollwuth ausgebrochen, der bereits eine Kuh erlegen ist.

Rheinprovinz.

Köln. Bei der Zollkasse der hiesigen Eisenbahndirektion sind Unterschlagungen in bedeutendem Umfange vorgekommen. Von dem Thäter fehlt noch jede Spur.

Aachen. Die Strafkammer verurtheilte den hiesigen Verkaufskommissär der amerikanischen Petroleum-Kompagnie in Antwerpen, Joseph Sch., der die Gesellschaft in den letzten vier Jahren um rund 34,000 Mark geschädigt hatte, zu neun Monaten Gefängniß.

Duisburg. Neulich Nachts wurde bei dem Juwelier Hermann Meyer ein großer Einbruchsdiebstahl verübt. Die Diebe räumten alle im Schaufenster befindlichen Werthsachen, wie Uhren, Ringe, Armbänder aus. Die gestohlenen Schmuckgegenstände stellen einen Werth von mehr als 30,000 Mark dar.

Geilenkirchen. Der Gendarm Schmidt wurde auf einem abendlichen Dienstgange von Wilderern, die er überraschte und anrief, angeschossen und schwer verletzt.

Provinz Sachsen.

Halle. Der vor wenigen Tagen hier verstorbene Justizrath Niewand, Sohn des früheren Deputirten der Mannsfelder kupferschieferbauenden Gewerkschaft, vermachte 2,000,000 Mark zu Wohlfahrtseinrichtungen für die Bergleute dieser Gewerkschaft.

Zahna. Die Stadt Zahna hat seit vielen Jahren mehr als 2500, augenblicklich 3200 Einwohner, und es gehören deshalb nach der Städteordnung mehr als neun Vertreter in das Stadtverordnetenkollegium. Man hatte daher bei den diesjährigen Stadtverordnetenwahlen bei der königlichen Regierung zu Merseburg die Genehmigung zur Wahl von mindestens 12 Stadtverordneten nachgesucht. Wider Erwarten wurde aber dem Magistrat regierungsseitig die Genehmigung hierzu versagt, unter der merkwürdigen Begründung, es möchte zu bezweifeln sein, ob sich unter der Zahnaer Bürgerschaft 12 Personen finden möchten, die die nöthige Intelligenz zur Wahrnehmung von Stadtverordnetenpflichten besäßen!

Provinz Schlesien.

Breslau. Hier starb der Sanitätsrath Dr. S. Richter, einer der angesehensten Aerzte Schlesiens. Der Verstorbene hatte, bevor er von Beuthen nach Breslau übersiedelte, ein Menschenalter hindurch in aufopfernder Weise als Arzt im oberschlesischen Industriebezirk gewirkt und sich namentlich in den Zeiten der furchtbaren Typhusepidemien, die früher häufig in Oberschlesien wütheten, als ein unermüdlicher Helfer und Menschenfreund bewährt.

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill
Turning and Scroll Sawing.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 2c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

XMAS SLIPPERS!
SHOES, RUBBER BOOTS,
DRESS SUIT CASES. TRAVELING BAGS.
The Largest Stock to select from. The most useful and suitable CHRISTMAS PRESENT.
DOANE & EDSALL.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS
Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.
at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use
REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT,
Made only by
T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,
At 25 cents for a quart bottle Cor. Park and North Aves.

Sterling Silver Novelties.
In addition to our extensive showing of sterling silverware we have added a new assortment of silver sets complete, enclosed in leather cases. These are very beautiful goods, of the best quality and are priced very moderately—Sterling Novelties as low as 25c, 39c, 49c 59c, 75c, 98c.
HANDKERCHIEFS—New lines have been added to our splendid showing of handkerchiefs, making a truly bewildering assortment Some decidedly good values are offered at 10c, 12½c and 15c —One lot of pure linen embroidered handkerchiefs at 25c each is worthy of attention.
WOMEN'S KID GLOVES—69c, 79c; warranted gloves, 1.00, 1.25, 1.50.
UMBRELLAS—75c to 3.50.
MACKINTOSHES FOR WOMEN—3.50, 4.50—MISSES' SIZES—2.49, 3.75.
EIDERDOWN SACQUES—1.00, 1.39, 1.75, 2.25.
I. LEDERER.

FALL OPENING.
WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.
OUR STOCK COMPLETE
We are now ready to fit either man or boy in Suits, or Overcoats, Hats and Gent's Furnishings.
Boys' Suits from 75c to $5 00.
Men's Suits from $2.00 to $20.00.
Have you tried a pair of our Celebrated Cassimere Pants at 98c the pair, if not do so—they are the talk of the town; sold over 1,000 pairs the past season; never rip and fit to perfection. Give us a call.
WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,
206 West Front Street.

7000 BU. of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last. Order Quick.
Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

BUY YOUR PHONOGRAPHS,
Gramophones, Records and Supplies
A GOOD MACHINE AT $5.00.
BROKAW'S . . .
The Piano Dealer, 123 East Front Street.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we ca always deliver dry stock. Agent for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on firs mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phœnix, o London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.
Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,
Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.
WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER
DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS
Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.
GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.
119 East Front Street.

A AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED
Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.
The Genuine Portland Range has "Portland" on oven door plate, and "A. H. Van Horn, 73 Market St., Newark, N. J." on plate below oven door—sold here only.
Presents That Last!
—Imagine, if you can, more than four acres devoted—every inch of it—to presents for all parts of the home, for old, for young! 'Tis the largest store in line in all this State—pay cash or credit—prices always BELOW any other's prices. Goods selected now, reserved 'til later—free deliveries.
How would a Rug do? or an Easel, a Music Cabinet or a Library, or a Parlor Table, a Couch, a Lamp, some Pictures, Lace Curtains or Portieres. These and MORE such things are all here—for CASH OR ON CREDIT! These goods below are chosen from different lines and specially priced:

$3.49
Value $4.50
A lot of Cherry Rockers—highly polished—high arms, saddle seat.

$5.49
Worth $8.00
Cute Cornered Chairs—in cherry—silk damask covered—very new.

$5.75
Was $8.50
A swell front, golden oak Desk—French legs—one drawer.

Now $12.98
Value $16.
A mahogany finish, Combination Desk, bevel plate mirror, spacious and new style. 50 other kinds.

$10.75
A White Enamel Dresser, plate mirror, beveled edge, $15 usually.

GET A "Domestic" Sewing Machine for a lasting gift, needn't pay cash if you want. Old machines allowed for.

Music Cabinets—all the way from $4.35 up—as goodly a line as you'll want.
STORE OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL CHRISTMAS
A Pretty Picture Book for Children to all Callers.
Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St., Near Plane St., Newark, N. J.
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS.
Note first name "Amos."
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

A Brooklyn lady has long been afflicted with habitual constipation. Physics were only a temporary and painful relief. Her bowels would sometimes refuse to move for an entire week. She asked her druggist for advice, and he recommended Ripans Tabules. She took them and now writes: "The result was wonderful, considering my case. My bowels now move regularly and without pain."
A new style packet containing THE RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (120 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue.
BUTCHERS.
Everything usually found in a first-class market.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83 A.

McCullough's STEAM MILL.
11 Steiner place, North Plainfie
R. H. McCullough, Prop'
dash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished

Elston M. French,
Successor to VanBuren Bros.
Real Estate and Insurance.
Largest agency in the city. Loans negotiated.
163 NORTH AVENUE.
Opposite Depot

H. Eggerding,
121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR,
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havanas. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

L. A. HUMMER,
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.
163 SOMERSET ST.
Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

Christmas Poem.

The time draws near the birth of Christ;
The moon is hid the night is still;
The Christmas bells from hill to hill
Answer each other in the mist.

Four voices of four hamlets round
From far and near, on mead and moor,
Swell out and fall, as if a door
Were shut between me and the sound.

Each voice four changes on the wind,
That now dilate and now decrease;
Peace and good will, good will and peace,
Peace and good will to all mankind.
—Tennyson.

MERRY XMAS

AFTER MANY DAYS

(A Christmas Story.)

JAMIESON'S PLAYERS.
Call.

Next Stand ..... Pocatella
Leave ..... Midnight
Road ..... Union Pacific
Depot ..... Same
Baggage Ready.... After Performance
Hotels..... Union $2, Depot $1.50
Matinee "Camille," Night "Article 47."
Date ..... Dec. 24

Jamison, the manager, had just posted the above call in the "prompt" entrance of the little western theatre where the company was to play that evening. He turned and saw several of his actors gazing at it sullenly. Under ordinary circumstances he would not have paid any attention to the fact, but salaries were in arrears and he now spoke conciliatingly:

("I will let no man's past affect my future.)

"It's pretty tough, boys, I know, but Portland cancelled and I had to hustle to fill the week. I counted on a good date for Christmas to pull me out of the hole. Pocatella's only good for a few hundred at best, but I've got a fine booking on the string for New Years."

Jamieson always had good things "on the string," but somehow or other the string usually broke before the contract was landed.

As he turned away from the group around the call-board he met Virginia Wolton, the leading woman, coming up from her dressing room. He beckoned her aside, where the others could not see, and placed a small envelope in her hand. "It's the money for this week only," he said. "I'm mighty hard up. The others will have to wait."

The resignation of the leading lady would have been critical at this time, so Jamison was unwilling to take any chances with her. She thanked him and walked over to read the call, and as her eyes fell on it she started.

"Pocatella," she murmured, "and Christmas, too. It looks like fate." She stood with her eyes on the bit of yellow paper for some moments and her mouth quivered. Then two tears rolled down her cheeks.

From the other side of the curtain came the sound of a broken piano, and the leading woman hurried to the narrow little room under the stairs to cover the stains in her make-up with rouge.

Five years before Virginia Wolton had made a tour of the large western cities with a successful New York comedy. In the company with her was a young fellow, Allen Ronald, who was in his second season on the stage. He was a handsome youth, who had forged ahead rapidly and who gave some promise. Added to his mental and physical gifts were the breeding and refinement which he had acquired in a good home and which were in striking contrast to the bohemian surroundings in which he now found himself.

There was much in such a lad to appeal to any woman of the stage, and Virginia Wolton found him an entertaining companion. Indeed, it was not long before a friendship sprang up between the two, which, in Ronald's case, developed into a violent passion. The leading woman was brilliant and not without beauty. She was altogether different from the women the lad had met in his conventional home life, and day by day her attractions for him increased. On her part, she found him companionable and they were thrown much together. But when he spoke of love and marriage, she told him he would get over his infatuation as soon as they were parted.

"Even if it is a case of genuine love, my boy," she said, "nothing can come of it. I am a woman of the world and I know what I am saying. It would mean only misery and regret for both of us. Look around you in this profession! See the wrecks! No. On the stage there can be no love. It is a quicksand; down on it once and you go down, down, down."

But Ronald was not to be dissuaded so easily.

"What if others have failed," he answered. "I am myself—I will let no man's past effect my future. I love you and I shall marry you. We will be the happy exception."

It was on that Christmas day five years before that the company in which these two people had been thrown together was snowbound in Pocatella, a little Idaho village, with one long street of ramshackle houses peopled by miners, cattlemen and Indians from the reservation. There was to be a wait of several hours for the outgoing train, and the members of the company started out to view the surounding country. As usual, Allen Ronald and the leading woman walked together. A few snowflakes were falling, and before them the broad plain stretched, its snowy whiteness melting into the orange and rose of the evening sky. It was a solitude which would have transformed friends into lovers, and which was irresistible to those whose hearts already beat in union. For a time the two walked in silence, awed by the beauty of the sky.

"Why, how far have we come"—it was Virginia who spoke; "see, the station is only a little black speck! These plains are so deceiving! When we started I thought that rosy spot was quite near. It's just as far away now as ever. And I am so tired."

Ronald brushed the snow from a log and she sat down. Then he spoke.

"Virginia, do you know what it is to pursue a rosy vision? That is what I have been doing all these months. But I love you now as much as it is in the power of man to love. I want you to tell me that it is not so hopeless as you thought. Tell me you do care for me enough to make me happy."

"You know I care for you," she said. "Indeed I do. But Ronald, dear, you are young in this profession, and I can't seem to make you see how hopeless it is. If you were only in some other sphere."

"And if I give it up?" he asked. "I am young. I have energy and ambition. I will find other work to do. Only bid me hope."

"I do not wish you to sacrifice your life for me."

"It will be no sacrifice. Virginia, I love you more than life itself. I only ask you to tell me that my love is returned."

And there on the Idaho plain, under the orange and rose of the evening sky, Virginia Wolton spoke the words that put an end to the young actor's career.

He came to New York and secured a position as a clerk in a downtown house. After a year's hard work he had managed to have his income raised to $15 a week. Then Virginia Wolton, too, came back to New York, made a success, and Ronald was given short shift. When he protested that he would succeed in time, and it was love of her that spurred him on, she told him that she was too old to see the romantic side of love in a cottage, and as for marrying him after she was an old woman, which seemed the only hope, that was out of the question. So they parted.

It was nearly noon when Jamieson's players arrived at the Pocatella station. The station was deserted, and there was just time for a hurried meal before the afternoon performance.

The audience was a motley one—miners and cattlemen, with a few painted women. The miners laughed at Camille's emotion and the women wept copiously. The leading woman's best scene had just been spoiled by a guffaw, and she was saying hard things about "jay western towns," when Jamieson entered, his face aglow.

"I've got the biggest 'ad' of the season for you," he said. "It's good for a column with the Omaha reporters. 'Millionaire Defends an Actress.' How is that for a headline? What am I talking about? Well, when I got through counting the house I went over to the Red Serpent Cafe to get a bracer. Need it in this air. There were a dozen or more loungers at the bar, and a big fellow in a fur coat was standing treat all round. Seems they all swear by him. He's worth seven or eight millions—made it right here in the cattle business or something. Alongside of him was a red-nosed rowdy they call Fighting Mike. He has done time and is the terror of the place. I don't know just how it happened, it went so quick, but it seems that this bully pointed to one of your lithographs that was hanging over the bar and made a remark about it. The fellow in the fur coat was just raising a cocktail to his lips, but he dropped the glass with a crash and caught Mike by the throat. The rowdy reached for his gun and the crowd ducked behind the tables and chairs in a hurry.

"But the big one was too quick for him. His arm went out like the hind leg of an ox, and he has just carried the bully home and put him to bed. Say, isn't that your cue?"

The leading lady rushed upon the scene just in time to prevent a stage wait.

As she started back to the hotel after the matinee she heard the clattering of hoofs on the icy pavement, and a sleigh drawn by two steaming horses drew up by the roadside ahead of her. The driver, a rosy-faced man in a fur coat, jumped down and came toward her with outstretched hands.

"I mighty nearly missed you," he said. "A friend of mine was taken ill suddenly and I had to drive him home."

Virginia Wolton smiled at the modest allusion to Fighting Mike's mis-

(He caught him by the throat.)

hap, for she felt sure the man in front of her was the hero of the Red Serpent.

"How can I ever thank you enough," she asked. "Oh, I've heard all about what happened to Fighting Mike, and I'm sure you must be the gentleman who——"

"Well, this beats me," said the big man as he lifted the leading woman into his sleigh bodily. "Virginia Wolton, I didn't think you'd forget an old friend."

The leading woman raised her thick veil and recognized Allen Ronald. In a moment the horses were galloping up the road, and between a volley of questions Allen Ronald was telling his story from the time they had parted.

"When you threw me down that night"—the directness of his speech hurt her—"I was certainly cut up. I don't think any fellow ever cared more for a woman, and I suffered terribly.

"However, the less said about that now the better. It was the making of me, after all. You see, I worried so I couldn't eat or sleep, and suddenly I quite broke down. The doctor called it consumption. He had been married so long he didn't know my symptoms. Anyhow, he gave me three months to live, and told me to go to Colorado. Colorado didn't do me any good. No place would have under the circumstances. Well, I cut it short there and landed in Pocatella with just $5 in my pocket. I got a job driving cattle, and the outdoor life agreed with me. After a while I managed to buy a few head myself and drove them to the market. From buying and selling I took to speculating, and on one or two deals I made enough to put me on Easy street."

All the boyish enthusiasm was there still, but Ronald spoke now with the assurance of a man who has made his way. Virginia Wolton noticed this, and she felt that such a man she could once have loved. To-day she wondered if it would ever be in her power to really care for any man. She wondered, too, how it would feel to live in Pocatella, away from the feverish life she had been leading all these years. Could she be content in that narrow sphere, the same to-day, the same to-morrow and every day? Then she thought of the one-night stands, of the early morning starts and the bitter disapointments of hunting for an engagement in New York. Seven millions! One need not be tied down anywhere with so much money. She had shaped Allen Ronald's past—could she now shape his future as well?

"I am proud of you," she said reaching over and patting the big hand that held the reins. "I always knew that you would succeed. Tell me more about yourself.'

"There isn't much more to be said You remember that walk we took over the plain a long time ago?"

She did remember and said so with a tender modulation which was half feeling and half art.

"Well," said Ronald, proudly, "I own every inch of that ground now.

"It's getting late," he added, "and I want you to see my house before it gets too dark. I brought all the terra cotta from Chicago for it. We'll drive back now. I reckon the supper's hot and there's somebody I want you to meet."

"Who is it?" asked Virginia Wolton

"Why, my wife," he said.

ADOLPH KLAUBER.

Three Phases of Christmas Tide Joy.

Christmas in a Salt Mine.

Thousands of feet below the surface of the earth, deep in the salt mines of Europe, Christmas is kept. For in the vaulted chambers, amid the pillars of salt, lives a population of human beings. Not only miners abide there, but people who occupy homes hewn out of the mountain of crystal that glitter eternally under the artificial light, which must always burn in these depths.

Many of this population seldom see the light of day. They are there from Christmas to Christmas, in the miles and miles of galleries that extend under the Carpathians and Alps—galleries on different levels, ascending and descending, crossing each other at various angles and reaching far under the overlying salt, rock and earth.

On Christmas eve and on Christmas day the echoes of the rock-ribbed caverns are awakened by the children's voices. The song, the merry laugh, the joyous shout in childish games and sports, are heard. There are music and the dance, feasting and merry-making the brilliantly lighted and decorated gift-bearing tree that illumines diamondlike crystals that gather up the light, divide it into prismatic beauty and cast it back again.

The merriment may never reach the surface of the earth, but none the less does it cheer and make joyful the hearts of those who may sing "Peace on earth, good will toward men" down in the heart of earth on Christmas day.

Don't Forget This.

While the American people feel a just pride in the knowledge that this land is the freest and the richest on earth, let them not forget that the awful poverty of more than half its citizens produces the most helpless kind of slavery While the eagle screams above the housetops the wolf howls at many a door.—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

Happiness comes most frequently when we try to give it to others.

COMMENTS.

A Day of Good Cheer and Good Will to Men.

"Christmas comes but once a year." Hence the advice of the old carols, that no one should fail to make of each Christmas the very merriest possible, is sound. Even though the individual pocketbook may be light, there is no reason why there should be no Christmas. He is poor, indeed, who cannot find a bit of holiday cheer and imbibe a little of the spirit of St. Nicholas, even if he cannot afford to make gifts, and does not expect any himself. It is an ancient and trite bit of reflection that a Chrstmas present is valuable not because of its intrinsic worth so much as the spirit of the river, but like most platitudes it is a truth that it is well to remember. And this year Santa Claus is doing an enormous business; he is not likely to forget many of us. Hang up your stockings and expect to find them well filled when Christmas morning dawns.

No Saint in all the calendar can be so dear to the children as Saint Nick. And a child's decision is often more worthy of respect than that of his sophisticated and perhaps pessimistic elders. A man who is dismal and ugly on Christmas Day needs reformation sadly. The children are right. This day, of all the year belongs to them, and no mere grown-up has any business to mar it for them.

The first Christmas that can be called American dates back to the first voyage of Columbus, who spent the 25th of December, 1492, on American soil, and spent it not very auspiciously or merrily. But it is only of comparatively late years that it has become almost universal as a holiday. The early Puritans regarded it as a "papist festival" and an abomination. It was not until the early years of this century that New England welcomed Santa Claus, and opened its wide chimneys to his reindeer and sleigh. Now there is not a hamlet of the whole United States where no trace of him can be found. Wherever the Anglo-Saxon goes the descendant of the rousing Christmas of Merry England goes with him, and, best of all, the Christmas spirit of "peace on earth and good will to men." No more important message can be sent than that of this season. Merry Christmas to all!

Lucky It Isn't the Moon.

"Perkins' little boy wants a gun for Christmas."

"Goodness! Are they going to get that baby a gun?"

"Didn't you hear me say he wanted it?"—Chicago Record.

How the Pope Celebrates.

The midnight services on Christmas Eve in Rome are impressive, according to a London journal. Nine cardinals is costly vestments, nine train bearers, twenty ushers, a choir of superb voices behind a gilded railing, all add to the impressive service. The chapel is a blaze of light, and Michael Angelo's "Last Judgment," painted on the ceiling, adds to the superb effect. A girl who spent Christmas in Rome enthuses over the services in St. Paul's. The altar glitters with gold and candles, and is arched by a canopy. There are two thrones for the Pope. Guards of honor, soldiers and attaches are to be seen in abundance. At 10 the procession of the Pope and the cardinals enters. The singers and blowers of silver trumpets precede him. His cap of maintenance and three tiaras follow them; a company of mitred priests come next, followed by the cardinals in scarlet. At the last beneath a canopy, upon the shoulders of men, and flanked by the mystic fans, the Pope advances. The silver trumpets are blown, and the Pope gives his blessing.

At the moment of consecration in the mass the Pope descends from his throne, passes down the choir and reaches the altar. It is impressive when the Pope, with his own hands, lifts the eucharist from the altar and presents it.

Say Not So!

Tell us not in mournful numbers
That the Chrismas gift's a "frost,"
That the things which haunt our slumbers
Are not worth the work they cost.
True, the chap who loathes tobacco
Might be sent a pipe or so,
While the man who needs pajamas
May receive a piccolo!
But the spirit of the giving
Is the thing that gains applause,
Christmas comes, and we are living,
So hurrah for Santa Claus!

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall Streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 50, 7 26, 7 29, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 46, 9 16, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 54, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 06, 7 39, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 00 m, 12 58, 1 45, 2 40, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 50, 7 26, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 9 34, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m.; 1 01, 2 08, 2 23, 3 22, 4 33, 5 03, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sundays 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamauqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked *) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov 19, 1899.
LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield:

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.
Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.
Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.
Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.
Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.
Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket timetables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.
FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent, 218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

L. L. Manning & Son

STEAM
GRANITE WORKS.

Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low

XXXX QUALITY

FINEST
LOFOTEN COD LIVER OIL,

Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod. Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at

39c per Pint.

For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at

50c per Bottle,

or the Tasteless at

75c per Bottle.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY.
Hepburn & Co.,
Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S.

213 WEST FRONT ST.

Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

O'Neill's.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS....

Buy Your Christmas Gifts in New York at O'Neill's.

You will find here the largest and best selected stock of Holiday Goods in the city of New York and sold at a price to your liking.

LAMPS, BRIC-A-BRAC, BRASS and ONYX GOODS, BRONZES STATIONERY, FINE FURNITURE DRAPERIES, FURS, SMOKING JACKETS, CANES, UMBRELLAS, GLOVES FINE NECKWEAR, JEWELRY, LEATHER GOODS, CAMERAS, BICYCLES, ETC.

BOOKS! BOOKS! BOOKS!

No store in New York has so large a collection of New Holiday Books as you'll find here, and in no other store can you buy them so cheap. Thousands of volumes to choose from. Books of Fiction, Poetry, Travel, Biography, History, Books for the Young People, Religious Books, Cook Books, Dictionaries, Encyclopedias, Bibles, Hymnals, Prayer Books, etc., etc.

☞ SPECIAL ATTENTION and LIBERAL DISCOUNT given to the Clergy and Sunday-School Committees.

☞ All Cash Purchases except Sewing Machines and Bicycles delived free to any Railroad Station within 100 miles of New York City.

H. O'NEILL & CO., 6th Ave., 20th to 21st St., N. Y.

WANTED

25 Mechanics

and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.

Agent on the Grounds
SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.

... TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW,

THE GROCER.

Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.

Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

DONGE FELT SLIPPERS are the best and they make the best CHRISTMAS GIFTS. And a pair of the "VanArsdale Shoes" would be a sensible gift, too.

Van Arsdale,
127 E. Front St.

Shoes for Everybody at Popular Prices.

OPEN EVENINGS. FURNITURE.

Wouldn't a clean finished, well-made piece of Furniture make an ideal Christmas present?

FURNITURE. Jardinier Stands from 50c to $5.00.

POWLISON & JONES,

149 and 151 E. Front Street.

Our Attractive Holiday Display awaits your inspection. We are glad to welcome visitors and pleased to show our goods.

A. L. & M. D. Gorsline, 144 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

SOME QUAINT TREES

REAL CHRISTMAS CHEER IN SOME LOCALITIES.

The Bell-Snickles and Their Visits—Wanderers Taken In From the Highways—A Dinner in a Mountain Tavern—One Woman's Undertaking.

A traveling man says: "I once saw a Christmas tree in a blacksmith shop, in the mountains of Pennsylvania. It was trimmed with a lot of ginger cakes cut in shapes to represent fish, horses and dogs. The smith had also cut out a lot of pink paper birds and flowers, and with three pounds of red and yellow clear candy his tree was well filled. Every farmer boy who brought a horse or mule to be shod received a gift from the tree. The wayside inns all have Christmas trees behind their dingy bars where there is room. Their trees contain extra candies that are not sold behind the bar usually. During Christmas week the landlords have raffling matches and euchre parties for anything from half a dozen cups and saucers to a pair of chickens or a turkey.

"Bell-snickles still make merry on the highways for the country children in these districts. Grown folks in tattered gowns and clothes, wearing grotesque masks, go from house to house with bags of nuts on their backs and slender poles in their hands. The children are tempted to pick up the nuts thrown on the floor before them, when they are rapped gently over the fingers. Naughty children are punished, but as a general thing the visit of the bell-snickles is pleasant enough and affords much fun where there is so very little going on to amuse the people. Candy and small ginger cakes also form a part of the stock in trade of these mountain imitators of Santa Claus. Some bell-snickles trudge through the snow from ten to fifteen miles to make their rounds on Christmas Eve, blowing their horns as they arrive at each house. No matter what time of night they come they are admitted and the children are aroused. The bell-snickles are refreshed and they then depart, sometimes not making themselves known. That is part of the fun, as it keeps their hosts guessing for months as to the identity of the visitors.

(A gypsy's Christmas tree.)

"The oldest Christmas tree I ever saw was in the winter camp of a gypsy party in a cedar copse. Near their campfire was growing a small cedar bush and this was gayly decorated with colored ribbons, papers and candies. There were five children in the closed wagons and they had a merry Christmas around the tree.

"In some localities there is a custom on Christmas which is some what Biblical. Farmers' sons are sent out in wagons on the highways to gather in all the stragglers, that is, tramps, they can find. Pedlars or homeless men come in this category. They are taken to the farmhouse, fed and sent on their way rejoicing. The first day Christmas is a religious holiday among many mountaineers. The second day Christmas is for worldly merriment. The horses, cows, sheep, pigs, in fact, all live stock, chickens and dogs and cats, get extra feed, and no poor family is neglected. Apples and cider is the common set-out. For luncheon the bell-snickles cold pudding, cold ham, bread and butter and hot coffee. Applejack is furnished, but with care.

"The grandest Christmas spectacle I ever saw was ten miles of wide-spreading pine trees just after a wet snow. The branches were like 10,000 nodding plumes of white. It was a Christmas scene of wierd purity I shall never forget, and I would like to drive through it again. A Knight Templar parade was not in it. At one log schoolhouse I found the entire interior hung with pine branches. The teacher said he did not believe in cutting down trees. He simply cut off branches in the forest that did not harm the trees and the children hung them on nails, hooks and the blackboards. The branches were trimmed with colored paper, cakes, candies, walnuts, apples, pears, and I knew not what all. One time a poor sexton of a mountain graveyard buried his wife. The man was helpless. He had a son who was not promising. Christmas promised to be bleak. The neighbors took the son into their confidence, and on Christmas Eve a dozen went home with the son and prepared a surprise. On Christmas morning, when the family came down, there was a beautiful Christmas tree for the motherless children and many substantial gifts for the old sexton. It was on one of my back trips on a Christmas day that I met a middle-aged woman, with a dashing span of horses, in a sleigh. She had visited thirty-three farmhouses in as many miles, and there was a good Santa Claus for thirty-three poor city orphans for whom she had found good homes. Each Christmas she visits them. She calls them her children, as she has none of her own.

"One Christmas I spent at a mountain tavern. The mountain was covered with snow. The dinner was served piping hot in front of a blazing hearth fire. We had haasenpfeffer to begin with, which is picked rabit toasted in brown German sause; then came partridges broiled on hickory coals, with hot waffles; then a fat wild turkey shot in the clearing not a quarter of a mile away; in fact, it was a game dinner, with herbs and vegetables, pipes and tobacco, home-made wine and a variety of food, all from the mountain. The night was dark and silent, but we had a good time within. Two of the best hunters of the forest were with us, and they were interesting companions. We played euchre and smoked until 3 o'clock next morning. I slept under a big Dutch feather bed in a cold room under the rafters, and there was snow on the bed when I awoke at 8 o'clock. We had fried mush and fried spare ribs, with hot corn cakes and coffee, for breakfast, and I was in no hurry to get away, with the snow five feet deep on the level. Oh, yes, there is a great deal of difference in Christmas festivities."

"Get Thee Behind Me."

Swift flow the circling years and Christmas bells.
Again ring out their message loud and clear.
Alas,
If to the heavy heart if to the leaden ear.
Their vibrant melody no story tells
Of hope or cheers!

Ah, weary years, years full of toil and care,
While gray the locks that once were flecked with gold!
Alas,
That hearts of yore responsive to the tale of told
No more beat high as Christmas bells declare
The story old!

Ay, is it so? God help us if it be!
God help us if Christ's birth no longer make,
Alas,
Our waking joyous and the glad chimes only break
Dull and unheeded on the apathy
Of hearts that ache!

Nay, nay, not so! E'en heavy hearts that ache—
Hearts brooding over wrong or hidden sin,
Alas,
Or grieving for the loved and lost, while dark within Her chamber sits the soul, for Christ's dear sake
Shall comfort take!

O Babe of Bethlehem, Mary's Child adored,
Savior, Redeemer born as on this day,
Alas,
Though doomed for sin to suffer and to ransom pay
For prisoned souls—ring, ring Thy bells, dear Lord,
In sweet accord!
Ring gladsome chimes until the leaden ear
Shall hearken to their vibrant melody.
Alas,
"Get thee behind me, Satan," mine as thine, the cry,
But lo, it triumphs! Heart, be of good cheer,
Christmas is here!

—Richard A. M'Curdy.

Newest Christmas Turkey.

Vegetarians and fruitarians need no longer be scandalized over the Christmas turkey, for it comes now from the confectioner, instead of the butcher, barnyard or forest.

Hitherto we were accustomed to the wedding in sweets, and last summer we got used to tents in sugar, but it remained for the enterprise of a New York firm to do up the festive turkey in nougat, every morsel of which is edible, lying there crisp and enticing in an artistic cranberry box.

Hereafter "the goose with the bones and the beak" may present gastronomic difficulties, but not to the teeth.

Hereafter vegetable folks may lay aside their scruples for the best new thing in turkey.

A Child's Dream.

Have you grown world-worn and cynical? Do you say to yourself that Christmas bells do not ring so cheerfully as they did and that the stars that are sisters of the Star of Bethlehem are not brighter on Christmas Eve than on all other nights? Do you ask to be shown any one alive to whom Christmas means anything?

Here you will see. It means a dream of mellow warmth to the shivering child. It means a dream of ambrosia to her starved lips. It means a saint all kindness and cheer, all love and protection for the child who has known no love and cheer from human sources. It means fairyland and heaven—while the broken, ecstatic dream lasts.

Some day, when cynics cease to make epigrams over lost illusions and seek to make real the dreams of others, every child who sees in her sleep a vision like this will wake to find it real. For there are enough cynics to make all the children in the world happy if they but devote themselves to that, instead of to relating their disillusionments.

MERRY XMAS

Gloom.

"Christmas comes but once a year, you know," exclaimed the cheery citizen.

"Yes," answered the dyspeptic, "and the bills come twelve times a year. That's the difference."

"Twenty Years After" taking out a Five Per Cent Twenty Year Endowment Bond issued by

The Prudential

there will be payable to the insured in cash, a sum just twice as great as the original amount of the policy. This is an attractive form of Life Insurance.

WRITE FOR PARTICULARS .....

Home Office Newark, N. J. The Prudential Insurance Co. of AMERICA.

JOHN F. DRYDEN, President. LESLIE D. WARD, Vice-President.
EDGAR B. WARD, 2d V. P. & Counsel. FORREST F. DRYDEN, Secretary.
J. E. WOODLAND, Sup't., E. Front St. & Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

SPORTING.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The Daily Press Bowling League.

	Games Won.	Games Lost.	High Score.
Roselle Casino.....	5	1	911
Park Club.....	3	3	864
Westfield Club.....	3	3	826
Cranford Casino....	1	5	765

ON THE GRIDIRON.

The Scott Press Works football team will play the Aluminum Press Works team on the Clinton avenue grounds Christmas morning at 10:30 o'clock.

FAREWELL DINNER.

Zora McGonegal, Will Soon Leave Plainfield for the West.

Zora McGonegal, one of the superintendents in charge of the construction of the Elizabeth and Westfield Street Railway, gave a farewell dinner Thursday at the Hotel Kensington to fifteen of his associates who have been working with him. The dinner was, as usual, of a superior excellence and was served with utmost satisfaction. Mr. McGonegal will soon leave the city for the west, where he will continue his work in new fields.

Richardson Will Case Postponed.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Dec. 23.—The Richardson will case, which was to have been decided by Judge Vail in the Union County Orphans' Court Thursday, has gone over for another week, in order that Lawyer Marsh, for the two contesting heirs, can submit more arguments to the Court. The decision, however, will be given next Wednesday.

Christmas at St. Joseph's.

There will be special music next Monday morning at St. Joseph's church at 10:30 o'clock, when Giorzi's second Mass in F, and Adeste Fideles Novello will be rendered by the choir. Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock the Sunday-school Christmas entertainment will be held with the usual festivites.

Christmas Greeting.

Rev. Father Smyth, pastor of St. Mary's church, has issued a Christmas greeting to his parishoners, and he wishes all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on L. W. Randolph, Druggist, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

What Can You Do With It?

This is a question we can answer better after we have seen the garment you want dyed. When our wagon is in your neighborhood, let it bring your goods to the store and then, at your convenience, come in and let us tell you just what we can do and the cost. Don't be prejudiced against dyeing. Ofttimes you can't tell the goods from new.

HILLIER & CO.,
129 West Front Street,
Opposite Crosby & Hill's. 'Phone 851.

MUSIC TO BE A FEATURE

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

by Prof. Conde, Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Dwight, and by the singing of a quartette choir, in which Miss Willis will be the soloist. Miss Willis will also sing a solo with violin accompaniment. There will be a Christmas sermon and the church will be robed in its Christmas greens. There will be a special Christmas Sunday-school service at 2:45 p. m., with carols and an address by Rev. A. H. Lewis, D. D. There will be no evening service.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—A special in men's slippers at $1.19 this afternoon and evening at Van-Arsdale's.

—There will be a service of praise and thanksgiving at Hope chapel Christmas Day morning from 9:15 to 10 o'clock.

—Randolph, the West Front druggist, has a superior asortment of Lowney's and Whitman's candies for the holidays; also a very fine stock of perfumes.

—Owing to the illness of Father Scannell, of Stony Hill, Father Brennan, of St. Joseph's church, in the borough will officiate in the church at that place tomorrow.

—Christmas Day, the circulating department of the Public Library, will be closed. The reading room will be opened from 2 until 6 p. m. and the Art Gallary from 2 unfil 4 p. m.

—There will be a log fire social at the Y. M. C. A. on Christmas night. Basket ball, etc., in the Gymnasium during the day. Young men who are away from home are especially invited.

—Monday being Christmas Day, the circulating department of the public library will be closed. The reading room will be open from 2 until 6 p. m., and the art gallery from 2 until 4 p. m.

—Putnam & DeGraw, the dry goods merchants, are getting a good share of the holiday trade, and their many patrons are pleased to find such an assortment of goods to select from at such reasonable prices.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Rev. Arthur Crane, the evangelist, will conduct the meeting at the East Third Street Mission tomorrow evening.

J. Vincent Rittenhouse, of East Sixth street, returned yesterday afternoon from Lehigh University on his Christmas vacation.

Edson Woodhull, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyt T Woodhull, of Washington Park, will return from the country Monday to see what "Santa Claus" has brought him.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Ryder, of New York, will come to Plainfield today and spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Nelson VanWinkle, of Central avenue, where their daughter, Miss Helen, has been visiting for several days.

Singing a Vesper Service.

During the past few weeks there has been some fine music at St. Joseph's church Sunday evenings when the quartette, Miss Smith, Mrs. David Kenney, James E. Bailey and Frederick LaPorte, has been singing Fiske's Vesper service. It has been one of the pleasing and impressive features at the church.

To Cure Constipation in One Week
To Purify the Blood in One Week
To Strengthen Nerves in One Week
To Cure Sick Headache in One Day

Take Cleveland's Celery Compound Tea, 25c. Trial size free. It it fails to cure your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary corner Park and North avenues.

THE PULPIT SUBJECTS.

SERVICES IN THE LOCAL CHURCHES TOMORROW.

What Plainfield Ministers Will Talk About for the Elevation of the Minds and Morals of Their Congregations.

St. Mary's (R. C.) church, Rev. P. E. Smyth, pastor.—Masses at 7:30, 8:30, 9:30, 10:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 2:30; evening devotions at 8.

St. Joseph's (R. C.) church, Rev. William H. Miller, pastor.—Masses at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.; Sunday-school at 3; evening devotions, 8.

Mission Church of the Heavenly Rest, Clinton avenue, William Winans Moore and Francis Gregory Moore, Lay Readers — 9:45, Sunday-school; 11, morning service.

Wilson Memorial chapel—2:30, Sunday school; 8, Rev. Dr. Yerkes will preach a Christmas sermon.

First Presbyterian church, Rev. C. E. Herring, pastor—Morning subject, "Gold for Brass;" evening subject, "The Variety of God's Gifts."

All Souls church, Rev. A. C. Nickerson, pastor—10:30, sermon, subject, "Jesus in Modern Life;" 11:50, Sunday-school. Subject for adult class, "English Unitarianism."

345 Cottage place — 10:30, W. H. Morse's theme will be one suitable for the season, "Wireless Telephone Service to the King;" 11:30, Lord's Supper.

Trinity Reformed church, Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph.D., pastor — Appropriate Christmas services—10:30, special music by an augmented choir and sermon by the pastor, subject, "Naming the Child;" 2:30, exercises by the primary department of the Sunday school; 7:30, Christmas carol service by the Sunday-school, entitled "The Son of the Highest."

W. C. T. U.—Crusade Sunday—Afternoon, Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson will lead the exercises.

Y. M. C. A.—9:30, Bible class for men and boys; 4:15, men's rally, address by Rev. Walter T. Griffen, U. S. Consul at Lamoges, France; 5:15, Physical Director Heywood's Bible class.

Mt. Olive Baptist church, Rev. E. E. Jackson, pastor—11, sermon, subject, "The Angelic Proclamation;" 7:30, children's Christmas service.

Monroe Avenue M. E. church, Rev. W. C. O'Donnell, pastor—11, sermon, subject, "Bethlehem;" 3, Christmas exercises of the Sunday-school. No evening service.

Church of Christ—7:30 p. m., preaching by Rev. J B. Cleaver. Prelude, "The Kingdom of the Child;" sermon, theme, "The General Judgment."

Filmore Baptist church, Rev. W. D. Jonson, pastor—Morning, Bible reading; 8 preaching by the pastor, subject, "The Lamb of God."

First M. E. church, Rev. W. C. Snodrass, pastor — 10:30, Christmas sermon by Rev. George W. Smith, D. D., presiding elder of the Elizabeth district; 2:30, Sunday-school meets in the chapel; 3, Sunday-school Christmas service in the auditorium. No evening service.

Calvary Baptist church, Rev. Scott Wallace, pastor—11, sermon, subject, "How Great and Good God Is;" 2:30, Sunday-school; 7:30, Christian Endeavor service; 8:15, sermon, subject, "A Wonderful Counselor."

St. Stephen's church, Rev. S. P Simpson, rector — 7:30, Holy Communion, 9:45, Sunday-school; 11, morning prayer, litany and sermon; 3, evening prayer.

St. Peter's Ev. Luth. church, Rev. A. F. Shaffer, pastor—9:30, Sunday-school; 10:30, preaching by the pastor; 7:30, children's Christmas exercises and Sunday-school celebration, also church service Monday morning. Christmas Day, 10:30, German Divine services with Lord's Supper; 3, Danish preaching by Prof. Menges.

Hope chapel, Rev. G. Kennedy Newell, pastor—10:30, Christmas service; 3:30, the Sunday-school will join in the union Christmas service in the Crescent Avenue church; 7:45, Moody Memorial service.

Park Avenue Baptist church, Rev. J. W. Richardson, pastor—10:30, sermon, subject, "Christ the Pivot of Prophecy;" 2:45, Christmas service by the Sunday-school. No evening service.

Grace M. E. church, Rev. G. W. Gardner, pastor — 10:30, Christmas sermon, subject, "The Messianic Hope;" 2:30, Sunday-school Christmas exercises; 7, Epworth League; 7:45, sermon by the pastor, subject, "Christ, Our Life and Light." Christmas music at both services.

—Press want ads pay

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

GIVE CHRISTMAS CHEER.

INTERESTING EXERCISES BY THE PUPILS OF IRVING SCHOOL.

Recitation and Song By Many Bright Boys and Girls Who Were Trained by Principal Petrie and Assistants

The seating capicity of Assembly Hall at the Irving School on West Fourth street was taxed to its utmost capacity to accommodate the large number of the parents of the scholars and the friends of that school who were present yesterday afternoon to enjoy the "Christmas Cheer" which had been provided by the pupils under the direction of Miss Genevieve Petrie, the very efficient principal.

The spacious hall had been prettily decorated with festoons and wreaths of evergreens, while palms and potted plants surrounded the platform. Conspicuous above the stage were displayed the portraits of Washington, Lincoln and Irving.

The musical portion of the programme was in charge of Prof. Charles Lewis, whose ability in this direction was again cleverly displayed. The entertainment lasted about an hour and a half, and was as pleasing to the audience as it was satisfactory to the teachers and some of the members of the Board of Education, who were present together with Supt. Maxson.

Among the recitations which deserve special mention may be noted: "Jes' 'Fore Christmas," by John Rittenhouse; "Limitations of Youth," by John Loizeaux; a duet, "Dream of Santa," by Clara Hallard and Grace Murphy; and "Going to Grandma's," by Jerry Manning. The duet, in costume, entitled "When we were Young," by Mabel Hand and Anna Hoagland, was one of the best of the many excellent gems on the programme.

Others who gave recitations and evinced cleverness were: Hannah Brandt, Wallace Pierce, Mary Radford, Florence Phillips, Guy Fountain, Genevieve Hazard and Valaria Brooks.

The singing by the pupils was well done and showed that they had been carefully trained. The entire performance was highly creditable to all concerned.

Miantonomo Tribe Elect.

At the meeting of the Miantonomo tribe of Red Men last evening, seven candidates were adopted. The nominations for officers were made as follows: Prophet, Frank Sowden; sachem, Howard Woolston; senior sagamore, Foster M. Johnson; junior sagamore, Andrew Nolan, Aaron Stites and Peter Grog; chief of records, Charles L. Holdstein; collector of wampum, David C. Allen, N. C. Mague; keeper of wampum, W. A. Westphal, A. J. Stiglitz; trustee, William J. McKinley.

Twelfth Year in Priesthood.

Last Sunday Rev. Father Miller, pastor of St. Joseph's church, celebrated the twelfth anniversary of his ordination as priest, and the happy event was marked by the presentation of a handsome silver toilet set. It was a gift from the children of the Sunday-school and made the heart of the pastor glad. He thanked the donors heartily for the kindly expression.

Red Hot From the Gun

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible Ulcers that no treatment helped for 20 years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Boils, Felons, Corns, Skin Eruptions. Best Pile cure on earth. 25cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

Last of the Series.

The second and last of a series of teas, given by Mrs. Rowland Cox, Miss Fanny C Cox and Miss Louis G. Fisk at the home of Mrs. Cox, was held yesterday afternoon. It was largely attended by a representative gathering of Plainfield's society folk. The interior of the house was prettily decorated.

Now Has His Liberty.

Thomas Casey, of this city, who was one of a gang of young men who was caught and convicted of robbing several merchants about town, and who was sentenced to a year and a half in State Prison, has just been released. The others will be discharged the first of the year.

Postoffice Hours.

The postoffice will be open for the transaction of all business except the issuing of money orders tomorrow (Sunday) morning from 9:30 to 11:30 o'clock. This is one hour later than usual. All letters and packages will be delivered from the carrier's window.

THE MORALIST.

Industry gives the devil no elbow room.

Culture will never convert tares into wheat.

Many are sick of evil, without the courage to be well.

True education never induces contempt of the ignorant.

To love upward is human, to love downward is divine.

A good conscience is the best armor against calumny.

The Book of Life will last when all other biographies have burned.

The body is the temple, the heart is the altar, love is the incense.

A crack in a wall may be very small, but you can see a great deal through it.

REFRIGERATORS FOR MANILA.

To Be Built by the United States for the Benefit of the Army.

San Francisco, Dec. 23.—A large refrigerating plant is soon to be erected in Manila by the United States under the direction of Major L. S. Poudlez of the quartermaster's department. The plant is to occupy a building 250 feet square and forty-five feet high, to be located on the left bank of the Pasig river. The cooling room is to be large enough to contain at once 5,000 beeves, 7,500 sheep and 100 tons each of salt meats, butter and eggs and vegetables, enough to supply the American army in the Philippines for some time. In addition to that the plant is to produce fifty tons of ice and 6,000 gallons of distilled water every day.

With this plant in operation it will be possible to supply the hospitals with pure water and ice, wholesome food and even delacies. With the railroads in operation the troops at the front can be supplied daily with fresh meat and vegetables.

Melvil Dewey Resigns.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 23.—As an outcome of a stormy session of the state board of regents, Dr. Melvil Dewey has resigned as secretary of the board. There was a division in the board over the proposed plan for a unification of the state's educational system, and when, after a warm debate, the report of a sub-committee not unfriendly to the educational unification commission's report was adopted and a resolution opposing it offered by Bishop William Croswell Doane was defeated, Dr. Dewey put in his resignation.

Dr. Dewey was appointed state librarian and secretary of the board of regents in 1889. He was at Columbia college before coming to Albany. Dr. Dewey did not resign as state librarian—only his other position as secretary of the regents.

Sol Smith Russell to Retire.

Chicago, Dec. 23.—The Record says: "Sol. Smith Russell will retire from the stage for a year or more at the conclusion of his interrupted engagement at the Grand Opera house. He has recovered sufficiently from the attack that compelled him to discontinue his performance on Monday evening, and there is no doubt that he will be able to resume next Monday afternoon, as previously announced, but he will not tax his weakened constitution beyond fulfilling his contract at the Grand Opera house for the next two weeks. All his later engagements are to be cancelled. Fred Berger, his manager, says: "Mr. Russell has been convinced that the state of his health is such that he will risk an early and permanent breakdown unless he takes a complete rest for a long period."

Drowned on a Holiday.

Brussels, Dec. 23.—More than forty school children were drowned Friday afternoon in an ice accident at Frelinghem, near the French frontier. The school children of the district had been given a holiday, with permission to play on the frozen River Lys. When the merriment was at its height the ice broke suddenly and the children disappeared. A few were rescued half dead, but the majority were drowned. Thirty-six bodies have been recovered, but others are still missing.

Christmas Gift For Employes.

Boston, Dec. 23.—The executive officers of the American Express company in this city have received instructions from the head office to make every person in the employ of the company a Christmas present of a $5 gold piece. There are 267 employes connected with the Boston office, but the Christmas gift is said to extend to all the employes of the company in the United States, of which there are about 30,000.

Two Fatal Railroad Wrecks.

Flemington, N. J., Dec. 23.—In a wreck on the Jersey Central at High Bridge, Christopher C. Hulsiger, a grocer, of High Bridge, was killed. Peter Eick of Alertown, Miss Ella Maxwell of Annandale, and Frank Grant, the baggagemaster of the train, were injured. The wreck was caused by a heavy coal train getting beyond control, running away down hill and crashing into the passenger train, which was standing at the station.

Collision at Buffalo.

Buffalo, Dec. 23.—The Bradford express on the Buffalo and Southwestern Railroad collided with a Lackawanna engine at Buffalo Junction and Engineer William Lannigan was instantly killed and Fireman Schultz was fatally injured.

George Voehl, of West Front street, has just returned from a very successful hunting trip in Virginia.

Mons De Villiers,
ILLUSIONIST and ENTERTAINER.
Miss Carolyn Laying,
IMPERSONATOR.
Y. M. C. A. Star Course.....
JANUARY 1st, 8 P. M.
ADMISSION 25 CENTS. 12 23 6

GEO. W. COLE,
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER.
200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

FOR SALE—Good buffalo robe Inquire J. P. Laire. 12 23 6

BOOKKEEPER who can furnish good reference desires a position. Address H. L., care Press.

LOST—Pug dog; answers to name of Beauty. Return to 426 West Front street and get reward.

FOR SALE to close an Estate, House and lot, No. 251 East Third street, formerly the residence of John P. Brokaw; comfortable, roomy house; large lot; macadamized street. Inquire of Nelson Runyon, attorney for heirs, 221 Park Ave. 12 22 6

Special Sale OF Clothing and Furnishing Goods

for the holidays. Fifty cents buys a dollar's worth of Clothing during this sale of stocks closed out to us from the largest clothing manufacturers of Boston, Mass., and Rochester, N. Y., at less than half the real value. We have the whip hand of competition to this end. Those who try to compete with us in quality cannot touch us in price, and those who meet our prices cannot supply our quality of goods. Every man wearing good clothes and wants to buy them at the right price should not fail to see us before going elsewhere. Here are some SPECIAL PRICES on goods SUITABLE for CHRISTMAS PRESENTS:

Smoking Jackets at $1.25!

Men's double-breasted Jersey coats strictly all wool, in black only, at 2.50, real value 4.50.

Men's Fancy Vests, double breasted, in loud patterns, would make a handsome present for any gentleman at 1.25 and 1.50 and up to 3.00, which would cost you in any other store in Plainfield from 3.00 to 5.00.

Men's strictly all-wool worsted Trousers made in the newest shape and colorings at 1.50, 1.75 and 2.25, our former prices were from 2.50 to 4.50.

Childs's Reefer coats at 1.00 and 1.50 would easily command 2.50.

Men's Business Suits strictly all wool in cheviots, cassimeres and Scotch cheviots at 3.50 & 4.25 worth double.

SPECIALS IN OVERCOATS FOR THIS SALE.

Men's Oxford Grey Overcoats strictly all wool, very stylish at 5 25. Men's black or blue beaver overcoats, good and heavy and all wool at 4 75

Men's Overcoats all wool meltons, kerseys and friezes, short cut box overcoats, handsomely lined, at 5.90 & 6 50. They are the best value ever offered.

ONE HUNDRED of the very finest grade of men's overcoats including patent meltons, kerseys and vicunas, silk or satin lined, the very newest styles, these garments are sold from 15.00 to 20.00 to be sold at 7.50 and 8.25.

Men's Ulsters 3.00 and upwards.
Children's Suits from 75c to 3.50.
Boys' Overcoats 1 75 and upwards.
Men's Sweaters 50c, 75c and 1 25.
Men's Half-hose, all wool, at 9c. Suspenders at 5c and up. Dress shirts at 35c and 45c. And 1,000 other articles that could be bought for Christmas presents and which would be appreciated more than anything else for the same amount of money.

New York Clothing Company
M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.
Plainfield, N. J.

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops
Wieda's
Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda
Manufactured at the Premises,
144 West Front St. Phone. 1133.

OUR SPECIALTIES { Choice Teas. Fine Coffee.
All the Seasonable Goods for the Holidays. Take home one of our baskets of Fruit.
Tel. 931.
C. E. GULICK & CO.,
THE PARK GROCERS.

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 23 tf

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

FOR RENT—Central Hall, for occasional festivities or permanent occupation. Apply to Fred Dunn. w s tf

FOR SALE CHEAP—House and lot 141 East Ninth street Apply to Messrs. Vail, Mulford or Woodruff. 12 16 3 s th s

BARRED and White Plymouth Rock, White Leghorn and White Wyandotte Cockerels, from our famous prize winning strains, cheap. Plainfield Poultry Farm Co., 79 Somerset street. 12 20 6

WANTED—Reliable girls to do glove sewing. Write or apply at Room 316, Babcock Building. 12 23 3

FOR SALE—Chickering piano, concert grand; a bargain. Address Piano, care Press. 12 22 2

TO LET—Six-room house and store, connected. 214 Richmond street.

TO LET—Nice flat with improvements. 304 Richmond street.

TO LET—Butcher shop, with or without fixtures. 302 B Richmond street. eod 12 13 tf

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 24

THREE pleasant convenient rooms to let for light housekeeping. 404 Third street, corner Central avenue. 12 11 11

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.
TELEPHONE 722.
MAZE EDWARDS, - Lessee and Manager.

Reserved Seat Tickets at Box Office, which is open daily from 9. a. m.

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS MATINEE,
One Solid Week, Commencing
MONDAY, DEC. 25, 1899.
Re-engagement of the popular
Burrill Comedy Company,
Supporting LAURA HULBERT,
in a repertoire of standard scenic productions—
Monday afternoon, "A Flag of Truce"
Monday evening, "The Ensign."
Prices—10c, 20c and 30c. Seats now on sale.

Emery's
Dancing Pavilion
(SCOTCH PLAINS.)
Pavilion For Rent FOR Balls, Parties, etc.

SPECIAL!!
HAIR DRESSING, SHAMPOOING, MANICURING.
Until after the Holiday Season
MISS HOLMES,
Graduate of the New York School of Hair Dressing and Dermatology,
will make special rates for hair dressing in all the latest styles for street and evening; at parlors 75c. At ladies residences by appointment. Shampooing or Facial Massage and steaming (for eradicating imperfections of the skin) 75c. Manicuring 50c.
440 W. FRONT ST.

WINES made only from selected grapes and cane sugar crystal. Twenty-five cents per bottle and upward. "THE VINEYARDS," Park Ave., corner Cooper St., Fanwood. 12 18 12

MASSAGE :-: VAPOR BATHS
CORNS REMOVED 25c.
M. V. STICKLE, 149 East Fifth St.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:23 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:39 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:39 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair, Continued Cold Tonight; Wednesday and Probably Thursday. Ther. 21.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 26 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

YULETIDE SPIRIT IN THE CHURCHES.

Special Christmas Programmes Were Carried Out.

LITTLE PEOPLE TOOK PART.

MUSIC FORMED BRIGHT PARTS OF THE EXERCISES.

The Day of the Nativity of the Redeemer Made a Significant One This Year — Appropriate Sermons Were Heard for the Holiday — Inclement Weather Interferred With the Services.

The usual Christmas services were held at the First Baptist church Sunday morning and afternoon, but the very stormy weather interferred materially with the attendance. In the morning there were about seventy worshippers present to enjoy the fine music arranged for the occasion. In the afternoon the attendance was much larger and the service was under the direction of the Sunday-schools. The church was appropriately decorated for the event, and consisted of a large star of evergreen illuminated with incandescent lights, while about the platform was an arrangement of potted plants and palms. In the morning the regular choir rendered a special programme of anthems, while there was solo work of a superior excellence by Miss Harris, soprano; Mrs. Ward, contralto; William Holmes, bass, and George Smith, tenor. Dr. Yerkes delivered an intensely interesting sermon in harmony with the occasion.

The afternoon service was very interesting and the programme included prelude, trio, procession from "Lohengrin," organ, piano and violin; carol, "Jesus In His Name;" invocation, Dr. D. J. Yerkes; anthem, choir; responsive reading, led by the superintendent, G. H. Batchelor; carol, "Christ Was Once a Little Baby," primary department; prayer, Rev. E. E. Jackson, pastor of the Mt Olive Baptist church; carol, "Once in Bethlehem of Judah;" Scripture response and song, "Stars of Scripture," intermediate department; offertory, trio, "Barcarolle," organ, piano and violin; reading, Miss Bertha Whitney; contralto solo, "The Christ Child," Mrs. Ward; responsive reading, led by M. C. Dobbins, superintendent of the Mt. Olive Sunday-school; carol, "'Tis the Birthday of Our Saviour;" responsive reading, led by L. W. Randolph, superintendent of the East Third Street mission; carol, "The Day of All the Year;" postlude, trio, from "A Sonata," organ, piano and violin. Howard Case presided at the organ, Mrs. B. T. Barnes at the piano, while P. Ludwig Conde played the violin. L. H. Biglow, Jr., led the singing, while Mrs. Powlison and Mrs. Harold Serrell had charge of the primary and intermediate departments respectfully. There was no evening service. Special mention should be made of the part taken in the programme by Miss Bertha Whitney, who gave an appropriate reading.

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH.

The severe storm on Sunday morning prevented a large attendance at the churches throughout the city. At the 10:30 o'clock service at Trinity Reformed church, seventy-five persons however gathered to worship, which is considered a good number.

The edifice was beautifully and artistically decorated by Mrs. L. J. Denton who was assisted by a committee of ladies and gentlemen. There were two stately trees on either side of the pulpit and numerous palms were used, the whole presenting a very pretty effect. Between the trees and immediately over the pulpit desk was suspended in large white letters the words "Son of the Highest," standing out boldly as you entered the church door.

Rev. Cornelius Schenck the pastor preached an able sermon, his text being chosen from Matthew 1-25—"And He Called His Name Jesus." Owing to the absence of one of the choir, the musical programme, as arranged by Organist A. L. Titsworth, was postponed until next Sunday.

The exercises by the primary department of the Sunday-school were held at 2:30 o'clock, and were as pleasing to the children as the older members of the school. Mrs. J. M. Tier had charge of this department and it was through her excellent training that the little folks were able to acquit themselves so creditably.

After prayer by Pastor Schenck and the reading of the scripture, little Miss Helen Wooley gave a "Christmas Greeting," followed by Nettie Robins with "Gifts for Jesus." Other recitations were by Rowland Leighton, Perry Holder, Anna Bodine, Ira Vail, Sadie Huyler. "God's Gifts to Us," by Anna Boss, Ella Case, Lela Sutton, Flossie Yeager, Edward Anthony, Hermina Leitheuser, Ralph Martin, Russel Vail and Mildred Caleen, was cleverly rendered and greatly pleased the audience.

The "Christmas Fairies," who were represented by Helen Smith, Anna Boss, Ethel Vail, Cathie Gray, Helen Wooley, Edna Cole, Nettie Robinson and Ida Tier, was also one of the interesting features of the occasion. The singing by the little ones, assisted by some of the older scholars, was not the least of the interesting parts of the programme. After the exercises Pastor Schenck and Superintendent E. E. Anthony made brief addresses to the school directing their remarks principally to the primary scholars.

The attendance at the Sunday evening services at 7:30 o'clock taxed the church auditorium to its limit. The Christmas choral services by the adult members of the Sunday school and an augmented choir of 12 voices were very interesting, the singing being beautifully rendered and highly appreciated. Short addresses were made by Dr. Schenck, Dr. A. H. Lewis and Superintendent E. E. Anthony. Dr. Lewis' address was a scholarly and able one, in keeping with that gentleman's well known ability as a speaker.

On Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the Christmas festival for the primary department will be held. It will be an informal affair, and every scholar is expected to be on hand early as a surprise is awaiting them. In the evening at 8 o'clock the older scholars will hold their Christmas festival and exercises.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH.

The Christmas services in St. Mary's church opened yesterday morning at 6 o'clock with a High Mass, at which the church was crowded with the faithful who had come to pay homage to the Saviour of mankind. The interior of the edifice was beautifully decorated with roping and wreaths of evergreens, and the altars, with their numerous lighted candles, lent beauty befitting the occasion. The stable at Bethlehem, depicting the birth of the Saviour, is also faithfully represented. Rev Father Hedges, Paulist, of New York, preached a sermon at the above Mass appropriate to the day. Services were held also at 7:30, 8:30, 9:30 and 10:30. The 9:30 Mass was for the children and was celebrated by Rev. Father Westman, who also preached a short sermon. At the 10:30 service Rev. Father Hedges preached the sermon. The music was under the direction of Miss Smith, who presided at the organ.

The musical programme at the services was as follows:

Asperges	Werner
Kyrie	VonLaHache
Gloria	VonLaHache
Credo	VonLaHache
Adeste Fidelis	Novello
Sanctus	VonLaHache
Agnus Dei	VonLaHache
Marche Triumphal.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

Special music and a Christmas sermon marked the morning service at the Congregational church. There was an instrumental trio, "Lohengrin Marche Religieuse" by Mrs. B. T. Barnes, organist; Mrs. M. E. Dwight, pianist, and P. Ludwig Conde, violinist. A special quartette, composed of Miss Bertha VanNuise Willis, Miss Julia Belknap, Morris C. VanArsdale and Stacy Raynolds, rendered several carols. There were also two solos by Miss Willis with violin obligato by Mr. Conde. Rev. Charles L. Goodrich, the pastor, preached a sermon on "Good Will to Men."

In the afternoon the Sunday-school held special exercises. There were carols by a chorus of boys, selections by a quartette composed of Miss Willis, Mrs. C. E Steiner, M C. VanArsdale and Stacy Raynolds. Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis made an address.

The church was prettily decorated with evergreen roping which was draped about the side of the main auditorium.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH.

Christmas was observed at the First M E. church Sunday with special services morning and afternoon. In the morning, Rev. G. W. Smith, presiding elder of the Elizabeth District, preached a Christmas sermon, while the choir, augmented for the occasion, rendered several extra anthems. In addition to Miss Utter at the organ, those who assisted in the instrumental music were Wilson Derby and Clarence Mills, violins; Archibald Darby, double bass; Robert Davis and John Lewis, cornets.

In the afternoon, the Sunday-school gave a special Christmas service, entitled "Spread Wide the News," in the church. The principal parts were taken by the superintendent, J. W. Jackson, Miss Edna French and Miss Gertrude Geyer. Owing to the storm, several of the other participants were unable to be present and their parts had to be read. The primary depart-

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.]

HARD LUCK FOR "CACK."

FAMOUS CRAP SHOOTER TO SOJOURN THREE MONTHS IN JAIL.

When Solomon Lewis, His Stepfather, Ordered Him Out of the House, Carter Threatened to Take His Life.

Plainfield will be deprived of the pleasure of the company of the illustrious "Cack" Carter for another three months. But in his departure "Cack," as usual, furnished some excitement. He gave the throng of Christmas shoppers, who crowded Front street Saturday evening, the privilege of witnessing a race that for real excitement far surpassed the famous chariot race in "Ben Hur."

Last Wednesday "Cack" was gently but firmly requested by his step father, Solomon Lewis, to keep away from the latter's home on East Third street now and forever. "Cack" and his stepfather, it will be remembered, have had some trouble and the former has been serving a term for burglarizing the Lewis home.

When Cack was ordered out, he drew a knife and threatened to carve Solomon's heart out. So a warrant was issued and given to Patrolman McCarty to serve Saturday night. McCarty spotted his man on Front street about 9 o'clock. Then "Cack" bolted with the officer in pursuit.

The chase continued out West Front street when "Cack" doubled and came back to Voehl's alley. He dodged in there and sprinted through Second street. McCarty led the van and over a hundred men and boys joined in the hunt. At last, the fleet-footed policeman overhauled Carter and Plainfield's crack crap shooter was lodged in jail. Yesterday morning "Cack" was sentenced to fifty days in jail and to pay a fine of $50.

MRS. ALLEN IS RETICENT

DECLINES TO TALK OF ALLEGED DOUBLE LIFE OF HER HUSBAND.

Allen or Pangborn Wore a Remarkable Gold Chain, Said to be Worth $3,000—He Was Considered a Crack Rifle Shot.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Williamsport, Pa., Dec 26.—Mrs. W. S. Allen, the wife of the former prominent Williamport citizen who, under the name of Stephen Pangborn, is alleged to have had a former wife at Plainfield, N. J., has returned to Laceyville, Bradford County. She would not permit herself to be interviewed on the subject of her husband's former marriage, the story of which was brought out by the filing of a mortgage here upon the Allen estate. No denial was made by Mrs. Allen as to the allegations of Mrs. Pangborn, of Plainfield. She said her counsel had advised her to make no statement.

Allen, or Pangborn, a photograph of whom has just been discovered in this city, had a distinguishing feature of personal adornment in the way of a mamouth gold chain, which he always wore. This chain was said to be of solid gold, and was of itself worth $3,000. Allen's friends often cautioned him about wearing such a tempting adornment, but he was a fearless man and declared that if any highwayman ever attacked him he would shoot them on the spot. He owned a large gun store and pawnshop. He was considered one of the best rifle and revolver shots in this section of the State, yet his death was caused by the accidental discharge of his own gun while deer hunting.

GERMANS HAD A GOOD TIME.

Kris Kringle Visited the Saengerbund Hall Yesterday Afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon at Saengerbund Hall, Somerset street, the usual Christmas festivities were enjoyed by the members and their families. At that time the Christmas tree was lighted and during the whole afternoon there was plenty to amuse both old and young. This is one time in the year when a genuine family gathering is held and everyone has a jolly good time. There was also a programme of recitations and songs by the young people, and several feats in gymnastics. All of the young people received presents from the tree and their hearts were made glad. An enjoyable feature was the serving of refreshments by a committee in charge.

The Ladies' Society presented the Gesang and Turn Verein with a handsome purse of money, and President Gardner made Prof. Eichorn a present on behalf of the society with a purse of money. Music for the occasion was furnished by Eugene O'Reilly's orchestra.

Santa Claus a Little Late.

Santa Claus will make his annual visitation to the Park Avenue church this evening, when the Christmas exercises of the Sunday-school will be held. Winans and Bond will be the entertainers in connection with the other attractions.

A DAY OF CHEER FOR THOSE AT HOSPITAL.

Christmas Festivites Held There Yesterday Afternoon.

PRESENTS GIVEN TO ALL.

AN APPROPRIATE ADDRESS BY REV. FLOYD APPLETON.

Exercises Were in Charge of the Board of Governors and the Women's Auxiliary Board of Managers — Music Was One of the Features — Patients Received Many Callers During the Day

Yesterday was a bright and cheery one for those who were so unfortunate as to be detained at Muhlenberg Hospital as patients. The usual Christmas festivities were held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and all those who had anything to do with the affair did the best to make it an exceedingly pleasant occasion. The customary Christmas tree formed the centre of attraction for those present, and the large number of people at the institution were greatly interested in the exercises. There are about fifteen patients, and of this number a small per centage is in a critical condition, so that the majority were able to join heartily in the celebration.

The members of the Woman's Auxiliary board of managers together with members of the board of governors had charge of the exercises, and they were ably assisted by the matron, Miss Moss, and the nurses, in carrying out the plan of arrangemente. The choir from Grace P. E. church, in charge of the organist, Mrs. W. H. Freeman, gave several appropriate selections, including hymns and anthems, while the feature was the violin playing of Miss Hyatt.

A very interesting and pleasant feature was the reading of appropriate Scripture and the address by Rev. Floyd T. Appleton, curate of Grace P. E church. The speaker's remarks were instructive. He dwelt upon the fact that people rightfull associated Christmas with the giving and receiving of presents, and it was doubtful in his mind which afforded the most pleasure. He then spoke of the best gift of all the Son of God, and how we should appreciate that wonderful gift. He then said that all should be more appreciable, and where we receive gifts, assistance, etc., we should be equally glad to give. He cited the needs of the hospital in brief, and paid a rich tribute to those whose duty it is to alleviate the sufferings of others, saying that money alone would not give that relief if there was not the spirit of love and devotion accompanying it. In closing the speaker gave some very strong and helpfull suggestions, and pointed all to Him whose birth we celebrate.

After the address and more vocal and instrumental music, gifts were distributed among those at the hospital by the choir boys under the direction of the women in charge. There was a gift for everyone. Among the things distributed were oranges, candy, grapes, and useful as well as ornamental articles.

During the afternoon a number of persons called to see friends or relatives that are detained by illness, and the meeting was a pleasant one for all, and thus it was made possible for this event of the year to be celebrated in a manner that brought happiness to those in any way associated with this worthy institution.

Out of Bed for First Time in Months.

William Cosgrove, the Californian, who is detained at the hospital with a broken back, was removed yesterday afternoon from his cot for the first time since his admission to the hospital sometime ago, and placed in an easy chair so that he might have a change, and, thus be able to take a more lively interest in the Christmas celebration. On account of Mr. Cosgrove's condition there is arranged on his cot a large rubber bag filled with water. It is on this that he spends all of his time, and yesterday's change was a welcome one. He was bright and cheerful and chatted merrily with those came near him.

A Lively Christmas Present.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hope, of East Third street, received a most valuable Christmas present Saturday afternoon, one which will grow bigger and more prized every Christmas in the future. It was a little four-year-old girl from the Children's Home, in Jersey City, who will make her home with them in the future. She has been christened Marguerette Hope. She is a bright child. She arrived in Plainfield Saturday afternoon in charge of one of the attendants of the Home, and was then put in charge by Stephen Hope, the venerable janitor of the Bryant School, who escorted her to her future home.

VERY LIGHT SENTENCE.

MRS. FINGERHUTH WILL NOT GO TO STATE'S PRISON.

Judge Magie Sentenced Her to Six Months Less One Day in Jail and to $500 Fine—Time will be Served in County Jail.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Dec. 26.—The recommendation for mercy of the jury that convicted Mrs. Henrietta Fingerhuth of manslaughter had its effect. This morning she was sentenced by Chief Justice Magie to go to the county jail for six months less one day and to pay a fine o. $500. In default of her fine, she will serve time instead.

Mrs. Fingerhuth was brought into court this morning at 10:45 o'clock when sentence was pronounced. She took it very coolly. Neither her husband nor son were present. Judge Magie so arranged the sentence that she can remain in the county jail here instead of going to State prison.

A term of six months or more necessitates the removal of the prisoner to the State prison. So she received six months less one day. As she has no money with which to pay the fine, she can serve time at the rate of a dollar a day.

Mrs. Fingerhuth afterwards expressed herself satisfied as long as she could stay in the jail here and not go to State prison. She is now the only occupant of the women's ward in the jail here.

THE POOR MADE HAPPY.

CHRISTMAS TREE AT THE HOME OF MRS. W. A. WOODRUFF.

Tree Was Lighted Saturday Night and Presents Distributed to 159 Children—Mrs Woodruff Resigns Her Position.

Through the efforts of Mrs. Wm A Woodruff, superintendent of the Organized Aid Association, and the generosity of some of Plainfield's benevolent citizens, many poor children and families of those who are classed as indigent, were enabled to enjoy a very merry Christmas. As has been the custom for a few years to remember the city's unfortunates, a Christmas tree was provided at Mrs. Woodruff's home on East Second street. Upon this were placed gifts suitable for the children.

The tree was trimmed and lighted and Saturday afternoon the children were invited to Mrs. Woodruff's to enjoy its beauties and receive kind remembrances from those who had contributed towards the pleasant event. There were presents, besides popcorn and oranges, for 159 children, representing 73 families. Besides this number, 10 poor families were helped to good Christmas dinners. Many of the donations for this joyous happiness for the little ones and their parents came through the Sunday-school of Trinity Reformed church. Besides the contributions to the general fund for this Christmas tree some of the classes of the Trinity Sunday-school took it upon themselves to remember poor families which Mrs. Woodruff recommended to be worthy.

Owing to ill health Mrs. Woodruff has been compelled to resign her position to take effect January first. Her successor has not yet been appointed. Mrs. Woodruff's untiring zeal in the noble work in which she has been engaged in the past six years is highly commendable to her self-sacrificing spirit. The poor children of the city will, indeed, miss her kind offices.

SUSPENDED SENTENCE ON ALL.

Recorder Long Was Lenient on Prisoners Arrested on Christmas.

For the first time in several weeks there was court in the borough this morning, but Recorder Long felt kindly after observing Christmas himself and was not disposed to be hard on the offenders of the law, consequently he suspended sentence on all. James Vail, of this city, was arrested at 2 o'clock this morning by Marshal Emmons for being drunk and disorderly; Michael and James Mattea, of Rice street, father and son, were arrested Sunday afternoon for fighting by Special Marshal Block. Michael Smith, of this city, for being drunk and attempting to fight, was arrested yesterday afternoon at the corner of Somerset street and Craig place by Chief Campbell.

Presentation to a Teacher.

The teachers of the primary department of the Sunday school of Trinity Reformed church, Christmas morning, presented to Mrs. Josephine Tier, the superintendent, a handsome picture, suitably framed, entitled "The Shepherdess Leading Her Sheep."

Exercises Postponed.

The Christmas services that were to have been held at the First Presbyterian church last Sunday have been postponed till next Sunday. This change was made on account of the very bad weather last Sunday, which kept so many persons at home.

BACHELORS WINNERS

DEFEATED BENEDICTS IN THE FIRST BOWLING MATCH.

Exciting Game Rolled on Park Club Alleys Saturday Night—The Single Men Won Easily by Score of 80 Pins.

The Benedicts laid their plans well but the Bachelors laid theirs better. That was why the Bachelors of the Park Club won the first of the bowling matches between their ten men team and a like team composed of the married men of the club. The Benedicts set the running for half the match and then the single men stepped in and took it out of their hands.

The Bachelor-Benedict matches have become regular events on the Park Club alleys during the Christmas holidays. The first of the series this year was rolled Saturday evening and was witnessed by quite a number of spectators.

Nobody did anything brilliant in the first frame except Dr. Thiers. He managed to get just one pin on his first ball and fouled on his second. Nevertheless the Benedicts led by 16 pins. That lead was steadily increased to 58 in the fourth frame. Then a change came over the single men. They recovered somewhat and strikes and spares began to follow. The lead was cut down until in the sixth frame, the Bachelors were 38 ahead. Hibbard made a triple header but that failed to save the day. VanBuren followed with another just like it.

Once on the run even the weakest of the Bachelors quite distinguished themselves, while such veterans on the other side as Peck, Ostrom and Dr. Thiers felt woefully behind. Hibbard carried off the honors for high score. J. H. Howell made for himself a great reputation as a bowler, and it was even rumored that Captain F. O. Ball was anxious to have him roll on the team regularly.

There were many familiar faces usually present at these matches, that were missing Saturday evening. Senator C. A. Reed was there, but he contented himself with defeating Dr. Emerson at billiards and could not be inveigled into defending the honor of the Benedicts on the alleys. Former Mayor B. A. Hegeman was also missing, but his son proved himself worthy of such a father at his post of umpire.

During the evening refreshments were served to the two teams and the audience. Mrs. C. A. Reed presided at the table.

The individual scores were as follows:

BACHELORS.		BENEDICTS.
McCutchen	193	F. O. Ball	158
Willis	110	Ostrom	103
B. C. Ball	159	Peck	116
A. Murphy	138	Nichols	95
Laing	153	Rogers	119
M. Townsend	147	McCutchen	124
A. Peck	151	Howell	153
C Murphy	111	F H. Ball	146
G. Dupee	160	Hibbard	190
VanBuren	173	Dr. Thiers	706
	1394		1314

PULLED HIS TRUSTY GUN.

Christmas Cheer From a Tin Can Made Watson Randolph Overstep Bounds of Propriety.

There was very much Christmas in Fairchild's alley last night. The fact of it was Watson Randolph had too much Christmas and thereby forgot what he doing. This morning he began to realize that he had overstepped the bounds of property when he drew a revolver and started in to make a seive of William Marsh.

The trouble occurred in Mrs Jennie Jefferson's home in the alley. Her husband was away and she entertained a select number of guests during the afternoon and evening. The "growler" was brought into frequent requisition. At last Watson called another colored guest some names and when his hostess objected he started in to hammer her face.

William Marsh stepped between and Watson drew his gun. Marsh immediately got under the gun and prevented a fatality. Patrolman Saunders was summoned and found Randolph quietly reposing under a bed.

This morning, the Judge fined Randolph $8, and suspended sentence on Marsh.

Lewis DeCamp Chief Patriarch.

At the last meeting of Noah Dole Encampment, No. 28, I. O. O. F., the following officers were chosen for the ensuing term: Chief Patriarch, Lewis DeCamp; high priest, C. W. DeGraw; senior warden, Henry Schlief; recording scribe, J. H. Williams; financial scribe, Francis Whiteley; treasurer, A. J. Woodruff; junior warden, S. Mantz; trustees, one year, A. G. Barber, Frank Wyckoff an Jacob Kettering.

—Tomorrow evening a regular prayer meeting service will be held at the Crescent Avenue church and the subject will be "An Old Year Service." After this service the Bible class will take up the study of the "Apostolic Church."

TROLLEY LINE MAY GO ON TO CARTERET.

Important Compromise Proposed in Elizabeth.

A WAY TO REACH THE 'PORT.

IT WOULD EXTEND THE RIKER SYSTEM VERY MUCH.

Company Has Expressed a Willingness to Make Liberal Concessions if They Can Get Right of Way to Elizabethport—Approval of County Board of Freeholders Would be Necessary.

There has been no official communication received from the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railroad Company since the Elizabeth City Council adopted the ordinance which grants to the company the privilege of coming into the city through Jersey avenue.

The members of the City Council insist that they will not recede from the position they have taken, and the probabilities are that the ordinance will be annulled on the 27th by reason of the expiration of the 30 day limit.

If the company does not carry out its intention to go into Elizabeth by a private right of way or by a consolidation with one of the existing companies, a new ordinance will probably be considered by the City Council.

The company has expressed a willingness to make liberal concessions, provided a right of way could be given for it to reach the lower portion of this city. Several suggestions for routes have been made, but the difficulty lies in the law, which will not allow a grant for a line to parallel an existing line within 1,000 feet.

It is said to be the wish of Mr. Riker and his associates to extend their line to First or Front streets, and thence along the shore of Staten Island Sound to Carteret.

It was asserted that it was probable that a new ordinance, with practically the conditions of the one now in possession of the company, with an extension of the route as a compromise feature, will be the outcome, and that it will be acceptable to the company, and will have the support of all the Councilmen.

The report is that the North Jersey Company would waive its rights under the 1,000 feet limit law, and would give consent to the new company going to the lower part of the city. The proposed route would necessitate the use of the North Jersey Company's tracks on West Jersey, Broad and East Broad streets. The plan would be to enter the city through Jersey avenue, connect as proposed in the original application, with the tracks of the old company in West Jersey street, and then run over the West Jersey, Broad and East Broad streets route to Magnolia avenue. The new route would be from that point down Magnolia avenue to Division street, through Division under the Central Railroad bridge to Court street. The line would extend to First street, and along the sound to Tremley and Cartaret.

To complete an enterprise of this kind franchises would be necessary both from the city and county.

MASS NEW YEAR'S EVE.

Solemn Service to be Held in St. Joseph's Church in Accordance With Decree of Pope Leo.

Next Sunday night at 12 o'clock an important event will take place at St. Joseph's church on Manning avenue, when solemn mass will be held in accordance with the decree of Pope Leo. This celebration is in honor of the new year, 1900, and while it is not obligatory, the Pope has given his approval of the celebration. There will be special music of a high character and at the same time communion will be celebrated. The service will commence promptly at midnight and will last about one hour. This is a very unusual celebration and no doubt the attendance will be very large.

THE CLARET FLOWED.

John Stein Had His Head Gashed by Being Hit With a Chair.

John Stein, a well-known character about Dunellen, got into an altercation at New Market late last night and was hit with a chair which cut a severe gash in his head and rendered him unconscious.

For a time there was considerable excitement and the rumor prevailed that Stein had been killed. He was finally brought around and is not considered dangerously injured. His assailant, a well-known character about town, was arrested.

—Next Thursday evening the Christmas entertainment will be held at the First Baptist church. The event gives promise of being one of unusual interest.

CAPTAIN SAMUEL REBER

A Prominent and Fortunate Army Officer.

FIANCE OF MISS MILES.

Choice of the Daughter of the Commanding General of the Army—A West Point Graduate and an Electrical Expert—Gen. Miles at Home.

The announcement a short time ago of the engagement of the daughter of the major general commanding the Army, Miss Cecilia Sherman Miles, to Captain Samuel Reber caused a considerable stir in Army circles, where Miss Miles has long been a leading figure. The announcement was unexpected, and therefore came in the nature of a surprise, although there was really nothing surprising about it. Captain Reber, whose mother was a Sherman, is Miss Miles's second cousin, and the two have almost grown up together. He is several years her senior, and they have been fast friends, so much that no one thought of them as lovers. More than that, Miss Miles has been such a general favorite that her name has frequently been coupled with those of other Army officers who have paid her marked attention, and her marriage has been prophesied repeatedly, but until now she has remained fancy free.

She is an unusually intelligent, bright young woman. As a little girl, and while she was in her teens also, she lived much of the time with her parents at the frontier Army posts, and that experience gave her a breadth of character which is not unusually found among girls of society. Later on she came East and attended a fashionable boarding school for two or three years, but most of her education was obtained from tutors under her father's immediate supervision.

(Capt. Samuel Reber.)

Only those who have the good fortune to know General Miles intimately are aware of the geniality of his disposition. In his home he is seen at his best; he is the ideal husband and father, and with his wife, daughter and son—a youth of about eighteen, who is now at West Point—he is a most delightful companion. He is never too busy to be interested in what interests them, and he always prefers an evening at his own fireside to any other place. Miss Miles's quick, receptive mind has always been a source of pleasure to him. As a little child he delighted to guide her reading, and as she grew older she formed the habit of reading to him from the books he enjoyed. In this way she has obtained a wide scope of general information, and has in consequence been of much help to him in his literary work.

Captain Reber is one of the most promising and certainly one of the most fortunate, of the younger Army officers. He was born in Missouri thirty-five years ago, and was appointed from that State to West Point. He was graduated with the class of '83, and was appointed a second lieutenant of the 4th Cavalry in the following July, and in 1892 was made a first lieutenant of the 9th Cavalry. In January, 1894, he entered the Signal Corps, became chief signal officer of volunteers in May, 1898, and in July of the same year was appointed lieutenant colonel. He remained chief signal officer with the Army Corps and of the Department of Matanzas and Santa Clara, and also acting superintendent of military telegraph lines of the island of Cuba, until January, 1899, when he was made chief signal officer of the Department of the East, with headquarters at Governor's Island, where he is now stationed. Captain Reber is an electrical expert. He took a special course of instructions at Johns Hopkins in connection with his work on the Intercontinental Railway Commission of 1892, of which he was a member. He was also on duty with the Board of Engineer Officers on the Water Power of the Great Falls from April to July, in 1894, and was one of the Government appointees for examining and reporting upon the electrical exhibits of the Atlanta Exposition. During the Spanish-American war he was on duty with the United States Army in Porto Rico, and accompanied General Miles in his campaign across the island. Miss Miles has been with her parents on the Pacific Coast. The wedding is to take place in Washington in January.

Feminine Financiering.

That women are the best financiers of the world we have often had opportunity to acknowledge, says the Honolulu Independent. We have seen them at the auction sales when they made a "bargain" by buying an article they had no use for whatever, and we have seen them haggling over the price of cheap calico for a reduction in price of one cent a yard, and then triumphantly carrying their purchase to a fashionable dressmaker and paying her $10 for making a "morning" dress. This morning we could not help smiling while watching a lady credited with possessing good business sense buying "Chinese birds" on board a mail steamer, haggling over the price of the birds and beating down the seller of seven fine specimens by fifty cents of the original price. In the meantime, her hack was waiting, and the driver "charging." She made her bargain, however, saved fifty cents on the birds and paid the hackman one dollar for waiting. That is female financeering.—Exchange

A SHINING MARK.

Death of the Owner of the Youth's Companion.

Boston, Dec. 26.—Daniel Sharp Ford, for more than forty years the proprietor, publisher, and editor in chief of the Youth's Companion, is dead at his home on the Fenway. He had, in spite of advancing years and frail health, been actively at work in the oversight and control of both of the publishing and the editorial departments of the great establishments he had built up, until within a few weeks of his death.

Mr. Ford was born at Cambridge, April 5, 1822. In early life he learned the printers' trade, and while still a very young man formed with the late Rev. Dr. John W. Olmstead the partnership of Olmstead & Ford, publishers and editors of the Baptist weekly newspaper, then known as the Christian Watchman and Reflector. In 1857 they purchased from Nathaniel Willis, its founder and editor for forty years, the Youth's Companion. Mr. Ford had an ambition to make The Watchman the leading religious paper in the country, and devoted his efforts to the publishing department of that paper, while acting as editor of The Companion.

Differences as to policy between the partners led to an amicable separation of interests and a division of the property. The division was by lot and greatly to Mr. Ford's regret The Companion became his share. In order to avoid confusion of accounts, it had been published for some years under the fictitious and wholly invented firm name of Perry, Mason & Co., and under that form it has continued to be published to the present time.

Mr. Ford transferred all his energies to the development of The Companion, and to him are due the marvelous growth and the present standing of that paper. His business insight and foresight, his inventive genius in devising new ways of increasing circulation, his ready adoption of methods proposed by others, and his courageous expenditure of money in the process, stamped his as one of the great publishers of the country. No man ever kept a more watchful eye upon the contents of his paper, down to the most insignificant paragraph.

Yet, so far as is known, the name of Mr. Ford has never once been printed in The Companion, for he was as modest as he was strong, and shrunk from public mention of himself, his deeds and his achievements. Mr. Ford's life was also a life of wide-spread benefaction, of deep religious feeling, of constant well-doing. No list of his benevolences could be made now, nor could have been made even by him. He was devotedly attached to the Baptist denomination, and naturally turned most frequently to the assistance of those of his own household faith. The Ruggles' Street Church of this city was very largely indebted to him, and one of his characteristic benevolences was sending its male quartet abroad to complete the musical education which has made the organization famous.

He leaves a wife and a daughter, who is the wife of Publisher Hartshorn of The Household.

THE AMALFI HORROR.

Landslide Not so Terrible as at First Reported.

Rome, Dec. 25.—It now appears that the disaster at Amalfi, on the Gulf of Salerno, caused by the rock on which stood the Capuccini Hotel sliding boldly into the sea, was not so fatal as at first supposed. Only ten persons were killed. The Capuccini Hotel, overhanging the Gulf of Salerno, suddenly slid into the sea, carrying with the old Capuchin Monastery, the Hotel Calerina and several villas and sinking four vessels that lay at anchor in the bay.

Many of the people have left their houses and took refuge at high point, where there was no danger of the great rocks that overhang the town tumbling on them and carrying them into the gulf. Thousands of persons from neighboring towns and villages and from the farms and vineyards in the vicinity are pouring into Amalfi today and gazing with awe on the destruction wrought by the landslide.

The place looks as if an earthquake had happened. The side of the steep mountain on which the Hotel Cappucini stood has been rent and torn by the movement of the enormous masses of earth and rock. About 50,000 cubic yards of earth slid, and it went down like an Alpine avalanche.

Threw Diamonds in the Fire.

Newark, N. J., Dec. 26.—William Barker of 396 Halsey street bought a handsome pair of earrings as a Christmas present for his wife. When he came home he found Mrs. Barker wringing her hands and weeping.

"What's the matter?" he asked, in alarm.

"I threw the diamonds in the fire," she said between sobs. "They were lying on the table, and I thought the paper they were wrapped in was only a crumpled piece of tissue. I didn't discover my mistake till I saw them disappearing in the red-hot coals."

Allowing the fire to die out, they carefully sifted the ashes and coals and found both diamonds intact with none of their brilliancy lost, although the settings were blackened and melted. Mr. Barker will have the gems reset and present them once again as a New Year's gift.

Two Killed in Tennessee Feud.

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 25.—George Petway was shot and wounded mortally last night in Wagoner's Hotel by Constable John Irwin. A few minutes later Irwin fell and expired almost instantly from a pistol wound inflicted by Petway. The tragedy is the outcome of former trouble between the two men.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Cash prices for staples:
Wheat, No. 2 red, .73¾.
Corn, No. 2 mixed, .39⅞.
Oats, No. 2 mixed, .29.
Flour, Minnesota patents, $3.95.
Cotton, middling, 7 9-16.
Molasses, O. K. prime, .36.
Coffee, No. 7 Rio, .06⅝.
Sugar, granulated, 5.18.
Beef, family, 12.75.
Beef hams, 22.75.
Tallow, prime, .05.
Pork, mess, 10.25.
Hogs, dressed, 160 lb, .05¾.
Lard, prime, 5.65.
Iron, Northern No. 1 foundry, 23.00.
Butter, Western creamery, .27.

Every pair of genuine P. & P. Gloves is stamped with our name.

REGISTERED BRANDS OF THE
"P. & P." Kid Gloves

MANUFACTURED BY Chaumont PINGS&PINNER CO.
PERFECT FITTING — LATEST STYLES.
MANUFACTURED BY Berthold PINGS&PINNER CO.
BEST VALUE — NEWEST SHADES
MANUFACTURED BY Fontaine PINGS&PINNER CO.

Don't take substitutes—There's none so good.
FOR SALE BY
Crosby & Hill,
95 tu f Plainfield, N. J.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.

We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1 25.
LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.
Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.
—CHRISTMAS GOODS—
A Big Assortment.

BEST FOR THE BOWELS

If you haven't a regular, healthy movement of the bowels every day, you're sick, or will be. Keep your bowels open, and be well. Force, in the shape of violent physic or pill poison, is dangerous. The smoothest, easiest, most perfect way of keeping the bowels clear and clean is to take

CANDY CATHARTIC Cascarets TRADE MARK REGISTERED REGULATE THE LIVER

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good, Do Good, Never Sicken, Weaken, or Gripe, 10c. 25c Write for free sample, and booklet on health. Address Sterling Remedy Company, Chicago, Montreal, New York. 322a

KEEP YOUR BLOOD CLEAN

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 5 North avenue.

Flynn Bros., SHOE DEALERS,
222 WEST FRONT STREET,
Near Music Hall,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods
Have stood the test for years.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .
in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated
DOMESTIC FINISH.
Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.
Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.
Trading Stamps given.
The City Steam & Hand Laundry
MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B
19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

SELLING OUT
Below Cost
TO CLOSE BUSINESS
Star Crockery Store,
23 Somerset St., near Front.
3 and 9 cent Articles.
BARGAINS! BARGAINS!
Solomon & Evans,
Proprietors.

"ISN'T IT TOO CUTE FOR ANYTHING?"

So runs the chorus of feminine praise over this, that or the other pretty brooch in our fine collection. Husband, father, brother, beau—here's the fit thing! The price-range is $2.50 to $25.00—and there never was better choosing in pretty jewelry. You can make no mistake in picking with your eyes shut—but best come while the selection is complete.

Large Solid Silver Nethersole Bracelets, - - - 75c
Solid Silver Brush and Comb, - $2.50
In a silk-lined case.

COLLIER, Jeweler,
103 Park Ave.
Established 1869.

STATIONERY and TOYS.
We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles, for the Holiday trade.
CHRISTMAS CARDS and CALENDARS.
We make a specialty of FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.
High Grade Cigars.
Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.
B. W. HAND,
205 W. Front Street

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING
is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job. That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.
MARSH, AYERS & CO.,
201 PARK AVE., Cor 24 ST.
Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.
Estimates furnished. Telephone call 635J

LADIES' TAILORING.
RICHARDSON & WALD,
325 West Front Street.
TAILOR-MADE GARMENTS.
We make a specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.
Alterations and relining promptly attended to.
—DRESSMAKING.—
Our Dressmaking Department is in charge of Madame Walsh.

THE GRANDVIEW Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

THE ENTRANCE TO THE DINING ROOM
will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us.
Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early.
The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too—everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get.
FRED ENDRESS,
131—135 WEST FRONT STREET

November.
The mellow year is hasting to its close.
The merry birds have almost sung their last.
Their faint notes twitter in the dreary blast—
That shrill-piped harbinger of early snows.
And hint to you in good coal to invest
At seven forty-seven Front Street, west.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery, nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

LAIRE'S . .
HOLIDAY SPECIALS.
Carving knives.
U. S. club skates.
Roger's plated ware.
Fine pocket cutlery.
Silver finish coffee and tea pots.
Nickel on copper tea kettles.
Boys' sleighs.
Fine razors and hones.
Grand Rapid sweepers.
Baby Rapid sweepers.
Shinny sticks.
Christmas tree holders.
Coin silver ware, cheap.
Fine table cutlery.
Fine scissors and shears.
Corn poppers.
The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,
Tel. Call 682.

TRY THE QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,
No 337 Park Avenue
(Miller Building.)
Goods called for and delivered free of charge.
Domestic or gloss finish.

DOBBINS. CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.
817 West Front street.

J. W. VAN SICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS.
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly
TELEPHONE 148 b

Your Valuables
will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault
Lock boxes from $3 50 to $10 a year

GAS
For the Fire-place.
Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates.
Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.
CURTIS M. THORPE,
310-312 PARK AVENUE.
"EVERYTHING ON THE FIRE PLACE."

C. A. DUNHAM,
—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—
109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map at 817 Park Telephone 87

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE,
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 119 Park avenue, at 8:15 p m

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
219 Park Avenue.

A. KANE,
Dealer in
BLUE STONE FLAGGING and CURBING.
Also Dealer in
Flour, Feed and Grain, Coal and Wood.
Store and Office
409 East Third St.,
Next to
THIRD STREET MISSION.
Open Evenings Until 8 o'Clock.

SHALL WE DISPUTE

The Opinions Of Scores Of Our Fellow Citizens.

Residents of Plainfield, like other American citizens, in making an investment want to be sure of getting the worth of their money. They want to know all the whys and wherefores, and in a direct ratio to the value of the investment they burrow and ferret until satisfied with the collateral. Take an instance in the realm of proprietary articles. If we know of a friend who has been cured, we have some faith in the preparation; if we know of two or three our faith increases. If the cures reach scores, all well known citizens, and anyone who still maintains that there is nothing beyond ordinary merit in the said preparation can safely be left to the care of his fellow tax payers. If he wishes to pick a quarrel with them on the question of their judgment or veracity, he has ample opportunity in Plainfield to do so. Begin with this case:

Mrs. W. W. Mills, of No 86 Summit Ave., says: "I suffered times with a severe pain across the small of my back and in my hips. If I did any lifting or stooping my back became lame and sore, and though I used plasters they only helped me for the time being. I was feeling very badly when I had my attention called to Doan's Kidney Pills. They were so highly recommended for troubles like mine that I got a box at L. W. Randolph's drug store. I felt their good effects in a few days, and when I had finished the treatment my back was better and stronger, and I had much more energy to attend household duties. Doan's Kidney Pills have my endorsement and I am always pleased to recommend them."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. Mailed on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U S.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Chas. L. Stanley,
. . FLORIST . .
No. 142 North Ave.
HEADQUARTERS for choice Cut Flowers, Ferns, Palms, a large assortment of other plants.
Floral design work and decorating for all occasions. Satisfaction guaranteed; an immense stock of Holly, Wreaths, Roping, etc.
Annex stores for the Holidays,
134 North Ave,
South Ave, Netherwood, and Central Ave., Westfield

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md
Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$5
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$4
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD.
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills
—25c.—
A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.
MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung avenues.

A LULL IN THE FIGHTING.

Things at Statu Quo in South Africa.

ROBERTS OFF TO WAR

He Leaves With the Good Wishes of All England—The Veteran Commander Holds an Enthusiastic Reception Before His Departure for the Scene of Conflict.

London, Dec. 26.—The war office has received a cable message from General Forestier-Walker, dated from Cape Town yesterday, saying:

"Have no further news of the general situation."

A dispatch to the Daily News from Modder River, dated December 18, says:

"We are now waiting until England shall have realized the actual facts. It has to be admitted that, man to man, we have found ourselves pretty well matched but the Boer has always the choice of positions.

"Let England then become alive to the need for a further 100,000 men. Such a force will prove the truest economy in both blood and treasure."

Southampton, England, Dec. 25.—Field Marshal Lord Roberts, the new Commander-in-Chief of the British forces in South Africa, sailed Saturday for the theatre of war.

With a brilliant staff, including some of the most famous names in the army list, he boarded the Dunottar Castle amid the ringing cheers of thousands who had assembled to see him off.

Special orders have been given for the Dunottar Castle to make all speed to Cape Town, and it is expected that she will reach that place in fifteen days.

A stop will be made at Gibraltar, where Lord Kitchener, who is now en route to the Rock from Alexandria on the warship Isis, will join the old General as Chief of Staff, and proceed with him to the South.

Wild London Scenes.

London, Dec. 25.—Lord Roberts left Waterloo railroad station amidst scenes of enthusiasm vividly demonstrating the national interest in the event and the belief that the departure of the General can be accepted as a guarantee that whatever can be done in South Africa will be carried out by thoroughly competent hands and on carefully matured lines.

Although only privileged persons were permitted to enter the station, this did not prevent the gathering of immense throngs at all the approaches and other points of vantage, who cheered repeatedly as "Bobs," accompanied by his wife and two daughters, drove up.

FAMILY BLOTTED OUT.

Discouraged Farmer Commits Triple Murder and Suicide.

Chillicothe, Mo., Dec. 26.—The charred bodies of William J. Thomas, a farmer, and his three children have been found in the ashes of their home, eleven miles southwest of this city.

The supposition is that Thomas murdered the children then set fire to the house and took his own life.

Thomas' wife committed suicide by taking poison about a year ago. Thomas had frequently told his neighbors that his wife, on her deathbed, exacted a promise from him that he would make away with the children and himself and follow her.

The children who are believed to have been murdered by their father were:—Edna, ten years old; David, fourteen years old, and John, eighteen years old.

The affair was discovered when a neighbor living about a mile distant saw that the house had been burned. He hurried over and found the house totally destroyed, and the charred and blackened bodies of Thomas and his three children were lying in the ashes.

Thomas had been the victim of a long series of financial reverses. It was because of these that his wife took her own life.

It is believed that at the time his wife killed herself it was the understanding btween her and Thomas that he was to kill himself and the children but his nerve failed him and he did not carry out his part of the agreement.

Cubans Are Satisfied.

Havana, Dec. 26.—The events of the last few days have had a great effect on Cuban politics. The circumstances attending the arrival of Gen. Wood and the departure of Gen. Brooke, taken with the speech of the former at the farewell banquet to the latter, in which the intentions of the United States Government were restated, have satisfied the Cubans that Cuba will certainly be independent within a reasonable time.

More than this, the arrival and public and private utterances of Horatio Rubens have increased the restful feeling that now apparently exists among all classes. Mr. Rubens has, without doubt, considerable influence. Wherever he goes he is cheered by the people; his room at the hotel is thronged with Cuban officials seeking an interview, and altogether, he is regarded somewhat in the light of an oracle.

The Patria, commenting upon Gen. Woods's remarks at the farewell dinner to Gen. Brooke, says:

"It was a most satisfactory speech, with a pleasing military simplicity. Obviously, the United States Government intends to fulfil the terms of the joint resolution, and Gen. Wood is the man selected as the instrument for this task."

Mrs. Johnson Fatally Burned.

Peoria, Ill., Dec. 26.—Mrs. Jonhson, seventy-five years old, mother of J. C. Johnson, Chairman of the Democratic National Executive Committee, was severely burned and cannot live. She is a member of a prominent family of Chillicothe, Peoria County, where the accident occurred.

Mrs. Johnson was lighting a lamp, and the match fell from her hand, setting fire to her dress. Her clothes were burned from her body, and she inhaled flame and smoke.

VICTIM OF THUGS.

Story of a Robbery Committed in New York City.

San Francisco, Dec. 23.—Mrs. Thomas Kaerston, a victim of New York thugs, has arrived here on an overland train with her mind and health shattered and the possibility that her reason will never be fully restored.

Mrs. Kaerston's story is most strange. Her home is in Fort Leavenworth, Kan. She arrived in New York from Sweden after a prolonged visit about Dec. 1. Her husband was here, and Mrs. Kaerston informed him of her arrival by mail, but failed to name her address. Kaerston wired to the Rev. Mr. Peterson, in Paterson, N. J., asking him to locate her by advertisement and advise her that he, Peterson had $700 for her. Peterson advertised, as directed, and the next day Mrs. Kaerston called and secured the money, with instructions to purchase a first-class ticket to Fort Leavenworth, where she would be joined by her husband.

The woman returned to New York and made all arrangements for departure. Then she started down Broadway, and on her arrival at a point near the Sixth Avenue elevated road she was grasped from behind, chloroformed, and hustled into a hack. She remembers being driven to a hotel on the Bowery, where she was given another dose of chloroform which rendered her unconscious. The thieves tore open her waist and stole her money, nearly $700. They also took her ticket to Fort Leavenworth and her baggage check, and went to the ticket office and changed it for a second-class ticket to San Francisco and checked her baggage accordingly.

In a semi-comatose condition Mrs. Kaerston was placed aboard the train which left New York last Monday night, and the men, who put her in charge of the conductor, said she had been drinking and would no doubt be herself in the morning.

When she arrived at Ogden she was violently insane. Dr. Thomas, who happened to be travelling west on the same train, noticed chloroform burns and other evidences of the drug on the woman's lips. He took her into his care, and by next morning she was able to talk coherently. She knew she had been robbed, but did not know where she was. When the train officials searched her clothing and found her waist ripped and other evidences of having been roughly dealt with, they finally believed her.

Dr. Thomas has sent her to a private hospital, where she will be cared for until her husband arrives from Fort Leavenworth.

HID IN THE WELL.

Woman Accused of Bigamy Found by Officers Almost Unconscious.

Binghamton, N. Y., Dec. 26.—Mrs. A. B. Loomis of Aurora, Ill., who was wanted by the police on a charge of bigamy, gave the officers who attempted to arrest her a battle and nearly lost her life by hiding in a well, standing on a ladder to her neck in the water. Mrs. Loomis had been traced to the village of Hamilton, a short distance from here, and was found residing at the home of Orson Beede.

Constable Mooney, armed with a warrant, tried to arrest her. He went to the Beede house and was refused admission, although he told Beede his errand. The occupants of the house barricaded the doors and prepared to resist with guns. Mooney returned to the village, raised a posse, and armed them with revolvers from the village hardware store. He then returned to the house, but the occupants, seeing the posse approach, fled.

The place was searched for Mrs. Loomis, but no trace of her could be found. It was thought she had escaped until Mooney happened to move a chair standing on a piece of carpet and discovered a trap door underneath. This he raised, and by the light of a lantern he could discern a black object on top of the water, which on investigation proved to be a human head. Mrs. Loomis was standing to her neck in water and her body was stiff with cold. When the officer approached she slipped from the ladder unconscious, and but for his timely arrival would inevitably have drowned.

Fatal Baroom Brawl.

Elizabeth, N. J., Dec. 24.—In a barroom brawl Michael Grogan, an Englishman, 45 years old, was shot and instantly killed by a ngro, said to be Frederick Davis. The murderer has not yet been captured.

Grogan and John Bird were out celebrating Christmas and had been drinking heavily. Bird was in such a state that after the shooting he was unable to do anything to stop the murderer, who ran away.

Grogan and Davis became involved in a dispute and came to blows in the saloon. They were separated, and soon after left the place. Davis left it about the same time. The police say Davis left first and waited outside for Grogan. Others say Grogan waited for the negro.

The quarrel was renewed on the street, and after an interchange of blows Davis stepped back, drew a revolver and fired. The bullet entered Grogan's left breast and apparently cut the heart. He dropped to the sidewalk, dead. The shooting was witnessed by several persons who had stopped to see the fight. After the firing the shot Davis fled.

Buffalo Bill's Protest.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 24.—"Buffalo Bill"—Colonel W. F. Cody—passed through Omaha to-day on the way to Washington, to urge the Indian Commissioner to rescind his recent order prohibiting Indians from leaving the reservation to travel with shows.

Colonel Cody combats the argument used by the Commissioner that the Indians are demoralized by being out on the road with shows. He says the experiences they meet with in their travels better fit them to adopt the manners and customs of the white man than does life on the reservation.

Ballington Booth's New Dog.

Montclair, N. J. Dec. 26.—Ballington Booth, Commander of the American Volunteers, whose home is in Montclair, has received a Christmas present of a fine St. Bernard dog from an admirer in New York. The gift is to replace the pet dog strayed or stolen from Mr. Booth's Kennel several days ago.

EVER HAVE BACK ACHE?

Backache means Kidney Trouble, Kidney trouble means Bright's Disease, Bright's Disease means death. Watch your kidneys!

Dr. Holtin's Kidney Tablets will cure YOUR kidney and backache troubles, as they have cured thousands of others everywhere.

Don't delay and don't experiment, but get the best, and the verdict of tens of thousands is Dr. Holtin's Kidney Tablets.

Don't accept substitutes. Get only the genuine. Sold in packages of two sizes, 25c. and 50c., the latter containing nearly three times as much medicine as the former.

Prepared only by
HOLTIN CHEMICAL CO. 93 Maiden Lane, N. Y.

FOR SALE BY
JOHN P. POWERS,
Druggist,
tu th 45 Somerset St

EDUCATIONAL

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.
(City Bank Building.)
Adelia C. Phelps will resume work Sept. 26th
Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
::: PIANO AND THEORY :::
Home Studio,
132 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN.
Address—60 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

.....Piano Instruction.....
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes
Elementary Classes.
Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Dufft.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmons
Telephone 601

BANK ELECTION.
CITY NATIONAL BANK.

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of this bank, for the election of nine Directors to serve for the ensuing year, will be held at the Banking rooms, corner of Park avenue and Front street, on Tuesday, January 9th, 1900, from 1 to 2 o'clock p. m.

WILLIAM F. ARNOLD, Cashier.
Dated Plainfield, N. J., December 7th, 1899.
12-8 9 11 13 15 16 19 22 26 28 30 1-2 4 6 8

Don't miss the Special Sale for the holidays of FRAMES, EASELS, and PICTURES
AT REDUCED PRICES,
given by the
Guarantee Portrait Studio,
142 East Front Street.
Fine drawings in Crayons and Pastels from all kinds of photographs. All kinds of frames from the latest styles of mouldings made to order at the lowest prices.

THAT'S THE IDEA!
You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL.
corner Somerset and Chatham street, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Prop.

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.
NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.
SOMERVILLE AND EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m.; 2:30 and 4:30 p. m.
PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a.m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p.m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.
SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
E. H. BIRD, P M.

Corporation Notice.

of application to the Court of Common Pleas for the appointment of Commissioners to assess benefits for street improvements.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, pursuant to Chapter 200 of the laws of 1898, entitled, "An Act to authorize the improvement of streets and highways in cities of this State, and to provide for the payment of the expense of the same," approved June 13th, 1898, and the amendments thereof and supplements thereto, that application will be made by the Common Council of the City of Plainfield to the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Union at the Court House in the City of Elizabeth on the thirtieth day of December, A. D. 1899, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as the said Court can hear the said application, for the appointment of three Commissioners, who shall be freeholders and residents of the City of Plainfield, as Commissioners to estimate and assess benefits respectively conferred by the permanent improvement of streets under the several ordinances of said City, respectively entitled:

"An Ordinance for macadamizing East Sixth Street between Watchung Avenue and Richmond Street, excepting where already macadamized," approved Oct. 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing Franklin Place between LaGrande Avenue and East Fifth Street," approved Oct. 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing East Ninth Street between Park Avenue and Watchung Avenue," approved Oct. 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing West Fourth Street between New Street and Monroe Avenue," approved Feb. 9th, 1899.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing West Third Street between Madison Avenue and Monroe Avenue, excepting where already macadamized," approved Feb. 9th, 1899.

and to perform the duties and execute the powers conferred by said Acts of the Legislature.

By order of the Common Council of the City of Plainfield.
JAMES T. MACMURRAY,
City Clerk of the City of Plainfield.
Dated, December 18, 1899. 12 19 td

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS,
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Hire for Picnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections.
210 PARK AVE.

H. A. Gayle 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

THE
First National Bank,
of Plainfield, N. J.
Capital .....$200,000.
Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000.
J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.
DIRECTORS.
Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Corlell.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.
VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

WANTED
25 Mechanics

and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.

Agent on the Grounds
SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.

. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW,
THE GROCER.
Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.
Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

DONGE FELT SLIPPERS
are the best and they make the best
CHRISTMAS GIFTS.
And a pair of the "VanArsdale Shoes" would be a sensible gift, too.
Van Arsdale,
127 E. Front St.
Shoes for Everybody at Popular Prices.

OPEN EVENINGS. FURNITURE.
Wouldn't a clean finished, well-made piece of Furniture make an ideal Christmas present?
FURNITURE. Jardinier Stands from 50c to $5.00.
POWLISON & JONES,
149 and 151 E. Front Street.

Candy For the Children
AT CHRISTMAS TIME is as much or more so expected by them as fireworks on the Fourth. They look for it in their stockings.....
American Mixture 10c lb. Old Fashioned Mixture, 10c lb.
Special Mixture 12c lb., and upwards to 60c lb.
Christmas Bell Box, the latest for Sunday Schools.
R. Walsh & Co. TWO STORES, 157 MARKET STREET, 677 BROAD STREET, NEWARK N. J.
m th

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers, Box Calf and Tans.
Sherwins,
149 W. Front St.

Holiday Goods.
Why you should see our assortment; a walk through our store will be the easiest way to solve the problem of what to get for presents for young and old.
Our line of fancy articles consists of everything imaginable in Celluloid, Plush and Glass Ware.
Handkerchiefs, gloves, neckwear, hosiery, umbrellas and dress goods of all kinds and all prices. Furs and worsted goods of every description.
DOLLS . . .
Dolls of all kinds can be found on our doll counter, our assortment is bewildering in their novelty, extent and attractiveness. Our prices are lower than any other house will quote for the same article.
TOYS -:- -:-
Our Toy Department in the basement is larger than ever before. No such collection was ever gathered here before, and it is safe to say there is no better stock in town in point of variety, there is no stock in town that equals ours in prices that's certain.
Children's velocipedes, tricycles, battleships, iron toys of all kinds, tool chests, wash sets, soldier sets, dishes, horse and wagons, chairs, printing presses, electric batteries, express wagons, magic lanterns, etc.
I. H. Boehm, 109-111-113 West Front Street

THE HOLY DOOR.

Imposing Ceremonies Concluded by the Pope in Rome.

Rome, Dec. 26.—The Pope solemnly inaugurated the holy year by performing the impressive ceremony of opening the Holy Door of St. Peter's Cathedral at 11 o'clock in the morning. The ceremony was performed in the vestibule, which was handsomely decorated, in the presence of the Papal officers, the members of the Diplomatic Corps, leading representatives of the Roman nobility, and a number of invited guests.

After donning the Pontificial robes, the Pope, borne on the sedia gestatoria and escorted by the Papal Guards, proceeded with the Cardinals and the Court to the Sistine Chapel, in the Vatican Palace, where were gathered representatives of the Roman religious orders and clergy. After a brief prayer before the Holy Sacrament, which was there exposed Leo intoned the "Veni Creator," and then again ascended the sedia gestatoria. Preceded by clergy and friars, who bore lighted candles, the Pope proceeded to the Vestibule of the Basilica, priests lining the halls and staircases en route.

The Papal throne had been erected in the vestibule. The Supreme Pontiff ascended the throne, which was immediately surrounded by Cardinals and dignitaries.

Suddenly a heavy bell boomed. Leo arose and, preceded by the Grand Penitentiary, walked toward the Holy Door. Cardinal Mgr. Serafino Vannutelli, Prefect of the Congergation of Bishops and Regulars, met him and handed him an artistic golden mallet given by the Italian Bishops. Leo, wearing the mitre, uttered the verses of the Liturgy, and struck blows with the hammer on the door, which had previously been cut with a saw.

A few moments of solemn silence followed, the Pope and the Papal dignitaries in their State robes being grouped before the door. Then the latter swung back; and the officials of St. Peter's laved holy water, while Leo opened the Psalm "Jubilate Deo," which was taken up by the Pontificial choir.

The Pope, having again covered his head and holding in his right hand a crucifix and in his left a lighted candle knelt at the threshold amid the strains of "Te Deum." Rising to his feet, he stepped alone within the portals of the vast and empty basilica. The Cardinals and others followed.

At this moment all the church bells in Rome rang out. Leo stopped before the altar of Michael Angelo, where the Janitors of the Holy Door for the coming year kissed his feet. He addressed a few words to them on the importance of the ceremony and then proceeded to the altar, where sacrament was offered, followed by a short prayer. Then, advancing on the sedia gestatoria to the high altar, he pronounced a solemn benediction, according plenary indulgences.

By 1:15 he had returned to his private apartments, having performed the ceremonies with great apparent satisfaction. He was smiling throughout, but grew pale and showed signs of fatigue toward the end. Nevertheless, he gave the three blows upon the door with considerable force.

Profound silence was maintained throughout the ceremony, save when the Pope gave his blessing, which evoked loud "Vivas." The weather was fine, and an enormous concourse assembled in the precincts of the Basilica. Order was preserved inside by the Pontificial Guards and outside by the Royal Carabineers and the police.

MR. MOODY'S FUNERAL.

Public Ceremonies on the Great Evangelist's Remains.

East Northfield, Mass., Dec. 26—The family of the late evangelist Dwight L. Mody remained indoors nearly the entire day.

Mrs. Moody, who has been considerably affected by the arrival of her sister and brother, Mr. Fleming Revell and Mrs. William H. Holden, of Chicago, was in her usual health after a night's rest. Mrs. L. C. Washburn, Mr. Moody's only sister, is expected to arrive from her home in Racine, Wis., to-night.

The services t the Congregational Church were conducted by the Rev. C. J. Schofield, the pastor assisted by the Rev. R. A. Torrey of Chicago. Both referred to Mr. Moody's great work.

The services at the Congregational noon at half-past two o'clock. The body will be taken to the church by the Mount Hermon students, and remain there until the afternoon services begin, after which it will be taken to the last resting place on Round Top. The only music during the service, aside from singing by the regular choir of the church will be the singing of "Rock of Ages," one of Mr. Moody's favorite hymns, by the Mount Hermon male quartet.

Honorary pall-bearers are as follows:—Colonel J. J. Janeway, New Brunswick, N. J.; R. C. Morse, of the Young Men's Christian Association National Committee, New York; George C. Stebbins, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Ira D. Sankey, Brooklyn, N. Y.; General J. J. Estey, Brattleoro, Vt.; Col C. A. Hopkinson, Boston; H. C. Moore, Boston; Dr. N. T. Wood, of Northfield, and professor A. H. Cutler, of Mount Hermon Seminary.

In answer to telegrams sent to several gentlemen who had been associated with Mr. Moody in his work offering to them an opportunity to speak a few words over the body of the dead evangelist, five have responded, accepting the invitation. Those who will speak are Dr. H. G. Weston, of the Crozier Theological Seminary Chester, Pa.; the Rev. Arthur T. Pierson, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Bishop Mallalieu, of Boston; the Rev. Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, of New York, and H. M. Moore of Boston.

Hydrophobia Closes a School.

Reading, Pa., Dec. 26—Fear that a school teacher, William K. Loose, in Ontelaunee township, will be seized with hydrophobia has led to the closing of the school.

Mr. Loose was bitten several days ago by a dog which had taken refuge under the porch of the school house. He had the wound cautrized, but the parents of the children were distrustful and many little ones were kept away. The attendance fell off to such an extent that the directors ordered the school closed.

ASHORE NEAR HATTERAS.

Twenty-one Men Drowned in the Ariosto Wreck.

NINE OF HER CREW SAVED

The Men Who Stuck to the Vessel by the Advice of the Captain Were Rescued but Those who left on the Life Boat Lost their Lives at Sea. A Terrible Disaster.

Cape Henry, Va., Dec. 26.—The British steamer Ariosto, Capt. Baines, bound from Galveston to Hamburg, has been wrecked six miesl south of Hatteras, N. C., and twenty-one of the crew were drowned. Capt. Baines and eight of the crew were saved by the heroic efforts of the Ocracoke life-saving crew, under Capt. James Howard.

Those who lost their lives attempted to reach the shore in a small boat, which was swamped shortly after it put off from the ship. Capt. Baines and the eight men remained aboard and were landed by the life savers in the breeches buoy. But not until after a struggle which lasted all day. Wrecking tugs are on the way from here to the scene of the wreck, and if they reach the stranded ship in time may save it, as the wind is in the wrecked vessel's favor.

The Ariosto wreck is the worst on these shores since the German ship Elizabeth went ashore in 1878, when fifty-five persons were drowned.

Thick fogs have prevailed along the Virginia and North Carolina coasts for several days, and a number of vessels have narrowly escaped destruction. Last night, however, the air was clear, but the wind averaged from forty to fifty miles an hour and the sea was furious around the point which has been designated as the "Graveyard of American Shipping."

The Ariosto, a vessel of 2,265 tons, sailed from Galveston for Hamburg, via Norfolk, on Dec. 17. The skipper, Capt. Baines, and his crew, consisting of twenty-nine men, were all British. The Ariosto, which had a general cargo had all the way from port encountered heavy weather. The coast patrol from Ocracoke was returning to the station about 4 o'clock this morning, when he discovered a big ship ashore. He immediately lighted a signal to notify those aboard that they were discovered and ran to the station to arouse those of the lifesavers who were not on duty.

Against the fierce wind the lifesavers then dragged the heavy apparatus, consisting of the Lisle gun, breeches, and life car, and it was almost daylight when they reached the scene of the wreck. They could see the outlines of a big steamer, but could not accomplish anything until daybreak.

The wind caught up particles of sand, which were blown into the faces of the lifesavers until their cheeks were cut as if by a rawhide.

When daylight broke the sailors were seen huddled together on the wrecked ship, waving their arms in an appeal to be saved. To launch a boat in such a sea would have meant instant death, so the life savers placed their gun in position and fired. The Ariosto was some 600 feet out and the line fell short. Line after line was fired to the stranded ship, but all failed to reach.

In the meantime the waves were dashing over the ship and Capt. Baines called his men together for a consultation, explaining to them that the chances were about even if they should take to the small boats or wait for the life saving crew to fire a life line on board. So far as he was concerned, the Captain said, he would wait for the life savers, but he left it to the crew to decide among themselves.

Eight sailors said they would stick by the Captain. These were saved. Twenty-one declared they were doomed if they remained aboard and they left the ship in small boats. All of them lost their lives.

The boat in which the twenty-one men put off was one of the regular lifeboats. It was strong in ordinary weather, but a cockleshell in such a sea. The ship was tossing heavily, and with difficulty it was swung from the davits.

The twenty-one men in their excitement, made no provision for the overturning of the craft, and one by one they clambered in, in haste to go to their deaths. Capt. Baines and the remaining eight men from their perilous position watched the little boat put off, shouting luck to the departing sailors.

Tossing about on the great waves, the sailors pulling a strong stroke, the baot seemed in a fair way of reaching shore, when a wave swept with mighty force on the little craft, engulfing it. The twenty-one men were thrown into the sea, and, although the watchers on shore were witnesses of the disaster, they were powerless to render aid.

The sea swallowed the unfortunate men only for an instant, for they appeared high on the crest of a wave, making a last desperate fight for their lives. Finally, one by one, they sank out of sight.

Capt. Baines of the wrecked vessel, as he saw his men perish—this mariner who had sailed the world over for twenty-five years—wept like a child.

Meanwhile the Oracoke life saving crew stood its ground and continued firing lines to the stranded ship. About four hours after the Ariosto first struck a life line was cast over the ship's side. Capt. Baines and his remaining men made it fast and an hour later they had dragged the big hawser aboard.

The life savers slowly ran out the breeches buoy and it reached the ship in safety. Through the blinding spray the men were then, one by one, hauled to shore, more dead than alive, and by nightfall all were safe.

When the disaster was made known here wrecking tugs started for the scene, and it is a matter of steam against time if they succeeded in reaching the Ariosto before the vessel goes to pieces.

The Ariosto was seven years old and was owned by R. McAndrews & Co., of London.

Russian Church for Chicago.

Chicago, Dec. 26.—At the suggestion of the Czar, 20,000 rubles have been donated by the Russian Government for the purpose of building in Chicago an edifice for the members of the Orthodox Russian Church.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

105 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week

$5 a year—in advance

No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada

Delivered by carrier or by mail.

The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., DEC 26 1899

The Backward Step.

As a musician by continuous practice keeps himself from falling off in skill, so the merchant preserves the full measure of his traffic by persistent advertising, says the Philadelphia Record. In business it is easier to take a step backward than to regain lost ground. The merchant who discontinues advertising takes the backward step.

"Freeholder" in the New York Press says that estimates put the increase of population in this State since 1890 all the way from 100 000 to 200 000. The work of taking the census scarcely has begun, but the sanguine Jerseyman is certain that there has been a tremendous growth. If the number of industries has increased by half in ten years it is figured that the population has grown at least a sixth greater. The largest increases probably will be found in Essex, Hudson, Passaic and Union. Of the cities Newark, Paterson, Jersey City, Elizabeth, Trenton, Camden, Plainfield and Perth Amboy will show large additions in population.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

When a young man named Alexander declared at a meeting of the Rescue Mission in Elizabeth, that he was a pickpocket and wanted to reform, and asked the mission to help him, he was at once arrested, taken to the police station and the next day sentenced to thirty days in the county jail foy disorderly conduct. The charity oranizations have got him out, and he is meanwhile in a state of doubt as to the usefulness and value of rescue missions.

* * * * *

Rev A. H Lewis, D. D., who was intimately associated with the late Aaron M. Powell in his social purity work, gives in The Sabbath Recorder of the 11th inst a very appreciative notice of hi book of "Personal Reminiscences" just published by his widow. He says: "We make this notice of the book and the man with the hope that very many of our readers will secure it, and that the study of it will give them new inspiration and courage in the world's battle for right, truth and righteousness.

"It is not often that unassuming manliness, marked ability and patient bravery as a reformer, unite in one man as they did in Aaron M. Powell He was one of the youngest of those who labored in the anti-slavery reform before the war, so that one half his life was lived after slavery was buried in the tearful victory which crowned a struggle that revolutionized the American nation, gave new meaning to the word 'Republic,' and left permanent impress on the history of the world. The Society of Friends led in the anti-slavery work. Mr Powell was born to that religious faith."

It seems remarkable that the last words Mr. Powell wrote in connection with the book were, in writing of Lydia Maria Child, those which she directed to be placed upon her tomb stone, as follows: "You call us dead; we are not dead; we are only truly living now." Mr. Powell's sister, Dear Bond, of Swarthmore College, supplements these interrupted "Reminiscences" with a sketch of his life, written as only a sister could write of a brother so beloved. The book contains also brief tributes from friends and co-workers.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plain Selders Can Witness.

Two unusual houses greeted the Burrill Comedy Company upon their return to Music Hall yesterday, and the manner in which the audiences applauded proves the high standing of Manager Burrill and his clever company. Miss Hulbert who created such a favorable impression last season, met with a cordial reception, and the clever work of the supporting company pleased everyone. The Burrill Company carry a large amount of scenery, and the beautiful stage setting surpassed anything ever seen here at popular prices. During the remainder of the week a number of high class scenic productions will be presented with a number f up to date s ecialties each evening. Tonight Howard P. Taylor's beautiful comedy drama, "Infatuation," will be seen with novel scenic effects Ladies tickets have been issued for tonight's performance, which entitles each lady to one of the best reserved seats for 15 cents.

THE WORKINGMAN.

The Trades and Labor Council of Toronto, Canada, is considering a proposition to establish a daily paper.

The American Federation of Labor has increased its membership over 250-000 during the present year.

Ninety per cent. of the cigar makers at Spokane, Wash., have gone out of the business, owing to the bad conditions of the trade in that city.

The Fall River, Mass., textile workers have made a demand for an increase of 10 per cent. in wages to go into effect December 11.

Chicago piano workers involved in the present lockout in the trade in that city, will start a co-operative plant, a building for the purpose having been secured. Stock to the amount of $100,-000 will be issued.

Nearly 200 city employes at Baltimore, Md., were discharged previous to the late election because they declined to pay assessments to the Republican campaign committee.

The Kimberley diamond mines pay $10,000,000 a year profit on a nominal capital of double that sum.

The machinists of Philadelphia are arranging for making a united stand for the nine-hour day on May 1, 1900.

The nine-hour workday went into effect in the Dayton, Ohio, book and job printing offices on the 21st. About 400 men were benefited by the change.

A statistician finds that no less than 81 automobile companies have been chartered in this country, having an aggregate capitalization of $430,000,000.

In London the various underground electric systems for rapid transit now in course of construction involve the expenditure of about $100,000,000 for their completion.

Wyoming papers predict that the town of Hartville in that state will become a second Pittsburg, owing to the rapid development of its hematite ore beds, which are the largest in the world.

Mayor Depinit, of Erie, Penn., says he will not hold as a vagrant any man who can produce a current "working card" form any union, as its possession is prima facie evidence the man cannot be a vagrant.

The employing printers of Connecticut agreed to grant compositors, pressmen, bookbinders, &c., the nine-hour day, beginning November 21.

The number of Italian laborers in Swiss cities is growing so large that serious conflicts with native workmen are feared in the near future.

It is stated in Boston that the American Steel and Wire Trust has engaged freight room to the extent of 3,000 tons per month for the coming year from Boston alone for the exportation of coiled wire and nails.

Cigar manufacturers have formed a trust, whose yearly output is figured at 180,000,000 cigars. Speaking of this combine the Cigar Makers' Journal says: "Every one of the firms in the combine is nonunion, and nearly all employ cheap labor and machines."

St. Louis, Mo., has been favored in the past few months with the location there of an iron and steel plant, an independent tobacco factory, a $500-000 elevator and cold storage plant, a cement works and a china factory.

The Atlanta Constitution says that in the course of a very few months South Carolina in the number of looms and spindles in its cotton mills will stand next to Massachusetts as a cotton manufacturing state. The day is already in sight when all the cotton grown in South Carolina will be manufactured in its own mills.

The Building Trades Council and the Builders' Exchange, of Louisville, Ky., have adopted working rules that will be in operation until May 1, 1900, which provide for a nine-hour workday, overtime at the rate of time and one-half and a minimum wage of $2 per day.

The Building Trades Council of St. Louis and its affiliated unions have appointed a committee to devise ways and means looking to the erection of a labor temple in that city. The building will be erected on the co-operative plan, the stock to be taken by the trades unions exclusively.

The Carpenters' Union of Dallas, Texas, one of the strongest organizations in the state, has notified the contractors that on and after May 1 next it will demand the eight-hour day.

Michigan has a new law similar to the Missouri ordinance, requiring the licensing of barbers, but it is superior to the Missouri law in that it affects all towns of 10,000 inhabitants and over, while in Missouri cities under 50,000 are not affected.

An Arizona inventor has patented a gun stock which is in two sections, the butt portion being recessed to receive the front section with a traverse pivot to connect the two, allowing the stock and barrel to be adjusted to suit the user.

The forthcoming report of the Ohio Inspector of Mines will show that the average monthly wages of pick miners in 1898 was $20.20¾, machines loaders, $19.80, and machine runners $34.93½.

Photo-engravers in New York are still complaining that convicts in the Elmira Prison are taught photo-engraving and thereby a state law is being violated, while honest workingmen are kept out of employment thereby.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it; no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,

122 East Front Street.

Just For A Day

IN OUR

BASEMENT!

Solid Oak Writing Desk and Bookcase, value $12.98, only a few at - $9.69

Bookcase in Golden Oak, 27 in. wide, 55 in. high, value $3.50, 6 to go at $2.87

$5.98 Oak Writing Desk - - - $4.98
9.45 " " " - - - 7.98
9.95 " " " - - - 8.40
11.40 " " " - - - 9.80

$15.00 Full-size Couch, Best Steel Springs, six styles Figured Velours, extra value at - - - - $10.50

Solid Oak 5 drawer Chiffonier, value 6.50, for Saturday - - $4.98

A full line of Chiffoniers up to $19.95.

18-in Top Oak Tables - - - 85c
22-in " " " - - - 1.25
24-in " " " - - 1.48

A special 20-in Birdseye Maple Table $1.98

Tables at 2.98, 3.75, 4.48, 4.98.

These Goods Cannot be Duplicated in the Town for the Price.

LAMPS! LAMPS! LAMPS!

See Our Centre Window.

Lamps at 1.98, 2.98, 3.48, 3.98 and 4.98, that are exceptional good values.

Toilet Sets in Domestic and imported porcelain from 1.98 to 12.00.

Doll Carriages and Go-Carts.

If in doubt what to give the little girl for Christmas buy her a Go-Cart for her doll. We have them in infinite variety, from 49c to 4.98.

MORRIS CHAIRS.

Solid Oak Frame, Velour Cushions, extra large and roomy, - - - 4. 98
In Denim Cushions, - - 3.98
High Grade Morris Chairs from 6.48 to 14.98

FANCY ROCKERS.

4 styles, some in Fancy Velours, spring seat, saddle seat or leather seat at - - 2.98
Others in oak and mahogany - 3.48 to 5.00

WOODHULL & MARTIN,

234, 236, 238, 246 W. Front Street.

PECK'S CORNER.

PECK is in the . . . . . FRONT RANK

Because he deserves it.

Merry Christmas. Happy New Year.

To those who contemplate making

Christmas Presents

I advise you to call and see the

Handsome Building Lots At Woodland Park, Plainfield.

Suited for a king or prince. Or some of our one or two acre Plots for Raising Poultry, &c. You can buy these properties at Low Prices, monthly payments guaranteed title. These properties will double in value in two or three years. Other investments to suit all.

SILAS D. DRAKE,

175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

The Miller Oil Heater

One kind only.

JOS. W. GAVETT,

318 WEST FRONT STREET.

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops

Wieda's

Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda

Manufactured at the Premises, 144 West Front St. Phone. 1133.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR!

We have a good supply yet of Slippers, Rubber Boots, Lambs' Wool Soles Shoes, Dress Suit Cases, Traveling Bags, Telescopes, etc., all of which make useful and appropriate

NEW YEAR'S PRESENTS.

DOANE & EDSALL . . . .

N. K. BARNES, Grocer,

No. 245 WEST FRONT STREET,

SPECIAL FOR TEN DAYS.

$3 worth of stamps with 1 lb of 60c Tea. best.
$2 worth of stamps with 1 lb of 28c Coffee best.
$1 worth of stamps with 24½ lbs of 55c Flour, best.

I will give $3.00 Worth of Trading Stamps with this 99c purchase:

1 lb of Coffee	28c
2 lbs Sugar	10c
1 lb mixed Nuts	13c
1 pkg Currants	10c
1 pkg Raisins	12c
1 can Peas	8c
1 pkg Dunham's Cocoanut	10c
1 qt Cranberries	8c
	99c

THE BOOT SHOP

AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,
107 Park Avenue.

Great Millinery Sale
Continued For One Week.
Two to three hundred Felt Hats that were 39c and 50c now on sale for 15c and 19c.
$5 00 hats reduced to $2 98.
Great Reduction in Birds, Feathers and Ribbons.
Millinery Parlors,
L. A. DALY,
Corner W. Front St. and Central Ave
12 66

CHARLES ARNOLD,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats,
POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON
203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.
Telephone 238.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store 126 Park avenue. 10 1

A Great Name

is a guarantee of superior worth

In baking powder, in these days of unscrupulous adulteration, a great name gives the best security.

There are many brands of baking powders, but "Royal Baking Powder" is recognized at once as the brand of great name, the powder of highest favor and reputation. Everyone has absolute confidence in the food where Royal is used.

Pure and healthful food is a matter of vital importance to every individual.

Royal Baking Powder assures the finest and most wholesome food.

Avoid alum baking powders.
They make the food unwholesome.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, Dec 26—The Christmas exercises with a tree were held at the Presbyterian church Saturday evening. There was a large attendance of the parents and friends of the scholars. Each scholar was given a gift of candy and popcorn.

The Craig Manufacture Company has succeeded the Chichester Craig Mf. Co. The manufacture of type writer chairs and office stools will be continued.

Harry Hall, an operator in the employ of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, has recovered from a slight illness.

Mrs. M. F. Wertz will entertain the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church Thursday afternoon.

The Lincoln Sunday-school will hold Christmas exercises in the school house this evening.

Joseph Meeker, of New Market, has been entertaining his brother, John, of Franklin Park.

Stone flagging has been laid from the Dunellen line to Centre street in New Market.

Wm. Brokaw visited his parents this week. He is now located at Philadelphia.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, December 26—The members of the Methodist Sunday-school and their many friends enjoyed their annual Christmas entertainment in the church Saturday evening. A very entertaining programme, consisting of recitations, dialogues and Christmas carols, was rendered. During the evening Santa Claus found time to drop in and help to distribute the presents from the well stocked tree.

August Klunser, who recently underwent an operation for the removal of an eye, at Muhlenberg Hospital, has recovered very nicely and is able to be around again.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frentz, of New York, have been the guests for several days of Mr. Frentz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Frentz.

Mrs. G. M. Shotted an interesting Christmas meeting of the Baptist young people in the church parlor Sunday evening.

John R Haskard and family, of Grant avenue, spent Christmas with his mother, Mrs. John Haskard.

Mr and Mrs John B Stillger, of Roselle, have been visiting at the home of Mr Stillger's parents.

Fanwood Council, R. A., hold an important meeting in their rooms this evening.

Mrs. John Robison is quite ill at her home, being threatened with pneumonia.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal trouble, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and dose not dry up the secretions but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, Dec. 26—The Westfield Building and Loan Association has elected the following officers for the coming year: President, C. G Endicott; vice-president, J. S. Irving; secretary, J. R. Connoly; treasurer, B J Crosby; counsel, Hon Foster M. Voorhees; directors, Dr. J. B. Harrison, W. S. Welch J. L Clayton, J. F. Cowperthwaite, H. A. Warncke, J S A Wittke, F. W. Morse, Dr. Fred A. Kinch, H. L. Fink, James Moffatt, F S. Smith, J. T. Pierson, L. M. Whitaker, D. E. Miller and Martin Welles.

The Westfield High School football team will close the season at Brooklyn on the evening of January 31, when they will meet the Cameo Field Club team in the riding academy of the Brooklyn Riding and Driving Club for a banner offered by the club.

BLOWN FROM A TRAIN.

South Plainfield Boys Stealing a Ride When the Wind Took the Part of the Railroad Company.

Early Sunday evening Fred Arrowsmith, aged about twenty years, a resident of South Plainfield, a machinist by trade, was taken from his home to the hospital in an ambulance, suffering from severe scalp wounds received about 3 30 o'clock Sunday afternoon while stealing a ride on a freight train on the Lehigh Valley railroad from his home to Roselle to see a friend.

At the time the wind was blowing a gale and youngArrowsmith was standing between two freight cars. He held on as best he could, but as the train passed through Pieton he suddenly lost his hold and the wind blew him from the train. He landed on his head, where most of his injuries were received. When he was found soon afterward he was in a semi-conscious condition, but was able to tell his residence. He was then taken home, from which place he was taken to the hospital. This course was deemed best for the injuries were such that proper treatment could not be given home. At the hospital an examination proved that the skull was not injured, and chances of complete recovery are almost assured. Yesterday he was doing well and when his folks called to see him he was able to converse a little.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mrs Dow, of Elizabeth, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Amos Gray, of Elmwood place.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Miss Nellie Love, of Brooklyn, is visiting Miss May E. Howlett, of Elmwood place.

Herbert Woodland, of Lambertville, spent Christmas with his parents in the borough.

Guernsey V. Nevius, of Chicago, is spending the holiday week at his home on East Fifth street.

Miss Stella Fulton, of the West End, is taking a commercial course at the Miller College, New York.

Miss Adelaide Ball, of Myrtle avenue, is home from Wellesley College for the Christmas vacation.

Peter B. Hodge and family, of Plainfield avenue, spent yesterday with relatives at Somerville.

Wm. M. McCutchen, of Rockview Terrace, is home from Yale University for the Christmas holidays.

Charles, Fred and Louis Squires, of Williams College, are spending the holidays at their home in this city.

Miss Ella Conover, of the Sloane Maternity Hospital, New York, spent yesterday with Plainfield relatives.

Miss Florence Duck, of the State Normal School is spending the holiday season at her home in the borough.

Miss Phebe Watson, of Warrensburg N. J., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank L. Cobb, of Somerset street.

The Misses Merrill, Quackenbush and Western, of New York, are guests of Miss Strong, of 1020 Central avenue.

Miss May Conroy, of Linden avenue, a student at the State Normal School, is spending the holidays at her home.

Miss Tillie Schenck, of Elmwood place, has been enjoying a visit from her mother and brother from Metuchen.

Miss Amy G. Burt, of West Seventh street, is home from the Centinary Collegiate Institute at Hackettstown for the holidays.

Miss Mabelle Phillips, of Madison avenue, is entertaining her college friend, Miss Hulda Meizenback, of Wellesley College.

George A. Horne, of Willow avenue, returned this morning to his business duties at Orange, after spending Christmas at home.

Walter Gibson and bride, of Passaic, spent the Christmas season with Mr. Gibson's mother, Mrs. J. S. King, of West Second street.

Miss Lillian Newman, of the State Normal School, is spending the holiday season at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Newman, West Fifth street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Elston Woodland, of the borough, will leave next week for Trenton, where Mr. Woodland takes charge of the Prudential Insurance Company's office.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders

—The Children's Home Christmas tree will be lighted at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon.

—Next Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock the Christmas tree will be lighted at the Children's Home.

—Friday evening, January 6th, the Borough Council will hold its first meeting for the new year.

—Next Thursday evening the Christmas entertainment will be held at the East Third Street Mission.

—Tomorrow evening the annual Christmas entertainment will be held at the Friends' meeting house.

—Next Thursday evening the Common Council will hold an adjourned session, probably the last for the year.

—The decorations at the "coming out" party given to Miss Strong, of Central avenue, were by Mrs. L J. Denton, of West Front street.

—The Christmas entertainment will be held at the Mt. Olive Baptist church tomorrow evening under the auspices of the Sunday school.

—The Sunday-school entertainment of the Filmore Avenue church will take place Friday evening, at which time there will be a Christmas tree.

—Next Friday night at the meeting of Court Plainfield, I. O. F., eighteen candidates will be initiated and a good time will be given afterward.

—The Peters Cartridge Company, represented here by Clarence Teel, has issued one of the finest calendars for 1900 yet seen. It is a work of art.

—Yesterday was a big day at the Hotel Kensington. Proprietor Staats remembered his friends and he was generous in giving Christmas to them.

—William Cayton, who is employed at the Pond Tool Works and who was burned quite severely sometime ago, has been discharged from the hospital, cured.

—At a business meeting of the German Reformed church last week Augustus Wolf was elected an elder, and John Schord and Lawrence Fahn were chosen deacons.

—The Calvary Baptist church has just received a gift of one hundred hymn books from the Park Avenue Baptist church, and another gift of fifty Bibles from some of their white friends.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Press want ads pay

—Tomorrow evening at Grace M. E church the annual Christmas entertainment will be held, and the usual presentation of gifts to the scholars and teachers.

—Thursday afternoon the primary department of the First Baptist church Sunday-school will hold their entertainment, and in the evening the entertainment for the older scholars will come off.

—Doane & Elsall say that although they have had a large Christmas trade, yet they have a good supply of slippers, rubber boots, dress suit cases, traveling bags and everything in their line, all of which are useful and appropriate for New Year's presents.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Charles Davis, of the University of Pennsylvania, is spending the holiday season with his parents on Park avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reever, Mr. and Mrs. William White, of Newark; Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Y Hull, of New York; John Sharp and son, of Port Richmond, S. I., spent Christmas with Mrs. Sharp, of 442 West Sixth street.

THE COURTS

JUSTICE MOSHER.

Summons—Thompson against Marley, landlord and tenant, returnable December 27th.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E W. Grove's signature is on each box 25c.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.
Capital, $150,000.
Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.

CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

DIRECTORS.

Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard Jas. T. Cloosen. H. G Runkle. Walter Scott W. F. Arnold. J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J B. Coward.

General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

"PAY CASH AND SAVE MONEY" AT

V. L. FRAZEE'S,
THE PEOPLE'S CASH GROCER
151 West Front Street.

SPECIAL HOLIDAY SALE,

Commencing Friday, December 15, 1899, to January 1, 1900,

Best Elgin Creamery Butter	27c lb
Good Creamery Butter	23c lb
Best Full Cream Cheese	14c lb
Best Lard	6c lb
Fresh Jersey Eggs, guaranteed	22c doz
Best Fine Granulated Sugar	5c lb
Best Early Rose Potatoes	35c basket
Best New Citron	12c lb
Best Lemon and Orange Peel	12c lb
Best Extra Fancy Seeded Raisins,	10c pkge
Best New Cleaned Currants, 1 lb package	8c
Best New Dates	7c lb, 4 lbs for 25c
Best New Figs	12c lb
Extra Fancy Layer Raisins, for table	15c lb
Best New Brazil Nuts	8c lb
Best New Pecan Nuts	12c lb
Best New Paper Shell Almonds	22c lb
Best New Mixed Nuts	12c lb
Best New English Walnuts	15c lb
None Such Mince Meat	9c package
5 lb pail Assorted Jelly	15c pail
Best Vermont Maple Syrup	2 qt bottle 25c
Best Sugar Cured California Hams	7½c lb
Best Home-made Mince Meat,	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Best Mixed Candy,	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Loose Muscatel Raisins	8c lb
Best New Evaporated Cal. Peaches	10c lb
Fine California Prunes	5c lb
Fine Large California Prunes	7c lb, 4 lbs for 25c
Best Extra Fancy California Prunes	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Best Cape Cod Cranberries	7c quart
Paris Sugar Corn	9c can, 3 cans for 25c
Best New York State Sugar Corn	7c can
Early June Peas, Rose Bud brand,	7c can, 4 cans for 25c
Fine Small Early June Peas	10c can
3 lb Package Prepared Buckwheat	10c
Best Tomatoes, Solid Packed	7c can
Fresh Roasted Coffee, bean or ground	12c lb
Best Mocha and Java Coffee	25c lb
3 lb can Best Bartlett Pears	10c
Best Vanilla and Lemon Extract	10c bottles for 7c
Best New Orleans Molasses	30c gallon
Best Vanilla Drip Sugar Syrup	30c gallon
Best XXXX Minnesota Patent Flour	55c bag
Best Lemon Cakes and Ginger Snaps	4c lb
Uneeda Biscuit	4c package
Best Old Vinegar	10c gallon
Hunterdon County Sweet Cider, best,	15c gal

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.

Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J.
Perth Amboy, N. J.

UNDERWEAR
At Mill Prices : : :

If you could deal direct with the maker he would not be able in most cases to quote you better prices than we will tomorrow.

50c Men's heavy, thick wool, fleeced underwear in natural gray shades, worth 75c.

75c Men's fine natural wool underwear, very soft and heavy, a regular 1.00 quality.

1.00 Men's natural grey underwear, well made and handsomely trimmed, very fine heavy quality, finely knitted and very soft, well worth 1.25.

1.50 Men's extra heavy camels hair underwear, double breasted and well made, remarkable value.

25c Women's ribbed underwear, made of fine Egyptian cotton, good weight and very heavily fleeced, worth 39c

39c A little lot of women's ribbed vests (no drawers to match) in a good shade of blue grey, about half wool and heavily fleeced, worth 69c.

50c Women's fine ribbed combination suits, half wool and heavy fleece lined, reduced from 1.00.

Blankets and Comfortables.

We offer astonishing values in blankets and comfortables.

2.98 Blankets 81 x 90 inches, weight 5 pounds, nearly all wool, that are worth 4.00.

3.98 Blankets extra large and heavy, made of California wool, very soft and downy, that are worth 5.00.

1.25 Extra large size comfortables filled with fine white cotton and covered with fine silkaline nicely tufted, the actual value is 1.75.

3.48 Fine eiderdown filled comfortables covered with a splendid quality of French satin and worth 4.50.

. . . OIL HEATERS . . .

We sell "Brightest and Best," a very superior make of oil heating stoves, 10 inch double circular wick, centre draft, solid brass oil founts with all the modern improvements for safety and economy in the use of fuel. Every stove fully guaranteed to be odorless and give entire satisfaction. The price is 3.50. With bale handles 3.75.

After Christmas.

We're getting ready to inventory. This the season for Broken Lots and probably Broken Prices. We have found one lot already that has got to go. We sold it for $10.00. You can buy it now for $8.50.

OVERCOATS . . .

are now in order, $5.00, $7.50, $10, $12, $13.50.

ULSTERS - - $4.50, 5.50.

Schepflin & Schultz, CLOTHIERS.

M. J. Cashin, Manager.
322 West Front St.

98c CAMERA and One Double Plate Holder as shown in our window, for only 98c . . . .

During the rest of this week we will offer CAMERAS and SUPPLIES AT COST.

. . . . COLUMBIA RECORDS . . . .

-:- 30c EACH -:-

All Goods will be sold AT COST. Remember This Week Only.

GEO. W. WRENNICK,

133 NORTH AVE.

STORE CLOSES AT 6 O'CLOCK

Bonn's
140 WEST FRONT ST

STORE CLOSES AT 6 O'CLOCK

SHIRT WAISTS,

the proper styles, of good materials, moderately priced, French Flannel Waists in all wanted colors, especially the new grey, so hard to find, made with French back, detachable stock collar, flare cuffs and brass buttons. Here at $2.98.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Provinz Schleswig-Holstein.

Kiel. Der langjährige Führer der schleswig-holsteinischen Sozialdemokratie, Stephan Heinzel, wurde zur letzten Ruhe bestattet. Heinzel war auch bei den Gegnern geschätzt wegen der Sachlichkeit und Besonnenheit, mit der er beispielsweise als Stadtverordneter für das Wohl der arbeitenden Klassen eintrat.

Elmshorn. Der Kaiser hat bei dem zehnten Sohn des Arbeiters Schinlei Pathenstelle angenommen.

Nordstrand. In der Strander Bucht wurde die Elmshorner Tjalk „Katharina," bei Laboe die Bremer Galeasse „Elisabeth" auf den Strand geworfen. Beide Segler mußten einen Theil ihrer Ladung löschen, worauf es dem Dampfer „Hollmann" gelang, die Fahrzeuge wieder flott zu machen.

Provinz Westfalen.

Münster. In Osterfeld ist die erste städtische reine Wassergasanlage nach dem System Dellwid-Fleischer eröffnet worden. Die Beleuchtung ist eine brillante.

Bad Oeynhausen. Zum Bürgermeister ist einstimmig Dr. jur. Zimmer-Wallis, bislang Bürgermeister in Roßlau, gewählt worden.

Ibbenbüren. Das seit Oktober 1898 neu in Betrieb gesetzte fiskalische Bergwerk erfreut sich zur Zeit eines außerordentlich starken Betriebes. Gegenwärtig arbeiten daselbst 700 Mann, die Belegschaft muß aber noch fortwährend verstärkt werden, da die Produktion der Nachfrage nicht genügt.

Sachsen.

Dresden. Dieser Tage wurde hier die unter dem Protektorate der Königin stehende volksthümliche Ausstellung für Haus und Herd in dem städtischen Ausstellungspalaste feierlich eröffnet.—Der Schriftsteller Hauptmann a. D. Karl Edler von der Planitz hat in einem Anfalle von Schwermuth durch einen Sturz aus einem Fenster Selbstmord begangen.—Hier wurde ein gewerbsmäßiger Paletotmarder, der Kaufmann F. W. v. Massow aus Jungbunzlau, Sohn eines österreichischen Offiziers, zu einem Jahr Gefängniß verurtheilt.

Annaberg. Im Jahre 1812 gründete Evan Evans in Tannenberg die erste Baumwollspinnerei in Sachsen, eine der ersten in Deutschland überhaupt. In pietätvoller Erinnerung an Evans, der diesen Fabrikationszweig aus England übertrug, läßt jetzt die Vereinigung sächsischer Spinnereibesitzer mit Zuwendung von Staatsmitteln auf seinem Grabe in Geyer ein Denkmal erstellen.

Leipzig. Die Entwickelung unserer Handelshochschule ist auch in dem begonnenen vierten Semester eine sehr erfreuliche. Neu immatrikulirt wurden 76 Studirende, darunter 46 Inländer und 30 Ausländer. Im Ganzen sind bis jetzt 320 Studirende an der Handelshochschule immatrikulirt und 72 exmatrikulirt worden, so daß der augenblickliche Bestand 248 Studirende (außer den Hörern) beträgt. Das für die Studirenden des vierten Semesters neu eingerichtete Musterkontor, das sich so viel wie möglich an die kaufmännische Praxis anpaßt, ist voll besetzt. Die ersten Prüfungen an der Handelshochschule (Diplomprüfung für Kaufleute und Lehrerprüfung für Handelslehrer) werden Ostern 1900 stattfinden.

Löbau. Die in guten Verhältnissen lebende Johanna Liebscher geborene Büttner war mit Laubrechen im Garten beschäftigt und dabei an die darin befindliche, mit Wasser gefüllte Cisterne gerathen und hineingefallen. Ohne daß Hilferufe gehört worden, ist die 45 Jahre alte Frau darin ertrunken. Die Bedauernswerthe war schon seit Jahren mit epileptischen Krämpfen behaftet.

Thüringische Staaten.

Eisenach. Der Gemeinderath hat endlich, nach jahrelanger Weigerung, bedingungslos 50,000 Mark für das von der preußischen Regierung in Aussicht genommene Eisenbahnprojekt Eschwege-Hörschel-Eisenach bewilligt und damit eine Angelegenheit beendigt, die zwischen der Stadt Eisenach und den Regierungen Weimars und Preußens viel Verstimmung erzeugt hatte.

Mehlis. Der hiesige Spediteur König schickte kürzlich seinen 19jährigen Kutscher mit zwei schönen jungen Pferden nach Arnstadt, um eine reparirte Kutsche abzuholen. Auf dem Rückwege bog der junge Mann, wie die Spuren zeigen, im wilden Gera-Thal zu frühzeitig vom Weg ab, kam in das wildromantische Sieglitzthal und fuhr schließlich, da es inzwischen stockfinstere Nacht geworden war, mit dem Geschirr in den fünf bis sieben Meter tiefen Sieglitzteich. Kutscher und Pferde ertranken.

Weimar. Hier starb im Alter von 78 Jahren der berühmte Baritonist und Kammersänger Hans Feodor v. Milde.

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE.
and FOURTH ST.
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill.
Turning and Scroll Sawing.

HIS PREFERENCE.

He Had Rather Give His Washing Out.

Miss Mary Simpkins is what an unfeeling world calls "an old maid." Nevertheless, nature has implanted indelibly in her heart tender sentiments and a desire to benefit the race, both of which ideas she puts into practice on philanthropic lines peculiarly her own, says Harper's Bazaar. Though of ripe years and not without that knowledge born of observation of this sinful world, and despite the fact that she herself has missed the feminine "prize of high calling," Miss Mary cherishes a belief that matrimony is a sort of ultimate and universal panacea, and is much given to advocating the wedded estate to her clientele of humble degree. A few days ago the good lady undertook to guide the steps of a certain colored youth in whom she is interested, and depicted to him in glowing terms the charms of a little home and a loving, attentive wife. Pete listened respectfully, then, scratching his woolly head and shifting from one foot to the other ,replied: "I t'anks yer ve'y much, Mis' Ma'y, an' I'd likes mighty well ter 'blige yer, but, if yer ain't got no objections, I'd ruther jes' give ma washin' out."

Not War, But Peace.

Professor—But, my dear sir, these are bruises; are you—ahem!—a prize fighter?

Patient—No; I'm a member of a Peace Society, and we had a meeting last night.

A Good Time to Begin.

Mr. Rockingham—Now, Margaret, I want you to economize. I want you to save every penny you can.

Mrs. Rockingham—Why, Alexander, I thought you said the other day that prosperity had returned—that you was making barrels of money.

Mr. Rockingham—Yes. That's why I want you to economize. You can do it now and it won't make any difference whether you excite suspicion or not.—Chicago Times—Herald.

Had Her Doubts.

"I don't believe professors know so very much," said Mamie.

"Why! How can you talk so?" rejoined Maud.

"Well, I don't see why Mr. Fulpate should have seemed so surprised and puzzled when I asked him how to say 'rubberneck' in Greek.—Washington Star.

Felt Hurt.

"She broke her engagement with Treatem, the dentist, soon after he filed some teeth for her."

"I thought she loved him."

"So she does, but she says she cannot marry a man who has so little regard of other people's feelings."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Only One.

"Only one kiss!" he pleaded.

"Only one?" she asked coyly, and—could it be?—with a tinge of disappointment in her air.

"Only one!" he said again, beseechingly, and the maiden yielded. But it lasted from 8:15 to 11:45 p. m.—Somerville Journal.

The Retort Courteous.

The Automobile—Get out of the way there, you old stiff! You're a has-been.

The Horse—Perhaps. But will you please tell me from what part of your anatomy they cut the porterhouse steaks.—Omaha World-Herald.

A Gentle Hint.

"Dreaming of the future?" he asked, as the conversation lapsed for the fifth time.

"Yes," she replied, "I find it so much pleasanter than living in the present."—Philadelphia North American.

In Fiji Society.

First Fiji Belle—Do you think she has the face to be married with the two-ringed ceremony?

Second Fiji Belle—Oh, yes, her face is certainly ample for two rings.—Detroit Journel.

Tough Enough.

"Oh, Henry, don't cut your pie with a knife."

"Well, Eliza, you ought to be thankful I don't call for a can opener."—Chicago Record.

Of the Canvasback Variety.

Nell (at the football game)—Chollie Dropkick is a perfect duck.

Belle—Yes; a sort of canvasback on the gridiron.—Philadelphia Record.

Not Particular.

"She does all her own cooking, but she says her husband has the appetite of a bird."

"Goodness she must mean an ostrich."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

A Fraction.

"What is a fraction?"

"A part of anything, sor."

"Give me an example."

The sivinth of June."—Melbourne Times.

As to Hair and Whiskers.

Why does a man's hair fall out before his whiskers?

Because it is at least twenty years older.—New York Press.

A AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

The Genuine Portland Range has "Portland" on oven door plate, and "A. H. Van Horn, 73 Market St., Newark, N. J." on plate below oven door—sold here only.

Presents That Last!

—Imagine, if you can, more than four acres devoted—every inch of it—to presents for all parts of the home, for old, for young! 'Tis the largest store in line in all this State—pay cash or credit—prices always BELOW any other's prices. Goods selected now, reserved 'til later—free deliveries.

How would a Rug do? or an Easel, a Music Cabinet or a Library, or a Parlor Table, a Couch, a Lamp, some Pictures, Lace Curtains or Portieres. These and MORE such things are all here—for CASH OR ON CREDIT! These goods below are chosen from different lines and specially priced:

$3.49
Value $4.50
A lot of Cherry Rockers—highly polished—high arms, saddle seat.

$5.49
Worth $8.00
Cute Cornered Chairs—in cherry—silk damask covered—very new.

$5.75
Was $8.50
A swell front, golden oak Desk—French legs—one drawer.

Now $12.98
Value $16.
A mahogany finish, Combination Desk, bevel plate mirror, spacious and new style. 50 other kinds.

$10.75
A White Enamel Dresser, plate mirror, beveled edge, $15 usually.

GET A "Domestic" Sewing Machine for a lasting gift, needn't pay cash if you want. Old machines allowed for.

Music Cabinets—all the way from $4.35 up—as goodly a line as you'll want.

STORE OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL CHRISTMAS

A Pretty Picture Book for Children to all Callers.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,
Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

A business man of Toledo, O., asserts that in his case dyspepsia was an inheritance. He obtained his first supply of from Chicago because he could not then find them in Toledo. Now the druggists there all have them. He carries one of the little packages with him all the time, and if he has that distressed feeling after a hearty meal, or a headache, he takes a Tabule. "My wife also uses them," he writes, "and if my boy feels sick he asks for one."

Ripans Tabules

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phœnix of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

H. Eggerding,
121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars.

L. A. HUMMER,
VARIETY MARKET.
Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.
163 SOMERSET ST.
Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 25A.

SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue.
BUTCHERS.
Everything usually found in a first-class market.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 83 A.

Corporation Notice.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Common Council of the City of Plainfield, New Jersey, at a meeting thereof held December 18, 1899, notice is hereby given that the Common Council will meet on the twenty-eighth day of December, 1899, at 8 o'clock, p. m., at the Council Chamber, No. 109 Park Avenue, in the City of Plainfield, at which time and place, said Common Council will receive and open sealed proposals for the purchase of Street Improvement Bonds, to an amount not exceeding twelve thousand dollars, which bonds shall bear interest at the rate of five per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, said bonds to be payable three years from said date of issue, with the option of the City to pay off said bonds, or any one or more of them, at any time after one year from date of issue, and to be issued by the City of Plainfield under the ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to Provide Funds for Permanent Improvement of Streets in Advance of the Collection of Assessments for Benefits," approved December 4, 1899. The bids should be for one or more of said bonds, at the option of the City.

Upon receipt of the bids or proposals, the Council will immediately proceed to unseal the same, and publicly announce the contents in the presence of the parties bidding, or their agents, provided said parties or agents choose to be then and there present, and also to make proper record of the prices and terms upon the minutes of the Council.

The right to reject any or all bids is expressly reserved by the Common Council.

All proposals must be endorsed "Proposals for purchase of Street Improvement Bonds."

By order of the Common Council of the City of Plainfield.

J. T. MacMURRAY,
Dated December 18, 1899. City Clerk.

Irving Savings Institution.
115 CHAMBERS ST., NEW YORK CITY

The Trustees of this institution have declared interest on all sums remaining on deposit during the three and six months ending December 31, 1899, at the rate of FOUR PER CENT. per annum on amounts from $1 to $3,000, payable on and after Monday, January 22, 1900. Deposits made on or before January 10th will draw interest from January 1st.

W. H. B. TOTTEN, President.
G. BYRON LATIMER, Secretary 12 26 10

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS,
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.
A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

ESTATE of Carl Wilhelm Georg Eduard Schipper, generally known as Charles Schipper, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the county of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, executors of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the eleventh day of October, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscribers.

CHARLES T. BINGHAM,
GUSTAV SCHIPPER,
10 17 9 oaw tu Executors.

ESTATE of William H. Brower, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, executors of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the fourteenth day of November, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscribers.

SARAH J. BROWER,
JOHN L. BROWER,
11 21 9 oaw tu Executors.

We are NOW receiving orders for
HUYLER'S
XMAS CANDY,
—to be delivered at—
CHRISTMAS TIME.
Remember the
Only Agency
—IS—
Leggett's Pharmacy,
Y. M. C. A. Building.
Tel. 705.

POWERS' PHARMACY . Somerset St. Craig Place.
Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .
Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot and Tar is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

Toys, Toys, Toys
for the
HOLIDAYS
—AT—
HARPER'S,
411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

: : Pride's Tonsorial Parlor : :
94 SOMERSET STREET,
opposite Somerset Hotel.
Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty . . . . . .
CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.
-:- WILLIAM J. PRIDE, -:-
formerly with E. B. Maynard.

FASHION HINTS.

Items Concerning the Predominant Styles.

The blouses now worn are much modified. They are far closer in fit, and the blouse form is but lightly suggested. Yokes of all varieties are the principal feature—round, square, pointed, cut in all sorts of odd shapes, plain, plaited, puffed and embroidered.

Many gowns are made in two tones, the tunic being lighter or darker than the skirt.

Stitching is seen everywhere upon hats, wraps and gowns. Some tailor made costumes are almost entirely covered with lines of stitching which design all sorts of motifs and continuous patterns. There are waved bands, arabesques, Greek patterns, scallops, points and circles thus defined. Stitched velvet is the newest finish for coat revers and collars and is also used to cover hats and drape toques.

CLOTH COSTUME.

The picture shows a gown of lizard gray cloth. The redingote skirt has round corners and is finished with lines of stitching and opens over a tablier of the same material. The bodice, fitted at the back, is stretched in front and has a plastron plaited at the sides and crossed in the middle by little red velvet straps held by crystal buttons. The revers of white satin form a bertha across the back and are covered with applications of guipure. They are cut in square tabs and edged with a narrow band of sable. The close sleeves are plaited at the top. The belt is of red velvet, as is also the accompanying hat, which is trimmed with black ostrich plumes and a jeweled buckle.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

FASHION NOTES.

A Becoming Variety of Style In Skirts.

Although the general style of skirts is clinging, there is nevertheless a certain latitude allowed, for, while the utterly plain kind, without the least plait or fullness at the waist, is becoming to some figures, to others it is most unfavorable. So there are not only plaitless skirts, but plaited ones, two or more folds being placed at the immediate back. The same may be said of tunics. Some are entirely plain, others draped and plaited.

Circular ruffles continue to be worn, but their novelty vanished long ago.

YOUNG GIRL'S GOWN.

Double skirts, the lower very flaring, the upper scant, are well represented. The perfectly plain skirt is, however, by no means in disgrace, and its lining is usually fastened securely to the outside material instead of being attached only at the belt. Occasionally, however, the two are separate, and in that case they are cut in exactly the same form.

The young girl's gown depicted is of parma silk. The skirt, which is embroidered in a narrow design, opens over a side panel of royal blue velvet, being held across it by a parma bow. The parma silk blouse, embroidered to match, has a yoke of blue velvet, with a capuchon bertha of embroidered silk tied in front. The belt is of blue velvet, with an ornamental buckle and a parma bow in front. The cuffs of the tight sleeves are embroidered.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

DOMESTIC ECONOMY

CLEANING THE HOUSE AND KEEPING IT CLEAN.

How to Get Rid of the Pestiferous Germs that Breed Disease—Why Women Wear Out So Fast—Ill Health and Ill Temper.

We don't clean house now because we are "finicky," but because we want to be rid or deadly bacteria, says a writer in the Ohio Farmer. Even the old time annual house cleaning is not sufficient nowadays, for as a sanitary measure we must chase pestiferous germs in the autumn as well as in the spring. The soil that proves most congenial for their culture is being manufactured day and night, and is made up of the fluff that constantly accumulates in cracks and out of the way corners from clothing, carpets, bedding, the minute scales of epidemics constantly thrown off by the skin, as well as from soot and ashes and the impalpable dust sifting in from doors and windows. The invisible cloud envelops us constantly, irritating throat and lungs, but becomes dangerous only when left undisturbed to foster by moisture its broods of disease.

The modern housekeeper goes about the task quietly and methodically, choosing a convenient day when nobody will be greatly disturbed and cleans and settles one room before attacking another. I do not think it is important just what plan is carried out providing the rooms are made scientifically clean. Given general principles, each housekeeper must adapt them to her particular needs and environment. Personally, I like to attack the attic first, because it is ready to store any articles not needed for the season, as fast as one comes to them in other parts of the house. That done, I go through the house taking down draperies, etc., that must go through the laundry, and have them all washed together and put away to wait their turn to be hung after the rooms are ready for them.

Choosing a bright day, when the heavy work of the week is over, I determine upon the room to be cleaned, and begin operations early in the morning. If it be a bedroom, remove the bedding out of doors, shaking and beating out the dust thoroughly, then leave it where wind and sun and air will have full sway for hours. Next clear out closets and drawers, shaking and dusting clothing and hanging it also out of doors, looking carefully for traces of moths and taking note of garments whether they are to be discarded, laid away, mended, or made over. Next take down the pictures, dust and clean thoroughly, and put aside in another room, and also one by one each article of furniture. Have the carpet removed and hung on a line in the yard, if possible in a good current of air, and beaten and brushed thoroughly at intervals of an hour or so till all dust possible is removed, then leave it to sun and air till nightfall. The room being empty, sweep down cobwebs from ceiling and walls, and with a clean whisk broom and dustpan go over all the door and window casings, mouldings, and base boards, carefully cleaning out every crevice then with long, light strokes, sweep the floor. Burn every bit of dust and dirt immediately. When the dust has settled, cover your broom with canton flannel or flannelette and carefully wipe ceiling and walls.

Add a tablespoonful of ammonia to half a gallon of hot water and wash windows and wood work without soap. If you see traces of wood lice or other vermin, give them a dose of strong hot lye applied with small brush or swab to the crevice so as not to injure paint or paper. With a wooden skewer or the dull point of a wire nail clear out the tiny, black pyramids in the corners of window sashes, etc. Lastly scald and wipe the floor, and with windows wide open leave it for an hour or two to dry.

Now, if you are wise, while the floor is drying, you will lie down and rest. Relax your mind as well as your body—think of something pleasant. Take note of your body, and if you find any part of it tense, holding on—let go. The reason women wear out so fast is because they drive themselves beyond the limit, and instead of resting a few minutes as soon as they perceive symptoms of fatigue, they drive themselves to finish the job before they quit, with the result, in time, of ill health and ill temper.

When the floor is dry, lay the carpet and put the furniture and pictures in place; then after tightly closing doors and windows, ignite a pound of sulphur and leave it to burn for a half hour or so, being careful to tightly cork the cracks around the door to prevent the escape of the fumes into other parts of the house. The neatest thing for the purpose is a sulphur candle, (costs 10 or 15 cents), but if you cannot get one, burn sulphur in an old basin placed in a larger one half filled with water. Afterwards air the room ten or twelve hours before it is occupied. Add to a pint of sweet oil, one-third pint of household ammonia shake well together till the mixture looks like cream. Wet a piece of soft, old flannel in a portion of it, and rub the polished surfaces of the furniture. This will remove every stain and streak of dirt and leave the furniture looking like new. It is especially nice for oak furniture, and may be kept for months in a well corked bottle.

In this way, without hurry, without worry, clean each room successively. If you are unfortunate enough to have a large house, plan to take up part of your carpets in the fall, and the rest in the spring. Autumn is the best season for painting and papering, as there are no little flies to annoy, and the paint will look fresh longer and wear better if put on in cool weather.

The cellar needs most careful attention of all, because it is so easy to overlook dirt in its dim light. Allow no refuse to accumulate there; be especially careful to promptly remove decaying vegetables. Sweep, dust, and clean carefully, and after the sulphur bath give the walls a good coat of whitewash. You will be well repaid for all the trouble by the sweet wholesomeness of the place and the superior way in which fruits and vegetables keep their perfection in it.

Woman has a tear for every human sorrow and bushels of them for her own.

A VAST ARMY.

Men Employed in the Minnesota Pineries This Winter.

Contracts for the delivery of about 600,000,000 feet of pine logs to mills in this section by railroad have recently been closed. This is in addition to the enormous quantity that will be handled on logging railroads owned by the companies that also do the logging. Of these contracts the Wisconsin divisions of the Northern Pacific Road has closed a total of about 250,000,000 feet, part of which will be delivered at this city and part at Ashland. The Duluth & Iron Range Road will haul 150,000,000 feet to this city, and the other iron range roads about 100,000,000 feet. These contracts are for deliveries during the coming winter, and are an indication of the activity in the pine lumbering section at he head of the lakes. As much more will be handled in the northeastern part of Minnesota and the Ashland, Wis., districts this winter on roads owned by distinctively logging corporations.

In Northern Minnesota alone an army of 15,000 men will attack the standing pine, assisted by thousands of horses and oxen. These men will receive an aggregate monthly wage of about $400,000, and they will be employed till the spring breakup. Lumbermen look for a continuation of the present era of activity and high prices for a long time, indeed they expect never to see the low prices for pine of the past few years. The supply is becoming more and more limited year by year, as the forests are entered by such an army of choppers, and the standing pine yet remaining uncut is rapidly becoming the property of manufacturing corporations large enough to hold till they are ready to cut, while the demand is increasing at a rate faster than the capacity of mills. A very large share of lumber cut in this region, especially in lower grades, goes into boxes and packing cases, and that the price of these grades should have advanced 80 per cent in the past nine months is an indication of how tremendous the demand for boxes has become.

Lumbermen of this district have never before made sales for the succeeding year before late in the winter, or until sawing began in the spring. But last week sales were made here of 30,000,000 feet of the lowest grades of the cut to be made after next April at top prices. Several mills sold their entire season's cut of these grades, receiving $10.50 for what was worth $6.50 last February, $13 for what then brought $8.50, and $6.50 for a grade that in past years has been considered worth almost nothing and that has been figured as about paying the saw bill. Every lumberman who will dispose of his product in advance is being importuned to do so, and 400,000,000 feet of Duluth lumber could be sold in a week to buyers from New York, New England, Eastern Michigan and Chicago. This would be practically all next year's cut for the mills on deep water in this harbor.

Shipments by water to these Eastern points out of Lake Superior will exceed 1,000,000,000 feet, and a single months' forwardings are more than was sent in a whole summer so lately as 1887. More than 125 ships have been engaged exclusively in the carrying of lumber from this lake to the East this year, and at prices that have paid profits that would buy the ships at last spring's values. Many a ship contracted last spring for the season with an agreement that the lessee might buy later in the year at a then agreed figure, has already been bought under the option out of its own net profits for the summer. Rates have been more than double the year before, and for most of the season there have been half a dozen cargoes for every available vessel.

For the first time railroads have invaded the cargo market and have carried scores of millions of feet of timber from here to points as far East as Pittsburg and Central Pennsylvania, making rates satisfactory to themselves under those the ship interests would accept.

Timber lands have doubled and trebled in price the past season, and are still advancing, with sales amounting to millions of dollars monthly.—Minneapolis Times.

A Horseless Farmer.

For 30 years William Johnson, a farmer near Kokomo, Ind., has run a farm of six acres and never had a horse on the place. He is known throughout the section as "the horseless farmer." He raises corn, potatoes, cabbage, celery, melons and all kinds of vegetables, all the land being under cultivation. Johnson does all the work himself by hand planters and hand harvesters. Even the marketing is all done by hand. He trundles his crops to town in a wheelbarrow, making an average of three trips a day the year round. In the 30 years Johnson and his wheelbarrow have travelled 168,000 miles—nearly seven times around the world. When a boy he was kicked by a horse, and since then he has had nothing to do with horses.—N. Y. Tribune.

Killarney Lakes Bring $225,000.

The large hall of the Ancient concert rooms was crowded at the auction sale of the Muckross estate, which includes the Lakes of Killarney. The bidding started at £35,000, but the price soon jumped to £45,000. Then the bidding slackened, but crawled up slowly, by £500 at a time, till it reached £50,000. The vender then bid £51,000, and the sale was adjourned. Three Dublin solicitors were practically the only bidders. It is announced that private tenders for the estate will now be considered.—Dublin Cor. Chicago Inter

Policeman's Unique Excuse.

Officer Charles Kemble, of Long Island City, N. Y., was charged with being absent from duty for one hour. He excused himself on the ground that he overslept while in a Turkish bath.

"It is a fact," said Police Commissioner Abell, "that Turkish baths are very seductive. The next time you go into one insist upon the attendants' rousing you in time, though he perish in the attempt."

The Commissioner, after administering a gentle reprimand to the officer, dismissed the case.

It has been asserted that a captive balloon at Estcourt should easily be able to make signals to the balloon at Ladysmith, heliographing by day and flashing signals at night.

Defective Eyes.

Overstrained and Defective Eyes are the cause of many a

HEADACHE.

Correctly-fitted Glasses will remedy the trouble. A Scientific Examination Free and Glasses Guaranteed.

STILES & CO.,
107 E. Front St.
EVERY THURSDAY.
Hours: 10:30 to 5:00.

M. Molnar,
432 Watchung Ave.,
Ladies' and Gents'
FINE TAILORING
Graduate of
New York Cutting School.
Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with old clothes and I will take chances of being entrusted with new work.

Notice of Order to Limit Creditors.

SOMERSET COUNTY SURROGATE'S OFFICE.

Estate of Mary A. Cooper, deceased. Notice is hereby given that on the eighth day of December, A. D., 1899, on the application of the undersigned, as Administrators of Mary Ann Cooper, deceased; an order was made by H. N. Spencer, Surrogate, requiring the creditors of Mary Ann Cooper, deceased, to bring in their debts, demands and claims against the said decedent, under oath or affirmation, and present the same to the subscriber within nine months from the date of said order; and in default thereof any such creditor should be forever barred of his or her action thereof against the subscribers

THOMAS NEWMAN,
EDWARD A. COOPER,
ANNIE PRATT,
Administrators.

12 11 9-oaw

McCullough's STEAM MILL
at Steiner place, North Plainfie
R. H. McCullough, Prop'r
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning &c. Estimates cheerfully given. Shop

RUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Street
Interior decorating a specialty
Some-first-class work. Estimates sheerf
Orders promptly attended to

M. POWERS,
DEALER IN
LEHIGH COAL
FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A
Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

John G. Bantle,
First-class
Ladies' and Gent's TAILOR.
428 Watchung Avenue
Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

E. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.
Paris for 1900.
Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.
Circulars at
181 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

OUR OYSTERS ARE THE ---FINEST---
ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Garle.)
Carpenter and Builder
15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 29, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 46, 9 16, 9 44, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 5., 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 06, 7 39, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12.00 m, 12 58 1 45, 2 40, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 9 34, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m; 1 01, 2 08, 2 20, 3 32, 4 35, 5 03, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sundays 5 43, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc

1 01 p. m —Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamauqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m., 1 17 night Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked *) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLDHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 19, 1899.
LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.

Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12.51 p. m.

Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.

Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.

Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:56 p. m.

Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local train see pocket timetables. Telephone No. 112-2.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.
FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent,
218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

L. Manning & Son
STEAM
GRANITE WORKS,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low

XXXX QUALITY
FINEST
LOFOTEN COD LIVER OIL,
Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.
Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at
39c per Pint.
For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at
50c per Bottle,
or the Tasteless at
75c per Bottle.
THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,
Hepburn & Co.,
Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,
213 WEST FRONT ST.
Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS
Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.
at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize all odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use
REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT,
Made only by
T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,
At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

Sterling Silver Novelties.

In addition to our extensive showing of sterling silverware we have added a new assortment of silver sets complete, enclosed in leather cases. These are very beautiful goods, of the best quality and are priced very moderately—Sterling Novelties as low as 25c, 39c, 49c 59c, 75c, 98c

HANDKERCHIEFS—New lines have been added to our splendid showing of handkerchiefs, making a truly bewildering assortment Some decidedly good values are offered at 10c, 12½c and 15c —One lot of pure linen embroidered handkerchiefs at 25c each is worthy of attention

WOMEN'S KID GLOVES—69c, 79c; warranted gloves, 1 00, 1.25, 1.50.

UMBRELLAS—75c to 3.50.

MACKINTOSHES FOR WOMEN—3.50, 4 50—MISSES' SIZES—2.48, 3 75.

EIDERDOWN SACQUES—1.00, 1.39, 1.75, 2.25.

I. LEDERER.

FALL OPENING.
WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.
OUR STOCK COMPLETE

We are now ready to fit either man or boy in Suits, or Overcoats, Hats and Gent's Furnishings.

Boys' Suits from 75c to $5 00.

Men's Suits from $2.00 to $20.00.

Have you tried a pair of our Celebrated Cassimere Pants at 98c the pair, if not do so—they are the talk of the town; sold over 1 000 pairs the past season; never rip and fit to perfection. Give us a call.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,
206 West Front Street.

OUR SPECIALTIES { Choice Teas, Fine Coffee.
All the Seasonable Goods for the Holidays. Take home one of our baskets of Fruit
C. E. GULICK & CO.,
Tel. 931. THE PARK GROCERS.

FIRE!!! When you hear the alarm at midnight, you can feel secure, at small cost, by knowing that you have an insurance policy issued by Largest agency in the city 63 North Ave., opp. Depot.
ELSTON M. FRENCH.

7000 BU. of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last Order Quick.
Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

BUY YOUR PHONOGRAPHS,
Gramophones, Records and Supplies
A GOOD MACHINE AT $5.00.
BROKAW'S . . .
The Piano Dealer, 123 East Front Street.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS
Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.
GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.
119 East Front Street.

111 Somerset Street Tel. 1113.
Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,
Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.
WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER
DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO

Our Attractive Holiday Display
awaits your inspection. We are glad to welcome visitors and pleased to show our goods.
A. L. & M. D. Gorsline, 144 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

SLAVE SYSTEM.

Rules Under Which English Chorus Girls Are Trained and Hired Out.

A suit just brought before Judge Cole in the United States Circuit Court, in Boston, and dismissed for want of jurisdiction, has all the elements for a sensational hearing if it ever comes to trial. It was in the nature of a bill in equity brought by John Tiller and George Sheldon, of London, under the firm name of Tiller & Co., praying that Sire Brothers be declared indebted to the complainants in the sum of $3,710 for the alleged breaking of an agreement relative to the employment of eight girls known as "mascots," who are appearing at the Columbia Theatre in Boston, and who are in the employ of Sire Brothers.

The Tiller Company has an establishment in London for the fitting of girls for the stage. They are taught dancing and singing, and as soon as they are considered competent to perform the duties required of them the company secures engagements for them individually, or in groups, in theatres all over the world. Hundreds of theatres are said to be thus supplied. The girls are in a state of virtual servitude, subject to the will of their masters, and compelled to go wherever they send them. When employment is obtained for them a large percentage of their salaries goes to the masters, and is paid directly to them by the person who contracts for the girl's services.

The arrangement is one sanctioned and protected by law, and care is taken to accept only such pupils as are either by themselves or their guardians competent to make contracts for the sale of their services.

L. S. Sire, of Sire Brothers, when seen at the New York Theatre, said that sometimes girls are hired from masters and brought over to this country in numbers. "In England," he said, "there are schools for chorus and ballet girls, and these girls are bound to the masters for certain periods. The masters give the girls enough to live on and get all of the money. They practically own the girls for the time. The girls get some advantage, as they are poor girls, and in this way are able to get an education. The system is common in England, and the hiring of girls from these masters for the purpose of bringing them to the United States does not conflict with any contract labor law, as it comes under the artists' law. The Boston suit was dismissed, partly because the plaintiff did not properly represent the London firm, and partly because we did not owe the latter anything."

THE PRICE OF HEMP.

Soaring Skyward as the Result of War in the Philippines.

"There is one feature of your war in the Philippines which the American Government seems to have overlooked," said Mr. Clarence Morris-Hughes, of London, at Chamberlin's, who has just returned from that country. "I refer to the closing of the Philippine ports so that neither sugar nor hemp can be shipped. As regards sugar, this is not of so much importance because these islands furnish but a small portion of the world's supply. It is different, however, with hemp, as since all Manila hemp comes from the Philippines, and does not grow elsewhere, the closing of the ports for so long has sent prices skyward, and today it is no less than 400 per cent. above the normal figures. The supply is exhausted and very little can be had at any price, the bulk of what there is having fallen into the hands of speculators.

"The American farmer is the man upon whom this rise bears hardest, for he uses great quantities of binding twine in harvesting time. An expert has estimated that the grain-producing sections of the United States consume annually 200,000,000 pounds of this twine. To be sure, not much twine is made of Manila fiber. It is usually manufactured from sisal, but because of the increased cost of Manila the demand for sisal has been enormous and the price of that product has consequently soared. This is about the time of year when the material for the production of the twine for next summer's harvest is purchased. Unless relief comes immediately the farmers of your country will pay about five cents per pound more for their twine than in the past, which will mean an aggregate extra expense to them of the enormous sum of $10,000,000.—Washington Post.

The Fickleness of Public Favor.

Ada C. Sweet, once Pension Agent in Chicago, tells this story of Grant as illustrating Dewey's state of mind.

"It was just after General Grant's return to the United States from his journey around the world. He was enjoying a visit in New York from some old friends from the West. One of these friends warmly congratulated the General upon the magnificent reception given him in this country, and upon the general enthusiasm and love shown for him by all classes of people. I can never forget General Grant's earnest, quiet, deliberate reply to these felicitations. He said:

"'I have been flattered more and praised more than any man alive, and I have been slandered and abused by the same people who did the praising and flattering. On one day I have been cheered and on another day I have been hissed, and by the same people. And all was undeserved, extravagant praise and extravagant blame. I have found out just how much reality there is in popular favor.'

"These words were said before the last agonizing experiences of defeat began—those which gave Grant his deathblow. Although he had measured the value of popular esteem, and popular disfavor, he suffered fearfully when the worst storm came, in his days of poverty and sickness. Again he was reviled and hooted at by a volatile people, and again—but upon his deathbed—he was exalted to the heights of universal love and respect, and there death found him."

Otter and Eel in Deadly Fight.

An interesting spectacle was seen the other day on the banks of the River Soar, England. A young otter and a huge eel were found in a deadly struggle. The otter had evidently caught the eel, which had retaliated by winding itself tightly around the former's neck. The fight lasted several minutes, the otter eventually freeing itself and making off with part of the eel, which it had bitten in two.

A WONDERFUL EXPLOSIVE

Its Mysteries Confided to Few Persons Only.

OWNED BY UNCLE SAM

It is Called Thorite, and by Its Use the Heaviest of High-Power Guns Can at Last Be Fired With Safety—A War Terorr.

The War Department's adoption of thorite is the military event of the year. Uncle Sam will see to it that no foreign power learns a jot as to its secret manufacture. Its mysteries have been confided to only a handful of high military officers pledged to solemn secrecy.

Thorite has solved vexed problems that have racked the brains of most skilful ordnance experts for five years or more. Uncle Sam during this time has scoured the earth for a man able to furnish him a highly explosive shell capable of accomplishing two things:

Issuing from a high power gun without danger of explosion from the shock in the breech of the weapon.

Striking its mark without exploding from the force of impact, but at any desired time after impact.

Dr. Hiram P. Tuttle, a wizard from Tacoma, Wash., journeyed to the national capital last summer, and made the proposition to the Army's Board of Ordnance and Fortifications that he prove his ability to furnish the desired article. Shortly afterward Gen. Miles issued an order enforcing an old rule barring admittance to government tests. A few weeks later the wizard of the West did wondrous things at Sandy Hook. The official adoption of thorite is the result.

That thorite could be fired with perfect safety and without possible danger to gun or gunner was readily demonstrated by numerous tests. It was fired from guns of various sizes by both black and smokeless powder. That intense heat brought in direct contact with it could not affect it in any way was proved by the inventor in a striking test. He heated a poker red hot and thrust it into a 2-pound can of the explosive without any perceptible result.

Other tests demonstrated that not even the pressure of the heaviest siege guns—40,000 pounds to the square inch could effect it. A 12-inch service shell with thirty-nine pounds of thorite was fired from a huge seacoast rifle. No fuse was fixed. The explosive shell withstood the enormous pressure caused by the explosion of 450 pounds of brown powder at its base and went out to sea without uttering a sound or suffering destruction.

That this new element of warfare would not explode from the shock of impact, but would reap its harvest of death at any moment desired by the gunner, was proved in a more fascinating series of secret tests. Ten-inch shells filled with it were left without fuses, and were fired through huge pieces of Harveyized steel armor plate. Regardless of the terrific shock and tremendous friction these shells did not explode.

In another trial an iron shell of 132 pounds weight and seven inches diameter was loaded with only four pounds of the new explosive and placed inside a square enclosure strongly built of steel. Connection was made by wire between the shell and an electric circuit. The purpose of the steel enclosure was to collect the flying pieces of the shell—in other words, to test its "fragmenting power." An electric button was touched, and after the explosion several men were delegated to gather up the scraps of iron within the enclosure. They counted 20,000 visible fragments.

To determine the destructive power, shells which had been fused were fired from a 2 1-2 inch Sims-Dudley gun down the beach at Sandy Hook. Great "craters" left in the sand were sufficient proof that thorite is as powerful as the strongest blasting gelatine.

Thorite shells, it was proven, cannot explode save by aid of a certain time fuse or detonator devised by the inventor. In other words, it can be hammered and battered around during transportation and subjected to various temperatures loaded in either cans or shells. No accident can occur unless the detonator is attached and set. The new explosive, furthermore, needs no particular make of shell, but can be put in any. Another advantage is that its power does not weaken during long storage.

The Ordnance Department has already shipped to Dr. Tuttle sufficient raw material to manufacture several thousand pounds of the explosive within the next two months. The finished product will be placed in shells of 3.2-inch calibre for light artillery guns, to be sent to the Philippines.

The War Department has just purchased a dozen Maxim mountain guns, of the same type as used by the British in their Khartoum, Omdurman and Transvaal campaigns. These will soon arrive in Manila, and shells for them will also be supplied although the department has ordered 8,000 rounds of ammunition such as used with them in Europe. These new guns, all throwing thorite shells, will dislodge the rebels from their ambush shelters in swamps and canebrakes.

Thorite will be adopted for our great coast defence howitzers, as soon as they are completed. Large shells will be manufactured to fit them. After the army shall have successfully used the invention, the navy will adopt it. By its means each fighting ship can create greater havoc than did the dynamite cruiser Vesuvius in the Spanish war.

The adoption of thorite puts the United States upon an equality with France and England in respect to high explosives. It has been the boast of these two nations that they excel in ability to safely fire highly combustible shells with gunpowder. Lyddite, the English, and melinite, the French, explosive are practically the same.

"Do you admire Beethoven's music?" asked the young man whose hair is long and curls at the end.

"Oh, yes," answered the young woman. "Beethoven was all right for his day. You see ragtime hadn't been invented then."—Washington Star.

"ALL SORTS AND CONDITIONS OF MEN"

need Life Insurance and most of them can get it. They need protection for their family, their business, their property. Life Insurance prevents sacrifice of valuable property in event of death.

WRITE FOR PARTICULARS

Home Office Newark, N. J. The Prudential Insurance Co. of America.

JOHN F. DRYDEN, President. LESLIE D. WARD, Vice-President.
EDGAR B. WARD, 2d V. P. & Counsel. FORREST F. DRYDEN, Secretary.

J. H. WOODLAND, Sup't., E. Front St. and Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

SPORTING.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The Daily Press Bowling League.

	Games Won.	Games Lost.	High Score
Roselle Casino	6	1	911
Park Club	3	3	864
Westfield Club	3	3	836
Cranford Casino	1	5	765

ON THE GRIDIRON.

A football team from St. Mary's Association Saturday, on the Washington avenue grounds, defeated a team from the Mt. Olive Baptist church by a score of 25 to 0.

There has been something of a controversy over the fact that the Alis and Dunellen football teams did no meet last season. The Alis boys claimed that they outclassed the Dunellen eleven, while the Dunellenites were positive that the Plainfield team was afraid to meet them. Then the fact came out that Dunellen had never attempted to arrange a game. The captain of the Dunellen team immediately telephoned a challenge to Charles Woolston, manager of the Alis team for a match Christmas Day. As several of the Alis team, including Captain Roy Phillips, were ill, Woolston found it was impossible to play on that date. It would have been very poor judgment to continue the season so far beyond the legitimate time, and it will be best for Dunellen to curb its impatience until the next season comes around when the Alis boys will meet the Dunellen team.

WILL LOSE AN EYE.

Son of George H. Stagaard Got a Piece of Steel in One Eye, and Destroyed the Sight.

A young son of George H. Stagaard, of the borough, who is about eight years old, was taken to the hospital Sunday night suffering intensely from an affection of the eye. The lad in some way got a piece of steel in the eye last Friday, and at first it was not thought to be serious. He grew rapidly worse and suffered so much that his father thought it best to have him taken to the hospital at once. As soon as the eye was examined it was thought that the boy would lose the eye and it was planned to operate yesterday morning. The condition of the eye and boy was such that it could not be done. As soon as practicable the eye will be removed.

Over 1,800 Sacks of Holiday Mail.

A fair idea of the amount of mail matter received and sent out of Plainfield during last week can be obtained when it is known that from Wednesday to Sunday morning over thirteen hundred sacks of mail were handled by Mail Messenger Frisbie. This includes that going out and coming in. From last Wednesday to Saturday evening 620 sacks of mail were sent out, and from Wednesday to Sunday morning 597 were received.

—The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Crescent Avenue church will not meet this week Friday as usual.

What Can You Do With It?

This is a question we can answer better after we have seen the garment you want dyed. When our wagon is in your neighborhood, let it bring your goods to the store and then, at your convenience, come in and let us tell you just what we can do and the cost. Don't be prejudiced against dyeing. Ofttimes you can't tell the goods from new.

HILLIER & CO.,
129 West Front Street,
Opposite Crosby & Hill's. 'Phone 851.

MRS. F. E. KINSMAN DEAD

Succumbed to an Illness That Extended Over a Period of Over Two Years.

After an illness of the most intense suffering for the last two years, during which time a noble fight was made for life, Mrs. Florence Kinsman, aged 48 years, wife of F. E. Kinsman, of Sherman avenue, succumbed to the disease that was rapidly taking her life away, and died Christmas morning at 4:25 o'clock. Although she underwent an operation in New York a year ago last October under the direction of Dr. McOsh, who said that she could not possibly live longer than the following April, she rallied and her life was prolonged. Several times afterward she was given up, but it was not until last Saturday night at 11:30 o'clock, when Dr. Endicott, the family physician, said that she could not live much longer, was it that she gave up hope. During Sunday she recognized her family occasionally, but for the most part she was unconscious.

Mrs. Kinsman was the daughter of the late Rev. Samuel T. Hillman, of New York, who died three years ago. She has been a resident of this city seventeen years, where she was well-known and highly esteemed. She was a faithful member and regular attendant at the First Baptist church and an exemplary Christian woman. For the past six months she had been unable to leave the house. The funeral services will be held in the First Baptist church tomorrow afternoon at 1:15 o'clock and interment will take place in the family plot at Leominster, Mass., tomorrow. A husband, son and two daughters survive her.

Death of One of Plainfield's Oldest Firemen

James F. G. Frazer, for many years a resident of Plainfield, engaged in the carpentry business, a member of Gazelle Engine Company, and for several years one of the chief engineers of the fire department, died Sunday at his home in Brooklyn, after a long illness. The funeral services will be held this evening from the home of one of his daughters, Mrs. E Gruenberge, 1372 Bushwick avenue, at 8 o'clock and interment will take place Wednesday afternoon in Evergreen Cemetery.

Senate Lodge Officers.

The following officers have been elected by Senate Lodge, No. 3542, Knights of Honor: Dictator, W. D. Williams; vice-dictator, A. A. Lake; reporter, R. A. Frey; financial reporter, John H. Doane; treasurer, E. G. Smith; chaplain, E. H. Graves; guide, J. R. Phillips; sentinel, R. Warnock.

Macaroni.

Americans, like Italians, seem to know only one method to serve macaroni. This is to prepare it with cheese, and perhaps a seasoning of tomato. There are, however, a dozen combinations of macoroni and various ingredients which are very good. To escallop macaroni and oysters together in alternate layers, with plenty of seasoning, is to have a delicious and substantial dish for luncheon. Tomatoes seasoned and strained also makes a fine escallop with macaroni, especially if a layer of grated cheese be spread on top of the dish and it is well browned just before serving.

An idea of the amount of editorial work involved in the publication of a magazine is gained by the knowledge that the regular staff of editors of The Ladies' Home Journal numbers twenty-six men and women. These do not include the scores of special contributors.

To Cure a Cough in One Day
To Cure a Cold in One Day
To Cure Sore Throat in One Day
To Cure Hoarseness in One Day

Take Cleveland's Lung Healer, 25c. Trial size free. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenue.

YULETIDE SPIRIT IN THE CHURCHES.

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

ment also took part. There was no evening service. There were the usual decorations of greens

CRESCENT AVENUE CHURCH.

The Christmastide was observed at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church Sunday with special music at all the services and a union service of the Sunday schools of the church and its chapels in the afternoon. At the morning service, the pastor, Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards, preached a sermon appropriate to the day. There were several special carols by the quartette choir.

In the afternoon the union service of the Sunday-schools was held in the church Stages brought the members of the Sunday-schools of Hope and and Warren chapels while those from Bethel chapel were also in attendance. Owing to the stormy weather the attendance was not as large as it otherwise would have been.

There were carols by the schools, responsive readings, a solo by Miss Perry and a brief address by Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards.

At the Christmas praise service held in the evening, the musical programme, as published in The Daily Press Saturday, was followed out. There was a large attendance.

The usual palms and potted plants and greens were used in the decoration of the church.

MONROE AVENUE M. E. CHURCH.

There were no evening services at the Monroe Avenue M. E Church Sunday Instead, the Sunday-school held Christmas exercises, which included the singing of carols and responsive readings. Some of the scholars gave recitations and Rev. W. C. O'Donnell made a short address. Tonight the children's entertainment will be held. A feature of the affair will be in the introduction of a magician, who will entertain the scholars by his cleverness. There will also be some impromptu exercises and light refreshments.

GRACE M. E. CHURCH.

Special Christmas services were held at Grace M. E. church Sunday. In the morning the attendance was very small on account of the storm, but special music was rendered by the choir, and the pastor, Rev. G. W. Gardner, preached an interesting and appropriate sermon. In the afternoon there was a very good attendance when the Sunday-school held its service. There were recitations and songs by the scholars and singing by the primary department. Superintendent John Valiant was in charge. In the evening there was special music by the choir which was greatly enjoyed by a good-sized audience, and another excellent sermon was given by the pastor. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion with potted plants, greens and flowers.

ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH.

At St. Joseph's church yesterday the usual services were held, the only feature being the Christmas entertainment, which was held in the Sunday-school room in the afternoon. There were about 200 members and friends present and all had a jolly good time. The exercises opened with singing by the school, after which Lulu Jacot made a pleasing address. Then appeared "Santa Claus" in the person of J. E Bailey. He came down an improvised chimney, and made the hearts of all glad, distributing dolls, candy, books, games, etc. to the scholars, while the teachers were also well remembered. The last number on the programme was a song by Edmund LaPorte. During the exercises Santa Claus, the teachers and Father Miller were heartily cheered by the scholars.

MT. OLIVE BAPTIST CHURCH.

Last Sunday evening at the Mt. Olive Baptist church a Chrismas service was held, consisting of recitations, songs, etc., by members of the Sunday-school. The services were in charge of the pastor, Rev. E. E. Jackson, and there was a very large attendance. Those who took part did so in a creditable manner.

ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH.

The Christmas services at St. Stephen's church were made especially attractive yesterday morning by the splendid music, prepared especially for the occasion by Mrs. Buckley, the organist. The vested choir was augmented by the services of Mr. Johnstone, tenor, and Mr. Martin, bass. There was an early celebration of the Holy Communion at 7:30 o'clock and again at 11 o'clock. The festival for the Sunday-school will be held Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

GERMAN REFORMED CHURCH.

The annual Christmas festival was held at the German Reformed church last evening, and a large number of members and friends enjoyed the programme. There were instrumental selections by a quartette consisting of P. Ludwig Conde, Edna Conde, Emma Almer, violins; Mrs. George Hauser, organ; Lord's prayer by the children; vocal selections by Mrs. A. J. Stiglitz, soprano; Mrs. Bach, alto; Mr. Ebel, tenor; Rev. George Hauser, basso. The following young persons spoke in German: F. Bach, E Krausse, B. Reinold, Flora Krausse, Bird Newmiller, R. Hook, W. Newmiller, Fred Krausse, I. Hauser, C. Bender, E Ebel, Irma Hauser, E. Conde, A. Bach, Karl Hauser, H Bender, E Almer and E. Sutterlein. Presents were then given to all, and special presents were given to Miss Anna Bartlan and Miss L. Ebel, organists, and Eddie Krausse

HOLY CROSS.

The beautiful Christmas eve services at 4:30 Sunday afternoon at Holy Cross, in spite of the stormy weather, invited a large congregation, who were well repaid in listening to the splendid music prepared by Prof. Geo. Hosking, the organist and choir master The anthems were sung in good voice and were most inspiring. At the Christmas morning service yesterday the music was equally as well rendered. There was a large congregation present. The rector, Rev. William Montgomery Downey, preached an excellent sermon on the incidents leading up to the birth of the Savior.

SWEDISH MISSION SOCIETY.

The Swedish Mission Society held its Christmas festival last evening in the rooms of the W. C. T. U., when the tree was lighted and a pleasing programme was presented. There was singing by the congregation, Scripture reading by H. Jorgesen; prayer by Prof. Menges; songs and music by the string band; declamation, "The Holy Night," Christin Paulson; songs and music by the children; recitation, "A Star in My Crown," Jenny Svenson; Bible recitation by the children; declamation, "The Sunset," Frida Sward; address, Rev O G. Tinglof; declamation, "Star of the Homeless," Hedge Alvan. After the above was rendered there was the distribution of gifts from the tree.

GRACE P. E. CHURCH.

The usual Christmas eve services were held at Grace Episcopal church Sunday evening with appropriate music by the vested choir. The Christmas services at 10:30 yesterday morning were well attended. The music was of high order of excellency, consisting of the usual anthems appropriate to the day. Rev. Dr. Rodman, delivered an interesting discourse on the subject of the Nativity. The edifice is beautifully decorated and about the chancel were palms, potted plants and flowers.

ST. PETER'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.

Last Sunday evening the Christmas entertainment was held at St. Peter's German Lutheran church Rev. Mr. Schaffer, pastor, was in charge, and made a fine address. There was a programme of recitations and songs by the children, instrumental music by Leutter Shaffer on the violin and Miss Sarah Shaffer on the organ. After the entertainment gifts were distributed generously to all present.

A Family Reunion.

A family reunion was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. Theodore Adams, of Duer street, when a number of relatives were present from New York, Newark, Flemington, Metuchen and this city to join in the festivities of the occasion. A bountiful dinner was served in the afternoon at 3 o'clock, and in the evening there were many pleasing features, including harmonica selections by Cortland Adams and there was also singing. A flash light picture of the party was taken by Wilbur Randolph before the happy event came to a close. Ice cream and cake was served in the evening.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

ESTATE of Maggie Cash, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made, on the application of the undersigned, administrator of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the twenty-first day of December, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.

JEREMIAH CASH,
12 26 9 oaw Administrator.

ESTATE of Sarah A. MacDonald, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made, on the application of the undersigned, executors of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the thirteenth day of December, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.

JAMES FREDERICK MACDONALD,
WILLIAM F. ARNOLD,
12 26 9 oaw Executors.

Advertised Mail Matter.

DECEMBER 26, 1899.

Alder, Master Everitt	Langley, Mr E
Andrews, Miss Grace	Locke, Mr Jno M.
Bohem, Charles	Laury, Mr H W
Carlson, Mrs Emmy	McCue, Mrs Maggie
Edwards, Miss Lena	Mitchell, W B
Folery, John	Potter, Mrs C D
Th Glen Brook Poultry Farm	Rittenhouse, Mr G C
Hicks, Mr William	Utter, Mrs Mary
Hewitt, Mr William	Voorhies, Mrs Carrie
Holde, R A	Watkins, Miss Carrie
Johnson, George	West, Mrs M
Knox, Miss Alice R	Williams, C Y
Knox, Rev Chas. E	Williams, Miss L E
	Wort, Mr Charles L

E. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.
TELEPHONE 722.
MAZE EDWARDS, - Lessee and Manager.

Reserved Seat Tickets at Box Office, which is open daily from 9. a. m.

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS MATINEE,
One Solid Week, Commencing
MONDAY, DEC. 25 1899.
Re-engagement of the popular
Burrill Comedy Company,
Supporting LAURA H LEERE,
in a repertoire of standard scenic productions—
Monday afternoon, "A Flag of Truce."
Monday evening, "The Ensign."
Prices—10c, 20c and 30c. Seats now on sale.

SPECIAL!!
HAIR DRESSING,
SHAMPOOING,
MANICURING.
Until after the Holiday Season
MISS HOLMES,
Graduate of the New York School of Hair Dressing and Dermatology,
will make special rates for hair dressing in all the latest styles for street and evening; at parlors 75c. At ladies residences by appointment. Shampooing or Facial Massage and steaming (for eradicating imperfections of the skin) 75c. Manicuring 50c.
440 W. FRONT ST.

XMAS IS NEAR
Now is the time to order your Xmas greens First come, first served. Holly, laurel and Xmas green wreaths and roping; also loose holly, palms, ferns, jardinieres and wicker baskets for Xmas presents.
MRS. L. J. DENTON,
Stillman Building. Tel. call 731.

Mons De Villiers,
ILLUSIONIST and ENTERTAINER.
Miss Carolyn Laying,
IMPERSONATOR.
Y. M. C. A. Star Course.....
JANUARY 1st, 8 P. M.
ADMISSION 25 CENTS. 12 23 6

GEO. W. COLE,
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER.
200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

DIED.

KINSMAN—In this city, Monday, Dec. 25, 1899, Florence, wife of Frank E. Kinsman, and daughter of the late Samuel T. Hillman, aged 48 years.
Funeral services in the First Baptist church, Wednesday, Dec. 27th, at 1:15 p. m. Interment in Leominster, Mass.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

FOR SALE—Gray mare, 8 years old; sound and gentle. 1266 Park Ave.

WASHING Wanted at home. 305 East Fourth street. 12 26 3

SECOND HAND pool table for sale; complete outfit; cash or installments. 98 Somerset St.

LOST—Saturday evening, gold link cuff button, vicinity Grant avenue. Return to Arthur Robinson, No. 744 West Third street.

WANTED—Either colored, German or Swedish girl for general housework. Apply at 95 Fairview Ave. 12 26 2

YOUNG man wishes position as kitchenman or care of horses. Address 615 West Third St.

LOST—Monday night between 614 West Third street and Plainfield avenue, pocketbook, containing sum of money, etc. Finder rewarded, 614 West Third St.

TO LET—Large, well-heated room, with excellent board. 62 Sandford Ave. 12 26 6

USE of stylish, reliable family horse and closed carriage, for keep of horse, to responsible party. Address W. J., care Press.

FOR SALE—Good buffalo robe Inquire J. P. Laire. 12 23 6

FOR SALE to close an Estate, House and lot, No. 251 East Third street, formerly the residence of John P. Brokaw; comfortable, roomy house; large lot; macadamized street. Inquire of Nelson Runyon, attorney for heirs, 221 Park Ave.. 12 22 6

THREE pleasant convenient rooms to let for light housekeeping. 404 Third street, corner Central avenue. 12 11 11

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 8 28 tf

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

BARRED and White Plymouth Rock, White Leghorn and White Wyandotte Cockerels, from our famous prize winning strains, cheap. Plainfield Poultry Farm Co., 79 Somerset street. 12 20 6

FOR SALE or exchange for house and lot or small farm, a fine farm of 200 acres, well watered and timbered. Address Albert, care Daily Press. 12 15 eodtf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Chas. L. Moffett, Attorney, cor. Park and North Aves. 12 11 eod tf

WANTED—Reliable girls to do glove sewing. Write or apply at Room 316, Babcock Building. 12 23 3

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 24

SPECIAL SALE OF PERFUMES
—AT—
L. W. Randolph's : : :
143 WEST FRONT STREET.
: : : One Week Only : : :

We will offer great inducements in Lazell's, Lundberg's, Ricksecker's and Wright's Bottle Goods.

25 cent Extracts at	20 cents	1 00	Extracts at		75 cents
35 " " "	25 cents	1 35	"	"	1.15
50 " " "	40 cents	1.50	"	"	1.25
75 " " "	55 cents	4 00	"	"	3 25

Lazell's $500 Cut Glass Bottle will be in the window during this week.

L. W. RANDOLPH,
Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.
PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for TELEPHONE CALL 189
Lowney's and Whitman's Chocolates and Chocolate Bon-Bons.

Special Sale OF Clothing and Furnishing Goods

for the holidays. Fifty cents buys a dollar's worth of Clothing during this sale of stocks closed out to us from the largest clothing manufacturers of Boston, Mass., and Rochester, N. Y., at less than half the real value. We have the whip hand of competition to this end. Those who try to compete with us in quality cannot touch us in price, and those who meet our prices cannot supply our quality of goods. Every man wearing good clothes and wants to buy them at the right price should not fail to see us before going elsewhere. Here are some SPECIAL PRICES on goods SUITABLE for CHRISTMAS PRESENTS:

Smoking Jackets at $1.25!

Men's double-breasted Jersey coats strictly all wool, in black only, at 2.50, real value 4.50.

Men's Fancy Vests, double breasted, in loud patterns, would make a handsome present for any gentleman at 1.25 and 1.50 and up to 3.00, which would cost you in any other store in Plainfield from 3.00 to 5.00.

Men's strictly all-wool worsted Trousers made in the newest shape and colorings at 1.50, 1.75 and 2.25, our former prices were from 2.50 to 4.50.

Childs's Reefer coats at 1.00 and 1.50 would easily command 2.50.

Men's Business Suits strictly all wool in cheviots, cassimeres and Scotch cheviots at 3.50 & 4.25 worth double.

SPECIALS IN OVERCOATS FOR THIS SALE.

Men's Oxford Grey Overcoats strictly all wool, very stylish at 5 25. Men's black or blue beaver overcoats, good and heavy and all wool at 4 75

Men's Overcoats all wool meltons, kerseys and friezes, short cut box overcoats, handsomely lined, at 5.90 & 6 50. They are the best value ever offered.

ONE HUNDRED of the very finest grade of men's overcoats including patent meltons, kerseys and vicunas, silk or satin lined, the very newest styles, these garments are sold from 15.00 to 20.00 to be sold at 7.50 and 8.25.

Men's Ulsters 3.00 and upwards.
Children's Suits from 75c to 3.50.
Boys' Overcoats 1 75 and upwards.
Men's Sweaters 50c, 75c and 1 25.
Men's Half-hose, all wool, at 9c. Suspenders at 5c and up. Dress shirts at 35c and 45c. And 1,000 other articles that could be bought for Christmas presents and which would be appreciated more than anything else for the same amount of money.

New York Clothing Company
M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.
Plainfield, N. J.

FURNITURE for the Parlor . . .
Library . . .
Dining-Room . . .
Bedroom . . .
Close at 6 o'Clock.
POWLISON & JONES,
149 and 151 E. Front St.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Best work for the money in town. Bids on work willingly given. Work done night or day. Get my bid before you have work done.
P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.
T. M. INGRAHAM.

S. R. STRUTHERS
offers his services as accountant. Books opened and closed. Trial balances made and Balance Sheets shown.
Call or address
514 WEST FRONT STREET. 12 13 12

WINES made only from selected grapes and cane sugar crystal. Twenty-five cents per bottle and upward.
"THE VINEYARDS,"
Park Ave., corner Cooper St., Fanwood.
12 18 12

MASSAGE :-: VAPOR BATHS
CORNS REMOVED 25c.
M. V. STICKLE, 149 East Fifth St.

Emery's
Dancing Pavilion
(SCOTCH PLAINS.)
Pavilion For Rent
FOR
Balls, Parties, etc.

Ladie Desiring
KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING
done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 203 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

CHAS. L. FORCE.
Architect and Superintendent.
208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 21 tf

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:23 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:39 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:39 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Increasing Cloudiness with Snow late Tonight and Thursday; Warmer Tonight. Ther. 24.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

WELL-LAID PLANS FOR CHRISTMAS TIDE.

Many Sunday-Schools Hold Annual Entertainments.

FINE PROGRAMMES HEARD.

SUCCESSFUL CULMINATION OF PLANS FOR THE CHILDREN.

The Young People Were Entertained in all Sorts of Ways and Received Many Gifts and Candy—Santa Claus Put in His Appearance, and Made Lots of Fun for the Small Ones.

The exercises at the Park Avenue Baptist church last evening were the most interesting of any held by that society in some years. The church was profusely and artistically decorated with festoons of evergreens and flags, while the words "Merry Christmas to Park Avenue Baptist Sunday-school" were conspicuously suspended at the front. The entertainment provided for the children and the large attendance consisted of recitations by Miss Phemie Demarest, and Messrs. Winant and Bond, of New York, in songs, dialogues, etc. The feature of the evening, however, was the big chimney with the fireplace and the appearance of "Santa Claus," who was introduced by little Florence Smalley, attired in her night dress and rubbing her eyes. The mythical "Santa Claus" was impersonated by Owen Lloyd. Miss Florence Cuming represented the "Fairy" and with her magic wand directed "Santa Claus" to take from the fireplace small stoves and distribute them among the children. The stoves were found to contain candy.

Previous to the appearance of Santa Claus a telephone was used to announce his near approach, and at frequent intervals the telephone bell would ring to tell that he had reached different cities. During these imaginary talks over the 'phone numerous humorous messages were sent as well as received. The message that appeared to greatly please the older members of the Sunday-school was the receipt from Santa Claus of "Congratulations to T. A. Cuming." Besides the gifts to the scholars of the school Santa Claus presented a bag of gold to Pastor J. W. Richardson and 100 singing books to the school. The affair was well gotten up and highly creditable to the efforts of the committee, consisting of T. A. Cuming, chairman; Mrs. W. S. Lowry, E. F. Vail, Miss Ada Runyon, Miss May Thompson and G. E. Hall. The latter gentleman was the designer of the fire-place and had charge of the decorations.

MONROE AVENUE M. E. CHURCH.

The children of the Sunday school of the Monroe Avenue Methodist church had a royal time last evening, and for more than one hour were highly entertained by a magician from New York, whose clever tricks were the source of delight to the older scholars and wonderment to the younger members of the school.

Miss May Lucky, a recitationist of considerable local ability, pleased the older members of the school and the large audience, by her splendid recitations of humorous and pathetic prose and poems. The musical portion of the programme consisted of the singing of Christmas carols by the school under the direction of Walter M. McGee, the superintendent. After the entertainment bags of candy and oranges were distributed among the scholars.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

There was a very large attendance at the Congregational church Sunday school entertainment, both of members of the school and of the church people. The church was decked with evergreens, and in one corner stood a large and elaborately trimmed Christmas tree. The exercises began with a carol, and prayer by A. C. LaBoyteaux. Recitations were given by Miss Marion Dwight, Miss Jean Millar, and Miss Elsie Smith, Miss Smith's recitation, "The Ruggles's Christmas Dinner," from "The Birds' Christmas Carol," being the principal one of the evening. A motion song by the primary department, and the singing of Luther's Cradle Hymn by three little girls, were pleasant parts of the programme. John M. Whiton told a bright Christmas story about Mrs. Santa Claus, then Mrs Santa Claus made her appearance, in the person of Mrs. Leighton Calkins, bringing gifts for the primary department. Fruit and confectionery were distributed to the whole school. The members of the church had also an opportunity to give as well as to receive, bringing gifts and making an offering of money for an Italian mission in New York. The primary department made a gift to the Children's Home, a jug containing the birthday offerings of several years being broken before the audience by Gansevoort VanAlstyne.

GRACE M. E. CHURCH.

Grace M. E. church was filled to overflowing last evening, when the annual Christmas entertainment was held under the auspices of the Sunday-school. Superintendent John Valiant was in charge, while a committee consisting of Mrs. Most, Miss Mary G. Steiner, Miss Alice Carroll, Miss Belle Lunger and Andrew Wilson, had charge of the entertainment, which consisted of a cantata entled "Jenny Doubter," who did not believe in Santa Claus. In the play there were a number of characters who did their utmost to prove that there is a Santa Claus. There were three scenes, two representing home and the other a street scene. Those who took the several parts were as follows: "Jenny Doubter," Jennie DeMott; "Queen of the Fairies," Ethel Most; "Old Mother Goose," Edith VanDyke; "Old Mother Hubbard," Edith Mantz; "Old Woman in the Shoe," Rachel DeCamp; "Little Red Riding Hood," Anna Hoagland; "Jack Horner," Harry Schuck; "Little Miss Muffett," Violet Titus; "Little Boy Blue," David Fairchild; "Jack and Jill," Russell and Bessie Conroy; "Little Boo Peep," Eva Higgins; "Chinese Maid," Alice DeMott; "Bootblack," Willie Higgins; "Little Miss Nobody," Marion Major; "Newsboy," Charles Powell; "Santa Claus," John Steiner. Gracie Powell and Margaret Darby took part in the two home scenes.

After the entertainment Superintendent Valiant made a few presentations. A handsome silver-mounted umbrella was given to Bert Simpson, who has faithfully presided at the organ. Mr. Hoagland, the sexton, received a purse of money. The Sunday-school class taught by Mrs. Powell gave their teacher a handsome wicker chair. Then Santa Claus appeared and distributed gifts of candy, books, games, etc., to all the scholars and teachers.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH.

The Sunday-school of the First M. E. church held its Christmas entertainment yesterday. The primary department was entertained in the afternoon with a series of stereopticon views. Besides a number of colored slides, there was a series illustrating the life of Christ. J. R. Joy explained them. At the close, Nelson A. Miller appeared as Santa Claus and distributed gifts and candy among the little people.

A cantata, entitled "Christmas a Day Late," was the principal event of the entertainment for the intermediate and senior departments in the evening. The argument of the cantata told of the troubles of Columbia and Brittania in caring for their numerous children and incidently proved the fallacy of trying to plan for Christmas without the assistance of Santa Claus.

Miss Mabel Templin was "Columbia" and Miss Cora Harris "Brittania." Watson Derby impersonated "Neptune" and Nelson A. Miller "Santa Claus." The Misses Frances Rittenhouse, Helen Joy, Minnie Conover, of this city, and Miss Dorothy Welch, of Middletown, Conn., made very fair little angels. There was also a chorus of the various possessions of "Columbia" and "Brittania."

At the close of the cantata there was a presentation of gifts. A volume containing handsomely engrossed resolutions, signed by all the teachers in the school, was presented to J. W. Jackson, who retires this year as superintendent after thirty-three years' service. The resolutions expressed their great regret at his departure.

The committee in charge consisted of Clifford McGee, chairman; Miss Elsie Horne, Miss Persis Snodgrass, Miss Cory, Miss Elizabeth Stackhouse, N. A. Miller, G. M. Rittenhouse, J. R. Joy and Stephen Tugwell.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Yesterday afternoon in the chapel of the First Presbyterian church the Primary Department of the Sunday-school enjoyed their annual Christmas entertainment. There were recitations and songs by the little folks, and Santa Claus appeared in the person of Edward Borroughs who made things pleasant for everyone. In the evening the older members of the Sunday-school had their entertainment which consisted of the Edison projectoscope pictures. These moving pictures were greatly enjoyed for most of them were new. This comprised the evening's entertainment, after which came the distribution of presents. Every scholar was remembered nicely as well as every teacher. Superintendent E. M. Cave was in charge of the affair.

EAST THIRD STREET CHAPEL.

The Christmas entertainment at East Third Street chapel was held last evening and was largely attended. It opened with Scripture reading and

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.]

LOVE FOUND A WAY ACROSS THE OCEAN

Long Voyage to Find a Convenient Place for Nuptials.

JERSEY LAW TOO STRICT.

SO THE CEREMONY WAS PERFORMED BY NEW YORK ALDERMAN.

Charles and Fanny O'Brien Were Prohibited From Marrying in England on Account of Their Relationship, So They Came to This Country to Overcome the Obstacle—Visited Here.

It is not often that lovers take a voyage across the Atlantic Ocean in order to have a nuptial ceremony performed, but such is the experience of Charles O'Brien and Fanny O'Brien, of Liverpool, Eng., who were married in the City Hall, New York, Saturday morning last at 11 o'clock by Alderman Smith. Their long trip was taken because they are brother in-law and sister in law, and the laws of England prohibit marriages between such relatives.

In order to overcome this obstacle to their entering into matrimony they journeyed to this country by the steamer Teutonic, which arrived in New York last Thursday. They will return to their native land today by the same steamer.

The groom is a cousin of Hughes Fawcett, 105 Rockview avenue, North Plainfield, who is a New York business man. During their visit to this country they were stopping with him at his home. Their mission was explained to Mr. Fawcett by letter before their arrival, and it was left to him to fix the details for their becoming husband and wife under the laws of the United States. Mr. Fawcett is a prominent worker in the Plymouth Brethren, a gathering of Christians who have no regular ministers. He did not want to appeal to a minister of another denomination to celebrate their marriage, and so he decided to have a civil one instead.

He interviewed Justice of the Peace V. W. Nash, of this city, on the subject before the arrival of the couple and he consented to perform the marriage. After the couple arrived on Thursday it was decided to have the ceremony performed by Justice Nash Saturday. When the time came for it, however, it was necessary for the couple, being non-residents, to take out a marriage license. One of the stipulations of the marriage license law of this State is that the applicants must wait five days after the license is issued before the wedding can take place.

When the O'Briens learned of this part of the law they were in a plight, as it would be impossible for them to delay the ceremony so as to comply with the law and at the same time be able to return to England on the Teutonic. Then it was that Mr. Fawcett came to their rescue with a suggestion that they go to New York with him Saturday morning and go to the City Hall and have an Alderman tie the nuptial knot. The change in the plans was agreed to and Saturday morning the trip was made. Alderman Smith performing the part of Hymen. Mr. Fawcett and a friend acted as witnesses.

After the ceremony the couple returned to Mr. Fawcett's home in this city.

When the groom was seen last night by a Press reporter he said: "We wanted to get married, and as the laws of this country were the most convenient to the conditions that confronted us we decided to come here and have the ceremony performed. That is all there is to it."

FIFTY YEARS WEDDED.

Golden Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac F. Scudder, of Westfield, Celebrated Yesterday Afternoon.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, December 27.—Mr. and Mrs. Isaac F. Scudder, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding yesterday afternoon from 1 to 4 o'clock at the residence of their son. They were married in 1849 by Rev. James M. Hunting, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Guests were present from Newark, Elizabeth, Rahway, Plainfield, Fanwood, Cranford and this place to the number of about sixty, six of whom were present at the marriage. All had a pleasant chat about old times after which refreshments were served. The happy celebrants received a number of handsome presents.

Had to Pay a Fine.

Cornelius Driscoll was drunk on East Second street last Saturday night. Patrolman Saunders arrested him. This morning City Judge Runyon sentenced him to pay a fine of $2.

SOMERSET COURT CASES.

ENGINEER RICK SUING THE LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD.

North Plainfielders Interested in Cases on the Calendar—Circuit Court to be Held January 2d—Slander Case Off Term.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Dec. 27.—Announcement of the several cases for the January term of the Somerset County Circuit Court was made yesterday and a number of cases of interest to North Plainfielders, as well as Plainfielders, are down. The Supreme Court issues include a case of Edward W. Rick against the Lehigh Valley Railroad, in tort, for injuries received in January of the present year. The case of Ernest M. Nise against the Lehigh Valley Railroad, in tort, is off for the term. The case of Nellie Steger against Andrew Dominick, in tort, is now ready. Both parties reside in North Plainfield. W. K. McClure represents the plaintiff, while J. P. D. Kirch represents the defendant.

The Circuit Court issues includes the case on contract of George Hummer et ux against J. W. S. Loughlin, of the borough. This will be called January 23, and Charles J. McNabb will represent the plaintiff, and William Newcorn the defendant. In this court the case in tort of Wesley R. Brokaw against W. L. Saunders is off for the term by consent, owing to the absence of the defendant, who is abroad. There are a number of ther cases, but of no importance to boroughites.

FIRST ELECTION ILLEGAL.

Officers Chosen by Winfield Scott Post Two Weeks Ago Were Not According to Rules.

It was learned within the past few days that the election of officers at the meeting of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., Tuesday evening, December 12th, was illegal, and in order to comply with the rules and regulations of the G. A. R., another election was necessary. Therefore action was taken at once to hold an election at the regular meeting held last evening, when the following persons were chosen: Commander, Dr. Berg; senior vice-commander, F. M. Whiteley; junior vice commander, Augustus Runyon; chaplain, J. A. Goodwin; surgeon, Israel Compton; quartermaster, John B. Naylor; officer of the day, I. L. McVoy; officer of the guard, John Finley; trustees, W. C. Smith, William Hand, M. C. Dobbins.

There will be a joint installation of the above officers, together with those from the Woman's Relief Corps and the Sons of Veterans on the evening of Tuesday, January 9th, and the affair will be marked by the usual pleasant features.

"CACK'S" WIFE IN LIMBO TOO

Esther Barrett Alleges That She Stole a Skirt—Justice Mosher Held Her for Grand Jury.

Eva Carter, nee Eva Jackson, who claims to be the wife of "Cack" Carter, the negro, who was yesterday sent to jail for threatening his stepfather, is also in the Elizabeth jail awaiting the action of the Grand Jury charged with stealing a skirt from Esther Barrett, of West Third street. The alleged theft was committed on the 14th inst. The Carters occupied rooms in the same house with the Barret woman, who claims the skirt was stolen by Eva Carter. Justice Mosher, before whom the accused was arraigned Christmas, held her in default of $100 bail.

PRESIDENT C. A. REED.

Annual Election of Somerset County Bar Association Held.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Dec. 27—A meeting of the Somerset County Bar Association was held in the courthouse yesterday morning. The annual election of officers was held and all the old officers were re-elected as follows: President, Charles A. Reed; secretary, Miss Steele; financial secretary and treasurer, Nelson Y. Dungan.

Literary Note From The Century Co.

The January Century will contain a poem by Rudyard Kipling, "In the Matter of One Compass." Dr. Mitchell's story, "The Autobiography of a Quack," ends in that issue, but another serial by Dr. Mitchell will begin in the March number. It is called "Dr. North and His Friends," and one who has read the manuscript calls it "an epitome of the science, culture and common sense of the nineteenth century."

Young Musical Pupils.

Two primary classes taught by Miss Anna O. Marsh on the clavier and piano, met last Friday afternoon to illustrate their work to their mothers. Their quick fingers and clear comprehension of time pleased all. Varieties of touch were illustrated, and piano selections, which had been memorized on the clavier, were rendered.

ROEHRIGHT ACTED WITH HIGH HAND.

So Says Judge Magie in Sentencing Mrs. Fingerhuth.

MERCY WENT WITH JUSTICE.

JUDGE SEES A TRICK IN THE ARREST OF THE HUSBAND.

Says That It is Obvious That It Was Done When Attack Was to Be Made Upon the House—A Subscription Paper Started for the Purpose of Raising the $500 Fine That Was Imposed.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Dec. 27.—In passing sentence yesterday upon Mrs. Henrietta Fingerhuth, convicted of manslaughter for killing Paul Roehricht, Chief Justice Magie said:

"Among the unpleasant duties I have had to perform in the course of my official career, none have been more trying to me than the one which is now to be ended by the sentence of this prisoner.

"It is quite obvious how the jury reached the conclusion they did to recommend the prisoner to the mercy of the Court. The sympathy of the community, of the jury and of the Court has all along been with the prisoner, and the reason is the peculiar circumstances under which she did the act for which she has been convicted.

"She is of foreign birth, speaking our language imperfectly; living in a house with her husband and son. The owner of the house desiring its possession, undertook to take possession with a high hand by force. The relations that existed between him and this defendant's husband were not such as justified his doing that act without an appeal to the law. He ought to have undertaken to turn out Mr. Fingerhuth by law, and not by force.

"The woman was left alone in the house, and it is quite obvious that she was alone because the owner had had somebody arrest her husband and take him away, and with him her son, at the time when this attack upon the house was made.

"This woman has been furnished with a deadly weapon, and it is obvious she had been told by her husband and her son that she had a right to use it to defend the house. They made no deduction between the defense of herself, which of course she would have a right to resort to, but they obviously lead her to understand she should use that weapon in the defense of the house.

"They cannot be punished, but she took their advice—their wrongful injudicious advice. Advice which, if given by anybody who ought to know, is criminal; she used the deadly weapon.

"Now the jury have said that is a criminal act. They have said though, that under the circumstances of its use, the highest degree of crime was not exercised and they have convicted her of the lowest degree and have coupled that conviction with a recommendation to the mercy of the Court.

"Now the Court can not fail to recognize that there was a crime; we think that the verdict of the jury was entirely substainable; but we, however, think it is not a crime that the due administration of criminal justice requires a severe penalty.

"The sentence of the Court is that this defendant be confined in the County Jail for the term of six months, less one day, and pay a fine of $500, and stand committed until the fine be paid.

"Let the prisoner be removed."

A subscription paper has already been put in circulation to raise the $500 fine imposed upon Mrs. Fingerhuth. One of the first to subscribe to it was Sheriff Selah Schoonmaker, who pledged himself to give $5 towards defraying the fine. A number of others in court also subscribed to it.

Benevolence of C. W. McCutchen.

Pastor Jackson and the Sunday-school of the Mt. Olive Baptist church desires to express their thanks to C. W. McCutchen for his kind consideration given them in the purchase of a piano for the Sunday-school, also Mr. Sattel and the First Baptist church for their encouragement and assistance. The pastor says that Deacon Daniel Brown carries off the laurels this year for the rich supply of a Christmas dinner.

Bryan May Visit Plainfield.

In response to a letter from J. E. Martine, Hon. Wm. J. Bryan writes that he appreciates the invitation to visit Plainfield and be a guest at Cedar Brook. Notwithstanding that Mr. Bryan's stay will be short in New Jersey, Mr. Martine hopes to have Mr. Bryan in Plainfield.

INTRODUCED TO SOCIETY

"COMING OUT" OF MISS PHILLIPS A DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR.

The Reception at the Rockview Avenue Home—Holiday Decorations Gave a Very Pretty Effect to the Rooms.

A very delightful affair of the holiday week was the reception given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Henry Russel Phillips, of Rockview avenue, when her daughter, Miss Helen Phillips, was formally introduced into society.

The house was beautifully decorated with Christmas greens and pink roses and the combination of greens and flowers on the dining room table with pink shaded candles was a very novel and artistic one.

Mrs. Phillips and Miss Phillips received their guests in the parlor while sweet strains of music floated in from the hall where the band was hidden from view by palms and evergreens.

In the dining room Mrs. Slawson and Mrs. A. E. Faber presided at the table and were assisted by the Misses Francis Phillips, Elizabeth and Mary Hull, Margaret McCutchen, Sadie Howell, Miss Montgomery and Miss Francis Phillips, of New York.

LICENCE GRANTED

For Hotel On Somerset Street Where Somerset Hotel Stands—Action Deferred on Another.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Dec. 27. — Application was made before Judge Bartine yesterday in the Court of Common Pleas for a licence for a hotel on Somerset street, North Plainfield, where the Somerset Hotel has been kept. A license was obtained by Mr. Boice sometime ago, but the place has changed hands and Herman Deike is now the proprietor. The application was made for Mr. Deike by Francis J. Blatz, of the law firm of Murphy & Blatz. The application was granted.

W. K. McClure presented the application of Sisser for a licence for a hotel on Somerset street, near the Green brook bridge, North Plainfield. As the place is a new one, the Judge decided to let its consideration lay over until the end of the term. He will then announce his decision.

SIGNALS FOR TROLLEYS.

New System Being Arranged to Prevent Delays on 'Plains Line—Push-Button for Use of Conductors.

A system of signals is being arranged by the Plainfield Street Railway Company so as to prevent delays on account of the lateness of cars on the Scotch Plains extension. A push-button is to be placed at the switch, East Second street near Richmond street, whereby the conductor of a car at that point can notify the inspector at the North Avenue exchange. A push of the button will illuminate a colored light. If there is time for that car to make the trip to the North avenue switch another colored lamp will be lighted at the Second street switch as a signal. The system of wires for the signals is now being put up.

Died of Heart Trouble.

Mrs. Mary E Martin, aged 71 years, formerly a resident of Martinville, died of heart trouble last evening at 9 o'clock at her home 15 Harmony street. She was a sister of Mrs. Andrew Huff and George Watts, and had been a resident of the borough since last spring. Her illness was of about three weeks duration. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the residence of Mrs. Andrew Huff, Chatham street, and interment will be at Bound Brook.

Little Girl Was Hurt.

While running down Park avenue yesterday morning, Nellie, the eight-year-old daughter of Andrew Nolan, an employe of the American Steam Laundry, fell over a coal chute and was badly bruised. At first it was feared that Nellie's collar bone was broken or shoulder dislocated, but Dr. Boone, who was called to attend the little sufferer, does not think that any bones were broken.

Miss Pizie Now Mrs. Marsh.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Emma L. Pizie, of New Market, and Franklin T. Marsh, of this city. The event took place last Sunday at the Seventh Day Baptist church parsonage, and Rev. Dr. A. E. Main, pastor, officiated.

First Meeting for 1900

Friday evening of next week there will be the first regular meeting of the Mayor and Borough Council for 1900. At that time the matter of widening Somerset street from the county line to Jackson avenue will be taken up and considered.

Out of the Hospital.

October 31st of the present year Jacob Gutmeir, of this city, fractured his knee pan, and since then has been at the hospital for treatment. He was discharged yesterday, cured.

SOLD CIDER SUNDAY—MUST PAY A $20 FINE.

Borough Officials Are Hard After Vito Feraro.

MAYOR SMALLEY HEARD.

NO POSITIVE EVIDENCE, BUT BELIEVE HE RUNS A BAD PLACE.

Feraro Accused of Violating Peace and Good Order of Borough—Specific Charge Admitted in Court and Recorder Long Imposed a Fine of $20, But Omitted the Seven Days in Jail.

Vito Feraro, an Italian doing business on Somerset street, opposite Manning avenue, was arraigned in the borough court this morning before Recorder Long, on a charge of illegal Sunday selling. He was represented by Lawyer Walter L. Hetfield, while Borough Council Reed was present for the borough. Chief Marshal Campbell was the complainant, and the charge was that the defendant had between December 1st and 12th violated the ordinance relating to the peace and good order of the borough, and that more especially on Sunday, December 10th, did sell a bottle of wine and a bottle of cider. The purchasers were Special Marshal Block and Geo. W. Gaddis, aged 17 years, a resident of the borough.

Mayor Smalley, Chief Campbell and the two informants were placed on the stand and they told what they knew concerning the place conducted by Feraro. His Honor said that he did not keep the right kind of place, and he had received a number of complaints about people coming out of the place intoxicated, and while he had no direct knowledge concerning the place, only what he had received from the police and others, he believed that Feraro was violating the borough ordinance. Chief Campbell told about the condition of things as he found them, how he had such trouble in looking into the place, and how the curtains were drawn every time he put in an appearance. The informants told how they went there on Sunday, December 10th, and purchased the cider and wine.

Lawyer Hetfield stated that he had no defense to make as the accused could not deny but what he sold the two bottles of cider and wine on the date mentioned, but he brought out the fact that the man had never been warned, and this being his first offense, he asked that the court suspend sentence.

Counsel Reed argued that the man had sold the wine and cider and it was the old question of a cider joint. He pointed out the fact that the man admitted his guilt and that he was violating the borough ordinance, and while he had no particular interest in the case aside from his position, he thought the court should do its duty.

Recorder Long then imposed a fine of $20, omitting the seven days imprisonment, which accompanies it at the option of the court. The fine was paid.

Christmas at the Parochial.

The children of the parochial school attached to St. Mary's Roman Catholic church were treated to a Christmas entertainment yesterday afternoon in the hall of the school. The entertainment was under the direction of the Sewing Circle, which carried out an interesting programme. There was a tree and a play on the stage where some clever acting was exhibited. The affair was not the least pleasant of those frequently held by the pupils of this school. There was a large attendance of the parents of the scholars and friends of the school.

Married in London.

Miss Ida G. Simmonds, of Watchung avenue, received a cablegram yesterday telling her of the marriage of her niece, Mrs. Graff Baker, to Cecil Gabriel Lindo, which took place yesterday in London. Mrs. Baker is the widow of Graff Baker, formerly of Baltimore, and is a daughter of Henry G. Carey, of Lake Roland, Baltimore county. Mrs. Baker has lived in England for about eleven years. Her husband died about two and a-half years ago. She is known in this city by several persons.

Sentence Deferred for a Week.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, December 27.—John L. Blackford, the confessed bigamist, was to be arraigned in the Union County Court this morning for sentence, but it was announced this morning that sentence would be deferred for a week.

—Shoes sold by Flynn Brothers, 222 West Front street, near Music Hall, are made right and made to fit. You can get what you want and be satisfied if you buy your shoes of them.

WANT REAPPORTIONMENT

Republicans Have an Eye on Southern Representation

ITS REDUCTION FAVORED

Some of the Leaders in Washington Are opposed to Tackling the measure at This Time—A Knotty Political Problem that Will Actively Stir the Present Congress.

Washington, Dec. 27.—Certain Republicans are determined to press legislation intended to pave the way for a congressional reapportionment. A bill is to be reported favorably by the census committee and called up as soon after the holiday recess as possible. The measure is to instruct the superintendent of census to report on the number of citizens disfranchised by state law, their color and previous condition and the representation which localities wherein disfranchisement has taken place have in congress, together with the basis on which that representation is founded. In that way, it is proposed to accomplish in congress what Committeeman Payne of Wisconsin failed to do in the Republican national committee, namely, the reform of the basis of representation in the national convention.

The subject is great and some of the leaders are opposed to tackling it at this time. They say it will alienate much of the gold Democratic and expansion strength of the Republican party next year. To that staement the reply is made that the Republican party cannot afford longer to permit the south a representation based on the population that has no word in the management of its own affairs, but is counted in merely to increase representation in congress.

PHILIPPINE NEWS.

Some Hot Engagements and the Natives Scatter.

Manila, Dec. 27.—Colonel J. Franklin Bell, of the Thirty-sixth infantry, encountered 15 Filipinos Thursday near Alaminos, province of Zambales, and killed, wounded or captured twenty-eight of them. Our troops also seized many rifles and some ammunition. One American was wounded.

A detachment of the Thirty-fourth infantry encountered a band of the enemy Saturday at Aritao, province of New Vizcaya, and routed them, killing two and wounding or capturing thirteen. The Americans also seized the insurgents' ammunition.

The Twenty-first regiment attacked a Filipino outpost Sunday near Calamba, scattering them and killing five. The Thirty-second Regiment Sunday had a brush with the enemy from the mountains northwest of Dinalupijan. One American was wounded. The troops captured 125 head of cattle and brought them to Orani, Bataan Province.

In the Island of Panay, Captain Brownell's company, of the Twenty-sixth infantry, fought the enemy near Sala. The rebels lost heavily and the Americans captured many rifles. The rebels, who fled from Panay to Romblon Island, are surrendering to the American garrison from Panay.

The funeral of Major-General Lawton will take place December 30. The remains will be sent home on the transport Thomas.

As From the Dead.

Chicago, Dec. 27.—A man, supposed to be dead, appeared in Chicago yesterday, and by signing a telegram made a New York life insurance company a persent of $10,000. This information was telegraphed to Los Angeles, Cal., thereby deepening a mystery that has puzzled the Western city since the supposed body of Aaron Wolfsohn was found on July 31 last in a lodging house under conditions that indicated suicide by axphyxiation.

Wolfsohn came to Chicago to see the attorney of the insurance company regarding a restitution to the company of the $10,000 insurance paid the Los Angeles County Public Administrator for the heirs of the supposed Wolfsohn.

Following the conference Wolfsohn wrote out the following telegram addressed to the public administrator of Los Angeles county:—

"I am alive and here in Chicago. I order you to release the money paid you by the insurance company immediately. I sign this telegram in the presence of my brother-in-law, my uncle and the company's attorney."

Why She Desponded.

Scranton, Pa., Dec. 27.—Because her father married for the third time, Lena Katatschnek, a deaf mute, tried to kill herself. She used a dull razor and will recover. When her father took his third wife, Lena went out to work as a servant. She was a good housekeeper and obtained employment easily. She sang at her work and was happy until her father's friends found her and frightened her with stories of the dire things that would befall her if she did not return home. To avoid all she sought death.

Chautauqua County Snowbound.

Dunkirk, Dec. 27.—Snow to the depth of three feet covers Chautauqua County. Country stage lines are completely blocked, while trains are from one to six hours late. Trains east on the Erie Railroad and south on the Allegheny Valley are unable to leave Dunkirk. Lake Shore and Nickel Plate trains are having great difficulty in getting through. Big gangs of men are at work shoveling the snow from the tracks. A Western New York and Pennsylvania train from Pittsburg for Buffalo is also snowbound here.

Oscar Wilde Wants a Duel.

Paris, Dec. 27.—The Echo de Paris says a duel is anticipated between Oscar Wilde and Richet, the explorer. They had an altercation in a cafe and exchanged cards. By the code duello a man who has served a penal sentence for crimes of the character of those for which Wilde was convicted does not have the right to demand satisfaction at arms. For this reason it is not generally believed that a meeting with Richet will result.

THE EARTHQUAKE SHOCK.

It Kills Six People in Southern California.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 27.—The towns of San Jacinto and Hemet, in Riverside county, have been badly shaken by an earthquake. The shock lasted twelve seconds.

At Saboba Indian reservation six squaws were killed by falling walls. Two others were fatally hurt and many seriously injured.

The shock caused dry artesian wells to flow larger streams than ever before.

In San Jacinto not a brick house or block escaped injury. Nearly all of the business portion is in ruins. The new Southern California Hospital caved in. It was not occupied.

In Hemet, the Hemet company's building is partly down. The front wall fell flat. The rear of the large Johnson Block also toppled over. Hemet's new hotel is a ruin.

Patrons in the third stories of hotels in Santa Anna were almost shaken out of their beds. Clocks were stopped, and the walls of several buildings were badly cracked.

Several buildings were cracked in Anheim and the streets were filled with frightened citizens, but no serious damage was done.

Reports coming in from other towns in the San Jacinto Valley tell similar stories of damaged buildings and scared inhabitants, but so far as known the only loss of life was at Saboba.

San Diego, Cal., Dec. 27.—The most severe shock of earthquake experienced in this city in fourteen years occurred early this morning, and was accompanied by a loud rumbling noise. The taller buildings in the city were severely shaken, but no serious damage was done.

A high wave struck the beach on the ocean front soon after the shock, but no damage was done to shipping. A slighter shock followed the first one.

San Jacinto is a town of recent growth, of about three thousand inhabitants, situated in Riverside county, Southern California. It is the most prosperous town in the San Jacinto Valley, which, during the last decade has attracted many settlers. The valley is fifteen miles wide and thirty miles long.

The town of San Jacinto is the centre of the agricultural interests of this valley. There are brick business blocks and school houses. Brick churches have also recently been built. The town is more nearly self-supporting than any other in the San Jacinto Valley. There are lime kilns, brick yards and sugar refineries within its limits. In the outlying farms the bottling and marketing of honey is a common industry.

BLOOD ON THE MOON.

A Sensational Story That Starts in Dunkirk.

Buffalo, N. Y., Dec. 27.—A special from Dunkirk says the Fenians are said to be organizing there for an invasion of Canada.

A man known to have knowledge of the condition of Fenian affairs in Dunkirk says that city has been called upon to raise 600 men to form a part of New York's quota of the 125,000 men that are to be enrolled throughout the country.

At the present time 500 men are known to be mustered with the Fenians at Dunkirk, and the remaining 100 will be obtained with little difficulty. It is currently reported and extensively credited that the Fenians have two car-loads of arms and munitions of war in concealment in or near that city. This material is said to have been in the possession of the Dunkirk Fenians for some years.

Machinists Are "Ratted."

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 27.—President S. B. Donnelly and Secretary J. H. Bramwood, of the International Typographical Union, has returned from a meeting of the Executive Council of the union in Pittsburg.

"We found that the Pittsburg publishers refused to meet with us or in any way recognize our council," said President Donnelly. "We have, as a result, 'ratted' the International Association of Machinists, and will have nothing more to do with them, either through arbitration or in any other way. The fight in Pittsburg will be fought to a finish."

Secretary Bramwood, in speaking of the resolution passed by the American Federation of Labor at Detroit, providing for a committee to investigate and report on the differences between the typographical union and the machinists said:—

"The Typographical Executive Council cannot appoint such a committee without a vote. This would take four months. The committee will not be appointed at all, at least, I think this way. The stereotypers in Pittsburg were called out but would not strike. The pressmen are not organized, hence were not called out. We have 'ratted' the stereotypers as well as the machinists at Pittsburg."

Shot and Killed in a Gambling House.

Weldon, Ill., Dec. 27.—Harry Somers a member of one of the oldest families in this county, was shot dead in a gambling house here by Doc Marcum, a farmhand, who came here recently from Kentucky. Marcum was pursued by a mob and narrowly escaped lynching. He was protected by the Sheriff, who placed him under arrest and hurried him to Clinton. Marcum says he shot in self-defense. Preparations have been made to resist any attempt on the part of Somers's friends to lynch the prisoner.

Allen B. Rorke Dead.

Philadelphia, Dec. 27.—Allen B. Rorke one of the most prominent business men and politicians in Pennsylvania, is dead.

He was a builder and contractor and erected many of the biggest buildings in this city, including the new mint.

He had been a National Republican Committeeman many years. He was

Col. Hoffman Succeeds Andrews.

Albany, Dec. 27.—The Governer has appointed Col. Edward Morris Hoffman of Elmira, now inspector of small arms and equipment in the National Guard, to be Adjutant-General, to succeed Avery D. Andrews resigned.

Germs Of Disease

Radam's Microbe Killer will stay the ravages of Consumption, stop the pains of Rheumatism, allay the itchings of Eczema, prevent the wasting in Bright's Disease, neutralize the gnawings of Dyspepsia, sweeten the foulest stomach and bring back a normal appetite to the suffering patient. The above are only a few of the many germ diseases: this remedy surely conquers these, and health is again restored.

RAD-M'S MICROBE KILLER

Perfectly harmless to human life, but certain destruction to the Germs and Bacteria of all disease.

If you are sick, this remedy should be taken immediately. Don't defer the trial until there is no hope. Write us for free book and advice at once.

Large Bottles, $1. Gallon Jugs, $3.

The Wm. Radam Microbe Killer Company, 121 PRINCE STREET, NEW YORK, or L. W. Randolph, Plainfield.

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT. Notice is hereby given, That the account of the subscriber, executor of Elizabeth D. Baker, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphan's Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the twenty-seventh day of December next.

Dated November 22d, 1899.

11 22 5 oaw SAMUEL C. MOUNT.

John G. Bantle,

First-class Ladies' and Gent's TAILOR.

428 Watchung Avenue.

Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.

We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1 25.
LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.
Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.

—CHRISTMAS GOODS—
A Big Assortment.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 2c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

Flynn Bros., SHOE DEALERS,

222 WEST FRONT STREET,
Near Music Hall,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .

in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated

DOMESTIC FINISH.

Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.

Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.
Trading Stamps given.

The City Steam & Hand Laundry

MORRY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B
19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

SELLING OUT
Below Cost
TO CLOSE BUSINESS
Star Crockery Store,
23 Somerset St., near Front.
3 and 9 cent Articles.
BARGAINS! BARGAINS!
Solomon & Evans,
Proprietors.

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING

is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job. That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.,
201 PARK AVE., Cor. 2d ST.
Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.
Estimates furnished. Telephone call 638

STATIONERY and TOYS.

We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles for the Holiday trade.
CHRISTMAS CARDS and CALENDARS.
We make a specialty of FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.

High Grade Cigars.

Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.

B. W. HAND,
205 W. Front Street.

McCullough's STEAM MILL.
at Steiner place, North Plainfie
R. H. McCullough, Prop'r
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished

RUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Street
Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11

M. POWERS,
DEALER IN
LEHIGH COAL.
FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A
Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

LADIES' TAILORING.
RICHARDSON & WALD,
325 West Front Street.
TAILOR-MADE GARMENTS.
We make a specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.
Alterations and relining promptly attended to.
—DRESSMAKING.—
Our Dressmaking Department is in charge of Madame Walsh.

THE GRANDVIEW Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

THE ENTRANCE TO THE DINING ROOM

will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us.
Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early.
The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too—everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get.

FRED ENDRESS,
131—135 WEST FRONT STREET.

November:

The mellow year is hasting to its close.
The merry birds have almost sung their last.
Their faint notes twitter in the dreary blast—
That shrill-piped harbinger of early snows.
And hint to you in good coal to invest
At seven forty-seven Front Street, west.

ALEX. LUSARDI.
211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery, nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores 9 9 1 year

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

LAIRE'S . .
HOLIDAY SPECIALS.

Carving knives.
U. S. club skates.
Roger's plated ware.
Fine pocket cutlery.
Silver finish coffee and tea pots.
Nickel on copper tea kettles.
Boys' sleighs.
Fine razors and hones.
Grand Rapid sweepers.
Baby Rapid sweepers.
Shinny sticks.
Christmas tree holders.
Coin silver ware, cheap.
Fine table cutlery.
Fine scissors and shears.
Corn poppers.

The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,
Tel. Call 682.

TRY THE QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,
No. 337 Park Avenue.
(Miller Building.)
Goods called for and delivered free of charge.
Domestic or gloss finish.

DOBBINS. CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.
317 West Front street.

J. W. VANSICKLE.
129 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly
TELEPHONE 148 b.

Your Valuables,
will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.
Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

GAS
For the Fire-place.
Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates.
Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.
CURTIS M. THORPE,
310-312 PARK AVENUE.
"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIREPLACE."

F. A. DUNHAM,
—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—
109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 109 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,
Watchmakers and Jewelers.
219 Park Avenue.

A. KANE,
Dealer in
BLUE STONE FLAGGING and CURBING.
Also Dealer in
Flour, Feed and Grain, Coal and Wood.
Store and Office
409 East Third St.,
Next to
THIRD STREET MISSION.
Open Evenings Until 8 o'Clock.

Chas. L. Stanley,
. . FLORIST . .
No. 142 North Ave.
HEADQUARTERS for choice Cut Flowers, Ferns, Palms, a large assortment of other plants.
Floral design work and decorating for all occasions. Satisfaction guaranteed; an immense stock of Holly, Wreaths, Roping, etc.
Annex stores for the Holidays,
134 North Ave,
South Ave, Netherwood,
and Central Ave., Westfield

M. Molnar,
432 Watchung Ave.,
Ladies' and Gents'
FINE TAILORING
Graduate of
New York Cutting School.
Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with old clothes and I will take chances of being entrusted with new work.

OUR OYSTERS ARE THE ---FINEST---
ROGERS
232 West Second Street.

E. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.
Paris for 1900.
Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.
Circulars at
181 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.
Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anaesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$4
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD,
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills
—25c.—
A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.
MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung avenues.

QUIET AT MODDER RIVER.

British Artillery Fails to Draw Boers Out.

DELAY OF DESPATCHES

Evidently Waiting for a Chance to Get Within Rifle Range—British Blew Up Colenso Bridge to Keep Boers from Crossing with Artillery—Col. Long May Recover.

London, Dec. 27.—The war office has received the following from Gen. Forestier-Walker at Cape Town, dated Dec. 25:

"No change at the Modder River. Methuen is well entrenched and the enemy does not disturb him.

"Gatacre reports that Col. Dalgetty with 150 Natal police has occupied Dordrecht. The Boers retreated. No losses."

Modder River, Dec. 19 (Delayed in transmission).—The British artillery fire four shots from the 47 inch guns, located near Manger's Cottage, this morning. There was no response from the Boers. Since the British artillery proved more powerful, the Boers have endeavored to conceal the location of their guns, and are evidently waiting to get within rifle range of the British.

No Boers have been descried since Dec. 16 except in the direction of Jacobsdal.

There has been another sandstorm and the heat is increasing.

Modder River, Dec. 20 (Delayed in transmission).—All permits to pass the pickets have been cancelled. A marked spot for milk, butter and vegetables has been established at the fourth line of pickets. Here licensed farmers are allowed to sell their produce between the hours of 6 and 9 a. m. daily. A tariff on each article has been fixed by the authorities.

British Wrecked Colenso Bridge.

Pietermaritzburg, Natal, Dec. 19 (Delayed in transmission).—A correspondent visited the convent hospital at Estcourt yesterday. The rooms are large and are very well suited for the purpose. The 140 wounded men there are progressing favorably and appear to be well cared for. Major Dowman is in charge.

The hospital is situated on high ground above the town. Col. Long and Major Salford are doing as well as could be expected, though they are dangerously hurt. No bullet has been extracted from Col. Long's body, and it is thought it must have passed clear through.

Gen. Wolfe-Murray inspected the Colonial Scouts here to-day. All the foreign military attaches were present. The patients in the hospital here are progressing favorably and there is reasonable hope of Col. Long's recovery. Te destruction of the Colenso road bridge by the British artillery was necessary in order to prevent the Boers' bringing artillery across. The weather is much cooler. Messages from the front are two days in transit.

Meat For Britain's Fighters.

Chicago, Dec. 27.—The employes of the canning department of Armour & Company, the stock yards, worked all Christmas morning filling a rush order sent by the British Government. For almost a week night and day shifts of men have been kept at work. Recently, it is said, two large orders came from the English Government officers for meats for the army. The supplies are intended for the British forces in South Africa. Yesterday morning a large force was put at work. At noon such progress had been made that work was discontinued until to-day. It is expected that the order will be filled before the week is out. The supplies will be carried east in special trains and shipped at once to Cape Town.

Cast Bread on Quincy Bay.

Boston, Dec. 27.—A party of Hebrews who had lost two frends who were drowned in Quincy Bay on Saturday made an attempt to find trace of the bodies yesterday according to an old custom. They took their stand on the Hull shore at a place where it was known the two men had put off in a boat, and taking a loaf of bread from its wrappings, they set it afloat in the water with a red candle aflame set into it as in a candlestick. According to the old belief, the bread would float to a place in the water directly above where the bodies of the two men lay. Instead, however, yesterday it persisted in floating ashore, and after several hours' trial, the men gave it up and went home.

Race War in Richmond, Va.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 27.—There was a race war here yesterday which threatened at one time to assume serious proportions. Three negroes attacked a white man and beat him. Other whites came to his assistance, and in a short time there were probably two hundred persons on the ground engaged in fighting with rocks, knives and sticks. The fight took place in a quarter where there are a number of negro houses. The whites threatened to burn these down, and only the timely arrival of the police prevented them from carrying out their intentions. A large number of both races were arrested and the riot quelled.

In a riot at Columbia, Va., one negro was killed and three others wounded by Special Policeman Jordan.

Boy Choked to Death by a Nut.

Paterson, N. J., Dec. 27.—Daniel Fifehouse, 7 years old, was eating hickory nuts Christmas and a piece of a nut choked him. His mother slapped his back and after a time he seemed to be wholly well. Six hours later he died suddenly. The piece of nut had caught at the larynx, finally falling in and cutting off his breath.

Four Killed in Train Wreck.

Missoula, Mon., Dec. 27.—Four men were killed and several injured to-day in a wreck on the Northern Pacific Railroad, six miles east of Bear Mouth. The dead are: Engineer K. B. Rheim, Fireman C. A. Dickson, and two tramps.

EDUCATIONAL

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.
(City Bank Building.)
Adelia C. Phelps will resume work Sept. 26th. Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
PIANO AND THEORY
Home Studio,
182 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN,
Address—60 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

Piano Instruction
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes
Elementary Classes.
Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Duff.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
16 Vine St. All work promptly attended to

Defective Eyes.
Overstrained and Defective Eyes are the cause of many a
HEADACHE.
Correctly-fitted Glasses will remedy the trouble. A Scientific Examination Free and Glasses Guaranteed.
STILES & CO.,
107 E. Front St.
EVERY THURSDAY.
Hours: 10:30 to 5:00.

: : Pride's Tonsorial Parlor : :
94 SOMERSET STREET,
opposite Somerset Hotel.
Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty . . . .
CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.
WILLIAM J. PRIDE,
formerly with R. B. Maynard.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun John P. Emmot
Telephone 601

Don't miss the Special Sale for the holidays of FRAMES,
EASELS,
and PICTURES
AT REDUCED PRICES,
given by the
Guarantee Portrait Studio,
142 East Front Street.
Fine drawings in Crayons and Pastels from all kinds of photographs. All kinds of frames from the latest styles of mouldings made to order at the lowest prices.

THAT'S THE IDEA!
You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.
Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL.
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Prop'r.

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.
NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 p. m
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.
SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m.; 2:30 and 4:30 p. m.
PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a.m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p.m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.
SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
E. H. BIRD, P M.

Corporation Notice.

of application to the Court of Common Pleas for the appointment of Commissioners to assess benefits for street improvements.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, pursuant to Chapter 200 of the laws of 1898, entitled, "An Act to authorize the improvement of streets and highways in cities of this State, and to provide for the payment of the expense of the same," approved June 13th, 1898, and the amendments thereof and supplements thereto, that application will be made by the Common Council of the City of Plainfield to the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Union at the Court House in the City of Elizabeth on the thirtieth day of December, A. D. 1899, at the hour of ten o clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as the said Court can hear the said application, for the appointment of three Commissioners, who shall be freeholders and residents of the City of Plainfield, as Commissioners to estimate and assess benefits respectively conferred by the permanent improvement of streets under the several ordinances of said City, respectively entitled:

"An Ordinance for macadamizing East Sixth Street between Watchung Avenue and Richmond Street, excepting where already macadamized," approved Oct. 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing Franklin Place between LaGrande Avenue and East Fifth Street," approved Oct 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing East Ninth Street between Park Avenue and Watchung Avenue," approved Oct. 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing West Fourth Street between New Street and Monroe Avenue," approved Feb. 9th. 1899.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing West Third Street between Madison Avenue and Monroe Avenue, excepting where already macadamized," approved Feb. 9th, 1899.

and to perform the duties and execute the powers conferred by said Acts of the Legislature.

By order of the Common Council of the City of Plainfield.

JAMES T. MACMURRAY,
City Clerk of the City of Plainfield.
Dated, December 18, 1899. 12 19 td

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS.
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Hire for Picnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections.
210 PARK AVE.

H. E. Gayle, 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

THE
First National Bank,
of Plainfield, N. J.
Capital .....$200,000.
Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000.
J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.
DIRECTORS.
Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Coriell.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.
VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

EXACT COPY OF WRAPPER.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.
In Use For Over Thirty Years
CASTORIA
THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

WANTED
25 Mechanics

and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.

Agent on the Grounds SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.

. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

DOLGE FELT SLIPPERS
are the best and they make the best
CHRISTMAS GIFTS.
And a pair of the "VanArsdale Shoes" would be a sensible gift, too.
Van Arsdale,
127 E. Front St.
Shoes for Everybody at Popular Prices.

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.
Sherwins,
149 W. Front St.

Holiday Goods.

Why you should see our assortment; a walk through our store will be the easiest way to solve the problem of what to get for presents for young and old.

Our line of fancy articles consists of everything imaginable in Celluloid, Plush and Glass Ware.

Handkerchiefs, gloves, neckwear, hosiery, umbrellas and dress goods of all kinds and all prices. Furs and worsted goods of every description.

DOLLS . . .

Dolls of all kinds can be found on our doll counter. our assortment is bewildering in their novelty, extent and attractiveness. Our prices are lower than any other house will quote for the same article.

TOYS -:- -:-

Our Toy Department in the basement is larger than ever before. No such collection was ever gathered here before, and it is safe to say there is no better stock in town in point of variety, there is no stock in town that equals ours in prices that's certain.

Children's velocipedes, tricycles, battleships, iron toys of all kinds, tool chests, wash sets, soldier sets, dishes, horse and wagons, chairs, printing presses, electric batteries, express wagons, magic lanterns, etc.

I. H. Boehm, 109-111-113 West Front Street

CLARK'S CASE A PROBLEM

Senators Seem to Doubt Montana's Political Honor.

THE MAN'S VAST WEALTH

Said to Have the Largest Income of Any Man in America, and Why Should He Not be in the Senate?—Action of the Montana Supreme Court—Big Sum to Buy an Office.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 27.—Interest in the Clark contest has been revived by the action of the Montana Supreme Court in disbarring Attorney Wellcome, who is charged with having offered bribes in the interest of Senator Clark, but it is well to keep in sight the claim of the Clark men that the famous $30,000 on which the bribery charges are based was put up by political opponents. To the ordinary man, $30,000 is a good big sum, but to men like those engaged in Montana politics it is apparently no more than the ordinary man's daily cigar money.

There is a disposition among members of the senate to look upon the action of the Montana Suprem Court as only a part of the fight on Clark. That disposition implies the possession on the part of senators of a rather dubious opinion of the Supreme Court of Montana. Whether this is in any way justified nobody here seems able to say. But all of the senators who have looked into the case seem to be willing to believe anything at all about Montana. The political conditions out there are not regarded with any degree of admiration. There has been much rottenness of one kind or another, and senators who will say nothing in criticism of the local Supreme Court are still willing to believe any and all things possible.

Tre Clarke case will come up before the committee in two or three weeks, and the whole condition of affairs out there will be ventilated. This will serve to again draw the attention of the country to the personality of Senator Clark, who is one of the unique figures of his generation. A resident of New York in a sense, largely interested in business enterprises of the metropolis, he holds a senatorship from the state which has been the scene of his great sagacity. A common miner at the beginning he is now one of America's acknowledged connoisseurs of art, owning one of the finest galleries in the country. A copper king, he has operated successfully in gold, silver and lead. He has built and owns railroads, he has promoted and owns whole towns in the West; has manufactured sugar from beets; he has mined coal, grown tobacco, sugar cane, rubber, coffee and ta successfully; he is a banker and a stock grower, and he has succeeded in everything.

In Mrs. Langtry's play, "The Degenerates" there is a man whose touch means gold. He can't help winning at every game he plays. Senator Clark seems to be that sort of man. From one piece of property alone he has an income of $30,000 a day. That is the United Verde Copper Mine, which, on the basis of its income, has been figured out to be worth $370,000,000. Mr. Clark, it is declared, has a larger cash income than any other man in America. He is not nlike the late Senator Brice in looks—short, with small beard and curly hair. He wears the Brice carnation in his coat, and has the same secretary to look after his political interests.

BRACED BY STIMULANTS.

Molineux's Nerves Are Stronger—The Trial Proceeds.

New York, Dec. 27.—Recruited by stimulants and special training, ordered by Recorder Goff, Molineux's nerves wer visibly stronger to-day. The chance of the trial being interrupted by a breakdown is for the present averted.

Strangely enough, two of the handwriting experts placed on the stand by the State declared that they discovered in the chirography of the prisoner the characteristics which would indicate a collapse in the face of the terrific strain to which he has been submitted for six weeks.

Kinsley asserts that he found a marked nerve tremor in the lines traced by Molineux's pen—like that which told in the prosecution of Dr. S. J. Kennedy for the murder of Dolly Reynolds.

In a letter written by Molineux on the day after Mrs. Adams died, Expert Kinsley says that he found the same signs of deep mental agitation.

The other expert in the Molineux trial who read collapse in the prisoner's pen strokes is the man whose examination is resumed to-day. Henry L. Tolman, of Chicago. In the rapid diminution of the size of the letters, starting with large initials, he read a weakness of will, sometimes seeing two spasms of renewed energy—two renewals of the will force before a word was completed.

This evidence, as it was being delivered, had a visible effect upon Molineux.

Attacked by a Ram.

East Hampton, Conn., Dec. 27.—Mrs. Jane Willard, of Clark's Hill was attacked by a vicious ram. He butted her and knocked her down. Four times she arose; four times the ram butted her down. Mrs. Willard, who is a septuagenarian, was almost exhausted when her shrieks brought Miss Ackley, a nimble-witted girl, who stripped off her apron and dashed it in the ram's face. While the brute was destroying it Miss Ackley helped Mrs. Willard over a fence to safety.

Roasted in a Furnace.

Camden, N. J., Dec. 27.—Julius Leonard, a homeless colored man, was found roasted to death to-day in a furnace of Wright's Lime Kiln. He went to sleep on a bed of oyster shells on top of the kiln. The shells gradually disappeared into the kiln and Leonard went with them.

It is believed that he was stupefied by the gases which arose from the kiln and that he was unconscious when he dropped into the furnace.

EXAMINE BEFORE YOU BUY.

When in a grocer's store you stand
And cakes of Ivory Soap demand,
Be careful not to be mislead
And imitations take instead.
For dealers oft will praises sing
Of that which may more profit bring.
Examine well with careful eye
The cake until the name you spy,
And always thus be well assured
That Ivory Soap you have procured;
And should a lingering doubt remain,
'Twill vanish like the darkest stain,
When in the tub on washing day
That cake of soap is brought in play.

Copyright, 1899, by The Procter & Gamble Co., Cincinnati.

MENELIK'S MENACE.

He Is Putting a Great Army in the Field.

London, Dec. 27.—King Menelik, of Abyssinia, is sending a force to conquer the province of Tigre, according to a dispatch received from Rome.

This adds a new complication to England's war in South Africa, for by the terms of a convention between England and Italy, either country is bound to furnish an army to aid the other in case of a war with the natives, and Tigre province is claimed by Italy.

Envoys from France and Russia are credited with stirring up Menelik to go to war at this time, hoping by new entanglements to embarras England in the war with the Boers.

War with Menelik's fierce tribesmen mill be no child's play for the Abyssinian King has on several occasions forced Italy to surrender territory claimed by that nation.

Trustworthy advices recently received here said that Menelik had assembled an army of 100,000 men, with plenty of artillery, but the object of this warlike demonstration was not then known.

Captain Ciccodicola, the Italian envoy to Abyssinia, officially reported to his government a month ago that the intrigues of other powers were rousing Menelik and he feared trouble.

Menelik is known to have imported within the past two years 300,000 French rifles, with several thousand Remingtons, Winchesters and Martinis, as well as rapid-fire guns and ammunition, 6,000 revolvers, 25,000 blades for lances and 4,000,000 cartridges.

Count Antonelli estimates at 200,000 warriors the forces Menelik could put in the field, fully armed and equipped.

Menelik claims dominion extending to the White Nile, near Fashoda, and war with Italy in Tigre might quickly extend to threaten English possessions, since England will never consent to having the Abyssinians control one side of the White Nile.

LASSOED A BEAR.

Method Which Succeeded in the Capture of an Escaped Animal.

Buffalo, N. Y., Dec. 27.—In capturing a big black bear four miles east of Pine Hill, John Miller adopted a novel method. He lassoed the bear while running his hrose full speed past the beast.

The bear escaped from the summer garden of John Schwab, in East Genesee street, this city, last Friday morning, nd the surrounding country was in a state of terror until yesterday. Schwab and his son Henry, Frank and John Schifferle, Herman Bormrost and Miller started on horses to hunt the bear at once, and after a search of three days and nights traced it to the farm of Henry Stilke.

Bruin had taken refuge in a wood, but wandered out and across a field, just before the horsemen arrived. He was chased across the field, through a creek and cornered against a fence. He was hungry and in a vicious mood, and no man in the party was anxious to try his capture. Finally Miller got a rope, made a noose, and urging his horse ahead a ta gallop passed the bear, dropped the noose over its head and dragged it off its feet. Then Miller leaped from his horse, made the rope fast to a tree and got out of reach before the bear ceased to turn somersaults. A big drygoods box was found, and with long poles the men prodded the animal into the box.

Blind Man Kills His Wife.

Baltimore, Dec. 27.—Franklin B. Livingston, a blind man, aged fifty-six years, has choked his wife, Rosie Livingston, to death, at their home, 1160 Columbia avenue. Livingston surrendered himself to the police and said he acted in self-defense. He added:

"My wife and I have been sleeping in separate rooms for several weeks. She came into my room to-day and called me. We had some words and she attempted to smother me with a feather bed. I resisted, and we had a tussle, during which she got my hand in her mouth and bit it with her teeth, which are false. I pushed her away, but she returned and the struggle continued. I found her throat with my hands and choked her. She fell to the floor. I felt something wet on my vest and shirt, which I was wearing, and feeling her body found it wet also. I took off my clothes and hers also and [illegible] in the kitchen stove.

"I receive a pension of $72 a month for the loss of my eyes, which happened at the battle of Fair Oaks in 1862 during the Civil War, when a shell exploded, wounding me in the head and feet. I served in Company A, Sixty-sixth New York Regiment."

Hounds After Escaped Negro.

Pittsburg, Ky., Dec. 27.—On Redbird Creek, Clay county, last night, Alexander Fisher, recently associated with the Griffins in their feud with the Philpots, was shot and killed by his brother, Pies Fisher. The men were drinking when they got to discussing the Philpots. Pies took up for the Philpots, and Alexander attacked him, shooting him twice. Pies drew his revolver and sent a bullet into the brain of his brother, and then made his escape.

It was on Sunday night that a mule belonging to Phelix Davison was killed. Davison is a friend of the White faction, and this act is aid to be likely to reopen the Baker-White feud. Sam Philpot, who killed Ned Rogers a few days ago, has escaped from custody and is at large. James Philpot, who is charged with assisting his brother, is in jail.

Feud Leads to Fratricide.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 27.—Walter Cotton, a negro who was in jail at Portsmouth, under sentence of death, has walked off and has not yet been recaptured. Cotton was to have been hanged on Jan. 12 for the murder of Charles Wyatt, a storekeeper of Portsmouth.

A death watch had been set upon him and while the watchers slept, Cotton escaped. He is believed to have made for the Dismal Swamp, and bloodhounds, which have been put upon the scent, are reported to have followed his trail into the great swamp.

The hounds traced him first to a rowboat lying at the Seaboard Railroad wharf, and taken in this across the harbor, tok up the scent on landing at Berkley. They are of the pack of Hurricane Branch, a locally famous thief taker.

In Sympathy With the Boers.

Boston, Dec. 27.—Three prominent Irishmen, residents of Charlestown, have issued a call to sympathizers with the Boers to assemble in Monument Hall, Charleston, next Tuesday evening, to formulate some scheme whereby practical assistance may be given the burghers in their struggle against England. The circular says:

"As England's difficulty is Ireland's opportunity, every Irishman and lover of liberty in this locality will rally round the green flag and try to devise some plan to strike a blow at the arch robber, England, in her supreme hour of peril. Faugh-a-ballagh now or never, down with England England's difficulty is Ireland's opportunity; Limerick; remember '98; remember Mitchelltown."

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair and continued cold; winds northwest.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

New York, Nov. 27.—With no London quotations to serve as an index, the upward movement of prices in the stock market was continued from Saturday under further demand from shorts to cover.

The specialties were most conspicuous, Sugar, People's Gas, Tennessee Coal and Metropolitan rising from 1 to 3 points.

A number of the international railroad stocks rose over a point. Burlington was an exception to the list, with a fractional decline.

Cash prices for staples:
Wheat, No. 2 red, .73¾.
Corn, No. 2 mixed, .39⅞.
Oats, No. 2 mixed, .29.
Flour, Minnesota patents, $3.95.
Cotton, middling, 7 9-16.
Molasses, O. K. prime, .36.
Coffee, No. 7 Rio, .06¾.
Sugar, granulated, 5.18.
Beef, family, 12.75.
Beef hams, 22.75.
Tallow, prime, .06.
Pork, mess, 10.25.
Hogs, dressed, 160 lb, .05¾.
Lard, prime, 5.65.
Iron, Northern No. 1 foundry, 22.00.
Butter, Western creamery, .2[illegible].

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

108 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week
$5 a year—in advance.
No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada
Delivered by carrier or by mail.
The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district
Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on request.
Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., DEC. 27, 1899

COMING EVENTS.

Dec. 31—Adjutant Emily C. March will speak at the men's rally at the Y. M. C. A. at 4:15 p. m.
January 1—Open house at Y. M. C. A. All men are invited.
January 1—Miss DeVilliers and Miss Carolyn L. Slug in Y. M. C. A. Star Course.
Jan. 2—Meeting of Missionary Study Class of the Y. M. C. A.
Jan. 8—Meeting of Literary Society of the Y. M. C. A.

Legislative Leaders.

Senator Sewell having viewed with his superior political eye the list of the Republican Assemblyman that will make up the Lower House at the approaching Legislative session Speaker-to-be Jones is prepared to tell who will get the chairmanships of the various committees. Senator Sewell is thoroughly versant with the political predilections of the Assemblymen-elect, and it can be accepted as a fact that when he sets his seal of approval upon any one of them for a certain position, the favored man need have no fear but what he will get there.

Assemblyman Edmund W. Walklee, of Bergen, because of his office as chairman of caucus and leader, will be the chairman of the Judiciary Committee. He will also be chairman of the House Committee on Appropriations.

Assemblyman Lewis, of Passaic, who gracefully gave way as a candidate for Speaker, will be the chairman of the Revision of Laws.

Jacob Clark, of Essex county, gets the chairmanship of the Committee on Railroads and Canals. Assemblyman Bradley, of Camden, who aspired to the Speakership, gets the assignment on Municipal Corporations, and Assemblyman Wood, of Mercer, gets the Committee on Corporations. He, however, is not pleased with the assignment and may ask for a change. He wanted to be at the head of the Judiciary Committee, but that could not be arranged for him.

Assemblyman Dexheimer gets the chairmanship of Printed Bills, which is equal to the former committee on engrossed bills. Assemblyman Klein, of Essex, gets Town and Townships.

Last year the Union county trio of Assemblymen wielded a great deal of influence in the Legislature, all having served previous terms. However, Union county will not cut quite such a figure this year on account of the Assemblymen all being men new to Legislative business. When Speaker-to-be Jones apportions the memberships of the committees it will be possible then to tell just about how prominent and active the Union county delegation will be. A member of the Assembly may be bright and aggressive, but unless he captures a good place on an important committee he will find himself working against overwhelming odds throughout the session.

Taxing "Right of Way."

The outcome of the movement of the Newark taxing authorities to assess taxes against the corporations doing busing in that city for the "right of way" in public streets, which has already encountered the opposition of the corporations, will be watched with great interest. If it is possible for municipalities to put an assessment against a company for "right of way" over and above what is already paid for the franchise to operate, a great income is opened up to towns and cities that have such perquisites in trolley, telephone electrical, gas and water companies.

A tax bill for $22,158.40 has been sent to the North Jersey Street Railway Company by the Newark authorities, but it is more than likely that the city will have to make a fight before it will get the money. The amount represents the city's claim on the assessment for the company's "right of way."

In speaking of the board's action David Young, general manager of the New Jersey Company, says:

"The company will most assuredly not pay this extra tax, because it is unjust, unwarranted and illegal.

"There are two courses for us to pursue. We may either appeal to the courts or we may file an appeal with the State Board of Taxation. The North Jersey Street Railway Company has paid and will continue to pay the taxes legally assessed against it, but cannot submit to the extra assessment, because it is contrary to law."

Tax Commissioner Vogt, to whom the assessment was referred for collection, says:

"If the money is not paid to me by January 20, 1900, I shall notify the Comptroller that the taxes are in arrears. Then, I suppose, the usual course will be taken. The property of the street railway company will be advertised for sale on account of unpaid taxes, and will be offered to the highest bidder, the same as other properties, unless the courts intervene."

With the development of Plainfield in laying out streets and building sites, are not the managers of Muhlenberg Hospital slow in not settling upon a site for a new and enlarged buildings of that institution? To delay this subject will only increase the cost, since day by day real estate values in Plainfield are sure to rise.

The reason why Tom Platt and his cohorts are opposed to the report of the counsel of the Mazet Investigating Committee, is probably conveyed in the fact that it is Moss-backed.

President McKinley has been ordered by his physician to do more walking. This will not interfere with his running again in 1900, but he may not be able to win in a walk.

Congressman Daly says that the free silver issue is dead. The Hudson county gentleman's statement is in strange contrast to his previous utterances.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

The Women's Exchange, of Trenton, lately had a bread-baking contest, and of the four prize-winners three were young, unmarried and pretty. Unless the young men of Trenton are bigger chumps than they are gennerally supposed to be, these three young women have ere this become the prizes in a matrimonial contest with the privilege of picking the winners.

* * * * *

A Jersey City newspaper notes that Allen Benny, of Bayonne, has been chosen leader of the Democratic minority in the Assembly and that Allan L. McDermott will hold a similar place in the Senate, and naively adds that "Hudson will probably be heard from a great deal during the coming session." Hudson is heard from a great deal at every session and between sessions. There is something in the atmosphere over there which produces a spontaneous flow of language without any accompanying ideas, and the phenomenon is never more marked than at the sessions of the Legislature.

* * * * *

Announcement is made that the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company will build its new ferry house, on its New York ferry line, on Black Tom. For several years the island off the Communipaw shore which bears this name literally stank in the nostrils of the people. It was about the first bit of new ground the Jersey Central rescued from the waters. The company began filling in the river with all the ill-smelling refuse it could gather in New York and Brooklyn, and the stench that arose from it imperilled the health of every resident of the city. The improvement was attacked in the Legislature and in the courts and in the public press, but without avail. The Lehigh Valley Railroad Company has long been struggling for a terminal on the water front, at Jersey City, and its efforts to secure it were the occasion, years ago, of the bitterest of railroad struggles, both in the courts and in the Legislature. At one time it had in mind to utilize the bed of the Morris canal, which it had acquired, to tidewater. The best it has ever been able to do, however, has been to make with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company an arrangement for the use of that transportation concern's tracks to the river. It has succeeded of late, however, in forcing an independent track through Jersey City; and now it has, through the Standard Oil Company, bought out the water rights of the Jersey Central at Black Tom. Upon the upland thus acquired an extensive system of railroad buildings and ferry houses is to be erected.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

—The Plainfield physicians will hold their regular meeting and banquet next week.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it: no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,
122 East Front Street.

Just For A Day
IN OUR
BASEMENT!

Solid Oak Writing Desk and Bookcase, value $12.98, only a few at - $9.69
Bookcase in Golden Oak, 27 in. wide, 55 in. high, value $3.50, 6 to go at $2.87
$5.98 Oak Writing Desk - - - $4.98
9.45 " " " - - - 7.98
9.95 " " " - - - 8.40
11.40 " " " - - - 9.80
$15.00 Full-size Couch, Best Steel Springs, six styles Figured Velours, extra value at - - - - $10.50
Solid Oak 5 drawer Chiffonier, value 6.50, for Saturday - - $4.98
A full line of Chiffoniers up to $19.95.
18-in Top Oak Tables - - - 85c
22-in " " " - - - 1.25
24-in " " " - - 1.48
A special 20-in Birdseye Maple Table $1.98
Tables at 2.98, 3.75, 4.48, 4.98.
These Goods Cannot be Duplicated in the Town for the Price.

LAMPS! LAMPS!
LAMPS!

Lamps at 1.98, 2.98, 3.48, 3.98 and 4.98, that are exceptional good values.
Toilet Sets in Domestic and imported porcelain from 1.98 to 12.00.

Doll Carriages and Go-Carts.

If in doubt what to give the little girl for Christmas buy her a Go-Cart for her doll. We have them in infinite variety, from 49c to 4.98.

MORRIS CHAIRS.

Solid Oak Frame, Velour Cushions, extra large and roomy, - - - 4.98
In Denim Cushions, - - 3.98
High Grade Morris Chairs from 6.48 to 14.98

FANCY ROCKERS.

4 styles, some in Fancy Velours, spring seat, saddle seat or leather seat at - - 2.98
Others in oak and mahogany - 3.48 to 5.00

WOODHULL & MARTIN,
234, 236, 238, 246 W. Front Street.

PECK'S CORNER.

PECK is in the . . . . . FRONT RANK
Because he deserves it.

Merry Christmas. Happy New Year.
To those who contemplate making
Christmas Presents
I advise you to call and see the
Handsome Building Lots
At Woodland Park, Plainfield.
Suited for a king or prince. Or some of our one or two acre Plots for Raising Poultry, &c. You can buy these properties at Low Prices, monthly payments guaranteed title. These properties will double in value in two or three years. Other investments to suit all.
SILAS D. DRAKE,
175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

Special Sale
OF
Clothing and Furnishing Goods

for the holidays. Fifty cents buys a dollar's worth of Clothing during this sale of stocks closed out to us from the largest clothing manufacturers of Boston, Mass., and Rochester, N. Y., at less than half the real value. We have the whip hand of competition to this end. Those who try to compete with us in quality cannot touch us in price, and those who meet our prices cannot supply our quality of goods. Every man wearing good clothes and wants to buy them at the right price should not fail to see us before going elsewhere. Here are some SPECIAL PRICES on goods SUITABLE for CHRISTMAS PRESENTS:

Smoking Jackets at $1.25!
Men's double-breasted Jersey coats strictly all wool, in black only, at 2.50, real value 4.50.
Men's Fancy Vests, double breasted, in loud patterns, would make a handsome present for any gentleman at 1.25 and 1.50 and up to 3.00, which would cost you in any other store in Plainfield from 3.00 to 5.00.
Men's strictly all-wool worsted Trousers made in the newest shape and colorings at 1.50, 1.75 and 2.25, our former prices were from 2.50 to 4.50.
Childs's Reefer coats at 1.00 and 1.50 would easily command 2.50.
Men's Business Suits strictly all wool in cheviots, cassimeres and Scotch cheviots at 3.50 & 4.25 worth double.
SPECIALS IN OVERCOATS FOR THIS SALE.
Men's Oxford Grey Overcoats strictly all wool, very stylish at 5 25. Men's black or blue beaver overcoats, good and heavy and all wool at 4.75
Men's Overcoats all wool meltons, kerseys and friezes, short cut box overcoats, handsomely lined, at 5.90 & 6 50. They are the best value ever offered.
ONE HUNDRED of the very finest grade of men's overcoats including patent meltons, kerseys and vicunas, silk or satin lined, the very newest styles, these garments are sold from 15.00 to 20.00 to be sold at 7.50 and 8.25.
Men's Ulsters 3.00 and upwards.
Children's Suits from 75c to 3.50.
Boys' Overcoats 1 75 and upwards.
Men's Sweaters 50c, 75c and 1 25.
Men's Half-hose, all wool, at 9c. Suspenders at 5c and up. Dress shirts at 35c and 45c. And 1,000 other articles that could be bought for Christmas presents and which would be appreciated more than anything else for the same amount of money.

New York Clothing Company
M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.
Plainfield, N. J.

THE BOOT SHOP
AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,
107 Park Avenue.

Great Millinery Sale
Continued For One Week.
Two to three hundred Felt Hats that were 39c and 50c now on sale for 15c and 19c.
$5.00 hats reduced to $2.98.
Great Reduction in Birds, Feathers and Ribbons.
Millinery Parlors,
L. A. DALY,
Corner W. Front St. and Central Ave
12 16 6

CHARLES ARNOLD,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats,
POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON
203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.
Telephone 238.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store 128 Park avenue. 10 1

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, Dec. 27—Charles Carroll, who assaulted John Stein, of Plainfield, Christmas night, was released from custody by Justice Storms, of New Market, yesterday, no one appearing to prefer a charge against him. Stein is said to have been the aggressor in the fight. The row did not take place in Danz's Hotel, but in the highway near the hotel.

The funeral of Miss Annie Williams, who died Saturday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. Paul Reusch, after several weeks' illness from inflammation and rheumatism, was held from the house at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning. The body was taken to Cootown for burial. Miss Williams was 29 years of age.

The entertainment of the Sunday-school of the Baptist church, at New Market, last evening, was a highly successful affair. There were recitations by the children and music by the school. After the literary portion of the programme a reception was held and refreshments served.

The Cantata given at the M. E. church last evening was well attended, and those who took part in it acquitted themselves creditably. The children were given boxes of candy and oranges.

Poultry thieves are about again. On Saturday night the hen house of John Cail, of Jefferson avenue, was broken into and four of Mr. Cail's choice fowls stolen.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M.E. church will hold a dime social at the home of Mrs. Wertz on Prospect avenue tomorrow night. The public is invited.

The Christmas exercises of the Sunday school of Holy Innocents' Episcopal church, will be held tomorrow evening.

G. Elston Lowrie, who founded the Dunellen Call, is visiting his family in this place.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 27—Those who are interested in the circulation of the petition against the granting of liquor licenses in the town say they are meeting with good success in getting signers for the remonstrance. While those who are in favor of license claim that the majority of the signers are women and children and that very few freeholders and voters are interested. There is no mistake, both sides are preparing for a tug-of-war when "Greek Meets Greek."

The members of the Baptist Sunday-school will celebrate their Christmas tide Thursday evening in the church. To accomodate those living in Fanwood, arrangements have been made to have the stage run from the Fanwood postoffice at 7:30. Entertainment begins at 8 o'clock.

Fanwood Council, R. A., held an interesting meeting in their rooms last evening. Arrangements were completed for the installation of the recently elected officers at the first meeting in January.

There will be no meeting of the Sacred Literature Society connected with the Baptist Young People's Association in the church this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Coes Acheson and family, of Hazlet, have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Acheson's parents, Mr. and Mrs Joseph Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gere, of Brooklyn, who have been spending Christmas with their daughter, Mrs. T. M. Paff, Jr., have returned home.

The Episcopal Sunday-school will hold their Christmas entertainment in the church tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hazel, of Elizabeth, have been the guests of relatives in town for a short visit.

Richard Hart, of New York city, has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Archibold.

A Christmas Sociable.

A Christmas sociable was given Monday evening by Miss Lulu Windham, of Fairview avenue, and a very pleasant evening was passed in singing and playing games, after which refreshments were served. Among those present were Mr. Prince, Mrs. Philpitt, Miss Lulu Dantz, Mr. Mayr, Miss Carry Dantz, Miss Bertha Philpitt, Miss Mamie Philpitt, Miss Fawn, Mrs. Fawn, Mr. Gaston, Mr. Burdick, Mr. Stiglitz, Mr. Dantz.

Bon Ami

The New Cleaner

HAS MERITS THAT ARE UNEQUALED. THOSE WHO USE IT SAY, "COULDN'T DO WITHOUT IT."

THE WISE WEATHER CLERK.

The Funnyland clerk of the weather Doesn't waste his time finding out whether Tomorrow 'll be blowy,
Or sunny or snowy,
Oh! he's wiser than that altogether.
He carefully studies the past,
And runs up a flag on the mast,
So that people can see
If there's going to be
A thunderstorm week before last.
And when yesterday promises fair
When the sun will be hot and aglare,
People hitch a balloon
To the edge of the moon
And dive off and swim round in the air,
For they never get drowned in the air.
—Albert W. Smith, in the January Ladies' Home Journal.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders

—Gavett has the Miller Oil Heater, a good lamp.

—The Christmas entertainment at Hope chapel will be held this evening.

—The regular meeting of Unity Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will be held this evening.

—Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. of T., will hold a regular conclave next Monday evening.

—Lucetta Council, No. 28, Daughters of Liberty, will meet this evening in regular session.

—A regular communication of Jerusalem Chapter, No 24, R. A. M., will be held tomorrow night.

—Mons. DeVilliers and Miss Carolyn Laying in Y. M. C. A. Star Course January 1st, 8 p. m. See ad.

—St Stephen's church will hold its Christmas festival tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the church.

—Friendship Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, will meet tomorrow night and consider matters of importance.

—It pays you to brave disagreeable weather when you can be greeted with such a sunshiney store as Peck's —Tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock the Christmas entertainment will be held at St. Stephen's church, Netherwood.

—Four more second hand trolley cars from Brooklyn have arrived in Plainfield and will soon be placed in service.

—The Christmas entertainment of the Church of the Heavenly Rest will be held in the parish house tomorrow evening.

—The members of Warren Engine Company, of the borough, will meet Friday evening and take up important matters, —Important business will be considered by Old Glory Council, Daughters of Liberty, at their meeting next Monday evening.

—The Primary department of the First Baptist Sunday-school will hold their Christmas entertainment tomorrow afternoon.

—The annual Christmas tree at the Grace P. E church will be held tomorrow evening in the parish house on East Sixth street.

—Officers will be elected this evening at the meeting of Unity Lodge, No. 102, K. of P., and a full attendance of members is requested.

—Doane & Edsall put on sale today another large shipment of "Sorosis," the popular shoe for women, and can fit almost any foot now.

—A very important meeting of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., will be held this evening and every member is particularly requested to attend.

—The Sunday-school of the Seventh-Day Baptist church has arranged an elaborate programme for the Christmas entertainment that will be held this evening.

—VanArsdyle says if you left shoes, slippers or rubber boots off your list Christmas, you have an opportunity to give them New Year's. They go just the same then.

—Next Sunday at the Crescent Avenue church the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed. In the morning the offering will be for Muhlenberg Hospital.

—The annual Christmas entertainment will be held at Hope chapel tomorrow night when there will be views of the Life of Christ exhibited by Rev. Garret Conover, of Nyack N. Y.

—Tomorrow evening there will be election of officers at the meeting of Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M. A Christmas celebration will follow when every member will receive a present.

—Do you have frequent headaches? If so, look to your eyes. We will examine them without cost to you. Stiles & Co., eye specialists, at 107 East Front street, every Thursday. Hours 10:30 to 4.

To Make a Patriotic Address.

Next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock Rev. Dr. Nelson, of the borough, will make a patriotic address before the members of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., and they are requested to meet at the post rooms at 3:30 in dark uniforms to attend in a body.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Come and Come in a Social and Business Way

Miss Gassner, of Central avenue, has returned from a visit of several days in New York.

Jack Hall, of Madison avenue, has returned from Harvard College for the holidays.

N. Tamaoki, of First place, has returned after a short visit at Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Nathan E Lewis, of West Eighth street, is spending the holidays at Ashaway, R. I.

J. P. Welles Taylor, of Park avenue, has returned from Trinity College for the vacation.

Miss Katherine Reinhart, of Belvidere avenue, is confined to her home with the mumps.

Earl Stockton, of West Eighth street, is home from boarding school for the holiday season.

Mr and Mrs Kline, of North Branch, have returned home after a short visit with borough relatives.

Harry Woltman, of West Seventh street, is home from Princeton University for the holidays.

William A. Townsend, of Myrtle avenue, is home from Lehigh University, for the holidays.

John Angleman, of Bayonne, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. I. L. McVoy, of East Front street.

Sydney R. Titsworth, of West Fifth street, is home from Alfred University for the Christmas vacation.

Sperry King, of Brooklyn, has been visiting his cousin, James P. Taylor, Jr., of West Seventh street.

Charles Davis, of Park avenue, has returned from the University of Pennsylvania for the holidays.

L. B. Bromfield and family, of East Sixth street, are spending a few days with relatives in Philadelphia.

Rev. George Angleman and wife, of Junction, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Cory, of West Front street.

Frank Talmage, of Belvidere avenue, is home from St. Paul's School, N. H., for his Christmas vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Moffett spent Christmas at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Toms, at Trenton.

E B. Smith, of Jersey City, was a guest at the home of G. M. Rittenhouse, of East Sixth street, Christmas Day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Baker, of Stelle avenue, have been entertaining their son, W. C. Baker and wife, of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richards, of New York, are guests at the home of Emil Woltmann, of West Seventh street.

Frank Reinhart, of Belvidere avenue, is home from St. Paul School, St. Paul, N. H., for the Christmas vacation.

Lawyer Isaac P. Runyon, who has been confined to his home by illness, has recovered sufficiently to attend to business.

Dr. Fred Hughes, of St. Vincent Hospital, New York, returned yesterday after spending several days with borough relatives.

Ernest H. Rapalje and Herbert D. Rapalje, of Rutgers College, are spending their vacation with their parents on Fairview avenue.

A. W. Brown went to Camden yesterday to represent Stone Square Lodge, No. 38, F. and A. M., at the Grand Lodge session.

Frank O. Bristol, of East Fifth street, has entirely recovered from his recent illness and has returned to business in New York, City Clerk J. T. MacMurray, of Westervelt avenue, has recovered from his recent illness and is again able to attend to business.

Edson Woodhull, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Woodhull, of Washington Park, has returned from a visit of several weeks in the country.

Charles Graves, of Liberty street, who recently had an accident, has so far recovered as to be about again. He still feels the effects of his injuries.

Raymond A. McGee, of Orchard avenue, Washington Park, has gone with the Yale Glee Club on a western trip. He is now bass soloist of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Auten, of Perth Amboy, have returned home after a short visit with Mrs. Young's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Young, of Central avenue.

Christmas Day was pleasantly celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Linke, where their children enjoyed a fine tree and everything that goes with it.

—Friday evening of this week the Syracuse University Glee and Instrumental Clubs will give one of their unexcelled concerts at Monroe Avenue church under the auspices of the Young Men's Class. This club has been here before and they will no doubt be given a hearty reception.

SPECIAL SALE OF PERFUMES
—AT—
L. W. Randolph's : : :
143 WEST FRONT STREET.
: : : One Week Only : : :

We will offer great inducements in Lazell's, Lundberg's, Ricksecker's and Wright's Bottle Goods.

25 cent Extracts at	20 cents	1.00	Extracts at		75 cents
35 " " "	25 cents	1.35	"	"	1.15
50 " " "	40 cents	1.50	"	"	1.25
75 " " "	55 cents	4.00	"	"	3.25

Lazell's $500 Cut Glass Bottle will be in the window during this week.

L. W. RANDOLPH,
Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.
PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for TELEPHONE CALL 109
Lowney's and Whitman's Chocolates and Chocolate Bon-Bons.

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops
Wieda's
Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda
Manufactured at the Premises,
144 West Front St. Phone. 1133.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR!

We have a good supply yet of Slippers, Rubber Boots, Lambs' Wool Soles Shoes, Dress Suit Cases, Traveling Bags, Telescopes, etc., all of which make useful and appropriate

NEW YEAR'S PRESENTS.

DOANE & EDSALL . . . .

FURNITURE for the Parlor . . .
Library . . .
Dining-Room . . .
Bedroom . . .
Close at 6 o'Clock.
POWLISON & JONES,
149 and 151 E. Front St.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mrs. Arthur A. Tilney, of Boston, Mass., is visiting Plainfield relatives.

Mr. Pierson, of Clinton avenue, who has been quite ill, is reported to be worse.

Mrs. Cahoone, of Newark, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fairchild, of the borough.

Ernest Suffren, of Williams College, is spending the vacation at his home on Sycamore avenue.

William K. Dwight, of Rockview avenue, is home from Princeton University for the holidays.

Fred Overton, of Rockview avenue, has returned from Cornell University for the holiday vacation.

Seymour N. Marsh, of Brooklyn, has been the guest of Gilmore Drayton, of East Ninth street.

George Richards, of Yale University, is spending his vacation at his home on East Front street.

Miss Amanda Carman, of Elmwood place, is very much improved from a severe attack of neuralgia.

Miss Elsie D. Suffren, of Sycamore avenue, is home from Vassar College for the Christmas holidays.

Thomas D. Blair, of the New York Homœopathic College, is spending his vacation at his home in this city.

Albert Sampson, of Jersey City, spent Christmas Day with his parents at their home on East Fifth street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stout, of New York, spent Monday with Mr. Stout's relatives, East Front street.

Miss Jessie Roberts, of Brooklyn, is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Roberts, of North avenue.

Miss Mattie Frank and Mr. Olmstead, of the "Ben Hur" company, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Seidel, of this city.

George Graves, of Morristown, spent Christmas Day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Graves, of Liberty street.

Langdon C. Howard, of Washington Park, is home from the Lawrenceville Preparatory School for the Christmas holidays.

John McDonald, Jr., of Terrill road, who sustained an injury to his knee sometime ago, was discharged from the hospital yesterday, cured.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.
Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.
Capital, $150,000.
Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.
CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.
DIRECTORS.
Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Closson. H. G Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold. J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J. B. Coward.
General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

S. R. STRUTHERS
offers his services as accountant. Books opened and closed. Trial balances made and Balance Sheets shown.
Call or address
514 WEST FRONT STREET. 12 13 12

XMAS IS NEAR
Now is the time to order your Xmas greens First come, first served. Holly, laurel and Xmas green wreaths and roping; also loose holly, palms, ferns, jardinieres and wicker baskets for Xmas presents.
MRS. L. J. DENTON,
Stillman Building. Tel. call 731.

THE CLEANSING AND HEALING CURE FOR CATARRH is Ely's Cream Balm
Easy and pleasant to use. Contains no injurious drug.
It is quickly absorbed. Gives Relief at once
It opens and cleanses the Nasal Passages. Allays Inflammation.
CATARRH

COLD IN HEAD
Heals and Protects the Membrane. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.
ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York

Emery's
Dancing Pavilion
(SCOTCH PLAINS.)
Pavilion For Rent
FOR
Balls, Parties, etc.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Best work for the money in town. Bids on work willingly given. Work done night or day. Get my bid before you have work done.
P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.
T. M. INGRAHAM.

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.
Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J.
Perth Amboy, N. J.

UNDERWEAR
At Mill Prices : : :

If you could deal direct with the maker he would not be able in most cases to quote you better prices than we will tomorrow.

50c Men's heavy, thick wool, fleeced underwear in natural gray shades, worth 75c.
75c Men's fine natural wool underwear, very soft and heavy, a regular 1.00 quality.
1.00 Men's natural grey underwear, well made and handsomely trimmed, very fine heavy quality, finely knitted and very soft, well worth 1.25.
1.50 Men's extra heavy camels hair underwear, double breasted and well made, remarkable value.
25c Women's ribbed underwear, made of fine Egyptian cotton, good weight and very heavily fleeced, worth 39c
39c A little lot of women's ribbed vests (no drawers to match) in a good shade of blue grey, about half wool and heavily fleeced, worth 69c.
50c Women's fine ribbed combination suits, half wool and heavy fleece lined, reduced from 1.00.

Blankets and Comfortables.

We offer astonishing values in blankets and comfortables.

2.98 Blankets 81 x 90 inches, weight 5 pounds, nearly all wool, that are worth 4.00.
3.98 Blankets extra large and heavy, made of California wool, very soft and downy, that are worth 5.00.
1.25 Extra large size comfortables filled with fine white cotton and covered with fine silkaline nicely tufted, the actual value is 1.75.
3.48 Fine eiderdown filled comfortables covered with a splendid quality of French satin and worth 4.50.

. . . OIL HEATERS . . .

We sell "Brightest and Best," a very superior make of oil heating stoves, 10 inch double circular wick, centre draft, solid brass oil founts with all the modern improvements for safety and economy in the use of fuel. Every stove fully guaranteed to be odorless and give entire satisfaction. The price is 3.50. With bale handles 3.75.

After Christmas.

We're getting ready to inventory. This the season for Broken Lots and probably Broken Prices. We have found one lot already that has got to go. We sold it for $10.00. You can buy it now for $8.50.

OVERCOATS . . .
are now in order, $5.00, $7.50, $10, $12, $13.50.
ULSTERS - - $4.50, 5.50.

Schepflin & Schultz,
CLOTHIERS.
M. J. Cashin, Manager.
322 West Front St.

98c CAMERA and One Double Plate Holder as shown in our window, for only 98c . . . .
During the rest of this week we will offer CAMERAS and SUPPLIES AT COST.
. . . . COLUMBIA RECORDS . . . .
-:- 30c EACH -:-
All Goods will be sold AT COST. Remember This Week Only.
GEO. W. WRENNICK,
133 NORTH AVE.

New Year's Gifts
INCLUDE
Shoes, Slippers, Rubber Boots, etc.

Perhaps you didn't give anything in our line Christmas. If not, now is your chance. We're here to do business with everbody that comes our way, and if you don't get treated properly tell us about it.
VANARSDALE, 127 East Front St.
Repairing Properly Done.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Freie Städte.

Hamburg. Aus der Verhandlung vor dem Seeamt über den Brand der „Patria" geht hervor, daß das Feuer höchst wahrscheinlich durch Selbstentzündung der Kleiderladung entstanden ist.—Der Dampfer „Brasilia" der Hamburg-Amerika-Linie geht im Januar in den Besitz der Dominion-Linie über. Er soll in Belfast umgebaut werden und dann dem Verkehr zwischen Liverpool und Kanada dienen.—Der Gattenmörder Roschlaub wurde erhängt aufgefunden.—In Eimsbüttel erstach die Frau des Arbeiters Nowotnick ihren Mann im Schlafe. Die Mörderin wurde verhaftet.

Bremen. Der „Norddeutsche Lloyd" schafft sich ein Kadettenschulschiff zur Ausbildung von Schiffsoffizieren an.—Bei den Wahlen zur Bürgerschaft eroberten die Sozialdemokraten drei Stadt- und zwei Landbezirke.—Der Bremerhaver Fischdampfer „Eide Siebs" kollidirte mit dem Schooner „Eros." „Eros" ist gesunken. Der Kapitän und ein Mann von der „Eros" sind ertrunken, drei Mann wurden gerettet.—Die Bremer Bark „Hansa" rettete 28 Personen von dem an der afrikanischen Küste gesunkenen Schiffe „Fort Stuart" und landete die Schiffbrüchigen in Delagoabay.

Lübeck. Zwecks Beschaffung weiterer Lösch- und Ladeplätze, welche durch das in letzter Zeit immer mehr in die Erscheinung getretene rasche Emporblühen von Handel und Schifffahrt nothwendig geworden sind, wurden umfangreiche Ländereien auf den Vorwerker Wiesen staatsseitig angekauft. Der Kaufpreis beziffert sich auf 498,000 Mark.

Großherzogthum Hessen.

Darmstadt. Auf dem Ludwigsbahnhof wurde der Güterbodenarbeiter Stork beim Ueberschreiten des Geleises vom Odenwaldzuge überfahren und gräßlich verstümmelt. Der Tod trat sofort ein.

Bensheim. Kurz nach Mitternacht brach kürzlich in der Scheune des Landwirthes Johannes Bender Großfeuer aus, das fünf gefüllte Scheunen mit Stroh und Futtervorräthen nebst Stallgebäuden, sowie vier Wohnhäuser vollständig in Asche legte. Das Vieh wurde gerettet, auch das Inventar aus den Wohnhäusern. Die Eigenthümer sind theilweise versichert. Es wird Brandstiftung vermuthet.

Büdesheim. Hier sind die Gebäulichkeiten der Deutschen Weinkellereigenossenschaft niedergebrannt. Mehrere Hundert Stückfässer Wein, darunter drei Riesenfässer, je 50 Stück enthaltend, wurden vernichtet.

Gießen. Zum Abgeordneten für Gießen-Land wurde Bürgermeister Beun-Großenlinden gewählt.

Offenbach. In der Kaserne des 168. Infanterie-Regiments brach dieser Tage ein Großfeuer aus, das zweite innerhalb sieben Monaten. Der Schaden beträgt über 150,000 Mark. Man vermuthet Brandstiftung.

Worms. Der nächste hessische Städtetag soll im Jahre 1900 dahier abgehalten werden.

Bayern.

München. In dem jetzt ausgearbeiteten Plan der neuen Prinzregentenbrücke ließ die Erwägung der stetig fortschreitenden Vertiefung des Flußbettes, dessen Sohle in fortwährender Bewegung ist, auf die Anbringung zweier Pfeiler mit drei Bogenöffnungen verzichten. Die neue Brücke soll in einem einzigen gewaltigen Quaderbogen von 85 Meter Lichtweite den Strom überspannen, wodurch die Brücke ein Unikum in Deutschland wird.—Ein hiesiges Ehepaar, der Mechaniker Lorenz Frank und seine Frau, haben sich im Starnberger See ertränkt, weil eine Nachbarin des Frank'schen Paares die Frau Frank fälschlicher Weise des Meineides beschuldigt hat.

Altamünster. Bei der Bürgermeisterwahl wurde der langjährige Bürgermeister Herr Sedlmaier von hier mit großer Majorität wiedergewählt.

Bogen. In der Nähe von Bogen wird gegenwärtig eifrig an dem Bau eines Sanatoriums für Lungenkranke gearbeitet. Das mächtige Gebäude hat eine Länge von 107 und eine Breite von 70 Metern und ist bereits unter Dach gebracht. Die Einrichtung soll musterhaft werden. Der Aufenthalt für die Kranken wird sehr angenehm, da in den nahen Waldungen die schönsten Spaziergänge angelegt werden, und sich von dort aus eine prachtvolle Fernsicht über die Donauebene bietet.

Bruck. Neulich Morgens entstand in dem Oekonomiegebäude des Gütlers Meuhardt hier Feuer, wodurch das ganze, mit Getreide und Futtervorräthen gefüllte Gebäude vollständig eingeäschert wurde.

Dettingen. Dem Kettendampfer beziehungsweise dem Schleppzug kam bei Großrelzheim ein mit Hausteinen beladenes Schiff des Schiffers Brand aus Faulbach zu nahe und wurde in den Grund gebohrt. Nur mit größter Anstrengung konnten die Schiffer Brand aus Faulbach und Zöller aus Reistenhausen gerettet werden.

Erlangen. Der in München verstorbene Privatier Ernst Barthelmes hat seiner Vaterstadt Erlangen ein Kapitol von 40,000 Mark als Baufonds zur Errichtung eines Bürgerspitals hier vermacht.

NEWSBOY'S WORK.

How They Build Up Trade Like Business Men.

It will, no doubt, seem strange to many people that the multitude of small urchins who sell papers in large cities should have regular customers, but it is a fact.

When the business men come out of their officers in the afternoon there is a wild hurry-scurry of youngsters from the newspaper officers, shouting, "Extre! Extre! All about de big fire!" or the war or "any old thing." The boys spread about in all directions, seemingly intent to sell their papers to any one willing to buy. They do not appear to stop in any one place, but are here, there and everywhere.

In spite of this, howevr, the boys serve many regular customers. The newsboys of large cities are bright and keen, and they know many business and professional men, and are well posted on their habits. They know what hour they go to business houses and offices, and when they leave for their homes.

Should a business man buy a paper of a boy one night the chances are that he will find the same boy at the same place and at the same hour the next night. After a while the boy will regard the man as one of his regular customers, and most jealously will he guard his rights to serve him. He will know just what paper or papers the man wants, and will have them ready for him as he comes along. He will even trust the man should the latter have no change, depending on his honesty to pay him the next day.

The men, as a rule, learn to appreciate the thoughtful industry of the boys, and at times reward them with an extra penny or two.

Some time ago a bright-eyed little feilow used to sell papers in Nassau street, between Beekman and Ann, New York. He had a number of regular customers and did quite a large business. He was a handsome, rosy-cheeked boy, and his clothing, although poor in quality, was always neat and clean. There was something about the youngster different from the average newsboy, and many of his customers became quite interested in him. One of the boy's customers used to leave his business place considerably later in the evening than the average downtown business man, but the boy always waited for him. Customers were few along the street at that hour, and the boy used to amuse himself drawing pictures on the sidewalk under the fitful glare of the electric lamp. One night the late customer stopped to look at one of the pictures, and was surprised at the skill displayed in it.

"Who taught you to draw?" he asked the boy.

"I taught myself," was the reply, "but that picture is nothing. I can draw better ones than that."

"You can, eh?" said the man. "well, I should like to see some of them."

"All right. When you come along to-morrow night I'll have a good one to show you."

And the next night the boy had drawn with chalk a big picture of Colonel Roosevelt on horseback. The likeness of the Colonel, or Governor, was unmistakable, and the boy's customer, who had dabbled somewhat in art himself, was surprised beyond words.

He questioned the boy further as to liking for drawing, and when the youngster said that he would rather draw than go to the theatre, that settled it. The result was that the man decided to educate the boy, and the latter is now attending one of the best art schools in the city.

The Sorrowful Tree.

There is a tree in Persia to which the name "the sorrowful tree" is given. Perhaps because it blossoms only in the evening.

When the first star appears in the heavens the first bud of the sorrowful tree opens, and as the shades of night advance and the stars thickly stud the sky the buds continue gradually opening, until the whole tree looks like one immense white flower. On the approach of dawn, when the brilliancy of the stars gradually fades in the light of day, the sorrowful tree closes it flowers, and ere the sun is fully risen not a single blossom is visible. A sheet of flower dust, as white as snow, covered the ground around the foot of the tree, which seems blighted and withered during the day, while, however, it is actively preparing for the next nocturnal festival. The fragrance of the blossom is like that of the evening primrose.

If the tree is cut down close to the roots, a new plant shoots up and attains maturity in an incredibly short time.

In the vicinity of this singular tree there usually grows another, which is almost an exact counterpart of the sorrowful tree, but less beautiful, and, strange to say, it blooms only in the day time.

Phyllis in the Country.

For the first time in her short life Phyllis visited the country, in the lake regions of Wisconsin. Even a full sky was new to her when she first saw it.

"Why, papa, the sky is round up here!" was her first exclamation of astonishment at a full sweep of unbroken horizon. Since then nature's wonders have appealed to her in many ways, and some of her comparative observations are very quaint.

She had never seen a gnat in her city home. One evening a tiny mite flew into her face

"Oh, mamma," she cried, "a piece of a fly has got into my eye."

The first time her father went in bathing he thought to frighten her by diving. He stayed under the water as long as was possible, and much to his surprise Phyllis was clapping her hands with delight when he reappeared.

"Hide again, father," she shouted; "hide a long time."

(B)

AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

Free deliveries—quick deliveries—catalogue free.

Forget Some One?

Why not come here and pick out a present now? Call it a "New Year's gift." If you're short of ready cash, we'll fix you up on a credit basis—cash or credit, our prices are lowest known!

$19.98

Was $27.00

Elaborate quartered oak Book Case—desk, swell carved.

"The Only Portland." Many a happy wife's been given a "Portland" range for Christmas—best baker, cheapest to run—all new improvements imaginable!

$3.69

Morris Chairs—solid oak frame—adjustable to four comfortable positions—reversible cushions—worth $5.50.

Look for name "Portland" on oven door plate—and "A. H. Van Horn, 73 Market Street, Newark, N. J." on plate below oven door for the GENUINE.

$4.25

A desk of solid oak, with drawer, and mirror inset in back. Was $6.

$3.49

—tastily carved mahogany finish Rocker, cobbler seat, high arms, $5.00 anywhere else.

$11.98

and upward for mahogany Parlor Cabinets—elegant and well patterned.

Birdseye Maple Table, French legs, highly polished top, was $4.50—now $2.98

"Domestic" Sewing Machine—swift, silent, strong—a Newark product. Here, cash or easy payments. We're Co.'s agents.

Chenille and Tapestry Portieres, Lace Curtains, Shades, Lamps, Pictures. Large stock of Blankets, Comforters, Mattresses, Pillows, Springs, etc.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,
Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.

Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

He has now in his charge one of the largest stationary engines in the manufacturing district of Kensington, and for more than fifteen years was one of the most trusted engineers in the employ of the Reading Railroad Company. Speaking of RIPANS TABULES, he said: "The lives of thousands of people often depend upon the single hand of an engineer. The man at the throttle is responsible for the safety of every soul aboard the train. He must have a steady hand and a clear eye. But engineers, like all other human beings, are subject to ills and more than once RIPANS TABULES have helped me along when, without them, I must have failed in my duty.

"As an engineer I have been on duty at all hours of the day and night," said this man, who, by the way, is named John Gilliece and lives at No. 2054 East Somerset Street in Philadelphia, "and sometimes have had to snatch my meals with scarcely a moment's interval of rest. Consequently I have at times suffered intensely from nervous dyspepsia and poor digestion. The only thing I ever found that would relieve me thoroughly and quickly was a RIPANS TABULE and I still take one when I feel the need of a stomach stimulant. I do not know of anything that could take their place."

A new style pocket containing TEN TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (120 tabulies) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.

Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phoenix, London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life.

Telephone No. 679

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW,
THE GROCER.

Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.

Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

SWIMMING GIRLS OF JERSEY.

Eliza Archard Conner Tells of the Tall, Graceful Daughters Of the Beautiful Channel Island

Soon after being domiciled by the sea here in the island of beautiful, sunny Jersey I noticed passing along the promenade occasionally some young ladies who were "divinely tall," as Tennyson puts it, and fair and graceful. They attracted my attention particularly because of their rosy, healthy look and their fine muscular development, not pulpy or bulgy, but firm and rightly proportioned, with a springing step and free arm motion. I was not surprised to learn they were strong on physical culture and the champion women swimmers of Jersey, one of the sisters, Miss Bessie, being the second fastest swimmer among ladies in all Great Britain. In truth, it was what I should have expected of them.

Later I had the pleasure of making the acquaintance of these fine young women, the Hilson sisters. They live with their mother, who was a swimmer before them, in the days when it was considered rather mannish and not altogether to be approved for a girl to know how to propel herself with her arms and legs through the water.

The three Hilson sisters are Scotch lassies by birth. They came to the island to live when they were little girls. A happy fate cast their lot near the sea, and they learned to swim like mermaids. One was 9 years of age, another 14, the youngest 7, when they began it. They were newcomers in the island, with not many acquaintances, and were therefore thrown back on their own resources for entertainment. They chose the field of athletics for this purpose and have been richly rewarded in both health and pleasure. They are expert cyclists as well as swimmers.

The illustration shows the young ladies in their bathing dress. They sit in a line upon the rock at the top of the picture. The old man with the fringe of white, Horace Greeley whiskers is the life saver of the Jersey Swimming club, of which the sisters are honored members. The lady in the foreground is the teacher of swimming at the ladies' pool. She herself is an accomplished swimmer and athlete.

Some of the feats the sisters can accomplish are uncommon. They can eat and drink under water just for the fun of it. They can also write under water. Any of the three can swim easily two miles without stopping. While all swim equally well and can do all the natatorial high art tricks, the gift of getting through the water at racing speed has been bestowed in particular on one of them, Miss Bessie. In the woman's championship for all Great Britain she has twice come in second and will try again next year. The girl who has beaten her in each case is the same, Miss Beryl Cudlipp of Portsmouth, England. The race for the championship took place in October in London in presence of a host of spectators. The best time made was 100 yards in 1 minute 34 seconds. This was Miss Cudlipp's record, and Miss Hilson was one yard behind her at the finish.

It is interesting to note that Miss Bessie Hilson is rather more heavily built than her two sisters and not quite so tall. Their slightly greater length of limb therefore gives them no advantage. It is the "knack" that does it, and this apparently one must be born with to get a championship in anything. Miss Bessie once swam 220 yards in 4 minutes 16 4-5 seconds. She has a large and handsome gold lined silver cup, the prize the Jersey Swimming club gave to the best woman swimmer in the island. It had to be won twice before it became hers permanently.

Among them the sisters have some dozens of prizes obtained at various times. These include bracelets, a handsome dressing case, brooches, a silver sugar basin, gold jam spoons—no British housekeeping outfit would be complete without a jam spoon—a diamond ring and no end of medals.

One medal the eldest sister has especial reason to be proud of is that from the life saving society for resuscitating a drowning person. When the girls went in for swimming, they learned every branch of it, even to directions for restoring life to those apparently drowned. Miss Hilson had these directions at her finger ends literally, and it required all her knowledge and all her nerve when one day a young lady swimmer in the sea near the Hilsons' home got knocked under water and had her lungs filled with salt brine. Miss Hilson heard the screams and hastened to the scene in time to be instrumental in bringing back to life through her scientific and practical skill the girl, who to all seeming was quite dead.

I have never seen elsewhere such admirable arrangements for the comfort and safety of swimmers as there are here. A handsome sea wall surrounds the portion of the Jersey beach frequented by the bathers. At the top of this is an asphalt promenade. Out upon the rocks are diving platforms for use at the different stages of the tides, which sometimes rise here 30 feet. Asphalt walks and granite steps lead to and from the diving platforms.

For the benefit of women swimmers the arrangements are complete. They have a walled in patch of sea all to themselves. It is called the ladies' bathing pool. When it is full, the water is on a level with the sea outside, and one can look out over the great rocks and the foaming green water. The pool is as large as a small lake and is open to the air and sun. Dressing rooms and every accommodation are at one side. All is under the auspices of the Jersey Swimming club. Women who would not learn to swim under such circumstances—well, I do not say they ought o be drowned; but they ought to get a good scare.

The lady swimmers have games in the water to test their quickness and skill. A favorite amusement is water polo, in which sides are taken and the girls swim about like dolphins, playing and throwing a large ball back and forth at one another, diving for it, catching it on the fly if possible. This game makes them quick and daring, forgetful of that unreasoning, henlike panic which attacks so many women in the water, not to say out of it.

Last summer they had a fancy dress swimming party, so to speak. The girls appeared in character and swam about the pool. Sometimes the sisters give exhibitions of swimming with both feet and hands tied. In this case they swim with their hands tied behind their backs, a most difficult feat.

The sisters are expert divers; would be considered so even if they were men. The eldest sister is an artist and has a studio here in Jersey. Her work consists largely of miniature painting, in which she does exquisite work. Besides being a famous swimmer, therefore, she also earns her own living. Miss Bessie assists her in the studio; also Miss Dolly, the other sister, when there is hurry of work.

I do not know, but have my doubts whether there are in all the United States three such women swimmers in one family as these young ladies. I was glad and proud to know them as specimens of what faithful physical culture will do for women as for men. If women only understood this and had the pluck and perseverance they ought to have, they would no longer be the helpless masses of quivering jelly so many of them are now content to be.

Britishers are queer. They bathe here in the sea all winter, because they think it is good for them, in water that would freeze the marrow in the bones of an American. Miss Hilson tells me she has bathed in the sea Jan. 7. The bathing season is, therefore, still on at this date, and the deluded dippers even pretend they like it!

ELIZA ARCHARD CONNER.

Island of Jersey.

GROUP OF JERSEY SWIMMING GIRLS.

Two cousins of Sir Thomas Lipton, builder of the America's cup challenger, are working as servants in New York. Both are women of middle age.

AN AMERICAN GIRL.

She Defied Regulations of Queen Victoria's Court, But Gained Admission.

A delightful little story has only lately come to light of how a pretty and audacious San Francisco girl once defied the regulations of Queen Victoria's court. Along in the seventies bonnie Nellie Chapman, daughter of William S. Chapman, the well-known mine owner, says the San Francisco Chronicle, found herself on the eve of her presentation to England's Queen. Now there are certain rules of high etiquette laid down for these occasions. Among the rest royalty prescribes the exact length of a train and the degree of exposure required of the arms and bust. But Nellie Chapman had ideas of her own on the latter subject, and when it came to the shaping of the gown she was to wear for the grand event the American girl had the height of her corsage arranged to suit her own ideas of what was decorous and appropriate. It was an extremely dainty gown of white satin, perfectly fitted to the slight and graceful figure, with chaste trimmings of tulle and garlands of white marguerites, diamonds and pearls giving it a touch of elegance, and above it all the fair republican face carried with truly regal spirit. But, alas! on the threshold of the drawing-room she was stopped by an imperious chamberlain, who loftily informed her that she could not go in, as her gown was not low enough in the neck. For one moment the spirited American girl was dismayed, then, with a scornful look at the courtier, she lifted her little gloved hands, and, giving both shoulders of the corsage an impetuous twitch, bared her dimpled shoulders, and with the defiant, "Now it will do," walked past the astonished gentleman-in-waiting. She afterward had her picture taken in the court dress which so nearly brought her to social grief.

Ladies' Circular Skirt.

It is generally understood that plaids, especially the large plaids that are worn this season, show off to better advantage when made up on the bias in a circular skirt. The illustration gives a model skirt designed principally for plaid materials. It is of circular shaping, fits perfectly smooth across the front and over the hips to the centre back. The upper part is sheath fitting, but from the knee down the skirt flares stylishly and falls in graceful folds toward the back. The single box plait is applied narrow at the waist line but flares toward the bottom, where it trains slightly. The close adjustment at the upper portion of this skirt gives much the same effect as the habit skirts, which have been and are still very popular. The closing is effected invisibly at the left side under the plait and a pocket may be conveniently inserted at the opposite side.

Although designed especially for plaid and for double faced materials, this model would be appropriate for cheviot, camel's hair, homespun, venetians or any of the new novelty cloths. The skirt is lined throughout with fine percaline and finished around the lower edge with Donna skirt facing, which comes in all colors and is shaped to fit. To make this skirt in the medium size will require 3¾ yards of material 54 inches wide. MAY MANTON.

Furs and No Furs.

Women who wear furs should be especially particular as to their methods of dispensing with them for certain costumes. It almost invariably invites a cold, unless some precaution is taken, and even then there is considerable risk for women who are not strong, says the Criterion. A year or two ago, when the hideous little mink collars were worn with claws, head and tail in evidence, physicians declared that diphtheria, sore throats and pleurisy flourished as never before. Most women insist on dressing inadequately for cold weather, for the reason that heavy clothing is not pretty as a rule. For this reason colds begin to attack femininity about this time of year and remain until the winter is ended. My lady goes about daintily through the cold months, proudly conscious that although wintry winds blow cold, her inner garmenting expresses summer's airiest frivolity. Any number of women wear low shoes and silk hosiery throughout the winter without the protection of a cloth gaiter.

Boots and Shoes.

A word as to the care of boots. We are just now buying new ones and putting by those we wore in the summer and early autumn. It is well, if we can, to get boots two months before one wants them, so that the leather may be seasoned, to rub them all over, soles too, with vaseline, and then put them by until needed. Boot trees, made specially by the maker of whom we buy our boots, and not bought promiscuously, are a necessity. Banana and orange juice are capital polishers, and so is a mixture of cream and blue-black ink, in equal quantities. Patent leather cleans well with cream and new milk. Finally, never dry wet boots by the fire, but put them where the wind may blow upon them.

Care of Veils.

The beauty and freshness of a veil can be preserved for a long time if it is properly cared for. After wearing it should be smoothed out carefully and rolled between paper or over a rod. A piece of broomstick makes an excellent roller.

A veil which has become limp can be freshened by dipping it in weak gum water and pulling it straight before it dries.

SHOWED HIS RING.

It Happened on the Bowery and Now Nicholson Mourns.

James A. Nicholson, 22 years old, a fireman of the 12th Battalion, the headquarters of which is in the Borough of the Bronx, came down town to see the Bowery. The only article of jewelry he wore was a heavy gold seal ring which was on the little finger of his left hand. After Nicholson had wandered about the Bowery for some time, had dropped in one or two of the music halls and tried his hand at target practice in the shooting galleries, he met a man at the corner of Allen street. The man was six feet tall, broad shouldered and athletic looking.

"That's a nice handsome ring you have on, pardner," he observed.

"Yes," replied Nicholson, taking the ring off; "glad you like it, my mother gave it to me."

Nicholson handed the ring to the athletic looking stranger who straightway fled down Allen street. He had covered a block and turned a corner before the astonished Nicholson started after him. Then it was too late. When Nicholson reached the corner around which the man with his ring had disappeared there was no one in sight. Nicholson went back to the Bowery told his troubles to Policeman Ryan and they set out to find the thief.

"Them fellers are always hangin' 'round the Bowery," the policeman said confidently, "and you'll find him sooner or later if you keep looking."

At Forsyth and Rivington streets, three quarters of an hour afterward, Nicholson picked out a broad-shouldered man, six feet tall, and told Ryan that he was the thief. Ryan arrested the man and took him to the Eldridge street police station. Ryan stood his prisoner up before Sergeant John Hayes, who prepared to take his pedigree.

"Your name?" demanded Hayes.

"John Hayes," replied the prisoner, unhesitatingly.

"Your name and no nonsense," thundered the sergeant.

"John Hayes," replied the prisoner again.

"You're a liar," said the sergeant. The prisoner insisted that he was Hayes, that he was a printer, and that he lived at 76 Delancy street. He denounced the arrest as an outrage. The ring was not found on the prisoner, but Sergeant Hayes locked him up any way.—N. Y. Sun.

Southern Hospitality.

At dinner the talk turned on Southern hospitality, and many were the instances related of it before a pretty young Southern matron had a chance to tell her story.

"When my husband was in business in the South several years ago," she said, "the manager of the Boston firm whose agency he held was taken suddenly ill while in our city. He was alone in the hotel and I told my husband to bring him to the house.

"It turned out that he had typhoid pneumonia, and for five weeks he was just about as sick as a man could be and get well again. I nursed him with as much care as if he had been my own husband, and when he finally recovered the doctor told him that if it had not been for my nursing he never would have gotten well.

"The day he was leaving he thanked me for taking care of him and pressed a five dollar bill into my hand. I was so mad I hardly knew what to do, and I said: 'When I do a kindness I don't charge anything for it, but if I was going to charge anything it would be a heap sight more than that.' And right then and there I called my colored maid and, handing her the money, said, 'Here, Mary, is something Mr. Pratt is giving for your trouble.' And what do you think that man whom I had nursed back to life said:

"'So this is your Southern hospitality, is it?' Every time I remember that fellow's sneer I wonder if you people up here really know what hospitality means."—N. Y. Herald.

The fastest cruiser in the world has recently been completed for China. The new cruiser is to be known as the Hai Tien, of 4,400 tons, and under natural draught, will have a speed of 23.6 knots per hour. At this rate she could cross the Atlantic in about four and one-half days.

Mr. Cleveland in Princeton.

Ex-President Grover Cleveland is living quite a modest and retiring life in Princeton, N. J., although he has been engaged to deliver a course of lectures to the students. The illustration represents him walking home from the railway station with his wife and eldest child.

Anticipating the Courts.

"I am mentally incompetent!" sighed the old man.

It was in vain that they expostulated with him.

"Am I not wealthy, and have I not children by two different wives?" he demanded, with an impatience that was almost fierceness.

It seems to be a fact that the shattered mind sometimes retains at least a semblance of the sense of logical sequence.—Detroit Journal.

The omnibus company of Paris, on the occasion of the Exposition next year, will have 92 lines and 1,500 vehicles, performing 25,000 journeys a day, and capable of transporting 1,082,000 passengers.

A man is getting old when he begins to wait for some one to help him get into his overcoat and a woman is getting old when she doesn't.

We are NOW receiving orders for

HUYLER'S

XMAS CANDY,

—to be delivered at—

CHRISTMAS TIME.

Remember the

Only Agency

—IS—

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

Tel. 705.

POWERS' PHARMACY . Somerset St. Craig Place.

Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .

Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot AND Tar is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

Toys, Toys, Toys

for the

HOLIDAYS

—AT—

HARPER'S,

411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Irving Savings Institution.

115 CHAMBERS ST., NEW YORK CITY

The Trustees of this institution have declared interest on all sums remaining on deposit during the three and six months ending December 31, 1899, at the rate of FOUR PER CENT. per annum on amounts from $1 to $3,000, payable on and after Monday, January 22, 1900. Deposits made on or before January 10th will draw interest from January 1st.

W. H. B. TOTTEN, President.
G. BYRON LATIMER, Secretary 12 26 10

NEUMAN BROS.,

GROCERS,

Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

SMALLEY BROS.,

144 North Avenue

BUTCHERS.

Everything usually found in a first-class market.

Orders called for and delivered.

Telephone 83 A.

Advertised Mail Matter.

DECEMBER 26, 1899.

Alder, Master Everitt	Langley, Mr E
Andrews, Miss Grace	Locke, Mr Jno M.
Bohem, Charles	Laury, Mr H W
Carlson, Miss Emmy	McCue, Miss Maggie
Edwards, Miss Lena	Mitchell, W B
Folery, John	Potter, Mrs C D
Th. Glen Brook Poultry Farm	Rittenhouse, Mr G C
Hicks, Mr William	Utter, Mrs Mary
Hewitt, Mr William	Voorhies, Mrs Carrie
Holden, R A	Watkins, Miss Carrie
Johnson, George	West, Mrs M
Knox, Miss Alice R	Williams, C Y
Knox, Rev Chas. E	Williams, Miss L E
	Wort, Mr Charles L

E. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

H. Eggerding,

121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated

C. O. D. CIGAR.

The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars.

L. A. HUMMER,

VARIETY MARKET.

Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.

163 SOMERSET ST.

Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 26A.

RUSHMORE & CO.

WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.

Dealers in

Lumber, Coal and Wood

Moulding & Planing Mill.

Turning and Scroll Sawing.

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 28, 7 29, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 46, 9 16, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 5., 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 06, 7 30, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12,00 m, 12 58 1 45, 2 40, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 28, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 30, 9 34, 11 28 p m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m.; 1 01, 2 08, 2 26, 3 32, 4 35, 5 03, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sundays 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaquua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked *) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 19, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N.J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.

Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.

Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:29 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.

Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.

Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.

Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket timetables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.
FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent,
218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

L. L. Manning & Son,

STEAM

GRANITE WORKS,

Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

XXXX QUALITY

FINEST

LOFOTON COD LIVER OIL,

Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.

Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at

39c per Pint.

For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at

50c per Bottle,

or the Tasteless at

75c per Bottle.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,

Hepburn & Co.,

Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,

213 WEST FRONT ST.

Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.

at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use

REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT,

Made only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,

At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

Misses' & Children's Cloaks at Greatly Reduced Prices.

The	$5.25	Coats are	now	$4 25
"	4 50	" "	"	3 60
"	3 95	" "	"	3 00
"	3.25	" "	"	2 50

Women's Golf Capes

WILL ALSO BE SOLD AT A REDUCTION OF 20 PER CENT.

I. LEDERER.

FALL OPENING.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.

OUR STOCK COMPLETE

We are now ready to fit either man or boy in Suits or Overcoats, Hats and Gent's Furnishings.

Boys' Suits from 75c to $5 00.

Men's Suits from $2.00 to $20.00.

Have you tried a pair of our Celebrated Cassimere Pants at 98c the pair, if not do so—they are the talk of the town; sold over 1,000 pairs the past season; never rip and fit to perfection. Give us a call.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,

206 West Front Street.

OUR SPECIALTIES { Choice Teas. Fine Coffee.

All the Seasonable Goods for the Holidays. Take home one of our baskets of Fruit.

C. E. GULICK & CO.,

Tel. 931. THE PARK GROCERS.

FIRE!!!

When you hear the alarm at midnight, you can feel secure, at small cost, by knowing that you have an insurance policy issued by Largest agency in the city 163 North Ave., opp. Depot.

ELSTON M. FRENCH.

7000

BU. of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last. Order Quick.

Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

BUY YOUR PHONOGRAPHS,

Gramophones, Records and Supplies

A GOOD MACHINE AT $5.00.

BROKAW'S . . .

The Piano Dealer, 123 East Front Street.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS

Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.

GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.

119 East Front Street.

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.

Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,

Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.

Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.

WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER

DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

— DEALERS IN —

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

Our Attractive Holiday Display

awaits your inspection. We are glad to welcome visitors and pleased to show our goods.

A. L. & M. D. Gorsline, 144 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

NOTED BACHELORS.

Men of Mark in Politics, Art and Literature Who Never Married.

Samuel J. Tilden was the richest American who ever entered public life and remained single to the end of his days. His persistent celibacy was remarkable, for, unlike most others, Mr. Tilden was born with money, and thus from his youth was considered eligible by the mammas of many young women.

No republican of half Mr. Tilden's prominence has gone through life without marrying, but, including David Bennett Hill, who seems to be a confirmed bachelor, democracy's rolls show a noteworthy triumvirate of distinguished celibates, James Buchanan, the only bachelor president, being the third member thereof. Buchanan is understood to have refrained from taking a wife because the girl upon whom he set his youthful affections was obdurate. He is said to have regretted the single state to the day of his death. Mr. Hill, on the other hand, is reported to be a bachelor from choice.

Literature has furnished a long string of names to the list of eminent bachelors. Possibly the best known unmarried man of letters to-day is Henry James, the novelist. He maintains stoutly that the artist, no matter what the medium of his expression, should remain single, on the ground that the petty cares and carpings of domestic life tend to wear on delicately adjusted nerves and exhausts the mental fibre of genius, whether its possessor be a painter of pictures, a worker in words, a modeller of statues, a composer of music, a singer, or one who amuses the people from the stage.

John Greenleaf Whittier was a bachelor, though not from the same cause as the brilliant fiction writer mentioned. Whittier was a great admirer of the married state, we are told, and in his boyhood had a blue-eyed, red-cheeked New England girl for his sweetheart. Together they went to school as children, and when they grew to youth's estate he told her the story most girls like to hear. She heard it gladly, too, but he was poor and a poet and love must wait for recognition. She promised, but waiting is wearisome before recognition came to the young gentle verse-maker she forgot him as a lover and was married to some one else.

Edward Fitzgerald, the translator of Omar Kahyyan's quatrains, was a bachelor, and there was a romance in his life, much like the one which saddened Whittier's, but there was little else which they had in common. The celibacy of Charles Lamb was full of pathos, for he remained single all his life that he might care for his sister. Venerable John Burroughs, naturalist as well as writer, and one of the most charming of men, has never married. Mr. Burroughs was not even a woman hater, neither has any one ever surmised that a romance caused his bachelorhood.

The only literary bachelor who is acknowledged to be a hater of women is the English poet, Algernon Charles Swinburne. His sentiment appears to be based upon the fear that a woman of little culture would be dull beyond description as a life partner, and the conviction that the clever woman is the least attractive of her sex.

Only one noted Protestant divine has been a bachelor. He was Philip Brooks, who finished life as Bishop of the Episcopal Church, and seemingly possessed every quality desirable in a model husband. The cause of his remaining single appears never to have been understood, even by those who were closest to him. He did not avoid the fair, nor has any one been able to recall a romance in his life. In his student days and his career as a clergyman he had many friendships with women, while his passionate fondness for children was remarked often. His letters to some of his juvenile friends, published in one of the magazines, were models in their way.

The bachelorhood of Sir Isaac Newton was a puzzle to some of his contemporaries, but others knew he remained single solely on account of his mother. He thought the world of her, and her affection for him was unbounded but her maternal love was marred by jealousy, and whenever her son thought on marriage or evinced a passing interest even in a pretty face she wept and wrung her hands, and managed somehow to check true love's course. He finally told her he would give up all notion of marriage as long as he lived. After her death he found himself too deeply absorbed in his scientific work and too mature to think of matrimony.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

White Moose.

The white moose of Minnesota is at it again. Like the dappled tiger in Kipling's inimitable story, this beast makes his spectral appearance at unexpected times and at irregular intervals, and when reported there is bound to be a commotion. Unlike the tiger, the advent of the white moose is not a sign of trouble, but it is the sign of much unrest and activity. For every rifle owner in Minnesota has heard the story since his babyhood, and would swap a finger for that moose without stopping to think.

This white moose is said to be a monster. There never was a moose of any color since the world began so big. It is a bull, of course, and is credited with the speed of a hurricane.

And now the question arises, as it has often arisen before, is there any white moose? It is safer to ask the question here in New York than out in the Minnesota woods, where thousands of natives know people who have seen it. Still, it will strike you as singular that search as you may you will never find a man who saw the white moose with his own eyes. So far as evidence is concerned he is a creature of rumor. Nevertheless, there are hundreds now starting into the woods for the winter shooting who openly express the hope of a shot at the white moose.—Exchange.

Measuring of Time.

Just when the day became divided into hours is not known; nor is the process explained. The Greeks and Romans messured time by the water glass and the sun dials. The hour glass, filled with sand, was the outgrowth of these vessels, from which the water dripped through tiny openings.

A peculiar clock, of the time of Charles I, was the lantern, or birdcage style, which hung from the walls high up, with its works exposed.

THE ORIGIN OF LIFE FOUND

So Professor Loeb of Chicago University Says.

STARTLING EXPERIMENTS

Startling Experiments—They Seem to Show That All Animal Life May Be Propagated by Artificial Means—Believes in Immaculate Conception.

Has science at last discovered the principle of life? Is it possible for man to create life by artificial means? Prof. Jacques Loeb, of the University of Chicago, after months of careful experimentation in the Marine Biological Laboratory, at Wood's Holl, Mass., has made an assertion that has startled the scientific world. His assertion is this:—

That by chemical means he has succeeded in hatching the unfertilized eggs of marine animals.

That he has developed the larvae so hatched into healthy animals, capable of exercising all the functions of normally developed animals.

That by a series of experiments he is led to believe this can be done with mammalians, including the human species.

The experiments which led Professor Loeb to make this announcement were performed at the laboratory at Wood's Holl during the last summer and fall. Professor Norman, of Texas University had already shown that the eggs of certain marine animals when unfertilized, had a tendency to develop when sodium or magnesium was added to the sea water in which they were. Following this out Professor Loeb began experiments with the sea urchin, a common marine animal, the male and female of which as of fishes, are separate individuals.

The unfertilized eggs of this animal Professor Loeb subjected to a solution of sodium and magnesium and within two hours they hatched, producing "blastulae," or the first larvae. Placed in normal sea water these developed into "gastrulae" and then into "pluteI," the latter bearing the same relation to a sea urchin as a tadpole does to a frog.

Professor Loeb's announcement of his experiments, and the belief to which he is forced, practically establish a new theory of the reproduction of species. According to this, the union of two elements is not necessary for reproduction, but any cell may divide and reproduce.

This throws at once what may be a most important light on the subject of cancers and of dermoid cysts.

"With regard to cancer, I can say nothing," says Prof. Loeb. "Others, my colleagues, are working on that. But the rest, the development of the unfertilized egg, that is an assured fact. I believe an immaculate conception may be from natural causes. The less a scientist says about that now the better. It is a wonderful subject, and in many ways an awful one.

"That the human species may be made artificially to reproduce itself by the withdrawal of chemical restraint by other than natural means is a matter we do not like to contemplate.

"But we have drawn a great step nearer to the chemical theory of life and may already see ahead of us the day when a scientist, experimenting with chemicals in a test tube, may see them unite and form a substance which shall live and move and reproduce itself.

"It will be the first protoplasmic cell, the origin of all life, which was produced in the test tube of nature ages ago by the union in the course of the world's evolution of the same chemical substances with which he will have worked."

If the discoveries are verified by further experimentation, the possibility is that science may explain the miracle of immaculate conception, over which long and bitter contests have been waged. Centuries ago scientists and theologians took up the quarrel, and they have continued it to the present day. Biologists studying the phenomena of life declared that it was chemically created in the first place, but that man was the result of an age long evolution which had brought about the impossibility of reproduction without the union of the male and the opposite element. It was impossible from their standpoint for a woman to become a mother from any power in herself.

Theologians, on the other hand, have held that, whatever might be the usual manner, in the case of Mary there was no other fatherhood than that of the Almighty. They have remained true to a belief in this, even when abandoning belief in the miracles performed by the Saviour.

His discovery that a solution of magnesium salt caused the development of sea urchin eggs into normal plutei led the scientists at Wood's Holl to a long series of experiments to find what effect the solution had on other cells. A jellyfish, or sea anemone, was taken as an illustration. This is a transparent jellylike mass that moves through the sea, pulsating regularly, waving with each motion a set of streamers which drive food toward its stomach.

Norman already had shown that when this ring of fibres was cut away pulsation stopped, and it was therefore dubbed the "nerve ring," and was believed to be the centre of motive power in the animal. This has now been proven wrong, for when the remaining portion of the jellyfish was put in water containing no calcium and a large percentage of magnesium, it immediately began pulsating rhythmically, as it had in sea water with its rings attached. Bit by bit the outer portions were cut away, and at last the merest centre of the mass was put in a magnesium solution, when it pulsated as had the rest.

THIS cut represents one of our smaller packages. All of our feeds and grain are put up in these standard packages running from Five or Eleven pounds up according to the article, and the price of each is based on the market.

Did you ever think of the advantage of buying from a house that sells any quantity from five pounds to a boat load and that makes the same prices to all customers without any secret deals.

At this season beware of Feeds and Meals made from new corn. As we make our own feeds we know what they contain and we have plenty of

OLD CORN.

In comparing prices it should be borne in mind that OUR GRAIN IS ALL RECLEANED and OUR FEEDS are ALL MADE ON THE PREMISES and ARE KNOWN TO BE PURE

Mixed Oats	74c per bag	Middlings	90c per 100
Mixed Clips	76c per bag	Oat Feed	75c per 100
2 White Oats	78c per bag	Gluten	95c per 100
Regular Clips	80c per bag	Oil Meal	$1.45 per 100
X. B. Clips	82c per bag	No. 1 Grain Mixture	$1.10 per 100
Yellow Corn	79c per 100	Our Poultry Food	$1.15 per 100
Cracked Corn	84c per 100	Wheat	$1.25 per 100
Coarse Meal	84c per 100	Barley (96 lbs)	$1.15 per bag
Ground Feed	84c per 100	No. 1 Hay	88c per 100
Bran	90c per 100	Clover Hay	83c per 100
Buckwheat Middlings	70c per 100	Cut Hay	83c per 100

The above prices are for spot cash at our stores. If delivered add according to quantity as follows:

25 bags or over	2c per bag
5 bags or over	5c per bag
Less than 5 bags	10c per bag

THE PAUL T. NORTON CO.

Elizabeth, Elizabethport, Red Bank, Plainfield, Somerville.

SPORTING.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The Daily Press Bowling League.

	Games Won.	Games Lost.	Highest Score.
Rossie Casino	5	1	911
Park Club	3	3	864
Westfield Club	3	3	826
Cranford Casino	1	5	765

ON THE GRIDIRON.

The Aluminum Plate and Press Works and the Scott Press Works football teams met and played a game of football on the Clinton Avenue grounds Christmas morning, which resulted in the defeat of the Aluminum Press Works team by a score of 3 to 0, Turner scoring 2 and Reike 1 for the Scott team.

Yule Tide.

This season usually marks the top notch of business. In the piano interest matters are especially brisk at present. Music being one of home's delightful enjoyments, the home piano, renowned as such, or the Fischer piano, as it is known through the length and breadth of the land, commands attention. New styles, notably their small grand and others especially designed for the holiday season, are on exhibition at their warerooms, 33 Union Square, New York, to which they respectfully invite the public.

Paralytic Stroke Was Fatal.

The death of Mrs. Mary Buckley, widow of the late Thomas Buckley, died this morning as the result of a paralytic stroke. She had been about the house and in her usual health, and her death was very unexpected. She resided at 419 Cottage place. The notice of funeral will be published to morrow. Two sons and a daughter survive Mrs. Buckley.

Requiem High Mass to be Said.

The death of Mrs. Patrick Melvin, of East Fifth street, occurred last night. She was fifty three years of age. The funeral will be held at St. Mary's church at 9 a. m. Friday morning, when a requiem mass will be said for the repose of her soul. Interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery.

What Can You Do With It?

This is a question we can answer better after we have seen the garment you want dyed. When our wagon is in your neighborhood, let it bring your goods to the store and then, at your convenience, come in and let us tell you just what we can do and the cost. Don't be prejudiced against dyeing. Oftimes you can't tell the goods from new.

HILLIER & CO.,
129 West Front Street,
Opposite Crosby & Hill's. 'Phone 861.

WELL-LAID PLANS FOR CHRISTMAS TIDE.

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

prayer by the superintendent, L. W. Randolph. The programme included a piano solo by Clifford Braider, a doll drill by nine little girls, violin duet by Robert Barnes and Robert Speer, piano duet by Clifford Braider and Robert Schriener, dialogue by Oliver Ulmer and Eugene Walsh, recitations by John Frank, Henry Bender, Geo. Hook, Carl Ulmer, Fred Cook, Henrietta Walsh, Lillian Sternberg, Josie Ammon and Nettie Ammon.

The feature of the entertainment was a "patent Keely phonograph," conducted by Mr. Evans, with Jeremiah Manning on the "inside." Distribution of gifts and refreshments followed.

Dead at the Age of 106.

Chicago, Dec. 27.—John M. Brown, 106 years old, died at the Mercy Hospital on Sunday night. He had lived at the hospital for nearly twenty years. He was a feeble old man when he went there in 1880 for treatment. After his recovery he was permitted to make his home there. For several years he has spent the greater portion of his waking hours in prayer in the little chapel, where requiem mass will be celebrated to-morrow morning for the repose of his soul. The last time he went to the chapel was ten days ago, when he had to be wheeled to the altar in a chair. Since then he had been confined to his bed. Little is known at the hospital of his life prior to his entering there, except that he was born in Ireland, and that he had a son somewhere. The remains will be interred in Calvary Cemetery.

Opium Concealed in Bananas.

Boston, Dec. 27.—The State police have arrested Gilbert Whitney on a charge of attempting to smuggle opium into the State prison at Charlestown, and the prisoner now occupies a cell in the Charleston police station awaiting trial. Whitney has a brother in the prison, and, according to the State officers, the watchmen there discovered three vials of opium concealed in bananas which had been sent to him. The drug was concealed inside the fruit, a vial to each of three bananas, and the officers discovered the trick through the failure properly to close up one of the bananas. A warrant was issued for Gilbert Whitney over a week ago, but he was not located until Saturday afternoon, when State Officer Dunham found him in the South End.

A Chamber Concert.

A reception and musicale will be held in the Congregational church Thursday night at 8 o'clock. A musical programme of chamber music will be rendered by a string quartette. The full programme will be announced in tomorrow's paper.

To Cure Constipation in One Week
To Purify the Blood in One Week
To Strengthen Nerves in One Week
To Cure Sick Headache in One Day

Take Cleveland's Celery Compound Tea, 25c. Trial size free. It it fails to cure your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary corner Park and North avenues.

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS THAT PLAINFIELDERS MAY WITNESS.

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World

Howard P. Taylor's interesting society comedy, "Infatuation," was produced by the Burrill Comedy Company in Music Hall last night to a large and enthusiastic audience. The play deals very prettily with an errant husband's misdoings, and the author in working out the denouement showed an intimate knowledge of human nature. The scenery, more especially in the last act, was elaborate and very pretty, a gala effect being given to the setting by the use of many Chinese lanterns. Miss Laura Hurlbert, as "Ollie Summerville," the long-suffering, loving wife, played a part full of emotion with an ease and grace won only by long experience and strong dramatic talent. Edgar Mackey, as "Will Summerville," looked and played in a manly straightforward manner. Charles W. Burrill, as "Phil Simpson," was very funny, and was ably seconded by Laurence Barbour as "Jonathan." Messrs. Bowers and Belmont, as "Bylon" and "Thad," got all the laughs possible by their clever work. The specialties were remarkably strong. This afternoon "East Lynne" was played to a large and appreciative audience. Tonight Wm. Haworth's great play, "A Flag of Truce," will be presented, and a great scenic production is assured. At the matinee tomorrow "Infatuation" will be presented and tomorrow night a great English melo-drama, "Saved From the Sea." This piece was specially produced and directed for this company by Wm. Calder, and is considered one of the strongest and most stirring melo-dramas of the day.

* * * * *

A great novelty is announced by Manager Maze Edwards for next Monday—New Year's Day—at Music Hall, in the engagement of Sie Hassan's Ben Ali's Tooznin Specialty Company, headed by the marvelous troupe of Toozoonin Arabs, introduced by the Moorish Prince, Muly Ali. These Arabs, brought to this country by Hassah Ben Ali, a well known European manager, by special permission of the Sultan of Morocco and the United States Consul at Tangiers, are famous for their agility, strength and grace in acrobatic work, and have been leading features with the Barnum & Bailey show in England and at all the principal music halls in New York. Their feats are wonderful to behold. On the occasion of their visit here they will have the assistance of a number of high class vaudeville artists and present an entertainment that will surely please all ammusement seekers. There will be two performances—a matinee at 2:15 in the afternoon and another at night. Reserved seats are now ready at box office.

A GOTHAM INCIDENT.

Killing, Cutting and Shooting on a Trolley.

New York, Dec. 27.—Three men were shot, one receiving probably fatal injuries, in a free fight on a trolley car of the Union Railway in the Bronx early Tuesday morning. The injured men are in the Fordham Hospital. Another man, Charles Tressy, of Travers street and Webster avenue, is under arrest charged with doing the shooting. All of the men are colored. The shooting was the outgrowth of a fight at a Christmas cakewalk. Shots were fired from at least one revolver, at least one razor flashed. The police have one prisoner whom the two worst wounded men refused to identify or complain against, but who was identified by the third hospital patient and by another negro who got away as the man who did the shooting. The prisoner himself admitted that he had thrown some lead about, but who did the cutting the police do not know. They hardly expect to find out or even to obtain a complete list of all the men who were hurt. The affair is shrouded in some mystery, and most of the negroes who could be witnesses refuse to talk.

A Great Strike in France.

Paris, Dec. 27.—At a meeting of twenty-five hundred miners held in St. Etienne, a resolution was adopted in favor of declaring a general strike in the coal basin of the Loire. A sympathy movement involving fifty thousand men is feared. The prosperity of the coal trade led the miners to demand an increase of wages, shorter hours and a formal recognition of the miners' federation by the companies. The latter made an offer of five per cent. increase, but this was refused.

The decision was reached amid cries of "Vive la Greve!" Disorders are anticipated. Already there have been slight disturbances, particularly last evening, when the miners went in procession through the streets of St. Etienne singing the "Carmagnole."

Twelve thousand five hundred lace workers are on strike in St. Etienne for higher wages. Their idleness involves that of thirty-five thousand other dependent workers, making with the miners if the coal strike spreads, as is expected, nearly one hundred thousand affected.

Moreover, a number of factories and works will soon be compelled to close owing to the coal shortage.

Mrs. I. P. Allen, of Jackson avenue who has been seriously ill at her home during the past two weeks, is slightly improved, although she is not yet out of danger.

PEOPLE COME AND GO.

PERSONAL MENTION OF INTEREST TO PRESS READERS.

Some Come to Enjoy Pleasures of Plainfield, Others Journey to Either Mountain or Shore for Recreation.

Arthur Pearson, a well known milk dealer of this city, is critically ill at his home.

The home of Dr. J. Hervey Buchanan, Duer street, was brightened this morning by the birth of a little girl.

Evangelist Rev. Arthur Crane left the west this morning to conduct evangelistic meetings in Terre Haute, Ind., Paris, DuQuoin, Ill., and other cities west.

THREATENED HOMES.

Firemen Saved Neighboring Dwellings From Flames of a Burning Barn.

Small boys, cigarettes and matches were the dangerous combination that finally resulted in the destruction of a barn belonging to Frank Cullen, grocer, who lives at 969 South Second street, this morning. The barn was located near his home and in a cluster of small cottages occupied by employes at the Pond Tool Works.

The fire was not discovered until it had gained good headway. Then an alarm was sent in from box 47. When the firemen arrived, they were compelled to devote their attention to saving the adjacent buildings. The barn was completely destroyed.

The neighboring houses were all saved although the danger appeared so imminent that several families started to move their household goods out of the threatened dwelling.

The total loss will reach $1,000 which was partially covered by insurance. The barn was partially filled with hay and straw that burned readily.

A GIRL OUTLAW.

Remarkable Career of "the Wild Rose of Wilton."

Within the gloomy walls of a Connecticut prison, drooping and pining for the wilderness of the forest, languishing for the lack of the sunlight, is "the Wild Rose of Wilton," says the New York Herald. Not yet out of her teens. Minnie Sturm, brown eyed and beautiful, has had a career that well might puzzle a philosopher to account for.

Reared in a quiet, old fashioned house near Norwalk, this girl, with a rich profusion of dark brown hair, with hands soft and white, with a beauty such that many a maiden of lordly birth might envy her, untutored and in tatters, is yet a queen of men, lawless men though they are.

Not more than a mile from her home, beneath the shelter of two great rocks, was a rendezvous of a marauding band of idlers. There this farmer's daughter found them about two years ago. She cast her life with theirs. When a raid on neighboring cellars and hen roosts made provisions plentiful there in the rendezvous, it was Minnie Sturm (Minnie Brotherton) who cooked the viands over a fire of logs.

But the band became too daring. The band of the low seized them. Some were imprisoned and the others scattered. Minnie Brotherton promised to mend her ways and the lenient authorities let her go her way.

(Minnie Sturm.)

For a short time she lived quietly, but not contentedly, in the old house. A few months later she married Valentine Sturm, of Norwalk, and went to live with the family of her husband. Her stay there was remarkably short. Seven months after she left him, and in the winter of 1898 applied to the Selectman of Norwalk for support. She was sent to the Town Farm.

Even there she showed her wild tendencies. She fell in love with a pauper, "Jim" Collins, a gray bearded man with a wooden leg. One day they eloped from the Almshouse, and for several days there was no trace of them. Then Collins limped back to the institution and was restored to his former place, but the "Wild Rose" had no love for life in an Almshouse, and she soon found a companion in Howard Dauchy. A few days ago Dauchy and the "Wild Rose" entered the Norwalk Selectman's office and applied for admission to the Poorhouse.

Instead of accommodating them the Selectman notified Strum, who preferred a charge of infidelity against his wife. It was learned, too, that they had borrowed a horse and wagon to drive to the Town Clerk's office, saying they wished to get a marriage license. The horse and wagon were not returned, and a charge of horse theft was made.

The "Wild Rose's" indignation was aroused. She first pleaded with the owner to withdraw his charge, promising to bring back his horse and wagon. He was determined to send her to jail, and refused. "You'll never see that horse again!" the "Wild Rose" exclaimed. "I'll go to jail and stay there." And she did.

—Press want ads pay.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

TELEPHONE 722.
MAZE EDWARDS, - Lessee and Manager.

Reserved Seat Tickets at Box Office, which is open daily from 9. a. m.

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS MATINEE,
One Solid Week, Commencing
MONDAY, DEC. 25, 1899.
Re-engagement of the popular
Burrill Comedy Company,
Supporting LAURA HURLBERT,
in a repertoire of standard scenic productions—
Monday afternoon, "A Flag of Truce"
Monday evening, "The Design."
Prices—10c, 20c and 30c. Seats now on sale.

New Year's Day, Monday, Jan. 1st.
GREAT ATTRACTION—2 Performances.
Matinee at 2:15 p. m. Night at 8:15.
Sie Hassan Ben Ali's
TOOZOONIN SPECIALTY CO.,
Headed by the MARY LOUS TROUPE of
::::::TOOZOONIN ARABS::::::
Introduced by the Moorish Prince,
MULI ALI,
Assisted by a High Class Company of
VAUDEVILLE ARTISTS.
PRICES—Matinee, 25 and 50c.
Night, 25, 35, 50 and 75c.

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY GLEE & INSTRUMENTAL CLUBS.

Monroe Ave. M. E. Church,
Cor. Monroe Avenue and Fourth Street,
FRIDAY EVENING, Dec. 29th,
AT 8 O'CLOCK,
—Under the auspices of—
YOUNG MEN'S CLASS.
TICKETS, - - - - - 35c.
12 27 3

COLLIER
EYE SPECIALIST,
103 Park Ave.....
Established 1869. Eyes Examined Free.

GEO. W. COLE,
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,
200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

MARRIED.

MARSH-PIZIE—In the Seventh-Day Baptist parsonage, Plainfield, December 24th, 1899, by pastor Arthur E. Main, Mr. Franklin T. Marsh, of Plainfield, and Miss Emma L. Pizie, of New Market.

DIED.

BUCKLEY—In this city, Dec. 27th, 1899, at her late residence, 419 Cottage place, Mrs. Mary Buckley, widow of the late Thomas Buckley.
Notice of funeral in tomorrow's paper.

MELVIN—In this city, Tuesday, Dec. 26th, 1899, Elizabeth, wife of Patrick Melvin, aged 53 years.
Funeral service at her late residence, 114 East Fifth street, Friday, Dec. 29th, at 8:30 a. m., at St. Mary's R. C. church at 9 a. m., where a requiem high mass will be said for the repose of her soul. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery. 12 27 2

WANTS AND OFFERS.

WANTED—Experienced cook. Apply Superintendent Muhlenberg Hospital. 12 27 tf

BARGAIN—Upright piano, used only one year, will sell right Address R., care Press. 12 27 2

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework. 613 Madison Ave.

WANTED—White girl for general housework; references required 330 East Fifth street. 12 27 2

WANTED—Girl for general house work, family of two. Apply Thursday, 206 East Ninth street.

USE of stylish, reliable family horse and closed carriage, for keep of horse, to responsible party. Address W. J., care Press.

WANTED—By young lady, board, with room; state terms and particulars; within 6 minutes' walk of depot. Address S., care Press.

LOST—Heavy silver bracelet, between Congregational church and East Fifth street. Return to 314 East Fifth street.

WASHING Wanted at home. 305 East Fourth street. 12 26 3

WANTED—Either colored, German or Swedish girl for general housework. Apply at 95 Fairview Ave. 12 26 2

TO LET—Large, well-heated room, with excellent board. 62 Sandford Ave. 12 26 6

FOR SALE—Good buffalo robe. Inquire J. P. Laire. 12 23 6

FOR SALE to close an Estate, House and lot, No. 251 East Third street, formerly the residence of John P. Brokaw; comfortable, roomy house; large lot; macadamized street. Inquire of Nelson Runyon, attorney for heirs, 221 Park Ave. 12 22 6

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 8 23 tf

A Happy New Year To All.

End the old year right by leaving your orders with S. SCHEUER & CO. The Hight Standard quality of our Goods and our exceptionally low Prices make us the popular grocers and butchers of Plainfield. Our Motto, Satisfaction guaranteed or Money Refunded.

Read our Special Prices for

THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY.

Finest XXXX Minn. Patent Flour (None better at any price.)	bbl 4.38
Finest Gilt Edge Creamery Butter, per lb	28c
Fine Creamery Butter, lb	24c
Extra Fine Lard, lb	6c
Finest Sugar Cured Hams, lb	10c
Finest California Hams, lb	7c
Meat or Link Sausage, our own make, 3 lbs for	25c

Uneeda Biscuit, pkg	3½c	Prime Jersey Turkeys, per lb	16c
" Ginger Wafers	8c	Finest Roasting Chickens, per lb	14c
Libbys 1 lb Plum pudding	10c	Prime Jersey Fowl, per lb	12c
R & R 1 lb Plum pudding	19c	Prime Leg Mutton, lb	10c
French Mixed Candies, per lb	9c	Prime Legs of Spring Lamb, per lb	12c
Fancy Cape Cod Cranberries, qt	8c	Jersey Pork Roast or Chops, per lb	9c
Candied citron, finest	13c	Fresh Pork Shoulders, per lb	8c
Orange or Lemon peel	12c	Forequarter of Mutton, per lb	8c
Cleaned Currants, lb	8c	Forequarter of Lamb, per lb	10c
New Muscatel Raisins per lb	8c	Shoulder Lamb Chops per lb	12c
Extra Fine Cal Prunes per lb	6c	Best Chuck Steak or Roast, per lb	10c
Homemade Fruit Cake per lb	12c	Best Round Steak, lb	16c
Extra fancy Lemons per doz	13c	Best Sirloin Steak, lb	18c
Honey Spice Drops per lb	10c	Fresh Tripe, lb	6c
Extra fancy Table Raisins per lb	18c	Pickled Pigs Feet, lb	6c
Dried Apples per lb	10c	Best Salt Pork, lb	7½c
New Orleans Molasses, per gal.	30c	Lean Breakfast Bacon, per lb	10c
Vanilla Drip Syrup, per gal.	30c	Taylor's Prepared Ham the genuine no salty taste, per lb	12½c
New mixed Nuts, lb	13c	Fancy Table Apples, per bas	35c
Italian Chestnuts, lb	10c	Kiln Dried Sweet Potatoes, per bas	55c
New Brazil Nuts, per lb	10c	Finest Table Celery, 3 bunches	25c
New Paper Shell Almonds per lb	22c	Fancy Red Onions, per bas	35c
Jordan Shelled Almonds per lb	38c

We will receive a choice stock of Florida Oranges, Malaga Grapes, Nuts, Figs, Dates, etc.; also Turkeys, Ducks and Chickens at lowest New York Prices.

S. SCHEUER & CO.,

239-241 West Front Street.
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

STORE CLOSES AT 6 O'CLOCK.

Bonn's
140 WEST FRONT ST.

STORE CLOSES AT 6 O'CLOCK

WARM PETTICOATS, $1.23, that are stylish and serviceable, a black satine with two ruffles, lined throughout, at $1 23. Mercerized Petticoats, all colors, prettily made, $2 49. Black Satine Petticoats, well made, 49c and 79c.

WARM WAISTS, 49c, of Flannelette, a good quality, stripes and plaids, sizes 32 to 44, at 49c.

BARRED and White Plymouth Rock, White Leghorn and White Wyandotte Cockerels, from our famous prize winning strains, cheap. Plainfield Poultry Farm Co., 79 Somerset street. 12 20 6

PURE cider vinegar for sale at C. J. Ackerman's, Clinton avenue. 8 5 w-s tf

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

FOR RENT—Central Hall, for occasional festivities or permanent occupation. Apply to Fred Dunn. w s tf

TO LET—Six-room house and store, connected. 214 Richmond street.

TO LET—Nice flat with improvements. 304 Richmond street.

TO LET—Butcher shop, with or without fixtures. 302 B Richmond street. eod 12 13 tf

WANTED—Reliable girls to do glove sewing. Write or apply at Room 316, Babcock Building. 12 23 3

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 24

CHAS. L. FORCE,
Architect and Superintendent.
208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 31 tf

SPECIAL!!

HAIR DRESSING, SHAMPOOING, MANICURING.
Until after the Holiday Season
MISS HOLMES,
Graduate of the New York School of Hair Dressing and Dermatology,
will make special rates for hair dressing in all the latest styles for street and evening; at parlors 75c. At ladies residences by appointment. Shampooing or Facial Massage and steaming (for eradicating imperfections of the skin) 75c. Manicuring 50c.
440 W. FRONT ST.

WINES made only from selected grapes and cane sugar crystal. Twenty-five cents per bottle and upward. "THE VINEYARDS," Park Ave., corner Cooper St., Fanwood. 12 18 12

MASSAGE :-: VAPOR BATHS
CORNS REMOVED 25c.
M. V. STICKLE, 149 East Fifth St.

Mons De Villiers,
ILLUSIONIST and ENTERTAINER.
Miss Carolyn Laying,
IMPERSONATOR.
Y. M. C. A. Star Course.....
JANUARY 1st, 8 P. M.
ADMISSION 25 CENTS. 12 23 3

Ladie Desiring
KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING
done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 238 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:24 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:40 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:40 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Cloudy and Threatening Tonight; Friday Fair; Stationary Temperature; Ther. 24.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

TROLLEY SYNDICATE BOWS TO INEVITABLE

The Rikers Yield to the Demands of Elizabeth.

A COMPLETE SURRENDER.

ACCEPT THE ORDINANCE WITH ALL ITS CONDITIONS.

Result Was Just as The Daily Press Has Predicted All Along—Formal Acceptance Filed With the Elizabeth City Clerk Yesterday, It Being the Last Day in Which It Could Possibly be Done.

As had been predicted all along by The Daily Press, the Riker-Hine trolley syndicate, incorporated as the Elizabeth and Westfield Street Railway Company, has accepted the terms made by the Elizabeth City Council in consideration of the granting of a franchise for the right to enter that city over Jersey avenue and thereby complete the system that has been building in Union county during the past year. It is an unconditional surrender from the trolley syndicate, since they have been putting up the biggest kind of a bluff ever since the negotiations were started with the Elizabeth Council, but, as pointed out by The Daily Press, there was no other alterative for them if they were to comple their line between this city and Elizabeth.

The company had until yesterday to make its reply to the city, and City Clerk Manning received in his morning mail a letter from Colonel E. W. Hine, the secretary of the company, with the formal acceptance of the ordinance inclosed.

The acceptance of the ordinance has come as a surprise to many. It has been the opinion of some of the city authorities who were contending for the ordinance that yesterday, the termination of the 30 day limitation, would witness its death, and compromise measures were subjects of discussion as the ground work for a new ordinance.

The features of the ordinance which makes this grant the most favorable to Elizabeth's interests are in the concessions which the company has agreed to.

The route for entrance to the business part of the city is the most desirable of any suggested. Jersey avenue will be paved from curb to curb, and property in that section of the city will be enhanced in value because of the improvement and the communication thus opened with the business centre. The taxable valuations of the city will be increased. The rate of fares is low to all points reached by the company's line. The privilege of transfers is covered by the ordinance. The fare between Roselle and Elizabeth, with transfers to any section, will be five cents; the fare between Cranford and Elizabeth for the first five years, with transfers to all sections, will be eight cents, and after five years, five cents.

The company also offers half fares to the children and special rates to school children.

Col. E. W. Hine, secretary of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railroad Company, was interviewed in reference to the acceptance of the ordinance by the company.

He said the acceptance is formal and legal, and it was the judgment of Mr. Riker that it was the better way to dispose of the matter, for the reason that it gives to the company eight months in which it will have the opportunity to apply to the City Council for a modification of the objectionable conditions. To let the ordinance die time would be wasted in making a new application, and in the time necessary to have a new ordinance prepared and adopted. The company hopes and expects that the Cranford condition of five cent fare after five years, which is prohibitory, will be changed.

Christmas at Springdale.

The annual Christmas celebration was held at the Springdale church last Monday evening when a very pleasing programme was rendered by the young people of the church and Sunday-school. It consisted of recitations, songs, vocal and instrumental solos. There were also addresses by L. A. Hummer and Andrew Wilson of the borough. There were a number of people present from this city who enjoyed the festivities very much. After the entertainment oranges, cake and candy were served. Much credit for the entertainment is due to Miss Minnie Kirch, who trained the children.

Reward for Incendiaries' Arrest.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Flemington, Dec. 28.—A reward of $500 has been offered for the arrest of the gang of incendiaries who attempted to burn the town of Three Bridges some time ago.

PARKS WIN AT WHIST.

STILL HOLD THE STATE CHALLENGE WHIST TROPHY.

Defeated the Forest Hill Club Last Evening by a score of 14 to 9—They will Meet Last Year's Champions Next week

The State challenge trophy of the New Jersey Whist Association will remain here a little longer. Last night the Park Club four won its seventh victory for the cup by defeating the Forest Hill Whist Club. The trophy will therefore remain in Plainfield until some other challenging team is more successful.

The Forest Hill team was something of an unknown quantity in Jersey whistic circles. They have just entered the league and the Parks had not had an opportunity of meeting them in a dual contest before. The new comers played good whist, but it was not up to the standard set by the Park Club four and the visitors departed leaving victory and the trophy behind.

The Parks had the regular team on hand to defend the trophy, Peter B. Matthews, Arthur A. Freeman, Albert O. Woltmann and Ralph Willis. The challenging team consisted of Messrs. Sisserson, E. Halsey, Hunt and C Halsey.

The local players had the best of the match in every round. The score by rounds was as follows:

	PARK CLUB.	FOREST HILL.
First round	2	1
Second round	4	2
Third round	8	6
	14	9

The Elizabeth Chess and Whist Club has won nine matches for the trophy and the Park Club two less. A match will be played next Wednesday, when the challengers will be the New Jersey Whist Club, of Newark, last year's champions.

THIS TAKES THE BUN.

A Story to the Effect That a Gold Dollar was Found in the Entrails of a Christmas Turkey.

One of the best stories of the season is related by a boroughite whose reputation for truthfulness cannot be gainsaid. It happened this way, Edward Sebring, the Somerset street marble cutter, who lives with Mr and Mrs. John H. Carney, of Craig place, bought a fine big Jersey turkey the day before Christmas from Sylvester Sharkey, of the East End. The turkey was delivered to Mr. Sebring's place of residence and thoroughly enjoyed Christmas Day. Here is where the surprise appeared. When the turkey was being operated upon preparatory for its entrance into the oven, and while the entrails were being removed, according to custom, a gold dollar was found imbedded therein. One side was almost smooth and could not be deciphered, but the other side was all right and showed the denomination of the coin. It is now being carried by Mr. Sebring in the hopes that it may bring him good luck in the future. He has since placed an order for another turkey for next year, and he thinks he may find some more gold.

MRS. KINSMAN'S FUNERAL.

Services Held From the First Baptist Church Yesterday Afternoon.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. F. E. Kinsman, of Sherman avenue, were held yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the First Baptist church, where a large number of relatives and friends gathered to pay their last respects to the departed. Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes, pastor of the church, officiated, and he spoke in the highest terms of the life of Mrs. Kinsman, and of her descendants, as great and faithful workers in the Baptist denomination. He spoke of the patience of Mrs. Kinsman during her long illness and fight for life, and of her complete submission to the will of God.

The casket, a steel grey color, was completely covered with beautiful flowers, including wreaths of roses and greens. After the remarks of Dr. Yerkes an opportunity was given those present to view the remains, after which they were taken to Leominster, Mass., where interment will take place in the family plot at that place.

Woodglen's Gold Fever.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Flemington, Dec. 28.—The gold fever continues unabated at Woodglen, this county. The latest assay shows $47 66 in gold and silver to the ton. Work is being pushed forward as rapidly as possible, and the mining of the precious medal will begin in a few days.

Dog Poisoners at Work.

The State Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, through George Morrison, is offering a reward of $25 for information that will lead to the arrest of the parties who have been poisoning dogs by the wholesale in Cranford. Many valuable dogs have been killed.

SOCIETY'S FIRST FORMAL FUNCTION.

First Assembly Was Held Last Evening in the Casino.

WAS A GREAT SUCCESS.

SOCIETY FOLK TURNED OUT WELL FOR THEIR FIRST OFFICIAL DANCE.

Long List of Subscribers Most of Whom Were Present—The College Men and Out-of-town Guests Were Not Included in That List But Came as Special Guests—Casino Prettily Decorated

This winter of 1899-1900 has already proved itself an unusually lively one for Plainfield society folk. The return of the assemblies has been a cause for general satisfaction among those who found those formal society gatherings so pleasant in the past. Last night the first of the assemblies was held in the Casino. The unqualified support given it by the elite of Plainfield society made it a decided success and made promise of similar results for the other two dances that are to follow this winter.

For two years the Assemblies have not been held, owing to lack of interest. This year the demand for these official social functions was so general that it was decided to hold them. The entire clubhouse adjoining the Casino was thrown open to the guests. The Casino itself was decorated with palms and potted plants that formed a screen to the balconies and to the stage, which was occupied by the orchestra. Easy chairs were arranged in the alcoves and sofa cushions covered the wall seats.

The dances were arranged under the charge of the following patronesses: Mrs. Charles E. Brooks, Mrs Rowland Cox, Mrs. M. E. Edgerton, Mrs. Chas. J. Fisk, Mrs. Pliny Fisk, Mrs. Wm. T. Kaufman, Mrs. S. L. Schoonmaker, Mrs. Henry M. Stockton and Mrs. H. P. Talmadge.

Charles E. Brooks consented to take charge of the details in which he has had much experience in the past. He was overwhelmed with requests for tickets at the last and was finally compelled to refuse to issue any more. As it was, the attendance at the dance was very large, fully 160 being present.

Most of the regular subscribers to the series were present last evening, and in addition, there were nearly fifty special guests, young people home from the colleges and others visiting here for the holidays.

The dancing began shortly after 9 o'clock and continued until early this with an interval before midnight for the serving of a supper.

The subscribers to the Assemblies this winter are, with few exceptions, residents of Plainfield. The young people home from the colleges were not included in that list but were considered special guests as were friends visiting at Plainfield homes for the holidays. The list of subscribers is as follows: Mr. and Mrs S L. Schoonmaker, Frank Schoonmaker, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Stockton, H. Reeve Stockton, Miss Edith Hyde, Mrs. M. E Edgerton, J. L. Closson, Miss H E Strong, Joseph L. Meyers, Harry B. Lovell, John Q Lockman, New York, A. T. Compton, Jr., New York, Boardman Wright, Mrs. H P. Talmadge, Miss Talmadge, Harry Talmadge, 2d., Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Cox, Miss Fanny C. Cox, Archibald Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gaston, Archibald Henderson, J. Whitney Baker, Miss Neeley, Laurens H. VanBuren, Miss Agnes Minford, John B. Dumont, Jr., Henry V. Ryder, Burritt H. Shepard, Augustus D. Shepard, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Percy H Stewart, Siegfried Arens, Miss Arens, Mr. and Mrs. A F. H. Streuli, Mr. and Mrs William G Wright, Miss Lydia P. Ackerman, Miss Borsum, Fred W. Goddard, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pinto, Dr. F. C. Ard, Henry A. Patton, Mrs. Mason W. Tyler, C Boardman Tyler, Miss Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Craig A. Marsh, H. L Finch, R C. Finch, Mrs. George A Strong, Mr. and Mrs. Auguste Kleinecke, Clifford W. McGee, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lowe, Miss Lotta Lowe, O. G Waring, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Fisk, Augustus G. Fisk, Charles W. Fisk, Miss Louise G. Fisk, Miss Emma Schoonmaker, Dr B VanD. Hedges, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Runkle, Dan Runkle, Rutherford M. Shepard, Edward T Wilson, Mrs. F S. Martin, Miss Martin, Charles E. Faber, James M. Middledith, Clarence L. Murphy, Arthur Murphy, Henry W. Lowe, Norbeck Pendergast, Elizabeth, Miss Alice Barlow, Mr. and Mrs. D H. Rowland, Mrs. B. Arrowsmith Hegeman, Jr, Owen Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart H Patterson, Miss Mary K. Whiton, Miss Helen F Bushnell,

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.]

ALLEN'S CAREER.

His Life in Williamsport Indicated That He was Wealthy—Known as "Tow Head" Allen.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Williamsport, Dec. 28.—The sensation occasioned here several weeks ago over the announcement that Mrs. Sarah Pangborn, of Plainfield, N. J., had made claim to the estate of the wealthy pawnbroker known to the people of Williamsport as Winfield S. Allen, and that she alleged that he was her legal husband, being known in Plainfield as Stephen Pangborn, is proving more than a nine days' wonder. Incidents in the life of Allen during his residence here are being called and fully discussed. He was a queer character and extremely vain as to his personal appearance. He dressed in the height of fashion and wore the most expensive jewelry. Every finger on both hands was usually ornamented with diamond rings, and a massive watch chain was always suspended from about his neck. He carried with him constantly a large roll of greenbacks.

When Allen came first to Williamsport the Park Hotel was in course of construction. Allen obtained a job as a carpenter. He was without tools and his fellow-workmen accorded him many courtesies. While working with a comrade finishing a room on the fourth floor one day Allen became communicative. He said his home had been in New York City, but that he never expected to return to the place. When pressed for an explanation Allen said that he had killed a negro during an altercation.

During his early sojourn here Allen had a head of the blackest hair. It suddenly changed to a light color, and for years he was known as "Tow Head" Allen. It has never been decided whether Allen dyed his hair black or bleached its white.

YULETIDE WITH THE FRIENDS.

Pleasant Time Enjoyed by the Sunday-school Last Night.

The members of the Friends' Sunday school met last evening at the meeting-house on Watchung avenue and enjoyed their annual Christmas festivities. There was a good attendance and an excellent programme was presented for the instruction and edification of all. It opened with concert reading, "Christmastide," by the school, after which the following was given: Recitations, "Christmas," Edith Mattox; "The Magic of the Snow," Weston Gavett; "The Sunbeams," Hazel Morrison; "The Christmas Tree," Leslie Palmer; "A Terrible Fate," Margery Cooley; "Christmas Money," Olga Wier; "The Dearest Doll," Ruth Stryker; "The Men of Glonate," Robert Goldsack; "The Gain of Giving," Anna Morrison; "The Best Tree," Horace Vail; "Where Do You Live," Ethel Lorton; "Gifts for Royal Children," Paul Whitall; "What Next?" Mabel Vail. Readings, "Playing Meeting," Fanny Stryker; "Set's Christmas Stocking," Cornelia Gavett; "New Year's Hymn," school.

After the entertainment was fully enjoyed all adjourned to the upper part of the meeting-house where, under the direction of a committee, of which Mrs. Clara Rushmore was chairman, refreshments and gifts of candy and oranges were served to the members of the school. This brought the happy event to a close and those present left for their homes delighted with the entertainment.

Chosen Friends Elect Officers.

The following officers were selected at the meeting of the Order of Chosen Friends Tuesday evening: Councillor, W. D. Williams; vice-councillor, Wm. Hobart; prelate, Frank Humbston; marshal, Wm. Patterson; warden, Louis Weise; guard, Lewis VanNest; sentry, J. Hope; secretary, W. H. Creveling; treasurer, N. H. Saxton; assistant secretary, Wm. Goldberg. Wednesday evening, Feb. 28th, the anniversary of the order will be celebrated appropriately.

Sold Under Foreclosure.

Under foreclosure proceedings the property located at the corner of Park place and Somerset street and formerly owned by Michael Powers, was sold Tuesday by Sheriff Schoonmaker to Thomas Kennedy, of Bayonne. Lawyer Irving L Brady was the solicitor on behalf of Dr. Jenkins Mr. Kennedy was the second mortgagee, and the full amount of the decree was $3 026.

Mrs. Hall Invited.

The thirty-second annual convention of the National American Woman Suffrage Association will be held in the Church of Our Father, corner of Thirteenth and L streets, Washington D C. Feb. 8th to 14th, inclusive, 1900 Mrs Florence Howe Hall, of Madison avenue, has been invited and will probably attend the convention.

—Press want ads pay.

GUS FRAZEE SURE OF A $15,000 BEQUEST.

He Loaned $4,000 To a Friend Forty Years Ago.

MONEY SOON FORTHCOMING

CITY NATIONAL BANK HAS BEEN APPOINTED DEPOSITORY.

Executor Writes to Frazee That The Estate Will Be Divided Up According to the Will in a Short Time—Original Loan Was Made in Newark in 1858, Where it was Lost in a Venture.

Henry Augustus Frazee, of South Second street, who was one of the pioneer pony express messengers along the Central Railroad of New Jersey, but who has been living quietly in this city since he lost one of his legs in a runaway accident four years ago, has received positive assurance that he will be paid $15,000 within a short time by the executors of the estate of the late W. P. Hedden, of Toledo, O. This bequest of money to Frazee comes in the nature of the return of "bread cast upon the waters" more than forty years ago.

In 1858, Frazee loaned Hedden $4,000 to invest in a business in Newark. The money was lost in the venture and discouraged and disheartened Hedden went west, and Frazee gave up all hope of ever having the loan returned. As years passed and Frazee lost sight of Hedden his conclusion became so firm that the loan only came to his mind once in a while when he became reminiscent.

Hedden, it appears, located in the far west and made money in a mining venture. After he became prosperous he moved to Toledo, where, when he died about a year ago, he left a large fortune. In reading his will it was found that he had bequeathed Frazee $15,000 in appreciation of his aid in 1858. After considerable trouble, Frazee was located by the executors, and since then the proper affidavits of identification, etc., have been made.

Christmas Day Frazee received a letter from H. P. Robinson, one of the executors, stating that the estate was almost ready to be divided among the heirs and beneficiaries, and he asked where Frazee would like to receive his share. Frazee has delegated the City National Bank, of this city, as the depository for the funds, and it is expected that sometime in January the $15 000 will be placed to Frazee's credit in that bank.

ESSEX DEMOCRATS NEW COMMITTEE.

Senators Smith's Friends Won in a Stiff Fight.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Newark, Dec. 28—The new Democratic county committee was chosen by primary elections throughout Essex county last night. It had been anticipated that a big fight would take place between the followers of James R. Nugent, present chairman, and those of Colonel E. L. Price, his leading enemy in the party. To the astonishment of politicians, Mr. Nugent announced yesterday that he would not try to be chairman again, and would not even stand for re-election as a committeeman.

The leading factor in last night's primaries was former United States Senator James Smith, by whom the majority of the successful candidates were chosen. As soon as it became known that Mr. Smith favored any particular candidate few Democrats of influence cared to antagonize him. Colonel Price won a sweeping victory and will probably be made chairman of the new county committee, although Owen Conlon and others are after the honor.

Honoring Memory of Josiah Browne.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the American Tobacco Company, New York, held last Tuesday, resolutions were adopted honoring the memory of Josiah Browne, their late secretary. Similar action was taken at the meeting of the board of directors of the Monopol Tobacco Works, with which Mr. Browne was also associated.

Operation Not Yet Performed.

Christopher Stagaard, the young son of George Stagaard, who is at the hospital suffering from the effects of a piece of steel in his eye, did not have the eye taken out as stated by the News of yesterday. The operation will not be performed for a day or two, when the condition of the patient will allow it.

Death of Infant Daughter.

The death of Merium VanWinkle Smith, infant daughter of Mr and Mrs. E. P T. Smith, of 423 West Fourth street, occurred yesterday after a short illness. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon from the house at 2:30 o'clock.

BLACK EYE FOR JERRY

FRANCIS M'CABE HAD HIS SCALP CUT OPEN.

Family Troubles at Home of Jeremiah Cash — McCabe Was Arrested Last Night and Trial Saturday Morning.

There was trouble at the home of Patrolman Jerry Cash, of South avenue, last Saturday. Jerry and the nephew of his wife, Francis McCabe, quarrelled. Jerry is now nursing a black eye, the result of violent contact with McCabe's fist, while McCabe has found it necessary to have a long cut on his forehead stitched up where a chair in the hands of Officer Cash landed.

McCabe is an apprentice at Scott's Press Works. His time is up next spring. He was the nephew of Jerry Cash's second wife who died a month or so ago. It was her request that McCabe should continue to live at the Cash home until his time was up despite the wishes of Cash to the contrary.

Since Mrs. Cash died, Cash and McCabe have lived together but not on the best of terms. Cash recently was appointed administrator of his wife's estate. Saturday the two men had some words over the disposition of the late Mrs. Cash's property, McCabe claiming that a step-daughter should receive it.

Both men claim that the other struck the first blow. At any rate, Cash possesses a beautiful black eye in remembrance of the encounter while McCabe had his scalp badly cut.

Yesterday, Chief Grant instructed Roundsman Flynn to arrest McCabe. The arrest was made, McCabe protesting because there was no warrant. He was locked up but released by City Judge Runyon last night. He came up this morning but, at the request of W. A. Coddington, lawyer for Cash, the case was laid over until Saturday morning. The charge is for assault.

RAPID TRANSIT!

Took One Hour for Passengers to Get From Watchung Avenue to Monroe Avenue M. E. Church

The painful efforts which the Plainfield Street Railway Company is putting forth to accommodate the public was illustrated again Tuesday evening. One of the new cars (No. 4) conductor Martin, on the Somerset-Fourth street line burnt out a fuse when near the corner of West Front street and Watchung avenue. The car came to a stop in consequence. After fifteen minutes' delay the passengers were compelled to transfer to another car, while the motormen and conductors gathered about and offered suggestions to car starter Lister as to the proper course to pursue. It was all over the failure to find in any of the cars a draw bar to use to running the crippled car to the car house. Finally after another half hours' wait the belated passengers were hauled as far as the terminal at Watchung and North avenues, only to be told that they must again change cars.

With considerable grumbling and the application of anything but pleasant remarks about the trolley cars in general and the Plainfield Street Railway Company in particular, the passengers reluctantly left the second car and entered the third.

At this point another conductor appeared and demanded fares. This demand made the passengers hot and there was a vigorous protest. "We've paid once," said the passengers in unison, "and we don't propose to pay a second time." The conductor at first declined to carry the crowd unless they settled with him, but when given to understand by the passengers that they would sit there until midnight that functionary decided to submit to the inevitable. With a jerk the bell was sounded and the car started. Nearly all the passengers were bound for the Monroe Avenue church, which was reached at 8:30—just one hour after most of them had boarded the first trolley car.

DEATH OF ARTHUR D. PEARSON.

Has Been Ill for Several Months—Member of the Royal Arcanum.

Arthur D. Pearson, who has been ill for several months with paralysis, died early this morning at his home on Sherman avenue, aged 41 years. Some time ago Mr. Pearson suffered from a paralytic stroke and has since been confined to his home. He was a member of Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum, and a man with a large circle of acquaintances and friends. For some years Mr. Pearson had been engaged in the milk business. He is survived by a wife and one brother, W. W. Pearson, of this city. The funeral will be held from the late home of the deceased Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment at Hillside.

—Use Press want ads.

LAY BLAME FOR WRECK ON SUPERINTENDENT.

Engineer Ricks' Suit Against the Lehigh Valley.

MAY FIX RESPONSIBILITY.

A LEGAL ECHO OF THE WEST DUNELLEN WRECK.

The Plaintiff Claims that the Collision was Caused by the Issuing of Wrong Orders by a Railway Official—A Question as to which of the Two Companies are Responsible for the Accident.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, December 28.—A case of considerable interest was taken up in the Somerset Court yesterday, which it is thought will be the means of making public the responsibility for the accident on the Lehigh Valley Railroad at West Dunellen last January, when so many persons were killed and injured. Two suits are brought, respectively, by Edward Ricks, the engineer of the train which was run into, and William Cheshire, his fireman, both of whom were badly injured. The counsel for the plaintiffs are Lindabury, Depue & Faulks, while McCarter, Williamson & McCarter are defending the railroad company.

Mr. Lindabury said, in opening, that they would prove that the fault which caused the wreck was not with the engineer or conductor, but with the Superintendent of the Lehigh Valley Railroad at Easton, who gave orders to the plaintiffs' train to proceed east and to the eastbound train to proceed on the westbound track from Bound Brook regardless of other trains. Mr. Lindabury said he had made efforts to ascertain whether the Lehigh Valley Company or the Easton and Amboy, was operating the road in question. The plaintiffs, he said, were employed by the Easton and Amboy Company, but all the orders under which they acted were in the name of the Lehigh Valley Company. They had brought suit against both companies in order to find out whether one or both were responsible.

Engineer Edward Ricks was the first witness sworn. He resides at Bound Brook and said he had been unable to work since the accident. He told about the running of train and the orders he had received from the superintendent. The case will probably occupy several days.

NO MYTH TO THEM.

Santa Claus Appeared in Person at the Party of Children.

Among the many festivities of Christmas, none could have been more enjoyable than the Christmas tree party of Master E Franklin Lowe, of 67 Fairview avenue, tendered to his neighborhood companions by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Lowe. The house was tastefully decorated with holly, mistletoe, Japanese lanterns and Old Glory, making a picture that even the little tots admired. The tree was ladened with lots of good things which Santa Claus distributed among the other gifts which he brought with him on his arrival.

During the evening the time was taken up with games. The little ones also enjoyed a magic lantern exhibition of foreign views. When Santa Claus arrived he was entertained with recitations by Maggie Rickert, Master and Miss VanZandt, Master Willie Heath and Master Franklin himself. Those present who thus enjoyed the day and are now convinced that Santa Claus is a reality were Berenice McClintock, Mary, Laura and Marguerite Woolston, Maggie and Florence Rickert, May, Gertrue, Nellie and Florence Berkham, Mary and Dorothy Neal, Mabel Hamilton, Levinia Hand, Emma Kniff and Marjory Burtis, the youngest guest of all. The boys were Masters Eddie Windham, Artie and William Woodruff, Marshall Ward, Willie Burtis, Charles Cobb, Dalas Squire, Alfred Kniff, Harral Hamilton. The comfort of all were looked after by "Grandma" Burtis, assisted by Murray Burtis, Mr. and Mrs Hiram A Woodruff and Master Eric and Miss Elcie Burtis, of Brooklyn.

Last Meeting of Present Council.

This evening the last meeting of the present Common Council will be held to close up the affairs for the year. It is quite likely that the session will be one of interest, and it will not be surprising if a few bouquets are passed around.

Its Tenth Anniversary.

Central Lodge, No. 48, A. O. U. W., will celebrate its tenth anniversary in Red Men's Hall this evening. William H. McCullough, grand master, together with other grand officers and visiting Workmen, will be present. A collation will be served.

HOW CHURCHILL ESCAPED.

His Privations Make Him Anxious for Revenge.

HID AMONG COAL SACKS

Walked the Railroad Track for Five Days, Dodging the Stations and the Bridges—Free State Boers Angry at Cronje's Control—The Boers Shell Methuen's Camp—Little Damage.

London, Dec. 28.—The Post prints the following as Winston Churchill's account of his escape from the Boer's at Pretoria:

"I was informed by the Transvaalers on Dec. 12 that there was little chance of my release. I left the state Schools Prison the same night, climbed the wall, and walked through the streets unchallenged. I struck the Delagoa Bay Railroad and boarded a goods train just beyond the first station and hid in a truck full of coal sacks. I left the train before daybreak and hid in a sheltered wood. I walked the track five days, making detours to avoid bridges and stations. I had a little water and some chocolate. I laid up in the daytime and walked at night.

"On the sixth day I boarded a train beyond Middelburg, whence I rode direct to Delagoa Bay. The Boers searched the train at Komati Poort, but I was not discovered. I lost several pounds in weight."

His privations appear to have made Churchill anxious for revenge. He says he will avail himself of every opportunity to urge earnestly the unflinching and uncompromising prosecution of the war.

A despatch from Modder River to the Times, dated Dec. 20, details the resentment of the Free State Boers at Commandant Cronje assuming absolute control of the Boer forces. It says the Free Staters allege that Commandant Delarcy conceives the strategy of every encounter, and Commandant Cronje, with the aid of sjambocks, carries it out. The use of sjamboks is undoubted. One Boer asked an English doctor if much "sjamboking" was necessary among the British also.

The sjambok is a thick, heavy whip, usually made of hippopotamus hide, which the Boer drivers of ox-teams use to flog the wheelers. They keep another whip, with a handle about twelve feet long and a lash measuring twenty feet, for the leaders. On rough roads the wheelers and the span immediately in front of them, being within reach of the sjambok, suffer the most, and it is said that one of this unfortunate quartet is generally known as "the Englishman."

A Modder River despatch to the Times says that six Marconi wireless telegraph instruments intended for the Boers have been captured.

Modder River, Dec. 21 (Delayed in transmission)—The Boers advanced a 12 pounder and shelled the camp this morning. The shells fell 700 yards short. The British 4-inch lyddite gun replied. There were no casualties on the British side.

A MURDERER'S ESCAPE.

Cut His Way Out of His Cell in a Virginia Jail.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 28.—The news of the sensational escape from Portsmouth jail of Walker Cotton, colored, who was under sentence of death caused much excitement in these cities. Cotton murdered Charles Wyatt, a white man, whose store in Portsmouth he entered in the night intent on robbery. He was sentenced to be hanged January 12, and a death watch was set upon him. J. Saunders, the watchman, whose hammock was swung just outside the steel cage in which the murderer was confined, went to sleep. Cotton filed the bars of his cage and made his escape. At 5 o'clock in the morning Saunders awoke, and, discovering that Cotton's cage was empty, sounded the alarm. Hurricane Branch, constable of Nansemond county, put his bloodhounds on Cotton's trail, which led toward Dismal swamp, where Cotton is believed to have taken refuge. Hundreds of citizens joining in the pursuit, the dogs were disconcerted, so they were drawn off until to-night, when they are expected to be again put on the scent. Before leaving the jail Cotton donned the garments of the sleeping Saunders. The latter has been arrested. Cotton is stated to have had in his cell for some time a knife, of which it is believed his jailors feared to attempt to dispossess him.

Pittsburg Millionaire Dead.

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 28.—Capt. J. J. Vandergrift died suddenly last night at the age of 73. Yesterday morning he attended a meeting held in the interest of the fund for the family of Gen. Lawton.

Capt. Vandergrift was worth about $10,000,000. He began life as a river steamboat deckhand. He leaves three daughters and two sons. His daughters are Mrs. J. M. Bingham, of New York; Mrs. Johnston, wife of Major J. A. Johnston, U. S. A.; and Mrs. T. E. Murphy, daughter-in-law of Francis S. Murphy, the temperance advocate.

Specific for Alcoholism.

Paris, Dec. 28.—Sappeller and Thebault, two French physicians have announced the discovery of a serum which is a specific against alcoholism. It is extracted from the veins of a horse, rendered alcoholic by artificial means.

Plague Spreads in Bombay.

Bombay, Dec. 28.—Bubonic plague in the city and presidency is increasing fast. The death rate is about 200 daily.

THE MOLINEUX CASE.

Cornish's Doctor Testifies Against the Prisoner—A New Motive.

New York, Dec. 28.—Harry Cornish was brought forward to the centre of the stage at the Molineux murder trial to-day. After the prosecution's experts had completed their case the State shifted the scene to Cornish's illness, following his tasting some of the poisoned powder. Dr. Wendell Phillips, his physician, was the witness chosen to set forth these details vividly.

It was the beginning of another great act of the poison drama. The experts' case is practically closed. The last link of their chain has been welded.

The play of human passions, envy and hatred are the motives of this new act. Molineux's animosity toward Cornish, as claimed by the prosecution, how fate made the two men—so different in nature as to arouse antipathy at first sight—active rivals, will be the subject of much testimony. A motive for Cornish's death hitherto not suspected, it is reported, will be the climax of the new act.

Though forty-three days have passed since Roland B. Molineux was called to the bar to answer to the charge of murder and the end of his trial is not yet in sight, the testimony of handwriting experts has about reached its limit, and if any more experts are called by the prosecution their time on the stand will be limited. Assistant District Attorney Osborne had intended to call at least half a dozen experts beside Daniel T. Ames, the fourth to testify, but Recorder Goff's determination that the trial should not be allowed to drag along until spring has caused a change in his plans.

From now on every effort will be made by the Court to expedite the proceedings, and dissertations on handwriting lasting for days are a thing of the past. If the Recorder can help it, there will be no more fights on the part of the spectators and jurors to keep awake, while curves and slants and loops are being explained by the witnesses.

LEAPED TO DEATH.

How a Frightened Boy Lost His Life at a Fire.

Brooklyn, Dec. 28.—Death by jumping from a fourth story window to escape flames was the fate of Henry Oppenheimer, Jr., nineteen years old. He had time to flee in safety but became panic stricken, and, although his father pleaded with him and sought to restrain him by force, he took the fatal leap.

The Oppenheimers lived in the four story apartment house at No. 579 Franklin avenue, Brooklyn. The fire was discovered at three o'clock this morning, when Policeman McDermott, who was two blocks away, saw flames shooting from the roof.

Mrs. Emma Lake and J. Wilson and family, who occupied the first and second floors, got out without any trouble. The Oppenheimers had not started however, when the firemen arrived.

The family consisted of Henry Oppenheimer, his wife and their six children, ranging from twenty-two to fourteen years old.

All were helped out by the firemen except Oppenheimer and his son, Henry, Jr. They were following the rest down the stairs, the father carrying under his arm a tin box containing the family treasure. The boy, however, was daunted by the rush of smoke in the halls and the glare which lighted the path to safety, and turning, ran back to the fourth floor. The elder Oppenheimer sprang after him, but the young man rushed into the front room of their apartments and locked the door after him.

"We can't get out!" he shouted. "I'm going to jump!"

Oppenheimer pleaded with the boy to open the door, but he refused. The man had a key on his ring, but was too excited to use it, and finaly knocked out a panel with his fist. He seized the young man by the shoulder and held him for a minute, but his strength gave out and Henry broke away, and Oppenheimer saw him leap on the window sill.

The crowd in the street below saw the figure swaying on the sill and begged him not to jump. The Oppenheimers recognized the figure and added their cries to the noise.

Oppenheimer ran down stairs and reached the street just in time to see his son's body strike the pavement. The boy was dead when picked up.

McCOY-MAHER.

Both Men to the Big Fight Have a Number of Admirers.

New York, Dec. 28.—The battle between Peter Maher and Kid McCoy, which is to be decided at the Coney Island Sporting Club on New Year's afternoon, promises to be one of the biggest betting events that has taken place in pugilism in some time.

Both fighters have hundreds and in fact thousands of supporters both in this vicinity and all over the country.

Maher, true enough, is a terrific puncher, and generally drops his opponent whenever he lands, but until the Irishman is successful in getting in these blows McCoy will be very much in the fight.

McCoy without a doubt is one of the cleverest boxers that ever stepped into a ring, and besides being gifted with great science is also a hard puncher with both hands and a perfect ring general. He knows what sort of a fighter his opponent is, and as he also realizes that Maher is a terrific hitter he will be very careful not to allow Peter to land on him.

McCoy's tactics in this fight will in all probability be the same that he used during his contest with Tom Sharkey, that of using his left-hand jabs on Maher's face and then springing away. McCoy's jabs are very effective, however, and if he lands a few of them on his opponent Peter may imagine he is being jabbed with a battering ram.

SHALL WE DISPUTE

The Opinions Of Scores Of Our Fellow Citizens.

Residents of Plainfield, like other American citizens, in making an investment want to be sure of getting the worth of their money. They want to know all the whys and wherefores, and in a direct ratio to the value of the investment they burrow and ferret until satisfied with the collateral. Take an instance in the ream of proprietary articles. If we know of a friend who has been cured we have some faith in the preparation; if we know of two or three our faith increases. If the cures reach scores, all well known citizens, and anyone who still maintains that there is nothing beyond ordinary merit in the said preparation can safely be left to the care of his fellow taxpayers. If he wishes to pick a quarrel with them on the question of their judgment or veracity, he has ample opportunity in Plainfield to do so. Begin with this case:

Mrs. W. W. Mills, of No 86 Summit Ave., says: "I suffered times with a severe pain across the small of my back and in my hips. If I did any lifting or stooping my back became lame and sore, and though I used plasters they only helped me for the time being. I was feeling very badly when I had my attention called to Doan's Kidney Pills. They were so highly recommended for troubles like mine that I got a box at L. W. Randolph's drug store. I felt their good effects in a few days, and when I had finished the treatment my back was better and stronger, and I had much more energy to attend household duties. Doan's Kidney Pills have my endorsement and I am always pleased to recommend them."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. Mailed on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

HEAD ACHE

"Both my wife and myself have been using CASCARETS and they are the best medicine we have ever had in the house. Last week my wife was frantic with headache for two days, she tried some of your CASCARETS, and they relieved the pain in her head almost immediately. We both recommend Cascarets." CHAS. STEDEFORD, Pittsburg Safe & Deposit Co., Pittsburg, Pa.

CANDY CATHARTIC Cascarets TRADE MARK REGISTERED REGULATE THE LIVER

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent. Taste Good. Do Good. Never Sicken, Weaken, or Gripe. 10c. 25c. 50c.

... CURE CONSTIPATION. ...

Sterling Remedy Company, Chicago, Montreal, New York. 317

NO-TO-BAC Sold and guaranteed by all druggists to CURE Tobacco Habit.

Flynn Bros., SHOE DEALERS,

222 WEST FRONT STREET,

Near Music Hall,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .

in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated

DOMESTIC FINISH.

Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.

Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.

Trading Stamps given.

The City Steam & Hand Laundry

MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B

19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

SELLING OUT

Below Cost

TO CLOSE BUSINESS.

Star Crockery Store,

23 Somerset St., near Front.

3 and 9 cent Articles.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!

Solomon & Evans,

Proprietors.

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING

is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job. That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.,

201 PARK AVE., Cor 2d ST.

Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.

Estimates furnished. Telephone call 635F

STATIONERY and TOYS.

We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles for the Holiday trade.

CHRISTMAS CARDS and CALENDARS.

We make a specialty of FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.

High Grade Cigars.

Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.

B. W. HAND,

205 W. Front Street.

McCullough's STEAM MILL.

21 Steiner place, North Plainfie

R. H. McCullough, Prop'

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

HUSHTON & HANSEN,

Painters and Paper Hangers,

Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets

Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11

M. POWERS,

DEALER IN

LEHIGH COAL.

FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.

Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A

Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

LADIES' TAILORING.

RICHARDSON & WALD,

325 West Front Street.

TAILOR-MADE GARMENTS.

We make a specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits. Alterations and relining promptly attended to.

—DRESSMAKING.—

Our Dressmaking Department is in charge of Madame Walsh.

THE GRANDVIEW Meat Market

George Egel, Manager.

Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

THE ENTRANCE TO THE DINING ROOM

will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us.

Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early.

The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too—everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get.

FRED ENDRESS,

131—135 WEST FRONT STREET.

November:

The mellow year is hasting to its close.
The merry birds have almost sung their last.
Their faint notes twitter in the dreary blast—
That shrill-piped harbinger of early snows.
And hint to you in good coal to invest
At seven forty-seven Front Street, west.

ALEX. LUSARDI,

211 West Front Street,

Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery. Nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores 99 t year

J. C. Pope & Co.,

INSURANCE AGENTS,

110 East Front St.,

Plainfield, N. J

LAIRE'S . .

HOLIDAY SPECIALS.

Carving knives.
U. S. club skates.
Roger's plated ware.
Fine pocket cutlery.
Silver finish coffee and tea pots.
Nickel on copper tea kettles.
Boys' sleighs.
Fine razors and hones.
Grand Rapid sweepers.
Baby Rapid sweepers.
Shinny sticks.
Christmas tree holders.
Coin silver ware, cheap.
Fine table cutlery.
Fine scissors and shears.
Corn poppers.

The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,

Tel. Call 682.

TRY THE QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,

No. 337 Park Avenue.

(Miller Building.)

Goods called for and delivered free of charge.

Domestic or gloss finish.

DOBBINS. CIGARS.

108 NORTH AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN.

ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.

317 West Front street.

J. W. VAN SICKLE.

129 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

FRESH & SALTED MEATS,

GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.

Orders called for and delivered promptly.

TELEPHONE 148 b.

Your Valuables,

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

GAS

For the Fire-place.
Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates.
Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.

CURTIS M. THORPE,

310-312 PARK AVENUE.

"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIREPLACE."

F. A. DUNHAM,

—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—

109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE,

I. O. H.

Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 109 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711

ROYAL ARCANUM.

The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.

A. I. LITTELL, Regent.

Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,

Watchmakers and Jewelers.

219 Park Avenue.

A. KANE,

Dealer in

BLUE STONE FLAGGING and CURBING.

Also Dealer in

Flour, Feed and Grain, Coal and Wood.

Store and Office

409 East Third St.,

Next to

THIRD STREET MISSION.

Open Evenings Until 8 o'Clock.

Chas. L. Stanley,

. . FLORIST . .

No. 142 North Ave.

HEADQUARTERS for choice Cut Flowers, Ferns, Palms, a large assortment of other plants.

Floral design work and decorating for all occasions. Satisfaction guaranteed; an immense stock of Holly, Wreaths, Roping, etc.

Annex stores for the Holidays,

134 North Ave,
South Ave, Netherwood,
and Central Ave., Westfield

M. Molnar,

432 Watchung Ave.,

Ladies' and Gents'

FINE TAILORING

Graduate of New York Cutting School.

Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with old clothes and I will take chances of being entrusted with new work.

OUR OYSTERS ARE THE ---FINEST---

ROGERS

232 West Second Street.

E. B. Maynard,

NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE

Tonsorial Artist . . .

Also CHOICE CIGARS.

141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.

Paris for 1900.

Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.

Circulars at

141 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.

Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anæsthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$5
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD,

FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.

Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Office Hours, 8 to 6.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills

—25c.—

A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.

MALLINSON'S

North and Watchung avenues.

HADLEY'S VIEW OF TRUSTS

Yale's President Before the Economic Association.

BUSINESS COMBINATIONS

Administration of the Affairs of Weaker Nations—How the American People and the Modern Civilized World Will Solve the Problems That are to be Presented.

Ithaca, Dec. 28.—At the meeting of the American Economic Association here Wednesday Arthur T. Hadley, president of Yale University, delivered an address on "Modern Political Economy." He said:

"Modern political economy contains two distinct parts—often inextricably intermingled in fact, yet always separate in principle—a theory of distribution and a theory of prosperity. The theory of distribution shows how the public wealth is divided among the different members of the community. It shows what are the effects of a system of laws or a group of commercial conditions on the relative well-being of the different classes concerned. It tries to predict how changes in these laws will increase the material comfort of some individuals and diminish that of others. The theory of prosperity, on the other hand, is concerned primarily with the good or evil of the nation as a whole. It deals with aggregate results rather than with individual ones, and concerns itself with the separate parts only as they must be studied in order to understand that aggregate effect.

"As far as a man's political economy takes the form of a theory of distribution, it is not sure to be very closely connected with his ethical principles, or even with his political ones. In framing such a theory he is occupied with tracing consequences from observed facts. His political antecedents or his ethical prepossessions may lead him to observe some facts more closely than others. But these variations, as far as they exist, are errors, even from the man's own standpoint—errors which he is interested in correcting as soon as they can be brought clearly home to him. Nor do his theories of distribution modify his ethics much more than his ethics modify his theories of distribution; except, perhaps, so far as the habitual assumption of a set of facts and laws leads to the habitual assumption of the rightness of those laws, morally as well as intellectually.

Because the political and commercial methods of the past have led to compromise rather than conviction, or because the successful man of affairs must be made to compromise where he fails to convince, let us not say that all politics and all commerce is but a tissue of compromises, and that a political or commercial science which pretends to be something broader and better than this is an illusion. Let us as economists take the opportunity that lies before us in the face of new conditions for whose treatment the old methods are proving themselves inadequate. Let us employ our understanding with regard to public needs as a means of evoking public spirit. Let us use whatever special knowledge we have with all the breadth of purpose which it is in our power to attain and make ourselves, as becomes men of science, representatives of nothing less than the whole truth."

How Major Logan Fell.

Washington, Dec. 28.—Mail advices have reached the war department in regard to the defeat, in which engagement Major John A. Logan, Jr., lost his life.

According to the correspondent of the Manila American, the Thirty third Infantry, under Col. Hare, encountered a force of the enemy between San Fabian and San Jacinto, and brought on one of the sharpest engagements of the war. The Americans lost one officer killed and six men wounded. The officer killed was Major John A. Logan, Jr., who was shot through the head during the first few minutes of the engagement while at the head of his battalion, which formed an advance guard. He was in the act of assisting a wounded soldier and was hit by a Mauser bullet, fired by a sharpshooter concealed in the top of a cocoanut tree. He died a few hours later.

Blizzard in Alaska.

Port Townsend, Wash., Dec. 28.—Advices from the north by the steamship Rosalie say that a blizzard was sweeping over Alaska in the vicinity of Skagway Dec. 22, when the steamship sailed. The thermometer was hovering around zero and a forty-mile gale prevailed. A train from Bennet with a large number of Yukon miners aboard, was snowed in, and a relief train has been sent from Skagway.

J. R. Howard, who left Dawson Dec. 5, reports the trail in bad condition, making the travel slow, while Mail-Carrier Carr, who is making his twenty-third trip from Dawson, says travel on the ice is the worst in his experience.

Otis Has More Men.

Washington, Dec. 28.—General Otis has cabled the war department from Manila as follows:

"The 38th and 40th Infantry arrived last evening. No casualties."

The 38th Infantry, commanded by Col. George S. Anderson sailed from San Francisco on Nov. 21, on the transport Duke of Fife and St. Paul. The 40th Infantry, under Col. Edwin A. Goodwin, sailed from San Francisco on Nov. 24 on the Ohio and Indiana.

Cincinnati Wants a Convention.

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 28.—The business men of Cincinnati are working earnestly to bring the Democratic national convention to this city. Visits have been made to Washington and the Cincinnati League has called a public meeting for Jan. 2.

Boston and Albany Lease.

Boston, Dec. 28.—At a special meeting the stockholders of the Boston and Albany Railroad voted on the ratification of the lease of the property to the New York Central. The lease was ratified by about 1[illegible] shares for to 16,000 against.

THE LATEST ELIXIR.

Another Physician Has Discovered a Serum for Longevity.

Paris, Dec. 28.—The essence of life, or the secret of prolonging human existence, is now occupying the minds of the savans of the Pasteur Institute. In conversation on the subject Professor Mechnicoff says:—

"The article already published was a surprise to me, as I have never been interviewed by any one. As a matter of fact, the article was substantially correct, but I can only attribute its appearance to a compatriot having communicated the discovery. I begged my compatriots not to speak of the matter, but as the subject has now become to a certain extent public property, I am willing to talk.

"I am not ready yet to speak to the world of my discoveries, because we have not arrived at a stage when they can be applied to human beings. At present our work is only in the scientific, or laboratory stage, and there is no practical result as yet.

"This is the second year of my studies on this particular subject, but cellular life has for a long time interested me.

"We have arrived at this result, viz:

"That old age is a phenomenon which occurs unduly soon.

"We are composed of little cells, which are in harmony with one another but a moment arrives when this harmony is interrupted because there are cells which are very susceptible to poison, while there are cells, on the other hand, which are not susceptible.

"It is incorrect to say the noble cells die and become the prey of the other, or plebeian cells, thus bringing about the atrophy of the organ where this metamorphosis takes place.'

"It is not a question of these noble cells dying Enfeebling is a better word and the cells less susceptible exercise a prejudicial influence on the others

"There are several discoveries made by M. Bordet, of the Pasteur Institute, which enable us to prepare a serum which affects only one category of cells without touching the others.

"Thus, there is a serum which affects only the head, another the kidneys, another the liver, and so on, but thus far we have only experimented on animals.

"In his confessions Count Tolstoi tells us about the state of his mind when he arrived at the conclusion that life had no raison d'etre, for at any moment we may be carried off by death, after which nothing remains except corruption and worms.

"Now, old age is what I am combating. Old age comes to us without our feeling a desire to be old. We have no appetite for that.

"We desire to eat, and we eat; we are thirsty and we drink. Eating and drinking, then, are normal, being preceded by a desire to satisfy those longings.

"Old age, on the contrary, comes without that desire, and is abnormal. We have no instinctive desire for death. We become resigned to it, that's all.

"There are some people, it is true, who have evinced a desire to die, just as one wants to drink a glass of water, but this is rare.

"I do not pretend to say what is the proper age for man, but I am certain that man should live longer than he does.

"There are certain records to the effect that the age of man was very great at one time. I do not refer to those records, but we know this for a certainty, that since statistics have been taken on the subject the age of man has been found to be increasing, and not diminishing. Civilization has brought this about. For instance, you will find the age of man in Russia shorter than in France, England or Germany.

"Reproduction of species has nothing to do with age. We see animals like the mole, which have very few young, live to a great age. On the other hand, the carp, which lives to a great age, is extremely prolific, so that the question of reproduction has nothing to do with longevity.

"Up to the present the question of old age has been neglected by savans. They find it reasonable and simple to become atrophied. Nevertheless the question is worthy of study.

"I do not know how we shall succeed in our studies. We are not counting on immediate success, and, I repeat, our studies are at present purely scientific.

"What we have discovered so far has only an air of suggestiveness That is all. Any statement over and above that is not my statement, and would be only an exaggeration pure and simple."

Harvard Loss By Fire.

Boston, Dec. 28.—The Harvard College boat club house has been destroyed by fire The club house was a magnificent structure and had not been long completed It was located opposite Soldiers' Field on the Charles River. The fire gained headway almost immediately, and the structure was soon wrapped in flames. The building was totally destroyed. The loss is estimated at $40,000.

Our Plague Ship in London.

London, Dec. 28.—The coffee steamship J W. Taylor, Captain Philips, from New York, December 12, arrived at Queenstown yesterday. There was no sickness during the voyage. The customs officers did not clear the vessel and no one will be allowed to land until the port medical officer grants a certificate of admission after the ship has complied with the quarantine regulations Hanged A Woman.

Brandon, Man., Dec. 28.—Emily H. Blake a domestic, has been hanged here for the murder of Mrs. Lane, her mistress. The drop fell at 8.40 A. M. The execution was quite private, only a few persons obtaining the privilege of witnessing it.

Watch Your Kidneys!

They are Filters For the Blood. Impure Blood Causes Disease.

Few people understand the important part performed by the kidneys in filtering the blood As the blood in its circulation through the body passes through the kidneys, its impurity is left in the kidneys, which in turn empties the secretions into the bladder in the form of urine.

If the kidneys are clogged and filtration of the blood from poisonous or diseased germs is prevented thereby, the result is one or all of the following: Sleeplessness, Nervous Prostration Weak Back, Pains in the Back and Loins, Scalding Dark and Cloudy Urine, Dizziness, Rheumatism, Diabetes, Congestion of the Kidneys, Bright's Disease and Inflammation of the Bladder.

Unhealthy Kidneys Must Be Treated

A medicine is needed that will properly promote the filtration of the blood and check the over-secretion of urine.

DR. HOLTIN'S KIDNEY TABLETS

is the only remedy absolutely and unconditionally guaranteed to cure every form of Kidney or Bladder complaints. Price 25 and 50 cents. Prepared only by Holtin Chemical Co., 93 Maiden Lane, N. Y.

FOR SALE BY

JOHN P. POWERS,

Druggist,

tu th 45 Somerset St

EDUCATIONAL

Plainfield Business College

CITY BANK BUILDING,

Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses. PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS. Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.

(City Bank Building.)

Adella C. Phelps will resume work Sept. 26th. Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,

Teacher of

: : : PIANO AND THEORY : : :

Home Studio,

132 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,

Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.

—TEACHER OF—

PIANO AND ORGAN,

Address—60 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

.....Piano Instruction.....

Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.

MISS ANNA O. MARSH and MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.

915 MADISON AVENUE.

Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes Elementary Classes.

Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION

William Holmes

(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Duff.)

Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church

Studio at Residence,

440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

Wm. J. Pearson,

(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)

Carpenter and Builder

15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to

: : Pride's Tonsorial Parlor : :

94 SOMERSET STREET,

opposite Somerset Hotel.

Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty.....

CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.

-:- WILLIAM J. PRIDE, -:-

formerly with E. B. Maynard.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.

MONEY TO LOAN.

197 North Ave.

Wm. D. Thickstun John F. Em[illegible]

Telephone 601

Don't miss the Special Sale for the holidays of

FRAMES, EASELS, and PICTURES

AT REDUCED PRICES, given by the

Guarantee Portrait Studio,

142 East Front Street.

Fine drawings in Crayons and Pastels from all kinds of photographs. All kinds of frames from the latest styles of mouldings made to order at the lowest prices.

THAT'S THE IDEA!

You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.

Woolston & Buckle,

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS

141 North Avenue.

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .

(Licensed)

J. H. Staats, Prop'r.

107 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.

EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.

AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL.

corner Somerset and Chatham streets North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.

RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Prop.

DRAKE & MUNDY,

207 West Front Street

Dealers in

--Fresh and Salt Meats--

Special Sales on

Fridays and Saturdays,

Mrs. John Brown

Successor to

JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned

FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.

Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.

FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.

NEW YORK MAILS.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00, 6:30 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE and EASTON.

Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m.; 2:30 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.

WARRENVILLE.

Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P M.

Corporation Notice.

of application to the Court of Common Pleas for the appointment of Commissioners to assess benefits for street improvements.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, pursuant to Chapter 200 of the laws of 1898, entitled, "An Act to authorize the improvement of streets and highways in cities of this State, and to provide for the payment of the expense of the same," approved June 13th, 1898, and the amendments thereof and supplements thereto, that application will be made by the Common Council of the City of Plainfield to the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Union at the Court House in the City of Elizabeth on the thirtieth day of December, A. D. 1899, at the hour of ten o clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as the said Court can hear the said application, for the appointment of three Commissioners, who shall be freeholders and residents of the City of Plainfield, as Commissioners to estimate and assess benefits respectively conferred by the permanent improvement of streets under the several ordinances of said City, respectively entitled:

"An Ordinance for macadamizing East Sixth Street between Watchung Avenue and Richmond Street, excepting where already macadamized," approved Oct. 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing Franklin Place between LaGrande Avenue and East Fifth Street," approved Oct 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing East Ninth Street between Park Avenue and Watchung Avenue," approved Oct. 27th, 1898.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing West Fourth Street between New Street and Monroe Avenue," approved Feb. 9th. 1899.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing West Third Street between Madison Avenue and Monroe Avenue, excepting where already macadamized," approved Feb. 9th, 1899.

and to perform the duties and execute the powers conferred by said Acts of the Legislature.

By order of the Common Council of the City of Plainfield.

JAMES T. MACMURRAY,
City Clerk of the City of Plainfield.

Dated, December 18, 1899. 12 19 td

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS,

New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Hire for Picnics, etc.

Satisfaction Guaranteed.

OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

A. H. ENANDER,

Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.

Contractor for sewer connections.

210 PARK AVE.

H. A. Gayle. 18 VINE STREET.

(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)

Carpenter and Builder

ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

THE

First National Bank,

of Plainfield, N. J.

Capital .....$200,000.
Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000.

J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTILL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.

DIRECTORS.

Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Cortell.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.

VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

BAMBERGER'S

THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE

MARKET & HALSEY STS.

The Largest and Most Perfectly Equipped

Mail Order Service

Presenting Unequalled Shopping Facilities

For Thousands of Out-of-Town Patrons.

A thoroughly experienced staff of buyers in this department will make selections for you, and satisfaction is guaranteed or money will be refunded. We prepay mail or express charges to any part of the State on all paid purchases, and on C. O. D.'s for amounts aggregating $5.00 or more. Try our system, and you will not only save money, but have the additional advantage of assortments not equaled in Newark or surpassed anywhere in the land. Samples sent postpaid to any address upon receipt of postal card.

L. Bamberger & Co.

Newark, N. J.

We Shine 'em Free, The New Styles in Winter Shoes. Enamel Leathers, Box Calf and Tans.

Sherwins, 149 W. Front St.

WANTED

25 Mechanics

and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.

Agent on the Grounds SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.

. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

Holiday Goods.

Why you should see our assortment; a walk through our store will be the easiest way to solve the problem of what to get for presents for young and old.

Our line of fancy articles consists of everything imaginable in Celluloid, Plush and Glass Ware.

Handkerchiefs, gloves, neckwear, hosiery, umbrellas and dress goods of all kinds and all prices. Furs and worsted goods of every description. as

DOLLS . . .

Dolls of all kinds can be found on our doll counter, our assortment is bewildering in their novelty, extent and attractiveness. Our prices are lower than any other house will quote for the same article.

TOYS -:- -:-

Our Toy Department in the basement is larger than ever before. No such collection was ever gathered here before, and it is safe to say there is no better stock in town in point of variety, there is no stock in town that equals ours in prices that's certain.

Children's velocipedes, tricycles, battleships, iron toys of all kinds, tool chests, wash sets, soldier sets, dishes, horse and wagons, chairs, printing presses, electric batteries, express wagons, magic lanterns, etc.

I. H. Boehm, 109-111-113 West Front Street

RIVER PIRATES.

Police Think They Killed George D. Eyre.

Philadelphia, Dec. 28.—George B. Eyre, a young athlete who disappeared mysteriously from the Philadelphia Boat Club's house, the police believe, has met with foul play.

After the young man's disappearance it was found that the boat club house had been looted. It is believed to have been the work of river pirates.

Said Chief of Police Thomas H. Berry to-day: "The body of George Eyre will be found by men who have picks and shovels. I believe that Eyre has been killed and his body buried in the mud and his boat burned so as to hide all trace of him."

Eyre left his home in Chester on Wednesday morning to come to Philadelphia. Early on Thursday morning Eyre telephoned home that he was going gunning. He added that he would remain in Philadelphia that night.

He was last seen going down to the boat house to don his gunning costume. The only valuables he had at the time were two diamond rings and two guns, valued at $250. Eyre's boat, together with two dozen duck stools, have disappeared, and it is believed they were burned. Police launches set out early to-day to continue the search.

The missing man has long been prominent in military circles. He is a veteran of the recent war. Eyre's clubmates declare they are sure he has been murdered by river pirates.

MR .BRYAN'S TOPICS.

He Will Discuss the Money Question as Well as Trusts.

Austin, Tex., Dec. 28.—W. J. Bryan's attention was called to a despatch from Washington, stating that he had written Congressman Daly, of New Jersey, that he would make several speeches in the East, discussing trusts and imperialism, and he was asked as to whether the report indicated an intention of abandoning the silver question. He replied:

"Congressman Daly has probably been misquoted. I expect to make several speeches in the East, but I expect to discuss the money question along with other questions. There are three questions now prominently before the people, to wit: The money question, the trust question and the Philippine question. Whenever I make a political speech I discuss all three questions."

Mr. Bryan will leave here Saturday for his trip to Lincoln, Omaha, Kansas City and Chicago, and thence to the East. He will be gone about one month.

BOUTELLE'S ILLNESS.

Said to Have Been Taken to a Boston Sanitarium for Treatment.

Bangor, Me., Dec. 28.—Congressman Charles A. Boutelle, who was brought from Boston to his home here last Saturday morning suffering from a serious illness, the exact nature of which has not been divulged by the physicians, has been taken back to Boston in the midnight train accompanied by his brother, Edward P. Boutelle, and a physician. His departure was not known until last night, when the news leaked out and caused something of a sensation in this city.

Ever since the Congressman's return from Boston great secrecy has been maintained as to his condition, all inquiries at his home eliciting only the statement that he was about the same and that his recovery was expected. Rumors have been in circulation that he was in a very nervous condition. It is said by physicians and others that the Congressman has been taken to a sanitarium near Boston for treatment.

Maine Heroes' Bodies.

Washington, Dec. 28.—A special train has taken the bodies of the Maine dead to Roslyn, Va. Forty-five teams from the military post at Fort Myer, in charge of non-commissioned officers, met the train and removed the coffins to the Arlington cemetery. Each was draped with a flag. They were placed in shelter tents near the site of the graves, and a guard of marines was posted, to be maintained until the burial to-morrow.

Kentucky Family of Teetotallers.

Maysville, Ky., Dec. 28.—The Lewis family, living near Tannery, are 250 in number and all are teetotallers. Mrs. Sophia Lewis is the head of the family. She is the mother of twelve children, eleven of whom are living. She has 83 grandchildren, 144 great-grandchildren and twelve great-great-grandchildren. Twenty-three of her grandchildren are dead.

Another Hub Failure.

Boston, Dec. 28.—Edward C. Hodges & Co., bankers and brokers, of No. 53 State street, have suspended business. The firm is one of the largest in the city. Its dealings have been principally in municipal bonds.

Charles Hafner, of Brooklyn, was stabbed to death by his son in a quarrel over a Christmas present.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

New York, Dec. 27.—In sympathy with London quotations the stock market were higher to-day. The trading was mostly professional, but good investment buying appeared, anticipatory of a rise in quotations after the first of next month. The leading industrials and the international issues moved up nearly a point. The traction stocks, too, made gains but Brooklyn Rapid Transit eased off after the initial price and then recovered.

Cash prices for staples:
Wheat, No. 2 red, .73¾.
Corn, No. 2 mixed, .39⅞.
Oats, No. 2 mixed, .29.
Flour, Minnesota patents, $3.95.
Cotton, middling, 7 9-16.
Molasses, O. K. prime, .36.
Coffee, No. 7 Rio, .06¾.
Sugar, granulated, 5.18.
Beef, family, 12.75.
Beef hams, 22.75.
Tallow, prime, .05.
Pork, mess, 10.25.
Hogs, dressed, 160 lb, .05¾.
Lard, prime, 5.65.
Iron, Northern No. 1 foundry, 23.00.
Butter, Western creamery, .27.

RUSSELL SAGE FLAYS GAGE

And Calls Watered Industrial Nothing But Robberies.

THE FINANCIAL TROUBLE

The Venerable Financier Speaks Plainly and to the Point—He Says the Government Has No Right to Place Millions at the Disposal of Any One Bank—Secretary Gage Criticized.

New York, Dec. 28.—"The Government has no right to take the public moneys and place them at the disposal of a single banking institution. It is a great mistake. It is dangerous," said Russell Sage to a reporter to-day.

"The act of Secretary Gage is a menace to the business community. It practically gives one man the control of the country's financial lever, to turn whichever way does him the most good.

"Mr. Rockefeller is in business to make money, and the National City Bank is operating for its own good With the free use of the immense sums which the Government proposes to throw into the bank's vaults, it could manipulate the money market at times to suit its own fancy.

"We had one experience with a United States Bank and it was too unpopular with the public to continue in business. The public will no more approve of the National City Bank being the sole receiver of our revenue funds than it did of the United States Bank.

"If Secretary Gage honestly wishes to aid the money stringency let him do so through the aid of the Clearing-House. This association includes the Presidents of fifty banks of this city, and they can handle the financial situation as it should be handled.

"The Clearing-House, I don't believe approves of one bank being the distributing centre of Government millions. The men of that institution know too well the dangers of such a monopoly.

"What were the primary causes of this money stringency?" Mr. Sage was asked.

"Inflated trusts and numerous so-called 'industrials' which were nothing more than robberies. They deceived the public and the promoters should have been indicted and sent to jail.

"Why, some of them were capitalized as high as ten and twenty millions Preposterous! They floated the market with 'rot' and the people were induced to invest their money in the belief that what they put in to-day they would double to-morrow.

"We have ample banking laws to protect us against such schemes, and they should have been applied.

"The amount of money which the public put into these alleged investments you can hardly comprehend. It tied up millions which was used by these concerns to squeeze the money market.

"Let me say that if the Government is to relieve the financial community from this condition, the money should be impartially distributed. It should be placed in the hands of men who are sure to use it for the purpose intended."

Senators and Congressmen openly criticise Secretary of the Treasury Gage for his action in designating the National City Bank as the depository of the $1,000,000 a day internal revenue receipts of the Government. Indeed, it seems that a Congressional storm is gathering and is likely to break with great violence over Mr. Gage's head when Congress reassembles next Wednesday. A resolution is to be introduced in the House, and one will also probably come up for consideration in the Senate, demanding an investigation into the action of the Secretary.

To Clean Up Chicago's "Levee."

Chicago, Dec. 28.—Chief of Police Kipley has fixed upon Jan. 1, 1900, as the date on which the "Levee" must be free of disreputable resorts now under police espionage. Chief Kipley announces that all such places north of Sixteenth street are included in the cleansing process. Strong political pressure will be brought to bear to have the Chief's order rescinded, but little hope is expressed that this can be done. Many of the keepers of this class of resorts are now seeking suitable places in more congenial districts.

Stolen Notes Returned.

Knoxville, Tenn., Dec 28.—Robert McBee, a well-known citizen of this place, was the recipient Wednesday of a remarkable present when an express messenger delivered to him a package containing $80,000 worth of notes which were stolen from him over two years ago The notes returned as mysteriously as they were taken away. The package had been sent from Lexington, Ky Among the papers was a card wishing the recipient a "Happy Christmas"

Mr McBee declares that he will make no further efforts to discover the identity of the thief.

Strike in France Spreading.

St. Etienne, Dec 28.—The strikers marched in procession to-day to several of the mines where partial work is proceeding, but dragoons stationed at the pit heads, protected the workers and no disorder occurred The strike has spread to the mines of Rive de Gier a town in Loire, twelve and a half miles by rail from this place.

Watkins Post Office Robbed.

Watkins, N. Y., Dec. 28.—The safe in the postoffice here has been blown open by burglars. The office was damaged. The amount of plunder taken by the thieves is not known, but it is understood that the robbery was a profitable one to the perpetrators.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Rain or snow; clearing Friday.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

108 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week

$5 a year—in advance.

No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada

Delivered by carrier or by mail.

The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., DEC 28, 1899

COMING EVENTS.

Dec. 31—Adjutant Emily C. March will speak at the men's rally at the Y. M. C. A. at 4:15 p. m.

January 1—Open house at Y. M. C. A. All men are invited.

January 1—Mons DeVilliers and Miss Caroline L. Fleg in Y. M. C. A. Star Course.

Jan. 2—Meeting of Missionary Study Class of the Y. M. C. A.

Jan. 8—Meeting of Literary Society of the Y. M. C. A.

The Inevitable Has Come.

The Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company yesterday filed with the City Clerk of Elizabeth its acceptance of the ordinance enacted by the City Council as a result of the application for the right to extend the trolley line running from Plainfield into that city over Jersey avenue.

This formal action on the part of the Riker Hine trolley syndicate was inevitable—if the concern was to successfully consummate the plans that it has undertaken in providing transit between the various towns of Union county, and also by transfer to connecting lines to several other New Jersey communities. The negotiations leading up to this final action yesterday have been going on for several weeks. Thoughout the consideration of the franchise matter the majority of the Elizabeth Council have been honest and firm in their purpose to protect the interests of the city, and at the same time exact benefits from the company which would be commensurate with the valuable rights petitioned for. In arriving at a fair idea of what was just and proper for the city—holding in view, too, the probable abilities of the company to comply with the terms decided upon—the Council exhibited an admirable grasp of the situation that confronted it. The result is that Elizabeth has secured terms from the trolley company that is eminently satisfactory in every detail.

On the other hand, however, the petitioning company has made a veritable ass of itself—in fact, written itself down as the biggest bluffer on earth, in the truth of whose utterances in the future there can be no confidence put. At the outset they scorned the proposed terms determined by the Council, and declared with all the power and vehemence at their command that they would not, because they could not, accept the stipulations fixed in the ordinance. They proclaimed that it would bankrupt them to do so. Following these fallacious assertions, the company exercised all its known arts to turn public sentiment in their favor by evolving several schemes which it was alleged were such as would allow them to act independently of the city and therefore cut off all the benefits that might come from a public franchise such as they asked for. Such talk, events have proven, was all bosh, as the sensible members of the City Council realized at the outset.

Now that the trolley company has done the only thing it could do—if it was to succeed—it is a matter for congratulation on all sides that Elizabeth has a set of officials who have a lively appreciation of the value of public rights, and were insistent on safeguarding them.

Serious View of Scotch Plains Reform

Before the advent of Rev. Gideon M. Shott into Scotch Plains, that community was supposed to be quintessence of all that was quiet, prosaic and good. But no sooner had this aggressive parson become installed in his pastorate, than, figuratively speaking, the "fur began to fly." His bent of action was to suppress the liquor traffic. At first the crusade of Rev. Mr. Shott was looked upon as merely a ministerial diversion by which the crusader was able to work off his surplus energy, but which, it was argued, would gradually lessen and finally end in nothing. This is where the opponents of Rev. Mr Shott counted without their host; the more time that passes the more energetic he is becoming in his reform efforts. Thus it is that the upheaval that is taking place in the heretofore contented community has aroused more than passing interest, and all that is said and written about it now is in a more serious vein than was the case at the outset of the agitation. Along this line the Newark News says editorially:

A good many of the people of the pleasant little village of Scotch Plains in Union county are of the opinion that their home town has been materially damaged because of an exhibition of unbridled zeal on the part of one of the local pastors. Scotch Plains has two or three hotels and, like a majority of such resorts throughout the country, these have consistently and continuously ignored the Sunday law. It does not appear that there has ever been any extraordinary amount of disorder resulting from the Sunday sale of liquor, as may be inferred from the fact that the town has neither a policeman nor a lock-up, but there was just enough to give a preacher with a tendency toward sensationalism an excuse for a series of sermons full of vitriol and red pepper. His utterances were published far and wide, and created the impression that Scotch Plains was just a degree worse than the Coney Island Bowery. When it is remembered that Scotch Plains is within the commuter belt and is striving to attract an unexceptionable class of residents, the injury that it may have sustained from this preacher's indiscreet crusade can well be imagined.

The temperance cause can never be helped by such a course of procedure, which is marked by neither the wisdom of the serpent nor the harmlessness of the dove.

When the matter of the cost of the Molineux trial comes to be reckoned up the expenses of the case will far exceed that of any other homicide cause in this country. Estimates have already been made as to the probable amount of money the State will have to pay at the end of the case. The most conservative of these estimates puts the figure down at $150 000, but according to some well informed officials the cost at the present rate of progress may run up to $250 000 In that event the city's financial officers will unquestionably protest payment of the bills. When it required an outlay of over $70 000 to convict Dr. Henry C. F. Meyer, in 1894, the magnitude of the sum caused widespread comment There is likely to be comment of a much more emphatic nature when the expenses appertaining to the Molineux trial are footed up.

The Philadelphia Record says that for the month of November the output of gold from the mines in the Transvaal is stated at 61 78 ounces—a vast falling off from the yield of the Witwatersrand during the peaceful period of unrestrained production. The average monthly outturn of the mines for the current calendar year up to October 1st last was about 440 000 ounces, ranging from 410 000 ounces in January to 461 000 ounces in September. This vast and regular addition to the world's visible stock of gold has been reduced temporarily to a nullity by the war in South Africa. The gold now mined in the Transvaal will be minted at Pretoria, instead of going at the rate of about $8 000 000 per month to swell the cash reserves of European financial agencies, as has been the custom heretofore.

Many Republican members of Congress are strongly in favor of changes being made in the war revenue law, and when Congress reassembles this expression will probably manifest itself. Hundreds of people have petitioned their members of Congress to procure a modification of the law by by which telegraph and express companies will be required to stand the expense of stamps. It is claimed by most people that the law intended that the expense of stamps should be borne by the companies and not the public, but the companies have seen fit to construe the law in their own favor.

We desire to extend our sincere sympathy to the editors of the Elizabeth Journal and the Plainfield News. It must be a cruel blow to them to think that the Riker Hine trolley syndicate, after using them as cats-paws in the Elizabeth franchise negotiations, has turned tail and did just exactly what these esteemed editors said they would not do—the newspaper men believing all the time that they were speaking by the book. It is a sad condition to be "under the thumbs" of such ungrateful people as the Westfield & Elizabeth Street Railway Company.

Mead Caldwell's Postmaster.

Henry C. Mead will be the new posmaster of Caldwell, having received the votes of a majority of the members of the county committee in borough and township. The new postmaster was formerly a Democrat, but has been allied with the Republican party since 1896. Some of the stalwarts in the party are somewhat disappointed. The citizens now want free delivery.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it: no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,
122 East Front Street.

Just For A Day
IN OUR
BASEMENT!

Solid Oak Writing Desk and Bookcase, value $12.98, only a few at - $9.69

Bookcase in Golden Oak, 27 in. wide, 55 in. high, value $3.50, 6 to go at $2.87

$5.98 Oak Writing Desk - - -	$4.98
9.45 " " " - - -	7.98
9.95 " " " - - -	8.40
11.40 " " " - - -	9.80

$15.00 Full-size Couch, Best Steel Springs, six styles Figured Velours, extra value at - - - - $10.50

Solid Oak 5 drawer Chiffonier, value 6.50, for Saturday - - $4.98

A full line of Chiffoniers up to $19.95.

18-in Top Oak Tables - - -	85c
22-in " " " - - -	1.25
24-in " " " - -	1.48
A special 20-in Birdseye Maple Table	$1.98

Tables at 2.98, 3.75, 4.48, 4.98.

These Goods Cannot be Duplicated in the Town for the Price.

LAMPS! LAMPS! LAMPS!

Lamps at 1.98, 2.98, 3.48, 3.98 and 4.98, that are exceptional good values.

Toilet Sets in Domestic and imported porcelain from 1.98 to 12.00.

Doll Carriages and Go-Carts.

If in doubt what to give the little girl for Christmas buy her a Go-Cart for her doll. We have them in infinite variety, from 49c to 4.98.

MORRIS CHAIRS.

Solid Oak Frame, Velour Cushions, extra large and roomy, - - -	4. 98
In Denim Cushions, - -	3.98
High Grade Morris Chairs from	6.48 to 14.98

FANCY ROCKERS.

4 styles, some in Fancy Velours, spring seat, saddle seat or leather seat at - -	2.98
Others in oak and mahogany -	3.48 to 5.00

WOODHULL & MARTIN,
234, 236, 238, 246 W. Front Street.

PECK'S CORNER.

PECK is in the . . . . . FRONT RANK

Because he deserves it.

Merry Christmas. Happy New Year.

To those who contemplate making

Christmas Presents

I advise you to call and see the

Handsome Building Lots At Woodland Park, Plainfield.

Suited for a king or prince. Or some of our one or two acre Plots for Raising Poultry, &c. You can buy these properties at Low Prices, monthly payments guaranteed title. These properties will double in value in two or three years. Other investments to suit all.

SILAS D. DRAKE,
175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

Special Sale
OF
Clothing and Furnishing Goods

for the holidays. Fifty cents buys a dollar's worth of Clothing during this sale of stocks closed out to us from the largest clothing manufacturers of Boston, Mass., and Rochester, N. Y., at less than half the real value. We have the whip hand of competition to this end. Those who try to compete with us in quality cannot touch us in price, and those who meet our prices cannot supply our quality of goods. Every man wearing good clothes and wants to buy them at the right price should not fail to see us before going elsewhere. Here are some SPECIAL PRICES on goods SUITABLE for CHRISTMAS PRESENTS:

Smoking Jackets at $1.25!

Men's double-breasted Jersey coats strictly all wool, in black only, at 2.50, real value 4.50.

Men's Fancy Vests, double breasted, in loud patterns, would make a handsome present for any gentleman at 1.25 and 1.50 and up to 3.00, which would cost you in any other store in Plainfield from 3.00 to 5.00.

Men's strictly all-wool worsted Trousers made in the newest shape and colorings at 1.50, 1.75 and 2.25, our former prices were from 2.50 to 4.50.

Childs's Reefer coats at 1.00 and 1.50 would easily command 2.50.

Men's Business Suits strictly all wool in cheviots, cassimeres and Scotch cheviots at 3.50 & 4.25 worth double.

SPECIALS IN OVERCOATS FOR THIS SALE.

Men's Oxford Grey Overcoats strictly all wool, very stylish at 5 25. Men's black or blue beaver overcoats, good and heavy and all wool at 4.75

Men's Overcoats all wool meltons, kerseys and friezes, short cut box overcoats, handsomely lined, at 5.90 & 6 50. They are the best value ever offered.

ONE HUNDRED of the very finest grade of men's overcoats including patent meltons, kerseys and vicunas, silk or satin lined, the very newest styles, these garments are sold from 15.00 to 20.00 to be sold at 7.50 and 8.25.

Men's Ulsters 3.00 and upwards.
Children's Suits from 75c to 3.50.
Boys' Overcoats 1 75 and upwards.
Men's Sweaters 50c, 75c and 1 25.
Men's Half-hose, all wool, at 9c. Suspenders at 5c and up. Dress shirts at 35c and 45c. And 1,000 other articles that could be bought for Christmas presents and which would be appreciated more than anything else for the same amount of money.

New York Clothing Company
M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.
Plainfield, N. J.

THE BOOT SHOP
AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,
107 Park Avenue.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.
Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.
Capital, $150,000.
Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.

CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

DIRECTORS.

Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Closson. H. G Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold. J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J B. Coward.

General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

CHARLES ARNOLD,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats,
POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON
203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.
Telephone 238.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, Dec 28.—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Case, of Greenbrook road, entertained about ten of her friends last Sunday at dinner. The guests were from Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Whitehouse, Hopewell and Plainfield.

The cold weather has been the means of freezing the ponds and streams hereabouts and the youth are enjoying themselves skating on the New Market and Angleman's ponds.

Miss Irene Crowell, of Plainfield, and Miss Jeanne Baltz, of Rahway, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jos. DeGroff, of Prospect avenue.

The friends of Percy Cannon, who is blind, have presented him with a silver watch which can be used to tell the time by the touch.

Mr and Mrs J. W. Case, of Greenbrook road, have been visiting at the home of J. W. Wyckoff, at Oak Tree.

This evening the Sunday-school of Holy Innocents Episcopal church will hold their Christmas festival.

Dr. and Mrs. P. W. Brakeley were in Brooklyn yesterday attending the wedding of a relatives.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 28.—The Episcopal and Baptist Sunday-schools hold their Christmas entertainment in their churches this evening.

Some one cut one of the large panes of glass out of T. M. Paff's window several evenings ago. Mr. Paff promises to make it interesting for the guilty party if they are found.

Miss Nancy Wade, of Mahwah, this state, is spending her holiday vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Wade.

The Burrell Comedy Company at Music Hall this week is drawing a number from the village at each performance.

Ferdinand Schmidt, who has been detained at home sick for several days, is able to attend to businesss once more.

The fine skating on Marsh's pond is being enjoyed by the young people of the village every afternoon and evening.

Albert Hollingsworth, of Lehigh University, is spending a week with his father, Loftus Hollingsworth.

The condition of Mrs. John Robison, who has been seriously ill at her home, is reported as being improved.

Miss Sadie Reger is spending a week with relatives and friends at Succasanna, Morris county.

The Misses Squiers are spending their week's vacation with their mother in Rahway.

WESTFIELD.

(Special Correspondence to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, Dec 28.—W. G. Peckham, of Mountainside, had some of his finest cedar and pine trees cut by Christmas tree thieves. He has offered $20 reward for the arrest and conviction of the parties who cut his trees.

Surrounded by friends and relatives from New York, Brooklyn, Baltimore, San Francisco, Chicago and Westfield, Miss Mary Kate Brittingham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Edward Brittingham, became the bride of William Jesse Pawles, of Whaleyville, Va., last evening. The ceremony being performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson, pastor of the Methodist church. The bridal party, which consisted of W. F. Parke, of Baltimore, as best man, Miss Edith T. Morehouse, of Westfield, as bride's maid-of-honor, and Misses Edith Darby, of Plainfield, and Ida Jarmon, of Berlin, Md., as maids, entered the parlor to the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Lylia Lennon, of San Francisco, a cousin of the bride. During the ceremony she rendered "O, Promise Me." Mr. and Mrs. Pawles left after receiving the congratulations of their friends for a southern trip before taking up their residence at Whaleyville, Va., where they will be "at home" Tuesdays after January 10th.

John Stein, the employe of the American Steam Laundry who was assaulted at Newmarket on Christmas night by Charles Carroll, has recovered sufficiently to be at work again

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal trouble, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and dose not dry up the secretions but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders

—Next Saturday evening the annual Christmas entertainment will be held at the Boys' Club.

—Central Lodge, No. 58, A. O. U. W., will meet this evening and initiate several candidates.

—The Christmas entertainment at St. Stephen's church will be held this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

—Choice meats of all kinds, game in season, to be found at the first class market of J. C. Storm, 318 Liberty street.

—The members of the Plainfield Camera Club are planning to give a public exhibition of their work this winter.

—Next Monday evening at the Unitarian church the annual Christmas and New Year's celebration will take place.

—The Thursday Night Whist Club will be entertained next week in the Camera Club rooms by two members of the club.

—The recently elected officers in Queen City Lodge, I. O. O. F., will be installed at the meeting of the lodge Monday evening.

—The clerks at Woodhull & Martin's dry goods store are now enjoying their Christmas vacation. They are taking the time off in turns.

—Tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock the Christmas tree will be lighted at the Children's Home. A cordial invitation is extended to those interested to be present.

—A chamber music concert will be given in the parlors of the Congregational church this evening. It will be followed by a social under the auspices of the Women's Association of the church.

—The Daily Press has just issued a very neat little pamphlet containing a list of fire alarm boxes, revised to date, and the time of arrival and departure of mails. A copy can be had for the asking at this office.

—If you want handsome and stylish shoes to protect your feet from frost and damp, not heavy, not stiff and not clumsy, and that will give good satisfaction, go to Flynn Brothers, 222 West Front street, near Music Hall.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

Isaac P. Brown, of Watchung avenue, one of Plainfield's best known citizens, who is now in the eighty-eighth year of his age, says that he remembers distinctly that fifty-one years ago there was an open winter, similar to the one now being experienced, prior to January. After that month the weather was bitter cold and there was a great deal of suffering. He thinks history may repeat itself, as the signs of the times are identical with those of fifty-one years ago.

* * * * *

Rev. Charles W. O'Donnell, pastor of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church, has made each member of his congregation a present of a combination bookmark and prayer meeting calendar and record. On one side there are the worde, "Wednesday Evening" in large letters. On the other side there is a tabular arrangement giving the dates of all the midweek prayer meetings at the church next year. Then there is a column to keep track of the attendance at the meetings and a space for notes of each meeting. The idea is something new and furnishes a very handy bookmark and record.

* * * * *

A member of the Millionaire's Club of this city, an organization composed of young men who wouldn't mind being millionaires, went calling in Bound Brook Sunday evening and met with sundry experiences. In crossing the railroad track, he happened to drop his glove. Soon afterwards he discovered his loss and returned to recover his property if possible. The evening was dark and it was difficult to see the missing glove. So he went to the house of the switchman and gate tender and begged for a lantern. A red lantern was all there was and so he borrowed that. Wandering down the track looking for the lost glove, he did not realize the effect of the lantern. A west bound Blue Line flier was rushing through Bound Brook when the trustly engineer spied a red lantern on the track before him. In an instant, the air brakes were applied so that the passengers were nearly thrown from their seats in the suddenness of the halt. The heavy train stopped and conductor and brakemen hurried out to find a young man, horrified at the result of his hunt. There was some language used, 'tis said, and the young man found the glove. Next time he thinks he'll use an ordinary lantern instead when it is necessary to spend any time in the vicinity of the railracks.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Samuel Werner, of the West End, is seriously ill at his home.

Ralph Campbell, of Virginia, is visiting his father, J. O Campbell, of this city.

William Smalley, of Trenton, is visiting his mother at her home on Craig place.

Thomas Schaffer, formerly of this city, is visiting relatives and friends in this city.

Mr ank Mrs Francis Flannery, of New York, have been visiting Plainfield relatives.

Mrs Harry Brokaw and son, of Somerville, are visiting borough relatives for a time.

E Woltmann, of West Seventh street, left yesterday on a business trip to California.

Miss Ada Weaver, of West End Park, is visiting her friend, Miss Nellie Breen, at Elizabeth.

Miss Schenck, of Manning avenue, has been enjoying a visit from Miss Eva Tunison, of Somerville.

Miss May Conroy, of Linden avenue, is home from the Trenton Normal School for the vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Church, of Orange, have been guests at the home of P. M. Demarest, Craig place.

Rev. Arthur Crane, the evangelist, left yesterday for the West, where he will conduct a series of meetings.

Miss Grace VanSickel, of Madison avenue, is home from Miss Dana's School, at Morristown, for the holidays.

Mrs. F. C. Anderson and son, of East Orange, are visiting her sister, Mrs. H. B Woodland, of Craig place.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm L. Smalley, Jr., and son, Jedediah, of Princeton, are visiting borough relatives for a time.

Miss Jeanne Baltz, of Rahway, is visiting the family of her gradparents, Mr and Mrs. D. E. Crowell, of Craig place.

Miss Edith Cooley, of Swarthmore College, is spending her Christmas vacation at her home on Westervelt avenue.

Charles H. Herring, of New York, who has been visiting his son, Rev. C. E. Herring, of Watchung avenue, has returned home.

Mrs. J. M. Smalley and family, of Watchung avenue, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Randolph, of Brooklyn.

Mrs. Elmore D. Moffett, of Orchard place, will return today from Trenton, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Tams.

Miss Margaret McCutchen, of Rockview avenue, is entertaining during the holidays Miss Montgomery, a class mate at Smith College.

Rev. Garrett Conover and family, from Nyack on the Hudson, are spending the Christmas holidays at the home of Mrs. Conover's mother, Mrs. J. K. VanAredale, of Grove street.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Porter Williams, Miss Williams and Phillip Williams have returned to their home at Hartford, Conn, after spending Christmas at the home of E. B. Clark, of Crescent avenue.

The first of next year Dr. Ralph W. Emerson, of West Front street, will take up his residence on Washington avenue, and his brother, Dr. Emerson, a practicing physician of Paterson, will reside with him, and practice in this city.

THE COURTS

JUSTICE NASH

Summons—Moran against Wallers, landlord and tenant, returnable January 2d.

The action of Mary Armstrong against Edward Rushmore, to determine the title to certain goods, has been discontinued.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The Y. M. C. A. will hold "open house" all day New Year's Day.

—N. K. Barnes has an interesting ad. in this issue to housekeepers.

—A watch night service will be held in the Monroe Avenue M. E. church Sunday night.

—The Christmas exercises of the Loyal Temperance Legion will be held Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. All friends of the children are cordially invited.

—Alex. Lusardi, of 211 West Front street, has a large stock of all kinds of first-class Malaga grapes, figs, dates, oranges and lemons, and all kinds of nuts for New Years.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

SPECIAL SALE OF PERFUMES
—AT—
L. W. Randolph's : : :
143 WEST FRONT STREET.
: : : One Week Only : : :
We will offer great inducements in Lazell's, Lundberg's, Ricksecker's and Wright's Bottle Goods.

25 cent Extracts at	20 cents	1.00	Extracts at	75 cents
35 " " "	25 cents	1.35	" "	1.15
50 " " "	40 cents	1.50	" "	1.25
75 " " "	55 cents	4.00	" "	3.25

Lazell's $500 Cut Glass Bottle will be in the window during this week.
L. W. RANDOLPH,
Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.
PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for TELEPHONE CALL 109
Lowney's and Whitman's Chocolates and Chocolate Bon-Bons.

"PAY CASH AND SAVE MONEY" AT
V. L. FRAZEE'S,
THE PEOPLE'S CASH GROCER
151 West Front Street.
SPECIAL HOLIDAY SALE,
Commencing Friday, December 15, 1899, to January 1, 1900,

Best Elgin Creamery Butter	27c lb
Good Creamery Butter	23c lb
Best Full Cream Cheese	14c lb
Best Lard	6c lb
Fresh Jersey Eggs, guaranteed	22c doz
Best Fine Granulated Sugar	5c lb
Best Early Rose Potatoes	35c basket
Best New Citron	12c lb
Best Lemon and Orange Peel	12c lb
Best Extra Fancy Seeded Raisins,	10c pkge
Best New Cleaned Currants, 1 lb package	8c
Best New Dates	7c lb, 4 lbs for 25c
Best New Figs	12c lb
Extra Fancy Layer Raisins, for table	15c lb
Best New Brazil Nuts	8c lb
Best New Pecan Nuts	12c lb
Best New Paper Shell Almonds	22c lb
Best New Mixed Nuts	12c lb
Best New English Walnuts	15c lb
None Such Mince Meat	9c package
5 lb pail Assorted Jelly	15c pail
Best Vermont Maple Syrup	2 qt bottle 25c
Best Sugar Cured California Hams	7½c lb
Best Home-made Mince Meat,	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Best Mixed Candy,	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Loose Muscatel Raisins	8c lb
Best New Evaporated Cal. Peaches	10c lb
Fine California Prunes	5c lb
Fine Large California Prunes	7c lb, 4 lbs for 25c
Best Extra Fancy California Prunes	9c lb, 3 lbs for 25c
Best Cape Cod Cranberries	7c quart
Paris Sugar Corn	9c can, 3 cans for 25c
Best New York State Sugar Corn	7c can
Early June Peas, Rose Bud brand,	7c can, 4 cans for 25c
Fine Small Early June Peas	10c can
3 lb Package Prepared Buckwheat	10c
Best Tomatoes, Solid Packed	7c can
Fresh Roasted Coffee, bean or ground	12c lb
Best Mocha and Java Coffee	25c lb
3 lb can Best Bartlett Pears	10c
Best Vanilla and Lemon Extract	10c bottles for 7c
Best New Orleans Molasses	30c gallon
Best Vanilla Drip Sugar Syrup	30c gallon
Best XXXX Minnesota Patent Flour	55c bag
Best Lemon Cakes and Ginger Snaps	4c lb
Uneeda Biscuit	4c package
Best Old Vinegar	10c gallon
Hunterdon County Sweet Cider, best,	15c gal

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops
Wieda's
Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda
Manufactured at the Premises,
144 West Front St. Phone. 1183.

DOLGE FELT SLIPPERS.
We have a good supply yet of Slippers, Rubber Boots, Lambs' Wool Soles Shoes, Dress Suit Cases, Traveling Bags, Telescopes, etc., all of which make useful and appropriate
NEW YEAR'S PRESENTS.
DOANE & EDSALL . . . .

FURNITURE for the Parlor . . .
Library . . .
Dining-Room . . .
Bedroom . . .
Close at 6 o'Clock.
POWLISON & JONES,
149 and 151 E. Front St.

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.
Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J.
Perth Amboy, N. J.
FRIDAY - - -
BARGAIN DAY.
We offer tomorrow our usual Friday list of bargains—perhaps the most attractive we have ever offered. The merchandise is staple and the quality is full standard in every particular. Do not judge the qualities by the price quotations. Every item offered is worth twice the price we quote.
$1.25 White blankets, three quarters wool, size 72x88 inches, weight 4½ pounds, bound with silk; worth $2.25.
$1.25 Comforts, 2x2½ yards, filled with pure white cotton, satine covered in choice patterns; worth $2.25.
25c Women's knitted underskirts, solid colors with fancy borders, shell stitching round bottom; worth 50c.
25c Women's Swiss ribbed vests (no drawers to match), fine ribbing, heavy and well fleeced, natural gray color, about half wool, nicely trimmed and finished; our regular 50c quality.
5c About three thousand yards of white embroidery, one to four inches wide, the real value is 8 to 15c.
2c About six hundred yards of colored embroidery in a variety of colors and widths, worth 9 to 12c.
3½c Best quality navy blue dress calicoes in choice patterns, worth 6c.
5c Dark colored dress ginghams in a good variety of patterns, worth 8c.
8c Bleached pillow case muslin, 42 in. wide, worth 11c.
10c Hemmed huck towels, 24 x 34 in., worth 15c each.
7c Colored satines, 32 inches wide, in a variety of shades, worth 15c.
19c Large retinned dish pans, worth 29c.
10c 8 qt. heavy tin pails. worth 15c.
1.69 Decorated English toilet sets, 9 pieces, worth 2.25.
2c ft., Metallic stitched weather stripes.
79c Mrs. Potts' nickle plated irons, 5 pieces.
2c Large cakes of laundry soap, worth 4c.

After Christmas.
We're getting ready to inventory. This the season for Broken Lots and probably Broken Prices. We have found one lot already that has got to go. We sold it for $10.00. You can buy it now for $8.50.
OVERCOATS . . .
are now in order, $5.00, $7.50, $10, $12, $13.50.
ULSTERS - - $4.50, 5.50.
Schepflin & Schultz,
CLOTHIERS.
M. J. Cashin, Manager.
322 West Front St.

98c CAMERA and One Double Plate Holder as shown in our window, for only 98c . . . .
During the rest of this week we will offer CAMERAS and SUPPLIES AT COST.
. . . . COLUMBIA RECORDS . . . .
-:- 30c EACH -:-
All Goods will be sold AT COST. Remember This Week Only.
GEO. W. WRENNICK,
133 NORTH AVE.

New Year's Gifts
INCLUDE
Shoes, Slippers, Rubber Boots, etc.

Perhaps you didn't give anything in our line Christmas. If not, now is your chance. We're here to do business with everbody that comes our way, and if you don't get treated properly tell us about it.
VANARSDALE, 127 East Front St.
Repairing Properly Done.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Aus der Rheinpfalz.

Frankenthal. Die Schnellpressenfabrik Frankenthal Albert u. Co. Aktiengesellschaft beging kürzlich ein dreifaches Jubiläum, nämlich die Fertigstellung der 500. Maschine, das 40jährige Bestehen des Etablissements und das 10jährige Bestehen der Firma als Aktiengesellschaft; 60,000 Mark wurden zu einer Stiftung bestimmt, die den Arbeitern während der Sommermonate Erholungsaufenthalt in gesunden Gebirgsorten ermöglichen soll.

Kaiserslautern. Auf der Straße von Medelsheim nach Altheim fand neulich Abends der Postillon eine umgestürzte Chaise, unter welcher Herr Hauck aus Schweyener Mühle und Kutscher Schmitt aus Wolmünster todt lagen.

Landau. Der 29jährige Weinhändler Georg Hundemer von Edesheim bezog 15 Fuder Wein, das Fuder zu 65 Mark. Er machte diesen etwas „trinkfähiger" und brachte ihn dann wieder in den Handel. Dr. Halene aus Speyer, Vorsteher des Kreisversuchsstation, sagte vor dem Landgericht aus, daß das von dem Angeklagten als Wein verkaufte Getränk „nicht ein Atom von Wein" enthalten habe. Hundemer wurde wegen Weinfälschung zu 50 Mark Geldstrafe verurtheilt.

Württemberg.

Stuttgart. Herzog Robert von Württemberg, Sohn des Herzogs Albrecht von Württemberg und seiner Gemahlin, der Erzherzogin Margareta Sophia von Oesterreich, bisher Oberlieutenant im Dragoner-Regiment König (2. württembergisches) Nr. 26, ist vom Kaiser von Oesterreich zum Rittmeister im 9. österreichischen Dragoner-Regiment ernannt worden. — Der Schultheiß Schlechter von Zuffenhausen, dessen „Fall" seinerzeit viel Aufsehen erregte, wurde von der hiesigen Strafkammer wegen falscher Beurkundung im Standesregister zu fünf Wochen Gefängniß verurtheilt. — Hier wirkte jüngst bei einem Hofkonzert die auch in Amerika bestens bekannte Pianistin Therese Carreno mit. In Folge ihres vorzüglichen Spieles verlieh der König derselben den Titel einer königlich württembergischen Hofpianistin.

Böblingen. Welch' stattliche Summen die hiesige Zuckerfabrik für Zuckerrüben ausbezahlt, dürfte die Thatsache zeigen, daß allein im Bezirk Herrenberg dieses Jahr 130,000 Mark ausbezahlt wurden. Abgeliefert wurden von diesem Bezirk etwa 145,000 Centner. Der Preis beträgt per Centner 90 Pfennig und ist der Rübenbau, wenn auch mit Arbeit verbunden, immer noch lohnend.

Eßlingen. Kürzlich brannte in dem Filialort Oberthal das Wohnhaus des Weingärtners Johannes Silberhorn vollständig nieder. Die Löscharbeiten wurden durch den herrschenden Wassermangel sehr beeinträchtigt. Außer dem Vieh wurde nichts gerettet.

Nürtingen. Die erst im vorigen Jahr neu erbauten Nürtinger Portlandcement-Werke der Firma M. Lude u. Co. sind durch Kauf in den Besitz der Aktiengesellschaft Heidelberger Cementfabrik in Heidelberg übergegangen. Die Verkaufssumme beträgt 1,500,000 Mark. Die Leitung der Werke bleibt vorläufig in den bisherigen Händen.

Baden.

Karlsruhe. Das Befinden des Stadtpfarrers Helbig, der in einer Anstalt in Rothmünster weilt, hat sich derart verschlimmert, daß nach menschlichem Ermessen keine Hoffnung mehr für die Rückkehr des Erkrankten nach Karlsruhe vorhanden ist.

Dillstein. Der frühere Bijouteriefabrikant Weingärtner trank im Gasthaus „Zur Traube" drei achtel Liter Schnaps in Folge einer Wette auf einem Zug. Weingärtner mußte in's Krankenhaus Pforzheim verbracht werden, wo er unter Vergiftungserscheinungen starb.

Kehl. Hier wurde der Buchbindermeister Heuber verhaftet, nachdem er Konkurs gemacht hatte. Wenn auch die Gerüchte, daß die Passiva über 227,000 Mark betragen, übertrieben sein mögen, so hat er doch in hohem Grade Wechselreiterei getrieben, namentlich mit der Leipziger Buntpapierfabrik Neuer u. Co., bei deren neulichem Zusammenbruch er 15,000 Mark bezahlen sollte.

Unteröwisheim. Dem bejahrten Landwirth J. Fichiner flog eine Gans mit voller Gewalt wider den Kopf, so daß er eine Gehirnerschütterung erlitt und einige Tage darauf starb.

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT. Notice is hereby given, That the account of the subscribers, executors of Lewis J. Denton, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphan's Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the tenth day of January next.

EMELINE R. DENTON,
SARAH P. BLISS.
Dated December 6th, 899. 12 7 oaw

John G. Bantle,

First-class

Ladies' and Gent's

TAILOR.

428 Watchung Avenue.

Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

Has a Past That Clings.

"Bob" Palmer, the comedian, had been originally a billsticker, a fact pretty generally known among his colleagues of the stage. One evening, when dressed for the character of Sir Brilliant Fashion, he strutted into the greenroom with the buckles sparkling on his shoes and a fine diamond on his fingers. A brother actor inquired if his gems were real. "To be sure they are; I wear nothing but diamonds," was the reply, whereupon Bannister remarked: "I congratulate you, Bob, for I remember when you wore nothing but paste." Palmer did not take the joke with becoming good humor, and an angry altercation ensued, which was only broken when Mrs. Jordan cried out: "Why don't you stick him against the wall, Bob? Stick him against the wall!" —Argonaut.

Then He Quit.

Dr. Emily Blackwell, one of the pioneers of her sex in medicine, heard a young physician deliver a fierce diatribe against opening the doors of the profession to women. When he ceased she asked: "Will you please tell me one reason why they should not practice medicine?" "Certainly, madam; they haven't the muscle, the brawn, the physical strength." "I see, sir. Your conception of a sick-room is a slaughter-house: mine is not."—Argonaut.

Experience vs. Arithmetic.

Teacher—Johnny may stand up to recite. Now, Johnny, suppose I borrow $50 from your father and agree to pay $5 a week, how long will it be before he gets his money?

Johnny—Just one week.

Teacher—Oh, think again; that's not right.

Johnny—Yes, it is. I know my father. He'd have you up in the Courts by that time.—New York World.

Its Field.

"I have an invention which will revolutionize the world," said the boaster. "There ought to be a great demand for something like that in Central and South America," replied the matter-of-fact man.—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Historical Item.

Tommy—"Paw, who was it said the voice of the people is the voice of God?"

Mr. Figg—"I've forgotten now, but I'll bet he didn't say it just after getting defeated at the polls."—Indianapolis Journal.

Safe From Drowning.

Winter Visitor (in Florida)—"I should love dearly to go sailing, but it looks dangerous. Do not people often get drowned in this bay?"

Waterman—"No, indeed, mum. The sharks never lets anybody drown."—New York Weekly.

SCRIBNER'S FOR 1900

INCLUDES

J. M BARRIE'S "Tommy and Grizel" (serial)

THEODORE ROOSEVELT'S "OLIVER CROMWELL" (serial)

RICHARD HARDING DAVIS'S fiction and special articles

HENRY NORMAN'S The Russia of to-day

Articles by WALTER A. WYCKOFF, author of "The Workers"

SHORT STORIES by Thomas Nelson Page
Henry James
Henry van Dyke
Ernest Seton-Thompson
Edith Wharton
Octave Thanet
William Allen White

SPECIAL ARTICLES The Paris Exposition

FREDERIC IRLAND'S articles on sport and exploration

"HARVARD FIFTY YEARS AGO," by Senator Hoar

NOTABLE ART FEATURES—THE CROMWELL ILLUSTRATIONS by celebrated American and foreign artists

PUVIS DE CHAVANNES by JOHN LA FARGE (illustration in color)

SPECIAL illustrative schemes (in color and in black and white) by WALTER APPLETON CLARK, E. C. PEIXOTTO, HENRY McCARTER, DWIGHT L. ELMENDORF and others

Illustrated Prospectus sent free to any address

Charles Scribner's Sons,
Publishers, New York

(B)

AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

Free deliveries—quick deliveries—catalogue free.

Forget Some One?

Why not come here and pick out a present now? Call it a "New Year's gift." If you're short of ready cash, we'll fix you up on a credit basis—cash or credit, our prices are lowest known!

$19.98

Was $27.00

Elaborate quartered oak Book Case—desk, swell carved.

"The Only Portland." Many a happy wife's been given a "Portland" range for Christmas—best baker, cheapest to run—all new improvements imaginable!

$3.69

Morris Chairs—solid oak frame—adjustable to four comfortable positions—reversible cushions—worth $5.50.

Look for name "Portland" on oven door plate—and "A. H. Van Horn, 73 Market Street, Newark, N. J." on plate below oven door for the GENUINE.

$4.25

A desk of solid oak, with drawer, and mirror inset in back. Was $6.

$3.49

—tastily carved mahogany finish Rocker, cobbler seat, high arms, $5.00 anywhere else.

$11.98

and upward for mahogany Parlor Cabinets—elegant and well patterned.

Birdseye Maple Table, French legs, highly polished top, was $4.50—now $2.98

"Domestic" Sewing Machine—swift, silent, strong—a Newark product. Here, cash or easy payments. We're Co.'s agents.

Chenille and Tapestry Portieres, Lace Curtains, Shades, Lamps, Pictures. Large stock of Blankets, Comforters, Mattresses, Pillows, Springs, etc.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,
Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

MARY'S URGENT NEED.

"I have a bad breath and a coated tongue," writes Mary O'Connor to the Editor of the Medical Advice Column of a New York daily paper. Mary also notices a bad taste in her mouth. What Mary requires is a Ripans Tabule. A single one will banish the bad taste in the mouth, half a dozen will take the coating off the tongue, and then the bad breath will be gone.

A new style pocket containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores FOR FIVE CENTS. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen cartons (containing twelve cartons (1.6 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER

ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.

169 NORTH AVENUE.

Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phœnix of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW,

THE GROCER.

Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.

Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

DREAMS THAT CAME TRUE.

Olive Harper Tells Of Some Strange and Unexplained Happenings.

Did you ever have a dream that "came true?" There is probably no person of average intelligence who cannot call to mind some instance of having had a dream that was a revelation or presage of something that afterward came to pass.

From earliest history dreams have been regarded as more or less prophetic visions, and many have tried to interpret them for general guidance by fixing some significance to each dream, usually something relating to love or money, the two prime factors in humanity.

In such interpretations I have no faith, but that some dreams are prophetic visions or that the dreamer becomes partially clairvoyant I am positive, and my opinions are based upon the experiences of others as well as my own.

What sleep is, what dreams are and what occult forces obtain temporary control of the mind during sleep many scientists have endeavored to explain, but none has yet done so. For my own part, I think that dreams that mean something come to all persons at times and that then the dreamer is partially clairvoyant, but owing to circumstances few take note of them, partly because the dreamer in his or her waking hours may be so occupied with other things that they are forgotten in the press of work or worry or pleasure until perhaps when it is too late to have profited by the warning or until it has "come true."

Whether dreams, good or bad, are the result of late suppers or indigestion, intense fatigue or the result of partial mental action or a diseased condition of the body or brain or are but the mechanical rehearsal of the impressions made on the mind during the day I cannot pretend to say, nor do I care to go into that question at all.

All I wish to do is to cite a few instances of dreams and their fulfillment, some of them almost immediate and some years after, and ask some of those great philosophers who are always discovering a cause for every effect to explain them.

Among some of the most curious phenomena is that on many occasions I have dreamed of seeing places where there was some peculiarity that would fix the dream in my mind permanently, and years later I have come upon just such a place to the minutest details.

I had never seen these places nor even pictures of them, and yet I had actually seen them with my inner eyes or by some means beyond my own power of comprehension.

I saw one night in a dream a great, double iron gate, with gilded eagle and initials upon it, and dreamed that I entered it in a carriage. The gate was flanked on each side by stone walls. It was at least four years after that that I drove through that very gate to go to Camden House, Chiselhurst, to visit the ex-Empress Eugenie, and I knew the gate instantly for the one I had seen in my dream.

On that same night I had dreamed of being in a flatboat with many people struggling to get through a shallow, rocky river between two rugged, rusty looking mountains, and I suddenly recognized the place I had seen in my dream while in a boat going through a very shallow part of the Danube river at a place called the Iron Gates. I had seen these two places in dreams, and when I did see them in reality I knew them for the fulfillment of my dream. I had not then imagined that I should ever arise from a bed of sickness, much less travel in foreign countries.

"THE GATE OF THY DREAM."

There is always a tantalizing incompleteness about my dreams that does not give me insight enough to draw a moral or avoid a danger, while I yet feel that it was meant for something. I always feel that I am on the very first point of seeing into futurity and always falling short of it, yet by taking note of the dreams that come to me I can dimly understand something of the symbolic meaning of some of those that come most often.

If I have a dream wherein I have a sense of defeat in everything and I start away traveling downward, I know very well that some of my children of the brain are coming back to me rejected by some cruel publisher, and that way I manage to brace myself up so that by the time the MS. is home I receive it like a prodigal and load it with postage stamps and start it on another journey. If, on the contrary, I dream of climbing easily and feel elated in my dream, a welcome check usually greets me smilingly in my morning mail.

As a test I have often answered letters before I received them and can tell any important and often unimportant letter that is on the way, describing the paper, writing, blots and color of ink used, but I never have been able to really read the letter or tell the signature. I only have a sense of it without an exact knowledge.

I do not believe that anything could happen to any one I loved that the pre-science of my own heart would not make it known to me in some way, and as awake my mind is an intensely practical, everyday sort of mind it is only when I am asleep that this power has sway, and I believe all others have it equally developed if they only gave thought to it.

"I WAS WANDERING THROUGH A STRANGE FOREST."

I had a dear friend whom I loved as if she had really been my mother and with whom I had passed at least three days in every week for two years. She was sick, but not dangerously so, and owing to the heat she was taken to Newport. I heard from her often and thought her better, when one night I dreamed her house was suddenly undermined and crumbled down. Her daughter stood by me and my husband and several men went in the ruins and brought her out in a yellow box, coming down the steps of her house, which remained solid. Three days later she was brought back from Newport dead, and her coffin, in a yellowish box, was brought down the steps in the same way I had seen it, even to a white rose that fell to the ground in the dream and in reality. I have the rose yet.

I had a beautiful little sister-in-law whom I loved as few love own sisters. She was so bright and gifted and lovable that I always yearned over her, for somehow I always felt that death lurked behind the violet of her eyes, yet her health was perfect. I was in Constantinople, and one night I dreamed that I was back home in blessed California and that all my family was gathered to go to a picnic, when my brother came to me and said, "If you will give me the money I will get the tickets."

We were on a railroad platform. I looked around for Lila and could not see her and said:

"Where is Lila? She is not here, and I shall not start without her. What would a picnic be without her?"

My brother turned and looked at me, saying: "It is useless trying to hide it from you. Lila will never be with us again." Almost at that very hour she had died, and I half a world away had been told of it. I did not get the letter with the news for six weeks after, but I knew she was dead.

But my dreams are not always tragic. Last summer I prepared to go up to Albany on the day boat, but I had such a funny dream the night before that I woke up laughing. I thought I was in a prehistoric phase of this world and wandering through strange forests of giant ferns and seeing great beasts wallowing along, and there were giants wandering about and monkeys going through trees, and, in short, a prehistoric scene of horror. We, my husband and myself, reached the Albany boat and at the last minute discovered that our tickets were lying at home on the table.

I suggested that we change our programme and since we had started for Albany we might take the Rockaway boat and go down there, as we had never been. We did so, and when we got there concluded to see all the sights and went into a big museum, and there I found my prehistoric scene—animals, hairy elephant, monkeys and all and two giants, one wax and the other I know not what, but this had two heads and was called Patagonian and looked like a genuine mummy.

I have often wished for a little clearer vision or else none at all, for a glimpse as fleeting as the flash of lightning into something that may prove of almost vital interest is too little or too much.

OLIVE HARPER.

A WOMAN OF FASHION

WHAT SHE OFTEN SPENDS FOR APPAREL.

Things Seen in the Big Stores of New York—Articles for Use and for Ornament—A Handsome and Tasteful Costume.

(New York Letter.)

Blanche Walsh, the actress, was recently reported as saying in defence of the fair debtor, Mrs. O'Neill, that $50,000 a year is not too much for a woman of fashion to spend for her apparel.

It would seem that there are many women in New York who enjoy a like allowance, judging by the way purchases are made in the big department stores. It is not strange that the stylishly gowned model looks at you scornfully when you ask her for a modest coat for $20 that must last you two seasons, where she has just suavely waited upon a carriage customer who has bought a simply stitched cloth coat for $125. That coat is simple enough to suit your humble needs, but the price falling upon unaccustomed ears seems tremendous, even for the "latest." In silks, clothes, trimmings, the same extravagance is visible this season.

It is a pleasure for the artistic woman to merely wander through the aisles of the shops and feast her eyes on the glorious color schemes. For instance, one well known store had an immense window artistically arranged with gray for the motif. Only a window dresser worthy of the large salary paid him could arrange such a multitude of small articles in such a harmonious picture. There were pocketbooks, card cases, picture frames, every imaginable desk appointment, made of the softest shade of gray leather, monkey-skin and elephant hide. There were lovely chatelaine bags of gray suede, the tops heavily beaded with cut steel, and clasps of silver with the dull finish at the moment so fashionable.

Quite by itself was a tray of articles made of gun metal. A watch made of this material is very chic when fastened on the lapel of a tailor-made gown of dark gray Oxford. Apropos of gun metal, there are shown so many pretty articles suitable for men, which later will serve as Christmas gifts. There are match boxes, set with diamonds and rubies, pencil and pen holders, card cases, etc.

The stores are displaying Christmas novelties but at present the majority of buyers are completing their winter wardrobe.

Since box and automobile coats have been approved by leaders of fashion, we must follow like sheep. They will not become very common at present for the prices are kept way up. The long coats are very becoming to some women. I saw a shining black cloth Newmarket in a Broadway car the other day. It was perfectly plain, with strapped seams and fitted the plump wearer to perfection. But alas! When she rose to leave the car, a bit of draggled white chiffon on the trailing skirt destroyed the effect and proved to me, at least, that long coats are incompatible with trailing street gowns, holding the clinging folds close about the wearer's heels.

It would seem that the craze for steel beads and spangles will soon show some signs of abatement when some of the cheaper grade stores are selling spangled belts and collars for 69 cents each. At the same time they are very pretty with a plain gray or black frock.

I saw a woman on Fifth avenue the other day whose costume would have delighted Edmund Russell and the other aesthetic critics. It was a symphony in brown, for she carried out in her costume her own coloring. Her hair was fair, her eyes reddish brown and her skin dazzlingly white. The dress was a soft shade of brown cloth. The sleeves and vest were of a taffeta of exactly the same shade and were elaborately stitched. The revers were of heavy biscuit colored lace over brown taffeta and were edged with mink. Her toque was a little beauty. The soft round crown was stitched with white silk in concentric lines. A single stitch caught it in the center. Around the brim were breasts that seemed to show every conceivable shade of brown manifest in the costume. In front were a few velvet loops lined with white taffeta. A muff and scarf of mink completed this really tasteful costume, a delight to the eye after seeing huge bunches of purple violets on national blue toques, and other equally hideous color combinations.

Stitching, fur and lace still are in the lead as the fashionable garnitures, and scallops appear in every conceivable place. A beautiful chinchilla cape is made with three rows of scallops, giving the appearance of a triple cape. It seems a pity to make up this lovely fur in such a fashion but the prevalent idea in New York, now and always, is for something new, no matter how incongruous or grotesque the combination may be. We have not as yet come to the point of wearing stuffed mice, but I presume, if they were as scarce as Russian sable, we should be envying the happy possessers of them.

A pretty fancy vest is made of white chiffon, strapped across with narrow black velvet, a tiny steel buckle on every strap. Small steel buttons serve a like purpose.

Fashions change in jewelry as in all else and while one authority claims that only the engagement ring should be worn with the wedding ring, while the other rings should go on the little finger, there is another who says marquise rings are most fashionable and should be worn on the forefinger. The turquoise is losing its prestige because of its easy imitation, but the happy maid who is wealthy enough to have a moonstone set alternately with emeralds, rubies and diamonds, has the quiet satisfaction of knowing that her treasure is a novelty.

AGNES SCOTT.

Cleaning Saucepans.

Clean up as soon as you can. Put scalding water in each saucepan or stewpan as you finish using it. Dry your saucepans before you put them on the shelf. Never scrub the inside of a frying pan; rub it with wet silver sand and rinse it out afterward with hot water. Clean your tins with soap and whiting, mixed, made into a thick cream with hot water; rub it on with flannel; when dry rub off with chamois and dry whiting.

The Salsey Regatta.

Mr. Richard Davis a married man with a family, had lately retired from business upon a substantial competency. Office life had given him no opportunity of developing his muscles. He looked a frail figure as, steadying his boat under the shade of a tree, he once more summed up the points upon his fingers. "Shall I settle, here, in Salsey?" he reflected. "The town seems pleasant enough. The house! It is somewhat small; but the garden borders upon the river exactly as I want it. The schools! Everybody says that I could not do better for the children. There remains the river to be considered. And that—" Mr. Davis looked round with a peculiarly critical glance. "That ought to do. There is not too much current for what I shall want. * * * Yes, I'll settle in Salsey."

Mr. Davis had a fixed intention to devote himself to a certain aquatic hobby. It would keep him in the open air, while filling up his time and providing him with amusement. "Aye! and it won't be half such hard work as handling these sculls," he reflected to himself, whilst rowing on. The pleasures of anticipation kept Mr. Davis company till he stepped from the boat upon the wharf of Bonsor's boatyard.

"I have had it out for an hour and a half?" said he, interrogatively.

The waterman referred to a memorandum book. "Ninepence, sir," he replied.

"There you are," said the stranger, taking the money from a purse.

When Bonsor's is not busy it gossips. Mr. Davis yelded himself to the atmosphere of the place, sitting himself down upon a wooden trestle to watch and listen. Five minutes passed—

"Ere they come!" said the waterman, admiringly. "Now, mister, you'll see 'im— 'e's coachin' 'em to-day ready for the regatta."

The sharp nose of a racing boat had just appeared under the central arch of the gray bridge. Scarcely a second elapsed before an eight-oar came into full view with a splendid vigor of back and blade. Steering by the boundary walls and gardens of the reached, the "Town eight traveled rapidly toward the boat yard with a rhythmic rise and fall of its green and white jerseys.

"Easy all!" the coxswain shouted. His voice was manly and authoritative in an instant the powerful "clock, clock" of the oars ceased, their blades floated flatly upon the surface of the dark green water; and the boat, steadying of its throbs, hissed slowly into rest alongside the yard.

Edward Foster, the coxswain, who now stepped ashore, was an old "Blue" and president of the Salsey Rowing Club.

The Londoner eyed the local celebrity all over, taking in the green cap, the green blazer and the short flannel breeches reaching just above the knee. "I wouldn't especially care to fall foul of him," he remarked, after a pause.

"I shouldn't think you would," the waterman replied, glancing with a scarcely concealed disdain at the whippety figure of the Londoner.

Bonsor's is approached by a lane running, first, through an open space, where Salsey's outdoor entertainments—such as circuses—are held, and afterward between high brick walls to the gate of the boatyard. Some weeks after the conversation recorded above, a bathchair was being drawn along this lane by a boy in buttons. Its occupant was a young lady—a cripple for life. Her approach was not noticed till she entered the gate of the boatyard. Then there was an immediate stir among the watermen, and one ran forward. "Yes," said the young lady; "tell my brother that I am here, please.

If Edward Foster, with his physical strength and popularity, was occasionally dictatorial with people, he was never so with his sister. Pulling on his blazer, he descended the ladder. A few seconds later Edward Foster had gathered his sister tenderly up in his arms and was carrying her to the boat. It was a feat of strength that the yard liked to see.

The environs of Salsey were soon left behind, and the brother and sister found themselves meandering with the river through some flat green meadows.

The invalid did not talk much. Lazy rowing, warmth and the occasional pauses here and there for a flower, made the president of Salsey Rowing Club grow drowsy. His eye began to watch the smooth, oily flow of the current, his ear to listen to the water rippling under the keel. Fringes of feathery reeds appeared on either bank. Soon the meadows were hidden, and the river was twisting and turning with the short reaches toward the green-gray bulk of a distant wood. Suddenly there was a noise—a strange mixture of rattle and splash; and a man seated upon an object like a cumbersome tricycle came swiftly round a curve of the river. There was just time for Edward Foster to unship his left scull.

"Sorry! Sorry!" said the stranger, spasmodically.

The president of the Salsey Rowing Club had no sympathy with the muscle-saving machines. They appeared unmanly to him. For a moment he was dumb with indignation at the peril to which his sister had been exposed. Then he blazed out:

"Sorry—are you? You ought to be. I have head complaints of you before, sir. You're a nuisance upon the river."

The stranger seemed taken aback. He stared, making no reply.

"Take my advice!" the president added, grimly. "Learn how to row like a man instead of treading away like an old woman at a sewing machine. You'll save yourself from getting into trouble with the law. If you had run us down I should——"

"But——" the stranger interrupted, flushing warmly.

"But—what, sir?" the president asked, roughly.

"You were upon the wrong side of the river," the stranger said, simply.

The president started and looked round. An expression of chagrin swept over his face. "The pace at which you were travelling gave me no time to cross over, he replied, after a pause.

The stranger smiled sarcastically. With a bow to Miss Foster, he touched a lever to his machine and moved away.

The incident left a strongly unpleasant impression upon Edward Foster's mind. The president's authority over all aquatic matters connected with the Slowe had so long been unquestioned that the stranger's assertion of independence came as a shock. He felt that he had been "set down" and called to order over an elementary law regulating the traffic of the river—actually told by implication to keep on the right side.

For a while Edward Foster let things drift, fervently hoping that the tricycle might come to a smash and the river be freed of a nuisance that he could not see his way to check. Then people began to make a grievance of the president's inaction. The finest regatta that they had had for years was rapidly drawing nigh. Everybody knew that the attendance would be exceptional owing to an unusually valuable prize list and the country crowd that would be attracted for the menagerie and circus advertised to arrive in Salsey upon the same date. It would be intolerable if the man, Davis, were allowed to tricycle here, there, and everywhere over the river, as he affirmed that he intended to do. There would be an accident. There must be an accident. Mr. Foster should really move in the matter.

"All very fine! But how! What can I do?" the president grumbled. "The man does not care a tinker's curse for you, or me, or anybody."

People, being irresponsible, were not satisfied. The president, being president, ought to move somehow in the matter. At length Edward Foster determined to send an official letter to the delinquent. An answer came back by return of post.

Mr. Davis was of the opinion that people were envious of his novelty, and that they exaggerated. If Mr. Foster was not aware of the fact, as his letter would seem to imply, and would refer to the Regatta Subscription List, he would find that Mr. Davis was a subscriber, and so had a moral right to be present at the regatta.

The president of the Salsey Rowing Club brooded over this reply for two days. Then he went to Bonsor's and called one of the watermen aside. "Bill," he said, "I am hiring the Jane for regatta day. I shall want you just before the Salsey's Schools' race comes off to row Miss Foster in her away from this part of the river down to the first lock."

The Schools' race is, for local reasons, always the great event of a Salsey Regatta It attracts the attention of the crowd more than any other detail of the programme. At the exciting moment when the course opposite to Bonsor's was about to be cleared for the great race the president intended to foul Mr Davis's tricycle with a dinghy, so skillfully that the cockney would be covered with public obloquy as a careless, reckless fool who has at last received what he deserved—a well-merited upset and ducking.

A gray stone bridge, with several arches, crosses the river a hundred yards below Bonsor's boatyard. The stream widens beyond the bridge, running by a fine promenade upon the left to a terminal lock. Half-way between the bridge and the latter another side lock on the right gives access to a lower river. It was toward this side lock that Bill, according to his orders, began to row Miss Foster upon the day of the regatta, just before the course was cleared for the Salsey Schools' race. The river was crowded with pleasure boats. Their progress was slow as Edward Foster watched them from the midst of a gayly-dressed crowd at Bonsor's. At length they disappeared out of sight under an arch of the bridge and, Edward Foster immediately stepped into a dinghy that was being held ready for him at the wharf by a waterman.

"Shall I shove yer off, sir?" the man asked.

The brass band of a circus and menagerie was playing noisily and in a field behind Bonsor's yard. "What? No, not yet. Hold on a bit," the president replied.

A minute passed. Suddenly, Mr. Davis's motor-tricycle rolled forth from an arch of the distant bridge, trumpeting discordant staccato warnings to the crowd of boats and began to dodge its way in and out of them toward Bonsor's. "All right. Shove out!" said the president, sharply, catching sight of it.

The waterman obeyed, pressing hard upon the outrigger, and afterward hand over hand along the length of a scull. The light craft yielded steadily outward till there was water enough for the president to take a stroke. A glance over his shoulder told him that the tricycle was advancing rapidly. He must be quick. He began to head the boat hastily round into a position that would enable him, after taking a few strokes, to deliver a slanting blow into the wheel of the tricycle as it passed. Presently another glance behind told him that the revolution was satisfactorily completed. A weak man would now have dashed forward. But the president's nerves were of steel! He saw that he must wait five seconds or more for the advance of a heavy family boat The blow, delivered from behind this, would make the tricyclist appear more plausibly in the wrong. One, two, three seconds had passed. The president leaned forward. His blue eyes gleamed——

But the stroke was never taken that would have launched him at the tricyclist. The president's purpose was suddenly distracted by an outburst of terrific bellowing. It seemed to be approaching the river by the lane leading to Bronsor's, growing louder and louder. There was scarcely time to speculate what it might be when the gayly-dressed crowd in Bonsor's scattered in all directions like a flock of scattered hens.

With a powerful action of the wrists, the president reversed the blades of his sculls to back water so that he could come into view of the yard gate. Suddenly he looked past the angle of tarred plank shed. A half of the flimsy gate of the yard was open; and, bellowing, blundering, trampling toward it, he saw the dark brown body of an enormous animal shaped like a rhinoceros. Quick as lightning, a thought of the menagerie made the president glance up at the white canvas, showing over Bonsor's roofs. Immediately afterward the carcass entered the narrow aperture before it. There was a splintering crash. The gate buckled up like matchwood. And upsetting the table of a ticket collector, dispersing the bowls of coins in a clinking shower, the animal entered the yard. For a brief second it seemed that the thick-lipped brutal head would run itself in its mad fury against a red brick wall, but the four feet came together like a pivot. The enormous body swung round. There followed a moment's frightful expectation when the pig-like eyes examined the shadow of the sheds where women were crouching. Afterward a dreadful, many-voiced cry arose from the boats upon the river, as, with one tremendous curvet—a veritable caricature of animal motion—the hippopotamus made straight for the river, entering it with a tremendous splash.

The brute sank deeply under. As it reappeared with dripping tusks, the crowd of pleasure boats began to flee, some up, some down the river, with frantic strokes of their oars.

"S-shush!" Edward Foster hissed, holding his position amid the panic with a superb bravery, and splashing wildly with his sculls in an endeavor to drive the beast back to land.

The chase very soon began to tell upon the crowded, jostling boats. The interval between them and the powerfully swimming brute diminished and diminished. Presently the peril of a boat, containing women and children, was becoming fearfully evident It was falling behind the rest. It was yawning undecidedly from a straight course, giving the pursuing animal greater and greater advantage. A man was watching the terrible sight from where he had halted after the first panic. Suddenly he touched a lever. There was a whirring, rattling splash. And putting on full oil power, Davis began to steer his tricycle after the hippopotamus. It was an impulse of gallantry, taking him to do he scarcely knew what.

The tricycle gained up to a few yards astern of the hippopotamus before the celar idea came to Mr. Davis that he was going to try and divert the furious animal in pursuit of himself. He began to hish and halloa, at first faintly, but soon with the growing passion of desperate man entering his whole energy and heart into a splendid attempt to save life.

The monstrous, wallowing, barrel-like bulk was not to be diverted from the boat! The curved white tusks traveled closer and closer to its frail stern. A catastrophe seemed imminent. Suddenly Mr. Davis removed his hat, casting it cuttingly downward with his whole force. The ragged edge of the straw caught the brute's eye painfully. The hippopotamus swerved and turned. In a second the tricycle was following round on a wide curve, gashing up the surface of the river into treble lines of foam.

"Come on, you beast!" the man shouted tauntingly to the brute-passion glaring at him. "Come on!"

The challenge seemed understood. The small pointed ears cocked themselves cunningly. With a surging leap that exposed its shoulders, the hippopotamus began to chase Mr. Davis down the river toward the bridge.

The tricyclist gaining palpably upon the savage brute in its wake, approached the town bridge at full speed. A dense crowd was standing upon the latter their faces peering red and white through the stone balustrades. It was no sooner evident that Mr. Davis intended to shoot the central arch than there was an agitation amid this mass of people. They began to shout. The confused bable of shrill cries appeared to be a warning. But of what? Mr. Davis looked affrightedly over his shoulder. No, it was not that! He was still gaining. Immediately afterward, with a glance up, he swept unenlightened under the uproar of the crowd. As Mr. Davis again flashed out into the sunshine beyond the arch a sight met his gaze which explained .

Straining along the foot of a promenade was the crowd of pleasure boats that had fled down the river from Bronsor's when the hippopotamus had first appeared. They were some two hundred and fifty yards away. It was a necessity, of Mr. Davis were to save them, that he should keep the hippopotamus in play till they could reach and land upon a low bank some hundreds of yards beyond a lock on the right. A few seconds passed amid the agony of indecision. Then Mr. Davis's hand went resolutely to the machine's brake He began to press it harder and harder, looking over his shoulder. Suddenly the awfully critical moment, that he had anticipated, came. The hippopotamus was almost upon him when, with a clever touch of the steering-rod, Mr. Davis deflected the machine aside. It was the commencement of a second duel between man and brute.

The crowd watched the conflict gradually withdraw in the wake of the fleeing boats. A score of times Mr. Davis endeavored to escape past the hippopotamus into the open water up the river. A score of times the cunning of the mad brute foiled him. Presently they were opposite the side lock, and it seemed that the cyclist must be driven back and followed among the boats. The crowds upon the bridge and the promenade grew breathlessly silent. There was a moment when the tricycle was stationary. Then the brute made a rush——

And women shut their eyes.

But the ringing, vociferating cheer!

The cyclist had escaped into the open gate of the lock.

But again the horror of it! The lower gates of the lock were closed—were firm and fast as iron. The hippopotamus was following in after him.

The rescue took place just in the nick of time. A tall figure, landing from a dinghy, rushed across a meadow to the lower end of the lock. The crowd saw it kneel and stoop over, and pull up the cyclist by main force.

Then the man who was saved and the man who had saved him ran back together to close the lock gate. The hippopotamus was trapped.

"But your tricycle is smashed up!" said Edward Foster, glancing down upon the event of the day.

Mr. Davis held out his hand. "You'd have saved it too, if you could," he said.

The president of the Salsey Rowing Club did not deny the assertion.—The Strand Magazine.

We are NOW receiving orders for

HUYLER'S

XMAS CANDY,

—to be delivered at—

CHRISTMAS TIME.

Remember the

Only Agency

—IS—

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

Tel. 705.

POWERS' PHARMACY . Somerset St. Craig Place.

Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .

Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot and Tar is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

Toys, Toys, Toys

for the

HOLIDAYS

—AT—

HARPER'S,

411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Irving Savings Institution.

115 CHAMBERS ST., NEW YORK CITY

The Trustees of this institution have declared interest on all sums remaining on deposit during the three and six months ending December 31, 1899, at the rate of FOUR PER CENT. per annum on amounts from $1 to $3,000, payable on and after Monday, January 22, 1900. Deposits made on or before January 10th will draw interest from January 1st.

W. H. B. TOTTEN, President.

G. BYRON LATIMER, Secretary 12 26 10

NEUMAN BROS.,

GROCERS,

Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

SMALLEY BROS.,

144 North Avenue

BUTCHERS.

Everything usually found in a first-class market.

Orders called for and delivered.

Telephone 83 A.

Advertised Mail Matter.

DECEMBER 26, 1899.

Alder, Master Everitt	Langley, Mr E
Andrews, Miss Grace	Locke, Mr Jno M.
Bohem, Charles	Laury, Mr H W
Carlson, Miss Emmy	McCue, Miss Maggie
Edwards, Miss Lena	Mitchell, W B
Folery, John	Potter, Mrs C D
Th. Glen Brook Poultry Farm	Rittenhouse, Mr G C
Hicks, Mr William	Utter, Mrs Mary
Hewitt, Mr William	Voorhies, Mrs Carrie
Holder, R A	Watkins, Miss Carrie
Johnson, George	West, Mrs M
Knox, Miss Alice R	Williams, C Y
Knox, Rev Chas. E	Williams, Miss L E
	Wort, Mr Charles L

E. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

H. Eggerding,

1st Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated

C. O. D. CIGAR.

The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars.

L. A. HUMMER,

VARIETY MARKET.

Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.

163 SOMERSET ST.

Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

RUSHMORE & CO

WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.

Dealers in

Lumber, Coal and Wood

Moulding & Planing Mill

Turning and Scroll Sawing.

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 29, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 46, 9 16, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 5., 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 06, 7 39, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 00 m, 12 58 1 45, 2 40, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 9 34, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m.; 1 01, 2 08, 2 29, 3 32, 4 35, 5 03, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sundays 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamauqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked * change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 19, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N.J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.

Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.

Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.

Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.

Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.

Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains - 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket time-tables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.
FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent,
218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

L. L. Manning & Son

STEAM GRANITE WORKS,

Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low

XXXX QUALITY

FINEST

LOFOTON COD LIVER OIL,

Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.

Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at

39c per Pint.

For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at

50c per Bottle,

or the Tasteless at

75c per Bottle.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,

Hepburn & Co.,

Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,

213 WEST FRONT ST.

Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.

at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize all odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use

REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT,

Made only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG THE APOTHECARY,

At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

Misses' & Children's Cloaks at Greatly Reduced Prices.

The $5.25 Coats are now $1.25
" 4 50 " " " 3 60
" 3 95 " " " 3 00
" 3.25 " " " 2 50

Women's Golf Capes

WILL ALSO BE SOLD AT A REDUCTION OF 20 PER CENT.

I. LEDERER.

FALL OPENING.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.

OUR STOCK COMPLETE

We are now ready to fit either man or boy in Suits, or Overcoats, Hats and Gent's Furnishings.

Boys' Suits from 75c to $5 00.

Men's Suits from $2.00 to $20.00.

Have you tried a pair of our Celebrated Cassimere Pants at 98c the pair, if not do so—they are the talk of the town; sold over 1.000 pairs the past season; never rip and fit to perfection. Give us a call.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,

206 West Front Street.

OUR SPECIALTIES { Choice Teas, Fine Coffee.

All the Seasonable Goods for the Holidays. Take home one of our baskets of Fruit.

C. E. GULICK & CO.,

Tel. 931. THE PARK GROCERS.

FIRE!!! When you hear the alarm at midnight, you can feel secure, at small cost, by knowing that you have an insurance policy issued by

ELSTON M. FRENCH.

Largest agency in the city 163 North Ave., opp. Depot.

7000 BU. of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last. Order Quick.

Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

BUY YOUR PHONOGRAPHS,

Gramophones, Records and Supplies

A GOOD MACHINE AT $5.00.

BROKAW'S . . .

The Piano Dealer, 123 East Front Street.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS

Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.

GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.

119 East Front Street.

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.

Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,

Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.

Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.

WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER

DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

— DEALERS IN —

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agent for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

Our Attractive Holiday Display

awaits your inspection. We are glad to welcome visitors and pleased to show our goods.

A. L. & M. D. Gorsline, 144 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

SPORTING.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The Daily Press Bowling League.

	Games Won.	Games Lost.	Highest Score
Roselle Casino	5	1	911
Park Club	3	2	864
Westfield Club	2	3	826
Cranford Casino	1	5	765

BASEBALL.

Baseball looks very encouraging, for during the last few weeks a number of baseball fans, headed by Walter Dobbins, the well known player and manager who played several seasons in the Southern League and managed the Waterbury, Conn., team of the State League in 1897, have come together to organize a New Jersey State League and play Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. A number of cities have been heard from, including Trenton, Paterson, Plainfield and Belleville, which have good backing, and want to enter the league. The other teams which are wanted are Hoboken, Elizabeth, West New York and with Newark this would make up a very strong circuit. All these cities had strong teams last year, Hoboken and West New York having defeated National League teams. It has been shown from experience that week-day games do not pay in Newark, and to maintain a high salaried team, with a large monthly expense, will prove a loser when the people will only go out and see the games on Saturday and Sunday, when they have the time to spare. A meeting will be called in about two weeks to organize the league. All the above cities will be notified. Until then it will not be known how the circuit will be.

SOCIETY'S FIRST FORMAL FUNCTION

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

Miss Daisy Shepard, W. R Cock, Miss Cock, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Ginna, Miss Bessie Ginna, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rinehart, Miss Mary Anderson Reinhart, Alex. VanOss, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kaufman, Lewis E Waring, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. VanBuren, Harry C. Munger, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rushmore, Gifford W. Cooley, Miss Grace Cooley, Mr. and Mrs E R. Ackerman, Mr. and Mrs. B H Ladd, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bartindale, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Scott, Miss Waring, Miss Florence A Waring, Miss Hebert, Miss Jennie P. Hebert, Mr. Hebert, Mrs. W. L. Saunders, J. P Drayton, Mrs. S. St. John McCutchen, Gerald Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Ackerman, Miss Wills.

A Commercial Opportunity.

Instead of looking with apprehension to China as a possible competitor in the markets of the world, it should be the earnest and constant effort of our government and people to stand for the maintenance of the equality of commercial opportunity which we possess under existing treaties with that Empire. We have our share to do in building the thousands of miles of railroads still wanting in China, of supplying her with all forms of machinery, with electric plants, and with all the appurtenances of productive industry and civilized progress for which China offers, and will continue to offer, for generations to come, the greatest market in the world. Never, surely, was the bogy of overproduction invoked with so little reason to frighten enterprise and to repress the growth of commerce, as with reference to an industrious race of 350 000,000, of a nation just awakening from the slumber of centuries. — "Commercial Possibilities of China," by James S. Fearon in the January Forum.

Mayor Was Surprised.

A few of the relatives and friends of Mayor Newton B. Smalley, called on him Tuesday evening at his home in the borough and gave him a surprise. He was wholly unaware of the visitation, but was equal to the occasion and everybody was given a good time.

Reception and Dance.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Mason Whiting Tyler, of 325 West Seventh street, for a reception to be given for Mr. and Mrs. William Seymour Tyler Friday, January 12th, from 5 until 8 o'clock. Dancing will follow from 9 until 12 o'clock.

What Can You Do With It?

This is a question we can answer better after we have seen the garment you want dyed. When our wagon is in your neighborhood, let it bring your goods to the store and then, at your convenience, come in and let us tell you just what we can do and the cost. Don't be prejudiced against dyeing. Ofttimes you can't tell the goods from new.

HILLIER & CO.,
129 West Front Street,
Opposite Crosby & Hill's. 'Phone 851.

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS THAT PLAINFIELDERS MAY WITNESS.

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World

Tonight the Burrill Comedy Company will present Atkinson and Calder's great scenic production, "Saved From the Sea," a sterling English melo-drama with a huge amount of special scenery, showing in every detail the explosion of a fishing boat, a mechanical change to open sea, the thrilling leap from a broken bridge, and the narrow escape of the hero from an unjust death. The play teems with hair breadth escapes and is full of heart interest and comedy. The scene is laid in a Cornish fishing village and records the machinations of a villain and his schemes to try and passes another man's wife, who is an heiress. Charles W. Burrill and Laura Hulbert will play Dan and Nancy Ellington, the leading roles. A large sale of reserved seats is recorded and an early application is necessary to secure good locations. Tomorrow afternoon the "Ensign," will again hold the boards--and any remarks regarding this play would be out of place, it is too well-known as a magnificent production to need eulogy. Tomorrow night the magnificent Russian military drama, "Michael Strogoff, the courier to the Czar," will be given and a great performance is promised.

* * * * *

Sie Hassan Ben Ali's latest imported novelty—the marvellous troupe of Toozoonin Arabs—which will be at Music Hall next Monday, New Year's Day, are said to be superior to any ever seen in this country. Wherever they have appeared they have carried the honors of the performance, and their several feats have won for them a fame far surpassing any achieved by like organizations. They are acknowledged wonders—an entire show in themselves—but for the holiday entertainment they have associated with them a number of high-class vaudeville artists, "head liners" like themselves. The reserved seat sale is now on at box office, and intending patrons would do well to secure their seats in advance.

Chamber Music.

The following programme will be rendered by Dr. Leonard Waldo's string quartette at the chamber concert to be given under the auspices of the Woman's Association in the Congregational church this evening at 8 o'clock. A silver offering for the work of the association will be received:

Joseph Haydn.
Quartet in D. minor. Op. 76, No. 3.
Allegro.
Andante.
Alexander Fesca—Adagio.
Anton Rubinstein.
Molto lente (Music of the spheres).
Op. 17, No. 2.
Franz Schubert.
Moment musical, Op. 94, No. 3.
Franz Schubert—Quartet in D minor.
Andante.
Scherzo and Trio.

Freight Train Wrecked by Hogs.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Phillipsburg, Dec. 28.—Two locomotives attached to a long freight train on the Central Railroad of New Jersey were thrown from the tracks in a peculiar and unusual manner at Bloomsbury yesterday. A drove of hogs ran upon the tracks as the train approached and were struck by the leading locomotive. The pigs were ground to pieces and the two locomotives were thrown from the tracks and the train was wrecked.

Skating is Here.

The young people are rejoicing over the beginning of skating this winter. There was quite a crowd yesterday afternoon on both Tier's and Hyde's ponds. The snow of last night interfered somewhat with the sport, but there were many on hand today. The ice is smooth beneath the snow and is rapidly thickening.

Manager for A. Kane.

A. McKeon, of 969 West Front street, has been engaged by A. Kane, of 409 East Third street, to take charge of his flour and feed store, and to act as manager for next year. Mr McKeon is a thoroughly experienced man, and as Mr. Kane's business has increased he found it necessary to have assistance.

Appeal Cases.

Announcement has been made of the following Justices' appeals from North Plainfield: B R Cain ads. D. S. Dunavan; Crossley; Wm Newcorn ads. Jas. M. Derby. Smalley; W. H. Smith ads. W. K McClure, Smalley.

Mr. Arnold a Grand Juror.

James K. Arnold, of the borough, is one of the Grand Jurors for the December term of the Somerset County Court.

To Cure a Cough in One Day
To Cure a Cold in One Day
To Cure Sore Throat in One Day
To Cure Hoarseness in One Day

Take Cleveland's Lung Healer, 25c. Trial size free. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenue.

OLD KRIS WAS ON HAND

CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENTS STILL HAVE THE CALL.

A "Peace Convention" was Enjoyed at the Seventh Day Baptist Church—Mt Olive Baptist Scholars Had a Good Time.

There was a "Peace Convention" at the Seventh-Day Baptist church last evening, arranged by the Sunday-school in honor of the Christmas time. It was a pretty exercise in which the principal characters were "Columbia," Miss Ruth Maxson; "Brittania," Miss Mildred Green; "Russia," Charles Titsworth. The other parts were taken by Charles Neagle, Lawrence Miller, Wendell Mosher, Grace Weeks Milton St. John, Eva Rogers, Dan Randolph, Boardman Mosher, Isabel Randolph, Marie Rogers and Walter Rogers.

There were also recitations by Miss Bessie Dunham and Miss Nellie Williams, and a vocal duet by Miss Cornelia Miller and Charles Titsworth. D E. Titsworth, the superintendent, presided.

At the close of the exercise, Santa Claus, impersonated by Sidney Ross Titsworth, appeared with a huge pack on his back and distributed gifts among the smaller children. Then all were invited into the church parlors where refreshments were served.

The committees in charge of the entertainment were as follows: Programme committee, Miss Ernestine Smith chairman; Mrs. J. T. Miller, Miss Ida Spicer, Miss Myra Clark, Asa Randolph, Jacob Bakker; refreshment committee, Mrs. F A. Dunham, chairman, Mrs. Nathan Randolph and Mrs. J. P. Mosher; gift committee, Miss Ida Spicer, chairman, Mrs. G. E. Stillman and Miss Mabel Maxson; decoration committee, members of H. M. Maxson's class.

MT. OLIVE BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Christmas entertainment at the Mt Olive Baptist church last evening under the auspices of the Sunday-school was largely attended and one of the best ever held. A large representation of an old fashioned fireplace was arranged on the platform. This was illuminated and when the electric lights were turned off the effect was pretty. Supt. M. C. Dobbins was in charge and the following programme was presented: Carols by the school; singing by a chorus; recitation, "Why Christmas Comes"; dialogue, "Our Christmas Tree," by seven girls; recitations, Nolan Henry, Charles Mitchell, Cynthia VanNess, Miss C. Pierson; vocal duet, Maude and Mattie Green. A feature of the entertainment was a number entitled "A Christmas Calendar," which was given by twelve girls, representing the various months in the year.

After the entertainment Santa Claus appeared in the person of Augustus Runyon, and made the hearts of the scholars and teachers happy by presenting them with appropriate gifts. The scholars received books, games, candy, etc., while every teacher received some token of esteem.

HOPE CHAPEL.

The Christmas entertainment of the Sunday-school of Hope chapel was held last night. A series of stereopticon views illustrating the life of Christ were shown and explained. There were several musical selections. At the close of the entertainment, boxes of candy were distributed among the members of the Sunday-school. There was a large attendance.

Exhibition of Fire Escape.

This morning at 9:30 o'clock at Music Hall, West Front street, J. Weinberger, brother of M. Weinberger, the clothier, and his associate, M. H. Greenfeld, gave an exhibition of a fire escape, for which great claims of excellence are made. The whole thing is quite small and takes little space. It operates with a small cable and a handle is provided so that the person using it can regulate the speed in descending. At the exhibition this morning Morris Newman, employed by M. Weinberger, was allowed to escape first and Mr. Greenfeld operated the machine. Afterward the latter descended. The machine workd perfectly and was watched with considerable interest. Another public exhibition will be given Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the same place.

Petit Jurors.

The following persons from North Plainfield have been selected as petit jurors for the present term of court at Somerville: Charles Sebring, Lewis R Bird, Gustav Winckler, Daniel Ackor and William H. Morris. The following constables have also been selected to serve from the borough: George N. Steward and J. W. VanHorn.

Dr Frank Jones, of Red Bank, who has been spending several days with Walter Linbarger, of Somerset street, has returned home.

Mr. Dowd and family, of Liberty street, will leave the city on Saturday for Faulkton, South Dakota, where they will reside permanently.

Rev Garret Wyckoff pastor of the Reformed church at Holmdel, Monmouth county, spent yesterday and last evening at the home of his brother, P. G. Wyckoff, of 78 Sandford avenue.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Gossy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—The Union Gospel meeting, as usual, in the W. C. T. U. room, tonight at 8 o'clock.

—Those who join the Y. M. C. A. now will have their membership tickets dated from January 1st.

—The funeral of the late Mrs. Thomas Buckley will be held from St. Mary's church Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

—Allen B. Laing has secured the W. H. Rogers' store on North avenue, and will establish a store for the sale of electrical supplies.

—Mons DeVilliers, who appears with Miss Carolyn Layng in the Y M.C. A. Star Course, January 1st, at 8 p. m., is said to be a magician and illusionist of rare ability and originality.

—The giving of personal testimony will be a feature of the Men's Rally at the Y. M. C A., Sunday afternoon at 4:15 when Adj Emily C. Marsh, a former attache of the local corps of the Salvation Army, will speak.

—Massage treatment kneeds the muscles and excites the vitality of the body, and is therefore an exhilarating treatment. M. V. Stickle, of 149 East Fifth street, is an expert operator and has reduced her prices for treatment for one month.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

The condition of little Helen Ross, of Coddington avenue, remains unchanged.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Taylor, of Cape Cod, Mass., are visiting their son, H. S. Taylor, of Fairview avenue

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Murrling, of 16 Rockview avenue, have closed their house for the winter and will take up their residence in New York city for the winter.

A SMART REPORTER.

The Bishop Did Not Think St. Peter Could Keep Him Out.

"The brightest reporter I ever knew," said a newspaper man, "was Billy Gaylor, who died at Hot Springs in 1895. He was a most persistent fellow after an item, and that reminds me of a little story about the last incident of his career. He had been assigned by a certain Chicago daily to interview an eminent bishop about a schism in the Church. The bishop didn't want to talk and wouldn't see him, but Gaylor bribed a servant to let him into the hall, and he waylaid the dignitary as he was coming through. He was ordered out for his pains, but next day he penetrated the house again on some pretext or other, and was again fired.

"He repeated the exploit three or four times with similar results, and at last the bishop coming home late, at night, found Billy sitting in his study reading the Bible. Nobody could explain how he got in, but the prelate wilted and told him what he wanted to know, on condition that he would go away and stay away.

"Shortly afterward poor Gaylor got galloping consumption and died, and, happening to meet the bishop at a church conference, I told him that the young man who had once so molested him would never do it again.

" 'Let us hope that he is in heaven,' said a clergyman standing by.

" 'No doubt he is,' he replied gently. 'I don't think they could keep him out.' "

Among the Wise.

First Young Woman—"Let's see; who wrote 'Pickwick Papers?'"

Second Ditto—"Dickens."

First—"Of course. I couldn't for the moment think of his name."

Second—"He was the author of 'Pendennis' and 'Under Two Flags,' you know.

First—"O, yes, I know that."—Boston Transcript.

Literary by Heredity.

"I don't see," said Mr. Mulberry, "why you women have that Mrs. Watkins in your literary club. The rest of you are bright enough, but she's dull as dull as can be." "It's this way," answered Mrs. Mulberry: "Mrs. Watkins's great-grandmother's half-sister's second cousin by marriage could trace her descent from Chaucer. So you see, after all, with such literary claims, we couldn't well leave Mrs. Watkins out."—Harper's Bazar.

Man's Tears.

The grand dame was visibly affected. "If I give you five cents will you get intoxicated with it?" she asked feelingly. The unfortunate stared as if stung. "No, no no!" he protested wildly. "I'll take it home to my wife, and she will probably give a cotillon with it!" There were tears in his voice, and a man's tears, you know, are impressive.—Detroit Journal.

Opinions Useless.

"What is your opinion on this new national question?" said the inquirer. "My boy," said Senator Sorghum, dolefully, "that's a difficulty under which us statesmen have to labor. By the time I get through hustling for votes and watching the schemes of the opposition, I don't have a minute left for forming opinions about anything."—Washington Star.

Matter of Spelling.

Magistrate—"How comes it, sergeant, that you say in your oral testimony that the prisoner stole an encyclopedia and in the written report of the case you said he stole a cook book?"

Sergeant of Police—"Well, you see, Judge, it's easier to spell cook book than encyclopedia."—Heitere Welt.

—Use Press want ads.

"FREE SILVER IS DEAD."

Bryan's Topic Will be "Imperialism and Trusts" When He Comes, Says Congressman Daly.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Hoboken, Dec. 28. — Congressman William D Daly, upon his return from Washington, when asked about the arrangements for William J. Bryan's coming trip to New Jersey and New York:

"Colonel Bryan has arranged to meet the Democratic leaders in Washington next month, and the itinerary will then be mapped out. I have agreed to accompany Mr. Bryan on his trip through New Jersey. I understand his topic will be 'Imperialism and Trusts,' and that he is to speak at Camden, Trenton and Jersey City before going to New York. He will reach New Jersey probably before February 1. He may also stop in Newark."

"What about the silver issue?" was asked. "Will Colonel Bryan have nothing to say about that?"

"What is there to say about that? The free silver issue is dead," replied Congressman Daly.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.
TELEPHONE 722.
MAZE EDWARDS, - Lessee and Manager.

Reserved Seat Tickets at Box Office, which is open daily from 9. a. m.

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS MATINEE,
One Solid Week, Commencing
MONDAY, DEC. 25, 1899.
Re-engagement of the popular
Burrill Comedy Company,
Supporting LAURA HULBERT,
in a repertoire of standard scenic productions—
For repertoire see reading notices.
Prices—10c, 20c and 30c. Seats now on sale.

New Year's Day, Monday, Jan. 1st.
GREAT ATTRACTION—2 Performances.
Matinee at 2:15 p. m. Night at 8:15.
Sie Hassan Ben Ali's
TOOZOONIN SPECIALTY CO.,
Headed by the MARVELOUS TROUPE of
::::::TOOZOONIN ARABS::::::
Introduced by the Moorish Prince,
MULI ALI,
Assisted by a High Class Company of
VAUDEVILLE ARTISTS.
PRICES—Matinee, 25 and 50c
Night, 25, 35, 50 and 75c.

GEO. W. COLE,
-:-UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,-:-
200 W. SECOND ST TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT

DIED.

MARTIN—In North Plainfield, Tuesday, Dec. 26th, 1899, Mary E. Martin, aged 71 years, 5 months and 26 days.

Funeral services from the residence of her sister, Mrs. Andrew Hoff, 20 Chatham street, Friday, Dec. 29th, at 1 o'clock p. m. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited. Interment at Bound Brook, N. J.

BUCKLEY—In this city, Dec. 27th, 1899, at her late residence, 419 Cottage place, Mrs. Mary Buckley, widow of the late Thomas Buckley, in her 66th year.

Funeral will take place from her late residence, Saturday, Dec. 30th, at 8:30 a m., and from St. Mary's church at 9 a. m. Friends and relatives are respectfully invited to attend. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery. 12 28 2

MELVIN—In this city, Tuesday, Dec. 26th, 1899, Elizabeth, wife of Patrick Melvin, aged 53 years.

Funeral service at her late residence, 114 East Fifth street, Friday, Dec. 29th, at 8:30 a. m., at St. Mary's R. C. church at 9 a. m., where a requiem high mass will be said for the repose of her soul. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery. 12 27 2

SMITH—In this city, Dec. 27th, 1899, Merium VanWinkle, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs Edward P. T. Smith.

Funeral services at the residence of her parents, 423 W. Fourth St., Friday, Dec. 29th, 1899, at 2:30 p. m.

PEARSON—In this city, Thursday, Dec. 28th, 1899, Arthur D. Pearson, aged 47 year.

Funeral services at his late residence, Sherman avenue, near Clinton avenue, Saturday, Dec. 30th, at 2:30 p. m. Interment in Hillside. 12 28 2

WANTS AND OFFERS.

GIRL wanted for general housework. 917 Watchung Ave.

LOST—St. Bernard pup; answers to the name of "Dewey". Reward if returned to William Thiers, Watchung avenue.

WANTED—A person to act as visiting agent for the Organized Aid Association and the Relief Association. Address, in writing, O. A. A., care Press. 12 28 3

FIVE ROOM house to let. 197 Somerset St. 12 28 3

WANTED—Capable girl for general housework. 334 East Fifth St. 12 28 2

6-ROOM flat, all light, to let. Inquire Jacob Voehl.

FOUND—Golf bag and sticks, on Park Avenue. Owner can have same by calling at this office.

WANTED—Experienced cook. Apply Superintendent Muhlenberg Hospital. 12 27 tf

BARGAIN—Upright piano, used only one year, will sell right Address R, care Press. 12 27 2

FOR SALE or exchange for house and lot or small farm, a fine farm of 200 acres, well watered and timbered. Address Albert, care Daily Press. 12 15 eodtf

WASHING Wanted at home. 303 East Fourth street. 12 26 3

TO LET—Large, well-heated room, with excellent board. 62 Sandford Ave. 12 26 6

FOR SALE—Good buffalo robe Inquire J. P. Laire. 12 23 6

N. K. BARNES, Grocer,

No. 245 WEST FRONT STREET,

SPECIAL FOR TEN DAYS.

GRANULATED SUGAR 5c lb.

Best Butter, lb	28c	10 cakes Laundry Soap for	19c
Best Eggs, dozen,	22c	3 lb package Prepared Buckwheat,	10c
Best Flour, 24½ lbs,	55c	Large bottle of Catsup	5c
Best Potatoes, basket,	35c	3 lb can Pineapple	10c
Best Hams, per lb,	10½c	3 lb can Bartlett Pears	10c
Best Molasses, gallon	35c	Lemon Cakes, lb	5c
Best Syrup, gallon	35c	Soda Crackers, lb	5c
Fine Drinking Tea, lb	35c	Nic Nac Crackers, lb	5c
Fine Drinking Coffee, lb	12c	Ginger Snaps, lb	5c
5 gallons Best Oil	50c	Corn Starch, package	5c

TRADING STAMPS ALSO.

STORE CLOSES AT 6 O'CLOCK.

Bonn's
140 WEST FRONT ST.

STORE CLOSES AT 6 O'CLOCK

OUR SILK WAISTS AT $4.98

compare favorable with $6 50 waists that others show. Ours have fine cords and tucks, the very latest style and finish of serviceable taffeta silk, besides we show a wide range of colors—no store in this city competes with us in variety of styles and colorings—Hello, Cardinal, Cerise, Lavender, Navy, Royal and Black.

Candy For the Children

AT CHRISTMAS TIME is as much or more so expected by them as fireworks on the Fourth. They look for it in their stockings.....

American Mixture 10c lb. Old Fashioned Mixture, 10c lb.
Special Mixture 12c lb., and upwards to 60c lb.
Christmas Bell Box, the atest for Sunday Schools.

R. Walsh & Co
TWO STORES,
157 MARKET STREET,
677 BROAD STREET,
NEWARK N. J.
m th

FOR SALE to close an Estate, House and lot, No. 251 East Third street, formerly the residence of John P. Brokaw; comfortable roomy house; large lot; macadamized street. Inquire of Nelson Runyon, attorney for heirs, 221 Park Ave. 12 22 6

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Chas. L. Moffett, Attorney, cor. Park and North Aves. 12 11 eod tf

WANTED—White girl for general housework; references required 330 East Fifth street. 12 27 2

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish Intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 24

SPECIAL!!
HAIR DRESSING,
SHAMPOOING,
MANICURING.
Until after the Holiday Season
MISS HOLMES,
Graduate of the New York School of Hair Dressing and Dermatology,
will make special rates for hair dressing in all the latest styles for street and evening; at parlors 75c. At ladies residences by appointment. Shampooing or Facial Massage and steaming (for eradicating imperfections of the skin) 75c. Manicuring 50c.
440 W. FRONT ST.

MASSAGE :-: VAPOR BATHS
CORNS REMOVED 25c.
M. V. STICKLE 149 East Fifth St.

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY
GLEE & INSTRUMENTAL —CLUBS.—
Monroe Ave. M. E. Church,
Cor. Monroe Avenue and Fourth Street,
FRIDAY EVENING, Dec. 29th,
AT 8 O'CLOCK,
—Under the auspices of—
YOUNG MEN'S CLASS.
TICKETS, - - - - 35c.
12 27 3

COLLIER
EYE SPECIALIST,
103 Park Ave.....
Established 1869. Eyes Examined Free.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store 126 Park avenue. 10 1

Emery's
Dancing Pavilion
(SCOTCH PLAINS.)
Pavilion For Rent
FOR
Balls, Parties, etc.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Best work for the money in town. Bids on work willingly given. Work done night or day. Get my bid before you have work done.
P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.
T. M. INGRAHAM.

XMAS IS NEAR
Now is the time to order your Xmas greens First come, first served. Holly, laurel and Xmas green wreaths and roping; also loose holly, palms, ferns, jardinieres and wicker baskets for Xmas presents.
MRS. L. J. DENTON,
Stillman Building. Tel. call 731.

PUTNAM
& DEGRAW.
We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1 25.
LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.
Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.
—CHRISTMAS GOODS—
A Big Assortment.

BANK ELECTION.

CITY NATIONAL BANK

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of this bank, for the election of nine Directors to serve for the ensuing year, will be held at the Banking rooms, corner of Park avenue and Front street, on Tuesday, January 9th, 1900, from 1 to 2 o'clock p. m.

WILLIAM F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

Dated Plainfield, N. J., December 5th, 1899.
12-8 9 11 13 15 16 19 22 26 28 30 1-2 4 6 8

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 5 North avenue.

WINES made only from selected grapes and cane sugar crystal. Twenty-five cents per bottle and upward. "THE VINEYARDS," Park Ave., corner Cooper St., Fanwood. 12 18 12

CHAS. L. FORCE,
Architect and Superintendent.
208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 21 tf

Mons De Villiers,
ILLUSIONIST and ENTERTAINER.
Miss Carolyn Laying,
IMPERSONATOR.
Y. M. C. A. Star Course.....
JANUARY 1st, 8 P. M.
ADMISSION 25 CENTS. 12 23 6

Ladie Desiring
KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING
done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 203 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:24 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:40 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:40 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair Tonight and Saturday; Continued Cold till Sunday Night. Ther. 21.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE ON THE CITY STREETS.

Annual Report Made to the Common Council.

THE WORK RECOMMENDED.

SEWER SYSTEM IS WORKING IN GOOD SHAPE NOW.

The Cost of Macadamizing and Resurfacing Streets Was $15,200.80, Which Improved Seven and One-half Miles—Street Railway Company Paid for Valuable Improvements—Money Spent.

The following is the substance of the report of the Street Committee presented to the Common Council last night:

To the Honorable the Common Council of the City of Plainfield:

Gentlemen: Your committee on streets and sewers beg to submit their report for the year 1899.

STREETS.

The past year has shown more progress and activity in this department than any previous year in the history of the city, and perhaps no one single item will make this more evident to the average taxpayer than the fact that 27,900 tons of stone were placed on the streets during the year. This includes macadamizing gutters at full cost to property owners, and work paid for by the Plainfield Street Railway Company. Also 7,493 tons on West Third and West Fourth streets, which work is waiting for the appointment of Commissioners to apportion benefits.

At the beginning of the year the Common Council realized that, in order to bring the standard of the streets up to that of other growing suburbs, it be necessary to make the appropriation larger than that usually required for street maintenance, and the sum of $24,000 was therefore set aside for this work.

NEW WORK.

Ordinances for the macadamizing of Franklin place, East Ninth and East Sixth streets were adopted late in 1898 and the work was completed in June of this year. Similar ordinances for macadamizing West Third and West Fourth streets were passed, and proposals received, but as the prices were considered too high, all bids were rejected and new ones invited in September, a considerable amount being saved by taking advantage of fall prices. Total length of new work on these streets, 2.55 miles.

The final step has been taken by the present Council in directing that application be made to the Court of Common Pleas for the appointment of commissioners to assess the cost of these five improvements, which, it is expected, will be on the basis of two-thirds by abutting property owners and one third by the city at large, except in case of West Fourth street, where about 45 per cent. is paid by the Plainfield Street Railway Company.

Much interest attaches to the proceedings for paving these streets and collecting the cost of the work by the appointment of Commissioners. If this new method of issuing temporary bonds to provide for the cost of the work until the assessments can be collected shall prove satisfactory, it will allow of improving a number of streets on which only a small minority of the owners are opposed to macadamizing.

As part of the franchise for the extension of the Plainfield Street Railway, Richmond street from East Second street to Putnam avenue and East Second street from Richmond street to the beginning of the private right-of-way near Netherwood avenue, have been macadamized from curb to curb, a distance of 1.21 miles, free of expense to the city, the above mentioned franchise also including the construction of a storm sewer from under the railroad bridge at Richmond street to Cedar Brook, culverts on all streets along Richmond and East Second streets and extra allowances of 15 and 10 cents per foot for West Fourth street and Putnam avenue, when same are re-macadamized.

The Plainfield Street Railway Company paid for East Second street $5,279.30 and for Richmond street $3,501.17.

Aggregate of new macadamized streets, 11.44.

The cost of grading and opening gutters was $1,002.26.

The cost of culverts, construction, rebuilding and repairs was $675.96.

CROSSWALKS.

Crosswalks have been put down, as far as possible, wherever flagging has been laid by the property owners; during the year forty-one (41) crosswalks have been laid, costing, with repair of old crosswalks, $956.96 which also includes the practical replacing

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.]

MUSIC AND RECEPTION.

Pleasant Affair Given to the Members of the Congregational Church Last Night.

A chamber music concert and reception at the Congregational church last evening was one the delightful events of the holiday week. It was given under the auspices of the Women's Association and was very largely attended by the members of the congregation and a number of their friends.

The concert was given by a string quartette, composed of Leonard Waldo, Ph. D., 'cello; his son, Fullerton Waldo, viola; his daughters, the Misses Edith and Dorothy Waldo, violins. The programme, as published in yesterday's Press, was followed with the addition of a viola solo with piano accompaniment by Miss Saidee Mae Howell.

Dr. Waldo was at one time a member of the faculty of Harvard College and afterwards of Yale University. He and his family have now moved to this city, and have taken up their residence on Stelle avenue. Rev. C. L. Goodrich met them in the White Mountains several summers and so, when they came here, they were persuaded to play at Rev. Mr. Goodrich's church. Their playing was of the highest class.

At the close of the concert, a reception was held and refreshments were served. Mrs. C. L. Goodrich, assisted by some of the young women of the church, was in charge.

ANCHOR LODGE ELECTION.

Officers Chosen to Preside for the Ensuing Year.

At the annual meeting of Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. and A. M., held Tuesday evening, these officers were elected: W. M., G. W. V. Moy; S. W., S. B. Joseph; Jr. W., W. S. Angleman, treasurer, J. E. Turrell; secretary, T. A. Rogers. The appointive officers are: Chaplains, Revs. E. M. Rodman, J. W. Richardson, S. P. Simpson; S. D., F. R. Wynkoop; J. D., A. B. Thorn; S. M. of C., A. N. Randolph; Jr. M. of C., L. I. VanAlstyne; S. S., H. W. Marshall; J. S., Charles M. Ulrich; organist, W. E. McClymont; tiler, Casper Bolsterli; trustees, W. A. Freeman, C. C. Howard, O. T. Warring; representative to Masonic Hall Association, W. A. Freeman; proxie to Grand Lodge, Rev. E. M. Rodman.

TEN YEARS OLD.

Central Lodge Celebrated the Anniversary in a Pleasant Way.

Central Lodge, No. 48, A. O. U. W., celebrated its tenth anniversary last evening in an appropriate manner. The following grand officers were present: Grand Master Workman McCullough, of Sweedeboro; Grand Foreman Lambert, of Newark; Grand Recorder Test, of Camden; Grand Guide Nash, of Plainfield; Grand Inside Watchman Cadmus, of Bayonne. Eight candidates were initiated and a general good time was enjoyed in speech making and impromptu exercises. Refreshments also were served.

HOME FROM THE KLONDIKE.

H. C. Larned Staked Out a Number of Claims and was Quite Successful.

H. C. Larned, of this city, has returned from the Klondike, where he went last spring, and is now a guest at the home of Charles Train, East Fifth street. He went in the spring and reached the gold mining region after many hardships. He staked out a number of claims and was quite successful in his operations. He has returned to Plainfield for a time, but expects to return to the Klondike in the spring to look after his interests there.

Pleasant Family Reunion.

Among the many happy family gatherings Christmas Day, none was probably more enjoyable than that of the reunion of the family of Mrs. Mary L. Force, who is nearing her 85th birthday, at her home, 203 Watchung avenue, generously tendered her by Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brownell, with whom Mrs. Force resides. The eldest and youngest living children, (Mrs. L. K. Prescott, of Brooklyn, and A. L. Force, of Plainfield), were present, as were also Mrs. A. L. Force and daughter and the two widowed daughters-in-law, Mrs. James H. Force and Mrs. Wm. L. Force. The day was made the more happy by the exchange of gifts, followed by a bountiful turkey dinner and all the accessories. The aged mother and all present thoroughly enjoyed the day and hospitable jolly home of Mr. and Mrs. Brownell, and were sorry to say "good night" late in the evening.

Prepared for Snow.

The Plainfield Street Railway Company has had several new snow ploughs made for use when needed. Last winter the company were short of ploughs and they have now taken time by the forelock.

—Use Press want ads.

'99 COUNCIL IS BUT MUNICIPAL HISTORY

Adjourned Sine Die After Meeting Held Last Night.

REPORT ON GAS COMPANY

RECOMMEND THAT FRANCHISE BE GRANTED BY NEXT COUNCIL.

To be Surrounded by Strict Conditions, One of which is that City Offices are to be Lighted Free—Final Action Referred to Next Common Council—No Progress on Municipal Ownership Water Supply.

The last meeting of the Common Council for 1899 held last evening was attended by all the members except Messrs. Leifke and Homan, and was taken up with the transaction of business tending to close the affairs of the city up for the year, but that did not require a great deal of time.

The first business was that of receiving the bids for the $12,000 bonds for street improvements. The City National Bank was the only bidder. Their offer was 5 per cent. and it was accepted. Then followed the receipt of the annual reports of Chief Grant, Chief Doane, City Judge Runyon, City Treasurer Arnold, City Collector Martin, Inspector of Buildings Doane and Street Commissioner Gavett. They were simply received and filed. The reports have been given from time, hence there is no need of publishing them at this time.

Mr. Coriell reported on the petition from the Loyal Temperance Legion asking for a subscription for the public drinking fountain, and on his motion the matter was referred to the 1900 Council. Another matter of great importance, referred to next year's Council, is that regarding the application of the People's Gas Company for a franchise to locate a plant and sell gas in the city.

Regarding this matter Mr. Tolles reported for the lights and trees committee. The report was of special significance owing to the fact that it was accompanied by a number of recommendations, among which were that a franchise should be granted under favorable considerations and with clear and enforceable conditions as regards the opening of streets. It is suggested that for a term of at least five years the company shall agree not to sell out or assign, and for the faithful performance of this a bond should be given so that the price of gas shall not be raised or made higher. It is also suggested that not more than 200 yards of a street shall not be opened at one time, without special permission, and special provisions should be made regarding the relaying of macadam. In the third place it is suggested that the company shall lay pipes where they will be the most advantageous to the city, that is in the centre or side of a street, and that the company should give two weeks notice in opening a street, so that the city may have an opportunity to change the time if necessary. It is believed by the committee that a time should be fixed for the completion of the work, and that the city should have an option on the plant to buy it on equitable terms.

The report states that the question of charging a percentage on gross receipts was discussed, but no decision was reached and that is left open for further discussion. The last recommendation is that the company shall agree to furnish the city buildings with free gas. With these recommendations the report and whole matter is referred to next year's Council for consideration.

Another important matter brought up was that referring to the purchase of the plant of the Plainfield Water Supply Company. Mr. Hetfield reported on this matter and stated that the committee had been unable to secure from the water company any price for the plant, and it had referred the matter to the corporation counsel. They also suggested that the matter be turned over to next year's Council for further consideration.

Mr. Mellick reported on the request of John Morton for a $500 reduction from his taxes on the ground that he is an exempt fireman. It was decided that he should have appeared before the commissioners of appeal, and inasmuch as he did not the committee reported adversely in the matter.

Another matter was brought up by Mr. Mellick. It was that of three cases referred to the committee by Lawyer W. S. Angleman, representing Experience Moe, Frank Haulenbeck and Alex Jefferies, all of whom wanted an adjustment of their taxes under the Martin Act. The committee reported favorably on the request of Alex. Jefferies, of Sherman avenue.

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 4.]

FRIENDSHIP NOW TURNS TO HATRED

Westfield & Elizabeth Company Is In Bad Odium.

TOO MUCH DOUBLE DEALING

COMPANY MIGHT HAVE BEEN FORCED BY ROSELLE STIPULATION.

Under Terms of the Roselle Franchise the Company is Obliged to Deliver Passengers Into Elizabeth by January 1st — Agreement Has Been Made for Crossing the B. & O. Tracks.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Dec. 29.—The conduct of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company in the negotiations for the franchise in this city, which resulted in their acceptance of the terms made by the City Council after declaring that they would not do so under any circumstances, has turned the friendship exhibited for the company by many into the bitterest kind of hatred. Such flagrant double dealing and insincerity has never before been witnessed in this city, although there have been many bitter corporation fights here.

There is a feature about the matter, which would seem to indicate that the company was forced by a double contract to file its acceptance yesterday. Not only had the 30 day limit for the life of the grant by this city expired, but the Roselle ordinance requires that the company shall have its road in operation January 1st, 1900, and one of its conditions is that the company shall convey passengers between Roselle and this city.

The question is to be settled under these conditions is whether the company will be able to carry out the provisions of the Roselle ordinance, and at the same time have seven or eight months for its effort to secure concessions from the city before building its tracks in Jersey avenue, as stated by Col. Hine. It would seem that the purpose of the company is to attempt the first proposition by using stages to convey its Roselle passengers through Jersey avenue to the connecting point with the Consolidated Traction Company's line in West Jersey street. It is quite probable that the city could find some legal way of preventing any such evasion of the privileges the ordinance is intended to grant.

Until yesterday the company had not secured the right to bridge over the Baltimore and Ohio tracks in Cranford township.

The officials of the two companies met at Cranford yesterday afternoon and talked over plans.

The Baltimore and Ohio railroad crossing has been an important point to the Rikers, who have completed their trolley to the Elizabeth city line without a break, excepting at this point, where passengers now have to cross the railroad tracks to get a car on the other side to continue to Roselle or Cranford. An agreement was reached yesterday. Just what nature of bridge will be built at this point is not known. It has been suggested that a bridge 18 feet wide be built over the railroad crossing for the trolley only, vehicles and pedestrians to cross the tracks on grade.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Nuptials of Cornelia C. Schenck and Horace Conover Celebrated Last Night by Rev. J. O. McKelvey.

Last evening at the home of the bride, corner of Jackson avenue and Watchung, occurred a very pretty wedding, when Miss Cornelia C. Schenck became the wife of Horace Conover, also of the borough. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. O. McKelvey, pastor of Warren chapel, in the presence of just the immediate relatives.

The bride was attended by Miss Edith A. Conover, while Walter Conover, brother of the groom, was best man. The couple are very popular among a large circle of friends and they received a number of beautiful gifts as tokens of esteem. After the wedding congratulations were offered and a wedding supper enjoyed. The bride and groom will reside in the borough.

Murderer Caught.

Phillip Davis, the man who committed murder in "Peterstown," on Christmas Day, was arrested yesterday at the corner of 12th street and Sixth avenue as he was about to enter a saloon. He was locked up at the Tombs, where he will be held awaiting extradition papers from Elizabeth.

An Informal Tea.

Mrs. George M. Randall gave an informal tea yesterday afternoon at her home on East Ninth street. The rooms were prettily decorated.

KRIS KRINGLE STILL MAKING HIS CALLS.

Several Sunday-schools Were Visited Last Night.

ENTERTAINING PROGRAMS

ELABORATE EFFORTS AT TRINITY AND THE FIRST BAPTIST.

At the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church Hon. Roger F. Murray Impersonated the Character of Santa Claus in a Jolly Manner—Presents Were Distributed to the Scholars.

The little folks that compose the membership of the primary department of the First Baptist church enjoyed their annual Christmas entertainment in the Sunday-school room yesterday. There was a large attendance and many friends were present to see the young folks have a good time. Mrs. Powelson, superintendent of the department, was in charge, and was assisted by the teachers. The room was very appropriately decorated for the event and everything possible was done for the enjoyment of those present.

The exercises opened with a song by the school entitled "Glory to the Father," after which Russell Miller, a bright little chap, gave a Scripture recitation. After the school recited the Lord's Prayer, Herbert Stine recited "Gifts for Jesus." The school then sang 'Christ Was Once a Little Baby." This was followed with a recitation entitled "The Christmas Tree," by Hazel Morrison, Corrine Tennyson, Bessie Carson, Jessie Clawson, Miriam Hall. Another recitation was given by Alice Drake, entitled "What the Stockings Said." Other recitations were given by Wallace Pearce, Alice Drake, Marguerite Lee, and "Gifts to Santa Claus," was recited by Delia French. A feature was a selection entitled "Nightgown Chorus," by Alice Drake, Delia French, Bessie Carson, Corrine Tennyson and Miriam Hall.

After the above there was an innovation when Mrs. Santa Claus, in the person of Mrs. Miller, appeared unto the children and entertained them for awhile. Gifts were then distributed among the children, after which the celebration came to a close.

The Sunday-school room of the First Baptist church was not able to accommodate all who desired to attend and witness the annual Christmas entertainment last evening, and many were obliged to stand up during the entire performance. The affair was a very elaborate one and was in charge of a special committee, of which William O. Chapman was the chairman.

The programme consisted of Christmas songs of several nations, and each one was represented by a leader and a number of young people, who were costumed according to the country they represented. A stage was arranged in a tasteful manner and each scene was somewhat different. The programme was interesting from the fact that it gave those present an idea of the Christmas songs of other countries, and they were well rendered. The exercises opened with an appropriate recitation by Miss Ella Serrell, then followed the various songs. With each country there was a leader and several persons assisting to carry out the idea. The countries represented and the leaders were as follows: Germany, Miss Cairns; Russia, Miss French; Japan; Mrs. G. H. Batchelor; English, Mrs. W. O. Chapman; American, Miss Shreve. The Negro race was represented by Mrs. Flanders and her assistants. During the evening the following selections were sung: Chorus, "Letter to Santa Claus;" "Night Gown Chorus;" "Christmas Morning" and "Good Night Chorus."

After the above was concluded there was the distribution of candy and other gifts to the teachers and scholars.

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH.

The Christmas festival for Trinity Reformed church Sunday-school was held held yesterday afternoon and evening. The afternoon was given over to the primary department, which is under the able superintendency of Mrs. J. M. Tier, and the little folks were given a genuine Christmas party from 2:45 to 5 o'clock. The interesting party of the entertainment was the Punch and Judy show by W. H. Olmstead. Besides this there were several recitations. Little Elsie Tier recited sweetly "Christmas Eve Thoughts." Rowland Reighton told in a quaint way about a "Letter From Santa," while pretty Bessie Randall, dressed as a boy, recited Jim Reilly's "Jes' for Christmas," in such a clever manner that she pleased the scholars as well as the large number of the

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 8.]

JUNIORS CHOOSE OFFICERS.

Annual Election of Franklin Council Held Last Night—George Bolsterli is Councillor.

Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., met last evening in regular session and it was one of the largest meetings ever held, there being nearly one hundred and twenty-five members present. The first business was that of election and the result was as follows: Councillor, Geo. Bolsterli; past councillor, Forrester Hartpence; vice councillor, J. P. D. Kirch; conductor, Henry Kliner; warden, John Beekman; inside sentinel, Charles Wilson; outside sentinel, Theodore Martin; assistant recording secretary, David Bodine; representative to State Council, Harvey R. Thorn; trustee, eighteen months, Willard V. Sutton.

After the election the usual Christmas celebration was enjoyed by the members. There was a large tree brilliantly illuminated, and containing a present for everyone. The best feature of this was that everyone received a useful present from the heaviest weight to the lightest, and as each member opened his package commember opened his package containing the present it was an occasion of much merriment and it was long into the small hours when the happy event came to a close.

SHOTT'S LATEST TURN.

Declines to Have Santa Claus Impersonated in the Scotch Plains Baptist Church.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Scotch Plains, December 29.—There was disappointment for the little ones last evening at the Christmas entertainment held at the Baptist church, when they learned that "Santa Claus" was sidetracked and would not appear. This was according to the edict of Pastor Gideon M. Shott, who made announcement that as he did not believe in such "tom foolery" Santa would not be allowed to enter the Sunday school this year. He had no objection to a Christmas tree, but would not allow the room to be decorated or trimmed for the occasion. The entertainment was held, however, and the usual programme with the presentation of gifts came off according to custom, but half of the enjoyment was taken away by the enforced absence of Santa Claus, who would gladly have been present had he secured permission. As it was he passed by and stopped at another Sunday-school not far away.

Entertained "Strollers" at Cards.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 29.—Judge Schick entertained the "Strollers" last evening at his home, when euchre was the chief form of amusement. The first prize was captured by Judge Schick. Miss Watters secured first prize for the women, while Mr. Robinson was awarded the booby prize. Those present included Miss Anna Malloy and Miss Watters, of Glenside; Miss Walsh, of Summit; Miss Meehan, of New Brunswick; Miss Daley, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hand, Mrs. Ames, Frank Allen, Mr. Robinson, of Scotch Plains; Wm. Kiely, Garret Kiely, John Duffy and Garret Powers, of Plainfield.

Rick Received Sad Injuries.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Dec. 29.—The damage suit of Engineer E. N. Rick and Fireman Cheshire against the Lehigh Valley and Easton and Amboy Railroad for injuries sustained in a collision at West Dunellen, continues to attract much interest. Rick and Cheshire are suing for $50,000 damages each. Dr. Ellis W. Hedges and Dr. W. J. Swinton, who treated Rick, testified that his ribs had been fractured and penetrated his lungs, causing hemorrhages, and that should pneumonia ever develop it would end his life.

Santa Will Come by the Chimney.

The Boys Club will give a novel entertainment tomorrow night at the club house on Sycamore street. The affair will consist of comic songs, monologues and gymnastic exhibitions by the members. A feature will be the appearance of a Santa Claus coming down the chimney. The building has been profusely and artistically decorated for the occasion, the evergreens being secured about town from the boys' friends. The public is cordially invited. No admission will be charged.

Recovered From Injuries.

Michael Sobik, a laborer, employed on the Jersey Central handcar, and who received injuries sometime ago by falling off the car, was discharged today from the hospital.

Want a City Hall.

A petition is being circulated among the business men of this city, asking the Common Council to build a city hall and jail. The petition was prepared by C. H. Hand.

—There will be dancing every Saturday evening in Red Men's Hall.

VERBAL BOUQUETS TO MR. BARROWS.

The Council Resolved Itself Into Mutual Admiration Society.

HONEYED WORDS WERE SAID

MR. BARROWS RECORD HIGHLY PRAISED BY ASSOCIATES.

All the Retiring Councilmen Came in for Complimentary References Over Their Departures as Members of the Body—Mr. Barrows Thought Excellent Work Had Been Accomplished.

As the Common Council is now practically out of power and a thing of the past there were many pleasant features introduced at the final meeting held last evening. It was to be regretted that Messrs. Leifke and Homan were absent, thus leaving vacancies at the last meeting, but the other members could not help express themselves upon their departure.

Mr. Barrows, one of the retiring members, was the first to speak. He expressed his appreciation and pleasure in serving the city and of the honors bestowed him, and considered that during the past year two important things have been accomplished. One was that both Democrats and Republicans could set in the Council and to the outside world it was known as the "Common Council." There was no distinction, and no axes to grind. He believed that the time had come when business men and commuter were considered the same, all as citizens working for the best interests of the city. He said it was a pleasure for him to serve in the Council with such men.

Mr. Coriell followed with a small verbal bouquet. He expressed his appreciation of the service given to the city by Mr. Barrows, and the great amount of work accomplished by the street committee. He considered good lights, streets and police essential to Plainfield, and in these three departments he felt that great improvements have been made, due in a great measure to Mr. Barrows.

Mr. Buckle stated that he had a small bouquet to add to the bunch. He expressed his confidence in the members of the Council, and when he entered as a member he said that he heard more criticism concerning Mr. Barrows than of any other member. He had learned, however, during his service of two years, that his confidence of Mr. Barrows had improved. He paid a compliment to Mr. Hetfield and said that in any needed improvement the Council always stood by him and supported him, and that there had been no ill feelings, as everyone had a desire to do that which was for the best interest of the city.

Mr. Hetfield followed Mr. Buckle and made a few pleasant remarks as a retiring member. He said that it afforded him great pleasure to serve the city in the Council for 1899. He stated that he had been placed in a position that was not envious. He might have done better for the city had he been placed on certain committees, but that was not his fortune.

Mr. Smith added his little to the bouquet of flowers. He said that being a young member and the only Republican representing the Fourth ward, he thought he would have to fight hard for anything he wanted for the Fourth ward. He was surprised, however, when he learned that anything needful was readily granted. He believed that Mr. Barrows is stronger and more popular today in the Fourth ward than ever.

President Andrews, another retiring member, made a few remarks in which he thanked all the members for the courtesy shown him. He spoke of the harmony existing throughout the year and how well everyone got along.

Mr. Mellick in a few words expressed his feelings of appreciation and pleasure for those with whom he had been associated. Mr. VanHerwerden followed with kindly expressions. He spoke of the work accomplished by the street committee and of the excellent service given by Mr. Barrows, whom all are sorry to lose.

In conclusion Mr. Coriell offered a motion that a vote of thanks be extended to Mr. Barrows and that it be placed on the minutes.

Bought Old Cemetery.

The property on Milton avenue, Rahway, until recently used as a burying ground for the Friends's Association, and which was owned by the Friends' Association, of this city, was sold yesterday to parties in Rahway, and it will be used for building purposes. The bodies were removed from the ground sometime ago. It is understood that the purchasing price was between $3,000 and $4,000.

—Use Press want ads.

DEAD BODIES WERE MIXED

So They Buried the Wrong Mine Victim.

RIOT FEARED AT FUNERAL

The Sequel to the Braznell Mine Disaster—A Strange Scene at a Funeral—Women Wept and Children Wailed Coffins Were Sent to the Undertaker's Rooms.

Brownsville, Pa., Dec. 29.—Bodies of four of the victims of the Braznell mine disaster are in an undertaker's shop, having been taken there from St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, where, after friends of the dead men had almost precipitated a riot, they were refused burial.

There was confusion over the identification of the bodies, seven of which were brought to the place, and one corpse was interred as that of another man. The mistake was discovered, however, and the misplaced body was dug up, the proper one being substituted for it in the grave. At one time the proceedings at the church were of such a nature it was thought the police would have to interfere.

Three hearses were brought up first for Magyar, Botshat and Orosch, they being Roman Catholics. In the hurry and confusion of names and tongues George Vasiiko's body was placed in one of the three hearses and that of "Joe" Botshat left behind on the station platform with the Greek Catholics, who should have gone to Mount Tabor.

The three coffins were carried into St. Peter's Church. While the services were going on "Steve" Roscoe drove up to the church yard on a hearse, containing the remains of "Joe" Botshat, former friend of Magyar. He walked up to the chancel door and informed Joseph Hall, Sr., the grave digger, that Botshat was to be buried there. He was informed that there were graves only for the three bodies in the church. He insisted that Botshat was to be buried with Magyar, but he was told that he was wrong. Finally another hearse was driven up and others until a line of four stood on the steep street by the cemetery. They contained the remains of Botshat, Kovash, Rohal and Repasch. The Huns became so angry that they rushed to the hearses and carried the coffins beside the church door, depositing them on the snowy ground. They declared that the men would be buried or there would be trouble.

While Father O'Connell was standing at the chancel steps with his back toward the three coffins and the mourners reading the prayer book, four Huns, who had been watching the corpses outside, walked up the aisle and lifted the lids to see if one of their number was not there. Mrs. Grosch sprang up as if to protest. Trustee Hall whispering excidedly to Father O'Connell, told him that there was a dispute over the bodies, and that a wrong coffin was in the church.

Father O'Connell had said the mass and was about to bless the remains. He hesitated for a moment and quickly said that he should have been notified and went on with the service, blessing Vasiiko with the others. The women wailed and the children cried in sympathy.

The priest was almost faint from cold and from the results of his fasting. He had some calls to make and desired that the remaining two bodies should be buried without rites at the graves. The body of "Joe" Magyar was then brought out, followed by Mary, and was lowered into the grave with Vasiiko. The body of Orosch was interred in a grave by itself. The relatives left for the church, and the grave diggers began to fill the graves, while the friends of the four remaining miners became furious.

Those in charge of Repasch's remains started to take the coffin to an open grave, but were stopped. They picked up Repasch's coffin, intending to place it in the church for safe keeping.

Trustee Hall slipped in a rear entrance and bolted the door on the inside. When the Repasch relatives realized that they were shut out they placed the coffin in the vestibule and went away. The other coffins were allowed to remain outside, all the mourners deserting them.

Mary Magyar insisted that her brother's friend was not buried with him. The blunder horrified the St. Peter's Church people. Finally Trustee Hall learned that a Greek Catholic had been buried, and he ordered the grave diggers to dig out the grave again and get the coffin.

The Vasiiko coffin was taken out and that of "Joe" Botshat lowered in its place. No masses were said over the latter, however, although friends provided for this in the first place, and none will be said unless friends provide again.

Baltimore Barbers Ask State Aid.

Baltimore, Dec. 29—The Barbers' Association is seeking to elevate the tone of their trade. They want the Legislature to help them in their efforts. They say that the ethics of the ancient craft are being ruined by the ungentlmanly ways of cheap barbers, unexperienced chaps, who ought to be shoveling snow instead of honing razors. There are 2,500 barbers in town. They want to suppress the five-cent shave shops. They understand that five-cent shave shops cannot be prohibited by law, but they think the barbers' commission will, if appointed, succeed in suppressing the five-centers.

Two Killed on the Street.

Huntsville, Ala., Dec. 29.—Two men were killed and a third fatally hurt in street car fight at Deposit. All were prominent in politics. Jesse Harden killed his uncle, James Harden, and was shot down by MacRussell. John C. Harden is dying of a shot fired by Jesse.

Fear the Plague.

Melbourne, Victoria, Dec. 29.—A passenger who arrived here fram Noumea, New Caledonia, where the plague is raging, on board the steamer Australian, has been quarantined and eight others have been placed under surveillance.

RIGHTS OF THE PUBLIC.

Time for the Government to Interfere With Trusts.

Boston, Dec. 29.—Frank S. Monnett, Attorney General of Ohio, well known for his opposition to trusts, made an interesting address before the Twentieth Century Club in the hall of Boston University Law School, on "The Abdication of Sovereignty." The speaker read his speech from manuscript. He was accorded general applause as he concluded.

The speaker said:

"I maintain that if by a great aggregation of capital a pipe line company may ramify all the oil fields with its system and connect with the manufacturing centres, which it in turn so controls as to prevent all competition and is enabled to destroy all competitors, then the state and federal government, for the good of the common man and the common welfare, has the power and right and it is its duty to interfere.

"So likewise, when one giant corporation establishes a system of tank cars and erects tank steamers, and combines with the railroad companies as to get an unfair rate by virtue of owning its own tank cars and tank stations, then the state has a right, under its police regulations, to protect the common man and the man of smaller means from such abuse and unsurpation of the transportation department.

"It is the millions that have been made from the favoritism obtained through the Government grants as recognized in the transportation department as above illustrated that are disarranging the great commercial and economic conditions of to-day. The $600,000,000 owned by the little coterie of Standard Oil magnates, the $1,000,000,000 controlled in the iron, coal, copper and other industries by a limited number of capitalists, represents the fruits of this illegal abuse of the governmental functions."

The speaker then took up at length evidence presented before the Ohio Trust Investigating Committee with reference to the methods of business of the Standard Oil company, and also referred to testimony given before the Industrial Commission at Washington to show the arrogance of monopolies, especially of the Standard Oil company. Mr. Monnett also described the legal actions which he, as Attorney General, had brought against the Standard Oil company of Ohio.

"We have," he continued, "in this, the close of the nineteenth century, a spectacle of grants of corporate power, creatures of the state more powerful than the creator, subverting the legislature, delaying judicial proceedings, defying courts, or, in other words, treating the United States and the State of Ohio as they have treated the railways, compelling servitude on the part of the state rather than the state retaining its sovereignty, so far as this octopus is concerned, as any of a sovereign in history.

"Their attack upon every public official who dares to lift his finger or exercise his office as against their encroachments may be bitter and may destroy that individual, but let another step forward and fill the gap. Step forward, march on, shoulder to shoulder, and recover our lost powers, assert the sovereignty of the state over its creatures, if necessary, even by revoking the charters and conducting the transportation departments by the state itself."

AT DEATH'S DOOR.

Congressman Boutelle Reported Dying of Bright's Disease.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 29.—Congressman Charles A. Boutelle, who was the most intimate friend and co-worker of James G. Blaine in Congress, is reported to be dying to-day in the McLean Hospital for the Insane at Waverly, near Boston.

Congressman Boutelle was brought from Bangor, Me., to Boston for treatment on Monday night. He was then in a critical condition. He was delirious.

He was suffering from uraemic poisoning, which is a form of Bright's disease in its last stages. The congressman was accompanied by his brother, Edward P. Boutelle, and a physician.

The nature of Congressman Boutelle's illness was reported variously at different times. It was reported at one time that he had softening of the brain.

No information as to the congressman's condition could be learned at his home in Bangor, but on Sunday, it was reported, that it required four men to restrain him.

Mr. Boutelle was for many years one of the most influential politicians in New England. Blaine, it was said, always consulted him before making an important move.

Chicago a Bankrupt.

Chicago, Dec. 29.—Financial clouds which have been gathering over the municipal government for ten years have burst with full force. With less than enough available money from all sources to meet the expense of maintaining the police and fire department during the incoming year, the authorities are confronted with conditions which means bankruptcy.

Comptroller Kerfoot spent the day over the banks of his department wrestling with the problem raised by County Clerk Knopf's ruling, which means a reduction of $1,230,000 from the city's return from the tax levy last year. Shrinkages in other sources of the municipal revenue was revealed, and after a conference with Corporation Counsel Walker the Comptroller announced that nothing but an issue of scrip was ahead of the city.

The only hope of relief lies in the possibility of a special session of the Legislature to remove statutory restrictions placed upon the city's revenue resources.

Paris Has a Plague of Rats.

Paris, Dec. 29.—A plague of rats has appeared in the neighborhood of the Exposition grounds. As many as 10,000 of the vermin have been seen at once time in vacant lots. The cats are afraid to tackle the rats, and some of the frail exhibits are threatened by their depredations.

New York Gets Glasgow Contract.

Glasgow, Dec. 29—The National Conduit Company, of New York, has secured the contract to install electricity as motive power on the municipal street car lines. Its bid was $750,000, which was $50,000 below the lowest English bid.

Choice Meats of all kinds.

GAME IN SEASON

My Market is first-class in every respect and people who deal with me can depend upon being treated fair, courteous and with satisfaction.

ENORMOUS SAVING in MONEY. Every man and woman who deals with me saves money.

Quick Sales and Small Profits

I handle only the very best and highest grade of meat money can buy.

Special attention is given to home dressed poultry, Jersey pork; also prime cuts of beef, veal and mutton.

IT WILL PAY YOU to buy of me as I give you the best meat for the smallest amount of money.

J. C. STORM, Meat Market, 318 Liberty St., Near Fourth St.

ESTATE of Sarah J. Kellaway, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made, on the application of the undersigned, executor of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the Eighth day of November, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.
CHARLES K. KELLAWAY, Executor.
11 10 9 oaw

John G. Bantle, First-class Ladies' and Gent's TAILOR. 428 Watchung Avenue. Specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

Flynn Bros., SHOE DEALERS, 222 WEST FRONT STREET, Near Music Hall, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods Have stood the test for years.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . . in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated DOMESTIC FINISH. Up-to-date Laundry Work Done. Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city. Trading Stamps given. The City Steam & Hand Laundry. MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B. 19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

SELLING OUT Below Cost TO CLOSE BUSINESS. Star Crockery Store, 23 Somerset St., near Front. 3 and 9 cent Articles. BARGAINS! BARGAINS! Solomon & Evans, Proprietors.

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job. That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.

MARSH, AYERS & CO., 201 PARK AVE., Cor 2d ST. Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc. Estimates furnished. Telephone call 635J

STATIONERY and TOYS. We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles for the Holiday trade. CHRISTMAS CARDS and CALENDARS. We make a specialty of FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER. High Grade Cigars. Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year. B. W. HAND, 205 W. Front Street.

McCullough's STEAM MILL. at Steiner place, North Plainfie. R. H. McCullough, Prop'r. Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

RUSHTON & HANSEN, Painters and Paper Hangers, Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets. Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully. Orders promptly attended to. 9 11

M. POWERS, DEALER IN LEHIGH COAL. FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC. Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A. Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

LADIES' TAILORING. RICHARDSON & WALD, 325 West Front Street. TAILOR-MADE GARMENTS. We make a specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits. Alterations and relining promptly attended to. —DRESSMAKING.— Our Dressmaking Department is in charge of Madame Walsh.

THE GRANDVIEW Meat Market. George Egel, Manager. Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

THE ENTRANCE TO THE DINING ROOM will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us. Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early. The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too—everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get. FRED ENDRESS, 131—135 WEST FRONT STREET.

November: The mellow year is hasting to its close. The merry birds have almost sung their last. Their faint notes twitter in the dreary blast— That shrill-piped harbinger of early snows. And hint to you in good coal to invest At seven forty-seven Front Street, west.

ALEX. LUSARDI, 211 West Front Street, Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery. Nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores. 9 6 1 year

J. C. Pope & Co., INSURANCE AGENTS, 110 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J

LAIRE'S . . HOLIDAY SPECIALS. Carving knives. U. S. club skates. Roger's plated ware. Fine pocket cutlery. Silver finish coffee and tea pots. Nickel on copper tea kettles. Boys' sleighs. Fine razors and hones. Grand Rapid sweepers. Baby Rapid sweepers. Shinny sticks. Christmas tree holders. Coin silver ware, cheap. Fine table cutlery. Fine scissors and shears. Corn poppers. The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co., Tel. Call 682.

TRY THE QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY, No. 337 Park Avenue. (Miller Building.) Goods called for and delivered free of charge. Domestic or gloss finish.

DOBBINS. CIGARS. 108 NORTH AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN. ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES. 317 West Front street.

J. W. VAN SICKLE. 122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J. FRESH & SALTED MEATS, GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple. Orders called for and delivered promptly. TELEPHONE 148 b.

Your Valuables, will be safe in Doane's Safe Deposit Vault. Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

GAS. For the Fire-place. Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates. Agency for the "Backus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required. CURTIS M. THORPE, 310-312 PARK AVENUE. "EVERYTHING FOR THE FIREPLACE."

F. A. DUNHAM, —CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.— 109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE. I. O. H. Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 109 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711 ROYAL ARCANUM. The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m. A. I. LITTELL, Regent. Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON, Watchmakers and Jewelers. 219 Park Avenue.

A. KANE, Dealer in BLUE STONE FLAGGING and CURBING. Also Dealer in Flour, Feed and Grain, Coal and Wood. Store and Office 409 East Third St., Next to THIRD STREET MISSION. Open Evenings Until 8 o'Clock.

Every pair of genuine P & P. Gloves is stamped with our name. REGISTERED BRANDS OF THE "P. & P." Kid Gloves. MANUFACTURED BY Chaumont PINGS & PINNER CO. PERFECT FITTING LATEST STYLES. MANUFACTURED BY Berthold PINGS & PINNER CO. BEST VALUE NEWEST SHADES. MANUFACTURED BY Fontaine PINGS & PINNER CO. Don't take substitutes—There's none so good. FOR SALE BY Crosby & Hill, Plainfield, N. J. 95 tu f

Chas. L. Stanley, . . FLORIST . . No. 142 North Ave. HEADQUARTERS for choice Cut Flowers, Ferns, Palms, a large assortment of other plants. Floral design work and decorating for all occasions. Satisfaction guaranteed; an immense stock of Holly, Wreaths, Roping, etc. Annex stores for the Holidays, 134 North Ave, South Ave, Netherwood, and Central Ave., Westfield

M. Molnar, 432 Watchung Ave., Ladies' and Gents' FINE TAILORING. Graduate of New York Cutting School. Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with old clothes and I will take chances of being entrusted with new work.

OUR OYSTERS ARE THE ---FINEST--- ROGERS 232 West Second Street.

B. B. Claynard, NEW SHOP NEW FURNITURE BEST SERVICE. Tonsorial Artist . . . Also CHOICE CIGARS. 141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS. Paris for 1900. Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900. Circulars at 181 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md. Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills —25c.— A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses. MALLINSON'S North and Watchung avenues.

RICHES TAKE QUICK WINGS

From Business Affluence to Worse Than Want,

STATEMENT OF A BROKER

Result of a Recent Failure—Losses of Individuals and of Banks—A Firm That Is Worse Than Bankrupt—An Illustration of the Uncertainties of Speculation.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 29.—The committee appointed by creditors to investigate the accounts of Stahl & Straub, brokers, who failed on Nov. 29, reports that not a dollar's worth of available resources were found. The total liabilities amount to $1,221,308 and the total assets $327,478, leaving a deficency of $293,829.

The statement shows that $833,944 are due to banks, and that the amount is secured to the lenders by stocks and bonds estimated at a value of $861,457. The result will be that every dollar of those securities, though there is a surplus of $27,513, will be wiped out in settling the accounts due to banks. There are $287,364 due depositors and customers. There remain $66,021 to pay that amount. The losses, therefore, to be sustained by individual customers and depositors with the firm of Stahl & Straub amount to $321,343, according to the firm's own books.

John H. Straub, the junior member of the firm is under bail on the charge of embezzlment. His partner, Mr. F. Stahl, is missing, and a warrant has been issued for his arrest. In an interview Mr. Straub said:

"One month ago I believed myself a wealthy man. I thought I was one of the partners in a remarkably successful and highly respected firm. To-day, I am worse than a pauper. Instead of owning a fortune, I am in debt beyond any apparent possibility of ever getting out. My firm is worse than bankrupt, and my partner has fled. The curses of scores of people are being heaped upon my head."

HUGE FOSSIL FOUND IN CHILI.

Cross Between Alligator and Lizard—Nearly 29 Feet Long.

Valparaiso, Chili, Nov. 29.—A fossil, evidently prehistoric and a cross between an alligator and a lizard, was found Aug. 26 last at Caldera, a seaport of Chili, on a bay in the province of Atacama, by Archie Mackenzie. The fossil was lying on a sunken rock near the north beach. By order of the intedente, Senor Carlos Sayago, it was lifted out of the water in sections and carried ashore, where is was photographed. It is now being boxed preparatory to removing it to Valparaiso. Evidently an uncommonly low tide at the time of the discovery had washed back the sand which, perhaps, had covered the fossil for many years, and left it exposed to view.

It is believed that the fossil weighs about six tons. It measures in length, approximately, 28 feet 11 inches. The head is 9 feet long, the tail 14 feet 11 inches. Across the back it measures 9 feet 9 inches. The fossil is well petrified and has considerable stone or "loza" hanging to it.

Senator Mason Alarmed.

Washington, Dec. 29.—Senator Mason announces that he has received a letter from an officer on board the United States cruiser Mongomery, in which the officer says that the Montgomery is doing police duty for the British on the west African coast. The letter alleges that all British ships have been withdrawn from the colony of Sierra Leone, on the west coast, and detailed for duty about Delagoa Bay on the east coast.

At the Navy Department Senator Mason's informant is discredited. Secretary Long denies the allegation in toto. He says the Montgomery is off the African coast solely for the protection of American interests. Mr. Mason, however, intends to lay the matter before the Senate.

The "Herald" a Stock Company.

Trenton, N. J., Dec. 29.—Among the companies incorporated are the New York Herald Company, capital $100,000, to publish newspapers and magazines. The incorporators are: James Gordon Bennett, G .G. Howland, William Jay, William C. Reick, Eaton S. Drone, Thomas H. Hamilton, all of New York, and R. W. Candler, Short Hills, N. J. Mr. Bennett owns 944 shares and the others one share each.

Negro Uprisinb Averted.

Port White, Fla., Dec. 29.—The threatened uprising here over the killing of Tom White, a negro, by the marshal of this place, has been averted by the citizens arming themselves and making a show of force.

A number of shots have been fired into residences by unknown persons, probably negroes. Armed guards are kept out to prevent incendiary fires.

Boer Sympathizer Punished.

Toronto, Ontario, Dec. 29.—S. T. Crane, principal of the Dunville Public Schools, is a supporter of the cause of the Boers in the war with Great Britain, and has frequently taken occasion to make his sympathies known to his pupils. As a consequence the school board on Wednesday night removed him from the principalship.

Sedition in Natal.

Durban, Natal, Dec. 29.—A German farmer named Stucke and the Rev. Mr. Hartes, director of the Hanoverian Missions in Natal, have been arrested and imprisoned at Estcourt, on the charge of aiding the Boers. They both claim the protection of Germany.

Philippine Paper Resumes.

Manila, Dec. 29.—The insurgent organ, Independencia, which was suppressed by the Americans, resumed publication on Nov. 21 in Bontoc Province.

Death of Natal's Ex-Premier.

Durban Natal, Dec. 29.—Harry Escombe, formerly premier of Natal, died suddenly in the street yesterday.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair, cooler, westerly winds.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remembe you will not be hurt in the slightest. My loca anæsthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD,
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

EDUCATIONAL

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.
(City Bank Building.)
Adella C. Phelps will resume work Sept. 26th. Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
PIANO AND THEORY
Home Studio,
182 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN,
Address—60 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

Piano Instruction
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes
Elementary Classes.
Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Duff.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
35 Vine St. All work promptly attended t

: : Pride's Tonsorial Parlor : :
94 SOMERSET STREET,
opposite Somerset Hotel.
Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty . . . .
CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.
-:- WILLIAM J. PRIDE, -:-
formerly with E. B. Maynard.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun John P. Emmot
Telephone 601

Don't miss the Special Sale for the holidays of FRAMES,
EASELS,
and PICTURES
AT REDUCED PRICES,
given by the
Guarantee Portrait Studio,
142 East Front Street.
Fine drawings in Crayons and Pastels from all kinds of photographs. All kinds of frames from the latest styles of mouldings made to order at the lowest prices.

THAT'S THE IDEA!
You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL.,
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street,
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office B x 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.
PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.
NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.
SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a m.; 2:30 and 4:30 p. m.
PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a.m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p.m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.
SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.
E. H. BIRD, P M.

Corporation Notice.

of application to the Court of Common Pleas for the appointment of Commissioners to assess benefits for street improvements.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, pursuant to Chapter 200 of the laws of 1898, entitled, "An Act to authorize the improvement of streets and highways in cities of this State, and to provide for the payment of the expense of the same," approved June 13th, 1898, and the amendments thereof and supplements thereto, that application will be made by the Common Council of the City of Plainfield to the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Union at the Court House in the City of Elizabeth on the thirtieth day of December, A. D. 1899, at the hour of ten o clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as the said Court can hear the said application for the appointment of three Commissioners, who shall be freeholders and residents of the City of Plainfield, as Commissioners to estimate and assess benefits respectively conferred by the permanent improvement of streets under the several ordinances of said City, respectively entitled:

"An Ordinance for macadamizing East Sixth Street between Watchung Avenue and Richmond Street, excepting where already macadamized," approved Oct. 27th, 1898

"An Ordinance for macadamizing Franklin Place between LaGrande Avenue and East Fifth Street," approved Oct 27th, 1898

"An Ordinance for macadamizing East Ninth Street between Park Avenue and Watchung Avenue," approved Oct. 27th, 1898

"An Ordinance for macadamizing West Fourth Street between New Street and Monroe Avenue," approved Feb. 9th. 1899.

"An Ordinance for macadamizing West Third Street between Madison Avenue and Monroe Avenue, excepting where already macadamized," approved Feb. 9th, 1899.

and to perform the duties and execute the powers conferred by said Acts of the Legislature.

By order of the Common Council of the City of Plainfield.

JAMES T MacMURRAY,
City Clerk of the City of Plainfield.
Dated, December 13, 1899. 12 19 td

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS.
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Hire for Picnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing,
Gas Pitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections.
210 PARK AVE.

H. J. Gayle. 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

THE
First National Bank,
of Plainfield, N. J.
Capital $200,000.
Surplus and Profits $ 90,000.
J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. EATIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.
DIRECTORS.
Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Coriell.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.
VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

FALL OPENING.
WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.
OUR STOCK COMPLETE

We are now ready to fit either man or boy in Suits, or Overcoats, Hats and Gent's Furnishings.

Boys' Suits from 75c to $5 00.
Men's Suits from $2.00 to $20.00.

Have you tried a pair of our Celebrated Cassimere Pants at 98c the pair, if not do so—they are the talk of the town; sold over 1,000 pairs the past season; never rip and fit to perfection. Give us a call.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,
206 West Front Street.

BUY YOUR PHONOGRAPHS,
Gramophones, Records and Supplies
A GOOD MACHINE AT $5.00.
BROKAW'S . . .
The Piano Dealer, 123 East Front Street.

FIRE!!! When you hear the alarm at midnight, you can feel secure, at small cost, by knowing that you have an insurance policy issued by
ELSTON M. FRENCH.
Largest agency in the city
163 North Ave., opp. depot.

7000 BU. of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last. Order Quick.
Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS
Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.
at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use
REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT,
Made only by
T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,
At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.
Sherwins,
149 W. Front St.

WANTED
25 Mechanics

and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.

Agent on the Grounds
SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.

. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

Holiday Goods.

Why you should see our assortment; a walk through our store will be the easiest way to solve the problem of what to get for presents for young and old.

Our line of fancy articles consists of everything imaginable in Celluloid, Plush and Glass Ware.

Handkerchiefs, gloves, neckwear, hosiery, umbrellas and dress goods of all kinds and all prices. Furs and worsted goods of every description.

DOLLS . . .

Dolls of all kinds can be found on our doll counter, our assortment is bewildering in their novelty, extent and attractiveness. Our prices are lower than any other house will quote for the same article.

TOYS -:- -:-

Our Toy Department in the basement is larger than ever before. No such collection was ever gathered here before, and it is safe to say there is no better stock in town in point of variety, there is no stock in town that equals ours in prices that's certain.

Children's velocipedes, tricycles, battleships, iron toys of all kinds, tool chests, wash sets, soldier sets, dishes, horse and wagons, chairs, printing presses, electric batteries, express wagons, magic lanterns, etc.

I. H. Boehm, 109-111-113 West Front Street

GEN. METHUEN IS IN A FIX.

British Cannot Turn Flank of Boer Position.

TROOPS GO TO BULLER.

Canadians Sent From Cape Colony to Natal—The Boers Seem to Have Been Lucky to Escape Defeat at Their Last Battle—Their Loss Was Heavy.

Modder River, Cape Colony, Dec. 29. 11.30 A. M.—The British outposts toward Magersfontein were astonished last night to hear two reports from the big guns of the Boers, which were followed by a tremendous fusillade all along their front. Lights were seen going rapidly to and fro.

The British were at a loss to understand the sudden illumination and activity, but concluded that the Boers were alert against a supposed night attack.

There was a British reconnaissance this morning due west from the camp by a force of cavalry and artillery under General Babington. The object was to discover how far the Boer lines extended.

It was found that the enemy holds a position as far as two isolated kopjes, many miles west of the railway, making a turning movement to the west almost impossible owing to the great distance to be covered in a rough country where there is no water.

Heavy Boer Losses.

Cape Town, Dec. 29.—The colonel commanding the Canadian contingency of troops, Col. Russard, is to join the staff of Gen. Buller, all of whom are proceeding to Natal, indicating that Gen. Buller's sphere will shortly be confined to Natal.

A man named Green, a former Sergeant-Major of the British balloon department, is among the Boer prisoners captured at Magersfontein.

Green, who deserted from Aldershot in 1893, admitted he had been some time in the service of the Boers and had instructed them in trenching. He says there were 23,000 Boers at Magersfontein, 21,000 of whom were engaged the day of the battle.

The Boer losses, he also asserts, were very heavy, the trenches being full of dead.

He declares that if the British attack had been pressed the Boers would have yielded, and says the Boer horses have to be taken to Modder River, as water is so scarce at Magersfontein.

Moody's Successor.

Springfield, Mass., Dec. 29.—The trustees of the Moody schools have met in East Northfield, but, as all were not present, another meeting will be held in New York early next year.

"Will" R. Moody, oldest son of Dwight L. Moody, will undoubtedly be chosen the responsible head of the schools. On his deathbed Mr. Moody committed the schools to the care of his sons, to A. P. Fitt, his son-in-law, and to A. G. Moody, his nephew.

The new head of the family is a graduate of Yale. After leaving college he travelled with his father abroad, and for a time was in charge of the business affairs of the schools at Mount Hermon. He received biblical instruction from his father, and greatly assisted in the evangelical and school work. He inherits much of his father's fervor.

He married the daughter of Major Whittle, an evangelist. They have buried two children, and the death of the little ones was a great sorrow to the late Mr. Moody. Another child was born to them only a few weeks ago.

An appeal to the world to provide funds for the continuation of the work begun by Mr. Moody has been issued by the trustees.

Dinner Host to Wed.

New York, Dec. 29.—Many of the friends of Herbert Barnum Seeley, the grandson of P. T. Barnum, and the host of the famous "Seeley dinner" in Sherry's three years ago, will be surprised to earn that he will be married at noon New Year's day.

Mr. Seeley's bride will be Miss Lucie Mitchell, the pretty and accomplished daughter of Mrs. A. P. Mitchell, of No. 33 West Seventy-first street. The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride's mother by the Rev. Father Taylor, pastor of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, at Seventy-first street and the Boulevard.

Miss Mitchell is a pronounced brunette, rather short, with a well-rounded figure, and is less than twenty years old. Her father died about three years ago. He had done literary work of merit. The young woman has two brothers. The Mitchell home is only a few doors distant from the Hotel Majestic, where Herbert Barnum Seeley is making his home at present.

Japan Prepares to Fight Russia.

Victoria, B. C., Dec. 29.—The City of London, from the Orient, confirms the news of a prospective war between Russia and Japan. Her officers say that Japan is now of the opinion that hostilities will break out between these two nations in the spring. Before the steamer left Japan the insular kingdom was buying up great quantites of rice, and even going as far to make arrangements for transports to make a demonstration in Korea. Great activity prevails on all sides in Japanese naval circles. A Shanghai report says that Russia has dispatched a fleet of three warships to Masampo, the bone of contention, which is now causing strained relations between the two nations.

Mrs. Dewey's Surprise.

Washington, Dec. 29.—Mrs. Dewey, the wife of the gallant Admiral, is to revive an old custom at her New Year's Day reception. She has announced that women will be welcome on that occasion, and there is no doubt that hundreds will be there to shake hands with Admiral Dewey. Hostesses are taking this as a precedent and other wives of department chiefs may do the same thing. This custom was killed during the Cleveland administration, when the crush became as dense that an order was issued that women would not be welcomed at official New Year's receptions.

The cakes of Ivory Soap are so shaped that they may be used entire for general purposes, or divided with a stout thread into two perfectly formed cakes for toilet use. For any use put to, Ivory Soap is a quick cleanser, absolutely safe and pure.

A WORD OF WARNING.—There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

COPYRIGHT 1899 BY THE PROCTER & GAMBLE CO. CINCINNATI

BRYAN IN THE CHASE.

How He and Gov. Hogg Captured the Panther.

Austin, Texas, Dec. 29.—William J. Bryan has returned home from an all day hunt, in which a panther was captured alive. He was with a party of about one hundred Austin sportsmen, headed by former Governor Hogg. About fifty hounds and several guides accompanied them. All the hunters were mounted. Colonel Bryan was attired in a handsome hunting suit of corduroy, and was mounted on a fast and steady Texas mustang.

A panther had been kept in its den for three days in the mountains about fifteen miles west of the city, a barricade having been placed over the mouth of the cave. The animal was released about an hour before the party arrived, and rushed out for something to eat.

The dogs upon their arrival took the trail and followed it through five miles of rough country. The panther had gone in a westerly direction in a mesquite prairie full of low shrubbery, mesquite trees and cactus. It led the dogs a merry chase, doubling on its trail twice. The dogs were fully two hours treeing the animal.

Mr. Bryan and Mr. Hogg, who had a small fox terrier with him, and as the tree in which the panther had taken refuge was aslant, the little animal ran up it like a cat, and was sent flying twenty feet by a blow from the panther. It immediately returned to the fight and was knocked away a second time.

Several men ventured to the tree, and with poles forced the panther to spring on the ground. The dogs immediately attacked it, and several of them were disabled at once. The panther then retreated to a nearby cave. It was smoked out and took refuge in a hedge in the open prairie.

Several expert users of the lasso volunteered to capture the animal, and two of them caught it at the same time. It was forced out of the hedge by the dogs. They were able to keep it at a safe distance from either until an improvised pen was made, in which the panther was coaxed. Then it was brought to this city.

None of the party was permitted to carry any firearms. Many of them had their clothing torn by the mesquite and cactus while riding in the chase, and had their faces, hands and legs lacerated. The legs of the horses were badly cut up. Mr. Bryan sad it was a treat, indeed.

FENIAN LEADERS.

They Seem to Think Canada Would Be an Easy Mark.

New York, Dec. 29.—Relative to the attitude of the Irish revolutionary societies toward the government of Great Britain at the present juncture of affairs, the Evening Post quotes an officer of the Clan-na-Gael as saying:

"England can only be made to feel by physical force, and we're now going to give her some Boer treatment. We did intend going out and sinking that first expedition from Canada to South Africa, but thought it better to wait a little while. We can mobolize men without much difficulty for an attack on Canada, and we are fairly well armed—as well as the United States troops in the Spanish war. We have lots of Springfield rifles and are handy with the bayonet.

"No decision has been arrived at yet. Everything will depend on the immediate future. We have either regiments or companies all over the United States and are fairly well drilled, and a great many of our men are in the militia.

"The Ancient Order of Hibernians has really nothing to do with this. It numbers about 250,000, and a majority of its members belong to our organization. All its officers do, and so, of course, it will act with us. We have lots of men in the regular army—camps or clubs in every post—and even if they were sent against us to stop us on the border they would either march across with us or give us blank cartridge.

"If it is decided to attack Canada we shall do all in our power to keep matters so secret as not to embarrass the government until we are actually on the border. The French population in Canada would be with us, and there are numbers of our own countrymen ready to welcome us. Canada would be an easy mark. We would have the Canadian loyalists on the run in a week."

NOW IS OUR TIME.

But Germany is Improving the Chance to Extend Shipping.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 29.—Charles H. Cramp, in speaking of the extensive shipping facilities which England is employing in the conduct of the South African war, said:

"No war in the history of Europe has ever used so much of the great transportation facilities of the ocean.

"To-day practically every fast trans-Atlantic liner in the merchant marine service of England has been impressed into the transport service, and the effect will be most marked in the carrying trade of that country.

"Germany is already securing a very profitable foothold in trans-Atlantic navigation, and she will maintain it for years to come.

"A sudden termination of the war would not result in the immediate return of those vessels to their former avocations. Some of them may be lost, others will be used for different purposes and still others will have become obsolete.

"Germany's merchant marine is assuming large proportions, and her ocean-carrying trade is increasing rapidly.

"She will leave no stone unturned to take advantage of the present situation, which will prove beneficial to her interests."

She May Guess Right.

Paris, Dec. 29.—Apparently inspired by the vagueness of Mme. Thebe's predictions for 1900, Octave Uzanne has sought more precise details from a rival charlatan—that is to say, cheiromancier.

She seems to flout Mme. Thebe's declaration that Venus will be the ruling influence next year, by prophesying that 1900 will be a more terrible year than 1870, the year which the French know as "l'Annee terrible par excellence.

Clouds of blood and mourning are to burst over many points of the universe within the year of the peace congress. Formidable battles will have been fought. Two important personages will die before springtime—Victoria and the Pope. The latter will be succeeded after two days' conclave by Cardinal B. The United States will encounter insurmountable difficulties in the Philippines, and will be unable to overcome the resistance of the natives.

He Still Holds Out.

Woodbridge, N. J., Dec. 29.—Terrorized by a "blue gum" negro giant, who insists impartially upon carving with an axe each and every inhabitant of the place who attempts to put him out, this village is in a very uncomfortable frame of mind. Policeman Murphy is uneasy, too, for upon him has devolved the duty of informing the giant of a warrant for his arrest. An axe is not always an easy thing to approach, and when it is backed up by blue gums it is a very dangerous article indeed. Nevertheless, Policeman Murphy vows he will do his duty. The negro who is holding at bay an entire community is David Whitehead, a half-witted Hercules. His strength has long been a marvel throughout the countryside. Nor has it diminished for years, for David was once a slave "down souf for de wah." When the war ended and he got his freedom he wandered north and finally reached Woodbridge, where he settled down and became a fixture.

New Russian Notes.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 29.—An imperial decree just made public directs the issue of two new series of notes, bearing 3 per cent. interst and dated Jan. 2, 1900, to take the place of notes of the Imperial Bank amounting to 55,516 00 roubles, which are subject to redemption. The treasury and State Bank will receive the new notes for all payments, but the public will not be bound to accept them.

"I will give you £1,000," said an Irishman to an old gentleman, "if you don't stand in your own light." "How?" "You have a daughter, and you intend to give her £10,000 as a marriage portion?" "I do." "Sir, I will take her with £9,000.—Boston Traveler.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

305 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week
$5 a year—in advance.
No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada
Delivered by carrier or by mail.
The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district
Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on request.
Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., DEC. 29, 1899

COMING EVENTS.

Dec. 31—Adjutant Emily C. March will speak at the men's rally at the Y. M. C. A. at 4:15 p. m.
January 1—Open house at Y. M. C. A. All men are invited.
January 1—Mons. DeVilliers and Miss Carolyn Leyng in Y. M. C. A. Star Course.
Jan. 2—Meeting of Missionary Study Class of the Y. M. C. A.
Jan. 8—Meeting of Literary Society of the Y. M. C. A.

The Fingerhuth Sentence.

The editor of the Jersey City News, though endowed with the ability of being bright and entertaining in his writings, seems to take a pessimistic view of nearly everything which he discusses in his editorial columns. On the disposition of the murder charge against Mrs. Fingerhuth he says:

The sentence imposed upon Henrietta Fingerhuth, the cold blooded murderess of Paul Roericht, is an outrage upon justice and a direct encouragement to crime. The killing was almost totally devoid of palliating circumstances. The jury would have been amply justified in sending the woman to the gallows. Indeed it is hard to imagine any reason why they did not do so, except that mawkish sentimentality which makes it possible for women, in the present day, to commit almost any crime with practical impunity. This case can only have one logical result, an epidemic of vengeful crimes by women of reckless character and unrestrained impulses.

The News man is too severe in his criticism. There were many mitigating circumstances in the killing of Roehricht, acts that went a great way towards palliating the offense with which the prisoner was charged. It was not "mawkish sentimentality" that caused a light punishment for the unfortunate prisoner, but rather a fine appreciation of justice accompanied by mercy that has met with the unanimous approval of the community that was most concerned in the affair. The judicial history of Somerset county does not show that the courts have been unduly lenient with the crimes committed in that bailiwick, and The News editor can rest assured that the reason Mrs. Fingerhuth was shown mercy was because she deserved it.

On top of the discovery of a scientific treatment for the perpetual renewal of youth comes the scarcely less important announcement of two French physicians, Sappeller and Thebault, of a specific serum against alcoholism. The serum is derived from a horse which has been "primarily rendered alcoholic by artificial means," and gives to the dipsomaniac a lasting distaste for alcoholic drink. What eventually becomes of the horse is not, since the advent of the automobile, of much moment, comments the Philadelphia Times.

There is no close season for advertising, unless the merchant desires a close season for business, says the Philadelphia Record. Continuous advertising brings the best results; and the wide-awake merchant is satisfied only with the best of everything.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND.

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

The Plainfield Press is wrong in saying that Coroner Gray of Summit has not qualified. The doctor attended to that business last week.—Westfield Republican.

* * * * *

Bernardsville is talking of a borough again. Last year a bill was introduced in the Legislature but there was so much division among the people interested about the advisibility of such a plan that it failed to become a law.—Somerville Unionist Gazett.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

There is a toothless citizen of Clayton just now mumbling curses on his luck. He dropped his false teeth a few nights ago while levying a contribution from his neighbor's woodpile. The neighbor found the grinders next morning and cheerfully offers to exchange them for the missing wood, but thus far the offer has not been accepted.

* * * * *

The Hackensack Republican having stated that Editor Chamberlain, of the Hasbrouck Heights News-Letter, had married a widow, is thus set right by the happy bridegroom—"We have the supreme pleasure of being her first husband. We hope the Republican does not think us so slow as to take a widow when there was something better to be had."

* * * * *

The Postal Telegraph Co., with its characteristic enterprise, is now prepared to accept telegrams for points in Alaska, British Columbia and the northwest territory. The messages to the Klondike are accepted with the understanding that they will be transmitted by telegraph to Seattle, Wash., Vanconver, B. C., or Victoria, B. C., and forwarded by first steamer to Skagway and thence transmitted over Government telegraph lines to their destination. Owing to the steamer service being irregular and slow messages are often delayed in transit. It is not known, therefore, how long it will take to send a message to this far off country, neither is it known what the exact cost cost would be to some of these extreme norther points.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM.

A Worthy Object.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—Inquiry being made concerning an item of news in a recent issue of your valuable paper, in regard to the earnest appeal for immediate action, sent out by Department President Lottie Durell, of the Women's Relief Corps of New Jersey, for furnishing rooms in the "New Jersey Home for Disabled Soldiers, Sailors, or Marines and Their Wives," at Vineland, New Jersey, I would say this Home was organized under an act of the Legislature, approved, April 20, 1898. It was suggested to the board of managers that the Women's Relief Corps and other kindred associations throughout the State, demonstrate their fraternity and charity towards the old comrades, who with their aged mates, will find a home and comfort for their declining years in this institution. The board has now given Winfield Scott Corps, No. 10, of Plainfield, the great privilege of furnishing one bedroom in this Home, over the door of which a tablet, bearing the name of the donor, will be permanently displayed.

Each room will contain an iron bedstead with brass trimming, wire spring, matresses and necessary bedding, one bureau with mirror, one washstand, one wardrobe, one arm chair, one rocker, and one plain chair, all in solid oak, the entire sent to cost $50 00.

Mrs. Isaac Brokaw,
35 Duer street.

'99 COUNCIL IS BUT MUNICIPAL HISTORY

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

and moved that the tax of $116 be marked as "assessed by error." The other two cases were reported adversely. The committee moved that Elizabeth D. Vail, of LaGrande avenue, be allowed an assessment of $114 23, as it was "assessed by error."

One very important matter was introduced by Mr. VanHerwerden. It was in reference to the sale of property under the Martin Act, and he offered a resolution to the effect that inasmuch as six months had expired, that the collector is required by law to give four weeks notice to sell such property. The resolution provided that the sale take place on some date between January 25th and February 15th, 1900.

Mr. Hetfield took exception to this move and suggested that the matter be referred to next year's Council. Mr. Barrows in opposition said that it was clearly the work of the present Council and he urged that the action be taken as the matter had already been delayed long enough.

The Council then took a recess for a half hour to allow the City Clerk to write the minutes of the meeting, after which they were approved by the members. The Council then adjourned sine die and the Common Council for 1899 passed into history.

Homer Smith, of Prospect avenue, who has been detained at home by illness, is now able to go to business.

Mrs. Dan S. Roberts, of North avenue, and her guest, Miss Tooker, of Chicago, are visiting relatives at Scranton, Pa.

Mr. Prall and family, of New York, have come to this city and will make their home with Mrs. Noe, of LaGrande avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. LaRue, of Somerset street, are enjoying a visit from Mrs. LaRue's sister, of Orange, and her daughter.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it; no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,
122 East Front Street.

Just For A Day
IN OUR
BASEMENT!

Solid Oak Writing Desk and Bookcase, value $12.98, only a few at - $9.69

Bookcase in Golden Oak, 27 in. wide, 55 in. high, value $3.50, 6 to go at $2.87

$5.98 Oak Writing Desk - - - $4.98
9.45 " " " - - - 7.98
9.95 " " " - - - 8.40
11.40 " " " - - - 9.80

$15.00 Full-size Couch, Best Steel Springs, six styles Figured Velours, extra value at - - - - - $10.50

Solid Oak 5 drawer Chiffonier, value 6.50, for Saturday - - $4.98

A full line of Chiffoniers up to $19.95.

18-in Top Oak Tables - - - 85c
22-in " " " - - - 1.25
24-in " " " - - 1.48
A special 20-in Birdseye Maple Table $1.98

Tables at 2.98, 3.75, 4.48, 4.98.

These Goods Cannot be Duplicated in the Town for the Price.

LAMPS! LAMPS! LAMPS!

Lamps at 1.98, 2.98, 3.48, 3.98 and 4.98, that are exceptional good values.

Toilet Sets in Domestic and imported porcelain from 1.98 to 12.00.

Doll Carriages and Go-Carts.

If in doubt what to give the little girl for Christmas buy her a Go-Cart for her doll. We have them in infinite variety, from 49c to 4.98.

MORRIS CHAIRS.

Solid Oak Frame, Velour Cushions, extra large and roomy, - - - 4. 98
In Denim Cushions, - - 3.98
High Grade Morris Chairs from 6.48 to 14.98

FANCY ROCKERS.

4 styles, some in Fancy Velours, spring seat, saddle seat or leather seat at - - 2.98
Others in oak and mahogany - 3.48 to 5.00

WOODHULL & MARTIN,
234, 236, 238, 246 W. Front Street.

PECK'S CORNER.

PECK is in the . . . . . FRONT RANK
Because he deserves it.

Salaried Position Offered -:-
- to a -
Bright, Active, Reputable Young Man,
as Manager of
A Live Up-to-date Newspaper and Trade Journal.
Experience Not Necessary . . .
Apply to . . .
SILAS D. DRAKE,
175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

An Annual . .
. . Clearing Sale

of our entire stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's suits, reefers, overcoats, ulsters and heavy-weight trousers begins this Saturday and will last for a short time only.

All MEN'S OVERCOATS that were sold at 7.00 and 8.00, clearing sale price 4.25 and 4 75.
All MEN'S OVERCOATS that we sold from 8.50 to 10.00, clearing sale price 5 50.
350 extra fine OVERCOATS, former prices from 12.00 to 15.00, clearing sale price 6 50 and 7 00.
MEN'S ULSTERS reduced from 7.00 to 4.50.
Best Shamrock IRISH FRIEZE ULSTERS, reduced to 6.50, former price 12.00.
1,000 Men's and Youth's heavy weight suits of all descriptions, styles and qualities, which we must and will sell regardless of cost or value. 5.00 suits to be sold at 2 75. 7.50 suits to go at 4 50. 10.00 suits to go at 5 75, and all others in proportion. Children's Suits at 1.00, worth 2.00. 2.50 Child's Suits to go at 1.45.
2,000 pairs of Men's Trousers to be included in this sale at 1.00, 1.50, 2.00 and 2.25. Boys' Knee Pants with double seat and double knees at 20c.
Men's fleece lined underwear at 30c, worth 50c. Men's winter caps at 15c. Working shirts at 15c, and thousands of more bargains at this great clearing sale. Call early and avoid the great Saturday rush.

Will Pay Carfare to all Buyers of Clothing.

New York Clothing Company
M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.
Plainfield, N. J.

The Miller Oil Heater

One kind only.

JOS. W. GAVETT,
318 WEST FRONT STREET.

THE BOOT SHOP
AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,
107 Park Avenue.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.
Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.
Capital, $150,000.
Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.
CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.
DIRECTORS.
Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Closson. H. G. Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold. J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J. B. Coward.
General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

CHARLES ARNOLD,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats,
POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON
203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.
Telephone 238.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, December 29.—An event of considerable interest to the citizens of this place and particularly the members of the Baptist church will be the celebration at Asbury Park next Monday—New Year's—of the 79th birthday of the Rev. Levi O. Grinnell, a former pastor of the Baptist church of this place. The occasion is also the date of Rev. Mr. Grinnell's golden wedding anniversary as well as the 50th year of his entering the ministry. The memorable occasion will be celebrated at the home of Dr. Williamson, his son in law, with whom the Rev. and Mrs. Grinnell make their home. While pastor of the Baptist church in this place the Rev. Mr. Grinnell lived in the house at present occupied by Lloyd Nelson on the New Market road. Mr. Grinnell, who is still in the harness, preaches every Sunday at Belmar, N. J. He is a son of the late Rev. Zelotes Grinnell, who preached in Paterson until he died at the age of 83 years. His brother, Dr. Zelotes Grinnell, is a prominent citizen of Detroit, Mich. Rev. Mr. Grinnell, who is nearly an octogenarian, left here about five years ago. He was well liked and many friends will wish to extend congratulations on the auspicious occasion referred to above.

The scandal which has been food for gossip in church circles the past few weeks was dissipated Wednesday evening at a meeting of the officers of the Presbyterian church when everything was satisfactorily adjusted and certain charges that had been made were explained and withdrawn. Pastor Martine and the much maligned members shook hands and made up. However, it is possible that Rev. A. I. Martine may tender his resignation at an early date.

Henry V. Dunham, a well-known citizen, was tendered a surprise Wednesday evening by a number of friends who gathered to celebrate his 71st birthday. There were about forty guests present, who enjoyed a pleasant evening and bountiful refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Randolph have returned from a visit with relatives at Jersey City.

Conductor Morris Baraick has been entertaining his father from Chester, this State.

Percy Abbott has returned from a visit with his grandparents at Somerville.

Mrs. Sherman Cooley, of Flemington, has been visiting her sister, May Apgar.

Miss Virgie Tunison has returned from a visit with relatives in Jersey City.

Alvah Gray has been entertaining his sister, Elizabeth Gray, of California.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, December 29.—The Baptist Sunday-school held their Christmas exercises in the Auditorium of the church last evening. An interesting programme consisting of recitations, scripture reading, carols and addresses were rendered, after which the presents which had been left by "old Santa" were distributed. Each child and member of the school was remembered and received some little remembrance of the happy season, Rev. Mr. Shott receiving a purse of money from the members of the church and congregation. The presentation was made by Mr. George E. Hall, a former superintendent of the school.

The scholars of the Episcopal Sunday-school celebrated their annual Christmas entertainment at their church last evening, and a very enjoyable affair it proved to be. The teachers and scholars had arranged a very entertaining programme which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Each child of the school was made happy by receiving beside their present left by St. Nicholas a box of candy.

At the close of the weekly prayer meeting in the Baptist church this evening, a meeting will be held to elect officers for the Sunday-school for the ensuing year.

Mr. F. A. Miller and daughter, Miss Cora, have returned from a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Morey and child are visiting at the home of Mr. Morey's parents at Syracuse, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Strong, of Boston, Mass., are the guest of Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Westcott, of Fanwood.

Miss Nina Saber, of the corps of teachers, is spending a week at her home in Cortlandt, N. Y.

Mrs. George L. Dunn and children, have been the guest for several days of relatives in Newark.

Bon Ami

The Finest Cleaner

MADE. IT WILL NOT SCRATCH OR WEAR ANY SURFACE, YET IT CLEANS THE DIRTIEST PERFECTLY.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders

—The regular missionary meeting will be held this evening at Warren chapel.

—There will be a watch-night service next Sunday evening at Monroe Avenue church.

—The Borough Board of Education will hold its regular meeting next week Tuesday evening.

—The board of governors of the hospital will meet in regular session Tuesday evening of next week.

—Mons. De Villiers and Miss Carolyn Layng in Y. M. C. A. Star Course Jan 1st, at 8 p. m. See ad.

—The Borough Public Schools will reopen next week Wednesday after being closed for the holiday season.

—There was an important meeting Wednesday evening of the W. S S. Club, when one member was received.

—The election of officers in Perseverance Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will be held at the meeting this evening.

—The regular meeting of the McAll Auxiliary will be held at the Public Library next Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock.

—The service at the First Baptist church under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society will be of special interest.

—Next Sunday there will be special Christmas exercises at Warren chapel, similar to the programme rendered at the Crescent Avenue church last Sunday.

—Fred Endress, the butcher, has a first-class market in every respect and deals in only choice meat and game of all kinds for which his prices are reasonable.

—"Open House" at the Y. M. C. A. January 1st, New Year's Day, 3 to 10 p. m. From 4 to 5, exercises and games in gymnasium. A cordial invitation to all men.

—It requires skill and care to do good laundry work, but the the City Steam and Hand Laundry makes a specialty of good work. Try them and get trading stamps.

—The Junior Endeavor Society of the Park Avenue Baptist church will hold a Christmas service this afternoon in the church parlors. It is entitled "Christmas in Many Lands."

—Commencing with next week the clerks at Woodhull & Martin's dry goods store will commence to enjoy their Christmas vacation of one week with pay. They will take their vacations in turns.

—The Loyal Temperance Legion will hold its annual Christmas entertainment in the W. C. T. U. rooms tomorrow evening. All the members and their parents are invited to be present. A pleasant entertainment has been arranged.

—A few days ago while Edward Maynard, sexton of the First Baptist church, was driving a nail in a board the head flew off and struck his eye, making it very sore. For a time Mr. Maynard thought he might lose the eye, but it is now improving.

—At the East Third Street mission entertainment this week a presentation of a watch used by blind folks was made to Percy Cannon, the blind piano tuner. Will Richards, who was instrumental in securing the present, desires to thank all who assisted him.

WESTFIELD.

(Special Correspondence to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, Dec. 29—The Social Club bowling team, made up of two members of that team and three from the Westfield Club, went to New York last night and defeated the West Side Republican Club team two games by scores of 755 to 739 and 805 to 737. The Westfield team was made up of Walter Smith, Chauncey Smith, E. J. Whitehead, C. E. Pearsall and H. R. Forster.

The special school meeting for the purpose of asking for an appropriation of $50,000, with which to build a new primary school building in Westfield and a new house at Mountainside, will be held at the Westfield Club hall tonight.

Dan Runkle, of Yale University, is spending the holidays at his home on West Eighth street.

Prof. Frank L. Miller, formerly assistant superintendent of the High School, but now of Chicago University, paid a flying visit to Plainfield today and called on some of his acquaintances. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Janes, of First place Prof. Miller was in Plainfield twelve years.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Miss Swackhamer, of Whitehouse, is visiting Plainfield relatives.

Mrs. K. J. Thompson, of Raritan, has been visiting Plainfield relatives.

Miss Julia Clark, of New York, has been visiting friends in this city for a time.

John Stelle, formerly of Plainfield, has been in town calling on his acquaintances.

Miss Schultheis, of New Brunswick, has returned home after a visit with borough relatives.

P. S. Leichtentritt, of Central avenue, has returned from a visit with New York friends.

Miss Francis Thorn, of New York, has returned after a short visit with Plainfield relatives.

Miss Henrietta Bonnell, of Manning avenue, has returned from a visit with New York relatives.

Mrs. George Lowerie, of this city, has been visiting her brother, Alex Annin, of Liberty Corner.

Mrs. Connolly, of the borough, who has been visiting relatives at Basking Ridge, has returned home.

Miss Merrill, of Newark, has returned to Newark after a pleasant visit with Plainfield friends.

Charles Dunham and wife, of Bound Brook, have returned after a short visit with borough relatives.

Miss May D. Thompson, of Belvidere avenue, returned today after visiting relatives at Finderne.

Miss Edna Allen, of New Brunswick, has returned home after a pleasant visit with borough relatives.

Mrs. Fitch, of Westfield, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Darling, of Prospect avenue.

Night Baggagemaster Heneen, of the North Avenue station, is on the sick list. His illness is not of a serious nature, however.

Councilman George P. Mellick, of LaGrande avenue, has so far recovered from the injury to his foot that he is now able to walk without the aid of a cane.

Among the guests at the Assembly at Flemington last night were E Maxwell Honeyman, of Grove street, and Ernest H. Rapalje, of Fairview avenue.

J. Vincent Rittenhouse, of East Sixth street, who is home from Lehigh University on his Christmas vacation, has gone to Morristown to visit relatives.

Lewis E. Waring, of Park avenue, has returned after spending a month in southwestern Texas with his brother, Richard, who is now established on a ranch there.

Frank Hyde, of Worcester, Mass., formerly of this city, and a member of the class of '95 of the Plainfield High School, was in town yesterday visiting his friends here.

LATE JOSIAH BROWNE PRAISED.

Resolutions of Condolence Passed by Business Men He was Associated With.

At a meeting of the board of directors of The American Tobacco Company, held on the twenty-sixth day of December, 1899, it was unanimously

Resolved. That we are profoundly grieved at the sudden passing away of Josiah Browne, for many years a director and the secretary of this company. By the death of Mr. Browne this company has lost one of its most highly valued and efficient officers. In him were combined rare qualities of mind and character which not only made him preeminent as a business associate, but also endeared him personally to all with whom he came in contact.

We, the directors, feel and deeply deplore the loss of one of our number, whom it was ever a pleasure to meet.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the daily newspapers and a copy, suitably engrossed, be sent to his sorrowing family.

J. B. Duke,
President.

At a meeting of the board of trustees of Monopol Tobacco Works, held on the twenty-second day of December, 1899, it was unanimously

Resolved, That in the sudden removal, by death, of Josiah Browne, a director and the vice-president of this company, we have sustained an inestimable loss.

His character, combining as it did the rare attributes of an eminent business man with those of a gentle nature, will leave a lasting memory in the hearts of all who enjoyed the pleasure of his acquaintance.

We, the directors, deeply mourn the departure of an associate whose advice we all eagerly sought and the absence of which we shall sadly miss.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the daily newspapers, and a copy, suitably engrossed, be sent to his sorrowing family.

Joseph Von Huppmann,
President.

Carl P. Dietz,
Secretary.

—Press want ads pay

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

SPECIAL SALE OF PERFUMES

—AT—

L. W. Randolph's : : :

143 WEST FRONT STREET.

: : : One Week Only : : :

We will offer great inducements in Lazell's, Lundberg's, Ricksecker's and Wright's Bottle Goods.

25 cent Extracts at	20 cents	1.00	Extracts at	75 cents
35 " " "	25 cents	1.35	" "	1.15
50 " " "	40 cents	1.50	" "	1.25
75 " " "	55 cents	4.00	" "	3.25

Lazell's $500 Cut Glass Bottle will be in the window during this week.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist, 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for TELEPHONE CALL 109

Lowney's and Whitman's Chocolates and Chocolate Bon-Bons.

A Happy New Year To All.

End the old year right by leaving your orders with S. SCHEUER & CO. The Hight Standard quality of our Goods and our exceptionally low Prices make us the popular grocers and butchers of Plainfield. Our Motto, Satisfaction guaranteed or Money Refunded.

Read our Special Prices for

THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY.

Finest XXXX Minn. Patent Flour None better at any price.	bbl 4.38
Finest Gilt Edge Creamery Butter, per lb	28c
Fine Creamery Butter, lb	24c
Extra Fine Lard, lb	6c
Finest Sugar Cured Hams, lb	10c
Finest California Hams, lb	7c
Meat or Link Sausage, our own make, 3 lbs for	25c

Uneeda Biscuit, pkg	3½c	Prime Jersey Turkeys, per lb	16c
" Ginger Wafers	8c	Finest Roasting Chickens, per lb	14c
Libbys 1 lb Plum pudding	10c	Prime Jersey Fowl, per lb	12c
R & R 1 lb Plum pudding	19c	Prime Leg Mutton, lb	10c
French Mixed Candies, per lb	9c	Prime Legs of Spring Lamb, per lb	12c
Fancy Cape Cod Cranberries, qt	8c	Jersey Pork Roast or Chops, per lb	9c
Candied citron, finest	13c	Fresh Pork Shoulders, per lb	8c
Orange or Lemon peel	12c	Forequarter of Mutton, per lb	8c
Cleaned Currants, lb	8c	Forequarter of Lamb, per lb	10c
New Muscatel Raisins per lb	8c	Shoulder Lamb Chops per lb	12c
Extra Fine Cal Prunes per lb	6c	Best Chuck Steak or Roast, per lb	10c
Homemade Fruit Cake per lb	12c	Best Round Steak, lb	16c
Extra fancy Lemons per doz	13c	Best Sirloin Steak, lb	18c
Honey Spice Drops per lb	10c	Fresh Tripe, lb	6c
Extra fancy Table Raisins per lb	18c	Pickled Pigs Feet, lb	6c
Dried Apples per lb	10c	Best Salt Pork, lb	7½c
New Orleans Molasses, per gal.	30c	Lean Breakfast Bacon, per lb	10c
Vanilla Drip Syrup, per gal.	30c	Taylor's Prepared Ham the genuine no salty taste, per lb	12½c
New mixed Nuts, lb	13c	Fancy Table Apples, per bas	35c
Italian Chestnuts, lb	10c	Kiln Dried Sweet Potatoes, per bas	55c
New Brazil Nuts, per lb	10c	Finest Table Celery, 3 bunches	25c
New Paper Shell Almonds per lb	22c	Fancy Red Onions, per bas	35c
Jordan Shelled Almonds per lb	38c

We will receive a choice stock of Florida Oranges, Malaga Grapes, Nuts, Figs, Dates, etc.; also Turkeys, Ducks and Chickens at lowest New York Prices.

S. SCHEUER & CO.,

239-241 West Front Street.

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

THE CLEANSING AND HEALING CURE FOR CATARRH is Ely's Cream Balm

Easy and pleasant to use. Contains no injurious drug.

It is quickly absorbed. Gives Relief at once. It opens and cleanses the Nasal Passages. Allays Inflammation, Heals and Protects the Membrane. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York

CATARRH

COLD IN HEAD

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.

We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1.25.

LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.

Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.

—CHRISTMAS GOODS—

A Big Assortment.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned

Best work for the money in town. Bids on work willingly given. Work done night or day. Get my bid before you have work done.

P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.

T. M. INGRAHAM.

XMAS IS NEAR

Now is the time to order your Xmas greens First come, first served. Holly, laurel and Xmas green wreaths and roping; also loose holly, palms, ferns, jardinieres and wicker baskets for Xmas presents.

MRS. L. J. DENTON,

Stillman Building. Tel. call 731.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN

is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance. 9 North avenue.

WINES made only from selected grapes and cane sugar crystal. Twenty-five cents per bottle and upward.

"THE VINEYARDS,"

Park Ave., corner Cooper St., Fanwood.

12 18 12

CHAS. L. FORCE,

Architect and Superintendent.

208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 31 tf

Ladie Desiring

KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING

done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 208 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.

Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J.
Perth Amboy, N. J.

UNDERWEAR

At Mill Prices : : :

If you could deal direct with the maker he would not be able in most cases to quote you better prices than we will tomorrow.

50c Men's heavy, thick wool, fleeced underwear in natural gray shades, worth 75c.

75c Men's fine natural wool underwear, very soft and heavy, a regular 1.00 quality.

1.00 Men's natural grey underwear, well made and handsomely trimmed, very fine heavy quality, finely knitted and very soft, well worth 1.25.

1.50 Men's extra heavy camels hair underwear, double breasted and well made, remarkable value.

25c Women's ribbed underwear, made of fine Egyptian cotton, good weight and very heavily fleeced, worth 39c

39c A little lot of women's ribbed vests (no drawers to match) in a good shade of blue grey, about half wool and heavily fleeced, worth 69c.

50c Women's fine ribbed combination suits, half wool and heavy fleece lined, reduced from 1.00.

Blankets and Comfortables.

We offer astonishing values in blankets and comfortables.

2.98 Blankets 81 x 90 inches, weight 5 pounds, nearly all wool, that are worth 4.00.

3.98 Blankets extra large and heavy, made of California wool, very soft and downy, that are worth 5.00.

1.25 Extra large size comfortables filled with fine white cotton and covered with fine silkaline nicely tufted, the actual value is 1.75.

3.48 Fine eiderdown filled comfortables covered with a splendid quality of French satin and worth 4.50.

. . . OIL HEATERS . . .

We sell "Brightest and Best," a very superior make of oil heating stoves, 10 inch double circular wick, centre draft, solid brass oil founts with all the modern improvements for safety and economy in the use of fuel. Every stove fully guaranteed to be odorless and give entire satisfaction. The price is 3.50. With bale handles 3.75.

After Christmas.

We're getting ready to inventory. This the season for Broken Lots and probably Broken Prices. We have found one lot already that has got to go. We sold it for $10.00. You can buy it now for $8.50.

OVERCOATS . . .

are now in order, $5.00, $7.50, $10, $12, $13.50.

ULSTERS - - $4.50, 5.50.

Schepflin & Schultz,

CLOTHIERS.

M. J. Cashin, Manager.

322 West Front St.

Ready-to-wear HATS, with knot band and quills, 59c.

Bonn's

140 WEST FRONT ST

VELVET HATS, Tam Crowns, Shirred Brims, $1.49 & $1.69.

Misses' Alpine Hats 69c,

of French Felt, castor, brown, navy and black; real value $1.25, now 69c.

Lined Petticoats $1.89, with a wide flounce and four ruffles of excellent quality satine. At $1.59, a pretty, serviceable moire skirt, velvet bound.

French Flannel Waists $2.98, because they are so desirable and of superior quality, made in the proper style, and here in the wanted colors, is why we tell you of ours so often. We know, and many of our customers know, that our prices are lower than N. Y. stores.

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops

Wieda's

Manufactured at the Premises,

Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda

144 West Front St. Phone. 1138.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Elsaß-Lothringen.

Straßburg. Der hiesige katholische Divisionspfarrer Dr. Pörtner ist in den Reichsmarinedienst berufen und dem Geschwader des Prinzen Heinrich zugetheilt worden. Dr. Pörtner ist ein gründlicher Kenner der orientalischen Sprachen. Er hat sich durch eine außergewöhnliche Kanzelberedtsamkeit, wie durch sein persönliches Auftreten allgemein beliebt gemacht und sein Scheiden wird in der ganzen Gesellschaft aufrichtig bedauert.—Der unter dem Verdacht der Spionage verhaftete Bischheimer Reisende Dubois wurde freigelassen, da sich seine Unschuld herausgestellt hat. Der zugleich mit Dubois verhaftete Brüsseler Reisende Lohr verbleibt dagegen in Haft.

Mülhausen. Professor Dr. Förster vom hiesigen Gymnasium hat von der holländischen Regierung den ehrenden Ruf bekommen, auf Sumatra geologische Untersuchungen zu machen. Dr. Förster hat zu diesem Zweck einen Urlaub unter der Bedingung erhalten, daß er einen Vertreter stelle.

Luxemburg.

Cavellen. Hier erstickte der 35jährige Friedensrichter Friedrich Frangois in seinem Bette durch Kohlengase, die einem Regulirofen entströmten.

Oesterreich.

Wien. An die Allmacht polizeilicher Maßregelungen scheint wenigstens das neue Kabinett Clary nicht zu glauben, denn der Minister des Innern hat verfügt, daß den deutschen, in Oesterreich verpönt gewesenen Blättern, der „Frankfurter Zeitung," den „Münchener Neuesten Nachrichten" und der „Deutsche Wacht" das unter der Aera Badeni und Thun entzogene Postdebit wieder ertheilt werde.—In dem Prozeß gegen das Ehepaar Kutschera trat der Staatsanwalt von der Anklage gegen Rudolf Kutschera zurück, hingegen wurde Maria Kutschera wegen Mordes, begangen an ihrer elfjährigen Stieftochter Anna, zum Tode durch den Strang verurtheilt.

Bozen. Der 87jährige Bischof John Momson aus Manchester, der mit seiner Nichte den Penegal im Mendelgebiete erstiegen hatte, stürzte bei der Rückkehr nach Bozen so unglücklich, daß er eine schwere Verletzung des Schlüsselbeins und verschiedene Kopfwunden erlitt.

Braunau. In den Fabriken der Firma B. Schrolls Sohn dahier, in Oelberg und Halbstadt wurde statt des bisherigen elfstündigen Arbeitstages die zehnstündige Arbeitszeit—von 7 Uhr früh bis 12 Uhr Mittags und von 1 Uhr bis 6 Uhr Abends—eingeführt, ohne daß dadurch die Lohnverhältnisse eine Aenderung erfuhren.

Budapest. Unter Patronanz der Regierung wird, um den Scherereien der österreichischen Behörden entgegenzuarbeiten, der Bau eines großen Schweineexport-Schlachthauses in Oedenburg demnächst in Angriff genommen.

Brugg. Von der Rheinkorrektion wird berichtet, daß bei der neuen eisernen Rheinbrücke in Brugg der mittlere, das ganze Rinnsal überspannende Bogen zur Hälfte vollendet und damit die Brückenarbeit dem Abschlusse nahe ist. Ist dann noch die Brücke in Fußach fertig, dann ist der untere Durchstich so weit vollendet, daß der Rhein in sein neues Bett geleitet werden kann.

Klumetz. Hier rotteten sich nach einer öffentlichen Versammlung etwa 600 Personen zusammen, schlugen in der Wirkwaarenfabrik sowie in den Wohnungen von Israeliten die Fenster ein und verhöhnten die Gendarmen, welche gegen die Ausschreitenden vorgingen. Als dann die Gendarmerie einen Bajonnetangriff machte, zerstreute sich die Menge.

Krakau. Die Direktoren von Wieliezka, Bürgermeister Koch von Wieliezka und der frühere Bürgermeister von Podgorze, Novacki, sowie der Buchhalter Kompit wurden verhaftet. Es handelt sich um Veruntreuungen, angeblich in Höhe von 300,000 Gulden. Bisher sind Wechsel im Betrage von 26,000 Gulden auf den Namen nicht vorhandener Personen vorgefunden worden.

Schweiz.

Bern. In Interlaken cirkulirte jüngst das Gerücht von einem drohenden Bergsturze im Lauterbrunnenthale. Es handelt sich um einen großen Felsblock oberhalb der Station Wengen in unmittelbarer Nähe der Wengernalpbahn, welcher, von der Nähe betrachtet, scheinbar losgelöst und zum Absturz bereit ist. Wie die Untersuchung ergeben hat, ist der Block aber zwischen zwei Felsen eingeklemmt und soll schon viele Jahre so liegen. Man hat schon Versuche gemacht, ihn zu sprengen. Auf alle Fälle kennt die Leitung der Wengernalpbahn die Sache genau und wird sich vor Schaden zu hüten wissen.—Die Bundesversammlung hat an Stelle des abtretenden Präsidenten und Chefs des Militär-Departements, E. Müller aus Bern, den radikalen Bundesrath Walter Hauser von Wädensweil, Zürich, Chef des Departements für Finanzen und Zölle, zum Präsidenten der Eidgenossenschaft für das Jahr 1900 erwählt. In dem jetzt zu Ende gehenden Jahre hat Hauser das Amt des Vizepräsidenten bekleidet.

—Press want ads bring results.

THE GOOD COUNTESS

CAREER OF A NOBLE GERMAN WOMAN.

She Cares for the Body as Well as the Soul of Those Who Need—Sketch of Her Life and Her Noble Work All Over the World.

Think of a noble woman, born in a castle, who basks in the sunshine of royal courts, who is smiled upon by haughty Empresses and fawned upon by time-serving courtiers. Imagine her forsaking all these, bidding farewell to her life of luxury and all the pleasures which come with such a position, facing the world, almost alone, that she may carry comfort to the lowly, cheer to the hungry and the Word of God to the unregenerate.

(Countess Schimmelmann speaking.)

All this, and more, has come to pass in the career of Adeline, the Countess Schimmelmann, of Denmark. For years this gentlewoman has sailed from place to place, her purse and her kindly words ever ready to make easy the thorny path of the unfortunate. No sect nor nation may claim her; whether in the Baltic Sea or on the Great Lakes among those of her nationality or not, her kindly heart overflows with sympathy; she cares for the body as well that the Empress frowned on ex- the deck of her yacht before an exhortation to righteousness.

Ostracism confronted her when she first took up this work; not for a minute did this deter her. After some years she was kidnapped by her own brother, who could not believe his sister was in her right mind when she mingled with the drunkard, the ne'er-do-well, the Godless. He had her locked up in an insane asylum; there she remained for months until her friends obtained her release. Undeterred, she entered into her work with redoubled vigor; she extended her field; in 1898 she came to this country.

"I was born in the Castle of Ahrensburg, in Hollestein, on July 19, 1854," she says. "My father was a Danish Count and peer of the realm. My mother was German. My father was international in his ideas of education. We had French and English, as well as Danish and German, governesses, and I became proficient in all these languages.

"When I was young I was taken to visit at the German court. Empress Augusta took a deep interest in me and asked me to spend several months with her. From that day I divided my time between the Imperial Palace of Germany and my Danish home. I became the pet of the Empress, her first maid of honor. This gave to me privileges none of the other women of the court were allowed to enjoy; I could go and come at my own pleasure. For eighteen years I was at the court, participating in all its brilliant functions. I remember distinctly when Gen .Grant and Mrs. Grant were there that I had a long conversation with the General in the palace.

At the German court the Countess was imbued with those ideas which led her to renounce the world and its pleasures. She never was of the gay set; she does not tell it, but it is related that the Empress frowned on excessive gayety.

A genial, sweet-tempered woman is the Countess. She does not look her 45 years; there is not a gray strand in her brown hair; her eyes of blue are kindly and bright; her complexion as rosy as it was three decades ago. As gentle mannered as may be, there is a quiet dignity in her carriage and actions. Her English is all the more delightful because of a decided accent, but she is a fluent, animated talker. There is no home to which she prefers to her yacht, which, by the way, is schooner rigged and of fifty-three tons register.

Of her work the Countess said:

"I visited fifty-eight cities last year. My plan is to enter a harbor and let the sailors and harbormen know of our presence, have them curious about the yacht and about myself. I then go ashore and if I can rent a hall I speak to the sailors. I try to induce them to give up drinking; the better to do this I establish coffee houses, if possible. I am never patronizing, and the fact that I have left my life of ease behind me and am spending my fortune to advance the cause has much to do, I feel, with winning some of the most hardened ones over to righteousness.

"I have gone from city to city, hoping my example would lead other women to do likewise. I never take up collections at my meetings. I have had contributions from the Queen of Denmark, who died recently, and also from the Princess of Wales."

Asked as to her observations in different cities and in this country, as opposed to the Old World, the Countess replied:

"There is no city so bad as Berlin for drunkenness. Hamburg and all the German towns are most intemperate in the matter of drink. My work in Germany is hard, where even the Christians condemn and ridicule me for advocating temperance. The poverty and intemperance are vastly greater in Old World cities than in America, for here the women are actively engaged in good work. They have told me here in America that some of your cities are wicked. But they cannot exceed the vice and misery of the cities on the other side, and I know, for I have labored in their prisons and slums."

(B)

AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

Free deliveries—quick deliveries—catalogue free.

Forget Some One?

Why not come here and pick out a present now? Call it a "New Year's gift." If you're short of ready cash, we'll fix you up on a credit basis—cash or credit, our prices are lowest known!

$19.98

Was $27.00

Elaborate quartered oak Book Case—desk, swell carved.

"The Only Portland." Many a happy wife's been given a "Portland" range for Christmas—best baker, cheapest to run—all new improvements imaginable!

$3.69

Morris Chairs—solid oak frame—adjustable to four comfortable positions—reversible cushions—worth $5.50.

Look for name "Portland" on oven door plate—and "A. H. Van Horn, 73 Market Street, Newark, N. J." on plate below oven door for the GENUINE.

$4.25

A desk of solid oak, with drawer, and mirror inset in back. Was $6.

$3.49

—tastily carved mahogany finish Rocker, cobbler seat, high arms, $5.00 anywhere else.

$11.98

and upward for mahogany Parlor Cabinets—elegant and well patterned.

Birdseye Maple Table, French legs, highly polished top, was $4.50—now

$2.98

"Domestic" Sewing Machine—swift, silent, strong—a Newark product. Here, cash or easy payments. We're Co.'s agents.

Chenille and Tapestry Portieres, Lace Curtains, Shades, Lamps, Pictures. Large stock of Blankets, Comforters, Mattresses, Pillows, Springs, etc.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,

LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,

Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.

Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

At Hudnut's Pharmacy, 201 Broadway, New York, the young man who sold Ripans Tabules to a customer was asked whether there was much demand for them, and said:

"There's nothing in the store which sells as well as Ripans Tabules do. The demand is as regular and steady as for anything we carry in stock. Young and old, male and female seem to buy them. In fact, they seem to be in general demand. Not only that, but the demand seems to come from all classes. The advertisements create the demand, but their merits back it up."

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. This low priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (120 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER

ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.

169 NORTH AVENUE.

Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phœnix of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW, THE GROCER.

Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods.

Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

The Dying Year.

The year of grace runs swiftly to its close
Its days are dying like the tints of eve;
How soon it sped; we scarcely can believe—
Thus one by one dropt petals of the rose—
That did in beauty on time's stem repose;
It seems somehow eyesight must eye deceive;
And for the loss of our spirits sorely grieve;
Yet here for flowers are falling fast the snow!
So runs the story of our changing life;
It ends a blast in dark December mist;
Fade spring and summer sweet with beauty rife;
Fades all the golden light our being kissed;
But yet for faith a New Year spring to view,
Within the world shall all its good renew!

—William Brunton.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

"Happy New Year!" I said cheerfully to Susan, my sister, as I entered the library, where she was sitting by the fire.

I had just gotten back to town. To my surprise she looked at me indignantly, and declined to return my greeting.

She is a very pretty young woman, full of graces and caprices, but is less pretty when she adopts her present mode of expression.

"Happy New——" I began again, after I had kissed Sue lightly and starting to unfold the morning paper, which I had picked up from the centre table, not having had time to read it all day.

"Tom Waring, if you say that again I will pitch this at you," interrupted Susan, holding up a well-bound book, which she had evidently just removed from a pastboard box on the table.

I naturally laughed.

"I suppose your desire would be to dislocate the very handsome cover of that book? You might aim at me, but you would probably hit the book

("Of that you may be sure," I said.)

case," I remarked, drawing up the biggest and most comfortable chair in the room to the hearth, and ensconcing myself for an hour or two of lazy enjoyment before dinner time, for I was rather fagged by my hurried journey to and from Chichester, a small town sixty-odd miles away.

"Who sent it," I inquired. "Did it come with any good wishes attached, or did you impress on the donor your radical objection to any polite adherence to the good and ancient custom of wishing a Happy New Y——"

"Don't you dare to say it!" warned Susan, holding up the destructive missile with a gesture so very determined that I abruptly came to a halt, not wishing to see Herbert Cameron's illuminated volume—for I had recognized his handwriting on the cover of the book—land in the fire.

By this time Susan's eyes had lost something of their strong aggressiveness and a glint of puzzled laughter was faintly discernible in their warm depths, albeit a wistful shade was gathering over her bonny face.

In capacity of elder brother and guardian to a forlorn little mite of an orphan girl, I had watched over Sue with tenderest care and solicitude for eighteen years.

According to my calculations, if a man's calculation in such matters be of any account, Susan was 21 on the 5th of the month. But very likely, by a feminine process of reasoning, it was all different. Maybe she was 19, maybe 25 in the eyes of herself and girl companions.

"May I inquire, Sis, what your objection is to the good wishes of your friends, and why you desire to destroy that gift of Cameron's?" I inquired, poking up the fire.

"Why, how in the world did you find out he sent it?" asked Sue in wide-eyed surprise.

I silently took the cover of the box, which lay on the table, and turned it toward her. Her name, write in Herbert's big characteristic scrawl, was a sufficient explanation.

"I am," said Sue in a low and subdued tone edging close to me on her divan, "I am in an awful quandary. Something positively terrible. I have been half wild over it all day long; and you were so mean as to stay away up to this hour—4 o'clock in the afternoon!"

Now, considering that I had gone most reluctantly on an urgent telegraphic summons from an old invalid client (and a wealthy one), who desired, I knew, some alterations in his will; that I had done without breakfast, so as to catch the early train; had driven six miles out from the station, in the teeth of a biting north wind; had worked hard all day, and had hurried back to town to dine this special evening at home with my unreasonable young sister, it seemed to me I hardly deserved her present keen reproach, one intensified by the look.

"Just so," I remarked, without attempting an explanation of the whys and wherefores of my enforced absence. "As I am here now, suppose you tell me what the trouble is, little one."

She tossed over to me an open envelope containing a note or letter, and fixed on me a look of surprise and despair.

"Well," I said turning over the missive without reading it. "I can't see how this can interest you so keenly, as it is not addressed to you."

On the envelope was written in Cameron's abominable handwriting, "Miss Louise Morrison."

"That's exactly it," said Sue tearfully. "I opened and read it."

I looked at Sue in astonishment. I knew her to be that exceptional thing, a strictly and scrupulously honorable young fellow—woman, I meant to say. The idea of Sue deliberately opening her friend's letter, especially when she knew—well, never mind.

I was now fully determined not to tolerate Cameron's early and late visits any longer. I would not have him send hothouse flowers to Susan and lavish like attention on Miss Morrison at one and the same time. We would inaugurate a new system with the new year.

"You opened and read this letter?" I asked slowly, possibly with some slight severity, "when you knew it was not written to you?"

Sue flushed deeply, and a look of pained indignation swept over her face.

"Why, Tom, who do you take me for? Of course not! I thought it was for me, or I never would have broken the seal of the horrid thing. It's awful!" added Sue, clasping her hands with a gesture of despair.

"What is it?" I asked bluntly.

"Read it," responded Sue.

"You must read it, Tom, to understand and help me out. Louise will never, never forgive me! and she will never, never, believe that I did not open her hateful letter out of mean curiosity."

For the life of me I could not understand how any man in his senses could fail to appreciate that little girl's immense superiority over Louise Morrison, that unreliable, small-souled young woman, whose vanity was as all-pervading as her astuteness. Two hideous traits.

The letter was—well, a glance sufficed to inform me that it contained the usual rhapsodies and idiocies

"It was in the first page of the book," explained she tearfully," and so, you see, Tom, that was sent to me; so, without noticing the address, I opened and read the nonsensical thing. Do you know, Tom, dear," continued Sue, and in spite of her mortified distress, two lovely dimples crept into the corners of her mouth, "it was by a mere accident I noticed Louise's name on the envelope. It fell on the floor with the address uppermost."

"Well, child," I said, "all you have to do is to notify Cameron of the accident, and let him try his hand at an effusive epistle to his lady love, or enclose this thing just as it is to Miss Morrison and write her an honest explanation of your error. To my mind the first would be the safer plan of the two. It would be a little awkward for you both, and will delay the extremely ready acceptance that is waiting for him, which is a pity, as, if I understand his extremely involved sentences, he is hoping. I believe the fellow wrote 'Pining,' or some such word, this very afternoon. Wants to start out on the new year with a cartload of illusions and fantastic anticipation of coming happiness. Happiness, with Louise Morrison!" I added sardonically. "Why, I venture to predict, on next New Year's he will be looking around for a method of escape."

"I'll send a note to him right off then, Tom," Sue said hurriedly. "It will be my New Year greeting to him," and she laughed brightly.

But my ear could detect a jangle in the sweet notes.

"What infernal fools men are," I soliloquized internally, and from the vantage ground of my old bachelorhood I looked with supreme contempt on the blunders and misapprehensions I could note in the matrimonial ventures of my friends and acquaintances, by which they very determinately brought untold sorrows upon themselves.

"Serves 'em right," I added mentally.

"Harris, take this note around to Mr. Cameron and bring the answer," I directed to the butler who had answered the bell. "You'll be apt to find him in."

Silence fell between us when the door had closed, and I lit a cigar.

Twilight had fallen, filling with its soft shadows the nooks and corners of the library, and outside the bustle and animation of the street was greater than usual, for humanity, with its usual lack of perspicacity, must need celebrate with fireworks and jollity the advent of the incoming year, which is also one less in which the present generation can flaunt and display its folly.

"Well, little one," I said finally, "it's about time to dress for dinner. "By the by, I put a small box from Tiffany on your plate."

"You are a dear old boy," she said, putting her arms around my neck.

I drew her down by my side and kept smoking, while she leaned her head confidingly and sorrowfully on my shoulder.

A carriage dashed up to the house and I heard a pause and the hall door slam

"Mr. Cameron," announced Harris.

As Sue had started up and I was sitting in the shadow, Herbert Cameron evidently failed to perceive me.

"Did you believe it possible," he said, agitatedly and in a pleading voice, leaning forward with outstretched arms, "that I could write a letter to any one but you? To any one the dearest and loveliest woman——"

"Ahem!" I interposed, rising and coming forward. "Good evening, Cameron; glad to see you. Wish you a Happy New Year. Hope you understand Susan's slight mistake in opening Miss Morrison's note."

"Hush, man! Stop!" said Cameron, nearly shaking my arm off. "I wrote that to Miss Waring. Of course you know that by an absurd mistake I put it in an envelope addressed to Miss Morrison, instead of the card I was sending her with a box of candy."

"Oh," I said, endeavoring to extricate my crushed and aching fingers. "Then——"

"Yes," said Cameron, in a low tone, and without releasing me. "Ask her, old fellow, to glorify this New Year for me! Ask her——"

"All right," I hastily interposed, extricating what was left of my hand and hastily retreating towards the door. "Ask her yourself. I have no earthly objection to it."

There should be no "tear" in one's New Year leaves. Such an opening, no matter how big, is a very poor way to carry resolutions out.

A BRILLIANT AFFAIR.

New Year's Reception by the President.

On New Year's Day the chief executive of the nation receives in state the Vice-President, the members of his official household, the chief justice and the associate justices of the supreme court of the United States, the foreign legations, senators and representatives in congress, officers of the army and navy, officials of the District of Columbia and such of his fellow citizens as choose to pay their respects to the President on that occasion. To the President it is no holiday task, as he must go through the ordeal of shaking hands with 8,000 or 10,000 people. Although the New Year's reception begins an hour before noon, custom demands the wearing of afternoon dress.

As there is in this country no officially prescribed court dress, there is nothing in the apparel of the diplomatic and civil officials of the government to distinguish them from other well-groomed men on formal occasions. The officers of the army and navy, however, appear in full dress uniforms and present a brilliant ensemble. One of the chief attractions of the day which the great throng gathered in the capital of the neighborhood of the capital has an opportunity of seeing is the display made by these officers on their march to the White House. The most picturesque feature of the President's New Year's reception is the appearance of the foreign diplomatic corps in their gaudiest and best dress of state. They assemble in the Red Parlor of the White House, with the dean of the corps at their head. This distinction has for a number of years fallen to Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British embassador, who will doubtless continue to hold the place as the oldest in point of continuous service of any of the foreign representatives.

They form a brilliant procession as they proceed to the President's reception room, the embassadors being the first in line, followed by the ministers in order of seniority, each attended by his suit, including secretaries, attaches and such ladies of the legation as desire to attend. The South American diplomats, in accordance with their own peculiar costume, appear in full evening dress. It is the orientals who give the picture its gayest coloring. The Chinese minister and his vast suit wear varicolored gowns of rich and costly fabrics, though the Japanese are not so showy in their state attire. The Turks appear in their red fezzes and the Koreans in their flowerpot hats and are even more gorgeous than the Chinese. After the distinguished and brilliant assembly of officials—state, judicial, diplomatic and legislative—has passed through the reception room and received the president's New Year greeting, an hour is exclusively devoted to citizens, and the chief executive receives and shakes hands in quite democratic fashion with as many of his fellow countrymen as can reach him during the time allotted to the reception.

IN SCOTLAND.

New Year's the Most Important Anniversary.

New Year's is generally celebrated as a season of merrymaking, and the 1st of January is a holiday in many countries. But in Scotland alone, perhaps is the festival considered the most important one of all the year. There the celebration begins on the morning of the last day of the year, when the children of the poor swaddle themselves in great sheets, which are doubled in front to make huge pockets. So costumed the children go to the houses of the rich and ask for oaten bread. As the children enter a house they cry, "Hogmany!" thereupon the housewife drops a quarter of a loaf into each child's pocket. Thus by early afternoon the children are loaded down with rich bread, and sometimes cheese, and go home rejoicing. "Hogmany" is supposed to mean "the sacred moon or month."

In Scotland, New Year's eve is celebrated with the utmost jollity. One of the favorite amusements consists in dressing in guiser, or masquerade costumess, and going serenading. The "guisers" are usually young men, and they are attended by their "squires." After a guiser has serenaded a house custom provides that he shall be paid a half-penny, but he is often beaten instead of receiving the bounty. In bands of from three to six the guisers often go from house to house and perform a drama in the kitchen, while the household looks on and applauds and berates the players, according as the play is well or ill done. Then the guisers are given cakes and strong drink, and are bowed or driven into the street.

Father Time and the New Year.

Beware.

Dan Cupid, with a bow upon four strings,
Begin a wondrous, witching little air;
Ah, when such soft, illusive music wings,
Good sirs, beware.

But when the fair
Dorinda (with four beaus upon a string)
Assuming a wondrous, witching little air—
This is a yet more heartensnaring thing!
Good sirs, take care!

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic For the Week Beginning Dec. 31, "The Heavenly Record"—Text, Luke x, 20; Rev. iii, 1-5.

"Rejoice because your names are written in heaven."

It is a common figure of speech in the Bible, that of record books in which the actions of men are written down and preserved by God and that from these documents the future destiny of each person shall be determined. Perhaps it refers to the custom in oriental lands of having a court historian or chronicler, who preserved in writing the notable events of the times and noted the names of those deserving special remembrance and reward because of eminent service given the king.

The idea is expanded in the book of Revelation and assumes a very poetical form with dramatic force. Malachi closes the Old Testament canon with a similar declaration of a book of remembrance in which God's chosen ones are recorded for reward.

The closing year emphasizes the thought of our past life record. What has it been? With all of us the message of the Spirit to the Lord's church should sound warning: "I have not found thy works perfect before God. Be watchful and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die. Hold fast and repent."

Warning and Promise.

"'Tis greatly wise to talk with our past hours."

This is the time when men take account of stock and figure up gains and losses. He who never strikes a balance sheet may get a living, but can scarcely expect to make much success in business. Men need to reckon up at times and see how their investments are paying. If some ventures are failures, close them out. Beware of similar things in future. What pays well increase and take care of. We must be warned by the past. We need at this time to consider seriously what our course in life is yielding. What way does it shape and tend? "If thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come on thee." That warning sounds as sternly as when spoken to the Sardian people. It applies to us. Again, the promise is equally firm, "He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment, and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels." It will pay to overcome, but is folly to be overcome. We have been sufficiently warned. Let us take heed!

Bishop Gilbert Haven.

He was born in Malden, Mass., in 1821 and died in the old homestead in 1880. He came of good New England Methodist stock, was graduated from Wesleyan university and took a place in the church for which he was well fitted. His was a personality very unlike that of any other man of his time in many particulars. He saw visions of things to be and with great energy set about making them real. He was a reformer and so was feared by many of the timid who dreaded to have old forms disturbed. As he grew old men found him in practical matters soundly conservative of all that was good and safely progressive where advance was needed.

BISHOP GILBERT HAVEN.

His memorable work was done as editor of Zion's Herald and as bishop in the colored work of the south. His death was hastened by African fever contracted on his episcopal tour to Liberia. Whoever came close enough to him to form personal acquaintance found in him one of the most delightful and faithful of friends. He did much to quicken the church to a higher and broader as well as deeper and more intense life

Personal Pledges.

There is much of helpfulness in pledges made to each other among young people. It is not a sign of weakness, but of strength, to join together in any good resolution. A young man awakens to the fact that cigarette smoking is useless, is wasteful, may be harmful and ought to be given up. He resolves to smoke no more. Shall he go alone? He can do so. He is strong enough, but he likes company. He feels interested that others shall see the truth as he sees it. He talks, argues, persuades and induces others to do as he does. They agree. They pledge to each other. This is no surrender of personal liberty, but is a strengthening bond and cementer of friendship and promoter of genuine fellowship.

The League pledge is very valuable. We can well use these covenants in service more fully. Join together in service. Promise each other to be faithful in daily prayer, in testimony in the church meetings, to invite others to Jesus. Pledge and perform.

We are NOW receiving orders for

HUYLER'S

XMAS CANDY,

—to be delivered at—

CHRISTMAS TIME.

Remember the

Only Agency

—IS—

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

Tel. 705.

POWERS' PHARMACY . Somerset St. Craig Place.

Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .

Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot AND Tar is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

Toys, Toys, Toys

for the

HOLIDAYS

—AT—

HARPER'S,

411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Irving Savings Institution.

115 CHAMBERS ST., NEW YORK CITY

The Trustees of this institution have declared interest on all sums remaining on deposit during the three and six months ending December 31, 1899, at the rate of FOUR PER CENT. per annum on amounts from $1 to $3,000, payable on and after Monday, January 22, 1900. Deposits made on or before January 10th will draw interest from January 1st.

W. H. B. TOTTEN, President.
G. BYRON LATIMER, Secretary 12 26 10

NEUMAN BROS.,

GROCERS,

Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

SMALLEY BROS.,

144 North Avenue

BUTCHERS.

Everything usually found in a first-class market.

Orders called for and delivered.

Telephone 83 A.

Advertised Mail Matter.

DECEMBER 26, 1899.

Alder, Master Everitt	Langley, Mr B
Andrews, Miss Grace	Locke, Mr Jno M.
Bohem, Charles	Laury, Mr H W
Carlson, Miss Emmy	McCue, Miss Maggie
Edwards, Miss Lena	Mitchell, W B
Folery, John	Potter, Mrs C D
The Glen Brook Poultry Farm	Rittenhouse, Mr G C
	Utter, Mrs Mary
Hicks, Mr William	Voorhies, Mrs Carrie
Hewitt, Mr William	Watkins, Miss Carrie
Holder, R A	West, Mrs M
Johnson, George	Williams, C Y
Knox, Miss Alice R	Williams, Miss L E
Knox, Rev Chas. E	Wort, Mr Charles L

E. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

H. Eggerding,

121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated

C. O. D. CIGAR.

The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars.

L. A. HUMMER,

VARIETY MARKET.

Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.

163 SOMERSET ST.

Formerly 230 Park Ave. Tel. 28-A.

RUSHMORE & CO.

WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.

Dealers in

Lumber, Coal and Wood

Moulding & Planing Mill.

Turning and Scroll Sawing.

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 29, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 46, 9 16, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 54, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 06, 7 39, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12.00 m, 12 58 1 45, 2 46, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 9 34, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00, 11 59 a. m.; 1 01, 2 08, 2 20, 3 32, 4 35, 5 01, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sundays 5 45, 8 04, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamauqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 8 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3:30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked *) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 19, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N.J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.
Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.
Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.
Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.
Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.
Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket timetables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.

26 Cortlandt St., New York.

FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent, 218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

L. L. Manning & Son,

STEAM GRANITE WORKS,

Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

XXXX QUALITY

FINEST

LOFOTON COD LIVER OIL,

Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.

Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at

39c per Pint.

For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at

50c per Bottle,

or the Tasteless at

75c per Bottle.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,

Hepburn & Co.,

Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,

213 WEST FRONT ST.

Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

98c CAMERA and One Double Plate Holder as shown in our window, for only 98c . . . .

During the rest of this week we will offer CAMERAS and SUPPLIES AT COST.

. . . . COLUMBIA RECORDS . . . .

-:- 30c EACH -:-

All Goods will be sold AT COST. Remember This Week Only.

GEO. W. WRENNICK,

133 NORTH AVE.

Misses' & Children's Cloaks at Greatly Reduced Prices.

The	$5.25	Coats	are now	$1.25
"	4 50	"	"	"	3 60
"	3 95	"	"	"	3.00
"	3.25	"	"	"	2 50

Women's Golf Capes

WILL ALSO BE SOLD AT A REDUCTION OF 20 PER CENT.

I. LEDERER.

OUR SPECIALTIES { Choice Teas. Fine Coffee.

All the Seasonable Goods for the Holidays. Take home one of our baskets of Fruit.

C. E. GULICK & CO.,
Tel. 931. THE PARK GROCERS.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS

Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.

GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.

119 East Front Street.

Our Attractive Holiday Display

awaits your inspection. We are glad to welcome visitors and pleased to show our goods.

A. L. & M. D. Gorsline, 144 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.

Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,

Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.

Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.

WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER

DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

— DEALERS IN —

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agent for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

New Year's Gifts

INCLUDE

Shoes, Slippers, Rubber Boots, etc.

Perhaps you didn't give anything in our line Christmas. If not, now is your chance. We're here to do business with everbody that comes our way, and if you don't get treated properly tell us about it.

VANARSDALE, 127 East Front St.

Repairing Properly Done.

DOLGE FELT SLIPPERS.

We have a good supply yet of Slippers, Rubber Boots, Lambs' Wool Soles Shoes, Dress Suit Cases, Traveling Bags, Telescopes, etc., all of which make useful and appropriate

NEW YEAR'S PRESENTS.

DOANE & EDSALL. . . . .

FURNITURE for the Parlor . . .

Library . . .
Dining-Room . . .
Bedroom . . .

Close at 6 o'Clock.

POWLISON & JONES,

149 and 151 E. Front St.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Dec. 31—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

TOPIC.—The heavenly record.—Luke x, 20; Rev. iii, 1-5. (A New Year's meeting.)

The references in these passages are to the "book of life," an expression of frequent occurrence in the Scriptures. In its figurative use in the Old Testament it is the register of the covenant people. There and elsewhere it also refers to the list which God keeps in heaven of those who are His, whose names, as it were, are written in a book, giving them a title to eternal life. "It contains a list of the righteous and insures to those whose names are written therein life before God first in the earthly kingdom of God and then eternal life also." It is the record book of God, in which He keeps the names of those who are faithful and true to Him in Christ and from which He blots out the names of all who are unfaithful to Him. The reference suggests that—

1. If our names are written in the book of life, it should cause us great joy (Luke x. 20). To the 70 on their return from their missionary tour and their report of their great power—that even devils were subject to them—Jesus said, "Notwithstanding, in this rejoice not that the spirits are subject unto you, but rejoice rather because your names are written in heaven." To have power over evil spirits for the good of mankind would certainly be cause for rejoicing, but how much greater cause for rejoicing is the fact that our names are written in this Lamb's book of life. That record tells us that we are saved—saved for time and eternity. It tells us that we are the children of God and that God is specially interested in us and exercises special care and control of us. If anything in the world can cause us joy, this fact should, and a joy that will manifest itself in gratitude to God and consecration to His service.

2. If our names are written in the book of life, our one aim in life should be to see that they are not blotted out. They may be blotted out. Moses prayed that his name be blotted out for the good of Israel, which of course could not be done. In Rev. iii, 5, Jesus says, "He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment, and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life." This statement shows that it is possible for our names to be blotted out of God's book of life. What a sad catastrophe such a fate would be! If the chief joy of earth is in having our names written in heaven, who can describe the sorrow of having them blotted out? But, though they may, yet they need not be blotted out. If we overcome—overcome sin, overcome trial, overcome unbelief—they shall not be. And Jesus will help us so that we can overcome. He has overcome the world, and through Him we may overcome it.

Let us be faithful to God in Christ and keep our names in the book of life, for thus only can we enter heaven. "Then shall in nowise enter into it anything that defileth, * * * but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life."

Bible Readings.—Ex. xxxii, 30-32; Eccl. xii, 13, 14; Isa. iv, 3; Dan. xii, 1-3; Math. xii, 36, 37; Acts xvii, 30, 31; Rom. ii, 12-16; I Cor. iv, 5; Phil. iv, 1-3; Heb. xii, 22-24; I Pet. iv, 1-5; Rev. xiii, 8; xvii, 8; xx, 12-15; xxi, 27.

In the Shadow.

We must all go there sometimes. The glare of the daylight is too brilliant. Our eyes become injured and unable to discern the delicate shades of color or appreciate neutral tints—the shadowed chamber of sickness, the shadowed house of mourning, the shadowed life from which the sunlight has gone. But fear not. It is the shadow of God's hand. He is leading thee. There are lessons which can be learned only there. The photograph of His face can be only fixed in the dark chamber. But do not suppose that He has cast thee aside. Thou art still in His quiver. He has not flung thee away as a worthless thing. He is only keeping thee close till the moment comes when He can send thee most swiftly and surely on some errand in which He will be glorified. O shadowed solitary one, remember how closely the quiver is bound to the warrior, within easy reach of the hand and guarded jealously!—Rev. F. B. Meyer.

The English Prayer Book.

The English Prayer Book is what it is to the English because it grew with that people, and it could ingrain itself in national character because it was in itself in some sense a product of national evolution from faroff Anglo-Saxon times. The history of the Prayer Book reaches far beyond the First Book of Edward VI. The ancient parts of the liturgy are witnesses and, as it were, title deeds of the historic continuity of our catholicity and of English character.—Churchman.

Selfishness and Self Love.

Selfishness is a vice; self love is a virtue. Selfishness is the root of all vice; then vice increases selfishness, and selfishness, in turn, leads on to more and greater vice. Selfishness and sin act and react one upon the other.

Self love, on the contrary, is a virtue and the foundation of all virtue, of all religion, of all spirituality.—Christian Standard.

The Habit of Sin.

There should be present to us the thought that there is a possibility of our being hardened in sin. A sin repeated directly tends to the formation of a sinful habit. A duty neglected has the same effect, working directly to indifference to duty and therefore to a deadened spiritual sensibility.—United Presbyterian.

An Edge of Usefulness.

Adversity is the grindstone on which we lose enough to put an edge of usefulness on our lives.—Christian Instructor.

STRANGE FESTIVITY.

HOW THE MOQUIS CELEBRATE THE NEW YEAR.

A Barbaric But Gentle Drama—The Serpent in the Ceremony—A Spectacular Dance—Where the Creator Is Sparing of His Favors.

The Moqui Indians' New Year's celebration, called So-yal-u-na, is largely a presentation of a singular and elaborate mythic drama, divided into two parts, in which offerings are made to effigies of the Great Plume Headed Serpent, the enemy of the sun, followed by a sun dance, in which the conflict between the sun and the inferior hostile gods is admirably portrayed by Moqui men personifying the various deities.

This celebration is primarily performed by warriors and commemorates the return of the sun from the winter solstice. In other words, the Moqui wofully fear, when they see the sun going further and further to the southward each day, he is going to desert them and leave them alone upon their cold, weary, sand-blown mesas. One wonders little that, in this dreadful situation, they have initiated profound and mystic rights with a view to propitiating the evil one who would harm their dearly beloved fire.

Day by day the old men and seers of the tribe watch each morning the point at which the sun rises from the eastern horizon of the pinnacled and ragged mountain range. They have found a particular notch between two peaks, past which the sun does not travel in its southern march, but instead it stops and returns over its long and dreary trail to bring ultimately the spring, the butterflies, and, most precious of all, the corn—their staff of life.

As the sun nears its lowest notch preparations for the rite which conciliates the sun's worst enemy—the snake demon—are well under way. To-morrow, in a wierd subterranean cavern, called an estufa; or kivi, it is declared that the baneful serpent shall be amply placated; so rich will be the tribute that for one entire year the sun shall be free from his persecutions, and the clouds, too, which the snake wickedly swallows, shall gather and their moisture freely descend upon the parched and blighted land until it is once more clothed in verdure.

Dr. J. Walter Fewkes, ethnologist of the Smithsonian Institution, is familiar with most of the Moqui cermonials and has described to me in some detail this strange New Year's festival. In the dimly lighted, underground room there is erected, at its west end, a screen profusely decorated with corn husks, but cleverly in imitation of flowers Near the middle of the screen there is an opening, and behind it stands a man who, at the proper time, manipulates the effigy of the snake. By his side stands a companion who has a large conch shell made in the form of a horn, through which he utters fearful groans and noises, presumably the voice of the monster serpent. In front of the screen sits three or four solemn priests, and the audience, consisting of members of all the clans and their families, and behind them is a row of men who act as chorus.

When the rites begin the chorus commences to sing, at first a low, wierd chant, which gradually rises to piercing intensity, and, as it does so, the man behind the screen takes up the effigy of the great snake and thrusts it rapidly through the opening a number of times, accompanied by the unearthly and discordant wailing of the conch shell. The priest directly in front of the screen takes a little sacred meal in his hand and holds it in his mouth, uttering a deeply significant invocation to the serpent, and then casts the meal on the head of the serpent.

The serpent effigy used in the ceremony has a head cut from a gourd, with a horrible grotesque mouth and prominent teeth and a great red tongue protruding from the nose. A curved horn rises from the back of the head and a bunch of light and wavy feathers adorn the neck. The long body is made of buckskin, and through the middle of it runs a backbone made from sticks. In fact, the effigy becomes a horrid monster, viewed in the pale and sticky light which filters weakly downward through the single entrance at the top of the chamber.

One by one all the members present make their prayer to the hostile serpent god, hoping that, by their earnestness, they will beget individual and communal prosperity throughout the ensuing year. So ends the first half of the drama, and on the morrow of the new year begins the great snake dance. Four orders of warriors participate in the dance, and it is regarded as a test of supreme endurance for those who engage hour after hour in the fatiguing and incessant motion which is demanded by the dance drama.

On the opposite sides of the kiva there stand rows of men, bearing shields, with elaborate symbolic designs of the different priesthoods and mythical beings painted upon them. At the end of the room, all alone and unsupported, stands the sunbearer, awaiting the onslaught of his horde of enemies. A signal, and the song begins, and the lines of warriors on each side of the room surge against the sunbearer in a feigned, but realistic attack. He brandishes his shield and rushes upon them with great vigor, repulsing and driving them back to the wall again and again, until, and vanquishes his many foes.

This last interesting spectacular dance so exhausts its participants that individuals become prostrated and faint away.

New Year's Day finishes with feasting and jollification, which brightens the faces and hearts of the old and feeble men, and cause the youngsters to overflow with an exuberant abandon of spirits. Happy hearts and happy homes are to be found on the first day, even in this desolate region, where the Creator has been so sparing in his favors that rain only falls a few days in the year, and vegetation is so sparce that it is only found in the deep valleys, and the flat-topped messa where the Moqui dwell reflect back the sun's rays from a brick-red and barren soil.

CLOVER HAY,

While costing less is worth more than Timothy for cows. Give the cow the BEST CLOVER and the horse the BEST TIMOTHY and the result will please you We have all kinds at right prices.

In comparing prices it should be borne in mind that OUR GRAIN IS ALL RECLEANED and OUR FEEDS are ALL MADE ON THE PREMISES and ARE KNOWN TO BE PURE.

Mixed Oats	74c per bag	Middlings	90c per 100
Mixed Clips	76c per bag	Oat Feed	75c per 100
2 White Oats	78c per bag	Gluten	95c per 100
Regular Clips	80c per bag	Oil Meal	$1.45 per 100
X. B. Clips	82c per bag	No. 1 Grain Mixture	$1.10 per 100
Yellow Corn	79c per 100	Our Poultry Food	$1.15 per 100
Cracked Corn	84c per 100	Wheat	$1.25 per 100
Coarse Meal	84c per 100	Barley (96 lbs)	$1.15 per bag
Ground Feed	84c per 100	No. 1 Hay	88c per 100
Bran	90c per 100	Clover Hay	82c per 100
Buckwheat Middlings	70c per 100	Cut Hay	85c per 100

The above prices are for spot cash at our stores. If delivered add according to quantity as follows:

25 bags or over	2c per bag
5 bags or over	5c per bag
Less than 5 bags	10c per bag

THE PAUL T. NORTON CO.

Elizabeth, Elizabethport, Red Bank, Plainfield, Somerville.

KRIS KRINGLE STILL MAKING HIS CALLS.

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

parents and friends who were present. Then Miss Elma Bohan sang a song in good voice when the Punch and Judy show began. Before the refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake were served, Mrs. Tier expressed her thanks to the teachers of the primary department for their unimorn kindness that had been displayed toward her and the interest shown in in the Sunday-school work. She also said a few kind words to the scholars. Before leaving for their homes the children were presented with boxes of candy. The affair was greatly enjoyed by the little folks, who were given full scope.

In the evening the older members gathered in the Sunday school room which was packed to the doors, where they were entertained by F. O. Bristol, who gave humorous recitations and character sketches, and with "Automobile Wax Works," in which the following assumed the characters:

Hiawatha	Chauncey F. Colthar
Minnehaha	Grace Emmons
Sam Weller	Chas. M. Dolliver
Sam Weller's Son	Walter Emmons
Old Bones	Robt. A. Meeker, Jr
Bootblack	Fred Dunavan
Underella	Nettie Young
Milk Maid	Mabel Wyckoff
Sneezing Girl	Grace Wikoff
Soldier, Cowboy	Geo. Bolsterli

Supt. E E. Anthony made a brief address and the scholars were then given boxes of candy. There was a large attendance and the affair was highly creditable to all who assisted in making it so.

HOLY CROSS CHURCH.

The Sunday-school of Holy Cross Episcopal church held its Christmas festival last evening in the parish house, where a large tree was decorated and exhibited to the delight of the children. The tree contained an abundance of fruit of choice quality in the shape of gifts for the children. Previous to the distribution of gifts, evening service was held in the church with full vested choir. The children occupied seats in the centre of the church, each class carrying banners and being accompanied by its teacher. The effect was very pretty.

GRACE P. E. CHURCH.

The Christmas festival of the Sunday-school of the Grace P. E. church was held last evening. A service was held in the church, Rev. E. M. Rodman, the rector, making an address. He told of a beautiful picture he discovered at Nazareth, Palestine, and had it photographed. The photograph was reproduced on the cover of the order of service.

After the service the Sunday-school marched into the parish house, where "Santa Claus," in the person of Van Wyck Brooks, made his appearance and distributed gifts among the members of the school.

WARREN CHAPEL.

The Sunday school of Warren chapel held its Christmas festival Wednesday afternoon and evening. In the afternoon, there was an entertainment of songs and recitations for the little people. In the evening a viatoscope was the principal attraction. The chapel was crowded. Refreshments were served at the close of the entertainment.

ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH.

The Children's Festival in St. Stephen's church, which was held yesterday afternoon, proved a success. The service began at 4:45 o'clock, when the church was filled by the scholars of the Sunday-school and members of the parish. One grand feature was the singing of four carols, which, under the direction of Mrs. Buckley, the organist, were well and heartily rendered. Miss Pauline Buckley, the young daughter of the organist, acquitted herself most admirably at the organ accompanying the voices with a skill worthy of a much older performer. The Christmas tree was a pretty sight with its ornamentation and lighted candles, loaded with presents for one and all and every eye was bright and expectant that looked upon it. All were remembered with some token, and the little ones went away after the service, laden with gifts, and feeling that their church was indeed another loving home. The Rector, Rev. S. P. Simpson, gave a brief address, in which he alluded to the Advent offering made by the Sunday-school for the Bishop's building fund, and the gifts presented by the children to the children of the Oneida Mission. He told them that this was carrying out the prophecy of the Blessed Lord, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethern, ye have done it unto me." To Mrs. S. S. Guion, the superintendent; Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Beal and Miss Clark, Miss Florence Beal and C B. Morgan, may be attributed most of the success attending this incident in the history of St. Stephen's church. This festival is always held on the Feast of the Holy Innocents (unless that day occurs on a Friday, which is always a Fast,) which day is most appropriate for the little ones, innocent and pure.

CRESCENT AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN.

The moving pictures of the viatoscope were the attraction at the Christmas entertainment at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church. An entertainment was given yesterday afternoon for the members of the primary and intermediate departmentt. After the entertainment Santa Claus appeared and won the hearts of the young people. Had the lobbyists from the State capital been there they would have discovered a familiar face in Santa Claus, Former Assemblyman Roger F Murray He made a very successful one Gifts were distributed among the children.

In the evening the same entertainment was repeated for the benefit of the older members of the school. Refreshments and a social hour followed.

Red Men Elect Officers.

Paughcaughnaughsinque Tribe of Red Men has elected the following officers: Sachem, Oliver Voorhees; prophet, Thomas O ment; senior sagamore, F. A. Weber; junior sagamore, Charles Wescott; chief of records, C M. Ulrich; keeper of wampum, Asa Pope; collector of wampum, Fred Bache; outside watch, M. H. B Drake; representative to Great Council, V. W. Nash. The public installation, with a collation, will be held next Wednesday evening.

First Meeting of 1900 Council.

The Common Council for 1900 will not meet next Monday evening, the regular time, but Tuesday evening following. This change is made on account of Monday being New Year's Day.

To Cure Constipation in One Week
To Purify the Blood in One Week
To Strengthen Nerves in One Week
To Cure Sick Headache in One Day

Take Cleveland's Celery Compound Tea, 25c. Trial size free. It it fails to cure your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary corner Park and North avenues.

What Can You Do With It?

This is a question we can answer better after we have seen the garment you want dyed. When our wagon is in your neighborhood, let it bring your goods to the store and then, at your convenience, come in and let us tell you just what we can do and the cost. Don't be prejudiced against dyeing. Oftimes you can't tell the goods from new.

HILLIER & CO.,

129 West Front Street,

Opposite Crosby & Hill's. 'Phone 851.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE ON THE CITY STREETS

[CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.]

of many old crosswalks on the lines of streets macadamized.

FLAGGING AND CURBING.

The practice of previous years, to order flagging only where it seems called for by property owners, has been followed during the present season. The amount of flagging laid was 11,256 feet, and 5,336 feet of curbing have been set.

SUMMARY.

In presenting a summary of the year's work, attention is called to the large amount required for repair of steam and horse rollers, and for removing snow from streets during the severe storm last winter.

As much of the Street Commissioner's time as could be spared has been spent in establishing lines and grades of our city streets, and in preserving the lines of those already located, by setting permanent monuments; much more should be done in this line, as such work prevents vexatious delays and expense in determining correct lines and removes the cause of many legal complications.

The amount spent on street cleaning was not large enough to properly open all the gutters twice each year as should be done; once in the spring and once in the fall. While this work seems only of temporary benefit, good waterways on each side of even a dirt street go a long way toward keeping the whole roadway in good condition.

Street cleaning and opening gutters	$2 410.88
Culverts	675 96
Crosswalks	9 6.96
Cleaning culverts and catch basins	153 19
Removing snow	371 67
Tools and supplies	146 83
Repairing rollers and water wagon and supplies	829.72
Blacksmithing	37 55
Assistant	257.19
Expenses and postage	9 71
City yard and stable house	7.55
Cost of macadamizing the streets before enumerated	15,200.80
Cost of grading the streets before enumerated	1 001.26
Repairs and grading of other streets, etc	1,912 08
Total	$24,012 36
Credit by sale of pipe, etc	21 20
Total street expenditures	$23,991.16
Paid by property owners and others	724.96
Paid by Plainfield Street Railway Company, (not including West Third and West Fourth streets)	9,832 67
Total	$31,448.82

MISSCELLANEOUS.

Upon having their attention called to the need of retaining walls along Cottage place, South Second street and East Fourth street, the officers of the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey sent their engineer to confer with your Street Commissioner as to the needs of streets and also of the culvert along the railroad east of Leland avenue.

Substantial walls were built by the company, thus allowing the full width of the streets to be utilized, where formerly the railroad bank sloped down into the roadways; it still remains to secure the removal of the electric light poles, in order to get the full benefit of the improvement. Efforts should be made this coming year to have the work continued until it is complete throughout the line of the railroad within the city limits.

For the last three years the Street Committee has had to pay off the promises of the previous year, and it is a great disappointment that Putnam avenue and the balance of Plainfield avenue could not have been remacadamized. We would call the attention of the in-coming Council to the most pressing work, viz: finishing South avenue, a most thorough overhauling of Putnam avenue, the street railway turnout to be lowered, gutters paved and curbed and the street macadamized from curb to curb; East Front street from Leland avenue to Watchung avenue, Plainfield avenue, Park avenue from Randolph road to the city line, (part of which will be done by the Plainfield Street Railway Company); Clinton avenue from Front to Second streets, part of West Front street, Grove street and Watchung avenue. When this is done all macadamized streets will be in a position to be maintained on a fair appropriation, if attended to each year. The growth of the city both east and west along the line of the trolley system, brings attention to the pressing need of work on streets in those neighborhoods.

Those sections bounded by Richmond and Front streets, North avenue and Terrill road; also between Grant avenue, West Front street, West Seventh street and the southerly city line, are filled with unaccepted streets, which, by travel, etc., are virtually public highways. In many cases they are mere lanes; none are at grade, and houses are going up without reference to how surface drainage can be obtained. As the macadamized system approaches completion, these streets should be opened and graded.

As little work as possible has been done on Park avenue from Fourth street to Front street, on Front street from Watchung avenue to Central avenue, and on Somerset street, for the reason that after the storm sewers were laid, underground connections have been steadily made and are now nearly completed. These streets should be furnished with a permanent pavement, and it is one of the many serious questions that the in-coming Council will have to face.

SEWERS.

The beginning of 1899 found the Plainfield sewerage system in serious difficulties; the disposal beds were covered with water, ice and snow, and the pipes were delivering to the beds a million and a quarter gallons a day.

The first work of the year was to remedy these troubles, and, after consultation with Civil Engineer Farquhar, it was decided to replace with cast iron pipes the vitrified clay pipes in the wet section of Richmond street, where most of the leakage occurred.

Nearly all of this sewer was under water at the time, so that the work proved a difficult one, but the result seems to show that it was successful; the beds, which had been continuously flooded for six months, were then retired from use one by one and dried and cleaned; the amount of scum was not as great as might have been expected after so long a time, being about an inch thick in the deepest places, near the carriers.

With the continual addition of new connections (104 having been made during the year), greater capacity will be required in the near future, either by the construction of more beds, or by modifying the treatment of the sewage.

STORM SEWERS.

The final amount of $1,200 was paid this year for the Plainfield avenue storm sewer, constructed in 1898, which has proved of great benefit to the vicinity; it could be made of still more benefit by extending it to Third or Fourth street.

The sewer in Park avenue, Front and Somerset streets, which was constructed this season at a cost of $2,375 55 $118.33 of which is still retained by the city, has also given general satisfaction, the former flooding of Park avenue having been entirely remedied, and the Watchung avenue sewer considerably relieved. If the latter sewer was extended to East Fourth street, with three inlets at that point, it would greatly reduce the accumulation of water under the bridge The C. R. R. Co. of N. J. and the Plainfield Street Railway Company would probably contribute to this extension, the engineer of the former having promised the Street Commissioner to look into the matter, and a Street Railway official having offered to assist.

The New street sewer is inadequate to carry the water which is brought to it, and during heavy showers Fourth, Fifth and Sixth streets are flooded; this can be remedied by constructing another sewer in New street from the railroad bridge in New street to Green Brook, to dispose of the water that comes from Liberty street, Central and Madison avenues, or by a sewer in Arlington avenue from West Fourth street to Cedar Brook.

If the latter scheme, on examination, should be found advisable, action should be taken to have the work done before the Southeastern extension of the street railway is made.

The cost of sewer maintenance for the year 1899 has been as follows:

Labor on beds	$3,215 30
Supplies including lime	219 77
Repairs	167 85
Engineer in charge	600 50
Labor, nozzling and injecting	143 18
Water for flushing	421.14
Inspector on house connections	56.60
Insurance and repair of buildings	140.63
Connecting fountain on West Second street with storm sewer	30.45
Flushing valve, South avenue	22 00
Total	$4,049.33
Credit:
Sewer permits	$104.00
Sale of pipe	4 07	108 07
Net cost		$3.94 .26

Park avenue storm sewer ($118.33 still unpaid)	$2,375.63
Sewer replacement in Richmond street, etc	7,676.90
Assessment on City of Plainfield for sanitary sewer extension	631.19

The cost of the sewer replacement was provided for by five temporary notes, payable annually.

In conclusion, the committee wish to again congratulate the city that they are able to retain such an able engineer as Andrew J. Gavett in their employ, this alone being a guarantee that all work coming under the head of Streets and Sewers is performed in the highest manner with the least cost to the taxpayers.

Thanking the Council for their confidence and support, we are, respectfully,

E. T. Barrows,
J VanHerwerden,
R I Tolles,
Committee on Streets and Sewers.

Glee Club Tonight

The Syracuse University Glee and Instrumental Club will give one of their excellent concerts tonight at Monroe Avenue church, under the auspices of the Young Men's Class. The programme will be of a pleasing character and the music of a superior order. This club has visited Plainfield before and they will be given a hearty reception no doubt.

Verdict For Plaintiff.

The attachment suit of Sternberg & Co. against Mrs. Agnes G. Hoagland was tried yesterday afternoon before Justice Moffett, who rendered a verdict for full amount and costs. William Newcorn for plaintiff; William DeMeza for defendant.

Musical Programme to be Repeated.

There will be a special musical service at the First Baptist church next Sunday morning when the Christmas music will be rendered by the choir of the church.

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS THAT PLAINFIELDERS MAY WITNESS.

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World

Michael Strogoff will be the offering at the Music Hall tonight and the Burrill Comedy Company will be at their best in this presentation. The great Russian military play is without doubt one of the most popular Russian plays on the stage today, and we are promised a most complete production. At tomorrow's matinee this bill will be repeated for the benefit of those not able to see the play tonight. The sale of seats for Saturday night is rapidly mounting, and those who wish to get seats had better secure them early as the house will probably be sold out before the doors are opened Those who attended Christmas evening will remember this.

* * * * *

Sie Hassan Ben Ali has shown great skill in the selection of artists for his latest novelty "The Toozoonin Specialty Company," for in addition to his marvellous troupe of Arabs, he has engaged the services of the following named, who are, recognized "head liners" as permanent members of his organization which will be seen at the Music Hall on Monday—New Year's Day. They comprise Boyd and Byron, singing and talking comedians; the four Ellsworths, singers, talkers and excelsior cake walkers; the Two Midgets, laugh makers extraordinary; the four Hassans, equilibrists and hand balancers; Russell and Bell musical comedians and Chinese cake-walkers; Kablan and Saad, expert swordsmen, and Prince Muly Ali. These, with the Arabs themselves, will present an entertainment which will be one of rare interest and cannot fail to please all lovers of genuine worth and merit. The matinee performance will be interesting from the fact that it will be identical with the night presentation.

* * * * *

A splendid New Year's resolve for those seeking the best in the line of amusement diversion, would be to visit either or both of Proctor's theatres in New York city—the Twenty-third Street Theatre and Proctor's Palace. There will be be all-day bills at both the Proctor theatres New Year's Day, the doors opening at 10 a. m. and the show continuing without a stop until 11 p. m. The stars at the Twenty-third Street Theatre New Year's week are: The famous original Hungarian Boys' Band, composed of 40 inimitable midget music masters. At Proctor's Palace the features will be—Marshall P. Wilder, the little humorist; Bertha Welby & Co., in a bright comedietta; Herbert and Willing, black face artists; Florence Moore, soprano; Anna Teresa Berger, cornet soloist; and a score of other excellent features.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Monthly missionary meeting tonight at Warren chapel at 8 o'clock. Subject: "Mormonism." All welcome.

—There will be a Parish reception on New Year's Day from 4 to 7 o'clock at the home of Rev. Dr. E. M. Rodman, of East Seventh street.

—In serving hot chocolate for New Year's go to Debele's creamery for sweet cream and Borden's condensed milk. Whipped cream made while you wait. 111 Somerset street. Telephone 1113.

—D W. Littell, Armstrong Mulford and Horsley Barker have been appointed a committee from Plainfield Council, No, 711, Royal Arcanum, to attend the funeral of their lat brother, Arthur D. Pearson.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Misses Maud and Minnie Mitchell, of West Third street, gave a reception in honor of their guest, John Purnell, of Eatontown, and Thomas Murray, of Asbury Park, last night.

A Memorial Service.

A memorial service to the late Rev Dr. Robert Lowry will be held in the Park Avenue Baptist church Sunday morning.

Half a Million for Charities.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 29.—Joseph Forbes, seventy-four years old, a son of the late Captain Forbes, who was in his day one of the leading ship builders of New England, has died at the old Forbes home on Forbes avenue, Fair Haven. His death was due to old age.

By his death one of the largest estates of New Haven will be distributed for charitable purposes. Betsey Forbes, a sister of Mr. Forbes, married Captain John Bradley, who died several years ago. Mrs. Bradley also died and left an estate which was inventoried at $345,364. This estate was left in trust for her brother, who was to receive the use of it during his lifetime. He used very little of the income and the estate a year ago was, according to the report of the trustee, worth $100,193. This estate is now to be divided between St. Paul's Episcopal Church and the Ladies' Seamen's Friends Society, the latter to receive one-third of the estate. St. Paul's Church is directed to erect a chapel on the site where the old Forbes mansion now stands, and also to erect a home for aged and infirm women.

Fred. H. Firstbrook,

: : GROCER : :

312 Liberty St.

The Best Offer of the Year is that made by Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly, justly termed "the monarch of the 10 cent magazines." For a limited period, this famous and popular magazine, now $1 00 a year, will send free with each yearly subscription, the beautiful "Little Sweet heart" Calendar. This calendar is in six groups of water color designs by Frances Brundage, the famous painter of children, each group in twelve colors, size 10 x 12¾ inches' on fine Whatman paper, tied at top with a silk ribbon; each sheet contains two month's dates-thus being a complete calendar for 1900 Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly, edited by Mrs. Frank Leslie, now publishes the best literature and illustrations that money and energy can obtain, from such authors and artists as Rudyard Kipling, William Dean Howells, A Conan Doyle, Frank R. Stockton, Mary E. Wilkins, Stephen Crane, Ruth McEnery Stuart, S. R. Crockett, F. Hopkinson Smith, Joel Chandler Harris, Bret Harte, "Josiah Allen's Wife," Henry James, Will Carleton, Edgar Fawcett, and Rev. Dr. Henry van Dyke, A. B Wenzell, H. Chandler Christy, F. Luis Mora, W. Granville Smith, Clifford Carlton, F. W. Read, Ch. Grunwald and others, Prospectus for 1900 and a pretty folder in colors sent free for the asking. Specimen copy for three 2 cent stamps. Frank Leslie Publishing House, 141-143 Fifth Ave., N Y.

GEO. W. COLE.

—UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,—

200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.

OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

DIED.

BUCKLEY—In this city Dec. 28th, 1899, at her late residence, 419 Cottage place, Mrs. Mary Buckley, widow of the late Thomas Buckley, in her 66th year.

Funeral will take place from her late residence, Saturday, Dec. 30th, at 8:30 a m., and from St. Mary's church at 9 a. m. Friends and relatives are respectfully invited to attend. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery. 12 28 2

PEARSON—In this city, Thursday, Dec. 28th, 1899, Arthur D. Pearson, aged 47 year.

Funeral services at his late residence, Sherman avenue, near Clinton avenue, Saturday, Dec 30th, at 2:30 p. m. Interment in Hillside. 12 28 2

WANTS AND OFFERS.

GIRL wanted for general housework. 917 Watchung Ave.

WANTED—A girl for general housework; colored. Martine, Watchung Ave.

LOST—Plain gold wedding ring Return to Press office. Reward 12 29 2

LOST—Last evening at Trinity Reformed church, a silver Nethersole bracelet. Finder please return to this office.

WANTED—White girl, Protestant, as chambermaid and waitress; good references required. 219 Hillside Ave. 12 29 3

WANTED—Middle-aged lady for general housework for two weeks. Address 100, care Press.

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

FIVE ROOM house to let, 197 Somerset St. 12 28 3

WANTED—Capable girl for general housework. 334 East Fifth St. 12 28 2

WANTED—A person to act as visiting agent for the Organized Aid Association and the Relief Association. Address, in writing, O A A., care Press. 12 28 3

WANTED—Experienced cook. Apply Superintendent Muhlenberg Hospital. 12 27 tf

TO LET—Large, well-heated room, with excellent board. 62 Sandford Ave. 12 26 6

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish Intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

FOR SALE—Good buffalo robe. Inquire J. P Laire. 12 23 6

FOR SALE to close an Estate, House and lot, No. 251 East Third street, formerly the residence of John P. Brokaw; comfortable roomy house; large lot; macadamized street. Inquire of Nelson Runyon, attorney for heirs, 221 Park Ave. 12 22 6

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 24

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.

TELEPHONE 722.

MAZE EDWARDS, - Lessee and Manager.

Reserved Seat Tickets at Box Office, which is open daily from 9. a. m.

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS MATINEE, One Solid Week, Commencing

MONDAY, DEC. 25, 1899.

Re-engagement of the popular

Burrill Comedy Company,

Supporting LAURA HOLBERT, in a repertoire of standard scenic productions—

For repertoire see reading notices.

Prices—10c, 20c and 30c. Seats now on sale.

New Year's Day. Monday, Jan. 1st.

GREAT ATTRACTION—2 Performances. Matinee at 2:15 p. m. Night at 8:15.

Sie Hassan Ben Ali's

TOOZOONIN SPECIALTY CO., Headed by the MARVELOUS TROUPE of

::::: TOOZOONIN ARABS :::::

Introduced by the Moorish Prince,

MULI ALI,

Assisted by a High Class Company of VAUDEVILLE ARTISTS.

PRICES—Matinee, 25 and 50c. Night, 25, 35, 50 and 75c.

SPECIAL!!

HAIR DRESSING, SHAMPOOING, MANICURING.

Until after the Holiday Season

MISS HOLMES,

Graduate of the New York School of Hair Dressing and Dermatology,

will make special rates for hair dressing in all the latest styles for street and evening; at parlors 75c. At ladies residences by appointment. Shampooing or Facial Massage and steam-curling (for eradicating imperfections of the skin) 75c. Manicuring 50c.

440 W. FRONT ST.

MASSAGE :-: VAPOR BATHS

CORNS REMOVED 25c.

M. V. STICKLE. 149 East Fifth St.

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY GLEE & INSTRUMENTAL CLUBS.

Monroe Ave. M. E. Church,

Cor. Monroe Avenue and Fourth Street,

FRIDAY EVENING, Dec. 29th,

AT 8 O'CLOCK,

—Under the auspices of—

YOUNG MEN'S CLASS.

TICKETS, - - - - 35c.

COLLIER

EYE SPECIALIST,

103 Park Ave.....

Established 1869. Eyes Examined Free.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,

Furniture and Freight Express

Prompt attention given to all orders left at Ladies' Gent's Store, 128 Park avenue 10 1

Emery's

Dancing Pavilion

(SCOTCH PLAINS.)

Pavilion For Rent

FOR

Balls, Parties, etc.

Mons De Villiers,

ILLUSIONIST and ENTERTAINER.

Miss Carolyn Laying,

IMPERSONATOR.

Y. M. C. A. Star Course.....

JANUARY 1st. 8 P. M.

ADMISSION 25 CENTS. 12 22 6

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR.
Sun Rises 7:24 a. m.
Sun Sets 4:41 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 5:41 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair, continued cold, tonight. Sunday and probably Monday. Ther. 10.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

CHILDREN'S HOME TOTS WERE NOT FORGOTTEN

Annual Christmas Tree Was Lighted Yesterday Afternoon.

PRESENTS FOR ALL OF THEM

THE AFFAIR UNDER DIRECTION OF COMMITTEE OF LADIES.

The Little People Highly Delighted Over the Good Things Provided for Them—Many Useful Articles Were Donated by Those Who Appreciate the Work Among Homeless Children.

There are twenty-four children at the Children's Home, ranging in age from two and a half years to eleven years, and these little folks celebrated Christmas yesterday afternoon with all the interest and enthusiasm that has characterized those held in the various Sunday schools this week. It was a picture long to be remembered by those present as visitors, and all were quite sure that the little folks would not forget it soon.

The large tree was lighted promptly at 4 o'clock and at that time the children walked into the large room in single file and around the tree they formed a circle. Their eyes were as large as saucers and their pleasure knew no bounds. However, with all the enjoyment of the occasion, they were all orderly and clearly evidenced the most excellent training they are receiving from the matron, Mrs. Hendrickson.

After the children had taken their positions about the tree, they began to receive their presents. Under the direction of Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Marion S. Ackerman, Miss Van-Boskerck, Mrs. J. M. Titsworth, Miss Ella Serrell and several others cut the presents from the branches and distributed them to those for whom they were intended. It was, indeed, a gladsome sight to see what joy was given to the children. There was no feeling of jealousy, and whatever was received was appreciated. All kinds of toys, games, etc., were presented, and many articles of use. One very kind person sent rubbers for every child, and others equally kind sent various articles, all of which will be greatly appreciated. The Home seems to have fared very well this year, and the many things needed have been received from those whose hearts have been touched in this way.

Those in the Home now make a large family and the matron and her assistants are kept very busy attending to each one and seeing that proper attention is given. They are rewarded, however, in seeing such splendid results. The children are models in more ways than one and if they do not grow up to be useful men and women it will not be the fault of those now in charge of their early training. There are many interesting faces at the Home and they found many attractive eyes yesterday afternoon.

There were a goodly number of visitors at the celebration and all took a lively interest in the festivities, and assisted so far as possible in making the day one of enjoyment for the children. Those in charge of the Home are deeply grateful to those who so kindly remembered the inmates, and thus made it possible for them to have a bright and merry time.

THE SONS CUT OFF.

Will of Joseph W. Richardson, of Newark, Admitted to Probate.

Elizabeth, December 30.—The long contest over the will of the late Joseph W. Richardson, of Newark, manufacturer, was decided here yesterday by Judge Vail, sitting in the Orphans' Court, and the will of 1892 was admitted to probate.

By this will Joseph and David Richardson are cut off and one daughter, Mrs. Martha J. Van Tassell, of Newark, left the interest on $5,000 for life. At her demise this sum will go to her heirs.

The contest has dragged along for several months. The caveators, Jos Richardson and Mrs. Van Tassell, contended that their father was not of sound mind when the will was made, and that it was not properly executed.

The caveators were represented by Judge William B Guild, of Newark, and Craig A. Marsh, of Plainfield. Lindabury, Depue & Faulks, of Newark, and P. H. Gilnooly represented the beneficiaries under the will.

Christmas Music to be Repeated.

The special Christmas music of last Sunday will be repeated at the Congregational church tomorrow morning. The Christian Endeavor service will be held at the close of the Sunday school session at 4 p. m instead of in the evening tomorrow. No evening service.

—Use Press want ads.

DINED G. O. P. LEADERS.

Former Mayor Fisk Gave a Dinner to Republican Friends at Waldorf-Astoria.

Former Mayor Charles J. Fisk gave an informal dinner last evening to a few Plainfield friends from among the local leaders of the Republican party. The dinner was given at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York. Those present were Postmaster E. H. Bird, President-elect of the Common Council Frank H. Smith, Councilman James F. Buckle, City Clerk J. T. McMurray, City Judge William N. Runyon, Andrew McCardell and George J. Tobin.

NOT AS BAD AS PICTURED

REV. FREDERICK KOECHLI GIVES IMPRESSIONS OF FINGERHUTHS.

He Says That Mrs. Fingerhuth is Submissive to Her Fate, and That the Family is Upright and Honest.

Rev. Frederick Koechli, the Somerville pastor, who acted as interpreter at the Fingerhuth murder trial last week, and who has been spiritual adviser for the family during their incarceration, has written the following for The Daily Press concerning his impressions of the prisoners:

"I saw Mrs. Fingerhuth yesterday morning and found her fairly well collected and submissive to her fate. She is especially thankful for the sympathy she and hers have found so richly, which they in reality deserve. They are naturally peaceable, honest, upright, intelligent and well educated people. Nothing of rowdyism or the like about them. Mr. Fingerhuth may be a little excitable, erratic even but he certainly is an upright, straight forward man, who only wants what is right

"Mrs. Fingerhuth is very ladylike, has had a good education, is docile and of a quiet temperment. Nobody can come in contact with her, without receiving a very favorable impression of her. And there is nothing artificial about them. As they are, so they show themselves That is the reason why this unfortunate family won so much sympathy and so many friends.

"The sons are intelligent young men. My judgement will be upheld by all who have come in close personal contact with the Fingerhuths, especially by Sheriffs Schoonemaker and Anderson.

"I am furthermore satisfied that Mrs. Fingerhuth never fired the unfortunate shot with the intention to kill or even to hit anybody. The effect of the shot was accidential and not intentional. And she is very sorry for that.

"The remembrance of this shot will remain, and perhaps become a greater punishment for her than any other that could be inflicted upon her If the shooting can not be justified there is certainly reason enough to explain it. Under all circumstances she acted under a misapprehension of her rights in a time of greatest excitement in the absence of her natural defenders.

"The family is now destitute of means and even indebted to a considable amount. If anything can be done to help them it will be a Christian act of which they are worthy."

BRYAN'S NEW JERSEY TALK.

Will Speak Only Once in Trip Through the State.

It had been expected that on his visit to New Jersey next month William J Bryan would speak in several cities, but in a letter received recently by Corporation Attorney Minturn, of Hoboken, the silver leader says he will only talk once. Mr. Minturn wrote to Mr. Bryan, inviting him to make one or more speeches in New Jersey. Mr. Bryan says he accepts the invitation with great pleasure, and continues:

"I expect to start east early in January, and will make one speech in New Jersey, but just where or on what date I cannot say at present.

A Permanent Meeting Place.

The Disciples' Mission church, which for some time past has met on Sundays and Thursdays on Cottage place, are so much encouraged that after Jan. 1st it will occupy a permanent meeting place on Richmond street, which, during the coming week, will be furnished. This work was started by some zealous people, and is in charge of Dr. Morse, who comes here at their invitation. The meetings are undenominational and institutional, as well as evangelical.

Big Firm's Tenth Anniversary.

Woodhull & Martin propose to celebrate their tenth anniversary next week by offering some rare values. Every day next week is to be a bargain day. A daily list of specials will be advertised in The Press Whatever this firm does is usually done with all their might and we predict a rare opportunity for bargain getting.

—Use Press want ads

LICENSES COME UP SOON.

SCOTCH PLAINS CITIZENS LEAGUE WILL TEST ITS INFLUENCE.

Applications for Hand's and Carroll's Hotels to be Considered Next Tuesday—Former Feels Sure of Getting His.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 30.—The application for liquor licenses for E. L Hand's hotel and Carroll's Hotel in the borough comes up when court convenes at Elizabeth next Tuesday morning. The Citizens' League will oppose the granting of both applications, claiming that the granting of them is against the moral and good of the town. The league will be represented by counsel and it is expected that the remonstrances circulated will have at least 150 signers who side with the league in the fight. On the other side of the question the hotels are looking and expecting to have their licenses granted.

It is generally expected that E L Hand will receive his as there is no complaint against this place—any more than the League are fighting the liquor business and are exempting now. Both hotels have the twelve or more freeholders necessary to present the application and the town is waiting anxiously to see the first meeting of the League and license question.

A member and officer of the League informed a Press representative that the fight would be a fair and open one and if the League was defeated the same fight would be kept up until the next licenses expire in May.

THEIR SILVER WEDDING.

MR. AND MRS. G. Q COLLIVER MARRIED TWENTY-FIVE YEARS.

The Event Celebrated in a Fitting Manner Last Night by a Gathering of Friends at Their Home Last Evening.

One of the most pleasant affairs of the winter season was that of last evening when Mr. and Mrs. Garret Q Dolliver, of 82 Fairview avenue, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary. Surrounded by a large number of relatives and friends, all of whom wished the bride and groom many happy returns of the day, the event was marked by sociability that was truly enjoyable. The home was prettily decorated with ropings of Christmas greens, and the best effect was secured through its artistic arrangement.

During the evening Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph. D, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, where Mr. and Mrs. Dolliver are members, addressed a few words of congratulations to the happy couple, and then all present joined in singing heartily, "Blest be the Tie that Binds."

The silver gifts left by those in attendance were many and very beautiful, one being from Fort Dodge, Iowa, sent by Rev. James J. Dolliver, uncle of the groom and father of Congressman J. P. Dolliver. Unknown friends sent by express a small wooden house filled with various useful articles for housekeeping, which caused quite a little merriment. The joke is supposed to be the work of some of Mr Dolliver's numerous railroad friends.

One of the guests, who seemed almost as young as the average person present, was Mr. Dolliver's aunt, Mrs Eliza Quick, of Somerville, who is nearly 88 years old.

Mr. and Mrs Dolliver were married at Roycefield, Somerset county, December 29th, 1874, the bride being Miss Kate S. Van Zandt. Their only child is Charles M Dolliver, a bright young law student. Mr. Dolliver is one of the Central Railroad Company's oldest employes, being in charge of their "store house" at Somerville. G E Hungerford, of Roselle, superintendent of stores, with an office in the Jersey City depot, accompanied by Mrs. Hungerford, was present.

While everyone was enjoying the genuine hospitality of the bride and groom, and exchanging greetings, refreshments were served about 10 30 o'clock, and it was nearly midnight when good nights were said and the guests departed, leaving their best wishes with the bride and groom.

Hall, the Wonderworker.

This celebrated healer has engaged Washington Hall for a couple of weeks and will send his company of players here on Tuesday night, January 2d, when a grand musical and novelty programme will be rendered. That no one may stay away on plea of expense, the admission price has been fixed at a nickel for all. The company will be in charge of Dr. Harry W. Reed, of Lumberton, N J, who has been a practicing and registered physician in this State for many years. The Wonderworker has been in Scotch Plains, Springfield, Milburn, Princeton, Rahway, Newark, Jersey City, Stirling, Metuchen and other towns lately and crowded houses greet him wherever he goes.

THE LEHIGH VALLEY SETTLES WITH RICKS.

Company Realized That it Would Probably be Beaten.

TRIAL ABRUPTLY ENDED.

REPORTED THAT INJURED ENGINEER IS TO RECEIVE $10,000.

Counsel for the Plaintiff Made a Great Point on the Claim That the Lehigh Valley Had Made Great Reduction in Its Operating Force Before the Collision—The Company Quit.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Dec. 30.—The case of Engineer Edward Ricks against the Lehigh Valley Railroad, which has occupied Chief Justice Magie's court here for nearly a week, ended abruptly yesterday afternoon. Ricks was suing the company for $30 000 damages for injuries which he sustained in the fatal wreck at West Dunellen January 9th.

Richard V. Lindabury, counsel for Ricks, in rebuttal this morning attempted to bring out evidence showing that previous to the accident the Lehigh Valley had made a great reduction in its operating force, and that the accident was caused by insufficient help in the despatcher's office at Easton, which resulted in a confusion of the relative places of the trains by the despatcher. Mr. McCarter, counsel for the railroad, objected to this evidence and Chief Justice Magie said that he would reserve his ruling until after the noon recess.

When the court reconvened it was apparent that the court would rule to admit the evidence. Mr. Lindabury and Ricks accompanied a prominent official of the Lehigh Valley to a private room. They returned to the court room after a short consultation and Mr. Lindabury announced to the Court that the suit was withdrawn, as a satisfactory settlement had been arrived at between the Lehigh Valley Company and the plaintiff. Chief Justice Magie discharged the jury and dismissed the case. The amount which the Lehigh Valley Company is to pay Ricks is not made public, but there is a report that it is $10,000.

COLLEGE BOYS HEARD.

Concert Given by Syracuse University Glee and Mandolin Club Last Night Was Successful.

The first of the college glee and instrumental clubs to visit this city were the Syracuse University Glee and Mandolin Clubs, who gave a concert in the Monroe Avenue M. E. church last evening. The affair was given under the auspices of the Young Men's Class and was well attended.

The Syracuse University boys are not strangers in Plainfield. Their concert last night was even above the average set at their previous entertainments.

The work of the glee club was excellent and showed careful training by Mr. Wells, the leader. Mr. Hockenberry, the bass soloist, was possessed of a particularly fine voice.

The singing of the quartette was not up to the standard set by the rest. The mandolin club did very well, the members playing in good time and with spirit.

Santa Claus Didn't Miss Them.

On Thursday evening the annual Christmas entertainment was held at the Church of the Heavenly Rest under the auspices of the Sunday school, and the attendance was the largest in the history of the church. The programme consisted of recitations and songs by members of the school, all of which were given in a creditable manner. Harry Fraleigh impersonated Santa Claus and distributed handsome gifts to the scholars. Superintendent W. W. Moore was remembered handsomely and was presented with a silver mounted umbrella by the teachers, while the trustees gave him a valuable book.

Looking for Burglars.

Early this morning it was thought that burglars had effected an entrance in the Hotel Kensington, and three officers made a search of the place. Investigation proved that some clothes were hanging on a line in the rear upper part of the house, and the cold weather having caused them to freeze, they were being blown against the house making a loud noise. This attracted the attention of the grill-room waiter, who thought sure some one was in the house looking for booty The illusion was soon dispelled by the investigation.

Old Fellows to Banquet.

After the installation at Queen City Lodge, I. O. O. F., the members of the lodge will go to the Hotel Kensington, where a banquet will be served. Former Judge W. A. Coddington will make the address.

CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS

PEOPLE'S GAS COMPANY EXPECT TO GET FRANCHISE.

Only Difference to be Settled is the Length of Time That Company Shall Guarantee to Run Gas Through Its Pipes.

Former Judge William A. Coddington, president of the People's Gas Company, is confident that the incoming Common Council will grant the franchise that application was made for three months ago. Mr. Coddington says that the members of the Common Council and the company are practically agreed on all the terms with the exception of the stipulation as to the number of years that the company shall promise to furnish gas at the maximum price of $1, in failure to do which the company shall forfeit its plant to the city.

As recommended by the streets committee, this stipulation is made for a five-year term. The company is opposed to so long a term, however, insisting that three years is long enough. They are willing to furnish a $10 000 bond to furnish gas at $1 per thousand in the pipes they will lay for three years, but to guarantee to do so for longer time they say will be an impracticability, as in the meantime an invention might be made to supply illumination at much cheaper rates, and the gas company might find it impossible to compete successfully.

As soon as the People's Company secure the franchise in this city they will take steps to extend the system to Dunellen, Lincoln, Bound Brook and South Plainfield, supplying those towns at the $1 rate, too.

IS BLACKFORD INSANE?

BIGAMIST WILL BE EXAMINED BY PHYSICIANS MONDAY.

Former Judge Coddington Retained by Wife No. 1 to Save the Faithless Husband From Being Sent to Prison.

Former Judge William A. Coddington has been engaged by Mrs. John L Blackford, of Putnam avenue, to appear in behalf of her husband, Detective Blackford, who will be brought up in the Union County Court next Wednesday to be sentenced on the charge of bigamy, to which he pleaded guilty two weeks ago.

Judge Coddington visited the county jail yesterday and had a long interview with Blackford, the result of which convinces the judge, so he says, that the prisoner is not in his right mind. He has arranged to have Blackford examined as to his sanity by several physicians Monday, and it is expected that he will be declared mentally unbalanced. If this report is made by the physicians, then Judge Coddington will take teps to have the prisoner committed to an insane asylum instead of sentenced to State prison.

Mrs Blackford, No. 1, who is doing all she can to save her faithless husband from going to prison, says now that she believes that he is insane, and has been in that condition for several months. She says that she can now recall many erratic acts of her husband during the past few months, which at the time she thought odd but had no idea that there was anything wrong with him.

Mrs. Blackford, No. 2, who was Miss Morgan, of Westfield, is in no way responsible for the retainment of Judge Coddington, who says he is acting entirely independently of the latter.

Christmas Music at First Presbyterian.

At the First Presbyterian church tomorrow the Sunday-school will give their regular programme at the morning service. The choir will render several selections in the evening, preceded by an organ recital, which will be given at 7:30 o'clock by William H. Miller. The following is the full programme for the evening service:

Organ offertory in C maj.....Taft
Christmas Music.....Grison
Past rale.....Handel
Hallelujah.....Handel
W. H. Miller.
Anthem—Come Near, Ye Nations.....Watson
Anthem—O Holy Night.....Adam
Trombone Solo—Nazareth.....Gounod
Mr. Dunham.
Vocal Solo.....O Little Town of Bethlehem
Miss Glen.

Open House Monday.

The usual custom of the Young Men's Christian Association to observe the New Year's Day with an "open house" will be followed Monday as usual. The building will be open all day for inspection. In the afternoon the regular work of the classes in the Gymnasium will be shown. In the evening the Star Course entertainment will be held in the hall. It will be free to members.

Trinity Reformed Church.

The special music arranged for last Sunday morning and deferred on account of the storm, will be given at the morning service tomorrow. The pastor, Dr. Schenck, will also deliver his specially prepared sermon.

TO CLOSE AT 6 O'CLOCK.

Crosby & Hill Announce That After Monday Their Store Will Close at That Time, Except Saturdays

Manager Carson, of Crosby & Hill's dry goods store, announces that commencing with Tuesday next their store will close its doors for business every evening, except Saturday, at 6 o'clock. This initatory move towards an early closing movement on the part of the dry goods dealers is to be commended. There have been spasmodic movements for several years past to secure an early closing of the big stores in town, but they have all failed. The action of Crosby & Hill will go a great ways towards consummating the plans.

AMUSEMENTS FOR 1900.

THEATRICAL ATTRACTIONS THAT ARE BOOKED AT MUSIC HALL.

Manager Edwards Promises Treats in Several Standard Plays that Have Stood the Test of Popularity in Good Shape.

The Music Hall theatrical season of the year 1899 closes with the performance of the Burrill Comedy Company tonight, and the performance also marks the completion of a very successful engagement of this same excellent organization They have made themselves standard favorites—acquitted themselves admirably in their respective roles. Charles W. Burrill, the manager, and his leading lady are especially to be commended for their very artistic work during the week, and we venture the assertion that no repertoire company that has visited this city has given more universal satisfaction than the Burrill Company. They will be welcome visitors at any time.

For the season of 1900 Manager Maze Edwards promises a host of good dramatic novelties—a continuation of what has been given during his administration The offering for New Year's Day, Monday next, is a genuine novelty—Sie Hassan Ben Ali's Toozoonin Specialty Company, of which the marvellous troupe of Toozoonin Arabs are the principal features. These Sons of the Desert are said to be marvels of strength and agility, and gifted with most wonderful endurance. Their feats are highly praised and that they are the genuine article is fully attested by the American Consul at Tangiers, who gave Sie Hassen Ben Ali consent for their departure, after permission obtained from the Sultan of Morrocco, to exhibit in this country. Friday, January 5th, "The Sleeping City," a very popular melodrama of New York life, will be given with new scenic effects, illustrating metropolitan customs after dark. The very popular Irish drama "Shamus O'Brien" is looked for Tuesday, January 9th, introducing Wm B Cahill, a character actor of prominence in New York Miss Ullie Akerstrom, who was famous a few seasons ago as a very versatile actress, will appear in a new play which has been highly successful, entitled "My Mother-in-Law," Thursday, January 11th, and Saturday January 13th, J. C. Lewis, a very talented actor, appears in his great impersonation of "Si Plunkard," a rural character said to be quaintly original. Later in the month Vogel and Deming's Mammoth Minstrel organization, "The Turtle" and other prominent plays will be presented, of which due notice will be given in these columns.

INFLUX OF NEW MEMBERS.

Foresters Initiated Seventeen—Officers Also Elected.

Court Plainfield, No. 1144, Independent Order of Foresters, at their meeting last night, initiated seventeen candidates and at a special meeting to be held tonight seven more will be initiated. The following officers held over from last meeting were elected to serve the Court one year: Court physician, H H Lawrie, M. D; court deputy, Frances Whitley; vice ranger, Wm. McComlie; junior woodward, Bernard Clark, Jr; senior beadle, G. A. McComlie; junior beadle, Calvin Jetterberg. The officers elected will be installed at the first meeting in January by the high chief ranger and staff from Elizabeth. An entertainment and banquet will follow.

Chiefs of Manontonomo Tribe.

There were a host of braves out at the meeting of Miantonomo tribe of Red Men last evening. The warrior's and chief's degree was conferred on seven candidates. Then followed the annual election of officers: Sachem, Howard Woolston; senior sagamore, Foster M. Johnson; junior sagamore, Peter Krog; chief of records, Charles L. Holdstein; collector of wampum, David C Allen; keeper of wampum, A. J. Stiglitz; trustee, William J. McKinley; representative to grand lodge, J. J. Johnson; alternate, D. C. Allen.

—Press want ads pay.

NEED NOT BE READY FOR THREE MONTHS.

Better Understanding of Trolley Affairs in Elizabeth.

LEEWAY UNTIL NEXT APRIL.

THE ROSELLE FRANCHISE IS OPEN UNTIL THAT DATE.

But in the Meantime the Company May Try to Run Stages to Transfer Passengers From Roselle to Elizabeth—A New Elizabeth Company May Prove an Obstacle to Riker Syndicate.

The Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company will not be obliged to get passengers into Elizabeth January 1st, in order to comply with the conditions of the Roselle ordinance. This was the belief among those interested, although Colonel Hine, the company's secretary, said his recollection of the ordinance was that it fixed the limit for beginning the operation of the road until July 1st.

But the colonel, as well as all others who were speculating on the matter, was wrong. The Roselle ordinance, as has been discovered later, requires the company to have its road in operation April 1st, and not Monday next, as was reported.

This being a fact, it is hard to explain Mr. Riker's anxiety to get a line of stages running immediately in Jersey avenue, excepting it be to secure the advantages of going into Elizabeth without being obliged to give transfers to different sections

If the company could not be legally restrained from operating in this way, it could temporarily do considerable business, and, it is alleged, at a profit as the result of the savings in the matter of transfers.

Such a method of operation would not be popular, because of its inconvenience to the patrons, and would intensify the sentiment in this city against the company to an extent that it is not probable that it would be very successful in its purpose of holding the franchise while it seeks modifications.

President Ryan said yesterday that he believed that it is the intention of the company to build its road as soon as the weather will permit. Under the city's ordinance the company has until August to build, equip and put the road in operation. Until that time expires the city can do nothing to compel the company to act on its acceptance, but he believes the company is desirous of getting the road running speedily.

There is the probability of the company finding a rival in the field when it makes an application to the City Council for a franchise to extend its tracks through the city to the downtown sections. James MacMaster is engaged on a projected local trolley company, and has interested a number of gentlemen in the enterprise.

DEDICATORY SERVICE.

Hope Memorial Chapel Will be Opened Formally Tomorrow

Tomorrow morning at Hope chapel the last service will be held in the old building. The dedicatory service of the new chapel which will be known in the future as Hope Memorial chapel will take place tomorrow evening, when Dr. Richards, of the Crescent Avenue church, will deliver an address, and other interesting exercises will be held.

On Monday afternoon from 2:30 to 5 o'clock the usual New Year's Day reception will be held, and there will be an entertainment and recitations by Lieut. Charles E Scott, of Indianapolis. At 8 o'clock in the evening there will be a service of praise and thanksgiving.

Christmas Present from the Philippines.

Mrs John Lloyd, of 173 North avenue, received a Christmas present that she prizes very highly. It was from her brother, Harry S Dorflinger, a private in Co. M, 14th U S Infantry, now doing active duty in the Philippines. It was in the form of a United States flag worked in colored silks on a background of black silk. The work was done by a native Filipino women, and is a work of art. On the upper part of the black background is an inscription worked in red silk letters, "Merry Christmas to Sister Ethel from Harry S. Dorflinger, Co M, 14th U S Infantry." The present was mailed from Manila November 14th, and reached Mrs. Lloyd December 27th.

Out of the Hospital.

Firman Arrowsmith, the young man from South Plainfield, who was injured a few days by being blown from a freight train on the Lehigh Valley Railroad at Picton, was discharged from the hospital today. He will be obliged to return frequently and have his wounds dressed.

NEW YORK STATE CANALS

The Engineer Makes His Report for the Year.

CONTESTS ARE SETTLED

How New York Is Trying to Improve Her Highways—The Sum Small in Comparison to That Appropriated in New Jersey and Massachusetts—More Money Needed.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 30.—The annual report of State Engineer Bond shows that the canal board during the past year considered in detail and settled thirty-eight of the seventy-four contracts made in 1896-7 under the $9,000,000 improvement appropriation. The work done under these thirty-eight contracts aggregates $4,270,872, and all the items have been adjusted for final payments. In the settlement of these contracts the action of the canal board has saved the state the sum of $25,000.

The improvement of highways under the provisions of the Higbee-Armstrong act of 1898 constitutes an important part of the duties of the state engineer, and is one which attracts much public interest. The state has appropriated $100,000 in all, with which to pay one-half the cost of such roads as are improved under the provisions of the law. This sum is small in proportion to the amounts appropriated by the states of Massachusetts and New Jersey; but with it contracts have been made for 25 miles of improved highways, of which seven miles, on four rrads, have been finished and accepted during the year.

Six and a half miles on one road is about finished but is not accepted and eleven miles on six roads are in progress; these roads being in Erie, Monroe, Onondaga, Schnectady, Oneida, Rensselaer and Columbia counties. Surveys have also been made for 142 miles of roads in fourteen counties, which are expected to be improved when provision is made by the legislature. The highways which have so far been improved have necessarily been comparatively short pieces, ranging from one-half mile to six miles in length. These serve as examples to the people in the various localities, with the immediate result that many petitions are received from the counties in which roads have been built. There is a general expectation that the legislature will make appropriations which will bear some comparison to those made for road work by the neighboring states.

The average cost of the highways improved so far was $7,074 a mile, but with new features of construction suggested the cost will be between $8,000 and $9,000 a mile. Even this increased cost will be 20 per cent. less than the cost of similar roads in Massachusetts.

Recommendations will be made to the Legislature to add to the Highway Law provision for the maintenance of improved highways by the county officials and to provide for a state quarry of trap rock where convicts from Sing Sing Prison can be employed in producing crushed stone for highway improvements.

NEW YEAR'S AT WHITE HOUSE.

Programme of the Various Receptions of the President.

Washington, Dec. 30.—The programme for the annual New Year's reception to be given by the President of the United States to the officers of the government, the army and the navy, the diplomatic corps and the general public was announced to-day by John Addison Porter, Secretary to the President. Apparently no official notice has been taken of the controversy regarding the precedence of the [illegible] over the navy, arising from t[illegible] that Admiral Dewey holds [illegible] fact rank than Major-Gener[illegible] a higher the usual order of r[illegible] Miles, for observed, the ar[illegible]ceiving is to be navy. The offi[illegible] preceding the [illegible] programme follows:

The Pr[illegible]sident will receive at 11 A. M. [illegible] members of the Cabinet and Di[illegible]omatic Corps.

11:15 A. M.—The Chief Justices of the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, the Judges of the United States Court of Claims, the Judges of the Court of Appeals, the Judges of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, ex-Cabinet members and ex-Ministers of the United States.

11:25 A. M.—Senators, Representatives and Delegates in Congress; the Commissioners and judicial officers of the District of Columbia.

11:40 A. M.—Officers of the army, officers of the navy, officers of the marine corps, Commanding General and General Staff of the Militia of the District of Columbia.

12 M.—The Regents and Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution; the Commissioner of Fisheries, the Civil Service Commission, the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Commissioner of Labor; Assistant Secretaries of Departments; Assistant Postmaster General, Solicitor General, Assistant Attorney General, the Treasurer of the United States, Commissioner of Pensions, Commissioner of Patents, Comptroller of the Currency, the heads of bureaus in several departments, the President of the Columbia Institute for the Deaf and Dumb.

Philadelphians to Aid Boers.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 30.—The Irish-Americans of this city are about to enter an active campaign in favor of the Boers. The initiative has been taken by the Irish-American Club and a mass meeting will be held in the Academy of Music on Saturday night, Jan. 13. The call says: "That the voice of the City of Brotherly Love and of Independence Hall shall ring out loud and clear in behalf of humanity and liberty, we invite our fellow citizens to assemble with us, and especially ask the active aid of the German, French, Dutch and Italian organizations."

French Navy to Spend $30,000,000.

Paris, Dec. 30.—Premier Waldeck-Rousseau, Minister of Marine, held a conference to-day and approved the naval programme, which is believed to include the building of twelve of the most powerful battleships afloat. An expenditure of 400,000,000 francs for the increase of the navy is contemplated.

CHURCHILL'S VIEW.

The Young Man Has Decided Opinions of the Boer War.

London, Dec. 30.—Winston Churchill telegraphs from Chievely Camp as follows: "I am in a position to state that the Transvaal government will never make peace and forgive the offenses of the war. Victory for the Boers means the practical ruin of Natal Colony even if it were not ceded to the Thansvaal.

"Moreover, many hundreds of burghers in the Transvaal secretly sympathize with the British, and have either bribed their field cornets to omit them from commando lists or are fighting under compulsion.

"For both these classes a continuance of the two republics would prove a terrible blow. As long as the independent flags floats at Pretoria that city will be a national centre of Dutch republican sentiment producing ceaseless unrest.

"The cost of the war to the British will be enormous, but we will have our money's worth. The Boers are quite prepared to lose their independence if defeated. They recognize the terms of quarrel, saying to me, "If we win we will drive you out of South Africa; if you win you will swallow us."

"My respect for the fighting burghers makes it very painful for me to contemplate injuring their pride of race, but no other solution of the South African problem is practicable or permanent, except the absorption of the two republics or the total abandonment of the Cape colonies.

"The British nation must expend blood and treasure, but it will not be spent for nothing. The Boers will never give in until hopelessly crushed. Then they will acquiesce in annexation and expect nothing better.

"Regarding changes in the command of the army, the public must trust their generals. They are picked out under the best system we can invent. If they are not good selections it is unlikely that better can be found. This war is different to all former ones. The power of magazine rifles, the annihilating effect of all other arms of the service and the mobility of the Boers were unknown features.

"Every one must learn these things in the field, and able men are proving by their own mistakes. To change them is to make others learn the business from the start, and rough material is expensive.

"The craving to supersede commanders at the first check is unmanly, unworthy of a patient, clear-headed people and destructive to the confidence of the army.

"Besides a reaction for political considerations on the conduct of a war is always fatal.

"The proximate outlook is doubtful and stormy, but the ultimate result if England be resolved is certain.

"Let her reinforce now and criticise afterward."

CHARGED BY A BULL.

Prof. Curtis Tossed in the Air and His Wagon Attacked.

Danbury, Conn., Dec. 30.—Prof. Ferdinand Curtis, who conducts a private school at Brookfield, near this city, his son, and a driver had a narrow escape from being gored to death by a bull which a farmer was leading to Danbury to be butchered. The sight of the wagon maddened the bull, which suddenly broke from the man who was leading it and charged at the vehicle. Prof. Curtis was thrown from th[illegible] wagon by the violence of the coll[illegible] and the horse started at br[illegible], speed down the road. The [illegible]neck the man of learning in th[illegible] bull tossed stood as if undecided [illegible] air and then the job of killing [illegible] whether to finish suit of the wa[illegible] him or go in pursuit later course [illegible]. It decided on the overtook [illegible] and, after a long chase, The [illegible] the runaway. ro[illegible]e is a cut, through which a railroad track runs, at the point where the bull overtook the vehicle, and the road skirts the top of the embankment on one side of the cut. The road is very narrow at that point, and, in attempting to pass the wagon, evidently with the intention of attacking the horse, the bull was forced against a barbed wire fence, the strength of which was not sufficient to withstand his weight. The animal attempted to save itself, but in vain, and rolled, struggling, down the steep embankment for a distance of nearly fifty feet to the railroad track. Its neck was broken and it died instantly.

A block and tackle were hastily secured from a neighboring farm house, and the carcass of the bull was pulled from the cut only a few minutes before an express train passed.

Ill Effect of "Noble Deeds."

Geneva, N. Y., Dec. 30.—As a result of kicking his eight-year-old brother, Louis Young, who lives here, is nursing a toe out of joint. Young was busy reading a book entitled "Noble Deeds of Noble Men and Women" and his little brother began interrupting and teasing him. This exasperated Young and he told his little brother to stop under threat of punishment. The boy did not stop, but on the sly went up to the reader, who was in his stocking feet, his mind absorbed in the "noble deeds" about which he was reading, and began tickling his feet.

The young man jumped to the floor and gave vent to his wrath by giving his brother a terrible kick with his right foot. The force of the kick dislocated the great toe and a physician had to be called to dress the injury. The boy was unharmed and roared with laughter at his brother's misfortune.

Mr. Cleveland's Illness.

Princeton, N. J., Dec. 30.—Ex-President Grover Cleveland has been confined to his home on Bayard avenue here for almost a month with rheumatism in his left foot, but seemed to be steadily recovering from the illness until a few days ago, when he decided to remain in bed by the advice of his physician, Dr. James H. Wikoff. The fact that Mr. Cleveland had grown worse suddenly did not become known here except among his most intimate friends until to-day.

No information as to Mr. Cleveland's condition could be obtained at his residence this evening. Dr. Wikoff when seen to-day said: "I have been attending Mr. Cleveland since his illness and was there again to-day. He is n[illegible] able to sit up and also walk around [illegible] room a little. He is doing nicely and not dangerously ill and will probabl[illegible] be able to go out again within a few days or a week."

RADAM'S

Microbe Killer

NOT A DRUG

But Pure Water, Heavily Charged With Medicinal Gases, Which Absolutely Destroy All Germs of Disease.

It cures Consumption, Cancer, Chronic Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Stomach and Liver Troubles, Scrofula, Eczema, and all eruptions, Rheumatism, Lameness of the Back or Limbs, all Tumors and Swellings, Diabetes, Bright's Disease, Fistula, Piles, etc. Especially valuable in all Female Complaints.

Why not try a bottle ($1) or gallon jug ($3)? It will certainly cure you.

If interested or any of your friends are sick, send for book containing testimonials from our patients, mailed free.

The Wm. Radam Microbe Killer Co

121 PRINCE STREET, NEW YORK, or

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Plainfield, N. J.

BEST FOR THE BOWELS

If you haven't a regular, healthy movement of the bowels every day, you're sick, or will be. Keep your bowels open, and be well. Force, in the shape of violent physic or pill poison, is dangerous. The smoothest, easiest, most perfect way of keeping the bowels clear and clean is to take

CANDY CATHARTIC

Cascarets

TRADE MARK REGISTERED

REGULATE THE LIVER

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good, Do Good, Never Sicken, Weaken, or Gripe. 10c. 50c Write for free sample, and booklet on health. Address Sterling Remedy Company, Chicago, Montreal, New York. 322a

KEEP YOUR BLOOD CLEAN

John G. Bantle,

First-class

Ladies' and Gent's

TAIL[illegible]OR.

428 Wat[illegible]hung Avenue.

Specialt[illegible] of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

Flynn Bros.,

SHOE DEALERS,

222 WEST FRONT STREET,

Near Music Hall,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

THE BEST EQUIPPED LAUNDRY . . .

in the State; branches in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Try our celebrated

DOMESTIC FINISH.

Up-to-date Laundry Work Done.

Wagons call and deliver in all parts of the city.

Trading Stamps given.

The City Steam & Hand Laundry

MOREY & LARUE, Proprietors. Telephone 225 B

19 Somerset St., Plainfield, N. J.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,

Furniture and Freight Express

Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blain's Hat Store, 126 Park avenue. 101

SELLING OUT

Below Cost

TO CLOSE BUSINESS.

Star Crockery Store,

23 Somerset St., near Front.

3 and 9 cent Articles.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!

Solomon & Evans,

Proprietors.

THE "Know How" —IN— PAPER HANGING

is what we make no charge for. You pay for the materials and the labor—nothing more. Our paper hangers are men who "KNOW HOW" to measure a room—"KNOW HOW" to size it—"KNOW HOW" to cut, match and hang the paper. They know their business. Its good policy to intrust your work in our hands—we'll see that you get a good job That's what you want; that's just what you'll get if we do it. You can surely find just what you want among our many choice patterns—all the very latest styles.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.,

201 PARK AVE., Cor 2d ST.

Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc.

Estimates furnished. Telephone call 635

STATIONERY and TOYS.

We have on hand a full line of toys, games, fancy paper, pads and fancy articles for the Holiday trade.

CHRISTMAS CARDS and CALENDARS.

We make a specialty of

FASHION BOOKS, NOVELS and MAGAZINES, CARDBOARD and TISSUE PAPER.

High Grade Cigars.

Papers and Magazines furnished by the day, month or year.

B. W. HAND,

205 W. Front Street.

McCullough's STEAM MILL.

at Steiner place, North Plainfie

R. H. McCullough, Prop'

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished

RUSHTON & HANSEN,

Painters and Paper Hangers,

Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets

Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully [illegible] orders promptly attended to. 2 11

M. POWERS,

DEALER IN

LEHIGH COAL.

FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.

Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A

Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

LADIES' TAILORING.

RICHARDSON & WALD,

325 West Front Street.

TAILOR-MADE GARMENTS.

We make a specialty of Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

Alterations and relining promptly attended to.

—DRESSMAKING.—

Our Dressmaking Department is in charge of Madame Walsh.

THE GRANDVIEW

Meat Market

George Egel, Manager.

Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

COPYRIGHT 1899

THE ENTRANCE TO THE DINING ROOM

will give you an unusual amount of pleasure if you know the Christmas Turkey on the table and the meat comes from us.

Our stock on Thanksgiving was the largest and gave the most and best satisfaction in the city, and we have just as good a stock this time, if not better. Place your orders early.

The variety of all kinds of meats is large, too—everything in season and many things you don't expect to be able to get.

FRED ENDRESS,

131—135 WEST FRONT STREET.

GEO. O. STEVENS & CO.

COAL.

747 WEST FRONT ST.

ALEX. LUSARDI,

211 West Front Street,

Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery. Nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores 99t year

J. C. Pope & Co.,

INSURANCE AGENTS,

110 East Front St.,

Plainfield, N. J

LAIRE'S . .

HOLIDAY SPECIALS.

Carving knives.
U. S. club skates.
Roger's plated ware.
Fine pocket cutlery.
Silver finish coffee and tea pots.
Nickel on copper tea kettles.
Boys' sleighs.
Fine razors and hones.
Grand Rapid sweepers.
Baby Rapid sweepers.
Shinny sticks.
Christmas tree holders.
Coin silver ware, cheap.
Fine table cutlery.
Fine scissors and shears.
Corn poppers.

The J. P. LAIRE Hardware Co.,

Tel. Call 682.

TRY THE QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,

No. 337 Park Avenue.

(Miller Building.)

Goods called for and delivered free of charge.

Domestic or gloss finish.

DOBBINS. CIGARS.

108 NORTH AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN,

ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.

317 West Front street.

J. W. VAN SICKLE.

122 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

FRESH & SALTED MEATS,

GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.

Orders called for and delivered promptly

TELEPHONE 148 b.

Your Valuables,

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

GAS

For the Fire-place.
Headquarters for Gas Logs and Grates.
Agency for the "Hackus" patent Gas Grate—No chimney required.

CURTIS M. THORPE,

310-312 PARK AVENUE.

"EVERYTHING FOR THE FIREPLACE."

F. A. DUNHAM,

—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—

109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.

I. O. H.

Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 149 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711

ROYAL ARCANUM.

The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.

A. I. LITTELL, Regent.

Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

L. MORALLER & SON,

Watchmakers and Jewelers.

219 Park Avenue.

A. KANE,

Dealer in

BLUE STONE FLAGGING and CURBING.

Also Dealer in

Flour, Feed and Grain, Coal and Wood.

Store and Office

409 East Third St.,

Next to

THIRD STREET MISSION.

Open Evenings Until 8 o'Clock.

Defective Eyes.

Overstrained and Defective Eyes are the cause of many a

HEADACHE.

Correctly-fitted Glasses will remedy the trouble. A Scientific Examination Free and Glasses Guaranteed.

STILES & CO.,

107 E. Front St.

EVERY THURSDAY.

Hours: 10:30 to 5:00.

E. B. Claynard,

NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE

Tonsorial Artist . . .

Also CHOICE CIGARS.

141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

Chas. L. Stanley,

. . FLORIST . .

No. 142 North Ave.

HEADQUARTERS for choice Cut Flowers, Ferns, Palms, a large assortment of other plants.

Floral design work and decorating for all occasions. Satisfaction guaranteed; an immense stock of Holly, Wreaths, Roping, etc.

Annex stores for the Holidays,

134 North Ave,
South Ave, Netherwood,
and Central Ave., Westfield

M. Molnar,

432 Watchung Ave.,

Ladies' and Gents'

FINE TAILORING

Graduate of

New York Cutting School.

Personal attention to repairing. Give me a trial order with old clothes and I will take chances of being entrusted with new work.

OUR OYSTERS ARE THE ---FINEST---

ROGERS

232 West Second Street.

HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS.

Paris for 1900.

Ten Tours to Paris, England, Scotland, Norway, Germany, Switzerland and Italy for 1900.

Circulars at

181 North Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.

Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills

—25c.—

A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses. : : :

MALLINSON'S

North and Watchung avenues.

FOUGHT BEARS IN A ZOO.

Adventures of a New York Menagerie Keeper,

NOW GLAD HE IS ALIVE

He Will Not Venture Into the Polar Bear's Cage for Some Time—A Desperate Chance of Escape Proves Successful—Covered With Cuts and Scratches.

New York, Dec. 30.—Keeper Patrick Marin, of the Central Park Menagerie, is under the doctor's care, suffering from the effects of a desperate encounter with a female polar bear. That Marin is alive is due more to good luck than any action on his or the bear's part.

A persistent effort has been made to keep the affair quiet, but it became known and the keepers have told all.

Polar bears are regarded by experts as the fiercest of the bear tribe. They never become friendly and are absolutely untamable. In a fair fight, it is claimed, they will whip a grizzly every time.

Marin is in charge of the polar bear den, which is a large cage placed in the side of the little hill on the northern end of the menagerie. A cave has been dug out of the hillside for the animals to sleep in and the roof to it is a large at rock.

There are several poles for the animals to climb.

Until two weeks ago a large male bear was the only occupant of the den, when a large female was received from Germany. She was very vicious and discontented, and it was only a few days before she had the male as sullen and ugly as she was.

Marin entered the den just after daylight. He was alone and carried a shovel and a broom. The bears were asleep in the cave at the time.

Marin went in there and prodded them out with his broom. They obeyed sluggishly, growling and snarling. He paid no attention to that, and, after seeing that they had climbed up the side of the hill to the roof of the cave, went on with his cleaning.

As he worked he saw on the ground a swinging shadow. He turned to find the female bear had leaned over the edge of the roof and was striking at him with a huge paw. The paw, swinging pendulum-like, came closer, and, although Marin crouched, it struck him in the small of the back, tearing the clothing and leaving a row of deep scratches.

Marin turned and struck the bear with his broom. With a growl she jumped down and started for him. He jumped over her and reached one of the poles just as she turned and struck at him, tearing away the leg of his trousers and cutting the calf of his leg. He climbed the pole and called for help.

By this time both bears were at the foot of the pole, the male bear apparently as frenzied as the female. He rose on his haunches to climb up after Marin.

Marin took a desperate chance. He knew, he said, that if was death to stay, and there was just a chance for him to jump. No help was within call. The other men were busy and did not notice the unusual growling.

Marin jumped over the head of the male bear, just in front of the female. She started for him, rising on her haunches, her huge paws outspread, her mouth open, showing gleaming white teeth.

She blocked his way to the little wicket gate and safety. Marin thought he was gone, but suddenly espying the shovel on the ground, grabbed it up and swinging it with all his might, brought it down on the head of the female.

It staggered the animal for an instant and that gave Marin his chance. He pushed by her and started for the gate. As he ran the male polar swung his huge paw and literally ripped every stitch of clothing from his shoulders, leaving deep cuts, scratches and tears in the flesh.

Marin darted forward and reached the gate, both bears by this time almost on him. He raised the slip bolt and threw himself through, just as both made final slashes, again tearing his clothing.

Marin's cuts and scratches were bandaged by a physician and he was taken home.

The bears have been fed and attended since at long distance.

Negro Education.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 29.—The biennial report of the superintendent of public instruction of Virginia, which is to be submitted on Jan. 1, will probably attract more attention than any that has yet emanated from that department.

The report declares that, with an experience of thirty years, the superintendent of education finds the education of the negro race a failure. The state of Virginia spends annually nearly $500,000 on sustaining the colored public schools. The report discusses the subject at length, and includes expressions of opinion of a number of leading educators on the problem. Booker T. Washington's views are quoted, and finally the superintendent declares that education of the negro in Virginia has proved ineffective. The fault, it is pointed out, lies in the fact that the heads alone of the negroes are trained, and such trainng has not resulted in the improvement of the race in the manner that might have been hoped for.

The superintendent recommends that manual training be added as a part of the education of negroes. Such instruction, it is declared, would greatly add to the efficiency of both white and colored schools.

Two Days More for Benham.

Albany, Dec. 30.—Governor Roosevelt's attenton being called this morning to the fact that Feb. 10, the date to which respite was granted in the case of Howard C. Benham, the Batavia wife murderer, fell on Saturday, he caused the date to be changed to Feb. 12.

Gift to Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, Dec. 30.—Provost C. C. Harrison, of the University of Pennsylvania, has given the university $250,000 as a New Year's gift.

CUBAN OFFICE SEEKERS.

Gen. Wood Is Besieged by Hundreds of Applicants.

Havana, Dec. 30.—Gen. Wood's office is besieged from early morn until after dark by a crowd of office seekers from all parts of the island. The applicants want every thing or anything—from cabinet secretaryships to janitorships. Despite the fact that the governor general receives on the average 200 people every twenty-four hours, he manages to find time to pay unexpected morning visits to the asylums and jails. Gen. Wood prefers to take the managers of such institutions unprepared. To-morrow he intends to inspect the leper hospital. To-day he visited the Beneficencia.

He does not intend to interfere in matters of public policy before the New Year, when the new cabinet will be installed. It is generally reported by his friends that Senor Villalon has been offered a cabinet position. A similar statement is made concerning Senors Varona, Esteve, and Tamayo. Senor Villalon is the present chief of public works at Santa Clara. Senor Varona was formerly editor of the Patria. Senor Estevez is president of the National Party. Senor Tamayo is a judge of the supreme court. Most of these appointments, if made, would meet with public approval but Gen. Wood declines to confirm or to deny the reports in any case, asserting that he will not give out information on the subject until the entire cabinet has been decided upon.

Cubans have been agreeably surprised by Gen. Wood's refusal to allow the municipality of Cardenas to grant private contracts. In a communication embodying his refusal, he said:

"No such contract will be recognized until after the municipalities have been elected, an event which is only a few months off. Then the will of the people will be known, and, provided there is no interference with the prerogatives of the general government, municipalities will be alowed to use all rightful means of improving the country without interference from Havana or anywhere else."

A SAD MISTAKE.

He Shot His Wife, Thinking She Was a Burglar.

Mount Vernon, N. Y., Dec. 30.—Mistaking the form of his wife for a burglar early this morning, Alfred Morrison fired his revolver at the object in his bedroom, and then discovered that he had shot his wife. The bullet penetrated the left shoulder and lodged near the lung on that side. Coroner Banning found her in a critical condition. She exonerates her husband.

The Morrisons reside at No. 235 South Tenth avenue, in this city. He teaches languages at Larchmont Manor. A short time ago a burglar stole Morrison's overcoat. He purchased a revolver and waited for another burglar. Last night Mrs. Morrison retired at an early hour. At midnight Mrs. Morrison arose to care for her baby. Her husband awoke and saw a shadow in the darkened room. He aimed the revolver and pulled the trigger. Instantly there was a woman's scream of "Oh, Al, you have shot me," and Mrs. Morrison fell.

Morrison summoned Dr. Jones, Coroner Banning and several other physicians, and these succeeded in bringing Mrs. Morrison back to consciousness. She told Coroner Banning that her husband must have been dreaming about burglars, and that he awoke so suddenly that he shot without making an investigation. Professor Morrison is nearly wild with grief.

Fortune for a Convict.

Newburg, N. Y., Dec. 30.—Word was received at the Matteawan State Hospital for Criminal Insane, on Christmas night, that Frank Mason, an inmate, had fallen heir to considerable property through the death of a relative in Minnesota.

Mason was a member of the famous bridge gang of this city. His mind gave way during his confinement at Auburn, and about a year and a half ago he was transferred to the insane asylum. His time expires the latter part of this month, and he was afraid that he would not be liberated. He had again regained his reason and was allowed to work about the place. The latter part of November he made his escape. He was captured at Poughkeepsie the next morning, and was brought back to the asylum Nov. 27. He took no part in the Christmas festivities, and was very despondent, but in the evening a letter came, stating that Mason's stepfather had died, and the property had passed to the man in the asylum. He will be released in a few days.

Mr. Boutelle's Condition.

Boston, Dec. 30.—It is asserted here to-day that Congressman Boutelle's condition is very critical. He is at the McLean Asylum, but the physicians there decline to say how serious is his illness. He is attended in the asylum by his family physician, Dr. Daniel A. Robinson. Mr. Boutelle's brother is quoted as saying:

"I saw him at the asylum yesterday, and there was nothing in his condition to occasion alarm. I left word with the asylum authorities to notify me at once if anything happened, and they will do so. I have heard nothing from the asylum to-day, so I know there is no change in his condition. There is really nothing in my brother's condition which would indicate that his illness is fatal. We had him removed to the McLean Asylum because we wanted him to have the very best medical care."

It is asserted that the ailment from which Mr. Boutelle is suffering is Bright's disease in its last stages.

A Fifty Per Cent. Dividend.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 30.—The directors of the New York State National Bank to-day declared a dividend of 50 per cent., free of tax, payable Jan. 2.

This action was taken in accordance with the policy established seven years ago, when a similar dividend was declared, to make a division of accumulated profits from time to time by increased dividends. The capital is $250,000, and the surplus fund is of equal amount. There is a residue, after payment of this extra dividend, of undivided profits sufficient for every emergency. The institution is one of the oldest banks in the state.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD,
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

EDUCATIONAL

Plainfield Business College
CITY BANK BUILDING,
Commercial, Shorthand and English Courses.
PITMAN and GREGG SHORTHAND SYSTEMS.
Write or call. A. A. Phelps, A. M., President.

ART STUDIO.
(City Bank Building.)
Adelia C. Phelps will resume work Sept. 26th. Water Color, China, Oil Painting, Tapestry, Crayon, etc., taught. Visitors welcome.

Miss Sarah A. Palmer,
Teacher of
::: PIANO AND THEORY :::
Home Studio,
132 CRESCENT AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Mr. William H. Miller,
Organist of the First Presbyterian Church.
—TEACHER OF—
PIANO AND ORGAN,
Address—60 SANDFORD AVE., or Brokaw's Music Store. 10 9 6mo

.....Piano Instruction.....
Virgil Method and Virgil Practice Clavier used.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and
MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVENUE.
Sight Reading and Ensemble Playing Classes
Elementary Classes.
Also Vocal Sight Reading Classes.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Dufft.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to

::Pride's Tonsorial Parlor::
94 SOMERSET STREET,
opposite Somerset Hotel.
Ladies' and Children's hair cutting a specialty.....
CHOICE CIGARS. OPEN SUNDAYS.
-:- WILLIAM J. PRIDE, -:-
formerly with E. B. Maynard.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun John P. Emmot
Telephone 601

Don't miss the Special Sale for the holidays of FRAMES,
EASELS,
and PICTURES
AT REDUCED PRICES,
given by the
Guarantee Portrait Studio,
142 East Front Street.
Fine drawings in Crayons and Pastels from all kinds of photographs. All kinds of frames from the latest styles of mouldings made to order at the lowest prices.

THAT'S THE IDEA!
You ought to see what we can do for you before doing anything for yourself. Painting depends upon the paint and the painter. Better preparations than ours were never put on by a brush. Wherever paint is put, it should be put there to stay long enough to make it worth while to do the job. The warring elements have no effect on our durable mixtures.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

HOTELS.

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL.,
corner Somerset and Chatham streets North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front Street,
Dealers in
--Fresh and Salt Meats--
Special Sales on
Fridays and Saturdays,

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

PLAINFIELD POST OFFICE.

NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30, 5:00, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 1:45, 5:00, 7:45 p. m.

SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m.; 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m.; 2:30 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m.; 2:30 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a. m.; 12:30, 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:15 p. m.

WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M.

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS.
New York City and Country Work. | Stages to Hire for Picnics, etc.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Best work for the money in town. Bids on work willingly given. Work done night or day. Get my bid before you have work done.
P. O. Box 635, Plainfield, N. J.
T. M. INGRAHAM.

XMAS IS NEAR
Now is the time to order your Xmas greens First come, first served. Holly, laurel and Xmas green wreaths and roping; also loose holly, palms, ferns, jardinieres and wicker baskets for Xmas presents.
MRS. L. J. DENTON,
Stillman Building. Tel. call 731.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 9 North avenue.

COLLIER
EYE SPECIALIST,
103 Park Ave.....
Established 1869. Eyes Examined Free.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing,
Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections.
210 PARK AVE.

H. E. Gayle, 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

W. D. MANNING
sells superior
Coal, Wood, Gasolene and Kerosene.
Office, 153 North Ave. Yard, 929 South Av
Tel. 129 A.

BANK ELECTION.

CITY NATIONAL BANK

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of this bank, for the election of nine Directors to serve for the ensuing year, will be held at the Banking rooms, corner of Park avenue and Front street, on Tuesday, January 9th, 1900, from 1 to 2 o'clock p. m.

WILLIAM F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

Dated Plainfield, N. J., December 7th, 1899.
12-8 9 11 13 15 16 19 22 26 28 30 1-2 4 6 8

The fat undertaker,
Who plants by the acre,
Poor victims of cough and cold,
Is sighing and crying,
For we've all stopped dying
Since Brazilian Balm was sold.
And for those who desire
Not just yet to go higher
It is worth its weight in gold.

For sale by all druggists. L. W. Randolph, Wholesale Agent.

BAMBERGER'S
"THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE"
MARKET & HALSEY STS.

The Largest and Most Perfectly Equipped
Mail Order Service
Presenting Unequalled Shopping Facilities
For Thousands of Out-of-Town Patrons.

A thoroughly experienced staff of buyers in this department will make selections for you, and satisfaction is guaranteed or money will be refunded. We prepay mail or express charges to any part of the State on all paid purchases, and on C. O. D.'s for amounts aggregating $5.00 or more. Try our system, and you will not only save money, but have the additional advantage of assortments not equaled in Newark or surpassed anywhere in the land. Samples sent postpaid to any address upon receipt of postal card.

L. Bamberger & Co.
Newark, N. J.

We Shine 'em Free,
The New Styles in Winter Shoes.
Enamel Leathers,
Box Calf and Tans.

Sherwins,
149 W. Front St.

WANTED
25 Mechanics

and others to buy lots. We only ask for 25 people as that is all the lots we have left. Take our advice and buy a lot now and you will make money. The trolley running to Scotch Plains has created a demand and prices are advancing.

Agent on the Grounds
SATURDAY AFTERNOONS.

Property situated on North, Leland and Columbia Avenues. Remember it only cost you $5.00 a month per lot, and no other expenses.

. . . TAYLOR & MACDONALD.

Our Attractive Holiday Display
awaits your inspection. We are glad to welcome visitors and pleased to show our goods.
A. L. & M. D. Gorsline, 144 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

111 Somerset Street. Tel. 1113.
Borden's Unsweetened Condensed Milk,
Delivered Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
Fluid Milk and Extra fine Sweet Cream delivered every day.
WHIPPED CREAM TO ORDER
DEBELE'S CREAMERY.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agent for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

THE TICHBORNE HEIR.

Now Believed to Be an Inmate of Insane Asylum.

Vancouver, B. C., Dec. 30.—A Parliamentary committee believes it has discovered the long-lost heir to the Tichborne estate in the person of William Cresswell, a patient in the Paramatta Insane Asylum, Australia.

Drs. Pickburn and Devlin, famous specialists, examined Cresswell in the presence of the committee, and the marks which they found tallying with those of the missing heir were the following:

Mark of fish hook through right upper eyelid; dent on left eyebrow; odd ears, one fatter in the lobe than the other; striking light blue eyes; one shoulder higher than the other; tattoo mark, "Faith, Hope and Charity," and letters "R. C. T." on left forearm; small mark on left wrist; small mark on left upper arm; mark of an issue on left upper artery; lump on right instep; small feet; height, 5 feet 8½ in hes; nail on thumb of right hand growing only half way; slight limp; twitching eyebrows; cut on top of third finger on right hand; lancet cut on both arms; dent at back of head; sits sideways muttering before speaking, ample flat forehead, heavy eyes, and circular scar on nose.

The mark on the nose is recorded in the asylum records as having been described by Cresswell as the result of a wasp bite at Bullsdown Farm, England. Tichborne also was stung on the nose by a bee at Bullsdown Farm.

The Tichborne case is one of the most remarkable in history. Born in 1829, Sir Roger was supposed to have been drowned at sea in 1854. In 1871 Arthur Orton claimed the baronetcy and $120,000-a-year-estate saying he was the missing Sir Roger.

So many and striking were the proofs that even the mother believed she recognized her son.

After the longest trial on record Orton was shown to be a fraud and he was convicted in 1874 for perjury and sent to prison for fourteen years. Several plays are founded upon the case.

THE MOLINEUX CASE.

A New Letter Introduced Which Is Said to Be Important.

New York, Dec. 30.—Startling charges that private papers now in the hands of the counsel for Molineux have been stolen were made in court by John D. Adams, secretary of the Knickerbocker Athletic Club. The charges electrified court, counsel and spectators. It was one of the most dramatic scenes in the poison trial that has fairly bristled with sensations.

Bartow S. Weeks, cross-examing the secretary of the K. A. C., presented several exhibits to Adams, some of them photographed, for the witness' identification only, which prevented the District Attorney from examing them until they are finally put in evidence.

It is known that the defence has had handwriting experts examining Adams's handwriting. The object of the examination has not developed, but among the exhibits were several specimens of Adams's handwriting.

No help coming to him from Osborne, Adams turned to Recorder Goff and said, abruptly:

"These papers presented have been stolen from me. I ask that they be excluded."

But the Recorder allowed them to be marked for identification.

One of the documents was written on blue paper, and appeared to be a long letter. Whether it was the tri-crescent blue paper was carefully concealed.

Felix J. Gallagher, whose name has been prominently mentioned in connection with the case, was in court under a subpoena.

HAVOC IN LADYSMITH.

Many Killed and Hurt by Boer Shells Daily.

Ladysmith, Dec. 30—Shelling by the Boers has greatly increased in the last few days. Their twelve-pounder gun on a kopje to the west of the town, which was silenced in the sortie by Col. Brocklehurst on Nov. 14, is active again.

One shell from this weapon struck near Gen. White's headquarters, but did no damage. Yesterday a single shell from the Bulwaan Hill big gun burst and pieces hit Col. Fawsett, of the Fifth Lanciers; Major King, the second in command; an adjutant, two squadron officers and the sergeant-major of the same regiment. All were slightly wounded.

Another shell killed a private of the Gloucester regiment and wounded seven others. This is the record of damage done here by a single shell. These soldiers were cleaning their rifles outside the traverse when the shell burst among them. Gen. White has had a slight attack of enteric fever, but is now convalescent. We hear the firing of big guns from the direction of Colenso every morning. The authorities here are, however, exceedingly reticent, and therefore the town and camp are full of rumors.

Filipinos Here for Peace.

New York, Dec. 30.—Three representatives of the Filipino Congress are in this city with an "ultimatum" to President McKinley. They will go to Washington to present the terms on which Aguinaldo will surrender and terminate the insurrection. These men are Jessup Luigi T. de Fernandez, Lucio Lem Lejera and Juliet Franciscus Lopez. Fernandez is a Spaniard by birth and was formerly Spanish Consul at Tamsui, Japan. He says of his mission: "If President McKinley will decide on anything like reasonable terms and will inform the Filipino Congress through us, its representatives in this country, the Filipinos will lay down their arms within the next month or two and the war will end. Our terms are the last and best that will ever be made in this country, and they were only decided on after a long and disagreeable session of the Filipino Congress. Many of the natives, and particularly the army, are not satisfied with Aguinaldo, and it was through their efforts that the Filipino Congress, without consulting Aguinaldo, decided on terms and sent us here to lay them before your President." While in Washington the three representatives are to make a canvass of the members of the Senate and House of Representatives, with the object of learning each members attitude toward the administration and the Filipino war.

AFFAIRS OF THE HARPERS

The Great New York Publishers Will Continue SAVING $20,000 MONTHLY

A Plan for the Financial Readjustment of the Corporation Under Single-Handed Control—The Firm Is Now on a Paying Basis, Although the Losses Have Been Heavy.

New York, Dec. 30.—At the instance of creditors whose claims aggregate nearly half the entire indebtedness of Harper & Brothers, a committee of five men, of which Alexander E. Orr is chairman, has undertaken to prepare and submit to creditors a plan of reorganization. Preliminary to this task the committee has prepared a statement, in which it is set up that the total liabilities of Harper & Brothers on Dec. 4, 1899, were $3,083,000, diminished since the date named by the turning over of $150,000 of bonds, which leaves the total indebtedness $2,993,000.

The secured indebtedness is $1,001,000, consisting of notes, an open account, and a mortgage of $6,000, secured by bonds and real estate. The unsecured indebtedness comprises commercial paper and open accounts.

The corporation in 1896 mortgaged its property to secure $3,000,000 5 per cent. 100-year gold bonds. Of this amount, $2,645,000 stands as collateral, as referred to. The remainder of the issued bonds, $335,000, is outstanding, and controlled by the committee for the purposes of reorganization. The mortgage represented by the bonds covers all property of the corporation, except stock on hand, bills receivable, supplies, and cash on hand. Omitting the asset of good will and plates, estimated at $900,000 value, and deducting the bond and mortgage, $394,000 remains against the outstanding bonded indebtedness of $2,645,000, or 26 per cent. of their par value.

The estimated net available assets, not covered by mortgage, to meet unsecured claims, are substantially $442,607. In this connection real estate and improvements are set down at $650,000, good will and plates at $900,000, machinery, merchandise, manuscripts, drawings, &c., at $157,500, and cash and bills receivable and miscellaneous securities, $412,913.

The amount of the assets of $442,607, as stated, is arrived at by deducting from the gross estimated assets as here itemized, and amounting to $3,120,413, the assets covered by first mortgage and bond and mortgage, in the sum of $1,600,000, and amounts due preferred creditors to the amount of $77,806.

The net liabilities in excess of bonded indebtedness are placed at $1,962,612, and comprise bills payable, general creditors, manuscripts, advertising, and unexpired subscriptions, leaving net available assets equal to 22.5 per cent. of net available liabilities, exclusive of cost of receivership and liquidation.

The committee regards the above estimate of value of assets, except as a going concern, to be very excessive. All of the assets covered by the mortgage are deducted in computing the probable excess of unsecured creditors, because in the committee's judgment the property covered by the mortgage would not realize, under foreclosure sale, more than enough to satisfy the secured claims.

Wherefore, the committee concludes, if the corporation is not continued as a going concern, unsecured creditors would receive a very small percentage of par value of their claims. Little, if any, relief is anticipated for creditors from indorsements of commercial paper sold by the corporation and held now as unsecured claims.

Statement is made by the committee that, under direction of G. B. M. Harvey, agent of the trustees and receiver now in charge of the property, operating expenses have been reduced $20,000 per month, equivalent to a saving of interest on $5,000,000. Mr. Harvey has reported to the committee that the total loss from the business during the first eight months of the present year was nearly $400,000, but that, owing to retrenchments referred to, he is certain that the corporation is now earning its operating expenses.

Mr. Harvey believes that with proper management, free of custody of the courts, the business can earn, in 1900, about $100,000 above the operating expenses.

The committee, therefore, recommends to the creditors that the business be continued under strong, single-handed control. The committee has assurances from the holders of practically all the bonds, that with the concurrence of unsecured creditors continuance may be had upon a sound financial basis. The plan for the financial readjustment of the corporation's affairs is now in preparation, and will be duly submitted to the creditors.

Beat Slot Machines.

Kansas City, Dec. 30.—Frank Jenkins and John Geer were committed to jail to-day, and the police believe that they have broken up an industry which seriously interfered with the profits of slot machines all over the country. Jenkins and Geer had a plant in which they manufactured lead slugs the size of nickels. These were used by the customers of the makers in working slot machines.

3,000,000 Are Starving.

Calcutta, Dec. 30.—Almost three million persons are receiving famine relief. The Indian government is spending nearly two lakhs of rupees daily. It is estimated that the cost of the relief to the end of March will be three crores of rupees. Owing to the rapid increase in the number of people seeking relief, the Viceroy, Lord Curzon, of Kedleston, invites a closer scrutiny of the claims of the applicants.

Shed Skin Four Times.

St. Joseph, Mo., Dec. 30.—Physicians here are greatly mystified over the condition of O. S. Buskirk, a farm hand sent to the county farm with a peculiar disease. For four years Buskirk has been shedding his outer skin once a year, but this year it came off four times. It slipped off his hand like a glove, leaving the flesh underneath as pink as that of a baby.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, - Editor and Proprietor,

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:00 p. m.

305 North Avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week
$5 a year—in advance.

No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada

Delivered by carrier or by mail.

The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district

Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to insure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., DEC 30, 1899

COMING EVENTS.

Dec. 31—Adjutant Emily C. March will speak at the men's rally at the Y. M. C. A. at 4:15 p. m.

January 1—Open house at Y. M. C. A. All men are invited.

January 1—Mons DeVilliers and Miss Caroline Loring in Y. M. C. A. Star Course.

Jan. 2—Meeting of Missionary Study Class of the Y. M. C. A.

Jan. 3—Meeting of Literary Society of the Y. M. C. A.

A Decided Change of Opinion.

When the Elizabeth Journal "goes back" on any corporation concern or movement which it has been friendly to, it can be accepted as an assured fact that there are good and sufficient reasons for its change of mind. Ever since the negotiations were commenced between the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company and the City Council of Elizabeth for the granting of a trolley franchise, up to the time the Company accepted the conditions determined by the Council, the Journal was the champion of the corporation in every move it made. It is very significant, therefore, that the Journal should have reversed its position in this respect. The Journal can not now say anything too bitter of the double dealing and trickery of the trolley syndicate that has been playing fast and loose with such a good friend as that paper has been to it. In speaking of the insincerity of the company in accepting the franchise, the Journal says:

So far as is known at this writing not a single member of the City Council expected the company to accept the franchise. Bikr's melodramatic declaration before the City Council; his announcement that his company withdrew its application; his abrupt leaving the Council chamber with his associates; his subsequent published declarations that under no circumstances would his company accept the ordinance; the purchase of a private right of way, were all parts of a gigantic bluff, directed not so much at the Council, perhaps, as at rival trolley interests. One purpose may have been to compel the Consolidated to buy the new line and make the Jersey avenue connection under its own charter.

The ordinance has been accepted, however, and if the road is built and put in operation the city is to be congratulated. But the memory of the manner in which this matter of the franchise was manipulated will ever be odorous of falsity, duplicity and trickery, which good luck rather than good management has unexpectedly turned to the city's advantage.

The Journal's position now gives added force and truth to the opinion held throughout the negotiations by The Daily Press—that the trolley syndicate was conducting a fight based solely upon a stupendous bluff which would eventually result exactly as it has.

Publicity Will Do It.

That idea of Senator Reed to enact a law to compel the publication of real estate assessments in the newspapers of the various communities of the State, in order to secure more equitable taxation, is a good one. The lime light of publicity will do more towards breaking up the pernicious partiality shown in assessing valuations than any other process that can be brought into play. Publicity has unearthed more scandals and caused more reforms than any other medium known to civilization.

As long assessors can do their work in the dark, the general public being kept in ignorance of their decisions, so long will inequitable and unfair assessments be made. No community is free from the ill effects of this condition today, but let the assessments be published in cold type in the localities to which they apply, and there will be such an equitable adjustment of assessments among the rich and the poor, the high and the low, that it will almost take away the breath of some people who will wonder how on the earth the old state of affairs ever existed so long.

In speaking of the proposed legislation in this direction, Senator Reed says:

"The bill will be brief and a very simple one. It will provide for the publication in the local newspapers of all the assessments on real estate made by the city and township assessors. By this means each property owner can see at what figure his neighbor is assessed, and if there should be any discrepancy or favoritism the fact will be at once apparent, and the solution of the vexed question of equal taxation will work itself out in its own and in a natural way through the medium of protest where the assessments have been unjust or unfair."

The Philadelphia Record says that "the purchase of the Panama Canal outfit by American capitalists must be regarded as a fortunate transaction for the country, however it may eventuate for the purchasers. It will be eminently in the public interest to have two beggers for Federal bounty knocking at the door of Congress whose antagonisms will be mutually destructive. If there could be any assurance of profit in the construction of an isthmian canal there would be no lack of money to build it. The French corporation would have not sold out its interests and the Nicaraguan promoters would not be asking for Government guarantees if either party had faith in the feasibility and profitableness of the undertaking."

The eight Hoboken Councilmen who were indicted by the last Hudson County Grand Jury on charges of exceeding appropriations and of conspiracy in connection with the awarding of an electric light franchise have passed a resolution engaging ex-Senator William D. Edwards, Flavel McGee and ex assemblyman Horace Allen to defend them at the city's expense. The indicted Councilman say that the stigma cast upon them was reflected on the city, and that it should therefore assist in wiping out the stain.

Speed the day when Plainfield may secure a decent building in which to incarcerate those who are involved with the law. The petition that has been circulated asking the incoming Council to take some action to provide a new city jail, ought to receive serious and ready consideration by the solons.

The Daily Press will commence the new year, we are glad to say, celebrating. No paper will be issued on Monday, but before the new year is very old we will make up for the lost day. The Daily Press will be a better paper than ever during 1900.

May it be a Happy New Year to all.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

It is announced that the bands of South Jersey have begun to prepare for the coming presidential campaign and there is talk of starting several new musical organizations in some of the larger towns. And yet there are people who oppose the lengthening of the Presidential term.

. . . . . .

According to Editor Rittenhouse, of the Hackettstown Gazette, "Lew Runkle, of the Flemington Democrat, has settled down to his life work at last. He is going to reform the politics of Hunterdon county. He has resigned from the Flemington Band, cut the acquaintanceship of Jack Viet, and sent all his fishing tackle to Uncle Billie Hummer. Life henceforth is a very serious matter with our friend Runkle."

. . . . . .

James Flanagan Dechert is probably the richest boy in New Jersey. He is 9 years old. His father died this week, leaving him an orphan, and the lad has gone to live with his uncle, DeWitt C. Flanagan, a well known and wealthy horseman in Morristown. James' mother died a year ago, leaving to her husband and son a fortune of $1,000 000. All this goes to the son, who is inconsolable because of his double bereavement, and says he would give it all to get his parents back.

. . . . . .

The fact that New Year's Eve falls on Sunday night this year will deter many from going to New York as has been their usual custom to witness the sights in that great city when the old year departs and the new one is ushered in. It has been the custom of many to attend the theatre that evening in New York and then walk downtown after the performance was concluded just in time to see the fun. There will undoubtedly be some lively times in New York tomorrow evening, but the fact that it is Sunday will keep many away. There will not be the attractions early in the evening and the sight-seers will not care to go into New York and wait the entire evening just for a brief period of excitement.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Domestic Finish Only.

With our new machinery we are making a specialty of the Collar and Cuff trade. No stretching of collars so common with laundries using the old-style gloss-finish machine. Have you heard about our new turn-down collar shaper? No? Well, try it: no break. Call and see us use it. Always welcome.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,
122 East Front Street.

Cold Weather Comforts.

SHARP weather this. Sure to create a demand for warm goods. We are in shape to meet such a demand most satisfactorily, for the protracted spell of warm weather early in the season has left our stock of winter goods unusually complete.

Blankets bought last summer before the rise in prices may now be had 15 per cent. under price. Beautiful warm goods they are, too. Made of long wool of good quality, reliable in every way.

SPLENDID STOCK of good Comfortables, filled with clean, sweet cotton and well covered with excellent materials. A few fine Down Comfortables at low prices to close.

UNDERWEAR

No stock of UNDERWEAR in the city equals ours for QUALITY, QUANTITY and VARIETY : : :

The Best for the Price Always.

Men's Heavy Fleeced Shirts and Drawers,	39c garment
" " wool " " " "	50c "
" Camels Hair, all wool	98c "
" " " double breasted	1.25 "
" German Underwear	1.75 "
Ladies' Extra Fine Ribbed Garments	50c "
" " " C'mbinat'n Suits, Florence,	1.25, 1.75, 1.98
" Fine Wool Garments,	75c, 98, 1.25
" Fine Camels Hair Garments, all wool	1.50

Child's Underwear in all Grades at all Prices.

Toboggan Caps, Mittens, Gloves, Fascinators, Fur Collarettes, Fur Capes, Fur Muffs, Overgaiters, Leggins, Knit Socks, Underskirts, Wool Hose, etc., etc.

NEXT WEEK - - - -

We celebrate the 10th Anniversary of our business. In doing so we shall make every day a bargain day. We shall advertise for each day a list of eye-opening specials. If you are anxious for some exceptional values—by all means read our adds for next week.

. . Tonight After 6 o'Clock . .

A Stupendous Sacrifice of Whatever we have left in Holiday Goods, Toys, Etc.

Trading Stamps with each Cash Purchase.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,
234, 236, 238, 246 W. Front Street.

PECK'S CORNER.

PECK is in the . . . . . FRONT RANK

Because he deserves it.

Salaried Position Offered -:-

- to a -

Bright, Active, Reputable Young Man,
as Manager of

A Live Up-to-date Newspaper and Trade Journal.

Experience Not Necessary . . .

Apply to . . .

SILAS D. DRAKE,

175 North Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey.
Telephone 605.

An Annual . .
. . Clearing Sale

of our entire stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's suits, reefers, overcoats, ulsters and heavy-weight trousers begins this Saturday and will last for a short time only.

All MEN'S OVERCOATS that were sold at 7.00 and 8.00, clearing sale price 4.25 and 4 75.

All MEN'S OVERCOATS that we sold from 8.50 to 10.00, clearing sale price 5 50.

350 extra fine OVERCOATS, former prices from 12.00 to 15.00, clearing sale price 6 50 and 7 00.

MEN'S ULSTERS reduced from 7.00 to 4.50.

Best Shamrock IRISH FRIEZE ULSTERS, reduced to 6.50, former price 12.00.

1,000 Men's and Youth's heavy weight suits of all descriptions, styles and qualities, which we must and will sell regardless of cost or value. 5.00 suits to be sold at 2 75. 7.50 suits to go at 4 50. 10.00 suits to go at 5 75, and all others in proportion. Children's Suits at 1.00, worth 2.00. 2.50 Child's Suits to go at 1.45.

2,000 pairs of Men's Trousers to be included in this sale at 1.00, 1.50, 2.00 and 2.25. Boys' Knee Pants with double seat and double knees at 20c.

Men's fleece lined underwear at 30c, worth 50c. Men's winter caps at 15c. Working shirts at 15c, and thousands of more bargains at this great clearing sale. Call early and avoid the great Saturday rush.

Will Pay Carfare to all Buyers of Clothing.

New York Clothing Company
M. WEINBERGER, Mgr.
214 W. Front St. Next Door to Music Hall.
Plainfield, N. J.

Chocolates
Bon Bons
Ice Cream Drops

Wieda's

Ice Cream
Soda Water
Hot Soda

Manufactured at the Premises, 144 West Front St. Phone. 1123.

7000 BU. of 38-40 WHITE CLIPPED OATS received in last few days. None better offered at a bargain. Now the time to stock up while they last. Order Quick.

Daniel Snyder & Sons, 23 Somerset St.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Fine Neckwear, Mufflers, Umbrellas, Canes and Dent's Gloves.

at J. R. BLAIR'S, 126 Park Ave.

THE BOOT SHOP

AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks, do you know the first thing a lady looks at are your feet?

Now, if you are going to a ball, party, reception, or theatre be dressed from your feet up.

Our $3.50 Patent Leather Shoes will dress your feet.

A. WILLETT & SON,
107 Park Avenue.

CITY NATIONAL BANK.

Cor. Front St. and Park Ave.
Capital, $150,000.
Surplus and Undivided Profits, $85,000.

CHAS. HYDE, President.
J. F. HUBBARD, Vice-President.
WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

DIRECTORS.

Chas. Hyde. J. F. Hubbard. Jas. T. Closson. H. G Runkle. Walter Scott. W. F. Arnold. J. K. Myers. J. F. MacDonald. J B. Coward.

General Banking and Collection Business Transacted. Drafts and Letters of Credit Issued on all parts of the World.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes $5 per year and upwards. Valuable trunks and silverware taken on storage. Custodian of wills.

CHARLES ARNOLD,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats,
POULTRY AND GAME IN SEASON
203 Liberty St. 35 Somerset St.
Telephone 238.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, Dec. 30.—Monday being the first of the new year, the newsboys who serve their customers with papers expect a small remembrance for faithful service. See that they are not disappointed.

Some of the boys who make a practice of hanging about the postoffice evenings and insulting an old man will find themselves in trouble if they don't desist their nefarious habits. The nightwatchman has been directed to make some arrests.

Court Dunellen, Independent Order of Foresters, initiated a number of candidates at Thursday evening's meeting. The lodge is in a flourishing condition, there being at present nearly 125 members in good standing.

T G. Todd, superintendent of the M. E Sunday-school, has been presented with a handsome Bible by the school. A set of books was also given to the pastor, Rev. E. S. Jamison.

Ambrose James, an employe of Christion Scheprlin, has gone to Virginia to visit his parents. William Jennings is filling his place during his absence.

The election of officers of the Sabbath-school of the Seventh Day Baptist church was held today. James R Dunham was re-elected superintendent.

Mrs. E. S. Jamison will lead the Epworth League meeting at the M. E church tomorrow evening. Topic: "The Heavenly Record."

Monday being a legal holiday, the regular meeting of the borough Council will be held one week later.

The Methodist and Presbyterian churches will unite in the observance of the Week of Prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hoffman are receiving congratulations over the birth of a daughter.

Mrs. Fred Reed, who is visiting Mrs. Palmer, of Greenbrook road, has the diphtheria.

The regular meeting of the Board of Education will be held Tuesday evening.

Golston Smalley, of Greenbrook road, is confined to his home by illness.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Thompson is seriously ill.

Henry Kirchner, of Lincoln avenue, is confined to his home by illness.

Services will be held in St. John's Roman Catholic church Sunday.

There will be a turkey raffle at Taylor's hotel this evening.

The public schools will reopen Tuesday morning.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 30th—The billboard recently erected by Manager Edwards, of Music Hall, at the Park avenue crossing of the trolley, is not filling the place it was intended to fill. The board was filled with the Burrill Comedy Company lithographs last week, but in a couple of days someone had torn or defaced every lithograph so that the board looks more like a piece of patchwork than a billboard.

The annual election of officers of the Baptist Sunday-school was held at the close of the weekly prayer meeting in the church last evening. Rev. G. M. Shott was re-elected superintendent by the unanimous vote of the meeting. His aids will be assistant superintendents Frederick Happell and Miss Laura Bornmann; secretary, Benj Allen; treasurer, H. M. Maxim; librarian, Edward Johnston. It was decided by vote to continue the Sunday-school sessions in the morning.

Goodwill Lodge, K. of P., held their semi annual election of officers at their meeting Thursday evening. Those elected to office were: C. C., Wm. Bowman; V. C., Charles Francisco; prelate, John Haskard; M. of W., Wm. Kitchen; M. of A., Theodore Voorhees; M. of F., Theodore Bruchmann; M. of E., Henry Cook; inner guard, Frederick Bowland; outer guard, Joseph Carborn; Rep. to Grand Lodge, Edw. Bowman.

The annual election of officers was held at the meeting of the Twilight Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., in their rooms last evening and resulted as follows: Counsellor, Henry Flamery; vice-counsellor, Chas. Meyers; warden, W. Spicer; conductor, Jas. Johnson; outside sentinel, John Frazee; inside sentinel, Henry Gurrier; trustee, E. L. Hand; representative to grand council, Ernest Clark.

Rev. G. M. Shott will preach a New Year's sermon at the Baptist church Sunday morning. The prelude to the evening sermon will be "Preparing for Trial."

Miss Lucy Garlinghouse, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. John R. Marsh, has returned to her home at Greenwood Lake, this State.

The many friends of Mrs. John Robison will be pleased to learn that she is improving very nicely from her serious illness.

Miss May Ford, of Long Island City, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Ford for several days.

Rev. Mr. Woodruff will lead the prayer meeting in the Methodist church this evening.

The public schools reopens Tuesday, Jan. 2d, after an eleven days vacation.

WESTFIELD.

(Special Correspondence to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, December 30.—At a special school meeting held in the Westfield Club hall last evening the Board of Education was authorized to purchase a lot on Walnut street, Elm street and Orchard street and spend $40 000 in building a new primary school building thereon, also a new building at Mountainside.

There was a large crowd present and many were opposed to the voting of the appropriation; but the the ladies of the town, who were allowed to vote, were all in favor of the new building and being out in strong numbers were able to carry the day. The vote stood 175 for the new school and 134 against.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal trouble, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and dose not dry up the secretions but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders

—The recently elected officers of Queen City Lodge, I. O. O. F., will be installed at the meeting Monday night.

—The sessions of the Plainfield public schools will be resumed Tuesday morning after the Christmas vacation.

—The Christmas entertainment of the Loyal Temperance Legion will be held in the W. C. T. U. rooms this evening.

—The Christmas exercises that were to have been held at the First Presbyterian church will take place tomorrow morning.

—The borough marshals are now wearing their heavy winter clothes and new overcoats, and this weather makes them very desirable.

—The Christmas music that was rendered at the Park Avenue Baptist church last Sunday morning will be given again tomorrow morning.

—The Common Council for 1900 will hold its first meeting Tuesday evening of next week, and not Monday evening as that day is a holiday.

—Tomorrow afternoon Rev. Dr. Nelson, of the borough, will make a patriotic address before the G. A. R., of this city, at the W. C. T. U. rooms.

—This evening the Loyal Temperance Legion will hold their Christmas festivities at the W. C. T. U. rooms. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

—As the first Monday in the month comes on New Year's Day, the January meeting of the Plainfield Board of Education will be held Tuesday evening instead.

—The Carpenters' Union, of this city, are now planning to make some revisions in their rules and by-laws which will be of great advantage to them in the future.

—Employees of the Electric Light Company are still busily engaged in arranging the underground system of lighting, and they hope to complete their work in the near future.

—Bonn, of Front street, says, "You can be warm and stylishly dressed, at little expense, if you wear one of his domestic or French flannel waists. He has them in all colors and black, made for particular people.

—There will be a regular meeting of the Mayor and Borough Council next week Friday evening when the subject of widening Somerset street will be discussed and other important matters will be considered.

—There are several spots about the newly-laid concrete walk in front of the North Avenue Station that are chipped and it does not look as though the walk would be a lasting and satisfactory one. The clipping is the result of trunks, etc., falling heavily upon it.

—Letter-carriers R. Loughlin and P. J. Revelles have a very neat and comfortable contrivance built on their mail wagons. It is a hood enclosed with wood and glass, making it very desirable in cold weather. It protects the carrier from the cold wind and it also has an up-to-date appearance.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Miss Farenholz, of West Front street, is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Lawrence Whital, of East Second street, is confined to his home with the mumps.

Miss Irwin, of Brooklyn, is the guest of Miss Eva Benton, of East Fifth street.

Miss Wright, of Rhode Island, is a guest of Miss Edna Beekman, of West Eighth street.

Miss Cave, of Elizabeth, has been visiting her cousin, Miss Cave, of Sandford avenue.

Miss Lulu Randolph, of West Eighth street, is visiting friends at Bound Brook for a time.

The Misses Coriell, of Fairview avenue, are entertaining Miss Gaskill, of Bloomsbury, N. J.

Miss Grace Hurtt, of Manasquan, is visiting relatives on Washington avenue for a few days.

Miss Helen Cuming, of Putnam avenue, is spending the week with friends in Brooklyn.

Herbert Martin, of Perth Amboy, is spending a few days with his parents on West Front street.

Miss Katheryn Dwight, of Rockview avenue, is able to be out again after an attack of the mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Fisk, Jr., of Grant avenue, have returned after a trip to Washington, D. C.

Miss Maude E VanDyke, of East Front street, has been entertaining company from Somerville.

Miss Emma V. Fisk, of LaGrande avenue, has gone to Cranbury, N. J., to visit friends for a few days.

Nathan E Lewis, of West Eighth street, has returned after spending the holiday vacation at Ashaway, R I

Jack Dilts, of New York, who has been the guest of Judson R Giles, of East Sixth Street, has returned home.

Miss Laura Rand, of Amherst, Mass., is the guest of her cousin, Miss Margaret Rand, of Watchung avenue.

Miss Amanda Carman, of Elmwood place, who has been quite ill with facial neuralgia, is steadily improving

Miss Margaret Rand, of Watchung avenue, is home from the Peddie Institute at Hightstown, N. J., for the holidays.

Miss Pauline Denton, of Washington avenue, and Miss Nellie Brown, of Dunellen, are visiting relatives in Brooklyn.

Mr. Dowd and family, of Liberty street, left today for Faulkner, S. D., where they will take up their residence permanently.

Lawyer Isaac Runyon, of Somerset street, who has been detained at home by illness, is now able to attend to business again.

Mr and Mrs. Barron Brewster, of Woodbridge, have been visiting Mrs. Brewster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wagoner.

Miss Bertha Jenkins, of Elmhurst, Pa., was a guest yesterday at the home of her uncle, Dr. O. L. Jenkins, of East Front street.

Howard T. Lewis, of Alfred University, is spending a few days at the home of his aunt, Mrs. George H. Babcock, of West Eighth street.

Mrs. Morgan S Taylor, of New York, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Cooley, of Rockview avenue, has returned.

Miss Margaret McCutchen, of Rockview avenue, who is home from Smith College for the holidays, is entertaining a friend from the same college.

Mrs. George Ballentyne, of East Second street, who has been visiting for a week at Easton, Pa., with relatives, returned to her home last Thursday.

There is no change in the condition of Helen Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ross, of Codington avenue, who is very ill with bronchial pneumonia.

Mrs. Brown, of West Third street, has returned from Harrisburg, Pa., where she was called on account of the serious illness of her son, who is now much better.

Ellery Leonard, of Wrentham, Mass., is visiting Plainfield relatives for a few days. At present he holds the position of superintendent of the High School at his home.

Christopher Staggard, the young man at the hospital suffering from the effects of a piece of steel in the eye, is doing as well as can be expected. He is now worse and his condition is considered to be slightly improved.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

SPECIAL SALE OF PERFUMES
—AT—
L. W. Randolph's : : :
143 WEST FRONT STREET.
: : : One Week Only : : :
We will offer great induc ments in Lazell's, Lundberg's, Rickseeker's and Wright's Bottle Goods.

25 cent Extracts at	20 cents	1.00	Extracts at	75 cents
50 " " "	25 cents	1.35	" "	1.15
50 " " "	40 cents	1.50	" "	1.25
75 " " "	55 cents	4.00	" "	3.25

Lazell's $500 Cut Glass Bottle will be in the window during this week.
L. W. RANDOLPH,
Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.
PLAINFIELD, N. J. Selling Agent for TELEPHONE CALL 100
Lowney's and Whitman's Chocolates and Chocolate Bon-Bons.

Misses' & Children's Cloaks at Greatly Reduced Prices.
The $5.25 Coats are now $4.25
" 4 50 " " " 3 60
" 3 95 " " " 3.00
" 3.25 " " " 2 50
Women's Golf Capes
WILL ALSO BE SOLD AT A REDUCTION OF 20 PER CENT.
I. LEDERER.

OUR SPECIALTIES { Choice Teas. Fine Coffee.
All the Seasonable Goods for the Holidays. Take home one of our baskets of Fruit.
C. E. GULICK & CO.,
Tel. 931. THE PARK GROCERS.

FURNITURE for the Parlor . . .
Library . . .
Dining-Room . . .
Bedroom . . .
Close at 6 o'Clock.
POWLISON & JONES,
149 and 151 E. Front St.

FALL OPENING.
WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.
OUR STOCK COMPLETE
We are now ready to fit either man or boy in Suits, or Overcoats, Hats and Gent's Furnishings.
Boys' Suits from 75c to $5.00.
Men's Suits from $2.00 to $20.00.
Have you tried a pair of our Celebrated Cassimere Pants at 98c the pair, if not do so—they are the talk of the town; sold over 1,000 pairs the past season; never rip and fit to perfection. Give us a call.
WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,
206 West Front Street.

To purify the air of the sick room, as well as to neutralize ill odors from sinks, drains or vaults, thereby adding to the comfort and healthfulness of your home, use
REYNOLDS' ODORLESS DISINFECTANT.
Made only by
T. S. ARMSTRONG, THE APOTHECARY,
At 25 cents for a quart bottle. Cor. Park and North Aves.

Emery's
Dancing Pavilion
(SCOTCH PLAINS.)
Pavilion For Rent
FOR
Balls, Parties, etc.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.
We have just placed on sale an elegant line of LADIES' and GENTS' HARNARD MUFFLERS from 50c to $1 25.
LADIES' WHITE LAWN APRONS from 12c to 50.
Ladies' White Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 12c, 15c, 20c, 25c, etc.
—CHRISTMAS GOODS—
A Big Assortment.

Ladie Desiring
KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING
done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 213 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention. MRS. FORCE.

THE
First National Bank,
of Plainfield, N. J.
Capital .....$200,000.
Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000.
J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice. " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't.
DIRECTORS.
Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Coriell.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Rushmore.
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Codington.
F. S. Runyon.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per Annum.
VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

CHAS. L. FORCE,
Architect and Superintendent.
208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given 1 21 tf

Mons De Villiers,
ILLUSIONIST and ENTERTAINER.
Miss Carolyn Laying,
IMPERSONATOR.
Y. M. C. A. Star Course.....
JANUARY 1st, 8 P. M.
ADMISSION 25 CENTS. 12 23 4

THE CROSBY & HILL UNITED STORES.
Plainfield, N. J.
Wilmington, Del.
Morristown, N. J.
Perth Amboy, N. J.
Commencing Tuesday Evening, January 3rd, and continuing until further notice, this store will close at 6 o'clock every evening excepting Saturday.
We would respectfully ask the patrons of this house to make their purchases before 6 o'clock so that our salespeople can have their evenings free from duty and be enabled to render more prompt and efficient service during business hours.
UNDERWEAR
At Mill Prices : : :
If you could deal direct with the maker he would not be able in most cases to quote you better prices than we will tomorrow.
50c Men's heavy, thick wool, fleeced underwear in natural gray shades, worth 75c.
75c Men's fine natural wool underwear, very soft and heavy, a regular 1.00 quality.
1.00 Men's natural grey underwear, well made and handsomely trimmed, very fine heavy quality, finely knitted and very soft, well worth 1.25.
1.50 Men's extra heavy camels hair underwear, double breasted and well made, remarkable value.
25c Women's ribbed underwear, made of fine Egyptian cotton, good weight and very heavily fleeced, worth 39c
39c A little lot of women's ribbed vests (no drawers to match) in a good shade of blue grey, about half wool and heavily fleeced, worth 69c.
50c Women's fine ribbed combination suits, half wool and heavy fleece lined, reduced from 1.00.
Blankets and Comfortables.
We offer astonishing values in blankets and comfortables.
2.98 Blankets 81 x 90 inches, weight 5 pounds, nearly all wool, that are worth 4.00.
3.98 Blankets extra large and heavy, made of California wool, very soft and downy, that are worth 5.00.
1.25 Extra large size comfortables filled with fine white cotton and covered with fine silkaline nicely tufted, the actual value is 1.75.
3.48 Fine eiderdown filled comfortables covered with a splendid quality of French satin and worth 4.50.

After Christmas.
We're getting ready to inventory. This the season for Broken Lots and probably Broken Prices. We have found one lot already that has got to go. We sold it for $10.00. You can buy it now for $8.50.
OVERCOATS . . .
are now in order, $5.00, $7.50, $10, $12, $13.50.
ULSTERS - - $4.50, 5.50.
Schepflin & Schultz,
CLOTHIERS.
M. J. Cashin, Manager.
322 West Front St.

Stylish Millinery.
Bonn's
140 WEST FRONT ST.
Fashionable Shirt Waists.
The year ends tonight, so far as business is concerned, therefore we take this opportunity to wish all and to heartily thank you every one for the goodwill and generous appreciation of our efforts, and our employes, to please you.
A HAPPY NEW YEAR
We have every reason to be thankful. This store, new to you during the year closing, received instantaneous recognition and has had phenomenal success, to be sure. It is unlike any other store; not the biggest, but the brightest, most inviting store, with an unequalled assortment and modern methods—methods that have won, are winning, and will. Lower prices—quality for quality, price for price—than anywhere else.
RING OUT THE OLD,
RING IN THE NEW!

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Preußen.

Provinz Brandenburg.

Berlin. Der „Reichsanzeiger" hat das Gesetz betreffend die Aufhebung des Verbotes der Verbindung politischer Vereine veröffentlicht.—Der Reichstag beschloß die gesetzliche Einführung der Verpflichtung, die Läden spätestens um 9 Uhr Abends zu schließen. Es ist dies für Berlin eine einschneidende Neuerung. Da der Bundesrath voraussichtlich zustimmen wird, dürfte der Weltstadtcharakter Berlins durch die Beschränkung seines vielgerühmten Nachtlebens empfindlich beeinträchtigt werden.—Emil Dietl, Redakteur des „Vorwärts," ist an den Folgen eines Herzschlages plötzlich verschieden. Er war 70 Jahre alt und gehörte der sozialdemokratischen Partei von ihrem Anbeginn an.—Die hiesige Kriminalpolizei wird nach einem vom Polizeipräsidenten von Windheim entworfenen Plan reorganisirt. Einige Bestimmungen des Planes, zum Beispiel das Beförderungssystem, sind den amerikanischen Polizeieinrichtungen entnommen.—In dem Vorort Neu-Weißensee ist die Ehrhardt'sche Tapetenfabrik abgebrannt.—Der Kaiser hat befohlen, daß anläßlich der Jahrhundertswende am Neujahrstage eine Parade der gesammten Berliner Garnison auf dem Tempelhofer Felde stattfinden soll. Der tödliche Weihnachtsurlaub der Mannschaften ist deshalb verkürzt und auf die Dauer von höchstens sieben Tagen beschränkt worden.

Spandau. Seit längerer Zeit wurde der Kanonier Tannenberg von der ersten Kompagnie des Garde-Fußartillerie-Regiments vermißt. Der Mann ist jetzt als Leiche aus der Havel gelandet. Was ihn zum Selbstmord getrieben hat, ist nicht aufgeklärt.

Provinz Hannover.

Aurich. Der deutsche Schooner „Rheinhard" aus Carolinensiel, Käpklän Dunker, ist während eines heftigen Sturmes in der Nähe von Helsingborg gestrandet. Die fünf Mann starke Besatzung wurde mittelst des Raketenapparates gerettet.

Emden. Zur Prüfung der Lage der Leistungsfähigkeit des deutschen Schiffsbaues, speziell des Kriegsschiffsbaues, tagte hier auf Veranlassung der Reichsmarineverwaltung eine Kommission.

Hildesheim. Hier ist Franz Himmer, der Anfang der sechziger Jahre als erster Wagner-Sänger in den Ver. Staaten auftrat, gestorben.

Provinz Hessen-Nassau.

Kassel. Die durch die Pensionirung des Oberbürgermeisters Westerburg zur Erledigung gekommene Oberbürgermeisterstelle der hiesigen Stadt kommt zur öffentlichen Bewerbung, wobei das pensionsberechtigte Gehalt jährlich auf 15,000 Mark festgesetzt ist.—General der Infanterie a. D. Freiherr von Meerscheidt-Hüllessem, früher kommandirender General des 5. Armeekorps und des Gardekorps, ist hier gestorben.

Wiesbaden. Auf Antrag unseres Feuerbestattungsvereins ertheilte der Magistrat der Friedhofsdeputation die Ermächtigung, auf dem neuen Friedhofe Grabstellen sowie Theile von solchen zur Aufstellung von Aschenurnen abzugeben.

Provinz Pommern.

Mellenthin. Im hiesigen See sind zwei Familienväter beim Rohrschneiden in Folge Kenterns des Bootes ertrunken.

Swinemünde. Der Lieutenant a. D. Dannert von hier ist via Hamburg nach Pretoria abgereist, um auf Seiten der Buren gegen die Engländer zu kämpfen.

Provinz Posen.

Meseritz. In einem Bahnwärterhause in der Nähe von hier wurden die Leichen des Bahnwärterehepaares Scheffler und seiner drei Kinder aufgefunden. Ueber die näheren Umstände schwebt noch Dunkel, doch ist als Ursache Vergiftung konstatirt.

Schneidemühl. Hier erstickten zwei Korbmachergesellen in Folge des Qualmes, den ein in ihrem Schlafzimmer ausgebrochener Brand verursachte. Die Entstehung des Brandes ist darauf zurückzuführen, daß einer von ihnen, der sich in angetrunkenem Zustande befand, beim Schlafengehen eine brennende Cigarre fortwarf.

Wongrowitz. Der Fleischermeister Risto aus Scholten wurde auf dem Wege nach Murowana-Goslin ermordet und beraubt. Von den Thätern fehlt jede Spur.

Provinz Ostpreußen.

Kranz. Im hiesigen Badeort richtete der jüngste große Sturm besonders starke Verheerungen an. Die Ufergemeinde ist fast gänzlich zerstört. Von dem Herren- und Damenbad sind nur einige aus dem Wasser ragende Grundpfähle übrig. Viele Bäume in der Plantage sind umgeknickt und die jungen Tannenpflanzungen übersandet. Der Strand ist völlig verschwunden, der Schaden ist bedeutend. Sämmtliche Einwohner des Fischerdorfes Klein-Berlin, 16 Familien mit 69 Köpfen, sind um Hab und Gut gekommen.

Memel. Nachts strandete an der Südmole des hiesigen Hafens das Rigaer Segelschiff „Bravo." Die ganze, aus zehn Mann bestehende Besatzung ertrank. Das Schiff ist gänzlich zerschlagen.

We are NOW receiving orders for

HUYLER'S

XMAS CANDY,

—to be delivered at—

CHRISTMAS TIME.

Remember the

Only Agency

—IS—

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

Tel. 705.

POWERS' PHARMACY . Somerset St. Craig Place.

Extraordinary inducements to patrons is the reason of our business activity. . . . . .

Powers' Honey of Coltsfoot AND Tar is rapidly gaining a reputation as a positive cure for ordinary coughs and colds. . . . . .

Toys, Toys, Toys

for the

HOLIDAYS

—AT—

HARPER'S,

411 Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Irving Savings Institution.

115 CHAMBERS ST., NEW YORK CITY

The Trustees of this institution have declared interest on all sums remaining on deposit during the three and six months ending December 31, 1899, at the rate of FOUR PER CENT. per annum on amounts from $1 to $1,000, payable on and after Monday, January 15, 1900. Deposits made on or before January 10th will draw interest from January 1st.

W. H. B. TOTTEN, President.
G. BYRON LATIMER, Secretary 12 26 10

NEUMAN BROS.,

GROCERS,

Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

SMALLEY BROS.,

144 North Avenue.

BUTCHERS.

Everything usually found in a first-class market.

Orders called for and delivered.

Telephone 83 A.

Advertised Mail Matter.

DECEMBER 26, 1899.

Alder, Master Everitt	Langley, Mr E
Andrews, Miss Grace	Locke, Mr Jno M.
Bohem, Charles	Laury, Mr H W
Carlson, Miss Emmy	McCue, Miss Maggie
Edwards, Miss Lena	Mitchell, W B
Folery, John	Potter, Mrs C D
The Glen Brook Poultry Farm	Rittenhouse, Mr G C
Hicks, Mr William	Utter, Mrs Mary
Hewitt, Mr William	Voorhies, Mrs Carrie
Holder, R A	Watkins, Miss Carrie
Johnson, George	West, Mrs M
Knox, Miss Alice R	Williams, C Y
Knox, Rev Chas. E	Williams, Miss L E
	Wort, Mr Charles L

E. H. BIRD, Postmaster.

H. Eggerding,

121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated

C. O. D. CIGAR.

The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars.

L. A. HUMMER,

VARIETY MARKET.

Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.

163 SOMERSET ST.

Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

RUSHMORE & CO.

WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.

Dealers in

Lumber, Coal and Wood

Moulding & Planing Mill.

Turning and Scroll Sawing.

(B)

AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

Free deliveries—quick deliveries—catalogue free.

Forget Some One?

Why not come here and pick out a present now? Call it a "New Year's gift." If you're short of ready cash, we'll fix you up on a credit basis—cash or credit, our prices are lowest known!

$19.98

Was $27.00

Elaborate quartered oak Book Case—desk, swell carved.

"The Only Portland." Many a happy wife's been given a "Portland" range for Christmas—best baker, cheapest to run—all new improvements imaginable!

$3.69

Morris Chairs—solid oak frame—adjustable to four comfortable positions—reversible cushions—worth $5.50.

Look for name "Portland" on oven door plate—and "A. H. Van Horn, 73 Market Street, Newark, N. J." on plate below oven door for the GENUINE.

$4.25

A desk of solid oak, with drawer, and mirror inset in back. Was $6.

$3.49

—tastily carved mahogany finish Rocker, cobbler seat, high arms, $5.00 anywhere else.

$11.98

and upward for mahogany Parlor Cabinets—elegant and well patterned.

Birdseye Maple Table, French legs, highly polished top, was $4.50—now $2.98

"Domestic" Sewing Machine—swift, silent, strong—a Newark product. Here, cash or easy payments. We're Co.'s agents.

Chenille and Tapestry Portieres, Lace Curtains, Shades, Lamps, Pictures. Large stock of Blankets, Comforters, Mattresses, Pillows, Springs, etc.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St., Near Plane St., Newark, N. J.

LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS.

Note first name "Amos."

Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

A Kentucky school teacher who had for years endured what she describes as "perfect martyrdom," from headache and dyspepsia, writes, in a letter from Louisville, to say: "When I was teaching school in Pittsburg, Laurel County, a friend, a merchant there, who has also suffered much from dyspepsia and headache, said he had found a sure cure for these diseases in Ripans Tabules, and he gave me a few to try. I found my headache left me. I then sent to New York, to the manufacturer, for a box, and whenever troubled with indigestion took them. I soon found myself much better; but, after some months and after indulging imprudently in eating, I again suffered from my old enemy—'indigestion.' I sent to Louisville and got a box. Finding great relief from this I got another, which certainly proved my confidence in the medicine. I grew so much better that I now only take them when I find I need them; but if I am imprudent in eating I find nothing better than these Tabules. Being a teacher, I lead a sedentary life, so that oftentimes I find myself bilious and feeling heavy and dull; then I avail myself of the good effects of Ripans Tabules. The gentleman from whom I bought the first Tabules tells me that he has found them more beneficial in sick headache than any other remedy. Like myself, he thinks they are infallible in dyspepsia."

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five cent cartons (120 tabules) can be had or in all by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER

ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER,

169 NORTH AVENUE.

Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phoenix of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672

GEO. W. ROCKFELLOW,

THE GROCER.

Standard Butter, Coffee, Tea and New Canned Goods,

Park Avenue and Fourth Street.

WHAT WOMEN ARE DOING.

Some of the Activities Engaged In by Members of the "Unquiet Sex."

BY ANNETTE CRAWFORD.

Miss Mabel Hay Barrows has made for herself a peculiar and profitable place in the world. She trains school and college students to produce Homer and Virgil on the stage, and her success borders on what the theatrical profession would call sensational. Teaching the delivery of the lines is but a small part of her duties. Miss Barrows must needs instruct young athletes to box and wrestle after the old Greek manner—quite different from that of today—to hurl the discus; to dance the old Greek dances; to throw the ball while balancing, leaping, turning and wheeling; to chant the weird, sweet music of the Delphic hymn with which the play opens, etc. This means the most arduous work day and night for at least six weeks. Miss Barrows has met with great success in Chicago, where she utilized a number of native Greeks and Italians for minor characters, giving a strikingly realistic character to alternate performances of "The Return of Odysseus" and "The Flight of Æneas."

Mrs. J. H. Rowland of Lawrence, Mich., runs the engine of her husband's planing mill and in an emergency attends to the ripsaw and the turning lathe. She has been sole engineer of the mill for several years and enjoys her work. Before going into this business she raised a large family of children.

Mrs. Catharine Westcott Romney edited the first daily newspaper in Durango, Colo., when the place had every characteristic of a frontier mining town. One day she published a severe editorial criticism of a street battle in which some of the Durango people were engaged. The next morning two men called around, loaded up with Winchesters and smaller arms, and asked who wrote the editorial. Mrs. Romney cheerfully claimed the honor. The men were evidently nonplused at having a woman to deal with in such a case. They demanded that the offensive remarks should be taken back, and when the editor refused they made threats against the safety of the office. The newspaper woman stood her ground, but after the paper was out that day she called on a gentleman who she felt certain was a member of the vigilance committee. No one knew who was on the vigilance committee, because no one wanted to know. But Mrs. Romney, being a newspaper woman, naturally had a pretty correct idea. So she called on her friend and mentioned, in a casual way, that her office had been threatened, and she would like to have it protected. It was protected, and the editorial was never taken back.

Sandwich men are a common sight in New York. They walk along busy thoroughfares with advertisements front and back, hence the name. A sympathetic sensation was recently created by the appearance of a sandwich woman in the shopping district. One day she disappeared, and it is believed she got a better job, but nobody knows. The policeman on the beat tells this story: "A rich lady who had just lost her mother saw that woman with the mackintosh sign on her, and she felt sorry for her and didn't know but she wanted to do something for her. If she was an old lady, like her mother, she'd help her. So she asked me to find out. I called the sandwich lady over one day and found out. No; she wouldn't do for the purpose. She didn't come up to requirements. Was she old, ugly, a bad lot? No, siree! She took off her veil for me, and, sir, she was a mighty fine looking woman. Not to say pretty, but handsome. But she wouldn't do. She was too young. She said she had to do it, sir, to earn a living for herself and her daughter. I had her name and her daughter's name and where they lived, but I guess I must have thrown it away. She sighed sort of and asked me to kind of look out for something better. She is the granddaughter of a governor of one of the states, but I didn't pay much attention which state it was. And she was refined and educated, and she told me that she was rich once, but her husband died, and she had to go out and earn a living for her daughter."

SANDWICH WOMAN.

The superintendent of schools in Denver is Miss Emma M. Hery, a young woman of charming personality, who looks and acts like the highest type of society belle. She is a superior writer and talker and in politics a straight Democrat.

Mrs. John Vance Cheney is a champion of the "new education." "There is of course nothing new in the statement, that by recognition of personal power man may make himself what he will," says she. "Solomon said, 'As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he,' and the Master of Masters said, 'The kingdom of heaven is within.' In fact, Jesus gave us all the wisdom we need in methods of education, but we have failed to see his meaning and have permitted the objective faculties to run away with the wonderful powers in that submerged mentality called at present the subjective mind."

Mrs. Mary E. Williams, supervisor of cookery in the public schools of New York city, thinks that the science of cooking has a right to be ranked as one of the fine arts, with music, painting, etc. Great credit is given to Mrs. Williams for direct good results upon the lives of the people through her instruction in domestic science in the schools. Largely through her personal efforts cookery is now taught in 27 of the public schools and 5,565 pupils are receiving instruction in the art. When she was appointed supervisor in 1897, only seven schools included cookery in their curriculum.

The new torpedo boat destroyer Decatur will be christened by Miss Maria Ten Eyck Decatur Mayo, a beautiful young Virginian, the nearest living descendant of the great sea warrior. The original Stephen Decatur had three sons, Stephen, James and John. Of these three worthy sons of a noble sire James was killed in the war with Tripoli while very young. Stephen married Miss Susan Wheeler of Norfolk, the daughter and only child of Luther Wheeler, at one time mayor of Richmond and president of one of its boards. There were no children born of this union, but the third son, John, married Miss Maria Susanna Ten Eyck, the only child of a Dutch gentleman and merchant of New York. This John Decatur was Colonel John Decatur of the United States army, and to him were born several children, among them Stephen Decatur, third, also of the navy, and a daughter, the present Mrs. Wyndham R. Mayo, who is the mother of the maiden chosen to christen the warship named for her distinguished ancestor. On the paternal side the charming sponsor of the ship is likewise distinguished. Her father, Captain Wyndham R. Mayo, is a son of Judge Peter Mayo of Norfolk. He is highly connected, his mother having been Miss Upshur of the old Virginia family of that name.

Miss Elizabeth Arnold makes $2,800 a year by marketing in New York for 14 other people. Another New York woman makes a good living by finding flats for people.

Misses Ruth and Ethel Mason, daughters of Senator Mason, are both promising lawyers of London.

Lady Cook, better known in America by her maiden name of Tennie C. Claflin, is about to return to New York, her former home, and buy real estate for European clients. Lady Cook is a stockholder and is worth, as the men would say, $2,000,000.

Mrs. Richard P. Bland is writing a biography of her distinguished husband.

In Oakland, Cal., lives Miss Alma Priscilla Alden, a lineal descendant of the famous Puritan. "I must confess," says she, "that the thought that I am a descendant of Priscilla and John Alden gives me a great deal of pleasure. The other pilgrims who braved those terrible winters were just as courageous, but the romance of John and Priscilla makes them more interesting to us. There is a pretty little sequel to the courtship of Miles Standish that is known only in the Alden family. Miles Standish, when the wound that Priscilla had made in his heart had healed, married another. Years after the son of Miles Standish married a daughter of Priscilla and John Alden. There is a poetical justice about this that we always love to dwell on. A year or two ago I met a lady, a lineal descendant of Captain Miles Standish. She had heard of me and came to Oakland 'just to shake hands,' as she said, 'with a lineal descendant of John Alden.' You may imagine how strangely we both felt. Miles Standish, Priscilla and John Alden seemed to step out of the past and bless our meeting."

MISS ALDEN IN PURITAN GOWN.

SAVING SYSTEM.

That of France Tends to Form Habits of Thrift.

The Government report on the operations of the savings banks of France in 1897 shows that the thrifty habits of the French people in the matter of small savings are well maintained. The aggregate amount due depositors at the end of the year was $661,439,700, an increase of about $4,000,000 over the preceding year. The number of bank books in use was 6,772,582, representing one depositor for every five and a half persons in the country. Under the law of 1895 the maximum deposit is now 1,500 francs, or $289.50, and the average deposit less than $98.

In the number of depositors and in the amount of savings France is, however, in proportion to population, far behind those states in this country in which the savings bank system is established. New York, with 1,805,880 accounts and $746,684,916 of deposits, and Massachusetts, with 1,384,289 accounts and $473,919,094 of deposits, lead the list, but in all the New England States and in New Jersey, Maryland and California the per capita deposits are far beyond those of any country of Europe.

Comparisons based on these figures, however, would be unfair, as the limit of the individual deposit is much higher in this country. In France the savings bank is strictly what the name implies—not a bank of deposit for capital, but a convenience for the accumulation of petty savings too small to be taken care of in any other way. Accounts are opened for sums as small as one cent per month, and children's deposits are encouraged. Of the total depositors in 1897 the number of minors was 95,588 boys and 92,800 girls.

It is the care of these savings and of those of the wage workers which is the special function of the French savings bank system. The system tends to form the habit of prudence and thrift in the young—an excellent thing too much neglected in this land of the free and the happy-go-lucky.—N. Y. World.

BOY'S HEROISM.

Made Him Heir to a Fortune of One Million Dollars.

Cornelius McCarthy, the proprietor of a little cigar store at Sixteenth and Jackson streets, Philadelphia, has fallen heir to a fortune estimated at no less than $1,000,000. His old friend, John McCarthy, with whom he passed many days as a boy, died a few days ago at his home in Ireland and left it to him. His benefactor had been Postmaster, Peace Commissioner and a man of much influence in the County of Cork.

If he bore any relationship at all to Cornelius McCarthy it was very distant. But the old man had never married and had no close kin. When he returned to Ireland, after a rough but successful experience in the Australian gold fields, a warm attachment grew up between him and young Cornelius, then a post boy employed at the office of which the rich man had been placed at the head.

One day the old man tried to ford the river Lee on horseback, and his horse floundered in the swift current and pitched his rider into the river, where he struck his head on a rock and was stunned. Cornelius, riding by his side, jumped in and pulled him out.

This act was never forgotten. When the boy made a resolve to start out himself in search of fortune the old man placed £10 in his hand, and he has written the young man frequently since the latter came to Philadelphia. The newly made millionaire is about 30 years old, and has a wife and little girl. The letter which told of his good luck was from James Hickey, a lawyer in Cork.

McCarthy says he will continue to live in Philadelphia.—Exchange.

Russian Alcohol Monopoly

The monopoly of the sale of alcohol in Russia, says the Chicago Tribune, was applied January 1, 1895, in four eastern provinces; on July 1, 1896, to nine others in the south and southwest and in 1897 to all the empire. The fiscal result has been most satisfactory. The receipts from taxes were 37,000,000 rubles, while under the new system the Government receives 56,000,000 rubles. Le Monde Economique, in a discussion of the monopoly, asserts that from a hygienic point of view the monopoly has had good results. A better quality of spirits is sold, the number of dramshops has been reduced, the sale of liquor on credit has been suppressed, and increased deposits in the Government savings banks show that a smaller proportion of the earnings of the peasants is spent for liquor. Finally, there has been a noticeable diminution in drunkenness and in those crimes and misdemeanors which are caused by intoxication.

Schoolgirl's Good Fortune.

Miss Hattie Smith, the eighteen-year-old daughter of a retired farmer, Thomas Smith, has fallen heir to $1,800,000. Her granduncle, Richard W. Smith, of Glasgow, Scotland, has signed a contract to settle $1,000,000 on her when she arrives at the age of 21 in consideration of her going to Glasgow to live with him and brighten his last years. She will graduate from the local high school in June, and will go to Glasgow in August next. Her uncle is 92 years old. He is now visiting in Chicago, Ill., and Elroy, Wis.—Stevens Point, Wis., Cor. Chicago Inter Ocean.

Huge Panther Shot.

For 10 years a huge wild animal has made its home in the dense undergrowth of the big hills 12 miles south of this place. It has been seen many times prowling around farm buildings at night, but always escaped. A few days ago James B. Woodward, while hunting in the hills, saw the animal in the bushes and succeeded in killing it. It proved to be a big panther. Farmers in the neighborhood breathe easier, as the animal was a continual menace to live stock.—St. Joseph, Mich., Cor. Chicago Chronicle.

Awkward Substitution.

"Father is it a crime to kill an editor?"

"Not before a jury of delinquent subscribers."

"Well, I'll take the chances. Here the Buzzard has gone and published a portrait of that awfully homely Miss Scaggs and put my name under it."

"Poor Miss Scaggs."—Cleveland Leader.

NEW YEAR'S DAY.

Some of the Events and Customs Connected With This Anniversary.

January 1 was made the beginning of the legal year in England in 752.

On New Year's Day in ancient Egypt there were processions in every temple.

The legislative union of Great Britain and Ireland took place on January 1, 1801.

The emancipation proclamation of Abraham Lincoln was isued January 1, 1863.

The American Indians had a sort of New Year festival, celebrated with feasting and dancing.

In Sibera the state prisoners of the Czar are allowed to rest and holiday on New Year's Day.

In Athens a new statue, either to a god or a hero, was erected and consecrated on the first day of every year.

In south of France it is customary for families of means to give their servants new suits on New Year's Day.

In Norway there is a superstition that the kind of fish caught on New Year's Day indicates the character of the fishing during the year.

The custom of watching out the old year and waiting for the new to begin prevails in many countries, if not in most of the civilized world.

Suetonius and Tacitus allude to the custom common in their time among the Romans of sending and receiving presents on New Year's Day.

In Covington, England, God cakes are made for New Year's Day. They are triangle in shape, made of paste inclosing a portion of mince meat.

In Wales there is a superstition money should not be paid out on New Year's Day, for, if it is, the payer will have bad financial luck all through the year.

In the old missals the month of January was pictorially represented by a white-haired man clad in furs, bent with the cold and blowing on his fingers to warm them. He is standing almost knee deep in the snow, and a billet of wood and sometimes an axe are by his side.

After the fall of the empire and the restoration of the Bourbons in Paris a fashion arose of giving bonbons as a New Year's present. The confectioners prepared for the New Year's trade, and it was estimated that on the two days before New Year's of 1822 a thousand tons of candies were sold in the confectioners' street in Paris.

The ancient Jewish year began on March 25, and owing to the fact that many, if not most, of the Christians were of Jewish origin, and thus gave tone to early Christianity, the Jewish year was long retained among Christian converts and many of the writings of the early fathers were dated according to the Jewish division of time.

Janus, the Roman deity, whose name was given to the first month, was the god of all gates, doors and entrances. He presided over the beginning of new enterprises. His image was placed above doors and gates, and he was always presented with two faces one looking outward and the other inward. Special sacrifices were offered to Janus on the first day of the year and a feast was held in his honor during the month.

IN JAPAN.

A Great Bear Feast the New Year's Ceremony.

For a thousand known years the Ainos have stood still in their civilization, following all their primitive customs and ceremonies generation after generation and century after century, practically without change. New Year with them is the day of their greatest feasting and merrymaking, consisting principally, unhappily, of an extravagant use of an intoxicating beverage known as saki, or rice beer, which puts the entire population in a helpless condition long before the day is done.

The principal cermony is the great bear feast, called Omsia, in which a huge bear is slain and sacrificed as a special offering to the god Kamui, who is the guardian and protector of their homes throughout the year. It is necessary to conciliate this god by the special donation of bear's meat that their lives may be free from the persecution of the unseen, intangible spirit demons who seek to do them harm.

It is said that the bear for this feast is raised from a cub, suckled by an Aino woman who, became its foster mother, and in her heart feels toward it all the tenderness and love that she would for her own offspring. As the end of the year draws nigh her cruel and hairy grandfather, with unfeigned joy, helps nurture and fatten the feast bear for the coming celebration with carefully prepared foods.

Alas, it is a fearful day for the foster mother when her entire family drags her bear son from her arms to the scene of sacrifice! She tears her hair and weeps and wails, while the grandparent, with joyous cries, dances in front of the party who drags the beast with heavy ropes to the altar.

The killing of the bear is done in a most horrible and brutal manner. Two fair sized logs are lashed, one above another, to a standing tree, and extend horizontally resting upon the ground. The entire clan takes part at the death, which is accomplished by opening the ends of the log furthest from the tree like a huge jaw, and dragging the head and neck of the helpless beast through the opening, and then squeezing and strangling with mighty pressure the life out of the poor bear.

A Sultan's New Year Gift.

A courteous exchange of presents was frequent between sovereigns of various nations. One of the most feminine instances typical of the fashions and customs of the day is apparent in the offerings sent in 1559 by Sultana Valide to the great Elizabeth. It consisted of a costly robe and girdle and five handkerchiefs two wrought in gold and three in oriental slijks, together with rare neckaces of pearls and rubies and a wreath of diamonds.

A Dash of Cold Water.

Turning over new leaves is a harmless New Year's custom, but there is no probability that the world will ever be materially bettered by it. The man who waits until some particular date to make a resolution rarely fails to break it while the young and [illegible]

A REMINISCENCE.

New Year's Day and the Doctor at Blue Ridge.

"Speaking of New Year's," said the Nevadan, "I always call to mind this time o' year the blow-off we boys gave a young doctor chap who came up to Blue Ridge just at the time that camp was the liveliest. Which I might add that though the days of the Ridge was few in the land, as the Book says, while it did last there was no camp on the Pacific Slope from Puget Sound to the Rio Grande that could furnish so much fun in a week as transpired in Blue Ridge every twenty-four hours. But the sport did'nt need any medicine. It was not, as you might say, a sickly neighborhood, which it seems peculiar to remark, seeing as how we had the most likely looking graveyard, considering age and population, as you could find in all the Sierras. But the gents as populated the graveyard was mostly a lively and and healthy lot up to and inclusive of the moment of their demise.

"That's what the boys were speaking of when the doctor came into camp.

"Long Bill remarked to me that the boys who was hurt ought to make an effort to last until the doctor could arrive, which would give him a legal claim on any dust they might leave. He was just the kind of chap for the camp, if so it had been that there was any trade for him, for he was quiet, nervy, had more book learning than the editor and was cheerful and obliging, especialy obliging, for he preached a beautiful sermon over the late dealer at the faro bank, though the said dealer had died of his wounds before the doctor arrived.

(They all called on the Doctor.)

"Some said as how we ought to send down in the valley, where they was all shaking eternally with malaria and import a bunch of the shakers for Doc to practice on, and pay him as much for the clean-up. He laughed when we proposed this and said it would be unprofessional, because he knew the party as had the practice in the valley.

"Then we proposed that hereafter any party dying of his wounds before the Doc could arrive, the said party's effects should be levied upon for a fee to be paid to Doc. All the boys agreed to that, and we got so worked up over the prospect that a disagreement resulted, which ended in a sudden death, but we cheerfully sent for the Doc just the same.

"Well, he came, and when he saw the state of the case he said as he wasn't an undertaker he couldn't be of any service.

"Then we told him of the new rule, and offered him the pile of the deceased, which was in a canvas sack behind the bar. He wouldn't take it, not even a sample for essay, and the disappointment of the boys was sad to see, especially the shotgun messenger, whose intentions had done honor to his heart and aim.

"It was a few days before New Year's that the editor showed us a piece in a San Francisco paper, which was a kind of location notice, stating that our Doc was going to be married to a lady in that city. That sets us thinking, and we thought harder than ever when the Doc tells us that he was going to leave us on New Year's Day to take up his practice in San Francisco. We held a meeting and discussed the state of affairs, having a pretty good idea of how the land lay financially with Doc, because his money was on deposit with the express agent, and he was chairman of our meeting

"Well, at that meeting we laid out a plan that worked as slick as a diamond drill. On the day before New Year's Doc was sent for by Long Bill, who told him his old rheumatiz was working again like a forty stamp quartz mill. Doc prescribed and when Bill asked him what was the ante, Doc said it would be $5. Bill said he'd hand it to him when he bid him goodbye at the stage office next day. Then I sent for Doc and said that old bullet wound in my leg was on strike again, took my prescription and promised to pay next day.

"I don't suppose any doctor in the world ever had as busy a day as ours did that day. It seemed like every man in camp was sick. There was trouble about noon because the boys ran out of names of diseases, but I went up to the doctor's office and copied out a lot of names from one of his books, and then we kept things booming. Some of the younger boys got stuck on the names of sicknesses I dealt out to them to make a choice from and played the whole deck, which seemed to puzzle the Doc somewhat.

"Well, the next day we met and marched around to the stage about starting time, and there was Doc, looking a bit worried, but he looked a lot more surprised when he saw all his patients so callish.

"We gave him a send-off and an envelope.

"Did you remember what was in the envelope? I disremember the odd dollars, but it was enough over five thousand to leave him that clear after he had paid his expenses down to the Bay."—Edward W. Townsend.

New Year's Dinner.

Oyster Soup.
Boiled Codfish Egg Sauce.
Escaloped Oysters.
Roast Turkey. Chestnut Stuffing.
Cranberry Sauce.
Escaloped Salad. Pumpkin Pie.
Ice Cream.
American Cheese.
Cakes. Fruit. Coffee.
—Chicago Tribune.

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall Streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 19th, 1899

For New York 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 29, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 46, 9 16, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 1 35, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 5 54, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 06, 7 39, 9 34, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday 2 14, 3 37, 5 05, 7 19, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12.00 m, 12 58 1 45, 2 46, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

For Newark at 5 37, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 43, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 12 44, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 17, 4 55, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 9 34, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 7 19, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 10 22 p. m

For Somerville at 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 06, 11 59 a. m.; 1 01, 2 08, 2 20, 3 22, 4 35, 5 03, 5 27, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 18, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 37, 10 26, 11 29 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sundays 5 45, 8 06, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

For Easton at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 2 20, 5 27, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 06 a. m.; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

For Lake Hopatcong at 9 54 a. m.; 5.27 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch except Chester.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m. For stations on High Bridge Branch, Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, etc.

1 01 p. m.—Way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 20 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamauqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 27 p. m.—For Flemington and Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Flemington and Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley, Flanders, Kenvil, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 4 17, 6 21 p. m.; Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 16, 9 58, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46, 4 17, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 11 28 p. m. Sundays 8 52, a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 35 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10 37 a. m.; 1 35, 4 17, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat, 3 37, 9 16 a. m.; 1 35, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 14, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, *5 34, 6 38, 8 21 10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 14, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, *5 34, *6 38, 8 21, *10 26 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, *5 09, *6 35, 9 47 p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 34, *6 38 p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, *5 09, *6 35 p. m. 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 1 01, 6 38 p. m.

(Plainfield passengers by trains marked *) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Time Table in Effect Nov. 19, 1899.
LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N.J.

Time given for Plainfield is leaving time of stage from City Ticket Office, 218 West Front Street, which makes connection with trains at South Plainfield.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 a. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9.02 a. m.
Daily express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 12:10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 12:51 p. m.
Daily except Sunday. Black Diamond Express for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Leave Plainfield 6:20 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 7:02 p. m.
Daily, Solid Vestibule train for Niagara Falls, Chicago and Principal intermediate stations.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 8:56 p. m.
Daily, Exposition Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Leave Plainfield 8:15 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield 9:58 p. m.
Daily, Night Express for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

The stage will also meet Eastbound trains 6, 8, 14, 4 and 10.

For time of local trains see pocket timetables. Telephone No. 112-B.

ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent.
26 Cortlandt St., New York.
FRANK ROWLEY, City Ticket Agent, 218 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

L. L. Manning & Son,

STEAM
GRANITE WORKS,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 130 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

XXXX QUALITY
FINEST
LOFOTEN COD LIVER OIL,
Made from July, 1899, Catch of Cod.
Owing to fortunate purchase we are able to offer it at
39c per Pint.
For Sensitive Stomachs try OUR EMULSION at
50c per Bottle,
or the Tasteless at
75c per Bottle.
THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,
Hepburn & Co.,
Cor. Park Ave. and Second St.

DAVE'S,
213 WEST FRONT ST.
Finest Hot Water Baths with Shower in the city, always ready. Barber Shop adjoining. Open SUNDAY. Foreign and Domestic Cigars on sale.

O'Neill's.

Sixth Ave., 20th to 21st St., N. Y.

OUR GREAT ANNUAL SALE
-- OF --
Women's Muslin Underwear
Begins This Week.

A little earlier, but with even greater opportunities than last year.
We have been preparing for this sale for a long time, gathering the best "The Trade" produced, and now we are ready for you with the largest and best stock of muslin underwear ever presented by any house in the City of New York.

OVER 75,000 PIECES!!

Every one perfect in fit, finish and material, and are made in the clean, light and well ventilated factories of upper New York State. They must not be confounded with the yellow, ill-fitting garments, made in the Sweatshops of New York and which are so frequently offered at so-called "Special Sales."

Our Prices this year are the lowest ever made in the History of the Retail Underwear Trade.

Sixth Ave., 20th to 21st Street, New York.

Purity and Power of Tone,
Durability and Tone-Sustaining Quality
are marked characteristics of the world-renowned
FISCHER PIANOS

The Fischer Piano is the result of nearly sixty years of honest and intelligent construction along the most progressive lines of piano manufacture, through which it has reached a reputation permanent and unsurpassed.

OVER 110,000 Grand and Upright. SOLD

Exquisitely designed and cased in rare and choice woods.
Sold at moderate prices. Cash or easy payments.

33 UNION SQUARE, WEST, Bet. 16th and 17th Streets, NEW YORK.

A large stock of second-hand and slightly used Pianos of our own and other prominent makes, taken in exchange for new Fischer Pianos will be sold at very low prices.
Catalogue, terms, etc., mailed free on application.

A. M. GRIFFEN SELLS
Othello Ranges, Canopy Ranges, Sunshine Stoves. BEST MADE.
GUNS—Metallic and Shot Gun Ammunition.
119 East Front Street.

New Year's Gifts
INCLUDE
Shoes, Slippers, Rubber Boots, etc.

Perhaps you didn't give anything in our line Christmas. If not, now is your chance. We're here to do business with everbody that comes our way, and if you don't get treated properly tell us about it.

VANARSDALE, 127 East Front St.
Repairing Properly Done.

DOLGE FELT SLIPPERS.

We have a good supply yet of Slippers, Rubber Boots, Lambs' Wool Soles Shoes, Dress Suit Cases, Traveling Bags, Telescopes, etc., all of which make useful and appropriate

NEW YEAR'S PRESENTS.

DOANE & EDSALL. . . . .

BUY YOUR PHONOGRAPHS,
Gramophones, Records and Supplies
A GOOD MACHINE AT $5.00.
BROKAW'S . . .
The Piano Dealer, 123 East Front Street.

FIRE!!! When you hear the alarm at midnight, you can feel secure, at small cost, by knowing that you have an insurance policy issued by
ELSTON M. FRENCH.
Largest agency in the city
163 North Ave., opp. Depot.

BAD LUCK.

It Was Due to the Storm that Washed The Railroad Away.

"Mrs. Fisherly had awful bad luck here last year," said Mrs. Chatterbye to her friend, Mrs. Seely, as they rocked to and fro on the hotel piazza.

"Gracious! Not typhoid, I hope!" exclaimed Mrs. Seely.

"Oh, dear, no, nothing like that." said Mrs. Chatterbye; "but there was an awful storm which washed away the railroad tracks, and Mrs. Fishley was forced to stay three days after she had come to the bottom of her last trunk."—Harper's Bazar.

O Death, Where Is Thy Sting.

"There goes the proudest, biggest-feelin' man in the hull town," remarked the village grocer, indicating a bronze but exceedingly pompous individual who was passing the store. "He went to the Klondike a year ago and just came back last week. He's carrying himself mighty high since he came home."

"Ah," replied the coffee salesman, "he happened to be one of the few lucky fellows who struck it rich, did he?"

"Not he. It's s'posed he had to walk the rest of the way home when he got to Seattle. You see, while he was gone it was reported he was dead, and the home paper published his obituary. The blamed chump read it when he got home. A person can't touch him with a ten-foot pole any more."—New York World.

The Killing Part.

This is the Greater New York, understand.

The beautiful child shrieked and struggled in the arms of the tall, dark man.

For she was convinced by the man's height and complexion that she was being kidnapped.

"The notoriety will kill me!" she protested.

And even as she spoke reporters of the great metropolitan newspapers could be seen rapidly converging from all directions.—Chicago Tribune.

Cleared Up All Doubt.

The rich, talented, handsome stranger prostrates himself at the feet of the beautiful cashier in the laundry.

"Be mine!" he implores.

"Am I dreaming?" the young girl asks herself anxiously.

She has not long to remain in doubt. For she presently spurns the rich, talented, handsome stranger and marries the bow-legged boilermaker to whom she had plighted her troth.

This, of course, makes it a cinch that she is dreaming.

His Impartiality.

"What I want to see," remarked the man of theories, "is an equal distribution of wealth."

"That's exactly what I want to see," answered the man with so much money that he could never find time to count it.

"Did you ever meet my partner in business? He's a fine man. I would like to see all the wealth in existence divided so that he'll have one half and I the other."—Washington Star.

Her Fleeting Regret.

"Don't bother, Henry, because I won't marry you,' said she. "There are just as good fish in the sea as ever was caught."

"Better," said he shortly, as he rose to depart, and for once she wished she had consented to marry him so that she might make him suffer for his horrid remark.—Harper's Bazar.

Where It Was Kept.

It was in one of the big department stores.

"What do you wish to-day, madam?"

"Nothing. I——"

"Sixteenth floor. Take the elevator. We have nothing there in large and varied assortments. James, ring the bell for the lady."—Harper's Bazar.

The Easy End of It.

"Wouldn't you like to have been Thackeray, Scribbler?"

"No," said Scribbler; "I'm glad I wasn't."

"Prefer your own stuff to his, eh?"

"Not a bit of it. But I think Thackerey was harder to write than to read. I have the easy end of it."—Harper's Bazar.

Too Green to Burn.

Visitor—I wonder that you allow your servant girl to kindle the fire with kerosene. Aren't you afraid she'll be burnt to death some day?

Mr. Howson Lott—There's no danger; she's too green to burn.—Harper's Bazar.

Drug on the Market.

Miss Tellit—Have you ever met my cousin from Paris, Ill.? He wants to get married, but he is so countrified none of the girls will have him.

Miss Knowit—Oh, yes—sort of a Paris green.—Baltimore American.

A Possible Explanation.

Harold—I think Algy's engagement with Miss Van Swelle must be broken off. I never see them together any more.

Percy—Perhaps they are married.—New York Journal.

The Same Old Howl.

"I tell you, sir," said the calamity-howler, "this country is doomed, sir—doomed."

"Is this the same old doom, or a brand new one?" asked the optimist.—Harper's Bazar.

Too Much Profit in It.

"Why do you think postage stamp sellers ought to pay a license?"

"Because they are in the licker business."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

The Smarter.

"My pa is smarter'n your pa," said Willie. "He writes poetry."

"Huh!" sneered Wallie. "My pa's twicet as smart as your pa. He don't."—Harper's Bazar.

Up Against It.

She—I think Lieut. Perry is a noble, brave man.

He—Yes, but he's up against an awfully cold proposition this trip.—Ohio State Journal.

HOTEL POSTAGE.

Account of a Large House Is One of the Uncertainties.

The postage stamp account of any of the large hotels is something that can't be balanced with absolute accuracy," said an old-time clerk. "The sales show a profit, although the law forbids any one charging more than face value. The profit comes in on the change. A man wants stamps for a couple of letters, to illustrate, and is handed either a one-cent stamp or a copper penny in change for the nickel he is almost certain to deposit on the counter. 'Oh, I don't want to be bothered with that,' he says, in nine cases out of ten, and the house is ahead one cent. These stray pennies will amount up to 75 cents or $1 in the course of the day, and would constitute a nice little revenue from one week's end to the other were it not for the fact that they are offset by the necessity of paying short postage for careless guests. You would be surprised to know how many unstamped letters are dropped into the mail box in the corridor. The number is far greater proportionately than those found in the street boxes in the busiest section of the city. Why that should be so I don't know, and it is hard to form any theory in explanation, but the fact is as I state, and is true of all large hotels. There are also a great number of letters and packages on which the postage is insufficient, and such mail is invariably brought straight to the desk by the collector. We put on the necessary stamps, and I believe the practice is universal among upper class houses. If we didn't the mail would go direct to the dead letter office in Washington and the delay would be a matter of serious annoyance and perhaps loss to our guests. Of course, we can't make a charge for the stamps used in that way, because it would seem petty, don't you know, but all the same it mounts up. It just about balances the profits which I mentioned."—N. O. Times Democrat.

A MOUSE THIEF.

He Had Stolen Two Dollars in Bills to Build a House.

John P. Benoit, a well-known resident of Oakland avenue, Bloomfield, N. J., says the N. Y. Herald, who is employed at the Lappin Brake Shoe Works, in that place, on Monday morning killed a thief that had robbed him in the factory. Mr. Benoit Friday night returned to the shop, where he had some work to do, and, taking off his waistcoat, laid it on his bench. After finishing his work he put on his vest and left the shop. As he passed out he placed his hand in his pocket and discovered that two one-dollar bills were missing. Thinking they had dropped out, he went back to the works and hunted without success.

The affair had an uncanny look and Mr. Benoit, leaving the place once more, talked over the mystery with his friends. He returned to the works on Monday morning and placed his vest again on the bench. In the pocket was a piece of green paper. He heard a scratching noise near the bench and looking in that direction saw a mouse climb up on the bench, extract the paper and run off with it. Mr. Benoit watched the little animal and saw it creep through a hole at the base of the partition. He tore off the boards of the latter and there found his money lining the mouse's nest. The mouse he killed.

Found the Ring.

An interesting story comes from Provo regarding the age of miracles. For those who are not superstitious it is doubly entertaining. During a recent visit of President George Q. Cannon to the Southern town he was entertained at the home of L. Holbrook, manager of the Grand Central Mine. Mr. Holbrook's fifteen-year-old daughter Aura told President Cannon that she had dreamed three times that she had found a diamond ring, and in the third dream a man giving his name as Vaness, and address Dallas, Texas, had told her he lost a ring while going through Provo 10 years ago, and that she could find it under a certain rock, giving minute details as to the location of the same. President Cannon listened to the story with interest, and at its conclusion told the girl she should follow up her dream. Aura got on her wheel and rode away. In less than two minutes she returned, holding a diamond ring in her hand. She claims to have found it in the place described by her dreamland visitant.

It is interesting to know that Miss Aura has a fondness for diamond rings and has answered a great many advertisements of them.—Salt Lake Herald.

Stole Watch to Get Square.

"Great Scott! but that's a fine watch," came from the chorus. "Where did you get it?" "Stole it," answered its possessor calmly. "You don't believe me, do you?" he went on. "Well, I'll tell you how it happened. I was on a Western district which enjoyed the reputation of being the toughest one covered by the house. I had some time to kill and so went into one of the gambling joints. It isn't necessary to go into details as to what happened. As luck would have it, there were a half dozen others in the place beside myself, who might be considered as possible victims. When the time came the lights were put out suddenly and then we had "rough house" for about ten minutes. In the middle of it I felt somebody grab my watch, and reached out after him. I caught some one and felt that he was just putting a watch in his trousers pocket. I gave his wrist a hard wrench and got the timepiece. Then I broke away. When I got to the light I found the watch was this one. As I never heard from the owners, I have kept it to compensate for the loss of mine." After which the waiter hurried over in response to six different signals.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

A Turkey Five Feet High.

John McCormick, a farmer who resides across the river from here in Illinois, is the owner of a turkey gobbler which towers into the air five feet and weighs 65 pounds. It looks more like an ostrich than a turkey. Its legs at the feet are an inch and a half in diameter, while close to the body they are the same size of an ordinary man's arm at the elbow. The bird's wings measure seven feet from tip to tip.—Clinton, Ia., Cor. Chicago Inter Ocean.

502

A Protective Investment . . .

combining sure protection with all the advantages possessed by stocks and bonds as investments. Such is a Life Insurance Policy.

WRITE FOR PARTICULARS

Home Office, Newark, N. J. THE PRUDENTIAL Insurance Co. of America.

JOHN F. DRYDEN, President. LESLIE D. WARD, Vice-President.
EDGAR B. WARD, 2d V. P. & Counsel. FORREST F. DRYDEN, Secretary.

J. E. WOODLAND, Sup't., E. Front St. and Park Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

PURE FAKIRS.

Two Men Have Been Getting Money on the Plea That it is to Pay Mrs. Fingerhuth's Fine.

Two men have been working on the sympathies of the people in the west end by circulating a paper asking subscriptions of money to defray the $500 fine imposed on Mrs. Henrietta Finhuth in the Somerset County Court. As fast as they got money they spent it for drink. They are pure fakirs and ought to be kicked out of any place they enter. There is no one authorized to make collections of this kind. Next week Mrs. Fingerhuth's counsel will start a movement to raise a fund to pay the fine, but until then anyone who circulates a paper to that effect is entirely unauthorized.

Whist Club Dance.

The members of the Thursday Night Whist Club entertained their friends last evening with a dance in the rooms of the Plainfield Camera Club in the Babcock building. There were thirty couples present. A very pleasurable evening was spent. Rogers furnished the music. As the evening progressed the janitor allowed the steam to get low and the result was that the rooms were chilly. By dancing continually, however, the guests managed to keep warm and have an enjoyable time.

First Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Stack celebrated the first anniversary of their wedding last evening at their home on Park avenue. There were some forty guests present. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Rockfellow and Mr. and Mrs. George R. Rockfellow assisted in receiving the guests. During the evening there was dancing by the young people. A collation was served.

Swearing Off.

'Tis swearing off season; to groove of reform
Your aims you should fashion with impetus warm:
Swear off on excesses that shorten your days,
Tobacco, tiumentum, late hours, cafes.
Swear off on profanity, malice and guile,
On betting, horse racing and things in that style.
Swear off, too, on coal with no warmth in its glow,
And get your black diamonds from Stevens & Co.

Complaint Withdrawn.

The complaint against Francis McCabe, preferred by Patrolman Jerry Cash, in the City Court, was withdrawn this morning. Former Judge W. A. Coddington represented Cash. Mr. Coddington and City Judge Runyon talked it over and reached a settlement whereby the trouble was settled to the satisfaction of all parties.

To Hear Patriotic Address.

Winfield Scott Post, No 73, G. A. R., will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in G. A. R. Hall, to attend the meeting to be held in the W. C. T. U. at 4 o'clock. Those having uniforms will wear them, others will wear dark clothing. Dr. Nelson, of the borough, will deliver a patriotic address.

William L. Smalley, Jr., and family, of Princeton, have returned home after a short visit with Plainfield relatives.

What Can You Do With It?

This is a question we can answer better after we have seen the garment you want dyed. When our wagon is in your neighborhood, let it bring your goods to the store and then, at your convenience, come in and let us tell you just what we can do and the cost. Don't be prejudiced against dyeing. Oftimes you can't tell the goods from new.

HILLIER & CO.,
129 West Front Street,
Opposite Crosby & Hill's. 'Phone 851.

SPORTING.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The Daily Press Bowling League.

	Games Won.	Games Lost.	High Score.
Roselle Casino	5	1	911
Park Club	3	3	864
Westfield Club	3	3	826
Cranford Casino	1	5	765

ON THE GRIDIRON.

The football teams from Scott's Press Works and the Aluminum Press and Plate Works will play a game Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock on the Clinton avenue grounds.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mrs. Cadmus, of Somerset street, who has been visiting relatives at Cranford, has returned home.

Thomas Muir, who on account of eye trouble has been obliged to give up his position temporarily at the telephone exchange, will return to his position again January 1st, as his eye is about well.

Ephraim Carman, formerly a resident of Plainfield, but now engineer at the Mattawan Brick Company's plant, is in town visiting his father, Prime Carman, of Race street. "Eph," as he is better known, has not been in this city in twelve years.

Perseverance Lodge Elects.

The regular meeting of Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., was held last night when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: C. C., Robert L. Lee; V. C., J. J. Crouse; Prelate, J. P. D. Kirch; M. of A., A. Jacobson; M. of W., David Bowden; K. of R. S., Charles McGinley; M. of F., J. B. Higgins; M. of E., J. C. Blimm; J. G., S. J. Robinson; O. G., Peter Stram; trustee, W. H. B. Drake; representative to Grand Lodge, Charles McGinley; alternate Wm. Young; organist, J. Stephen Higham.

The New and the Old.

The newest discovery is claimed for a Russian electrician, M. Steins, who is said to have practically solved the problem of restoring sight by an electrical transmuter. The old method of prevention, however, is better than cure, and in the matter of eye troubles this is insured to you by timely care and attention, the nature and extent of which is made known to you by a free examination at Collier's.

New Year's Nuptial.

Next Monday evening will occur the marriage of Miss Mabel VanMiddlesworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry VanMiddlesworth, of Elmwood place, and John Goodman, of Manning avenue. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride's parents.

Hallelujah Wind up.

The Salvation Army will hold a half night of prayer Sunday evening with a hallelujah wind-up at 12:00. On Monday night will be the great musical meeting in which the officers from Newark and Bound Brook corps will take part. Adjt. March will preside.

Farewell Dinner.

This evening at McVey's Hotel, G. Elston Woodland, superintendent of the local branch of the Prudential Insurance Company, will give a dinner to his agents, in honor of his departure to his new field, Trenton.

John W. Anderson, of this city, has gone to the eastern shores of Virginia, where he will spend a week at his old home.

To Cure a Cough in One Day
To Cure a Cold in One Day
To Cure Sore Throat in One Day
To Cure Hoarseness in One Day

Take Cleveland's Lung Healer, 25c. Trial size free. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenue.

THE PULPIT SUBJECTS.

SERVICES IN THE LOCAL CHURCHES TOMORROW.

What Plainfield Ministers Will Talk About for the Elevation of the Mind and Morals of Their Congregations.

All Souls church, Rev. A. C. Nickerson, pastor—10:30, sermon, subject, "The Spirit's Disdain of Time;" 11:5, Sunday-school. Topic for adult class "Unitarianism in England."

Y. M. C. A.—9:30, Bible class for men and boys; 4:15 men's rally, address by Adjutant Emily C. Marcy; 5:15, Physical Director Heywood's Bible class.

Hope chapel, Rev. G. Kennedy Newell, pastor—7:45 p. m., dedication of Hope Memorial chapel. The sermon will be preached by Rev. W. R. Richards, D. D.

Filmore Baptist church, Rev. W. D. Johnson, pastor—Morning, sermon, subject, "God's Love to World;" 3 Sunday school; 9, a New Year's sermon, subject, "The Barren Tree;" 10:30, watch meeting."

First Presbyterian church, Rev. C. E. Herring, pastor—Morning subject, "Peter's Charge;" evening subject, "All the Days."

Grace P. E. church, Rev. E. M. Rodman, rector, and Rev. F. Appleton, curate—7:30, Holy Communion; 10:30 morning prayer and sermon; 2:45, young men's Bible class; 3, Sunday-school; 7:30, evening prayer and sermon.

St. Mary's (R. C.) church, Rev. P. E. Smyth, pastor.—Masses at 7:30, 8:30, 9:30, 10:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 2:30; evening devotions at 8.

St. Joseph's (R. C.) church, Rev. William H. Miller, pastor.—Masses at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.; Sunday-school at 3; evening devotions, 8.

Mission Church of the Heavenly Rest, Clinton avenue, William Winans Moore and Francis Gregory Moore, Lay Readers—9:45, Sunday-school; 11, morning service.

Disciples Mission church, 345 Cottage place—10:30 a. m., Rev. Dr. Morse's topic will be "Going Forward."

Trinity Reformed church, Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph.D., pastor—10:30, the Christmas music of last Sunday will be sung by the choir and the pastor will preach; 2:30, Sunday-school; 7:30, an old year's service. Subject of sermon, "Former Things Are Passed Away."

St. Stephen's church, Rev. S. P. Simpson, rector—7:30, Holy Communion; 9:45, Sunday-school; 11, choral celebration and sermon; 7:45, evening prayer and sermon.

St. Peter's Ev. Luth. church, Rev. A. F. Shaffer, pastor—9:30, Sunday-school; 10:30 and 7:30, preaching by the pastor.

Wilson Memorial chapel—2:30, Sunday-school; 8, E. L. Suffern will speak.

Monroe Avenue M. E. church, Rev. William C. O'Donnell, pastor—11, sermon, subject, "Christ in History;" 3, Sunday-school; 9, watch night meeting, sacrament of the Lord's Supper, historical paper to be read by L. C. Batson.

First M. E. church, Rev. W. C. Snodgrass, pastor—10:30, preaching by the pastor. Miss White, of Elmira, N. Y., will play an offertory on the violin. 2:30, Sunday-school; 7, Epworth League service; 7:45, special music and service of song, with very short sermon by the pastor.

Church of Christ—7:30 p. m., sermon by Rev. J. C. Cleaver, theme, "The Glory That Should Follow, or Developments of Life After Death for Proper Persons."

Grace M. E. church, Rev. G. W. Gardner, pastor—10:30 sermon, subject, "Our Divine Guardian;" 2:30, Sunday-school; 7, Epworth League, led by Miss Margaret Schuck; 7:45, sermon and Love Feast.

Park Avenue Baptist church, Rev. J. W. Richardson, pastor—10:30, memorial service in honor of the late Robert Lowry, D. D. Sermon by Rev. George A. Peltz, D. D., of The Temple, Philadelphia. 2:45, the postponed Sunday-school Christmas service, address to children by Mr. Krause, of Cranford; 7:45, sermon, subject, "Shopbands, Salaries and Souls—Plain Talk to Employers."

Calvary Baptist church, Rev. Scott Wallace, pastor—11, preaching by the pastor; 2:30, Sunday-school; 7:30, Christian Endeavor meeting; 8:15, sermon, subject, "The Blood of Jesus."

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The missionary study class of the Y. M. C. A. will meet Tuesday evening. President Stephen Cahoone will be the teacher.

George S. Clay and J. H. Crane, who are to represent the negative side in the debate of the Y. M. C. A. Literary Society Jan. 8th, were at the building last night looking up points for their side.

Only Four Degrees Above.

Last night was the coldest of the season. The mercury touched within 4 degrees of the zero mark in some localities about the city.

THE LIFE BEYOND DEATH

Immortality Will Soon Be An Assured Fact.

REV DR. SAVAGE'S BOOK.

A Frank Discussion of an Important Subject—He Says There Is No Sort of Question That There Are Such Things as Ghosts.

In his book called "Life Beyond Death" Dr. Minot J. Savage announces that he does not believe in spiritualism.

This is something of a surprise, considering the fact that Dr. Savage has for many years—since 1874, he says—been lecturing upon and investigating the subject and making constant references in his lectures to its phenomena. He treats spiritualism at length in this present volume.

The book reviews the beliefs held in the past concerning "life beyond death." He considers primitive ideas, ethnic beliefs and middle-age belief in the other world, compares them with that of Paul and Jesus, and takes up the present conditions of the same belief. He treats the fervor of belief in the other world and the agnostic reaction which followed it, and the present spiritualistic reaction against agnosticism.

In his discussion of the Old Testament idea as to immortality, he says:

"We see, then, as the summed-up result of the brief outline, that although there was no teaching apparent and emphasized on the surface of the Old Testament in these other worlds, there really was a common belief underneath the surface, growing up in the hearts and imagination of the common people and we see also what we commonly misunderstand, that these other worlds take the shape which they had to take.

He sums up thus the teachings of Jesus on the other world:

"So Jesus teaches, I think, that the eternal life, being a quality of character, exists to-day. It is not something to be waited for. Our friends, for example, if they are alive anywhere, are alive at all, are alive this minute. We are immortal this moment."

Dr. Savage's study of spiritualism has influenced his treatment of immortality, as in the paragraph after the preceding, in which he says:

"This every-day, commonplace world of hopes and fears, meetings and partings, joys and sorrows, this world, according to the Gospel story, is encased in a world of spirit, immersed in it, surrounded by it as by atmosphere, I am not saying that you believe it.

Dr. Savage points out the doubts concerning the doctrine of immortality held by the churches and the weakness of the traditional creeds and the loosening of their hold upon people. He treats the agnostic with tender consideration.

His chapter on the spiritualistic reaction is filled with bits like this:

"The one wonderful thing about spiritualism, without any reference to its truth or its falsity, is that it does not ask your blind belief. It says, 'Come and see, and do not believe a word beyond what you can see or hear or feel of reality that carries with it this great conviction.'

(Rev. Minot J. Savage.)

"I have had what purports to be hundreds of messages from the other side, and I have never had one that was soundly orthodox."

He says that Dr. Lyman Abbott and Dr. Hillis are believers in all that is essential in spiritualism, but are anxious to guard themselves against the belief in such vulgar things as a rap on a table. Dr. Savage says:

"Frankly, I can never understand what there is so foolish or degrading in a rap. I tap on the door to announce myself to you in a hotel. Suppose I have a friend in the unseen, close by me, who wishes to communicate something to me, and finds he can call my attention by a tap. Is there anything so very silly about it? If there is I am too dull to discover it."

Dr. Savage is frank about wishing to believe in immortality himself.

"If it were possible to prove that beyond this life is another, if we could just know that, would not it be worth while for the sake of the comfort and happiness it would bring? I do not say it is possible yet to know it. If so, would it not be worth while?"

The probabilities and hopes for future life, he says, fall short of demonstration, but he adds:

"As an evolutionist first, last and all the time an evolutionist, I believe with my whole soul that it will not be long before immortality will be as much discovered as America was discovered by Columbus."

A chapter is devoted to the studies of the Society for Psychical Research, of which Dr. Savage is a member. The appendix is devoted entirely to a discussion of spiritualism. In the course of the chapter he says:

"I think there is no sort of question that there are such things as ghosts."

His own position in regard to spiritualism is thus stated:

"I have said and published a number of times that I am not a Spiritualist. I take the trouble of emphasizing it once more, because I am constantly represented as being one. I say I am not a Spiritualist. At the same time I am perfectly willing to say that I believe there is great truth at the heart of the spiritualistic movement."

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS THAT PLAINFIELDERS MAY WITNESS.

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World.

The Burrill Comedy Company will close its week's engagement at Music Hall tonight, and the offering will be Fred H. Wilson's beautiful comedy drama, "An Unequal Match." Founded on fact, this very strong drama offers a very interesting evening's entertainment for the young and old. The scenery is especially beautiful and the costumes handsome and appropriate, as indeed are all the accessories used by this clever company in their numerous productions.

* * * * *

Lovers of novelty and first-class entertainment should surely attend the performances of Sie Hassan Ben Ali's Marvelous Troupe of Toozoonin Arabs at Music Hall Monday, New Year's Day. This is what the New York Herald said of them when they recently appeared in New York: "The Toozoonin Arab Troupe appeared in one of the most interesting performances of the kind ever seen in this country. All the men are possessed of great strength and agility; and they dashed around the stage in a way that stirred the spectators to repeated cheers. They are without question the quickest men who have ever appeared in public here. Not even the traditional cat could turn more rapidly than these men. Their guns and costumes are all genuine. Sie Hassan Ben Ali, who brought this troupe to this country, knows exactly what the American public want in the way of entertainment. The Toozoonin Arabs have proved themselves to be a high class novelty." They will have the assistance of a fine company of specialists, and there will be two performances, matinee and night.

* * * * *

"The Sleeping City," a strong melodramatic comedy, is the next offering at Music Hall, Friday night, Jan. 11th. The piece is replete with brisk action, bright fun, exciting situations, thrilling incidents and powerful climaxes, and requires the services of actors and actresses of more than ordinary ability. There are at least three scenes that will stir an audience to its depth and create the wildest enthusiasm. The play is sumptuously mounted with especially prepared elaborate scenic and mechanical effects. A number of bright specialties give added enjoyment to the performance.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—C. H. Rugg has removed his coal office to 150 East Fourth street.

—George W. Wrennick, 133 North avenue, wants the address of all amateur photographers.

—Captain March will lead the meeting at the East Third Street Mission tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

—Percy Cannon, the blind Gospel speaker, will lead the meeting in Reform Hall tomorrow afternoon at 4:15 o'clock.

—Match shoot at Campbell's Club House on New Year's day between Wm. Terry, of Westfield, and John Bellcff, of New Brunswick, twenty-five birds for $10 a side.

—Monday being a holiday the circulating department of the Public Library will not be open. The reading room will be open in the afternoon from 2 until 6 o'clock, and the art gallery from 2 until 5 o'clock.

—The Prince of Wales had Mons. DeVilliers call at Sandringham Palace Dec. 26th, 1895 and for forty minutes entertain the Prince and Princess and their guests with his knowledge of the occult arts. Mons. DeVilliers will appear with Miss Carolyn Layng in the Y. M. C. A. Star Course Monday night.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Mamie Casey, who has been head saleslady in White's millinery department for the past six years, now with Crosby & Hill, has resigned her position.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson A. Miller entertained a few friends at their home on Washington avenue last evening. An informal musical programme was rendered and much enjoyed by those present.

Walter England, a large contractor of Easton, Pa., and son of the late W. England, formerly owner of valuable properties in this city, was in Plainfield yesterday looking after the properties and interests of his mother, sisters and brothers in the estate.

Potter's Shut Down Till Wednesday.

The Potter Press Works shut down last night till Wednesday morning to take an inventory, overhaul engines and boilers, and make necessary repairs on the machinery.

Too Cool for a Wheel.

Chief Marshal Campbell has practically given up his wheel for the present. He finds the weather too cool to spin around the borough on a bicycle, and then besides he can cover most of his territory on foot this season of the year as well as by wheel.

Holiday Goods.

Why you should see our assortment; a walk through our store will be the easiest way to solve the problem of what to get for presents for young and old.

Our line of fancy articles consists of everything imaginable in Celluloid, Plush and Glass Ware.

Handkerchiefs, gloves, neckwear, hosiery, umbrellas and dress goods of all kinds and all prices. Furs and worsted goods of every description.

DOLLS . . .

Dolls of all kinds can be found on our doll counter, our assortment is bewildering in their novelty, extent and attractiveness. Our prices are lower than any other house will quote for the same article.

TOYS -:- -:-

Our Toy Department in the basement is larger than ever before. No such collection was ever gathered here before, and it is safe to say there is no better stock in town in point of variety, there is no stock in town that equals ours in prices that's certain.

Children's velocipedes, tricycles, battleships, iron toys of all kinds, tool chests, wash sets, soldier sets, dishes, horse and wagons, chairs, printing presses, electric batteries, express wagons, magic lanterns, etc.

I. H. Boehm, 109-111-113 West Front Street

The Best Offer of the Year is that made by Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly, justly termed "the monarch of the 10 cent magazines." For a limited period, this famous and popular magazine, now $1 00 a year, will send free with each yearly subscription, the beautiful "Little Sweetheart" Calendar. This calendar is in six groups of water color designs by Frances Brundage, the famous painter of children, each group in twelve colors, size 10 x 12¾ inches' on fine Whatman paper, tied at top with a silk ribbon; each sheet contains two month's dates-thus being a complete calendar for 1900. Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly, edited by Mrs. Frank Leslie, now publishes the best literature and illustrations that money and energy can obtain, from such authors and artists as Rudyard Kipling, William Dean Howells, A. Conan Doyle, Frank R. Stockton, Mary E. Wilkins, Stephen Crane, Ruth McEnery Stuart, S. R. Crockett, F. Hopkinson Smith, Joel Chandler Harris, Bret Harte, "Josiah Allen's Wife," Henry James, Will Carleton, Edgar Fawcett, and Rev. Dr. Henry van Dyke, A. B. Wenzell, H. Chandler Christy, F. Luis Mora, W. Granville Smith, Clifford Carlton, F. W. Read, Ch. Grunwald and others. Prospectus for 1900 and a pretty folder in colors sent free for the asking. Specimen copy for three 2 cent stamps. Frank Leslie Publishing House, 141-143 Fifth Ave., N. Y.

—No match, self-lighting gas burner, Gavett has them for sale. No matches, tape or burner left lighted to light from. Always ready. A little wonder.

GEO. W. COLE,
-:-UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,-:-
200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT

WANTS AND OFFERS.

UMBRELLA Found. 318 West Front St.

LOST—Plain gold wedding ring. Return to Press office. Reward. 12 29 2

WANTED—Young girl to assist in housework. Apply 916 West Front St. 12 30 3

WANTED—A girl for general housework; colored. Martine Watchung Ave.

WANTED—Good second-hand safe. Send particulars to P. O. Box 301, Plainfield. 12 30 3 eod

FRESH COW, calf by her side, for sale. Apply to W. H. Rogers, Washingtonville. 12 18 tf

FIVE ROOM house to let. 197 Somerset St. 12 28 3

FOR SALE—Good buffalo robe. Inquire J. P. Laire. 12 23 6

PURE cider vinegar for sale at C. J. Ackerman's, Clinton avenue. 8 5 w-s tf

FOR RENT—Central Hall, for occasional festivities or permanent occupation. Apply to Fred Dunn. w s f

FOR SALE or exchange for house and lot or small farm, a fine farm of 200 acres, well watered and timbered. Address Albert, care Daily Press. 12 15 eod tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Chas. L. Moffett, Attorney, cor. Park and North Aves. 12 11 eod tf

WANTED—A person to act as visiting agent for the Organized Aid Association and the Relief Association. Address, in writing, O. A. A., care Press. 12 8 3

WANTED—Experienced cook. Apply Superintendent Muhlenberg Hospital. 12 27 tf

TO LET—Large, well-heated room, with excellent board. 62 Sandford Ave. 12 26 6

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish Intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 22 tf

BARN to let on Second street, near Watchung avenue; $5 per month; two stalls and room for two wagons; pump in yard. Apply at Daily Press office. 11 28 tf

WANTED—Situations for first-class help. Call Mrs. Kyle's Intelligence office, 543 West Sixth street, corner Plainfield avenue. 12 8 24

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

WANTED—White girl, Protestant, as chambermaid and waitress; good references required. 219 Hillside Ave. 12 29 3

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL.
TELEPHONE 722.
MAZE EDWARDS, - Lessee and Manager.

Reserved Seat Tickets at Box Office, which is open daily from 9. a. m.

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS MATINEE,
One Solid Week, Commencing
MONDAY, DEC. 25 1899.
Re-engagement of the popular
Burrill Comedy Company,
Supporting LAURA H. LEAR,
in a repertoire of standard scenic productions—
For repertoire see reading notices.
Prices—10c, 20c and 30c. Seats now on sale.

New Year's Day. Monday, Jan. 1st.
GREAT ATTRACTION—2 Performances.
Matinee at 2:15 p. m. Night at 8:15.
Sie Hassan Ben Ali's
TOOZOONIN SPECIALTY CO.,
Headed by the MARY LOUIS TROUPE of
TOOZOONIN ARABS
Introduced by the Moorish Prince,
MOULI ALI,
Assisted by a High Class Company of
VAUDEVILLE ARTISTS.
PRICES—Matinee, 25 and 50c
Night, 25, 35, 50 and 75c.

Friday Night, Jan. 5, 1900.
A. Q. SCAMMON'S COMPANY IN THE GREAT SUCCESS
"THE . . : : SLEEPING : : . . CITY."
Realistic Pictures of New York Life After Dark.....
Midnight Happenings in the Great Metropolis! Sensational Scenes! Humorous Complications! Up-to-Date New York Singing and Dancing Specialties!
PRICES—25, 35, 50 and 75c.

SPECIAL!!
HAIR DRESSING,
SHAMPOOING,
MANICURING.
Until after the Holiday Season
MISS HOLMES,
Graduate of the New York School of Hair Dressing and Dermatology,
will make special rates for hair dressing in all the latest styles for street and evening; at parlors 75c. At ladies residences by appointment. Shampooing or Facial Massage and steaming (for eradicating imperfections of the skin) 75c. Manicuring 50c.
440 W. FRONT ST.

MASSAGE :-: VAPOR BATHS
CORNS REMOVED 25c.
M. V. STICKLE 149 East Fifth St.

WINES made only from selected grapes and cane sugar crystal. Twenty-five cents per bottle and upward. "THE VINEYARDS," Park Ave., corner Cooper St., Fanwood. 12 18 12

RECEIVER'S SALE.

The subscriber, the Receiver of the Union County Country Club appointed by the Chancellor, will, ON MONDAY, JANUARY 8th, A. D. 1900, AT THE CLUB-HOUSE, corner of West Seventh Street and Arlington Avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey, at 10 o'clock A. M., sell at public auction to the highest bidder, all the goods and chattels of said Club now on said premises, consisting of ten-pins, tenpin balls, 3 pool tables, pool balls, billiard balls, racks, cues, &c., carpets, rugs, sofas, tables, stands, hairs, shades, kitchen utensils, crockery, table linen, silver-plated ware, glassware, 3 sets scenery in Casino, folding theatre chairs, and all other goods and chattels belonging to said Club on said premises. Terms cash. ROBERT A. MEEKER, Receiver.
12 30 1 2 6

WANTED

The address of all AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS in Plainfield and vicinity. If you will send us your address on a postal card we will be glad to furnish you with our latest price list. Our line is complete, and goods are always fresh and our prices are the lowest.

Geo. W. Wrennick,
133 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.

C. H. RUGG
has removed his Coal Office to 150 East 4th St, near Watchung Ave.